

STUDENT DICTIONARY

UPPER INTERMEDIATE LEVEL

OVER 32,000 TERMS CLEARLY DEFINED

'The best on my desk ... so practical'
EL Gazette

second edition

EASIER
ENGLISH
STUDENT
DICTIONARY

Dictionary Titles in the Series:

Basic English Dictionary	1 9016 5996 8
Easier English Dictionary: Handy Pocket Format	0 7475 6625 9
English Study Dictionary	1 9016 5963 1
English Thesaurus for Students	1 9016 5931 3

Specialist Dictionaries:

Dictionary of Banking and Finance	0 7475 6685 2
Dictionary of Computing	1 9016 5946 1
Dictionary of Economics	0 7475 6632 1
Dictionary of Hotels, Tourism and Catering Management	1 9016 5999 2
Dictionary of Human Resources and Personnel Management	0 7475 6623 2
Dictionary of Marketing	0 7475 6621 6
Dictionary of Military Terms	1 9038 5620 5
Dictionary of Nursing	0 7475 6634 8
Dictionary of Science & Technology	0 7475 6620 8

Check your Vocabulary Workbooks:

Business	0 7475 6626 7
English for Academic Purposes	0 7475 6691 7
English for First Certificate Examination	1 9016 5911 9
English for the IELTS Examination	1 9016 5960 7

Visit our website for full details of all our books <http://www.bloomsbury.com/reference>

EASIER ENGLISH STUDENT DICTIONARY

General editor
P.H. Collin

BLOOMSBURY

A BLOOMSBURY REFERENCE BOOK

Originally published by Peter Collin Publishing

Third edition published 2003

Second edition published 2000

First published in Great Britain 1999

Bloomsbury Publishing Plc 38 Soho Square
London W1D 3HB

© Copyright P.H. Collin, F. Collin, S.M.H. Collin 1999, 2000
This edition © Bloomsbury Publishing 2003

All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced in any form or by any means without the permission of the publishers.

British Library Cataloguing-in-Publication Data

A catalogue record for this book is available from the British Library

ISBN 0 7475 66240

eISBN-13: 978-1-4081-0200-8

Text processing and computer typesetting by Bloomsbury Printed and bound in Italy by Legoprint

All papers used by Bloomsbury Publishing are natural, recyclable products made from wood grown in sustainable, well-managed forests.

The manufacturing processes conform to the environmental regulations of the country of origin.

GENERAL EDITOR

P. H. Collin

Editorial Contributors

Lesley Brown, Sandra Anderson, Stephen Curtis, Penelope Hands, Dinah Jackson, Alice Grandison, Isabel Griffiths, Imogen Kerr, Héloïse McGuinness

Text Production and Proofreading

Katy McAdam, Joel Adams, Daisy Jackson, Sarah Luszna, Sandra Anderson, Ruth Hillmore, Irene Lakhani, Fiona McIntosh

Preface

By 2050, it is estimated that fifty percent of the world's population will have some competence in English. Many of these people will regard themselves as improvers rather than learners and will have only occasional need to quickly check the meaning of a word in a dictionary.

This dictionary is a portable, easy-to-use quick reference tool for a large number of words and phrases, rather than a substitute for the detailed guidance of a grammar or course book. It includes commonly heard terms, with an indication of their relevant frequency, and many more terms from the worlds of work and communication and of modern society generally.

Each word is individually defined, and no words, not even adverbs, are listed without a definition. Examples and collocations are given for words that are likely to be used in practice, in order to provide patterns for the user's own production of English sentences. Less frequently encountered words, which only need to be recognised and understood, are given definitions only.

Each word, including compound words and phrasal verbs, has its own easy-to-find main entry in bold type. Each word has a pronunciation in the International Phonetic Alphabet. Typical phrases and idioms associated with the main term are shown in bold type and separately defined within the entry.

The meaning of the main senses of each word is given clearly and simply, using a limited and easily understood vocabulary. Meanings are grouped together by their part of speech.

Extra help is offered in Notes at the end of some entries. These include unusual inflected forms and warnings about words which sound the same but have different spellings and can be confused with each other. The major differences in US and British spelling are also noted. Synonyms and antonyms (opposites) are given for many words.

Parts of speech

abbr	(abbreviation)	interj	(interjection)	prefix
adj	(adjective)	modal verb		prep	(preposition)
adv	(adverb)	noun		pron	(pronoun) article		plural noun [always takes a		suffix conj	(conjunction)	plural verb]		verb

Symbols

The numbers ①, ②, ③ indicate words which are commonly used, from ① = the most basic and essential, ② = frequent and useful to know, to ③ = starting to develop a wider vocabulary.

- before a new part of speech
- before examples
- before a phrase or collocation
- ◊ before an idiom
- ▷ an explanation of the word will be found at the place indicated
- ▶ extra information will be found at the place indicated

Pronunciation

The following symbols have been used to show the pronunciation of the main words in the dictionary.

Stress has been indicated by a main stress mark (') and a secondary stress mark (,). Note that these are only guides, as the stress of the word changes according to its position in the sentence.

Vowels

æ	back
ɔ:	harm
ɒ	stop
ai	type
au	how
aɪə	hire
aʊə	hour
ɔɪ	course
ɔɪ	annoy
e	head
eə	fair
eɪ	make
eu	go
ɜ:	word
i:	keep
i	happy
ə	about
ɪ	fit
ɪə	near u	annual
u:	pool
ʊ	book
ʊə	tour
ʌ	shut

Consonants

b	buck
d	dead
ð	other
dʒ	jump
f	fare
g	gold
h	head
j	yellow
k	cab
l	leave
m	mix
n	nil
ŋ	sing
p	print
r	rest
s	save
ʃ	shop
t	take
tʃ	change
θ	theft
v	value
w	work
x	loch
ʒ	measure
z	zone

A

a /eɪ/, A noun the first letter of the alphabet, followed by B ○ Do you mean 'pendant' spelt with an 'a' or with an 'e'? □ from A to Z completely, all the way through a /ə, eɪ, ən, æn/ article 1. one ○ an enormous hole ○ a useful guidebook ○ She's bought a new car. ○ I want a cup of tea. ○ We had to wait an hour for the bus. 2. for each or to each ○ Apples cost 50p a kilo. ○ The car was travelling at 50 kilometres an hour. ○ He earns £100 a day. (NOTE: an is used before words beginning with a, e, i, o, u and with h if the h is not pronounced: an apple or an hour. a is used before words beginning with all other letters and also before u where u is pronounced /ju:/: a useful guidebook)

A&E abbr accident and emergency aback /ə'bæk/ adv □ taken aback surprised and shocked by something unpleasant ○ She was somewhat taken aback when he told her there was no train that evening.

abacus /ə'bækəs/ noun an object used for counting, consisting of a frame with balls which can be moved on bars

③ abandon /ə'bændən/ verb 1. to leave someone or something without help ○ The crew abandoned the sinking boat. Synonym desert 2. to give up or stop doing something ○ The company has decided to abandon the project. ○ We abandoned the idea of setting up a London office.

abandoned /ə'bændənd/ adj no longer used or lived in abandonment /ə'bændənmənt/ noun 1. the act or process of giving someone or something up 2. the act or process of leaving someone or something without help. Synonym desertion abashed /ə'bæʃt/ adj ashamed or embarrassed abate /ə'beɪt/ verb to become less strong or forceful (formal). Synonym decrease abattoir /'æbətwaɪ/ noun a place where animals are killed for meat. Synonym slaughterhouse abbey /'æbi/ noun 1. a place where a community of Christian monks or nuns live 2. a large church ○ Westminster Abbey abbreviate /ə'bri:vieɪt/ verb 1. to shorten a word by leaving out some of the letters 2. to shorten a piece of writing by leaving out part of it. Synonym cut abbreviated /ə'bri:vieɪtɪd/ adj shortened by having something left out abbreviation /ə,bri:vi'eɪʃ(ə)n/ noun a shortened form of a word. Compare acronym

ABC /,eɪ bi: 'sɪ:/ noun the alphabet (NOTE: The name comes from the first letters of the Roman alphabet.) □ it's as easy as ABC it's very easy abdicate /'æbdɪkeɪt/ verb to give up the position as king or queen of a country abdication /,æbdi'keɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the act of giving up the position of king or queen of a country abdomen /'æbdəmən/ noun the space in the front part of your body, containing the stomach and other organs abdominal /æb'dɒmɪn(ə)l/ adj referring to the abdomen abduct /æb'dʌkt/ verb to take someone away, usually by force. Synonym kidnap abduction /æb'dʌkʃən/ noun the act of taking someone away, usually by force. Synonym kidnap aberrant /æ'berənt/ adj not usual or as expected (formal). Synonym abnormal. Antonym normal aberration /,æbə'reɪʃ(ə)n/ noun an action or thing which is not usual or expected. Synonym abnormality abet /ə'bet/ verb to encourage or help someone to do something wrong or illegal (formal) □ aid (NOTE: abetting – abetted) abhorrence /əb'hɔːrəns/ noun a feeling of hatred or horror (formal) abhorrent /əb'hɔːrənt/ adj horrible or disgusting (formal) abide /ə'baɪd/ verb □ to abide by to follow rules or customs ○ You must abide by the rules of the game. ○ We have to abide by the decision of the referee. □ to abide by a promise to keep a promise abiding /ə'baɪdɪŋ/ adj lasting a long time (formal). Synonym enduring. Antonym transient

① ability /ə'biliti/ noun 1. the force or capacity to do something ○ She has many abilities but singing isn't one of them. (NOTE: The plural in this meaning is abilities.) □ I'll do it to the best of my ability I'll do it as well as I can 2. the fact of being clever ○ a person of great or outstanding ability abject /'æbdʒekt/ adj (formal) 1. very bad ○ abject poverty 2. making you feel ashamed ○ an abject apology ○ abject terror ablaze /ə'bleɪz/ adv 1. on fire ○ Thirty hectares of trees were ablaze. 2. shining brightly ○ At midnight the house was still ablaze with lights.

① able /'erib(ə)l/ adj 1. (NOTE: In this sense, able is only used with to and a verb.) □ to be able to do something to be capable of something or have the chance to do something ○ They weren't able to find the house. □ will you be able to come to the meeting? can you come to the meeting? 2. being strong enough or clever enough to do something ○ He's a very able general.

able-bodied /,erib(ə)l 'bodid/ adj fit and healthy ably /'eribli/ adv in a very competent or efficient way. Synonym capably abnormal /æb'nɔ:m(ə)l/ adj not normal. Synonym irregular. Antonym normal abnormality /,æbno:t'mæliti/ noun 1. the state of being abnormal 2. something which is abnormal (NOTE: The plural is abnormalities.)

abnormally /æb'nɔ:məlɪ/ adv in a way which is different from normal aboard /ə'bɔ:d/ adv, prep on a ship or vehicle ○ The passengers went aboard the 'Queen Elizabeth' at 10 p.m. ○ When the ship docked, customs officers came aboard to inspect the cargo. □ all aboard! everyone get on, please!

abode /'a'bəud/ noun the place where someone lives (literary) Synonym home □ of no fixed abode with no permanent address (formal) abolish /ə'bɒlɪʃ/ verb to get rid of something such as a law or right abolition /,æbə'lɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the act of abolishing something such as a law or right. Synonym elimination abominable /ə'bɒmɪnəb(ə)l/ adj very bad. Synonym dreadful abominably /ə'bɒmɪnəbli/ adv in a horrible way

Aboriginal /,æbə'rɪdʒən(ə)l/ adj referring to Aborigines ■ noun same as Aborigine

Aborigine /æbə'rɪdʒɪni/ noun an Australian who is a member of the peoples who lived in Australia before Europeans arrived. Also called Aboriginal abort /ə'bɔ:t/ verb 1. to stop something taking place 2. to perform an abortion on a foetus 3. (of a woman) to have an abortion or miscarriage abortion /ə'bɔ:tʃ(ə)n/ noun the ending of a woman's pregnancy before a live infant can be born abortive /ə'bɔ:tɪv/ adj attempted without success. Synonym unsuccessful. Antonym successful abound /ə'baund/ verb □ to abound in or with to be full of something (formal) ○ The forests abound in game.

① about /ə'baut/ prep 1. referring to something ○ He told me all about his operation. ○ What do you want to speak to the doctor about? 2. □ to be about to do something to be going to do something very soon ○ We were about to go home when you arrived. 3. approximately ○ I've been waiting for about four hours. ○ She's only about fifteen years old. □ how about, what about what do you think about (informal) ○ We can't find a new chairperson for the club – what about Sarah? □ how about a cup of tea? would you like a cup of tea? □ while you're about it at the same time as the thing you are doing ○ While you're about it, can you post this letter? ■ adv in various places ○ There were papers lying about on the floor. ○ There is a lot of flu about during the winter months.

about-turn /əbaʊt'tɜ:n/, about-face /əbaʊt'feɪs/ noun 1. an order to soldiers to turn to face in the opposite direction 2. an act of changing your plans or policy to the opposite of what you did before. Synonym U-turn ① above /ə'bʌv/ prep 1. higher than ○ The plane was flying above the clouds. ○ The temperature in the street was above 30 degrees. ○ At prices above £2.00, nobody will buy it. 2. older than ○ If you are above 18, you have to pay the full fare. 3. louder than ○ I couldn't hear the telephone above the noise of the drills. 4. □ they're living above their means they're living more extravagantly than they can afford ■ adv earlier on in a book or higher up on a page ○ See the section on computers on page 25 above. ■ noun □ the above the people mentioned earlier in a text ○ All the above have passed the test.

above board /ə,bəv 'bɔ:d/ adj openly honest and legal abrasion /ə'breɪʒ(ə)n/ noun 1. the action of rubbing off the surface of something 2. an area of skin damaged by rubbing against something hard ○ There were cuts and abrasions all over her legs.

abrasive /ə'breɪsɪv/ adj 1. rude and impatient in dealing with people 2. which rubs away a surface ■ noun a substance which rubs away a surface ○ Avoid using abrasives to clean this surface.

abreast /ə'brest/ adv 1. side by side 2. □ to keep abreast of something to keep up to date with something ○ She wants to keep abreast of the latest developments in cancer therapy.

abridge /ə'brɪdʒ/ verb to shorten a text such as a book or play abridged /ə'brɪdʒd/ adj shortened by removing parts of a text abridgement /ə'brɪdʒmənt/ noun a shortened form of a text such as a book or play

② abroad /ə'brɔ:d/ adv in or to another country ○ They've gone abroad on holiday. ○ Holidays abroad are more and more popular. Synonym overseas abrupt /ə'brʌpt/ adj 1. sudden 2. using few words and not being very polite abruptly /ə'brʌptli/ adv 1. suddenly, without giving any warning 2. briefly and impolitely abruptness /ə'brʌptnəs/ noun 1. the fact of happening suddenly 2. the fact of using few words and not being very polite abscess /'æbses/ noun a collection of pus in the body. Synonym boil (NOTE: The plural is abscesses.)

abscond /ə'bskɒnd/ verb 1. to leave somewhere suddenly and secretly (formal) 2. to escape from prison (formal) abseil /'æbseil/ verb to come down a cliff or wall using a fixed rope wound around your body

② absence /'æbsəns/ noun 1. the fact of being away from a place ○ She did not explain her absence from the meeting. ○ The former president was sentenced in his absence. □ in the absence of because someone is not there ○ In the absence of the chairman, his deputy took the chair. 2. because of a lack of something ○ In the absence of any town maps we had to ask our way.

③ absent adj /'æbsənt/ not there ■ verb /æb'sent/ □ to absent yourself from to stay away from a class or meeting deliberately (formal) absentee /,æbsən'ti:/ noun a person who is not there absenteeism /,æbs(ə)n'ti:ɪz(ə)m/ noun the act or fact of deliberately staying away from work absentee landlord /,æbs(ə)nti: 'lændlə:d/ noun an owner of a property who lives a long way away and uses other people to deal with those who live in or use it absent-minded /,æbs(ə)nt 'maɪndɪd/ adj often forgetting things. Synonym forgetful

② absolute /'æbsələut/ adj complete or total

① absolutely /'æbsələutli/ adv 1. completely or totally ○ I am absolutely sure I left the keys in my coat pocket. 2. yes, of course ○ Did you build it yourself? – Absolutely!

absolute majority /,æbsəlju:t mə'dʒɔ:riti/ noun a majority over all the others counted together absolve /ə'b'zolv/ verb to remove blame for a sin from someone. Synonym pardon

③ absorb verb /ə'b'zɔ:b/ 1. to take in something such as a liquid ○ The water should be absorbed by the paper. ○ Salt absorbs moisture from the air. 2. to make something part of something larger ○ When we took over the company we absorbed most of their staff. 3. to learn or accept something new ○ When I started my new job there was a lot of information to absorb. 4. to reduce a shock ○ The car's springs are supposed to absorb any shock from the road surface. ■ adj □ absorbed in totally interested in ○ He was so absorbed in his newspaper that he didn't notice that the toast had burnt.

absorbent /ə'b'zɔ:bənt/ adj which can absorb something such as a liquid. Synonym porous absorbing /ə'b'zɔ:bɪŋ/ adj very interesting. Synonym fascinating. Antonym boring absorption /ə'b'zɔ:pʃən/ noun 1. the act of absorbing something or of being absorbed 2. the fact of being very interested in something abstain /ə'b'stein/ verb 1. deliberately not to do something (NOTE: You abstain from doing something.) 2. not to vote on a matter abstemious /ə'b'sti:miəs/ adj not drinking or eating too much. Antonym self-indulgent abstention /ə'b'stenʃən/ noun 1. a person who deliberately does not vote on a matter 2. the act or fact of deliberately not voting on a matter abstinence /'æbstɪnəns/ noun the act or fact of deliberately not doing something, especially not drinking alcohol abstract /'æbstræk:t/ adj 1. which exists only in the mind rather than in the physical world 2. (of art) which does not copy things exactly as they appear ■ noun 1. something which exists in the mind only □ in the abstract in a general way 2. an abstract painting ○ He started by painting abstracts and then turned to portraits. 3. a short form of a report or document ○ to make an abstract of a report abstract noun /,æbstræk:t 'na:n/ noun a noun that refers to an idea or quality, e.g. 'truth' abstruse /æb'strju:s/ adj difficult to understand. Synonym obscure absurd /ə'b'sɜ:d/ adj ridiculous absurdity /ə'b'sɜ:dɪti/ noun the fact of being absurd abundance /ə'bʌndəns/ noun a large quantity. Synonym profusion. Antonym scarcity □ in abundance in large quantities (formal) ○ The fridge was full, so we had food and drink in abundance.

abundant /ə'bʌndənt/ adj existing in large quantities. Synonym plentiful. Antonym scarce abundantly /ə'bʌndənt(ə)li/ adv 1. to a very large degree 2. in large or more than large enough quantities

② abuse /ə'bju:s/, /ə'bju:z/ noun 1. a bad use ○ The minister's action is an abuse of power. 2. rude words ○ The people being arrested shouted abuse at the police. 3. very bad treatment ○ sexual abuse of children. ○ She suffered physical abuse in prison. (NOTE: [all noun senses] no plural) ■ verb 1. to make the wrong use of something ○ He abused his position as finance director. □ he abused my confidence he took advantage of my trust in him 2. to treat someone very badly, usually sexually ○ As a child, she was abused by her uncle. 3. to say rude things about someone ○ The crowd sang songs abusing the president's wife.

abusive /ə'bju:siv/ adj 1. rude and insulting ○ an abusive letter. ○ He had too much to drink and became abusive. 2. treating someone in a violent or cruel way, or referring to a violent and cruel situation ○ an abusive father ○ an abusive relationship abysmal /ə'bɪzm(ə)l/ adj extremely bad. Synonym terrible. Antonym superb

abysmally /ə'bɪzməli/ adv extremely badly abyss /ə'bɪs/ noun 1. a deep hole (NOTE: The plural is abysses.) 2. a horrible or frightening situation (NOTE: no plural)

AC abbr alternating current

② academic /,ækə'demɪk/ adj 1. referring to study at a university ○ Members of the academic staff received a letter from the principal. 2. only in theory, not in practice ○ It is only of academic interest. ■ noun a university teacher ○ All her friends are academics.

academically /,ækə'demɪkli/ adv with regard to study in general, or to teaching at a university academic year /,ækədəmɪk 'jɪə/ noun a period which starts in September and finishes in August academy /ə'kædəmi/ noun 1. a college where specialised subjects are taught 2. a secondary school in Scotland that chooses its pupils on academic ability 3. a private society for the study of art or science accelerate /ə'kسل'reɪt/ verb 1. to go faster 2. to make something go faster. Antonym decelerate acceleration /ək'selə'reɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. the ability to go at a faster speed 2. the action of going at a faster speed

③ accelerator /ək'seləreɪtə/ noun a pedal which makes a car go faster accent /'æksoն/ noun 1. a particular way of pronouncing ○ He speaks with an American accent. 2. stress in speaking ○ In the word 'haberdashery' the accent is on the first syllable. 3. a mark over a letter indicating a particular way of pronouncing it ○ 'Résumé' has two accents. 4. emphasis ○ The accent is on youth unemployment.

accentuate /æk'sentʃueɪt/ verb to put emphasis on something. Synonym emphasise. Antonym play down

① accept /ək'sept/ verb 1. to take and keep a present ○ We hope you will accept this little gift. 2. to say 'yes' or to agree to something ○ She accepted the offer of a job in Australia. ○ I invited her to come with us and she accepted. 3. to agree to handle something ○ 'All major credit cards accepted.' ○ Do you accept traveller's cheques? (NOTE: Do not confuse with except.)

③ acceptable /ək'septəb(ə)l/ adj easily accepted ○ A small gift of flowers would be very acceptable. ○ The offer is not acceptable to the vendor.

③ acceptance /ək'septəns/ noun 1. the act of taking something which is offered 2. the act or fact of agreeing to do something

③ accepted /ək'septɪd/ adj which is taken as correct by most people. Synonym conventional. Antonym unconventional

① access /'ækses/ noun 1. a way of getting to a place ○ The concert hall has access for wheelchairs. ○ At present there is no access to the site. 2. □ to have (easy) access to to be able to get to a place or obtain something ○ The company has access to substantial funds.

■ verb to get information from a computer ○ She tried to access the address list. Synonym get into access course /'ækses kɔ:s/ noun a course of study designed to qualify someone for higher education accessible /ək'sesɪb(ə)l/ adj 1. easily reached ○ They live on a farm which is not accessible by car. 2. easy to read or understand ○ Her style of writing is quite accessible. 3. suitable for disabled people ○ accessible toilets ○ accessible holidays accession /ək'seʃ(ə)n/ noun □ accession to the throne the act of becoming king or queen ○ On his accession to the throne, he took the title Alexander III.

③ accessory /ək'sesəri/ noun 1. a useful piece of equipment, added to others 2. small items of clothing □ had a brown silk dress with yellow accessories had a dress worn with items such as a yellow belt, handbag, gloves, and shoes 3. a person who helps someone commit a crime (NOTE: The plural is accessories.)

① accident /'æksɪd(ə)nt/ noun 1. an unpleasant thing which happens and causes damage or injury ○ He missed his flight, because his bus had an accident. ○ She was involved in a car accident and had to go to hospital. 2. something that happens unexpectedly □ by accident without being planned or expected ○ He found the missing papers by accident. Synonym accidentally accidental /,æksi'dent(ə)l/ adj which happens by chance ○ an accidental meeting ○ accidental damage ○ His death was not accidental. Synonym unintentional ■ noun (in music) an additional sharp, flat or natural accidentally /,æksi'dent(ə)li/ adv by chance acclaim /ə'kleɪm/ noun great praise. Synonym approval. Antonym disapproval ■ verb to praise someone or something publicly ○ She was acclaimed as the best novelist of the decade. Antonym criticise acclaimed /ə'kleɪmd/ adj much praised, especially publicly acclimatise /ə'klaimətəɪz/, acclimatize verb (NOTE: The US term is acclimate.) □ to become acclimatized to to become used to something ○ Gradually, the animals became acclimated to their new habitat. ○ Did you ever become acclimatized to living in Hong Kong?

accolade /'ækələɪd/ noun a thing given to someone as a sign of praise. Synonym tribute

③ accommodate /ə'kɒmədeɪt/ verb to provide someone with a place to live accommodating /ə'kɒmədeɪtɪŋ/ adj taking trouble to help people. Synonym helpful. Antonym uncooperative

② accommodation /ə,kɒmə'deɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. a place to live ○ All the available accommodation in the town has been taken by journalists. ○ Visitors have difficulty in finding hotel accommodation during the summer. 2. an agreement in which both sides change their demands (formal) ○ He reached an accommodation with his creditors.

accompaniment /ə'kʌmp(ə)nɪmənt/ noun 1. a thing which accompanies something ○ They served cranberry sauce as an accompaniment to the turkey. 2. music played to accompany someone singing or playing an instrument ○ a piece for violin with piano accompaniment □ to the accompaniment of while being accompanied by ○ He sang a rude song to the accompaniment of loud whistles from the audience.

② accompany /ə'kʌmp(ə)nɪ/ verb 1. to go with someone or something 2. to play a musical instrument when someone else plays or sings (NOTE: accompanied by someone or something) accomplice /ə'kʌmplɪs/ noun a person who helps another person to commit a crime accomplish /ə'kʌmplɪʃ/ verb to do something successfully. Synonym achieve accomplished /ə'kʌmplɪʃt/ adj talented or skilled accomplishment /ə'kʌmplɪʃmənt/ noun the successful finishing of something after a lot of work

accord /ə'kɔ:d/ noun 1. an agreement □ with one accord with the agreement of everyone 2. □ of your own accord without being ordered or forced by anyone ○ Of his own accord he decided to sell the business and retire to a Greek island. ■ verb 1. to give something to someone as an honour 2. □ to accord with to agree with (formal) ○ His way of behaving does not accord with his principles.

③ accordance /ə'kɔ:dns/ noun □ in accordance with in agreement with or following ○ In accordance with your instructions we have sold the house.

accordingly /ə'kɔ:dnli/ adv as a result of something just mentioned

① according to /ə'kɔ:dn tu:/ prep as someone says or writes ○ The washing machine was installed according to the manufacturer's instructions. ○ According to the witness, the car was going too fast. ■ adv in relation to ○ The teachers have separated the children into classes according to their ages.

accost /'ɒkɒst/ verb to approach or stop someone in an aggressive or suggestive way

① account /ə'kaʊnt/ noun 1. same as bank account 2. (in a shop) an arrangement which a customer makes with a shop to buy goods and pay for them later ○ Put it on my account or Charge it to my account. 3. □ on account as part of a total bill □ to pay money on account to pay part of a bill 4. □ I was worried on her account I was afraid something might happen to her □ on no account not under any circumstances 5. □ to take something into account, to take account of something to consider something ○ We have to take the weather into account. 6. a story of how something happened ○ They listened to his account of the journey. □ by all accounts as everyone says ○ By all accounts, she is a very attractive woman. 7. □ the accounts of a business, a company's accounts detailed records of the money a company receives and pays out □ to keep the accounts to write a record of money received or paid out in a book for that purpose ■ verb (formal) □ to account for to explain something that has happened ○ He was asked to account for all his expenditure.

accountability /ə,kaʊntə'biliti/ noun the fact of being accountable for something accountable /ə'kaʊntəb(ə)l/ adj having to explain what you have done, especially how you have spent or received money (NOTE: You are accountable to someone for something.)

accountancy /ə'kaʊntənsi/ noun the study or the work of being an accountant (NOTE: The US term is accounting in this meaning.)

③ accountant /ə'kaʊntənt/ noun a person who deals with financial accounts. Synonym bookkeeper accounting /ə'kaʊntɪŋ/ noun the work of recording money paid, received, borrowed or owed accredit /ə'kredit/ verb to make someone an official representative. Synonym recognise accredited /ə'kreditɪd/ adj given official approval accrue /ə'kru:/ verb to accumulate. Antonym dwindle

③ accumulate /ə'kju:mjuleɪt/ verb to grow larger by addition. Synonym build up, accrue accumulation /ə,kju:mju'leɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. the action of accumulating something 2. an amount of something built up over time accuracy /'ækjʊrəsi/ noun the fact of being correct in every detail

② accurate /'ækjʊrət/ adj correct in all details ○ Are the figures accurate? ○ We asked them to make an accurate copy of the plan.

Synonym precise. Antonym inaccurate accurately /'ækjʊrətlɪ/ adv correctly accusation /,ækjʊ'zeɪʃ(ə)n/ noun a statement that someone has done wrong. Synonym allegation accusative /ə'kju:zətɪv/ noun the grammatical case which shows the object of a verb

■ adj in the accusative

③ accuse /ə'kju:z/ verb to say that someone has done something wrong ○ The police accused her of stealing the money. (NOTE: You accuse someone of a crime or of doing something.)

accusing /ə'kju:zɪŋ/ adj □ in an accusing tone as if you are accusing someone of something accusingly /ə'kju:zɪŋli/ adv as if you are accusing someone of something wrong accustom /ə'kəstəm/ verb □ to accustom yourself to something to gradually accept that something is normal or usual ○ They had to accustom themselves to working in Swedish.

accustomed /ə'kəstəmd/ adj normal or usual □ accustomed to used to ○ She was accustomed to walking her dog in the park ev- ery morning. ○ It took him some time to become accustomed to driving on the right-hand side of the road.

ace /eɪs/ noun 1. a playing card with one spot 2. someone who is excellent at doing something 3. a service in tennis which the opponent cannot return

③ ache /eɪk/ noun a pain that lasts for a while. ▶ toothache, headache. Synonym pain ■ verb 1. to hurt or feel pain that lasts for a while (formal) 2. to feel a painful desire. Synonym long

① achieve /ə'tʃi:v/ verb to succeed in doing something ○ What do you hope to achieve by writing to your MP? ○ He achieved all his objectives. Synonym attain

② achievement /ə'tʃi:vment/ noun a thing which has been done successfully ○ Coming sixth was a great achievement, since he had never raced before. ○ She is excessively modest about her achievements. Synonym attainment

Achilles' heel /ə,kili:z 'hi:l/ noun a weak spot where you can be hurt

Achilles' tendon /ə,kili:z 'tendən/ noun the tendon at the back of the ankle

② acid /'æsɪd/ noun a chemical substance containing hydrogen that forms a salt when combined with an alkali, and turns litmus paper red. Antonym alkali ■ adj sour ○ the acid taste of lemons. Synonym acidic acidic /ə'sɪdɪk/ adj which has a sour taste. Synonym acid acidity /ə'sɪdɪtɪ/ noun 1. the percentage of acid in something 2. bitter taste acid rain /,æsɪd 'reɪn/ noun polluted rain which kills trees acid test /,æsɪd 'test/ noun a test which will show the true value of something

③ acknowledge /ə'kənlɪdʒ/ verb 1. to say that something has been received 2. to accept that something is true. Synonym admit acknowledgement /ə'kənlɪdʒmənt/ noun 1. a reply to say that something has been received 2. an admission that something is true acme /'ækmi/ noun the highest point. Synonym peak. Antonym nadir acne /'ækni/ noun spots on the skin, usually on the face, neck and shoulders acolyte /'ækələt/ noun 1. a person who helps a priest during religious ceremonies 2. a person who supports someone else, often without criticising their behaviour or opinions acorn /'eɪkɔ:n/ noun the fruit of an oak tree acoustic /ə'ku:stɪk/ adj referring to sound acoustics /ə'ku:stɪks/ plural noun the ability to carry sound without changing its quality ○ The acoustics in the concert hall are good.

acquaint /ə'kweɪnt/ verb 1. □ to be acquainted with someone or something have some knowledge of someone or something (formal) ○ Is he acquainted with the details of the case? ○ She is acquainted with my father. 2. to inform someone acquaintance /ə'kweɪntəns/ noun 1. knowledge of someone ○ My first acquaintance with him was in Hong Kong in 1997. □ to make the acquaintance of to get to know someone for the first time ○ I made her acquaintance when we were at college together. 2. a person you know slightly ○ She has many acquaintances in the publishing industry but no real friends.

acquiesce /ækwi'es/ verb to agree to something without protesting about it (formal). Synonym accept. Antonym resist acquiescence /ækwi'es(ə)ns/ noun agreement without protest. Synonym acceptance

② acquire /ə'kwaɪə/ verb to obtain or to get something

③ acquisition /ækwi'zɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. the act of acquiring something 2. a thing which has been acquired acquisitive /ə'kwɪzɪtɪv/ adj always wanting to acquire new things. Synonym greedy acquit /ə'kwɪt/ verb 1. to state formally that someone is not guilty 2. □ to acquit yourself well to do well when trying something difficult or for the first time ○ She said she had never played tennis before, but in the event she acquitted herself very well.

acquittal /ə'kwɪtl(ə)l/ noun a decision by a court that someone is not guilty acre /eɪkə/ noun a measure of land, 4840 square yards or 0.4047 hectares (NOTE: The plural is used with figures, except before a noun: a farm of 250 acres or a 250-acre farm) acrid /'ækrid/ adj with a bitter smell acrimonious /,ækri'mənɪəs/ adj angry and bitter. Synonym hostile. Antonym amicable acrobat /'ækrobæt/ noun a person who performs difficult and exciting physical movements for the public acrobatic /,ækrobætɪk/ adj 1. moving in a difficult and exciting way, like an acrobat. Synonym gymnastic 2. lively and energetic. Synonym agile acrobatics /,ækrobætɪks/ plural noun 1. acrobatic movements 2. skills used in doing something difficult ○ We enjoyed the verbal acrobatics as they tried to explain their actions.

acronym /'ækro'nɪm/ noun a word made from the first letters of the name of something ○ NATO and AIDS are both acronyms. Compare abbreviation

① across /ə'krɒs/ prep 1. from one side to the other ○ Don't run across the road without looking to see if there is any traffic coming. 2. on the other side of ○ He called to her from across the street. □ their house is across the street from ours it is opposite our house ■ adv from one side to the other ○ The river is only twenty feet across. ○ The stream is very narrow – you can easily jump across. across-the-board /ə'krɒs ðə 'bɔ:d/ adj, adv having the same effect on everyone or everything acrylic /ə'krɪlik/ noun a synthetic substance used to make many products, including fibres ■ adj made from acrylic acrylic paint /ə'krɪlk peɪnt/ noun a paint used by artists, made from acrylic ① act /ækt/ noun 1. a thing which is done ○ the many acts of kindness she had shown him over the years □ we caught him or her in the act we caught him or her as he or she was doing it 2. a distinct part of a play or show ○ Act II of the play takes place in the garden. ○ The circus has acts by clowns and wild animals. □ to get your act together to organise yourself properly (informal) ○ If they don't get their act together, they'll miss their train. 3. a law passed by Parliament ○ an act to ban the sale of weapons ■ verb 1. to take part in a performance such as a film or play ○ She's acted on TV many times. ○ He acted the part of Hamlet in the film. 2. to do something ○ You will have to act quickly if you want to stop the fire. ○ She acted in a very responsible way. □ to act on behalf of to do something official for someone or represent someone ○ The lawyer is acting on behalf of the old lady's family. □ to act as to do the work of ○ The thick curtain acts as a screen to cut out noise from the street. 3. to behave ○ acting very strangely 4. to take effect ○ How long will the drug take to act?

acting /'æktɪŋ/ adj taking the place of someone who is absent. Synonym temporary. Antonym permanent ■ noun the profession of an actor

① action /'ækʃən/ noun 1. something done, or the doing of something ○ What action are you going to take to prevent accidents? □ out of action not working ○ The car has been out of action for a week. ○ The goalkeeper broke his leg and will be out of action for some time. 2. what happens in a performance such as a play or film ○ The action of the play takes place in a flat in London. 3. an instruction to start recording a film ○ Camera, lights, action! 4. a case in a law court where someone tries to get money from someone else ○ to bring an action for damages against someone ○ an action for libel or a libel action □ to take legal action against someone to take someone to court to try to get money from him or her action-packed /'ækʃən pækt/ adj with a large number of exciting events action replay /,ækʃən 'ri:pleɪ/ noun a section of a sporting event which is shown again on TV at a slower speed, so that the action can be examined carefully

③ activate /'æktrɪveɪt/ verb 1. to make something start to work 2. to start a chemical reaction

② active /'æktrɪv/ adj 1. energetic or positive ○ He didn't play an active part in the attack on the police station. ○ My grandmother is still very active at the age of 88. 2. (of a volcano) which is erupting or liable to erupt ○ Scientists think the volcano is no longer active. 3. □ on active service, on active duty US serving in the armed services in time of war ○ He was killed on active service. 4. the form of a verb which shows that the subject is doing something (NOTE: If you say 'the car hit him' the verb is active, but in 'he was hit by the car' it is passive.)

② actively /'æktrɪvlɪ/ adv in an active way. Synonym vigorously

③ activist /'æktrɪvɪst/ noun a person who vigorously supports a political party. Synonym campaigner

① activity /'æktrɪvɪtɪ/ noun 1. the act or fact of being active ○ There is a possibility of volcanic activity. 2. something that someone does to occupy or pass time pleasantly ○ Children are offered various holiday activities – sailing, windsurfing and water-skiing. (NOTE: The plural in this meaning is activities.)

activity holiday /'æktrɪvɪtɪ 'hɒlɪdeɪ/ noun a holiday taken to do a leisure activity such as painting or rock-climbing

Act of Parliament /,ækɪt əv 'pa:ləmənt/ noun a law which has been passed by parliament actor /'ækٹə/, actress /'æktrəs/ noun a person who acts in the theatre, in films, on TV (NOTE: The plural of actress is actresses.)

① actual /'ækʃuəl/ adj real ○ It looks quite small but the actual height is 5 metres. ○ Her actual words were much stronger. Antonym imaginary □ in actual fact really ○ In spite of what the newspapers said, in actual fact he did win first prize.

① actually /'ækʃuəli/ adv really ○ It looks quite small, but actually it is over 5 metres high. ○ He said he was ill, but actually he wanted to go to the football match.

actuary /'ækٹjuəri/ noun a person who calculates insurance rates acumen /'ækjʊmən/ noun the ability to make clever and successful decisions. Synonym insight acupuncture /'ækjupənʃəktʃə/ noun a medical treatment that comes from China, in which needles are stuck through the skin into nerve centres in order to reduce or remove pain or to treat an illness, etc.

acupuncturist /'ækjʊ,pʌŋktʃərɪst/ noun a person who practises acupuncture acute /'ækjʊ:t/ adj 1. (of serious illness or pain) which starts suddenly and lasts for a short time ○ a child with acute bronchitis ○ The pain was very acute. Compare chronic 2. able to notice something easily ○ Dogs have an acute sense of smell.

acute accent /,ækjʊ:t 'æk:sənt/ noun a mark sloping forwards over a vowel, indicating a change of sound acute angle /,ækjʊ:t 'æŋgəl/ noun an angle which is less than 90° acutely /'ækjʊ:tli/ adv to a high degree. Synonym very. Antonym slightly ③ ad /æd/ noun an advertisement (informal) ○ If you want to sell your car quickly, put an ad in the paper.

AD abbr Anno Domini (used in dates) ○ Claudius invaded Britain in 43 AD. (NOTE: Latin for 'in the year of our Lord'. For dates before the birth of Christ, use BC.)

adage /'ædɪdʒ/ noun a traditional statement about an aspect of everyday life ○ According to the old adage, 'time is a great healer'. Synonym saying adagio /'ædə:dʒəʊl/ noun a slow piece of music (NOTE: The plural is adagios.)

Adam /'ædəm/ noun □ I don't know him or her from Adam I have no idea who he or she is (informal) adamant /'ædəmənt/ adj with firm opinions. Synonym obstinate. Antonym amenable

Adam's apple /,ædəmz 'æp(ə)l/ noun a piece of cartilage that makes a lump in the front of the throat, which can sometimes be seen in men

③ adapt /'ædæpt/ verb 1. to change something to be suitable for a new situation ○ She adapted the story for TV. ○ The car has been adapted for disabled drivers. 2. to change your behaviour to fit into a new situation ○ We'll all have to learn to adapt to the new system.

adaptability /ə,dæptə'biliti/ noun being able to change or be changed easily to new situations or uses. Synonym flexibility adaptable /ə,dæptəb(ə)l/ adj able to change or be changed easily to deal with new situations or uses. Synonym flexible

③ adaptation /,ædæp'teɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. a change which fits new situations or uses 2.

something such as a film or play which has been developed from another

① add /æd/ verb 1. to make a total of numbers ○ If you add all these numbers together it should make fifty. (NOTE: Adding is usually shown by the sign + : 10 + 4 = 14.) 2. to join to something else ○ Interest is added to the account monthly. ○ Add two cupfuls of sugar. ○ Put a teabag into the pot and add boiling water. ○ By building the annexe, they have added thirty rooms to the hotel. 3. to say or to write something more ○ I have nothing to add to what I put in my letter. ○ She added that we still owed her some money for work she did last month.

added /'ædɪd/ adj included as well as what there is already. Synonym extra adder /'ædə/ noun a type of poisonous European snake. Also called viper addict /'ædɪkt/ noun a person who cannot stop doing something addicted /'ædɪktɪd/ adj unable to stop doing something addiction /'ædɪkʃən/ noun the fact or state of being unable to stop doing something. Synonym habit addictive /'ædɪktɪv/ adj 1. which people can become addicted to 2. which you can get used to doing

① addition /ə'dɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. the action of adding figures to make a total ○ You don't need a calculator to do a simple addition. 2. a thing or person added ○ the latest addition to the family ○ He showed us the additions to his collection of paintings. 3. □ in addition as well □ in addition to as well as ○ There are twelve registered letters to be sent in addition to this parcel.

② additional /ə'dɪʃ(ə)nəl/ adj included as well as what there is already. Synonym extra

② additionally /ə'dɪʃ(ə)nəli/ adv as well as what there is already additive /'ædɪtɪv/ noun a substance which is added to something, especially to food to preserve it or alter the taste or colour

① address /ə'dres/ noun 1. a set of details of the number of a house, the name of a street and the town where someone lives or works ○ What is the doctor's address? ○ Our address is: 1 Cambridge Road, Teddington, Middlesex. 2. a formal speech ○ He made an address to the Parliament. (NOTE: The plural is addresses.) ■ verb 1. to write details such as someone's name, street and town on a letter or parcel ○ That letter is addressed to me – don't open it! 2. to speak or write to someone ○ Please address your inquiries to the information office. ○ Teachers are not normally addressed as 'Sir' in the USA. 3. to make a formal speech to a group ○ The chairman addressed the meeting. 4. to examine a problem ○ This is an important issue which must be addressed at the next meeting.

○ The committee failed to address the question of sexual harassment.

address book /ə'dres buk/ noun a special book with columns printed in such a way that names, addresses and phone numbers can be entered address list /ə'dres list/ noun a list of names and addresses of people and companies add up /,æd 'ʌp/ verb 1. to put several figures together to make a total □ the figures do not add up the total given is not correct 2. □ it doesn't add up it doesn't make sense, it is confusing ○ The story she told the police simply did not add up.

add up to /,æd 'ʌp tu/ verb to make a total of something. Synonym come to adenoids /'ædɪmɔɪdz/ plural noun small masses of tissue in the back of the throat adept /'ædəpt/ adj skilful at doing something ○ She's adept at avoiding paying her bills. Antonym inept ■ noun a person who is skilful at doing something (formal)

③ adequate /'ædɪkweɪt/ adj enough to fulfil a purpose ○ We don't have adequate supplies for the whole journey. ○ His salary is barely adequate to support his family.

adhere /əd'hɪər tu:/ verb to attach physically to something. Synonym stick □ to adhere to something to keep to a rule, agreement or promise adherent /əd'hɪərənt/ noun a person who supports a policy or a religion. Synonym supporter adhesion /əd'hi:ʒ(ə)n/ noun the ability of something to stick to something else adhesive /əd'hi:sɪv/ adj which sticks ■ noun a substance which sticks things together. Synonym glue ad hoc adj /æd 'hɒk/ arranged for a specific case ○ an ad hoc decision ○ We order the books on an ad hoc basis. ■ adv as necessary, without planning in advance ○ I did it ad hoc.

ad infinitum /æd infɪ'naitəm/ adv for ever. Synonym endlessly

adj, adj. abbr 1. adjective 2. adjunct adjacent /əd'ʒeɪənt/ adj very close to or almost touching something □ adjacent to very near to ○ The house is adjacent to the garden centre.

adjectival /'ædʒɪktɪvəl/ adj used like an adjective

① adjective /'ædʒɪktɪv/ noun a word which describes a noun ○ In the phrase 'a big black cloud', 'big' and 'black' are both adjectives.

adjoin /ə'dʒɔɪn/ verb to be close to or touching something □ adjoining rooms rooms which are next to each other ○ They asked to be put in adjoining rooms.

adjourn /ə'dʒɜːn/ verb to stop something such as a meeting or court proceedings in order to continue at a later time or date □ let's adjourn to the bar let's go on talking over a drink in the bar adjournment /ə'dʒɜːnmənt/ noun the act of stopping a meeting or court proceedings in order to continue at a later time or date adjudicate /ə'dʒuːdɪkeɪt/ verb 1. to give an official decision in a legal matter or a disagreement 2. to act as a judge in a competition adjudication /ə,dʒuːdɪkeɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. an official decision in a legal matter or a disagreement 2. the judging of a competition adjudicator /ə'dʒuːdɪkeɪtə/ noun 1. a person who gives an official decision in a legal matter or a disagreement 2. a person who judges a competition adjunct /'ædʒʌŋkt/ noun something which is joined to something else

③ adjust /ə'dʒʌst/ verb 1. to make a slight change to something 2. □ to adjust to to change and adapt to something ○ How are you adjusting to living in a tropical climate?

adjustable /ə'dʒastəb(ə)l/ adj which can be adjusted. Synonym adaptable

③ adjustment /ə'dʒastmənt/ noun a slight change to make something work well. Synonym modification ad-lib /'æd 'lɪb/ adj, adv spoken without using a prepared set of words ○ a few ad-lib remarks ■ verb to speak without a prepared set of words. Synonym improvise (NOTE: ad-libbing – ad-libs – ad-libbed) admin /'ædmɪn/ noun 1. the work of administration 2. staff dealing with administration (NOTE: singular or plural verb)

administer /'æd'mɪnistə/ verb 1. to manage or organise something 2. to give someone a drug or treatment 3. □ to administer an oath to someone to make someone swear an oath (formal)

② administration /'æd'mɪnɪ'streɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. the act of organising something such as a company or office ○ Hospital administration must be improved. ○ Who's in charge of administration here? 2. a particular government ○ the Bush Administration 3. □ the administration of justice providing justice

③ administrative /'æd'mɪnɪstrətɪv/ adj referring to administration

③ administrator /'æd'mɪnistreɪtə/ noun 1. a ruler or governor 2. a person who runs an organisation admirable /'ædm(ə)rəb(ə)l/ adj which must be approved of and praised. Synonym praiseworthy admirably /'ædm(ə)rəblɪ/ adv to a remarkable or excellent degree admiral /'ædm(ə)rəl/ noun a high ranking officer in a country's navy admiration /,ædmə'reɪʃ(ə)n/ noun respect for someone or something. Synonym regard. Antonym disapproval

③ admire /əd'maɪə/ verb 1. to consider someone or something with approval ○ a much-admired chief minister ○ He was admired for his skill as a violinist. Synonym respect 2. to look at someone or something you find attractive ○ We admired their garden. ○ She admired and envied their slim figures.

admirer /əd'maɪərə/ noun a person who loves someone or is attracted by someone. Synonym fan admiring /əd'maɪərɪŋ/ adj showing that you admire someone or something. Synonym appreciative admiringly /əd'maɪərɪŋli/ adv in an admiring way

③ admission /əd'mɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. the act or fact of being allowed to go in □ no admission no one can enter 2. a statement saying that something is true admission fee /əd'mɪʃ(ə)n fi:/ noun a fee paid to go into a place such as a museum or a sports stadium

① admit /əd'mɪt/ verb 1. to allow someone to go in ○ Children are admitted free, but adults have to pay. ○ This ticket admits three persons. 2. to say that something is true ○ They admitted stealing the car. ○ She admitted she had taken the wrong road. 3. to accept evidence in court (NOTE: admitting – admits – admitted) admittance /əd'mɪtns/ noun the allowing of someone to go into a place. Synonym admission admittedly /əd'mɪtɪdli/ adv admitting that this is true admonish /əd'monɪʃ/ verb to criticise or warn someone. Synonym reprove. Antonym praise admonishment /əd'monɪʃmənt/ noun a warning given to someone (formal). Synonym reprimand. Antonym approval ad nauseam /æd 'nɔːzɪəm/ adv until everyone is sick of it ado /ə'duː/ noun □ without any more ado without any more delay adolescence /,ædə'lɛs(ə)ns/ noun a period between childhood and adulthood, between the ages of 12 and 18. Synonym teens adolescent /,ædə'lɛs(ə)nt/ adj referring to the period between childhood and adulthood ○ She teaches a class of adolescent boys. ■ noun a young person between 12 and 18. Synonym teenager

② adopt /ə'dɔpt/ verb 1. to take someone legally as a son or daughter ○ They have adopted a little boy. 2. to take and use something ○ adopted an air of superiority ○ The opposition parties have adopted a different line of argument. 3. to tell all students to use something ○ The book has been adopted for use in all English classes. 4. (of a political party) to choose a candidate ○ James Black was adopted as the candidate for our constituency.

adopted /ə'dɔptɪd/ adj taken legally as someone's son or daughter

③ adoption /ə'dɔpʃən/ noun 1. the legal taking of someone as a son or daughter □ put someone up for adoption to offer a child to be adopted 2. the act of choosing an official candidate adoptive /ə'dɔptɪv/ adj who has or have adopted a child as a son or daughter □ adoptive parents or mother or father Synonym legal. Antonym natural adorable /ə'dɔ:rəb(ə)l/ adj attractive and appealing. Synonym lovable adoration /ə'də'reɪʃ(ə)n/ noun admiration or love adore /ə'dɔ:/ verb to like someone or something very much. Synonym love. Antonym hate adoring /ə'dɔ:rɪŋ/ adj who or which adores. Synonym affectionate adorn /ə'dɔ:n/ verb to decorate something with ornaments (formal) adrenalin /ə'drenəlɪn/ noun a hormone produced by glands in the body when a person or animal is experiencing surprise, shock, fear or excitement. It speeds up the heartbeat and raises the blood pressure. □ to get the adrenalin going, flowing to make someone excited and energetic ○ The preparation for the great race got the adrenalin going.

adrift /ə'drɪft/ adv 1. floating on the water but not being guided by anyone □ to cast a boatadrift to let a boat float without control 2. not connected ○ It won't work because the wire has comeadrift from the plug. 3. away from the correct figure ○ I think we are about £250adrift in our calculations.

adroitness /ə'drɔɪtɪs/ adj clever, especially in negotiating. Synonym skilful. Antonym clumsy adroitly /ə'drɔɪtlɪ/ adv skilfully

ADSL abbr asymmetrical digital subscriber line

adulation /ə'adju'lɪʃ(ə)n/ noun excessive praise. Synonym adoration. Antonym disparagement

② adult /'ædʌlt/ adj 1. fully grown ○ an adult tiger 2. referring to mature people ○ adult fiction □ noun a mature person, or a mature animal or plant. Synonym grown-up. Antonym child adult education /'ædʌlt edju'keɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the teaching of people over the age of 20 adulterate /ə'dæltə'reɪt/ verb 1. to add water to milk or wine 2. to make something less pure by adding an inferior substance to it adulteration /ə,dæltə'reɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the act of making something less pure. Synonym contamination. Antonym purification

adulterer /ə'dæltə'rə/, adulteress /ə-'dælt(ə)rəs/ noun a person who commits adultery adultery /ə'dælt(ə)ri/ noun sexual intercourse with someone who is not your husband or wife adulthood /'ædʌlθʊd/ noun the period when someone is adult. Synonym maturity. Antonym childhood

adv, adv. abbr 1. adverb 2. adverbial

② advance /əd'veəns/ noun 1. a movement forwards 2. □ in advance earlier than something happens ○ If you want to get good seats for the play, you need to book three weeks in advance. ○ You must phone well in advance to make an appointment. 3. money paid as a loan or as a part of a payment to be made later □ verb 1. to go forward 2. to pay money as a loan or as part of a later payment 3. to change a date or time for something to an earlier one 4. to move a clock to a later time. Synonym put forward □ adj done before something happens

③ advanced /əd've:nst/ adj 1. which is studied after studying for several years ○ taking advanced mathematics ○ studying for an advanced degree 2. which has moved forward ○ in an advanced state of decay □ the season is well advanced the season is coming to an end

advancement /əd've:nsmənt/ noun 1. the act of moving something forwards 2. a promotion in a job or organisation advances /əd've:nsɪz/ plural noun attempts to be friendly with someone

① advantage /əd've:ntɪdʒ/ noun something which will help you to be successful ○ Being able to drive a car is an advantage. ○ Knowledge of two foreign languages is an advantage in this job. ○ She has several advantages over the other candidates for the job. Synonym benefit. Antonym disadvantage □ to take advantage of to profit from something ○ They took advantage of the cheap fares on offer. □ to take advantage of someone to cheat someone ○ He took advantage of the old lady. □ to advantage in a way that makes someone look perfect ○ Her dress shows off her figure to advantage. □ to use something to great advantage to use something in a way which helps you win advantageous /'ædvən'teɪdʒəs/ adj likely to help or make something successful. Synonym beneficial. Antonym disadvantageous advent /'ædvent/ noun the introduction or appearance of something new

Advent /'ædvent/ noun the period just before Christmas adventure /'æd'ventʃə/ noun a new, exciting and dangerous experience ○ I must tell you about our adventures in the Gobi desert. Synonym escapade adventure playground /'æd'ventʃə'pleɪgraʊnd/ noun a children's playground with objects such as climbing frames, slides and wooden houses adventurous /'æd'ventʃ(ə)rəs/ adj 1. happy to do something risky 2. exciting and full of adventure

② adverb /'ædvəbərl/ noun a word which applies to a verb, an adjective, another adverb or a whole sentence ○ In the phrase 'He walked slowly, because the snow was very thick,' 'slowly' and 'very' are both adverbs.

adverbial /'ædvəbɪəl/ adj used as an adverb adversary /'ædvəs(ə)ri/ noun the person you are fighting or opposed to. Synonym opponent. Antonym supporter (NOTE: The plural is adversaries.)

adverse /'ædvə:s/ adj 1. (of a wind) which blows against you 2. (conditions) which do not help or which go against you □ adverse balance of trade a situation where a country imports more than it exports adversely /'ædvə:sli/ adv in a bad or damaging way adversity /'æd've:siti/ noun difficult times, when you have to face all sorts of problems. Synonym hardship. Antonym privilege

③ advert /'ædvə:t/ noun GB same as advertisement (informal) advertise /'ædvətaɪz/ verb to make sure that people know that something is for sale, that something is going to happen or that a show is on ○ I sent away for a watch which I saw advertised in the paper. ○ The company is advertising for secretaries. ○ Did you see that the restaurant is advertising cheap meals on Sundays? □ there's no need to advertise the fact there's no need to tell everyone something which would be better kept secret

③ advertisement /'æd've:tɪsmənt/ noun an announcement which tries to make sure that people know that something is for sale, that something is going to happen or that a show is on advertiser /'ædvətaɪzə/ noun a person who advertises something

① advertising /'ædvətaɪzɪŋ/ noun the action of making sure that people know that something is for sale, that something is going to happen or that a show is on ○ They spent millions on the advertising campaign. ○ The company has increased the amount of money it spends on advertising. Synonym publicity

advertising agency /'ædvətaɪzɪŋ'eɪdʒənsi/ noun an agency which organises advertisements for other companies

① advice /'æd'veɪs/ noun the saying of what should be done ○ She took or followed the doctor's advice. ○ He went to the bank manager for advice on how to pay his debts. ○ They would not listen to the doctor's advice. ○ My grandfather gave me a very useful piece of advice. ○ His mother's advice was to stay in bed. (NOTE: no plural: some advice; for one item say a piece of advice)

advisable /'æd'veɪzəb(ə)l/ adj which is recommended. Synonym sensible. Antonym unwise

① advise /'æd'veɪz/ verb 1. to suggest to someone what should be done ○ He advised her to put all her money into a deposit account. 2. to tell someone officially that something has happened (formal) ○ They advised us that the sale of the house had been completed.

③ adviser /'æd'veɪzə/, advisor noun 1. a person who gives advice 2. a person who advises students on their courses and other academic matters 3. a teacher who advises school heads and teachers on the teaching of a specialist subject advisory /'æd'veɪz(ə)ri/ adj giving advice advocacy /'æd'vekəsi/ noun strong support for a cause or policy advocate noun /'æd'vekət/ 1. a lawyer in a Scottish court 2. a person who strongly supports a cause 3. a person who says that something is a good thing ■ verb /'æd'vekət/ to say that something is a good thing. Synonym support. Antonym oppose aerial /'eəriəl/ adj referring to the air ■ noun a device for receiving radio or TV signals (NOTE: The US term is antenna.)

aerobic /eə'rəʊbɪk/ adj using or needing oxygen. Antonym anaerobic aerobics /eə'rəʊbɪks/ noun active exercises which aim to increase the amount of oxygen taken into the body (NOTE: takes a singular verb) aerodrome /'eərədruːm/ noun a small airport. Synonym airfield aerodynamic /,eərəʊdæm'naɪmɪk/ adj referring to the movement of objects through the air aerodynamics /,eərəʊdæm'naɪmɪks/ noun 1. the science of the movement of objects through the air (NOTE: takes a singular verb)

2. the way in which a machine moves through the air (NOTE: takes a plural verb) aeronautical /,eərə'nɔ:tɪk(ə)l/ adj referring to the flying of aircraft

③ aeroplane /'eərəplæn/ noun a machine which flies in the air, carrying passengers or cargo. Synonym aircraft, plane (NOTE: The US term is airplane.)

aerosol /'eərəsɔ:l/ noun 1. a can which sprays a liquid such as an insecticide or medicine in the form of tiny drops 2. tiny particles of a chemical in the air aerospace /'eərəʊspeɪs/ noun Earth's atmosphere and space beyond it aerospace industry /'eərəʊspeɪs ˌɪndəstri/ noun the industry involved in making and flying aeroplanes aesthetic /i:s'θetɪk/ adj pleasant, from an artistic point of view (NOTE: The usual US spelling is esthetic.)

aesthetically /i:s'θetɪkli/ adv from an artistic point of view (NOTE: The usual US spelling is esthetically.)

aesthetics /i:s'θetɪks/ noun the science of and study of beauty, especially in art (NOTE: takes a singular verb. The usual US spelling is esthetics.)

afar /ə'fər/ adv □ from afar from a long way away (formal) ○ Travellers came from afar to the great market at Samarkand.

affability /,æfə'biliti/ noun the state of being pleasant and easy to talk to affable /'æfəb(ə)l/ adj pleasant and easy to talk to. Synonym genial. Antonym unfriendly affably /'æfəbli/ adv in a pleasant or friendly way

① affair /'æfər/ noun 1. something which is relevant to one person or a group of people only ○ That's his affair – it's nothing to do with me. ○ It's an affair for the police. ○ She's always sticking her nose into other people's affairs. ○ His business affairs were very complicated. 2. a sexual relationship with someone who is not the person's husband or wife ○ He's having an affair with his boss's wife. 3. □ state of affairs general situation ○ the present state of affairs

① affect /ə'fekt/ verb 1. to have an influence on or change someone or something ○ The new regulations have affected our business. ○ Train services have been seriously affected by the strike. 2. to pretend ○ He affected not to notice.

affection /,æfek'teɪʃ(ə)n/ noun something which someone pretends but which is not sincere affected /ə'fektɪd/ adj pretended and not sincere. Synonym pretentious affection /'æfekʃən/ noun a feeling of liking or love affectionate /'æfekʃənət/ adj showing love. Synonym loving affectionately /'æfekʃənətli/ adv in a loving way affidavit /,æfɪ'deɪvɪt/ noun a written statement which is signed and sworn before a solicitor and which can then be used as evidence in court affiliate noun /'æfɪlɪət/ a company formally associated with another one ○ We have affiliates in several European countries. Synonym associate ■ verb /'æfɪlɪeɪt/ to connect something or someone to a larger group. Synonym link affiliated /'æfɪlɪeɪtɪd/ adj connected to or with another as an affiliate affiliation /,æfɪl'i'eɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the act or fact of being affiliated. Synonym association affinity /'æfɪnɪtɪ/ noun the fact of being similar in character □ to feel an affinity for to feel a special link with someone or something ○ She feels an affinity for homeless people.

affirm /'æfɪrm/ verb 1. to state publicly that something is true 2. to make a statement in court that you will tell the truth, though this is not sworn on oath affirmation /,æfə'meɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. a statement that something is true 2. a statement in court that you will tell the truth, though this is not sworn on oath affirmative /'æfɪs:mətɪv/ adj meaning 'yes'. Antonym negative ■ noun a word or statement meaning 'yes' □ the answer is in the affirmative the answer is 'yes' affix verb /'æfɪks/ to fix something in place (formal) ○ He affixed the seal to the contract.

○ There is no need to affix a stamp on a pre-paid envelope. Synonym attach. Antonym remove ■ noun /'æfɪks/ a group of letters added to the beginning or end of a word to make a new word afflict /'æflɪkt/ verb (of a serious problem or illness) to make someone suffer (formal) affliction /'æflɪkʃən/ noun (formal) 1. an illness affecting someone physically or mentally 2. something that causes distress affluence /'æfljuəns/ noun wealth. Synonym prosperity. Antonym poverty affluent /'æfljuənt/ adj very rich. Synonym wealthy

① afford /ə'fɔ:d/ verb to have enough money, time or other resources to do something ○ We can't afford to run a large car these days. ○ He couldn't afford the time to take a holiday. (NOTE: only used after can, cannot, could, could not, able to, unable to) affordable /ə'fɔ:dəb(ə)l/ adj which can be afforded. Synonym reasonable. Antonym expensive affront /ə'frɔnt/ noun an action which insults someone ■ verb to insult someone ► Synonym (all senses) insult. Antonym compliment afield /ə'fi:lð/ adv □ far afield a long way away ○ People come from far afield to visit the grave.

afloat /ə'fləut/ adv 1. floating, not sinking ○ She kept afloat by holding on to a piece of wood. ○ Our boat was driven onto the beach by the storm, but we managed to get it afloat again. 2. (of a company) not in financial difficulties ○ I wonder how they manage to stay afloat when the market is so difficult.

afoot /ə'fɔt/ adv in the process of being planned aforementioned /ə'fɔ:menʃənd/ (formal) adj mentioned earlier ■ noun someone or something mentioned earlier

① afraid /ə'freid/ adj 1. frightened of something ○ I am afraid of snakes. ○ He is too afraid to climb the ladder. 2. □ to be afraid (that) to be sorry to say ○ I'm afraid that all the cakes have been sold. ○ You can't see the boss – I'm afraid he's ill. ○ Have you got a pocket calculator? – No, I'm afraid not.

afresh /ə'freʃ/ adv again. Synonym anew

① African /'æfrɪkən/ adj referring to Africa ■ noun a person from Africa

African American /,æfrɪkən ə'merɪkən/ noun an American whose ancestors came from Africa

African Caribbean /,æfrɪkən kærɪ'bɪ:ən/ noun someone from the Caribbean whose ancestors came from Africa

Afro- /æfrəʊ/ prefix African, or between Africa and another country

Afro-Caribbean /,æfrəʊ kærɪ'bɪ:ən/ noun same as African Caribbean

af't /ə:ft/ adv in the back of a ship or plane. Antonym forward

① after /'a:ftə/ prep 1. following or next in order to ○ If today is Tuesday, the day after tomorrow is Thursday. ○ They spoke one after the other. ○ What's the letter after Q in the alphabet? □ after you you go first □ after you with the milk pass me the milk when you have finished with it (informal) 2. later than ○ We arrived after six o'clock. ○ We don't let the children go out alone after dark. 3. □ what's she after? what does she want? (informal) ■ conj later than a time ○ After the snow fell, the motorways were blocked. ○ Phone me after you get home. (NOTE: after is used with many verbs: to look after, to take after, etc.) □ after all 1. in spite of everything 2. the fact is □ to be after someone (informal) 1. to be looking for someone

○ The police are after him. 2. to be angry with someone ○ If you leave mud all over the kitchen floor, your mother will be after you.

aftercare /'a:ftəkeə/ noun the care of a patient after an operation after-effects /,a:ftə ɪ'fekts/ plural noun effects which follow after something ○ The after-effects of the bomb lasted for years. ○ The operation can have some unpleasant after-effects.

afterlife /'a:ftəlaɪf/ noun 1. life believed to go on after death 2. a stage of life that follows a period or event aftermath /'a:ftəməθ/ noun the period immediately after a bad event when its effects are seen. Synonym consequence

① afternoon /,a:ftə'nu:n/ noun the time between lunchtime and the evening ○ He always has a little sleep in the afternoon. ○ There is an afternoon flight to Paris. ○ I'm playing tennis tomorrow afternoon. ○ Can we meet tomorrow afternoon?

afternoon tea /,a:ftənu:n 'ti:/ noun a meal eaten in the afternoon, usually with small sandwiches, cakes and tea afterters /'a:ftəz/ noun GB a sweet course of a meal (informal). Synonym dessert after-sales service /,a:ftə seɪlz 'sɜ:rvɪs/ noun the maintaining of a machine by the seller for the buyer aftershave /'a:ftəseɪv/, aftershave lotion /'a:ftəseɪv, ləʊʃ(ə)n/ noun a lotion for soothing a man's face after he has shaved aftershock /'a:ftəskɒk/ noun a light earth tremor felt after a major earthquake aftertaste /'a:ftəteɪst/ noun 1. a taste that continues after something has been eaten or drunk 2. an unpleasant feeling after something has happened afterthought /'a:ftəθɔ:t/ noun a thing which you only think of or do later □ as an afterthought showing that you have just thought of something new ○ He signed the letter and as an afterthought added a row of kisses.

① afterwards /'a:ftəwədz/ adv later ○ We'll have lunch first and go shopping afterwards. (NOTE: The US term is afterward.)

① again /ə'gen/ adv 1. another time or once more ○ We'd love to come to see you again. ○ He had to take his driving test again. □ again and again several times ○ The police officer asked the same question again and again. □ now and again sometimes ○ Now and again I get a pain in my right elbow. 2. back as you were before ○ Although I like going on holiday, I'm always glad to be home again.

① against /ə'genst/ prep 1. so as to touch ○ He was leaning against the wall. ○ She hit her head against the low doorway. 2. not as someone proposes □ it's against the rules, against the law it's not as the rules say or the law says ○ It's against the law to drive in the dark without lights. ○ You mustn't hold the football in your hands – it's against the rules. □ what do you have against the plan? why don't you agree with the plan? ○ She was against the idea of going to the cinema. 3. in opposition to ○ England is playing against South Africa tomorrow. ○ It's hard cycling uphill against the wind. 4. as part of ○ Can I have an advance against next month's salary?

① age /'eɪdʒ/ noun 1. the number of years which you have lived ○ She is thirty years of age. ○ He looks younger than his age. □ under age younger than the legal age to do something ○ under-age drinkers 2. □ ages a very long time ○ I've been waiting here for ages. ○ It took us ages to get served. 3. a period in history ○ They found remains dating back to the Stone Age. ○ The Victorian age covered most of the nineteenth century. ■ verb to look older ○ He has aged a lot since I last saw him.

② aged adj 1. /'eɪdʒɪd/ with the age of ○ a girl aged nine ○ She died last year, aged 83. 2. /'eɪdʒɪd/ very old ○ an aged man age group /'eɪdʒ grʊp/ noun all the people of a particular age. Synonym generation ageing /'eɪdʒɪŋ/ adj which is becoming older (NOTE: The US spelling is aging.)

age limit /'eɪdʒ ,lɪmɪt/ noun the youngest or oldest age at which you are allowed to do something ① agency /'eɪdʒənsɪ/ noun an office which represents another firm ○ an advertising agency ○ We have the agency for Ford cars.

② agenda /'eɪdʒəndə/ noun a list of points for discussion □ what's on the agenda? what are we going to discuss?

③ agent /'eɪdʒənt/ noun 1. a person who works for or represents someone else ○ Our head office is in London but we have an agent in Paris. 2. a person or thing that causes something ○ War is an agent of mass destruction.

age of consent /'eɪdʒ əv kən'sent/ noun the age at which someone can legally agree to have sex age-old adj, adv which has existed for a long time aggravate /'ægrəveɪt/ verb 1. to make something worse 2. to annoy someone aggravating /'ægrəveɪtɪŋ/ adj who or which annoys someone (informal). Synonym annoying. Antonym pleasing aggregate /'ægrɪgət/ noun 1. a total of everything added together □ on aggregate, in the aggregate as a final total ○ Liverpool

won 7 – 2 on aggregate. 2. a mixture of sand and gravel used to make roads

③ aggression /'ɑ:gref(ə)n/ noun a feeling of anger against someone that is expressed, especially in physical force □ an act of aggression an attack on someone

③ aggressive /'ɑ:gri:sɪv/ adj ready to attack someone aggressively /'ɑ:gri:sɪvli/ adv as if wanting to attack someone aggressiveness /'ɑ:gri:sɪvni:s/ noun the state of being aggressive towards someone aggressor /'ɑ:gresər/ noun a person or country that attacks another. Synonym attacker aggrieved /'ɑ:grɪ:vd/ adj annoyed because you have been badly treated aggro /'ægrəʊ/ noun violent quarrelling or disagreement aghast /'ə:gɑ:st/ adj filled with horror and amazement. Synonym horrified. Antonym unaffected agile /'ædʒaɪl/ adj that can move easily agility /'ə:dʒɪlɪtɪ/ noun the fact of being agile. Antonym clumsiness agitate /'ædʒɪteɪt/ verb 1. to stir up public opinion for or against something 2. to shake a container such as a bottle (formal) agitated /'ædʒɪteɪtɪd/ adj very nervous, worried or upset and often not able to keep still. Synonym restless. Antonym calm agitation /,ædʒɪ'teɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. nervous worry 2. struggle for change, especially political change agitator /'ædʒɪteɪtər/ noun a person who stirs up political unrest. Synonym campaigner

AGM abbr annual general meeting agnostic /æg'nɒstɪk/ adj believing that no one can know if God exists ■ noun a person who believes that no one can know if God exists. Compare atheist. Antonym believer agnosticism /æg'nɒstɪsɪz(ə)m/ noun a belief that no one can know if God exists. Synonym doubt

① ago /ə'gəʊ/ adv in the past ○ He phoned a few minutes ago. ○ This all happened a long time ago. Synonym before. Antonym ahead (NOTE: ago always follows a word meaning time.)

agog /ə'gɒg/ adj □ all agog very eager ○ They were all agog to hear her story.

agonise /'ægənaɪz/, agonize verb to spend a lot of time worrying about something □ to agonize over a decision to worry about a decision agonising /'ægənaɪzɪŋ/, agonizing adj 1. (of pain) very sharp 2. very painful and difficult

③ agony /'ægəni/ noun extreme pain agony aunt /'ægəni ɑ:nt/ noun a person who writes an agony column agony column /'ægəni ,kɒləm/ noun a newspaper column giving advice on personal problems

① agree /ə'gri:/ verb 1. to say yes ○ Most of the group agreed with her suggestion. ○ After some discussion he agreed to our plan. (NOTE: You agree to or on a plan.) 2. □ to agree with someone to think the same way as someone ○ I agree with you that most people drive too fast.

agreeable /ə'gri:əb(ə)l/ adj 1. pleasant 2. □ to be agreeable to to be in agreement with (formal) ○ Are they all agreeable to the plan?

agreeably /ə'gri:əbli/ adv pleasantly agreed /ə'grɪd/ adj which has been accepted. Synonym decided

① agreement /ə'gri:mənt/ noun 1. the act or fact of thinking the same ○ to reach an agreement or to come to an agreement on salaries ○ Agreement between the two sides is still a long way off. □ they are in agreement with our plan they agree with our plan ○ We discussed the plan with them and they are in agreement. 2. a contract ○ to draw up or to draft an agreement ○ We signed an agreement with the Italian company.

② agricultural /,ægrɪ'tkəl(t)(ə)rəl/ adj referring to agriculture agricultural labourer /,ægrɪkələbər/ 'leib(ə)rə/ noun a person who does heavy work on a farm

② agriculture /'ægrɪkəltʃər/ noun the practice of growing crops or raising animals on farms. Synonym cultivation aground /s'graʊnd/ adv stuck on sand or rocks, not afloat □ the ship ran aground, went aground the ship hit sand or rocks

③ ah /ə:/ interj showing surprise ■ noun an act of saying 'ah!' ○ The audience let out 'oohs' and 'ahs' as they watched the lion tamers. ■ verb ♀ um

aha /a:'ha:/ interj showing that something has been discovered, especially expressing satisfaction or excitement

① ahead /ə'hed/ adv in front ○ Our team was losing, but now we are ahead again. ○ Run on ahead and find some seats for us. ○ You need to go straight ahead, and then turn left. □ full steam ahead! go forwards as fast as possible □ to draw ahead to become the leader in a race

ahoy /ə'hɔɪ/ interj used by sailors to call another ship

AI abbr 1. artificial insemination 2. artificial intelligence

② aid /eɪd/ noun 1. help ○ aid to Third World countries ○ aid worker 2. □ in aid of to help ○ We give money in aid of the Red Cross. ○ They are collecting money in aid of refugees. □ what's all this in aid of? what's all the fuss about? (informal) 3. a device which helps ○ He wears a hearing aid. ○ Food processors are useful aids in the kitchen. □ to help someone or a process. Antonym thwart □ to aid and abet someone to help someone to commit a crime aide /eɪd/ noun a person employed to assist someone important. Synonym assistant

AIDS /eɪdz/ noun a viral infection which breaks down the body's immune system ○ a clinic for people with AIDS Full form acquired immune deficiency syndrome ailing /'eɪlin/ adj 1. sick 2. in financial difficulties ailment /'eɪlmənt/ noun an illness, though not generally a very serious one

② aim /eɪm/ noun what you are trying to do ○ His aim is to do well at school and then go to university. ○ One of our aims is to increase the speed of service. Synonym goal ■ verb 1. to plan to do something ○ We aim to go on holiday in June. 2. to point a weapon at something ○ He was not aiming at the target.

aimless /'eɪmləs/ adj without any particular plan. Antonym purposeful aimlessly /'eɪmləsli/ adv without any particular plan ain't /eɪnt/ contraction is not, has not, have not (informal) ○ It ain't fair. ○ He ain't finished yet.

① air /eə/ noun 1. a mixture of gases, mainly oxygen and nitrogen, which cannot be seen, but which is all around us and which every animal breathes ○ His breath was like steam in the cold air. ○ He threw the ball up into the air. 2. a method of travelling or sending goods using aircraft 3. a little tune ○ She played an air by Bach. 4. an appearance or feeling ○ There was an air of gloom over the meeting. ■ verb to freshen a room or clothes by giving them more air ○ Let's open the windows to air the room.

air bag /'eə bæg/ noun a bag in a car which inflates when there is an accident and protects the driver or passenger airbase /'eəbəs/ noun a military airfield airborne /'eəbɔ:n/ adj 1. carried in the air 2. carried by an aircraft air-conditioned /'eə kən,dɪʃ(ə)nəd/ adj having the temperature controlled by an air-conditioner air-conditioner /'eə kən,dɪʃ(ə)nə/ noun a device which filters and cools the air in a room air-conditioning /'eə kən,dɪʃ(ə)nɪŋ/ noun a system of controlling the temperature in a place such as a room or a train

② aircraft /'eəkra:fɪt/ noun a machine which flies in the air ○ The passengers got into the aircraft. □ The airline has a fleet of ten aircraft. Synonym aeroplane (NOTE: The plural is aircraft: one aircraft, six aircraft.)

aircraft carrier /'eɪkrɔ:fɪt, 'kærɪfɪt/ noun a large ship in a navy, which has a large flat deck where aircraft can land and take off airfare /'eɪfeɪə/ noun what it costs for a journey in an aircraft airfield /'eɪfɪeld/ noun a small, usually military, airport. Synonym airstrip air force /'eɪ fɔ:s/ noun a country's military air organisation air freshener /'eɪ ə, 'fres(ə)nə/ noun a substance which makes the air in a room smell fresh and clean air hostess /'eɪ ə, 'həʊstəs/ noun a woman flight attendant (dated) airing cupboard /'eɪrɪŋ, 'kʌbəd/ noun a warm cupboard where clothes can be aired airless /'eɪləs/ adj without any air. Synonym stuffy air letter /'eɪ ə, 'letə/ noun a special sheet of thin blue paper which when folded can be sent by airmail without an envelope airlift /'eɪlɪft/ noun an emergency transporting of something by air ■ verb to transport someone or something by air in an emergency □ The climbers were airlifted to safety. Synonym fly

② airline /'eɪlайн/ noun a company which runs air services □ He's an airline pilot. □ The airline has been voted the most popular with business travellers.

airliner /'eɪlайнə/ noun a large aircraft that carries passengers

③ airmail /'eəmeɪl/ noun a way of sending letters or parcels by air ■ verb to send letters or parcels by air □ We airmailed the documents to New York.

airman /'eəmən/ noun a man who serves in an air force (NOTE: The plural is airmen.)

airplane /'eəpleɪn/ noun US an aeroplane

② airport /'eəpɔ:t/ noun a place where aircraft land and take off □ You can take the underground to the airport. □ We are due to arrive at Heathrow Airport at midday.

airport tax /'eəpɔ:t tæks/ noun a tax added to the price of an air ticket to cover the cost of running an airport air raid /'eə reɪd/ noun an attack by military aircraft airship /'eəʃɪp/ noun a large balloon driven by an engine airsickness /'eəsɪknəs/ noun the feeling of being sick while in an aircraft. Synonym travel sickness airspace /'eəspeɪs/ noun the air above a country airstream /'eəstri:m/ noun a flow of air in a particular direction airstrip /'eəstri:p/ noun a small runway airtight /'eətait/ adj which does not allow air to get in or out air time /'eə taim/ noun 1. the amount of time that is given to a programme or subject in radio or TV broadcasting 2. the time at which a programme or item is to be broadcast air traffic controller /eə 'træfɪk kən'trəulə/ noun a person on land who gives instructions for the movements of aircraft as they land or take off airwaves /'eəweɪvz/ plural noun 1. □ on the airwaves on the radio (old) □ His was a familiar voice on the airwaves in the 1950s. 2. the way in which radio signals move through the air airway /'eəwei/ noun 1. a name given to an airline 2. a passage for air airworthiness /'eə, wɜ:ði:nəs/ noun the safety of an aircraft for use airy /'eəri/ adj 1. full of fresh air 2. vague and not likely to be put into practice (NOTE: airier – airiest)

airy-fairy /,eəri 'feəri/ adj not possible to put into practice (informal) Synonym vague aisle /aɪl/ noun 1. a gangway between seats in something such as a plane, theatre or church 2. a gangway between shelves in a supermarket 3. a side part of a church (NOTE: Do not confuse with isle.)

aisle seat /'ail sɪ:t/ noun a seat which is next to an aisle ajar /'a:dʒəu:/ adj slightly open aka abbr also known as akin /ə'kɪn/ adj □ akin to similar to □ She experienced a sensation akin to burning on her skin.

à la carte /æ læ 'kɑ:t/ adv, adj made of several dishes ordered separately from a menu alacrity /ə'lækriti/ noun speed □ with alacrity fast

② alarm /ə'lɑ:m/ noun 1. a loud warning □ An alarm will sound if someone touches the wire. □ to raise the alarm to warn everyone of danger □ it was a false alarm it was a wrong warning 2. the fact or feeling of being afraid □ The expression on his face increased her alarm. □ There's no cause for alarm, the injection won't hurt at all. ■ verb to frighten someone □ I don't want to alarm you, but the police say a dangerous criminal has been seen in the village. Synonym worry. Antonym calm alarm bells /ə'lɑ:m belz/ plural noun an indication that something unpleasant or dangerous will happen

③ alarm clock /ə'lɑ:m klɒk/ noun a clock which rings a bell to wake you up alarmed /ə'lɑ:md/ adj worried and frightened. Synonym worried alarming /ə'lɑ:mɪŋ/ adj frightening. Synonym disturbing. Antonym soothing alarmist /ə'lɑ:mɪst/ noun someone who makes people feel frightened or worried when they do not need to □ adj which makes people feel frightened or worried when they do not need to ○ an alarmist report

alas /ə'læs/ interj showing sadness ○ He died in the war, alas. ○ Alas, there is no time left to continue the discussion.

albatross /'ælbətrɒs/ noun a very large white sea bird which flies for long distances (NOTE: The plural is albatrosses.)

③ albeit /ɔ:l'bɪ:t/ conj although albino /æl'bɪ:nəʊ/ noun an animal or person born with pale skin, white hair, and pink eyes (NOTE: The plural is albinos.)

③ album /'ælbəm/ noun 1. a large book 2. a collection of songs on a CD, cassette or record

③ alcohol /'ælkə'hɒpl/ noun a substance in drinks such as beer or wine, that can make people drunk ○ They will not serve alcohol to anyone under the age of 18.

alcoholic /,ælkɔ:'hɒlik/ adj referring to alcohol. Synonym intoxicating □ noun a person who depends on alcohol as a drug alcoholism /'ælkə'hɒlɪz(ə)m/ noun the condition of depending on drinking alcohol regularly alcove /'ælkəʊv/ noun a part of the wall of a room which is set back. Synonym recess

③ ale /eɪl/ noun a type of British beer, especially bitter beer, but not lager alert /ə'lɜ:t/ adj 1. able to think clearly 2. watching carefully □ noun news that something dangerous is happening or going to happen ○ a flood alert. Synonym warning □ to be on the alert to watch out for something □ verb □ to alert someone to to warn someone of something ○ She was alerted to the dangers of smoking.

② A Level /'eɪ lev(ə)l/ noun an examination taken by pupils aged 17 or 18 ○ If you pass your A Levels, you can go on to higher education. Full form advanced level alfresco /æl'freskəʊl/ adj in the open air. Synonym outdoor. Antonym indoor (NOTE: Do not confuse with fresco.)

algae /'ældʒi:/ noun very small plants living in water or in wet conditions which have no stems or roots or leaves algebra /'ældʒɪbrə/ noun a type of mathematics where letters are used to represent quantities algebraic /,ældʒɪ'breɪɪk/ adj referring to algebra algorithm /'ælgərɪð(ə)m/ noun a plan for working out a complicated calculation alias /'eiliəs/ adv also known as ○ John Smith, alias 'The Bulldog' □ noun a different name that is not the person's own. Synonym assumed name (NOTE: The plural is aliases.)

alibi /'ælɪbɪ/ noun a claim that a person charged with a crime was somewhere else when the crime was committed alien /'erɪliən/ adj foreign, from another country. Synonym unfamiliar □ noun a person who is from a foreign country alienate /'erɪliəneɪt/ verb 1. to make someone feel unfriendly 2. to make someone not want to support you alienated /'erɪliəneɪtɪd/ adj not feeling included or welcome, especially in society at large alight /'ə'lait/ verb to get off a vehicle (formal) □ adj on fire align /'ə'lain/ verb 1. to arrange in line with 2. □ to align yourself with to decide on a similar policy to another country ○ The three neighbouring states aligned themselves with France.

alignment /'ə'lainmənt/ noun 1. a row □ out of alignment not parallel ○ I think the front wheels are out of alignment. 2. an agreement between people on the same side of an argument. □ realignment alike /'ə'lائɪk/ adj very similar. Antonym different □ adv in a similar way ○ My sister and I just don't think alike. ○ The change will affect rich and poor alike.

alimentary canal /æli'ment(ə)rɪ kə'næl/ noun the tube by which food goes into the stomach, and passes through the body alimony /'æliməni/ noun money paid regularly by someone to a wife or husband they are no longer married to ② alive /'ə'læv/ adj 1. not dead ○ He was still alive when he was rescued, even though he had been in the sea for hours. ○ When my grandfather was alive, there were no supermarkets. (NOTE: not used in front of a noun: the fish is alive but a live fish.) 2. □ alive to knowing and understanding □ alive with full of 3. lively ○ The fishing village is rather dead during the day time, but really comes alive at night.

alkali /'ælkəlæl/ noun a substance which reacts with an acid to form a salt and water (NOTE: The British English plural is alkalis, but American English is alkalies.)

alkaline /'ælkəlæɪn/ adj containing more alkali than acid

① all /ɔ:l/ adj, pron 1. everything or everyone ○ They all or All of them like coffee. ○ All trains stop at Clapham Junction. ○ Did you pick all (of) the tomatoes? ○ Where are all the children? □ let's sing the song all together everyone should sing at the same time 2. □ fifteen all (in tennis) fifteen points each □ adv 1. completely ○ The ground was all white after the snow fell. ○ I forgot all about her birthday. 2. □ all by yourself all alone ○ You can't do it all by yourself. ○ I'm all by myself this evening – my girlfriend's gone out. ○ He drove the lorry all by himself. ◇ all along right from the beginning ◇ all but almost ◇ all in (informal) 1. tired out 2. including everything ◇ all over 1. everywhere over something 2. finished 3. everywhere

Allah /'ælə/ noun the Muslim name for God allay /'æ'let/ verb to calm something. Synonym dispel. Antonym stimulate all day /'ɔ:l 'deɪ/ adv for the whole day ○ It's been raining hard all day.

allegation /,ælə'geɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the suggestion that someone has possibly done something wrong allege /'æ'ledʒ/ verb to suggest that someone may have done something wrong. Synonym claim alleged /'æ'ledʒd/ adj suggested. Antonym confirmed allegedly /'æ'ledʒɪdli/ adv as has been suggested, but not proved allegiance /'æ'li:dʒ(ə)ns/ noun the fact of being loyal. Synonym loyalty. Antonym disloyalty allegorical /,æl'ɪ:gɔ:rɪk(ə)l/ adj referring to allegory. Synonym metaphorical. Antonym literal allegory /'æləg(ə)ri/ noun a painting or story where the characters represent ideas or are symbols of something else. Synonym parable allegro /'æ'ləgrəʊ/ adv, adj (in music) played fast allergen /'ælədʒən/ noun a substance which produces an allergic reaction allergic /'æ'lɪ:dʒɪk/ adj suffering from or referring to an allergy ◇ to be allergic to 1. to react badly to a substance ○ Many people are allergic to grass pollen. ○ She is allergic to cats. 2. to dislike something or someone very much (informal) ○ He is allergic to jazz. ○ She is allergic to men with beards.

allergy /'ælədʒɪ/ noun a bad reaction to a substance alleviate /'æ'lɪ:vɪeɪt/ verb to make less painful. Synonym ease

③ alley /'æli/ noun a narrow little street

③ alliance /'æləns/ noun a formal agreement between two or more groups or countries

① allied /'ælɪd/ adj 1. joined in an alliance 2. □ allied to combined with ○ His poor health allied to his age means that he will not be able to run the marathon.

alligator /'ælɪgətə/ noun a large reptile like a crocodile, found in the southern parts of the United States all-important /'ɔ:l im'pɔ:tənt/ adj very important or necessary all-inclusive /'ɔ:l in'klu:sɪv/ adj that includes everything. Synonym comprehensive

all-in rate /,ɔ:l in 'reɪt/ all-in price /,ɔ:l in 'prais/ noun a price which covers everything alliteration /,ælɪtə'reɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the practice of using words which begin with the same sound to make special effects in poetry

all-night /'ɔ:l nait/ adj lasting, open or available throughout the night, or throughout a specific night

② allocate /'æləkeɪt/ verb to give something out to various people

③ allocation /,ælə'keɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the process of giving something as a share allot /'ɔ:lt/ verb to give something to someone as a share of something (NOTE: allotting – allotted) allotment /'ɔ:lɒtmənt/ noun 1. the process of giving out money 2. a piece of land which belongs to a local council and which can be rented for growing vegetables all-out /,ɔ:l 'aʊt/ adj total, involving a lot of work. Synonym maximum. Antonym half-hearted

① allow /ə'lau/ verb 1. to let someone do something ○ She allowed me to borrow her book. ○ Smoking is not allowed in the restaurant. ○ You are allowed to take two pieces of hand luggage onto the plane. 2. to give ○ We will allow you a discount. 3. to agree or to accept legally ○ to allow a claim for damages □ to allow for something to provide a certain amount of time or money for something ○ to allow 10% extra for postage and packing ○ Allow 28 days for delivery.

allowable /'ɔ:luəb(ə)l/ adj which can be allowed. Synonym permissible. Antonym unacceptable □ allowable expenses expenses which are allowed against tax ① allowance /'ɔ:luəns/ noun 1. money paid regularly 2. something which is allowed 3. an amount of money which you are allowed to earn without paying tax 4. □ to make allowances for to take something into account ○ You must make allowances for his age.

alloy /'ælɔɪ/ noun a mixture of metals □ verb to mix metals ○ You alloy copper and zinc to get brass.

all-purpose /'ɔ:l 'pɜ:psəs/ adj which can be used in many different situations. Antonym specialised

① all right /'ɔ:l 'raɪt/ adj well ○ She was ill yesterday but is all right now. □ interj meaning 'yes' (NOTE: OK and no problem are often used in this meaning.)

all-round adj able to do many things well, or useful in a number of different ways, not specialised ■ adv 1. considering everything 2. for, from or involving everyone all-rounder /'ɔ:l'raʊndə/ noun a person who is good at anything all-star /'ɔ:l'sta:/ adj with many stars or celebrities. Antonym unknown all-time /'ɔ:ltaim/ adj biggest, best, worst, etc. ever (informal) Antonym insignificant allude /'ɔ:l'u:d/ verb □ to allude to something to refer to something in an indirect way ○ He alluded to it in his speech, without giving any details.

allure /'ɔ:l'uə, ə'ljuə/ noun a mysteriously attractive quality. Synonym attraction ■ verb to attract someone ○ Allured by the high salary offered, he answered the advertisement.

alluring /'ɔ:l'uərɪŋ, ə'ljuərɪŋ/ adj very attractive. Synonym appealing. Antonym repulsive allusion /'ɔ:l'u:ʒ(ə)n/ noun referring indirectly to something. Synonym reference alluvial /'ɔ:l'u:vɪəl/ adj left behind by rivers

③ ally noun /'ælai/ a person or country which is on the same side. Synonym friend (NOTE: The plural is allies.) ■ verb /'ɔ:lai/ □ to ally yourself with or to someone to join forces with someone ○ The unions have allied themselves with the opposition.

almighty /'ɔ:l'matí/ adj very powerful, very loud ■ noun □ the Almighty God ○ We pray to the Almighty every day that they find our daughter alive.

almond /'ɑ:mənd/ noun 1. a type of nut 2. same as almond tree almond tree /'ɑ:mənd tri:/ noun a tree which produces almonds

① almost /'ɔ:lməʊst/ adv nearly ○ London is almost as far from here as Paris. ○ She's almost as tall as I am. ○ She'll eat almost anything. ○ Hurry up, it's almost time for the train to leave. Synonym nearly aloft /'ɔ:lft/ adv high in the air. Antonym below

① alone /'ə'ləʊn/ adj with no one else ○ She lives alone with her cats. ○ He was all alone in the shop. ○ We don't let the children go out alone after dark. □ I want to talk to you alone I want the two of us to talk in private ■ adv □ to leave someone alone not to disturb someone ○ Leave that cat alone and come and have your tea.

① along /'ɔ:lɒŋ/ prep 1. by the side of ○ He has planted fruit trees along both sides of the garden path. ○ The river runs along one side of the castle. 2. from one end to the other ○ She ran along the pavement. ○ Walk along the street until you come to the post office. ■ adv □ to get along with someone to agree with or to work well with someone ○ She doesn't get along very well with her new boss.

③ alongside /'əlɒŋ'saɪd/ prep at the side of ○ The ship was tied up alongside the quay. ■ adv so as to be beside or level with something ○ We had stopped at a red light when a police car pulled up alongside. Synonym abreast aloof /'ɔ:lʊ:f/ adj quiet, private and unfriendly to other people ■ adv □ to keep yourself aloof, to stand aloof from to keep separate from, not to get involved with other people ○ They kept themselves aloof from the rest of the crowd.

aloud /'ɔ:laud/ adv in a voice which can be heard alpha /'ælfə/ noun the first letter of the Greek alphabet, or a mark showing the best results. Symbol α alphabet /'ælfəbət/ noun a series of letters in order, e.g. A, B, C, etc. ○ G comes before H in the alphabet. ○ If you're going to Greece on holiday, you ought to learn the Greek alphabet.

alphabetical /,ælfə'bɛtɪk(ə)l/ adj referring to the alphabet □ in alphabetical order in order of the first letter of each word ○ The words in the dictionary are in alphabetical order. ○ Sort out the address cards into alphabetical order of their names.

alphabetically /,ælfə'bɛtɪkli/ adv in alphabetical order alphabetise /'ælfə'bɛtائز/, alphabetize verb to put words into alphabetical order, especially automatically alpine /'ælpain/ adj referring to high mountains, especially the Alps. Synonym mountainous ■ noun a plant which grows on or originally comes from high mountains

① already /'ɔ:l'redi/ adv 1. before now or before the time mentioned ○ I've already done my shopping. ○ It was already past ten o'clock when he arrived. □ I have seen that film already I have seen that film before 2. sooner than expected ○ Have you finished your work already?

alright /'ɔ:l'raɪt/ adj, adv another spelling of all right

Alsatian /'æl'seɪʃ(ə)n/ noun a type of large dog, often used as a guard dog. Also called German shepherd

① also /'ɔ:lsəʊ/ adv too, in addition ○ She sings well and can also play the violin. ○ They came to visit us, and their children also came.

altar /'ɔ:lta:/ noun a table for important objects in religious ceremonies, especially in a church □ to lead someone to the altar to marry someone, especially a woman ○

Grandfather led his wife to the altar when he was only 22 years old.

③ alter /'ɔ:l̩tə/ verb to become or make something different. Synonym change (NOTE: Do not confuse with altar.)

③ alteration /,ɔ:l̩tə'reiʃ(ə)n/ noun an act of becoming different or of making something different. Synonym change, modification altercation /,ɔ:l̩tə'keiʃ(ə)n/ noun a verbal disagreement. Synonym argument alternate adj /ɔ:l̩tə'næt/ every other one ■ verb /'ɔ:l̩təneɪt/ to keep changing from one particular position or state to another alternately /ɔ:l̩tə'nætli/ adv with one first and then the other. Antonym consecutively alternating current /'ɔ:l̩təneɪtɪŋ 'kʌrənt/ noun an electric current which changes direction all the time, as opposed to direct current which flows in one direction. Abbr AC. Compare direct current

② alternative /ɔ:l̩tə'nætɪv/ adj 1. in place of something else ○ If the plane is full, we will put you on an alternative flight. 2. following a different way from usual ■ noun something which takes the place of something else ○ Now that she's got measles, do we have any alternative to calling the holiday off? □ there is no alternative there is nothing else we can do alternative energy /ɔ:l̩tə'nætɪv 'enədʒi/ noun energy produced by the sun, the sea or the wind alternatively /ɔ:l̩tə'nætɪvlɪ/ adv on the other hand alternative medicine /ɔ:l̩tə'nætɪv 'med(ə)sɪn/ noun the treating of diseases by means such as herbal medicines which are not usually used by doctors alternator /'ɔ:l̩təneɪtə/ noun a device which produces alternating current ① although /'ɔ:l̩θəʊ/ conj in spite of the fact that ○ Although it was freezing, she didn't put a coat on. ○ I've never been into that shop although I've often walked past it.

altimeter /'æltɪmɪ:tə/ noun an instrument for measuring height above sea level

③ altitude /'æltɪtju:d/ noun height above sea level altitude sickness /'æltɪtju:d ,sɪkñs/ noun a condition caused by lack of oxygen because of being at a high altitude, as when you are on a mountain alto /'æltəʊ/ noun 1. a high singing voice of a man or boy 2. a man or boy with a high voice (NOTE: The plural is altos.)

① altogether /,ɔ:l̩tə'geðə/ adv 1. taking everything together ○ The food was £10 and the drinks £5, so that makes £15 altogether. ○ The staff of the three shops come to 200 altogether. 2. completely ○ He's altogether a happier man since he got married. ○ Their situation is altogether different from ours.

altruistic /'æltru'ɪstɪk/ adj not selfish. Synonym unselfish. Antonym selfish aluminium /,ælju'mi:njʊm/ noun a silver-coloured metal which is extremely light (NOTE: The US spelling is aluminum.)

alumnus /ə'lʌmnəs/ noun US a male student who used to attend a university or college or high school. Synonym graduate (NOTE: The plural is alumni /ə'lʌmnai/.)

① always /'ɔ:l̩weɪz/ adv 1. every time ○ She is always late for work. ○ Why does it always rain when we want to go for a walk? 2. all the time ○ It's always hot in tropical countries. 3. frequently, especially when someone finds it annoying ○ She's always asking me to lend her money.

Alzheimer's disease /'æltʃaɪməz dɪ'zi:z/ noun a disease of the brain that leads to memory loss that gets worse and worse

① am /əm, əm/ □ be

② a.m. /'eɪ ˈem/ adv before midday ○ I have to catch the 7 a.m. train to work every day. ○ Telephone calls made before 6 a.m. are charged at the cheap rate. (NOTE: a.m. is usually used to show the exact hour and the word o'clock is left out. The US spelling is A.M.) amalgam /ə'mælgəm/ noun a mixture, especially the mixture used by dentists to fill holes in teeth amalgamate /ə'mælgəmeɪt/ verb to combine together. Synonym merge amalgamation /ə,mælgə'meʃ(ə)n/ noun the act of combining together amass /ə'mæs/ verb to collect a lot of money, information or things. Synonym accumulate amateur /'æmətə, 'æmətʃuə/ noun 1. a person who is not paid to play his or her sport 2. a person who does something because he or she likes doing it ■ adj 1. not paid 2. the practice of doing something for enjoyment rather than to earn money amateurish /'æmətərɪʃ/ adj not done well or in a professional way amaze /'æm̩eɪz/ verb to surprise someone very much. Synonym astonish amazed /'æm̩eɪzd/ adj very surprised. Synonym astonished amazement /'æm̩eɪzmənt/ noun great surprise. Synonym astonishment

② amazing /'æm̩eɪzɪŋ/ adj 1. very surprising ○ It was amazing that she never suspected anything. 2. extremely interesting and unusual ○ It was an amazing experience, sailing down the Nile.

ambassador /æm'bæsədə/ noun a person who is regarded as a representative or a symbol of something amber /'æmbə/ adj yellow-orange coloured ■ noun 1. a yellow to dark brown substance, which can be used for making jewellery 2. an orange traffic light ambidextrous /,æmbi'dekstrəs/ adj able to use either the right or left hand equally well ambience /'æmbiəns/ noun the character and general feeling of a place. Synonym atmosphere ambient /'æmbiənt/ adj which surrounds. Synonym surrounding ③ ambiguity /,æmbi'gju:ti/ noun the fact of having two meanings. Antonym clarity (NOTE: The plural is ambiguities.)

ambiguous /æm'bɪgju:əs/ adj having two meanings and therefore not being clear. Synonym vague ambition /æm'bɪʃ(ə)n/ noun a wish to become great, rich or famous, or to do something special ○ His great ambition is to ride on an elephant.

ambitious /æm'bɪʃəs/ adj with high aims ambivalence /æm'bɪvələns/ noun the state of not being sure about something. Synonym uncertainty ambivalent /æm'bɪvələnt/ adj not sure or decided. Synonym unsure amble /'æmb(ə)l/ verb to walk in a relaxed way without hurrying. Synonym stroll. Antonym dash ① ambulance /'æmbjuləns/ noun a van which carries sick or injured people ○ When she fell down the stairs, her husband called an ambulance.

ambush /'æmbuʃ/ noun a surprise attack by people who have been hiding ○ The enemy lay in ambush beside the path. (NOTE: The plural is ambushes.) ■ verb to wait hidden and attack someone by surprise ▶ Synonym (all senses) trap ameba /ə'mi:bə/ noun another spelling of amoeba amelioration /ə,mi:li'ə'reiʃ(ə)n/ noun the process of becoming better. Synonym improvement. Antonym deterioration

amen /a:'men, ei'men/ interj meaning 'let this be so' used at the end of Christian prayers □ I say amen to that I agree with that amenable /ə'mi:nəb(ə)l/ adj easy-going, not difficult. Synonym agreeable □ amenable to new ideas willing to accept new ideas

③ amend /ə'mend/ verb to change for the better. Synonym alter

③ amendment /'ə'mendmənt/ noun 1. a change intended to make something better 2. a change to a law or proposal amends /ə'mendz/ noun □ to make amends for something to compensate, e.g. for an injury amenity /ə'mi:niti/ noun a feature that makes a place attractive, enjoyable or comfortable to be in

① American /ə'merikən/ adj referring to the United States ■ noun a person from the United States

American football /ə,merikən 'fʊtbɔ:l/ noun a type of football played in the United States (NOTE: The US term is simply football; soccer is used in US English to refer to what is simply football in British English.)

American Indian /ə,merikən 'indiən/ noun (dated) a Native American ■ adj referring to Native Americans

Americanise /ə'merikənaɪz/, Americanize verb to take on or give someone or something qualities which are associated with the United States

American War of Independence /ə,merikən wɔ: əv 'indi'pendəns/ noun a war from 1775 to 1786 between the American colonies and Britain, by which the colonies became independent and formed the United States amethyst /'æməθɪst/ noun a purple stone from which jewellery can be made amiable /'eɪmɪəb(ə)l/ adj friendly and pleasant amicable /'æmɪkəb(ə)l/ adj done in a friendly way. Synonym friendly amicably /'æmɪkəbli/ adv in a friendly way amid /ə'mɪd/ prep in the middle of amidships /ə'mɪdʃɪps/ adv in the middle of a ship amidst /ə'mɪdst/ prep in the middle of amino acid /ə,mi:nəu 'æsɪd/ noun one of the chemicals that combine to make protein. Humans are only able to produce some amino acids in their bodies, so others have to be absorbed from food.

amiss /ə'mɪs/ adv, adj □ something is amiss something is wrong, there is a problem ○ They checked the engine, but nothing seemed to be amiss. □ don't take it amiss don't be annoyed ammonia /ə'məʊniə/ noun a strong poisonous gas or liquid used in cleaning products ammunition /,æmjʊ'nɪʃ(ə)n/ noun objects such as bombs and bullets, which can be fired from weapons (NOTE: no plural) amnesia /ə'mni:ziə/ noun a medical state when you forget everything amnesty /'əmənsti/ noun a period during which criminals will not be punished amniotic fluid /,æmni'ɔ:tɪk 'flu:ɪd/ noun the liquid surrounding a baby before it is born amoeba /ə'mi:bə/, ameba /ə'mi:bə/ noun a living thing which consists of a single cell

(NOTE: The plural is amoebas or amoebae /ə'mi:bɪ:/.)

amoebic /ə'mi:bɪk/ adj caused by an amoeba amok /ə'mɒk/ adv □ to run amok to behave in a frighteningly uncontrolled way among /ə'mʌŋ/ prep in addition to other people or things amoral /ə'mɔ:rəl/ adj not caring about right and wrong. Synonym unprincipled amorous /'æmərəs/ adj showing sexual love. Synonym ardent. Antonym dispassionate amorphous /ə'mɔ:fəs/ adj with no particular shape

① amount /ə'maʊnt/ noun a quantity of something such as money □ The amount in my bank account has reached £1,000. □ This make of car uses by far the least amount of petrol. □ a certain amount some □ The storm did a certain amount of damage.

① amount to /ə'maʊnt tu:/ verb 1. to make a total of 2. □ to amount to the same thing to mean the same, to be the same □ Whether he took cash or free holidays, it all amounts to the same thing.

amp /æmpl/ noun a piece of equipment which can make sounds louder ampersand /'æmpəsænd/ noun a printing sign (&) meaning 'and'

amphetamine /æm'fetəmi:n/ noun a drug which is supposed to increase the user's energy levels amphibian /æm'fibɪən/ noun an animal that lives both in water and on land amphibious /æm'fibɪəs/ adj living both in water and on land amphitheatre /'æmfɪθɪətə/ noun 1. a circular Greek or Roman theatre 2. a semi-circular lecture hall (NOTE: [all senses] The US spelling is amphitheater.)

ample /'æmpəl/ adj large enough. Synonym enough, sufficient. Antonym insufficient amplification /,æmplifi'keɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. the process of making a sound louder 2. a more detailed explanation amplifier /'æmplɪfɪər/ noun a piece of equipment which makes sound louder amplify /'æmplɪfaɪ/ verb 1. to make a sound louder 2. to explain something in more detail amputate /'æmpjʊteɪt/ verb to cut off an arm, leg, finger or toe amputation /,æmpjʊ'teɪʃ(ə)n/ noun cutting off an arm, leg, finger or toe amuse /ə'mju:z/ verb 1. to make someone laugh 2. to make the time pass pleasantly □ to amuse yourself to play or get pleasure from what you are doing □ The children amused themselves quietly while their parents talked.

amused /ə'mju:zəd/ adj thinking that something is funny. Antonym annoyed □ to keep someone amused to keep someone interested and happy □ This jigsaw will keep the children amused for hours.

amusement /ə'mju:zmənt/ noun 1. pleasure 2. □ to someone's amusement making someone laugh □ Much to her amusement, the band played 'Happy Birthday to you!'

amusement arcade /ə'mju:zmənt a:kɪ:d/ noun a place with machines for playing games amusement park /ə'mju:zmənt pa:k/ noun an open-air park with various types of entertainment. Synonym funfair amusing /ə'mju:zɪŋ/ adj funny. Synonym entertaining

① an /ən, æn/ □ a anachronism /ə'nækrənɪz(ə)m/ noun a thing which is out of date and does not belong to the present time. Synonym relic anachronistic /ə,næk'rə'nɪstɪk/ adj not fitting the period when a play or film is supposed to take place. Antonym contemporary anaconda /,ænə'kɒndə/ noun a large snake from South America, which winds itself round its food before eating it anaemia /'æni:miə/ noun a condition where the level of red blood cells is less than normal (NOTE: The US spelling is anemia.)

anaemic /'æni:mɪk/ adj 1. having anaemia 2. looking weak and pale (NOTE: [all senses] The US spelling is anemic.)

anaerobic /,ænə'rəʊbɪk/ adj not needing oxygen to exist. Antonym aerobic anaesthesia /,ænəs'θi:zɪə/ noun the loss of feeling after being given an anaesthetic (NOTE: The US spelling is anesthesia.)

anaesthetic /ænəs'θetɪk/ noun a substance given to a patient to remove feeling, so that he or she can have an operation without feeling pain (NOTE: The US spelling is anesthetic.)

anaesthetise /ə'ni:sθətaɪz/, anaesthetize verb to give a patient an anaesthetic (NOTE: The US spelling is anesthetize.)

anaesthetist /ə'ni:sθətɪst/ noun a person whose job is to give patients anaesthetics (NOTE: The US term is anesthesiologist.)

anagram /'ænəgræm/ noun a word or phrase containing the letters of another word or phrase in a different order, e.g. 'Cathy' is an anagram of 'yacht' anal /'eɪn(ə)l/ adj referring to the anus analgesic /,ænl'dʒi:zɪk/ adj killing pain □ noun a painkilling drug. Synonym painkiller analogous /'næləgəs/ adj similar. Antonym different

③ analogy /ə'nælədʒi/ noun a similarity between two things. Antonym contrast □ to draw an analogy between to show how two things are similar ○ He drew an analogy between raising children and growing plants.

analyse /'ænəlaɪz/, analyze verb to examine closely and scientifically

① analysis /ə'næləsɪs/ noun a close examination of the parts or elements of something ○ job analysis ○ to make an analysis of the sales or a sales analysis ○ to carry out an analysis of the market potential (NOTE: The plural is analyses /ə'nælɪsɪz/.)

analyst /'ænəlist/ noun 1. a person who carries out analyses 2. a doctor who is trained in psychoanalysis analytical /,ænə'lɪtɪk(ə)l/ adj examining something in detail anarchic /ə'nɑ:kɪk/, anarchical /ə'nɑ:kɪkl/ adj without any law or order anarchist /'ænəkɪst/ noun a person who tries to destroy a government by violent means, without planning to replace it in any way. Synonym revolutionary anarchy /'ænəki/ noun a lack of law and order, because the government has lost control or because there is no government (NOTE: no plural) anathema /'ə:næθəmə/ noun a thing which you dislike very much □ it's anathema to her she dislikes it very much ○ His way of teaching is anathema to the older teachers.

anatomical /,ænə'tɒmɪk(ə)l/ adj referring to the structure of the body anatomy /'ænætəmɪ/ noun 1. the structure of the body or of part of the body 2. a detailed examination (NOTE: plural in sense 1 and 2 is anatomies) 3. the study of the structure of the body 4. your own body ancestor /'ænsestrə/ noun a member of a family who has been dead for a long time ancestral /æn'sestrəl/ adj referring to a family over many generations ancestry /'ænsestri/ noun your family going back over a long period. Synonym lineage □ she is of French ancestry originally her family came from France anchor /'æŋkər/ noun a large metal hook which holds a ship in place □ to drop anchor to let an anchor fall to the bottom of the sea to hold a ship steady ○ The ship dropped anchor in the bay. □ verb 1. (of a ship) to drop an anchor to stay in the same place 2. to hold something firmly in position anchorman /'æŋkəmæn/ noun the main presenter on a TV news show. Synonym newsreader anchovy /'æntʃəvi, ən'tʃəvi/ noun a small, very salty fish (NOTE: The plural is anchovies.)

② ancient /'eɪnʃənt/ adj very old ○ She's studying ancient history. ○ He was riding an ancient bicycle.

ancillary workers /æn'sɪləri ,wɜ:kəz/ plural noun staff such as cleaners or classroom helpers who work with professional people in hospitals or schools

① and /ən, ənd, ænd, ænd/ conj used to join two words or phrases ○ All my uncles and aunts live in the country. ○ The children were running about and singing. ○ Come and sit down next to me. (NOTE: and is used to say numbers after 100: seven hundred and two (702).)

andante /æn'dæntɪ/ adv, adj (in music) played fairly slowly anecdotal /,ænɪk'dəʊt(ə)l/ adj coming from stories of individual people. Synonym subjective. Antonym objective

anecdotal evidence /,ænɪk'dəʊt(ə)l 'evid(ə)ns/ noun evidence which comes in the form of stories told by individual people anecdote /'ænɪk'dəʊt/ noun a usually humorous story based on something which has taken place anemone /ə'nemənɪ/ noun a small flower anew /ə'nju:/ adv again (formal) angel /'eɪndʒəl/ noun 1. a heavenly being 2. a sweet, kind person 3. a person who provides money for a theatre production angelic /æn'dʒelɪk/ adj 1. very beautiful 2. appearing to be kind and good. Synonym angelic. Antonym wicked

③ anger /'æŋgər/ noun the feeling of being very annoyed ○ I felt no anger, only great disappointment. Synonym annoyance. Antonym calmness □ verb to make someone annoyed ○ Her lateness angered him. Synonym annoy. Antonym pacify

angina /æn'dʒaɪnəl/ noun severe pains in the centre of the chest, caused by not enough blood being supplied to the heart muscles

③ angle /'æŋgəl/ noun 1. a corner between two lines ○ She planted the tree in the angle of the two walls. □ at an angle to not straight or upright in relation to ○ The bookcase is at an angle to the wall. 2. a point of view ○ What's the government's angle on the story?

angle bracket /,æŋgəl 'brækɪt/ noun a printed symbol < or >, used around text, especially in instructions for a computer angle for /'æŋgəl fɔ:/ verb to try to get something □ he was just angling for compliments he was trying to get someone to say nice things about him angler /'æŋglə/ noun a person who goes fishing for pleasure

Anglican /'æŋglɪkən/ adj referring to the Anglican Church □ noun a member of the Anglican Church

Anglican Church /'ænglikən tʃɜːtʃ/ noun the Protestant church which is the official religion of England, with the Queen as its head, and other similar churches in other countries. Also called Church of England angling /'æŋglɪŋ/ noun the sport of catching fish with a rod

Anglo- /æŋgləʊ/ prefix English, between England and another country angrily /'æŋgrɪlɪ/ adv in an angry way

① angry /'æŋgrɪ/ adj upset and annoyed, and sometimes wanting to harm someone ○ When the cashier still hadn't arrived at midday the boss got angrier. ○ The shopkeeper is angry with the children because they broke his window. ○ He gets angry if the post is late. ○ I am angry that the government is doing nothing to prevent crime. Synonym annoyed. Antonym calm (NOTE: angrier – angriest) angst /æŋst/ noun great worry about life. Synonym anguish. Antonym happiness anguish /'æŋgwiʃ/ noun great mental suffering. Synonym suffering. Antonym contentment (NOTE: no plural) anguished /'æŋgwɪʃt/ adj showing or feeling great suffering. Antonym content angular /'æŋgjulə/ adj 1. with sharp corners 2. with sharp-looking bones

① animal /'ænɪməl/ noun a living thing that moves independently ○ I love animals about the house – we have two dogs and three cats as pets. ○ The football crowd behaved like animals. (NOTE: animal may include humans in scientific contexts.) ■ referring to animals ○ the fans' animal behaviour animated /'ænɪmeɪtɪd/ adj full of life and energy. Synonym energetic animation /,ænɪ'meɪʃn/ noun 1. being lively 2. the process of making animated films animosity /,ænɪ'mɒsɪtɪ/ noun a strong feeling of dislike towards someone ankle /'æŋkəl/ noun the part of the body where your leg joins your foot ankle sock /'æŋkəl skək/ noun one of a pair of short socks annex /'ænɛks/ verb to take possession of land which belongs to another state. Antonym cede annexation /,ænɛk'seɪʃn/ noun attaching one country to another annexe /'ænɛks/ noun 1. a less important building attached to another building 2. a document attached to another document (NOTE: [all senses] The US spelling is annex.)

annihilate /ə'nɪħəleɪt/ verb to destroy something completely annihilation /ə'naiə'lɪʃ(ə)n/ noun total destruction. Antonym protection

① anniversary /,ænɪ'versəri/ noun the same date as an important event that happened in the past annotate /'ænəteɪt/ verb to add notes to a text. Synonym gloss annotation /,ænə'teɪʃn/ noun 1. the action of adding notes to a text 2. a note added to a text

① announce /ə'naʊns/ verb to say officially or in public ○ He announced his resignation. ○ She announced that she would be standing for parliament. Synonym proclaim

① announcement /ə'naʊnsmənt/ noun a statement made in public ○ The managing director made an announcement to the staff. ○ There were several loudspeaker announcements concerning flight changes.

announcer /ə'naʊnsə/ noun a person who reads the news or announces programmes on radio or TV. Synonym presenter

③ annoy /ə'nɔɪ/ verb to make someone feel angry or impatient. Synonym irritate. Antonym please annoyance /ə'nɔɪəns/ noun a feeling of being annoyed. Synonym irritation. Antonym pleasure □ to someone's annoyance so that someone is annoyed ○ I took both sets of keys home with me, much to his annoyance.

① annoyed /ə'nɔɪd/ adj slightly angry or impatient ○ He was annoyed with his neighbour who had cut down one of his trees. ○ I was annoyed to find someone had stolen my mobile phone. ○ We came back from holiday to find some very annoyed letters from the gas company. Antonym pleased

① annoying /ə'nɔɪɪŋ/ adj making you angry ○ I find it very annoying that the post doesn't come before 10 o'clock. ○ How annoying! I've got to go back to the shop because I forgot to buy some milk. ○ The baby has an annoying cough which won't go away. Synonym maddening. Antonym pleasing

② annual /'ænjuəl/ adj happening once a year ○ The village fair is an annual event. ○ I get annual interest of 6% on my savings account. Synonym yearly ■ noun 1. a plant which grows from a seed and produces its flowers and dies, all in the same year ○ We will put tall plants at the back of the flowerbed and annuals in front. 2. a book which is published each year ○ the Beano annual annually /'ænjuəli/ adv every year annuity /ə'nju:iti/ noun an amount of money paid to someone each year. Synonym pension (NOTE: The plural is annuities.)

annul /ə'nʌl/ verb 1. to stop something having a legal effect 2. to end a marriage by stating that it is not legal (NOTE: annulling – annulled) annulment /'ənʌlmənt/ noun the ending of a marriage or a contract by stating that it does not exist anode /'ænəud/ noun a positive terminal on a piece of electrical equipment anoint /ə'nɔɪnt/ verb to put oil onto a person as part of a religious ceremony anomaly /ə'nɒməli/ noun an unusual thing. Synonym irregularity (NOTE: The plural is anomalies.)

anon /ə'nɒn/ abbr anonymous anonymity /,ænə'nɪmɪtɪ/ noun the hiding of your real name anonymous /ə'nɒnɪməs/ adj without stating a name anorak /'ænəræk/ noun 1. a warm waterproof jacket, sometimes with a hood (NOTE: The US term is windbreaker or parka.) 2. someone who is too interested in a particular subject, especially one that seems unfashionable or dull to other people (informal) anorexia /,ænə'reksɪə/ noun a condition caused by an extreme fear of becoming fat and marked by ill health as a result of not eating enough anorexic /,ænə'reksɪk/ adj referring to or affected by anorexia

① another adj, pron 1. one more ○ I'd like another one of those cakes, please. ○ Would you like another drink? 2. a different one ○ He's bought another car. ○ She tried on one dress after another, but couldn't find anything she liked. ▶ each other, one another

① answer /'a:nsəl/ noun a reply, letter or conversation after someone has written or spoken to you, asking you a question ○ I phoned his office but there was no answer. ○ Have you had an answer to your letter yet? □ in answer to as a reply to ○ I am writing in answer to your letter of October 6th. ■ verb

1. to reply, to speak or write words to someone who has spoken to you or asked you a question ○ He never answers my letters. ○ When he asked us if we had enjoyed the meal we all answered 'yes'. 2. □ to answer the phone to speak and listen to a telephone caller ○ When I called, it was his secretary who answered the phone. □ to answer the door to open the door when someone knocks or rings ○ He jumped out of the shower and answered the door dripping wet with a towel round his waist.

answerable /'a:ns(ə)rəb(ə)l/ adj □ to be answerable to someone for something to be responsible to someone for your actions ○ The manager is answerable to the directors for the smooth running of the office.

answer back /,a:nsə 'bæk/ verb to speak to someone in a rude way. Synonym retort

① answerphone /'a:nsəfəʊn/ noun a machine which answers the telephone automatically when someone is not in the office or at home, and allows messages to be recorded ant /ænt/ noun a small insect that lives in large groups antagonise /æn'tægənaɪz/, antagonize verb to make someone feel angry or impatient. Synonym provoke. Antonym mollify antagonism /æn'tægənɪz(ə)m/ noun a strong feeling of dislike towards someone antagonistic /æn'tægə'nɪstɪk/ adj disliking someone very much. Synonym aggressive. Antonym friendly □ antagonistic to or towards something very much against something ○ The demonstrations against fox-hunting just show how antagonistic these people are to the idea. ○ You would never believe how antagonistic she was towards my plan.

antarctic /æn'tɑ:kτɪk/ adj referring to the area round the South Pole ■ noun □ the Antarctic the area round the South Pole ante- /æntɪ/ prefix before antecedent /,æntɪ'si:d(ə)nt/ noun something that existed earlier but is similar to what exists now antedate /,æntɪ'deɪt/ verb 1. to put an earlier date on a cheque 2. to happen or exist earlier than something else antelope /'æntɪləp/ noun an African deer which can run very fast (NOTE: usually no plural: a herd of antelope)

antenatal /,æntɪ'nætɪ(ə)l/ adj before birth antenna /æn'tenə/ noun 1. a tube on the head of an insect, used to feel things (NOTE: The plural is antennae /æn'tenɪ:ə/) 2. a person's ability to know something without being told (NOTE: The plural is antennae /æn'tenɪ:ə/) 3. a piece of equipment for receiving radio or TV signals (NOTE: The plural is antennae /æn'tenɪ:ə/. Note that British English also uses aerial.)

anthem /'ænθəm/ noun a song for a group of singers anther /'ænθə/ noun the part of a flower that carries pollen anthology /æn'θɒlədʒi/ noun a collection of stories or poems (NOTE: The plural is anthologies.)

anthrax /'ænθræks/ noun a serious disease of cows and sheep, which can be caught by people anthropoid /'ænθrəpɔɪd/ noun an ape which is like a human ■ adj similar to a human anthropological /,ænθrəpə'lɒdʒɪk(ə)l/ adj referring to the study of people and their cultures anthropologist /,ænθrə'pɒlədʒɪst/ noun a scientist who studies people and culture anthropology /ænθrə'pɒlədʒi/ noun the study of people and culture (NOTE: no plural) anti-/ænti/ prefix against antibiotic /æntibɔɪ'tɒk/ adj killing bacteria ○ She's taking a new antibiotic drug. ■ noun a substance which kills bacteria

③ antibody /'æntɪbɒdɪ/ noun a natural substance produced by the body to fight disease (NOTE: The plural is antibodies.)

③ anticipate /æn'tɪsɪpeɪt/ verb 1. to act because you see something is about to happen 2. to expect something to happen

③ anticipation /æn'tɪsɪpeɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. excitement because you expect that something will happen 2. □ in anticipation of because you expect something to happen ○ We closed our shop in anticipation of riots after the football match.

anticlimax /ænti'klaimæks/ noun a feeling of disappointment when something does not turn out as expected. Synonym letdown. Antonym climax (NOTE: The plural is anticlimaxes.)

anticlockwise /ænti'klɒkwaɪz/ adv, adj in the opposite direction to the hands of a clock ○ an anticlockwise movement ○ He was driving anticlockwise round the ring road when the accident took place. (NOTE: The US term is counterclockwise. The opposite is clockwise.)

antics /'æntɪks/ plural noun funny or silly behaviour ○ the antics of the clowns in the circus ○ The students' antics cost them their places at university.

anticyclone /ænti'saɪklən/ noun an area of high pressure usually associated with fine dry weather in summer and fog in winter. Compare cyclone antidepressant /æntɪdɪl'pres(ə)nt/ noun a drug that is used to treat a person suffering from depression antidote /æntɪdəʊt/ noun 1. a substance which balances the effect of a poison 2. something which balances a bad influence antifreeze /æntɪfriːz/ noun a liquid put in the engine of a car to prevent it from freezing in cold weather antigen /æntɪdʒən/ noun a substance which produces antibodies antihistamine /,ænti'histəmɪn/ noun a drug which controls the effects of an allergy antipathy /æn'tɪpəθi/ noun strong dislike (NOTE: no plural) antipodean /æn,tipə'di:ən/ adj referring to or coming from Australia or New Zealand antiquated /'æntɪkweɪtɪd/ adj very old and out-of-date. Antonym modern antique /æn'ti:k/ adj old and valuable ○ an antique Chinese vase ■ noun a valuable old object antiquities /æn'tɪkwɪtɪz/ plural noun old objects from ancient times antiquity /æn'tɪkwɪtɪ/ noun ancient times □ lost in the mists of antiquity very, very old ○ The source of the drama is lost in the mists of antiquity.

anti-Semitic /,ænti sə'mitɪk/ adj showing hate towards Jewish people

③ antiseptic /,æntɪ'septɪk/ adj preventing infection from bacteria ○ an antiseptic dressing ○ She gargled with an antiseptic mouthwash. ■ noun a substance which prevents infections from developing or spreading antisocial /,æntɪ'saʊʃ(ə)l/ adj unfriendly, not wanting to meet other people □ antisocial hours work outside the normal hours of work ○ In this job, you may have to work antisocial hours.

antisocial behaviour /,æntɪsəʊʃ(ə)l bɪ'həvɪər/ noun bad or unpleasant behaviour in public antithesis /æn'tɪθəsɪs/ noun the exact opposite of something. Antonym epitome (NOTE: The plural is antitheses /æn'tɪθəsɪz/.)

antlers /'æntləz/ plural noun the horns of a deer ○ Deer grow new antlers each summer and then shed them in the winter.

antonym /'æntənəm/ noun a word which means the opposite of another word. Antonym synonym anus /'eɪnəs/ noun the opening at the end of the rectum, through which solid waste matter passes from the body (NOTE: The plural is anuses.)

anvil /'ænvɪl/ noun 1. a block on which pieces of hot metal can be placed to shape them 2. one of the three little bones in the middle ear

③ anxiety /æn'zɪəti/ noun 1. nervous worry about something 2. the state of being keen to do something

③ anxious /'æŋkʃəs/ adj 1. nervous and very worried about something ○ She's anxious about the baby. 2. keen to do something ○ The shopkeeper is always anxious to please his customers.

① anxiously /'æŋkʃəslɪ/ adv in a nervous worried way

① any /'enɪ/ adj, pron 1. it doesn't matter which ○ I'm free any day next week except Tuesday. ○ I don't like any of the paintings in the exhibition. 2. a quantity ○ Have you any money left? ○ Is there any food for me? ○ Would you like any more to eat? ○ Will any of your friends be there? 3. □ not...any none ○ There isn't any food left – they've eaten it all. ○ Can you lend me some money? – sorry, I haven't got any. ■ adv □ not...any not even a little more (used to emphasise comparatives) ○ He can't cycle any faster. ○

She's been in hospital for two weeks and isn't any better. ○ Can't you sing any louder?

① anybody /'enibdəli/ pron same as anyone

① anyhow /'enihau/ adv 1. in a careless way 2. same as anyway

③ any more /enɪ'mɔ:/, anymore adv □ not ... any more no longer ○ We don't go there any more.

anyone /'eniwʌn/ pron any person at all □ anyone else any other person ○ Is there anyone else who can't see the screen? □ we didn't meet anyone we knew we met no one we knew □ hardly anyone came to the meeting very few people came to the meeting

③ anyplace /'enpleis/ adv US same as anywhere (informal)

① anything /'eniθɪŋ/ pron 1. it does not matter what ○ You can eat anything you want. ○ Our dog will bite anything that moves. 2. (in questions, negatives) something ○ Did you do anything interesting at the weekend? ○ Did you hear anything make a noise during the night? ○ Has anything happened to their plans for a long holiday? ○ Do you want anything more to drink? □ he didn't eat anything he ate nothing 3. a particular thing □ hardly anything almost nothing ○ Hardly anything was saved from the wreck. 4. □ like anything very strongly □ it's raining like anything it's pouring down with rain □ anything else any other thing ○ Do you want anything else to drink? ○ Is there anything else you would like to know about? ○ She must have a doll which closes its eyes – anything else won't do.

① anyway /'eniweɪ/ adv in any case ○ I'm not supposed to drink during the daytime, but I'll have a beer anyway. ○ I think it's time to leave – anyway, the last bus is at 11.40. Synonym anyhow

① anywhere /'eniweə/ adv 1. it does not matter where ○ put the chair anywhere 2. (in questions, negatives) somewhere ○ I can't see your wallet anywhere. ○ Did you go anywhere at the weekend? ○ Is there anywhere where I can sit down? (NOTE: Another US term is anyplace.) aorta /eɪ'ɔ:tə/ noun the large artery which takes blood away from the left side of the heart and carries it to other arteries

① apart /ə'pa:t/ adv 1. separated ○ The two churches are about six miles apart. 2. not together ○ They were married but now they're living apart. 3. in separate pieces ○ He took the watch apart. □ the watch came apart the watch opened into pieces 4. □ to tell something, someone apart to realise how two things or people are different ○ The twins are very alike – can you tell them apart?

apartheid /ə'pa:θeɪtɪd/ noun a policy in the past in South Africa of separating black people from the white population

② apartment /ə'pa:tment/ noun a separate set of rooms for living in ○ She has an apartment in downtown New York.

apathetic /,æpə'θetɪk/ adj not caring about anything, not interested in anything. Synonym indifferent. Antonym enthusiastic apathy /'æpəθi/ noun not having any interest in anything. Synonym indifference (NOTE: no plural)

ape /eɪp/ noun a large monkey ■ verb to copy someone else's behaviour ○ The younger children often ape the behaviour of their older brothers and sisters. Synonym imitate aperture /'æpətʃə/ noun 1. a little hole 2. the opening in front of a camera lens, which can be made larger or smaller apex /'eɪpeks/ noun the top or highest part of a pointed shape. Synonym top (NOTE: The plural is apexes.) aphid /'eɪfɪd/, aphis /'eɪfɪs, 'æfɪs/ noun a small insect which sucks liquids from plants and can multiply very quickly aphorism /'æfərɪz(ə)m/ noun a short saying which is full of truth. Synonym saying aphrodisiac /,æfrə'diziæk/ noun a substance which makes people want to have sex ■ adj making people want to have sex apiece /ə'pɪs/ adv each aplomb /ə'plomb/ noun a calm and self-confident attitude. Synonym assurance

Apocalypse /ə'pɒkəlɪps/ noun 1. the last book of the New Testament 2. the end of the world apocalyptic /ə'pɒkə'lɪptɪk/ adj warning about the end of the world apocryphal /ə'pɒkrəf(ə)l/ adj famous, but probably not true. Synonym mythical apologetic /ə'pɒlə'dʒetɪk/ adj showing that you are sorry for something. Synonym sorry. Antonym unrepentant apologetically /ə'pɒlə'dʒetɪkli/ adv in an apologetic way

② apologise /ə'pɒlədʒaɪz/, apologize verb to say you are sorry ○ He shouted at her and then apologised. ○ She apologised for being late. ○ Did you apologise to your mother for what you said?

② apology /ə'pɒlədʒi/ noun an act of saying 'sorry' (NOTE: The plural is apologies.) apostrophe /ə'postrəfi/ noun a printing sign (‘), either showing that a letter has been left out or to show possession

COMMENT: An apostrophe either shows that a letter has been left out (weren't) or is used with 's' to show possession: before an 's' with singular words, after the 's' with plural words (a boy's coat, the girls' team).

appal /ə'pɔ:l/ verb , to shock or offend someone very much (NOTE: The US spelling is appall.)

appalled /ə'pɔ:ld/ adj very shocked. Synonym horrified. Antonym delighted appalling /ə'pɔ:liŋ/ adj horrible, shocking apparatus /ə'pɑ:ritəs/ noun scientific or medical equipment apparel /ə'pærəl/ noun clothes (literary). Synonym clothing

② apparent /ə'pærənt/ adj obvious, seeming to be ○ It was apparent to everyone that there had been an accident. ○ There is an apparent mistake in the accounts.

① apparently /ə'pærəntli/ adv as it seems ○ Apparently she took the last train home and then disappeared. ○ He didn't come to work today – apparently he's got a cold.

apparition /ə'pə:tɪʃ(ə)n/ noun something which you think you see. Synonym ghost

① appeal /ə'pi:l/ noun 1. an act of asking for help ○ The police have made an appeal for witnesses. ○ The hospital is launching an appeal to raise £50,000. 2. a legal request to look at a decision again to see if it was correct ○ His appeal was rejected. ○ The verdict was overturned on appeal. 3. an attractive quality ○ the appeal of Greece as a holiday destination □ sex appeal being sexually attractive ■ verb □ to appeal for to ask for ○ They appealed for money to continue their work.

Appeal Court /ə'pi:l kɔ:t/ noun a court to which a person may go to ask for a decision or a sentence to be changed appealing /ə'pi:liŋ/ adj attractive. Antonym repulsive

① appear /ə'pi:r/ verb 1. to start to be seen ○ A ship appeared through the fog. 2. to seem ○ There appears to be a mistake. ○ He appears to have forgotten the time. ○ She appeared rather cross. 3. to come to a law court ○ Mr Wilson appeared for the defence. ○ He appeared in court, charged with murder.

① appearance /ə'pi:rəns/ noun 1. look ○ You could tell from his appearance that he had been sleeping rough. 2. the state of being present ○ This is her second appearance in a film. □ to put in an appearance to come to a place where other people are

① appearances /ə'pi:rərənsiz/ plural noun looks □ to keep up appearances to try to show that you are still as rich or important as you were before appease /ə'pi:z/ verb 1. to try to improve something bad or uncomfortable 2. to give in to another country in the hope that they will not start a war appeasement /ə'pi:zmənt/ noun a policy of avoiding war by giving in to another country's wishes. Synonym conciliation. Antonym provocation appellant /ə'pelənt/ noun a person who makes a legal appeal appendage /ə'pendɪdʒ/ noun a thing that is attached appendicitis /ə'pendɪ'tsɪs/ noun an illness that affects the appendix

③ appendix /ə'pendiks/ noun 1. a small part inside the body which has no real purpose but can become infected, causing appendicitis (NOTE: The plural is appendices.) 2. a section at the back of a book, containing additional information (NOTE: The plural is appendices /ə'pendɪsɪz/.)

appetiser /'æpɪtaɪzə/ noun a small amount of food before a main meal appetising /'æpɪtaɪzɪŋ/, appetizing adj looking or smelling good and making you want to eat. Antonym unappetising appetite /'æpitɪt/ noun 1. a need or wish to eat ○ Going for a long walk has given me an appetite. ○ He's not feeling well and has lost his appetite. □ a good appetite an interest in eating food ○ The baby has a good appetite. □ poor appetite a lack of interest in eating food 2. a strong wish to do something ○ She has an appetite for hard work.

applaud /ə'plɔ:d/ verb to clap to show that you like something applause /ə'plɔ:z/ noun the act of clapping

① apple /'æp(ə)l/ noun 1. a common hard round sweet fruit, growing on a tree ○ Don't eat apples that are not ripe – they'll make you ill. 2. same as apple tree apple pie /,æp(ə)l'paɪ/ noun a pie made with apples and sugar apple tree /'æp(ə)l tri:/ noun a tree which apples grow on appliance /'ɔ:plaiəns/ noun 1. a machine such as a washing machine or cooker used in the home 2. a fire engine applicable /ə'plɪkəb(ə)l/ adj able to be applied in particular cases. Synonym appropriate applicant /'æplɪkənt/ noun a person who applies for something. Synonym candidate

① application /,æplɪ'keɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. the process of putting medicine on ○ Several applications of the cream will be necessary. □ for external application only to be used on the skin only 2. the process or act of applying for a job ○ He wrote a letter of application. ○ We've received dozens of applications for the job of barman. 3. hard work

③ application form /æplɪ'keɪʃ(ə)n fɔ:m/ noun a form which has to be filled in to apply for something applied science /ə'plaɪd 'saɪəns/ noun a science which is put to practical use

① apply /ə'plaɪ/ verb 1. □ to apply for a job to ask for a job ○ She applied for a job in the supermarket. ○ He's applying for a job as a teacher. 2. to put on ○ Wait until the first coat of paint is dry before you apply the second. 3. □ to apply to to affect or to be relevant to ○ This rule only applies to people coming from outside the EU.

① appoint /ə'pɔɪnt/ verb to give someone a job ○ He was appointed (as) manager or to the post of manager. ○ We want to appoint someone to manage our sales department. (NOTE: You appoint a person to a job.)

① appointment /ə'pɔɪntmənt/ noun 1. the process of being given a job □ on her appointment as manager when she was made manager ○ She had a rise on her appointment as manager. 2. an agreed time for a meeting ○ I want to make an appointment to see the doctor. ○ She was late for her appointment. ○ I have an appointment with the manager.

apposite /'æpəzɪt/ adj fitting or suitable. Synonym appropriate. Antonym inappropriate apposition /,æpə'zɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the practice of putting a word next to another □ in apposition (of a noun) used as an adjective to describe another noun

③ appraisal /ə'preɪz(ə)l/ noun a report on the value of someone or something. Synonym assessment appraise /ə'preɪz/ verb to judge how well someone or something is working. Synonym assess appreciable /'ɑ:pri:fəb(ə)l/ adj able to be felt or noticed. Synonym considerable. Antonym insignificant appreciably /'ɑ:pri:fəblɪ/ adv in a way which can be felt or noticed ① appreciate /ə'pri:fɪ,et/ verb 1. to recognise the value of ○ Shoppers always appreciate a bargain. ○ Customers don't appreciate having to wait to be served. 2. to increase in value ○ The pound appreciated against the euro.

appreciation /ə'pri:fɪ'eʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. showing that you recognise the value of something 2. an increase in value appreciative /ə'pri:fətrɪv/ adj 1. being very grateful 2. showing enjoyment apprehend /,æpri'hend/ verb to arrest a criminal (formal). Synonym catch. Antonym release apprehension /,æpri'henshən/ noun 1. a worry about what is going to happen. Compare misapprehension 2. the act of arresting someone apprehensive /,æpri'hensɪv/ adj worried about the future. Synonym uneasy. Antonym confident apprentice /ə'prentɪs/ noun a young person who works under contract with a skilled person to learn from them. Synonym trainee ■ verb □ to be apprenticed to someone to have a contract to work with and learn from a skilled worker ○ He has been apprenticed to one of the best printers in the country.

apprenticeship /ə'prentɪsɪpɪ/ noun 1. the contract of an apprentice 2. time spent as an apprentice

② approach /ə'prəʊtʃ/ noun 1. the act of coming nearer ○ With the approach of winter we need to get the central heating serviced. 2. a way which leads to ○ The approaches to the city were crowded with coaches. 3. a way of dealing with a situation ○ His approach to the question was different from hers. 4. a proposal ○ He made approaches to her to leave her job and come to work for him. (NOTE: The plural is approaches.) ■ verb 1. to come near ○ The plane was approaching London airport when the lights went out. 2. to deal with a problem ○ She approached the question in an entirely new way. 3. to make a proposal ○ Our company was approached with a takeover bid. ○ He approached his bank with a request for a loan.

approachable /ə'prəʊtʃəb(ə)l/ adj easy to talk to approaching /ə'prəʊtʃɪŋ/ adj coming nearer. Synonym imminent approach road /ə'prəʊtʃ rəʊd/ noun a road leading to a main road

① appropriate adj /ə'prəʊpriət/ suitable ○ That short skirt is not really appropriate for gardening. ○ We leave it to you to take appropriate action. Antonym inappropriate ■ verb /ə'prəʊpriet/ 1. to take property 2. to keep an amount of money for a special purpose ○ They appropriated £100,000 to the reserve fund.

② approval /ə'pru:v(ə)l/ noun 1. the act of agreeing ○ The committee gave their approval to the scheme. ○ Does the choice of colour have your approval or meet with your approval? 2. □ on approval taken by a customer to use and see if he or she likes it ○ The shop let us have the photocopier for two weeks on approval.

② approve /ə'pru:v/ verb 1. □ to approve of to think something is good ○ He doesn't approve of loud music. 2. to agree to something officially ○ The committee approved the scheme.

approving /ə'pru:vɪŋ/ adj showing agreement approvingly /ə'pru:vɪŋli/ adv showing agreement approximate adj /ə'prəksɪmət/ more or less correct. Antonym exact ■ verb /ə'prəksɪmeɪt/ to be nearly correct ○ The cost of the sports stadium will approximate to two million pounds.

① approximately /ə'prɒksɪmətlɪ/ adv nearly, but not exactly □ It takes approximately 35 minutes to get to central London from here.

approximation /ə'prɒksɪ'meɪʃ(ə)n/ noun a calculation which is not exact. Synonym estimate apricot /'eɪprɪkɒt/ noun a fruit with yellow flesh and a hard stone

① April /'eɪprəl/ noun the fourth month of the year, the month after March and before May □ Her birthday is in April. □ We went on holiday last April. □ Today is April 5th. (NOTE: April 5th or April 5: say 'the fifth of April' or 'April the fifth' or in US English 'April fifth').

April fool /,eɪprəl 'fu:l/ noun a person who is tricked on April 1st

① April Fools' Day /,eɪprəl 'fʊlz deɪ/ noun April 1st, a day when you play tricks on people apron /'eɪprən/ noun 1. a cloth worn over your clothes when cooking 2. (at an airport) a piece of ground on which planes can be parked apt /æpt/ adj 1. fitting well 2. □ apt to tending to □ Our old car was apt to break down on motorways.

aptitude /'æptɪt, tju:d/ noun a natural ability for doing something □ aptitude test test of someone's ability □ Twenty young people will take the aptitude test this month.

aqualung /'ækwəlʌŋ/ noun equipment for holding oxygen, which a person carries when swimming under water aquamarine /,ækwə'mæ'rɪ:n/ adj dark blue-green ■ noun a semi-precious blue stone aquarium /ə'kweəriəm/ noun 1. a tank for keeping tropical fish 2. a building with an exhibition of fish

Aquarius /ə'kweəriəs/ noun one of the signs of the Zodiac, shaped like a person carrying water, covering the period 20th January to 18th February aquatic /ə'kwætɪk/ adj 1. living in water, not on land (NOTE: Animals and plants that live on land are terrestrial.) 2. taking place in water aqueduct /'ækwɪdʌkt/ noun a high bridge carrying water over a valley aquifer /'ækwɪfə/ noun a layer of rock in which water gathers

Arab /'ærəb/ adj referring to the countries of the Middle East where Arabic is the language □ Foreign Ministers of the Arab countries have met in Jordan. ■ noun a person who speaks Arabic and who comes from one of the countries in the Middle East

Arabic /'ærəbɪk/ noun the language spoken by Arabs

Arabic numeral /,ærəbɪk 'nju:mərəl/ noun one of the set of written symbols such as 2, 3 or 6 used to represent numbers. Compare Roman numeral arable /'ærəb(ə)l/ adj referring to the growing of crops arachnid /'ærəknɪd/ noun a type of animal with eight legs, e.g. a spider arbiter /'ɑ:bitə/ noun a person who decides what is fashionable arbitrarily /'ɑ:bitrərɪlɪ, ,ə:bɪ'treərɪlɪ/ adv not according to a plan or system arbitrary /'ɑ:bitrərɪ/ adj done without any reason. Synonym random. Antonym systematic arbitrate /'ɑ:bitrɪteɪt/ verb □ to arbitrate in a dispute to act as an official judge in an argument □ He has been asked to arbitrate in the dispute between the company and the union.

arbitration /,ɑ:bɪ'treɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the settling of an argument by an official judge, accepted by both sides

③ arc /a:k/ noun 1. a curve, like part of a circle 2. a bright electric spark between two points. ■ arc-lamp (NOTE: Do not confuse with ark.)

③ arcade /a:k'eɪd/ noun a covered area for walking around a square or an area of shops

arcane /a:'keɪn/ adj mysterious and secret

③ arch /a:tʃ/ noun 1. a round structure forming a roof or doorway □ Norman arch an arch in the shape of a half-circle 2. the rounded part under the foot (NOTE: [all senses] The plural is arches.) ■ verb to make something round like an arch. Synonym curve. Antonym straighten archaeological /,ɑ:kiəl'ɒdʒɪk(ə)l/ adj referring to archaeology

③ archaeologist /,ɑ:kiə'lɒdʒɪst/ noun a person who studies or is a specialist in archaeology

③ archaeology /,ɑ:kiə'lɒdʒɪ/ noun the digging up of buried remains of buildings to study ancient civilisations archaic /a:'keɪk/ adj 1. dating from ancient times 2. old-fashioned archangel /'a:keɪndʒəl/ noun the highest rank of angel in heaven archbishop /a:tʃ'bɪʃəp/ noun a bishop holding the highest rank arched /a:tʃt/ adj made with an arch. Synonym curved archer /'a:tʃə/ noun a person who shoots with a bow and arrows archery /a:tʃərɪ/ noun the sport of shooting arrows at targets archetypal /,ɑ:ki'taɪp(ə)l/ adj very typical archetype /'a:kɪtaɪp/ noun a typical example of something archipelago /,a:kɪ'peləgəʊ/ noun a group of islands (NOTE: The plural is archipelagos.)

③ architect /'a:kɪtekɪt/ noun a person who designs buildings architectural /,a:kɪ'tekɪtʃ(ə)rəl/ adj referring to architecture

③ architecture /'a:kɪtekɪtʃə/ noun the design of buildings archive /'a:kaɪv/ noun 1. an organised collection of documents 2. a place where archives are kept 3. a copy of computer files stored on tape or disk 4. a computer file containing other files 5. a directory of files that Internet users can access ■ verb 1. to put a document in an archive 2. to transfer computer data from a hard disk to an external storage medium 3. to combine computer files for storage archives /'a:kaɪvz/ plural noun a collection of documents archway /'a:tʃweɪ/ noun a passage which goes under an arch arc-lamp /'a:klaemp/, arc-light /'a:klait/ noun a very bright light caused by an electric spark between two points arctic /'a:ktrɪk/ adj 1. referring to the area round the North Pole 2. extremely cold ■ noun □ the Arctic the area round the North Pole ○ The Arctic is home to polar bears.

ardent /'a:dnt/ adj very keen. Synonym passionate. Antonym dispassionate ardently /'a:dntli/ adj very strongly or passionately ardour /'a:də/ noun violent feelings of love or enthusiasm (NOTE: The US spelling is ardor.)

arduous /'a:dʒuəs/ adj needing a lot of effort or work. Synonym difficult. Antonym easy

① are /ə, a:/ ◊ be

① area /'eəriə/ noun 1. a space ○ The whole area round the town hall is going to be rebuilt. ○ We always sit in the 'no smoking' area. 2. a measurement of the space taken up by something, calculated by multiplying the length by the width ○ The area of the room is four square metres. ○ We are looking for a shop with a sales area of about 100 square metres. 3. a subject ○ It's a problem area for the government. ○ He's an expert in the area of crowd control. 4. a district, part of a town or country ○ Our house is near the commercial area of the town. ○ The factory is in a very good area for getting to the motorways and airports. □ the London area the part of England around London ○ Houses in the London area are more expensive than elsewhere in the country.

① area code /'eəriə kəʊd/ noun a special telephone number which is given to a particular area arena /ə'rɪ:nə/ noun 1. a building with seats for people to sit and watch events like sports or fights 2. a field of activity where something happens

① aren't /a:n't/ ◊ be argon /'a:gɒn/ noun an inert gas which is found in small quantities in air, and which is used in electric light bulbs arguable /'a:gjuəb(ə)l/ adj possibly not true. Synonym debatable arguably /'a:gjuəblɪ/ adv quite possibly true

① argue /'a:gu:/ verb to discuss without agreeing ○ They argued over the prices. ○ She argued with the waiter about the bill. ○ I could hear them arguing in the next room. (NOTE: You argue with someone about or over something.)

① argument /'a:gjumənt/ noun a quarrel ○ Nobody would back her up in her argument with the boss. ○ The argument took place in the restaurant. □ to get into an argument with someone to start to argue with someone ○ He got into an argument with the customs officials.

argumentative /,a:gju'mentətɪv/ adj liking to argue. Synonym quarrelsome. Antonym peaceable aria /'a:riə/ noun a song for a singer in an opera arid /'ærɪd/ adj extremely dry; where there is very little rain

Aries /'eəri:z/ noun one of the signs of the Zodiac, shaped like a ram, covering the period 21st March to 19th April

② arise /'a:raɪz/ verb 1. to start, to appear 2. □ to arise from to result from, to happen because of ○ The misunderstanding arose from a mistake in her instructions.

aristocracy /,ærɪ'stɒkrəsi/ noun the people of the highest class in society, usually with titles such as Lord or Duke. Synonym nobility. Antonym lower class aristocrat /'ærɪstəkræt/ noun a member of the aristocracy. Synonym noble aristocratic /,ærɪstə'krætɪk/ adj referring to the aristocracy

③ arithmetic /ə'rɪθmətɪk/ noun calculations with numbers, such as addition, subtraction and division arithmetical /,ærɪθ'metɪk(ə)l/ adj referring to arithmetic ark /a:k/ noun 1. a large ship (literary) 2. a small building for pigs (NOTE: Do not confuse with arc.)

① arm /a:m/ noun 1. the part of your body which goes from your shoulder to your hand ○ He held the parcel under his arm. ○ She tripped over the pavement and broke her arm.

□ arm in arm (of two people) with their arms folded together ○ They walked down the street arm in arm. □ to welcome someone with open arms to welcome someone in a very friendly way ○ The villagers welcomed the UN soldiers with open arms. ♦ cost 2. the sleeve of a piece of clothing such as a coat or shirt ○ There was a hole under the arm of her favourite T-shirt. 3. the part of a chair which you can rest your arms on ○ He put his coffee cup on the arm of his chair. 4. a narrow stretch of sea running inland 5. a part of the armed forces of a country ■ verb to give weapons to ○ The farm workers have all been armed because of possible attacks. ○ The soldiers were armed with guns. Antonym disarm armada /ɑ:rmədə/ noun 1. a large number of warships 2. a large group of any ships armadillo /,ɑ:rmə'diləʊ/ noun a small South American animal covered with a shell

Armageddon /,ɑ:rmə'gедn/ noun in the Bible, a battle between good and evil that will destroy the world armaments /'ɑ:məmənts/ plural noun heavy weapons ○ an important armaments manufacturer ○ Britain has been supplying armaments to the Middle Eastern countries.

Synonym arms

armband /'ɑ:mbænd/ noun a band of cloth which goes round your arm armchair /'ɑ:mtʃeə/ noun a chair with arms

② armed /ɑ:md/ adj (of a person) carrying weapons ○ Most British policemen are not armed. ○ Armed police guarded the house. Antonym unarmed □ armed to the teeth carrying lots of weapons (informal) ○ The robbers were armed to the teeth.

armed forces /ɑ:md fɔ:ss/, armed services /ɑ:md 'sɜ:visɪz/ plural noun the army, navy and air force of a country armful /'ɑ:mfʊl/ noun an amount of things you can carry in your arms armhole /'ɑ:mhəʊl/ noun a hole in a piece of clothing through which you put your arm armistice /'ɑ:mɪstɪs/ noun an agreement to stop fighting. Synonym truce

Armistice Day /'ɑ:mɪstɪs deɪ/ noun November 11th, or the nearest Sunday, celebrating the end of the First World War and remembering the dead of both World Wars. Also called Poppy Day, Remembrance Day armour /'ɑ:mə/ noun 1. metal clothing which soldiers wore in the past, to protect their bodies 2. sheets of thick metal covering on military ships or vehicles, to protect them against attack (NOTE: [all senses] The US spelling is armor.)

armoured /'ɑ:med/ adj protected by armour (NOTE: The US spelling is armored.)

armpit /'ɑ:mpɪt/ noun the part of your body under each arm where it joins the body armrest /'ɑ:mrest/ noun the part of a chair which you rest your arm on ① arms /ɑ:mz/ plural noun weapons such as guns or bombs ○ He's a well-known arms dealer. ○ They were selling arms to various countries. ■ noun □ up in arms about very annoyed about ○ They are up in arms about the new bus timetable.

arms race /"ɑ:mz reɪs/ noun competition between countries to have the largest number of weapons or the most powerful weapons

① army /'ɑ:mi/ noun 1. all the soldiers of a country, trained for fighting on land ○ He left school at 16 and joined the army. ○ An army spokesman held a news conference. 2. a large number of people ○ An army of volunteers helped put out the forest fire. (NOTE: The plural is armies) aroma /ə'rəʊmə/ noun a pleasant smell of something you can eat or drink aromatherapy /ə,rəʊmə'θerəpɪ/ noun a treatment with pleasant-smelling oils aromatic /,ərə'mætɪk/ adj with a strong pleasant smell aromatic herb /,ərə'mætɪk 'hɜ:b/ noun a plant which has a pleasant smell and which can be used as flavouring for food or in substances which you use to clean your hair or skin

① around /ə'raʊnd/ prep 1. going all round something ○ She had a gold chain around her neck. ○ The flood water was all around the village. 2. close to or in a place or area ○ Is there a bus stop around here? ○ It's the only swimming pool for miles around. 3. in various places ○ We have lots of computers around the office. 4. more or less ○ It will cost around £200. ○ Around sixty people came to the meeting. ■ adv 1. in various places ○ Papers were lying around all over the floor. ○ The restaurants were all full, so we walked around for some time. 2. surrounding something ○ a castle with water all around 3. close to, nearby ○ The children stood around waiting for the bus. 4. in existence ○ She's one of the best eye surgeons around. ○ The new coins have been around for some weeks now.

arousal /ə'raʊz(ə)l/ noun a feeling of sexual excitement arouse /ə'raʊz/ verb 1. to make someone feel a particular emotion □ someone is easily aroused it is easy to make someone angry 2. to make someone behave in a particular way, e.g. become excited about something 3. to make someone feel sexually excited. Compare rouse arpeggio /ə'pɛdʒiəʊ/ noun a set of musical notes where the notes are played one after the other and not all together (NOTE: The plural is arpeggios.)

② arrange /ə'reɪndʒ/ verb 1. to put in order ○ The chairs are arranged in rows. ○ The books are arranged in alphabetical order. ○ The ground floor is arranged as an open-plan area with a little kitchen at the side. 2. to organise ○ Let's arrange to meet somewhere before we go to the theatre. ○ The tour has been arranged by the travel agent. ○ She arranged for a taxi to meet him at the airport. ○ I've arranged with my mother that she will feed the cat while we're away. 3. to change a piece of music in order to make it suitable for playing on different instruments ○ The piece was written for the piano, but it has been arranged for full orchestra. (NOTE: You arrange for someone to do something; you arrange for something to be done; or you arrange to do something.)

② arrangement /ə'reɪndʒmənt/ noun 1. the process of putting things into an order ○ the arrangement of the pictures in a book 2. a thing which has been arranged 3. the process of organising an event ○ All the arrangements for the wedding were left to the bride's mother. 4. a general agreement ○ We have an arrangement by which we meet for lunch every Tuesday.

③ array /ə'rei/ noun a display

arrears /ə'reɪz/ plural noun an amount of money which should have been paid earlier ○ She arranged to pay the arrears of rent in monthly instalments. ○ He let the payments fall into arrears. ■ noun □ to be in arrears to owe money which should have been paid earlier ○ He is six weeks in arrears with his rent.

③ arrest /ə'rest/ noun the act of holding someone for breaking the law ○ The police made several arrests at the demonstration. □ under arrest held by the police ○ After the demonstration, three people were under arrest. ■ verb to hold someone for breaking the law ○ The police arrested two men and took them to the police station. ○ He ended up getting arrested as he tried to leave the country. ○ She was arrested for stealing, but the judge let her off with a fine.

① arrival /ə'raɪv(ə)l/ noun 1. the act of reaching a place ○ We announce the arrival of flight AB 987 from Tangiers. ○ We apologise for the late arrival of the 14.25 express from Edinburgh. ○ The time of arrival is 5 p.m. □ on arrival when you arrive ○ On arrival at the hotel, members of the party will be allocated rooms. 2. a person who has arrived ○ He's a new arrival on our staff. 3. the birth of a baby ○ The arrival of their daughter was announced in the newspapers.

arrivals /ə'raɪv(ə)lz/ noun the part of an airport that deals with passengers who are arriving. Compare departures

① arrive /ə'raɪv/ verb to reach a place ○ They arrived home tired out. ○ The train from Paris arrives in London at 5 p.m. (NOTE: You arrive in a town or in a country but at a place.)

③ arrogance /'ærəgəns/ noun a feeling of being very proud of yourself, and thinking that you are much better than others. Synonym conceit. Antonym humility arrogant /'ærəgənt/ adj very proud in an unpleasant way. Synonym conceited arrogantly /'ærəgəntli/ adv too proudly arrow /ə'rəʊ/ noun 1. a a weapon made of a piece of wood with a sharp point, which you shoot from a bow 2. a printed sign (➔) which points to something arrowhead /'ærəʊhed/ noun a sharp metal head attached to the end of an arrow arse /a:s/ noun the part of your body that you sit on (offensive) arsenal /'a:sn(ə)l/ noun 1. a store of weapons 2. a collection of things which can be used arsenic /'a:snɪk/ noun a very poisonous substance arson /'a:s(ə)n/ noun the crime of setting fire to something such as a building or some property arson attack /'a:s(ə)n ə,tæk/ noun an act of setting fire to something such as a house arsonist /'a:s(ə)nɪst/ noun a person who sets fire to buildings or property on purpose

① art /a:t/ noun 1. the practice of creating objects, e.g. by painting, drawing or sculpture, or the objects that are created in this way ○ She is taking art lessons. ○ When you're in Washington, don't miss the Museum of Modern Art. 2. the practice of playing music or singing ○ a musician who lives for her art □ arts 3. a particular skill or ability at doing something ○ He has mastered the art of not answering reporters' questions.

③ artefact /'a:tɪfækt/ noun an object such as a tool or a dish that was made by a person in the past arterial /ə:'tɪəriəl/ adj referring to arteries artery /ə:təri/ noun a tube carrying blood from the heart around the body. Compare vein (NOTE: The plural is arteries.)

artful /'a:tf(ə)l/ adj clever, good at tricking people. Synonym crafty artfully /'a:tf(ə)li/ adv cleverly, in a way which tricks people art gallery /'a:t ,gæləri/ noun a building which has paintings and other art for people to go and see arthritic /ə:θrɪtɪk/ adj affected by arthritis

■ nar a person with arthritis arthritis /ə:θraɪtɪs/ noun a painful medical condition affecting a joint, where two bones meet artichoke /ə:tɪtʃoʊk/ noun □ Jerusalem artichoke

① article /ə:tɪk(ə)l/ noun 1. a report in a newspaper □ Did you read the article on skiing in yesterday's paper? 2. a section of a legal agreement □ See article 8 of the treaty. 3. an object or thing □ Several articles of clothing were found near the road. 4. a word used before a noun to show whether you are referring to a particular or general example of something. The definite article is 'the' and the indefinite article is 'a' or 'an'.

articulate verb /ə:tɪkjuleɪt/ to speak in a clear and careful way ■ adj /ə:tɪkjulət/ describes someone who expresses thoughts clearly articulated lorry /ə:tɪkjoleɪtɪd 'lɔ:ri/ noun a large truck with two or more parts which are connected so that they can move in different directions at the same time, e.g. when going around a corner artifact /ə:tɪfækt/ another spelling of artefact

③ artificial /ə:tɪ'fɪʃ(ə)l/ adj not real □ She was wearing artificial pearls. Synonym imitation. Antonym real artificial insemination /ə:tɪfɪ'seɪm(ə)n/ in-sem'neɪʃ(ə)n/ noun a medical treatment in which cells from a man's sex organs are put into a woman's womb (the part of her body where a baby can grow) to make her pregnant. Abbr AI artificial intelligence /ə:tɪfɪ'seɪns/ in-telɪdʒəns/ noun the use of computer programs to make machines do things which people can do. Abbr AI artificially /ə:tɪ'fɪʃ(ə)li/ adv in a way that is false artificial respiration /ə:tɪfɪ'seɪp(ə)n/ respi-'reɪʃ(ə)n/ noun a treatment for helping someone who is almost dead by blowing air into their lungs so that they will start breathing again artillery /ə:tɪləri/ noun the large guns that an army has artisan /ə:rtɪ'za:n/ noun a skilled worker who makes things with his or her hands

② artist /ə:rtɪst/ noun a person who is skilled in making things such as paintings □ She collects paintings by 19th-century artists.

artiste /ə:tɪ'st/ noun a professional performer such as a singer or dancer artistic /ə:tɪstɪk/ adj 1. (of a person) showing skill or interest in art 2. arranged or done in a way that shows skill and looks beautiful artistically /ə:tɪstɪkli/ adv in an artistic way artistry /ə:tɪstri/ noun skill in a particular art

③ arts /ə:ts/ plural noun 1. all work connected with art 2. a subject of study which is not a science, e.g. history or literature art school /ə:t sku:l/ noun a college where students study subjects such as drawing and painting artwork /ə:t'wɜ:k/ noun things such as pictures or designs which are printed in a book or used in advertising arty /ə:ti/, arty-crafty /ə:ti 'kra:f'ti/ adj pretending to be artistic; making artistic things

① as /ə:z, æz/ conj 1. because □ As you can't drive, you'll have to go by bus. □ As it's cold, you should wear an overcoat. 2. at the same time that something else happens □ As he was getting into the bath, the telephone rang. □ The little girl ran into the road as the fire engine was turning the corner. 3. in the same way □ Leave everything as it is. □ You should take a holiday as the doctor told you.

■ prep 1. in a particular job □ She had a job as a bus driver. 2. because of being a particular type of person □ As a doctor, he has to know the symptoms of all the common diseases. 3. in a particular way □ She was dressed as a nurse. □ They treated him as a friend of the family. □ as...as used in comparisons □ as black as coal □ She is as tall as I am. □ I can't run as fast as you. □ as well in addition □ She came to have tea and brought her sister as well. □ We visited the castle and swam in the pool as well. □ as well as in addition to or together with □ He has a cottage in the country as well as a flat in town. □ As well as being a maths teacher, he is a part-time policeman. □ as for concerning or referring to a particular person or thing □ as from from a particular time □ as from next Friday □ as if, as though in the same way as asbestos /æs'bɛstəs/ noun a substance which does not burn, formerly used in buildings to protect against fire

③ ascend /ə:send/ verb 1. to go up 2. □ to ascend the throne to become king or queen

□ Henry VIII ascended the throne in 1509.

ascendancy /ə:sendənsi/ noun the influence or power that one person or group has over another

③ ascent /ə:sent/ noun the action of climbing up (NOTE: Do not confuse with assent.)

③ ascertain /ə:seə'te:n/ verb to check facts to see if they are true (formal) Synonym determine ascetic /ə:se'tɪk/ adj living in a simple way, without personal pleasures. Synonym aus-tere ■ noun a person who lives in a simple way without personal pleasures, usually for religious reasons. Antonym hedonist ascorbic acid /ə,skɔ:bɪk/ noun vitamin C, a natural food substance which is contained in many fruits and vegetables asccribe /ə'skrɪb/ verb □ to asccribe something to something or someone to say that something is caused by something or someone ○ He ascribed his business failures to bad luck.

asexual /eɪ'sekʃuəl/ adj with no sexual organs or without having sex ash /æʃ/ noun 1. a grey dust left after something has burned (NOTE: no plural in this meaning, but see also ashes) 2. a type of tree that grows in the northern part of Europe ③ ashamed /ə'ʃeɪmd/ adj a feeling of being embarrassed and sorry for something that you have done or not done ashen /'æf(ə)n/ adj looking very pale and ill. Synonym palid ashes /'æʃɪz/ plural noun the grey dust that remains when the body of a dead person has been cremated ashore /ə'ʃɔ:/ adv to or onto land, e.g. from the sea or from a ship. □ shore

③ ashtray /'æʃtreɪ/ noun a little dish for cigarette ash

Ash Wednesday /æʃ 'wenzdeɪ/ noun the first day of Lent, the day after Shrove Tuesday

① Asian /'eɪzɪən/ adj referring to Asia ■ noun a person coming from one of the countries of Asia, especially the Indian subcontinent ○ More than half the children in the class are Asians.

Asiatic /eɪʃɪ'ætɪk/ adj referring to things from Asia

③ aside /ə'saɪd/ adv 1. to one side ○ He took me aside and whispered in my ear. □ to put aside, to set aside to save money ○ He is putting £50 aside each week to pay for his car. 2. □ aside from apart from ○ Aside from a minor infection, his health has been remarkably good. ■ noun words that a character in a play speaks but which the other characters do not seem hear

① ask /a:sk/ verb 1. to put a question to get information ○ She asked a policeman the way to the hospital. ○ Joe went to the railway station to ask about cheap tickets. ○ Ask Mum how much her shoes cost. □ to ask after someone to ask for news about someone, especially about his or her health ○ Several of your colleagues were asking after you. 2. to put a question to get someone to do something ○ Ask your father to teach you how to drive. ○ Can I ask you not to make so much noise? 3. to invite ○ We asked them round for dinner. □ to ask someone out to ask someone to go out with you, e.g. to a restaurarant or to a film ○ Don't ask her out – she always orders the most expensive things on the menu!

askance /ə'skæns/ adv □ to look at something or someone askance to look at something or someone in a way that shows you do not trust them askew /ə'skjʊ:/ adv not straight ○ That picture's askew. Synonym crooked

① ask for /'a:sk fɔ:/ verb to say that you want something □ ask for something back to ask someone to give back something which you had lent to him or her asking /'a:skɪŋ/ noun □ it's yours for the asking you only have to ask for it and you will get it asking price /'a:skɪŋ præs/ noun the price which someone wants to charge for something which he or she is selling

① asleep /ə'slɪp/ adj sleeping ○ He was asleep and didn't hear the fire alarm. ○ They were lying asleep on the ground. □ to fall asleep to begin to sleep

asp /æsp/ noun a small poisonous snake asparagus /ə'spærəgəs/ noun a green vegetable that has long thin stems and pointed tips and which you cook before eating ① aspect /'æspekt/ noun 1. a way of considering something such as a situation or a problem ○ I will examine several aspects of the problem. 2. the direction in which a house faces ○ The living room has a southerly aspect.

aspersions /ə'spɜ:sʃ(ə)nɪz/ plural noun □ to cast aspersions on someone to make bad comments about someone ○ He cast aspersions on my honour.

asphalt /'æsfælt/ noun a mixture of tar, small stones and sand, used for making road surfaces ■ verb to cover a road with asphalt ○ The path will be asphalted during the summer.

asphyxia /æs'fɪksiə/ noun a situation in which someone is prevented from breathing and therefore cannot take air into the lungs. Synonym suffocation asphyxiate /æs'fɪksiēt/ verb to stop someone breathing, or to die because of being unable to breathe. Synonym suffocate asphyxiation /æs'fɪksi'eɪʃ(ə)n/ noun death caused by being unable to breathe. Synonym suffocation aspire /'a:spɪrət/ noun a speech sound made by breathing out, e.g. the 'h' in 'horse'

③ aspiration /'æspɪ'reɪʃ(ə)n/ noun something which you want to achieve or to be successful at. Synonym ambition aspirational adj typical of people who want to become more successful and be able to afford a more expensive home and way of life

③ aspire /ə'spaɪə/ verb □ to aspire to something to want to achieve something ○ He aspires to great success as an actor.

① aspirin /ə'sprɪn/ noun 1. a common drug, used in the treatment of slight illnesses to reduce pain 2. a pill that contains aspirin aspiring /ə'spaɪərɪŋ/ adj hoping to get something

③ ass /æs/ noun 1. US the part of your body that you sit on (offensive) 2. a stupid person (informal) 3. a donkey (old) (NOTE: The plural is asses.)

assail /ə'seɪl/ verb to attack someone or something (formal) assailant /ə'seɪlənt/ noun a person who attacks someone. Synonym attacker assassin /ə'sæsɪn/ noun a person who kills someone famous, especially for political reasons assassinate /ə'sæsɪneɪt/ verb to kill a famous person, especially for political reasons ③ assassination /ə'sæsɪ'næf(ə)n/ noun the act of killing a famous person for political reasons

③ assault /ə'sɔːlt/ noun an attack ■ verb to attack assemble /ə'semb(ə)l/ verb 1. to come together 2. to put something together

② assembly /ə'sembli/ noun 1. a meeting 2. the process of putting something together assembly line /ə'sembli laɪn/ noun a moving line in a factory, where the product moves slowly past workers who add pieces to it as it goes past assent /ə'sent/ noun the approval of or agreement with something such as a suggestion. Synonym approval ■ verb □ to assent to something to agree to something ○ The committee assented to the suggestion.

③ assert /ə'sɜːt/ verb to state something firmly □ to assert yourself to state your opinions strongly

③ assertion /ə'sɜːʃ(ə)n/ noun a statement of something which you believe to be true but of which you have no proof. Synonym claim assertive /ə'sɜːtɪv/ adj confident and stating your opinions in a strong way. Synonym self-confident. Antonym shy

② assess /ə'ses/ verb 1. to calculate an amount to be paid 2. to consider something such as someone's achievement or progress in order to decide if it is satisfactory

② assessment /ə'sesmənt/ noun 1. a calculation of an amount to be paid 2. the process of assessing someone or something assessor /ə'sesə/ noun a person who calculates the results of people who have taken an examination

② asset /'æsət/ noun a valuable quality assets /'æsəts/ plural noun the valuable things which people own ○ They will have to sell some of their assets to repay the debt.

assiduity /,æsɪ'dju:ti/ noun the practice of working in a careful and regular way. Synonym diligence. Antonym carelessness assiduous /ə'sɪdjuəs/ adj careful and regular. Synonym diligent. Antonym careless assign /ə'saɪn/ verb □ to assign someone to something to give someone the job of doing something ○ She was assigned to the booking office. ○ We are assigning you to work in the accounts department.

① assignment /ə'saɪnmənt/ noun 1. the act of giving someone a job to do 2. a job of work 3. a piece of written work which a student has to do assimilate /ə'sɪmɪleɪt/ verb 1. to learn and understand 2. (of the body) to change the food that you have just eaten into substances can be used 3. □ to be assimilated into a group to become part of a group ○ She assimilated into the teaching community very easily.

assimilation /ə'sɪmɪ'leɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the action of assimilating something or someone

③ assist /ə'sɪst/ verb to help someone ○ He assists me with my income tax forms. ○ I will be assisted in my work by Miss Smith. (NOTE: You assist someone in doing something or with something.)

② assistance /ə'sɪst(ə)ns/ noun help ○ He was trying to change the wheel, when a truck drew up and the driver offered his assistance. ○ He asked if he could be of any assistance. ○ She will need assistance with her luggage.

② assistant /ə'sɪst(ə)nt/ noun a person who helps or is second in command to someone ○ His assistant works in the office next door. Synonym helper

② associate verb /ə'səʊsɪeɪt/ □ to associate with to have contact with or be connected with someone or something ○ I don't want you to associate with that family – they've all been in trouble with the police. ○ The government is closely associated with the project. ■ noun /ə'səʊsiət/ a person who works in the same business as you

① associated /ə'səʊsɪeɪtɪd/ adj connected with

① association /ə'səʊsi'eɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. an official group of people or a group of companies in the same trade ○ an association offering support to victims of street violence ○ the Association of British Travel Agents 2. a connection between things ○ For some people, a black cat has an association with luck. ○ Manchester has strong family associations for him. 3. □ in association with to gether with ○ The guidebook is published in association with the local tourist board. ○ This programme is brought to you in association with British Airways.

assorted /ə'sɔ:tɪd/ adj various, mixed assortment /ə'sɔ:tment/ noun a mixture of a lot of things that have some differences, e.g., in shape or colour assuage /ə'sweɪdʒ/ verb to make an unpleasant feeling or experience feel less painful (formal)

① assume /ə'sju:m/ verb 1. to imagine or believe that something is true ○ Let's assume that he is innocent. ○ I assume you have enough money to pay for the meal? 2. to take on something such as a responsibility ○ When she was twenty-one, she assumed complete control of the family business. ○ He has assumed responsibility for fire safety.

assumed name /ə,sju:mnd/ 'neɪm/ noun a false name. Synonym alias

③ assuming /ə'sju:mɪŋ/ conj believing something to be true

② assumption /ə'sʌmpʃən/ noun a belief that something is true

assurance /ə'ʃʊərəns/ noun 1. an attitude of confidence in your own abilities ○ He didn't have the assurance to face a press conference. Synonym self-confidence 2. the fact of being sure that something will happen 3. a promise ○ He gave her an assurance that he would not do it again.

② assure /ə'ʃʊə/ verb 1. to state something definitely 2. to make sure that something will happen 3. to provide someone with insurance assured /ə'ʃʊəd/ adj very certain and confident asterisk /'æstərɪsk/ noun a printing sign like a star, used to draw attention to something astern /ə'stɜ:n/ adv 1. behind a ship 2. □ to go astern to make a ship go backwards ○ The ferry had to go full speed astern so as not to hit the barge.

asteroid /'æstərɔɪd/ noun a mass of rock that travels in a path round the sun asthma /'æsmə/ noun a medical condition in which someone suffers breathing difficulty, often because a particular substance has a bad effect on his or her body asthmatic /æs'mætɪk/ adj referring to or affected by asthma ○ He has an asthmatic attack every spring. ○ Their little girl is asthmatic. ■ noun a person who has asthma

③ astonish /ə'stɒnɪʃ/ verb to surprise someone very much. Synonym amaze astonished /ə'stɒnɪʃt/ adj very surprised. Synonym amazed astonishing /ə'stɒnɪʃɪŋ/ adj very surprising. Synonym amazing astonishingly /ə'stɒnɪʃɪŋli/ adv very surprisingly astonishment /ə'stɒnɪʃmənt/ noun great surprise. Synonym amazement

③ astound /ə'staʊnd/ verb to surprise someone completely. Synonym astonish astounded /ə'staʊndɪd/ adj very surprised. Synonym astonished astounding /ə'staʊndɪŋ/ adj very surprising. Synonym astonishing astray /ə'streɪ/ adv □ to go astray to get lost ○ Yet another spoon seems to have gone astray; we can't find it anywhere. □ to lead someone astray to encourage someone to bad habits ○ It appears that the boy was led astray by some of the older boys at school.

astride /ə'strɪd/ adv, prep with your legs on either side of something ○ He was sitting astride his bicycle, with both feet on the ground. ○ Sit astride and hold tight.

astrigent /ə'strɪndʒənt/ adj 1. severe or extremely unkind 2. describes a substance which you put on your skin, e.g. as a beauty treatment or to stop the flow of blood from a cut ■ noun an astrigent substance astronomer /ə'strɒlədʒə/ noun a person who claims to be able to tell what will happen in the future, by looking at the positions of the planets and stars astrological /'æstrə'lɒdʒɪk(ə)l/ adj referring to astrology astrology /ə'strɒlədʒɪ/ noun the practice of saying what the future will be by looking at the position of the planets and the stars (NOTE: no plural)

③ astronaut /'æstrənɔ:t/ noun a person who travels into space astronomer /ə'strɒnəmə/ noun a person who studies astronomy astronomical /,æstrə'nɒmɪk(ə)l/ adj 1. referring to astronomy 2. (of a price or amount) very large (informal)

③ astronomy /ə'strɒnəmɪ/ noun the scientific study of the stars, sun and planets (NOTE: no plural) astrophysics /,æstrə'fɪzɪks/ noun the study of the physics of the universe (NOTE: no plural) astute /ə'stju:t/ adj clever at understanding things quickly. Synonym shrewd astutely /ə'stju:tli/ adv cleverly astuteness /ə'stju:tənəs/ noun the quality of being astute

③ asylum /ə'saɪləm/ noun 1. the right to stay in another country if you have been treated badly in your own country ○ to seek asylum ○ to grant someone asylum ○ to ask for political asylum 2. a hospital for people who have mental illnesses (old) asylum seeker /ə'saɪləm 'sɪ:kə/ noun a person who asks for permission to stay in another country because the political situation in his or her own country is not safe for him or her to stay there asymmetrical /ə'sim'metrik(ə)l/ adj which does not have the same shape or size on both sides

① at /ət, æt/ prep 1. showing time ○ We'll meet at eleven o'clock. ○ You must put your lights on when you drive at night. ○ At the weekend, we went to see my mother. ○ We went to Paris at Easter. 2. showing place ○ Meet us at the post office. ○ She's got a job at the supermarket. ○ He's not at home, he's at work. 3. showing speed ○ The train was travelling at 200 kilometres an hour. 4. showing direction ○ They threw rotten eggs at the speaker. (NOTE: at is often used after verbs, e.g. to look at, to point at.) 5. showing cause ○ She laughed at my old coat.

① ate /et, eɪt/ eat

atheist /'eɪθiəst/ noun a person who believes there is no god. Compare agnostic. Synonym unbeliever. Antonym believer athlete /'æθlɪt/ noun a person who competes in sports such as running athlete's foot /'æθlɪts 'fʊt/ noun a skin infection on the feet, especially between the toes athletic /æθ'letɪk/ adj referring to athletics athletics /æθ'letɪks/ noun organised sports such as running or long jump (NOTE: no plural)

Atlantic Ocean /ət,laɪəntɪk 'əʊʃən/ noun the ocean between the Americas and Europe and Africa atlas /'ætləs/ noun a book of maps (NOTE: The plural is atlases.)

ATM abbr automated teller machine

② atmosphere /'ætməsfɪə/ noun 1. the air around the Earth ○ The atmosphere surrounds the Earth to a height of several hundred kilometres. 2. a general feeling ○ The atmosphere in the office was tense. ○ I like the friendly atmosphere at our college.

atmospheric /'ætməfɪs'ferɪk/ adj 1. referring to the atmosphere 2. mysterious, beautiful atoll /'ætɒl/ noun a ring-shaped island made of coral

③ atom /'ætəm/ noun 1. a very small basic piece of matter 2. a very small thing atom bomb /'ætəm bɒm/ noun a bomb using nuclear energy

④ atomic /'ætɒmɪk/ adj referring to atoms atomic bomb /'ætɒmɪk bɒm/ noun same as atom bomb atomic energy /'ætɒmɪk 'enədʒi/ adj energy created during a nuclear reaction atomic number /'ætɒmɪk 'nʌməbə/ noun the number of protons in one atom of a chemical element atomic weight /ə,tɒmɪk 'weɪt/ noun the ratio of the mass of an atom of an element to the mass of carbon 12 atomiser /'ætəmaɪzə/ noun an object which you use to send out a lot of small drops of liquid, e.g. into the air or onto your skin atone /ə'təʊn/ verb to do something which shows that you are sorry for doing something wrong (formal) atonement /ə'təʊnmənt/ noun the act of atoning for doing something wrong

A to Z /'eɪ tə 'zed/ noun a street map for a town, especially one for London atrium /'eɪtrɪəm/ noun 1. a very large open space in a building, often with a glass roof and arrangements of indoor plants, which acts as a central meeting point 2. one of two parts inside the heart (NOTE: The plural is atria.)

atrocious /ə'trəʊʃəs/ adj 1. very bad 2. extremely evil atrocity /ə'trɒsɪti/ noun an extremely evil act (NOTE: The plural is atrocities.)

atrophy /'ætrəfi/ noun a process in which an organ or other part of the body wastes away ■ verb to waste away or become smaller

② attach /ə'tætʃ/ verb 1. to fasten something to something ○ The gate is attached to the post. ○ I am attaching a copy of my previous letter. 2. to consider that something has a particular quality ○ She attaches great importance to hygiene.

attached /ə'tætʃt/ adj having a strong liking for someone or something (informal) attachment /ə'tætʃmənt/ noun 1. something which can be attached to something else 2. a liking for someone or something 3. a document attached to an email

① attack /ə'tæk/ noun 1. the act of trying to hurt someone or something ○ They made an attack on the town. □ under attack the situation of being attacked ○ The town is under attack from rebel guerrillas. 2. a criticism ○ He launched an attack on the government. 3. a sudden illness ○ She had an attack of malaria. ■ verb 1. to try to hurt someone or to hit someone ○ Three men attacked her and stole her watch. ○ The old lady was attacked by muggers. 2. to try to destroy something ○ They attacked the enemy camp.

② attacker /ə'tækə/ noun a person who attacks someone or something. Synonym assailant

③ attain /ə'teɪn/ verb to reach a particular status or rank or to be successful in something attainment /ə'teɪnmənt/ noun success in achieving something or reaching a particular goal

① attempt /ə'tempt/ noun an act of trying to do something ◇ He failed in his attempt to climb Mount Everest. ◇ All his attempts to get a job have failed. ◇ We closed down one shop in an attempt to cut costs. ◇ She passed her driving test at the second attempt. ◇ an attempt on someone's life the action of trying to kill someone ◇ verb to try to do something ◇ She attempted to commit suicide.

attempted /ə'temptid/ adj describes something which someone has tried to do ② attend /ə'tend/ verb to be present at an event ◇ She attended the wedding. ◇ They organised a protest meeting, but only one or two people attended.

attendance /ə'tendəns/ noun 1. the fact of being present at an event ◇ in attendance being with someone in order to help them ◇ The Queen unveiled the memorial, with Major Jones in attendance. 2. the number of people present at an event (NOTE: no plural) attendant /ə'tendənt/ noun 1. a person on duty in a place 2. a person who helps someone during a ceremony

attend to /ə'tend tu:/ verb 1. to give careful thought to something and deal with it 2. ◇ to attend to someone, to someone's needs to look after someone such as a customer or patient ◇ Wait here, please, someone will attend to you in a moment.

① attention /ə'tenʃən/ noun 1. the act of concentrating on what you are doing ◇ Don't distract the driver's attention. ◇ for the attention of words written on a letter to show that it is intended for a particular person to deal with it ◇ Mark your letter 'for the attention of the Managing Director'. Abbr FAO ◇ to pay attention to to concentrate on something and think about it carefully ◇ Pay attention to the instructions in the leaflet. ◇ Don't pay any attention to what she says! ◇ to turn your attention to something to start to think about something carefully 2. careful treatment ◇ Your shoulder needs some attention. ◇ His brakes could do with some attention. 3. the position of a soldier, standing straight, with heels together and looking straight ahead ◇ The guards stood to attention at the entrance of the palace.

attention span /ə'tenʃən spæn/ noun the length of time that someone can concentrate effectively on a particular job or activity attentive /ə'tentiv/ adj 1. listening carefully 2. being careful when dealing with someone attentively /ə'tentivli/ adv in an attentive way attest /ə'test/ verb ◇ to attest to something to state officially that something is true (formal) ◇ Many people attested to his honesty.

attic /'ætɪk/ noun a room or space at the top of a house under the roof. Synonym loft. Antonym cellar attire /ə'taɪə/ noun clothing (formal) (NOTE: no plural)

① attitude /'ætɪtju:d/ noun 1. the position of your body, e.g. standing or sitting ◇ His portrait shows him in a thoughtful attitude. 2. a way of thinking ◇ What is the government's attitude to the problem?

② attorney /ə'tɜːni/ noun US a lawyer

Attorney-General /ə,tɜːni 'dʒen(ə)rəl/ noun 1. one of the law officers in the UK government 2. the head of legal matters in the US federal government, in charge of the Department of Justice ② attract /ə'trækt/ verb to make someone want to come to a place or want to become involved in something such as a business ◇ The shops are lowering their prices to attract more customers. ◇ The exhibition attracted hundreds of visitors. ◇ We must see if we can attract more candidates for the job. ◇ to be attracted to someone to feel a sexual interest in someone ◇ I can't understand why she's attracted to him.

③ attraction /ə'trækʃən/ noun 1. the ability to attract 2. something which attracts people ◇ The Tower of London is a great tourist attraction. 3. the ability of a substance or object to make something move towards it. Antonym repulsion

② attractive /ə'træktyv/ adj 1. pleasant-looking ◇ They found the Lake District very attractive. ◇ She's an attractive young girl. 2. which attracts people ◇ There are some attractive bargains in the sale. ◇ The rival firm made him a very attractive offer.

attributable /ə'tribjʊtəb(ə)l/ adj probably the cause of something

③ attribute /'ætribju:t/ noun a quality that someone has ◇ to attribute something to 1. to say that something was caused by something ◇ The accident was attributed to faulty brakes. 2. to say that something was said or written by someone ◇ The remark was attributed to his father.

attribution /'ætri'bju:t(ə)n/ noun ◇ attribution to 1. the fact of saying that something was caused by something ◇ They confirmed the inspectors' attribution of the accident to faulty brakes. 2. the fact of saying that something was said or written by someone ◇ I disagree with his attribution of the poem to Shakespeare.

attributive /ə'tribjʊtiv/ adj (of an adjective) which comes before a noun and describes it

COMMENT: In 'the cold weather' the word 'cold' is attributive (as opposed to 'the weather is cold', where it is predicative).

atypical /ə'tɪpɪk(ə)l/ adj not typical. Antonym typical aubergine /'əʊbəʒɪn/ noun a dark purple shiny fruit of a small plant, used as a vegetable (NOTE: The US term is eggplant.)

auburn /'ɔ:bən/ adj of a dark reddish-brown colour auction /'ɔ:ksʃən/ noun a public sale in which an object is sold to the person who offers to pay the highest amount of money for it □ to put something up for auction to offer something for sale at an auction ■ verb to sell something at an auction auctioneer /'ɔ:kʃə'nɪə/ noun a person who runs an auction audacious /'ɔ:ti'deɪʃəs/ adj very brave or involving great risk audaciously /'ɔ:ti'deɪʃəsli/ adv in an audacious way audacity /'ɔ:dæsɪti/ noun audacious behaviour audible /'ɔ:diəb(ə)l/ adj which can be heard. Synonym perceptible. Antonym inaudible

audibly /'ɔ:di'bli/ adv in an audible way

② audience /'ɔ:diəns/ noun 1. the people watching a performance, e.g. at a theatre or cinema or on television, or listening to a radio programme □ Members of the audience cheered. □ There was a huge audience on the first night of the play. 2. a formal situation in which you can speak privately to an important person □ The ambassador had an audience with the President.

audio- /'ɔ:diəʊ/ prefix referring to sound □ audio tape

audiovisual /'ɔ:diəʊ'veɪʒuəl/ adj referring to sound and pictures that have been recorded together ■ noun an audiovisual recording audit /'ɔ:dit/ noun 1. an official check of a company's accounts 2. a careful examination of an organisation or a set of procedures to see how good they are. Synonym review ■ verb 1. to check accounts officially □ The accounts have not yet been audited. 2. to examine something carefully to see how good it is. Synonym review

③ audition /'ɔ:diʃ(ə)n/ noun a test for performers such as actors, singers or dancers, to see if they will be given a part in a play or film ■ verb 1. to hold an audition for a performer 2. to do an audition for a part □ Two hundred children auditioned for the part of the Artful Dodger.

auditor /'ɔ:dɪtə/ noun someone whose job is to check a company's accounts officially auditorium /'ɔ:drɪ'tɔ:riəm/ noun a large hall used for events such as concerts (NOTE: The plural is auditoriums or auditoria.)

augment /'ɔ:g'ment/ verb to increase an amount of something (formal) augmentation /,ɔ:gmen'teɪʃ(ə)n/ noun an increase (formal) augur /'ɔ:geɪə/ verb to be a sign for the future. Synonym foretell □ it doesn't augur well it is not a good sign

① August /'ɔ:gəst/ noun the eighth month of the year, the month after July and before September □ August 15 □ My birthday is in August. □ I left my job last August. □ Today is August 15th. (NOTE: August 15th or August 15: say 'August the fifteenth' or 'the fifteenth of August' or in US English 'August fifteenth'.)

① aunt /'a:nt/ noun the sister of your mother or father, or the wife of an uncle □ Say goodbye to Aunt Anne. □ She lives next door to my aunt.

auntie /'a:nti/, aunty noun an aunt (informal) au pair /'ɔ:u'peə/ noun a person, usually a young woman, who lives with a family in another country to learn the language while looking after children and helping to keep the house clean (NOTE: The plural is au pairs.)

aura /'ɔ:ra/ noun a general feeling or quality in a particular situation. Synonym air aural /'ɔ:riəl/ adj referring to hearing (NOTE: Do not confuse with oral.)

auspices /'ɔ:spɪsɪz/ noun □ under the auspices of organised by or supported with money from (formal) □ The concert is being held under the auspices of the local Chamber of Commerce.

auspicious /'ɔ:spɪʃəs/ adj likely to be successful. Antonym inauspicious

Aussie /'ɔ:zɪ/ (informal) adj Australian ■ noun an Australian □ There was a group of Aussies in the restaurant. (NOTE: The plural is Aussies.)

austere /'ɔ:stɪər/ adj 1. with a plain and simple appearance 2. with only the basic things you need to live austerity /'ɔ:stəriti/ noun 1. the quality of being austere 2. poor living conditions because people do not have much money

Australasian /,ɔ:st्रɔ:lɪəz(ə)n/ adj referring to Australasia, the part of the southern half of the world which includes Australia, New Zealand, and the Pacific Islands

Australian Rules football /,ɔ:streɪliən ru:lz 'fʊtbɔ:l/ noun a sport played by two teams of eighteen players on an oval field with an oval ball with the intention of scoring points by kicking the ball over the opponents' goal line (NOTE: In Australia the game is often called Footie.)

authentic /'ɔ:θentɪk/ adj original, not false or artificial authenticate /'ɔ:θentɪkeɪt/ verb to prove that something is authentic authentication /ɔ:θenti'keɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the act of proving that something is authentic authenticity /,ɔ:θen'tɪsɪti/ noun the fact of being authentic ② author /'ɔ:θə/ noun a writer ○ The books are written under a pseudonym and no one knows who the author is. ○ She is the author of a popular series of children's books.

authorisation /,ɔ:θɔraɪ'zeɪʃ(ə)n/, authorization noun official permission. Synonym approval authorise /'ɔ:θəraɪz/, authorize verb to give permission for something to be done. Synonym approve. Antonym forbid authoritarian /ɔ:θɒri'teəriən/ adj controlling people strictly. Synonym strict authoritative /ɔ:θɒritətɪv/ adj 1. in a powerful way, so that people will obey 2. recognised as expert authoritatively /ɔ:θɒritətɪvli/ adv in an authoritative way authorities /ɔ:θɒritiəz/ plural noun the government

① authority /ɔ:θɒriti/ noun 1. a power to do something ○ He has no authority to act on our behalf. 2. permission to do something ○ He signed without having my authority to do so. 3. where information is from ○ What is his authority for the story? 4. a ruling organisation ○ The education authority pays teachers' salaries. (NOTE: The plural in this meaning is authorities) 5. an expert ○ He's an authority on Greek literature. (NOTE: The plural in this meaning is authorities.)

autism /'ɔ:tɪz(ə)m/ noun a mental condition which makes people who have it unable to react to other people in the usual way autistic /ɔ:tɪstɪk/ adj having autism

① auto /'ɔ:təu/ noun a car (informal) autobiographical /,ɔ:təʊbɪɔ:græfɪk(ə)l/ adj referring to the writer's life autobiography /,ɔ:təʊbər'ɒgræfi/ noun a story of the life of a person written by himself or herself. Synonym memoirs autocrat /'ɔ:təkræt/ noun a person who governs or manages with total power over the people in a country or organisation autocratic /'ɔ:tə'krætɪk/ adj ruling like an autocrat

Autocue /'ɔ:təʊkju:/ trademark a screen which helps someone speaking on television by showing them the words of their speech autograph /'ɔ:təgræf/ noun a famous person's name written in their own writing for someone to keep ■ verb □ to autograph something for someone to write your name in something such as a book ○ I asked the goalkeeper to autograph the programme for me.

autograph hunter /'ɔ:təgræf 'hʌntə/ noun a person who tries to meet famous people to get their autographs automate /'ɔ:təmeɪt/ verb to use machines to do work which previously was done by people automated /'ɔ:təmeɪtɪd/ adj using machines in place of people. Synonym automatic automated teller machine /,ɔ:təmeɪtɪd 'telə mæʃɪn/ noun US a machine outside a bank from which money can be obtained when a card is inserted. Abbr ATM (NOTE: The British term is cashpoint machine.)

① automatic adj /,ɔ:tə'mætɪk/ which works by itself ○ There is an automatic device which cuts off the electric current. ■ noun 1. a gun which continues firing as long as the trigger is being pulled ○ The robbers opened fire with automatics. 2. a car which has automatic gear change ○ I prefer driving automatics to manual models.

① automatically /,ɔ:tə'mætɪklɪ/ adv 1. without thinking about what is being done 2. without people being involved automation /,ɔ:tə'meɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the practice of using machines instead of people to carry out work. Synonym mechanisation automobile /'ɔ:təməbɪl/ noun especially US a car automotive /,ɔ:tə'meʊtɪv/ adj referring to motor vehicles autonomous /ɔ:tənəməs/ adj self-governing

③ autonomy /ɔ:tənəmi/ noun 1. self-government 2. the fact of being able to decide what to do by yourself, without asking anyone else autopilot /'ɔ:təpɔ:ɪlət/ noun a machine which can fly a plane, allowing the pilot to rest autopsy /'ɔ:tɒpsɪ/ noun the examination of the body of a dead person to find the cause of death (NOTE: The plural is autopsies.)

① autumn /'ɔ:təm/ noun the season of the year between summer and winter (formal) ○ In autumn, the leaves turn brown. ○ We went on a walking holiday last autumn. ○ They say the building will be finished next autumn. ○ I'll be starting my new job in the autumn. (NOTE: The US term is fall.)

autumnal /ɔ:tʌmnl(ə)l/ adj referring to autumn auxiliary /ɔ:g'ziliəri/ adj which gives help

■ noun 1. a person who helps other workers 2. an auxiliary verb (NOTE: [all senses] The plural is auxiliaries.)

auxiliary verb /ɔ:g'ziliəri vɜ:b/ noun a verb that is used with another verb to show person, number, mood, tense, or aspect avail /ə'veɪl/ verb □ to avail yourself of something to make use of something ■ noun □ be of no avail to be no use □ to no avail without success ○ They tried pushing the car, but all to no avail.

COMMENT: The auxiliary verbs in English are be, do and have.

③ availability /ə'veɪlɪbɪlɪtɪ/ noun the fact of being available □ subject to availability if available ○ The goods will be supplied subject to availability.

① available /ə'veɪləb(ə)l/ adj 1. able to be obtained ○ The tablets are available from most chemists. 2. □ to make yourself available to arrange to be free to do something ○ I can make myself available to meet you next week.

avalanche /'ævələnts/ noun a fall of masses of snow down the side of a mountain □ avalanche season late spring, when increasing temperatures make the snow become soft on high mountains, and cause avalanches avant-garde /'ævəndʒ 'ga:d/ adj describes things such as forms of art or ways of thinking that are new, original and not traditional avarice /'ævərɪs/ noun a strong feeling of wanting to have and keep a lot of money. Synonym greed avaricious /'ævə'rɪʃəs/ adj wanting to have a lot of money and not spend it. Synonym greedy

Ave abbr avenue

avenge /ə'vendʒ/ verb to hurt or punish someone because they have done wrong to you or to someone close to you □ to avenge yourself on to make someone suffer for something wrong that they have done to you ○ She wanted to avenge herself on her rival. Compare revenge

③ avenue /'ævənju:/ noun 1. a wide street in a town, often with trees along the side 2. two parallel rows of trees 3. a way of dealing with a matter

① average /'æv(ə)rɪdʒ/ noun 1. a total calculated by adding several numbers together and dividing by the amount of numbers added ○ The temperature has been above the average for the time of year. ○ the average for the last three months or the last three months' average 2. □ on average as a rule ○ On average, £15 worth of goods are stolen every day. 3. a sharing of the costs of an insurance ■ adj 1. ordinary ○ It was an average working day at the office. ○ Their daughter is of above average intelligence. 2. calculated by dividing the total by the number of quantities ○ His average speed was 30 miles per hour. ■ verb to work out as an average ○ Price increases have averaged 10% per annum.

averse /ə'vers:əs/ adj (formal) □ to be averse to dislike ○ I'm averse to people smoking in pubs. □ not to be averse to to like ○ She is not averse to hard work. ○ He is not averse to the odd glass of wine with his meals.

aversion /ə'vers:ʃ(ə)n/ noun □ an aversion to or towards a dislike of ○ She has a great aversion to people who look away while talking to her. ○ You can't ask them together because of their mutual aversion towards each other.

avert /ə'vert/ verb 1. to prevent something happening 2. □ to avert your eyes to look away (formal) ○ On the sight of blood she averted her eyes.

aviation /ə'vei'seʃ(ə)n/ noun the action of flying aircraft avid /'ævɪd/ adj extremely keen avidly /'ævɪdli/ adv keenly avocado /,ævə'kɔ:dəʊ/ noun 1. a fruit which has a thick green or black skin and pale green flesh with a large seed inside 2. a tree that avocados grow on 3. a pale green colour

① avoid /ə'veɪd/ verb 1. to keep away from ○ Travel early to avoid the traffic jams. ○ Aircraft fly high to avoid storms. 2. to try not to do something ○ He's always trying to avoid taking a decision. ○ You must avoid travelling on Friday evenings. (NOTE: You avoid something or avoid doing something.)

avoidable /ə'veɪdəb(ə)l/ adj which could have been avoided avowed /ə'veaud/ adj publicly stated (formal) await /ə'weɪt/ verb to wait for something

① awake /ə'weɪk/ verb 1. to wake someone up ○ He was awoken by the sound of the telephone. 2. to wake up ○ He awoke when he heard them knocking on the door. ○ They awoke to find a fox in their tent. (NOTE: awaking – awoke /ə'wəʊk/ – has awoken)

■ adj not asleep ○ I can't get to sleep – it's 2 o'clock and I'm still awake. Antonym asleep (NOTE: awake cannot be used in front of a noun)

awaken /ə'weɪkən/ verb 1. to wake up 2. to wake someone up □ to awaken someone to a danger to warn someone of a danger ○ The president was finally awakened to the possibility of war.

awakening /ə'weɪk(ə)nɪŋ/ noun a waking up

① award /ə'wɔ:d/ noun 1. a prize ○ The coffee maker has won a design award. ○ The school has been nominated for an award. 2. a decision which settles a disagreement ○ The latest pay award has been announced. ■ verb to give something such as a prize, a degree or diploma, or other reward to someone

○ He was awarded first prize. ○ She was awarded damages. Synonym confer

award-winning /ə'wɔ:d, wɪnɪŋ/ adj having won an award or awards

① aware /ə'weə/ adj knowing something ○ I am not aware of any problem. ○ Is he aware that we have to decide quickly? □ not that I am aware of not as far as I know ○ Has there ever been an accident here before? – Not that I am aware of.

③ awareness /ə'weənəs/ noun a state of being aware awash /ə'wɔʃ/ adj ◇ awash with 1. covered with something, especially a liquid 2. possessing a lot of something ○ Just at the moment the company is awash with cash.

① away /ə'wei/ adv 1. at a particular distance or time ○ The nearest shop is three kilometres away. 2. moving or leading further from a person, place or object ○ We all waved as the bus moved away. ○ The track led away towards the sea. 3. (as emphasis, after verbs) without stopping ○ The birds were singing away in the garden. □ right away immediately ○ She ate the mince pie and right away asked for another one. 4. not here, somewhere else ○ The managing director is away on business. ○ My assistant is away sick. 5. (in sports) at your opponents' sports ground ○ Our team is playing away next Saturday.

away game /ə'wei geim/ noun game played at your opponents' sports ground

③ awe /ə:/ noun great fear or respect of someone □ to be in awe of someone to be frightened of someone ○ She is in awe of her father.

① awful /'ɔ:f(ə)l/ adj very bad or unpleasant ○ She felt awful about missing the party. ○ He's got an awful cold. ○ Turn off the television – that programme's awful! Synonym dreadful

① awfully /'ɔ:f(ə)li/ adv very (informal) awhile /ə'waɪl/ adv for a short time (literary)

① awkward /'ɔ:kwəd/ adj 1. embarrassing or difficult to deal with 2. difficult to use or deal with because of its shape, size or position ○ The handle's a very awkward shape. 3. not convenient 4. (of a person) not relaxed or confident on social occasions 5. (of a person) clumsy and unattractive in appearance or movement awkwardly /'ɔ:kwədli/ adv 1. in an awkward way 2. not conveniently awkwardness /'ɔ:kwədnəs/ noun 1. a feeling of being embarrassed 2. difficulty awning /'ɔ:nɪŋ/ noun a roof made of strong cloth, used to keep the sun or rain off awoke, awoken /ə'wəʊk, ə'wəʊkən/ □ awake awry /ə'rai/ adj 1. not straight 2. wrong axe /æks/ noun 1. a tool with a heavy sharp metal head, used for cutting through something 2. □ to get the axe to be stopped ○ The project got the axe. □ to have an axe to grind to have a personal reason for doing something, or a personal point of view which you keep repeating ○ You can ask him what he thinks as he doesn't have any particular axe to grind on this issue. ■ verb to get rid of □ to axe staff to tell people that they have to leave their job ○ Two hundred jobs are going to be axed. (NOTE: [all senses] The US spelling is ax.)

axiomatic /,æksɪə'mætɪk/ adj which everyone knows is true axis /'æksɪs/ noun an imaginary line through the centre of a round object such as a ball (NOTE: The plural is axes /'æksi:z/.)

axle /'æksəl/ noun a straight bar, usually made of metal, which connects the wheels in a vehicle aye /aɪ/ noun a yes vote □ the ayes have it the yes votes have won ■ interj □ aye aye sir! (in the navy) yes, sir!

azure /'æzəl/ adj bright blue (literary)

B

b /bi:/, B noun the second letter of the alphabet, between A and C

BA abbr bachelor of arts ○ She has a BA in Italian and music. (NOTE: written after the name: Jane Bushell BA) baa /ba:/ verb to make the sound that a sheep makes with its voice ■ noun the sound that a sheep makes with its voice babble /'bæb(ə)l/ noun 1. a little sound made by water as it flows ○ the babble of the stream 2. the sound of people talking together ○ a babble of voices in the next room

■ verb 1. (of water) to make a sound as it flows ○ We sat on the grass by a babbling brook. 2. to speak in a confused way ○ She babbled a few words and collapsed. ○ What's he babbling on about?

babe /'beɪb/ noun 1. a baby 2. an attractive young man or woman ○ She's a real babe! 3. a girl (informal, sometimes offensive) ○ Come on, babe, let's hit the town.

baboon /'bə'bu:n/ noun a type of large African monkey

① baby /'beɪbɪ/ noun 1. a very young child ○ Most babies start to walk when they are about a year old. ○ I've known him since he was a baby. □ to have a baby to give birth to a baby ○ She's going into hospital to have her baby. □ the baby of the family the youngest child in a family 2. a very young animal ○ a baby rabbit (NOTE: The plural is babies. If you do not know if a baby is a boy or a girl, you can refer to it as it: The baby was sucking its thumb.) baby carrier /'beɪbɪ ,kærɪə/ noun an object like a large flat bag with handles, for carrying a baby babyish /'beɪbɪʃ/ adj like a baby. Synonym childish

③ baby-sit /'beɪbɪ sit/ verb to look after a child or children in a house, while their parents are out (NOTE: baby-sitting – baby-sat)

④ baby-sitter /'beɪbɪ ,sɪtə/ noun a person who baby-sits baby talk /'beɪbɪ tɔ:k/ noun a way of speaking like a baby bachelor /'bætʃələ/ noun 1. a man who is not married ○ He's still a bachelor and I'm beginning to wonder if he'll ever get mar- ried. 2. a person with a first degree from a university ○ a bachelor of arts ○ He left university in 1988 with a Bachelor of Science degree.

bachelor's degree /'bætʃələr dɪ,grɪ:/ noun a first degree from a university

① back /bæk/ noun 1. the part of your body which is not in front ○ She went to sleep lying on her back. ○ He carried his son on his back. ○ Don't lift that heavy box, you may hurt your back. □ do something behind someone's back do something without telling the person who it affects □ to turn your back on someone to turn round so that your back is towards someone, as a sign that you are annoyed □ glad to see the back of someone pleased that someone has left □ to put someone's back up to annoy someone □ have broken the back of the work have done most of the work 2. the opposite part to the front ○ He wrote his address on the back of the envelope. ○ She sat in the back of the bus and went to sleep. ○ The dining room is at the back of the house. □ to know a place like the back of your hand to know a place extremely well □ to put trousers on back to front to put trousers on the wrong way round 3. one of the players in a sports team who tries to prevent the other team from getting a point ○ The backs should stay back to defend the goal. ■ adj 1. on the opposite side to the front ○ He knocked at the back door of the house. ○ The back tyre of my bicycle is flat. 2. referring to the past ○ back pay ■ adv 1. towards the back ○ He stepped back from the edge of the platform. ○ She leant back in her armchair. ○ Can you please sit back, I can't see the screen. 2. in the state that something was previously ○ Put the telephone back on the table. ○ She watched him drive away and then went back into the house. ○ She gave me back the money she had borrowed. ○ I'll phone you when I am back in the office. 3. in the past ○ Back in the 1950s, life was much less complicated than it is today. ■ verb 1. to go backwards, to make something go backwards ○ He backed or backed his car down the drive. □ to back away from to go backwards from something frightening ○ The little girl backed away from the dog. 2. to support with money ○ She is backing her son's restaurant. 3. to strongly support a particular person, opinion, etc. ○ We're backing the Prime Minister to win the election. (NOTE: Back is often used after verbs: to give back, to go back, to pay back, etc.)

backache /'bækəkeɪk/ noun a pain in the back back benches /'bæk ,bentfɪz/ plural noun in the British Parliament, the seats where ordinary members of parliament sit ③ backbone /'bækbaʊn/ noun 1. the series of bones which connect together down the back of a person or an animal ○ If you're careful, you ought to be able to lift the backbone off the fish before eating it. 2. strength of character ○ It takes someone with backbone to stand up to the government.

backdate /bæk'deɪt/ verb to put an earlier date on something

③ back door /bæk 'dɔ:/ noun a door at the back of a house

backer /'bækə/ noun 1. a person who supports a project with money ○ One of the company's backers has withdrawn. 2. a person who risks money by saying which horse, team, etc. will win a particular race or competition ○ Several backers lost thousands when the favourite fell at the last fence.

backfire /,bæk'faɪə/ verb 1. (of a car) to make a loud noise in the engine ○ The motor-bike backfired several times when I started it this morning. 2. (of a plan) to go wrong, to turn out exactly the opposite to what was expected ○ He was sure that everything would go according to plan and had never even thought it could backfire. ○ All their holiday plans backfired when their children got chickenpox.

backgammon /'bæk,gæmən/ noun a board game for two people, in which they move their playing pieces after throwing two dice

② background /'bækgraʊnd/ noun 1. a part of a picture which seems further away ○ The photograph is of a house with mountains in the background. ○ His white shirt stands out against the dark background. Compare foreground 2. past life or experience ○ He comes from a working class background. ○ Her background is in the restaurant business. 3. past details ○ He explained the background of the claim for damages.

background music /'bækgraʊnd ,mju:zɪk/ noun music played quietly as part of a film or in a place such as a restaurant backhand /'bækhaend/ adj referring to a way of hitting the ball in sports such as tennis in which the back of the player's hand moves towards the ball ■ noun a backhand shot. Antonym forehand backhanded /,bæk'hændɪd/ adj which could be taken also as an insult

③ backing /'bækɪŋ/ noun 1. financial support ○ He has the backing of a French bank. 2. the action of going backwards ○ Backing your car round corners is always difficult. 3. music played for a singer ○ She sings with an Irish backing group.

backlash /'bæklaʃ/ noun a reaction against something backlog /'bæklaʊg/ noun a lot of work which someone has not had time to do yet back out /,bæk 'aʊt/ verb 1. to make a car go backwards out of a place ○ He backed (the car) out of the garage into the main road. 2. to decide not to support a project ○ We had to cancel the project when the bank backed out.

③ backpack /'bækpæk/ noun a bag carried on your back. Synonym rucksack

③ backpacker /'bækpækə/ noun a person who goes walking for pleasure, carrying a backpack

③ backpacking /'bækpækɪŋ/ noun the activity of going on a long distance walk, carrying a backpack back pay /'bæk peɪ/ noun a part of a salary which has not been paid backpedal /'bæk,ped(ə)l/ verb 1. (on a bicycle) to move the pedals backwards 2. to change your point of view and do the opposite of what you had promised ○ The government is starting to backpedal over its pledge to cut taxes. ○ The minister had to backpedal rapidly when the papers found out about his speech.

back room /,bæk 'rom/ noun a room at the back of an office, where secret work is done back-room boys /'bæk ru:m ,bɔɪz/ plural noun people, especially scientists, who do important work that the public do not know about back seat /,bæk 'si:t/ noun 1. a seat in the back of a vehicle 2. a less important or active position in an organisation back seat driver /,bæk si:t 'draɪvə/ noun a passenger in a car who offers the driver advice backside /'bæksaɪd/ noun the part of the body you sit on (informal) backslash /'bækslæʃ/ noun a keyboard character (\\) in the form of a line that slopes to the left backspace /'bækspes/ noun the key that you press on a keyboard in order to move one space back on a computer screen backstage /bæk'steɪdʒ/ adv 1. off the stage in a theatre ○ The actors gathered backstage to wait for the audience to settle down. 2. hidden from view ○ She did a lot of work backstage to help the party win the election. ■ adj hidden from view ○ The football club has several backstage supporters who keep it afloat. ○ He did a lot of backstage work to help the poor people of the town.

back street /'bæk stri:t/ noun a street away from the main streets ○ He grew up in the back streets of the city. ■ adj referring to an activity that is done secretly or illegally backstroke /'bækstrəʊk/ noun a swimming style where you lie on your back and move your arms backwards back-to-back /,bæk tə 'bæk/ adj, adv 1. with the back of one person or thing against the back of another ○ Stand back-to-back to see who is the tallest. ○ They put the chairs back-to-back. 2. happening one after the other ○ back-to-back meetings backtrack /'bæktræk/ verb 1. to go back 2. to say that you no longer agree with something that you did or said previously backup /'bækʌp/ adj supporting, helping ○ We offer a free backup service to customers.

③ back up /,bæk 'ʌp/ verb 1. to help or support someone ○ Nobody would back her up when she complained about the service. ○ Will you back me up in the vote? 2. to make a copy of a computer file ○ Don't forget to back up your work before you go home in the evening. 3. to make a car go backwards ○ Can you back up, please – I want to get out of the parking lot.

■ noun helper support backup copy /'bækʌp ,kɔpi/ noun a copy of a computer disk to be kept in case the original disk is damaged or lost backward /'bækwəd/ adj 1. not as advanced as normal ○ The little boy seems backward for his age. 2. with no advanced industry ○ Some countries are still relatively backward. 3. towards the back, behind you ○ He gave her a backward look and waved goodbye. ■ adv US same as backwards

① backwards /'bækwədz/ adv from the front towards the back ○ Don't step backwards. ○ 'Tab' is 'bat' spelt backwards. ○ She looked backwards at the next person in the queue. □ backwards and forwards in one direction, then in the opposite direction ○ The policeman was walking backwards and forwards in front of the bank. □ to bend over backwards, to lean over backwards to do something to do everything you can to be helpful (informal) ○ We bent over backwards to get her a mortgage, and then she decided not to buy the house. ○ The social services leant over backwards to help the family.

backwater /'bækwɔ:tə/ noun a quiet country place, away from the capital city backyard /bæk 'ja:d/ noun 1. an enclosed area behind a house, with a hard surface ○

We keep our bikes in the backyard. 2. the area in which you live ○ They have no idea of what's going on in their own backyard. 3. US a piece of land behind a house (NOTE: The British term is garden.)

③ bacon /'beɪkən/ noun meat from a pig which has been treated with salt or smoke, usually cut into thin pieces □ bacon and eggs a breakfast meal of bacon and eggs that have been cooked in a pan on top of a cooker □ to save someone's bacon to get someone out of a difficult situation (informal) bacteria /bæk'tɪəriə/ plural noun very small living things, which can cause disease (NOTE: The singular is bacterium /bæk'tɪəriəm/.)

bacterial /bæk'tɪəriəl/, bacteriological /bæk'tɪəriə'lɒndʒɪk(ə)l/ adj referring to bacteria bacterial warfare /bæk,tɪəriəl 'wɔ:feɪə/ noun war where bacteria are used to kill the enemy

Bactrian camel /,bæktriən 'kæm(ə)l/ noun an Asian camel which has two humps

① bad /bæd/ adj 1. not good ○ Eating too much fat is bad for you. ○ I think it would be a bad idea to go on holiday in November. 2. of poor quality ○ He's a bad driver. ○ She's good at singing but bad at playing the piano. 3. unpleasant ○ He's got a bad cold. ○ She's in a bad temper. ○ I've got some bad news for you. ○ The weather was bad when we were on holiday in August. 4. serious ○ He had a bad accident on the motorway. 5. (of food) which is not fresh and has started to decay ○ I think the pie is bad, so we had better not eat it. ○ The meat we bought yesterday has started to go bad. (NOTE: bad – worse /wɔ:sə/ – worst /wɔ:st/) bad debt /bæd 'det/ noun an amount of money owed to a person or to a company, which will never be paid baddy /'bædi/ noun an evil character, e.g. in a novel or a film. Antonym goody (NOTE: The plural is baddies.)

badge /bædʒ/ noun a small sign attached to someone's clothes to show something, e.g. who he or she is or what company he or she belongs to badger /'bædʒə/ noun a wild animal, with short legs and a black and white mark on the front of its head, which lives in holes in the ground ○ Farmers say that cows can catch TB from badgers. ■ verb □ to badger someone into doing something to keep on asking someone so often that in the end they do what you want ○ She badgered me into giving her the key.

bad guy /'bæd gaɪ/ noun an evil character in a story or film (informal)

bad language /bæd 'læŋgwɪdʒ/ noun swearing and rude words

① badly /'bædli/ adv 1. not well ○ She did badly in her driving test. 2. seriously ○ He was badly injured in the motorway accident. 3. very much ○ His hair badly needs cutting. (NOTE: badly – worse – worst) badly-off /,bædli 'ɒf/ adj not having very much money (NOTE: badly-off – worse-off – worst-off) badminton /'bædmɪntən/ noun a game for two or four people, similar to tennis, in which the players use rackets to hit a shuttlecock over a net badmouth /'bædməʊθ/ verb to criticise someone in a rude or unpleasant way (informal) bad-tempered /,bæd 'tempəd/ adj feeling angry baffle /'bæf(ə)l/ noun an object which reduces the effects or movement of noise or air ○ They built baffles between the airport runway and the road. ■ verb to be unable to understand something ○ I'm baffled as to why the car won't start. ○ The cause of the common cold has baffled scientists for years. Synonym confuse

① bag /baɡ/ noun 1. a container made of a substance such as paper or plastic, and used for carrying things ○ He put the apples in a paper bag. □ to let the cat out of the bag to tell a secret by accident (informal) ○ Her husband let the cat out of the bag and it was all over the newspapers the following morning. □ it's in the bag the deal has been agreed 2. an amount that can be contained in a bag ○ a bag of potatoes ○ a small bag of flour □ bags of a large amount of (informal) ○ Let him pay the bill if he wants to – he's got bags of money. 3. same as handbag ○ My keys are in my bag. 4. a suitcase or large bag used when travelling ○ I always pack my bags at the last minute. □ to tell someone to pack their bags to tell someone to leave or to tell someone they have to leave their job (informal) ○ When he got home, she told him to pack his bags. ■ verb 1. to catch, kill or destroy ○ We bagged a brace of pheasants. ○ He bagged three enemy planes. 2. □ bags I go first let me go first, I claim the right to go first (informal) bagel /'beɪɡ(ə)l/ noun a small hard bread roll, shaped like a ring baggage /'bæɡɪdʒ/ noun cases and bags which you take with you when travelling. Synonym luggage baggage check /'bæɡɪdʒ tʃek/ noun the examination of passengers' bags to see if they contain bombs or other dangerous objects baggage handler /'bæɡɪdʒ ,hændlə/ noun a person who works at an airport taking passengers' bags on or off planes baggy /'bæɡi/ adj (of clothes) appearing too big for the person who is wearing them (NOTE: baggier – baggiest) bagpipes /'bægpɪps/ plural noun a musical instrument used especially in Scotland, Ireland and Brittany, which is played by blowing air into a bag and then pumping it through pipes baguette /ba'get/ noun 1. a stick-shaped loaf of bread 2. a valuable stone such as a diamond which is cut in a long narrow shape bail /beɪl/ noun money which an arrested person, or someone else, pays to a court as a promise that the person will return to court for their trial. If they do not return the court keeps the money. ○ She was released on bail of £5000. □ to jump bail not to appear in court after being allowed bail ○ The police are afraid he will jump bail. ■ verb to use something to remove water from a boat ○ We're filling up with water – start bailing! (NOTE: Do not confuse with bale.)

bailiff /'beɪlɪf/ noun 1. a court official who is responsible for making sure that court orders are obeyed ○ The court ordered the bailiff to seize his property because he had not paid his debt. ○ We were having breakfast when the bailiffs arrived and seized our car. 2. someone whose job is to manage a farm for the person who owns it ○ We are looking for a bailiff for one of our farms.

bail out /,beɪl 'aʊt/ verb 1. to help someone in difficulty ○ When he couldn't pay his rent, he asked his father to bail him out. 2. to pay money to a court to have a prisoner set free ○ He phoned his lawyer to see if someone could bail him out. 3. to remove water from a boat ○ I'll try to plug the hole, if you start to bail out.

bails /beɪlz/ plural noun two pieces of wood on top of the stumps in cricket bait /beɪt/ noun something used to attract fish or animals so that you can catch them ○ We must put down some more bait to try to get rid of the mice. Synonym lure □ to rise to the bait, to take the bait to allow yourself to get caught by an attractive offer ■ verb to attach bait to a hook ○ He baited his line with a worm.

③ bake /beɪk/ verb to cook food in an oven ○ Mum's baking a cake for my birthday. ○ Bake the pizza for 35 minutes.

③ baked beans /,beɪkt 'bi:nz/ plural noun dried white beans cooked in tomato sauce ○ We had baked beans on toast for supper. ○ Can you go to the grocer's and get me a tin of baked beans?

baked potato /,beɪkt pə'teɪtəʊ/ noun a potato which you bake in the oven, often cut open when it is cooked and filled with another food such as cheese or beans

③ baker /'beɪkə/ noun a person whose job is to make bread and cakes baker's dozen /,beɪkəz 'dʌz(ə)n/ noun thirteen bakery /'beɪkəri/ noun a place where bread and cakes are made for selling to the public (NOTE: The plural is bakeries.)

baking /'beɪkɪŋ/ noun the action of cooking in an oven, especially bread and cakes ○ There was a wonderful smell of baking coming from the kitchen. ■ adj very hot ○ It's baking (hot) in here – can you open the window? Synonym sweltering. Antonym freezing baking powder /'beɪkɪŋ ,paʊdə/ noun powder which when added to a cake mix helps it to rise baking soda /'beɪkɪŋ ,səʊdə/ noun sodium bicarbonate, used in baking to make cakes rise

② balance /'bæləns/ noun 1. the quality of staying steady ○ The cat needs a good sense of balance to walk along the top of a fence. □ to keep your balance not to fall over □ to lose your balance to fall down ○ As he was crossing the river on the tightrope he lost his balance and fell. 2. money left in an account ○ I have a balance of £25 in my bank account. 3. money left to be paid ○ You can pay £100 down and the balance in three instalments. ○ The balance outstanding is now £5000. 4. a machine which weighs things □ the result is hanging in the balance you cannot tell which way the result will turn out ■ verb 1. to stand without falling ○ The cat balanced on the top of the fence. 2. to make something stand without falling ○ The waiter balanced a pile of dirty plates on his arm. 3. □ to make accounts balance, to balance the accounts to make income and the amount spent equal in accounts balanced /'bælənst/ adj 1. not extreme, having equal quantities ○ a balanced diet 2. not in profit or loss ○ a balanced budget 3. sensible ○ to express a balanced opinion

balance of payments /,bæləns əv 'peɪmənts/ noun the difference in value between what a country buys from other countries and what it sells to them balance of power /,bæləns əv 'paʊə/ noun 1. a situation where two powerful states are almost equal in power ○ The rise of the military government has threatened the balance of power in the region. 2. □ to hold the balance of power to be in a situation where no large group has a majority and so hold power by being able to decide which group to support ○ Although the Liberal Democrats only have two seats on the council, they hold the balance of power because the other two parties have twenty seats each.

balance sheet /'bæləns ſeɪt/ noun a statement of a company's financial position at the end of a period of time balancing act /'bælənsɪŋ ækt/ noun a skilful attempt to deal with opposing groups or opinions, or with a large variety of jobs balcony /'bælkəni/ noun 1. a small flat area that sticks out from the upper level of a building ○ The flat has a balcony overlooking the harbour. ○ Breakfast is served on the balcony. 2. the upper rows of seats in a theatre or cinema ○ We booked seats at the front of the balcony. (NOTE: The plural is balconies.)

bald /bɔ:ld/ adj 1. having no hair on the head ○ His grandfather is quite bald. ○ He is beginning to go bald. Compare hairless 2. giving plain facts without any explanation ○ After the fire, the police issued a bald statement.

balding /'bɔ:ldɪŋ/ adj going bald baldly /'bɔ:ldli/ adv done or said in a plain and simple way bald tyre /bɔ:ld 'taɪə/ noun a tyre which has been worn smooth bale /beɪl/ noun a large block of a substance such as wool, paper or cotton ○ a bale of cotton ○ They used bales of straw to make walls alongside the racetrack. ■ verb □ to bale out to jump out of a plane with a parachute ○ As the plane exploded, the pilot managed to bale out. (NOTE: Do not confuse with ball.)

① ball /bɔ:l/ noun 1. a round object used in playing games, for throwing, kicking or hitting ○ They played in the garden with an old tennis ball. ○ He kicked the ball into the goal. ○ He threw the ball and I caught it. □ to keep the ball rolling to keep everything moving, especially a conversation ○ John kept the ball rolling by telling a long story about his trip to Egypt. □ to start the ball rolling to start things going □ to be on the ball to have a lot of skill or knowledge of something ○ I'll ask Mary to do it – she's been here a long time and is really on the ball. □ won't play ball won't cooperate 2. any round object ○ a ball of wool ○ He crumpled the paper up into a ball. 3. a formal dance ○ Cinderella lost her shoe at the ball. □ to have a ball to enjoy yourself very much (informal) ○ The children don't want to go home – they're having a ball.

ballad /'bæləd/ noun a simple romantic song

ballast /'bæləst/ noun 1. material carried in a ship to give it extra weight, so that it will keep steady even if it is not carrying any goods 2. small stones that form a base for a railway track ball-bearing /bɔ:l 'beərɪŋ/ noun 1. a small steel ball ○ I tried to mend my bicycle wheel and lost one of the ball-bearings. 2. a ring of small steel balls which allows a metal bar to turn easily ○ The ball-bearings in the bicycle wheel had to be replaced.

ball boy /'bɔ:l bɔ:/ noun a boy who picks up the balls during tennis games ballerina /,bæl'ə'ri:nə/ noun a woman ballet dancer ballet /'bælət/ noun 1. a type of dance, given as a public entertainment, where dancers perform a story to music 2. a performance of this type of dance ○ We went to the ballet last night.

ballet dancer /'bælət ,dɑ:nsə/ noun a person who dances in ballet ball game /'bɔ:l geim/ noun 1. a game played with a ball ○ football, tennis and other ball games 2. US a game of baseball 3. the general way in which things are managed ○ a whole new ball game a completely new situation ○ It's opened up a whole new ball game.

ball girl /'bɔ:l gɜ:l/ noun a girl who picks up the balls during tennis games ballistic /bɔ:l'stɪk/ adj referring to ballistics ballistics /bɔ:l'strɪks/ noun the study of things which are shot through the air, such as bullets (NOTE: takes a singular verb)

③ balloon /bə'lju:n/ noun a large ball which is blown up with air or gas ■ verb to increase in size or amount ballot /'bælət/ noun a way of voting in which voters mark papers with a cross ■ verb 1. to get people to vote on something ○ The union is balloting its members on the strike.

2. to vote by marking papers with a cross ○ They balloted for the place on the committee.

ballot box /'bælət bɒks/ noun a box for putting voting papers into ballot paper /'bælət ,peɪpə/ noun a paper on which the voter marks a vote ballpark /'bɔ:lpa:k/ noun US a place for playing baseball ○ The team's gone to the ballpark.

ballpark figure /'bɔ:lpa:k ,fɪgə/ noun a general figure which can be used as the basis for discussion ballpoint /'bɔ:lpoɪnt/, ballpoint pen /,bɔ:lpoɪnt 'pen/ noun a pen which has a small ball at the tip over which ink flows as you write ○ Don't write in ballpoint, use a pencil.

ballroom /'bɔ:lru:m/ noun a large room for formal dances ballroom dancing /,bɔ:lru:m 'dɑ:nsɪŋ/ noun formal dancing ballyhoo /,bæli'hu:/ noun excited and energetic publicity (informal). Synonym uproar balm /ba:m/ noun a soothing ointment balmy /'ba:mi/ adj pleasantly mild baloney /bə'ləuni/ noun US nonsense (informal). Synonym drivel balsa /'bɔ:lsə/ noun a very light wood used for making models

Baltic /'bɔ:ltɪk/ noun the sea south of Sweden and Finland, and north of Poland ○ We spent the summer cruising along the Baltic coast.

balustrade /,bælə'streɪd/ noun a series of small pillars with a bar across the top, forming a wall around a balcony or formal garden bamboo /bæm'bʊ:/ noun a tall tropical plant whose stems are used as supports or in making furniture bamboo shoots /,bæm'bʊ: ſu:ts/ plural noun young shoots of bamboo, eaten especially in Chinese cooking

③ ban /bæn/ noun an order which forbids something ○ The government has introduced a ban on smoking in cinemas. Synonym prohibition ■ verb to forbid ○ She was banned from driving for three years. (NOTE: banning – banned) banal /bæ'nə:lə/ adj quite ordinary and uninteresting. Synonym commonplace banality /bæ'nælɪti/ noun being ordinary ○ The banality of that sitcom drives me mad.

banana /bə'næ:nə/ noun 1. a long yellow, slightly curved fruit which grows in hot countries ○ She was peeling a banana. ○ Can I have a banana milk shake? 2. □ to go bananas to get very annoyed (informal) ○ When he saw what they had done to his car, he went bananas.

banana republic /bə,næ:nə rɪ'pʌblɪk/ noun a corrupt Central American state (disapproving) banana split /bə,næ:nə 'split/ noun a dessert made of banana with ice cream, cream and chocolate sauce, usually served in a long dish

② band /bænd/ noun 1. a group of people ○ Bands of drunken football fans wandered around the streets. 2. a group of people who play music together ○ The soldiers marched down the street, following the band. ○ The dance band played all night. 3. a range of things taken together ○ He's in the £50 – 60,000 salary band. ○ We're looking for something in the £10 – £15 price band. ■ verb □ to band together to form a group ○ They banded together to form a pressure group.

③ bandage /'bændɪdʒ/ noun a cloth for putting around a wound or an injured part of the body ○ The nurse put a bandage round his knee. ○ His head was covered in bandages. ■ verb to put a cloth around a wound or an injured part of the body ○ The nurse bandaged his knee.

③ BandAid /'bændeɪd/ trademark US a small strip of cloth with gauze in the middle, which can be stuck to the skin to cover a wound ◎ Let me put a BandAid on your finger.

B & B abbr bed and breakfast bandit /'bændɪt/ noun a robber. Synonym outlaw bandwagon /'bændwægən/ noun ◻ to jump on the bandwagon to do what everyone else is doing ◎ Once the prince had praised the ecological movement, everyone wanted to jump on the bandwagon.

bandwidth /'bændwidθ/ noun 1. a range of radio wavelengths 2. the amount of electronic data that can be sent through an Internet connection or other communication channel 3. the time someone has available to finish jobs they have been given to do bandy /'bændi/ adj ◻ he has bandy legs when he stands with his feet together, his knees do not touch bandy about /,bændi ə'baʊt/ verb to speak or write certain words. Synonym exchange bane /beɪn/ noun ◻ it's the bane of my life it's very annoying ◎ The neighbour's dog is the bane of our lives.

③ bang /bæŋ/ noun a sudden noise like that made by a gun ◎ The car started with a series of loud bangs. ◎ There was a bang and the tyre went flat. ◻ verb to hit hard, so as to make a loud noise ◎ He banged (on) the table with his hand. ◎ Can't you stop the door banging? ◻ adv, interj showing the something makes a sudden noise (informal) ◎ A firework suddenly went bang. ◻ bang in the middle right in the middle ◎ Bang in the middle of her speech, someone's mobile phone started to ring.

banger /'bæŋə/ noun 1. a type of firework which makes a bang ◎ Keep the dog indoors on November 5th – she doesn't like bangers.

2. an old car ◎ I'm surprised his old banger is still on the road. 3. a sausage ◻ bangers and mash fried sausages and mashed potatoes bangle /'bæŋgəl/ noun a metal bracelet worn round the wrist or ankle

③ banish /'bænɪʃ/ verb 1. to send someone to live a long distance away (usually out of the country, or in a distant part of the country) as a punishment ◎ She was banished to a small island for ten years. ◎ He was banished to Siberia. Synonym exile 2. to send someone away from a particular place ◎ She was banished from the front desk to a little office on the fifth floor. 3. to get rid of ◎ The aim is to banish poverty by the year 2010.

banishment /'bænɪʃmənt/ noun the act of banishing or state of being banished. Synonym expulsion (NOTE: no plural) banisters /'bænɪstəz/ noun a handrail on top of a series of poles along the side of stairs banjo /'bændʒəʊ/ noun a stringed instrument with a round body and a long neck (NOTE: The plural is banjos.)

① bank /bæŋk/ noun 1. a business which holds money for its clients, which lends money at interest and trades generally in money ◎ I must go to the bank to get some money. ◎ She took all her money out of the bank to buy a car. ◎ How much money do you have in the bank? 2. land along the side of a river ◎ He sat on the river bank all day, trying to catch fish. ◎ There is a path along the bank of the canal. 3. a long heap of earth, sand, snow, etc. ◎ The road was blocked by banks of snow blown by the wind. ◻ verb 1. to put money away into a bank ◎ I banked the cheque as soon as it arrived. ◎ Have you banked the money yet? 2. to pile up in a long mound ◎ The snow was banked up along both sides of the road.

② bank account /'bæŋk ə,kaʊnt/ noun an arrangement which you make with a bank to keep your money safely, and in which you can deposit and withdraw money as you want ◻ to open a bank account to start keeping money in a bank ◎ He opened a bank account when he started his first job. ◻ to close a bank account to stop having an account with a bank bank balance /'bæŋk ,bæləns/ noun the amount of money someone has in a bank account bank card /'bæŋk ka:d/ noun a plastic card you use with a cheque to make a payment banker /'bæŋkə/ noun a person who has a senior post in a bank

① bank holiday /'bæŋk 'holɪdeɪ/ noun a special day when most people do not go to work and the banks are closed

③ banking /'bæŋkɪŋ/ noun 1. the profession of working in a bank ◎ He is planning a career in banking. 2. the work that banks do ◎ Some supermarkets now offer banking services.

bank manager /'bæŋk ,mænɪdʒə/ noun the person in charge of a branch of a bank banknote /'bæŋknəut/ noun a piece of paper money (NOTE: The US term is bill.)

bank on /'bæŋk ɒn/ verb to be sure that something will happen. Synonym count on bankroll /'bæŋkrəʊl/ verb to pay for a project (informal). Synonym finance ③ bankrupt /'bæŋkrapt/ adj not able to pay your debts ◎ He has been declared bankrupt. ◻ noun a person who cannot pay his or her debts ◎ A bankrupt cannot be a member of parliament.

bankruptcy /'bæŋkraptsi/ noun being bankrupt (NOTE: The plural is bankruptcies.)

COMMENT: 'Bankruptcy' and 'bankrupt' are applied to people, and 'insolvency' and 'insolvent' are usually applied to companies.

bank statement /'bænk 'steitmənt/ noun a written document from a bank showing the balance of an account banner /'bænəl/ noun 1. a long flag ○ They hung banners from the tops of buildings for the festival. 2. a large piece of cloth with a slogan on it ○ The demonstrators carried banners with the words 'Power to the People'.

banner headline /'bænə 'hedlайн/ noun a newspaper headline printed in very large letters banquet /'bæŋkwɪt/ noun a formal dinner for important guests bantam /'bæntəm/ noun a small breed of chicken, most kinds being about half the size and weight of an ordinary chicken bantamweight /'bæntəmweit/ noun a weight of boxer between flyweight and featherweight banter /'bæntəl/ noun talk with joking comments banyan /'bænjən/ noun a tropical tree with roots which come down from the branches bap /bæp/ noun a soft flat white bread roll baptise /bæpt'aɪz/, baptize verb 1. to receive someone into the Christian religion in a ceremony involving sprinkling or covering with water 2. to give a baby a name when it is baptised. Synonym christen baptism /'bæptɪz(ə)m/ noun 1. a religious ceremony where someone, usually a baby, is welcomed into the Christian church and given a Christian name after being sprinkled with holy water ○ All the family came together for the baptism. Synonym christening 2. □ baptism of fire the first time someone has faced a difficult situation ○ Giving a speech to the sales conference was her baptism of fire as sales manager.

① bar /bɑ:/ noun 1. a long piece of something hard ○ The yard was full of planks and metal bars. 2. a solid rectangular piece of material ○ Put a new bar of soap by the bath. ○ She was munching a bar of chocolate. 3. a long piece of wood or metal which closes a door or window □ behind bars in prison ○ He was put behind bars for several years. 4. the long metal or plastic key on a computer keyboard 5. a place in a hotel or pub where you can buy and drink alcohol ○ Let's meet in the bar before dinner. ○ The reps met in the bar of the hotel. 6. a small shop where you can buy food 7. an obstacle, something which prevents something else happening ○

Not having the right qualifications could be a bar to your promotion. 8. the profession of a barrister □ to be called to the bar to become a barrister 9. a division within a piece of music ○ Let's play the first few bars again. ■ prep except ○ All of the suppliers replied bar one. ○ All bar two of the players in the team are British. ■ verb 1. to block ○ The road was barred by the police. ○ The path is barred to cyclists. 2. □ to bar someone from doing something to prevent someone doing something ○ She was barred from entering the USA.

barb /bɑ:b/ noun a small tooth on a fish-hook or arrow barbarian /bɑ:'bəriən/ noun a wild and uncivilised person barbaric /bɑ:'bərik/ adj cruel and uncivilised barbarous /'bɑ:bərəs/ adj very cruel (formal)

③ barbecue /'bɑ:bikju:/ noun 1. a metal grill for cooking out of doors ○ Light the barbecue at least half an hour before you start cooking. 2. a meal or party where food is cooked out of doors ○ We had a barbecue for twenty guests. ○ They were invited to a barbecue. ■ verb to cook on a barbecue ○ Barbecued spare ribs are on the menu. ○ She was barbecuing sausages for lunch when it started to rain.

barbed /bɑ:bd/ adj 1. with sharp hooks ○ It was impossible to remove the barbed hook from her hand without cutting into the flesh. 2. (of a remark) sharply critical ○ He made some barbed comments about her singing.

③ barbed wire /bɑ:bd 'waɪəl/ noun a type of wire with sharp spikes, used to make fences barbell /'bɑ:bel/ noun a long metal bar with a weight at each end which is used in weightlifting barber /'bɑ:bə/ noun a person who cuts men's hair barbiturate /bɑ:'bitʃʊrət/ noun a drug which sends you to sleep bar chart /'bɑ: tʃɑ:t/ noun a diagram where quantities are shown as thick columns of different heights. Also called bar graph bar code /'bɑ: kəd/ noun printed lines which can be read by a computer bard /bɑ:d/ noun a poet (literary or humorous) □ the Bard (of Avon) a literary name for William Shakespeare

③ bare /bɛəl/ adj 1. with no clothes on ○ He walked on the beach in his bare feet. 2. with no leaves on, no covering, or with no furnishings in ○ In winter, the branches are all bare. ○ They slept on the bare floorboards. ○ They saw the bare bones of dead animals in the desert. 3. □ a bare living just enough to live on ○ He makes a bare living selling T-shirts to tourists. □ bare minimum the smallest amount needed ○ The flat is furnished with the bare minimum of furniture. ■ verb to make part of the body bare by removing clothes ○ Men should bare their heads on entering the church. Synonym expose (NOTE: Do not confuse with bear.)

bareback /'beəbæk/ adj, adv without a saddle barefaced lie /,beə'feɪst/ noun a crude or cynical lie barefoot /'beəfʊt/ adj, adv without shoes ○ The children were barefoot. ○ She walked barefoot in the grass.

bareheaded /beə'heðɪd/ adj, adv not wearing a hat barelegged /beə'legd/ adj, adv not wearing clothes on your legs

③ barely /'beəli/ adv scarcely, almost not enough ○ She barely had enough money to pay for her ticket. ○ He barely had time to get dressed before the police arrived. ○ The noise in the iron foundry is barely tolerable. Synonym hardly

③ bargain /'ba:gɪn/ noun 1. an agreed deal □ to strike a bargain to agree terms ○ We shook hands and the bargain was struck. □ he drives a hard bargain he is a tough negotiator 2. □ into the bargain as well as other things ○ The plane was late and they lost my suitcase into the bargain. 3. something bought more cheaply than usual ○ The car was a real bargain at £500. ■ verb 1. to negotiate terms ○ After bargaining with the doorman, we managed to get into the club. 2. to haggle, to discuss a price ○ If you bargain with the man in the antique shop, you'll probably get something knocked off the price.

3. □ to bargain for something to expect something to happen ○ I hadn't bargained for him being away and leaving me to do all the work. □ I got more than I bargained for the situation had unpleasant results which I did not expect bargain basement /,ba:gɪn 'beɪsmənt/ noun a department, sometimes in the basement of a shop, where you can buy things at cheap prices bargain counter /'ba:gɪn ,kaʊntə/ noun a counter in a shop where things are sold particularly cheaply bargain hunting /'ba:gɪn ,hʌntɪŋ/ noun the activity of looking for bargains in a shop bargaining /'ba:gɪnɪŋ/ noun the discussing of prices or terms bargain offer /,ba:gɪn 'ɒfə/ noun goods which are put on sale at a reduced price barge /ba:dʒ/ noun a cargo boat on a river or canal ○ We watched the barges go past along the Rhine.

barge in /'ba:dʒ 'ɪn/ verb to arrive or intervene in an unwelcome way. Synonym rush barge pole /'ba:dʒ pəʊl/ noun □ I wouldn't touch it with a barge pole I would advise you not to get involved in that (informal) bar graph /'ba: græf/ noun same as bar chart

barista /bə'ristə/ noun someone who makes coffee in a coffee bar baritone /'bærɪtəʊn/ noun a singer with a voice which is higher than a bass and lower than a tenor ○ The baritone sang a duet with the soprano. ■ adj higher than a bass and lower than a tenor ○ He has a rich baritone voice.

barium /'beəriəm/ noun a chemical element which is a white metal bark /ba:k/ noun 1. the hard outer layer of a tree ○ the rough bark of a pine tree ○ The bark of silver birch trees comes off in strips.

2. the call of a dog ○ The dog gave a bark of greeting as we came into the house. □ his bark is worse than his bite he is not as frightening as he seems ○ Don't be afraid of Aunt Bessie – her bark is much worse than her bite. ■ verb 1. to scrape your skin ○ He barked his shin climbing over the wall. 2. to make a call like a dog ○ The dog barks every time he hears the postman. □ to bark up the wrong tree to be mistaken ○ They don't know what the problem is – they're barking up the wrong tree.

barley /'ba:li/ noun a common cereal crop grown in temperate areas barmaid /'ba:meɪd/ noun a woman who serves drinks in a bar (dated) barman /'ba:mən/ noun a man who serves drinks in a bar (NOTE: The plural is bar-men.)

bar mitzvah /ba: 'mitsvə/ noun a ceremony where a Jewish boy is made a full member of his community at the age of 13 barmy /'ba:mɪ/ adj mad (informal). Synonym irrational. Antonym reasonable (NOTE: barmy – barmier – barmiest) barn /ba:n/ noun a large farm building used for storing produce, and also used in the USA for keeping animals barnacle /'ba:nk(ə)l/ noun a small shellfish which clings to things in the sea such as the bottoms of ships and wooden posts barnstorming /'ba:nstɔ:miŋ/ adj full of wild political oratory barnyard /'ba:njɑ:rd/ noun the space round barns and other farm buildings. Synonym farmyard barometer /bə'rɒmɪtə/ noun an instrument which measures changes in atmospheric pressure and can be used to forecast the weather barometric pressure /,bærəmetrik 'preʃər/ noun atmospheric pressure shown by a barometer baron /'bærən/ noun 1. a nobleman, of a low rank in the UK 2. the title given to a life peer in the UK 3. a powerful person (NOTE: Do not confuse with barren.)

COMMENT: Life peers and peeresses are barons and baronesses; barons are addressed as 'Lord' followed by their family name, and baronesses as 'Lady'. In some European countries, the word is used as a form of address: so, Baron Smith is addressed as 'Lord Smith', but Baron Schmidt is addressed as 'Baron'.

baroness /'bærənəs/ noun 1. the wife of a baron 2. the title given to a female life peer baronet /'bærənət/ noun a a member of one of the lowest ranks of the aristocracy, of lower status than a baron

COMMENT: Baronets are addressed as 'Sir', followed by their Christian name and family name; their wives are addressed as 'Lady' followed by the family name (hence Sir John Smith's wife is addressed as 'Lady Smith'). The title passes to the heir but does not automatically qualify the holder for a seat in the House of Lords; baronets can be Members of Parliament.

baroque /bə'rɒk/ adj highly decorated European artistic, architectural and musical style of the late 17th and 18th centuries barracks /'bærəks/ noun 1. a building where soldiers are housed ○ The soldiers marched into their barracks. 2. a big cold building ○ The school was housed in a barracks of a building. (NOTE: Barracks takes a singular or a plural verb.)

barrage /'bærə:ʒ/ noun 1. heavy gunfire, mass of things thrown ○ The enemy started an artillery barrage. ○ The police were met by a barrage of stones and bottles. ○ He faced a barrage of questions from reporters when he arrived at the airport. 2. a dam made of a wall of soil or stones which blocks a river ○ They built a barrage to help control the water level in the river.

③ barrel /'bærəl/ noun 1. a round wooden container for liquid ○ a barrel of beer ○ We sell wine by the barrel. □ he's got me over a barrel he has put me in a very awkward situation 2. an amount contained in a barrel ○ The price of oil has reached $30 a barrel. ○ The oil well produces thousands of barrels of oil per day. 3. the firing tube of a gun ○ You need to clean the barrel of your rifle very carefully.

barren /'bærən/ adj 1. (of land) which is not fertile and cannot grow crops ○ Barren land stretches for miles around the reactor site. 2. which cannot bear young ○ a barren cow 3. which does not produce fruit ○ One pear tree on its own will be barren – you need two trees to produce fruit. (NOTE: Do not confuse with baron.)

barricade /,bærɪ'keɪd/ noun a pile of something such as stones or burnt cars which is used to block a street ○ Protesters built barricades across several of the main streets. Synonym blockade ■ verb to build a barricade ○ Protesters barricaded the streets. □ to barricade yourself inside to block a door with furniture, etc., so that no one else can get inside ○ He barricaded himself inside the flat.

③ barrier /'bærɪə/ noun 1. a bar which blocks a passage ○ He lifted the barrier and we drove across the border. 2. something which stops something from progressing or happening, such as the spread of a disease or the import of goods barrier reef /bærɪə 'ri:f/ noun a coral reef enclosing a lagoon barring /'bɑ:riŋ/ prep unless something is the case barrister /'bærɪstə/ noun a lawyer who can present cases in court. ♦ bar. Also called counsel (NOTE: The word barrister is not used in the USA.)

COMMENT: Barristers are members of one of the Inns of Court. They are instructed by solicitors, and never by the client whom they are representing. Important barristers are nominated to become QCs.

barrow /'bærəʊ/ noun 1. a wheeled handcart for selling fruit and vegetables 2. a mound of earth over the tomb of a prehistoric leader ○ Archaeologists are excavating an old barrow.

bartender /'bɑ:təndə/ noun a person who serves behind a bar barter /'bɑ:tə/ noun a system where goods are exchanged for other goods and not sold for money ○ The company has agreed a barter deal with Bulgaria. ■ verb □ to barter something for something to exchange goods for other goods, and not buy them for money ○ They agreed a deal to barter tractors for barrels of wine.

basalt /'bæsəlt/ noun a black rock produced by volcanoes

① base /beɪs/ noun 1. the bottom part ○ The table lamp has a flat base. 2. a place where you work from ○ He lives in London but uses Paris as his base when travelling in France. 3. one of the marked spots in baseball where a player is safe ○ Players have to run from base to base. □ to touch base with someone to get in touch with someone again (informal) ○ I'm calling because I wanted to touch base with you. ■ verb to use as a base ○ The company is based in Paris, it is not

London-based as you might expect. ○ The theory is based on research done in Russia. ○ He based his article on work done at Harvard University.

② baseball /'beɪsbɔ:l/ noun 1. an American game for two teams of nine players, in which a player hits a ball with a bat and players from the other team try to catch it ○ We went to the baseball game last Saturday. 2. the hard ball used in playing baseball ○ We lost yet another baseball in the river.

baseball cap /'beɪsbɔ:l kæp/ noun a soft cotton cap with a large peak baseline /'beɪslæm/ noun the line at the back of a tennis court, etc.

basement /'beɪsmənt/ noun a floor in a building below ground level. Synonym cellar. Antonym attic base rate /'beɪs reɪt/ noun a basic rate of interest set by a central bank on which other banks calculate the actual rate of interest on money they lend (NOTE: The US term is prime rate.)

bash /bæʃ/ noun 1. a knock ○ I see your car has had a bash. 2. □ have a bash try to do something (informal) ○ Waterskiing looks fun – do you think I could have a bash at it? 3. a party ○ Are you going to Jane's bash tomorrow? (NOTE: The plural is bashes.) □ verb to hit hard ○ He bashed her over the head with a stick. ○ When she fell down she bashed her head on the chair. ○ She was bashing stakes into the ground with a mallet.

bashful /'bæʃf(ə)l/ adj shy and embarrassed. Synonym shy

① basic /'beɪsɪk/ adj very simple, or at the first level ○ Being able to swim is a basic requirement if you are going canoeing. ○ Knowledge of basic Spanish will be enough for the job.

① basically /'beɪsɪkli/ adv at the simplest level (used when stating the simplest fact) ○ Basically, he's fed up with his job.

basic pay /'beɪsɪk 'peɪ/ noun a normal salary without extra payments basics /'beɪsɪks/ plural noun basic facts. Synonym fundamentals □ to get back to basics to concentrate on the main points again ○ All these new theories are very interesting, but we need to get back to basics again.

basil /'bæzɪl/ noun a herb with strongly scented leaves which is used especially in Italian cooking basilica /ba'zilɪkə/ noun 1. an early form of Christian church, built as a long rectangle 2. an important Catholic church ○ St Peter's Basilica is the most important church in Rome.

basin /'beɪsɪn/ noun a large bowl □ wash basin a large bowl in the bathroom, used for washing your hands and face

① basis /'beɪsɪs/ noun 1. the general facts on which something is based ○ What is the basis for these proposals? □ on the basis of based on ○ The calculations are done on the basis of an exchange rate of 1.6 dollars to the pound. 2. the general terms of an agreement ○ She is working for us on a freelance basis. ○ Many of the helpers at the hospice work on a voluntary basis. (NOTE: The plural is bases /'beɪsɪz:z/.)

bank /ba:sk/ verb to lie happily in warm sunshine or in a pleasant atmosphere

② basket /'ba:skɪt/ noun a container made of thin pieces of wood, wire or grass woven together

② basketball /'ba:skɪtbɔ:l/ noun 1. a game played by two teams of five players who try to throw the ball through an open net hung high up at each end of the playing area 2. the ball used when playing basketball

bass¹ /beɪs/ adj referring to a low-pitched voice or music ○ He has a pleasant bass voice. Synonym deep ■ noun 1. a singer with a deep voice ○ the famous Russian bass 2. same as double bass bass² /bæs/ noun a type of edible freshwater fish bass clef /'beɪs 'klef/ noun a sign showing that the notes are in a low range bass guitar /,beɪs ɡɪ'tɑ:/ noun a guitar which plays a lower range of notes bassoon /ba'su:n/ noun a long wooden wind instrument, with a low tone

③ bastard /'ba:stɑ:d/ noun 1. a person whose parents are not married ○ Technically speaking, many children are born bastards nowadays. 2. a nasty person or nasty thing (generally offensive) ○ The bastard walked out of the restaurant without paying. ○ The written driving test is a real bastard. ■ adj with parents who are not married ○ the bastard son of the last duke

bastion /'bæstɪən/ noun 1. a part of a castle wall which sticks out from the face of the wall ○ The gate was protected by bastions at each corner. 2. a place which protects some particular way of living □ the country is a bastion of democracy the country is firmly democratic ○ Rome is famous as the bastion of Catholicism.

③ bat /bæt/ noun 1. a piece of wood used for hitting a ball ○ a baseball bat ○ a cricket bat □ he did it off his own bat he decided to do it himself, without asking anyone (informal) 2. a little animal, similar to a mouse, which can fly ○ Bats hang upside down. ■ verb 1. to be one of the two batsmen or to be the team which is batting in a cricket match ○ England batted all day. ○ Vaughan is bat- ting. 2. to be the batter in a baseball match ○ I watched him batting on TV this afternoon.

3. □ never batted an eyelid showed no surprise at all batch /bætʃ/ noun a number of things made at one time bated /'beitid/ adj □ with bated breath in anxious or excited anticipation ○ She waited with bated breath to see if she had passed the exam.

② bath /ba:θ/ noun 1. a large container in which you can sit and wash your whole body ○ There's a wash basin and a bath in the bathroom. (NOTE: The US term is bathtub or tub.) 2. the process of washing your whole body ○ My father has a cold bath every morning. □ to throw the baby out with the bath water to get rid of something good and useful at the same time as you are getting rid of something useless (informal) 3. □ swimming baths a large building with a swimming pool ■ verb to wash all over ○ She's bathing the baby. Synonym wash (NOTE: Do not confuse with bathe. Note also baths /ba:θs/ – bathing /'bu:θɪŋ/ – bathe /ba:θt/.)

bathe /beɪð/ verb 1. to go into water ○ Thousands of pilgrims come to bathe in the Ganges. 2. to wash a wound carefully ○ The nurse bathed his wound before applying a dressing. 3. US to have a bath ○ I just have enough time to bathe before my dinner guests arrive. ■ noun the act of swimming in a pool, a river, or the sea (dated) ○ We all went for an early-morning bathe before breakfast. (NOTE: Do not confuse with bath. Note also bathes /beɪðz/ – bathing /'beɪðɪŋ/ – bathe /beɪð/.) bather /'beɪðəl/ noun a person who is swimming. Synonym swimmer bathing /'beɪðɪŋ/ noun swimming or going into the sea, a river or a lake bathing costume /'beɪðɪŋ ,kɒstju:m/, bathing suit /'beɪðɪŋ su:t/ noun a piece of clothing worn when swimming (dated) bathrobe /'ba:θraʊbl/ noun a loose coat of towelling, worn when you get out of a bath ○ She came out of the bathroom dressed in a pink bathrobe.

② bathroom /'ba:θru:m/ noun 1. a room in a house with a bath, a wash basin and usually a toilet ○ The house has two bathrooms. 2. a toilet (said instead of) ○ Where's the bathroom? ○ Can I use your bathroom, please?

bath salts /'ba:θ sɔ:lt̬s/ plural noun scented crystals to put in a bath bath towel /'ba:θtaʊəl/ noun a very large towel bathtub /'ba:θtʌb/ noun US the container in which you sit and wash your body (NOTE: The British term is bath.)

baton /'bætɒn/ noun 1. a large stick used to hit with ○ The crowd was stopped by a row of policemen carrying batons. 2. a thin white stick used to conduct an orchestra 3. a stick which is passed from runner to runner in a relay race □ to pass the baton 1. to hand the stick on to the next runner ○ As he passed the baton the other runner dropped it. 2. to pass control of something to your successor baton charge /'bætɒn tʃɑ:dʒ/ noun a charge by police using batons against a mob batsman /'bætsmən/ noun the player who is batting in a cricket match (NOTE: The plural is batsmen.)

battalion /bə'tæljən/ noun a section of the army, usually commanded by a lieutenant-colonel batten /'bæt(ə)n/ noun a thin strip of wood ○ Nail some battens onto the wall, and hang the pictures on them. ■ verb □ to batten down the hatches 1. to close down the hatch covers on a ship before a storm 2. to prepare yourself for a difficult situation batter /'bætə/ noun 1. a liquid mixture of flour, milk and usually eggs ○ fish coated in batter and fried 2. (in baseball) the player who has the bat and hits the ball ■ verb to hit often ○ He was accused of battering the baby to death.

battered /'bætəd/ adj 1. ill-treated by being often hit ○ battered babies ○ battered wives 2. old and in a bad condition ○ a battered old car. Synonym beat-up. Antonym pristine 3. covered with batter and cooked ○ battered prawns battering ram /'bætəriŋ ræm/ noun a long beam used to break down gates

② battery /'bæt(ə)ri/ noun 1. a device for storing electric energy ○ My calculator needs a new battery. ○ The battery has given out so I can't use my radio. ○ My mobile phone has a rechargeable battery. 2. a group of artillery guns ○ They set two mortar batteries on the hills above the town. 3. a series of small cages in which thousands of chickens are kept (NOTE: [all senses] The plural is batteries.)

battery hen /'bæt(ə)ri hen/, battery chicken /'bæt(ə)ri 'tʃɪkɪn/ noun a chicken which spends its life confined in a small cage

② battle /'bæt(ə)l/ noun 1. an important fight between armed forces ○ Many of the soldiers died in battle. ○ Napoleon was beaten at the Battle of Waterloo. 2. a fight against something ○ the government's constant battle against inflation ○ He lost his battle against cancer. ■ verb □ to battle against to fight against ○ She had to battle against the other members of the board. ○ His last years were spent battling against cancer.

- battleaxe /'bæt(ə)l,æks/ noun a large difficult woman (dated offensive)
- battlefield /'bæt(ə)lfɪeld/, battleground /'bæt(ə)lgraʊnd/ noun a site of a battle
- battlements /'bæt(ə)lmentz/ plural noun the top part of a castle wall, with places where soldiers could shoot at attackers ○ Soldiers were firing from the battlements. Synonym ramparts
- battleship /'bæt(ə)lʃɪp/ noun the largest type of warship, with big guns
- batty /'bæti/ adj eccentric (informal) (NOTE: batty – battier – battiest)
- baulk /bɔ:k/ verb □ to baulk at something to refuse to do something which is dangerous or unpleasant ○ He did all sorts of work in the office, but baulked at having to clean the toilets. ○ She baulked at the cost of the air fare to New Zealand.
- bauxite /'bɔ:ksaɪt/ noun a mineral from which aluminium is produced
- bawl /bɔ:l/ verb to shout loudly
- bawl out /,bɔ:l 'aut/ verb (informal) □ to bawl someone out US to criticise someone sharply ○ She bawled him out for having left the house in a mess.
- ③ bay /beɪ/ noun 1. a large inwards curve in a coast ○ the Bay of Biscay 2. □ to keep someone at bay to stop someone attacking or doing something unpleasant ○ He tried to keep the bank manager at bay by promising to repay the loan in ten days' time. 3. a shrub with leaves used in cooking 4. a light brown horse
- bay leaf /'beɪ li:f/ noun an aromatic leaf of a bay tree which is used in cooking (NOTE: The plural is bay leaves.)
- bayonet /'beɪənɒt/ noun a sharp blade fitted at the end of a rifle ○ The soldiers were ordered to fix bayonets.
- bayonet fitting /,beɪənɒt 'fɪtɪŋ/ noun a light bulb fitting with two pins, which you push into a socket and turn, as opposed to a screw fitting
- bay window /beɪ 'wɪndəʊ/ noun a window which sticks out from a flat wall
- bazaar /bə'za:/ noun a market in South Asia, the Middle East or North Africa ○ We visited the busy bazaar to try to buy spices.
- BBC abbr British Broadcasting Corporation ○ We were listening to the BBC news or to the news on the BBC. ○ The BBC broadcasts to many countries in the world. ○ A BBC reporter wanted to interview her.
- BBQ abbr barbecue
- BC abbr before Christ (used in dates) ○ Julius Caesar died in 44 BC. (NOTE: For dates after the birth of Christ, use AD.)
- ① be verb /bɪ, bi:/ 1. describing a person or thing ○ Our house is older than yours. ○ She is bigger than her brother. ○ Lemons are yellow. ○ The soup is hot. ○ Put on your coat – it is cold outside. ○ I'm cold after standing waiting for the bus. ○ Are you tired after your long walk? 2. showing age or time ○ He's twenty years old. ○ She will be two next month. ○ It is nearly ten o'clock. ○ It is time to get up. ○ September is the beginning of autumn. 3. showing price ○ Onions are 80p a kilo. ○ The cakes are 50p each. ○ My car was worth £10,000 when it was new. 4. showing a job ○ His father is a bus driver. ○ She wants to be a teacher. 5. showing size, weight, height, etc. ○ He's 1.70m tall. ○ The room is three metres square. ○ Our house is ten miles from the nearest station. 6. to add up to ○ Two and two are four. 7. showing that something exists ○ There was a crowd of people waiting for the shop to open. ○ There were only two people left on the bus. ○ Where are we? ○ There's your hat! 8. meaning to go or visit ○ The police have been into every room. ○ We have been to see the film three times. ○ Have you ever been to Spain? 9. forming a verb in a continuous tense ○ Don't make a noise when he's watching the football on TV. ○ I'm waiting for the bank to open. ○ We are hoping to go on holiday in June. 10. making part of a verb, or making a future tense ○ He was singing in the bath. ○ We were walking towards the post office when we met her. 11. forming a passive ○ He was killed by a train. ○ The children were sent home by the teacher. (NOTE: I am; you are; he/she/it is; we/you/they are/ a:/; being; I/he/she/it was/ wɔ:z/; we/you/they were/ w3:/; has been; negative: is not usually isn't /'ɪzn(ə)t/; are not usually aren't /'a:nt/; was not usually wasn't /'wɔz(ə)nt/; were not usually weren't /w3:nt/.)
- ② beach /bi:tʃ/ noun an area of sand or pebbles by the edge of the sea ○ Let's go to the beach this afternoon. ○ Many of the beaches were covered with oil from the tanker. ○ We walked along the beach and looked for shells. Synonym seashore ■ verb to bring something onto a beach ○ They beached the boat near the harbour. ○ At high tide we will try to return the beached whale to the sea. (NOTE: Do not confuse with beech.)
- beachhead /'bi:tʃhed/ noun a small area occupied by troops at the beginning of an invasion from the sea
- beacon /'bi:kən/ noun a light which warns, especially ships or aircraft
- bead /bi:d/ noun 1. a little piece of wood, plastic or glass, with a hole in it, which is used to make a necklace or other decoration ○ She was wearing a string of red beads. ○ Beads are back in fashion again. 2. a small drop of liquid ○ Beads of sweat formed on his brow.

beady /'bi:dɪ/ adj 1. small and round like beads ○ Her eyes were bright and beady. 2. (of eyes) watchful and suspicious ○ The supervisor kept a beady eye on them all, watching for any mistakes.

beagle /'bi:g(ə)l/ noun a breed of dog used for hunting

③ beak /bi:k/ noun the hard part of a bird's mouth. Synonym bill

beaker /'bi:kə/ noun 1. a drinking cup with or without a handle, sometimes with a lid and spout if intended for very small children ○ We'll use these glasses and the children can have the plastic beakers. ○ She's just started to drink from a beaker. 2. a glass jar used in chemical experiments ○ You need a beaker and a Bunsen burner for this experiment.

beam /bɪ:m/ noun 1. a long block of wood or metal which supports a structure, especially a roof ○ You can see the old beams in the ceiling. 2. a ray of light ○ Beams of sunlight came through the stained glass windows. ○ The beam from the car's headlights shone into the barn. 3. the width of a ship □ broad in the beam rather fat (informal) ■ verb to give a wide smile ○ The little girl beamed at him.

③ bean /bi:n/ noun a long thin green vegetable, of which you eat the pod or seeds ○ We had veal with French beans or green beans. □ full of beans full of energy (informal) ○ She's full of beans today. □ I haven't got a bean I have no money at all (informal) bean bag /'bɪ:n bæg/ noun 1. a large bag full of small soft plastic balls, used as a chair 2. a little bag with beans inside, used to throw, or to form the body of a toy ○ She was playing with her bean bag frog.

bean curd /'bɪ:n kɜ:d/ noun a soft white paste made from soya beans. Also called tofu bean sprouts /'bɪ:n sprouts/ plural noun a small sprouts of various types of beans, used as food

① bear /beə/ noun 1. a large wild animal covered with fur ○ They say that bears like honey. ○ There are bears near the campsite in the mountains. □ like a bear with a sore head in a very bad temper (informal) ○ What's the matter with him, he's like a bear with a sore head this morning. 2. a person who believes that share prices will fall. Compare bull ■ verb 1. to carry or produce something ○ This apple tree has borne fruit every year for the last twenty years. ○ The letter bore a London postmark. ○ a bond which bears interest at 5%. 2. to accept something bad or unpleasant in a calm way ○ She bore the bad news bravely. □ cannot bear someone or something to strongly dislike someone or something ○ I can't bear the smell of cooking fish. 3. to turn slightly ○ Bear right at the crossroads. 4. to support ○ Will this branch bear my weight? 5. to aim ○ The enemy brought their guns to bear on our ship. (NOTE: bearing – bore /bɔ:/ – has borne /bɔ:n/) bearable /'beərəb(ə)l/ adj which you can accept even though it is unpleasant. Synonym manageable. Antonym unbearable

③ beard /bɪ:d/ noun 1. the hair growing on a man's chin ○ Father Christmas has a long white beard. 2. whiskers on a mussel or other shellfish bearded /'bɪ:dɪd/ adj with a beard. Antonym clean-shaven bearer /'beərə/ noun 1. a person who carries something ○ He said he was the bearer of bad news. ○ Flag bearers walked in front of the groups of soldiers. 2. a person who owns a legal document such as a cheque ○ This card entitles the bearer to a discount. □ the cheque is payable to bearer the cheque can be paid only to the person who holds it, not to any other named person

③ bearing /'beəriŋ/ noun 1. one of a set of little balls inside which an axle turns ○ The bearings in the bicycle wheel had to be replaced. 2. a calculation to show where you are ○ You need a compass to take a bearing. □ to get your bearings to find out where you are ○ Give me a few moments to get my bearings. □ to lose your bearings to get lost ○ I'm sorry I'm late, but I didn't have a map and lost my bearings. 3. □ bearing on something connection to something ○ The letter had no bearing on the result of the trial. 4. the way a person carries his or her body

bear market /'beə ,mɑ:kit/ noun a period when prices on the stock market fall as shareholders sell shares, because they think share prices will fall further. Compare bull market bear out /,beər 'aut/ verb to confirm. Antonym contradict bear up /,beər 'ʌp/ verb to survive cheerfully bear with /'beə wið/ verb to wait patiently for someone to do something ③ beast /bi:st/ noun 1. a wild animal 2. a nasty person ○ The beast! He left nothing for anyone else.

beastly /'bi:stli/ adj nasty (dated informal) Synonym horrid. Antonym lovely beast of burden /,bi:st əv 'bɜ:d(ə)n/ noun an animal which carries heavy loads (literary)

② beat /bi:t/ noun 1. a regular sound ○ The patient's heart has a regular beat. □ heartbeat 2. a regular sound of a piece of music ○ They danced to the beat of the steel band. 3. an area patrolled by a police officer on foot ○

Here policemen on the beat have to go around in pairs. ■ verb 1. to make a regular sound ○ His heart was still beating when the ambulance arrived. ○ Her heart beat faster as she went into the interview. 2. to hit hard ○ He was beaten by a gang of youths. ○ She hung the carpet on the line and beat it with a stick to remove the dust. □ the burglars beat a hasty retreat the burglars went away very quickly □ don't beat about the bush get to the point quickly 3. to do better than someone else or than another team in a game ○ They beat their rivals into second place. ○ Our football team beat France 2 – 0. ○ They beat us by 10 goals to 2. ○ We beat the Australians at cricket last year. 4. to stir eggs or another food vigorously ○ Beat the yolks of three eggs with a little cream. 5. □ beat it! go away! (informal) (NOTE: beating – beat – has beaten) beat down /'bi:t 'daun/ verb 1. to make someone reduce a price ○ I beat down his price or I beat him down. 2. to fall hard on ○ The sun was beating down so we looked for some shade. ○ The rain beat down on the marchers.

③ beaten /'bi:t(ə)n/ adj 1. defeated ○ The beaten team was very disappointed. 2. □ off the beaten track away from main roads ○ Luckily, our village is off the beaten track and so is very quiet.

③ beating /'bɪ:tɪŋ/ noun the act of hitting or defeating

② beat up /bi:t 'ʌp/ verb 1. to whip cream, eggs or another food ○ Beat up the mixture in a big bowl. 2. to attack someone ○ Three muggers beat him up and stole his wallet.

beat-up /'bi:t ʌp/ adj wrecked and useless (informal). Synonym battered. Antonym pristine

Beaujolais /'bəʊzəleɪ/ noun a light French red wine from Burgundy beautician /bju:tɪʃ(ə)n/ noun a person who works in a beauty parlour

① beautiful /'bju:tɪf(ə)l/ adj very nice, especially to look at ○ the beautiful colours of the autumn leaves ○ Mr Smith and his three beautiful daughters ○ They have a beautiful house in the country. ○ What beautiful weather!

beautifully /'bju:tɪf(ə)li/ adv in a very pleasing way beautify /'bju:tɪfaɪ/ verb to make someone or something beautiful

② beauty /'bju:tɪ/ noun 1. the quality of being beautiful ○ Her beauty was legendary. ○ the beauty of the maples against the background of the blue lake 2. a beautiful woman; a beautiful thing ○ At 18 she was a real beauty. ○ His motorbike is a beauty – I must buy one like it. ○ Look at these apples, they're real beauties.

beauty contest /'bju:ti ,kɒntest/ noun a competition to see which person is most beautiful beauty parlour /'bju:ti ,pɑ:lə/, beauty salon /'bju:ti 'sælən/, beauty shop /'bju:ti 'ʃɒp/ noun a place which offers treatments for hair, nails, skin, etc., to help women look more beautiful beauty spot /'bju:ti spot/ noun 1. a famous beautiful place 2. a dark spot, usually on your face beaver /'bɪrvə/ noun an American animal with soft brown fur, sharp teeth and a broad flat tail, which lives in water ○ Beavers cut down young trees to build their homes. ■ verb (informal) □ to beaver away at something to work hard at something ○ They were beavering away at building the wall.

① because /bɪ'kɒz/ conj for this reason ○ I was late because I missed the train. ○ The dog's wet because he's been in the river. ○ Just because I'm lending you my car this time, it doesn't mean you can borrow it when you like. □ because of for the reason that ○ The plane was delayed because of bad weather.

beck /bek/ noun □ he is always at her beck and call he always does exactly what she wants him to do beckon /'bekən/ verb □ to beckon to someone to make a sign with your hand telling someone to come ○ The nurse beckoned to her to come into the room.

① become /bɪ'kʌm/ verb 1. to change to something different ○ The sky became dark and the wind became stronger. ○ They became good friends. ○ As she got older she became rather deaf. ○ It soon became obvious that he didn't understand a word of what I was saying. 2. to start to work as ○ He wants to become a doctor. 3. □ to become of to happen to someone or something ○ I never saw her brother again – I wonder what became of him. 4. to suit someone (formal) ○ Such behaviour hardly becomes a young person. (NOTE: becoming – became /bɪ'keɪm/ – has become) becoming /bɪ'kʌmɪŋ/ adj which looks good (dated) □ her dress is very becoming her dress suits her

① bed /bed/ noun 1. a piece of furniture for sleeping on ○ Lie down on my bed if you're tired. □ to go to bed to get into your bed for the night ○ She always goes to bed at 9 o'clock. □ to be in bed to be sitting or lying in bed ○ She's in bed with a cold. ○ He was sitting up in bed drinking a cup of coffee. □ to make a bed to make a bed tidy or change the bedclothes after someone has slept in it ○ You can't go into your hotel room because the beds haven't been made. ○ Have you made your bed? 2. a piece of ground spe-

bed and breakfast

cially for plants ◇ a strawberry bed ◇ a bed of roses □ her life isn't a bed of roses she leads a life full of difficulties 3. the ground at the bottom of water ◇ the sandy bed of a river

① bed and breakfast /'bed ən 'brekfəst/ noun a guesthouse offering accommodation and breakfast ◇ We got a list of bed and breakfasts from the tourist office. Abbr b&b, B&B bedclothes /'bedkləʊðz/ plural noun sheets and blankets which cover a bed ◇ She woke up when all her bedclothes fell off.

bedcover /'bedkʌvə/ noun a decorated cloth put over a bed bedding /'bedɪŋ/ noun 1. sheets, blankets and other items for a bed; bedclothes ◇ When you rent a cottage the bedding is usually provided. 2. a soft material such as hay for an animal to sleep on bed linen /'bed lɪnɪn/ noun sheets and pillowcases used on a bed bedraggled /'bɪ'dræg(ə)ld/ adj dirty, untidy and wet. Synonym unkempt bedridden /'bed,ridn/ adj forced to stay in bed because of illness bedrock /'bedrɒk/ noun 1. the bottom layer of rock under the earth 2. basic principles ◇ Socialism is the bedrock of the party's manifesto.

① bedroom /'bedru:m/ noun a room where you sleep ◇ My bedroom is on the first floor. ◇ The hotel has twenty-five bedrooms. ◇ Shut your bedroom door if you want to be quiet.

bedside /'bedsaɪd/ noun the side of a bed bedside manner /,bedsaɪd 'mænə/ noun the way in which a doctor behaves towards a patient, especially a patient who is in bed bed-sitting room /'bed'sɪtɪŋ ru:m/bed-sitter /'bedsɪtə/, bedsit /'bedsɪt/ noun a combined bedroom and living room which is rented bedsore /'bedsɔ:/ noun a inflamed patch of skin which you get from lying in bed bedspread /'bedspred/ noun a decorated cloth put over a bed

③ bedtime /'bedtaɪm/ noun the time when you go to bed □ it's past your bedtime it's later than the time when you normally go to bed bee /bi:/ noun an insect which makes honey, and can sting you if it is annoyed

COMMENT: In a bee colony, the main female bee is the queen; the other females are the workers, and the males are the drones.

beech /bɪ:tʃ/ noun 1. same as beech tree

2. wood from this tree ◇ a beech table ◇ The floor is made of beech. (NOTE: Do not confuse with beach.)

before

beech tree /'bi:tʃ tri:/ noun a common hardwood tree ◇ Beech trees are common on the chalk hills in the south of England.

beef /bi:f/ noun 1. meat from a cow ◇ a plate of roast beef and Yorkshire pudding 2. a grumble (informal) ◇ It's one of her regular beefs. □ verb (informal) □ to beef about to grumble about something ◇ What's he beefing on about, tell him to shut up! □ to beef up to make something bigger or stronger ◇ We will have to beef up our advertising budget.

beefburger /'bi:fb3:gə/ noun a cake of grilled minced beef, usually served in a roll beefy /'bi:fɪ/ adj 1. big and muscular ◇ a strong, beefy looking man. Synonym brawny 2. powerful ◇ The novel is a good, beefy read. (NOTE: beefy – beefier – beefiest) beehive /'bi:haɪv/ noun a box for bees to make a nest in beekeeper /'bi:ki:pə/ noun a person who keeps bees for their honey beeline /'bi:laɪn/ noun a straight line □ to make a beeline for to go straight towards ◇ He made a beeline for the prettiest girl in the room. ◇ She made a beeline for the chocolate cakes.

① been /bi:n/ □ be beep /bi:p/ noun an audible warning sound ◇ The printer will make a beep when it runs out of paper. Synonym peep □ verb to make a beep ◇ The computer beeped when I hit the wrong key. □ bleep. Synonym peep beeper /'bi:pə/ noun same as bleeper

② beer /bɪə/ noun 1. an alcoholic drink made from grain and water ◇ British beer is flavoured with hops. ◇ Can I have a glass of beer? (NOTE: no plural) 2. a glass or bottle of beer ◇ Three beers, please.

beet /bi:t/ noun same as sugar beet beetle /'bi:t(ə)l/ noun an insect with hard covers on its wings beetroot /'bi:ttru:t/ noun a vegetable with a dark red root, eaten cooked, usually in a salad □ as red as a beetroot very red in the face ◇ He went as red as a beetroot when we asked him about his girlfriend.

befall /'bɪ:fɔ:l/ verb to happen to (archaic or literary) (NOTE: befalling – befell – has befallen)

befit /'bɪ'fit/ verb to suit (NOTE: befitting – befitted)

① before /'bɪ:fɔ:/ adv earlier ◇ I didn't see him last week, I saw him the week before. ◇ Why didn't you tell me before? □ prep earlier than ◇ They should have arrived before now. ◇ You must be home before 9 o'clock. ◇ G comes before H in the alphabet. □ before that earlier than that ◇ He only came into work at ten, so what did he do before that? □ conj earlier than ◇ The police got there before I did. □ Think carefully before you start to answer the exam questions. □ Wash your hands before you have your dinner. □ Before you sit down, can you switch on the light?

③ beforehand /bɪ'fɔ:hænd/ adv in advance. Antonym afterwards befriend /bɪ'frend/ verb to become friendly with someone and help them. Antonym shun beg /beg/ verb 1. to ask for things like money or food □ She sat begging on the steps of the station. □ Children were begging for food. 2. to ask someone in an emotional way to do something or give something □ His mother begged him not to go. □ He begged for more time to find the money. □ to beg a favour of someone to ask someone to do something for you 3. □ I beg your pardon! excuse me, forgive me □ I beg your pardon, I didn't hear what you said. □ I do beg your pardon – I didn't know you were busy.

① began /bɪ'gæn/ □ begin

beggar /'begə/ noun 1. a person who lives by asking for money □ There are lots of beggars outside the railway stations. 2. □ lucky beggar! lucky person (informal dated) □ He just won the lottery – lucky beggar!

begging /'begɪŋ/ noun the act of asking for food or money □ it's going begging no one wants it □ This last sandwich is going begging.

① begin /bɪ'gɪn/ verb to start □ The children began to cry. □ She has begun to knit a red pullover for her father. □ The house is beginning to warm up. □ His surname begins with an S. □ The meeting is due to begin at ten o'clock sharp. □ to begin again to start a second time □ He forgot to save his file and had to begin keyboarding all over again. (NOTE: beginning – began /bɪ'gæn/ – has begun /bɪ'gʌn/)

③ beginner /bɪ'gɪnə/ noun a person who is starting. Synonym novice

① beginning /bɪ'gɪnɪŋ/ noun the first part □ The beginning of the film is rather boring. Synonym start begin with /bɪ'gɪn wið/ verb □ to begin with at first □ To begin with, I travelled by train but now I cycle every day.

begrudge /bɪ'grʌdʒ/ verb to feel resentment because of something someone has or does. Synonym resent

① begun /bɪ'gʌn/ □ begin behalf /bɪ'ha:f/ noun □ on behalf of acting for someone □ She is speaking on behalf of the trade association. □ He was chosen to speak on behalf of the other workers on the shop floor.

③ behave /bɪ'hev/ verb to act in a certain way with someone □ He behaved very pleasantly towards his staff. □ She was behaving in a funny way. □ to behave (yourself) to be good □ If you don't behave yourselves, children, you won't have any ice cream.

-behaved /bɪ'hɛvɪd/ suffix referring to behaviour □ a well-behaved child

① behaviour /bɪ'hevɪrɪə/ noun a way of doing things □ His behaviour was quite natural. □ Local people complained about the behaviour of the football fans. (NOTE: The US spelling is behavior.)

behavioural /bɪ'hevɪrɪəl/ adj referring to human behaviour (NOTE: The US spelling is behavioral.)

behead /bɪ'hed/ verb to cut off someone's head. Synonym decapitate

① behind /bɪ'haɪnd/ prep 1. at the back of □ They hid behind the door. □ I dropped my pen behind the sofa. □ He was second, only three metres behind the winner. □ she's behind the rest of class she is not as advanced as the others. ▪ time 2. responsible for □ The police believe they know who is behind the bombing campaign. 3. supporting □ All his colleagues were behind his decision. □ We're behind you! ■ adv 1. at the back □ He was first, and the rest of the runners were a long way behind. □ he left his wallet behind he forgot to take his wallet with him □ when the others went out, he stayed behind to watch TV he stayed at home when the others went out 2. later than you should be □ I am behind with my correspondence. □ The company has fallen behind with its deliveries. ■ noun the part of the body which you sit on □ There was some water on the chair and my behind's all wet. □ I'll kick his behind if he doesn't get a move on. □ He's so lazy! – he needs a good kick up the behind.

behold /bɪ'haʊld/ verb 1. to see (old) □ The happiness on the little children's faces was marvellous to behold. 2. □ lo and behold! used to introduce something you think is surprising □ We had been waiting for hours for a bus when, lo and behold, three came together.

beige /beɪʒ/ adj, noun very pale brown □ He was wearing a beige pullover.

① being /'bi:ɪŋ/ adj □ for the time being temporarily, for now □ We will leave the furniture as it is for the time being. ■ noun an existence □ The association came into being in 1946. ▪ human. Synonym existence belated /bɪ'leɪtɪd/ adj coming or happening later than it should. Synonym late. Antonym timely

belch /bɛltʃ/ noun allowing air in the stomach to come up through the mouth □ He finished his meal and let out a loud belch. Synonym burp (NOTE: The plural is belches.) ■ verb 1. to make air in the stomach come up through the mouth □ He wiped his mouth and belched. 2. to pour out of Dark smoke belched from the power station.

 3. □ to belch out to send out large amounts of smoke, fumes or flames ○ The power station was belching out dark smoke.

beleaguered /bɪ'lɪgəd/ adj surrounded by difficulties or by enemies belfry /'belfrɪ/ noun a church tower where bells are (NOTE: The plural is belfries.)

③ Belgian /'beldʒən/ adj referring to Belgium ○ Belgian chocolates are very popular in England. ○ All Belgian motorways are lit up at night. ■ noun a person from Belgium ○ There were ten people at the meeting, and two of them were Belgians.

belie /br'lai/ verb 1. to hide ○ His brusque manner belies his gentle nature. 2. to show that something is false ○ His exam results belied his teachers' reports.

② belief /br'lif/ noun feeling sure that something is true ○ His firm belief in the power of law. ○ Her strong belief in God. □ it is my belief I believe ○ It's my belief that the problems have been grossly exaggerated. □ to the best of my belief as far as I know ○ To the best of my belief, no one else has seen this letter. □ beyond belief incredible ○ That she did not know that there were drugs in the parcel is quite beyond belief.

believable /br'lɪvəb(ə)l/ adj which can be believed. Synonym credible. Antonym unbelievable

① believe /br'lɪ:v/ verb 1. to be sure that something is true, although you can't prove it ○ People used to believe that the earth was flat. ○ Don't believe anything he tells you. 2. not to be absolutely sure ○ I don't believe I have ever met your father. ○ I believe I have been here before. 3. □ to believe in to be sure that something exists ○ Some people believe in miracles. ○ Do you believe in flying saucers?

believer /br'lɪ:və/ noun a person who believes in a particular religion or idea. Synonym supporter

Belisha beacon /bə,li:ʃə 'bi:kən/ noun a flashing light at a zebra crossing belittle /br'lɪtl/ verb to make something seem unimportant. Synonym disparage. Antonym praise

② bell /bel/ noun 1. a metal object shaped like a cup, which makes a ringing noise when hit ○ They rang the church bells at the wedding. 2. any object designed to make a ringing noise, especially an electric device ○ The alarm bell rings if you touch the door. ○ The postman rang the door bell. ○ You ought to have a bell on your bicycle. □ that rings a bell that reminds me of something ○ Does the name Forsyth ring a bell? 3. □ to give someone a bell to phone someone (informal) ○ I'll give you a bell when we've sorted out the details.

belligerent /bə'lɪdʒərənt/ adj 1. wanting to go to war, or being at war ○ The country has turned increasingly belligerent towards its neighbours. 2. aggressive, wanting to argue with other people ○ Ask the manager about it tomorrow, he's in a belligerent mood at the moment. Antonym compliant ■ noun a country that is at war ○ The belligerents refused to accept the ruling of the international mediators.

bellow /'beləʊ/ noun a loud deep cry ○ The deer raised its head and gave a loud bellow. Synonym roar. Antonym whisper ■ verb 1. to make a loud cry ○ He bellowed with pain. ○ The bull was bellowing in the farmyard. 2. to shout ○ He bellowed to the swimmers to come back to the beach.

bellows /'beləʊz/ plural noun a device used to blow air onto a fire (NOTE: no singular: to show one item, say 'a pair of bellows'.)

③ belly /'belɪ/ noun 1. the stomach and intestines 2. the front part of the body below the chest (informal) (NOTE: The plural is bellies.)

bellyache /'beliæk/ (informal) noun a pain in the abdomen or stomach ○ She had a bellyache after eating green apples. ■ verb □ to bellyache about something to complain about something ○ Nothing seems to make her happy – she's always bellyaching about something.

belly button /'belɪ,bʌt(ə)n/ noun same as navel (informal)

① belong /br'lɒŋ/ verb 1. to be in the usual or expected place ○ That book belongs on the top shelf. 2. to be happy to be somewhere or with a group of people ○ Within a week in my new job I felt I belonged. □ to belong to someone to be the property of someone ○ Does the car really belong to you? □ to belong to something 1. to be a member of an organisation ○ They still belong to the tennis club. 2. to be part of or connected to something ○ French belongs to the family of languages that developed from Latin.

belongings /br'lɒŋɪŋz/ plural noun personal property ○ Her belongings were scattered all over the room. ○ Please be sure to take all your personal belongings with you when you leave the aircraft. Synonym possessions beloved /br'ləvɪd/ adj which is loved ○ She doesn't want to leave her beloved childhood home. ○ He was very upset at the death of his beloved grandfather. Synonym much-loved ■ noun the person you love most (formal) ○ He was reunited with his beloved.

① below /br'ləʊ/ adv lower down ○ Standing on the bridge we looked at the river below. ○ These toys are for children of two years and below. ▀ prep lower down than ○ The temperature was below freezing. ○ In Singapore, the temperature never goes below 25°C. ○ Do not write anything below this line. ○ These tablets should not be given to children below the age of twelve. ○ Can you see below the surface of the water?

② belt /belt/ noun 1. a strap which goes round your waist to hold up a skirt or trousers ○ She wore a bright red belt. ○ This silver belt comes from Thailand. 2. a person who wears a particular coloured belt worn when playing judo, karate, etc. ○ He's a black belt. 3. a zone around something ▀ verb 1. to travel fast ○ The car was belting along the motorway at over 100 miles an hour. 2. □ to belt out to sing very loudly ○ The fans were belting out football songs.

belt up /,belt 'ʌp/ verb (informal) 1. to stop talking □ belt up! be quiet! 2. to attach your seat belt ○ Make sure everyone in the car belts up.

bemoan /bɪ'meən/ verb to complain about something. Synonym lament. Antonym applaud bemused /bɪ'mju:zd/ adj puzzled and confused. Synonym confused

② bench /bentʃ/ noun 1. a long wooden seat ○ We sat down on one of the park benches. □ (work) bench table in a workshop at which someone works ○ The carpenter was standing at his bench. 2. □ the bench magistrates sitting in court ○ He was up before the bench for speeding. 3. (in Parliament) the long seats in the House of Commons. ♫ back benches, front bench benchmark /'bentʃmɑ:k/ noun a standard for testing against

② bend /bend/ noun 1. a curve, especially in a road, line, etc. ○ Don't drive too fast, there's a sudden bend in the road. ○ The pipe under the sink has an awkward S-bend. 2. □ round the bend insane, annoyed or upset (informal) ○ He's completely round the bend. ○ She'll go round the bend when she hears that. ○ That music is driving me round the bend. ▀ verb 1. to make something curve ○ You will have to bend the pipe to fit round the corner. 2. to move a jointed part of your body ○ to bend your knees slightly ○ Bend your arm to see if the coat fits. 3. to curve ○ The road bends sharply after the bridge. (NOTE: bending – bent /bent/)

② bend down /'bend 'daʊn/, bend over /'bendvə/ verb to stoop, so that your head is lower than your waist. ♫ backwards

bendy /'bendi/ adj 1. easily bent ○ a bendy toy. Synonym flexible. Antonym rigid 2. having many bends ○ a bendy road. Antonym straight (NOTE: bendy – bendier – bendiest)

② beneath /bɪ'nɪ:θ/ adv underneath (formal) ○ From the bridge we watched the river flowing beneath. Synonym underneath. Antonym above ▀ prep 1. under ○ There are dangerous rocks beneath the surface of the lake. ○ The river flows very fast beneath the bridge. 2. not suitable, not important enough ○ He thinks it is beneath him to make the coffee himself.

benefactor /'benɪfækٹə/, benefactress /'benɪfæktrəs/ noun a person who gives money to an organisation such as a charity. Synonym patron beneficent /bə'nefɪsənt/ adj helping or showing kindness to others (literary) beneficial /,benɪ'fɪʃ(ə)l/ adj which helps. Synonym helpful. Antonym detrimental

③ beneficiary /,benɪ'fɪʃəri/ noun 1. a person who inherits something in a will ○ The main beneficiaries were his three children. 2. someone, or a group, who is helped by something ○ Who will be the main beneficiaries of this new law? (NOTE: The plural is beneficiaries.)

① benefit /'benɪfɪt/ noun 1. an advantage ○ What benefit would I get from joining the club? □ for someone's benefit specially for someone ○ You are not doing it just for my benefit, are you? 2. payment by the state ○ unemployment benefit ○ maternity benefit ▀ verb 1. to be useful to someone ○ The book will benefit anyone who is planning to do some house repairs. 2. □ to benefit from, by something to get an advantage from ○ British tourists will benefit from the strong pound. ○ Pensioners can benefit from free bus passes.

Benelux /'benɪlʊks/ noun Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg together as a group benevolence /bɪ'nevələns/ noun being good and kind. Antonym malevolence benevolent /bə'nev(ə)lənt/ adj good and kind. Antonym malevolent benign /bə'nain/ adj 1. kind and pleasant 2. □ a benign growth a harmless or non-cancerous growth ○ At first they thought the growth was benign, but in fact it was malignant.

② bent /bent/ adj 1. curved ○ These nails are bent so we can't use them. 2. □ to be bent on to be very keen on doing something ○ He is bent on buying the car even if he can't afford it. 3. dishonest ○ a bent police officer ▀ noun a natural ability for doing a particular activity ○ a scientific bent ○ She discovered a bent for nursing. Synonym aptitude bent /bent/ □ bend

benzene /'benzɪ:n/ noun a simple liquid hydrocarbon used in making plastic and petrol bequeath /bri'kwi:ð/ verb □ to bequeath something to someone to leave property to someone in a will ○ He bequeathed his shares to his son. Synonym leave. Antonym inherit bequest /bri'kwest/ noun the giving of property or money to someone in a will. Synonym inheritance berate /bri'reit/ verb to criticise in an angry tone (literary). Synonym rebuke. Antonym praise bereaved /bri'ri:vð/ adj who has a close relative or friend who has died ○ We sent our condolences to the bereaved families. Synonym mourning ■ noun □ the bereaved the family and friends of a person who has died ○ The priest was trying to console the bereaved after the funeral.

bereavement /bri'ri:vment/ noun the loss of a friend or relative through death bereft /bri'reft/ adj □ bereft of without (formal) ○ He was left bereft of all income when his business collapsed. ○ The children were bereft of medical care. □ bereft of hope without any hope for the future beret /'beret/ noun a round cap without a peak, worn by men or women berry /'beri/ noun a small fruit (NOTE: The plural is berries. Do not confuse with bury.)

berserk /bə'zɜ:k/ adj □ to go berserk to get angry and out of control ○ When he heard that she had sold his collection of stamps he went berserk.

berth /bɜ:θ/ noun 1. a place where a ship stays in a harbour ○ There are no berths free – the ferry will have to wait at anchor outside the harbour for a while. 2. □ to give someone or something a wide berth to avoid someone or something ○ Dad is in a bad mood – I'd give him a wide berth if I were you. 3. a bunk bed on a ship or train ○ Do you want the upper or lower berth? ■ verb (of a ship) to stay in a harbour ○ The ship won't berth until late this evening.

beseech /bri'si:tʃ/ verb (literary) □ to beseech someone to do something to ask someone earnestly to do something (formal) ○ She beseeched them to think again. ○ Do not do this, I beseech you.

beset /bɪ'set/ adj □ beset with surrounded with difficulties or problems ○ The move to new offices was beset with problems.

② beside /bɪ'saɪd/ prep 1. at the side of someone or something ○ Come and sit down beside me. ○ The office is just beside the railway station. □ it's beside the point it's got nothing to do with the main subject ○ Whether or not the coat matches your hat is beside the point – it's simply too big for you.

2. □ to be beside yourself with to be in a very agitated or excited state because of something ○ The parents were beside them- selves with worry when their daughter did not come home from school. ○ She was beside herself with grief.

② besides /bɪ'saɪdз/ prep as well as ○ They have two other cars besides the big Ford. ○ Besides the football team, our town also has a hockey team. ○ Besides managing the shop, he also teaches in the evening. ■ adv 1. as well ○ He paints, plays chess and has lots of other interests besides. 2. in any case ○ I don't want to go for a picnic – besides, it's starting to rain.

besiege /bɪ'si:dʒ/ verb to surround a building, or a town or city □ to be besieged with something to receive many demands, enquiries, letters, etc. ○ The bookshop was besieged with enquiries about the new dictionary.

besotted /bɪ'sɒtɪd/ adj □ besotted with someone madly in love with someone ○ I don't see what he sees in her, but he's completely besotted. ○ She's besotted with her new baby.

① best /best/ adj 1. very good, better than anything else ○ She's my best friend. ○ He put on his best suit to go to the interview. ○ What is the best way of getting to London from here? □ best regards, best wishes a greeting sent to someone ○ Give my best wishes to your father. 2. □ for the best part of for most of ○ She's been in bed for the best part of a week. ■ noun 1. the thing which is better than anything else ○ The picture shows her at her best. □ to do your best to do as well as you can ○ She did her best, but didn't win. □ all the best best wishes for the future ○ We wished them all the best in their marriage. 2. □ to make the best of something to take any advantage you can from something ○ They say it will rain this afternoon, so we'd better make the best of the sunshine while it's here. □ to make the best of a bad job to do something in spite of terrible conditions ○ It was raining when we stopped for a picnic, so we made the best of a bad job and had our sandwiches in the car. □ the best of it is that the most interesting or funniest part of the story is that ○ The best of it was that she didn't recognise him in his Father Christmas outfit. □ to the best of my knowledge as far as I know 3. best clothes ○ The children were all in their Sunday best. ■ adv in the best way ○ The engine works best when it's warm. ○ Oranges grow best in hot countries. ○ Which of you knows London best? □ as best you can in the best way you can, even though this may not be perfect ○ He repaired the dent in the car door as best he could.

① best man /best 'mæn/ noun the man who helps the bridegroom at a wedding bestow /bɪ'stəʊ/ verb to give (formal).

Synonym confer

bestseller /bɛst'selə/ noun an item, especially a book, which sells very well bestselling /bɛst'selɪŋ/ adj 1. which sells in very large numbers ○ These computer disks are our bestselling line. ○ This is the bestselling car in the range. 2. whose books sell very well ○ Our bestselling author left us for another publishing house. ▶ Synonym successful

① bet /bɛt/ noun a sum of money which is risked by trying to say which horse will come first in a race or which side will win a competition, etc. ○ He placed a bet on his friend's horse but lost his bet when the horse came last. ○ I've got a bet on England to win the next World Cup. □ it is a safe bet it is very likely to happen ○ It's a safe bet that if we decide to go camping it will rain. ■ verb 1. to risk money by saying which horse you think will come first in a race or which team will win, etc. ○ He bet me £10 the Prime Minister would lose the election. 2. to be sure of something ○ I bet you she's going to be late. □ you bet! of course (informal) ○ Do you want to go to the pub? – You bet!

beta /'bɪ:tə/ noun the second letter of the Greek alphabet, or a mark showing a second level in a series. Symbol β beta blocker /'bɪ:tə ,blɒkə/ noun a drug which reduces the heart's activity betray /bɪ'trei/ verb 1. to harm someone by telling their secrets ○ He was betrayed by his best friend. ○ The scientist was accused of betraying secrets to the enemy. 2. to show a feeling which you want to keep hidden ○ The tears in her eyes betrayed her emotion.

betrayal /bɪ'treɪəl/ noun the act of giving someone's secrets to an enemy, or of not doing what you had promised to do. Synonym disloyalty. Antonym loyalty betrothed /bɪ't्रəʊðəd/ noun a person you are engaged to marry (formal or humorous)

① better /'bɛtə/ adj 1. good when compared to something else ○ The weather is better today than it was yesterday. ○ His latest book is better than the first one he wrote. ○ She's better at maths than English. ○ Brown bread is better for you than white. ○ We will shop around to see if we can get a better price. 2. healthy again ○ I had a cold last week but I'm better now. ○ I hope your sister will be better soon. ■ adv more successfully than something else ○ She sings better than her sister. ○ My old knife cuts better than the new one. □ to think better of something to decide that something is not a good idea ○ He was going to drive to London, but thought better of it when he heard the traffic report on the news. ■ noun 1. a person who bets ○ One or two lucky betters won thousands of pounds on the race. 2. □ to get the better of someone to beat someone ○ No one can get the better of him at poker. □ for the better which makes the situation better ○ He's earning more money now, and his financial situation has changed for the better. □ he took a turn for the better his health began to improve ■ verb □ to better yourself to improve your social position ○ He studied hard because he wanted to better himself.

better off /,bɛtər 'ɒf/ adj in a better position

③ betting /'bɛtɪŋ/ noun the placing of bets

① between /bɪ'twɪ:n/ prep 1. placed with things on both sides ○ There's only a thin wall between his office and mine, so I hear everything he says. ○ Don't sit between him and his girlfriend. 2. connecting two places ○ The bus goes between Oxford and London. 3. in the interval separating two times ○ I'm have a meeting between 10 o'clock and 12. ○ Can you come to see me between now and next Monday? 4. in the space separating two amounts ○ The parcel weighs between four and five kilos. ○ Cherries cost between £2 and £3 per kilo. □ in between in the middle, with things on both sides 5. showing a difference ○ She's colour-blind – she can't tell the difference between red and green. 6. sharing ○ We only had £10 between the three of us. 7. among ○ She could choose between courses in German, Chinese or Russian. 8. □ between you and me speaking privately ○ Between you and me, I don't think he's very good at his job.

beverage /'bev(ə)rɪdʒ/ noun drink (formal) bewail /bɪ'weɪl/ verb to complain about something (formal). Synonym lament. Antonym applaud beware /bɪ'weə/ verb to watch out for bewilder /bɪ'wɪldə/ verb to puzzle someone. Synonym confuse bewildered /bɪ'wɪldəd/ adj confused or puzzled bewildering /bɪ'wɪld(ə)rɪŋ/ adj confusing or puzzling bewilderment /bɪ'wɪldəmənt/ noun a state of confusion or of being puzzled. Antonym clarity bewitch /bɪ'wɪtʃ/ verb 1. to charm someone 2. to cast a spell on someone ① beyond /bɪ'jɒnd/ prep 1. further away than ○ The post office is beyond the bank. □ it is beyond my means it is too expensive for me to buy it ○ I'd love to buy a sports car, but I think it would be beyond my means. 2. later than ○ The party went on till beyond midnight. ■ adv further away, on the other side ○ She stared through the window at the fields beyond.

bhangra /'bʌŋgrə/ noun a style of dance music which mixes Punjabi folk music with western pop music biannual /baɪ'ænjuəl/ adj which happens twice a year (NOTE: Do not confuse with biennial.)

bias /'baɪəs/ noun a fixed opinion in one direction only biased /'baɪəst/ adj prejudiced. Antonym unbiased

bib /'bɪb/ noun 1. a little piece of cloth which is tied round a baby's neck, under its chin ○ Don't forget to put his bib on when he's eating spinach. 2. the top part of an apron or dungarees, covering your chest

③ Bible /'baɪb(ə)l/ noun 1. a Christian and Jewish book of scriptures ○ He reads from the Bible every evening. 2. an important and useful reference book ○ She keeps an old French cookery book in the kitchen – it's her bible.

COMMENT: The Christian Bible is made up of the Old Testament (the Jewish scriptures) and the New Testament, which are the writings concerned with the life and works of Christ and the early Christian Church.

biblical /'bɪblɪk(ə)l/ adj referring to the Bible bibliography /,bɪbli'ɒgrəfi/ noun a list of publications about a special subject (NOTE: The plural is bibliographies.)

bicarbonate of soda /baɪ'kə:bənətəʊ'səʊdə/ noun a chemical used as a medicine for stomach pains or as an ingredient in cakes and bread bicentenary /,bɑːsɛn'tiːnəri/ noun an anniversary of 200 years (NOTE: The plural is bicentenaries.)

bicentennial /,bɑːsɛn'tenɪəl/ adj referring to a bicentenary biceps /'baɪsɛps/ noun a muscle formed of two parts, especially the muscle in the front of the upper arm (NOTE: The plural is biceps.)

bicker /'bɪkə/ verb to quarrel about something. Synonym argue. Antonym agree

③ bicycle /'baɪsɪk(ə)l/ noun a vehicle with two wheels which is ridden by one person who makes it go by pushing on the pedals and steers with the handlebars ○ He goes to school by bicycle every day. ○ She's going to do the shopping on her bicycle. ○ He's learning to ride a bicycle. Synonym bike ■ verb to ride on a bicycle ○ We bicycled all over the Netherlands. (NOTE: The person who rides a bicycle is a cyclist. To show the difference from a motorcycle, a bicycle is sometimes called a push bike.)

③ bid /bɪd/ noun 1. an offer to buy at an auction ○ His bid for the painting was too low. 2. an attempt to do something □ she made a bid for power she tried to seize power ■ verb 1. to make an offer to buy something at an auction ○ He bid £500 for the car. (NOTE: bidding – bid) 2. to wish ○ He bade me farewell. (NOTE: bid or bade /bæd/ - has bidden) bidder /'bɪdə/ noun a person who makes an offer to buy something, especially at an auction. Synonym buyer □ to sell something to the highest bidder to sell something to the person who makes the best offer ○ The lot was sold to the highest bidder.

bidding /'bɪdɪŋ/ noun 1. a command □ I did it at his bidding I did it because he told me to do it 2. offers made at an auction ○ The bidding started at £200 and rose quickly.

bide /baɪd/ verb 1. to wait for a good opportunity to do something ○ If I were you I wouldn't do anything quickly, I'd bide my time. 2. (archaic) to stay, or wait bidet /'bɪ:deɪ/ noun a small low bath for washing your bottom biennial /baɪ'eniəl/ adj 1. (of a plant) which flowers in its second year of growth and then dies 2. (of an event) which happens every two years ○ The athletics competition is a biennial event. (NOTE: Do not confuse with biannual.) ■ noun a plant which flowers in its second year of growth and then dies ○ We plant biennials at the back of the flowerbed and annuals in front.

bifocal /baɪ'fəʊk(ə)l/ adj, noun □ bifocal spectacles, bifocals spectacles with two types of lens in each frame, one for reading and one for seeing longer distances bifurcate /baɪfʊkeɪt/ verb to split in two ① big /bɪg/ adj of a large size ○ I don't want a small car – I want a big one. ○ His father has the biggest restaurant in town. ○ I'm not afraid of him – I'm bigger than he is. ○ We had a big order from Germany. ■ adv □ to talk big to pretend to be important (NOTE: bigger-biggest)

bigamist /'bɪgəmɪst/ noun a person who is illegally married to two people at the same time bigamy /'bɪgəmi/ noun the crime of someone going through a ceremony of marriage to someone when they are already married to someone else

Big Bang /bɪg 'bæŋ/ noun a large explosion which some scientists think was the beginning of the universe

① Big Ben /bɪg 'ben/ noun a clock and bell at the top of St Stephen's tower by the Houses of Parliament in London

Big Brother /bɪg 'brʌðə/ noun an authority which controls and watches other people big business /bɪg 'bɪznɪs/ noun very large commercial companies, seen as a group (NOTE: no plural) big cheese /bɪg 'tʃi:z/ noun an important person. (informal) Antonym nobody ① big deal /bɪg 'di:l/ noun 1. an important business transaction ○ It's one of the biggest deals we have ever signed. 2. □ big deal! that's not a very good deal (used sarcastically) ○ He offered me £20 for the car – big deal!

big game /bɪg 'geɪm/ noun large animals such as lions and tigers which are hunted for sport (NOTE: no plural) bigheaded /bɪg'he:dɪd/ adj too proud of yourself (informal). Synonym conceited big money /bɪg 'mʌni/ noun a lot of money (informal) big name /bɪg 'neɪm/ noun an important person (informal). Antonym unknown bigot /'bɪgət/ noun a person with a narrow-minded attitude to religion or politics bigoted /'bɪgətɪd/ adj with very strong and unreasonable ideas about something. Synonym prejudiced. Antonym open-minded bigotry /'bɪgətri/ noun an attitude where you dislike something strongly for no particular reason. Synonym prejudice big shot /'bɪg ʃɒt/ noun an important person (informal). Antonym nobody big time /'bɪg taɪm/ noun being at the top level in show business (slang) ○ He toured the country doing conjuring tricks, and then suddenly hit the big time with a TV show.

big toe /bɪg 'təʊ/ noun the largest of the five toes bigwig /'bɪgwɪg/ noun an important person (informal)

② bike /baɪk/ noun a bicycle (informal) ○ He goes to school by bike. ○ She was knocked off her bike by a car. ○ Although he is over eighty he still rides a bike or goes for a bike ride every day.

biker /'bɑ:kə/ noun a person who rides a motorcycle. Synonym motorcyclist bikini /brɪ'kɪ:nɪ/ noun a woman's small two-piece swimsuit bilateral /baɪ'la:t(ə)rəl/ adj involving two sides. Antonym unilateral

③ bile /baɪl/ noun 1. a thick bitter brownish-yellow fluid produced by the liver, which helps to digest fatty substances 2. angry or bitter feelings (literary). Synonym bitterness bilge /bɪldʒ/ noun 1. dirty water in the bottom of a ship 2. nonsense ○ He's just talking bilge!

bilingual /baɪ'língwəl/ adj using two languages □ a bilingual dictionary a dictionary which gives translations from one language into another ○ He carries a bilingual German-Spanish glossary with him. □ she is bilingual in French and Spanish she can speak French and Spanish equally well

① bill /bɪl/ noun 1. a piece of paper showing the amount of money you have to pay for something ○ The total bill came to more than £200. ○ Ask the waiter for the bill. ○ Don't forget to pay the gas bill. ○ Does the bill include VAT? (NOTE: The US term in a restaurant is check.) 2. the hard part of a bird's mouth ○ The bird was picking up food with its bill. Synonym beak 3. US a piece of paper money ○ a 10-dollar bill (NOTE: The British term is note: a 10-pound note) 4. a proposed act of parliament which, if passed by parliament, becomes law ○ Parliament will consider two bills this week. ○ He has drafted a bill to ban the sale of guns. 5. □ to fit the bill to be suitable ○ Thanks – that will fit the bill perfectly.

billboard /'bɪlbɔ:d/ noun especially US a large outdoor panel for posters (NOTE: The British term is hoarding.)

billfold /'bɪlfəuld/ noun US a small flat leather case for credit cards and banknotes, carried in your pocket (NOTE: The British term is wallet.)

billiards /'bɪliədz/ noun a game played on a table, where two players with long cues hit their own white ball against a red ball or the opponent's ball, scoring points. Compare snooker (NOTE: billiards loses the 's' when it is used before another noun: a billiard table) billing /'bɪlɪŋ/ noun 1. the position a performer has on an entertainment programme or advertisement 2. the advertising or promoting of a performance, event or product 3. the preparing and sending out of bills to customers billion /'bɪljən/ noun 1. one thousand million ○ The government raises billions in taxes each year. 2. one million million (dated) 3. a great many ○ Billions of Christmas cards are sent every year. (NOTE: In American English billion has always meant one thousand million, but in British English it formerly meant one million million, and it is still sometimes used with this meaning. With figures it is usually written bn: $5bn say 'five billion dollars'.)

billionaire /'bɪljə'næs/ noun a person who is worth one billion pounds or dollars

Bill of Rights /'bɪl əv 'raɪts/ noun the first ten amendments to the constitution of the United States, which refer to the rights and privileges of individual citizens billow /'bɪləʊ/ noun 1. a very large wave 2. a mass of moving smoke ○ We could see billows of smoke rising from the volcano. ■ verb 1. to become full of air ○ The sails of the yachts billowed in the breeze. 2. to move in large waves ○ Smoke billowed out of the building.

billy goat /'bili ɡəʊt/ noun a male goat (NOTE: A female goat is a nanny goat.)

bitong /'bɪltɒŋ/ noun dried beef, eaten in South Africa bimbo /'bimbəʊ/ noun an attractive but rather stupid girl (informal, offensive) bimonthly /baɪ'mʌnθli/ adj every two months; twice a month ■ noun a magazine appearing every two weeks

② bin /bɪn/ noun 1. a metal box for keeping things in 2. a container for putting rubbish in ○ Don't throw your litter on the floor – pick it up and put it in the bin. ■ verb to throw something away into a rubbish bin ○ He just binned the demand for payment. Synonym throw away (NOTE: binning – binned) binary /'baɪnəri/ adj arranged in groups of two binary system /'baɪnəri ,sɪstəm/ noun a system for representing information which only uses the numbers 1 and 0

② bind /baɪndl/ verb 1. to tie ○ They bound her to the tree with ropes. 2. to force someone to do something ○ The contract binds him to make regular payments. 3. to put a cover on a book ○ The book is bound in blue leather. 4. □ to bind someone over to make someone promise to obey the law for a period of time ○ He was bound over to keep the peace for two months. ♦ bound (NOTE: binding – bound)

binder /'baɪndə/ noun 1. a person, a machine or a company that puts the parts of a book together ○ The book has been printed and is now at the binder's. 2. a stiff cover for papers ○ Write to the publisher to get a free binder for your magazines.

binding /'baɪndɪŋ/ adj (of a contract) that you must obey by law ○ This contract is binding on both parties. Synonym compulsory ■ noun the cover of a book ○ The book has a leather binding.

binge /'bɪndʒ/ noun a time when someone drinks too much alcohol, eats too much or does something else too much ○ After last night's binge he had to stay in bed. ○ She went on a chocolate binge which lasted the whole summer. ○ Shopping binges are not uncommon during sales time. Synonym sprint ■ verb □ to binge on something to eat or drink too much of something ○ I felt sick after bingeing on chocolate.

bingo noun /'bɪŋgəʊ/ a game of chance, where each player has a card with numbers on it. Numbers are called out, and when you have marked off a whole row of numbers, you win. ○ She goes to play bingo every Friday night. ○ He won quite a lot at bingo. ■ interj showing surprise ○ He opened the envelope and bingo! A key fell out.

bin liner /'bɪn ,laɪnə/ noun a plastic bag for putting inside a rubbish bin

③ binoculars /bɪ'nɒkjʊləz/ plural noun powerful glasses for looking at things which are too far away to see clearly. Synonym field glasses (NOTE: binoculars has no singular. If you want to indicate one item, say 'a pair of binoculars'.)

binocular vision /bɪ'nɒkjʊlə ˈvɪʒ(ə)n/ noun the use of both eyes to see things, and therefore to judge distance binomial /baɪ'nəʊmiəl/ adj having two parts separated by a + or a – sign binomial classification /baɪ'nəʊmiəl ,klæsɪfɪ'keɪʃ(ə)n/ noun a way of classifying plants and animals, using two names biochemical /,baɪəʊ'kemɪk(ə)l/ adj referring to the chemistry of living things biochemist /,baɪəʊ'kemɪst/ noun a scientist who studies the chemistry of living things biochemistry /,baɪəʊ'kemistrɪ/ noun the science and study of the chemistry of living things biodegradable /,baɪəʊdɪ'greɪdəb(ə)l/ adj which can easily be broken down by bacteria, the sun or sea water biodiversity /,baɪəʊdætɪ'vɪ:sɪ:tɪ/ noun the number of species in a certain area bioengineering /,baɪəʊendʒɪ'nɪərɪŋ/ noun the use of biochemical processes in industry to produce things such as drugs and food biographer /baɪ'ɒgrəfə/ noun a person who writes the story of someone's life biographical /baɪ'ə:g्रæfɪk(ə)l/ adj referring to the story of someone's life. Synonym factual biography /baɪ'ɒgrəfɪ/ noun the story of someone's life (NOTE: The plural is biographies.)

biological /,baɪə'lɒdʒɪk(ə)l/ adj 1. referring to living things ○ the biological balance in the North Sea 2. using harmful bacteria ○ biological warfare biological mother /,baɪəlɒdʒɪk(ə)l 'mʌðə/ noun the woman who gave birth to a child biologist /baɪ'ɒlədʒɪst/ noun a scientist who does research in biology

③ biology /baɪ'ɒlədʒɪ/ noun the study of living things biopsy /'baɪəpsɪ/ noun an operation to remove a small piece from someone's body for examination (NOTE: The plural is biopsies.)

biosphere /'baɪəʊsfɪə/ noun the part of the earth and its atmosphere where living things exist biotechnology /,baɪəʊtek'nɒlədʒɪ/ noun technology which uses different living materials such as cells for science or industry bioterrorism /'baɪəʊ,terərɪz(ə)m/ noun terrorism that uses biological or chemical weapons bipartisan /'bɑ:pə:tɪ'zæn/ adj accepted by the Opposition as well as by the Government bipartite /'bɑ:pɪ:tɪt/ adj with two sides taking part birch /bɜ:tʃ/ noun a northern tree with small leaves and a white outer layer which comes off in strips ○ the birch forests of Russia (NOTE: The plural is birches.) ■ verb (dated) to beat someone with thin sticks from a tree as a punishment ○ He was sentenced to be birched.

② bird /bɜ:d/ noun 1. an animal with wings and feathers ○ Most birds can fly, but penguins can't. ○ She keeps a little bird in a cage. □ a little bird told me someone told me the secret, but I can't tell you who it was □ a bird in the hand is worth two in the bush be satisfied with what you have, rather than hoping for something better which may never come. ♦ early 2. a person, especially a woman (informal) ○ She's a funny old bird. 3. a girl (offensive) ○ Who's that new bird in the accounts department? ○ Did you see the bird he was with last night?

birdie /'bɜ:di/ noun 1. a child's way of referring to a bird ○ Look at the little birdies on the lawn! 2. (in golf) using one less than the usual number of hits to get the ball into a hole ○ He got a birdie at the fifth hole.

bird of prey /,bɜ:d əv 'preɪ/ noun a bird which kills animals and other birds for food (NOTE: The plural is birds of prey.)

bird's-eye view /,bɜ:dz aɪ 'vju:/ noun a view from high up looking down birdwatching /'bɜ:dwɒtʃɪŋ/ noun looking at birds for pleasure, or for scientific purposes

Biro /'baɪrəʊ/ trademark a ballpoint pen (NOTE: The plural is Biros.)

② birth /bɜ:θ/ noun the act of being born ○ He was a big baby at birth. □ to give birth to have a baby ○ She gave birth to a boy last week. □ he or she is French by birth he or she is French because his or her parents are French birth certificate /'bɜ:θ sə,tifikət/ noun an official paper showing the date on which someone was born, together with details of the parents birth control /'bɜ:θ kən,trəʊl/ noun the practice of trying to avoid becoming pregnant

② birthday /'bɜ:θdeɪ/ noun the date on which you were born ○ April 23rd is Shakespeare's birthday. ○ My birthday is on 25th June. ○ What do you want for your birthday? □ I'll be 10 years old next birthday on my next birthday I will be 10 years old □ in your birthday suit with no clothes on birthday cake /'bɜ:θdeɪ keɪk/ noun a cake made specially for a birthday, usually decorated with icing and candles birthday card /'bɜ:θdeɪ ka:d/ noun a card which you send someone to wish them a happy birthday birthday party /'bɜ:θdeɪ ,pa:ti/ noun a party held for a birthday birthday present /'bɜ:θdeɪ ,prezənt/ noun a present given to someone for their birthday birthmark /'bɜ:θmɑ:k/ noun a mark on the skin which a baby has from birth, and which usually cannot be removed birthplace /'bɜ:θpleɪs/ noun 1. the place where someone was born ○ They visited Shakespeare's birthplace in Stratford. 2. the place where something was invented ○ China was the birthplace of gunpowder.

birth rate /'bɜ:θ reɪt/ noun the number of children born per thousand of the population

③ biscuit /'bɪskɪt/ noun a small, flat, usually sweet, hard cake (NOTE: The US term is cookie.)

bisect /baɪ'sekt/ verb to cut into two equal parts bisexual adj /baɪ'sekʃuəl/ sexually attracted to both men and women ■ noun a bisexual person

③ bishop /'bɪsəp/ noun 1. a Christian church leader ○ the Bishop of London 2. in chess, a piece which moves diagonally ○ She took both his bishops in three moves.

bison /'baɪs(ə)n/ noun a large wild animal with long hair, which used to be common in Europe and North America (NOTE: The plural is bison. An North American bison is also called a buffalo.)

bistro /'bi:st्रəʊ/ noun a small restaurant (NOTE: The plural is bistros.)

① bit /bɪt/ noun 1. a little piece ○ He tied the bundle of sticks together with a bit of string. ○ Would you like another bit of cake? □ to come to bits to fall apart ○ The chair has come to bits. □ to take something to bits to take something apart in order to repair it ○ He's taking my old clock to bits. □ thrilled to bits very pleased □ to love someone to bits to love someone very much 2. □ a bit a little ○ The painting is a bit too dark. ○ She always plays that tune a bit too fast. ○ Let him sleep a little bit longer. ○ Can you wait a bit, I'm not ready yet. ○ Have you got a piece of wood a bit bigger than this one? □ a bit much not fair ○ Being told it was my fault when I wasn't even there is a bit much. □ bit by bit not all at the same time, little by little ○ He paid back the money he owed, bit by bit. ○ He inched forward, bit by bit, towards the edge of the cliff. □ not the slightest bit not at all ○ She didn't sound the slightest bit worried. □ he or she is a bit of a nuisance he or she is rather a nuisance □ not a bit of use of no use at all □ for a bit for a short period of time ○ Can you stop for a bit, I'm getting tired? 3. the smallest unit in a binary system, which has the value of 0 or 1. Compare byte 4. the smallest unit of information that a system can handle 5. a tool which fits into a drill, used for making holes 6. a piece of metal which is put in a horse's mouth, in order to control it. ♦ champ ■ verb ♦ bite bitch /bitʃ/ noun 1. a female animal, especially a female dog ○ They have two dogs – a male and a bitch. ○ The bitch has given birth to five puppies. 2. an unpleasant woman (offensive slang) ○ That bitch is going round spreading rumours about me. (NOTE: [all senses] The plural is bitches.) ■ verb to complain (slang) ○ What's she bitching about now?

bitchy /bitʃi/ adj making unpleasant remarks about someone (slang). Synonym catty. Antonym kind (NOTE: bitchy – bitchier-bitchiest)

① bite /baɪt/ noun 1. a small amount of food that you eat ○ All I had for lunch was a bite of bread and cheese. ○ She took a big bite out of the sandwich. 2. a place where someone has been bitten (NOTE: Do not confuse with byte.) ■ verb 1. to cut someone or something with your teeth ○ The dog tried to bite the postman. ○ She bit a piece out of the pie. 2. (of an insect) to sting a person or animal ○ She's been bitten by a mosquito. (NOTE: biting – bit /bit/ – has bitten /bit(ə)n/)

bite-sized /baɪt saɪzd/ adj small enough to put in your mouth biting /'baɪtɪŋ/ adj 1. very cold ○ A biting wind blew across the valley. 2. (of a criticism) very severe ○ He ended his review with some biting remarks about the costumes.

① bitten /'bit(ə)n/ ♦ bite
 ③ bitter /'bitər/ adj 1. not sweet ○ This black coffee is too bitter. 2. angry because something is not fair ○ She was very bitter about the way the company treated her. □ to the bitter end to the very end ○ They resisted the changes to the bitter end. 3. very cold ○ a bitter December night ○ bitter weather coming from the Arctic ■ noun ordinary pale British beer which is not sweet ○ A pint of bitter, please. (NOTE: usually no plural; bitters means glasses of bitter: Two bitters and a packet of crisps, please.) bitterly /'bitəli/ adv 1. strongly ○ He bitterly regrets what he said. 2. □ bitterly cold very cold ○ It was bitterly cold in the tent.

bitterness /'bitənəs/ noun 1. bitter taste ○ Add some more sugar if you want to hide the bitterness of the lemons. 2. angry feelings ○

His bitterness at being left out of the England team was very obvious.

bitter-sweet /'bitə swi:t/ adj 1. smelling or tasting both bitter and sweet 2. causing feelings of both happiness and sadness bitty /'biti/ adj made up of unconnected parts (NOTE: bitty – bittier – bittiest) bitumen /'bitjʊmən/ noun a black substance which comes from petrol bivouac /'bɪvjuæk/ noun a simple shelter made from branches and leaves ■ verb to camp out in the open without a tent (NOTE: bivouacking – bivouacked) bizarre /bɪ'zɑ:/ adj very strange. Synonym peculiar. Antonym ordinary blab /blæb/ verb to tell someone a secret (informal) (NOTE: blabbing – blabbed)

① black /blæk/ adj 1. having a very dark colour, the opposite to white ○ a black and white photograph ○ He was wearing a black suit. □ I'm in his or her black books he or she is annoyed with me 2. having dark-coloured skin, especially because of belonging to a race whose families are African in origin ■ noun 1. the colour of black ○ She likes to wear black. □ in the black not owing anything; in profit ○ The company went into the black last year. ○ My bank account is still in the black. 2. a person whose skin is dark coloured, especially someone who belongs to a family who came, at one time, from Africa ■ verb to prevent from doing business in certain goods or with certain people ○ Three firms were blacked by the government.

black-and-white /,blæk ən 'waɪt/ adj 1. (of an image) not in colour 2. clear-cut and simple blackball /'blækbɔ:l/ verb to vote against someone who wants to join a club black belt /'blæk belt/ noun a person who has achieved the highest level of skill in an activity such as judo, or the belt which represents this achievement

③ blackberry /'blækb(ə)rɪ/ noun 1. a small black fruit that grows on a bush ○ For dessert we're having blackberry and apple pie. 2. the bush this fruit grows on ○ We had to struggle through blackberry bushes which had grown over the path. (NOTE: A wild blackberry is also called a bramble. The plural is blackberries.)

③ blackbird /'blæk'bɜ:d/ noun a common garden bird with black feathers and a yellow beak

③ blackboard /'blæk'bɔ:d/ noun a dark board which you can write on with chalk, especially on the wall of a classroom black box /blæk 'bɒks/ noun a piece of equipment carried in an aircraft which records what happens during a flight, including conversations between pilots and the control tower black cab /blæk 'kæb/ noun a London taxi

③ blackcurrant /blæk'kʌrənt/ noun 1. a small black fruit which is usually eaten cooked ○ a jar of blackcurrant jam ○ The blackcurrants need more sugar – they're very sour. 2. the small bush this fruit grows on ○ I planted six blackcurrants in the garden.

black economy /blæk ɪ'kɒnəmɪ/ noun the illegal buying and selling of goods and services which allows people to avoid paying taxes blacken /'blækən/ verb to make black □ to blacken someone's reputation to say things which harm someone's reputation ○ In order to blacken his reputation, the newspapers said that he was having an affair with his secretary.

black eye /blæk 'aɪ/ noun bruising and swelling around an eye, caused by a blow blackhead /'blækhed/ noun a blocked area which shows up as a very small black dot on the skin black hole /blæk 'həʊl/ noun an area in space which pulls light into it black ice /blæk 'ais/ noun a dangerous layer of thin ice on a road blackleg /'blækleg/ noun an employee who goes on working when there is a strike blacklist /'blæklist/ noun a list of things or people that are not approved of ○ His name is on the blacklist. ■ verb to put someone or something on a blacklist ○ The company has been blacklisted by the government.

black magic /blæk 'mædʒɪk/ noun magic used for evil purposes blackmail /'blækmeɪl/ verb 1. to threaten to do something harmful to someone unless they do what you want ○ They tried to blackmail the government into releasing prisoners of war. 2. to make someone give you money by threatening to tell people a secret that they have ○ Her former cook tried to blackmail her. ■ noun the act of blackmailing ○ The government will not give in to terrorist blackmail. Synonym extortion blackmailer /'blækmeɪlə/ noun a person who blackmails someone black mark /blæk 'mark/ noun a bad report black market /blæk 'ma:kɪt/ noun buying and selling goods in a way which is not allowed by law black marketeer /blæk mɑ:kə'ti:ə/ noun a person who sells things on the black market blackness /'blæknəs/ noun the state of being completely black or dark black out /'blæk 'aʊt/ verb 1. to become unconscious ○ I suddenly blacked out and I can't remember anything more. 2. to make all the lights switch off over a large area ○ The storm blacked out half the town.

blackout /'blæktaʊt/ noun 1. an occasion on which you become unconscious ○ He must have had a blackout while driving. 2. a period when there is no electricity, or when there are no lights ○ The snowstorm caused a blackout.

black pepper /blæk 'pepə/ noun pepper from whole dried pepper seeds (NOTE: Pepper from berries which have had the outer layer removed is white pepper.)

black sheep /blæk 'fi:p/ noun □ the black sheep of the family the member of the family who behaves badly ○ Everyone turned up for the funeral except Eugene, the black sheep of the family.

blacksmith /'blæksmiθ/ noun 1. a person who works with red-hot iron, making it into different shapes with a hammer ○ She asked the blacksmith to make her a new garden gate. 2. a person who repairs and fits horse-shoes ○ The blacksmith was shoeing a horse. black spot /'blæk spɒt/ noun a place on a road where accidents often happen black tie /blæk 'taɪ/ noun a formal style of dress for men that includes a smart black jacket and a black bow tie bladder /'blædə/ noun 1. the bag-shaped organ inside the body where urine collects before being passed out of the body ○ She is taking antibiotics for a bladder infection. 2. any bag-shaped organ inside the body 3. a light bag full of air inside a football ○ The nail went right through the football and pierced the bladder.

③ blade /bleɪd/ noun 1. a sharp cutting part ○ the blades of a pair of scissors ○ Be careful – that knife has a very sharp blade. 2. a thin leaf of grass ○ She sat in the shade of an apple tree, chewing a blade of grass. 3. the flat part at the end of a long piece of wood, used for pushing a boat along 4. one arm of a propeller ○ His arm was severed by a propeller blade.

blah /bla:/ noun boring talk or writing (informal)

② blame /bleɪm/ noun criticism for having done something wrong ○ I'm not going to take the blame for something I didn't do. □ to get the blame for to be accused of ○ Who got the blame for breaking the window? – Me, of course! ■ verb □ to blame someone for something, to blame something on someone to say that someone is responsible for something ○ Blame my sister for the awful food, not me. ○ He blamed the accident on the bad weather. □ I don't blame you I think you're right to do that ○ I don't blame you for being annoyed, when everyone else got a present and you didn't. □ you have only yourself to blame no one else is responsible for what happened ○ You have only yourself to blame if you missed the chance of a free ticket. □ to be to blame for to be responsible for something ○ The manager is to blame for the bad service.

blameless /'bleɪmləs/ adj not guilty. Synonym innocent blameworthy /'bleɪmwɜːði/ adj deserving to be blamed for something. Synonym responsible blanch /'blæntʃ/ verb 1. to cook for a short time in boiling water ○ Blanch the asparagus for two minutes. 2. to put fruit or vegetables in boiling water to remove the skin ○ Blanch the tomatoes first. ○ Almonds should be blanched before being roasted and salted. 3. to cover growing plants so that they become white ○ Celery needs to be blanched by covering it with earth to get really white stems. 4. to turn white with shock or worry ○ She blanched at the news.

bland /'blænd/ adj 1. dull and boring; and often not giving any information ○ He gave a bland reply. 2. without much flavour ○ Some people don't like avocados because they find them too bland. ○ The sauce needs more herbs – it's far too bland.

blandishments /'blændɪsmənts/ plural noun nice things that people say to you to try and make you do what they want

③ blank /'blæŋk/ adj 1. (of paper) with no writing on it ○ She took a blank piece of paper and drew a map. 2. □ he looked blank he didn't seem to know anything about it ○ When she mentioned the money he owed, he just looked blank. □ blank cassette or tape a cassette or tape which has nothing recorded on it □ noun 1. an empty space on a piece of paper ○ Just fill in the blanks on the form. 2. □ my mind is a blank I can't remember anything about it □ to draw a blank to get no result ○ When she tried to trace her father, she drew a blank. 3. same as blank cartridge ○ The police fired blanks into the crowd of protesters. ♦ point-blank

blank cartridge /'blæŋk 'kɑːtrɪdʒ/ noun a cartridge from a gun which does not have a bullet in it blank cheque /'blæŋk 'tʃeːk/ noun 1. a cheque which has not been filled in ○ a book of blank cheques 2. a cheque which has been signed, but without any details ○ Her father gave her a blank cheque for her birthday and told her to fill in any amount she liked. 3. total freedom to do anything ○ The planners have been given a blank cheque to do what they like with the town centre.

③ blanket /'blæŋkit/ noun 1. a thick cover which you put over you to keep warm ○ He woke up when the blankets fell off the bed. ○ She wrapped the children up in blankets to keep them warm. 2. a thick layer ○ A blanket of snow covered the fields. ○ The motorway was covered in a blanket of fog. ■ verb to cover with something ○ The whole area was blanketed with snow.

blanket refusal /'blæŋkit rɪ'fjuːz(ə)l/ noun a general refusal to accept various things blankly /'blæŋkli/ adv not showing any reaction blank out /'blæŋk 'aut/ verb to cover up something which has been written or drawn blank verse /'blæŋk 'vɜːs/ noun poetry which does not rhyme blare /'bleə/ noun a loud unpleasant noise ○ The blare of car horns in the street outside our hotel. ■ verb to make a loud unpleasant noise ○ The night club has music blaring away in the middle of the night. ○ He drives around with his radio blaring.

blasé /'blæzɪər/ adj with an attitude suggesting that you do not care. Synonym nonchalant. Antonym concerned blasphemy /'blæsfəmi/ noun being rude about God, religion or established principles blast /'blaːst/ noun 1. an explosion ○ Several windows were shattered by the blast. 2. a strong current of wind ○ an icy blast from the north 3. a sharp loud sound from a signal or whistle ○ Three blasts of the alarm means that passengers should go on deck. 4. □ going full blast going at full power ○ They kept the heating going full blast even in summer. ■ verb 1. to destroy with a bomb or bullets ○ The burglars blasted their way into the safe. ○ They blasted their way out of the police trap. 2. to spoil ○ The accident blasted his hopes of a sporting career.

blasted /'blaːstɪd/ adj used to express annoyance (dated) blast furnace /'blaːst ,fɜːnɪs/ noun a large oven where hot air is blown onto rock containing iron until the iron melts and flows out blast off /'blaːst 'ɒf/ verb (of a spacecraft) to leave the ground ○ The rocket blasted off from Cape Canaveral yesterday morning.

blast-off /'blaːst 'ɒf/ noun the time when a spacecraft takes off blatant /'bleɪt(ə)nt/ adj obviously bad blatantly /'bleɪt(ə)ntli/ adv in an obviously bad way blaze /'bleɪz/ noun 1. a large bright fire ○ Five fire engines were called to the blaze. □ a blaze of colour a mass of very bright colours ○ The garden is a blaze of colour. 2. □ to work like blazes to work very hard (dated)

3. a white mark made by cutting away the outer layer of a tree 4. a white mark on the forehead of an animal ■ verb 1. to burn fiercely ○ The camp fire was blazing and ev- eryone sang songs. 2. □ to blaze a trail to mark a path by cutting the bark on trees; to be the first to do something blaze away /bleɪz ə'weɪ/ verb to shoot at someone continuously for a period of time blazer /'bleɪzə/ noun a jacket, often with a badge to show that the person wearing it belongs to a particular school or club blazing /'bleɪzɪŋ/ adj 1. burning strongly ○ They sat around the blazing bonfire. 2. □ a blazing row a big argument ○ I walked into the middle of a blazing row between the MD and John.

bleach /'bli:tʃ/ noun a chemical substance which cleans things and kills harmful bacteria ○ She poured bleach into the toilet. ○ Even a small drop of bleach will remove colour. ○ Do not use bleach on this material. ■ verb to remove colour from something ○ He's bleached his hair. ○ Her hair was bleached by the sun.

bleak /'bli:k/ adj 1. cold and unpleasant ○ The path led across bleak mountains. 2. showing no sign of hope ○ She gave him a bleak stare. ○ With no qualifications, his job prospects are bleak.

bleary-eyed /'blɪ:ri 'aɪd/ adj with eyes half closed from lack of sleep bleat /'bli:t/ noun a sound made by a sheep or goat ○ We heard a faint bleat from the corner of the field and found an injured lamb. ■ verb 1. to make the sound that sheep and goats make ○ The lambs were bleating in the snow. 2. to complain in an annoying voice ○ What's he bleating on about?

bled /bled/ □ bleed

bleed /'bli:d/ verb to lose blood ○ His chin bled after he cut himself while shaving. ○ He was bleeding heavily from his wound. (NOTE: bleeding – bled /bled/) ■ noun □ nosebleed bleeding /'bli:dɪŋ/ noun loss of blood from the body ○ The first thing was to try to stop the bleeding. ■ adj awful (informal) ○ Stop that bleeding noise!

bleep /'bli:p/ noun a short high electronic sound made by a computer, radio, etc. ○ The computer made a bleep and the screen went blank. ○ The printer will make a bleep when it runs out of paper. Synonym beep ■ verb 1. (of a machine) to make a short high electronic sound ○ Excuse me a moment, my pager has just bleeped. 2. to call someone on a mobile phone or beeper ○ Doctor Jenkins has just been bleeped. ♪ beep beeper /'bli:pə/ noun a piece of equipment which makes a bleep to warn you of something. Synonym pager blemish /'blemɪʃ/ noun an unwanted mark on something ○ There were no blemishes on her skin. ○ The fine for speeding is a blemish on his otherwise clean driving licence. ■ verb to spoil something (formal) ○ Being arrested for theft blemished his reputation.

Synonym damage

blend /blend/ noun a mixture ○ different blends of coffee ■ verb 1. to mix ○ Blend the eggs, milk and flour together. 2. (of colours) to go well together ○ The grey curtains blend with the pale wallpaper.

blender /'blendə/ noun a piece of kitchen equipment for mixing different foods together thoroughly. Synonym mixer

③ bless /bles/ verb 1. to make holy by prayers, etc. ○ The church was blessed by the bishop. 2. to bring happiness or good things to someone or something ○ Their marriage was blessed with two fine sons. □ bless you said when someone sneezes ○ Bless you! 3. □ I'm blessed, I'll be blessed showing surprise (dated) (NOTE: [all senses] blessing – blessed /blest/) blessed /'blesɪd/ adj 1. protected by God ○ the church of the Blessed Virgin Mary 2. annoying ○ The blessed engine won't start!

③ blessing /'blesɪŋ/ noun 1. a prayer which blesses people or things ○ The priest gave his blessing to the congregation. 2. □ to give your blessing to something to approve something officially ○ The chairman gave his blessing to the new design. 3. something which brings happiness ○ She enjoyed the blessings of good health and a happy family. □ it was a blessing in disguise it was a good thing, even if at first it seemed bad ○ Breaking his leg was a blessing in disguise – it meant he could spend more time studying. □ it's a mixed blessing it has both advantages and disadvantages ○ Automation can be a mixed blessing – machines usually tend to be out of order when you need them most.

② blew /blu:/ □ blow

blight /'blait/ noun a disease that attacks plants ○ You will need to spray your trees against apple blight. ■ verb to spoil ○ Knowing that she would have to go into hospital when she got back blighted her holiday.

Synonym ruin

② blind /blænd/ adj 1. not able to see ○ He went blind in his early forties. (NOTE: Some people avoid this word as it can cause offence and prefer terms such as visually impaired or partially sighted.) □ to turn a blind eye to something not to pay any attention to something bad, even if you know it exists ○ We turn a blind eye to minor cases of theft in the office. 2. none at all ○ He didn't pay a blind bit of notice to the regulations. ○ It didn't make a blind bit of difference. ■ noun 1. a covering over a window that can be pulled up and down ○ They must still be asleep – their blinds are closed. ○ He pulled down the blind to keep out the sun. 2. □ the blind people who cannot see ○ The town hall has excellent facilities for the blind. ■ verb to make someone unable to see ○ She was blinded by the bright lights of the oncoming cars. ■ adv ○ flying blind flying an aircraft, using the instruments only blind alley /'blaɪnd 'æli/ noun 1. a path which is closed off at one end 2. a job or position with no opportunity for progress blind date /'blaɪnd 'deɪt/ noun a social meeting arranged with someone you do not know blindfold /'blaɪndfəʊld/ noun a cloth put over someone's eyes to prevent them from seeing ○ Her kidnappers did not let her take off the blindfold. ■ verb to put a blindfold over someone's eyes to prevent them from seeing ○ He was blindfolded and bundled into the back of a car. ■ adv wearing a blindfold ○ I could find my way round London blindfold.

blinding /'blaɪndɪŋ/ adj so bright or strong as to stop you seeing properly blindly /'blaɪndlɪ/ adv without being able to see blind man's buff /,blaɪnd mæn'blʌf/ noun a children's game, where one person wears a blindfold and tries to catch the others blindness /'blaɪndnəs/ noun the state of not being able to see ○ The disease can cause blindness. (NOTE: Some people avoid this term as it can cause offence and prefer visual impairment.)

blind spot /'blaɪndspɒt/ noun an area at the side of a vehicle which the driver cannot see in the mirrors

③ blink /'blɪŋk/ noun 1. the action of quickly shutting and opening your eyes ○ He heard the news without a blink. 2. □ on the blink not working, out of action (informal) ○ The telephone's on the blink. ■ verb 1. to close your eyes very quickly ○ He blinked when the light was switched on. ○ She watched the bull come towards her without blinking. 2. (of lights) to go on and off ○ The alarm light is blinking.

blinker /'blɪŋkə/ adj 1. not interested in unusual things or ideas 2. with blinkers on blinkers /'blɪŋkəz/ plural noun shades which cover the sides of a horse's eyes, to prevent it looking sideways ○ Our horse seems less nervous if it has blinkers. (NOTE: The US term is blinders.)

blip /'blɪp/ noun 1. a small flashing dot on a computer screen ○ A blip appeared on the radar screen. 2. a temporary bad result ○ We hope that this month's bad export figures are only a blip.

bliss /'blɪs/ noun great happiness. Synonym ecstasy. Antonym despair (NOTE: no plural) blissful /'blɪsf(ə)l/ adj very pleasant or happy

blister /'blɪstə/ noun a swelling on the skin containing liquid, caused by rubbing or burning, or by a disease such as chickenpox ○ I can't run – I've got a blister on my heel. ■ verb to make a swelling on a surface ○ The heat had blistered the paint. ○ His hands were blistered in the fire.

blistering /'blɪst(ə)rɪŋ/ adj 1. very hot ○ Walking in the blistering desert is impossible. 2. very fast ○ The defence could not keep up with blistering pace of the winger. 3. (of criticism) very strong ○ His blistering attack on his host bewildered everyone present.

blithe /'blaɪð/ adj not worrying about anything blithely /'blaɪðli/ adv without worrying about anything blitz /'blɪts/ noun 1. bombing by planes ○ She was born during the London Blitz. 2. □ to have a blitz on something to make a sudden effort to do something (informal) ○ We'll have to have a blitz on this pile of orders. ■ verb to bomb something ○ The factories were blitzed by the enemy bombers.

blizzard /'blɪzəd/ noun a snowstorm with strong wind bloated /'bləʊtɪd/ adj 1. fatter or fuller than usual ○ After the Indian meal she felt bloated. 2. swollen with air ○ Bloated corpses lay in the streets.

blob /'blob/ noun a small spot of sticky stuff or thick liquid block /'blɒk/ noun a political group of states. Synonym alliance

② block /'blɒk/ noun 1. a large building ○ They live in a block of flats. 2. US a section of buildings surrounded by streets ○ He lives two blocks away. 3. a large piece ○ Blocks of ice were floating in the river. 4. a group of things together ○ They booked a block of seats in the middle of the plane. ■ verb to prevent something passing along something ○ The pipe is blocked with dead leaves. ○ The crash blocked the road for hours. ○ What can I take for my blocked nose? Synonym obstruct blockade /'blɒk'eid/ noun preventing supplies arriving ○ The fishermen decided that a blockade of their harbour would help them in their fight with the EU. ■ verb to prevent supplies coming in ○ The fleet blockaded the port for several months.

blockage /'blɒkɪdʒ/ noun something which blocks; the state of being blocked. Synonym obstruction blockbuster /'blɒkbəstə/ noun a very successful big book or film block capitals /'blɒk 'kæpɪt(ə)lz/ plural noun capital letters, e.g. letters written as A, B, C, or D rather than a, b, c or d block up /'blɒk 'ʌp/ verb to close a hole with something. Synonym stop up

③ bloke /'bləʊk/ noun a man (informal)

③ blond /'blɒnd/ adj fair, or with fair hair. Synonym fair-haired

③ blonde /'blɒnd/ adj fair, or with fair hair

○ She has lovely long blonde hair. ■ noun a woman with fair hair ○ He came to the party with a gorgeous blonde.

① blood /'blɒd/ noun the red liquid in the body, formed of red and white cells blood bank /'blɒd bæŋk/ noun a place where blood is stored until it is needed by hospitals bloodbath /'blɒdbɑ:θ/ noun an attack that leads to a lot of deaths and injuries. Synonym massacre blood clot /'blɒd klɒt/ noun a soft mass of thick blood in a vein or an artery bloodcurdling /'blɒdkɪ:dɪŋ/ adj very frightening. Synonym terrifying. Antonym comforting blood donor /'blɒd ,dəʊnər/ noun a person who gives his or her blood so that it can be used in medical operations blood group /'blɒd gru:p/ noun one of the types into which all blood falls

COMMENT: Blood is classified in various ways. The most common classifications are by factors in the red blood corpuscles (factors A and B) and by the Rhesus factor. Blood can therefore have either factor (Group A and Group B), or both factors (Group AB) or neither factor (Group O), and each of these groups can be Rhesus negative or positive.

bloodhound /'blɒdhaʊnd/ noun a large dog which can follow a trail by its sense of smell bloodless /'blɒdləs/ adj 1. without violence 2. pale and unhealthy-looking 3. lacking in human emotion blood poisoning /'blɒd ,pɔɪz(ə)nɪŋ/ noun a condition caused by bacteria in the blood. Also called septicaemia, toxæmia

② blood pressure /'blɒd ,preʃə/ noun the pressure at which someone's heart pumps blood bloodshed /'blɒdshed/ noun a situation which involves killing people. Synonym carnage (NOTE: no plural) bloodshot /'blɒdʃɒt/ adj (of the eyes) red bloodsports /'blɒdspo:ts/ plural noun sports which involve killing animals bloodstain /'blɒdsteɪn/ noun a red mark of blood on a surface bloodstained /'blɒdsteɪnd/ adj covered with bloodstains bloodstream /'blɒdstri:m/ noun the flow of blood round the body bloodsucker /'blɒdsvʌkə/ noun 1. an animal such as a leech which sucks blood ○ After walking through the jungle she found several bloodsuckers on her legs. 2. a person who tries to make you spend a lot of money ○ These banks are just bloodsuckers.

blood test /'blɒd test/ noun a laboratory test of a small amount of blood to see what it contains bloodthirsty /'blɒdθɜ:sti/ adj 1. cruel 2. full of details about people killing or injuring each other. Synonym cruel blood transfusion /'blɒd trænsfju:z(ə)n/ noun an act of putting blood which has been given by another person into a patient's body blood type /'blɒd taɪp/ noun the grouping of blood into a certain type blood vessel /'blɒd ,ves(ə)l/ noun 1. any tube, artery or vein, which carries blood round the body ○ The wound is bleeding profusely because a blood vessel has been cut. 2. □ to burst a blood vessel to get violently angry ○ The boss will burst a blood vessel when he hears the news.

③ bloody /'blɒdi/ adj 1. with much blood ○ a bloody battle 2. covered with blood ○ After the fight his face was all bloody. ■ adj, adv used as a mild swear word to express anger and annoyance (informal) ○ Stop that bloody noise!

bloody-minded /'blɒdi 'maɪndɪd/ adj deliberately unhelpful (informal). Synonym uncooperative bloom /'blu:m/ noun 1. a flower □ the apple trees are in full bloom the apple trees are covered in flowers 2. the soft, smooth skin of a peach, or the dust on the skin of a grape 3. □ the bloom of youth the healthy appearance of a young person ○ She is not exactly in the first bloom of youth. 4. a layer of algae covering the surface of water ■ verb 1. to produce flowers 2. to be very healthy ○ The country's economy is blooming.

bloomer /'blu:mə/ noun a mistake bloomers /'blu:məz/ plural noun old-fashioned wide knickers blooming /'blu:min/ adj 1. full of brightness and life ○ She's positively blooming. 2. awful (informal) ○ It's a blooming shame that his mother won't let him come out to play football!

blossom /'blɒs(ə)m/ noun the mass of flowers on trees ○ The hedges are covered with hawthorn blossom. ○ The trees are in full blossom. Synonym flower ■ verb 1. to flower ○ The roses were blossoming round the cottage door. 2. to be very healthy or happy ○ She's blossomed since she got married.

blot /blɒt/ noun a drop of ink ○ The boy with blots of ink on his shirt is my kid brother. ○ The painting he sent to the art show was just a series of coloured blots. ■ verb 1. to apply blotting paper to wet ink to dry it 2. □ he blotted his copybook he ruined his reputation ○ He blotted his copybook when he was found kissing the chairman's wife. (NOTE: blotting – blotted)

blotch /blɒtʃ/ noun a large area of colour. Synonym blot blotchy /'blɒtʃi/ adj (of the face) covered with red marks (NOTE: blotchy – blotchier – blotchiest) blot out /,blɒt 'aʊt/ verb to hide something completely

③ blouse /blaʊz/ noun a woman's shirt

① blow /bləʊ/ noun 1. a knock or punch ○ He received a blow to the head in the fight. 2. a shock, which comes from bad news ○ The election result was a blow to the government. ■ verb 1. to make air move ○ The wind had been blowing hard all day. ○ Blow on your soup if it's too hot. □ to blow your nose to clear a blocked nose by blowing down it into a handkerchief ○ She has a cold and keeps having to blow her nose. 2. □ to blow a fuse to burn out a fuse by making too much electricity flow through it (NOTE: blowing – blew /blu:/ – has blown /blaʊn/)

① blow away /,bləʊ ə'wei/ verb 1. to go away by blowing ○ His hat blew away. 2. to make something go away by blowing ○ The wind will blow the fog away.

blow-by-blow /,bləʊ bai 'bləʊ/ adj describing an event in great detail

① blow down /,bləʊ 'daʊn/ verb 1. to make something fall down by blowing ○ Six trees were blown down in the storm. 2. to fall down by blowing ○ The school fence has blown down.

blow-dry /,bləʊ 'draɪ/ verb to dry someone's hair with a hair drier (NOTE: blow-dried) ■ noun the act of drying hair with a hair drier ○ I went to have a shampoo and blow-dry.

blowlamp /'bləʊlæmp/ noun a piece of equipment with a strong gas flame for removing old paint

② blown /bləʊn/ □ blow

① blow off /,bləʊ 'ɒf/ verb to make something go away by blowing

① blow out /,bləʊ 'aʊt/ verb to make something go out by blowing ○ She blew out the candles on her birthday cake. Synonym extinguish blowout /'bləʊaʊt/ noun 1. a very large meal (informal) 2. the bursting of a tyre blow over /,bləʊ 'əʊvə/ verb 1. (of a storm or an argument) to end ○ We hope the quarrel will soon blow over. 2. to knock something down by blowing ○ The gale blew over several trees.

blowtorch /'bləʊtɔ:tʃ/ noun same as blowlamp

① blow up /,bləʊ 'ʌp/ verb 1. to make something get bigger by blowing into it ○ He blew up balloons for the party. ○ Your front tyre needs blowing up. 2. to destroy something with explosives ○ The soldiers blew up the railway bridge. 3. to make a photograph bigger ○ The article was illustrated with a blown-up picture of the little girl and her stepfather. 4. to make something seem more important than it really is ○ The story has been blown up by the papers.

BLT abbr a bacon, lettuce and tomato sandwich blubber /'blʌbə/ noun the fat of a whale or seal ○ Whales were killed and their blubber melted down. ■ verb to cry noisily ○ Stop blubbering, it's only a little scratch.

bludgeon /'blʌdʒən/ noun a heavy stick for hitting ○ Bands of rioters carrying bludgeons and axes roamed the streets. ■ verb 1. to beat with a heavy stick ○ The young student was bludgeoned and left for dead. ○ The rioters bludgeoned him to the ground. 2. □ to bludgeon someone into doing something to force someone to do something ○ He was bludgeoned into agreeing with the proposal.

① blue /blaʊ/ adj 1. coloured like the colour of the sky ○ He wore a pale blue shirt. ○ They live in the house with the dark blue door. ○ All their children have got blue eyes. 2. sad ○ When you're feeling blue just sing a song and you'll feel better. ■ noun 1. the colour of the sky ○ She was dressed all in blue. ○ Have you a cloth of a darker blue than this? □ the boys in blue the police (informal)

2. □ out of the blue suddenly ○ Out of the blue came an offer of a job in Australia. ♦ bolt

bluebell /'blu:bel/ noun a wild plant with blue flowers like a series of little bells blueberry /'blu:b(ə)ri/ noun a wild fruit, which is dark blue when ripe, eaten raw with sugar and cream, or cooked in pies and jams (NOTE: The plural is blueberries.)

blue-blooded /,blu: 'blʌdɪd/ adj from a royal or upper-class family bluebottle /'blu:,bɒtl/ noun a large buzzing fly with a shiny dark blue body blue cheese /'blu: 'tʃi:z/ noun a cheese with blue mould in it blue chip shares /'blu: tʃɪp 'seəz/, blue chips /'blu: tʃɪps/ plural noun low-risk shares in good companies blue-eyed boy /'blu: əid 'bɔɪ/ noun a person whom someone likes more than anyone else (informal) blue jeans /'blu: dʒi:nz/ plural noun popular blue trousers made of denim, a type of strong cotton (NOTE: usually called jeans)

blue moon /'blu: 'mu:n/ noun □ once in a blue moon very rarely ○ I only see them once in a blue moon.

blueprint /'blu:print/ noun 1. a photographic print of a plan which consists of blue lines on a white background or white lines on a blue background ○ Here's the blueprint of the new engine. 2. a plan for doing something ○ The deal will act as a blueprint for future cooperation.

③ blues /'blu:z/ plural noun sad songs from the southern US ○ Bessie Smith, the great blues singer. Synonym sadness. Antonym happiness blue whale /'blu: 'wei/ noun a very large whale, the largest mammal that exists bluff /blʌf/ noun 1. a threat to do something which you know you will not carry out ○ Don't believe what he says, it's all just bluff. □ to call someone's bluff to show that someone is lying ○ He said he would blow up the building but the police called his bluff. 2. a steep hill made of rock ○ The soldiers climbed the bluff and found the enemy waiting for them on top. □ adj direct, and not very sensitive ○ He's a bluff individual, but you can trust what he says. □ verb to do something by tricking someone ○ He said he was a naval officer, but he was just bluffing. Synonym trick □ to bluff your way to get somewhere by pretending to be someone ○ He bluffed his way into the first-class cabin.

bluish /'blu:ɪʃ/ adj of a colour that is close to blue blunder /'blʌndə/ noun a careless or embarrassing mistake ○ A dreadful blunder by the goalkeeper allowed their opponents to equalise. ○ What a blunder, to ask her to dinner at the same time as her ex-husband! Synonym mistake □ verb to make a careless or embarrassing mistake ○ He blundered badly when he made the deal with the Chinese company.

blundering /'blʌnd(ə)rɪŋ/ adj clumsy blunt /blʌnt/ adj 1. not sharp ○ He tried to cut the meat with a blunt knife. 2. almost rude ○ His blunt manner made people think he was being rude. □ verb to make something blunt ○ Using the knife to open tins has blunted it.

bluntly /'blʌntli/ adv in a direct way that may upset people. Synonym frankly. Antonym indirectly □ to put it bluntly to say something clearly ○ To put it bluntly, you're just no good at your job.

blur /blɜ:/ noun an unclear image ○ He was hit on the head, and everything became a blur. ○ You must have moved – the photograph is just a blur. □ verb to become unclear, to make unclear ○ His vision became blurred. (NOTE: blurring – blurred) blurb /blɜ:b/ noun a short piece of text on something which is for sale, encouraging to you buy it blurred /blɜ:d/ adj not clear blurt out /,blɜ:t 'aut/ verb to give away a secret suddenly, without intending to blush /blʌʃ/ noun 1. a red colour of the skin ○ the blush of a peach ○ A blush tinged her cheeks pink. 2. □ at first blush at first sight ○ At first blush, the deal looks a good one. □ verb to go red in the face because you are ashamed or embarrassed ○ She blushed when he spoke to her.

blusher /'blʌʃə/ noun pink or red colouring applied to the cheeks bluster /'blʌstə/ noun 1. loud violent talk ○ His threat of legal action is just bluster. 2. a sudden strong wind □ verb 1. to speak loudly and angrily ○ He went blustering on about taking us to court. 2. (of wind) to blow hard blustery /'blʌst(ə)ri/ adj (of wind) blowing strongly. Synonym windy

BO abbr body odour

boa constrictor /'bəʊə kən,striktə/ noun a large snake found in South America, which kills animals by wrapping itself round them and squeezing them boar /bɔ:/ noun a male pig ○ We have a boar and two sows. (NOTE: Do not confuse with bore.)

① board /bɔ:d/ noun 1. a long flat piece of something such as wood ○ The floor of the bedroom was just bare boards. 2. a blackboard ○ The teacher wrote on the board. 3. food ○ The price includes board and lodging. 4. a group of directors ○ She was asked to join the board. ○ The board meets every month. 5. □ to go on board to go on to a form of transport such as a ship, train or plane ○ We went on board at 9.30 and the ship sailed at 12.00. □ verb to go on to a form of transport such as a ship, train or plane ○ Six passengers boarded at Belgrade. ○ Customs officials boarded the ship in the harbour. ○ The 16.50 train to Paris is now ready for boarding at platform 5.

board and lodging /,bɔ:d ən 'lɒdʒɪŋ/ noun meals and a place to sleep boarder /'bɔ:də/ noun a pupil who lives at his or her school. (NOTE: Do not confuse with border.)

board game /'bɔ:d ɡeɪm/ noun any game in which players move pieces on a board boarding card /'bɔ:dɪŋ 'ka:d/ noun a card which allows you to go on board a plane boarding house /'bɔ:dɪŋ haʊs/ noun a house where you pay to live boarding pass /'bɔ:dɪŋ pa:s/ noun same as boarding card boarding school /'bɔ:dɪŋ sku:l/ noun a school where the children live during term time boardroom /'bɔ:dru:m/ noun a room where directors meet board up /,bɔ:d 'ʌp/ verb to cover things such as windows and doors with boards boast /bəʊst/ noun the act of talking about things that you are proud of ○ Their proudest boast is that they never surrendered. ■ verb 1. to say how good or successful you are. Synonym brag 2. to have something good ○ The house boasts a conservatory and patio. ○ The town boasts an 18-hole golf course.

boastful /'bəʊstf(ə)l/ adj saying how good or successful you are. Synonym arrogant

① boat /bəʊt/ noun a small vehicle that people use for moving on water ○ They sailed their boat across the lake. ○ They went to Spain by boat. ○ When is the next boat to Calais? □ we're all in the same boat we're all in the same situation (informal) ○ It's a shame about the redundancies, but if the firm goes bust we'll all be in the same boat.

boater /'bəʊtə/ noun a flat straw hat boating /'bəʊtɪŋ/ noun the activity of going in small boats for pleasure bob /bɒb/ noun a woman's or girl's hair style, where the hair is cut fairly short so that it is the same length all round ○ She had her hair in a bob. ■ verb to move up and down ○ Pieces of wood were bobbing about on the water. (NOTE: bobbing – bobbed) bobby /'bɒbi/ noun a male police officer (dated informal) (NOTE: The plural is bobbies) bobsleigh /'bɒbsleɪ/ noun a vehicle designed for travelling on snow, and used for racing down a special track (NOTE: The US term is bobsled) bode /bəʊd/ verb □ to bode ill or well to be a bad or good sign (formal) ○ It bodes ill for their project if the local council has refused them a grant.

body /'bɒdɪ/ noun the top part of a dress

bodyily /'bɒdilɪ/ adj referring to the body ○ The main bodily functions are those of important organs such as the heart, the lungs, etc. Synonym physical □ to cause someone grievous bodily harm to attack someone, causing serious injury ■ adv moving the whole of someone's body at the same time □ they carried him out bodily they lifted him up and carried him out

① body /'bɒdɪ/ noun 1. the whole of a person or of an animal ○ He had pains all over his body. ○ The dead man's body was found in the river. ○ Bodies of infected cows were burnt in the fields. (NOTE: The plural is bodies.) 2. the main part of an animal or person, but not the head and arms and legs ○ She was beaten on the arms and the upper part of her body. (NOTE: The plural is bodies.) 3. the main part of anything ○ The car has an all aluminium body. ○ The body of the text is printed in black. (NOTE: The plural is bodies.) 4. a group of people ○ She is a member of several environmental bodies. (NOTE: The plural is bodies.) 5. strength of flavour ○ The wine has a good body. (NOTE: no plural)

6. a healthy appearance ○ The conditioner will give your hair body. (NOTE: no plural) body blow /'bɒdɪ blaʊ/ noun 1. a serious disappointment 2. a punch that falls between the neck and the waist body building /'bɒdɪ ,bɒldɪŋ/ noun the practice of developing the muscles of the body through lifting heavy weights and eating particular foods

③ bodyguard /'bɒdɪga:d/ noun 1. a person who guards someone ○ The attacker was overpowered by the president's bodyguards. 2. a group of people who guard someone ○ He has a bodyguard of six people or a six-man bodyguard.

body language /'bɒdɪ ,laɪŋgwɪdʒ/ noun movements of the body which show what someone is thinking bodywork /'bɒdɪwɜ:k/ noun the metal outer covering of a car boffin /'bɒfin/ noun a scientist or inventor (informal) bug /bɒg/ noun a marshland. Synonym swamp bug down /,bɒg 'daʊn/ verb (informal) □ to get bogged down to get stuck ○ The negotiations are getting bogged down over the question of salaries.

bogey /'bəʊgi/ noun 1. same as boey-man 2. (in golf) using one more stroke than the usual number to get the ball into a hole ○ He had a bogey at the fifth hole.

boey-man /'bəʊgi,mæn/ noun an imaginary creature that frightens children. Also called boey (NOTE: The plural is boey-men.)

boggle /'bɒg(ə)l/ verb (informal) □ to boggle at something to be unsure about being able to do something ○ He boggled at the idea of crossing the Atlantic in such a small boat. □ the mind simply boggles I can't imagine how this can be done ○ When I think how much work we have left to do by next Friday, my mind simply boggles or it makes the mind boggle. ♦ mind-boggling bog standard /bɒg 'stændəd/ adj ordinary, or lacking special features bogus /'bəʊgəs/ adj pretending to be real. Synonym false. Antonym genuine bohemian /bu'hi:mɪən/ adj referring to a relaxed way of life, often considered typical of artists ○ He led a very bohemian existence in Paris as a young man. ○ She brought along some of her bohemian friends. Synonym unconventional. Antonym conformist ■ noun a person who lives a very relaxed way of life, often thought typical of artists ○ He's a bohemian at heart, but he has to do a proper office job to feed his family.

③ boil /bɔɪl/ verb 1. (of water or other liquid) to form bubbles and change into steam or gas because of being heated ○ Put the egg in when you see that the water's boiling. ○ Don't let the milk boil. □ bring the water to the boil to heat the water until it boils 2. to heat a liquid until it changes into steam ○ Can you boil some water so we can make tea? 3. to cook food such as vegetables or eggs in boiling water ○ Boil the potatoes in a large pan. ■ noun 1. an infected swelling ○ He has a boil on the back of his neck. 2. when water is boiling ○ on the boil 1. continuing to boil ○ The kettle's on the boil. 2. being considered actively ○ The papers kept the story on the boil for several weeks before losing interest.

boil down /,bɔɪl 'daʊn/ verb 1. to be reduced through boiling ○ Let the sauce boil down until it is quite thick. 2. to be reduced to ○ It all boils down to whether he will accept the deal now or not.

③ boiler /'bɔɪlə/ noun a piece of equipment for heating water for a building's central heating system

boiler suit /'bɔɪlə su:t/ noun a one-piece item of clothing, often worn over other clothes. Also called overalls

③ boiling /'bɔɪlɪŋ/ adj 1. which has started to boil (i.e. for water, at 100°C) ○ Put the potatoes in a pan of boiling water. 2. very hot ○ It is boiling in this room. ■ adv same as boiling hot boiling point /'bɔɪlɪŋ pɔɪnt/ noun 1. the temperature at which a liquid boils, i.e. when it turns into steam or gas ○ 100°C is the boiling point of water. 2. a point at which a situation becomes very serious ○ The UN must do something quickly because the situation has reached boiling point.

③ boiling hot /,bɔɪlɪŋ 'hɒt/ adv very hot ○ It was a boiling hot day.

③ boil over /,bɔɪl 'əʊvər/ verb (of liquid) to rise up when boiling and run over the side of the pan boisterous /'bɔɪstə(r)əs/ adj energetic and noisy bold /bəuld/ adj 1. strong in colour or design ○ She likes bold colours. ○ The wallpaper is a bold design of dark green leaves. 2. brave ○ She was bold enough to say 'no' to the Prime Minister. ○ May I be so bold as to ask if you are free for dinner this evening? ■ noun a printing type with thick black letters ○ The main words in this dictionary are set in bold.

boldly /'bəuldli/ adv in a brave way boldness /'bəuldnəs/ noun daring or bravery bollard /'bɒlə:d/ noun 1. a low post for a ship's rope to be tied to, or one in the road to indicate where traffic should go ○ The police have put bollards across the road. 2. a low post in the road showing where traffic should go

Bollywood /'bɒliwʊd/ noun the Indian film industry (informal) bolster /'bɒlstə/ noun a long round pillow ○ You often find bolsters in French hotels. ■ verb to make something better or stronger ○ The money from the village fête has bolstered the church funds. ○ Learning that he will be out of hospital next week has bolstered his spirits. Synonym boost. Antonym undermine bolt /bəʊlt/ noun 1. a long piece of metal with a screw, fastened with a nut ○ The legs of the table are secured to the top with bolts.

2. a long piece of metal which is pushed into a hole to bar a door ○ She peered through the window and after a long pause pulled back the bolts. 3. a flash of lightning ○ He had taken shelter under a tree that was hit by a bolt of lightning. □ it came as a bolt from the blue it was a complete surprise 4. □ to make a bolt for to rush towards something ○ At the end of the show everyone made a bolt for the door. □ to make a bolt for it to run away ○ When the guards weren't looking two prisoners tried to make a bolt for it. ■ verb 1. to run fast; to escape ○ the horse bolted 2. to fasten something with a bolt ○ He bolted the door when he went to bed. ○ The tables are bolted to the floor. 3. to eat quickly ○ Don't bolt your food.

bolt upright /,bəʊlt 'ʌprait/ adv sitting with your back very straight

② bomb /bɒm/ noun 1. an explosive weapon, dropped from an aircraft or placed by hand ○ The bomb was left in a suitcase in the middle of the station. ○ They phoned to say that a bomb had been planted in the main street. ○ Enemy aircraft dropped bombs on the army base. 2. □ it went like a bomb it was very successful (informal) □ it costs a bomb it costs a lot of money ■ verb 1. to drop bombs on something ○ Enemy aircraft bombed the power station. 2. to go very fast ○ We bombed down the motorway to Bristol.

bombard /bɒm'bɑ:d/ verb 1. to attack again and again with heavy guns or bombs ○ The town was bombarded for ten days before surrendering. 2. to send again and again ○ He was bombarded with offers of jobs. ○ She was bombarded with letters from the solicitors.

bombardment /bɒm'bɑ:dment/ noun an attack by heavy guns or bombs bomber /'bɒmə/ noun 1. a person who puts bombs in places in order to blow them up ○ The bombers managed to escape after planting the bomb. 2. an aircraft for dropping bombs ○ The bombers were out during the night, attacking enemy targets.

bomb scare /'bɒm skeə/ noun a frightening announcement that there might be a hidden bomb somewhere bombshell /'bɒmʃəl/ noun a very unpleasant surprise (informal). Synonym shock bona fide /,bəʊnə 'faɪdɪ/ adj real or true; not deceiving. Synonym genuine. Antonym bogus bona fides /,bəʊnə 'faɪdɪz/ plural noun proof that someone is who they say they are bonanza /bə'nænzə/ noun a situation where you can make a lot of money

③ bond /bɒnd/ noun 1. a document showing an investment in which someone lends money to the government ○ Government bonds are a very safe form of investment. 2. a link between two people ○ There is a close bond between her and her sister. 3. a contract ○ His word is his bond. ■ verb 1. □ to bond with someone (of two people) to make a psychological link ○ Some mothers find it difficult to bond with their babies. 2. to stick together tightly ○ Cover the two surfaces with glue and hold them tightly until they bond.

bondage /'bɒndɪdʒ/ noun the state of being a slave. Synonym slavery bonded warehouse /,bɒndɪd 'weɪhəʊs/ noun a place where goods are stored until duty is paid

② bone /bəʊn/ noun one of the solid pieces in the body, which make up the skeleton ○ The bone in the thigh is called the femur. ○ Be careful when you're eating fish – they have lots of little bones. ○ The two dogs were fighting over a bone. □ I've got a bone to pick with you I want to complain about something you have done ■ verb to remove bones from meat ○ a boned leg of lamb (NOTE: When taking the bones out of fish, it is more usual to say fillet.)

bone dry /,bəʊn 'draɪ/ noun extremely dry bone idle /,bəʊn 'aɪd(ə)l/ noun completely lazy bone marrow /'bəʊn ,mærəʊ/ noun the soft substance inside a bone bonfire /'bɒnfaɪə/ noun an outdoor fire

Bonfire Night /'bɒnfaɪə nait/ noun 5th November, when the attempt by Guy Fawkes to blow up the Houses of Parliament in 1605 is remembered in Britain with fireworks bonkers /'bɒŋkəz/ adj (informal) appearing to be crazy or strange. Synonym irrational. Antonym rational □ to go bonkers to go crazy ○ They sold their big house and bought a little caravan – has the family gone bonkers?

③ bonnet /'bɒnɪt/ noun 1. a metal cover for the front part of a car, covering the engine ○ He lifted up the bonnet and looked at the steam pouring out of the engine. (NOTE: The US term is hood.) 2. a close-fitting warm hat for a baby ○ Tie her bonnet under her chin. 3. a close-fitting hat for a woman ○ Old women in black bonnets and shawls sat knitting outside their houses.

bonny /'bɒnɪ/ adj good-looking and healthy (mainly Scottish) (NOTE: bonnier – bonniest) bonsai /'bɒnsaɪ/ noun 1. the art of growing trees in small pots so that they do not grow very large 2. a tree grown in this way ○ We have a little bonsai oak that is forty years old.

② bonus /'bəʊnəs/ noun 1. extra money ○ Salesmen earn a bonus if they sell more than their quota. 2. an advantage ○ It was an added bonus that the plane arrived early, as we were able to catch an earlier bus home. (NOTE: The plural is bonuses.)

bony /'bəʊnɪ/ adj 1. thin, with bones which you can see easily ○ She was riding a bony horse. ○ He grabbed her arm with his bony hand. 2. with many bones ○ I don't like kippers, they're usually too bony. (NOTE: bonier – boniest) boo interj showing that you do not like someone such as an actor, singer or politician

○ Everyone shouted 'boo' when he announced that taxes would have to go up. ■ noun an instance of making the sound 'boo' ○ The wicked pirate's appearance was greeted with boos and hisses. ■ verb /bu:/ to make a 'boo' sound to show that you do not like someone such as an actor, singer or politician ○ The crowd booed the referee. Synonym jeer. Antonym applaud □ she was booted off the stage the audience shouted 'boo' so loudly that she had to leave the stage boob /bu:b/ noun 1. a silly mistake ○ What a boob! ○ He's made yet another boob! (NOTE: The US term is boo-boo.) 2. a woman's breast (informal) ○ She doesn't like having big boobs. ■ verb to make a silly mistake (informal) ○ We boobed badly when we said we didn't want to do business with them.

booby prize /'bu:bi prائز/ noun a silly prize given to the last person in a competition boobytrap /'bu:bitræp/ noun a hidden bomb boobytrapped /'bu:bitræpt/ adj full of boobytraps boogie /'bu:gi/ verb to dance to disco music

① book /buk/ noun 1. sheets of printed paper attached together, usually with a stiff cover ○ I'm reading a book on the history of London. ○ He wrote a book about butterflies.

2. sheets of paper attached together □ a book of stamps several stamps attached inside a small paper cover □ a book of matches a set of cardboard matches attached together in a paper cover ○ He collects books of matches.

□ book of tickets several tickets fastened together and sold as a unit ○ It is cheaper if you buy a book of ten tickets. 3. □ I'm in his bad books he is annoyed with me (informal) ○ Try not to get into the teacher's bad books. ■ verb 1. to reserve a place, a seat, a table in a restaurant or a room in a hotel, or a holiday ○ We have booked a table for tomorrow evening at the Thai restaurant. ○ I want to book two seats for Friday evening. ○ I'm afraid the dentist is fully booked until the end of next week. ○ I'm sorry, the concert is sold out – all the seats have been booked. □ to book someone on or onto a flight to order a plane ticket for someone else ○ I've booked you on the 10 o'clock flight to New York. 2. to charge someone with an offence ○ The police officer booked him for speeding.

③ bookcase /'bukkeɪs/ noun a cupboard with shelves for keeping books book club /'buk klb/ noun 1. a company which sells books by post, often at reduced prices 2. a group of people who meet to discuss books and related subjects booked up /,bukt 'ʌp/ adj with all rooms or seats reserved bookie /'buki/ noun same as bookmaker (informal)

② booking /'bukɪŋ/ noun an arrangement to reserve something such as a seat, hotel room or table □ to make a booking to reserve something such as a seat, hotel room or table ○ We tried to make a booking for the week beginning May 1st, but the hotel was full.

② booking office /'bukɪŋ ,ɒfɪs/ noun an office in a place such as a cinema or a theatre, where you can buy tickets book into /,buk 'ɪntu:/ verb to reserve a room in a hotel □ to book someone into a hotel to reserve a hotel room for someone else bookkeeper /'bukki:pə/ noun a person who keeps the accounts of a company bookkeeping /'bukki:pɪŋ/ noun the activity or job of keeping a company's accounts

② booklet /'buklət/ noun a book of information with only a few pages. Synonym brochure

bookmaker /'bukmeɪkə/ noun a person who takes money from people who want to bet on the result of races (NOTE: also often called a bookie; the official term is turf accountant.) bookmark /'bukma:k/ noun 1. something that you put in a book to show the place where you stopped reading 2. the address of a website or web page, stored for easy access ■ verb to list the address of a website or web page bookseller /'bukselə/ noun a person who sells books, or who runs a bookshop

③ bookshelf /'bukʃelf/ noun a shelf for keeping books (NOTE: The plural is bookshelves.)

② bookshop /'bukʃɒp/ noun a shop where you can buy books (NOTE: The US term is bookstore.)

book token /'buk təʊkən/ noun a card with an amount of money written on it, which can only be used to buy books of that value bookworm /'bukwɜ:m/ noun 1. someone who enjoys reading books, and reads a lot 2. an insect the larvae of which eat books

③ boom /bu:m/ noun 1. an increase in wealth ○ The economy is improving and everyone is forecasting a boom for next year. 2. a loud deep noise, like a bang ○ There was such a loud boom that everyone jumped. 3. a long stick for holding a microphone over the heads of speakers ■ verb 1. to become richer; to increase ○ Sales to Europe are booming. 2. to make a loud deep noise ○ His voice boomed across the square.

boomerang /'bu:məræŋ/ noun a curved piece of wood, invented in Australia, which twists as it flies and returns to you when you throw it in a special way ■ verb (of a plan) to go wrong or turn out exactly the opposite to what was expected ○ The plan boomeranged, and he ended up being sued for damages. Synonym rebound boon /bu:n/ noun a very useful thing ○ The car has been a real boon to her since the bus company stopped the service to their village. Synonym advantage. Antonym disadvantage boor /buər/ noun a rude and badly-behaved man (dated). Synonym lout boorish /'buərɪʃ/ adj rude and badly behaved boost /bu:st/ noun help or increase ○ It gave a boost to our sales. ■ verb to help to increase something or make something better ○ The TV commercial should boost our sales.

booster /'bu:stə/ noun 1. a thing which gives extra help or support ○ Winning the competition was a much needed morale booster for her. 2. same as booster injection booster injection /'bu:stər in-ˌdʒekʃ(ə)n/ noun an extra injection of vaccine given some time after the first one so as to make sure it is still effective booster rocket /'bu:stə, rəkɪt/ noun a powerful engine which gives extra power to a spacecraft

② boot /bu:t/ noun 1. a strong shoe which covers your foot and your ankle ○ The policemen were wearing long black boots. ○ Put on your boots if you're going to dig the garden. ○ Bring walking boots with you as we will be climbing in the hills. □ ski boots boots to wear when skiing. ▶ wellingtons □ the boot is on the other foot the situation is just the opposite ○ He used to terrorise the younger staff, but now he's been demoted, the boot's on the other foot. 2. □ to give someone the boot to make someone leave their job ○ If he carries on like that he'll be given the boot. 3. the space at the back of a car where you can put luggage ○ Put the cases in the boot. ○ This packing case won't fit into the boot. (NOTE: The US term is trunk.) □ verb 1. □ to boot someone out to make someone leave (informal) ○ He was booted out of the police force for taking bribes. 2. same as boot up

③ booth /bu:ð/ noun 1. a small room or enclosed space for one person to stand or sit in □ ticket booth a place outdoors where a person sells tickets 2. US a section of a business fair where a company shows its products or services ○ The American publisher wants us to meet him at his booth. (NOTE: The British term is stand.) 3. US an enclosed area in a restaurant with a table in it ○ We sat in a booth by the bar and listened to the jazz.

bootleg /'bu:tleg/ adj sold illegally. Synonym illegal bootlegger /'bu:tlegə/ noun a person who makes or sells goods illegally boot up /,bu:t 'ʌp/ verb to make a computer start working booty /'bu:ti/ noun treasure taken by soldiers, sailors, etc., during fighting (NOTE: no plural) booze /bu:z/ (informal) noun an alcoholic drink ○ He's too fond of (the) booze to work well. (NOTE: no plural) □ verb to drink alcohol ○ He was out all night boozing with his friends.

bop /bɒp/ verb 1. to hit with your hand or with something held in your hand 2. to dance to popular music ○ Some of the partygoers were still bopping at three o'clock in the morning. (NOTE: bopping – bopped)

Bordeaux /bɔ:'dəʊ/ noun wine from the Bordeaux region in the west of France ○ Some Bordeaux would be excellent with the venison. ○ I've ordered a bottle of Bordeaux. (NOTE: There are both red and white Bordeaux wines. Red Bordeaux wine is also called claret.)

② border /'bɔ:də/ noun 1. an imaginary line between countries or regions ○ They managed to cross the border into Switzerland. ○ The enemy shelled several border towns. ○ He was questioned by the border guards. 2. a pattern around the edge of something ○ I don't like the pink border on the scarf. □ verb to be along the edge of something ○ The path is bordered with rose bushes.

borderline noun /'bɔ:dəlайн/ a line between two things. Synonym frontier □ adj just below or just above a limit ○ a borderline case borderline candidate /,bɔ:dəlайн, kændɪ'deɪt/ noun a person who may have only just passed an exam borderline case /'bɔ:dəlайн keɪs/ noun a person or thing that is on the dividing line between two things border on /'bɔ:dər ɒn/ verb to be almost bore /bɔ:/ noun 1. a person or thing that makes you bored ○ He went on talking non-stop and in the end it became a bit of a bore. □ what a bore! what a nuisance 2. a dull person who is not very interesting ○ I don't want to sit next to him, he's such a bore. 3. a measurement of the inside of a pipe or gun ○ a small-bore shotgun (NOTE: Do not confuse with bear.) □ verb 1. to make a round hole in something ○ Bore three holes two centimetres apart. 2. to make someone bored by what you are saying or doing ○ I won't bore you with the details of my operation. 3. ▶ bear

② bored /bɔ:ð/ adj not interested in what is happening ○ You get very bored having to do the same work every day. ○ I'm bored – let's go out to the club. Synonym uninterested. Antonym fascinated □ bored with fed up with something or someone ○ I'm bored with this programme, can't we change to another channel?

③ boredom /'bɔ:dəm/ noun the state of being bored. Synonym tedium

borehole /'bɔ:həʊl/ noun a hole dug in the ground to see if there are any minerals or oil. Synonym well

② boring /'bɔ:rɪŋ/ adj dull, not interesting ○ I don't want to watch that boring TV programme. Antonym exciting

① born /bɔ:n/ verb □ to be born to begin to live ○ He's American-born but was brought up in the UK. ○ He was born in Scotland. ○ She was born in 1956. ○ The baby was born last week. □ she's a born comedian she has always been very good at telling jokes □ I wasn't born yesterday I'm not as stupid as you think (informal) □ birth born-again Christian /bɔ:n ə,gen 'krɪstʃən/ noun a person who has been converted to Christianity, after not having been very religious before

③ borne /bɔ:n/ □ bear

② borough /'bʌrəʊ/ noun a large town or district that is run by an elected council

② borrow /'bɒrəʊ/ verb 1. to take something for a short time, usually with the permission of the owner □ She borrowed three books from the school library. □ He wants to borrow one of my CDs. □ Can I borrow your car to go to the shops? 2. to take money for a time, usually paying interest □ He borrowed £10 from me and never paid it back. □ Companies borrow from banks to finance their business. □ She borrowed £100,000 from the bank to buy a flat. Compare lend borrower /'bɒrəʊər/ noun a person who borrows something, especially money borrowings /'bɒrəʊɪŋz/ plural noun money which is borrowed □ The company has borrowings of over £200,000.

bosom /'buz(ə)m/ noun 1. a woman's breasts 2. □ in the bosom of among □ He retired to live in the bosom of his family.

bosom companion /'buz(ə)m kəm'pænjən/, bosom friend /'buz(ə)m frend/ noun a great friend

② boss /bɒs/ noun the person in charge or the owner of a business □ If you want a day off, ask the boss. □ I left because I didn't get on with my boss. Antonym subordinate (NOTE: The plural is bosses.) □ verb □ to boss someone about, around to tell someone what to do all the time □ She's always bossing her little brother about. □ Stop bossing me around!

bossy /'bɒssi/ adj always telling people what to do. Synonym domineering. Antonym meek (NOTE: bossier – bossiest) bosun /'bəʊs(ə)n/ noun (at sea) a person in charge of boats and sails (NOTE: more correctly spelled boatswain) botanical /bə'tænik(ə)l/ adj referring to plants botanical gardens /bə,tænik(ə)l 'ga:dnz/ plural noun gardens which are set up for the scientific study and display of plants botanical name /bə'tænik(ə)l neɪm/ noun the scientific Latin name of a plant botanist /'bɒt(ə)nɪst/ noun a scientist who studies plants botany /'bɒt(ə)nɪ/ noun the science and study of plants botch /bɒtʃ/ verb to do or make something badly (informal)

① both /bəʊθ/ adj, pron 1. two people or things together □ Hold on to the handle with both hands. □ Both my shoes have holes in them. □ Both her brothers are very tall. □ She has two brothers, both of them in Canada. □ She and her brother both go to the same school. □ I'm talking to both of you. 2. for emphasis □ She is both clever and modest.

① bother /'bɒðə/ noun trouble or worry □ We found the shop without any bother. □ It was such a bother getting packed that we nearly didn't go on holiday. □ verb 1. to annoy or to cause trouble □ Stop bothering me, I'm trying to read. □ to be hot and bothered to be annoyed and nervous about something 2. □ to bother to do something to take the time or trouble to do something □ Don't bother to come with me to the station – I can find my way easily. □ interj used to show that you are annoyed □ Bother! I've left my umbrella on the train.

Botox /'bəʊtəks/ trademark botulinum toxin type A, a substance that is injected under the skin to remove wrinkles from the face

① bottle /'bɒt(ə)l/ noun 1. a tall plastic or glass container for liquids □ He opened two bottles of red wine. □ She drank the water straight out of the bottle. □ He bought his wife a bottle of perfume on the plane. 2. □ hot water bottle a rubber bottle filled with hot water, for warming the bed 3. courage (informal) □ He hasn't got the bottle to do it. □ verb 1. to put in bottles □ The wine is bottled in Germany. □ Only bottled water is safe to drink. □ She perfected a process for speeding up the bottling system. 2. □ to bottle out to decide not to do something because you are afraid (informal) □ He was ready to jump but bottled out at the last minute.

③ bottle bank /'bɒt(ə)l bæŋk/ noun a place where you can throw away empty bottles for recycling bottleneck /'bɒt(ə)lnek/ noun 1. a narrow part of a road where traffic often gets stuck □ The roadworks have created a bottleneck and caused jams all through the town. 2. a place where things such as production or supplies are held up □ There's a bottleneck in the invoicing department and this holds up our deliveries.

bottle opener /'bɒt(ə)l əʊp(ə)nə/ noun a tool for taking the tops off bottles

① bottom /'bɒtəm/ noun 1. the lowest point □ The ship sank to the bottom of the sea. □ Turn left at the bottom of the hill. □ Is there any honey left in the bottom of the jar? □ he's bottom of his class he gets the worst marks □ to get to the bottom of a problem to find the real cause of a problem □ prices

have touched rock bottom prices are at their lowest point ever 2. the far end ○ Go down to the bottom of the street and you will see the post office on your left. ○ The greenhouse is at the bottom of the garden. 3. the part of the body on which you sit ○ Does my bottom look big in these trousers? ♫ behind 4. the lower part of two-piece clothing ○ He was wearing just his track suit bottom. ○ I can't find my bikini bottom. 5. □ from the bottom of my heart deeply and sincerely ○ I want to thank you all from the bottom of my heart. ■ adj lowest ○ The jam is on the bottom shelf. ○ He was standing on the bottom rung of the ladder.

bottom gear /'bɒtəm 'gɪə/ noun the lowest gear of a vehicle, used when going slowly, or when climbing hills bottomless /'bɒtəmləs/ adj without any limit. Synonym unlimited. Antonym restricted bottom line /'bɒtəm 'lain/ noun 1. the last line on a profit-and-loss account indicating the total profit or loss ○ The boss is interested only in the bottom line. 2. a fact which must be accepted ○ The bottom line is that we will have to sell our flat.

botulism /'bɒt.jʊlɪz(ə)m/ noun a type of food poisoning caused by bacteria in badly-preserved food boudoir /'bu:dwa:/ noun a small private room for a lady bouffant /'bu:fɒŋ/ adj (of hair) brushed up and away from the head bough /baʊ/ noun a branch of a tree (NOTE: Do not confuse with bow.)

① bought /bɔ:t/ ♫ buy bought ledger /'bɔ:t ,ledʒə/ noun an account book in which purchases are recorded. Also called purchase ledger boulder /'bəʊldə/ noun a large rock boulevard /'bu:ləvɑ:d/ noun a wide road in a town, usually with trees along it

③ bounce /baʊns/ noun 1. a movement up and down ○ He hit the ball on the second bounce. 2. energy ○ She's always full of bounce. ■ verb 1. to spring up and down or off a surface ○ The ball bounced down the stairs. ○ He kicked the ball but it bounced off the post. ○ In this game you bounce the ball against the wall. 2. □ the cheque bounced there was not enough money in an account to pay the sum on the cheque (informal) bouncer /'baʊnsə/ noun 1. (in cricket) a fast ball which bounces very high ○ He was hit on the head by a bouncer. 2. a person whose job is to stop unwanted people getting in to a public place, or to make them leave ○ The bouncers wouldn't let her in because she'd caused trouble before.

bouncing /'baʊnsɪŋ/ adj 1. which bounces 2. (of a baby) healthy bouncy /'baʊnsɪ/ adj 1. which bounces ○ a big bouncy red ball 2. full of energy ○ It's quite tiring working with her because she's so bouncy. (NOTE: bouncy – bouncier – bounciest.)

② bound /baʊnd/ noun a big jump □ in leaps and bounds very fast ○ The project is going forward in leaps and bounds. ■ adj 1. □ bound for on the way to ○ a ship bound for the Gulf 2. tied up ○ The boy was left bound to a tree. ○ The burglars left him bound hand and foot. ○ a bundle of old letters bound in pink ribbon 3. obliged ○ He felt bound to help her. ○ He is bound by the contract he signed last year. 4. very likely ○ They are bound to be late. 5. unable to move ■ verb to leap, or move fast ○ She bounded into the room. ○ He bounded out of his chair. ○ The dog bounded into the bushes.

bound /baʊnd/ ♫ bind

② boundary /'baʊnd(ə)rɪ/ noun an imaginary line between two things ○ The white fence marks the boundary between our farm and his. □ the boundaries of knowledge, of science the furthest point in human knowledge ○ Scientists are trying to push back the boundaries of human knowledge. □ to hit a boundary (in cricket) to hit the ball beyond the edge of the playing field and score four or six runs. Synonym border boundless /'baʊndləs/ adj which seems to have no limit bounds /baʊndz/ plural noun limits □ out of bounds where people are not allowed to go ○ The bar is out of bounds to soldiers on duty.

bountiful /'baʊntɪf(ə)l/ adj (of an amount) very large (formal) bounty /'baʊnti/ noun money given as a reward (NOTE: The plural is bounties.)

bouquet /bu:'keɪ/ noun 1. a beautifully arranged bunch of flowers ○ He bought a bouquet of white roses. ○ A little girl presented the princess with a bouquet. 2. the particular smell of a wine ○ a wine with a delicate bouquet bourbon /'bɜ:bən/ noun US a type of American whisky, or a glass of this drink bourgeois /'bu:ʒwɑ:/ adj referring to the less pleasant aspects of middle-class people ○ They want to go on living their bourgeois existence. ○ He accuses his parents of being terribly bourgeois and swears he won't be like them. ■ noun a middle-class person ○ The bourgeois refused to see their living standards fall. (NOTE: The plural is bourgeois.)

bout /baʊt/ noun 1. a sporting fight or contest ○ Lewis won that bout. 2. an attack of illness ○ She had a bout of flu.

boutique /bu:tɪk/ noun 1. a small shop, especially for up-to-date fashionable clothes ○ a jeans boutique ○ a ski boutique 2. a section of a department store selling up-to-date clothes ○ You may find what you're looking for in our dress boutique on the next floor.

bovine /bəʊvɪn/ adj 1. referring to cows 2. slow and stupid □ to have a bovine look to look stupid bovine spongiform encephalopathy /'bəʊvɪn ɪn'spɒndʒɪfɔ:m ənkefəl'ɪɒpəθi/ noun a brain disease that kills cows. Abbr BSE

bow¹ /bəʊ/ noun 1. bending your body forward as a sign of respect ○ He made a deep bow to the audience. □ to take a bow to stand on a stage and bend forwards to thank the audience ○ The actors took their bows one after the other. 2. the front part of a ship ○ The captain posted a lookout in the bow or bows. 3. a rower who sits nearest to the bow of a boat ○ He rowed bow for Cambridge. Compare stroke (NOTE: Do not confuse with bough.) ■ verb to bend forward as a greeting ○ He bowed to the queen. ○ The congregation bowed to the altar.

③ bow² /bəʊ/ noun 1. a weapon used for shooting arrows ○ The archers drew their bows and shot arrows into the air. 2. a long piece of wood, used for playing a stringed instrument ○ He slowly drew the bow across the strings of his violin. 3. a ribbon knotted in a shape like a butterfly ○ The parcel was tied up with red bows.

bowel movement /'baʊəl ˌmu:vmənt/ noun the action of getting rid of solid waste from the body bower /'baʊə/ noun a shelter made by plants and trees

④ bowl /bəʊl/ noun 1. a wide container for something such as food or water ○ Put the egg whites in a bowl and whisk them. 2. the food or liquid contained in a bowl ○ He was eating a bowl of rice. ○ Give the dog a bowl of water. ○ A bowl of hot thick soup is just what you need in this cold weather. 3. a large heavy ball used for rolling along the ground in certain games ○ She picked up the bowl and stepped up to take her turn. ■ verb 1. (especially in cricket) to throw a ball to a batsman □ to bowl someone (out) to throw the ball to someone and hit his or her wicket 2. (in a game of bowls) to roll a bowl along the ground to try to get close to the target bow-legged /'bəʊ ˈlegɪd/ adj with legs which bend out at the knee bowler /'bəʊlə/ noun 1. a person who plays bowls 2. (especially in cricket) a person who throws the ball to the batsman ○ a fast bowler 3. same as bowler hat bowler hat /'bəʊlə hæt/ noun a hat with a rounded top bowling /'bəʊlɪŋ/ noun the game of bowls, or the indoor game of knocking down skittles with a large ball bowling alley /'bəʊlɪŋ əli/ noun a large room for bowling. ♦ ten-pin bowling bowling green /'bəʊlɪŋ gri:n/ noun a level area of closely-cut grass on which games of bowls are played bowl over /bəʊl ˈəʊvəl/ verb 1. to knock someone down 2. to surprise someone ○ He was completely bowled over by the news.

⑤ bowls /bəʊlz/ noun a game where teams of players roll large balls towards a small ball (a jack), trying to get as close to it as possible (NOTE: takes a singular verb) bow tie /bəʊ ˈtaɪ/ noun a tie which is tied in the shape of a butterfly bow window /bəʊ ˈwɪndəʊ/ noun a curved window which sticks out from a wall

① box /bɒks/ noun 1. a container with a lid, made of wood, plastic, cardboard or metal ○ The baker put the cakes into a box. 2. a container and its contents ○ He took a box of matches from his pocket. ○ He gave her a box of chocolates for her birthday. 3. a line round a section of text or an illustration in a book 4. a small separate section in a theatre ○ They took a box for the performance of the 'Magic Flute'. 5. a tree with very small leaves, used to make hedges ○ The beds of flowers are edged with box. (NOTE: no plural in this meaning) ■ verb 1. to fight with your fists ○ He learnt to box at a gym in the East End. 2. □ to box someone's ears to strike someone on the ears

boxed /bɒkst/ adj 1. packed in a box, sold in a box ○ a boxed set of knives, forks and spoons for four people 2. □ boxed in tightly enclosed, not able to move ○ We feel boxed in, with all the office blocks round our little shop.

boxer /bɒksə/ noun 1. a person who fights with his fists ○ The two boxers came together in the ring. 2. a type of large dog with short hair boxer shorts /'bɒksə ʃɔ:ts/ plural noun men's underwear shaped like shorts boxing /'bɒksɪŋ/ noun a sport in which two opponents fight each other in a ring with special gloves on □ boxing gloves thick gloves, tied at the wrist, worn for boxing

② Boxing Day /'bɒksɪŋ deɪ/ noun 26th December, the day after Christmas Day boxing ring /'bɒksɪŋ rɪŋ/ noun a square raised area, surrounded by a rope fence, in which boxing matches take place box number /'bɒks ˌnʌmbə/ noun a reference number used when asking for mail to be sent to a post office or to a newspaper's offices box office /'bɒks ɒfɪs/ noun an office where you buy tickets in a theatre

① boy /bɔɪ/ noun 1. a male child ○ A boy from our school won the tennis match. ○ I knew him when he was a boy. 2. a son ○ Her three boys are all at university.

boy band /'bɔɪ bænd/ noun an all-male pop group aimed at a teenage audience boycott /'bɔɪkɒt/ noun the act of refusing to deal with someone ○ The boycott of the company lasted three months. ■ verb to refuse to deal with someone ○ We are boycotting all food imports from that country.

② boyfriend /'bɔɪfrend/ noun a man or boy that someone is having a romantic relationship with ○ She's got a new boyfriend. ○ She brought her boyfriend to the party. Antonym girlfriend boyhood /'bɔɪhʊd/ noun the time of life when someone is, or was, a boy. Synonym childhood boyish /'bɔɪʃ/ adj looking or acting like a boy. Synonym youthful

Boy Scout /bɔɪ 'skaut/ noun 1. in the US, a member of the Boy Scouts of America, an organisation aiming to develop good character and physical fitness, often through community and outdoor activities 2. a man who is considered to be naive bra /bra:/ noun a brassiere; women's underwear covering and supporting the breasts brace /breɪs/ noun 1. a support which helps your teeth to grow straight ○ She wears a brace on her teeth. 2. a support for part of the body which has been injured, for example 3. □ a brace of two, a pair of ○ a brace of grouse ○ We bought a brace of pheasants. ■ verb □ to brace yourself for to prepare yourself for something unpleasant ○ When the phone rang, she braced herself for the shock of hearing his voice again. ○ The pilot told us to brace ourselves for a crash landing.

bracelet /'breɪslət/ noun a piece of jewellery worn round your wrist or arm braces /'breɪsɪz/ plural noun 1. straps over your shoulders to hold up your trousers ○ He wore bright red braces with his jeans. (NOTE: The US term is suspenders.) 2. a brace for the teeth bracing /'breɪsɪŋ/ adj cool and making you feel healthy. Synonym invigorating bracken /'brækən/ noun a plant with large wide leaves that grows in forests (NOTE: no plural)

③ bracket /'brækɪt/ noun 1. a piece of metal or wood which is attached to a wall to support a shelf ○ The shelf is held up by two solid brackets. 2. a printing sign usually used in pairs, [], (), <>, or { }, used to show that a piece of text is separated from the rest ○ The words in brackets can be deleted. ○ The four words underlined should be put in brackets. 3. a group of things or people considered together for administrative purposes □ people in the middle-income bracket people with average incomes, not high or low □ someone in the top tax bracket someone pays the highest level of tax ■ verb 1. to put brackets round something ○ Bracket the whole sentence. 2. to link together or treat several items together in the same way ○ His name has been bracketed with that of one of the local gang leaders. ○ In the sales report, all European countries are bracketed together.

bract /brækt/ noun a part of a plant which is shaped like a leaf but is often coloured like a flower brag /bræg/ verb to boast about something (NOTE: bragging – bragged)

Brahmin /'braɪmɪn/ noun the highest rank according to the Hindu caste system braid /bred/ noun 1. a decoration made of twisted fibres ○ Admirals have gold braid on their caps. 2. plaited hair ○ This is a picture of her when she was ten and still had her hair in braids. ■ verb to plait, e.g. hair or ribbon ○ She braided her hair before going swimming.

③ Braille /bræɪl/ noun a system of writing using raised dots on paper to represent letters, which allows a blind person to read by passing his or her fingers over the page

② brain /breɪn/ noun 1. the nerve centre in the head, which controls all the body ○ The brain is the most important part of the body. 2. intelligence □ use your brain think hard □ she's got brains, she's got a good brain she's intelligent brainchild /'breɪntʃaɪld/ noun an original plan that someone has thought of (informal). Synonym idea brainless /'breɪnləs/ adj completely stupid (disapproving). Synonym foolish. Antonym sensible brain scan /'breɪn skæn/ noun examining the inside of the brain by passing X-rays through the head brainstorm /'breɪnstɔ:m/ noun a sudden mad idea. Synonym aberration brainstorming /'breɪn,stɔ:mɪŋ/ noun an intensive group discussion, with no time allowed for thinking, in order to produce ideas or help solve problems brainwash /'breɪnwɒʃ/ verb to make someone believe something is true by repeating it and forcing them to believe it. Synonym persuade brainwashing /'breɪnwɒʃɪŋ/ noun the action of making people believe something brainwave /'breɪnweɪv/ noun a sudden very good idea brainy /'breɪni/ adj very intelligent (informal) (NOTE: brainier – brainiest) braise /'breɪz/ verb to cook food in a pot with very little liquid

③ brake /breɪk/ noun a device for stopping a vehicle or making it go slower ○ Put the brake on when you go down a hill. ○ The brakes aren't working! Synonym restraint.

Antonym incentive ■ verb to slow down by pressing a vehicle's brakes ○ The driver of the little white van braked, but too late to avoid the dog. Synonym decelerate brake lights /'breɪk laɪts/ plural noun red lights at the back of a car which light up when you put the brakes on braking distance /'breɪkɪŋ dɪstəns/ noun the distance a car travels after the driver puts on the brakes, before it stops completely (NOTE: Do not confuse with break.)

bramble /'bræmbəl/ noun a wild blackberry bush bran /bræn/ noun the outside part of wheat seeds (NOTE: no plural)

① branch /'bræntʃ/ noun 1. a thick part of a tree, growing out of the trunk ○ He hit his head against a low branch. 2. a local office of an organisation ○ He's the manager of our local branch of Lloyds Bank. ○ The store has branches in most towns in the south of the country. 3. a section of river leading away from the main part ○ The town is built on a branch of the Nile. ■ verb to divide into two or more parts branch off /,bra:n̩tʃ 'ɒf/ verb to come off a main road branch out /,bra:n̩tʃ 'aut/ verb to start to do something different, as well as what you normally do brand /brænd/ noun 1. a product with a name ○ a well-known brand of soap 2. a mark burnt with a hot iron on an animal to show who owns it ■ verb 1. to describe someone or something publicly as bad ○ He was branded as a thief. ○ The minister was publicly branded a liar in the newspaper. 2. to mark an animal with a hot iron ○ The cattle were corralled before being branded.

branded /'brændɪd/ adj sold with a company name or trademark, usually considered a mark of quality brandish /'brændɪʃ/ verb to wave something about

③ brand name /'brænd neɪm/ noun the name of a product

③ brand-new /,brænd 'nju:/ adj completely new

③ brandy /'brændi/ noun 1. an alcoholic drink made from wine ○ I was given a bottle of excellent brandy. 2. a glass of this drink ○ He ordered three brandies.

brash /bræʃ/ adj confident and loud (technical) brass /bræs/ noun 1. a mixture of copper and zinc ○ The doctor has a brass name plate on his door. □ to get down to brass tacks to discuss the basic problem 2. a medieval metal plate set in the floor of a church, showing where someone is buried brass band /bræs 'bænd/ noun a band of people playing brass instruments brassiere /'bræzɪə/ noun a woman's undergarment covering the breasts (NOTE: usually called a bra) brat /bræt/ noun a badly-behaved child bravado /bræ'vɑ:dəʊ/ noun confident actions to show how brave you are. Synonym audacity. Antonym cowardice (NOTE: no plural)

② brave /bræv/ adj full of courage ○ It was very brave of him to dive into the river to try to rescue the little girl. Synonym courageous. Antonym cowardly (NOTE: braver – bravest) ■ verb to be brave enough to do something dangerous ○ The ambulance braved the snowstorm to answer the 999 call. Synonym defy ■ noun a male Native American fighter (dated) bravely /'brævli/ adv with courage, in a brave way bravery /'brævəri/ noun being brave when in a dangerous situation. Synonym courage. Antonym cowardice (NOTE: no plural)

bravo /bræv'vəʊ/ interj showing approval bravura /bræ'vjuərə/ noun showing great skill and confidence in performing. Synonym boldness. Antonym timidity brawl /brɔ:l/ noun a wild fight ○ Coming out of the pub, he got into a brawl with some soldiers. Synonym scuffle ■ verb to fight wildly ○ After the match ended spectators were brawling on the terraces. Synonym fight brawny /'brɔ:ni/ adj heavy and having very strong muscles. Synonym muscular bray /breɪ/ verb to make a loud noise like a donkey brazen /'breɪz(ə)n/ adj 1. made of brass (old) 2. with no shame ○ What you say is a brazen lie. ■ verb □ to brazen it out to get through a difficult situation by seeming to be sure of yourself ○ In spite of what the papers said, he managed to brazen it out.

brazil nut /brə'zil nʌt/ noun a large sweet nut from a tropical tree

③ breach /brɪ:tʃ/ noun the act of breaking the law or a promise ○ This is a breach of the undertaking they made last year. □ in breach of without respecting ○ In breach of their agreement, they started negotiating with our rivals behind our backs. ■ verb 1. to go against rules ○ The pay settlement has

breached the government's guidelines. 1. He was arrested for breaching the peace. 2. to make a hole 3. The enemy guns breached the town's defences. 4. The flood waters have breached the dyke.

breach of contract /'breɪtʃ əv 'kntrækt/ noun the breaking of the conditions of a contract 5. the company is in breach of contract the company has failed to do what was agreed in the contract breach of the peace /'breɪtʃ əv ðə 'pi:s/ noun an offence involving uncontrolled behaviour in public

① bread /bred/ noun food made from flour and water baked in an oven 6. Can you get a loaf of bread from the baker's? 7. She cut thin slices of bread for sandwiches.

bread and butter /'bred ən 'bʌtə/ noun slices of bread covered with butter (informal) 8. bread bin /'bred bin/ noun a metal box for keeping bread in breadcrumbs /'bredkræmz/ plural noun little pieces of dried bread 9. The fish is covered in breadcrumbs and then fried.

breaded /'bredɪd/ adj covered with breadcrumbs breadline /'bredlайн/ noun a very low standard of living breadth /breðθ/ noun 1. a measurement of how wide something is 10. The breadth of the vacant plot of land is over 300m. 11. We walked the length and breadth of the field and found no wild strawberries. 2. fullness or completeness 12. His answers show the breadth of his knowledge of the subject.

breadwinner /'bredwɪnə/ noun a person who earns money to feed the family. Antonym dependant

① break /breɪk/ noun 1. a space 13. You can see blue sky through a break in the clouds. 2. a short pause or rest 14. There will be a 15-minute break in the middle of the meeting. 15. they worked for three hours without a break they worked without stopping for three hours 16. to take a break to have a short rest 17. We'll take a break now, and start again in fifteen minutes. 3. morning break, afternoon break (in schools) a short period for rest and play in the middle of the morning or afternoon 18. We couldn't go out during the morning break because it was raining. 4. a short holiday 19. a move away from someone or something 20. I thought they were in love, so the break came as a surprise. 21. It's not always easy to make a break with the past. 6. a crack in a hard substance such as bone 22. The break is clean so it should heal quite quickly. 7. a stop in something regular 23. There's a break in the pattern which shouldn't be there. 24. a break in the weather a change in the weather 8. 25. he had a lucky break his bad luck changed 9. a series of shots in snooker 26. He had a break of 102. ■ verb 1. to make something come apart in pieces 27. He dropped the plate on the floor and broke it. 28. She broke her leg when she was skiing.

2. to come apart in pieces 29. The clock fell on the floor and broke. 3. to fail to obey a rule or law 30. to break a record to do better than anyone has before 31. He broke the record for the 2000 metres. 4. 32. to break your journey to stop for a while before going on 33. We'll break our journey in Edinburgh. 5. to fail to carry out the duties of a contract 34. The company has broken its agreement. 6. to break a promise not to do what you had promised to do 35. He broke his promise and wrote to her again. 7. to break a contract to fail to respect a contract 8. to start 36. We woke up as day was breaking. 9. the storm broke at noon the storm suddenly started at noon 10. to break it or to break the news to someone to tell someone bad news 11. We will have to break it to her as gently as possible. 12. (of a boy's voice) to become deeper as the boy grows older (NOTE: Do not confuse with brake. Note also breaking – broke /brəuk/ - has broken /'brəukən/.) 13. to break even not to make a loss or a profit 14. We are just about breaking even. 15. The business broke even in the first year.

breakable /'breɪkəb(ə)l/ adj that can break easily. Synonym fragile. Antonym robust breakaway /'breɪkəweɪ/ adj which has become separated from a larger group. Antonym mainstream

① break down /,breɪk 'daʊn/ verb 1. (of a machine) to stop working 16. The lift has broken down again. 17. The car broke down and we had to push it. 2. to show all the items in a total list 18. Can you break down this invoice into travel costs and extras?

③ breakdown /'breɪkdaʊn/ noun 1. a failure of a system to work properly 19. There has been a breakdown in communications between them. 2. a physical collapse 3. (of a machine) a failure to continue working 20. We had a breakdown on the motorway. 21. A breakdown truck came to tow us to the garage. 22. a list showing details item by item 23. Give me a breakdown of the travel costs.

breaker /'breɪkəl/ noun a person who buys old cars for their separate parts 24. The car was badly damaged and had to be sold to a breaker. 25. We went to a breaker's yard to try to find some cheap spare parts.

② breakfast /'brekfəst/ noun the first meal of the day 26. I had a boiled egg for breakfast. 27. She didn't have any breakfast because she was in a hurry. 28. The hotel serves breakfast from 7.30 to 9.30 every day. ■ verb to eat your first meal of the day 29. We breakfasted on dried fruit and cheese.

breakfast TV /'brekfəst tɪ: 'vi:/ noun television shown at breakfast time ① break in /'breɪk 'ɪn/ verb □ to break someone or an animal in to train someone or an animal ○ He rode a mustang which he'd broken in himself.

break-in /'breɪk in/ noun a burglary breaking and entering /'breɪkɪŋ ənd 'entərɪŋ/ noun the crime of going into someone's property to steal breaking point /'breɪkɪŋ pɔɪnt/ noun the point at which a situation reaches a crisis breakneck /'breɪknæk/ adj □ at break-neck speed extremely fast break off /'breɪk 'ɒf/ verb 1. to make something come off by breaking; to come off

○ He broke a piece off his pie and gave it to his dog. ○ The handle broke off the cup in the dishwasher. ○ Several branches broke off in the wind. 2. to stop something suddenly ○ He broke off in the middle of his story. ○ They broke off the discussions. ○ They were going to get married, but she broke it off.

break out /'breɪk 'aʊt/ verb 1. to start ○ War broke out between the countries in the area. □ to break out into a rash to have a rash which starts suddenly 2. to escape ○ Three prisoners broke out of jail.

breakout /'breɪkəut/ noun an escape from a prison breakthrough /'breɪkθru:/ noun a sudden success

① break up /'breɪk 'ʌp/ verb 1. to come to pieces ○ The oil tanker was breaking up on the rocks. 2. to stop being together ○ We broke up last year. ○ Their marriage broke up after 25 years. 3. to stop being in a group ○ The meeting broke up at 3 p.m. ○ The group broke up when the lead singer started singing solo. 4. □ school breaks up next week the school holidays start next week breakup /'breɪkʌp/ noun the process of coming to pieces or separating breakwater /'breɪkwɔ:tə/ noun a wall that is built into the sea as a protection against the action of strong waves

② breast /brest/ noun 1. one of two parts on a woman's chest which produce milk 2. the chest or front part of the top of the body 3. meat from the chest part of a bird ○ Do you want a wing or a slice of breast? ○ We bought some chicken breasts to make a stir-fry.

breastbone /'brestbəun/ noun the bone which is in the centre of the front of the chest and to which most of the ribs are attached. Also called sternum breast cancer /'brest ,kænsə/ noun a disease that causes dangerous lumps to grow in the breast breastfeed /'brestfi:d/ verb to give a baby milk from the breast (NOTE: breastfeeding – breastfed) breastfeeding /'brestfi:dɪŋ/ noun the practice of giving milk from the breast to a baby, as opposed to giving milk from a bottle breast pocket /brest 'pɒkɪt/ noun a pocket on the inside of a jacket breast stroke /'brest strəʊk/ noun a style of swimming where the swimmer is face downwards, pushing the arms out in front and bringing them back to the sides while the feet are kicking

② breath /breθ/ noun 1. air which goes into and out of the body through the nose or mouth ○ You should smell his breath – he must have eaten garlic last night. □ out of breath, gasping for breath having difficulty in breathing ○ He ran all the way to the station, got there out of breath, and then saw the train leaving. □ to get your breath back to breathe normally again, after exercise ○ First get your breath back, then tell me all about it.

□ to hold your breath to keep air in your lungs to go under water, as a test or because you are afraid that something will happen ○ She held her breath under water for a minute. □ we're all holding our breath to see if he wins we're all waiting anxiously to see if he wins □ to take a deep breath to breathe in as much air as you can ○ Take a deep breath for the X-ray. □ to take someone's breath away to surprise someone very much ○ The huge size of the ruins took my breath away. □ under your breath quietly ○ He cursed under his breath. 2. □ a breath of wind a slight movement of air ○ There wasn't a breath of wind all day. □ a breath of fresh air 1. fresh air after being enclosed in a room ○ I'm going out for a walk, I need a breath of fresh air. 2. something new and exciting ○ The new director is a welcome breath of fresh air.

breathalyser /'breθəlaɪzə/ trademark a device which tests how much alcohol is in a driver's blood

② breath /bri:ð/ verb to take air into the lungs or let it out ○ I want to listen to your chest, so breathe in and then out when I tell you to. ○ Do you know how fish breathe? □ breathe deeply to take in a lot of air □ he's breathing down my neck all the time he's always watching how I'm working □ to breathe a sigh of relief to breathe deeply because danger has passed ○ She breathed a sigh of relief when the police car drove away.

breather /'bri:ðə/ noun a time when you can rest (informal). Synonym rest

③ breathing /'bri:ðɪŋ/ noun the process of taking air in and out of the lungs. Synonym inhalation breathing apparatus /'bri:ðɪŋ æpərətʃəs/ noun equipment such as a mask and oxygen cylinder which can help a person to breathe breathing space /'bri:ðɪŋ speɪs/ noun a period when you can rest between activities. Synonym respite breathless /'breθləs/ adj out of breath; finding it difficult to breathe breathtaking /'breθteɪkɪŋ/ adj very impressive. Antonym banal breath test /'breθ test/ noun a test for a driver to see if he has been drinking alcohol

③ bred /bred/ ◊ breed (NOTE: Do not confuse with bread.)

breach birth /'bri:tʃ ,bɜ:θ/, breach delivery /'bri:tʃ dɪ,lv(ə)rɪ/ noun a birth where the baby's bottom appears first breeches /'brɪtsɪz/ plural noun knee-length trousers which fasten just below the knee ○ Have you got a pair of riding breeches to lend me?

③ breed /bred/ noun a type of animal or plant ○ Alsations and other large breeds of dog. ■ verb 1. to produce young animals ○ Rabbits breed very rapidly. 2. to keep animals which produce young ones ○ They breed sheep for the meat and the wool. 3. □ I was born and bred in the country I was born and grew up in the country 4. to raise new plants ○ They are breeding new strains of wheat. (NOTE: breeding – bred /bred/) breeder /'bri:də/ noun a person who breeds animals or plants

③ breeding /'bri:dɪŋ/ noun 1. the practice of raising animals or plants ○ Because of the smell, pig breeding is strictly controlled. ○ You can't shoot pheasants during the breeding season. 2. good education, background and behaviour ○ It was obvious that his secretary was a girl of good breeding.

breeding ground /'bri:dɪŋgraʊnd/ noun 1. a place where an animal breeds ○ The area is the breeding ground of several rare birds. ○ Stagnant water is a breeding ground for mosquitoes. 2. a place where something unpleasant develops ○ That amusement arcade is a breeding ground for drugs.

breeze /'bri:z/ noun a slight wind ○ A cool breeze is welcome on a hot day like this. □ a stiff breeze a strong wind ○ There was a stiff breeze blowing from the south. ■ verb to walk around looking very pleased with yourself ○ He breezed into the meeting carrying a cup of coffee.

breeze block /'bri:z blɒk/ noun a concrete building block, much larger than a brick breezy /'bri:zi/ adj 1. windy ○ It is very hot, but slightly breezy which makes it more comfortable. ○ It's a little breezy in here, let's shut the French windows. 2.

happy-go-lucky ○ A breezy youth looking as if he didn't have a care in the world.

brethren /'breðrən/ plural noun the members of a group, or only the male members of a group, especially a religious group (dated) brevity /'brevɪtɪ/ noun (of time) the quality of being very short brew /bru:/ verb 1. to make beer ○ They've been brewing beer in this town for over two hundred years. 2. to make tea or coffee ○ Let's brew some tea before we sit down and talk. 3. □ there's a storm brewing a storm is coming □ there's trouble brewing there will soon be trouble ○ The police moved in when they sensed trouble brewing in the crowd. ■ noun a cup of tea ○ He makes a good strong brew. ○ Do you fancy a brew?

brewer /'bru:ə/ noun a person or company that makes beer brewery /'bru:əri/ noun a factory where beer is made (NOTE: The plural is breweries.)

briar /'braɪə/ noun a wild rose bush bribe /braɪb/ noun an illegal payment to someone to get something done ○ He offered the witness a bribe to say nothing. Synonym inducement ■ verb to give an illegal payment to someone ○ She planned to bribe customs officials to get her case through customs.

③ bribery /'braɪb(ə)rɪ/ noun the act of bribing bric-a-brac /'brɪk ə bræk/ noun attractive little objects which are not very valuable

② brick /brɪk/ noun 1. a hard block of baked clay used for building ○ You'll need more than eighty bricks to build a wall. 2. □ to drop a brick to say something embarrassing 3. a good dependable person (old) ○ He's been a real brick over the whole business.

bricklayer /'brɪklayə/ noun a person who builds walls with bricks brick up /'brɪk ʌp/ verb to fill a hole with bricks bridal /'braid(ə)l/ adj referring to a wedding (NOTE: Do not confuse with bridle.)

bride /braid/ noun a woman who is getting married or has just got married. Synonym wife bridegroom /'braɪdgru:m/ noun a man who is getting married or has just got married. Synonym husband (NOTE: often just called the groom) bridesmaid /'braɪdzmeɪd/ noun a girl who is one of the bride's attendants at a wedding

② bridge /brɪdʒ/ noun 1. a road or path built over a road or river so that you can walk or drive from one side to the other ○ There are a dozen bridges across the River Thames in London. 2. the part of a ship where the captain can keep control ○ The captain was on the bridge when the accident occurred. 3. a card game for four people ○ They played bridge until midnight. 4. the top of your nose ○ Your spectacles are supposed to rest on the bridge of your nose. 5. (in a violin) a support for the strings ■ verb to put a bridge across a space such as a river or a road ○ This was the first time the estuary had been bridged. Synonym link bridgehead /'brɪdʒhəd/ noun the first position held by an attacking force who have crossed a stretch of water bridging loan /'brɪdʒɪŋ ,ləʊn/ noun a large amount of money lent to someone to pay for a new house when his old house has not yet been sold (NOTE: The US term is bridge loan.)

bridle /'braɪd(ə)l/ noun straps put round a horse's head ○ She had some difficulty in putting the bridle on the horse. ■ verb □ to bridle your emotions to control your emotions (NOTE: Do not confuse with bridal.)

bridle at /'braɪd(ə)l æt/ verb to take offence at something bridlepath /'braɪd(ə)lpa:θ/, bridleway /'braɪd(ə)lweɪ/ noun a path for horseriders ② brief /bri:fɪl/ adj short ○ He wrote a brief note of thanks. ○ The meeting was very brief. ○ Tell me what happened, but be brief as we don't have much time. □ in brief in a few words ○ We have food for only a few days, in brief, the situation is very serious. ■ noun instructions given to a professional person ○ His brief was to overhaul the accounts system. ■ verb 1. to give information or instructions to someone ○ He briefed the staff on the latest stage in the negotiations. ○ She was briefed to look for new office premises. 2. to give a case to a lawyer and explain the details ○ My solicitor will brief the barrister tomorrow morning.

briefcase /'bri:fkeɪs/ noun a thin case for carrying papers or documents briefing /'bri:fɪŋ/ noun a meeting where information is given

② briefly /'bri:fli/ adv for a short time briefs /'bri:fs/ plural noun short underwear for men or women ○ Before the medical, the doctor asked him to strip down to his briefs. (NOTE: plural; for one item say a pair of briefs)

③ brigade /'brɪ'geɪd/ noun a section of an army ○ The general sent an infantry brigade to the region.

brigadier /'brɪgə'dɪə/ noun an army officer in charge of a brigade

② bright /'braɪt/ adj 1. shining strongly ○ bright sunshine 2. with a very strong colour ○ They have painted their front door bright orange. 3. intelligent ○ He's a bright little

boy. ○ Both their children are very bright. ○ She's the brightest of the class. 4. clear and sunny ○ There will be bright periods during the afternoon. 5. cheerful ○ She gave me a bright smile. □ to look on the bright side of things to be optimistic ○ However bad the situation is, she always tries to look on the bright side of things.

brighten /'braɪt(ə)n/ verb to make something bright, or to become bright brighten up /'braɪt(ə)n 'ʌp/ verb 1. (of a person) to become more cheerful ○ She brightened up when she saw him. 2. (of weather) to become sunnier ○ The weather is brightening up.

brightly /'braɪtlɪ/ adv 1. in a bright way ○ A children's book with brightly painted pictures. ○ The streets were brightly lit for Christmas. 2. cheerfully ○ She smiled brightly as she went into the hospital.

brill /'brɪl/ noun a type of flat white sea fish which can be eaten (NOTE: The plural is brill.) ■ adj very good (informal) ○ It was an absolutely brill evening. ○ Listen to this brill idea!

brilliance /'brɪlɪəns/ noun the fact of being very clever

③ brilliant /'brɪlɪənt/ adj 1. extremely clever ○ He's the most brilliant student of his year. ○ She had a brilliant idea. 2. very good ○ The graphics on this website are brilliant. 3. shining brightly ○ She stepped out into the brilliant sunshine.

brilliantly /'brɪlɪəntli/ adv in a brilliant way brim /'brɪm/ noun 1. the edge ○ The glass was filled to the brim. 2. the flat part around a hat ○ A hat with a wide brim.

brim over /'brɪm 'əʊvə/ verb to overflow (NOTE: brimming – brimmed)

① bring /brɪŋ/ verb to come with someone or something to this place ○ She brought the books to school with her. ○ He brought his girlfriend home for tea. ○ Are you bringing any friends to the party? (NOTE: bringing – brought /brɔ:tɪl/) bring about /brɪŋ ə'baut/ verb to make something happen. Synonym generate. Antonym prevent bring along /brɪŋ ə'lɒŋ/ verb to bring someone or something with you bring-and-buy /,brɪŋ ənd 'baɪ/, bring-and-buy sale /,brɪŋ ənd 'baɪ seɪl/ noun a type of market where people bring or buy homemade or secondhand goods bring back /brɪŋ 'bæk/ verb to carry something back bring down /,brɪŋ 'daʊn/ verb 1. to carry something down to here ○ Can you bring down the television from the bedroom? 2. to make something less □ We've brought down all our prices.

bring forward /'brɪŋ 'fɔ:wəd/ verb to arrange something to be done at an earlier date than had been planned bring off /'brɪŋ 'ɒf/ verb to succeed in doing something □ we finally brought it off we did it successfully in the end bring on /'brɪŋ 'ɒn/ verb to produce something. Synonym cause □ you brought it on yourself you have yourself to blame for what happened to you bring out /'brɪŋ 'aʊt/ verb to make something come out □ to bring out the colour to make the colour more noticeable □ The white background brought out the main colours in the painting.

bring up /'brɪŋ 'ʌp/ verb 1. to look after and educate a child □ He was born in the USA but brought up in England. □ He was brought up by his uncle in Scotland. 2. to mention a problem □ He brought up the question of the noise. 3. to vomit something □ She's got a stomach upset and brought up all her breakfast.

brink /'brɪŋk/ noun the edge □ on the brink of very close to □ The company is on the brink of collapse. □ She was on the brink of a nervous breakdown.

brisk /'brɪsk/ adj fairly fast (NOTE: brisker – briskest) brisket /'brɪskɪt/ noun a piece of beef which comes from the breast of the animal briskly /'brɪskli/ adv fairly fast and brightly bristle /'brɪs(ə)l/ noun 1. one of the short stiff hairs on plants, or some animals such as pigs □ You could see the bristles on the back of the sow's neck. 2. □ bristles short stiff hairs on a brush □ The bristles of my toothbrush are coming off – I must get a new one.

■ verb □ to bristle at to take offence at something □ She bristled at the suggestion.

bristly /'brɪslɪ/ adj covered with short stiff hairs. Synonym spiky

Brit /'brɪt/ noun a person from the United Kingdom (informal)

① Britain /'brɪt(ə)n/ noun same as Great Britain

① British /'brɪtɪʃ/ adj referring to the United Kingdom □ a British citizen □ the British army □ The British press reported a plane crash in Africa. □ The ship was flying a British flag. □ the British government the government of the United Kingdom ■ plural noun □ the British the people of the United Kingdom

Briton /'brɪt(ə)n/ noun a person from the United Kingdom brittle /'brɪt(ə)l/ adj hard and breaking easily into pieces broach /'brəʊtʃ/ verb to start talking about a problem

② broad /brəʊd/ adj 1. very wide □ a broad river 2. (of a person's accent) not standard and very noticeable □ spoke with a broad northern accent

broadband /'brəʊ:dbænd/ adj able to manage large amounts of data quickly □ a broadband connection

③ broadcast /'brəʊ:dkə:st/ noun a radio or TV programme □ The broadcast came live from outside Buckingham Palace. Synonym transmission ■ verb 1. to send out a programme or message on radio or TV □ The programme will be broadcast on Monday at 8 p.m. □ The police broadcast an appeal for information. 2. to tell everyone □ don't broadcast the fact keep the information secret ■ adj sent by radio or television □ They were listening to enemy broadcast messages.

broadcaster /'brəʊ:dkə:stə/ noun a person who works on radio or TV but is not an actor. Synonym presenter broadcasting /'brəʊ:dkə:stɪŋ/ noun the process of sending out programmes or messages on radio or TV broad daylight /brəʊ:d 'deɪlaɪt/ noun (as an emphasis) a time during the day when people can be seen clearly broadly /'brəʊ:dli/ adv widely. Synonym approximately □ broadly speaking in general, without going into specific details □ Broadly speaking, boys are taller than girls at that age.

③ broaden /'brəʊ:dn/ verb 1. to make something wider; or to become wider □ Part of their plan is to broaden the road. □ The river broadens to form a small lake. 2. □ to broaden the mind to increase knowledge □ Travel broadens the mind.

broad-minded /,brəʊ:d 'maɪndɪd/ adj not shocked by other people's behaviour or words. Synonym tolerant. Antonym narrow-minded broadsheet /'brəʊ:dʃɪt/ noun a newspaper with large pages (NOTE: Small format newspapers are called tabloids.)

broadside noun /'brəʊ:dsaɪd/ a strong spoken or written attack ■ adv 1. with one side facing towards something 2. generally

Broadway /'brəʊ:dweɪ/ noun a street in New York, where the major theatres are located □ The play was a big hit on Broadway but flopped in London. □ off Broadway at smaller New York theatres brocade /brə'keɪd/ noun a thick cloth with a raised pattern broccoli /'brɒkəli/ noun a vegetable of which the green, purple or white flower buds are eaten (NOTE: no plural) brochure /'brəʊʃə/ noun a small thin book. Synonym booklet brogue /'brəʊg/ noun a heavy shoe with a patterned leather top ○ He bought himself a pair of heavy brogues to wear in the country.

broil /'brɔɪl/ verb to grill food broiler /'brɔɪlə/ noun a chicken sold for roasting

② broke /brəʊk/ adj with no money (informal). Synonym bankrupt. Antonym wealthy □ to be flat broke to have no money at all. □ break

① broken /'brəʊkən/ adj 1. in pieces ○ She tried to mend the broken vase. 2. not working ○ They came to mend the broken TV. ○ We can't use the lift because it's broken. 3. not complete □ broken home a family where the parents have separated 4. (of a foreign language) with hesitations and mistakes, and often in a foreign accent ○ He only spoke broken English when he arrived, but was soon speaking fluently. 5. with no confidence ○ He was pardoned, but came out of prison a broken man. □ break broken-down /,brəʊkən 'daʊn/ adj not working broken-hearted /,brəʊkən'hau:tɪd/ adj very sad. Antonym overjoyed broker /'brəʊkə/ noun a dealer in shares or insurance. Synonym trader □ to play the honest broker to try to solve other people's problems brokerage /'brəʊkərɪdʒ/, broker's commission /,brəʊkəz kə'mɪʃ(ə)n/ noun payment to a broker for a deal carried out brolly /'brɒlɪ/ noun an umbrella (informal) (NOTE: The plural is brollies.)

bronchial /'brɒŋkiəl/ adj referring to the tubes which take air in and out of the lungs bronchitis /brɒn'kaitɪs/ noun an illness caused by infection in the bronchial tubes bronzed /brɒnzd/ adj tanned from being in the sun bronze medal /brɒnz 'medl/ noun a medal given to someone who finishes third in a race or competition brooch /brəʊtʃ/ noun a piece of women's jewellery fastened to clothes with a pin (NOTE: The plural is brooches.)

brood /brʊd/ noun a family of young birds or small children ○ Some birds raise only one brood of chicks a year. ○ Simon and his brood came for lunch yesterday. □ verb to think anxiously about something a lot ○ He's in the garden, brooding as usual. ○ She's brooding over the possibility that she might lose her job.

brooding /'bru:dɪŋ/ adj threatening (literary). Synonym ominous brook /brʊk/ noun a small river ○ They jumped over the brook and walked on up the hill. Synonym stream □ verb □ to brook no interference not to allow anyone to interfere (formal)

③ broom /bru:m/ noun 1. a brush with a long handle, used to clean floors ○ She swept the kitchen with a broom. 2. a bush with yellow flowers, found in sandy places and grown in gardens ○ Broom flowers early in the summer.

broomstick /'bru:mstɪk/ noun the long handle of a broom bros abbr brothers

broth /brɒθ/ noun a light meat soup brothel /'brɒθ(ə)l/ noun a house where prostitutes work

① brother /'brʌðə/ noun 1. a boy or man who has the same mother and father as someone else ○ My brother John is three years older than me. ○ She came with her three brothers. 2. a man belonging to an order of monks ○ Brother John looks after the monastic garden.

brotherhood /'brʌðəhʊd/ noun links between people brother-in-law /'brʌðə in lɔ:/ noun a brother of your husband or wife, a husband of your sister, or a husband of a husband's or wife's sister (NOTE: The plural is brothers-in-law.)

brotherly /'brʌðəli/ adj kind or protective like a brother ○ She was expecting some brotherly advice, instead of which her brother told her she was a fool.

① brought /brɔ:t/ □ bring brow /braʊ/ noun 1. the forehead ○ She wrinkled or knit her brow as she tried to understand the guidebook. □ by the sweat of your brow with a lot of hard work ○ He became a millionaire by the sweat of his brow. 2. an eyebrow, the line of hair above the eye ○ He's instantly recognisable with those dark bushy brows. 3. the top of a hill ○ Having reached the brow of the hill they stopped to look at the view.

browbeat /'braʊbi:t/ verb to bully someone. Synonym intimidate (NOTE: browbeat – has browbeaten)

① brown /braʊn/ adj with a colour like the earth or wood ○ She has brown hair and blue eyes. ○ It's autumn and the leaves are turning brown. ○ He's very brown – he must have been sitting in the sun. Synonym tanned (NOTE: brownier – brownest) □ noun the colour brown ○ I'd prefer a darker brown than this. □ verb to cook food until it is brown ○ Brown the onions in a little butter. Synonym fry brown bear /braʊn 'beə/ noun a large wild animal found in mountain areas brown bread /braʊn 'bred/ noun bread made from brown flour brownfield /'braʊnfi:ld/ adj referring to land that previously had industrial building on it but is now available for housing brownie /'braʊni/ noun a small chocolate cake usually with nuts

Brownie /'braʊni/ noun a member of the branch of the Guides for younger girls brownie points /'braʊni pɔɪnts/ plural noun an imaginary sign of approval for something good you have done (informal) brown rice /'braʊn 'raɪs/ noun rice which still has its outer covering brown sugar /braʊn 'sʊgə/ noun a type of sugar which has been processed so that it remains pale brown in colour

③ browse /braʊz/ verb 1. (of animals) to eat grass ○ The snow has gone, and the cows are browsing in the fields again. 2. (of a person) to wander around looking at things for sale ○ Do you need any help? – No, I'm just browsing. 3. to look through a book, newspaper or magazine, without reading it properly ○ I browsed through several magazines at the doctor's surgery. □ to browse on the Internet to go to various websites without looking for anything in particular browser /'braʊzə/ noun computer software which allows you to browse on the Internet bruise /'bru:z/ noun a dark, painful area on the skin, following a blow ○ She had bruises all over her arms. □ verb 1. to make a bruise ○ She bruised her knee on the corner of the table. 2. □ to bruise easily to get bruises easily because your skin is delicate ○ She bruises easily, even a little blow gives her a bruise. ○ Peaches are delicate fruit – they bruise easily.

bruising /'bru:zɪŋ/ noun an area of bruises ○ The baby has bruising on the back and legs. □ adj painful or unpleasant ○ A bruising encounter with the police.

brunch /'brʌntʃ/ noun a meal taken from about 10 a.m., a combination of breakfast and lunch brunette /'bru:nɛt/ noun a person, usually a woman, with dark brown hair brunt /'brʌnt/ noun □ to bear the brunt of to suffer most effects of ○ The west coast bore the brunt of the storm. ○ She bore the brunt of the criticism.

② brush /'brʌʃ/ noun 1. a tool made of a handle and hairs or wire, used for jobs such as cleaning or painting ○ You need a stiff brush to get the mud off your shoes. ○ She used a very fine brush to paint the details. ○ He was painting the front of the house with a large brush. (NOTE: The plural is brushes.)

2. the act of cleaning with a brush ○ She gave the coat a good brush. 3. land covered with bushes or low trees ○ They walked through the brush for several miles. 4. a near miss, when something nearly happens to harm you ○ They had a brush with death on the motorway. 5. a short argument or fight with someone ○ He's had several brushes with the police recently. 6. the tail of a fox □ verb 1. to clean with a brush ○ He brushed his shoes before going to the office. ○ Always remember to brush your teeth before you go to bed. 2. to go past something touching it gently ○ She brushed against me as she came into the café.

brush off /'brʌʃ 'ɒf/ verb 1. to clean something off with a brush ○ He brushed the mud off his boots. 2. to ignore something because it is not very important ○ So far he has managed to brush off all the complaints about his work.

brush up /'brʌʃ 'ʌp/ verb to make your knowledge better brushwood /'brʌʃwʊd/ noun a mass of small bushes and broken wood. Synonym firewood brusque /'brʊsk/ adj using very few words and not being very polite. Synonym abrupt. Antonym friendly brusquely /'brʊskli/ adv rudely, using few words

Brussels /'bræs(ə)lz/ noun the capital of Belgium

Brussels sprout /,bræs(ə)lz 'sprəʊt/ noun 1. a green vegetable like a very small cabbage 2. the plant that Brussels sprouts grow on brutal /'brʊ:t(ə)l/ adj cruel and violent brutality /'brʊ:t'æltɪ/ noun violent actions. Synonym cruelty (*NOTE: usually no plural; to indicate a plural you can say acts of brutality) brutally /'brʊ:t(ə)li/ adv in a cruel and violent way brute /'bru:t/ noun 1. a violent person ○ Her husband's such a brute, sometimes I fear for her safety. 2. a man who does not worry about upsetting people ○ The brute didn't even ring me up to let me know he was getting married. ○ You brute! You could have given me a lift. 3. a large animal ○ Three bears came near our camp and one big brute tried to get into my tent.

brutish /'brʊ:tɪʃ/ adj rude, dirty and violent

BSc abbr bachelor of science ○ She has a BSc in Chemistry. (NOTE: written after the name: Jane Bushell BSc)

BSE abbr bovine spongiform encephalopathy ○ The public has lost confidence in beef as a result of BSE.

BTW abbr by the way

③ bubble /'bʌb(ə)l/ noun air or gas contained in a liquid ○ Bubbles of gas rose to the surface of the lake. ○ He blew bubbles in his drink. ■ verb to make bubbles, to have bubbles inside ○ The porridge was bubbling in the pan. Synonym fizz bubble gum /'bʌb(ə)l ɡʌm/ noun 1. a type of chewing gum that can be blown from the mouth into large bubbles 2. pop music aimed at the younger teenage market and usually considered to be lacking in originality bubble up /bʌb(ə)l 'ʌp/ verb to come to the surface as bubbles bubbly /'bʌbli/ adj 1. with bubbles ○ For a really bubbly bath, pour the soap in under running hot water. 2. □ she has a bubbly personality she's a lively person ■ noun champagne (informal) ○ Come and have a glass of bubbly to celebrate the birth of our son. (NOTE: no plural)

③ buck /bʌk/ noun 1. a male of certain animals such as the hare, rabbit, deer or goat ○ a buck rabbit (NOTE: The females are called does.) 2. US a dollar ○ It'll cost you ten bucks. ○ You couldn't lend me 100 bucks, could you? □ to make a quick buck to get rich quickly ○ All he wants is to make a quick buck. 3. □ to pass the buck to pass responsibility to someone else (informal) ○ The manager is a very weak character, he's always passing the buck. □ the buck stops here I am the person who is responsible ■ verb 1. □ to buck the trend to behave in a surprisingly different way ○ Sales of health books have bucked the trend and risen sharply. 2. (of horses) to jump in the air ○ The horses bucked at the sound of gunfire.

④ bucket /'bʌkɪt/ noun 1. a round container with a handle but no lid, used mainly for liquids ○ Throw the water on the fire and pass the empty bucket back to me. □ to kick the bucket to die (informal) ○ Don't worry – I don't intend to kick the bucket just yet! □ to come down in buckets to pour with rain ○ You should have seen the rain – it was coming down in buckets! 2. the contents of a bucket ○ He brought a bucket of water from the river. ○ They threw buckets of water on the fire. ■ verb to pour with rain (informal) ○ It's bucketing down outside.

bucketful /'bʌkɪfʊl/ noun an amount contained in a bucket □ by the bucketful in large quantities (informal) ○ They were drinking beer by the bucketful.

buckle /'bʌk(ə)l/ noun a metal or plastic fastener for a strap ○ She wore a black leather belt with a big gold buckle. ○ These shoes are fastened with buckles. ■ verb 1. to attach with a buckle ○ He buckled on his seat belt. ○ The little girl can buckle her sandals all by herself. 2. to bend and collapse ○ The whole bridge buckled under the weight of the traffic. 3. to become bent ○ The front wheel of my bicycle has buckled.

buckle down /,bʌk(ə)l 'daʊn/ verb to start to work hard (informal) buck up /,bʌk 'ʌp/ verb 1. to hurry up ○ Buck up, or we'll miss the train. 2. □ to buck someone up to make someone more lively ○ A hot drink will soon buck you up. ○ If you don't buck your ideas up, you'll be joining the dole queue!

buckwheat /'bʌkwi:t/ noun a dark grain, which makes a brown flour used in pancakes bucolic /'bju:kɒlɪk/ adj referring to the countryside. Synonym rural bud /bʌd/ noun a place where a new shoot or flower comes on a plant ○ It was spring and the buds on the trees were beginning to open. □ in bud flower which has not yet opened ○ The roses are in bud. □ to nip something in the bud to stop something before it develops any further ○ We must try to nip the staff protests in the bud. ■ verb (of a shoot) to make buds ○ The trees are budding very early this year.

Buddhism /'bodɪz(ə)m/ noun a religion based on the teaching of the Indian philosopher known as Buddha

Buddhist /'bodɪst/ adj referring to Buddhism or the teaching of Buddha ○ A Buddhist temple. ○ A Buddhist monk. ■ noun a person who follows the teaching of Buddha ○ Life in Nepal suits him so much that he's become a Buddhist.

budding /'bʌdɪŋ/ adj studying to be, hoping to be buddy /'bʌdi/ noun mainly US a friend (informal) (NOTE: The plural is buddies.)

budge /bʌdʒ/ verb to move budgerigar /'bʌdʒərɪgə:/ noun a small colourful tropical bird often kept as a pet (NOTE: often called a budgie)

② budget /'bʌdʒɪt/ noun 1. an amount of money that can be spent on something ○ There isn't enough money in the household budget to pay for a new carpet. □ publicity budget money allowed for spending on publicity ○ We've increased the publicity budget by 50%. 2. □ the Budget the government's plans for spending and tax ■ adj costing less than usual. Synonym cheap. Antonym expensive ■ verb to plan how you will spend money in the future ○ It would be helpful if you learnt to budget.

○ They are having to budget carefully before going on holiday in Greece. □ to budget for to plan to spend money on something ○ We're budgeting for a 10% increase in electricity prices.

budgetary /'bʌdʒɪt(ə)rɪ/ adj referring to a budget. Synonym financial budget travel /'bʌdʒɪt 'træv(ə)l/ noun cheap travel budgie /'bʌdʒi/ noun same as budgerigar (informal) buff /bʌf/ adj of a pale brown colour ○ The document you're looking for is in a buff folder. ■ noun 1. a pale brown colour ○ This type of envelope comes in blue, green and buff only. 2. an enthusiast ○ This is the best dictionary for crossword buffs. 3. □ in the buff naked (informal) ○ Give me time to dress, I'm in the buff just now. ○ They all stripped to the buff and plunged into the lake. ■ verb to make something shine ○ Young recruits have to spend hours buffing their boots. Synonym polish buffalo /'bʌfələʊ/ noun 1. same as water buffalo ○ The old man was walking behind a plough pulled by a pair of buffaloes. 2. a large wild animal with long hair, like a large bull, which used to be common in North America but is reduced in numbers. Also called bison (NOTE: The plural is buffaloes or buffalo; for a group, you say a herd of buffalo.)

③ buffer /'bʌfə/ noun 1. a shock-absorbing pad ○ The cushion acts as a buffer between the two pieces of machinery. ○ The train failed to stop and crashed into the buffers. 2. something placed between two powerful forces, which prevents problems occurring between them ○ The UN tried to establish a buffer zone between the two factions.

buffer state /'bʌfə stεɪt/ noun a small country between two large opposing states buffet /'bʌfɪt/ noun /'bəfeɪt/ 1. a meal where the food is in dishes on a table, and each person helps himself ○ The hotel serves a buffet breakfast. 2. a sideboard ■ verb to push someone or something around in an uncontrolled way ○ She stood on the deck, buffeted by the wind.

buffet car /'bufer ka:/ noun the part of a train where you can buy drinks and snacks. Compare restaurant car buffoon /bə'fu:n/ noun someone who acts in a funny or stupid way (dated). Synonym clown

③ bug /bʌg/ noun 1. an insect ○ What are these bugs on the roses? 2. a germ ○ She got a stomach bug on holiday. 3. an error in a computer program ○ You need a special program to remove the bugs in the system. ■ verb 1. to plant a hidden microphone ○ They met in Hyde Park because he was afraid his flat had been bugged. 2. to annoy someone ○ What's bugging him? (NOTE: bugging – bugged) bugbear /'bʌgbɛə/ noun something that upsets or annoys someone. Synonym problem bugging device /'bʌgɪŋ dɪ'veɪs/ noun a hidden microphone buggy /'bʌgɪ/ noun 1. a little electric car for one or two people ○ Beach buggies have very large tyres so that they can drive on sand. ○ Some people hire buggies when they play golf. 2. a light folding chair with wheels for pushing a baby in ○ She pushed the buggy across the busy road.

bugle /'bju:g(ə)l/ noun a brass musical instrument similar to a trumpet, mainly used in the army

① build /bɪld/ noun the shape of the body ○ She's a girl of slender build. ○ He has the same build as his father. Synonym shape ■ verb to make something by putting things together ○ The house was only built last year. ○ They are planning to build a motorway across the field. ○ The children built sand castles on the beach. ○ He built his business from scratch. (NOTE: building – built /bɪlt/)

③ builder /'bɪldə/ noun a person who builds buildings

① building /'bɪldɪŋ/ noun 1. something which has been built, such as a house, railway station or factory ○ The flood washed away several buildings. ○ His office is on the top floor of the building. 2. used in names of large office blocks ○ the Shell Building 3. the action of constructing something ○ The building of the pyramids must have taken many years.

building blocks /'bɪldɪŋ blɒks/ plural noun 1. small pieces of wood, used by children to build structures such as castles ○ Most children like to play with building blocks. 2. one of the parts which form a whole ○ Printed books are the essential building blocks of a national library.

building site /'bɪldɪŋ saɪt/ noun a piece of land where a large building is being built

③ building society /'bɪldɪŋ sə,sɑ:tɪ/ noun an organisation which pays interest on people's savings and lends money to people buying houses or flats build up /'bɪld 'ʌp/ verb to increase ○ The pressure is building up on him to resign. ○ Gas built up rapidly in the boiler until it exploded.

build-up /'bɪld 'ʌp/ noun 1. the preparations for something 2. a gradual increase in something ○ a build-up of traffic 3. a flattering description of someone or something ○ We'd expected someone funnier after all the build-up.

-built /bɪlt/ suffix made or constructed built-in /'bɪlt in/ adj made as part of a room or machine built-up area /,bɪlt ʌp 'eəriə/ noun area of a town where there are many buildings

③ bulb /bɒlb/ noun 1. a fat underground part of some plants, from which leaves and flowers grow ○ She planted daffodil bulbs all round the house. 2. a glass ball which gives electric light ○ You'll need a ladder to change the bulb.

bulbous /bɒlbəs/ adj fat and round. Synonym rounded bulge /bʌldʒ/ noun a swelling ○ There's a little bulge in the carpet – I guess we'll find the missing toy underneath. Synonym protuberance ■ verb □ to bulge with to be fat with ○ Her pockets were bulging with bundles of notes. ○ Father's briefcase bulged not with important papers but with toys for his children.

bulging /'bʌldʒɪŋ/ adj sticking out bulimia /'bju:li'miə/ noun a psychological condition where the patient eats too much and is incapable of controlling their eating bulk /bʌlk/ noun a large amount □ in bulk in large quantities ○ It is cheaper to buy stationery for the school in bulk. □ the bulk of most of ○ The bulk of our sales are in Europe. ○ She finished the bulk of the work before lunch.

bulkhead /'bʌlkhed/ noun a wall inside a ship or aircraft bulky /'bʌlkɪ/ adj awkwardly large (NOTE: bulkier – bulkiest)

bull /bʊl/ noun 1. a male of the cow family ○ Be careful when you cross the field – there's a bull in it. □ to take the bull by the horns to try to deal with a difficult problem (informal) ○ He decided to take the bull by the horns and tell his father that he was leaving the family firm. 2. a male animal ○ a bull walrus ○ a bull elephant 3. a person who believes that stock market prices will rise bulldog /'buldɒg/ noun a short strong dog with a flat face bulldoze /'buldəʊz/ verb 1. to knock down or to clear using a bulldozer ○ They bulldozed the old farm buildings. 2. to force □ he bulldozed his proposal through the committee he forced the committee to agree to his proposal bulldozer /'buldəʊzə/ noun a large powerful tractor with a curved plate in front for pushing or moving earth bullet /'bulɪt/ noun a piece of metal fired from a hand gun ○ He loaded his gun with bullets. ○ Two bullets had been fired.

bulletin /'bulɪtɪn/ noun information on a situation bulletin board /'bulɪtɪn bɔ:d/ noun 1. US a board on which notices can be placed (NOTE: The British term is noticeboard.) 2. (on the Internet) a system of sending messages or advertising events ○ She advertised the concert on the bulletin board.

bullet point /'bulɪt pɔɪnt/ noun a printed symbol before a word or other item in a list bullet-proof /'bulɪtpru:f/ adj made so that bullets cannot go through bulldog /'buldfɒl/ noun an entertainment in Spain, where a man fights a bull bulldogger /'buldfɑ:tə/ noun a man who fights bulls bulfinch /'bulfɪntʃ/ noun a small finch with red breast bulldog /'bulfrɒg/ noun a large frog bullion /'buliən/ noun gold or silver bars bullish /'buliʃ/ adj feeling that the stock market is likely to rise bull market /'bul'ma:kɪt/ noun a period when prices on the stock market rise as people buy shares because they think share prices will rise still further. Antonym bear market bullock /'bulək/ noun a young castrated bull bull's eye /'bulz aɪ/ noun 1. the centre of the target which you try to hit in sports such as archery, darts or rifle shooting ○ This target is not easy, the bull's eye is very small. 2. a direct hit in the centre of a target ○ No one scored a bull's eye. 3. a large striped peppermint sweet ○ He bought a packet of bull's eyes.

bully /'buli/ noun a person who hurts or is unkind to weaker people (dated) ○ He's a bully and is always trying to frighten smaller children. Synonym tormentor (NOTE: The plural is bullies.) ■ verb to be unkind to someone who is weaker ○ She was bullied by the other children in school. Synonym intimidate (NOTE: bullying – bullied) bum /bʌm/ (informal) noun 1. a person's bottom ○ He just sits on his bum all day, doing nothing. 2. US a person who sits around doing nothing ○ Can't you bums find something to do? 3. a person who is very keen on something ○ a ski bum ■ verb □ to bum something off someone to ask someone for something ○ He always trying to bum cigarettes off his friends. ○ Can I bum a cigarette?

bum bag /'bʌm bæg/ noun a small bag attached to a belt for keeping valuables in bumblebee /'bʌmb(ə)bi:/ noun a large brown furry bee bumbling /'bʌmblɪŋ/ adj confused and inefficient (informal) bumf /'bʌmf/ noun paper, usually useless documents ○ What's all this pile of bumf on my desk?

③ bump /bʌmp/ noun 1. a slight knock ○ The boat hit the landing stage with a bump.

2. a raised place ○ Drive slowly, the road is full of bumps. 3. a raised place on your body, where something has hit it ○ He has a bump on the back of his head. ■ verb to hit something or a part of the body ○ He's crying because he bumped his head on the door.

bumper /'bʌmpə/ adj very large ○ a bumper crop of corn ○ We're publishing a bumper edition of children's stories. ○ Last year was a bumper year for sales of mobile phones. Synonym plentiful ■ noun a protective bar on the front and back of a car ○ He backed into a lamppost and dented the rear bumper. ○ There was a mile-long traffic jam with cars standing bumper-to-bumper.

bump into /'bʌmp 'intu:/ verb 1. to hit slightly ○ Be careful not to bump into the wall when you're reversing. 2. □ to bump into someone to meet someone by chance ○ I bumped into him at the station.

bump off /,bʌmp 'ɒf/ verb to murder someone (slang). Synonym kill bump start /'bʌmp stɑ:t/ verb to start a car engine when the battery is flat by putting it into gear and then pushing it ○ We bump started the car and drove to town to get a new battery. ■ noun the process of starting a car engine when the battery is flat by putting it into gear and then pushing it ○ Two passers-by gave me a bump start. Compare jump start bumpy /'bʌmpɪ/ adj not smooth (NOTE: bumpier – bumpiest)

③ bun /bʌn/ noun 1. a little round bread or cake ○ Hamburgers are made of minced beef fried and served in a bun. ○ The icing on these buns is too sweet. 2. hair tied up in a knot ○ She wears her hair in a bun.

② bunch /bʌntʃ/ noun 1. a group of things taken together ○ He carries a bunch of keys attached to his belt. ○ He brought her a bunch of flowers. ○ I work with a nice bunch of people. 2. several small fruits on the same stem ○ a bunch of grapes ○ a bunch of bananas □ the pick of the bunch the best out of the group 3. a group of people taken together ○ They're a nice bunch of people. ○ Bunches of people were waiting on street corners. ○ A bunch of racing cyclists came round the corner. (NOTE: The plural is bunches.) ■ verb to form a group ○ There were three candidates with excellent results, with the rest bunched together at the 50% mark.

bundle /'bʌnd(ə)/ noun a parcel of things wrapped up or tied up together ○ A bundle of clothes was all she possessed. ○ He produced a bundle of papers tied up with green string. ○ She left her clothes in a bundle on the floor. □ bundle of nerves a very nervous person (informal) ■ verb 1. to put things somewhere quickly without being careful ○ He bundled the papers into a drawer. ○ She bundled the children off to school. ○ The police bundled him into the back of their van. 2.

to sell a software programme at the same time as you sell hardware, both sold together at a special price ○ The word-processing package is bundled with the computer.

bung /bʌŋ/ noun something which is used to block a hole, as in a wine cask ■ verb to throw (informal) ○ Don't keep that paper – just bung it in the wastepaper basket.

② bungalow /'bʌŋgələʊ/ noun a house with only a ground floor bungee-jumping /'bʌndʒi: ,dʒʌmpɪŋ/ noun a sport which consists of jumping from a high point such as a bridge when attached by your ankles to a long elastic cable, so that instead of hitting the ground, you bounce up into the air bungle /'bʌŋg(ə)l/ verb to do something badly (informal) bungler /'bʌŋglə/ noun a person who has done a job badly (informal) bunion /'bʌnjən/ noun a swelling of the first joint of the big toe bunk /bʌŋk/ noun 1. a bed attached to a wall, especially in a ship ○ He climbed up into his bunk and fell asleep. ○ Do you want the top bunk or the bottom one? 2. □ to do a bunk to run away (informal) ○ As soon as they saw the police van, they did a bunk across some waste land.

bunk beds /'bʌŋk bedz/ plural noun two beds one on top of the other, with a ladder to climb to the top one ○ We put the children in bunk beds because they take up less space.

bunker /'bʌŋkə/ noun 1. a room with especially strong walls, often underground ○ The soldiers defended the bunker for several days. ○ As the enemy approached, the ministers hid in a bunker under the presidential palace. 2. an open pit filled with sand placed on a golf course to trap balls and make difficulties for the players

③ bunny /'bʌni/ noun a child's name for a rabbit (informal) (NOTE: The plural is bunnies.)

Bunsen burner /,bʌnsən 'bɜ:neɪ/ noun a piece of equipment with a small gas flame, used in laboratories bunting /'bʌntɪŋ/ noun 1. a type of small singing bird (NOTE: The plural is buntings.) 2. strings of small flags ○ They draped bunting across the front of the building. (NOTE: no plural in this meaning) buoy /'bɔɪ/ noun a floating marker in the sea, or in a lake or river ○ Light buoys show the harbour's entrance at night. ○ The canoes will race around the buoys at the end of the lake. ■ verb □ to buoy someone up to cheer someone up ○ A win in the quarter-finals kept the fans buoyed up.

buoyancy /'bɔɪənsi/ noun the quality of being able to float buoyant /'bɔɪənt/ adj 1. which can float easily, which helps something float easily ○ The raft became waterlogged and was no longer buoyant. ○ Salt water is more buoyant than fresh water. 2. full of confidence ○ She left the meeting in a very buoyant mood.

burble /'bɔ:b(ə)l/ noun a low continuous sound ○ The burble of little children playing in the garden. ■ verb to make a low continuous sound ○ The brook burbled softly outside the window.

③ burden /'bɔ:dn/ noun 1. a heavy load ○ He relieved her of her burden. 2. something hard to bear ○ I think he finds running the office at his age something of a burden. □ to make someone's life a burden to make someone's life difficult bureau /'bjʊərəʊəl/ noun 1. an office ○ He filed the report from the New York bureau. 2. an antique desk 3. US a chest of drawers ○ My socks are in the bureau in the bedroom. 4. US a section of a government department (NOTE: The plural is bureaux /'bjʊərəʊəl/.)

bureaucracy /bjʊə'rɒkrəsi/ noun 1. a group of officials working for central or local government, or for an international body ○ The investigation of complaints is in the hands of the local bureaucracy. 2. a complicated official system ○ Red tape and bureaucracy slow down charitable work. ○ I'm fed up with all this bureaucracy, just to get an export licence.

bureaucrat /'bjʊərəkræt/ noun a person who runs an office or government department. Synonym official bureaucratic /bjʊərə'krætɪk/ adj referring to official systems and processes bureau de change /,bjʊərəʊ də 'ʃənʒ/ noun an office where you can change foreign money (NOTE: The plural is bureaux de change.)

burgeoning /'bɔ:dʒənɪŋ/ adj growing fast burgh /'bərəl/ noun same as borough (Scotland)

③ burglar /'bɔ:gla/ noun a person who tries to get into a building to steal. Synonym thief burglar alarm /'bɔ:gler ə,la:m/ noun a piece of equipment which makes a loud noise if someone enters a building illegally burglary /'bɔ:gləri/ noun a robbery by a burglar. Synonym break-in burgle /'bɔ:g(ə)l/ verb to enter a building and steal things from it. Synonym rob burgundy /'bɔ:gəndi/ noun 1. red and white wine from Burgundy in the central part of France ○ Would you prefer a white or a red burgundy with your quails? 2. a dark red colour ○ Burgundy is not a colour I would choose for a car. ■ adj dark red ○ Is this burgundy sports car yours?

③ burial /'beriəl/ noun a ceremony of burying a dead person burial ground /'beriəl graʊnd/ noun a piece of land where people are buried when they are dead. Synonym cemetery burly /'bɔ:li/ adj (of a person) strong and solid. Synonym bwawny (NOTE: burlier – burliest) ① burn /bɔ:n/ noun 1. a burnt area of the skin or a surface ○ She had burns on her face and hands. ○ There's a burn on the edge of the table where he left his cigarette. 2. (in Scotland) a small river ■ verb 1. to damage or destroy by fire or by heat ○ All our clothes were burnt in the hotel fire. ○ She burnt her finger on the hot frying pan. ○ The hotel was burnt to the ground last year. ○ The sun and wind burnt his face. □ look, you've burnt the bacon you've cooked the bacon so much that it is black □ to burn the candle at both ends to work much too hard (informal) ○ He gets up early to go to the office, and comes home late – he's burning the candle at both ends. □ to have or get your fingers burnt to suffer a loss ○ He got his fingers burnt in the American legal case. □ he's burnt his boats or his bridges he can't go back now 2. to be on fire ○ The firemen were called to the burning school. 3. to use as a fuel ○ The cooker burns gas.

burn down /,bɔ:n/ verb 1. to destroy something completely by fire ○ They were playing with matches and burnt the house down. 2. to be destroyed completely by fire ○ The building had burnt down before the firemen arrived.

burner /'bɔ:nə/ noun a piece of equipment with a flame for heating something □ to put something on the back burner to delay dealing with something ○ All decisions about the project have been put on the back burner.

burning /'bɔ:nɪŋ/ adj 1. very hot ○ The baby must have a temperature – his face is burning. ○ Careful, the pan is burning hot. 2. painful, as though being touched by something hot ○ She had a burning pain in her left eye. 3. very keen ○ He had a burning desire to go to Egypt. 4. □ burning question an important matter, which is likely to cause a lot of argument ○ Who will be the new mayor, that is the burning question at the moment.

burn out /,bɔ:n/ verb 1. to destroy the inside completely by fire ○ The restaurant was completely burnt out. 2. □ to burn yourself out to work so hard that you cannot work any more ○ She burnt herself out setting up her own business.

③ burnt /bɔ:nt/ adj black with fire burnt-out /,bɔ:nt 'aut/ adj completely tired physically or emotionally through too much hard work, stress, or fast living burp /bɜ:p/ noun the noise when bringing up air from the stomach. ○ When the baby stops drinking, pat him gently on the back until he makes a burp. ■ verb 1. to make a burp. ○ There is nothing like a fizzy drink to make you burp. 2. □ to burp a baby to make a baby burp by gently patting on the back. ○ Have you burped the baby yet?

burrow /'bərəʊ/ noun a rabbit hole. ○ The rabbits all popped down into their burrow when we came near. ■ verb to dig underground. ○ Moles have burrowed under the lawn.

bursar /'bɜ:sə/ noun a person in charge of the finances of a school or college.

bursary /'bɜ:sɪəri/ noun money given to some students to help them pay for their studies.

① burst /bɜ:st/ noun 1. a sudden loud sound. ○ There was a burst of gunfire and then silence. ○ Bursts of laughter came from the office. 2. a sudden effort or activity. ○ He put on a burst of speed. ○ In one of her periodical bursts of efficiency she sorted out the old stock. ■ verb to explode suddenly. ○ A water main burst in the High Street. ○ When she picked up the balloon it burst. □ the river burst its banks the river flooded. □ to be bursting at the seams to be very full, not to have any more space. ○ The schools are bursting at the seams.

bursting /'bɜ:stɪŋ/ adj 1. eager to say something. ○ He was bursting to tell everyone the news. 2. full of an emotion. ○ She was bursting with pride at her children's success.

burst into /'bɜ:st intu:/ verb 1. to enter unexpectedly, in a rush. ○ She burst into the meeting waving a bundle of papers. 2. to start to do something suddenly. ○ She opened the letter and burst into tears. ○ The building burst into flames.

burst out /,bɜ:st 'aut/ verb 1. to suddenly start. ○ She burst out laughing. 2. to say something loudly. ○ He burst out into a string of insults. 3. to leave quickly. ○ She burst out of the shop, and started running down the street.

bury /'beri/ verb to put into the ground. ○ He was buried in the local cemetery. ○ Squirrels often bury nuts in the autumn. □ to bury your face in your hands to hide your face in your hands, because you are embarrassed or sad. □ to bury your head in the sand to pretend that a danger or problem does not exist. (informal) □ to bury the hatchet to make peace with someone after an argument.

① bus /bʌs/ noun a large motor vehicle which carries passengers. ○ He goes to work by bus. ○ She takes the 8 o'clock bus to school every morning. ○ We missed the last bus and had to walk home. ○ The number 6 bus goes to Oxford Street.

busboy /'bʌsboɪ/ noun US a boy or young man who helps a waiter in a restaurant by clearing dishes, bringing water, etc.

② bush /bʊʃ/ noun 1. a small tree. ○ An animal was moving in the bushes. ○ A holly bush with red berries. (NOTE: The plural is bushes.) 2. □ the bush (in Africa, India, etc.) land covered with bushes or low trees. ○ They walked through the bush for several days before finding a village.

bushel /'bʊʃ(ə)l/ noun a measure of dry goods, such as grain (equal to 56 pounds).

bush telegraph /bʊʃ 'telɪgra:f/ noun information which is passed by people talking to each other, usually on the phone (informal).

bushy /'buʃi/ adj (of hair) growing thickly. Synonym luxuriant. Antonym sparse (NOTE: bushier – bushiest) busily /'bɪzɪlɪ/ adv in a busy way. Synonym actively. Antonym lazily.

① business /'bɪznɪs/ noun 1. an occupation or trade, the work of buying or selling things. ○ She works in the electricity business. ○ They do a lot of business with France. □ on business working. ○ The sales director is in Holland on business. 2. a company. ○ She runs a photography business. ○ He runs a secondhand car business. (NOTE: The plural is businesses.) 3. an affair or concern. □ it's none of your business it's nothing to do with you.

business card /'bɪznɪs ka:d/ noun a card showing a businessman's name and the name and address of the company he works for.

business class /'bɪznɪs klas/ noun travel which is less expensive than first class.

business hours /'bɪznɪs aʊəz/ plural noun the time when a business is open, usually 9 a.m. to 5.30 p.m. (NOTE: The plural in this meaning is businesses.)

businesslike /'bɪznɪslɪk/ adj practical and efficient.

businessman /'bɪznɪsmæn/ noun a man who is engaged in business, or who runs a business. (NOTE: The plural is businessmen.)

business park /'bɪznɪs pa:k/ noun a group of small offices or small industrial buildings built together.

businessperson /'bɪznɪs,pɜ:s(ə)n/ noun a person who works in business, or who runs a business.

business plan /'bɪznɪs plæn/ noun a plan of the future development of a business.

business woman /'bɪznɪs ,womən/ noun a woman who is engaged in business, or who runs a business. (NOTE: The plural is businesswomen.)

busk /bʌsk/ verb to entertain people in the street.

busker /'bʌskə/ noun a person who sings or plays a musical instrument, to entertain people in the street busking /'bʌskɪŋ/ noun the practice of singing or playing a musical instrument to entertain people in the street bus lane /'bʌs leɪn/ noun a part of a road where only buses may go busman's holiday /,bʌsmənз 'hɒlɪdeɪ/ noun spare time which is spent doing something similar to your normal job (informal) bus pass /'bʌs pɑ:s/ noun a special ticket allowing you to use a bus at a cheaper rate, or without paying at all bus shelter /'bʌs 'seltə/ noun a construction with a roof where you can wait for a bus bus station /bʌs 'steɪʃ(ə)n/, coach station /kəʊtʃ 'steɪʃ(ə)n/ noun a place where coaches or buses begin or end their journeys

① bus stop /'bʌs stop/ noun a place where a bus stops and passengers can get on or off bust /bʌst/ noun 1. a sculpture of the head and shoulders ○ Have you seen the bust of the Prime Minister? 2. a woman's breasts ■ adj (informal) 1. broken ○ The washing machine's bust. 2. □ to go bust to fail, to be bankrupt ○ Thousands of people lost their savings when the bank went bust. ■ verb to break (informal) ○ She's bust my precious vase! ○ He hit the ball hard and it bust a window. (NOTE: busting – busted or bust) bustle /'bʌst(ə)l/ noun 1. a situation where people are hurrying around ○ It's nice to sit quietly at home after the bustle of the office.

2. a pad at the back of a Victorian dress ■ verb to hurry around doing things ○ She bustled around the kitchen getting dinner ready.

bustling /'bʌst(ə)lɪŋ/ adj very busy bust-up /,bʌst 'ʌp/ noun (informal) 1. the breaking up of something such as a relationship or an organisation 2. a fight or bad argument

① busy /'bɪzi/ adj working on something, doing something ○ He was busy mending the dishwasher. ○ I was too busy to phone my aunt. ○ The busiest time for shops is the week before Christmas. □ the line's busy at the moment someone is using the phone line □ the street is busy a street is full of pedestrians and traffic ■ verb □ to busy yourself with something to occupy yourself, to keep yourself busy doing something ○ My sister likes to busy herself with the garden now she's retired.

busybody /'bɪzibɒdi/ noun a person who is too interested in what other people do (informal) (NOTE: The plural is busybodies.)

① but /bʌt, bət/ conj coming before a contrast ○ He is very tall, but his wife is quite short. ○ We would like to come to your party, but we're doing something else that evening.

○ I'm sorry, but there are no seats left. ■ prep except ○ Everyone but me is allowed to go to the cinema. ○ They had eaten nothing but apples. ■ adv only ○ This is but one of his mistakes. ○ We can but try.

butane /'bju:tæn/ noun a gas made from petroleum, used for heating and cooking and sold in special containers butch /bʊtʃ/ adj (of a woman) not appearing to be very feminine

③ butcher /'butʃə/ noun a man who prepares and sells meat ○ Ask the butcher to prepare the pheasants for you. ■ verb to kill violently ○ The soldiers set fire to the village and butchered the inhabitants.

butler /'bʊtlə/ noun the most important male servant in a house, who serves at table, especially dealing with wine butt /bʌt/ noun 1. a large container for water or wine ○ It has rained a lot lately and the rainwater butt is overflowing. 2. the end of a cigarette which has been smoked ○ He picked up old butts from the pavement. 3. the end of the handle of a gun which presses against the shoulder of the person firing it ○ The prisoners were beaten with rifle butts. 4. a person whom other people laugh at ○ He will always be the butt of their criticism if he doesn't dress any better. 5. a push with the head ○ The goat came up behind him and gave him a butt with its head. 6. US buttocks ○ to give someone a kick in the butt ■ verb to push with the head ○ The goat lowered its head and butted him.

① butter /'bʌtə/ noun a yellow fat made from cream, used on bread or for cooking ○ Could you pass the butter, please? ○ Don't spread the butter so thick. ○ Fry the mushrooms in butter. (NOTE: no plural: some butter; a knob of butter) ■ verb 1. to spread butter on something ○ She was busy buttering slices of bread for the sandwiches. 2. □ to butter someone up to flatter someone, to praise someone without really believing it to be true (informal) ○ Just butter up the boss a bit – tell him how good his golf is.

buttercup /'bʌtəkʌp/ noun a common yellow flower found in fields butter-fingers /'bʌtə ,fɪngəz/ noun a person who often drops things (informal)

③ butterfly /'bʌtəflaɪ/ noun 1. an insect with large brightly-coloured wings which comes out in daylight ○ Butterflies come out in the sunshine. 2. □ to have butterflies in the stomach to feel very nervous (informal) ○ She had butterflies in the stomach before the interview.

butterfly stroke /'bʌtəflaɪ strəʊk/ noun a style of swimming where the two arms are lifted forwards at the same time and pushed down into the water while kicking the legs buttermilk /'bʌtəmɪlk/ noun the thin milk left after butter has been made from cream butterscotch /'bʌtəskɒtʃ/ noun a sweet made from butter and sugar butt in /,bat 'ɪn/ verb to interrupt buttock /'bætək/ noun one of the sides of someone's buttocks buttocks /'bætəks/ plural noun the part of the body on which you sit ① button /'bʌt(ə)n/ noun 1. a little round disc for fastening clothes that you push through a buttonhole ○ The wind is cold – do up the buttons on your coat. ○ A button's come off my shirt. 2. a little round disc which you push to operate something such as a bell ○ Press the 'up' button to call the lift. ○ Push the red button to set off the alarm. ■ verb to fasten with buttons ○ He buttoned (up) his coat because it was cold.

button-down collar /,bʌt(ə)n daon 'kɒlə/ noun a shirt collar held down with a button at each point buttonhole /'bʌt(ə)nheʊl/ noun 1. a hole through which a button goes when it is fastened ○ You've put the button in the wrong buttonhole. 2. a flower worn in a little buttonhole on a collar ○ He wore a buttonhole to the office every day. ■ verb to stop someone and start talking to him (informal) button mushroom /'bʌt(ə)n ,mʌfju:mən/ noun a small round white mushroom butress /'bʌtrəs/ noun a wall or strong pillar built against another wall to support it ○ There are three buttresses on the side wall of the church. (NOTE: The plural is buttresses.) ■ verb to support ○ You'll need more evidence than that to buttress your argument. Synonym strengthen buxom /'bʌksəm/ adj (of a woman) plump and attractive (humorous) (NOTE: only used of women)

① buy /baɪ/ verb to get something by paying money ○ I bought a newspaper on my way to the station. ○ She's buying a flat. ○ She bought herself a pair of ski boots. ○ What did you buy your mother for her birthday? (NOTE: buying – bought /bɔ:t/) ■ noun something bought. Synonym purchase □ a good buy something which you have bought which is worth the money spent ○ That camera you bought was a very good buy.

② buyer /'baɪə/ noun a person who buys. Synonym purchaser buyer's market /'baɪəz ,ma:kɪt/ noun a market where products are sold cheaply because there are more sellers than buyers. Compare seller's market buy off /,baɪ 'ɒf/ verb □ to buy someone off to pay someone not to do something ○ They were going to print the story in the local newspaper but we managed to buy them off.

buy out /,baɪ 'aʊt/ verb □ to buy someone out to buy a partner's share in a business ○ The co-founder of the firm bought out the other shareholders.

buyout /'baɪəut/ noun same as takeover buy up /,baɪ 'ʌp/ verb to buy a large quantity of something buzz /bʌz/ noun 1. a noise like the noise made by a bee ○ I can hear a buzz but I can't see the bee. ○ The buzz of an electric saw in the garden next door. 2. a feeling of excitement ○ She gets a buzz from skiing fast downhill. 3. a telephone call ○ Give me a buzz tomorrow. (NOTE: The plural is buzzes.) ■ verb 1. to make a noise like a bee ○ Wasps were buzzing round the jam. 2. (of aircraft) to fly close to another aircraft to force it to go away ○ The plane was buzzed by enemy fighters and forced to land.

buzzard /'bʌzəd/ noun a large bird of prey buzzer /'bʌzə/ noun a piece of equipment which buzzes as a signal of something buzz off /,bʌz 'ɒf/ verb to go away (informal) buzzword /'bʌzwɜ:d/ noun a word which is frequently used (informal). Synonym slogan

① by /baɪ/ prep 1. near ○ The house is just by the bus stop. ○ Sit down here by me. 2. before, not later than ○ They should have arrived by now. ○ You must be home by eleven o'clock. ○ It must be finished by Friday. 3. showing means or way ○ Send the parcel by airmail. ○ Get in touch with the office by phone. ○ They came by car. ○ She caught a cold by standing in the rain. ○ You make buck's fizz by adding champagne to orange juice. ○ She paid by cheque, not by credit card. 4. showing the person or thing that did something ○ A painting by Van Gogh. ○ 'Hamlet' is a play by Shakespeare. ○ A CD recorded by our local group. ○ The postman was bitten by the dog. ○ She was knocked down by a car. 5. □ by yourself alone ○ Don't sit at home all by yourself. ○ She made the hat all by herself. ○ Can you find your way to the station by yourself? 6. showing how much ○ We sell tomatoes by the kilo. ○ Eggs are sold by the dozen. ○ Prices have been increased by 5%. ○ They won by 4 goals to 2. 7. showing the size of something ○ The table is 60cm long by 25 wide. ■ adv 1. past ○ She drove by without seeing us. 2. □ by and large in general ○ By and large, the trains run on time. □ by far very much ○ A bike is by far the cheapest way to travel round London. ○ Of all small cars, this one uses by far the least amount of petrol. Synonym considerably

bye¹ /baɪ/ noun (in cricket) a run scored without the batsman having hit the ball □ to have a bye (in sport) to pass to the next round of a competition without having to play

① bye² /baɪ/, bye-bye /baɪ 'baɪ/ interj goodbye

byelaw /'baɪlɔ:/, by-law noun 1. a rule or law made by a local authority or public body but not by central government ○ A local byelaw says that this path is a public right of way. ○ Byelaws must be made by bodies which have been authorised by Parliament. 2. one of a set of rules for running a club ○ According to the byelaws, the president is elected for three years only.

by-election /'baɪ ɪ,lekʃən/ noun an election for Parliament when an MP has died or retired. Antonym general bygone /'baɪgɒn/ adj belonging to the past ○ A painting of a bygone age. Synonym past. Antonym future ■ noun □ to let bygones be bygones to ignore something unpleasant that happened in the past ○ After ten years of not speaking to each other they finally decided to let bygones be bygones.

by-line /'baɪ laɪn/ noun the line at the beginning or end of an article in a newspaper, giving the name of the journalist who wrote it bypass /'baɪpɑ:s/ noun a road round a town ○ Take the bypass if you want to avoid congestion in the town centre. ■ verb to go round a town, avoiding the centre ○ It would be better if you could bypass the town centre on market day. ○ The main road bypasses the town centre.

by-product /'baɪ ,prɒdʌkt/ noun a product made as a result of manufacturing a main product. Synonym side effect bystander /'baɪstændə/ noun a person near where something is happening. Synonym onlooker. Antonym participant byte /baɪt/ noun a group of eight bits which a computer operates on as a single unit (NOTE: usually used in compounds kilo-byte, megabyte, etc. Do not confuse with bite.)

byway /'baɪweɪ/ noun an unimportant road byword /'baɪwɜ:d/ noun 1. somebody or something well-known for representing a particular quality 2. a word or phrase which is in common use

C

c /si:/, C noun the third letter of the alphabet, between B and D

C symbol carbon ■ abbr Celsius cab /kæb/ noun 1. a taxi, a car which takes people from one place to another for money

○ He took a cab to the airport. ○ She whistled for a cab. ○ Can you phone for a cab, please? ○ The office is only a short cab ride from the railway station. ○ Cab fares are very high in New York. 2. a separate part of a large vehicle for a driver ○ The truck driver climbed into his cab and started the engine.

cabaret /'kæbəreɪt/ noun entertainment given in a restaurant or club, with dancing and singing cabbage /'kæbɪdʒ/ noun a vegetable with large pale green or red leaves which you eat cab driver /'kæb ,draɪvə/, cabbie /'kæbi/ noun the driver of a taxi cabin /'kæbɪn/ noun 1. a small room on a ship ○ We booked a first-class cabin on the cruise. ○ She felt sick and went to lie down in her cabin. 2. a small hut ○ He has a cabin by a lake where he goes fishing. 3. the inside of an aircraft ○ The aircraft is divided into three separate cabins. ○ The first-class cabin is in the front of the plane.

cabin crew /'kæbɪn kru:/ plural noun the people who look after the passengers on a plane

② cabinet /'kæbɪnət/ noun 1. a piece of furniture with shelves ○ a china cabinet 2. a committee formed of the most important members of a government ○ The cabinet met at 10 o'clock this morning. ○ There's a cabinet meeting every Tuesday morning.

cabinetmaker /'kæbɪnət,meɪkə/ noun a woodworker who makes fine furniture cabinet minister /'kæbɪnət ,mɪnɪstə/ noun a minister who is also a member of the cabinet. ♦ Prime Minister (NOTE: In the UK and USA, Ministers are also called secretaries: the Foreign Secretary, Secretary for Commerce.)

③ cable /'keɪb(ə)l/ noun 1. a wire for carrying electricity ○ He ran a cable out into the garden so that he could use his lawnmower.

2. a thick rope or wire ○ The ship was attached to the quay by cables. 3. a wire for sending messages underground or under the sea ○ They've been digging up the pavements to lay cables. 4. a telegram ○ He sent a cable to his office asking for more money. ■ verb to send a telegram ○ He cabled his office to ask them to send more money.

③ cable car /'keɪb(ə)l ka:/ noun 1. a vehicle which goes up a mountain, hanging from a wire ○ Ten people were killed when the cable car fell to the floor of the valley. 2. US (in San Francisco) a type of tram which is pulled by a metal cable set in a channel in the road ○ We took the cable car down to Fisherman's Wharf.

cable television /,keɪb(ə)l telɪ'veɪz(ə)n/, cable TV /,keɪb(ə)l tɪ:vɪ/ noun a television system where the signals are sent along underground cables cacao /kə'kəʊ/ noun a tropical tree, whose seeds are used to make cocoa and chocolate cache /kæʃ/ noun a hidden store ○ The police found a cache of explosives in the shed. ■ verb to file or store something ○ This program can cache any size of font. (NOTE: Do not confuse with cash.)

cackle /'kæk(ə)l/ noun 1. the noise made by hens □ to cut the cackle to stop talking (slang) ○ Let's cut the cackle and get down to business. 2. a little high-pitched laugh ■ verb 1. to chatter 2. to make a little high-pitched laugh cacophony /kə'kɒfəni/ noun an unpleasant mixture of loud sounds. Synonym discord cactus /'kæktəs/ noun a plant which grows in the desert (NOTE: The plural is cactuses or cacti /'kæktaɪ/.)

CAD /kæd/ abbr computer-aided design cadaverous /kə'dævərəs/ adj looking like a dead body caddie /'kædi/ noun a person who carries the clubs for a golfer ○ Some of the best golf professionals started as caddies. Synonym assistant ■ verb □ to caddie for someone to carry a golfer's clubs ○ My nephew is going to caddie for me this weekend.

caddy /'kædi/ noun 1. a little box for keeping loose tea 2. same as caddie (NOTE: The plural is caddies.)

cadenza /kə'denzə/ noun a complicated section for an instrument in the middle of concerto or symphony cadet /kə'det/ noun a young person training for the armed services or the police force. Synonym trainee cadge /kædʒ/ verb to try to get something without having to pay for it (informal) cadmium /'kædmiəm/ noun a grey metal which can be poisonous to humans caesarean /sɪ'zeəriən/, caesarean section /sɪ'zeəriən, ˌsekʃən/ noun an operation to deliver a baby by cutting through the abdominal wall into the uterus café /'kæfeɪ/ noun a small restaurant selling light meals ○ We had a snack in the station café.

cafeteria /,kæfə'tɪriə/ noun a self-service restaurant cafetiere /,kæfə'tjeə/ noun a coffee pot where you push down a filter to make the coffee caffeine /'kæfi:n/ noun an alkaloid found in coffee, chocolate and tea which acts as a stimulant. ▶ decaffeinated

③ cage /keɪdʒ/ noun a box made of wire or with metal bars for keeping birds or animals so they cannot get out ○ The rabbit got out of its cage. ■ verb to keep in a cage ○ He's pac ing about like a caged lion.

caged /keɪdʒd/ adj kept in a cage or prison cagier /'keɪdʒɪə/ adj not wanting to share a secret (informal). Synonym wary. Antonym reckless (NOTE: cagier – cagiest) cagoule /kə'gu:l/ noun a lightweight waterproof anorak with a hood cahoots /kə'hu:ts/ noun (informal) □ to be in cahoots with someone to work with someone against another person ○ I think she's in cahoots with the drugs gang.

cairn /keən/ noun a pile of stones to mark an important spot cajole /kə'dʒəʊl/ verb □ to cajole someone into doing something to persuade someone to do something ○ It is unbelievable – she managed to cajole him into paying for her trip to Bermuda.

② cake /keɪk/ noun 1. food made by mixing flour, eggs and sugar, and baking it ○ a piece of cherry cake ○ She had six candles on her birthday cake. ○ Have another slice of Christmas cake. ○ Would you like some chocolate cake? □ it's a piece of cake it's very easy (slang) ○ The exam was a piece of cake – I finished it in half-an-hour! □ you can't have your cake and eat it you can't benefit from two opposing things 2. a small piece of something ○ a cake of soap 3. food made by mixing ingredients together into small round pieces which are then fried ○ A meal of fishcakes and chips. ■ verb to dry and form a hard crust on something caked /keɪkt/ adj covered with something that has become dry and hard ○ His boots were caked with mud.

cake mix /'keɪk mɪks/ noun the main ingredients for a cake which are bought ready mixed in a packet calamity /kə'læmɪti/ noun a disaster (NOTE: The plural is calamities.)

calcify /'kælsɪfaɪ/ verb to turn something into calcium or lime

③ calcium /'kælsiəm/ noun a chemical element which is found in different forms, e.g. in chalk rocks, shells, bones and teeth, water, milk and some plants, and is an important part of a balanced diet ○ Their diet has a calcium deficiency or is deficient in calcium.

② calculate /'kælkjʊleɪt/ verb to find the answer to a problem using numbers ○ The bank clerk calculated the rate of exchange for the dollar. ○ I calculate that we have enough money left for a meal. ○ He calculated that it would take us six hours to get to Madrid. Synonym work out calculated /'kælkjuleɪtɪd/ adj deliberate. Synonym intended. Antonym spontaneous □ a calculated insult an insult which was made on purpose calculated risk /,kælkjuleɪtɪd 'rɪsk/ noun a risk which you think you can take calculating /'kælkjuleɪtɪŋ/ adj who makes clever plans in a careful way and thinks about all the possible results

② calculation /,kælkjju'leɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the act of calculating ○ According to my calculations, we have enough fuel left to do only twenty kilometres. □ rough calculation a quick calculation which may not give an exactly correct answer to a problem using numbers ○ I made some rough calculations on the back of an envelope.

③ calculator /'kælkjuleɪtə/ noun a machine for doing calculations calculus /'kælkjʊləs/ noun 1. a part of mathematics which is the way of calculating varying rates ○ Calculus is now taught in sixth forms. 2. a hard mass like a little piece of stone, which forms inside the body calendar /'kælɪndə/ noun a paper showing the days and months of the year calendar month /'kælɪndə mənθ/ noun a month from the first day to the last calendar year /'kælɪndə jɪə/ noun the twelve months from January 1st to December 31st

③ calf /kɑ:f/ noun 1. a young cow or bull ○ The cow stood in a corner of the field with her two calves. 2. the young of some animals such as elephants or seals ○ The beach was covered with young seal calves. 3. (of a person) the back part of the leg between the ankle and the knee (NOTE: The plural is calves /kævz/. The meat from a calf is veal.)

calibrate /'kælibreɪt/ verb to mark the degrees or measurements on a scale. Synonym standardise

calibre /'kælbɪə/ noun 1. the measurement across the inside of a gun barrel ○ The two bullets come from same calibre guns. 2. a quality or ability which something or someone has, particularly when it is of a high standard ○ It's work which he thinks is beneath a person of his calibre. (NOTE: [all senses] The US spelling is caliber.)

① call /kɔ:l/ noun 1. a telephone conversation, or an attempt to get in touch with someone by telephone ○ Were there any calls for me while I was out? □ to make a call to dial and speak to someone on the telephone ○ She wants to make a (phone) call to Australia. □ to take a call to answer the telephone 2. a telephone call or shout to wake someone ○ He asked for an early morning call. □ I want a call at 7 o'clock I want someone to wake me at 7 o'clock 3. a visit ○ The doctor made three calls on patients this morning. □ on call available for duty 4. the song of a bird ○ That's the call of the nightingale. 5. need ○ There's no call for anyone to be alarmed. ■ verb 1. to say something loudly to someone who is some distance away, to tell someone to come ○ Call the children when it's time for tea. □ call me at 7 o'clock wake me up at 7 □ to call a taxi to shout to a taxi to come 2. to give someone or something a name ○ Our cat's called Felix. ○ They're going to call the baby Sam. ○ His name is John but everyone calls him Jack. ○ What do you call this computer programme? 3. to telephone ○ If he comes back, tell him I'll call him when I'm in the office. ○ Mr Smith is out – shall I ask him to call you back? ○ Call the police – the shop has been burgled! ○ Can you call me a cab, please? 4. to visit ○ The doctor called at the house, but there was no one there. ○ The whole family called round to see if she was better.

③ callbox /'kɔ:lbɒks/ noun a public telephone box (NOTE: The plural is callboxes.)

call centre /'kɔ:l 'sentrə/ noun a business that deals with all the telephone calls that people make to a large organisation, e.g. a bank caller /'kɔ:lə/ noun 1. a person who comes to visit ○ She can't see any callers today. 2. a person who telephones ○ I picked up the phone and the caller asked for my father.

③ call for /'kɔ:l fɔ:l/ verb 1. □ to call for someone to go to someone's house to meet them and then go somewhere together ○ He called for me to take me to the theatre. 2. to need a particular skill or ability ○ Rescuing people with a helicopter calls for particular flying skills.

calligraphy /kæ'ligrəfi/ noun the art of beautiful handwriting, using a special pen

call in /,kɔ:l 'ɪn/ verb 1. to ask somebody to come and give advice or help 2. to telephone a place of work in order to collect or leave a message 3. to ask for a sum of money to be paid back 4. to arrange for or request that something be returned, e.g. goods that are not suitable for sale 5. to make a short visit to somebody, especially without making an arrangement first calling /'kɔ:lin/ noun a job which someone does because they have a strong feeling that they should do it, especially because it will help other people. Synonym vocation

③ call off /,kɔ:l 'ɒf/ verb to decide not to do something which had been planned. Synonym cancel

③ call on /'kɔ:l ɒn/ verb 1. to visit someone ○ She called on her mother to see how she was. 2. to ask someone to do something ○ The police have called on everyone to watch out for the escaped prisoner.

callous /'kæləs/ adj hard, unfeeling. Synonym heartless. Antonym warm-hearted

call out /,kɔ:l 'aʊt/ verb 1. to ask a person or an organisation to give help 2. to tell workers to stop work to show they have an official disagreement with the management of the business 3. to challenge somebody to a duel or fight 4. to ask somebody, e.g. a doctor or someone whose job is to repair things, to come to your house and deal with an emergency callow /'kæləʊ/ adj young and with not much experience of life. Synonym inexperienced

call sign /'kɔ:l sain/ noun letters or words which identify a radio station ③ call up /,kɔ:l 'ʌp/ verb to tell someone to join the army, navy or air force ○ Thousands of men were called up at the beginning of the war.

call-up /'kɔ:l ʌp/ noun an order to join the army. Synonym conscription callus /'kæləs/ noun a hard area of skin on your body (NOTE: The plural is calluses.)

call waiting /,kɔ:l 'wεɪtɪŋ/ noun a service offered by a telephone company that allows somebody to answer an additional call from someone without losing their connection to the current call

② calm /kæm/ adj quiet, not rough or excited ○ The sea was perfectly calm and no one was seasick. ○ Keep calm, everything will be all right. Synonym tranquil. Antonym agitated (NOTE: calmer – calmest) ■ noun a period of quiet ○ The calm of the Sunday afternoon was broken by the sound of jazz from the house next door. ■ verb to make someone, or a situation, more peaceful □ to calm down to make someone quieter; to become quieter and less annoyed ○ She stroked his hand to try to calm him down. ○ After shouting for some minutes he finally calmed down.

calmly /'kæ:mli/ adv quietly, in a way that is not excited calmness /'kæ:mnəs/ noun the state of being quiet and calm. Synonym serenity. Antonym restlessness calorie /'kæləri/ noun 1. a unit of measurement of energy in food ○ She's counting calories to try to lose weight. ○ There are 250 calories in a pint of beer. 2. same as joule calorific /,kælə'rifɪk/ adj 1. of heat 2. containing many calories, and so likely to make you fat calyx /'keɪlɪks/ noun the outer green covering of a flower, shaped like a cup, the part which covers a flower bud (NOTE: The plural is calyces or calyxes.)

cam /kæm/ noun a moving part on a cam-shaft, which makes the pistons move up and down camber /'kæmbə/ noun a slope towards the side of a road or railway track (technical) camcorder /'kæmkɔ:də/ noun a small portable camera for taking video pictures with sound

① came /keɪm/ □ come camel /'kæm(ə)l/ noun a desert animal with long legs and one or two humps camellia /'kæmiliə/ noun an evergreen bush with large pink or white flowers cameo /'kæmiə/ noun 1. a small stone with a design of a head which stands out against a darker background ○ For her birthday, she was given a pair of cameo earrings and a matching brooch. 2. a small but important part in a play or film ○ The film is worth seeing if only for the cameo role played by Gielgud.

② camera /'kæm(ə)rə/ noun 1. a machine for taking photographs ○ He took a picture of the garden with his new camera. ○ They went on holiday and forgot to take their camera. ○ Did you remember to put a film in your camera? 2. □ in camera in private (legal) ○ The court heard the evidence in camera.

cameraman /'kæm(ə)rəmæn/ noun the main film camera operator who is in charge of the lighting and filming of a shot (NOTE: The plural is cameramen.)

camomile /'kæməmɔɪl/ noun a sweet-smelling plant, of which the white and yellow flowers are used for making hot drinks camouflage /'kæməfla:ʒ/ noun 1. a method of using coloured shapes or things such as branches or grass to hide something

○ We used camouflage to hide the guns. 2. the colours or patterns which some animals have on their skin and which makes them look similar to the area around them ○ A leopard's spots are a form of camouflage which makes the animal less easy to see in long grass. ■ verb to hide the shape of something by using colours or patterns ○ The soldiers camouflaged the gun position with branches of trees.

② camp /kæmp/ noun a place where people live in tents or small buildings in the open air ○ We set up camp halfway up the mountain. ■ verb to spend a holiday or a period of time in a tent ○ We go camping in Sweden every summer. ○ They had camped by the side of the lake.

① campaign /kæm'peɪn/ noun 1. an organised military attack ○ Napoleon's Russian campaign of 1812 2. an organised attempt to achieve something ○ A publicity campaign or an advertising campaign. ○ He's organising a campaign against the new motorway. ○ The government's anti-smoking campaign isn't working. ■ verb 1. to take part in a war ○ The ladies stayed at home while the knights were away campaigning against the French. 2. to work in an organised way to achieve something ○ campaigning for the banning of landmines ○ to campaign against nuclear reactors campaigner /kæm'peɪnə/ noun a person who campaigns. Synonym activist camp bed /kæmp 'bed/ noun a light folding bed (NOTE: The US term is cot) camper /'kæmpə/ noun a person who goes camping camper van /'kæmpə væn/, camper /'kæmpə/ noun a motor vehicle which you can live in on holidays, smaller than a motor caravan camp fire /'kæmp faɪə/ noun a small outdoor fire at a camp

③ camping /'kæmpɪŋ/ noun the activity of going on holiday with a tent or caravan campsite /'kæmpsait/ noun an area for camping, often including buildings with toilets and showers campus /'kæmpəs/ noun land on which a university or college is built, and the buildings on it. Synonym grounds □ to live on campus to live in a students' residence ○ All students live on campus during their first year at university.

camshaft /'kæmʃa:f/ noun a metal bar with several cams on it, which lift pistons one by one

① can /kæn/ noun 1. a round metal container for food or drink ○ He opened a can of lemonade. ○ Empty beer cans were all over the pavement. ○ Can you open a can of beans? (NOTE: British English also uses tin to mean a container of food, but not of drink.) 2. □ to carry the can for something to take responsibility or blame for something (informal) ○ They all ran away and left me to carry the can. ■ modal verb 1. to be able to do something ○ He can swim well but he can't ride a bike. ○ She can't run as fast as I can. ○ Can you remember what the doctor told us to do? ○ I can't bear to watch any longer. 2. to be allowed to do something ○ Children under 18 can't drive cars. ○ He says we can go in. ○ The policeman says we can't park here. 3. to ask politely ○ Can we come in, please? ○ Can you shut the door, please? (NOTE: The negative is cannot, usually can't. The past tense is could, could not, usually couldn't. Can and could are only used with other verbs, and are not followed by the word to.) ■ verb to put food in cans ○ The town has a factory where they can sardines. (NOTE: canning – canned)

① Canadian /kə'neɪdiən/ adj referring to Canada ○ His mother is Canadian and so is he. ○ She is a Canadian citizen. ○ The ticket costs 250 Canadian dollars. ■ noun a person from Canada ○ How many Canadians are there living in London?

canal /kə'næl/ noun 1. an artificial river made to allow boats to go from one place to another ○ You can take a boat trip round the canals of Amsterdam. 2. a tube in the body ○ He is studying the alimentary canal.

canapé /'kænəpē/ noun a small piece of food such as bread with cheese or meat on top, often served with drinks canary /kə'næri/ noun a small yellow singing bird

② cancel /'kænsəl/ verb 1. to stop something which has been planned ○ The singer was ill, so the show had to be cancelled. ○ There is no refund if you cancel less than three weeks before the date of departure. ○ The trip was cancelled because the weather was too bad. 2. to mark a postage stamp with a rubber stamp to show that it has been used (NOTE: canceling – cancelled but the US spelling is canceled – canceled) cancellation /,kænsə'lēf(ə)n/ noun 1. the act of cancelling something ○ Cancellations will be accepted until a week before departure. ○ A cancellation fee of £50 will be charged. 2. a seat, ticket or appointment which is available again because the person who bought it cannot use it ○ If we have a cancellation for next week I'll call and let you know.

② cancer /'kænsəl/ noun a serious disease in which cells grow in a way which is not normal

Cancer /'kænsəl/ noun one of the signs of the Zodiac, shaped like a crab, covering the period 22nd June to 22nd July cancerous /'kænsərəs/ adj referring to cancer candid /'kændɪd/ adj (of a person) direct or open, saying exactly what you think or feel. Synonym frank. Antonym guarded □ to be candid about something to be open about something ○ He's quite candid about his ambition to be president. □ to be candid to say exactly what you think or feel ○ To be candid, I don't like his novels at all.

candidacy /'kændɪdæsɪ/ noun the state of being a candidate

② candidate /'kændɪdæɪt/ noun 1. a person who applies for a job ○ There are six candidates for the post of assistant manager. ○ We have asked three candidates to come for an interview. 2. a person who is standing for election ○ She accompanied the candidate round the constituency. 3. a person who has entered for an examination ○ All candidates should answer three questions. ○ Candidates are given three hours to complete the exam.

candidature /'kændɪdætʃə/ noun the act of standing as a candidate candidly /'kændɪdli/ adv in a candid way

③ candle /'kænd(ə)l/ noun a stick of wax with a wick in the centre, which you light to make a flame. Synonym taper □ to burn the candle at both ends to work hard during the day and enjoy yourself late into the night candlelight /'kændlɪt/ noun the light given by candles candlelit /'kænd(ə)lɪt/ adj lit by candles candlestick /'kænd(ə)lɪstɪk/ noun a holder for a candle can-do /'kæn du:/ adj keen to take on a job or challenge and confident of success candour /'kændər/ noun the personal quality of being open and honest in your behaviour towards other people (NOTE: The US spelling is candor.)

③ candy /'kændɪ/ noun US 1. a sweet food, made with sugar ○ a box of candies ○ Eating candy is bad for your teeth. (NOTE: no plural in this meaning) 2. one piece of this food ○ She bought a box of candies. (NOTE: The plural in this meaning is candies. The British term is sweets.)

candyfloss /'kændɪflɒs/ noun thin pieces of cooked sugar which are spun in a drum and sold as a mass attached to a stick (NOTE: The US term is cotton candy. No plural.)

cane /keɪn/ noun 1. a strong stem of a plant, especially of tall thin plants like bamboo ○ a field of sugar cane 2. a walking stick cut from the stem of a plant ○ She was leaning heavily on a cane as she walked up the path. 3. an occasion when someone is beaten with a stick ○ He often had the cane when he was at school. ■ verb to beat someone with a stick as a punishment ○ He was often caned when he was at school.

canine /'keɪnəɪn/ adj referring to dogs ○ Dogs should be vaccinated against various canine illnesses. ■ noun a dog (humorous) canine tooth /'keɪnəɪn tu:θ/, canine /'keɪnəɪn/ noun one of the round pointed teeth at the front of the mouth canister /'kænɪstə/ noun a round metal container for gas, etc.

canker /'keɪŋkəl/ noun a disease which eats into the wood of trees cannabis /'kænəbɪs/ noun 1. a plant from whose leaves or flowers an addictive drug is produced ○ Someone told the police that he was growing cannabis plants on his balcony. ♦ hemp 2. marijuana, an addictive drug made from the dried leaves or flowers of this plant ○ In some countries, the sale of cannabis has been legalised.

canned /kænd/ adj preserved in a tin or can canned music /kænd 'mju:zɪk/ noun recorded music cannelloni /,kænə'ləʊni/ noun a type of pasta with a meat or vegetable filling cannibal /'kænɪbəl(ə)l/ noun a person who eats people cannibalise /'kænɪbəlaɪz/, cannibalize verb to take pieces of old machines to repair another machine cannon /'kænən/ noun 1. a large gun ○ The sailors hauled a huge cannon across the ship's deck. 2. a gun in an aircraft ○ The old Spitfire had eight cannon in its wings. (NOTE: The plural is cannon or sometimes cannons.) ■ verb □ to cannon into someone or something to knock against someone or something ○ The little boy rushed out of the sweet shop and cannoned straight into a policeman.

③ cannot /'kænət/ □ can

③ canoe /kə'nue/ noun a boat with two pointed ends, which is moved forward by one or more people using long pieces of wood ○ She paddled her canoe across the lake. ■ verb to travel in a canoe ○ They canoed down the river.

canoeing /kə'nue:ɪŋ/ noun the sport of going in a canoe canon /'kænən/ noun 1. a religious rule or instructions 2. a priest who works in a cathedral ○ What are the special duties of a canon?

canonisation /,kænənəzɪ'zeɪʃ(ə)n/, canonization noun the act of officially stating that someone is a holy person

③ can opener /'kæn ,əʊp(ə)nə/ noun a tool for opening cans (NOTE: The British term is tin opener.)

canopy /'kænəpi/ noun 1. a cloth cover or light roof over a small area such as a door, window or bed ○ The porch is covered with a glass canopy. ○ The Queen's bedroom is furnished with a 17th century canopy bed. 2. the top parts of a group of trees when considered as a single mass ○ The trees join to form a canopy over the terrace of the restaurant. (NOTE: The plural is canopies.)

cant /kænt/ noun insincere language, especially about religion

① can't /kə:nt/ □ can

cantaloupe /'kæntəlu:p/ noun a type of melon with pink flesh cantankerous /kæn'tæŋkər(ə)rəs/ adj behaving in a way which is extremely unfriendly and unpleasant. Synonym grumpy cantata /kæn'ta:tə/ noun a musical piece for several singers and orchestra, usually on a religious subject

③ canteen /kæn'ti:n/ noun 1. a self-service restaurant for the people who work in a building such as an office block or factory ○ The food in the office canteen is awful, I prefer to bring my own sandwiches. 2. a box containing knives, forks and spoons ○ As a wedding present they were given a canteen of silver. 3. a bottle for carrying water ○ This is the canteen used by my grandfather during World War I.

canter /'kæntə/ noun the movement of a horse when it runs fairly fast ○ The horses were going through the park at a canter. Synonym trot □ to win at a canter to win easily (informal) ■ verb to move at a canter ○ My horse doesn't like cantering, it prefers to gallop.

cantilever /'kæntɪ:lɪ:və/ noun a support which holds up a structure such as a bridge or balcony canto /'kæntəʊ/ noun one section of a long poem. Synonym stanza (NOTE: The plural is cantos.)

canvas /'kænvəs/ noun 1. a thick cloth for making things such as tents or sails ○ He was wearing a pair of old canvas shoes. 2. a painting ○ three canvases by Picasso. (NOTE: The plural is canvases. Do not confuse with canvass.)

canvass /'kænvəs/ verb to visit people to ask them to buy goods or to vote or to say what they think (NOTE: Do not confuse with canvas.)

canvasser /'kænvəsə/ noun a person who canvasses canyon /'kænjən/ noun a deep valley with steep sides usually in North America. Synonym ravine

② cap /kæp/ noun 1. a flat hat with a flat hard piece in front ○ The bus driver was wearing an old black cap. ○ An officer's cap with a gold badge. □ England cap a cap worn by a sports player who has played for England in an international match 2. a top which covers something ○ Screw the cap back on the medicine bottle. ○ A red pen with a black cap. 3. an upper limit on the amount of money that can be spent or asked for ■ verb 1. to place an upper limit on something ○ to cap a local authority's budget 2. to name someone to play for his country in an international match ○ He has been capped five times for Wales. 3. to put a cap on top of something; to fix a cover on something ○ They tried to cap the broken pipe. (NOTE: capping – capped)

③ capability /,keɪpə'bɪlɪtɪ/ noun being able to do something. Synonym ability □ beyond your capabilities too difficult for you to do ○ I'm afraid this job is way beyond my capabilities.

② capable /'keɪpəb(ə)l/ adj able to work well and to deal with problems ○ She's an extremely capable secretary. □ capable of able to do something ○ The car is capable of very high speeds. ○ She isn't capable of running the department on her own.

capably /'keɪpəbli/ adv in a capable way capacious /kə'peɪʃəs/ adj very large, which can hold a lot capacitor /kə'pæsɪtə/ noun the part of a piece of electronic equipment which stores an electrical charge

② capacity /kə'pæsɪtɪ/ noun 1. an amount which something can hold ○ This barrel has a larger capacity than that one. ○ The cinema was filled to capacity. □ capacity audience, capacity crowd an audience which fills a building such as a cinema or theatre □ to work at full capacity to do as much work as possible 2. □ engine capacity the output of an engine or electric motor 3. an ability to do something easily ○ He has a capacity for making friends with anyone he meets. 4. a position □ acting in his capacity as manager acting as a manager □ speaking in an official capacity speaking officially cape /keɪp/ noun 1. a long loose piece of clothing like a coat but without sleeves ○ She wrapped her cape more tightly around her. 2. a piece of high land which sticks out into the sea ○ We rounded the cape on June 21st at 8 a.m.

caper /'keɪpə/ noun a small green seed used in cooking ○ Cook the fish with butter and capers. ■ verb □ to caper about to jump about ○ The children capered about all over the stage.

capillary /kə'pɪləri/ noun one of the very small tubes in the body which carry blood and other substances around the body capitalise /'kæpɪt(ə)laɪz/, capitalize verb 1. to write or print in capital letters or with a capital letter at the beginning of a word 2. to provide the money needed to operate a business capitalise on /'kæpɪt(ə)laɪz ɒn/ verb to take advantage of something capitalism /'kæpɪt(ə)lɪz(ə)m/ noun an economic system in which industries and businesses are owned by people or companies and not by the state capitalist /'kæpɪt(ə)list/ noun 1. a person who supports the theory of capitalism ○ Capitalists are in favour of free enterprise. 2. a businessman who invests money in a business ○ He's a young capitalist who is only twenty-one, but on the way to becoming a millionaire. ■ adj working according to the principles of capitalism ○ a capitalist economy ○ the capitalist system.

capital outlay /,kæpɪt(ə)l 'aʊtləɪ/ noun money spent on fixed assets such as property or furniture capital punishment /,kæpɪt(ə)l 'pʌnɪʃmənt/ noun the act of killing someone as a punishment for a crime

Capitol /'kæpɪt(ə)l/ noun a building in Washington where the US Senate and House of Representatives meet (NOTE: Do not confuse with capital)

Capitol Hill /,kæpɪt(ə)l 'hɪl/ noun the hill on which the Capitol stands, used to mean the US Legislature (informal) capitulate /kə'pitjuleɪt/ verb to say that you have lost in a situation such as a competition or a war. Synonym surrender capitulation /kə'pitjʊlətɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the act of capitulating. Synonym surrender capping, capped /'kæpɪŋ, kæpt/ □ cap cappuccino /kæp'pu:tʃɪ:nəʊ/ noun an Italian coffee, with hot whipped milk and chocolate on top capricious /kə'prɪʃəs/ adj not fixed or certain, likely to change. Synonym unpredictable. Antonym predictable

Capricorn /kæprɪkɔ:n/ noun one of the signs of the Zodiac, shaped like a goat, covering the period 22nd December to 19th January capsize /kæp'saɪz/ verb (of boats) to overturn. Antonym right capstan /'kæpstən/ noun a machine, usually on a ship, which turns to pull in a rope or anchor capsule /'kæpsjʊ:l/ noun a small tube made from a substance that can be eaten and containing a medicine ○ She swallowed three capsules of painkiller.

Capt. abbr captain (NOTE: used before a surname: Capt. Smith)

③ captain /'kæptɪn/ noun 1. a person in charge of a team ○ the England captain ○ The two captains shook hands at the beginning of the match. 2. a person in charge of a ship or of an aircraft ○ Go and see the captain if you want to use the radio phone. ○ Captain Smith is flying the plane. 3. a rank in the army above a lieutenant and below a major ○ A lieutenant has to report to his captain. (NOTE: also used as a title before a surname; often shortened to Capt.) ■ verb to be the captain of a team ○ He has captained England three times.

captaincy /'kæptɪnsɪ/ noun 1. the position of being captain of a sports team ○ Because of the scandal, I don't think he will get the England captaincy. 2. the rank of captain in the army or navy ○ Although he had twenty years of service, he never got his captaincy.

caption /'kæpfən/ noun a phrase printed under a picture captivate /'kæptɪveɪt/ verb to attract someone's interest and attention captivating /'kæptɪvɪtɪŋ/ adj attracting and holding somebody's attention captive /'kæptɪv/ noun a prisoner ○ The two captives were kept in total darkness for hours. ■ adj □ held captive held as a prisoner □ to take someone captive to take someone prisoner ○ They were held captive by the rebels for three months.

captive audience /,kæptɪv 'ɔ:dɪəns/ noun a group of people who have to listen to what someone is saying because they cannot leave captivity /kæp'trɪvɪ/ noun the situation of being kept in a place and not allowed to leave (NOTE: no plural) captor /'kæptə/ noun a person who captures someone

③ capture /'kæptʃə/ noun being captured ○ We must do everything to avoid capture. Synonym imprisonment ■ verb 1. to take someone or something as a prisoner ○ Four soldiers were captured in the attack. ○ They captured the enemy capital very quickly. 2. to take a share of sales from another company ○ They have captured 10% of the market. 3. to record something on film ○ The arrival of the train was captured on film.

① car /kɑ:/ noun 1. a small private motor vehicle for carrying people ○ She's bought a new car. ○ My car was stolen while I was shopping. ○ He drove his car into the garage. ○ He goes to his office every morning by car. 2. US a carriage of a railway train ○ Is there a restaurant car on the train?

carafe /kə'ref/ noun a glass container, for serving wine or water caramel /'kærəməl/ noun 1. a sweet made with sugar and butter ○ I'm a dentist, and I don't like seeing children eating caramel. 2. burnt sugar ○ You can make caramel by heating sugar until it melts and burns.

carat /'kærət/ noun 1. a measure of the quality of gold. Pure gold is 24 carats. ○ a 22-carat gold ring 2. a measure of the weight of precious stones ○ a 5-carat diamond (NOTE: Another US spelling is karat) caravan /'kærəvən/ noun 1. a vehicle which you can live in, e.g. on holiday, and which can be attached to a car and pulled along ○ We got stuck behind a caravan on a narrow mountain road. ○ We rent a caravan in a caravan park. (NOTE: The US term is trailer or mobile home.) 2. a group of animals or vehicles travelling together, one behind the other ○ A caravan of camels crossing the desert. ○ We joined a caravan of lorries going to Romania.

③ carbohydrate /,kə:bəʊ'haidrət/ noun a chemical substance containing carbon, hydrogen and oxygen, found in particular in sugar, potatoes and bread; it provides the body with energy carbon /'kɑ:bən/ noun a substance found in charcoal, soot or diamonds carbonated /'kɑ:bəneɪtɪd/ adv (of a drink) containing small bubbles of air carbon copy /,kɑ:bon 'kɒpi/ noun 1. someone or something that is very similar to another person or thing 2. a copy made with carbon paper carbon emissions /,kɑ:bən ɪ'mɪʃ(ə)nz/ plural noun the carbon dioxide and carbon monoxide produced by motor vehicles and industrial processes carbon paper /'kɑ:bən ,peɪpə/ noun paper with a black substance on one side, used for making copies car boot sale /'kɑ: 'bʊt 'seɪl/ noun an event organised in a large car park or sports field, where people bring things to sell in their cars carburettor /kə:bə'retə/ noun a part in a car engine which mixes fuel with air before it is put into the engine (NOTE: The US spelling is carburetor.)

carcinogen /kə:sɪnədʒən/ noun a substance which produces cancer carcinogenic /,kə:sɪnə'dʒenɪk/ adj which produces cancer

① card /kɑ:d/ noun 1. a flat piece of stiff paper with a picture on one side, which you can send with a message ○ They sent us a card from Italy. ○ How much does it cost to send a card to Australia? ♦ postcard 2. a piece of stiff paper, folded so that a message can be written inside 3. a piece of stiff paper with a picture or pattern on it, used to play games □ to put your cards on the table to reveal what you intend to do □ to play your cards close to your chest not to reveal what you intend to do □ on the cards fairly likely to happen 4. a piece of stiff paper with your name and address printed on it ○ He gave me his business card. 5. a piece of stiff plastic used for payment ○ Do you want to pay cash or with a card? □ credit card a plastic card which allows you to buy goods without paying for them immediately ○ He paid for the hotel with his credit card.

cardboard /'ka:dbɔ:d/ noun thick card (NOTE: no plural: some cardboard, a piece of cardboard) cardiac /'ka:diæk/ adj referring to the heart cardiac arrest /,ka:diæk ə'rest/ noun a serious medical condition in which the heart muscle stops working cardigan /'ka:dɪgən/ noun a woollen jacket which buttons at the front cardinal /'ka:dɪnl/ adj very important ○ Her attendance at the meeting is of cardinal importance. ■ noun 1. one of the most important priests in the Catholic church, after the Pope ○ The cardinals meet in Rome to elect the Pope. ○ Cardinal Lamont has written an article in today's paper. (NOTE: also used as a title before a surname: Cardinal Wolsey) 2. a bright red bird, which comes from the southern USA card index /'ka:d ,ɪndeks/ noun a series of cards with information written on them, kept in a special order so that the information can be found easily □ card-index file information kept on cards ■ verb to put information onto a card index cardiology /,ka:di'ɒlədʒi/ noun the study of the heart and its diseases cardiovascular /,ka:dɪəvə'veskjʊlə/ adj referring to the heart and the movement of blood around the body □ the cardiovascular system the heart and the blood system □ cardiovascular disease a disease which affects the heart and the blood system ○ a cardiovascular disease such as hypertension card table /'ka:d ,teɪb(ə)l/ noun a usually square, folding table used to play cards

① care /keə/ noun 1. serious attention ○ He handled the glass with great care. □ to take care to be very careful ○ Take care when you cross the road. ○ He took great care with the box of glasses. ○ Take care not to be late. 2. □ care of (on a letter) words to show that the person is living at the address, but only as a visitor □ Mr Brown, care of Mrs Green to Mr Brown at the address of Mrs Green 3. looking after someone ○ the care of the elderly □ to take care of someone to look after someone ○ Will you take care of mother while I'm away? ■ verb to be worried ○ I don't care if my car is dirty. ○ She cares a lot about the environment. □ he couldn't care less does not worry at all about something

② career /kə'rɪə/ noun a life of professional work ○ She is starting her career as a librarian. ○ He gave up his career as a civil servant and bought a farm. ■ verb to move forward very fast and out of control ○ The car careered off the road into a ditch.

career woman /kə'rɪə ,wʊmən/, career girl /kə'rɪə ɡɜːl/ noun a woman who is working and does not plan to stop working to look after the house or children

① care for /'keə fɔː/ verb 1. to like ○ Would you care for another cup of coffee? ○ I don't care for this music very much. 2. to look after ○ Nurses cared for the injured people after the accident. ○ People who have to care for their elderly relatives should get a grant from the state.

carefree /'keəfrɪ:/ adj without any worries

① careful /'kef(ə)l/ adj taking care ○ Be careful not to make any noise, the baby is asleep. ○ Be careful when you're packing those glasses, they're very valuable! ○ She is very careful about what she eats. ○ The project needs very careful planning.

② carefully /'kef(ə)li/ adv with great care

② careless /'keləs/ adj without taking care ○ He is careless about his work. ○ He made several careless mistakes when he took his driving test.

carelessly /'keləsli/ adv without taking care carelessness /'keləsnəs/ noun the fact of being careless, not being careful carer /'keərə/ noun someone who looks after an old or sick person or children careless /'ke:res/ noun a gentle touch ○ The child touched my cheek in a gentle care. (NOTE: The plural is caresses.) ■ verb to touch gently ○ She gently caressed the baby's head. Synonym stroke caretaker /'keəteɪkə/ noun a person who looks after a building ○ Go and ask the caretaker to put a new light bulb on the staircase. (NOTE: The US term is janitor.)

caretaker government /,keəteɪkə 'gʌv(ə)nment/ noun a government which runs a country temporarily until another one is elected car ferry /'ka: ,feri/ noun a boat which carries vehicles and passengers from one place to another cargo /'ka:ɡəʊ/ noun goods carried, especially on a ship □ cargo boat, cargo ship, cargo plane a ship or plane which carries only cargo and not passengers cargo pants /'ka:ɡəʊ pants/ plural noun trousers with large pockets on the sides of the legs caricature /'kærɪkətʃʊə/ noun a funny drawing or description which exaggerates a person's appearance ◎ He drew a caricature of the Prime Minister. ◎ Her description of the office is nothing less than a caricature of the system. ■ verb to draw a caricature of someone ◎ The Prime Minister is easy to caricature.

caries /'keəri:z/ noun a decayed place in a tooth or other bone (NOTE: The plural is caries.)

③ caring /'keərɪŋ/ adj loving and helping. Synonym kind carjacking /'kɑ:dʒækɪŋ/ noun the crime of attacking the driver of a car and stealing the car carnage /'kɑ:nɪdʒ/ noun a situation in which many people are killed. Synonym kill-ing (NOTE: no plural) carnal /'kɑ:n(ə)l/ adj referring to the body (formal). Synonym physical. Antonym spiritual carnation /ka:'neɪʃ(ə)n/ noun a red, pink or white flower with a strong pleasant smell carnival /'kɑ:nɪv(ə)l/ noun a festival, often with music, dancing and eating in the open air carnivore /'kɑ:nɪvɔ:/ noun an animal which eats meat carnivorous /kɑ:'nɪv(ə)rəs/ adj meat-eating carol /'kærəl/ noun a traditional song, especially one sung at Christmas ■ verb to sing Christmas carols ◎ In the week before Christmas we go carolling round the villages. (NOTE: carolling – caroled but the US spelling is caroling – caroled) carouse /kə'rəʊz/ verb to enjoy yourself drinking alcohol (literary) carousel /'kærə'sel/ noun 1. a circular machine from which passengers collect their bags at an airport ◎ Baggage from flight AC1 is on carousel number three. 2. US a round-about (NOTE: The British term is merry-go-round.)

carp /kɑ:p/ noun a type of fish which you can eat ◎ You can catch carp in this lake. (NOTE: The plural is carp.) ■ verb to keep on finding fault with things ◎ My brother's always carping about the office. ◎ Stop carping and get on with your work! Synonym complain

① car park /'ka: pɑ:k/ noun a special public place where you can leave a car when you are not using it (NOTE: The US term is parking lot.)

carpenter /'kɑ:pɪntə/ noun a person who works with wood, especially in building (NOTE: Informally, a carpenter is called a chippy.)

carpentry /'kɑ:pɪntrɪ/ noun the art of working with wood. Synonym joinery (NOTE: no plural)

③ carpet /'kɑ:pit/ noun a thick material for covering the floor ◎ He spilt his coffee on our new white dining-room carpet. ■ verb 1. to cover with a carpet ◎ a thickly carpeted hotel room 2. to cover with something as if with a carpet ◎ The path through the woods is carpeted with wild flowers. ◎ We woke up to find the street carpeted with snow.

carpetbagger /'kɑ:pit,bægə/ noun 1. a person who opens an account with a building society, hoping that it will change to a public company and so give him money or shares 2. a politician who tries to get elected in a part of the country which is not his home carpet-bomb /'kɑ:pit bɒm/ verb to destroy an area by dropping very many bombs on it carpeted /'kɑ:pitɪd/ adj covered with a carpet carpeting /'kɑ:pitɪŋ/ noun 1. covering with a carpet ◎ We have been quoted £2000 for the carpeting of the office. 2. a wide piece of carpet ◎ We bought a length of carpeting to cover the bedroom floor.

car pool /'kɑ: pʊl/ noun an arrangement where several people share cars carport /'kɑ:pɔ:t/ noun a shelter for a car, built next to a house

③ carriage /'kærɪdʒ/ noun 1. the cost of carrying goods, or the action of carrying goods ◎ Carriage is 15% of the total cost. ◎ How much do they charge for carriage? 2. a way of walking carriageway /'kærɪdʒweɪ/ noun the surface of the road on which traffic moves carried /'kærɪd/, carries /'kærɪz/ ◊ carry carrier /'kærɪə/ noun 1. a thing or person that carries ◎ A procession of water carriers with jars on their heads. 2. a person who carries the germ of a disease without showing any signs of it, and who can infect others with it ◎ a hepatitis carrier ◎ Hepatitis A is transmitted by a carrier through food or drink.

carrier bag /'kærɪə bæg/ noun a large paper or plastic bag with handles, for carrying shopping, often given by a shop, with the shop's name on it carrion /'kærɪən/ noun the decaying flesh of dead animals (NOTE: no plural) carrot /'kærət/ noun a vegetable with a long orange root which can be eaten

① carry /'kærɪ/ verb 1. to take something and move it to another place ◎ There was no lift, so they had to carry the beds up the stairs. ◎ The plane was carrying 120 passengers. ◎ That suitcase is too heavy for me to carry. 2. to vote to approve ◊ the motion was carried the proposal was accepted after a vote ○ Her proposal was not carried. 3. to have available for customers to buy ○ A supermarket will carry about 5,000 different lines of goods. 4. (of sound) to be heard at a distance ○ The sound of the bells carries for miles.

carry away /,kæri ə'wei/ verb 1. to take away ○ The flood carried away whole houses. 2. □ to get carried away become extremely emotional or excited carrycot /'kærɪkɒt/ noun a small bed with handles for carrying a baby in carry forward /,kæri 'fɔ:wəd/ verb (in book-keeping) to take an amount or total on to the next page or column

③ carry on /,kæri 'ɒn/ verb 1. to go on doing something ○ When the policeman came into the restaurant, they all carried on talking as if nothing had happened. ○ They carried on with their work even though the office was on fire. 2. to be very angry ○ He carried on like anything when he saw his car had been towed away.

carry out /,kæri 'aʊt/ verb to do something which has been planned. Synonym accomplish carsick /'kɑ:sɪk/ adj feeling sick because of the movement of a motor vehicle carsickness /'kɑ:sɪknes/ noun sickness caused by the movement of a motor vehicle

③ cart /kɑ:t/ noun a vehicle pulled by a horse ○ A horse-drawn cart piled high with furniture. □ to put the cart before the horse to deal with things the wrong way round ■ verb to carry a bulky or heavy thing (informal) ○ Why do we have to cart this folding bed around with us? ○ The police came and carted him off to jail.

carte blanche /,kɑ:t 'blɑ:nʃ/ noun permission given to someone to do whatever he wants ○ We gave the architect carte blanche to design the bridge. ○ He has carte blanche to act on behalf of the government.

cartel /kɑ:t'el/ noun a group of companies which try to fix the price of something cartilage /'kɑ:tɪldʒ/ noun the thick substance which lines the joints in your body or which forms part of the structure of an organ cartographer /kɑ:t'tɒgrəfə/ noun a person who draws maps cartography /kɑ:t'ɒgrəfi/ noun the art of drawing maps carton /'kɑ:t(ə)n/ noun a container made of cardboard. Synonym box

③ cartoon /kɑ:t'u:n/ noun 1. a funny, often political, drawing in a newspaper ○ He draws a cartoon for the 'Evening Standard'. 2. a film made of moving drawings ○ I like watching Tom and Jerry cartoons.

cartoonist /kɑ:t'u:nɪst/ noun a person who draws cartoons. Synonym artist cartridge /'kɑ:tɪdrɪdʒ/ noun 1. a tube packed with gunpowder and a bullet for firing from a gun ○ The ground was littered with empty cartridges. 2. a flat box containing a disk or tape ○ The handheld computer has no disk drive but instead uses a ROM cartridge. 3. the part of a record player which holds the stylus ○ A new cartridge for this record player will be quite expensive. 4. a tube of ink which fits into a pen ○ Most pens are now made to use ink cartridges.

cartridge paper /'kɑ:tɪdrɪdʒ ,peɪpə/ noun good quality paper for drawing or printing cartwheel /'kɑ:twi:l/ noun 1. a wheel of a cart ○ There are deep ruts in the mud left by cartwheels. 2. □ to turn cartwheels to turn over and over sideways, putting your hands on the ground and moving your legs through the air until your feet touch the ground carve /kɑ:v/ verb 1. to cut up a large piece of meat at a meal ○ Who's going to carve? ○ Father sat at the end of the table, carving a chicken. 2. to cut stone or wood to make a shape ○ He carved a bird out of wood. ○ Chips of stone flew all over the studio as he was carving the statue.

carving /'kɑ:vɪŋ/ noun 1. the act of cutting up cooked meat 2. the art of cutting stone or wood into shapes ○ Stone carving is an option at art school. 3. an object which has been made by carving ○ He gave me a wood carving for my birthday. ○ The stone carvings in the old church date from the 15th century.

carving knife /'kɑ:vɪŋ naɪf/ noun a large sharp knife, used for carving meat car wash /'kɑ: wɒʃ/ noun a place where cars are washed automatically cascade /kæ'skeɪd/ noun a waterfall ○ There are plants and trees and even a cascade in the atrium of the hotel. ■ verb to fall in large quantities ○ Pale pink roses cascading down the brick wall.

① case /keɪs/ noun 1. a suitcase, a box with a handle, for carrying things such as your clothes when travelling ○ She was still packing her case when the taxi came. ○ The customs made him open his case. 2. a special box for something ○ Put the gun back in its case. ○ I've lost my red spectacle case. 3. a large wooden box for goods ○ He bought a case of wine. 4. a situation, or a way in which something happens ○ Your case is very similar to mine. ○ It was a case of first come, first served. □ in case because something might happen ○ It's still sunny, but I'll take my umbrella just in case. □ in any case anyway, whatever may happen □ in case of fire, break the glass if there is a fire, break the glass □ in that case if that happens or if that is the situation ○ There is a strike on the underground – in that case, you'll have to take a bus. 5. □ court case a legal action or trial ○ the case is being heard next week the case is coming to court next week casement /'keɪsmənt/ noun a window that opens on hinges case study /'keɪs ,stʌdi/ noun the study of a certain group or institution or person over a long period of time

① cash /kæʃ/ noun money in coins and notes, not in cheques ○ We don't keep much cash in the house. ○ I'd prefer to use up my spare cash, rather than pay with a credit card. ■ verb □ to cash a cheque to change a cheque into cash ○ He tried to cash a cheque for seven hundred pounds.

cash and carry /,kæʃ ən 'kæri/ noun a discount warehouse, selling items to the general public cashback /'kæʃbæk/ noun money from your bank account which you can get from a shop when you use your bank card to pay for goods cash card /'kæʃ ka:d/ noun a plastic card used to obtain money from a cash dispenser cash crop /'kæʃ krop/ noun a crop grown for sale

② cash desk /'kæʃ desk/ noun a place in a store where you pay for the goods you are buying cash dispenser /'kæʃ di,spensə/ noun a machine which gives out money when a special card is put in and instructions given cashew /'kæʃu:/ noun a type of nut which you can eat

③ cash flow /'kæʃ fləʊ/ noun the rate at which money comes into and is paid out of a business □ the company is suffering from cash flow problems cash income is not coming in fast enough to pay the cash expenditure going out cashier /kæ'ʃɪə/ noun a person who deals with money, e.g. in a bank or supermarket ○ Please pay the cashier. ○ Ask the cashier if she can give you change. ■ verb to force an officer to leave the armed forces ○ He was cashiered after he was found to have stolen money from other officers.

cash in on /,kæʃ 'in ən/ verb to profit from cash machine /'kæʃ mə,fi:n/ noun same as cash dispenser cashmere /'kæʃmɪə/ noun a soft wool that comes from goats ○ Cashmere is soft, light and very warm. ■ adj made of cashmere wool ○ The price of cashmere jumpers has soared.

cash on delivery /,kæʃ ən dr'liv(ə)ri/ noun payment in cash when goods are delivered. Abbr COD cashpoint /'kæʃ,pɔɪnt/ noun a place where there are cash dispensers (NOTE: The US term is automated teller machine or ATM.)

cash register /'kæʃ ,redʒɪstə/ noun a machine which shows and adds the prices of things bought in a shop, with a drawer for keeping the money received casing /'keɪsɪŋ/ noun a hard covering which protects something casino /kæ'si:nəʊ/ noun a building where you can gamble (NOTE: The plural is casinos.)

cask /ku:sk/ noun a large round container for storing liquid. Synonym barrel

③ casket /'kæskɪt/ noun 1. a box for keeping jewels in ○ The thief stole a casket from beside her bed. 2. mainly US a long wooden box in which a dead person is buried or cremated (NOTE: The British term is coffin.)

cassava /kə'sa:və/ noun a tropical plant, grown for its roots which are made into tapioca casserole /'kæsərəʊl/ noun 1. a covered dish used for cooking food in the oven 2. food cooked in a covered dish in the oven ○ chicken casserole ○ casserole of lamb ■ verb to cook in a casserole ○ casseroled hare Synonym braise cassette /kə'set/ noun 1. a magnetic tape in a plastic case which can fit directly into a playing or recording machine ○ Do you want it on cassette or CD? ○ He bought a cassette of folk songs. 2. a film in a plastic case which fits directly into a camera ○ She quickly put a new cassette into her camera. ♦ videocassette cassette player /kə'set ,pleɪə/ noun a machine which plays cassettes cassette recorder /kə'set rɪ,kɔ:də/ noun a machine which records and plays back cassettes cassock /'kæsək/ noun a long loose piece of clothing usually black, e.g. worn by priests or choirboys

③ cast /kæst/ noun all the actors in a play or film ○ The film has an all-star cast. ○ After the first night the cast went to celebrate in a restaurant. ■ verb 1. to make a metal or plaster object from a shaped container ○ He cast the statue in bronze. 2. to choose actors for a play or film ○ He was cast as a soldier in 'Henry V'. 3. □ to cast a vote to vote ○ The process of counting all the votes cast in the election has just begun. 4. to throw ○ He has cast aside all his old acquaintances. □ to cast about for to look for ○ They hurriedly cast about for an excuse. □ to cast doubts on to be unsure about ○ He cast doubts on the whole proposal. □ to cast light on something to make something easier to understand stand ○ The papers cast some light on how the minister reached his decision.

castaway /'kæstəweɪ/ noun a person who has been shipwrecked caste /kæ:st/ noun (in Hindu society) a group of people who are born with the same social status. Synonym class caster sugar /'kæ:stə ,fʊgə/ noun a white sugar which is used in making cakes castigate /'kæstɪgeɪt/ verb to punish, to criticise someone strongly (formal). Synonym criticise. Antonym praise casting vote /,kæ:stɪŋ 'vəʊt/ noun a vote used by the person in charge of a meeting in a case where the votes for and against a proposal are equal cast iron /,kæ:st 'aɪən/ noun 1. iron which is shaped in a mould, not bent, and so breaks easily ○ The pipes are made from cast iron, and are very solid. ○ Don't let the cast-iron pan soak in water as it will rust. Compare wrought iron 2. □ cast-iron excuse a very good excuse, one that cannot be turned down ○ He has a cast-iron excuse and won't get into trouble with the authorities.

③ castle /'kæ:s(ə)l/ noun 1. a large building with strong walls ○ The Queen is spending the week at Windsor Castle. ○ The soldiers shut the castle gate. ♦ sand castle 2. one of two pieces used in chess, shaped like a little castle tower ○ She took my last castle. Also called rook

cast off /,kæ:st ɒf/ verb 1. to untie the ropes holding a boat ○ The boat is ready to cast off. 2. (in knitting) to remove the stitches from the needles so that your work is finished ○ The scarf is long enough, all you have to do is to cast off.

castor /'kæ:stə/ noun a wheel screwed on to the bottom of a piece of furniture so that it can be moved easily castor oil /,kæ:stər 'ɔɪl/ noun the oil from a palm tree, which is sometimes used in medicines castor sugar /'kæ:stə ,fʊgə/ ♦ caster sugar castrate /kæ'streɪt/ verb to remove the testicles from a male animal. Synonym neuter castration /kæ'streɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the act of castrating casual /'kæzʊəl/ adj not formal casual labour /,kæzʊəl 'leɪbə/ noun temporary workers casually /'kæzʊəli/ adv in an informal way casualty /'kæzʊəlti/ noun 1. a person injured or killed in a battle or in an accident ○ Casualties were taken to hospital by ambulance and helicopter. ○ The radio reported that there had been heavy casualties. 2. the Accident and Emergency department in a hospital ○ The accident victim was rushed into casualty.

casual work /'kæzʊəl wɜ:k/ noun work for which people are employed just for a short period

① cat /kæt/ noun an animal with soft fur and a long tail, kept as a pet ○ She asked her neighbours to feed her cat when she went on holiday. ○ Don't forget to get some tins of cat food. □ to let the cat out of the bag to tell a secret (informal) cataclysm /'kætəklɪz(ə)m/ noun a sudden event which causes a lot of damage or violence. Synonym catastrophe cataclysmic /,kætə'klɪzmɪk/ adj suddenly causing a lot of damage or difficulty. Synonym catastrophic

③ catalogue /'kæt(ə)lɒg/ noun a list of things for sale or in a library or museum ○ an office equipment catalogue ○ Look up the title in the library catalogue. ■ verb to make a list of things that exist somewhere ○ She spent months cataloguing the novelist's correspondence. (NOTE: [all senses] The US spelling is catalog.)

catalyst /'kætəlist/ noun 1. a substance which produces or helps a chemical process without itself changing ○ An enzyme that acts as a catalyst in the digestive process. 2. anything which helps something to take place ○ She wasn't responsible for the decision herself, but she reckons she acted as a catalyst.

catalytic converter /,kætəlɪtɪk kən've:tə/ noun an object put on the exhaust pipe of a motor vehicle to reduce the amount of carbon monoxide that comes out catamaran /,kætəmə'ræn/ noun a boat with two parallel hulls catapult /'kætəpɔ:t/ noun a weapon consisting of a piece of strong material which can stretch attached to a stick shaped like the letter 'Y', used for sending stones through the air ○ He tried to kill birds with his catapult. ■ verb 1. to send someone or something into the air suddenly and with a lot of force ○ The cyclist was hit by a bus and catapulted to the other side of the road. 2. to put someone into a new position quickly ○ Their team was catapulted to the top of the tennis league.

cataract /'kætərækt/ noun 1. a waterfall on a river ○ the cataracts on the Nile 2. a medical condition where the lens of the eye gradually becomes covered with a white layer and you lose the ability to see ○ He has developed a cataract in his right eye. ○ The operation to remove the cataract went smoothly.

catarrh /kə'ta:/ noun a medical condition which affects the inside of the nose and throat, producing a thick liquid substance. Synonym mucus

③ catastrophe /kə'tæstrəfi/ noun a sudden violent or harmful event. Synonym disaster catastrophic /kætə'strɒfɪk/ adj disastrous. Antonym fortunate

① catch /kætʃ/ noun 1. an amount of fish which has been taken at one time ○ The boat brought back a huge catch of fish. 2. the action of taking and holding a ball as it moves through the air ○ He made a marvellous catch. ○ The wicket-keeper dropped an easy catch. 3. a hidden disadvantage ○ It seems such a good deal, there must be a catch in it somewhere. 4. a little hook which is part of the fastening on a door (NOTE: The plural is catches) ■ verb 1. to take hold of something moving in the air ○ Can you catch a ball with your left hand? ○ When he knocked a glass off the table he managed to catch it before it hit the floor. 2. to take hold of something ○ She caught him by the sleeve as he turned away. ○ As he slipped, he caught the handrail to stop himself falling. □ to catch someone's eye to look at someone who is looking at you ○ She caught his eye and nodded towards the door. 3. to get hold of an animal, especially to kill it ○ He sat by the river all day but didn't catch anything. ○ Our cat is no good at catching mice: she's too lazy. 4. to get on a vehicle such as a bus, plane or train before it leaves ○ You will have to run if you want to catch the last bus. ○ He caught the 10 o'clock train to Paris. 5. to get an illness ○ He caught a cold from standing watching the rugby match. ○ The baby has caught measles. 6. to find someone doing something wrong ○ She caught the boys stealing in her shop. ○ The police caught the burglar as he was climbing out of the window. 7. to arrest someone ○ After months of searching, the police finally caught the gang. ■ red-handed 8. to hear ○ I didn't quite catch what you said. (NOTE: catching – caught /kɔ:t/- has caught) catch 22 /kætʃ, 'twenti 'tu:/ noun a circle of events which you cannot escape from catch-all /kætʃ ɔ:l/ noun something that covers a wide range of possibilities, meanings, ideas or situations catching /kætʃɪŋ/ adj (of an illness or an emotion such as fear) which can spread from another person. Synonym contagious catchment area /'kætmənt ə'reɪə/ noun 1. land from which a river gets its water 2. an area round a school from which all students must come ○ We are moving to be in the catchment area of a good school.

catch on /,kætʃ 'ɒn/ verb 1. to understand ○ She caught on very quickly. 2. to become fashionable ○ I don't see silver hair catching on here.

catch phrase /'kætʃ freɪz/ noun a popular phrase, usually connected with an entertainer or advertisement catch up /,kætʃ 'ʌp/ verb to move to the same level as someone who is in front of you. Antonym fall behind catchy /'kætʃi/ adj □ catchy tune a tune which is easy to remember ○ The ad has a catchy tune that everyone is humming.

catechism /'kætəkɪz(ə)m/ noun a book of religious instruction categoric /,kætə'gɔ:rɪk/, categorical /,kætə'gɔ:rɪk(ə)l/ adj direct or definite categorically /,kætə'gɔ:rɪklɪ/ adv definitely categorise /'kætɪgəraɪz/, categorize verb to put into classes or categories. Synonym classify

② category /'kætɪg(ə)ri/ noun a group into which things or people can be divided on the basis of similarities (NOTE: The plural is categories)

caterer /'keɪtərə/ noun a person who supplies food and drink, e.g. at an event cater for /'keɪtər fo:/ verb 1. to supply food and drink at an event such as a party or for a particular amount of people ○ Our firm caters for receptions of up to 250 guests. 2. to provide for ○ The college caters mainly for older students. ○ We cater for private individuals as well as for groups.

③ catering /'keɪtərɪŋ/ noun the act or practice of supplying of food and drink

③ caterpillar /'kætəpɪlə/ noun a small long insect with many legs, which develops into a moth or butterfly ○ Caterpillars have eaten most of the leaves on our trees.

caterpillar track /'kætəpɪlə træk/ trademark a continuous metal belt around the wheels of a large vehicle such as a tank catfish /'kætfɪʃ/ noun a fish with long hairs around its mouth (NOTE: The plural is catfish.)

catharsis /kə'θɔ:rsɪs/ noun a situation or occasion in which you get rid of strong emotional feelings, e.g. through a particular experience

③ cathedral /kə'θi:drl/ noun a large church which is the seat of a bishop catheter /'kæθətər/ noun a very thin tube which can be put into the body to remove fluid such as blood or urine cathode /'kæθəʊd/ noun a negative electric pole through which electricity leaves a piece of electric equipment cathode ray tube /,kæθəʊd 'reɪtju:b/ noun a TV tube in which a cathode produces the image on the screen. Compare anode ③ catholic /'kæθəl(ə)lk/ adj having an interest in or liking for many different things ○ His interests have always been quite catholic.

Catholic /'kæθ(ə)lik/ adj referring to the Roman Catholic Church ■ noun a member of the Roman Catholic Church

Catholicism /kæθ(ə)lɪz(ə)m/ noun the religion of the Roman Catholic Church catkin /'kætkɪn/ noun a long flower head which hangs down from the branches of certain types of tree, such as hazel and birch cattle /'kætl/ plural noun animals such as cows and bulls which farmers keep for milk or meat cattle grid /'kætl grɪd/ noun bars in a road which cattle cannot cross, but which people or vehicles can catty /'kæti/ adj making unpleasant remarks about someone. Synonym spiteful. Antonym kind catwalk /'kætwɔ:k/ noun 1. a long raised area down which models walk to show off clothes ○ The model on the catwalk gave a twirl of her skirt. ○ Fashion editors stared at the models on the catwalk. 2. an open metal structure for people to walk on, built along the outside of a ship or tall building ○ He stepped confidently onto the catwalk.

Caucasian adj describes people whose skin is white ■ noun somebody who has white skin or who is of European origin caucus /'kɔ:kəs/ noun a group of people in a political party who are strong enough to influence policy (NOTE: The plural is caucuses.)

① caught /kɔ:t/ ○ catch cauldron /'kɔ:ldrən/ noun a large deep pan for cooking (NOTE: The US spelling is caldron.)

cauliflower /'kɒli,flaʊə/ noun a vegetable with hard white flowers, which are eaten cooked (NOTE: no plural when referring to the food: some cauliflower, They served cauliflower with the meat.)

causal /'kɔ:z(ə)l/ adj referring to a cause

① cause /kɔ:z/ noun 1. a thing which makes something happen ○ What is the chief cause of traffic accidents? ○ The police tried to find the cause of the fire. □ died from natural causes having died from old age or illness, and not killed in an accident or crime 2. an organisation which people support ○ She is fighting for the cause of working mothers.

■ verb to make something happen ○ The accident caused a traffic jam on the motorway. ○ The sudden noise caused her to drop the cup she was carrying. Antonym impede causeway /'kɔ:zwei/ noun a road or path built up on a bank above wet ground or water. Synonym walkway caustic /'kɔ:stɪk/ adj 1. of a substance which can burn ○ This liquid is caustic and you should wear gloves when using it. 2. sharp or unkind remarks or jokes ○ His caus- tic remarks didn't go down well with his employees.

caustic soda /,kɔ:stɪk 'səʊdə/ noun sodium hydroxide, a compound of sodium and water used to make soap and to clear blocked drains caution /'kɔ:ʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. care ○ The steps are very slippery – please proceed with great caution. (NOTE: no plural in this meaning) 2. a warning not to do something again ○ The magistrate let him off with a caution. ■ verb to warn ○ He was cautioned by the police. ○ The doctor cautioned him against working too hard.

cautionary /'kɔ:ʃ(ə)n(ə)ri/ adj which warns. Synonym warning cautionary tale /,kɔ:ʃ(ə)n(ə)ri 'teɪl/ noun 1. a story written as a warning ○ It's a cautionary tale specially written to warn children not to talk to strangers. 2. something which provides a good example ○ The whole sequence of events is a cautionary tale about what not to do when letting your house.

cautious /'kɔ:ʃəs/ adj careful, not taking risks. Antonym reckless cautiously /'kɔ:ʃəslɪ/ adv in a cautious way cavalcade /,kæv(ə)l'keɪd/ noun a long line of people riding on horses. Synonym procession cavalier /,kævə'lɪə/ adj with no respect for other people or customs ○ She showed a cavalier attitude to employment law.

Cavalier /,kævə'lɪə/ noun a member of the King's party during the English Civil War (NOTE: The opposing party, the supporters of Parliament, were called Roundheads.)

cavalry /'kæv(ə)lri/ noun soldiers riding on horses (NOTE: can be followed by either a singular or plural verb)

cave /keɪv/ noun a large underground hole in rock or earth ○ When the tide went out we could explore the cave. Synonym cavern ■ verb □ to cave in to fall down completely into the inside of something such as a building or cave ○ The beam cracked and the roof caved in.

caveat /'kæviət/ noun a warning, especially against doing something caveman /'keɪvmæn/ noun one of the people who lived thousands of years ago in caves (NOTE: The plural is cavemen.)

cavern /'kævən/ noun a very large cave cavernous /'kævənəs/ adj with a very large inside space, like a cavern cavity /'kævɪtɪ/ noun 1. a hole, space ○ The jewellery was discovered hidden in a cavity in the wall. 2. a hole in a tooth ○ There is a cavity in one of your back teeth which needs filling.

cayenne pepper /'keiən 'pepə/ noun a type of hot red pepper, made from chillies

CBI abbr Confederation of British Industry

cc abbr cubic centimetre(s)

CCTV /'abbr/ closed-circuit television

CD abbr compact disc ○ I don't like his new CD – do you? ○ You can get it on CD or cassette.

CD burner /'si: 'di: ,bɜːnə/ noun alternative for CD writer

CD player /'si: 'di: ,pleɪə/ noun a machine which plays CDs. Synonym stereo

② CD-ROM /,si: di: 'rɒm/ noun a small plastic disc used as a high capacity ROM storage device which can store 650Mb of data. Full form compact disc read only memory

CD-RW abbr compact disc rewritable

CD writer /'si: 'di: ,rɜːtə/ noun a piece of equipment used to record data permanently onto a compact disc ③ cease /sɪ:s/ verb to stop (formal). Antonym start □ to cease to exist to stop being in existence ○ The pub on the corner ceased to exist some time ago.

ceasefire /'sɪ:sfaɪə/ noun an agreement to stop shooting in a war. Synonym truce ceaseless /'sɪ:sləs/ adj without stopping. Synonym unending. Antonym sporadic ceaselessly /'sɪ:sləslɪ/ adv without stopping cedar /'si:də/ noun 1. a large tree whose leaves do not fall off in winter ○ There is a large cedar in front of the house. 2. wood from this tree ○ a cedar chest ○ Cedar wood has a pleasant smell.

cede /'si:d/ verb to give up something, especially power or land, to someone else (formal)

③ ceiling /'sɪ:lɪŋ/ noun 1. an inside roof over a room ○ He's so tall, he can easily touch the ceiling. ○ Flies can walk on the ceiling. ○ He painted the kitchen ceiling. ○ Watch out when you go into the bedroom – it has a very low ceiling. 2. the highest point that something or someone reaches or is allowed to reach ○ Output has reached its ceiling. ○ There is a ceiling of £20,000 on the amount you can hold in premium bonds. ○ They set a ceiling of £1000 on the price of their washing machines.

celeb /'sə'leb/ noun a celebrity

③ celebrate /'selɪbreɪt/ verb 1. to have a party or do special things because something good has taken place, or because of something that happened in the past ○ Our team won, so we're all going out to celebrate. ○ They celebrated their wedding anniversary quietly at home with their children. 2. to perform a religious ceremony ○ The priest was celebrating Mass.

celebrated /'selɪbreɪtɪd/ adj very famous. Synonym famous. Antonym unknown

③ celebration /,selɪ'breɪʃ(ə)n/ noun a party or festival ○ We had my birthday celebration in the local pub. ○ After our team won, the celebrations went on late into the night.

③ celebrity /sɪ'lebrəti/ noun a famous person ○ The theatre was packed with celebrities from the acting world. ○ We hope the new supermarket is going to be opened by a TV celebrity. (NOTE: The plural is celebrities.)

celery /'seləri/ noun a plant with a white or green stem, eaten as a vegetable or raw as a salad □ a stick of celery a piece of the stem of the celery plant, often served raw with cheese celestial /sə'lestɪəl/ adj referring to the sky celestial body /sə,lestɪəl 'bɒdɪ/ noun a star, planet, moon or other natural body in the sky. Also called heavenly body celibacy /'selɪbəsɪ/ noun the state of being celibate celibate /'seləbət/ adj not having sex, e.g. for religious reasons

① cell /sel/ noun 1. a small room in a building such as a prison or monastery ○ He was arrested in the centre of town and spent the night in the police cells. 2. the basic unit of a living creature or plant ○ You can see the cancer cells under a microscope. 3. a small political group ○ She formed part of a cell of activists. 4. a part of an electric battery (NOTE: Do not confuse with sell.)

③ cellar /'selə/ noun an underground room or rooms under a house (NOTE: Do not confuse with seller.)

cellist /'tʃɛlist/ noun a person who plays the cello cello /'tʃeləʊ/ noun a large stringed musical instrument smaller than a double bass (NOTE: The plural is cellos.)

cellophane /'seləfeɪn/ trademark a transparent film used for wrapping or covering things cellphone /'selfəʊn/ same as cellular phone cellular /'seljʊlə/ adj 1. made up of many small cells ○ Cellular tissue is connective tissue with large spaces. 2. made of a type of cloth with open holes in it ○ Cellular blankets are light and warm – they look as if they've been knitted with very big needles.

cellular phone /,seljʊlə 'fəʊn/ noun a mobile phone that works from a series of radio stations all over the country cellulite /'seljʊlət/ noun deposits of fat under the skin, especially in the thighs and buttocks celluloid /'seljʊlɔɪd/ noun the thin plastic film which was used in the past for making films cellulose /'seljʊləʊs/ noun a chemical substance found in plants, used for making paper and paint

③ Celsius /'selsiəs/ adj, noun a scale of temperature where the freezing point of water is 0° and the boiling point is 100° ○ The temperature outside is only 6°C (say 'six degrees Celsius'). ○ What is 75° Fahrenheit in Celsius? (NOTE: used in many countries, but not in the USA, where the Fahrenheit system is still preferred. It is usually written as a C after the degree sign: 32° C (say: 'thirty-two degrees Celsius'). It was formerly called centigrade.)

Celt /kelt/ noun one of an ancient people who lived in parts of Western Europe, e.g. in Scotland, Ireland, Wales, and Brittany

Celtic /'keltɪk/ adj referring to ancient or modern Celts cement /sɪ'ment/ noun 1. powder made from lime and clay, which is mixed with water and dries hard ○ He was mixing cement to make a path round the house. 2. a strong glue ○ She used china cement to stick the handle back on the cup. ■ verb to attach strongly ○ He cemented some stones on the top of the wall. ○ The two halves should be cemented together.

cement mixer /sɪ'ment ,mɪksə/ noun a machine for mixing cement

③ cemetery /'semət(ə)rɪ/ noun an area of ground where the bodies of dead people are buried. Synonym graveyard (NOTE: The plural is cemeteries.)

Cenotaph /'senətəf/ noun a war memorial in Whitehall in London censor /'sensəl/ noun a person who reads documents or looks at films to see if they are fit to be published or shown ○ The censor has refused permission for the film to be shown. ○ During wartime, military censors read all letters from soldiers to their families. ■ verb to read books or plays, to watch films, videos or TV programmes to see if they are fit to be published or shown, or to change them, or to say that they cannot be shown or published ○ The film was censored before being shown on TV. ○ He was accused of censoring the article.

censorship /'sensəʃɪp/ noun the action to prevent books or newspapers from being published or remove parts of them. Synonym restriction censure /'senʃəl/ noun criticism ○ There was widespread public censure of the government. Antonym approval ■ verb to criticise ○ The Opposition put forward a motion to censure the Government. ○ The borough architect was censured for failing to consult the engineers. Antonym praise census /'sensəs/ noun an official count of a country's population (NOTE: The plural is censuses.)

① cent /'sent/ noun 1. a small coin, one-hundredth part of a dollar ○ The stores are only a 25-cent bus ride away. ○ They sell oranges at 99 cents each. (NOTE: Do not confuse with sent, scent. Cent is usually written c in prices: 25c, but not when a dollar price is mentioned: $1.25.)

centenarian /,sɛntɪ'nɛəriən/ noun a person who is 100 years old or more centenary /sɛn'tɪ:nəri/ noun a hundredth anniversary centennial /sɛn'tenɪəl/ adj referring to a centenary ○ Our college is getting ready for the centennial celebrations next month.

center /'sentər/ ♀ centre

③ centigrade /'sentɪg'reɪd/ noun a scale of temperature where the freezing point of water is 0° and the boiling point is 100° (dated) ♦ See note at Celsius

centilitre /'sentɪlɪtrɪ/ noun a unit of volume equal to one hundredth of a litre (NOTE: The US spelling is centiliter.)

③ centimetre /'sentɪmɪ:tə/ noun a measure of length, one hundredth part of a metre (NOTE: The US spelling is centimeter.)

centipede /'sentɪpi:d/ noun an insect with a large number of legs

① central /'sentrəl/ adj in the centre ○ The hall has one central pillar. ○ His offices are very central.

③ Central America /,sɛntrəl ə'merɪkə/ noun the part of the American continent between North and South America, including the countries of Mexico and Costa Rica central government /,sɛntrəl 'gəv(ə)nəmənt/ noun the main government of a country, as opposed to local government central heating /,sɛntrəl 'hi:tɪŋ/ noun a system of providing heating for a whole house from one main heater and radiators in the various rooms centralise /'sentrəlaɪz/, centralize verb to organise from a central point. Synonym unify. Antonym decentralise centrally /'sentrəli/ adv in the centre, from the centre central nervous system /,sɛntrəl 'nɜ:vəs ,sɪstəm/ noun the brain and the spinal cord which link together all the nerves central reservation /,sɛntrəl rezə'veɪʃ(ə)n/ noun a section of road or plants such as grass and bushes between the two main parts of a major road

① centre /'sentər/ noun 1. the middle of something ○ chocolates with coffee cream centres ○ They planted a rose bush in the centre of the lawn. ○ The town centre is very old. 2. a large building containing several different sections ○ an army training centre 3. an important town ○ Nottingham is the centre for the shoe industry. 4. a group or political party between the left and right ○ The centre combined with the right to defeat the proposal. ○ The cabinet is formed of right-of-centre supporters of the Prime Minister. 5. a player in a sports team who plays in the middle of the field ■ verb 1. to put something in the middle ○ Make sure you centre the block of wood on the lathe. 2. to concentrate on ○ The opposition's attack was centred on the government's reorganisation of the social services. ○ Our report centres on some aspects of the sales team. (NOTE: [all senses] The US spelling is center.)

centred /'sentəd/ adj 1. in the middle ○ Make sure the picture is centred in the frame. 2. based in ○ The shoe industry is centred on Nottingham. (NOTE: [all senses] The US spelling is centered.)

centre forward /,sentə 'fɔ:wəd/ noun (in football) a player in the centre of the forward line centre lane /'sentə leɪn/, middle lane /'mid(ə)l leɪn/ noun the track in the centre of a three-lane carriageway centre of gravity /,sentər əv 'græviti/ noun the point in an object at which it will balance centre party /,sentə 'pu:tɪ/ noun a political party in the centre, neither right nor left centrepiece /'sentə,pi:s/ noun 1. the main part of a decoration on a table ○ A bowl of fruit will be fine as a centrepiece on the dining table. 2. the main part of a policy ○ The project is the centrepiece of the government's policy on pensions. (NOTE: [all senses] The US spelling is centerpiece.)

centre stage /'sents 'steɪdʒ/ adv in the middle of the stage, in the middle of some action ○ She moved centre stage and started to sing. ○ The UN Secretary General has moved centre stage to try to defuse the crisis.

centrifugal /,sentri'fju:g(ə)l/, sen'trif(jug(ə))l/ adj which tends to go away from the centre centripetal /,sentri'pɪ:tɪl, sen'tri:pɪ:tɪl/ adj which tends to go towards the centre centrist /'sentrist/ adj in favour of the centre in politics ○ The group advocates a return to centrist politics. ○ They elected a centrist government. Synonym middle-of-the-road

■ noun a person who is in favour of the centre in politics ○ The centrists formed a coalition to influence government policy on education.

① century /'sentʃəri/ noun 1. one hundred years □ the seventeenth century the period from 1600 to 1699 ○ a 17th-century church

○ The church dates from the 17th century. 2. a score of 100, especially in cricket ○ He's a powerful hitter and rapidly scored a century. ○ He scored a century, including four fours and two sixes. (NOTE: The plural is centuries. The number of a century is always one more than the date number, so the period from 1900 to 1999 is the 20th century, and the period starting in the year 2000 is the 21st century.)

CEO abbr chief executive officer ceramic /sə'ræmɪk/ adj made from clay which has been baked at a high temperature. Synonym earthenware ceramics noun /sə'ræmɪks/ the art of making objects such as cups or plates from clay ○ She is taking a course in ceramics at the local art college. (NOTE: not plural in this meaning) ■ plural noun ceramic objects ○ Our next exhibition will be of ceramics by two local potters.

③ cereal /'sɪərɪəl/ noun 1. a grain crop such as wheat, barley or maize ○ The plains of North America are the main cereal-producing areas. 2. a food made from cereal and eaten with milk for breakfast ○ Would you like some cereal for breakfast? (NOTE: Do not confuse with serial.)

cerebellum /,sərə'beləm/ noun the back part of the brain, which controls the ability to balance cerebral /'serəbrəl/ adj 1. referring to the cerebrum or to the brain in general ○ A cerebral haemorrhage means bleeding inside the brain. 2. intellectual, rather than emotional ○ I need to take some exercise after all this cerebral work.

cerebral hemisphere /,serəbrəl 'hemisfɪə/ noun one of the two halves of the brain cerebral palsy /,serəbrəl 'pɔ:zɪ/ noun a medical condition of the brain that makes it difficult to control speech and movements of the body cerebrum /sə'rɪ:b्रəm/ noun the main part of the brain, which contains the main mental processes including memory ceremonial /,serɪ'mənɪəl/ adj referring to a ceremony ○ A guard of naval officers carrying their ceremonial swords. ○ The ceremonial coach is used in the Lord Mayor's Parade. Synonym ritual ■ noun a way of performing a ceremony ○ The ceremonial for the burial of the dead is laid out in the prayer book. Synonym rite ceremonially /,serɪ'mənɪəli/ adv with ceremony ceremonious /,serɪ'mənɪəs/ adj with a lot of ceremony ceremoniously /,serɪ'mənɪəsli/ adv with a lot of ceremony ceremony /'seriməni/ noun an important official occasion when something special is done in public ○ They held a ceremony to remember the victims of the train crash. Synonym rite □ to stand on ceremony to be formal and not relaxed ○ Don't stand on ceremony.

cerise /sə'ri:s/ noun a bright pink colour ① certain /'sɜ:t(ə)n/ adj 1. having no doubts about something ○ Are you certain that you locked the door? ○ I'm not certain where she lives. □ to make certain that to do something in order that something else will definitely happen ○ He put the money in his safe to make certain that no one could steal it. 2. without any doubt ○ Our team is certain to win the prize. 3. □ a certain quantity, a certain amount some ○ The fire did a certain amount of damage. ○ Rebuilding the house took a certain amount of time. ○ You need to add a certain quantity of water to the paint. 4. which you do not know or are not definite about ○ The manager is a certain Mr Arbutnott. ○ Certain fungi can make you ill if you eat them.

① certainly /'sɜ:t(ə)nli/ adv 1. of course (after a question or order) ○ Can you give me a lift to the station? – Certainly. ○ Tell him to write to me immediately. – Certainly, sir. ○ Give me a kiss. – Certainly not! 2. definitely ○ She certainly impressed the judges. ○ He certainly knows how to score goals.

③ certainty /'sɜ:t(ə)nti/ noun 1. being certain ○ I can't tell who won with any certainty – it was a photo-finish. ○ There is no certainty that the weather will stay fine for the whole of next week. 2. a sure or certain thing ○ Fine weather in November is not an absolute certainty. (NOTE: The plural is certainties.)

③ certificate /sə'tifikət/ noun an official document which proves or shows something ○ She has been awarded a certificate for swimming. ○ He has a certificate of aptitude in English.

certify /'sɜ:tifi:fi/ verb 1. to make an official statement in writing ○ The document is certified as a true copy. ○ He was certified dead on arrival at hospital. 2. to send a patient to a mental hospital (old) ○ His parents had him certified.

certitude /'sɜ:tɪtju:d/ noun certainty. Synonym conviction. Antonym uncertainty cervical /'sɜ:vɪk(ə)l/ adj 1. referring to the neck ○ The bones in the neck are the seven cervical vertebrae. 2. referring to the cervix of the womb ○ What can be done to prevent cervical cancer? ○ In your case, you should have a cervical smear test every year.

cervix /'sɜ:vɪks/ noun 1. any narrow neck of an organ 2. the neck of the womb, the narrow lower part of the uterus leading into the vagina ○ Cancer of the cervix may not show any symptoms for a very long time. (NOTE: The plural is cervixes.)

cessation /'se'seɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the process of stopping. Synonym end (NOTE: no plural) cession /'seʃ(ə)n/ noun the action of giving up possession of something, especially an area of land. □ cede (NOTE: no plural. Do not confuse with session.)

cesspit /'sespit/, cesspool /'sespu:l/ noun an underground container for collecting household sewage

cf. abbr used to refer to a footnote or to another part of the text

CFC abbr chlorofluorocarbon, compound of fluorine and chlorine ○ CFCs contribute to the destruction of the ozone layer. ○ When CFCs are released into the atmosphere, they rise slowly taking about seven years to reach the stratosphere.

chafe /tʃeɪf/ verb to rub something and make it sore chaff /tʃa:f, tʃæf/ noun the dried stems of plants such as wheat which are left after the grain is collected chagrin /'ʃægrɪn/ noun a feeling of being annoyed or sad

② chain /tʃeɪn/ noun 1. a series of metal rings joined together ○ She wore a gold chain round her neck. ○ He stopped when the chain came off his bike. 2. a series of businesses such as stores, restaurants or hotels which belong to the same company ○ a chain of hotels or a hotel chain ○ She runs a chain of shoe shops. 3. a group of large mountains ○ The Rockies are a chain of mountains running down from Canada through the western states. 4. a series of people, each buying another's house ○ There is a chain of six families involved, so the sale will take some time. □ verb to attach with a chain ○ I chained my bike to the lamppost.

chain reaction /tʃeɪn ri'ækʃən/ noun a series of reactions which follow on from an event chainsaw /'tʃeɪnsəʊ:/ noun a saw where the teeth are set in a continuous chain driven by a motor chain-smoke /'tʃeɪn sməʊk/ verb to smoke cigarettes one after the other chain store /'tʃeɪn stɔ:/ noun one of a series of shops owned by the same company

① chair /tʃeəl/ noun 1. a piece of furniture which you can sit on, with a back ○ He pulled up a chair and started to write. ○ These dining-room chairs are very hard. 2. the person who is in charge of a meeting ○ Please address all your comments to the chair. □ in the chair the position of being in charge of a meeting ○ Mrs Smith was in the chair. □ Mr Jones took the chair Mr Jones was in charge of the meeting 3. the position of professor at a university ○ He has been appointed to the chair of English. ■ verb to take charge of a meeting ○ The meeting was chaired by Mrs Smith.

chairlift /'tʃeɪlɪft/ noun a line of moving chairs which take people to the top of a mountain slope, especially people who are skiing

① chairman /'tʃeɪmən/ noun 1. a person who is in charge of a meeting ○ Mrs Jones was the chairman at the meeting. 2. a person who presides over a board of directors ○ the chairman of the bank (NOTE: The plural is chairmen.)

chairmanship /'tʃeɪmənʃɪp/ noun the position of being a chairman chairperson /'tʃeəpɜ:s(ə)n/ noun a person who is in charge of a meeting chairwoman /'tʃeəwomən/ noun a woman who is in charge of a meeting (NOTE: The plural is chairwomen.)

chaise longue /'feɪz lɔ:g/ noun a comfortable chair with a long seat, similar to a sofa with an arm at only one end chalet /'ʃælət/ noun a small house, usually made of wood, often one where people stay for a holiday chalice /'tʃælɪs/ noun a metal cup in which wine is offered at a communion service chalk /tʃɔ:k/ noun 1. a type of soft white rock made of calcium ○ The white cliffs of Dover are formed of chalk. □ as different as chalk and cheese completely different (informal) 2. a stick of a white or coloured used for writing on a blackboard, e.g. in a classroom ○ He wrote the dates on the board in coloured chalk. ■ verb to mark or write with chalk ○ She chalked the menu for the day on the blackboard.

chalk up /tʃɔ:k 'ʌp/ verb to achieve a score or a victory chalky /tʃɔ:ki/ adj 1. full of chalk ○ chalky soil 2. white like chalk ○ a chalky liquid 3. feeling powdery like crushed chalk ○ This bread has a chalky feel to it.

② challenge /'tʃeɪləndʒ/ noun 1. a difficult test of someone's skill or strength etc. ○ The action by the union is another challenge to the authority of the government. □ to pose a challenge to someone to be extremely difficult to do ○ Getting the piano up the stairs will pose a challenge to the removal men. 2. an invitation to something such as a fight or competition ○ Our team accepted the challenge to play another game. □ to take up a challenge to agree to fight ■ verb 1. to ask someone to prove that he is right ○ When challenged, he admitted that he had seen her get into a car. ○ The committee's conclusions have been challenged by other experts. 2. □ to challenge someone to a fight to ask someone to fight you challenging /'tʃeɪləndʒɪŋ/ adj difficult, which is a challenge

③ chamber /'tʃeɪməbə/ noun 1. an official room 2. an empty space inside the heart ○ Blood collects inside the chambers of the heart and is then pumped out. 3. a space in a piece of a machine, especially one of the spaces for bullets in a gun chambermaid /'tʃeɪməmeɪd/ noun a woman who cleans bedrooms in a hotel chamber music /'tʃeɪməbə ,mju:zɪk/ noun music for a few instruments which can be played in a small room

Chamber of Commerce /,tʃeɪməbər əv 'kɔmə:s/ noun a group of local business people who meet to discuss problems which they have and to encourage business in their town chamber orchestra /'tʃeɪməbər ,ɔ:kɪstrə/ noun a small orchestra which plays chamber music chambers /'tʃeɪməbəz/ plural noun the office of a judge or a lawyer chameleon /kə'mi:liən/ noun a type of lizard which changes its colour to match what is around it champ /tʃæmp/ noun the winner of a competition, especially in sport (informal) ○ He's the champ! Synonym champion ■ verb to chew hard and noisily □ to champ at the bit to be impatient to do something ○ The sales staff are champing at the bit because the product is still not ready.

champagne /sæm'peɪn/ noun sparkling white wine from the north-east of France champers /'sæmpəz/ noun same as champagne (informal)

② champion /'tʃæmpɪən/ noun the best one in a particular competition ○ She was champion two years running. ○ He's the world champion in the 100 metres. ■ verb □ to champion a cause to support a cause strongly ○ They are championing the cause of women's rights.

② championship /'tʃæmpɪənʃɪp/ noun 1. a contest to find who is the champion ○ The schools' tennis championship was won by a boy from Leeds. 2. support for a cause ○ Her constant championship of the homeless.

① chance /'tʃa:ns/ noun 1. a possibility, likelihood ○ There is no chance of rain in August. ○ What are their chances of survival in this weather? 2. opportunity ○ I've been waiting for a chance to speak to the Prime Minister. ○ I wish I had the chance to visit South Africa. 3. luck ○ It was pure chance or it was quite by chance that we were travelling on the same bus. (NOTE: the meanings: chance of + ing = possibility of doing something; chance to = opportunity to do something) ■ verb 1. to do something by chance ○ She chanced to look round as she came up to her. ○ The car in front of us chanced to turn right. 2. □ to chance it to try to do something which is risky ○ The sky looks grey, but I think I'll chance it without an umbrella.

chancel /'tʃænsəl/ noun a part of a church where a choir usually sits

③ chancellor /tʃæns(ə)lə/ noun 1. an important official ○ He became chancellor of the university last year. 2. the head of the government, equivalent to Prime Minister) (in Germany or Austria)

③ Chancellor of the Exchequer /'tʃænsələr əv ði: ɪks'tfekə/, Chancellor noun the chief finance minister in the British government (NOTE: In most countries, this is called the Minister of Finance; the American equivalent is the Secretary of the Treasury.)

chancy /'tʃa:nsi/ adj risky, not very sure. Synonym risky (NOTE: chancier – chanciest) chandelier /ʃændə'lɪə/ noun a light fitting which hangs from the ceiling, with several branches for holding electric bulbs

① change /tʃeindʒ/ noun 1. the act of changing or being changed ○ There was a last-minute change of plan. ○ We've seen a lot of changes over the years. □ it's a change for the better it has made things better than they were 2. something different ○ We usually go on holiday in summer, but this year we're taking a winter holiday for a change. ○ A cup of tea is a nice change after all those glasses of orange juice. ○ A change of scenery will do you good. □ she took a change of clothes with her she took a set of clean clothes with her 3. money in coins or notes ○ I need some change for the parking meter. ○ Have you got change for a £5 note? 4. money which you get back when you have given more than the correct price ○ The book is £3.50, so if you give me £5, you should get £1.50 change. ○ The shopkeeper gave me the wrong change. □ keep the change keep the change as a tip (said to people such as waiters) 5. □ to ring the changes to try various things to see which is best ○ I don't always buy the same newspaper, I prefer to ring the changes between 'The Times', 'The Independent' and 'The Guardian'. ■ verb 1. to make something different; to become different ○ Living in the country has changed his attitude towards towns. ○ London has changed a lot since we used to live there. ○ He's changed so much since I last saw him that I hardly recognised him. ○ The prince was changed into a frog. □ I've changed my mind I've decided to do something different 2. to put on different clothes ○ I'm just going upstairs to change or to get changed. ○ Go into the bathroom if you want to change your dress. □ to change a bed to put clean sheets on a bed ○ The cleaning staff came in to change the beds. 3. to use or have something in place of something else ○ You ought to change your car tyres if they are worn. ○ Can we change our room for one with a view of the sea? ○ She's recently changed her job or changed jobs. □ to change trains or buses to get off one train or bus and onto another to continue your journey ○ To get to Stratford you will have to change (trains) at Birmingham. 4. □ to change gear to change from one gear to the next when driving a car 5. to give smaller coins or notes for a larger one □ can you change a £20 note? can you give me small change for a £20 note? 6. to give one type of currency for another ○ I had to change £1,000 into dollars. ○ We want to change some traveller's cheques.

changeable /'tʃeindʒəb(ə)l/ adj which changes often, which is likely to change often. Synonym variable changed /tʃeindʒd/ adj different from before ○ When she returned from France she was a changed woman.

change down /,tʃeindʒ 'daʊn/ verb to move to a lower gear when driving a car change over /,tʃeindʒ 'əʊvə/ verb 1. to exchange places, positions, or roles 2. (in sports such as football) to move to opposite ends of a playing field, usually halfway through a match changeover /'tʃeindʒəʊvə/ noun 1. a change from one thing to another 2. (in sports such as football) the movement of teams to opposite ends of a playing field 3. the passing of a baton in a relay race change up /,tʃeindʒ 'ʌp/ verb to move to a higher gear when driving a car changing of the guard /,tʃeindʒɪŋ əv ðə 'ga:d/ noun a military ceremony, where one shift of soldiers is replaced by another on guard duty at a palace, etc.

changing room /'tʃeindʒɪŋ ru:m/ noun a room in a public place where you can change into or out of clothes

② channel /'tʃæn(ə)l/ noun 1. a piece of water connecting two seas 2. a way in which information or goods are passed from one place to another ○ The matter was sorted out through the normal diplomatic channels. 3. a frequency band for radio or TV or a station using this band ○ We're watching Channel 4. ○ The new chat show is scheduled to compete with the gardening programme on the other channel. 4. the bottom of a stream, ditch or gutter along which water can flow ■ verb to send something in a certain direction ○ They are channelling their funds into research. Synonym direct (NOTE: channelling – channelled. The US spelling is channeling – channeled.) channel of communication /tʃæn(ə)n/ əv kəmju:nɪ'keɪʃ(ə)n/ noun a way of communicating

Channel Tunnel /tʃæn(ə)l 'tʌn(ə)l/ noun a tunnel for trains under the English Channel between England and France chant /tʃænt/ noun a regular singing or shouting of a repeated song or phrase ○ She has a recording of chants by Buddhist monks. ○ The chants of 'down with the police' could be heard in the streets. ■ verb to sing or shout to a regular beat ○ The crowds chanted anti-government slogans.

chaos /'keɪɒs/ noun confusion. Synonym disorder chaos theory /'keɪɒs, θiərɪ/ noun a theory that things happen at random, and one should plan for the unexpected to happen chaotic /keɪ'ɒtɪk/ adj confused, without order

③ chap /tʃæp/ noun a man (informal) ○ He's a really nice chap. ○ I bought it from a chap at work. ■ verb (of the skin) to crack ○ Rub some ointment on your chapped lips. (NOTE: chapping – chapped)

chapel /'tʃæp(ə)l/ noun 1. a part of a large church with a separate altar ○ There's a chapel on the west side of the cathedral dedicated to St Teresa. 2. a small church attached to a special institution ○ They were buried in the prison chapel.

chaplain /'tʃæplɪn/ noun a priest attached to a private individual, to a prison or to one of the armed services chapped /tʃæpt/ adj (especially of the skin) dry, cracked or sore

① chapter /'tʃæptə/ noun 1. a division of a book ○ The first chapter is rather slow, but after that the story gets exciting. ○ Don't tell me how it finishes – I'm only up to chapter three. ♦ verse 2. a group of priests or monks who run a cathedral or monastery

① character /'kærɪktə/ noun 1. the part of a person which makes him or her behave differently from all others ○ His character is quite different from yours. □ strong character a person with special qualities such as determination or the ability to influence others 2. a person in a play or novel ○ The leading character in the film is an old blind woman. 3. a letter or symbol used in writing or printing ○ The book is printed in Chinese characters.

characterisation /,kærɪktərɪz'eɪʃ(ə)n/, characterization noun an indication of character. Synonym description

③ characterise /'kærɪktəraɪz/, characterize verb 1. to be a typical feature of something ○ The northern coast is characterised by tall cliffs and tiny beaches. 2. to describe someone or something as a particular type of person or thing ○ He didn't like to be characterised as weak and inefficient.

② characteristic /,kærɪktə'rɪstɪk/ adj typical ○ You can recognise her by her characteristic way of walking. ○ That is characteristic of this type of flower. Antonym uncharacteristic (NOTE: something is characteristic of something) ■ noun a typical feature ○ The two cars have very similar characteristics. Synonym trait characteristically /,kærɪktə'rɪstɪkli/ adv in a typical way, typically. Antonym unusually characterless /'kærɪktələs/ adj ordinary, with no special features. Synonym bland charade /ʃə'ra:d/ noun a situation which has no meaning or which is simply a pretence ○ Can you make any sense of this charade? ○ Why bother with this charade of consultation when we know that a decision has already been taken?

charades /ʃə'ra:dz/ plural noun a game where people have to guess a word from a scene acted by others ○ We had a game of charades or we played charades.

charcoal /'tʃa:kɔ:l/ noun a black fuel formed from wood which has been burnt slowly, used for barbecues and grills ○ We need a bag of charcoal for the barbecue.

① charge /tʃa:dʒ/ noun 1. money which you have to pay ○ There is no charge for delivery. ○ We make a small charge for rental.

□ we will send the parcel free of charge we will send the parcel without asking you to pay for postage 2. a claim by the police that someone has done something wrong ○ He was kept in prison on a charge of trying to blow up the Houses of Parliament. 3. □ in charge being in control of ○ He is in charge of the sales department. ○ Who's in charge here? □ to take charge of something to start to be responsible for something ○ She took charge of the class while the teacher was out of the room. 4. an electric current ○ He was killed by an electric charge from the wires. 5. a running attack ○ The captain led the charge against the enemy camp. ■ verb 1. to ask someone to pay ○ The restaurant charged me £10 for two glasses of water. ○ How much did the garage charge for mending the car?

□ to charge the packing to the customer to ask the customer to pay for the packing 2. (of the police) to say that someone has done something wrong ○ He was charged with stealing the jewels. 3. to attack someone while running ○ The police charged the rioters. ○ If the bull charges, run as fast as you can for the gate! 4. to run quickly and without care ○ The children charged into the kitchen. 5. to give someone responsibility ○

She was charged with organising the club's dinner dance. 6. to put electricity into a battery ○ You can charge your phone battery by plugging it into the mains overnight.

charge card /tʃɑ:dʒ kɑ:d/ noun a plastic card which you can use to buy things from a particular shop, and pay for them at a later date charged /tʃɑ:dʒd/ adj full of a strong emotion. Antonym calm chargé d'affaires /ʃɑ:ʒeɪ dæ'feə/ noun an official in an embassy who takes the place of an ambassador charger /tʃɑ:dʒə/ noun 1. a device which can be plugged into the mains and connected to a storage battery to restore the charge ○ How long do you have to connect the battery to the charger before it is recharged? 2. a heavy medieval battle horse ○ Knights in armour had to be lifted onto their chargers with cranes.

chariot /tʃærɪət/ noun a two-wheeled vehicle pulled by horses charioteer /tʃærɪə'tɪə/ noun a person who drives a chariot charisma /kə'rɪzmə/ noun personal appeal. Synonym magnetism charismatic /,kærɪz'mætɪk/ adj appealing to people. Synonym magnetic charitable /'tʃærɪtəb(ə)l/ adj 1. referring to a charity ○ She was famous for her charitable work. 2. understanding, or less critical ○ Commuters ought to be more charitable towards railway staff – they're only doing their best.

charitably /'tʃærɪtəbli/ adv in a charitable way

2 charity /'tʃærɪti/ noun 1. an organisation which collects money to help the poor or to support some cause ○ Charities do not pay tax. 2. help, usually money, given to the poor ○ She lost her job and her family have to rely on the charity of neighbours. (NOTE: no plural in this meaning) charity shop /tʃærɪti ʃɒp/ noun a shop run by a charity where you can take things such as old clothes and ornaments, which are then sold and the money given to the charity (NOTE: The plural is charities.)

charlatan /ʃɑ:ltən/ noun a person who pretends to be an expert. Synonym fake charm /tʃɑ:m/ noun 1. attractiveness ○ She has great personal charm. ○ The charm of the Devon countryside. 2. an object which is supposed to have magical powers ○ She wears a lucky charm round her neck. ■ verb 1. to put someone under a spell ○ The old man played a pipe and charmed a snake out of its basket. 2. to attract someone, or to make someone pleased ○ He always man- ages to charm the girls at the office. ○ I was charmed by their tiny cottage in the country.

charmed /tʃɑ:md/ adj protected as if by magic

3 charming /'tʃɑ:min/ adj attractive. Synonym delightful. Antonym unattractive charred /tʃɑ:d/ adj burn in a fire

3 chart /tʃɑ:t/ noun 1. a map of the sea, a river or a lake ○ You will need an accurate chart of the entrance to the river. 2. a diagram showing statistics ○ A chart showing the increase in cases of lung cancer. ■ verb 1. to make a map of the sea, a river or lake ○ He charted the coast of southern Australia in the 18th century. 2. to describe or make a diagram of something to show information ○ The book charts the rise of the new political party.

3 charter /'tʃɑ:tə/ noun a legal document giving rights or privileges to a town or a university ○ The university received its charter in 1846. ■ verb to hire an aircraft, bus or boat for a particular trip ○ We chartered a boat for a day trip to the island. Synonym rent chartered /'tʃɑ:təd/ adj 1. (of an aircraft, bus or boat) which has been hired for a particular trip ○ A fleet of chartered coaches took the group to the beach. 2. (of someone such as an accountant) having passed the professional examinations ○ He is a chartered surveyor.

chartered accountant /,tʃɑ:təd ə-kaʊntənt/ noun a qualified accountant charter flight /'tʃɑ:tə flait/ noun a flight in an aircraft which has been hired by the airline for a special occasion charter plane /'tʃɑ:tə pleɪn/ noun a plane which has been chartered charts /tʃɑ:ts/ plural noun a list of the most popular records charwoman /tʃɑ:womən/ noun a woman who does cleaning work in a private house (dated) charry /tʃeəri/ adj cautious, reluctant to do something. Synonym wary. Antonym reckless

3 chase /tʃeɪs/ noun a pursuit ○ He was caught after a three-hour chase along the motorway. □ to give chase to run after someone ○ The robbers escaped and the police gave chase. ■ verb 1. to run after someone in order to try to catch him or her ○ The police officer chased the burglars down the street. ○ The postman was chased by a dog. 2. to ask someone how work is progressing in order to try to speed it up ○ We are trying to chase the accounts department for your cheque. ○ I will chase up your order with the production department.

chasm /kæz(ə)m/ noun 1. a very big difference of opinion ○ How can we bridge the chasm between the two sides in the dispute?

2. a very big crack in the ground ○ The mountaineers were forced to turn back when they reached a chasm in the glacier.

chassis /'fæsɪs/ noun 1. the metal framework of a car ○ The car's chassis was damaged in the accident. 2. the part on the underneath of an aircraft ○ The aircraft radioed to say that the chassis had failed. (NOTE: The plural is chassis /'fæsɪz/.)

chaste /tʃeɪst/ adj sexually pure. Antonym impure chastened /'tʃeɪs(ə)nd/ adj less proud chastise /tʃæ'staɪz/ verb to punish someone. Synonym reprimand. Antonym praise chastisement /tʃæ'staɪzmənt/ noun the act of punishing someone (formal). Synonym reprimand. Antonym praise chastity /tʃæstɪti/ noun the state or fact of being chaste. Synonym purity ② chat /tʃæt/ noun casual friendly talk ○ She likes to drop in for a cup of coffee and a chat. I'd like to have a chat with you about your work. Synonym conversation ■ verb to talk in a casual and friendly way ○ They were chatting about their holidays when the bus arrived. □ to chat someone up to talk to someone with the intention of starting a sexual relationship with them (informal) ○ He tried to chat up the girl he met in a bar.

chat room /tʃæt ru:m/ noun a facility exchanging messages by computer in real time

② chat show /tʃæt ʃəʊ/ noun a TV show where famous people talk to the host chattels /tʃæt(ə)lz/ plural noun same as possessions chatter /tʃætə/ noun quick talking ○ The chatter of children in the corridor. ■ verb to talk quickly and not seriously ○ She went on chattering on the phone, not realising that the boss was standing behind her. □ his teeth were chattering his teeth were knocking together because he was shivering chatterbox /tʃætəbɒks/ noun a person who cannot stop talking (informal). Synonym talker chattering classes /'tʃætərɪŋ ,kla:sɪz/ plural noun middle-class people working e.g. in the media, who spend their time meeting and gossiping about events in the news (disapproving) chatty /tʃætɪ/ adj 1. who likes to chat ○ She's a very chatty person, always stopping to gossip with anyone she meets. 2. informal ○ He has a pleasant chatty style, which goes down well with readers of Saturday papers.

chauffeur /ʃəʊfə/ noun a person who is paid to drive a car for someone else ○ The chauffeur brought the Rolls round to the door. Synonym driver ■ verb to drive a car for someone else ○ My husband lost his driv- ing licence and I had to chauffeur him everywhere.

chauvinism /'ʃəʊvɪnɪz(ə)m/ noun a strong feeling of pride in your native country ○ Chauvinism is a barrier to full integration into the European Union.

chauvinist /'ʃəʊvɪnɪst/ noun a person who has a strong feeling of pride in his or her native country ○ Chauvinists insist that British cooking is better than French.

chauvinistic /,ʃəʊvɪ'nɪstɪk/ adj feeling that your country is better than all others. Synonym bigoted

① cheap /tʃi:p/ adj which does not cost a lot of money ○ If you want a cheap radio you ought to shop around. ○ Why do you go by bus? – Because it's cheaper than the train. ○ Buses are by far the cheapest way to travel.

■ adv at a low price ○ I bought them cheap in the local market. ■ noun □ on the cheap in the cheapest possible way ○ We got these chairs on the cheap in an auction.

cheapen /tʃi:pən/ verb to reduce the value of something. Synonym denigrate. Antonym elevate

② cheaply /tʃi:pli/ adv without paying much money cheapness /tʃi:pnəs/ noun low cost

③ cheat /tʃi:t/ noun a person who acts unfairly in order to win ○ I won't play cards with him again, he's a cheat. ■ verb 1. to act unfairly in order to be successful ○ They don't let her play any more since they found she was cheating. ○ They are sure he cheated in his exam, but can't find out how he did it. 2. □ to cheat someone out of something to get something by tricking someone ○ She was furious, saying that she had been cheated out of the first prize.

④ check /tʃek/ noun 1. an examination or test ○ The police are carrying out checks on all cars. ○ A routine check of the fire equipment. 2. US (in a restaurant) a bill ○ I'll ask for the check. 3. US spelling of cheque 4. US a mark on paper to show that something is correct ○ Make a check in the box marked 'R'. (NOTE: The British term is tick.) 5. □ in check under control ○ We must keep our spending in check. 6. (in chess) a situation where your opponent has to move to protect his or her king ■ verb 1. to make sure ○ I'd better check with the office if there are any messages for me. ○ Did you lock the door? – I'll go and check. 2. to examine ○ You must have your car checked every 10,000 miles. 3. US to mark with a sign to show that something is correct ○ Check the box marked 'R'. (NOTE: The British term is tick.) 4. to bring someone or something to a halt ○ Bad weather checked the expedition's progress.

checked /tʃekt/ adj with a pattern of small squares. Synonym check checkers /'tʃekəz/ noun US a game for two people played on a board with black and white squares and round pieces (NOTE: The British term is draughts.)

check in /tʃek 'ɪn/ verb 1. (at a hotel) to arrive at a hotel and sign for a room ○ We checked in at 12.15. ○ We checked into our hotel and then went on a tour of the town. 2. (at an airport) to give in your ticket to show you are ready to take the flight ○ Please check in two hours before your departure time. 3. □ to check baggage in to pass your baggage to the airline staff to put it on the plane for you ○ My bag hasn't been checked in yet.

② check-in /tʃek in/ noun a place where passengers give in their tickets and baggage for a flight checklist /tʃeklist/ noun a list of things which have to be done or dealt with before something can be done

checkmate /'tʃekmɪt/ noun (in chess) a situation at the end of a game where the king cannot move ○ That's checkmate! ■ verb 1. (in chess) to put your opponent's king in a position from which he cannot escape ○ She managed to checkmate me for the second game running. (NOTE: also shortened simply to mate) 2. to put an opponent into an impossible situation ○ If the judiciary manages to checkmate the president, he will have to resign.

① check out /tʃek 'aʊt/ verb 1. (at a hotel) to leave and pay for a room ○ We will check out before breakfast. 2. to take luggage out of safe keeping ○ The ticket shows that he checked out his bag at 9.15. 3. to see if something is all right ○ I thought I heard a noise in a kitchen – I'll just go and check it out.

② checkout /tʃekəut/ noun 1. (in a supermarket) a cash desk where you pay for the goods you have bought ○ There were huge queues at the checkouts. 2. □ checkout time is 12.00 the time by which you have to leave your room is 12.00 checkpoint /tʃekpɔɪnt/ noun a place on a road where the police or army check cars and people passing. Synonym barrier checkroom /tʃekru:m/ noun US a place where you leave your coat in a public building such as a restaurant or theatre (NOTE: The British term is cloakroom.)

② checkup /tʃekʌp/ noun 1. a test to see if someone is fit ○ He had a heart checkup last week. 2. a general examination by a doctor or dentist ○ She made an appointment with the dentist for a checkup. 3. a general examination of a machine ○ I'm taking the car to the garage for its six-monthly checkup.

check up on /tʃek 'ʌp ɒn/ verb to make sure that something has been done correctly. Antonym ignore

Cheddar /'tʃedə/ noun a smooth hard light yellow cheese, originally from a village of this name in the west of England

② cheek /tʃi:k/ noun 1. a fat part of the face on either side of the nose and below the eye ○ a baby with red cheeks 2. rudeness ○ He had the cheek to ask for more money. (NOTE: no plural in this sense)

cheekbone /tʃi:kbaʊn/ noun a bone just below the eye which forms the prominent part of the cheek cheekily /tʃi:kili/ adv in a cheeky way cheeky /tʃi:ki/ adj rude. Synonym impudent. Antonym respectful (NOTE: cheekier – cheekiest)

③ cheer /tʃiə/ noun a shout of praise or encouragement ○ When he scored the goal a great cheer went up. □ three cheers three shouts of praise for someone ○ Three cheers for the goalkeeper! hip! hip! hooray! ■ verb to shout encouragement ○ The crowd cheered when the first marathon runners appeared. Synonym applaud. Antonym boo

② cheerful /'tʃiəf(ə)l/ adj happy cheerfully /'tʃiəf(ə)li/ adv in a happy way cheerfulness /'tʃiəf(ə)lnəs/ noun the state of being cheerful. Synonym happiness. Antonym sadness cheerily /'tʃiərlɪ/ adv in a cheery way

③ cheerio /,tʃiəri'əʊ/ interj goodbye (informal) cheerleader /'tʃiəli:də/ noun a person who directs the cheering of a crowd cheerless /'tʃiələs/ adj unpleasant and unwelcoming. Synonym gloomy cheers! /'tʃiəz/ interj (when drinking) 1. thank you! 2. good health! ○ They all lifted their glasses and said 'cheers!'

③ cheer up /tʃiər 'ʌp/ verb to become happier □ cheer up! don't be miserable! □ to cheer someone up to make someone happier ○ She made him a good meal to try to cheer him up. Synonym perk up. Antonym depress cheery /tʃiəri/ adj happy (NOTE: cheerier – cheeriest)

② cheese /tʃi:z/ noun a solid food made from milk ○ She ordered a cheese omelette and chips. ○ At the end of the meal we'll have biscuits and cheese. ○ Can I have a pound of Cheshire cheese, please? □ 'say cheese!' used when asking people to smile when their photo is being taken (informal) ○ The photographer got us all in a line and then told us to 'say cheese!'.

cheeseburger /tʃi:zbɜ:gə/ noun a hamburger with melted cheese on top cheesecake /'tʃi:zkeɪk/ noun a tart with a sweet pastry base and cooked cream cheese on top, often covered with fruit cheesed off /,tʃi:zd ɒf/ adj fed up, annoyed about something (informal) cheesy /'tʃi:zi/ adj 1. like cheese in appearance, flavour or consistency 2. cheap and without style cheetah /'tʃi:tə/ noun an animal like a small leopard, with black spots on pale fur, which can run faster than any other animal

③ chef /ʃef/ noun a cook in a restaurant

③ chemical /'kemɪk(ə)l/ adj referring to chemistry ○ If you add acid it sets off a chemical reaction. ■ noun a substance which is formed by reactions between elements ○ Rows of glass bottles containing chemicals.

○ Chemicals are widely used in agriculture. ○ Chemicals are widely used in agriculture.

③ chemist /'kemɪst/ noun 1. a person who prepares and sells medicines ○ Ask the chemist to give you something for indigestion. 2. a scientist who studies chemical substances ○ She works as a chemist in a nuclear laboratory.

③ chemistry /'kemɪstri/ noun 1. the science of chemical substances and their reactions ○ She's studying chemistry at university. ○ He passed his chemistry exam. 2. □ personal chemistry reaction of one person to another ○ The personal chemistry of the two leaders was very good.

chemotherapy /,ki:məʊ'θerəpi/ noun the process of using chemical drugs to fight a disease, especially using toxic chemicals to destroy rapidly developing cancer cells (NOTE: no plural)

① cheque /tʃek/ noun a note to a bank asking for money to be paid from one account to another ○ I paid for the jacket by cheque. ○ He made out the cheque to Mr Smith. ○ He's forgotten to sign the cheque. (NOTE: The US spelling is check.)

② chequebook /tʃekbuk/ noun a set of blank cheques attached together in a cover (NOTE: The US spelling is checkbook.)

cheque card /'tʃek ka:d/ noun a plastic bank card that guarantees that a cheque will be paid by the bank chequered /'tʃekəd/ adj 1. laid out in a pattern of squares 2. varied, with good and bad parts ○ She had a chequered career in the police force.

chequered flag /,tʃekəd 'flæg/ noun a black and white check flag used to show the end of a motor race cherish /'tʃerɪʃ/ verb 1. to love ○ The two persons he cherished most died during the year. ○ She cherished the old ring given to her by her grandmother. 2. to cling on to a hope ○ She still cherishes the hope of living in a warmer country.

③ cherry /'tʃeri/ noun a small sweet red fruit, which grows on a tree cherry tomato /'tʃeri tə,ma:təʊ/ noun a variety of very small tomato cherub /'tʃerəb/ noun 1. a small fat angel 2. a child who looks like an angel. Synonym angel

③ chess /tʃes/ noun a game for two people played on a board with sixteen pieces, often shaped like people, on each side (NOTE: no plural) chessboard /'tʃesbɔ:d/ noun a board with black and white squares used to play chess on chessman /'tʃesmæn/ noun a piece used in the game of chess

② chest /tʃest/ noun 1. the top front part of the body, where the heart and lungs are ○ If you have pains in your chest or if you have chest pains, you ought to see a doctor. ○ The doctor listened to the patient's chest. ○ She was rushed to hospital with chest wounds. ○ He has a 48-inch chest. □ to get something off your chest to speak honestly about a problem 2. a piece of furniture, like a large box ○ He keeps his old clothes in a chest under the bed.

chest freezer /'tʃest ,frɪ:zə/ noun a horizontal freezer with a lid on top chestnut /'tʃesnət/ noun 1. ♀ horse chestnut, sweet chestnut (trees) 2. a large reddish-brown shiny nut, from a horse chestnut or sweet chestnut tree 3. the wood from a chestnut tree ○ a chestnut table 4. a red-brown colour ○ She has beautiful long chestnut hair. 5. a red-brown horse ○ Do you know the name of the chestnut that came last? 6. an old joke ○ His speech was just a series of not very amusing old chestnuts.

chest of drawers /,tʃest əv 'drɔ:z/ plural noun a piece of furniture with several drawers for clothes chevron /'fevrən/ noun 1. a V shape ○ A sign with a white chevron indicates a bend in the road. 2. a piece of braid, shaped like a V, sewn on the sleeve of a soldier's uniform to show his or her rank ○ Now that he has been promoted he has two gold chevrons on his sleeve.

chew /tʃu:/ verb to make something soft with your teeth ○ You must chew your meat well, or you will get pains in your stomach. ○ The dog was lying in front of the fire chewing a bone.

② chewing gum /'tʃu:ɪŋ gʌm/ noun a sweet substance which you chew but do not swallow chew up /,tʃu: 'ʌp/ verb to ruin something by chewing it a lot chewy /'tʃu:i/ adj which must be chewed for a long time before swallowing chic /ʃɪ:k/ adj elegant and fashionable ○ It's very chic these days to have an all white sports car. ○ We took our visitors to a very chic restaurant in Mayfair. Synonym stylish. Antonym unfashionable ■ noun elegance ○ Her special brand of chic is like no one else's. Synonym style chick /tʃɪk/ noun a baby bird, especially a baby hen

② chicken /tʃɪkɪn/ noun 1. a young hen ○ Chickens were running everywhere in the farmyard. (NOTE: The plural is chickens.) 2. meat from a hen ○ We're having roast chicken for lunch. ○ Would you like another slice of chicken? ○ We bought some chicken sandwiches for lunch. (NOTE: no plural: some chicken; a piece of chicken; a slice of chicken) chicken out /,tʃɪkɪn 'aut/ verb to decide not to do something because you are scared (slang) chickenpox /tʃɪkɪn,poks/ noun an infectious disease of children, with fever and itchy red spots (NOTE: The scientific name is varicella.)

chickpea /'tʃɪkpi:/ noun 1. a yellow seed eaten mainly in salads 2. the plant that produces chickpeas chicory /'tʃɪkəri/ noun a vegetable, the leaves of which are used for salads, and the roots dried and ground to mix with coffee to make it bitter chide /tʃaɪd/ verb to criticise (literary). Synonym reproach. Antonym praise (NOTE: chided or chid /tʃɪd/ – has chided or chidden)

② chief /tʃi:f/ adj most important ○ He's the chief planner in the local authority. ○ What is the chief cause of air accidents? Synonym principal ■ noun 1. a person in charge in a group of people or in a business ○ He's been made the new chief of our department. ○ The fire chief warned that the building was dangerous. 2. the leader of a tribe ○ All the chiefs came together at a meeting.

Chief Constable /tʃɪf 'kənstəb(ə)l/ noun the person in charge of a police force

Chief Executive /tʃi:f ɪg'zekjutɪv/ noun the main director who runs a company

Chief Justice /tʃi:f 'dʒastɪs/ noun US the main judge in a court, including the main judge in the Supreme Court chiefly /tʃi:fli/ adv mainly. Synonym primarily

Chief of Staff /,tʃɪ:f əv 'stɑ:f/ noun 1. a high ranking officer who assists an officer who is in command ○ He was Chief of Staff to the general during the battle. 2. the main assistant or adviser to someone who has an important post ○ the president's Chief of Staff chieftain /'tʃi:ftən/ noun the leader of a tribe chiffon /'ʃɪfən/ noun a type of very thin light silk material chihuahua /tʃɪ'wə:wəl/ noun a breed of very small dog

① child /tʃaɪld/ noun 1. a young boy or girl ○ There was no TV when my mother was a child. ○ Here is a photograph of the Prime Minister as a child. ○ A group of children were playing on the beach. 2. the son or daughter ○ Whose child is that? ○ How many children have they got? ○ They have six children – two boys and four girls. (NOTE: The plural is children /'tʃɪldrən/.)

child abuse /tʃaɪld ə,bjʊ:s/ noun bad treatment of a child by an adult child benefit /tʃaɪld 'benɪfɪt/ noun money given by the government to the parents of young children childbirth /tʃaɪldbɜ:θ/ noun the act of giving birth to a child childcare /tʃaɪldkeəl/ noun the care of young children

③ childhood /tʃaɪldhʊd/ noun the time when someone is a child. Antonym adulthood childish /tʃaɪldɪʃ/ adj like a child; silly or foolish childless /tʃaɪldləs/ adj with no children childlike /tʃaɪldlaɪk/ adj innocent like a child. Antonym jaded childminder /tʃaɪldmaɪndəl/ noun a person who looks after children in his or her own home while the parents are working childproof /tʃaɪldpru:f/ adj 1. difficult for a child to open or operate 2. made safe for children to use ■ verb to make something safe for children or hard for them to open or operate children /tʃɪldrən/ plural of child children's home /'tʃɪldrən həʊm/ noun a home for children whose parents have died or for children whose parents are unable to look after them child's play /tʃaɪldz pleɪ/ noun something which is very easy child support /tʃaɪld sə,pɔ:t/ noun a sum of money paid by a divorced person to maintain the normal standard of living of his or her children

④ chill /tʃɪl/ noun 1. an illness caused by cold ○ You'll catch a chill if you don't wear a coat. 2. coldness ○ The sun came up and soon cleared away the morning chill. 3. an atmosphere of gloom ○ The death of the bride's father cast a chill over the wedding.

■ verb to cool ○ He asked for a glass of chilled orange juice. □ chilled to the bone (informal) ○ They were chilled to very cold the bone when they came back from their walk over the moors.

chilli /'tʃili/ noun a dried seed pod of a type of pepper plant, used to make hot sauces (NOTE: The US spelling is chili.)

chilli con carne /,tʃili kən 'kə:ni/ noun a Mexican dish of meat and beans cooked in a hot chilli sauce (NOTE: Do not confuse with chilly.)

chilling /'tʃilɪŋ/ adj frightening. Antonym reassuring chill out /,tʃil 'aut/ verb to relax chilly /'tʃili/ adj quite cold (NOTE: chillier – chillest) chime /tʃaim/ noun the ringing of bells ○ The chimes of Big Ben start the BBC News. Synonym clang ■ verb (of bells, doorbells or clocks) to ring ○ The church clock has just chimed four.

chimney /'tʃimni/ noun a tall brick column for taking smoke away from a fire □ he smokes like a chimney he smokes cigarettes all the time (informal) chimney stack /'tʃimni stæk/ noun a tall chimney rising above the roof of a factory or a house chimpanzee /tʃimpæn'zi:/, chimp /tʃimp/ noun a type of African ape

② chin /tʃin/ noun the front part of the bottom jaw ○ She suddenly stood up and hit him on the chin. □ to keep your chin up to stay confident ○ Even if everything seems to be going wrong, try to keep your chin up!

china /tʃaɪnə/ noun things such as cups and plates made of decorated fine white clay (NOTE: no plural)

① China /tʃaɪnə/ noun a very large country in Asia (NOTE: capital: Beijing; people: the Chinese; language: Chinese; currency: renminbi or yuan)

① Chinese /,tʃaɪ'nai:z/ adj referring to China ○ Her husband is Chinese. ○ We often go to a Chinese restaurant in the evening. ■ noun 1. a person from China ○ The Chinese were not present at the conference. (NOTE: The plural is Chinese.) 2. the language spoken in China ○ She had been taking Chinese lessons for some weeks. ○ The book has been translated into Chinese.

chink /tʃɪŋk/ noun 1. a very small hole or crack ○ Even a tiny chink in the curtains will let light into the darkroom. 2. a little noise of pieces of something hard hitting each other ○ The chink of glasses on the waiter's tray. ■ verb to make a little noise ○ We could hear the ice cubes chinking as she carried the tray of drinks over to us.

chinos /tʃi:nəʊz/ plural noun smart but casual thick cotton trousers chintz /tʃɪnts/ noun a thick cotton cloth with bright flower patterns, used, e.g., for curtains or for covering seats

② chip /tʃɪp/ noun 1. a long thin piece of potato fried in oil ○ He ordered chicken and chips and a glass of beer. 2. US a thin slice of potato, fried till crisp and eaten cold as a snack ○ He ordered a beer and a packet of chips. (NOTE: The British term is crisp.) 3. a small piece of something hard, such as wood or stone ○ Chips of stone flew all over the studio as he was carving the statue. 4. □ have a chip on your shoulder to feel constantly annoyed because you feel you have lost an advantage ○ He's got a chip on his shoulder because his brother has a better job than he has. 5. a piece of plastic or metal which represents money in gambling ○ The croupier raked the chips across the board. □ when the chips are down when the situation is serious and important decisions have to be made (informal) ■ verb to break a small piece off something hard ○ He banged the cup down on the plate and chipped it. (NOTE: chipping – chipped) chipboard /'tʃɪpbɔ:d/ noun a thick board made of small chips of wood glued together, used in carpentry (NOTE: no plural; for one piece say a sheet of chipboard, a piece of chipboard) chip in /,tʃɪp 'in/ verb 1. to contribute ○ We all chipped in for the present. 2. to interrupt ○ My assistant suddenly chipped in with a comment.

chipmunk /'tʃɪpmʌŋk/ noun a small North American animal, like a little striped squirrel chiropodist /kɪ'rɒpədɪst/ noun a person who specialises in looking after feet chirp /tʃɜ:p/ noun a sharp short call of birds or grasshoppers ○ Can you hear the chirp of the little birds in the nest? ■ verb (of birds or grasshoppers) to call ○ The little chicks were chirping in their box.

chirpy /tʃɜ:pi/ adj bright and cheerful (informal). Synonym lively chisel /'tʃɪz(ə)l/ noun a metal tool which you hit with a hammer to cut small pieces off wood or stone ○ The stone carver tapped the chisel very carefully with his hammer. ■ verb 1. to cut wood or stone with a chisel ○ We watched the sculptor chiselling away at the piece of stone. 2. to swindle (old) ○ He chiselled the old lady out of all her savings. (NOTE: chiselling – chiselled. The US spelling is chiseling – chiseled) chit /tʃɪt/ noun a note or small invoice (dated) chitchat /tʃɪtʃæt/ noun conversations about things which are not important (informal). Synonym chatter chivalrous /'ʃɪvələs/ adj courteous, very polite chivalry /'ʃɪvəli/ noun politeness or courtesy chives /tʃaɪvz/ plural noun a herb of which the leaves are used to decorate dishes or in soups or salads (NOTE: chives has no singular.)

chloride /'klorɪd/ noun a compound of chlorine and another substance chlorinated /'klorɪneɪtɪd/ adj added to or treated with chlorine chlorine /'klori:n/ noun a powerful greenish gas, used to sterilise water and to bleach things chlorofluorocarbon /,klorfləʊrəkɑ:bən/ noun full form of CFC chlorophyll /'klorfɪl/ noun the green colouring in plants choc /tʃɒk/ noun a chocolate (informal) choc-ice /'tʃɒk aɪs/ noun a hard block of ice cream covered with chocolate chock /tʃɒk/ noun a small block of wood which prevents wheels turning chock-a-block /,tʃɒk ə 'blɒk/ adj completely full (informal)

② chocolate /'tʃɒkət/ noun 1. a sweet brown food made from the crushed seeds of a tropical tree ○ Can I buy a bar of chocolate?

○ Her mother made a chocolate cake. 2. a single sweet made from chocolate ○ There are only three chocolates left in the box. ○ Who's eaten the last chocolate? 3. a drink made from chocolate powder and milk ○ I always have a cup of hot chocolate before I go to bed. 4. a dark brown colour, like chocolate ○ We have a chocolate-coloured carpet in the sitting room. (NOTE: no plural, except for meaning 2) chocolate chip /,tʃɒkət 'tʃip/ noun a small piece of hard chocolate, used in ice cream, biscuits or cakes

① choice /tʃɔ:s/ noun 1. the thing which is chosen ○ Paris was our first choice for our honeymoon. 2. the act of choosing something ○ You must give the customer time to make his or her choice. 3. a range of items to choose from ○ The store has a huge choice of furniture. □ I hadn't any choice, I had no choice there was nothing else I could do □ adj (of food) specially selected ○ choice meat ○ choice peaches. Synonym excellent choir /kwaɪə/ noun 1. a group of people who sing together ○ He sings in the church choir. 2. a part of a church where the choir sits ○ The nave was built in the 12th century, and the choir later.

choke /tʃəuk/ noun 1. (in a car) a valve which increases the flow of air to the engine ○ This model has an automatic choke. 2. a knob on the dashboard which makes this valve work ○ You need to pull out the choke to start the car. □ verb 1. to block something such as a pipe ○ The canal was choked with weeds. 2. to stop breathing properly because a piece of food, e.g., is blocking your windpipe ○ Don't talk with your mouth full or you'll choke. ○ He choked on a piece of bread or a piece of bread made him choke.

choked /tʃəukt/ adj overcome by emotion such as sadness or anger cholera /'kɒlərə/ noun a serious bacterial disease spread through infected food or water

③ cholesterol /kə'lestərɒl/ noun a fatty substance found in fats and oils, also produced by the liver and forming an essential part of all cells. Excess amounts can cause blocked arteries.

① choose /tʃu:z/ verb 1. to pick something which you like best ○ Have you chosen what you want to eat? ○ They chose him as team leader. ○ Don't take too long choosing a book to read on holiday. ○ There were several good candidates to choose from. ○ You must give customers plenty of time to choose. 2. to decide to do one thing when there are several things you could do ○ In the end, they chose to go to the cinema. ♦ choice (NOTE: choosing – chose /tʃəuz/ – has chosen /tʃəuz(ə)n/) choosy /'tʃu:zi/ adj difficult to please (informal). Synonym particular

① chop /tʃɒp/ noun a piece of meat with a rib bone attached ○ We had lamb chops for dinner. □ verb 1. to cut something into small pieces with an axe or knife ○ He spent the afternoon chopping wood for the fire. 2. □ to chop and change to do one thing, then another ○ He keeps chopping and changing and can't make his mind up.

① chop down /tʃɒp 'daʊn/ verb to cut down a tree, e.g., with an axe. Synonym shorten

① chop off /tʃɒp 'ɒf/ verb to cut something off, e.g. with an axe or knife chopper /'tʃɒpə/ noun 1. an axe, especially one for cutting meat ○ A butcher armed with a chopper was cutting up carcasses. 2. a helicopter ○ A chopper landed in the middle of the motorway to pick up the accident victims.

choppy /'tʃɒpi/ adj (of water) quite rough. Antonym calm chopsticks /tʃɒpstɪks/ noun a pair of small sticks used in China, Japan, etc., to eat food or to stir food when cooking chop suey /tʃɒp 'su:i/ noun a Chinese dish of fried meat and bean sprouts

① chop up /tʃɒp 'ʌp/ verb to cut something roughly into pieces choral /'kɔ:rləl/ adj referring to a choir

③ chord /kɔ:d/ noun 1. several notes played together in harmony ○ He sat down at the piano and played a few chords. 2. a line which joins two points on a curve ○ Draw a chord across this circle. (NOTE: Do not confuse with cord.)

chore /tʃɔ:/ noun a piece of routine work, especially housework choreographer /'kɔri'ɒgrəfə/ noun a person who works out the steps for a dance choreography /,kɔri'ɒgrəfi/ noun the art of arranging the steps for a dance chorister /'kɔristə/ noun a person who sings in a church choir. Synonym singer chortle /'tʃɔ:tł/ verb to chuckle loudly

③ chorus /'kɔ:riəs/ noun 1. a group of people who sing together ○ All the members of the chorus were on the stage. 2. a part of a song which is repeated later in the song ○ I'll sing the verses and everyone can join in the chorus. (NOTE: The plural is choruses.) ■ verb to say something all together ○ There was a knock at the door and they both chorused 'come in'.

chose /tʃo:z/ past tense of choose chosen adj /'tʃəuz(ə)n/ who or which has been selected ○ Only the chosen few have the right to sit at the President's table. ■ past participle of choose chowder /'tʃaudə/ noun soup made of fish, milk and vegetables

③ Christ /kraɪst/ noun Jesus Christ, the person on whose life and teachings the Christian religion is based ■ interj used for showing you are annoyed (taboo) ○ Christ! It's eight o'clock already and I haven't started cooking dinner.

christen /'kris(ə)n/ verb 1. to give a name to a Christian baby in church ○ She was christened Natasha. 2. to give a name to something ○ She was christened the 'Iron Lady' by the press. 3. to use something for the first time ○ Come and help us christen our new set of champagne glasses.

christening /'kris(ə)nɪŋ/ noun a ceremony in church where a baby is given a name

③ Christian /'kristʃən/ noun a person who believes in the teaching of Christ and in Christianity ○ The early Christians were victims of the Roman emperors. ■ adj referring to the religion based on the teachings of Jesus Christ ○ There are several Christian churches in the town. ○ She practises all the Christian virtues.

Christianity /,kristi'æniti/ noun a religion based on the doctrine preached by Jesus Christ and followed by Christians ever since

③ Christian name /'kristʃən neɪm/ noun the special name given to someone as a child after birth or at their christening. Synonym first name, given name

① Christmas /'krɪsməs/ noun a Christian festival on December 25th, the birthday of Jesus Christ ○ Have you opened your Christmas presents yet? □ what did you get for Christmas? what presents were you given for Christmas? □ Happy Christmas! a way of greeting someone on Christmas Day

Christmas cake /'krɪsməs keɪk/ noun a special fruit cake eaten at Christmas time

Christmas card /'krɪsməs ka:d/ noun a card which is sent to someone at Christmas

Christmas carol /,krɪsməs 'kærəl/ noun a special song sung at Christmas

Christmas cracker /,krɪsməs 'krækə/ noun a colourful paper tube which makes a little bang when it is pulled, given at Christmas parties

Christmas Day /,krɪsməs 'deɪ/ noun December 25th, the day on which Christmas is celebrated

③ Christmas Eve /,krɪsməs 'i:v/ noun 1. 24th December, the day before Christmas Day ○ The office is closed on Christmas Eve. 2. the evening of the 24th December ○ a Christmas Eve party

Christmas pudding /,krɪsməs 'pu:dɪŋ/ noun a special pudding eaten at Christmas time

Christmas tree /'krɪsməs tri:/ noun a fir tree which is brought into the house at Christmas and decorated with coloured lights and ornaments chrome /kraʊm/ noun an alloy of chromium and other metals, used to give a shiny silver surface ○ A 1960s chair with chrome legs and a plastic seat.

chromium /'kraʊmɪəm/ noun a metallic trace element used to make alloys such as steel chromosome /'kraʊməsəʊm/ noun a rod-shaped structure in the nucleus of a cell, formed of DNA which carries the genes chronic /'kronik/ adj 1. (of illness or pain) serious and continuing for a long time ○ She has chronic bronchitis. ○ Chronic asthma sufferers need to use special drugs. Compare acute 2. referring to someone who does a particular activity, especially a harmful one, often ○ a chronic smoker 3. very bad (informal) ○ We have a chronic shortage of skilled staff.

chronicle /'kronik(ə)l/ noun a record of things which take place ○ He wrote a chronicle of the war. ■ verb to write the history of events in the order in which they took place ○ He has started interviewing local old people to chronicle the history of the village.

chronological /,krənə'ɒldʒɪk(ə)l/ adj □ chronological order the arrangement of things in order of their dates ○ Put the in- voices in chronological order. ○ The battles are listed in chronological order.

chronologically /,krə'nə'lɒdʒɪkli/ adv in chronological order chronology /krə'nɒlədʒi/ noun the order in which things happened chrysalis /'krɪsəlɪs/ noun an insect when it is covered with a hard case as it changes from a grub or caterpillar to a butterfly or moth. Also called pupa (NOTE: The plural is chrysalises.)

chrysanthemum /kri'sænθɪməm/ noun a type of autumn flower with many small petals chubby /'tʃʌbi/ adj pleasantly fat. Synonym plump (NOTE: chubbier – chubbiest)

② chuck /tʃʌk/ noun a part of a drill which holds the bit ○ He released the chuck and put in a bigger bit. Synonym chock ■ verb to throw ○ Chuck me that newspaper, can you? ○ She chucked the book out of the window.

chuckle /'tʃʌk(ə)l/ noun a quiet laugh ○ We all had a good chuckle over the chairman's speech. Synonym laughter ■ verb to give a quiet laugh ○ He chuckled when she said she wanted a good steady job.

chuffed /tʃʌft/ adj pleased or proud chug /tʃʌg/ verb to make a regular noise like an engine (informal). Synonym continue (NOTE: chugging – chugged) chum /tʃʌm/ noun a friend (informal) chummy /tʃʌmi/ adj very friendly (informal) chunk /tʃʌŋk/ noun a large thick piece chunky /tʃʌŋki/ adj made of large or thick pieces (NOTE: chunkier – chunkiest)

① church /tʃɜːtʃ/ noun a building where Christians go to pray ○ We usually go to church on Sunday mornings. ○ The oldest building in the village is St Mary's Church. ○ The times of the church services are given on the board outside. (NOTE: The plural is churches.)

churchgoer /'tʃɜːtʃgəʊər/ noun a person who goes to church regularly churchman /'tʃɜːtʃmən/ noun a priest, especially in the Anglican Church (NOTE: The plural is churchmen.)

Church of England /'tʃɜːtʃ əv 'ɪnglənd/ noun the Protestant church which is the official religion of England, with the Queen as its head. Also called Anglican Church.

Abbr C of E

churchyard /'tʃɜːtʃjɑːd/ noun a cemetery next to a church. Synonym graveyard churlish /tʃɜːlɪʃ/ adj unfriendly or unhelpful churn /tʃɜːn/ noun a large metal container for milk ○ Churns of fresh milk were lined up at the farm entrance waiting to be picked up.

■ verb 1. to turn cream to make butter ○ Do you know of any farm where butter is still churned by hand? 2. to buy and sell shares on someone's behalf, in order to earn commission for yourself ○ Few small investors realise how much money they lose through churning.

churn out /tʃɜːn 'aʊt/ verb to produce something in a series chute /ʃuːt/ noun 1. a slide into water in a swimming pool ○ The kids screamed as they slid down the chute into the pool. 2. a slide for sending things down to a lower level ○ The parcels are wrapped and labelled and then sent down a chute to where the delivery vans are waiting.

chutney /'tʃʌtni/ noun a highly-flavoured sauce usually made with tomatoes, onions, vinegar and spices cider /'saɪdə/ noun an alcoholic drink made from fermented apple juice cigar /sɪ'gɑː/ noun a tight roll of dried tobacco leaves which you can light and smoke

② cigarette /,sɪgə'ret/ noun chopped dried tobacco rolled in very thin paper which you can light and smoke ○ A packet or pack of cigarettes. ○ The room was full of cigarette smoke.

cigarette holder /,sɪgə'ret ,həʊldə/ noun a plastic or metal holder into which you put cigarettes to smoke ciggy /'sɪgɪ/ abbr cigarette (informal) cinch /sɪntʃ/ noun something which is very easy to do (informal) cine-camera /'sɪni ,kæm(ə)rə/ noun a camera for making moving films

③ cinema /'sɪnɪmə/ noun 1. a building where you go to watch films ○ We went to the cinema on Friday night. □ what's on at the cinema this week? which film is being shown at the cinema this week? 2. the art of making moving pictures ○ He has written books about the French cinema of the 1960s.

cinematic /,sɪnɪ'mætɪk/ adj referring to films and the cinema cinematography /,sɪnɪmə'tɒgrəfi/ noun the art or practice of making films cinnamon /sɪnəmən/ noun a spice made from the inner bark of a tropical tree cipher /'saɪfə/ noun 1. a code, or secret language for sending messages ○ They sent the message in cipher. 2. a monogram, the initials of a name linked together in an attractive way ○ The cipher H+A (for Henry and Anne) is used as decoration in parts of Hampton Court Palace.

circa /'sɜːkə/ prep about (formal; used of dates) (NOTE: usually written ca.)

② circle /'sɜːk(ə)l/ noun 1. a line forming a round shape ○ He drew a circle on the blackboard. 2. anything forming a round shape ○

The children sat in a circle round the teacher. ○ The soldiers formed a circle round the prisoner. 3. a group of people or a society ○ She went to live abroad and lost contact with her old circle of friends. ○ He moves in the highest government circles. 4. a row of seats above the stalls in a theatre ○ We got tickets for the upper circle. ■ verb to make circular movements ○ Vultures were circling above the dead antelope. Synonym encircle ③ circuit /'sɜ:kɪt/ noun 1. a trip around something ○ His first circuit of the track was very slow. 2. a path of electricity ○ He's designed a circuit for a burglar alarm.

circuit board /'sɜ:kɪt bɔ:d/ noun a board composed of a printed circuit circuit breaker /'sɜ:kɪt 'breɪkə/ noun a safety device in an electrical circuit circuitous /sɜ:k'ju:təs/ adj □ circuitous route a way which takes much longer than usual ○ The taxi took me on some circuitous route through the East End.

② circular /'sɜ:kjʊlə/ adj round in shape ○ a circular table Synonym spherical ■ noun a publicity leaflet ○ The restaurant sent round a circular offering a 10% discount.

③ circulate /'sɜ:kjuleɪt/ verb 1. to send something round to various people ○ They circulated a new list of prices to all their customers. 2. to move round ○ Blood circulates round the body. ○ Waiters circulated round the room carrying trays of drinks. 3. to talk to different people at a party ○ Let's talk later – I've got to circulate.

④ circulation /,sɜ:kjʊ'læʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. the act of circulating ○ The circulation of the new price list to all departments will take several days. □ banknotes which are in circulation banknotes which have been issued and are in use 2. the movement of blood around the body ○ Rub your hands together to get the circulation going. ○ He has poor circulation. 3. the number of copies of a magazine or newspaper which are sold ○ The new editor hopes to increase the circulation.

circumcise /'sɜ:kəm'saɪz/ verb to remove the foreskin from a boy's or man's penis circumcision /,sɜ:kəm'sɪz(ə)n/ noun the act of removing the foreskin from a boy's or man's penis circumference /sə'kʌmf(ə)rəns/ noun the distance round the outside edge of a circle. Synonym perimeter circumflex /'sɜ:kəm'fleks/ noun an accent like an upside down 'v' placed over certain vowels circumnavigate /,sɜ:kəm'nævɪgeɪt/ verb to sail round the world circumnavigation /,sɜ:kəm'nævɪ'geʃ(ə)n/ noun the act of sailing round the world circumscribe /'sɜ:kəm'skraɪb/ verb to set limits to something (formal). Synonym limit circumspect /'sɜ:kəm'spekt/ adj very careful. Synonym cautious. Antonym reckless circumstance /'sɜ:kəm'stæns/ noun 1. a fact or condition that affects a situation 2. events beyond someone's control circumstantial /,sɜ:kəm'stænsʃəl/ adj giving details of circumstances □ circumstantial evidence evidence which suggests something but does not offer firm proof circumvent /,sɜ:kəm'vent/ verb to avoid something circus /'sɜ:kəs/ noun 1. a travelling show, often given under a large tent, with animals, clowns and other performers ○ We went to the circus last night. ○ The circus is coming to town for the bank holiday weekend. 2. a busy road junction in the centre of a large town ○ Oxford Circus is where Oxford Street crosses Regent Street. (NOTE: The plural is circuses.)

cirrus /'sɪrəs/ noun a small very high fleecy cloud cistern /'sɪstən/ noun a large tank for water citadel /'sɪtəd(ə)l/ noun 1. a fort guarding a town ○ There is a magnificent view over the harbour from the ramparts of the citadel. 2. a place where something is kept safely ○ Rome is renowned as the citadel of Catholicism.

citation /sai'teɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. words used in giving someone an award or honour, explaining why the award is being made ○ He received a posthumous citation for bravery. 2. a quotation from a text ○ The citation comes from a medical journal. 3. an official request asking someone to appear in court ○ He received a citation to appear before the court on May 10th.

cite /saɪt/ verb 1. to quote a reference or a person as proof ○ She cited several passages from his latest book. 2. to call someone to appear in court ○ He was cited to appear before the magistrates. (NOTE: Do not confuse with sight, site.)

② citizen /'sɪtɪz(ə)n/ noun 1. a person who comes from a certain country or has the same right to live there as someone who was born there ○ All Australian citizens have a duty to vote. ○ He was born in Germany, but is now a British citizen. 2. a person who lives in a certain city ○ The citizens of London complained about their taxes.

③ citizenship /'sɪtɪz(ə)nʃɪp/ noun the state of being a citizen citrus fruit /'sɪtrəs fru:t/ noun an edible fruit such as an orange, lemon, grapefruit or lime

① city /'siti/ noun a large town, originally created by charter, often with a cathedral ○ Walking around the hot city streets can be very exhausting. ○ Which is the largest city in Germany? ○ Traffic is a problem in big cities.

City /'siti/ noun the main financial district in London ○ He works in the City.

city centre /'siti 'sentə/ noun the central part of a town (NOTE: The US term is downtown.)

civic /'sivɪk/ adj referring to a city. Synonym public

civic centre /'sivɪk 'sentə/ noun a building with social and sports facilities for a town

② civil /'sɪv(ə)l/ adj 1. belonging to the general public and not to the armed forces ○ He left the air force and became a civil airline pilot. 2. referring to ordinary people ○ There have been civil disturbances in the provinces again today. 3. polite ○ She wasn't very civil to the policeman. □ please keep a civil tongue in your head please be polite civil action /,sɪv(ə)l 'ækʃən/ noun a court action brought by one citizen against another, as opposed to a criminal action civil aviation /,sɪv(ə)l ,eɪvi'eyʃ(ə)n/ noun the practice of flying commercial or passenger planes, not war planes civil engineer /,sɪv(ə)l endʒɪ'nɪə/ noun a person who designs and manages the building of things such as roads, bridges and railways civil engineering /,sɪv(ə)l endʒɪ'nɪərɪŋ/ noun the science of building, especially of roads, bridges and railways (NOTE: no plural) civilian /sə'veliən/ adj not in the armed forces ○ Both the military and civilian personnel will be involved. ○ The civilian population was advised to take shelter in their cellars. ■ noun an ordinary citizen who is not in the armed forces ○ It is certain that ordinary civilians will be affected by the war. ○ Many civilians were killed in the air raids. Antonym martial

② civilisation /,sɪvɪlɪz'zeɪʃ(ə)n/, civilization noun a civilised society or civilised way of organising society

civilise /'sɪvɪlaɪz/, civilize verb 1. to educate people to a higher level of society ○ Missionaries went out with the idea that they would civilise local tribes. 2. to make someone less rude or less uncouth ○ Their new life civilised them a little.

civilised /'sɪvɪlɪzɪd/, civilized adj 1. organised to a high level of social behaviour ○ How can a civilised nation carry out such barbarous punishments. 2. pleasant and polite ○ We had a very civilised evening, chatting over a good meal. ○ Try to greet my parents in a civilised manner if you can. ○ It's so good to be in civilised company again.

civility /sɪ'velɪtɪ/ noun polite behaviour. Synonym politeness. Antonym rudeness (NOTE: The plural is civilities.)

civil law /,sɪv(ə)l 'laʊ/ noun laws relating to people's rights civil liberties /,sɪv(ə)l 'libətɪz/ plural noun the rights of ordinary people to act freely within the law ○ a campaign to extend civil liberties ○ Security cameras on buildings can be seen as an infringement of civil liberties. (NOTE: Liberty of the press and liberty of the individual are examples of civil liberties.)

civil rights /,sɪv(ə)l 'raɪts/ plural noun rights of an ordinary citizen ○ She campaigned for civil rights in the 1980s.

③ civil servant /,sɪv(ə)l 'sɜːvənt/ noun a person who works in a government department

③ civil service /,sɪv(ə)l 'sɜːvɪs/ noun an organisation and the staff who administer a country

③ civil war /,sɪv(ə)l 'wɔː/ noun a war between citizens inside a country

COMMENT: The English Civil War, from around 1642 to 1651, was fought between supporters of the King (Charles I) and the supporters of Parliament, one of whose leaders was Oliver Cromwell. The king was captured, tried and executed in 1649, and Cromwell took the title of Lord Protector. The members of the King's party were called Cavaliers, and the supporters of the Parliament were called Roundheads because they wore their hair cut short. The American Civil war of 1861 to 1865 was fought when eleven Southern states seceded from the Union (i.e. from the United States) and fought against the North under President Lincoln.

CJD abbr Creutzfeldt-Jakob disease

clad /klæd/ adj 1. dressed in a particular way ○ a group of leather-clad dancers ○ The soldiers were clad in winter greatcoats. 2. covered ○ the snow-clad fields ○ a white stucco-clad house

① claim /klem/ noun 1. asking for money ○ His claim for a pay increase was turned down. 2. a statement of something which you believe to be true but have no proof ○ His claim that the car belonged to him was correct. Synonym assertion 3. a demand for money against an insurance policy ○ After the floods, insurance companies received hundreds of claims. □ to put in or submit a claim to ask the insurance company officially to pay damages ○ I put in a claim for repairs to the car. ○ She submitted a claim for £250,000 damages against the driver of the other car. ■ verb 1. to demand something as a right ○ Steel workers have claimed huge pay rises. ○ If they charged you too much you must claim a refund. 2. to state, but without any proof ○ He claims he never received the letter. ○ She claims that the car belongs to her. 3. to say you own something which has been left behind or lost ○ No one has claimed the umbrella found in my office, so I am going to keep it.

③ claimant /'kleɪmənt/ noun 1. a person who claims something ○ Benefit claimants will be paid late because of the bank holiday. 2. a person who starts a legal action against someone in the civil courts ○ She's the claimant in a libel action. ○ The court decided in favour of the claimant. (NOTE: The former term was plaintiff. The other party in an action is the defendant.)

④ claim back /,kleɪm 'bæk/ verb to claim something which you owned before clairvoyant /'kleɪvərɔɪənt/ noun a person who says he or she can see in his or her mind things which are happening elsewhere or can foretell the future. Synonym psychic clam /klæm/ noun a large shellfish found in sand, which is dug out with a spade clamber /'klæmbə/ verb to climb with difficulty clammy /'klæmi/ adj damp and cold (NOTE: clammier – clammiest) clamour /'klæmər/ noun 1. noise such as shouting ○ The clamour of the crowd at the rugby ground could be heard for miles around. 2. a loud demand ○ a clamour for democratic elections ■ verb to shout or to demand loudly ○ People are clamouring for tickets. ○ The crowd clamoured to see the manager. (NOTE: [all verb senses] The US spelling is clamor.)

clamp /klæmp/ noun a device that holds something tightly together ■ verb 1. to hold something tight with a clamp ○ He spread glue over the two pieces of wood and then clamped them together. 2. to prevent an illegally parked car from moving by attaching a clamp to one wheel ○ I parked on a double yellow line and was clamped.

clampdown /'klæmpdaʊn/ noun a severe action to stop something from happening (informal). Synonym restriction clam up /,klæm 'ʌp/ verb to refuse to talk (informal) (NOTE: clamming – clammed) clan /klen/ noun a family tribe, especially in Scotland clandestine /klen'destɪn/ adj secret, undercover clang /klæŋ/ noun a loud noise of metal ringing ○ Can you hear the clang of the bells? ■ verb to make a loud ringing noise ○ We were woken up by the bells clangling in the churches round us. Synonym clank clank /klæŋk/ noun a noise of metal hitting metal ○ You could hear the clank of chains as the prisoners came into the court. Synonym clang ■ verb to make a noise of metal hitting other metal clansman /'klænzmən/, clanswoman /'klænzwomən/ noun a member of a clan (NOTE: The plural is clansmen, clanswomen.)

clap /klæp/ verb 1. to beat your hands together to show you are pleased ○ At the end of her speech the audience stood up and clapped. ○ He clapped his hands together in delight. 2. □ to clap someone into jail to put someone in jail ○ He was arrested and clapped into jail. ■ noun 1. the action of beating your hands together ○ He did very well – give him a big clap, everyone. 2. □ clap of thunder a sudden loud noise made by thunder ○ A thunderclap woke us up. ○ We were woken by a sudden clap of thunder. clapped out /,klæpt 'aʊt/ adj worn out or broken down (informal) claret /'klærət/ noun a red wine from Bordeaux clarification /,klærifi'keɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the act of making something clear. Synonym explanation

③ clarify /'klærifai/ verb 1. to make something clear ○ We will have to clarify the situation before taking any further decisions. 2. to heat something, especially butter, until it becomes transparent ○ Pour clarified butter over the vegetables.

clarinet /,klærɪnet/ noun a wind instrument in the woodwind group

③ clarity /'klærɪti/ noun clearness. Antonym ambiguity (NOTE: no plural)

clash /klæʃ/ noun 1. a loud noise of metal things hitting each other ○ She heard a loud clash like two saucepans being banged together. 2. a battle or an argument ○ There were clashes outside the football ground between supporters of the two teams. ○ We are getting reports of clashes between government forces and rebel groups. 3. the shock of two colours seen close together ○ If you wear red tights with an orange dress there will be a colour clash. (NOTE: The plural is clashes.) ■ verb 1. to bang things together making a loud noise ○ She has to clash the cymbals at the end of the piece of music. 2. to argue violently ○ She clashed with her mother about wearing a ring in her nose. ○ The opposition deputies clashed with the government during the debate. 3. to fight ○ Rioting fans clashed with the police. 4. to happen at the same time as something else ○ The party clashes with a meeting I have to go to. ○ Unfortunately, the two meetings clash, so I'll have to miss one. 5. (of colours) to shock when put side by side ○ That bright pink tie clashes with your green shirt.

③ clasp /kla:sp/ noun 1. a device for holding something shut ○ My handbag won't close properly – the clasp is broken. 2. a piece of women's jewellery worn fastened to clothes ○ Her shawl was attached with a silver clasp. 3. the act of holding something in your hand ○ I could feel the firm clasp of his hand on my shoulder. ■ verb to hold something tight ○ The child clasped his hand anxiously. Synonym grasp

① class /kla:s/ noun 1. a group of children or adults who go to school or college together ○ There are 30 children in my son's class. 2. a group of people who were at the same school or college at the same time in the past ○ She's organising a reunion for the class of '76. 3. a lesson 4. people of the same group in society ○ People from different social classes mixed at the reception. 5. a certain level of quality ○ Always buy the best class of product. ○ These peaches are Class 1. 6. the quality of seats or service on a plane or train ■ first class the best quality and most expensive option ○ If you travel first class on the train to France, you get free drinks.

class act /kla:s 'ækt/ noun a person or thing considered to be an example of excellence

Class A drug /kla:s ei 'dræg/ noun an illegal drug such as heroin, which is considered to be one of the strongest and most dangerous drugs

③ classic /'klaesik/ noun a great book, play or piece of music ○ 'The Maltese Falcon' is a Hollywood classic. ○ We have to study several classics of English literature for our course. ■ adj 1. (of a style) elegant and traditional ○ The classic little black dress is always in fashion. ○ The style of the shopfront is classic, simple and elegant. 2. based on Ancient Greek or Roman architecture ○ The British Museum is built in classic Greek style. 3. typical ○ It was a classic example of his inability to take decisions.

③ classical /'klaesik(ə)l/ adj 1. elegant and based on the Ancient Greek or Roman style ○ a classical eighteenth century villa 2. referring to Ancient Greece and Rome ○ classical Greek literature 3. referring to traditional, serious music ○ a concert of classical music classical music /klaesik(ə)l 'mju:zik/ noun European music such as that written by Mozart or Bach, based on specific structures

Classics /'klaesiks/ plural noun the study of the languages, literature and philosophy of Ancient Greece and Rome ○ She studied Classics at Oxford. ○ He has a Classics degree from Edinburgh.

classification /klæsifi'keif(ə)n/ noun a way of arranging things into categories

③ classified /'klæsifaid/ adj 1. which has been put into a category 2. secret classified ad /klæsifaid 'æd/, classified advertisement /klæsifaid əd've:tɪsmənt/ noun an advertisement listed in a newspaper under special headings such as 'property for sale' or 'jobs wanted'

③ classify /'klæsifai/ verb to arrange things into groups. Synonym categorise classless /'kla:sləs/ adj with no division into social classes. Synonym egalitarian classmate /'kla:smæit/ noun a person who is or was in the same class as you at school or college

③ classroom /'kla:sru:m/ noun a room in a school where children are taught ○ When the teacher came into the classroom all the children were shouting.

classy /'kla:si/ adj stylish and expensive-looking (informal). Synonym chic (NOTE: classier – classiest) clatter /'klætə/ noun a noise of things hitting together ○ The clatter from the kitchen can be heard in the restaurant. ○ There's a constant clatter of machines in the workshop. Synonym clang ■ verb to make a loud, harsh noise ○ The wooden cart clattered across the square. Synonym rattle

② clause /'klu:zəl/ noun 1. a paragraph in a treaty or legal document ○ According to clause six, payments will not be due until next year. 2. a part of a sentence ○ The sentence has two clauses, separated by the conjunction 'and'.

claustrophobia /,klo:st्रə'fəubɪə/ noun a fear of being shut inside a closed place claustrophobic /,klo:st्रə'fəubɪk/ adj feeling or causing claustrophobia clavicle /'klævɪk(ə)l/ noun the collarbone, one of two long thin bones joining the shoulders to the breastbone claw /kla:/ noun 1. a nail on the foot of an animal or bird ○ The dog dug a hole with its claws. 2. an arm of a crab or lobster, with pincers ○ I got a nasty nip from the lobster's claws. ■ verb to scratch or pull someone or something with claws ○ The keeper was clawed by the tiger and had to have stitches in his arm. ○ The cat has clawed the leg of the kitchen table. Synonym scrape ■ to claw your way up to go up with great difficulty ○ She clawed her way up the promotion ladder.

③ clay /kleɪ/ noun 1. a stiff soil found in river valleys ○ The soil in our garden has a lot of clay in it. 2. a stiff soil used for making bricks or china ○ The potter threw a lump of clay onto his wheel and started to make a pot.

① clean /klɪn/ adj 1. not dirty ○ Wipe your glasses with a clean handkerchief. ○ The bedrooms must be spotlessly clean. ○ Tell the waitress these cups aren't clean. ○ The maid forgot to put clean towels in the bathroom. □ to come clean to confess to, e.g. a crime (informal) ○ He came clean and owned up to stealing the watch. 2. not used ○ Take a clean sheet of paper. 3. with no record of offences ○ Candidates should hold a clean driving licence. 4. fair, according to the rules ○ We played a good clean game of football. (NOTE: cleaner – cleanest) □ verb to make something clean, by taking away dirt ○ Remember to clean your teeth every morning. ○ She was cleaning the kitchen when the telephone rang. ○ He cleans his car every Saturday morning. Antonym soil □ adv completely ○ I clean forgot to send the letter. □ noun the action of cleaning ○ The restaurant kitchen needs a good clean.

clean-cut adv having a clear outline ○ a clean-cut photograph □ adj neat and tidy ○ a man in a clean-cut suit

③ cleaner /'kli:nə/ noun 1. a machine which removes dirt 2. a substance which removes dirt ○ This new oven cleaner doesn't get rid of the worst stains. 3. a person who cleans e.g. a house or an office ○ The cleaners didn't empty my wastepaper basket.

④ cleaning /'kli:nɪŋ/ noun 1. the action of making something clean ○ Cleaning the house after the party took hours. 2. clothes which are ready to be sent for dry-cleaning or which have been returned after dry-cleaning ○ She ran through the rain to her car with an armful of cleaning. Also called dry-cleaning cleanly /'kli:nli/ adv in a clean way clean out /,kli:n 'aʊt/ verb to make something empty and clean (informal) cleanse /klenz/ verb to make something very clean. Synonym rinse. Antonym soil cleaner /'klenzə/ noun a substance which removes dirt, especially from the face clean-shaven /,kli:n 'seɪv(ə)n/ adj with no beard or moustache. Antonym bearded ② clean up /,kli:n 'ap/ verb 1. to make everything clean and tidy, e.g. after a party ○ It took us three hours to clean up after her birthday party. 2. to remove corruption from a place ○ The police are going to have a hard job cleaning up this town. 3. to make a lot of money ○ He cleaned up at the races. ○ In no time he'd cleaned up £50,000.

clean-up /'kli:n 'ʌp/ noun the act of making something clean

① clear /klɪə/ adj 1. with nothing in the way ○ You can cross the road – it's clear now. ○ From the window, she had a clear view of the street. 2. with no clouds or mist ○ a clear blue sky ○ On a clear day, you can see the other side of the lake. 3. easily understood ○

She made it clear that she wanted us to go. ○ The instructions on the computer screen are not very clear. ○ Will you give me a clear answer – yes or no? 4. which is not covered and which you can easily see through ○ a clear glass window 5. (of a period of time) complete ○ It will take a clear week to process the information. □ three clear days three whole working days ○ Allow three clear days for the cheque to be paid into the bank. ■ verb 1. to remove something which is in the way ○ Snowploughs cleared the railway line of snow or cleared the snow from the railway line. ○ We'll get a plumber to clear the blocked pipe in the bathroom. □ to clear the table to take away things such as knives, forks and plates after a meal □ to clear your throat to cough slightly to get your voice ready for speaking 2. □ to clear a cheque to pass a cheque through the banking system, so that the money is transferred from one account to another ○ The cheque took ten days to clear or the bank took ten days to clear the cheque. 3. to sell cheaply in order to get rid of stock ○ 'demonstration models to clear' ○ If we reduce the price we'll clear the stock in no time. 4. (of a court) to find that someone is not guilty ○ The court cleared him of all the charges. 5. to go over the top of something without touching it ○ She cleared 1.3m in the high jump. □ adv not close ○ Stand clear of the doors, please. ○ I would advise you to stay clear of that dog.

clearance /'klɪərəns/ noun 1. the act of removing obstacles such as trees or old buildings from land ○ The clearance of the slums from the town centre will make land available for building. ○ The government has introduced a programme of slum clearance. 2. space for something to pass through ○ The lorry can get through the entrance with about twenty centimetres clearance on either side. 3. permission to do something ○ The control tower gave the plane clearance to land. (NOTE: no plural) clearance sale /'klɪərəns seɪl/ noun a sale of items at low prices to get rid of the stock clear away /,kliər ə'wei/ verb to take something away completely clear-cut /,kliə 'kət/ adj definite or distinct. Synonym precise. Antonym ambiguous clearing /'klɪərɪŋ/ noun 1. the act of removing obstacles ○ We don't want the public to interfere with the clearing of the wreckage from the railway track. 2. an area in a wood where the trees have been cut down ○ They set up camp in a clearing in the middle of the forest.

② clearly /'klɪəli/ adv 1. in a way which is easily understood or heard ○ He didn't speak clearly, and I couldn't catch the address he gave. 2. obviously ○ He clearly didn't like being told he was too fat.

clear off /'klɪər 'ɒf/ verb to go away (informal) clear out /'klɪər 'aut/ verb 1. to empty something completely ○ Can you clear out your bedroom cupboard? 2. to go away (informal) ○ Clear out! I don't want you here.

clear-sighted /,klɪər 'saɪtɪd/ adj able to think clearly and understand a problem. Synonym perceptive. Antonym confused

3. clear up /'klɪər 'ʌp/ verb 1. to tidy and clean a place completely ○ The cleaners refused to clear up the mess after the office party. 2. to solve a problem ○ In the end, we cleared up the mystery of the missing computer disk. 3. (of weather) to improve ○ I hope the weather clears up because we're going on holiday tomorrow. 4. (of an illness) to get better ○ He has been resting, but his cold still hasn't cleared up.

clear-up /'klɪər ʌp/ noun the action of clearing up cleavage /'kli:vɪdʒ/ noun 1. the space between the breasts, especially if it can be seen with a low-cut dress ○ All the ladies were dressed in black and there was not a cleavage in sight. 2. a split, or difference of opinion ○ The cleavage between the two groups became more and more apparent.

clef /klef/ noun a sign at the beginning of a written piece of music which shows how high the range of notes is cleft /klefɪt/ noun a crack in a rock ○ Small plants were growing in clefts in the rocks. Synonym fissure ■ adj split □ in a cleft stick in an awkward situation clemency /'klemənsɪ/ noun forgiveness shown to someone who has done something wrong clementine /'kleməntɪn/ noun a small sweet orange with a skin which is easily removed clench /klenч/ verb to close tightly. Synonym compress □ through clenched teeth with your teeth closed tight together ○ He muttered 'I'm sorry' through clenched teeth.

3. clergy /'klɛdʒi/ plural noun priests. Synonym priesthood clergyman /'klɛdʒmən/ noun a priest or minister, especially of the Anglican Church (NOTE: The plural is clergymen. They are usually referred to by the title Reverend.)

cleric /'klerɪk/ noun a priest or other clergyman clerical /'klerɪk(ə)l/ adj 1. referring to office work ○ A clerical error made the invoice £300.00 when it should have been £3000.00. ○ He's looking for part-time clerical work. 2.

referring to clergy ○ The newspaper story has been talked about in clerical circles.

clerk /klerk/ noun a person who works in an office

2. clever /'klevə/ adj intelligent, able to learn quickly ○ He's the cleverest person in the family. ○ She's very clever with money. ○ He is very clever at spotting bargains. □ he's clever with his hands he's good at making things with his hands cleverly /'klevəli/ adv in a clever way cleverness /'klevənəs/ noun being clever. Synonym skill cliché /'kli:ʃeɪ/ noun a saying or phrase which is too frequently used

3. click /klɪk/ noun 1. a short sharp sound ○ *She heard a click and saw the doorknob turn. 2. the act of pressing a key on a computer keyboard or a mouse button ■ verb 1. to make a short sharp sound ○ The cameras clicked as she came out of the church. ○ He clicked his fingers to attract the waiter's attention. 2. to become clear and easily understood □ suddenly everything clicked suddenly it all became clear 3. to quickly press the button on a mouse to start a computer function ○ The pull-down menu is displayed by clicking on the menu bar at the top of the screen. ○ *Click twice to start the program.

① client /'klaɪənt/ noun a person to whom you give a service. Synonym customer clientele /'kli:ən'tel/ noun all the customers of a shop or business cliff /klɪf/ noun a high rock face, usually by the sea. Synonym precipice cliffhanger /'klɪfhæŋgə/ noun 1. an ending to a part of a story which makes you want to know what happens next 2. a situation in which people are tense because they do not know what will happen next climactic /klai'mæktɪk/ adj referring to a climax

③ climate /'klaɪmət/ noun 1. the general weather conditions in a certain place ○ *The climate in the south of the country is milder than in the north. 2. a situation with certain features ○ The current economic climate makes an interest rate rise very likely. ○ *She wants to change jobs – she thinks she could do with a change of climate.

climatic /klai'mætɪk/ adj referring to climate climax /'klaɪmæks/ noun the most important and exciting point. Synonym peak (NOTE: The plural is climates.)

② climb /klaim/ noun the act of going up ○ It's a steep climb to the top of the hill. ■ verb 1. to go up or down something using arms and legs ○ The cat climbed up the apple tree. ○ The burglars climbed over the wall. ○ He

escaped by climbing out of the window. 2. to go up ○ The road climbs up to 500m above sea level. 3. to go up mountains as a sport ○ When you have climbed Everest, there is no higher mountain left to climb. ○ He goes climbing every weekend.

② climb down /'klaɪm 'daʊn/ verb 1. to come down, e.g. a mountain or a ladder ○ He climbed down from the roof. ○ The firemen helped the hotel guests climb down the ladder. 2. not to do what you had previously insisted on doing ○ In the end, the government had to climb down and admit that a mistake had been made.

climber /'klaɪmə/ noun 1. a person who climbs mountains ○ The climbers roped themselves together and set off up the slope. 2. a plant which climbs ○ We need a colourful climber to cover that wall.

climbing /'klaɪmɪŋ/ noun the sport of climbing mountains ○ Climbing is not a sport for young children. ○ We had a climbing holiday last Easter. ○ She brought her climbing equipment with her.

climbing frame /'klaɪmɪŋ freɪm/ noun a framework of wooden bars and platforms for children to climb on ③ clinch /'klinʃ/ noun 1. a position where two people hold each other tightly ○ He found his girlfriend in a clinch with another man. 2. (in boxing) a position where both boxers hold on to each other ○ The referee tried to separate the two boxers who were in a tight clinch. (NOTE: The plural is clinches.) ■ verb 1. (in boxing) to hold each other tight ○ The referee tried to stop the two boxers clinching. 2. to complete a deal ○ He offered an extra 5% to clinch the deal.

cling /klin/ verb □ to cling onto something to hold on tight to something ○ She survived by clinging onto a piece of wood. ○ He clung tightly to his mother's arm.

clingfilm /'klinfɪlm/ noun a thin transparent plastic sheet for covering food clingy /'klinjɪ/ adj 1. emotionally dependent on someone 2. (of clothes) very tight

③ clinic /'klinik/ noun a specialised medical centre or hospital

④ clinical /'klinik(ə)l/ adj 1. medical 2. □ to look at things in a clinical way to look at something objectively, without any emotions clinician /klɪ'nɪʃ(ə)n/ noun a doctor, usually not a surgeon, who has great experience in treating patients clink /klink/ noun 1. a noise of glasses or metal objects hitting each other 2. a prison ■ verb to make a little noise, like pieces of metal hitting each other. Synonym clank □ to clink glasses to touch your glass against someone else's glass, to wish each other good luck or good health clip /klɪp/ noun 1. especially US a piece of jewellery which clips onto your clothes ○ He wore a gold clip on his tie. ○ She has a diamond clip on her dress. 2. a short piece of film ○ Here is a clip of the president getting into the car. 3. □ a clip round the ear a smack on the side of the head (informal) ○ Stop that noise or you'll get a clip round the ear. ■ verb 1. to attach things together with a clip ○ She clipped the invoice and the cheque together and put them in an envelope. ○ These earrings are made to clip onto your ears. 2. to cut something with scissors ○ The dog has its fur clipped once a month. ○ He carefully clipped the article out of the newspaper. 3. to hit slightly ○ The wing of the plane clipped the top of the tree before it crashed. (NOTE: clipping – clipped) clipboard /'klɪpbo:d/ noun a stiff board with a clip at the top so that a piece of paper can be attached to it to allow you to write on it easily clipped /'klɪpt/ adj 1. short and neat ○ He has a neatly clipped beard. ○ I was admiring your freshly clipped hedge. 2. □ clipped voice a way of speaking using short sharp sounds ○ He spoke the famous speech from 'Henry V' in clipped tones.

clippers /'klɪpəz/ plural noun shears or scissors used for clipping clipping /'klɪpɪŋ/ noun 1. a reference to someone or something in a newspaper or magazine which is cut out ○ Can you file away all these newspaper clippings, please? 2. a small piece cut off, e.g. a hedge ○ Trim the hedge and put the clippings in a black bag. ○ Grass clippings can be piled on top of the compost heap.

clique /kli:k/ noun a small select group of people clitoris /'klɪtərɪs/ noun the female sex organ at the top of the vulva cloak /klaʊk/ noun 1. a long outer covering which hangs from the shoulders and has no sleeves ○ She wore a long cloak of black velvet. 2. □ a cloak of secrecy something that hides things so that they remain secret ○ The whole affair was shrouded in a cloak of secrecy. □ cloak and dagger referring to activities that suggest a mystery, or that someone is spying (informal) □ under the cloak of darkness at night when everything is hidden ○ They left the city under the cloak of darkness. ■ verb to hide something in order to keep it secret ○ The whole project is cloaked in secrecy. Antonym reveal cloakroom /'klaʊkru:m/ noun 1. a place where you leave your coat in a public place ○ I left my coat and briefcase in the cloakroom. (NOTE: The US term is checkroom.) 2. a room inside a public building with lavatories and washbasins ○ The ladies' cloakroom is on the first floor.

clobber /'kləbə/ noun 1. rubbish, useless items ○ Get rid of all the clobber in your cupboard. 2. belongings ○ All his tennis clobber was stolen. ■ verb to affect badly, especially financially (informal) ○ The new tax will clobber the middle classes. (NOTE: no plural)

① clock /klɒk/ noun an instrument which shows the time ○ The station clock is always right. ○ Your clock is 5 minutes slow. ○ The office clock is fast. ○ The clock has stopped – it needs winding up. ■ verb □ to clock in or on to arrive for work and register by putting a card into a timing machine □ to clock out or off to leave work and register by putting a card into a timing machine clockwise /'klɒkwaɪz/ adj, adv in the same direction as the hands of a clock ○ Turn the lid clockwise to tighten it. ○ He was driving clockwise round the ring road when the accident took place. Antonym anticlockwise clockwork /'klɒkwɜːk/ noun a mechanism in a toy, machine, clock, etc., which works using a spring which is wound up with a key □ like clockwork smoothly, with no problems ○ The whole evening went off like clockwork.

clod /klɒd/ noun a large lump of earth clog /klɒg/ noun a wooden shoe ○ Clogs are very popular in Scandinavian countries. ■ verb to block ○ Trafalgar Square was clogged with traffic as the protest march arrived. ○ Dead leaves are clogging the drains. (NOTE: clogging – clogged) cloister /'klɔɪstə/ noun a covered walk round a square courtyard, e.g. in a monastery or next to a cathedral cloistered /'klɔɪstəd/ adj protected from the outside world and its problems. Synonym secluded

③ clone /kləʊn/ noun 1. an exact genetic copy of an animal or plant ○ A cutting produces a clone of a plant. ○ This sheep was the first mammal to survive as a clone. 2. a computer or circuit that behaves in the same way as the original it was copied from ○ They copied our laptop and brought out a cheaper clone. ■ verb to create an exact genetic copy of an individual animal or plant ○ Biologists have successfully cloned a sheep. Synonym duplicate

① close adj /kləʊs/ 1. very near, or just next to something ○ Our office is close to the railway station. ○ This is the closest I've ever been to a film star! 2. where only a few votes separate the winner from the losers ○ The election was very close. ○ It was a close contest. 3. hot and airless ○ It's very close in here, can someone open a window? ■ adv

/kləʊs/ very near ○ Keep close by me if you don't want to get lost. ○ Go further away – you're getting too close. ○ They stood so close (together) that she felt his breath on her cheek. ○ The sound came closer and closer. (NOTE: closer – closest) ■ verb /kləʊz/ 1. to shut ○ Would you mind closing the window? ○ He closed his book and turned on the TV. 2. to make something come to an end ○ She closed her letter by saying she was coming to see us. 3. to come to an end ○ The meeting closed with a vote of thanks. 4. □ to close an account to take all the money out of a bank account and stop the account ○ He closed his building society account. ■ noun 1. /kləʊz/ an end, final part ○ The century was drawing to a close. □ at close of play when a cricket match stops for the day 2. /kləʊs/ a short residential road ○ They live in Briar Close. 3. /kləʊs/ an area round a cathedral ○ The dean has a house in the cathedral close.

① closed /kləʊzd/ adj shut ○ The shop is closed on Sundays. ○ The office will be closed for the Christmas holidays. ○ There was a 'closed' sign hanging in the window.

③ close down /,kləʊz 'daʊn/ verb to shut a business permanently closed shop /kləʊzd 'ʃɒp/ noun a situation in which a company agrees to employ only union members in certain jobs close-knit /,kləʊs 'nit/ adv consisting of people who know and rely on each other ① closely /'kləʊsli/ adv 1. with a lot of attention ○ She studied the timetable very closely. ○ The prisoners were closely guarded by armed soldiers. 2. very close together ○ The photographers moved in closely around the car.

close season /'kləʊs ,sɪz(ə)n/ noun a period when certain types of wild animal cannot be killed (NOTE: The US term is closed season) closet /'klɒzɪt/ noun US a cupboard ○ Will you get my coat from the closet, honey? □ to come out of the closet to say publicly that you are homosexual (informal) ■ adj secret, not revealing something in public ○ He's a closet racist. Synonym secret ■ verb □ to closet yourself with someone to shut yourself away in a room with someone ○ The directors have been closeted with the VAT inspectors for several hours.

③ close-up /'kləʊs ʌp/ noun a photograph taken very close to the subject. Synonym detail closing /'kləʊzɪŋ/ adj final, at the end ○ the closing days of the election campaign Synonym final. Antonym opening ■ noun the time when something such as a pub or shop closes closing date /'kloʊzɪŋ deɪt/ noun the last date closing time /'kloʊzɪŋ taɪm/ noun the time when something such as a pub or shop closes

③ closure /'kloʊzəl/ noun the shutting of something, or the fact of being shut clot /klɒt/ noun 1. a soft mass of thickened blood in a vein or an artery ○ The doctor diagnosed a blood clot in the brain. 2. a fool ○ You stupid clot, you put the milk carton into the fridge upside down! ■ verb (of blood) to thicken, changing from semi-liquid to semi-solid ○ In people with haemophilia, blood clots very slowly. Synonym coagulate (NOTE: clotting – clotted)

① cloth /kləʊθ/ noun 1. material ○ Her dress is made of cheap blue cloth. ○ This cloth is of a very high quality. 2. a piece of material for cleaning ○ He wiped up the spill with a damp cloth. 3. a piece of material which you put on a table to cover it ○ The waiter spread a white cloth over the table. ○ She split some red wine on the cloth.

clothe /kləʊð/ verb to dress someone. Antonym undress clothed /kləʊðd/ adj dressed or covered in something ② clothes /kləʊðz/ plural noun things which you wear to cover your body and keep you warm, e.g. trousers, socks, shirts and dresses ○ He walked down the street with no clothes on. ○ The doctor asked him to take his clothes off. ○ The children haven't had any new clothes for years.

clothes brush /'kləʊðz brʌʃ/ noun a brush for cleaning clothes clothes horse /'kləʊðz hɔ:s/ noun a frame for hanging wet clothes on to dry clothes line /'kləʊðz laɪn/ noun a rope for hanging wet clothes on to dry clothes peg /ə'kləʊðz peg/ noun a little wooden clip, used to attach wet clothes to a washing line (NOTE: The US term is clothes pin.)

clothing /'kləʊðɪŋ/ noun clothes ○ an important clothing manufacturer ○ Take plenty of warm clothing on your trip to Iceland. (NOTE: no plural: some clothing; a piece of clothing)

clotted cream /,klɒtɪd 'kri:m/ noun a type of cream which has been heated and has become more solid

① cloud /klaʊd/ noun 1. a mass of white or grey vapour floating in the air ○ Do you think it's going to rain? – Yes, look at those grey clouds. ○ The plane was flying above the clouds. 2. □ on cloud nine very happy (informal) ○ They were on cloud nine when she won the lottery. □ under a cloud suspected of having done something wrong ○ He was under a cloud for some time after the thefts were discovered. 3. a mass of smoke floating in the air ○ Clouds of smoke poured out of the burning shop.

cloudburst /'klaʊdbɜ:st/ noun a sudden heavy shower of rain. Synonym rainstorm cloudless /'klaʊdləs/ adj with no clouds. Synonym clear cloud over /,klaud 'əʊvə/ verb to become covered with clouds

② cloudy /'klaudi/ adj 1. with clouds ○ The weather was cloudy in the morning, but cleared up in the afternoon. ○ When it's very cloudy it isn't easy to take good photographs. 2. not clear, not transparent ○ This beer is cloudy. ○ The water in the aquarium turned cloudy. (NOTE: cloudier – cloudiest)

clout /'klaʊt/ noun 1. a blow with the fist ○ He received a clout on the head. 2. power or influence ○ Because she owns so many shares, she wields a great deal of clout in company meetings. ○ Newspaper editors have a lot of political clout. ■ verb to give someone a blow with the hand ○ She clouts the children when they make a noise.

clove /'klaʊv/ noun 1. a dried flower bud of a tree used for flavouring ○ A few cloves stuck into an onion can be used to flavour a stew. 2. one of the parts that make up a bulb of garlic ○ Rub round the salad bowl with a cut clove of garlic.

cloven hoof /,klaʊv(ə)n 'hu:f/ noun a hoof which is split into two parts clover /'klaʊvə/ noun a common weed, used as food for cattle ○ With so much clover in the fields, the bees produce excellent honey. □ to be or live in clover to live comfortably ○ After his lottery win he lived in clover.

cloverleaf intersection /,kləʊvəli:f intə'sækʃən/ noun crossroads which intersect with curving link roads, in a way which looks like the leaf of a clover clown /klaʊn/ noun a man who makes people laugh in a circus (informal) ○ The clown had a big red nose and baggy trousers. Synonym joker ■ verb □ to clown about or around to behave in a silly way which makes people laugh ○ Stop clowning around with that hat and sit down to have your meal.

① club /klaʊb/ noun 1. a group of people who have the same interest or form a team ○ a youth club ○ I'm joining a tennis club. ○ Our town has one of the top football clubs in the country. 2. a place where a club meets ○ The sports club is near the river. ○ He goes to the golf club every Friday. 3. a large heavy stick ○ She was knocked to the ground by a blow from a club. 4. stick for playing golf (NOTE: A golf club can either mean the place where you play golf, or the stick used to hit the ball.) ■ verb 1. to hit with a club ○

She was clubbed to the ground. 2. □ to club together (of several people) to contribute money jointly ○ They clubbed together and bought a yacht.

clubbing /'klʌbɪŋ/ noun the activity of going out to discos and nightclubs club class /'klʌb kla:s/ noun a specially comfortable class of seating on a plane, though not as luxurious as first class clubhouse /'klʌbhaʊs/ noun the house where members of a club meet club sandwich /klʌb 'sændwɪdʒ/ noun a sandwich made of three slices of bread, with a filling of meat, salad, fish, etc., between them cluck /klʌk/ verb (of hens) to make a low noise in the throat

② clue /klu:/ noun information which helps you solve a mystery or puzzle ○ The detective had missed a vital clue. ○ I don't understand the clues to this crossword. □ I haven't a clue I don't know at all ○ The police still haven't a clue who did it.

clued up /'klu:d ʌp/ adj well informed about something clueless /'klu:ls/ adj stupid (informal). Antonym well-informed clump /klʌmp/ noun a group of trees or bushes ○ We'll walk as far as that clump of trees and come back. □ verb to move making a dull noise ○ He was clumping around the kitchen in his clogs. ○ The people in the flat upstairs started clumping about in the middle of the night.

clumsily /'klʌmzili/ adv in a clumsy way clumsiness /'klʌmzɪnəs/ noun the quality of being clumsy clumsy /'klʌmzi/ adj who frequently breaks things or knocks things over. Synonym awkward (NOTE: clumsier – clumsiest) cluster /'klʌstə/ noun a group of objects together ○ A brooch with a cluster of pearls. ○ He photographed a cluster of stars. □ verb □ to cluster together to form a group ○ They clustered round the noticeboard to read their exam results. Synonym gather. Antonym disperse clutch /klʌtʃ/ noun 1. a tight clasp ○ She felt the clutch of his fingers on her sleeve. □ in the clutches of under the control of ○ If the company were to get into their clutches it would be a disaster. 2. a mechanism for changing the gears in a car ○ The car has just had a new clutch fitted. □ clutch pedal the pedal which works the clutch and allows the driver to change gear □ to let in the clutch to make the clutch engage ○ Let the clutch in slowly, or you'll stall the car. □ to let out the clutch to disengage the engine from the gears 3. several eggs laid together in a nest ○ The bird laid a clutch of seven eggs. □ verb to grab hold of ○ She clutched my arm as we stood on the edge of the cliff. Synonym grasp clutter /'klʌtə/ noun a mass of things left lying about ○ All this clutter will be cleared away by the weekend. Synonym mess (NOTE: no plural) □ verb to fill a room, etc., with a mass of things ○ Her desk is cluttered with papers and invoices. ○ Don't clutter your mind with useless information. Synonym encumber

③ cm abbr centimetre

CO abbr commanding officer

③ co. abbr company ○ J. Smith & Co.

co- /kəʊ/ prefix together

③ c/o abbr care of (used in addresses) ○ Jane Smith, c/o Mr & Mrs Jonas, 4 Willowbank Road.

② coach /kəʊtʃ/ noun 1. a large bus for travelling long distances ○ There's an hourly coach service to Oxford. ○ They went on a coach tour of southern Spain. ○ The coach driver fell asleep while driving. 2. a passenger carriage on a train ○ The first four coaches are for Waterloo. 3. US a category of seat on a plane which is cheaper than first class ○ We went coach to Washington. 4. a person who trains sportsmen, etc. ○ The coach told them that they needed to spend more time practising. ○ He's a professional football coach. (NOTE: The plural is coaches.) □ verb 1. to train sportsmen or sportswomen ○ She was coached by a former Olympic gold medallist. 2. to give private lessons to someone ○ All the actors had to be coached separately.

coaching /'kəʊtʃɪŋ/ noun 1. the activity of training people to do sports ○ The England team have been having special coaching. 2. the activity of giving private lessons to someone ○ In spite of all the coaching he'd had, he still failed the exam.

coagulate /kəʊ'ægjuleɪt/ verb to change and thicken from semi-liquid to semi-solid. Synonym clot

③ coal /kəʊl/ noun a black rock formed from the remains of fossilised trees which produces heat when burnt coalesce /,kəʊə'les/ verb to join together into one mass or group. Synonym merge

③ coalition /,kəʊə'lɪʃ(ə)n/ noun a combination of several political parties to form a government. Synonym alliance coalmine /'kəʊlmайн/ noun a mine where coal is dug. Synonym colliery coalminer /'kəʊlmайнə/ noun a person who mines coal coarse /kɔ:s/ adj 1. not fine, not small ○ coarse grains of sand ○ a coarse net 2. rough, not refined ○ He gave a coarse laugh.

○ He could hear her coarse voice booming down the corridor. 3. (of words or gestures) rude ○ He made a coarse gesture and walked out. ○ Don't make any coarse remarks in front of my mother. (NOTE: coarser – coarsest. Do not confuse with course.)

coarsely /'kɔ:slɪ/ adv in a coarse way coarseness /'kɔ:snəs/ noun the quality of being coarse

② coast /kəʊst/ noun 1. land by the sea ○ After ten weeks at sea, Columbus saw the coast of America. ○ The south coast is the warmest part of the country. ○ Let's drive down to the coast this weekend. □ from coast to coast from the sea on one side of a country to the sea on the other side ○ He crossed the USA from coast to coast. 2. □ when the coast is clear when there is no longer any danger ○ If the coast is clear, we can creep round the back of the house. ■ verb 1. to ride a vehicle without using the engine or the pedals 2. (of a boat) to sail along a coast coastal /'kəʊst(ə)l/ adj referring to the coast. Synonym seaside coaster /'kəʊstəl/ noun 1. a flat dish or small mat for standing a bottle or glass on ○ He bought a set of 6 coasters in the museum. 2. a ship which sails from port to port along the coast ○ We sailed round Africa on a small coaster.

coastguard /'kəʊstgɔ:d/ noun a person who guards a piece of coast, watching out for wrecks, smugglers, etc.

coastline /'kəʊstlайн/ noun an edge of land along a coast. Antonym interior

② coat /kəʊt/ noun 1. a piece of clothing which you wear on top of other clothes when you go outside ○ You'll need to put your winter coat on – it's just started to snow. ○ She was wearing a black fur coat. 2. a layer of paint covering something ○ That window frame needs a coat of paint. 3. the fur of an animal ○ The polar bear has a thick coat to withstand cold. ■ verb to cover with a layer of something ○ We coated the metal disc with platinum.

-coated /'kəʊtɪd/ suffix covered with coat-hanger /'kəʊthæŋə/ noun a piece of wood, wire or plastic on which you hang a piece of clothing coating /'kəʊtɪŋ/ noun a covering of paint, etc.

coat of arms /,kəʊt əv 'a:mz/ noun symbolic design on the shield of a family, town, etc.

co-author /kəʊ'ɔ:θə/ noun a person who writes a book together with another author ○ One of the co-authors died before the book was published. ■ verb to write a book with another author ○ She co-authored a book on Churchill.

coax /kəʊks/ verb □ to coax someone into doing something to persuade someone to do something ○ He was finally coaxed into paying for two tickets.

coaxial cable /kəʊ,æksiəl 'keɪbl/ noun an electric cable where several wires are laid parallel to each other cobalt /'kəʊbɔ:lt/ noun 1. a metallic element used to make alloys ○ Cobalt 60 is used in radiotherapy. 2. a blue colour obtained from this metal ○ a tube of cobalt blue paint cobble /'kɒb(ə)l/ noun same as cobblestone ○ The street is paved with cobbles. ■ verb □ to cobble something together to put things together roughly cobbled /'kɒb(ə)ld/ adj covered with cobblestones cobbler /'kɒblə/ noun a person who mends shoes ○ Ask the cobbler how much it will cost to put new heels on these shoes.

cobblestone /'kɒblstəʊn/ noun a round stone set in cement to make the surface of a street cobra /'kəʊbrə/ noun a large tropical snake with a poisonous bite cobweb /'kɒbweb/ noun a net of fine thread made by a spider to catch flies (NOTE: Another US term is spiderweb.)

③ Coca-Cola /,kəʊkə 'kəʊlə/ trademark a trademark for a popular fizzy soft drink

③ cocaine /kəʊ'keɪn/ noun a painkilling drug, which is addictive. Compare coke (NOTE: no plural)

coccyx /'kɒksɪks/ noun the lowest bone in the backbone, formed of four bones which have fused together (NOTE: The plural is coccyges /kɒk'saɪdʒɪz/.)

cock /kɒk/ noun a male bird, especially a male domestic chicken ○ We were woken by the cocks crowing. (NOTE: The US term is rooster.) ■ verb 1. □ to cock your ears to listen carefully for something ○ The dogs sat by the edge of the field, their ears cocked. 2. to set a gun ready for firing ○ He cocked his gun and waited.

cock-a-doodle doo! /,kɒk ə du:dl 'du:/ interj the noise made by a cockerel cockatoo /,kɒkə'tu:/ noun a type of parrot with a large crest cockerel /'kɒk(ə)rəl/ noun a young cock (NOTE: The US term is rooster.)

cock-eyed /,kɒk 'aɪd/ adj stupid or odd (informal) cockle /'kɒk(ə)l/ noun a small edible shellfish □ to warm the cockles of your heart to make you happy and full of warm feelings (informal) ○ The cheers from the audience would warm the cockles of your heart.

cockney /'kɒkni/ adj typical of the East End of London or of the people who live there ○ He speaks with a real cockney accent. ■ noun 1. a person from the East End of London ○ He was born and brought up as a Cockney. 2. a form of English spoken in the East End of London ○ 'Let's have a butcher's' is cockney for 'let's have a look'. ○ She spoke in broad cockney. Compare rhyming slang cockpit /'kɒkpit/ noun the place where the pilot sits in an aircraft, racing car or boat cockroach /'kɒkrəʊtʃ/ noun a black or brown beetle, a common household pest (NOTE: The plural is cockroaches.)

cocksure /,kɒk'sʊə/ adj referring to someone who is so self-confident that they are annoying. Synonym smug cocktail /'kɒktel/ noun 1. a mixed alcoholic drink ○ A Bloody Mary is a cocktail of vodka and tomato juice. 2. a mixture of various things ○ She died after taking a cocktail of drugs.

cocktail party /'kɒktel ,pɑ:ti/ noun a party where drinks and snacks are served, but not a full meal cock-up /'kɒk ʌp/ noun work which is badly carried out (informal, offensive) cocky /'kɒki/ adj unpleasantly confident and conceited (informal). Synonym smug

③ cocoa /'kəʊkəʊ/ noun 1. a brown chocolate powder ground from the seeds of a tree, used for making a drink ○ There's a tin of cocoa on the shelf next to the cooker. ○ Add cocoa powder to icing sugar to make chocolate icing. 2. a drink made with cocoa powder and hot water or milk ○ I'll warm up some milk to make cocoa. ○ He always has a cup of cocoa before going to bed. (NOTE: no plural)

coconut /'kəʊkənət/ noun 1. a large nut from a type of palm tree ○ I won a coconut at the fair. 2. the white flesh from a coconut ○ a coconut cake ○ I don't like biscuits with coconut in them. (NOTE: no plural in this meaning) coconut matting /,kəʊkənət 'mætɪŋ/ noun a floor covering made from coconut fibres coconut milk /'kəʊkənət milk/ noun the white juice inside a coconut cocoon /kə'ku:n/ noun a case of thread made by a larva before it turns into a moth or butterfly ○ Silk is taken off the cocoons made by silk worms. ■ verb to wrap something up for protection ○ The baby was cocooned in blankets.

cod /kɒd/ noun a large white sea fish (NOTE: The plural is cod.)

c.o.d abbr cash on delivery

② code /kəud/ noun 1. a set of laws or rules of behaviour ○ The hotel has a strict dress code, and people wearing jeans are not allowed in. 2. secret words or a system agreed in advance for sending messages ○ We're trying to break the enemy's code. ○ He sent the message in code. 3. a system of numbers or letters which mean something ○ The code for Heathrow Airport is LHR. ○ What is the code for phoning Edinburgh?

coded /'kəudɪd/ adj written in code codeine /'kəudi:n/ noun a drug taken to relieve headaches, flu, etc.

code name /'kəud neɪm/ noun a special name or number used instead of a person's or thing's real name, in order to keep this secret codify /'kəudɪfaɪ/ verb to write things such as laws or rules in a systematic way. Synonym organise cod liver oil /,kɒd lɪvər 'ɔɪl/ noun an oil from the livers of cod, taken as a vitamin supplement coed /'kəued/ adj same as coeducational (informal) ○ The college only became coed two years ago. ■ noun US a girl student at a coeducational school or college (dated) coeducational /,kəuedju'keɪʃ(ə)n(ə)l/ adj (of a school) where male and female students are taught together coefficient /,kəʊ'fɪʃ(ə)nt/ noun a number written before a variable showing what the variable is to be multiplied by coerce /kəʊ'z:z/ verb □ to coerce someone into doing something to force someone to do something ○ They coerced her into signing the contract.

coercion /kəʊ'z:ʃ(ə)n/ noun the act or practice of forcing someone to do something such as commit a crime. Synonym pressure (NOTE: no plural) coexist /,kəʊɪg'zɪst/ verb to exist or to live together (formal) coexistence /,kəʊɪg'zɪstəns/ noun the fact of living together (formal)

C of E abbr Church of England

① coffee /'kɒfɪ/ noun 1. a bitter drink made from the seeds of a tropical plant ○ Would you like a cup of coffee? ○ I always take sugar with my coffee. ○ The doctor told me to avoid tea and coffee. 2. a powder made from the seeds of the coffee plant ○ Put two spoons of coffee into each cup. 3. a cup of coffee ○ I'd like a white coffee, please. ○ Three coffees and two teas, please. 4. a pale brown colour, like white coffee ○ We have a coffee carpet in our sitting room. (NOTE: usually no plural; cafes means cups of coffee) coffee bar /'kɒfɪ ba:/ noun a small restaurant which sells coffee, cakes and sandwiches coffee beans /'kɒfɪ bi:nz/ plural noun seeds of the coffee bush, which are roasted and ground to make coffee coffee cup /'kɒfɪ kʌp/ noun a special small cup for coffee coffee machine /'kɒfɪ mə,ʃi:n/ noun an automatic machine which gives a cup of coffee or other drink when you put in a coin and press a button coffee pot /'kɒfɪ pɒt/ noun a special pot for making coffee in ③ coffee shop /'kɒfɪ ʃɒp/ noun a small restaurant serving tea, coffee and snacks coffee table /'kɒfɪ ,teɪb(ə)l/ noun a low table in a sitting room, for putting things such as cups, glasses and newspapers on coffee-table book /'kɒfɪ ,teɪb(ə)l bu:k/ noun a heavy expensive book with many illustrations, which can be left on a table for people to look at coffer /'kɒfə/ noun a chest for holding money (dated) coffers /'kɒfəz/ plural noun financial resources ○ The company has millions of pounds in its coffers which it could use on publicity if it wanted to.

③ coffin /'kɒfin/ noun a long wooden box in which a dead person is buried or cremated (NOTE: The usual US term is casket.)

cog /kɒg/ noun one of a series of little teeth sticking out from a wheel, which connect with teeth on another wheel to make it turn □ a cog in the machine a person who plays an unimportant part in a big organisation ○ I'm not a director or anything like that, just a cog in the machine.

cogent /'kəʊdʒənt/ adj valid and powerful. Synonym forceful. Antonym unconvincing cognac /'kɒnʃæk/ noun a brandy made in western France cognitive /'kɒgnɪtɪv/ adj referring to the process of understanding. Synonym reasoning cognisant /'kɒgnɪz(ə)nt/, cognizant adj (formal) □ cognisant of knowing, being aware of ○ The court is cognisant of this fact.

cohabit /kəʊ'hæbɪt/ verb to live together as man and wife, especially when not married. Synonym live together cohabitation /kəʊ,hæbɪ'teɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. living together as man and wife, although not married ○ They had three years' cohabitation before they got married. 2. a situation where different political parties hold power at the same time, especially in France, where the President and Parliament are elected for different periods of time and so may represent different parties ○ Following the election, we are in for a period of cohabitation.

cohere /kəʊ'hɪə/ verb to stick together to form a whole (formal) coherence /kəʊ'hɪərəns/ noun the state or quality of being coherent coherent /kəʊ'hɪərənt/ adj (of a statement) clear and logical coherently /kəʊ'hɪərəntli/ adv clearly or logically cohesion /kəʊ'hi:ʒ(ə)n/ noun the fact or quality of sticking together cohesive /kəʊ'hi:sɪv/ adj which sticks together cohort /'kɒhɔ:t/ noun 1. a large group of people ○ The Prince was followed by a cohort of journalists. 2. a group of people who are similar in a particular characteristic such as age or social background ○ This year's cohort have a better pass rate than last year's. 3. a comrade or classmate ○ my son and his dishevelled cohorts in Class 2 4. the division of a Roman army, one tenth of a legion ○ A cohort contained between three and six hundred men.

coiffure /kwa:'fjuə/ noun a hairstyle (formal) coil /kɔɪl/ noun 1. a roll of rope, or one loop in something twisted round and round ○ The sailors stacked the rope in coils on the deck. ○ They surrounded the camp with coils of barbed wire. 2. a device fitted into a woman's uterus as a contraceptive □ verb to twist around something or into a coil ○ The snake had coiled itself up in the basket. ○ The sailor coiled the ropes neatly. Synonym wind

① coin /kɔɪn/ noun a piece of metal money ○ I found a 50p coin in the street. ○ He hid the gold coins under his bed. ○ This machine only takes 10p coins. □ verb to invent a new word or phrase ○ They coined the phrase 'surfing the net' to mean searching for information on the Internet. □ to coin a phrase used in order to emphasise that you are saying something which is a normal everyday expression (informal) ○ 'It never rains but it pours' – to coin a phrase.

coinage /'kɔɪnɪdʒ/ noun 1. the system of money used in a country ○ The old coinage will still be used alongside the new for a period of two years. 2. a new word or phrase which has been invented ○ 'Surfing the net' is a recent coinage.

coincide /,kəʊɪn'saɪd/ verb □ to coincide with something to happen by chance at the same time as something else ○ The conference doesn't coincide with my birthday this year. ○ Do our trips to Frankfurt coincide? – If they do, we can meet while we're both there.

③ coincidence /kəʊ'ɪnsɪd(ə)ns/ noun two things happening at the same time by chance coincidental /kəʊ,ɪnsɪ'dent(ə)l/ adj happening by chance coincidentally /kəʊ,ɪnsɪ'dent(ə)li/ adv by coincidence. Synonym accidentally. Antonym intentionally

③ coke /kəʊk/ noun 1. a fuel processed from coal, which produces a very strong heat

○ The steel is produced in coke ovens. 2. the same as cocaine (informal) (NOTE: [all senses] no plural)

Coke /kəʊk/ trademark a type of fizzy soft drink

Col. abbr colonel

cola /'kəʊlə/ noun a fizzy sweet drink colander /'kələndə/ noun a bowl with holes in it for draining water from vegetables

① cold /kəʊld/ adj 1. with a low temperature; not hot or not heated ○ He had a plate of cold beef and salad. ○ They say that cold showers are good for you. ○ The weather turned colder after Christmas. ○ It's too cold to go for a walk. ○ If you're hot, have a glass of cold water. ○ Start eating, or your soup will get cold. □ in cold blood deliberately, without feeling any pity ○ He killed the children in cold blood. □ to get cold feet to begin to feel afraid that a plan is too risky (informal) ○ We wanted to buy an old house and start a hotel business, but my husband got cold feet. 2. not friendly ○ He got a very cold reception from the rest of the staff. ○ She gave him a cold nod. (NOTE: colder – coldest) □ to give someone the cold shoulder not to give someone a friendly welcome

■ noun 1. an illness when you sneeze and cough ○ He caught a cold by standing in the rain at a football match. ○ My sister's in bed with a cold. ○ Don't come near me – I've got a cold. 2. a cold outdoor temperature ○ He got ill from standing in the cold waiting for a bus. ○ House plants can't stand the cold. □ to be left out in the cold not to be part of a group any more cold-blooded /,kəʊld 'blədɪd/ adj 1. □ cold-blooded animal an animal whose body temperature is the same as the temperature of its surroundings ○ Fish, tortoises and lizards are all cold-blooded animals. 2. with no pity ○ She's a cold-blooded murderer.

cold-hearted /,kəʊld 'ha:tɪd/ adj lacking kindness coldly /'kəʊldli/ adv in an unfriendly way cold-shoulder /,kəʊld 'ʃəuldə/ verb □ to cold-shoulder someone not to give someone a friendly welcome cold snap /'kəʊld snæp/ noun a short period of sudden cold weather. Synonym freeze cold sore /'kəʊld sɔ:/ noun an inflammation round the lips caused by the herpes virus cold storage /'kəʊld 'stɔ:riðʒ/ noun the practice of keeping food in a cold store to prevent it going bad cold store /'kəʊld stɔ:/ noun a warehouse or room where supplies can be kept cold coleslaw /'kəʊlslo:/ noun a cabbage salad, made with sliced white cabbage and mayonnaise colic /'kɒlɪk/ noun a severe pain in the intestines

③ collaborate /kə'læbəreɪt/ verb to work together (NOTE: You collaborate with someone on something.)

③ collaboration /kə'læbə'reɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the action of working together on something. Synonym cooperation collaborative /kə'læb(ə)rətɪv/ adj involving people working together. Synonym cooperative collaborator /kə'læbəreɪtə/ noun 1. a person who works together with someone else ○ We want to thank all the collaborators on this project. 2. a person who works with the enemy forces occupying a country ○ After the war, collaborators were hunted down and shot.

collage /'kɒlɪə:ʒ/ noun a picture made from small pieces of paper or other materials, stuck onto a backing collagen /'kɒlædʒən/ noun bundles of protein fibres, which form connective tissue, bone and cartilage

③ collapse /kə'læps/ noun 1. a sudden fall

○ The collapse of the old wall buried two workmen. 2. a sudden fall in price ○ the collapse of the dollar on the foreign exchange markets 3. the sudden failure of a company ○ Investors lost thousands of pounds in the collapse of the bank. ■ verb 1. to fall down suddenly ○ The roof collapsed under the weight of the snow. 2. to fail suddenly ○ The company collapsed with £25,000 in debts. 3. to fall down unconscious ○ He collapsed after the marathon.

collapsible /kə'læpsəb(ə)l/ adj which can be folded up. Synonym folding ② collar /'kɒlə/ noun 1. the part of a piece of clothing which goes round your neck ○ I can't do up the top button on my shirt – the collar's too tight. ○ She turned up her coat collar because the wind was cold. ○ He has a winter coat with a fur collar. □ to get hot under the collar to get angry or worried about something 2. a leather ring round the neck of a dog or cat ○ The cat has a collar with her name and address on it. ■ verb to catch someone, especially in order to talk to them (slang) ○ I managed to collar him as he was leaving the hotel.

collarbone /'kɒləbən/ noun a clavicle, one of two long thin bones joining the shoulders to the breastbone collate /kə'leɪt/ verb 1. to check one text against another to make sure that it is all there 2. to check that the various parts of a book are gathered in the correct order before the book is bound collateral /kə'læt(ə)rəl/ adj additional to something, but less important (formal) ○ There will always be collateral damage to ci- vilian property during a war. ○ One collateral benefit from living in the centre of town will be cheaper travel costs. ■ noun a security used to provide a guarantee for a loan ○ He offered his house as collateral.

② colleague /'kɒli:g/ noun a person who works in the same company, office, school, etc. as you ○ His colleagues gave him a present when he got married. ○ I know Jane Gray – she was a colleague of mine at my last job.

① collect /kə'lekt/ verb 1. to fetch something or bring things together ○ Your coat is ready for you to collect from the cleaner's. ○ The mail is collected from the postbox twice a day. ○ I must collect the children from school. 2. to buy things or bring things together as a hobby ○ He collects stamps and old coins. 3. to gather money for charity ○ They're collecting for Oxfam. 4. to come together ○ A crowd collected at the scene of the accident. ■ adv □ to call collect US to ask the person being phoned to pay for the call ○ If you don't have any money you can always try calling collect.

collected /kə'lektɪd/ adj calm. Antonym flustered

① collection /kə'lekʃən/ noun 1. a group of things that have been brought together ○ He allowed me to see his stamp collection. ○ The museum has a large collection of Italian paintings. 2. money which has been gathered ○ We're making a collection for Oxfam. 3. the action of bringing things together 4. the fetching of goods ○ Your order is in the warehouse awaiting collection. 5. the taking of letters from a postbox or post office for dispatch ○ There are four collections a day from the postbox at the corner of the street. ○ The last collection is at 6 p.m.

③ collective /kə'lektɪv/ adj done together ○ They had a meeting and soon reached a collective decision. ■ noun a business run by a group of workers ○ The owner of the garage sold out and the staff took it over as a workers' collective. Synonym cooperative collective bargaining /kə'lektɪv 'bɑ:gɪnɪŋ/ noun wage negotiations between management and unions collectively /kə'lektɪvli/ adv all together as a group. Synonym en masse. Antonym individually collective noun /kə'lektɪv 'naʊn/ noun a noun which refers to a group of things or people, rather than to one single thing, e.g. 'family' or 'staff'

③ collector /kə'lektə/ noun 1. a person who collects things as a hobby ○ It's an important sale for collectors of 18th century porcelain. 2. a person who collects things as a job

① college /'kɒlidʒ/ noun 1. a teaching institution for adults and young people ○ She's going on holiday with some friends from college. ○ He's studying accountancy at the local college. ○ The college library has over 20,000 volumes. 2. US a teaching institution for adolescents and adults, which grants degrees at BA level (NOTE: The British term is university.) 3. a group of people who run a certain profession ○ He's a member of the Royal College of Pharmacists.

college of further education /,kɒlidʒ ə'fə:t'ərɪədju:s'neɪʃən/ noun a teaching establishment for students after secondary school collegiate /kə'li:dʒiət/ adj made up of several colleges collide /kə'laid/ verb □ to collide with something to bump into something ○ He lost control of the car and collided with a bus.

collie /'kɒli/ noun a type of sheepdog with long hair colliery /'kɒljəri/ noun a coalmine (NOTE: The plural is collieries.)

collision /kə'lɪz(ə)n/ noun an event of bumping into something collocate /'kɒləkeɪt/ verb (of a word) to be used with another word collocation /,kɒlə'keiʃ(ə)n/ noun a typical occurrence of a word with another word colloquial /kə'ləukwiəl/ adj used in common speech. Synonym informal colloquialism /kə'ləukwiəlɪz(ə)m/ noun an expression used in common speech colloquially /kə'ləukwiəli/ adv in conversational speech collude /kə'lud/ verb to work together secretly to cheat someone. Synonym conspire collusion /kə'lju:z(ə)n/ noun an illegal cooperation or agreement to cheat someone. Synonym conspiracy cologne /kə'ləʊn/ noun a type of light perfume. Synonym toilet water

③ colon /'kəlon/ noun 1. the main part of the large intestine, going from the small intestine to the rectum ○ The intestines are divided into two parts: the small intestine and the large intestine or colon. 2. a printing sign (:) ○ Use a colon before starting a list. ○ A colon is used after a letter to indicate one of the drives in a computer.

colonel /'kɔ:n(ə)l/ noun the officer in charge of a regiment, an army rank above lieutenant-colonel (NOTE: also used as a title before a surname: Colonel Davis; often shortened to Col.: Col. Davis. Do not confuse with kernel.)

colonial /kə'ləuniəl/ adj referring to a colony colonialism /kə'ləuniəlɪz(ə)m/ noun the practice of establishing colonies in other lands colonise /'kɒlənaɪz/ colonize verb to take possession of an area or country and rule it as a colony. Synonym settle colonist /'kɒlənɪst/ noun a person who goes to settle in a new colony. Synonym settler colonnade /,kɒlə'næd/ noun a row of columns. Synonym arcade colony /'kɒləni/ noun 1. a territory ruled by another country ○ the former French colonies in Africa ○ Roman colonies were established in North Africa and along the shores of the Black Sea. 2. a group of animals or humans living together ○ a colony of ants ○ an artists' colony (NOTE: The plural is colonies.)

color /'kɔlə/ noun, verb US spelling of colour colossal /kə'lɒs(ə)l/ adj very large, huge. Synonym huge. Antonym tiny colossus /kə'lɒsəs/ noun a huge statue or man (NOTE: The plural is colossuses.)

① colour /'kɔlə/ noun 1. the shade which an object has in light (red, blue, yellow, etc.) ○ What colour is your bathroom? ○ I don't like the colour of the carpet. ○ His socks are the same colour as his shirt. 2. not black or white ○ The book has pages of colour pictures. 3. the shade of a person's skin ○ People must not be discriminated against on grounds of sex, religion or colour. 4. □ with flying colours with great success ○ She passed her test with flying colours. ■ verb to add colour to something ○ The children were given crayons and told to colour the trees green and the earth brown. (NOTE: [all senses] The US spelling is color.)

colour-blind /'kɔlə blɪnd/ adj not able to tell the difference between certain colours, such as red and green (NOTE: The US spelling is color-blind.)

① coloured /'kɔləd/ adj 1. in colour ○ a coloured postcard ○ a book with coloured illustrations 2. with a skin that is not white (dated, offensive) (NOTE: [all senses] The US spelling is colored.)

-coloured /kɔləd/ suffix with a certain colour ○ a flame-coloured tie ○ She was wearing a cream-coloured shirt. (NOTE: The US spelling is -colored.)

② colourful /'kʌləf(ə)l/ adj 1. brightly coloured ○ I'm trying to create a flowerbed which will remain colourful all year round. ○ She tied a colourful silk scarf round her hair. 2. full of excitement and adventure ○ She lived a colourful existence as a dancer in an Egyptian nightclub. ○ A colourful account of life in Vienna before the First World War. (NOTE: [all senses] The US spelling is colorful.)

colouring /'kʌlərɪŋ/ noun 1. the way in which something or a plant or animal is coloured ○ the bright colouring of parrots ○ The brilliant colouring of woods in autumn.

2. complexion, the colour of your skin and hair ○ Choose a lipstick that goes with your dress and suits your colouring. (NOTE: [all senses] The US spelling is coloring.)

colourless /'kʌlələs/ adj 1. with no colour

○ He offered me a glass of some colourless liquid. 2. uninteresting ○ The main character of the film is fairly colourless. (NOTE: [all senses] The US spelling is colorless.)

colour scheme /'kʌlə skɪ:m/ noun different colours chosen by a designer for a room, a shop, etc.

colt /kɔl̩t/ noun a young male horse ○ The Irish colt won the race by two lengths. (NOTE: A young female horse is a filly.)

② column /'kɒləm/ noun 1. a tall pillar ○ There is a row of huge columns at the entrance to the British Museum. ○ Nelson's Column is in Trafalgar Square. 2. a thing which is tall and thin ○ A thin column of smoke rose from the bonfire. 3. a line of people, one after the other ○ A column of prisoners came into the camp. ○ Columns of refugees crossed the border. 4. (in the army) a line of soldiers, tanks, etc., moving forward ○ Two columns of infantry advanced towards the enemy positions. ○ An armoured column entered the town. 5. a thin block of printing going down a page ○ 'Continued on page 7, column 4.' ○ His article ran to three columns on the first page of the paper. 6. a series of numbers, one under the other ○ to add up a column of figures ○ Put the total at the bottom of the column. 7. a regular article in a newspaper ○ She writes a gardening column for the local newspaper. ○ Regular readers of this column will know about my problems with drains.

columnist /'kɒləmnɪst/ noun a journalist who writes regularly for a paper. Synonym writer

com /kɒm/ noun a commercial organisation coma /'kəʊmə/ noun a state of unconsciousness from which a person cannot be awakened comatose /'kəʊmətəʊs/ adj 1. in a coma ○ a comatose patient 2. sleepy, half-asleep ○ After the long meeting they all looked comatose.

comb /kəʊm/ noun 1. an instrument with long teeth used to make your hair straight ○ Her hair is in such a mess that you can't get a comb through it. 2. the action of combing your hair ○ Your hair needs a good comb. ■ verb 1. to smooth your hair with a comb ○ She was combing her hair in front of the mirror. 2. to search a place ○ Police combed the woods for clues.

combat /'kɒmbæt/ noun fighting ○ These young soldiers have no experience of combat in the field. ■ verb to fight against something ○ They have set up a special police squad to combat drugs.

combatant /'kɒmbətənt/ adj who is fighting ■ noun a person who is fighting combative /'kɒmbətɪv/ adj who likes to get into quarrels or arguments. Synonym argumentative. Antonym peaceable

② combination /,kɒm'bɪ'neɪʃ(ə)n/ noun

1. several things taken together ○ A combination of cold weather and problems with the car made our holiday in Germany a disaster.

2. a series of numbers which open a lock ○ The safe has a combination lock. ○ I've forgotten the combination to my briefcase.

② combine noun /'kɒmbain/ 1. a large financial or commercial group ○ A German industrial combine 2. same as combine harvester ■ verb /kɒm'bain/ □ to combine with to join together with ○ The cold weather combined with high winds has made it a dreadful harvest.

combined /kəm'baind/ adj taken together. Synonym joint combine harvester /,kɒmbain 'hərvɪstə/ noun a farm machine which cuts various types of cereal crops, and automatically separates the seeds from the straw combustible /kəm'bʌstɪb(ə)l/ adj which can easily catch fire ○ The warehouse was full of paint and other combustible substances. Synonym flammable. Antonym fireproof ■ noun a substance which can easily catch fire ○ Oil and other combustibles must be carefully stored.

combustion /kəm'bʌstʃən/ noun 1. the fact of burning 2. the burning of fuel to create heat, power, etc.

① come /kʌm/ verb 1. to move to or towards this place ○ Come and see us when you're in London. ○ The doctor came to see him yesterday. ○ Some of the children come to school on foot. ○ Don't make any noise – I can hear someone coming. ○ Come up to my room and we'll talk about the problem. 2. to happen ○ How did the door come to be open? □ how come? why?, how? (informal) ○ How come the front door was unlocked? 3. to occur ○ P comes before Q. ○ What comes after R in the alphabet? ○ What comes after the news on TV? (NOTE: coming – came /kəmɪŋ/ – has come)

③ come across /'kʌm ə,krɒs/ verb to find something by chance

③ come along /,kʌm ə'lɒŋ/ verb 1. to go with someone ○ If you walk, the children can come along with us in the car. 2. to hurry ○ Come along, or you'll miss the bus.

④ come apart /,kʌm ə'pa:t/ verb to break into pieces

③ come back /,kʌm 'bæk/ verb to return ○ They left the house in a hurry, and then had to come back to get their passports. ○ They started to walk away, but the policeman shouted at them to come back. Antonym go away

③ comeback /'kʌmbeɪk/ noun 1. a reaction ○ Despite the mistakes in the book there has been no comeback yet from the readers.

2. a return of someone such as a singer or sportsman after retirement ○ She is trying to make a comeback.

comedian /kə'mi:dɪən/ noun a person who tells jokes to make people laugh. Synonym humorist come down /,kʌm 'daʊn/ verb 1. to get lower ○ The price of oranges has come down. 2. to come downstairs ○ She was in bed but had to come down to answer the phone. 3. to get a disease ○ The children have come down with measles.

comedown /'kʌmداون/ noun a situation making you feel unimportant (informal). Synonym disillusionment. Antonym boost comedy /'kɒmədɪ/ noun a play or film which is not very sad or serious, or which makes you laugh ○ 'A Midsummer Night's Dream' is one of Shakespeare's comedies. (NOTE: The plural is comedies.)

③ come in /,kʌm 'ɪn/ verb to enter come in for /,kʌm 'ɪn fɔ:/ verb to get or receive something unpleasant come into /'kʌm ,ɪnto/ verb 1. to enter ○ Three people came into the restaurant. 2. □ to come into money to inherit money ○ She came into a fortune when she was twenty-one.

comely /'kʌmli/ adj attractive (dated) (NOTE: used only of women) come of /'kʌm ɒv/ verb to happen as a result of ③ come off /,kʌm 'ɒf/ verb 1. to stop being attached ○ The button has come off my coat. ○ I can't use the kettle, the handle has come off. 2. to be removed ○ The paint won't come off my coat. 3. to do well or badly ○ Our team came off badly in the competition. ○ She came off well in the exam.

③ come on /,kʌm 'ɒn/ verb 1. to hurry ○ Come on, or we'll miss the start of the film. 2. to arrive ○ A storm came on as we were fishing in the bay. ○ Night is coming on. ○ She thinks she has a cold coming on.

come out /,kʌm 'aʊt/ verb 1. to move outside ○ Come out into the garden, it's beautifully hot. 2. (of pictures and photographs) to appear ○ The church didn't come out very well on the photo. ○ Something must be wrong with the camera – half my holiday pictures didn't come out. 3. □ to come out (on strike) to strike ○ All the train drivers came out on strike. 4. to be removed ○ The ink marks won't come out of my white shirt. ○ Red wine stains don't come out easily. 5. to appear for sale ○ The magazine comes out on Saturdays. 6. to state publicly that you are homosexual ○ He decided to come out before the newspapers started to print stories about him. 7. □ to come out in a rash to develop a rash (informal) □ to come out with to say something unexpected ○ He came out with a really strange proposal.

comer /'kʌmə/ noun a person who comes (informal) □ open to all comers used for describing something such as a competition which is open to anyone who comes comet /'kɒmɪt/ noun an object which moves in space, and which you can see at night because of its bright tail come through /,kʌm 'θru:/ verb 1. to move through something to get to a place ○ Come through the kitchen into the dining room. 2. (of information) to arrive by phone, fax, etc. ○ The message came through this morning. 3. to recover from an illness ○ Do you think she's going to come through?

③ come to /'kʌm tu:/, kʌm 'tu:/ verb 1. to add up to a particular amount ○ The bill comes to £10. 2. to become conscious again ○ When he came to, he was in hospital.

come up /,kʌm 'ʌp/ verb 1. to come close to someone ○ The policeman came up to him and asked to see his passport. 2. □ to come up against something to find something in the way ○ We came up against a lot of opposition from the management.

③ comfort /'kʌmfət/ noun 1. something which helps to make you feel happier ○ It was a comfort to know that the children were safe. ○ The long-awaited letter gave me some comfort. 2. the state of being comfortable ○ They live in great comfort. ○ You expect a certain amount of comfort on a luxury liner. ○ She complained about the lack of comfort in the second-class coaches. ■ verb to make someone happier, e.g. when they are in pain or miserable ○ She tried to comfort the little girl. ○ He felt comforted by the gentle words of the nurse.

① comfortable /'kʌmf(ə)təb(ə)l/ adj 1. soft and relaxing ○ These shoes aren't very comfortable. ○ There are more comfortable chairs in the lounge. 2. □ to make yourself comfortable to relax ○ She made herself comfortable in the chair by the fire.

comfortably /'kʌmfətbəli/ adv in a soft, relaxed or relaxing way ○ If you're sitting comfortably, I'll explain to you what we have to do. ○ Make sure you're comfortably dressed because it is rather cold outside.

comfortably off /,kʌmfɪtəbli 'ɒf/ noun having plenty of money comforting /'kʌmfətɪŋ/ adj which comforts comfy /'kʌmfɪ/ adj comfortable (informal) (NOTE: comfier – comfiest) comic /'kɒmɪk/ noun 1. a children's paper with cartoon stories ○ He spends his pocket money on comics and sweets. 2. a person who tells jokes to make people laugh ○ a well-known TV comic. Synonym comedian

■ adj funny. Synonym amusing comical /'kɒmɪk(ə)l/ adj funny, which makes you laugh. Synonym amusing comic book /'kɒmɪk buk/ noun US a children's book with cartoon stories comic strip /'kɒmɪk strip/ noun a series of small pictures telling a story or joke, usually printed in a magazine or newspaper

③ coming /'kʌmɪŋ/ adj which is approaching ○ their coming silver wedding anniversary ○ The newspaper tells you what will happen in the coming week in Parliament. Synonym forthcoming. Antonym past ■ noun an arrival. Synonym emergence. Antonym departure

comings and goings /,kʌmɪŋz ən 'gəʊɪŋz/ plural noun lots of movement comma /'kɒmə/ noun 1. punctuation mark (,) showing a break in the meaning of a sentence ○ Use a comma between each item listed in this sentence. 2. a small brown butterfly with ragged wings, and a little white mark, like a comma, on the underside of each wing ② command /kə'ma:nd/ noun 1. an order ○ The general gave the command to attack. □ in command of in charge of 2. knowledge of a particular subject, especially a language ○ She has a good command of French. ■ verb 1. to order ○ He commanded the troops to open fire on the rebels. 2. to be in charge of ○ He commands a group of guerillas.

commandant /'kɒməndənt/ noun the officer in charge of something such as a military base. Synonym superior commandeer /,kɒmən'dɪə/ verb to take over property to be used by the armed forces commander /kə'ma:ndə/ noun 1. the officer in charge of a group of soldiers or a ship ○ The commander must make sure that all his soldiers know exactly what they must do. 2. a rank in the navy below captain commander-in-chief /kə'ma:ndər ɪn 'tʃi:/ noun a person who is in charge of all the armed services of a country (NOTE: The plural is commanders-in-chief) commanding /kə'ma:ndɪŋ/ adj 1. in authority, in command 2. full of authority ○ He spoke with a commanding voice and everyone listened. 3. □ to have a commanding lead to be in a position in which you are very likely to win ○ The Russian team has a com- manding lead in the tournament. 4. which dominates ○ The castle occupies a commanding position on the hill above the town. ○ The commanding presence of Henry VIII dominated the court.

commanding officer /kə'ma:ndɪŋ 'o:fɪsə/ noun the officer in command commandment /kə'ma:ndmənt/ noun a rule commando /kə'ma:ndəʊ/ noun 1. a group of soldiers who are specially trained to attack under difficult circumstances ○ They planned a commando attack on the harbour. 2. a member of such a group of soldiers ○ Masked commandos burst in through the door. (NOTE: The plural is commandos.)

③ commemorate /kə'meməreɪt/ verb to celebrate the memory of someone, a special occasion, etc.

commemorative /kə'memrətɪv/ adj which commemorates. Synonym memorial

④ commence /kə'mens/ verb to begin. Synonym begin. Antonym terminate commencement /kə'mensmənt/ noun the beginning ○ At the commencement of the service, the priest asked everyone to stand.

Commencement /kə'mensmənt/ noun US a day when degrees are awarded at a university or college (NOTE: The British term is degree day or degree ceremony.)

commend /kə'mend/ verb to praise commendable /kə'mendəb(ə)l/ adj which should be praised. Synonym praiseworthy. Antonym lamentable commendably /kə'mendəbli/ adv in a way which should be praised commensurate /kə'mensərət/ adj (formal) □ commensurate with in proportion to

① comment /'kə:ment/ noun 1. words showing what you feel about something ○ His comments were widely reported in the newspapers. ○ The man made a rude comment accompanied by some very offensive gestures. □ 'no comment' I refuse to discuss it in public 2. the discussion of a question ○ The scandal aroused considerable comment in the press. ○ It is a sad comment on modern values that we spend more money on arms than on helping the poor. (NOTE: no plural in this meaning) □ verb □ to comment on something to make a remark about something ○ He commented on the lack of towels in the bathroom. Synonym observe commentary /'kə:mənt(ə)ri/ noun 1. a spoken report on a football match, horse race, etc. ○ The match is being shown on Channel 4 with live commentary also on the radio. 2. remarks about a book, a problem, etc. ○ For intelligent commentary on current events you should read the 'Spectator'. (NOTE: The plural is commentaries.)

commentate /'kɒmənteɪt/ verb to describe on radio or TV what is happening at an event commentator /'kɒmənteɪtə/ noun a person who reports events as they happen, on the radio or TV commerce /'kɒmɜ:s/ noun the buying and selling of goods and services. Synonym trade

② commercial /kə'mɜ:sʃ(ə)l/ adj 1. referring to business ○ He is a specialist in commercial law. 2. used for business purposes, not private or military ○ He left the air force and became a commercial airline pilot. ○ The company makes commercial vehicles such as taxis and buses. 3. profitable □ Our commercial future looks doubtful. □ not a commercial proposition not likely to make a profit □ noun an advertisement on television ○ Our TV commercial attracted a lot of interest.

commercial break /kə'mɜ:sʃ(ə)l 'breɪk/ noun a short period between TV programmes or parts of programmes when advertisements are shown commercialised /kə'mɜ:sʃəlaɪzd/, commercialized adj dominated by businesses or by an emphasis on making profit commercialism /kə'mɜ:sʃ(ə)lɪz(ə)m/ noun 1. the principles and methods of buying and selling goods and services 2. emphasis on making a profit rather than on quality commercially /kə'mɜ:sʃ(ə)li/ adv from a business point of view □ not commercially viable not likely to make a profit commiserate /kə'mɪzəreɪt/ verb □ to commiserate with someone to sympathise with someone ① commission /kə'mɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. a group of people which investigates problems of national importance ○ The government has appointed a commission to look into the problem of drugs in schools. 2. an order for something to be made or to be used ○ He received a commission to paint the portrait of the Prime Minister. 3. percentage of sales value given to the sales representative ○ She gets 15% commission on everything she sells. ○ He charges 10% commission. 4. an order making someone an officer ○ He has a commission in the Royal Marines. 5. □ out of commission not working ○ The lift's out of commission so you'll have to use the stairs. □ verb 1. to authorise someone such as an artist or architect to do a piece of work; to authorise a piece of work to be done ○ The magazine commissioned him to write a series of articles on Germany. ○ The statue was commissioned by the veterans' association. 2. to make someone an officer ○ He was commissioned into the guards.

commissionnaire /kə'miʃə'neə/ noun a man who stands at the door of a building such as a restaurant, hotel, or club, to welcome people in. Synonym doorman commissioner /kə'miʃ(ə)nə/ noun a representative of authority □ commissioner of police the highest ranking police officer □ High Commissioner an ambassador of a Commonwealth country ○ The Indian High Commissioner made a speech.

② commit /kə'mit/ verb 1. to carry out a crime ○ The gang committed six robberies before they were caught. ○ He said he was on holiday in Spain when the murder was committed. 2. □ to commit suicide to kill yourself

② commitment /kə'mitmənt/ noun 1. a promise to pay money ○ He has difficulty in meeting his commitments. 2. an agreement to do something ○ She made a firm commitment to be more punctual in future. ○ We have the photocopier on one week's trial, with no commitment to buy.

committal /kə'mit(ə)l/ noun the sending of a prisoner for trial committed /kə'mitid/ adj firmly believing in. Synonym devoted

① committee /kə'miti/ noun an official group of people who organise or discuss things for a larger body ○ The town council has set up a committee to look into sports facilities. ○ Committee members will be asked to vote on the proposal. □ to be on a committee to be a member of a committee ○ He's on the finance committee.

commodity /kə'modit/ noun a product sold in very large quantities, especially raw materials such as silver and tin and food such as corn or coffee commodore /'kɒmədər/ noun 1. a rank in the Navy above a captain ○ Several retired admirals and commodores attended his funeral. 2. a person who is in charge of a yacht club ○ The Commodore of the yacht club started the race.

① common /'kɒmən/ adj 1. which happens often, or which you find everywhere ○ The plane tree is a very common tree in towns. ○ It's very common for people to get colds in winter. 2. belonging to two or more people ○ The two countries have a common frontier. ○ Blue eyes are not common to all the members of our family. □ common ownership the ownership of a property by a group of people □ in common shared by two or more people ○ They have two things in common – they are both Welsh and they are both left-handed. □ common land land which belongs to a community ○ We went walking on the common. (NOTE: now mainly used in names of places: Clapham Common, Wimbledon Common, etc.) common cold /kɒmən 'kəuld/ noun a minor illness which makes you sneeze and cough commoner /'kɒmənə/ noun an ordinary citizen, not a nobleman common ground /,kɒmən 'graʊnd/ noun the things that two or more people or groups agree upon common knowledge /,kɒmən 'nɒldɪdʒ/ noun something that is generally known common law /,kɒmən 'lɔ:/ noun a law as laid down in decisions of courts, rather than by statute □ common-law wife a woman who is living with a man as his wife without being married

③ commonly /'kɒmənli/ adv often. Synonym usually. Antonym unusually common-or-garden /,kɒmən ɔ: 'gɑ:dn/ adj very ordinary commonplace /'kɒmənpleɪs/ adj ordinary, or happening frequently common room /'kɒmən ru:m/ noun a room in which a particular group of people, e.g. senior students, can relax common sense /,kɒmən 'sens/ noun ordinary good sense commonwealth /'kɒmənwelθ/ noun 1. a group of states 2. a republic ○ the Commonwealth of Massachusetts commotion /kə'məʊʃ(ə)n/ noun confusion or trouble communal /'kɒmju:nl, kə'mju:nl/ adj belonging to, or able to be used by, several people commonly /kə'mju:n(ə)li/ adv done by several people together commune noun /'kɒmju:n/ a group of people who live together sharing everything ○ What is it like to live in a commune? Synonym community □ verb /kə'mju:n/ □ to commune with someone or something to communicate with the spirit of someone or something (formal) ○ She just wants to sit on the grassy hill, communing with nature. Synonym communicate

③ communicate /kə'mju:nɪkeɪt/ verb 1. to send or give information to someone ○ Although she is unable to speak, she can still communicate by using her hands. ○ He finds it impossible to communicate with his staff. ○ Communicating with our office in London has been quicker since we installed the fax.

2. to connect with □ communicating rooms two rooms with a connecting door between them □ communicating door a door between two rooms ○ The communicating door is kept locked at all times.

④ communication /kə'mju:nɪ'keɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. the passing of information ○ Email is the most rapid means of communication. ○ It is not a happy school – there is no commun-

nication between the head teacher and the other members of staff. □ to enter into communication with someone to start discussing something with someone, usually in writing ○ We have entered into communication with their solicitors. 2. an official message ○ We had a communication from the local tax inspector.

communicative /kə'mju:nikətiv/ adj 1. friendly and keen to communicate 2. relating to communication, or the ability to communicate ③ communion /kə'mju:nɪən/ noun 1. fellowship with someone 2. □ Holy Communion a Christian ceremony where bread is eaten and wine drunk in memory of Christ's Last Supper ○ The communion service will be taken by the vicar.

communion wafer /kə'mju:nɪən, wεrfə/ noun a thin round piece of bread eaten at mass or communion communiqué /kə'mju:nikeɪ/ noun an official announcement communism /'kɒmju:nɪz(ə)m/ noun a social system in which all property is owned and shared by the society as a whole and not by individual people communist /'kɒmju:nɪst/ adj referring to communism ○ The Communist Party is holding its annual meeting this weekend. ■ noun a person who believes in communism, especially a member of the Communist Party ○ He was a Communist all his life. ○ The Communists have three seats on the city council. Synonym socialist ① community /kə'mju:niti/ noun a group of people living in one area ○ The local community is worried about the level of violence in the streets.

community centre /kə'mju:niti, 'sentə/ noun a building providing sports or arts facilities for a community community service /kə'mju:niti 'sɜ:vɪs/ noun unpaid work for the benefit of the local community, usually done as a sentence for some minor crime

③ commute /kə'mju:t/ verb 1. to travel to work from home each day ○ He commutes from Oxford to his office in the centre of London. 2. to reduce a legal penalty ○ The prison sentence was commuted to a fine. ○ His death sentence was commuted to life imprisonment. 3. to exchange one type of payment for another ○ His pension has been commuted to a lump sum payment.

③ commuter /kə'mju:tə/ noun a person who travels to work in town every day compact adj /kəm'pæk/ small; close together ○ The computer system is small and very compact. ■ noun /'kɒmpæk/ 1. a small family car 2. an agreement ○ The two compa- nies signed a compact to share their research findings.

③ companion /kəm'pænjən/ noun a person or animal who lives with someone companionable /kəm'pænjənəb(ə)l/ adj friendly companionship /kəm'pænjənʃɪp/ noun friendship

① company /'kʌmp(ə)nɪ/ noun 1. a commercial firm ○ It is company policy not to allow smoking anywhere in the offices. ○ The company has taken on three secretaries. ○ She runs an electrical company. ○ He set up a computer company. (NOTE: usually written Co. in names: Smith & Co. The plural is companies in this meaning.) 2. being together with other people ○ I enjoy the company of young people. ○ She went to Paris in company with or in the company of three other girls from college. □ he is good company he's a very entertaining person to be with □ to keep someone company to be with someone to prevent them from feeling lonely ○ Would you like to come with me to keep me company? □ to part company to split up ○ We parted company when we couldn't agree on how to develop the business. □ to get into bad company to start spending time with bad companions 3. a group of people who work together □ a ship's company the crew of a ship 4. (in the army) a part of a battalion, a group of men commanded by a captain company car /,kʌmp(ə)nɪ 'kɑ:/ noun a car which belongs to a company and is lent to an employee to use for business or other purposes company law /,kʌmp(ə)nɪ 'lɔ:/ noun laws which refer to the way companies work comparable /'kɒmp(ə)rəb(ə)l/ adj which are similar or which can be compared comparative /kəm'pærətɪv/ adj to a certain extent, when considered next to something else ○ Judged by last year's performance it is a comparative improvement. Synonym relative. Antonym absolute

■ noun the form of an adjective or adverb showing an increase in level ○ 'Happier', 'better' and 'more often' are the comparatives of 'happy', 'good' and 'often.'

COMMENT: Comparatives are usually formed by adding the suffix -er to the adjective: 'quicker' from 'quick', for example; in the case of long adjectives, they are formed by putting 'more' in front of the adjective: 'more comfortable', 'more expensive', and so on.

③ comparatively /kəm'pærətɪvli/ adv to a certain extent, more than something else

① compare /kəm'peə/ verb □ to compare something with, to something else to look at two things side by side to see how they are different ○ if you compare the situation in France with that in Britain

① compared /kəm'peəd/ adj □ compared to or with when you compare it to ○ Compared with my Rolls Royce, your car is tiny. ○ Compared to last year, this summer was cold.

① comparison /kəm'pærɪs(ə)n/ noun the act of comparing ○ This year, July was cold in comparison with last year. □ there is no comparison between them one is much better than the other

③ compartment /kəm'pɑ:tment/ noun 1. a division inside something ○ the freezing compartment of a fridge ○ The box is divided into several compartments. 2. a separate section in a railway carriage, or in a ship ○ There are no compartments in these trains. ○ The hold is divided into watertight compartments.

③ compass /'kʌmpəs/ noun 1. a device which indicates the north by means of a magnetic needle on a dial ○ They were lost in the mountains without a compass. □ the points of the compass the different directions, north, south, east and west 2. □ a pair of compasses a device for drawing a circle compassion /kəm'pæʃ(ə)n/ noun a feeling of sympathy for someone unfortunate. Synonym pity □ to have compassion on someone to feel sorry for someone ○ The president had compassion on the prisoners and had them released.

compassionate /kəm'pæʃ(ə)nət/ adj showing sympathy with someone who is ill, etc. Synonym sympathetic compassionate leave /kəm,pæʃ(ə)nət 'liv/ noun permission to have time off work because someone has died, is ill, etc.

compassionately /kəm'pæʃ(ə)nətlɪ/ adv showing sympathy with someone compatibility /kəm'pætɪ'bilitɪ/ noun the ability to fit together compatible /kəm'pætɪb(ə)l/ adj □ compatible with something able to fit or work with something ○ Make sure the two computer systems are compatible.

compatriot /kəm'pætriət/ noun a person from the same country

③ compel /kəm'pel/ verb to force (NOTE: compelling – compelled) compelling /kəm'pelɪŋ/ adj 1. which forces you to do something ○ He used a very compelling argument against capital punishment. 2. very exciting or interesting compensate /'kɒmpənseɪt/ verb □ to compensate someone for something to pay for damage, for a loss ○ They agreed to compensate her for damage to her car. ○ The airline refused to compensate him when his baggage was lost.

③ compensation /,kɒmpən'seɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. payment for damage or loss ○ The airline refused to pay any compensation for his lost luggage. ○ You must submit a claim for compensation to the insurance company within two weeks. 2. something that makes up for something bad ○ Working in the centre of London has its compensations. ○ Four weeks' holiday is no compensation for a year's work in that office.

③ compete /kəm'pi:t/ verb to try to win a race or a game ○ He is competing in both the 100 and 200 metre races. □ to compete with someone or something to try to beat someone or something in an activity such as sport or trade ○ We have to compete with cheap imports from the Far East.

③ competence /'kɒmpit(ə)ns/ noun 1. the quality of being able or efficient at a job ○ Does she have the necessary competence in foreign languages? ○ After this latest disaster, his competence to handle the job seems doubtful. 2. the quality of being legally suitable or qualified to do something ○ The case falls within the competence of the tribunal. ○ This is outside the competence of this court.

competent /'kɒmpit(ə)nt/ adj 1. legally able to do something ○ The court is not competent to deal with this case. 2. efficient ○ She is a very competent manager. 3. quite good, but not brilliant ○ He's quite competent at maths. ○ She's a competent golfer.

competing /kəm'pi:tɪŋ/ adj who or which are in competition

① competition /,kɒmpə'tɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. a sport or game where several teams or people enter and each tries to win ○ France were winners of the competition. ○ He won first prize in the piano competition. ○ The competition is open to everybody. (NOTE: The plural in this meaning is competitions.) 2. a situation in business in which one person or company is trying to do better than another ○ Our main competition comes from the big supermarkets. ○ We have to keep our prices low because of competition from cheap imports. 3. people or companies who are trying to do better than you ○ We have lowered our prices to try to beat the competition. ○ The competition is or are planning to reduce their prices. (NOTE: singular in this meaning, but can take a plural verb)

② competitive /kəm'petɪtɪv/ adj 1. liking to win competitions ○ He's very competitive. 2. involving competition 3. □ competitive prices prices which are lower or no higher than those of rival firms ○ We must keep our prices competitive if we want to stay in business.

competitor /kəm'petɪtə/ noun 1. a person who enters a competition ○ All the competi- tors lined up for the start of the marathon. 2. a company which competes ○ Two German firms are our main competitors.

compilation /kəm'pɪl'eɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. the process of putting things together in a list or book ○ The compilation of a dictionary is a never-ending task. 2. a work which has been compiled ○ His compilation of jokes from 19th century magazines has just been published.

② compile /kəm'pail/ verb 1. to draw up a list ○ She compiled a list of all her friends whose names started with the letter 'R'. ○ They have compiled a mass of data on space flights. 2. to write a dictionary ○ Dr Johnson used many helpers to compile his dictionary.

complacency /kəm'pleis(ə)nsl/ noun the fact of being complacent complacent /kəm'pleis(ə)nt/ adj satisfied with yourself. Synonym satisfied

② complain /kəm'pleɪn/ verb to say that something is no good or does not work properly (formal) ○ The shop is so cold the staff have started complaining. ○ She complained about the service. ○ They are complaining that our prices are too high. ○ She complained that no one spoke English in the hotel. (NOTE: You complain to someone about something or that something is no good.)

② complaint /kəm'pleɪnt/ noun 1. an act of saying that something is wrong ○ She sent her letter of complaint to the managing director. ○ You must file your complaint with the relevant department. 2. an illness ○ She was admitted to hospital with a kidney complaint.

③ complement noun /'kɒmplɪmənt/ 1. a thing which adds to or fits in with something else ○ Mint sauce is the perfect complement to roast lamb. 2. □ a ship's complement the full crew of a ship 3. a noun or adjective which follows the verbs 'be' or 'become' ○ In the sentence 'he's a big boy' the words 'a big boy' are the complement of the verb 'is'. □ verb /'kɒmplɪment/ to fit in with something ○ The two colours complement each other perfectly. ○ Her jewellery complemented the colour of her hair. (NOTE: Do not confuse with compliment.)

complementary /kɒmplɪ'ment(ə)ri/ adj which fits in with something by offering things which the other thing does not have (NOTE: Do not confuse with complimentary.)

complementary /kɒmplɪ'ment(ə)ri/ med(ə)sin/ noun a type of medicine such as homeopathy and acupuncture which can be used alongside traditional medicine

① complete /kəm'pli:t/ adj 1. with all its parts ○ He has a complete set of the new stamps. ○ We have to study the complete works of Shakespeare. 2. total ○ The trip was a complete waste of money. □ verb 1. to finish ○ The builders completed the whole job in two days. 2. to fill in a form ○ When you have completed the application form, send it to us in the envelope provided.

① completely /kəm'pli:tli/ adv totally ○ The town was completely destroyed in the earthquake. ○ I completely forgot about my dentist's appointment. Synonym totally. Antonym partially completion /kəm'pli:ʃ(ə)n/ noun the act of finishing ○ With the completion of the Channel Tunnel, travel to France became much easier. ○ The bridge is nearing completion. □ the completion of a contract the signing of a contract. Synonym conclusion. Antonym start

② complex /'kɒmpleks/ adj complicated ○ The committee is discussing the complex problem of the site for the new hospital. ○ The specifications for the machine are very complex. □ noun 1. a series of buildings ○ The council has built a new sports complex. ○ An industrial complex is planned on the site of the old steel works. 2. (in psychiatry) a group of ideas which are based on an experience that you had in the past, and which influence the way you behave ○ He has a complex about going bald. ○ Stop talking about her height – you'll give her a complex about it.

complexion /kəm'plekʃən/ noun the colour of the skin on your face

③ complexity /kəm'pleksiti/ noun being complex ○ The report was delayed because of the complexity of the problems.

③ compliance /kəm'plaiəns/ noun agreement to do what is ordered compliant /kəm'plaiənt/ adj agreeing to do something or to obey the rules

③ complicate /'kɒmplɪkeɪt/ verb to make things complicated. Antonym simplify

① complicated /'kɒmplɪkeɪtɪd/ adj with many small details; difficult to understand ○ It is a complicated subject. ○ It's all getting too complicated – let's try and keep it simple. ○ Chess has quite complicated rules. ○ The route to get to our house is rather complicated, so I'll draw you a map. Synonym complex complication /,kɒmplɪ'keɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. a complicated situation ○ It all seems quite simple to me – what's the complication? 2. an illness occurring because of or during another illness ○ She appeared to be getting better, but complications set in. 3. more trouble ○ All these forms which we have to fill in just create further complications.

complicity /kəm'plisiti/ noun the fact of being involved in a crime as an accomplice. Synonym involvement

② compliment noun /'kɒmplɪmənt/ 1. a remark which praises someone or something ○ She blushed when she read his compliments on her dancing. □ to be fishing for compliments to try to get someone to say nice things about you □ to pay someone a compliment to praise someone, or to do something which shows you appreciate someone ○ They paid her the compliment of asking her to speak to the meeting. 2. □ send him my compliments give him my good wishes □ with the compliments of with good wishes from ○ A box of chocolates with the compliments of the manager or with the manager's compliments. ○ Please accept these flowers with my compliments. ■ verb /'kɒmplɪmənt/ to praise ○ The management compliments the staff on an excellent turnover this year. ○ I would like to compliment the chef on an excellent meal. Synonym flatter. Antonym criticise (NOTE: Do not confuse with complement)

② complimentary /,kɒmplɪ'ment(ə)ri/ adj 1. full of praise ○ He was very complimentary about her dress. ○ The reviews of his book are very complimentary. 2. □ complimentary ticket a free ticket, sent to a friend or business associate ○ Resale of complimentary tickets is not allowed by the club.

compliments slip /'kɒmplɪmənts slip/ noun a piece of paper with the name of the company printed on it, sent with documents, gifts, etc., instead of a letter

② component /kəm'pənənt/ adj which forms part of a larger machine, etc. ○ They supply component parts for washing machines. ■ noun a small piece in a larger machine ○ a components manufacturer ○ The assembly line stopped because they ran out of components. Synonym part

compose /kəm'pəuz/ verb 1. to write something, using your intelligence ○ He sat down to compose a letter to his family. ○ It took Mozart only three days to compose his fifth piano concerto. ○ Who composed the music to 'Doctor Zhivago'? 2. □ to compose yourself to make yourself calm (formal) ○ She paused for a while to compose herself before going out on stage again.

composed /kəm'pəuzd/ adj 1. □ composed of made up of ○ a group composed of three girls and their boyfriends 2. not flustered ○ The accused man sat in the dock looking very calm and composed.

composer /kəm'pəuzə/ noun a person who writes music. Synonym creator composite /'kɒmpəzɪt/ adj made of several different parts. Synonym compound

③ composition /,kɒmpə'zɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. how something is made up ○ Scientists are trying to establish the composition of the rock sample from the moon. 2. something which has been composed, e.g. a poem or piece of music ○ We will now play a well-known composition by Dowland. 3. an essay or piece of writing on a special subject ○ We had three hours to write a composition on 'pollution'.

compost /'kɒmpɒst/ noun rotted leaves, etc., used as a fertiliser □ compost heap leaves and garden waste piled up in a garden and left to rot ○ Grass clippings can be piled on top of the compost heap.

composure /kəm'pʊzə/ noun calmness. Synonym equanimity

③ compound adj /'kɒmpaʊnd/ made up of several parts ■ noun /'kɒmpaʊnd/ 1. a chemical made up of two or more elements ○ Water is a compound of hydrogen and oxygen. 2. buildings and land enclosed by a fence ○ Guard dogs patrol the compound at night. ○ Soldiers were guarding the embassy compound. 3. a word made from two or more separate words, e.g. 'peace process' ■ verb /kəm'paʊnd/ 1. to make something worse 2. to agree with creditors to pay part of the money owed compound fracture /,kɒmpaʊnd 'frækʃə/ noun a fracture where the broken bone has gone through the skin compound interest /,kɒmpaʊnd 'ɪntrəst/ noun interest calculated on the original total plus any previous interest. Compare simple interest comprehend /,kɒmpri'hend/ verb to understand (formal) comprehensible /,kɒmpri'hensəb(ə)l/ adj which can be understood. Synonym understandable. Antonym unintelligible

③ comprehension /,kɒmpri'hensən/ noun understanding □ beyond someone's comprehension quite impossible for someone to understand ○ His actions are beyond my comprehension.

③ comprehensive adj /,kɒmpri'hensɪv/ which includes everything. Synonym complete ■ noun same as comprehensive school comprehensive education /,kɒmprihensɪv ,edju'keɪʃ(ə)n/ noun an education system for all children without any selection according to ability comprehensive insurance /,kɒmprihensɪv in'suərəns/ noun an insurance policy which covers you against all risks which are likely to happen comprehensive school /,kɒmpri'hensɪv sku:l/ noun a state school for children of all abilities compress noun /'kɒmpres/ a pad of cloth, sometimes soaked in hot or cold liquid, placed on the skin to relieve pain or to force pus out of an infected wound. ○ She applied a cold compress to the bruise. ○ The nurse applied a dry compress to his bleeding knee. (NOTE: The plural is compresses.) ■ verb /kəm'pres/ to squeeze into a small space. ○ The garden centre sells peat compressed into large bags. ○ I tried to compress the data onto one page, but couldn't do it.

③ comprise /kəm'praɪz/ verb to be made up of. Synonym include □ to be comprised of to be made up of. ○ The exam is comprised of two written papers and an oral.

compromise /'kɒmprəmaɪz/ noun an agreement between two opposing sides, where each side gives way a little. ○ They reached a compromise after some discussion. ○ There is no question of a compromise with the terrorists. ■ verb 1. to come to an agreement by giving way a little. ○ He asked £15 for it, I offered £7 and we compromised on £10. ○ The government has refused to compromise with the terrorists. 2. to put someone in a difficult position. ○ Now that he has been compromised, he has had to withdraw as a candidate. 3. to do something which reveals a secret. ○ The security code has been compromised.

compromising /'kɒmprəmaɪzɪŋ/ adj embarrassing compulsion /kəm'pʌlʃən/ noun a force or urge compulsive /kəm'pʌlsɪv/ adj not able to stop yourself doing something compulsory /kəm'pʌlsəri/ adj which everyone is forced to do. ○ a compulsory injection against cholera. ○ It is compulsory to wear a crash helmet on a motorcycle. Antonym optional compunction /kəm'pʌŋkʃən/ noun guilty and sad feelings about something you have done. Synonym regret

③ compute /kəm'pjut/ verb to work out an amount. Synonym calculate

① computer /kəm'pjʊ:tə/ noun an electronic machine which calculates and keeps information automatically. ○ All the company's records are on computer.

computer-aided design /kəm,pjʊ:tə'dɪzɪd dɪ'zain/ noun the use of computer software in designing things computer game /kəm'pjʊ:tə geɪm/ noun a game which you can play on a computer, using a special program computerise /kəm'pjʊ:təraɪz/, computerize verb 1. to change from a manual system to one using computers. ○ Our booking system has been completely computerised. 2. to calculate or work by a computer. ○ We get computerised pay cheques. 3. to equip an organisation such as a business or school with computers. ○ The school is becoming computerised, but we still have only one computer per class. ③ Supermarket checkouts are fully computerised.

computer-literacy /kəm,pju:tə'litɪs/ noun the fact of being able to use a computer computer-literate /kəm,pju:tə'lɪtɪt/ adj able to use a computer computing /kəm'pjʊ:tɪŋ/ noun the use of computers comrade /'kɒmrəd/ noun 1. a friend or companion, especially a soldier. ○ We remember old comrades buried in foreign cemeteries. 2. a fellow member of a socialist or communist party. ○ All comrades must attend the party meeting. 3. a form of address to a fellow member of a socialist or communist party. ○ Comrades, we must fight to establish the right to union membership.

comradeship /'kɒmrədɪʃɪp/ noun fellowship or friendliness

③ con /kɒn/ noun 1. a trick done to try to get money from someone. ○ Trying to get us to pay him for ten hours' work was just a con. □ conman 2. □ the pros and cons the arguments for and against something. ○ You have to weigh up all the pros and cons before coming to a decision. ■ verb to trick someone to try to get money. ○ They conned the bank into lending them £25,000. ○ He conned the old lady out of all her savings. (NOTE: conning – conned) concave /'kɒnkeɪv/ adj (of a surface) rounded inwards like the inside of a spoon conceal /kən'si:l/ verb to hide something or put it where it cannot be seen concealed /kən'si:ld/ adj hidden or difficult to see concede /kən'si:d/ verb 1. to admit that you are wrong. ○ She conceded that this time she had been mistaken. 2. □ to concede defeat to admit that you have lost. ○ With half the votes counted, the presidential candidate conceded defeat. ○ After sixteen moves, the chess champion had to concede defeat.

conceit /kən'si:t/ noun a high opinion of yourself conceited /kən'si:tɪd/ adj thinking too much of yourself conceivable /kən'si:vəb(ə)l/ adj which can be imagined. Synonym imaginable conceivably /kən'si:vəbli/ adv in a conceivable way conceive /kən'si:v/ verb 1. to become pregnant. ○ After two years of marriage she was beginning to think she would never conceive. 2. □ to be conceived (of a child) to start existence in the womb. ○ Our little girl was conceived during a power cut in New York. 3. to think up a plan ○ They conceived the idea for a self-cleaning oven. 4. to imagine ○ I can't conceive of any occasion where I would wear a dress like that. ○ It is difficult to conceive how people can be so cruel.

② concentrate /'kɒnsəntreɪt/ verb 1. to be very attentive ○ The exam candidates were all concentrating hard when someone started to giggle. □ to concentrate on something to pay special attention to something ○ Don't talk – he's trying to concentrate on his homework. ○ The salesmen are supposed to concentrate on getting orders. 2. to put everything together in one place ○ The enemy guns are concentrated on top of that hill. ■ noun a substance which has been concentrated by extracting some of the water in it ○ lemon concentrate

② concentrated /'kɒnsəntreɪtɪd/ adj 1. from which water has been extracted, so giving a very strong taste ○ a bottle of concentrated orange juice 2. very determined to do something ○ With a little concentrated effort we should be able to do it.

② concentration /,kɒnsən'treɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. thinking carefully about something ○ A loud conversation in the next room disturbed my concentration. ○ His concentration slipped and he lost the next two games. 2. the grouping of a lot of things in one area ○ the concentration of computer companies in the south of Scotland ○ The concentration of wild animals round the water hole makes it easy for lions to catch their prey.

concentration camp /,kɒnsən'treɪʃ(ə)n kæmp/ noun a harsh camp, often for political prisoners concentric /kɒn'sentrɪk/ adj used for describing circles and spheres of different sizes with the same centre

② concept /'kɒnsept/ noun a philosophical idea ○ The concept of punctuation and grammar is completely foreign to her. ○ Our children have absolutely no concept of tidiness.

③ conception /kən'sepʃən/ noun 1. the fact of becoming pregnant ○ Birth takes place about nine months after conception. 2. an idea ○ She has no conception of the time it takes to learn Russian.

conceptual /kən'septʃuəl/ adj referring to concepts

① concern /kən'sɜ:n/ noun 1. worry ○ She's a cause of great concern to her family. 2. interest ○ My main concern is to ensure that we all enjoy ourselves. ○ The teachers showed no concern at all for the children's safety. □ it is not someone's concern it's nothing to do with someone ○ I don't care what they do with the money – it's not my concern. 3. a company or business ○ a big German chemical concern ■ verb 1. to have a particular thing as a subject □ the letter concerns you the letter is about you □ that does not concern him it has nothing to do with him □ as far as something is concerned used for introducing the subject of a comment □ to concern yourself with to deal with ○ You needn't concern yourself with cleaning the shop. 2. to make someone worry ○ It concerns me that he is always late for work.

① concerned /kən'sɜ:nd/ adj worried ○ She looked concerned. ○ I could tell something was wrong by the concerned look on her face. ○ We are concerned about her behaviour – do you think she is having problems at school? Synonym worried. Antonym carefree

① concerning /kən'sɜ:nɪŋ/ prep dealing with (formal) ○ He filled in a questionnaire concerning holidays. ○ I'd like to speak to Mr Robinson concerning his application for insurance. ○ Anyone with information concerning this person should get in touch with the police.

② concert /'kɒnsət/ noun 1. a programme of music played in public ○ I'm sorry, the concert is sold out. ○ I couldn't go to the concert, so I gave my ticket to a friend. 2. □ in concert done or planned together with someone else ○ They acted in concert to prevent the takeover.

concerted /kən'sɜ:tɪd/ adj involving planning or working together in a determined way ○ Our success was the result of a concerted effort on the part of all the team. ○ We must make a concerted attack on the backlog of paperwork. Synonym concentrated concert hall /'kɒnsət hɔ:l/ noun a large building where concerts are given concertina /,kɒnsən'ti:nə/ noun a musical instrument you can carry, with a middle part which you can squeeze and a set of keys at either end ○ He played the concertina in cafés in Paris. ■ verb to become crushed or squeezed ○ Three coaches of the train concertinaed.

concerto /kən'tse:təʊ/ noun a piece of music for a single instrument and orchestra, or for a small group of instruments (NOTE: The plural is concertos.)

concession /kən'seʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. the act of allowing someone to do something you do not really want them to do ○ We insist that the children are home by 8 p.m. on weekdays, but as a concession, we let them stay out until 11 on Saturdays. 2. □ to make concessions to someone to change your plans so as to please someone ○ The Prime Minister has said that no concessions will be made to the terrorists. 3. a licence to do something ○ an oil concession concessionary /kən'seʃ(ə)nəri/ noun given as a concession ○ Concessionary rates are offered to OAPs and students.

concessionary fare /kən'seʃ(ə)nəri feər/ noun a reduced cost for travelling on public transport for certain types of passenger (such as people who work for a transport company) conciliation /kən'siliʃ(ə)n/ noun the bringing together of the parties in a disagreement with a third party, so that the disagreement can be settled through a series of talks conciliatory /kən'siliət(ə)ri/ adj which aims to make people agree to settle a disagreement concise /kən'sais/ adj short, using only a few words. Synonym brief. Antonym verbose concisely /kən'saisli/ adv in a concise way

② conclude /kən'klu:d/ verb 1. to end; to come to an end ○ He concluded by thanking all those who had helped arrange the exhibition. ○ The concert concluded with a piece by Mozart. 2. to come to an opinion ○ The police concluded that the thief had got into the building through the kitchen window. 3. □ to conclude an agreement with someone to arrange an agreement with someone concluding /kən'klu:dn/ adj last. Synonym final. Antonym opening

② conclusion /kən'klu:ʒ(ə)n/ noun 1. the end ○ At the conclusion of the trial all the accused were found guilty. 2. an opinion which you reach after careful thought ○ She came to or reached the conclusion that he had found another girlfriend. ○ What conclusions can you draw from the evidence before you?

conclusive /kən'klu:siv/ adj which offers firm proof. Antonym inconclusive conclusively /kən'klu:sivli/ adv in a firm and definite way concoct /kən'kɒkt/ verb 1. to make up or invent a story ○ However unbelievable the story is, it is not something which he has concocted. 2. to make a dish of food ○ I'm always a bit dubious about the dishes she concocts for us when she invites us to dinner.

concoction /kən'kɒkʃən/ noun an unusual mixture of food or drink concord /kən'kɔ:d/ noun a state of agreement and peace concordance /kən'kɔ:dns/ noun an alphabetical list of words used in a book or by a writer concourse /'kɒnkjʊ:s/ noun a large entrance area in a railways station or airport

③ concrete /'kɒnkjri:t/ adj 1. made of cement and sand ○ a concrete path 2. real, important ○ He had no concrete proposals to offer. ○ The police are sure he is guilty, but they have no concrete evidence against him.

■ noun a mixture of cement and sand, used in building ○ Concrete was invented by the Romans. ○ The pavement is made of slabs of concrete. ■ verb □ to concrete something over to cover an area with concrete ○ We concreted over the patio.

concrete noun /,kɒnkjri:t 'naʊn/ noun a word which gives the name of a physical thing, e.g. 'clock' or 'elephant' concubine /'kɒnkjubən/ noun a woman who lives with a man as his second wife, but who is not married to him concur /kən'kɜ:/ verb to agree (NOTE: concurring – concurred) concurrent /kən'kʌrənt/ adj taking place at the same time concussed /kən'kʌst/ adj in a state of concussion concussion /kən'kʌʃ(ə)n/ noun a shock to the brain caused by being hit on the head condemn /kən'dem/ verb 1. to say that you do not approve of something ○ She condemned the council for the delay. 2. to sentence a criminal ○ She was condemned to death. 3. to state officially that a house is not suitable for people to live in ○ The whole block of flats has been condemned and will be pulled down.

condemnation /,kɒndem'nейʃ(ə)n/ noun saying that you do not approve of something condemned /kən'demd/ adj (of a person) officially told that he or she is going to die, as a punishment for a crime condensation /,kɒnden'seʃ(ə)n/ noun steam which becomes a film of water on a cold surface condense /kən'dens/ verb 1. to reduce the size of something ○ The article was sent back to the author with a note asking her to condense it. 2. to make a liquid become thicker ○ He opened a tin of condensed soup. 3. (of steam) to form drops of water ○ Vapour will condense when it is cooled.

condensed milk /kən,dens't milk/ noun milk which has been made thicker and sweeter condescend /,kɒndɪ'send/ verb to speak or to act as if you are a better person than someone else condescending /,kɒndɪ'sendɪŋ/ adj behaving in a way which shows you think you are a better person than someone else condiment /'kɒndɪmənt/ noun substances such as salt, pepper or mustard, used to give taste to food. Compare cruel

① condition /kən'dɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. a state that something or someone is in ○ The car is in very good condition considering it is over thirty years old. ○ He was taken to hospital when his condition got worse. 2. the state of the place in which someone is living or working ○ Conditions in the refugee camps are very bad. ○ The meteorological office forecast poor weather conditions. 3. an illness ○ He is being treated for a heart condition. 4. an important part of a deal, something which has to be agreed before something else is done ○ They didn't agree with some of the conditions of the contract. ○ One of conditions of the deal is that the company pays all travel costs.

□ on condition that only if ○ I will come on condition that you pay my fare.

conditional adj /kən'dɪʃ(ə)n(ə)l/ 1. provided that certain things take place □ to give a conditional acceptance to accept something, provided that certain things happen or certain conditions apply 2. □ conditional on subject to certain conditions ○ The offer is conditional on the board's acceptance. ■ noun a part of a verb which shows that something might happen ○ 'I would come' is a conditional form of 'to come.'

conditionally /kən'dɪʃ(ə)n(ə)li/ adv under certain conditions conditioner /kən'dɪʃ(ə)nər/ noun a liquid which puts hair into good condition ○ The hairdresser asked me if I wanted some conditioner after the shampoo. ○ I always use a combined shampoo and conditioner.

condo /'kɒndəʊ/ noun US same as condominium (informal) condolences /kən'dəʊlənsɪz/ plural noun expressions of feeling sad, especially at the death of someone ○ He expressed his condolences to the company on the death of their founder. ○ We sent our condolences to his wife, whom we know very well. ○ Letters of condolence are still arriving at his house.

condom /'kɒndɒm/ noun a rubber covering put over the penis before sex as a protection against infection, and also to prevent the woman from becoming pregnant condominium /'kɒndə'mɪniəm/ noun 1. a system of rule of an area by two countries together 2. US a building where each apartment is owned by the person who lives in it ○ They're building a condominium on the site of the old hospital. 3. US an apartment in a condominium ○ His cousin has just bought an expensive condominium in Malibu. (NOTE: [senses 2 and 3] often shortened to condo) condone /kən'dəʊn/ verb to excuse or forgive something such as a fault or crime condor /'kɒndɔ:/ noun a large South American bird similar to a vulture

② conduct noun /'kɒndʌkt/ a way of behaving ○ His conduct in class is becoming worse. ○ Her conduct during the trial was remarkably calm. ○ He was arrested for disorderly conduct in the High Street. ■ verb /kən'dʌkt/ 1. to direct someone to a place or to direct the way in which someone does something ○ The VIPs were conducted to their seats. ○ The orchestra was conducted by a Russian conductor. 2. to allow something such as electricity or heat to pass through a substance ○ Copper conducts electricity very well. 3. to carry out ○ They are conducting an experiment into the effect of TV advertising. ○ The chairman conducted the negotiations very efficiently.

conducted tour /kən,dæktɪd 'tuə/ noun something such as a walk or a journey around a place, led by a person who tells you about the place. Synonym guided tour

③ conductor /kən'dʌktə/ noun 1. a metal, or other substance through which heat or electricity can pass ○ Copper is a good conductor but plastic is not. 2. the person who directs an orchestra ○ As the orchestra reached the grand finale, the conductor started to sing. ○ The conductor asked the horns to play more softly. 3. US a person in charge of a train (NOTE: The British term is railway guard.)

conduit /'kɒndjuɪt/ noun a tube along which water or gas or electricity wires can be passed

③ cone /kəʊn/ noun 1. a shape which is round at the base, rising to a point ○ He rolled the newspaper to form a cone. 2. a brightly coloured plastic cone, used to keep drivers away from an area of road ○ Part of the motorway has been marked off with cones. ○ Traffic cones were placed round the hole in the road.

cone off /,kəʊn 'ɒf/ verb to cut off part of a road with cones confectionery /kən'fekʃən(ə)ri/ noun sweets and cakes

Confederacy /kən'fed(ə)rəsi/ noun the group of eleven Southern states which separated from the Union and fought the North in the American Civil War (1861–65) confederate /kən'fed(ə)rət/ noun a person who has joined with others, usually to commit a crime ○ All over Europe the police are looking for him and his confederates. ■ adj referring to the southern states which separated from the Union during the American Civil War ○ The Confederate Army moved towards Richmond.

confederation /kən,fedə'reɪʃ(ə)n/ noun a group of states or organisations

③ confer /kən'fɜ:/ verb 1. to discuss ○ The leader of the Council conferred with the Town Clerk. 2. to give something such as a responsibility, legal right or honour to someone ○ the discretionary powers conferred on the tribunal by statute. Synonym award

① conference /'kɒnf(ə)rəns/ noun 1. a discussion ○ The managers had a quick conference to decide what action to take. □ to be in conference to be in a meeting 2. a meeting of a group or society ○ The annual conference of the Electricians' Union. ○ 2000 people attended the conference on genetic engineering.

conference call /'kɒnf(ə)rəns kɔ:l/ noun a telephone conversation involving three or more people using special equipment so that they can all talk to each other confess /kən'fes/ verb 1. to admit that you have done something wrong ○ He confessed to six burglaries. ○ She confessed that she had forgotten to lock the door. 2. to admit your sins to a priest ○ She went to church to confess to the priest.

confession /kən'fes(ə)n/ noun 1. a statement in which someone admits they have done something wrong ○ The prisoner said his confession had been forced from him by the police. 2. □ to make your confession to admit your sins to a priest confessional /kən'fes(ə)n(ə)l/ noun a small private room in a church where a priest hears confessions confetti /kən'feti/ noun small pieces of coloured paper thrown over the bride and bridegroom after a wedding confidant /'kɒnfɪdənt/ noun a person to whom someone tells secrets confidante /'kɒnfɪdənt/ noun a woman to whom someone tells secrets

③ confide /kən'faɪd/ verb □ to confide in someone to tell someone a secret ○ He has always confided in his mother.

② confidence /'kɒnfɪd(ə)ns/ noun 1. the feeling of being sure ○ The staff do not have much confidence in their manager. ○ I have total confidence in the pilot. 2. the fact of being secret □ in confidence as a secret ○ He showed me the report in confidence. □ to take someone into your confidence to tell someone a secret confidence trick /'kɒnfɪd(ə)ns ,trɪk/ noun a trick to get money by making someone believe something which is not true

② confident /'kɒnfɪd(ə)nt/ adj sure that you or something will be successful ○ I am confident (that) the show will go off well. ○ She's confident of doing well in the exam.

③ confidential /,kɒnfɪ'denʃəl/ adj secret or private confidentiality /,kɒnfɪdenʃi'æliti/ noun being secret or private confidentially /,kɒnfɪ'denʃəli/ adv in a confidential way

③ configuration /kən'fi:gjə'reɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. the shape or design of something ○ Just looking at the configuration of the wires on a telephone exchange makes the mind boggle. 2. the way in which the hardware and software of a computer system are planned ○

The machine uses RAM to store system configuration information.

③ confine /kən'fain/ verb 1. to keep in one small place ○ The tigers were confined in a small cage with no room to move around. □ to confine someone to barracks to forced a soldier to stay in barracks when others are out □ to confine someone to bed to forced a sick or injured person to stay in bed ○ She wanted to get up, but the doctor has confined her to bed. 2. to limit ○ Make sure you confine your answer to the subject in the question.

confined /kən'faɪnd/ adj 1. of limited range or use 2. kept in crowded conditions, or completely enclosed 3. giving birth, or about to give birth, to a child (dated) confinement /kən'fainmənt/ noun 1. the fact of being in prison ○ He was kept in solitary confinement for seven weeks. 2. a period when a woman gives birth to a baby (old) confines /'kɒnfainz/ plural noun 1. the borders or edges of a place 2. the limits of something such as an activity or topic of study

② confirm /kən'fɜ:m/ verb 1. to say that something is certain ○ The dates of the concerts have been confirmed by the pop group's manager. ○ The photograph confirmed that the result of the race was a dead heat. ○ We have been told that she left the country last month – can you confirm that? 2. □ to confirm someone in a job to say that someone is now permanently in the job □ to be confirmed in office to be told by a new management that you can still have your job

confirmation /,kɒnfə'meɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. the act of making sure ○ We are awaiting official confirmation of the figures. 2. a document which confirms something ○ We have had confirmation from the bank that the payment has been made. 3. a ceremony where a person is made a full Christian by a bishop ○ When is your nephew's confirmation?

confirmed /kən'fɜ:md/ adj permanently in a certain state, and not wanting to change □ he's a confirmed bachelor he will never marry confiscate /kɒnfɪskeɪt/ verb to take away someone's possessions as a punishment confiscation /,kɒnfɪs'keɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the act of confiscating something. Synonym seizure conflagration /kɒnflæ'greɪʃ(ə)n/ noun an extremely large fire

② conflict noun /'kɒnflɪkt/ fighting ○ The army is engaged in armed conflict with rebel forces. □ to come into conflict with someone to start to fight someone ○ The decision brought the union into conflict with the management. ■ verb /kən'flɪkt/ □ to conflict with to start fighting with someone or to disagree with someone or something ○ The defendant's version of events conflicts with that of the witness. □ they gave conflicting advice different people gave pieces of advice which are the opposite of each other conflict of interest /'kɒnflikt əv 'intrəst/, conflict of interests /,kɒnflikt əv 'intrəsts/ noun a situation where a person may profit personally from decisions which he takes in his job

③ conform /kən'fɔ:m/ verb to act in the same way as other people □ refused to conform to the regulations refused to do what the regulations say ○ The machine conforms to EU regulations.

conformist /kən'fɔ:mɪst/ noun a person who acts in the same way as other people conformity /kən'fɔ:mɪti/ noun 1. the action of conforming ○ It is their passive conformity that is so depressing. 2. □ in conformity with agreeing with ○ He has acted in conformity with the regulations.

confound /kən'faʊnd/ verb to make someone feel surprised or confused confront /kən'frənt/ verb 1. to threaten someone by approaching them ○ Don't confront a burglar on your own – he may be armed. 2. to be willing to deal with a difficult situation ○ We need to confront these issues before they get out of control. □ to confront someone with the evidence to show the evidence to someone ○ When the police confronted him with the photographs he confessed.

confrontation /,kɒnfrən'teɪʃ(ə)n/ noun an angry meeting between opposing sides confrontational /,kɒnfrən'teɪʃ(ə)n(ə)l/ adj always attacking someone confuse /kən'fju:z/ verb 1. to make someone feel that they cannot understand or control something ○ She was confused by all the journalists' questions. 2. to mix up ○ The twins are so alike I am always confusing them. ○ I always confuse him with his brother – they are very alike.

③ confused /kən'fju:zd/ adj unable to understand or to think clearly ○ I'm a bit confused – did we say 8.00 p.m. or 8.30? ○ Grandmother used to get rather confused in her old age.

confusedly /kən'fju:zɪdli/ adv in a confused way

③ confusing /kən'fju:zɪŋ/ adj difficult to understand ○ She found the instructions on the computer very confusing. Synonym unclear

③ confusion /kən'fju:zɪʃ(ə)n/ noun a situation in which things are not organised in the correct way or are not clear ○ There were scenes of confusion at the airport when the snowstorm stopped all flights.

congeal /kən'dʒi:l/ verb (of liquid) to become solid (NOTE: When referring to blood, the usual word to use is clot) congenial /kən'dʒi:niəl/ adj pleasant or friendly. Synonym agreeable congenital /kən'dʒenɪtl/ adj (of an illness or other medical problem) which exists at or before birth congested /kən'dʒestɪd/ adj 1. blocked or crowded ○ Following the accident, all the roads round the station soon became congested. ○ Something has to be done about London's congested road system. 2. with blood or liquid inside ○ With bronchitis and a congested nose, he has difficulty in breathing at night.

congestion /kən'dʒestʃən/ noun 1. a situation where a place is filled with people or traffic 2. a condition in which a part of your body such as your nose is blocked with mucus ○ This spray should clear bronchial and nasal congestion. 3. a condition in which a part of your body has too much blood collected in it ○ Congestion of the liver may be due to heart failure.

conglomerate /kən'glɒmərət/ noun a group of companies, each making very different types of products conglomeration /kən'glɒmə'reɪʃ(ə)n/ noun a mass of things collected together congratulate /kən'grætʃuleɪt/ verb to give good wishes on a special occasion or for having done something ○ He congratulated them on their silver wedding anniversary. ○ I want to congratulate you on your promotion.

③ congratulations /kən'grætʃu'leɪʃ(ə)nz/ plural noun good wishes to someone who has done well ○ Congratulations – you're our millionth customer! ○ Congratulations on passing your exam! ○ The office sent him their congratulations on his wedding.

congregate /'kɒngrɪgeɪt/ verb to gather together. Synonym assemble

③ congregation /,kɒngrɪ'geɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the people who meet together in a church congress /'kɒngrɛs/ noun a meeting of a group

③ Congress /'kɒngrɛs/ noun the legislative body of the USA, formed of the House of Representatives and the Senate

③ congressional /kən'grɛʃ(ə)n(ə)l/ adj referring to the US Congress conical /'kɒnɪk(ə)l/ adj shaped like a cone conifer /'kɒnɪfə/ noun a tree with long thin leaves called needles which stay green all year, and which produces fruit in the form of cones coniferous /kə'nɪf(ə)rəs/ adj referring to conifers conjectural /kən'dʒektʃərəl/ adj which has been guessed at conjecture /kən'dʒektʃər/ noun the process of guessing something when you do not have all the information you need ○ It was pure conjecture on my part. ■ verb to guess ○ They conjectured correctly that he would run out of money at some point.

conjugal /'kɒndʒʊg(ə)l/ adj referring to marriage conjugate /'kɒndʒʊgət/ verb 1. to state the forms of a verb 2. (of verbs) to have different grammatical forms conjunction /kən'dʒʌŋkʃən/ noun 1. a word which connects different sections of a sentence ○ 'And' and 'but' are conjunctions. 2. □ in conjunction with together with something or someone ○ The icy road in conjunction with fog made driving conditions very difficult.

conjunctivitis /kən'dʒʌŋktɪtɪ'veɪtɪs/ noun a medical condition which affects the eyes conjure /'kʌndʒər/ verb 1. to do magic tricks with objects such as cards ○ Here is a picture of a magician conjuring a rabbit out of a hat. 2. to create something as if by magic □ to conjure up an image to bring an image into someone's mind ○ His writing about the south of France conjures up scents of lavender and olive oil. □ a name to conjure with an important name ○ He's a name to conjure with in the advertising industry.

conjuror /'kʌndʒərə/, conjuror noun a person who does magic tricks with objects such as cards conk out /kɒŋk 'aʊt/ verb to stop working conman /'kɒnmæn/ noun a person who tricks people in order to get money, by making them believe something (informal)

(NOTE: The plural is conmen.)

② connect /kə'nekt/ verb 1. to join ○ The computer should have been connected to the printer. ○ Has the telephone been connected yet? ○ Connect the two red wires together. 2. to link up with □ the flight from New York connects with a flight to Athens the plane from New York arrives in time for passengers to catch the plane to Athens □ this train connects with the 12.45 this train allows passengers to catch the 12.45 connected /kə'nektɪd/ adj joined □ connected to the Williams family related to the Williams family

② connection /kə'nektʃən/ noun 1. a relationship between things ○ There is a definite connection between smoking and lung cancer. ○ He said that there was no connection between how much he had had to drink and his falling over in the street. □ in connection with your visit referring to your visit 2. something such as a train or plane which you catch after getting off another train or plane

○ My train was late and I missed my connection to Birmingham. 3. a wire which connects pieces of equipment ○ There is a loose connection somewhere.

connective tissue /kə'nektɪv 'tɪʃu:/ noun the parts inside your body which support and connect things such as your bones or organs connector /kə'nektər/ noun something which connects things, especially two pieces of equipment, or parts of a single object or structure connivance /kə'naɪvəns/ noun the act of conniving at something connive /kə'naɪv/ verb □ to connive at something to allow something to take place, especially something that is illegal or immoral connoisseur /kɒnə'sɜ:/ noun an expert, a person who knows a lot about something connotation /kɒnə'teɪʃ(ə)n/ noun an additional meaning conquer /'kɒŋkər/ verb to defeat by force conqueror /'kɒŋkərə/ noun a person who takes control of a country by force

③ conquest /'kɒŋkwest/ noun 1. the act of taking control of a country or people by force ○ The Norman Conquest in 1066 2. a country or person that has been conquered

③ conscience /'kɒnʃəns/ noun a feeling that you have done right or wrong conscientious /,kɒn'si'enʃəs/ adj working carefully and well ○ She's very conscientious about getting the invoices right.

conscientious objector /,kɒn'si'enʃəs ə'b'dʒektər/ noun a person who refuses to join the armed forces because he feels war is wrong

② conscious /'kɒnʃəs/ adj awake and able to know what is happening around you ○ She had a local anaesthetic and was conscious during the operation. □ a conscious decision a decision which you have thought carefully about ○ Refusing the offer was a conscious decision on his part. ○ He made a conscious decision to try to avoid her in future.

consciously /'kɒnʃəsli/ adv in a conscious way

③ consciousness /'kɒnʃəsnəs/ noun the fact of being conscious □ to lose consciousness to become unconscious □ to regain consciousness to become conscious again ○ He never regained consciousness after the accident.

conscript noun /'kɒnskript/ a person who is made to join the armed services ○ The conscripts had hardly any time to train before being sent to the front. ■ verb /kən'skript/ to order someone to join the armed services ○ All men under 35 were conscripted into the armed forces. Synonym call up conscription /kən'skrɪpʃən/ noun a legal obligation to join the armed services (NOTE: The US term is draft) consecrate /'kɒnsɪkret/ verb 1. to perform a religious ceremony to make something such as a building or someone such as a king or priest is holy ○ The bishop was consecrated in the cathedral. 2. □ to consecrate your life to something to spend your life doing something which helps other people ○ She consecrated her life to helping the homeless.

consecration /kɒnsɪ'kreɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. an occasion when something or someone is consecrated ○ The consecration of the new cathedral. 2. the practice of consecrating your life to someone or something ○ The consecration of her life to helping the poor.

consecutive /kən'sekjutɪv/ adj one after the other consecutively /kə'sekjutɪvli/ adv one after the other, in the right order consensual /kən'sensjuəl/ adj with the agreement of all the people involved

③ consensus /kən'sensʊs/ noun an opinion which most people agree on

③ consent /kən'sent/ noun agreement ○ Doctors must obtain a patient's consent before operating. □ to withhold your consent to refuse to agree to something ○ Her parents withheld their consent to the marriage. ■ verb □ to consent to something to agree to something ○ The judge consented to the prosecution's request.

② consequence /'kɒnsɪkwəns/ noun 1. something which happens because of something else ○ We walked all day in the rain, with the consequence that all of us got colds. Synonym result 2. importance □ of no consequence not important consequent /'kɒnsɪkwənt/ adj which follows as a result of something □ consequent on as a result of ○ The declaration of war was consequent on the country's non-compliance with the UN resolutions.

consequential /,kɒnsɪ'kwenʃəl/ adj as a result of ③ consequently /'kɒnsɪkwəntli/ adv because of this ○ We walked all day in the rain and consequently all caught colds.

③ conservation /kɒnsə'veɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. the careful use of things such as energy or natural resources ○ The company is spending more money on energy conservation. 2. the process of looking after old things such as buildings or items in a museum

③ conservationist /,kɒnsə'veɪʃ(ə)nɪst/ noun a person who encourages the preservation of the countryside and the careful management of natural resources

conservatism /kən'sɜːvətɪz(ə)m/ noun 1. the fact that someone is conservative ○ The basic conservatism of British farmers. 2. the ideas and beliefs of the Conservative political party ○ Conservatism had a great effect on British society during the 1980s.

③ conservative /kən'sɜːvətɪv/ adj 1. not wanting to change ○ He has very conservative views. 2. less than the actual amount or number of something, when making a guess ○ a conservative estimate of sales ○ At least two hundred people came to the flower show, and that is a conservative estimate. ■ noun a person who is opposed to social or political change. Synonym traditionalist. Antonym progressive

Conservative /kən'sɜːvətɪv/ noun a member of the Conservative Party

Conservative Party /kən'sɜːvətɪv 'pɑːti/ noun a UK right-wing political party conservatoire /kən'sɜːvətwaːl/ noun a school or college where music is the only subject of study conservatory /kən'sɜːvət(ə)ri/ noun 1. a room with large windows, where you keep tropical flowers and plants ○ With its glass roof and windows, our conservatory becomes very hot in the summer. 2. US same as conservatoire conserve verb /kən'sɜːv/ 1. to keep, not to waste ○ A government programme to conserve energy. 2. to look after and keep in the same state ○ Our committee aims to conserve the wildlife in our area. ■ noun /'kɒnsɜːv/ pieces of fruit in a thick sweet liquid ○ peach conserve

① consider /kən'sɪdə/ verb 1. to think carefully about something ○ Please consider seriously the offer which we are making. ○ We have to consider the position of the children after the divorce. 2. to think ○ Do you consider him the right man for the job? ○ She is considered (to be) one of the best lawyers in town. 3. □ all things considered on the whole ○ All things considered, the flower show went off quite well.

① considerable /kən'sɪdərəb(ə)l/ adj fairly large ○ He lost a considerable amount of money at the horse race. Synonym substantial. Antonym insignificant

① considerably /kən'sɪdərəb(ə)rəbl/ adv to a fairly large extent. Synonym significantly considerate /kən'sɪdərət/ adj full of feeling or understanding towards someone. Antonym inconsiderate

① consideration /kən'sɪdə'reɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. careful thought ○ We are giving serious consideration to the possibility of moving the head office to Scotland. □ to take something into consideration to think about something when making a decision ○ The age of the children has to be taken into con- sideration. □ under consideration being thought about ○ The matter is under consideration. 2. a thing which has an effect on a decision ○ The safety of the children outweighs all other considerations. 3. a small amount of money □ for a small consideration for a small payment considered /kən'sidəd/ adj which has been thought through carefully

① considering /kən'sid(ə)rɪŋ/ conj, prep when you think (of) ○ He plays the violin extremely well, considering he's only five. ○ He ought to be more grateful, considering the amount of help you have given him.

consign /kən'sain/ verb to hand something over to someone □ to consign goods to someone to send goods to someone for him to use or to sell or store for you consignment /kən'sainmənt/ noun 1. the sending of goods to someone who will sell them for you ○ The consignment of books to our French distributor was easily organised.

2. a quantity of goods sent for sale ○ A consignment of goods has arrived. ○ We are expecting a consignment of cars from Japan.

③ consist /kən'sist/ verb □ to consist of to be formed of ○ The package tour consists of air travel, six nights in a luxury hotel, all meals and visits to places of interest.

③ consistency /kən'sistənsi/ noun 1. the fact of being the same throughout ○ I wish there was more consistency in his reports. 2. the degree to which a substance is, e.g., thick or smooth, ○ The consistency of the sauce should be that of thick syrup. ○ In order to obtain the desired consistency, it may be necessary to add a little water.

③ consistent /kən'sistənt/ adj 1. □ consistent with something which agrees with something ○ The measures taken must be consistent with government policy. 2. always at the same level ○ Some of his work is very good, but he's not consistent.

consistently /kən'sistəntli/ adv always consolation /kənsə'ləf(ə)n/ noun something which makes you feel less sad or annoyed, e.g. after a loss or a failure. Synonym comfort consolation prize /,kənsə'ləf(ə)n præz/ noun a prize for making an effort in a competition, even though you did not win console noun /'kənsələf/ 1. a flat table with the keyboard of something such as a musical instrument or machine ○ The sound engineer at the console controls the sound coming from the stage. 2. a small with a television set inside ○ We have a console which contains both the TV and video. ■ verb /kən'səul/ to help someone to feel less sad or annoyed ○ The priest wanted to console her for the loss of her father. ○ I tried to console her but she cried herself to sleep. Synonym com- fort □ to console yourself to do something to make yourself feel less sad or annoyed ○ After hearing he had failed some of his exams, he consoled himself with the thought that his brother had done even worse than he had.

consolidate /kən'splɔɪdeɪt/ verb 1. to make firm or sure ○ Having entered the market, the company spent a year consolidating its position. ○ The team consolidated their lead with a second goal. 2. to join together to make one single unit ○ The two businesses consolidated to form one group.

consolidation /kən'splɔɪ'deɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. the process of making something firm ○ After a period of consolidation, the company is now ready to expand overseas. 2. the act of joining several companies together to make one single unit ○ The consolidation of the businesses went smoothly.

consonant /'kɒnsənənt/ noun a letter representing a sound which can only form a word when combined with a vowel

COMMENT: The five vowels are 'a', 'e', 'i', 'o' and 'u'. All the other letters of the alphabet are consonants.

consort noun /'kɒnsɔ:t/ the husband or wife of a ruling queen or king ○ A Prince Consort has a difficult role since he has no real power. ○ The emperor and his consort waved to the crowd. ■ verb /kən'sɔ:t/ to go around with (formal) ○ to consort with criminals consortium /kən'sɔ:tɪəm/ noun a group of companies which work together (NOTE: The plural is consortia) conspicuous /kən'spɪkjuəs/ adj very obvious □ they were conspicuous by their absence it was very obvious that they were not there conspicuously /kən'spɪkjuəsli/ adv very obviously. Synonym noticeably. Antonym inconspicuously

③ conspiracy /kən'spirəsi/ noun a secret plan, especially to do something illegal or bad. Synonym plot conspirator /kən'spirətə/ noun a person who is part of a conspiracy conspiratorial /kən'spirətɔ:rɪəl/ adj like someone who has a secret plan conspire /kən'spaɪə/ verb to make secret plans or to take part in a conspiracy constable /'kʌnstəb(ə)l/ noun a police officer of the lowest rank (NOTE: The US term is police officer.)

constabulary /kən'stæbjʊləri/ noun the police force of a district

② constant /'kɒnstənt/ adj 1. not changing or stopping ○ The constant noise of music from the bar next door drives me mad. 2. loyal to someone and always with them ○ His dog was his constant companion. 3. with a value which does not change ○ The calculations are in constant dollars. ■ noun a number or thing which does not change ○ The speed of light is a constant. ○ Death and taxes are the only constants in life.

② constantly /'kɒnstəntli/ adv all the time. Synonym continually constellation /,kɒnsta'lēf(ə)n/ noun a group of stars in the sky, often forming a pattern consternation /,kɒnsta'nef(ə)n/ noun a shock or surprise. Synonym dismay constipated /'kɒnstɪpeɪtɪd/ adj unable to pass solid waste out of your body easily constipation /,kɒnsti'pef(ə)n/ noun the condition of being constipated

③ constituency /kən'stɪtjuənsi/ noun an area of the country which elects a Member of Parliament (NOTE: The plural is constituencies.)

constituent /kən'stitjuənt/ adj (of a part) which goes to make up a whole ○ The constituent parts of that sentence are subject, verb, and object. ○ What are the constituent parts of an omelette? ■ noun 1. a part which goes to make up a whole ○ Before starting the experiment, make sure that all the chemical constituents are ready. 2. a person who may vote in a constituency ○ A good MP tries to represent the views of his constituents. ○ She has had a mass of letters from her constituents about airport noise.

④ constitute /'kɒnstɪtju:t/ verb to be or form a particular thing ○ Selling the photographs to a newspaper constitutes a serious breach of security. ○ Women now constitute the majority of the committee.

② constitution /,kɒnsti'tju:f(ə)n/ noun 1. the ability of a person to stay healthy ○ She has a very strong constitution. □ to have the constitution of an elephant or an ox to be extremely healthy, to have a very strong constitution (informal) ○ Aunt Maud has the constitution of an elephant. 2. the laws and principles under which a country is ruled, which give the people rights and duties, and which give the government powers and duties ○ Unlike most states, Britain does not have a written constitution. ○ Freedom of speech is guaranteed by the American Constitution. 3. the written rules of something such as a society or club ○ Under the society's constitution, the chairman is elected for two years.

③ constitutional /,kɒnsti'tju:f(ə)n(ə)l/ adj 1. according to a country's constitution ○ Unilateral action by the Minister of Defence is not constitutional. 2. according to a society's constitution ○ The reelection of the chairman is not constitutional. ■ noun a short walk which you think is good for your health ○ After a big lunch I went for a constitutional walk.

tutional. ○ He always takes his early morning constitutional in the park.

constitutionally /,kɒnsti'tju:f(ə)n(ə)li/ adv according to a constitution constitutional /,kɒnsti'tju:f(ə)n(ə)l/ monarchy /'mɒnəki/ noun a system of government where a king or queen is the head of state, but the country is ruled by an elected government

③ constrain /kən'streɪn/ verb 1. to stop someone doing something which they want to do ○ His movements were constrained by his tight suit. ○ Entrepreneurs feel constrained by the mass of bureaucracy and red tape. 2. to force someone to do something ○ Her lack of cash constrained her to sell her house. ○ He felt constrained to attend every single meeting.

③ constraint /kən'streɪnt/ noun something which limits your ability to act. Synonym restriction constrict /kən'strɪkt/ verb to make something tighter, smaller constriction /kən'strɪkʃən/ noun the action of constricting

③ construct /kən'strʌkt/ verb to build something ○ We have tendered for the contract to construct the new airport. ○ The wings are constructed of aluminium.

② construction /kən'strʌkʃən/ noun 1. the act of building ○ The construction of the new stadium took three years. □ under construction being built ○ The airport is under construction. 2. a thing which has been built ○ The new stadium is a magnificent construction. ○ Planning regulations ban any construction more than 20m high in the old part of the town. 3. the meaning which you think something has, especially when other people think it has a different meaning ○ to put a different construction on the report construction site /kən'strʌkʃən saɪt/ noun same as building site constructive /kən'strʌktɪv/ adj which aims to help or improve. Synonym useful. Antonym unhelpful constructively /kən'strʌktɪvli/ adv in a constructive way construe /kən'strʊ:/ verb to understand the meaning of words or of a document in a particular way. Synonym interpret consul /'kɒnsəl/ noun a person who represents a country in a foreign city, and helps his country's citizens and business interests there consular /'kɒnsjʊlə/ adj referring to a consul consulate /'kɒnsjʊlət/ noun the house or office of a consul

③ consult /kən'salt/ verb 1. to ask someone for advice ○ He consulted his accountant about his tax. 2. to look at something to get information ○ After consulting the map they decided to go north. ○ He consulted his watch and said that they had enough time to catch the train.

consultancy /kən'saltənsi/ noun 1. the act of giving advice on a subject that you have a lot of knowledge about ○ He offers a consultancy service. ○ She runs a consultancy firm, offering advice on planning. ○ Since he's been made redundant, he's been doing consultancy work. 2. the post of consultant in a hospital ○ She was appointed to a consultancy with a London hospital.

③ consultant /kən'saltənt/ noun 1. a senior hospital doctor who is an expert in a particular medical condition or illness ○ We'll make an appointment for you to see a consultant. 2. an expert who gives advice ○ His tax consultant advised him to sell the shares.

③ consultation /kən'səl'teɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. the act of consulting someone ○ After consultations with the police, the government has decided to ban the protest march. ○ A 30-minute consultation with my lawyer cost me more than I earn in a week! 2. an act of visiting a doctor for advice ○ She had a consultation with an eye surgeon.

consultative /kən'saltətɪv/ adj asked to give advice consulting room /kən'saltɪŋ ru:m/ noun a room where a doctor sees his patients consume /kən'sju:m/ verb 1. to eat or drink ○ The guests consumed over 100 hamburgers. 2. to use up ○ The world's natural resources are being consumed at an alarming rate. ○ The new car consumes about half the amount of petrol of an ordinary car.

② consumer /kən'sju:mə/ noun a person or company that buys goods or services ○ Gas consumers are protesting at the increase in prices. ○ Consumers are buying more from supermarkets and less from small shops. Synonym buyer consumer durables /kən'sju:mə 'djuərəb(ə)lz/ plural noun goods bought by the public which will be used for a long time, e.g. washing machines or cars consumer goods /kən'sju:mə 'gudz/ plural noun goods bought by members of the public consuming /kən'sju:mɪŋ/ adj which takes up all your time and energy consummate adj /kən'samət/ perfect, extremely skilled at something ○ She's a consummate professional. ○ He was a consummate Japanese scholar. ■ verb /'kɒnsumət/ to complete something □ to consummate a marriage to have sex after marriage ○ The church would not grant an annulment because the marriage had been consummated.

consummation /,kɒnse'meɪʃ(ə)n/ noun an act or occasion of consummating something

③ consumption /kən'sampʃən/ noun 1. the act of eating or drinking something ○ The meat was condemned as unfit for human consumption. ○ The consumption of alcohol on the premises is not allowed. 2. the quantity of something that someone eats or drinks ○ Unless you reduce your consumption of fatty foods, you risk having a heart attack.

② contact /'kɒntækt/ noun 1. a touch ○ Avoid any contact between the acid and the skin. ○ Anyone who has been in physical contact with the patient must consult their doctor immediately. 2. the act of communicating with someone ○ We don't have much contact with our old friends in Australia. □ to get in contact with someone to communicate with someone you have not spoken to or written to previously □ was put in contact with a good lawyer was told the name and address of a good lawyer □ have lost contact with someone do not communicate with the person any longer 3. a person whom you know ○ He has a lot of contacts in the newspaper world. ○ Who is your contact in the ministry? ■ verb to get into communication with someone ○ He tried to contact his office by phone. ○ Can you contact the ticket office immediately?

contact lens /'kɒntækt lenz/ noun a small piece of glass or plastic which you wear in the eye to help you see more clearly contagion /kən'teɪdʒən/ noun the spreading of a disease by touching an infected person or things which an infected person has touched contagious /kən'teɪdʒəs/ adj 1. (of a disease) which can be spread to other people by touching an infected person or objects which an infected person has touched ○ Did you have any contagious diseases when you were a child? ○ Your child is no longer contagious and can go back to school. Compare infectious 2. which can be passed on to someone else ○ He's a great music teacher and his enthusiasm for music is very contagious.

① contain /kən'teɪn/ verb 1. to hold, to have inside ○ the bottle contains acid ○ The envelope contained a cheque for £1000. ○ A barrel contains 250 litres. ○ I have lost a briefcase containing important documents. 2. to limit or prevent something ○ The army tried to contain the advance of the enemy forces. ○ The party is attempting to contain the revolt among its members.

③ container /kən'teɪnə/ noun 1. an object such as a box or bottle which holds something else ○ We need a container for all this rubbish. ○ The gas is shipped in strong metal containers. 2. a special very large case for easy loading onto a large vehicle or ship ○

The crane was loading the containers onto the ship. ○ We had our furniture shipped out to Singapore in a container.

containment /kən'teɪnmənt/ noun the process or act of keeping something under control contaminate /kən'tæmɪneɪt/ verb to make something dirty by touching it or by adding something to it. Synonym pollute.

Antonym purify contamination /kən,tæmɪ'nейʃ(ə)n/ noun the act of contaminating something. Synonym pollution

③ contemplate /'kɒntəmplēɪt/ verb 1. to look at something ○ He stood for several minutes contemplating the painting. 2. □ to contemplate doing something to plan to do something ○ He's contemplating retiring from his job and buying a shop.

contemplation /'kɒntəm'pleɪʃ(ə)n/ noun deep thought contemplative /kən'templətɪv/ adj spending time thinking carefully about something, especially in connection with a religious belief contemporaneous /kən,tempə'reniəs/ adj happening at the same date or period

② contemporary /kən'temp(ə)rəri/ adj 1. □ contemporary with someone or something existing at the same time as someone or something ○ Most of the people I was contemporary with at college have already got jobs. 2. modern, present-day ○ contemporary art ■ noun a person who lives at the same time as someone ○ Shakespeare and his contemporaries ○ He is one of my contemporaries from school.

contempt /kən'tempt/ noun the feeling of not respecting someone. Synonym disdain. Antonym admiration □ to hold someone in contempt not to respect someone ○ They hold all foreigners in contempt and won't have anything to do with them.

contemptible /kən'temptəb(ə)l/ adj which deserves your contempt. Synonym despicable contempt of court /kən,tempt əv 'kɔ:t/ noun showing lack of respect to a court, e.g. by bad behaviour in court or by refusing to carry out a court order contemptuous /kən'temptjuəs/ adj showing that you do not respect someone or that you do not believe they are important □ contemptuous of something or someone showing a lack of respect for something or someone ○ He was contemptuous of our attempts to sail the boat.

③ contend /kən'tend/ verb 1. □ to contend with to be forced to deal with something unpleasant ○ We had to contend with rainstorms, floods, and mosquitoes, so the holiday was not a great success. ○ Drugs are yet another problem that schools have to contend with. 2. to state that something is true ○ The witness contended that the injury to the head was consistent with being hit with a blunt instrument.

contender /kən'tendə/ noun a person who wants to win a competition

② content¹ /kən'tent/ adj □ content to happy to ○ She was content to sit in the sun and wait. □ content with satisfied with ○ If you are not content with the way the car runs, bring it back and we will look at it again. ■ noun a feeling of satisfaction □ to your heart's content as much as you want ○ You can play billiards to your heart's content. ○ Living by the sea, they can go sailing to their heart's content.

content² /'kɒntent/ noun the amount of something which is contained in a substance ○ Dried fruit has a higher sugar content than fresh fruit. □ the mineral content of water the percentages of different minerals contained in a particular amount of water contented /kən'tentɪd/ adj satisfied, happy. Synonym happy. Antonym unhappy contentedly /kən'tentɪdlɪ/ adv in a contented way

③ contention /kən'tenʃən/ noun 1. an argument □ bone of contention the cause of an argument ○ The fence between the houses has always been a bone of contention. 2. a statement of what you believe ○ It is his contention that they are trying to ruin our business.

contentious /kən'tenʃəs/ adj which is the cause of a disagreement contentment /kən'tentmənt/ noun a feeling of being satisfied, happy. Synonym serenity

② contents /'kɒntənts/ plural noun things which are inside something, which are in a container contest noun /'kɒntest/ a fight or a competition ○ Only two people entered the contest for the party leadership. ■ verb /kɒn'test/ 1. to fight an election ○ There are four candidates contesting the seat. 2. to say that you disagree with what is written in a will, or argue that a will is not legal ○ When she died and left all her money to a cat's home, her family contested the will.

contestant /kən'testənt/ noun a person who enters a contest. Synonym competitor

① context /'kɒntekst/ noun the other words which surround a particular word in a piece of writing and which help to show its meaning ○ Even if you don't know what a word means, you can sometimes guess its meaning from the context. □ taken out of context showing only part of what someone said or wrote, so that the meaning is changed

○ My words have been taken out of context – if you read the whole speech you will see that I meant something quite different.

contiguous /kən'tɪgjʊəs/ adj touching, next to something (formal) continent /'kɒntɪnənt/ noun 1. one of the major land areas in the world, which usually contain several countries, e.g. Africa, Asia, Australia, Europe) 2. □ the Continent (in Britain) the rest of Europe, as opposed to Britain itself which is an island ■ adj able to control the passing of liquid or solid waste from the body ○ The old lady is barely continent. Antonym incontinent

Continent /'kɒntɪnənt/ noun the mainland of Europe, as compared with the British Isles ○ They go to the Continent on holiday each year, sometimes to France, sometimes to Switzerland. □ on the Continent in mainland Europe continental /,kɒntɪ'nent(ə)l/ adj 1. referring to a continent 2. referring to Europe excluding the British Isles ○ We've decided to take a continental holiday this year.

Continental /,kɒntɪ'nent(ə)l/ noun a European ○ The Continentals seem to play a different type of football from us.

continental breakfast /,kɒntɪnent(ə)l 'brekfəst/ noun a light breakfast of rolls, croissants, and coffee. Compare English breakfast continental climate /,kɒntɪ'nent(ə)l 'klaɪmət/ noun the type of weather that is typical of the continent of Europe: hot dry summers and very cold winters continental shelf /,kɒntɪnent(ə)l 'self/ noun the area round the edges of a continent where the land slopes gradually into the sea, before the water suddenly becomes much deeper contingency /kən'tɪndʒənsi/ noun a possible state of emergency when decisions will have to be taken quickly (NOTE: The plural is contingencies.) contingent /kən'tɪndʒənt/ adj □ contingent on or upon something which depends on something ○ The launch of the space shuttle is contingent upon the weather. ■ noun a group of people such as soldiers ○ The army was formed of contingents of freedom fighters from various countries. ○ A large contingent of farmers marched to the Parliament building.

② continual /kən'tɪnjuəl/ adj which goes on all the time continually /kən'tɪnjuəli/ adv very often, almost all the time

③ continuation /kən,tɪnju'eɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. the process of going on without stopping ○ How can we ensure the continuation of the peace talks? 2. something which has been

continued ○ Broad Street is in fact a continuation of the High Street.

① continue /kən'tɪnju:/ verb to go on doing something or happening ○ He continued working, even though the house was on fire. ○ The engine continued to send out clouds of black smoke. ○ The meeting started at 10 a.m. and continued until 6 p.m. ○ The show continued with some children's dances.

continued /kən'tɪnju:d/ adj 1. without interruption or change from the beginning up to the present time 2. begun again after a break or interruption continuing /kən'tɪnjuɪŋ/ adj which continues continuing education /kən,tɪnjuɪŋ edju'keɪʃ(ə)n/ noun education of adults after further or higher education

③ continuity /,kɒntrɪ'nju:ti/ noun the way in which the scenes in a film or television programme continue without a break. Antonym interruption

② continuous /kən'tɪnjuəs/ adj with no break ○ She has been in continuous pain for three days. ○ A continuous white line means that you are not allowed to overtake.

continuously /kən'tɪnjuəsli/ adv without a break continuous tense /kən'tɪnjuəs tens/ noun the form of a verb showing that something is going on and has not stopped continuum /kən'tɪnjuəm/ noun a thing which continues and develops gradually, with no clear divisions between its parts contort /kən'tɔ:t/ verb to twist something into a position that is not natural contorted /kən'tɔ:tɪd/ adj extremely or violently twisted out of shape contour /'kɒntʊə/, contour line /'kɒntʊə laɪn/ noun a line on a map to show ground of the same height above sea level. Synonym outline contraband /'kɒntrəbænd/ noun, adj (goods) on which customs duty has not been paid (NOTE: no plural) contraception /,kɒntrə'septʃən/ noun a way of preventing a woman from becoming pregnant by using a device such as a condom or a particular type of drug contraceptive /,kɒntrə'septɪv/ adj which prevents a woman from becoming pregnant ○ a contraceptive device such as an IUD ○ The contraceptive pill is available from doctors and clinics. ■ noun a drug or condom which prevents pregnancy ○ The chemist sells various types of contraceptives. ○ an oral contraceptive such as the pill

① contract noun /'kɒntrækt/ a legal agreement ○ I don't agree with some of the conditions of the contract. □ under contract bound by the conditions of a contract ○ The company is under contract to a French supermarket. ■ verb /kən'trækt/ 1. to make an official agreement to do some work ○ to contract to supply spare parts or to contract for the supply of spare parts 2. to sign an agreement with a contractor ○ The corporation has contracted the refuse collection service to a private company. 3. to become smaller ○ Metal contracts when it gets cold, and expands when it is hot.

③ contraction /kən'trækʃən/ noun 1. an act of becoming shorter or smaller ○ Light will provoke the contraction of the pupil of the eye. ○ Cold will cause the contraction of metal rails. 2. the movement of the muscles of the womb, when a baby is being born ○ The first strong contractions will come about every twenty minutes. ○ She had two contractions in the car on the way to the maternity hospital.

contractor /kən'træktə/ noun a person who does work according to a signed agreement contractual /kən'træktʃuəl/ adj according to a contract contradict /kəntrə'dikt/ verb 1. to say that what someone else says is not true 2. to be different from what has been said before contradiction /kəntrə'dikʃən/ noun stating or being the opposite □ a contradiction in terms a phrase which is formed of two parts which contradict each other, and so have no meaning ○ A truthful politician is a contradiction in terms.

contradictory /kəntrə'dikt(ə)ri/ adj which states or is the opposite contraflow /kəntrə'fləʊ/ noun a system where traffic on one lane of a motorway is made to go down one of the opposite lanes in the wrong direction, used when the road is being repaired contralto /kən'tra:ltoʊ/ noun 1. a low-sounding singing or speaking voice ○ She spoke in a soft contralto. 2. a woman with a low-sounding voice ○ We need more contraltos in our choir. (NOTE: The plural is contraltos.)

contraption /kən'træpfən/ noun an unusual machine or device. Synonym gadget contrary /kəntrə'rei/ adj 1. opposite ○ Most people agreed with the speaker, but one or two expressed contrary views. 2. □ contrary to in opposition to ○ Contrary to what you would expect, the desert gets quite cold at night. 3. /kən'trə'rei/ always doing the opposite of what you want ○ She's such a contrary child. ■ noun □ the contrary the opposite □ on the contrary just the opposite ○ I'm not annoyed with her – on the contrary, I think she has done the right thing. □ to the contrary stating the opposite ○ We will go on with the plans for the exhibition unless we hear to the contrary. ○ Smoking used to be considered harmless, but now the evidence is to the contrary.

② contrast noun /'kɒntrəst/ a sharp difference between two things ○ the contrast in weather between the north and the south of the country ○ The two cities are in sharp contrast. Antonym similarity □ in contrast to as opposed to ○ He is quite short, in contrast to his sister who is very tall. ○ The north of the country is green and wooded in contrast to the south which is dry and sandy. ■ verb /kən'tra:st/ to be obviously different from ○ His formal letter contrasted with his friendly conversation on the telephone.

contrasting /kən'tra:stɪŋ/ adj which are very different contravene /kɒntrə'veɪn/ verb to fail to obey a rule or law. Synonym break contravention /kɒntrə'venʃən/ noun □ in contravention of something breaking something such as a rule or an official agreement ○ The restaurant is in contravention of the safety regulations.

② contribute /kən'tribju:t/ verb 1. to help towards something ○ The government's policies have contributed to a feeling of dissatisfaction among teachers. 2. to give money to ○ We were asked to contribute to a charity. ○ Everyone was asked to contribute to the receptionist's leaving present. 3. □ to contribute to a magazine to write articles for a magazine

② contribution /,kɒntri'bju:t(ə)n/ noun 1. something, usually money, given to help something ○ She makes monthly contributions to the Red Cross. 2. an article sent to a newspaper or magazine for publication ○ The deadline for contributions is December 1st.

contributor /kən'tribju:tə/ noun a person or organisation that contributes contributory /kən'tribjut(ə)ri/ adj which contributes □ a contributory factor one of the things which have helped produce the situation contrite /'kɒntrɪt/ adj (of a person) who regrets what has happened contrition /kən'trɪʃ(ə)n/ noun a feeling of being sorry. Synonym remorse contrive /kən'traɪv/ verb to manage to do something contrived /kən'traɪvd/ adj artificial, not natural. Antonym genuine

① control /kən'trəʊl/ noun 1. the fact of keeping someone or something in order or being able to direct them ○ The club is under the control of three shareholders. ○ He lost control of his business and resigned. ○ The teacher has no control over the class. 2. the fact or process of limiting something □ under control limited ○ We try to keep expenses under tight control. □ to bring something under control to reduce or limit something ○ The firemen quickly brought the fire under control. □ out of control not limited or kept in order ○ The car ran down the hill out of control. ○ Our spending has got out of control. ○ The fire started in the roof and quickly got out of control. ○ Football fans got out of control and started breaking windows in the centre of town. ■ verb 1. to keep something in order, to direct or limit something ○ The police couldn't control the crowds. ○ There was nobody there to control the traffic. ○ We must try to control the sales of foreign cars. ○ The government controls the price of meat. 2. □ to control a business to have the power to direct the way a business is run ○ The business is controlled by a company based in Luxembourg.

control freak /kən'trəʊl fri:k/ noun a person who wants to be always in control of the situation (slang) control key /kən'trəʊl ki:/ noun the key on a computer which works part of a program controlled /kən'trəʊld/ adj which is kept under control controller /kən'trəʊlə/ noun a person who controls something controls /kən'trəʊlz/ plural noun the things such as switches by which you can control a machine ○ She took the controls of the aircraft. ○ He was at the controls of the spacecraft at the time.

control tower /kən'trəʊl 'taʊə/ noun a high building at an airport with the radio station which directs planes controversial /,kɒntrə'vesɪʃ(ə)n/ adj which starts violent discussions ○ He made a highly controversial speech. ○ Legalisation of drugs is a very controversial issue. ○ She has controversial views on abortion. Synonym contentious controversy /'kɒntrəvəzɪ:si, kən'trəvəsi/ noun a sharp discussion conundrum /kə'nʌndrəm/ noun a difficult problem conurbation /kənʊz:bɪʃ(ə)n/ noun a very large built-up area convalesce /,kɒnvə'les/ verb to get back to good health after an illness or an operation convalescence /,kɒnvə'les(ə)ns/ noun a period of time when you are convalescing. Synonym recuperation convalescent /,kɒnvə'les(ə)nt/ adj referring to convalescence ○ Convalescent patients must have proper nourishment. ○ He's much better but still convalescent. ■ noun a person who is convalescing after an illness or operation ○ Now that you're not a convalescent any more, you can go back to work as normal.

convene /kən'vei:n/ verb to call a meeting convenience /kən'vei:nəns/ noun 1. the fact of being convenient ○ I like the convenience of working from home. ○ We bought the house because of the convenience of the area for shopping. □ at your earliest convenience as soon as you can easily do it ○ Please return this form at your earliest convenience. 2. □ all modern conveniences, all mod cons all modern facilities such as central heating, telephone or electricity ○ The flat is advertised for sale with all mod cons.

convenience food /kən'vei:nəns fu:d/ noun food which is prepared by the shop before it is sold, so that it needs only heating to be made ready to eat convenience shop /kən'vei:nəns ʃɒp/, convenience store /kən'vei:nəns stɔ:/ noun a small local shop which stays open long hours and sells a wide range of necessary goods

③ convenient /kən'vei:nɪənt/ adj which does not cause any practical problems ○ 6.30 in the morning is not a very convenient time for a meeting. ○ A bank draft is a convenient way of sending money abroad.

conveniently /kən'vei:nɪəntli/ adv in a convenient way convenor /kən'vei:nər/ noun a person who organises a meeting convent /'kɒnvənt/ noun a religious establishment where nuns live; the buildings of such a place (NOTE: The equivalent establishment for men is a monastery.)

② convention /kən'venʃən/ noun 1. the usual way of doing things ○ It is a convention that the bride wears white to her wedding. 2. a contract or agreement ○ an international convention on human rights 3. a general meeting of a group such as a political party ○ They are holding their annual convention in Chicago.

③ conventional /kən'venʃ(ə)n(ə)l/ adj ordinary, usual ○ We are planning a conventional Christmas at home. ○ He arrived at the office wearing a very conventional grey suit.

conventional weapon /kən'venʃ(ə)n(ə)l 'wepən/ noun an ordinary weapon such as a gun, not a nuclear weapon convention centre /kən'venʃ(ə)n,sentə/ noun a building with a series of meeting rooms, hotel bedrooms and restaurants, built especially for holding large meetings converge /kən'vɜ:dʒ/ verb to come together at a certain place or point convergence /kən'vɜ:dʒəns/ noun a coming together, a meeting convergent /kən'vɜ:dʒənt/ adj meeting at a certain point conversant /kən'vez:s(ə)nt/ adj having knowledge or experience of something ① conversation /,kɒnvə'seɪʃ(ə)n/ noun a talk ○ We had a long conversation with the bank manager. ○ Why did he suddenly change the subject of the conversation? □ to carry on a conversation with someone to talk to someone ○ She tried to carry on a conversation with him while he was working. ○ It's difficult to carry on a conversation with Uncle Harry because he's deaf.

conversational /,kɒnvə'seɪʃ(ə)n(ə)l/ adj used in conversation converse noun /'kɒnvə:s/ (dated) □ the converse the opposite ○ If this is true then the converse must be false. ■ verb /kɒn've:s/ to talk ○ They were conversing seriously in French.

conversely /'kɒnvə:sli/ adv in the opposite way conversion /kən'vez:ʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. the act or process of changing one thing into another ○ the conversion of an old chapel into a modern house ○ I need a calculator to work out the conversion of £500 into pesetas. 2. the turning of a person to another set of ideas or religion ○ She underwent a sudden conversion to Islam. 3. the act of converting a try in the game of rugby ○ His attempted conversion failed, and the scores remained level.

③ convert noun /'kɒnvə:t/ a person who has changed his ideas or religion ○ He has become a convert to vegetarianism. ■ verb /kən've:t/ 1. to turn or to make someone turn from one set of ideas or religion to another ○ When she got married she converted to Islam. ○ She tried to convert her husband to becoming a vegetarian. 2. to change ○ We are converting the shed into a studio. ○ These panels convert the heat of the Sun into electricity. 3. □ to convert a try to earn extra points in a game of rugby by kicking the ball over the crossbar between the posts after a try has been scored ○ If he converts the try the scores will be level. 4. to change money of one country for money of another ○ We converted our pounds into Swiss francs.

convertible /kən've:təb(ə)l/ adj (especially of a currency) which can easily be changed into the money of another country ○ the dollar, the yen and other convertible currencies ■ noun a car with a roof which folds back or can be removed ○ You can hire a small convertible for $100 a day.

convex /'kɒnvɛks/ adj which has a shape that curves outwards like the back of a spoon

③ convey /kən'vei/ verb 1. to transport, to carry ○ The supplies were being conveyed in lorries. 2. to give a message or to express something ○ Please convey my congratulations to the team.

conveyance /kən'veeəns/ noun 1. the act of transporting ○ The conveyance of goods is controlled by several Acts of Parliament. 2. a means of transport ○ Various rickety conveyances were waiting outside the station. 3. a document by which property is legally exchanged from one owner to another ○ The conveyance is being drawn up by the solicitor.

conveyancing /kən'veeənsɪŋ/ noun the action of exchanging property from one owner to another conveyor belt /kən'veeər belt/ noun a moving surface in a factory, which takes something from one part of the factory to another convict noun /'kɒnvɪkt/ a criminal who has been sent to prison ○ The police are searching for two escaped convicts. ■ verb /kən'veikt/ to find someone guilty ○ She was convicted of theft. Antonym acquit

③ conviction /kən'veɪkʃən/ noun 1. the fact of being found guilty ○ His lawyers are appealing against his conviction. 2. the fact of being certain that something is true ○ It was a common conviction in the Middle Ages that the earth was flat. ○ Her religious convictions do not allow her to eat shellfish. 3. the fact of being likely or being convincing ○ She gave a string of excuses which completely lacked conviction.

③ convince /kən'veɪns/ verb □ to convince someone of something to persuade someone that something is true ○ The lawyer has to convince the jury of his client's innocence. ○ At an interview, you have to convince the employer that you are the right person for the job.

③ convinced /kən'veɪnst/ adj very certain convincing /kən'veɪnsɪŋ/ adj which convinces convincingly /kən'veɪnsɪŋli/ adv in a convincing way convivial /kən'veiəvl/ adj lively or friendly. Synonym pleasant. Antonym unfriendly conviviality /kən'veiə'lɪti/ noun the fact of being lively and friendly convoluted /kɒnvəlu:tɪd/ adj something such as a story which is very complicated. Synonym intricate convoy /'kɒnvɔɪ/ noun a group of vehicles or ships travelling together in a line with armed protection convulse /kən'vels/ verb to make something or someone shake convulsive /kən'vel'sɪv/ adj which causes violent shaking. Synonym jerky coo /ku:/ verb to make a soft noise like a pigeon (NOTE: Do not confuse with coup.)

① cook /kuk/ noun a person who gets food ready ○ He worked as a cook in a pub during the summer. Synonym chef □ he's a very good cook he makes very good food ■ verb

1. to get food ready for eating, especially by heating it ○ Don't bother your mother when she's cooking the dinner. ○ How do you cook cabbage? 2. to get food ready by heating ○ The chicken is cooking in the oven. ○ How long do these vegetables take to cook? 3. □ to cook the books, the accounts to deliberately write down the wrong amounts of money in account books (informal) ○ The accountant had been cooking the books for years.

cookbook /'kukbuk/ noun a book of recipes cooked /kukt/ adj which has been heated to prepare it for eating cooked breakfast /'kukt 'brekfəst/ noun a breakfast which includes food such as bacon, eggs and sausages. Compare continental breakfast

③ cooker /'kukə/ noun a piece of kitchen equipment, usually run on gas or electricity, for cooking food. Also called stove

③ cookery /'kuk(ə)ri/ noun the art of cooking cookery book /'kuk(ə)ri buk/ noun a book of recipes

③ cookie /'kuki/ noun 1. usually US a biscuit, a small flat hard sweet cake ○ She bought a packet of cookies. 2. a computer file sent to your computer by a website when you visit it. It stores information about you which can be used when you next visit the website.

③ cooking /'kukɪŋ/ noun 1. the action of getting food ready to eat, especially by heating it ○ He does the cooking, while his wife serves in the restaurant. 2. a particular style of preparing food ○ The restaurant specialises in French provincial cooking.

cooking apple /'kukɪŋ ,æp(ə)l/ noun a sour apple which is good for cooking, not for eating raw

① cool /ku:l/ adj 1. quite cold ○ Blow on your soup to make it cool. ○ It was hot on deck but cool down below. ○ Wines should be stored in a cool cellar. ○ It gets cool in the evenings in September. 2. not enthusiastic ○ I got a cool reception when I arrived half an hour late. ○ The board was quite cool towards the proposal. 3. calm ○ The nurses remained cool and professional when dealing with all the accident victims. 4. fashionable, interesting ○ a cool party ○ It's cool to wear white trainers. (NOTE: cooler – coolest) ■ verb to make something cool; to become cool ○ She boiled the jam for several hours and then put it aside to cool. ■ noun 1. a colder area which is pleasant ○ After the heat of the town centre, it is nice to sit in the cool of the garden. 2. the state of being calm ○ As soon as the reporters started to ask her questions she lost her cool.

coolbox /'ku:lboks/ noun a container which you can carry and which is used for keeping food and drinks cool cool down /,ku:l 'daun/ verb 1. to make something cool or to become cool ○ Although it is very hot in the desert during the daytime, it always cools down in the evening. ○ This coffee is too hot – I'm waiting for it to cool down a bit. 2. to calm someone, or to become calmer ○ He was furious with his secretary, but after a while he cooled down. ○ We tried to cool him down but it just made him more angry.

cooling /'ku:lin/ adj which makes you feel cool coolly /'ku:lli/ adv in a cool, calm way coolness /'ku:lnəs/ noun 1. the fact of being cool ○ the coolness of the evening 2. the feeling of being calm ○ his coolness under fire 3. the act of behaving in a way that is not friendly or enthusiastic ○ I was surprised by the coolness of her greeting.

coop /ku:p/ verb □ to coop someone up to keep someone in a small place ○ I don't like being cooped up in this little office.

co-op /'kəʊpɒpl/ noun a cooperative store (informal) cooperate /kəʊ'ɒpəreɪt/ verb □ to cooperate with someone to work with someone ○ Several governments are cooperating in the fight against international drug smuggling.

② cooperation /kəʊ,ɒpə'reɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the action of working together with someone else

③ cooperative /kəʊ'ɒp(ə)rətɪv/ adj 1. working with the profits shared between the workers ○ a cooperative farm ○ a cooperative store 2. helpful and willing to work with other people ○ The bank manager was not at all cooperative. ■ noun a business which works on a profit-sharing basis ○ a workers' cooperative

co-opt /kəʊ'ɒpt/ verb to ask someone to join a committee without being formally elected to it coordinate noun /kəʊ'ɔ:dɪneɪt/ a set of numbers which fix a point on a map or graph ○ What are the coordinates for that hill? I don't think it is marked on the map. ○ Draw the X-Y coordinates. ■ verb /kəʊ'ɔ:dɪneɪt/ to make people or things work together or fit in with each other ○ His job is to coordinate the work of the various relief agencies. ○ The election campaign was coordinated by the party headquarters.

coordinated /kəʊ'ɔ:dɪneɪtɪd/ adj 1. bringing different or widespread groups or parts together 2. moving different parts, especially parts of your body, gracefully or skilfully, or in a specific way coordinates /kəʊ'ɔ:dɪnəts/ plural noun matching pieces of women's clothing coordination /kəʊ'ɔ:dɪ'nɛf(ə)n/ noun 1. the action of coordinating ○ Better coordination between departments would have allowed everyone to know what was happening. 2. the ability to move parts of your body properly ○ She has excellent coordination for a little girl of 18 months.

coordinator /kəʊ'ɔ:dɪneɪtə/ noun a person who coordinates

③ cop /kɒp/ noun a policeman (informal)

② cope /kəʊp/ noun a long coloured cloak worn by a priest in church ■ verb □ to cope with something to manage to deal with something ○ She can cope perfectly well on her own. ○ We are trying to cope with the backlog of orders.

copier /'kɒpiə/ noun a machine which makes copies copilot /'kəʊpələt/ noun a pilot who helps the main pilot to fly an aircraft copious /'kəʊpiəs/ adj in large amounts, in good supply cop out /'kɒp əʊt/ verb to stop doing an activity, e.g. because of feeling afraid or not wanting to do it cop-out /'kɒp əʊt/ noun a poor excuse or explanation for refusing to face up to something copper /'kɒpə/ noun 1. a reddish metal which turns green when exposed to air ○ Copper is a good conductor of electricity. ○ The end of the copper wire should be attached to the terminal. 2. a policeman ○ Watch out! there's a copper coming. 3. a small coin made of copper or other brown metal ○ It only costs a few coppers. ○ The beggar was asking for any spare coppers.

copse /kɒps/ noun a small area of young trees copulate /'kɒpjuleɪt/ verb to have sex copulation /'kɒpjʊlʊ'leɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the act of having sex

① copy /'kɒpi/ noun 1. something made to look the same as something else ○ This is an exact copy of the painting by Picasso. (NOTE: The plural is copies.) 2. one book; one newspaper ○ Where's my copy of today's 'Times'? ○ I lent my old copy of Shakespeare to my brother and he never gave it back. ○ Can I borrow your copy of the telephone directory? (NOTE: The plural is copies.) 3. text written to be used in a newspaper or advertisement ○ He sent in his copy three days late. ○ We need more copy for this page. (NOTE: no plural in this meaning) ■ verb to make or do something which looks like something else ○ To knit the pullover, just copy this pattern. ○ I get very annoyed because he copies everything I do.

copycat /'kɒpɪkæt/ (informal) noun a person who copies what someone else does ■ adj which copies something else ○ a copycat murder

copyright /'kɒpiraɪt/ noun an author's legal right to do something such as publish a book or put on a play and not to have it copied without permission ○ Who holds the copyright for the play? ○ She is being sued for breach of copyright. □ a book which is in copyright a book which is protected by the copyright laws □ a book which is out of copyright a book by a writer who has been dead for more than seventy years and which anyone can publish ■ verb to register something as your copyright ○ The title was copyrighted some years ago.

coral /'kɔrəl/ noun a rock-like substance formed of the bones of small animals in the sea cord /kɔ:d/ noun a strong thin rope ○ Pull the cord to open the parachute. ○ In an emergency, pull the cord to stop the train.

cordial /'kɔ:diəl/ adj friendly ○ His greeting was not very cordial. Synonym pleasant. Antonym unfriendly ■ noun the concentrated juice of a fruit to which water is added ○ Fruit cordials such as lemon, orange or lime are popular summer drinks.

cordless /'kɔ:dləs/ adj not needing to be connected to an electricity supply cordon /'kɔ:d(ə)n/ noun 1. a barrier such as a rope or a line of police or soldiers surrounding an area to prevent people entering or leaving ○ Police formed a cordon round the referee to protect him from the fans. ○ There was a police cordon round the courthouse. 2. a fruit tree grown as a single stem, with little side shoots ○ We planted a cordon pear against the wall. ■ verb □ to cordon off a street to block a street to prevent anyone entering it ○ The police had cordoned off the side streets and forced the protesters to march down the main road.

CORDS /kɔ:dz/ plural noun corduroy trousers ○ Cords are warmer than jeans.

corduroy /'kɔ:dərɔɪ/ noun 1. a cloth with raised lines on the surface ○ He was wearing a corduroy jacket. 2. □ a pair of corduroys a pair of trousers made of corduroy ○ He was wearing a pair of dirty old corduroys and green wellingtons.

③ core /kɔ:/ noun the central part □ the core of an apple, an apple core the hard part in the middle of an apple, containing the seeds ○ He threw the apple core into the lake. □ rotten to the core completely bad ○ The local police force is rotten to the core. □ to take a core sample to cut a long round piece of soil or rock for testing ■ verb to take out the central part of a fruit such as an apple ○ Peel and core the apples before putting them in the oven.

coriander /'kɔ:ri'ændə/ noun a small herb, whose seeds and leaves are used for flavouring cork /kɔ:k/ noun 1. a piece of light wood from the bark of a tree, which closes wine bottles ○ He pulled the cork out of the bottle.

 ○ The little boat bobbed up and down on the surface of the water like a cork. 2. material made from the very light bark of a type of tree ○ She placed little cork mats on the table to stop the wine glasses marking it. ■ verb to put a cork into a bottle ○ When they had drunk half the bottle, she corked it up to use the following day.

corkscrew /'kɔ:kskru:/ noun a special tool for taking corks out of bottles corm /kɔ:m/ noun the bottom part of the stem of a plant which can be planted and from which new shoots will grow cormorant /'kɔ:mərənt/ noun a black seabird which eats fish, often near fishing grounds but also on lakes and rivers

③ corn /kɔ:n/ noun 1. cereal plants such as wheat or barley ○ a field of corn 2. maize, a cereal crop which is grown in many parts of the world 3. a hard painful lump of skin, usually on your foot, where something, such as a tight shoe, has rubbed it ○ He has a corn on his little toe.

cornea /'kɔ:niə/ noun the transparent part of the front of the eyeball corned beef /kɔ:nd 'bi:f/ noun salted, preserved beef

① corner /'kɔ:nə/ noun 1. a place where two walls, sides or streets meet ○ The bank is on the corner of London Road and New Street. ○ Put the plant in the corner of the room nearest the window. ○ The number is in the top right-hand corner of the page. ○ The motorbike went round the corner at top speed. □ to paint yourself into a corner to get yourself into a situation that you cannot get out of 2. a free kick taken from the corner of the field near the opponents' goal in games such as football ■ verb 1. to turn a corner ○ This new model corners very well. 2. to catch someone so that they cannot get away ○ The police cornered the escaped prisoners in an alleyway. 3. □ to corner the market to own most or all of the supply of a certain thing and so control the price ○ The syndicate tried to corner the market in silver. □ to turn the corner 1. to go round a corner ○ As she turned the corner she saw the bus coming. 2. to get better after being ill or in difficulties ○ He has been in bed for weeks, but he seems to have turned the corner.

corner shop /'kɔ:nə ʃɒp/ noun a small general store in a town, sometimes on a street corner cornerstone /'kɔ:nəstən/ noun 1. a stone at the bottom of a corner of a building, often with writing on it to show when it was put there ○ The mayor laid the cornerstone of the new library. 2. a strong foundation or basis ○ Taking a lot of exercise is still one of the cornerstones of a long life.

cornet /'kɔ:nɪt/ □ cone ■ noun a type of small trumpet ○ He plays the cornet in the brass band.

cornfield /'kɔ:nfi:lד/ noun a field in which corn is grown cornflakes /'kɔ:nflæks/ plural noun a breakfast food made of small dried pieces of maize ○ I'll just have a bowl of cornflakes and a cup of coffee for breakfast.

cornflour /'kɔ:nflaʊə/ noun a very smooth type of flour made from maize, used in cooking to make sauces thicker (NOTE: The US term is cornstarch.)

cornflower /'kɔ:nflaʊə/ noun a wild flower with bright blue flowers cornice /'kɔ:nɪs/ noun a decorated narrow line of wood or stone round a ceiling (technical)

Cornish /'kɔ:nɪʃ/ adj referring to Cornwall corn on the cob /,kɔ:n ɒn ðə 'kɒb/ noun a head of maize, with seeds on it, served hot with butter corny /'kɔ:ni/ adj old or out-of-date (NOTE: cornier – corniest) corollary /'kɔ:rɒləri/ noun a natural result, something which follows naturally. Synonym consequence corona /kə'rəʊnə/ noun a circle of light which appears as a ring round the Moon or Sun coronary /'kɔ:rən(ə)ri/ noun a coronary thrombosis (informal) ○ He had a coronary and was rushed to hospital. (NOTE: The plural is coronaries.) ■ adj referring to any structure shaped like a crown coronary thrombosis /,kɔ:rən(ə)ri θrɔ:m'bəʊsɪs/ noun a blood clot which blocks the supply of blood to the heart, leading to a heart attack coronation /,kɔ:rə'neɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the official ceremony at which a king, queen or emperor is crowned

③ coroner /'kɔ:rənə/ noun a public official, either a doctor or a lawyer, who tries to find out the reason for a sudden or violent death corporal /'kɔ:p(ə)rəl/ adj referring to the body ■ noun a rank in the army below sergeant ○ The major ordered the corporal to take down the flag. (NOTE: can be used with the surname: Corporal Jones) corporal punishment /,kɔ:p(ə)rət/ 'pənɪʃmənt/ noun an act of punishment by hitting someone ② corporate /'kɔ:p(ə)rət/ adj referring to a body such as a company ○ Corporate responsibility rests with the whole management. ○ Corporate profits are down this year.

② corporation /,kɔ:pə'reɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. a town council ○ The corporation has privatised the refuse collection service. ○ The corporation swimming pool is closed on Mondays. 2. a large firm ○ Working for a big corporation can be rather impersonal.

corporation tax /,kɔ:pə'reɪʃ(ə)n tæks/ noun a tax on profits made by companies. Abbr CT

③ corps /kɔ:/ noun a military group or organised group □ the diplomatic corps all the diplomats living in a certain country (NOTE: The plural is corps /kɔ:z/. Do not confuse with core.)

corpse /kɔ:ps/ noun a dead body corpulent /'kɔ:pjulənt/ adj (of a person) extremely fat. Synonym obese corpus /kɔ:pas/ noun 1. all the works written by an author or about an author ○ The library has a huge Dickens corpus which is available to students. ○ She is studying references to food in the Shakespeare corpus. 2. the mass of text and words stored in a computer ○ None of the dictionaries in the list states where their corpus comes from. (NOTE: The plural is corpora.)

corral /kɔ'rəl/ noun an area surrounded by a fence to enclose animals such as cows or horses ○ The cattle were brought to the OK Corral. ■ verb to enclose animals or people in a limited space ○ The cattle were corralled before being branded and shipped out. ○ The police corralled the students into the area behind the university.

① correct /kɔ'rekt/ adj right or without any mistakes ○ Would it be correct to say that the shop has not made a profit for several months? ○ Can you tell me the correct time? ○ You have to give correct answers to all the questions if you want to win first prize. ○ You are correct in thinking that the weather in Greece is hot. ■ verb to take away mistakes in something ○ You must try to correct your driving mistakes, or you will never pass the test. ○ The computer keeps switching itself off – can you correct this fault?

correction /kɔ'rekʃən/ noun showing a mistake in something, making something correct ○ He made a few small corrections to the letter. Synonym alteration corrective /kɔ'rektɪv/ adj which corrects ○ Corrective surgery will be needed to prevent him having one leg shorter than the other. ■ noun a thing which corrects ○ These figures act as a welcome corrective to the government's very optimistic forecast.

② correctly /kə'rektli/ adv in a correct way

③ correlate /'kɔrəleɪt/ verb 1. to match or be the same as something else ○ The figures in your report do not correlate with those I got from the warehouse. ○ The number of people affected by asthma appears to correlate to the amount of air pollution. 2. to check to see if something matches or is the same as something else ○ We need to correlate the data from the two sources.

③ correlation /,kɔrə'leɪʃ(ə)n/ noun a connection between things correspond /,kɔrɪ'spɒnd/ verb □ to correspond to fit with ○ The findings correspond to my own research.

correspondence /kɔrɪ'spɒndəns/ noun 1. letters ○ They had been carrying on a correspondence for years. ○ She was told by her father to break off the correspondence. □ to be in correspondence with someone to write letters to someone and receive letters back ○ I have been in correspondence with the company about a refund but with no success. 2. the fact that one thing matches or is similar to another ○ There isn't much correspondence between theory and practice.

correspondence course /,kɔrɪ'spɒndəns kɔ:s/ noun lessons given by post correspondent /,kɔrɪ'spɒndənt/ noun 1. a journalist who writes articles for newspapers or reports for television or radio on a particular subject ○ a report from our football correspondent ○ He is the Paris correspondent of the 'Telegraph'. 2. a person who writes letters ○ A correspondent in Australia sent us an email.

corresponding /,kɔrɪ'spɒndɪŋ/ adj which relates to something correspondingly /,kɔrɪ'spɒndɪŋli/ adv in a way which corresponds ② corridor /'kɔrɪdɔ:/ noun a long narrow passage ○ The ladies' room is straight ahead at the end of the corridor. ○ There is an underground corridor to the next building.

corroborate /kɔ'rnbəreɪt/ verb to support a statement, especially a statement made in court, by giving information that shows it is true. Synonym verify. Antonym contradict corrode /kɔ'rəʊd/ verb to damage or change a substance, e.g. by the effects of water, air or chemicals. Synonym rust corrosion /kɔ'rəʊz(ə)n/ noun the damage caused to metals by the effects of water, air or chemicals corrosive /kɔ'rəʊsɪv/ adj, noun which eats away metal, or a substance which does this corrugated /'kɒrəgeɪtɪd/ adj bent into folds like waves corrugated iron /'kɒrəgeɪtɪd 'aɪən/ noun sheets of metal which are folded into waves

corrupt /kɔːr'upt/ adj 1. (of a person) who is not honest or who takes bribes ○ The Prime Minister promised to sack any officials who were found to be corrupt. 2. (of a computer disk) with data which contains mistakes ○ Power loss can make the data corrupt. ■ verb 1. to make someone dishonest or lacking in morals ○ 'Power corrupts, absolute power corrupts absolutely.' ○ He was accused of corrupting young people. ○ He was corrupted by his rich friends from college. 2. to cause mistakes in computer data ○ The data on this disk has been corrupted.

corruption /kɔːr'trɒpʃən/ noun 1. the practice of paying money to someone, usually an official, so that he does what you want ○ Bribery and corruption are difficult to control. ○ Corruption in the civil service will be rooted out. 2. the process of damaging data ○ You have to watch out for corruption of data.

corruptly /kɔːr'uptli/ adv in a corrupt way corset /'kɔːsɪt/ noun 1. a tight piece of underwear worn by women to support their bodies (dated) ○ She was glad to get back home and remove her corset. 2. a stiff piece of underwear, worn around the waist or the chest to support the body after a back injury ○ Would an orthopaedic corset help him with his bad back?

cortege /kɔː'teɪʒ/, cortège noun a funeral procession cortex /'kɔːtɛks/ noun the outer layer of an organ (NOTE: The plural is cortices.)

cortisone /'kɔːtɪzəʊn/ noun an artificial hormone used against skin problems such as allergies, and arthritis cos /kəz/ short for because (informal) ○ You've got to do what I say 'cos I'm bigger than you!

cosh /kɒf/ noun a short stick for hitting (NOTE: The plural is coshes.) ■ verb to hit someone on the head ○ He coshed the security guard.

cos lettuce /'kɒs 'letɪs/ noun a type of tall lettuce cosmetic /'kɒz'metɪk/ adj which improves someone's or something's appearance cosmetics /'kɒz'metɪks/ plural noun substances which improve someone's appearance ○ My wife keeps all her cosmetics in a little bag.

cosmetic surgery /'kɒz'metɪk 'sɜːdʒəri/ noun surgery to improve someone's appearance. Synonym plastic surgery cosmic /'kɒzmɪk/ adj 1. referring to the universe ○ Cosmic rays are radiation entering the Earth's atmosphere from outer space. 2. very large, affecting the whole world ○ A war which might reach cosmic proportions.

cosmopolitan /'kɒzmə'pɒlɪt(ə)n/ adj 1. made up of people from different parts of the world ○ Berlin is a very cosmopolitan city. 2. comfortable and confident in different cities or with people of different nationalities ○ Her cosmopolitan upbringing has made her a very interesting person. ○ Born in Canada, brought up in Hong Kong and in England, by the age of ten he was more cosmopolitan than other children.

cosmos /'kɒzmɒs/ noun the universe

① cost /kɒst/ noun 1. a price which you have to pay for something ○ What is the cost of a return ticket to London? ○ Computer costs are falling each year. □ at all costs at no matter what price ○ At all costs, we have to be in Trafalgar Square by 12 o'clock. 2. □ to pay costs to pay the expenses of a court case ○ He lost his case and was ordered to pay costs. □ the judge awarded costs to the defendant the judge said that the defendant would not have to pay the costs of the case ■ verb to have a price ○ Potatoes cost 20p a kilo. ○ Petrol seems to cost more all the time. □ what does it cost? how much is it? ○ to cost the earth to be very expensive ○ Caviar costs the earth. □ to cost an arm and a leg to be very expensive ○ Don't buy your kitchen there – it'll cost you an arm and a leg. ○ The repairs to his car cost him an arm and a leg.

♦ fortune, small

co-star /'kəʊ staɪ/ noun the other leading actor or actress in a film or play ○ His co-star in the film was an Italian actress. ■ verb to act in a play or film as a co-star ○ She co-starred with James Dean. (NOTE: co-starring – co-starred) cost-cutting /'kɒst ,kætɪŋ/ noun the process of reducing costs, especially in a business, or the actions taken to reduce costs cost-effective /,kɒstɪ 'fektɪv/ adj which gives value when compared with its cost. Synonym lucrative costing /'kɒstɪŋ/ noun a calculation of a selling price, based on the costs of making a product costly /'kɒstli/ adj very expensive □ a costly mistake a mistake which results in a lot of money being spent ○ Telling them we would pay all their expenses was a costly mistake.

③ cost of living /,kɒst əv 'lɪvɪŋ/ noun money which has to be paid in order to live, e.g. for food, heating and rent costs /kɒsts/ plural noun the expenses involved in a court case costume /'kɒstju:m/ noun a set of clothes worn by an actor or actress in a play or film or on TV ○ The costumes for 'Henry V' are magnificent.

costume drama /'kɒstju:m ,dra:mə/ noun a play set in a previous historical period costume jewellery /'kɒstju:m ,dʒu:əlri/ noun jewellery that does not contain precious stones or metals cosy /'kəʊzi/ adj comfortable and warm ○ An open log fire always makes a room feel cosy. ○ She wrapped herself up in a blanket and made herself cosy on the sofa. (NOTE: cosier – cosiest. The US spelling is cozy.) ■ noun a cover put over something to keep it hot ○ She knitted a tea cosy for her mother. (NOTE: The plural is cosies.)

cot /kɒt/ noun 1. a child's bed with sides ○ The baby was fast asleep in her cot. ○ Jimmy's getting too big for his cot – we'll have to get him a proper bed soon. 2. US a folding bed for camping (NOTE: The British term is camp bed.)

cot death /'kɒt deθ/ noun an unexplained death of a sleeping baby (NOTE: The US term is crib death.)

coterie /'kəʊtəri/ noun a small group of special people. Synonym clique cottage /'kɒtɪdʒ/ noun a little house in the country ○ We have a weekend cottage in the mountains. ○ My mother lives in the little cottage next to the post office.

cottage cheese /,kɒtɪdʒ 'tʃi:z/ noun a very soft, lumpy white cheese cottage industry /,kɒtɪdʒ 'ɪndəstri/ noun the practice of making products in the workers' homes cottage pie /,kɒtɪdʒ 'paɪ/ noun minced meat cooked in a dish with potatoes on top cotton /'kɒt(ə)n/ noun 1. fibres made into thread from the soft seed heads of a tropical plant ○ She put a new reel of cotton on the sewing machine. 2. a cloth made of cotton ○ He was wearing a pair of cotton trousers. ○ I bought some cotton material to make a skirt.

cotton on /,kɒt(ə)n 'ɒn/ verb (informal) □ to cotton on to something to understand something ○ It was some time before he cottoned on to what I meant.

③ cotton wool /,kɒt(ə)n 'wʊl/ noun cotton fibres used to clean the skin or wounds or to apply lotion or disinfectant. Also called absorbent cotton couch /kaʊtʃ/ noun a low bed ○ She lay down on a couch in the lounge. Synonym sofa (NOTE: The plural is couches.) ■ verb to put something in words ○ His letter was couched in very formal language. Synonym express couch potato /'kaʊtʃ pə,tetəʊ/ noun a person who sits watching TV or videos all day (slang disapproving) cougar /'ku:gə/ noun US a large brown wild cat from North and South America. Also called mountain lion, puma

③ cough /kɒf/ noun the act of sending the air out of your lungs suddenly, e.g. when you are ill ○ Take some cough medicine if your cough is bad. ○ He ought to see the doctor if his cough is no better. ○ He gave a little cough to attract the waitress's attention. ■ verb to send air out of your lungs suddenly because your throat hurts ○ The smoke from the fire made everyone cough. ○ People with flu go around coughing and sneezing.

cough mixture /'kɒf ,mɪkstʃə/ noun a liquid medicine to cure a cough cough sweet /'kɒf swi:t/ noun a sweet with medicine in it against coughs cough up /,kɒf 'ʌp/ verb 1. to bring up matter from your throat when coughing ○ She became worried when the little girl coughed up blood. 2. to pay ○ When he was late with the rent, we sent some people round to get him to cough up.

① could /kəd, kʊd/ modal verb 1. meaning 'was' or 'would be able' to do something ○ The old lady fell down and couldn't get up. ○ You could still catch the train if you ran. 2. meaning 'was allowed' to do something ○ The policeman said we could go into the house. 3. used in asking ○ Could you pass me the salt, please? ○ Could you shut the window? 4. meaning 'might happen' ○ The new shopping centre could be finished by Christmas. 5. used in making a suggestion ○ You could always try borrowing money from the bank. (NOTE: The negative is could not, usually couldn't. Note also that could is the past of can; could is only used in front of other verbs and is not followed by the word to.)

couldn't /'kʊdn̩t/ contraction an informal form of 'could not'

① council /'kaʊnsəl/ noun 1. an elected committee 2. an official group chosen to advise on a problem council estate /'kaʊnsəl ɪ,steɪt/ noun an area where houses and flats have been built by the local council and are available at low rents

③ councillor /'kaʊns(ə)lə/ noun an elected member of a town council (NOTE: Do not confuse with counsellor.)

council tax /'kaʊnsəl tæks/ noun the tax charged by a local council to help pay for its services counsel /'kaʊnsəl/ noun 1. advice ○ I should have listened to his wise counsels. 2. a lawyer ○ counsel for the defence or defence counsel ○ counsel for the prosecution or prosecution counsel ■ verb to advise ○ She counselled us against buying the house. (NOTE: counselling – counselled. The US spelling is counseling – counseled.) counselling /'kaʊnsəlɪŋ/ noun the practice of giving advice about problems (NOTE: The US spelling is counseling.)

counsellor /'kaʊnsələr/ noun an adviser (NOTE: The US spelling is counselor.)

① count /kaʊnt/ noun 1. the action of counting or of adding □ to lose count to no longer have any idea of how many there are ○ I tried to add up all the sales figures but lost count and had to start again. ○ I've lost count of the number of times he's left his umbrella on the train. 2. the process of adding up the votes after an election ○ The candidates paced up and down during the count. 3. a large amount of something, calculated scientifically ○ Today there is a high pollen count. 4. a noble title, used in many European countries, but not in England ○ Count Bismarck, the German Chancellor 5. a charge read out against someone in court ○ She was found guilty on two counts of embezzlement. ■ verb 1. to say numbers in order, e.g. 1, 2, 3, 4 ○ She's only two and she can count up to ten. ○ Count to five and then start running. □ to count backwards to say numbers in the opposite order, e.g. 9, 8, 7, 6 2. to find out a total ○ Did you count how many books there are in the library? ○ He counted up the sales for the twelve months. ♦ hatch 3. to include when finding out a total ○ There were sixty people in the boat if you count the children. ○ Did you count my trip to New York as part of my expenses? □ not counting not including ○ There are three of us, not counting the baby. ○ We have three computers, not counting the old ones that don't work any more. 4. to be important ○ Your appearance counts for a lot in an interview. ○ Every little bit of energy saved counts.

countable /'kaʊntəb(ə)l/ adj 1. which is able to be counted 2. describing a noun that is able to form a plural count down /,kaʊnt 'daʊn/ verb to count backwards, e.g. 9, 8, 7, 6 ○ He counted down the seconds to the launch.

countdown /'kaʊntdaʊn/ noun the action of counting time backwards, especially before something takes place countenance /'kaʊntənəns/ noun an expression on someone's face ○ The journalists were surprised by the furious countenance of the President. ■ verb to approve of an action (formal) ○ My father would never countenance borrowing money from friends.

③ counter /'kaʊntər/ noun 1. a small round disc used in games ○ You've thrown a six – you can move your counter six places. ○ She placed a pile of counters on the board. 2. a long flat surface in a shop for showing goods for sale, or in a bank for passing over money ○ The cheese counter is over there. ○ She put her bag down on the counter and took out her cheque book. □ sold over the counter sold without a prescription from a doctor ○ Some drugs are sold over the counter, but for most you need a prescription. □ sold under the counter sold illegally ○ He sold the videos under the counter. ■ verb to reply in an opposing way ○ He accused her of theft and she countered with an accusation of sexual harassment.

counter- /kaʊntər/ prefix against, in response counteract /,kaʊntər'ækt/ verb to stop the effects of something. Synonym counter counter-attack /'kaʊntər ətæk/ noun an attack against someone who has just attacked you ○ 24 hours after the enemy attack we launched a counter-attack. ■ verb to attack in return ○ the enemy counter-attacked fiercely counterbalance /'kaʊntəbæləns/ verb to react against something by doing the opposite counterclockwise /,kaʊntə'klɒkwaɪz/ adv US in the opposite direction to the hands of a clock (NOTE: The British term is anticlockwise.)

counterfeit /'kaʊntəfɪt/ adj (of money, art or documents) false, not real ○ The police have warned shopkeepers that counterfeit £20 notes are in circulation. ○ You can see stands in Oxford Street selling counterfeit jewellery. Synonym fake. Antonym genuine ■ verb to make imitation money ○ Are the new £10 notes more difficult to counterfeit than the old ones? ○ Only very sophisticated printing machines can be used to counterfeit banknotes. Synonym forge ■ noun a thing which has been forged ○ There is something wrong with this passport – in fact it may be a counterfeit. Synonym forgery

counterfoil /'kaʊntəfɔɪl/ noun a slip of paper which you keep after giving someone a cheque countermand /,kaʊntə'ma:nd/ verb to say that an order or instruction should not be carried out counterpart /'kaʊntəpɔ:t/ noun a person who has a similar job or who is in a similar situation. Synonym opposite number □ John is my counterpart at Smith's John has the same post at Smith's as I have here counter-productive /,kaʊntər 'prə'dʌktɪv/ adj which has the opposite effect to what you want counter-revolutionary /,kaʊntər 'revəlju:ʃn(ə)rɪ/ noun a person who acts against a revolution. Synonym rebel countersign /'kaʊntəsain/ verb to sign a document which someone else has already signed, showing that you authorise it countess /'kaʊntɪs/ noun 1. (in European aristocracy) the wife of a count 2. (in the British aristocracy) the wife of an earl countless /'kaʊntləs/ adj very many. Antonym few count noun /'kaʊnt naʊn/ noun a noun that can be used with 'a' or 'an' and has a plural form

③ count on /'kaʊnt ɒn/ verb to be sure that someone will do something

① country /'kʌntri/ noun 1. a land which is separate and governs itself ○ the countries of the EU ○ Some African countries voted against the plan. (NOTE: The plural in this meaning is countries.) 2. land which is not the town ○ He lives in the country. ○ We went walking in the hill country. ○ Road travel is difficult in country areas. (NOTE: no plural in this meaning) country club /,kʌntri 'klʌb/ noun a club in the country, usually offering special sports facilities such as golf or horse riding country house /,kʌntri 'haʊs/ noun a large house in the country, with gardens and a park, and sometimes a farm countryman /'kʌntrɪmæn/ noun 1. a person who lives in the country, not in the town ○ Countrymen are protesting about the new tax. 2. a person who comes from the same country as you ○ He felt ashamed of his countrymen when he saw them fighting at the football stadium. (NOTE: The plural is countrymen.)

country music /,kʌntri 'mju:zɪk/, country and western /,kʌntri ən 'westən/ noun a style of music popular in the southeastern United States, especially Tennessee

② countryside /'kʌntrɪsaɪd/ noun land away from towns ○ the beautiful English countryside in spring ○ The countryside is in danger of being covered in new houses. (NOTE: no plural)

① county /'kaʊntɪ/ noun an administrative district. Synonym region (NOTE: The plural is counties.)

county council /,kaʊntɪ 'kaʊnsəl/ noun a group of people elected to run a county county town /'kaʊntɪ taʊn/ noun the main town of a county, where the administrative offices are coup /ku:/ noun 1. the act of taking over a government by force ○ The army took over after yesterday's bloody coup. ○ The officers who planned the failed coup were all executed. Full form coup d'état 2. a great success, a successful move ○ Getting the Minister of Education to open the school exhibition was a coup for the organisers.

coupé /'ku:pé/ noun a car with two doors and a fixed roof

① couple /'kʌp(ə)l/ noun 1. two things together 2. two people together ○ They are a charming couple. ○ Several couples strolled past hand in hand. ■ verb 1. to connect or combine ○ High tides coupled with strong winds caused flooding along the coast. 2. to join two machines together ○ Couple the trailer to the back of the truck. ◇ a couple of 1. two ○ I have a couple of jobs for you to do. ○ The film lasted a couple of hours. 2. a few ○ Can you move the chairs a couple of yards to the left? ○ Do you mind waiting a couple of minutes while I make a phone call?

couplet /'kʌplət/ noun two lines of poetry coupon /'ku:pɒn/ noun a piece of paper which is used in place of money or in place of a ticket. Synonym voucher courage /'kʌrɪdʒ/ noun being brave when in a dangerous situation ○ She showed great courage in attacking the burglar. Synonym bravery. Antonym cowardice (NOTE: no plural) courageous /kə'reɪdʒəs/ adj brave. Antonym cowardly courageously /kə'reɪdʒəsli/ adv bravely courgette /kɔ:ʒet/ noun the young fruit of the marrow (NOTE: The US term is zucchini.)

courier /'kʊriə/ noun 1. a person who carries messages ○ a motorcycle courier 2. a guide for tourists on a package tour ○ We were met at the airport by a courier. ○ The courier tried hard to deal with all our complaints about the hotel.

① course /kɔ:s/ noun 1. □ in due course after a certain amount of time ○ If you study for several years at college, in due course you will get a degree. ○ Put a coin in the slot and in due course the machine will produce a ticket. □ in the course of during ○ He's got much richer in the course of the last few years. 2. a series of lessons ○ I'm taking a maths course. ○ She's going on a painting course. ○ She has finished her secretarial course. ○ The hotel offers weekend courses in watercolour painting. 3. a series of treatments ○ He's taking a course of antibiotics. 4. a separate part of a meal ○ a five-course meal ○ The first course is soup, and then you can have either fish or roast lamb.

coursebook /'kɔ:sbuk/ noun a book used by students taking a certain course coursework /'kɔ:swɜ:k/ noun work which students must complete during an academic course

① court /kɔ:t/ noun 1. a room with a judge who tries criminals, sometimes with a jury ○ The court was packed for the opening of the murder trial. ○ Please tell the court what you saw when you opened the door. ○ The defen- dant was in court for three hours. □ to take someone to court to tell someone to appear in court to settle an argument 2. an area where sports such as tennis, basketball or squash are played ○ The tennis courts are behind the hotel. □ to be on court to be playing tennis ○ They were on court for over three hours. 3. a group of people living round a king or queen ○ The people at court were very cold towards the young princess. ○ It was dangerous to be a pretty young girl at the court of Henry VIII. ■ verb 1. to try to persuade a woman to marry you (dated) ○ King Henry courted Anne Boleyn for some months. 2. to be often together before getting married ○ Do you remember when we were courting and you took me to see the sun setting over the sea at Brighton? ○ They've been courting for three years, and there are still no signs of them getting married. 3. to try to get someone to support you ○ He has been courting the shareholders to win their approval for the scheme. 4. □ to court disaster to risk disaster happening ○ You are courting disaster if you try to drive a sports car without a licence.

court card /'kɔ:t kɑ:d/ noun the king, queen or jack in a set of cards court case /'kɔ:t keɪs/ noun a legal action or trial courteous /'kɔ:tɪəs/ adj polite. Antonym rude courteously /'kɔ:tɪəsli/ adv politely courtesy /'kɔ:tɪsɪ/ noun 1. politeness ○ The hotel staff showed us every courtesy. ○ She might have had the courtesy to apologise. ○ Children should show some courtesy towards their grandparents. 2. □ (by) courtesy of as a gift from, with the kind permission of ○ a box of chocolates by courtesy of the management ○ He arrived home two hours late, courtesy of the train service.

courtesy bus /'kɔ:tɪsɪ bʌs/, courtesy car /'kɔ:tɪsɪ kɑ:/, courtesy coach /'kɔ:tɪsɪ kəʊtʃ/ noun a bus or car or coach which is provided for people free of charge as a service courthouse /'kɔ:tθaʊs/ noun especially US a building where trials are held courtier /'kɔ:tɪə/ noun a member of a royal court court-martial /kɔ:t'ma:ʃ(ə)l/ noun 1. a court which tries someone serving in the armed forces for offences against military discipline ○ He was found guilty by court-martial and sentenced to imprisonment. 2. the trial of someone serving in the armed forces by the armed forces authorities ○ The court-martial was held in the army headquarters. (NOTE: The plural is courts-martial.) ■ verb to try someone who is serving in the armed forces ○ He was court-martialled for leaving his post when the enemy attacked. (NOTE: court-martialled. The US spelling is court-martialed.)

court of appeal /,kɔ:t əv ə'pi:l/ noun a court to which a person may go to ask for a decision or a sentence to be changed. Also called Appeal Court court order /kɔ:t 'ɔ:də/ noun an order issued by a judge courtroom /'kɔ:ttru:m/ noun a room where a judge holds a trial courtship /'kɔ:tʃɪp/ noun 1. a period when a man and a woman form a romantic relationship before getting married ○ Their courtship lasted no more than six months which was very short in those days. 2. a special display put on by animals to attract the opposite sex ○ Some birds perform very elaborate courtship dances.

courtyard /'kɔ:t jɑ:d/ noun a small square area surrounded by buildings. Synonym patio couscous /'ku:sku:s/ noun 1. a food made of small grains of wheat 2. a dish of meat and couscous

③ cousin /'kʌz(ə)n/ noun the son or daughter of your uncle or aunt ○ Our cousins from Canada are coming to stay with us for Christmas. ○ We didn't have a Christmas card from Cousin Charles this year.

couturier /ku:t'ʃʊərɪə/ noun a person who designs expensive fashionable clothes for women cove /kəʊv/ noun 1. a small bay ○ Do you remember the small cove where we loved to go swimming? 2. a man (old) ○ He's a strange cove.

covenant /'kʌvənənt/ noun a legal contract. Synonym agreement ■ verb to agree to pay an amount of money each year by contract ○ He covenanted £50 per annum for seven years.

Coventry /'kɒvəntri/ noun □ to send someone to Coventry to refuse to speak to someone ○ After he told the teacher who broke the window, the other children sent him to Coventry.

① cover /'kʌvə/ noun 1. a thing put over something to keep it clean ○ Keep a cover over your computer when you are not using it. ○ Put a cover over the meat to keep the flies off. 2. the front and back of a book or magazine ○ She read the book from cover to cover. 3. a place where you can hide or shelter ○ They ran for cover when it started to rain. □ under cover under a roof, not in the open air ○ If it rains the buffet will be served under cover. □ under cover of night or darkness at night, when everything is hidden ○ The commandos attacked under cover of night. ○ They crept out of the city under cover of darkness. □ to take cover to shelter ○ It started to rain and they took cover under a tree. ○ When the robbers started shooting, the policeman took cover behind a wall. 4. an envelope or wrapping paper □ to send something under separate cover to send something in a separate envelope □ to send a magazine under plain cover to send a magazine in an ordinary envelope with no company name printed on it ■ verb 1. to put something over something to keep it clean ○ You should cover the furniture with sheets before you start painting the ceiling. 2. to hide something ○ He covered the hole in the ground with leaves. ○ She covered her face with her hands. 3. to provide enough money to pay for something ○ The damage was covered by the insurance. ○ The prize covers all the costs of the holiday. 4. to deal with something completely ○ That covers all the points on the agenda. 5. to write a report on an event for a newspaper, radio or TV programme ○ The journalists covering the story were briefed by the police. 6. to travel a certain distance ○ They made good progress, covering twenty miles a day.

coverage /'kʌv(ə)rɪdʒ/ noun □ press coverage, media coverage the amount of space or time given to an event in newspapers or on TV ○ The company had good media coverage for the launch of its new car. ○ Coverage of Wimbledon continues on BBC2.

cover charge /'kʌvə tʃɑ:dʒ/ noun (in a restaurant) a charge per person in addition to the charge for food covered /'kʌvəd/ adj with a roof or lid over. Antonym exposed cover girl /'kʌvə ɡɜ:l/ noun a female model whose picture appears on the front cover of a magazine covering /'kʌv(ə)rɪŋ/ noun a thing which covers covering letter /,kʌvərɪŋ 'letə/ noun a letter explaining what is enclosed with it

③ cover note /'kʌvə nəʊt/ noun a letter giving agreement for an insurance sent before the policy is issued (NOTE: The US term is binder.)

covert /'kəʊvət, 'kʌvət/ adj hidden or secret. Antonym overt cover up /,kʌvər 'ʌp/ verb to cover something completely ○ He covered up the mark on the wall with white paint. □ to cover up for someone to try to hide a mistake that someone has made ○ The staff tried to cover up for their boss.

cover-up /'kʌvər ʌp/ noun the hiding of a scandal. Synonym conspiracy cover version /'kʌvə ,vɜ:sf(ə)n/ noun a new version of a song, recorded by someone other than the original singer covet /'kʌvət/ verb to want something which belongs to someone else coveted /'kʌvətɪd/ adj which everyone wants. Synonym sought-after

② cow /kau/ noun 1. a large female farm animal, kept to give milk ○ a field of cows ○ The farmer was milking a cow. □ until the cows come home for a very long time (informal) ○ You can wait until the cows come home before getting paid. 2. a female of other animals ○ a cow elephant ○ a cow whale 3. a woman (rude) ○ That stupid cow! ■ verb to frighten someone, to bully someone ○ He cowed all the others into doing what he wanted. Synonym intimidate coward /'kauəd/ noun a person who is not brave cowardice /'kauədɪs/ noun the state of not being brave. Synonym weakness. Antonym courage cowardly /'kauədli/ adj not brave. Antonym brave

③ cowboy /'kaʊbɔɪ/ noun 1. a man who looks after cows in the west of the United States 2. a workman who does bad work and charges a high price ○ a cowboy builder ○ The people we got in to paint the house were a bunch of cowboys.

cowboy hat /'kaʊbɔɪ hæt/ noun a large wide-brimmed hat worn by cowboys cower /'kauə/ verb to crouch down because you are afraid co-worker /kəʊ 'wɜ:kə/ noun someone who shares their work with one or more people cox /kɒks/ noun a person who steers a rowing boat ○ She's the cox of the university crew. (NOTE: The plural is coxes.) ■ verb to steer a rowing boat ○ She coxed the boat to victory in the regatta.

coy /kɔɪ/ adj timid or shy coyote /kɔɪ'əʊtɪ/ noun an American wild animal, like a small wolf

crab /kræb/ noun 1. an edible sea animal with eight legs, which walks sideways ○ The children caught several little crabs in the rock pools. 2. the meat of this animal, used as food ○ He ordered a crab sandwich. 3. □ to catch a crab to miss a stroke when rowing ○ One of the rowers caught a crab and all the others stopped rowing.

crabby /'kræbɪ/ adj bad-tempered

③ crack /kræk/ noun 1. a sharp sound ○ the crack of a whip ○ The crack of a twig behind her made her turn round. 2. a long thin break in something hard ○ A crack appeared in the ceiling. ○ Her ring fell down a crack in the floorboards. ○ The field is so dry it is full of cracks. 3. □ to have a crack at something to try to do something (informal) ○ I've never tried windsurfing before but I'm willing to have a crack at it. 4. a joke ○ She made a nasty crack about his bald patch. 5. a highly addictive form of the drug cocaine 6. □ at (the) crack of dawn as soon as it starts to be light ○ If we want to miss the traffic we must set off at (the) crack of dawn. ■ verb 1. to make a sharp sound ○ A twig cracked as he stepped on it. 2. to make a long thin break in something ○ The stone cracked the glass. 3. □ to crack jokes to tell jokes ○ He spent the entire lunch break cracking jokes. 4. to find out how a code works ○ They spent months trying to crack the enemy codes.

crackdown /'krækdaʊn/ noun a campaign against something (informal) crack down on /,kræk 'daʊn ɒn/ verb to work hard to reduce crime cracked /krækɪd/ adj with a crack in it cracker /'krækə/ noun 1. a dry biscuit made of flour and water ○ After the main course they served cheese and crackers. 2. a little firework which makes a series of bangs ○ Crackers were going off all round the procession to the temple. 3. same as Christmas cracker crackers /'krækəz/ adj mad (informal) cracking /'krækɪŋ/ adj very fast ○ a cracking pace a fast speed (dated) ○ The marathon leader set a cracking pace and no one else could keep up.

crackle /'krek(ə)l/ noun a small dry sound ○ He was woken by the crackle of flames. ■ verb to make little dry sounds, like something burning ○ The bonfire crackled away in a corner of the garden.

crackling /'kræklin/ noun hard baked pork skin crackpot /'krækpɒt/ adj eccentric or slightly odd (informal) ○ It's just one of his crackpot ideas for making money. ■ noun an eccentric person (informal insult)

cradle /'kreɪd(ə)l/ noun 1. a baby's bed which can be rocked ○ She rocked the baby to sleep in its cradle. □ from the cradle to the grave for the whole of your life ○ The government is abandoning the cradle-to-grave insurance scheme. 2. a support for a piece of machinery 3. a place where something started ○ Greece is the cradle of Western civilisation. ■ verb to hold something gently in your arms or hands ○ The little girl was cradling her doll.

craft /kraʊft/ noun 1. the skill of making something by hand ○ traditional rural crafts such as thatching ○ He learnt the craft of furniture-making as a boy. 2. something made skilfully by hand ○ local crafts for sale ○ a craft fair (NOTE: usually plural) 3. a ship ○ The sleek craft slipped out of harbour. ○ All sizes of craft took part in the rescue. (NOTE: The plural in this meaning is craft.)

-craft /kraʊft/ suffix 1. vehicle ○ aircraft ○ spacecraft (NOTE: In this meaning, words ending in -craft have the plural form -crafts.) 2. art ○ Stagecraft is the art of writing plays and putting them on. ○ Witchcraft is the art of casting spells. (NOTE: In this meaning, words ending in -craft do not have a plural form.)

craftily /'kraʊftili/ adv cunningly craftsman /'kraʊftsmən/ noun an artist who is expert at making things by hand (NOTE: The plural is craftspeople.) craftsmanship /'kraʊftsmənʃɪp/ noun the skill of a craftsman craftswoman /'kraʊftswomən/ noun a woman who is expert at making things by hand (NOTE: The plural is craftspeople.)

③ crafty /'kraʊfti/ adj sly, planning something in secret. Synonym cunning. Antonym forthright (NOTE: craftier – craftiest) crag /kræg/ noun a steep cliff craggy /'krægi/ adj rough, with lines like a rock

③ cram /kræm/ verb 1. to squeeze something into a small space ○ She crammed all her clothes into a little suitcase. ○ Don't try to cram so many interviews into one day. 2. to learn facts hurriedly before an examination ○ Everybody's at home cramming for their finals. (NOTE: cramming – crammed) crammed /kræmd/ adj full of things or people squeezed tightly together. Antonym empty cramp /kræmp/ noun a pain in a tight muscle which will not relax ○ He went swimming and got cramp in the cold water. ○ She woke up with cramp in her right leg. Synonym spasm ■ verb □ to cramp someone's style to stop someone doing what he wants, or developing ○ Having my mother-in-law for Christmas tends to cramp our style a bit.

cramped /kræmpt/ adj too small. Synonym overcrowded. Antonym spacious crampons /'kræmpɒnз/ plural noun a set of metal hooks attached to boots for climbing in ice and snow cranberry /'krænb(ə)ri/ noun a bitter wild red berry, used to make a sharp sweet sauce or drink crane /kreɪn/ noun 1. a tall metal piece of equipment for lifting heavy weights ○ The container slipped as the crane was lifting it onto the ship. ○ They had to hire a crane to get the piano into the upstairs room. 2. a large bird with long legs ■ verb □ to crane your neck to stretch your neck ○ He craned his neck to try to see the procession.

cranium /'kriːnɪəm/ noun the bones covering the top part of the head crank /kræŋk/ noun 1. a metal arm with a right angle, often mounted on a shaft ○ You'll need a crank to start the engine. 2. a very strange person ○ She's a bit of a crank when it comes to food, because there are so many things she won't eat. ■ verb to start an engine by turning it with a handle ○ Thank goodness I don't have to crank the car every time I use it.

crank out /'kræŋk 'aut/ verb to produce a series of things as if by a machine (informal) crankshaft /'kræŋkʃa:f/ noun a part of a car engine which converts the up-and-down motion of the pistons into a circular motion cranny /'kræni/ noun a small crack, a small gap. ♦ nook. Synonym crevice crap /kræp/ (slang offensive) noun 1. solid waste matter from the body □ I need a crap I must go to the toilet 2. rubbish ○ You're talking crap. ○ That film was a load of crap. ■ adj no good, useless ○ Your team is just crap, ours is miles better.

③ crash /kræʃ/ noun 1. an accident where vehicles are damaged ○ He was killed in a train crash. ○ None of the passengers was hurt in the coach crash. ○ His car was badly damaged in the crash. 2. a loud noise when something falls over ○ The ladder fell down with a crash. ○ He said he would go and do the washing up, and then there was a crash in the kitchen. 3. the collapse of a company ○ He lost all his savings in the bank crash. 4. the complete breakdown of a computer (NOTE: The plural is crashes.) ■ verb 1. (of vehicles) to hit something and be damaged ○ The bus crashed into a wall. ○ The plane crashed six kilometres from the airport. 2. to move, making a loud noise ○ The wall came crashing down. ○ The ladder crashed onto the floor. 3. (of a company) to collapse ○ He lost all his savings when the bank crashed. 4. (of a computer) to stop working ○ The hard disk has crashed but we think the data can be retrieved.

crash barrier /'kræʃ 'bæriə/ noun a strong fence to prevent cars from running off the road crash course /'kræʃ 'kɔ:s/ noun a course of fast hard study crash helmet /'kræʃ 'helmit/ noun a hard hat worn by motorcyclists crash-land /'kræʃ 'lænd/ verb (of an aircraft) to land without using the wheels, so that the aircraft is damaged crash-landing /'kræʃ 'laendɪŋ/ noun the act of landing a plane heavily, without using the wheels crass /kræs/ adj rude, stupid or coarse, not caring about what people think. Synonym insensitive crate /kri:t/ noun 1. a large rough wooden box ○ The dinner set arrived safely, carefully packed in a wooden crate. 2. a container for bottles ○ The school orders a crate of milk every day. ○ They had a crate of beer in the back of their car. ■ verb to put something into a crate ○ Every piece of china was wrapped in paper, and the whole lot was then crated to be sent to the shipper.

crater /'kri:tə/ noun 1. a hole made by a bomb ○ Over the winter, the bomb craters filled up with rainwater. 2. a round hole at the top of a volcano ○ A group of scientists flew over the crater to monitor the activity of the volcano. 3. a round hole on the Moon or a planet, where a meteorite has hit it ○ A map of the craters of the Moon.

cravat /'kra:væt/ noun a type of scarf worn by men round the neck inside the shirt collar (NOTE: The US term is ascot.)

crave /kri:v/ verb to want something very much craving /'kri:vɪŋ/ noun a strong desire. Synonym longing crawl /krɔ:l/ noun 1. a very slow speed ○ The traffic on the motorway was reduced to a crawl. 2. a swimming style where each arm goes over your head in turn ○ He won the 100m crawl. (NOTE: no plural) ■ verb 1. to move around on your hands and knees ○ The baby has just started to crawl. 2. to go along slowly ○ The traffic was crawling along. 3. □ to be crawling with to be covered with ○ The place was crawling with ants. ○ The streets were crawling with police.

crayfish /'kreifɪʃ/ noun a freshwater animal like a little lobster (NOTE: The plural is crayfish. An alternative US term is crawfish.)

crayon /'kreɪən/ noun a coloured wax pencil crave /kri:z/ noun a new fashion. Synonym fad crazed /'kreɪzd/ adj mad, acting wildly. Synonym irrational. Antonym rational

③ crazy /'kreɪzi/ adj mad ○ It was a crazy idea to go mountain-climbing in sandals. □ to drive someone crazy to have an effect on someone so that they become very annoyed ○ The noise is driving me crazy. ○ All this work is driving her crazy. □ crazy about very enthusiastic about ○ He's crazy about her. ○ She's crazy about ballroom dancing.

creak /kri:k/ noun a noise like bending wood ○ She heard a creak on the stairs and sat up in bed. ■ verb to make a squeaky noise ○ The front gate creaks, which means that we hear when anyone comes into the garden. ○ The shed door creaked and banged all night in the high wind. (NOTE: Do not confuse with creek.)

creaky /'kri:ki:/ adj which makes a creaking noise

② cream /kri:m/ noun 1. the rich top part of milk, full of fat ○ I like strawberries and cream □ whipped cream cream, beaten until it is stiff and often flavoured with sugar and vanilla 2. a soft substance used, e.g. for cleaning ○ face cream ○ shaving cream ○ shoe cream 3. the top few ○ the cream of the medical students ■ adj coloured like cream, a very pale brown ○ He was wearing a cream shirt. ○ Do you like our new cream carpet? ■ verb to beat into a smooth paste ○ Cream the butter and sugar in a bowl. Synonym blend cream cake /kri:m 'keɪk/ noun any cake or pastry filled with whipped cream cream cheese /kri:m 'tʃi:z/ noun a soft white cheese cream tea /kri:m 'ti:/ noun afternoon tea, with scones, thick cream and jam creamy /'kri:mi/ adj 1. full of cream ○ Because of my diet, rich creamy puddings are a thing of the past. 2. smooth and liquid like cream ○ a tempting piece of creamy cheese oozing onto the plate ○ The chocolate pudding is too solid, it is nicer when it is a little creamier. (NOTE: creamier – creamiest) crease /kri:s/ noun 1. a fold made by ironing ○ Trousers should have a crease in front. 2. a fold made accidentally ○ She ironed his shirts to remove the creases. 3. (in cricket) a line marking the place where a batsman stands in front of the wicket ■ verb to make folds accidentally in something ○ After two hours in the car, my skirt was badly creased and had to be pressed.

creased /kri:təd/ adj showing creases from having been crushed or folded ○ Hang up your clothes as soon as you arrive otherwise everything will stay creased.

① create /kri'eɪt/ verb 1. to make, to invent something ○ Do you believe that God created the world? ○ A government scheme which aims at creating new jobs for young people. 2. to make a fuss (dated) ○ Tim's creating again: he hates having to get dressed.

① creation /kri'eɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. a thing which has been made ○ For dessert they served some sort of chocolate and cream creation. ○ The model appeared on the catwalk wearing a pink and blue creation. 2. the act of creating ○ The aim is the creation of new jobs for young unemployed people.

③ creative /kri'eɪtɪv/ adj full of ideas, always making something ○ He's a very creative child.

creative writing /kri'eɪtɪv 'raɪtɪŋ/ noun the writing of stories, poems, and other works of the imagination

③ creativity /kri:eɪ'tɪvɪtɪ/ noun being full of ideas, always creating things creator /kri'eɪtə/ noun a person who makes or invents something. Synonym maker. Antonym destroyer

③ creature /'kri:tʃə/ noun an animal ○ Lift any stone and you'll find all sorts of little creatures underneath. ○ We try not to harm any living creature. ○ Some sea creatures live in holes in the sand.

crèche /kref/ noun a special room or building where babies and small children can be looked after, often on a company's premises. Synonym playgroup credence /'kri:dəns/ noun a belief that something is correct or true (NOTE: no plural) credentials /kri'den'solz/ plural noun letters or documents which describe a person's qualities and skills ○ The new production manager has very impressive credentials. Synonym identification

③ credibility /,kredi'biliti/ noun the quality of being able to be believed. Synonym trustworthiness credible /'kredɪb(ə)l/ adj which can be believed

② credit /'kredit/ noun 1. praise for something which is well deserved ○ To his credit, he owned up immediately. ○ The professor took all the credit for the invention. □ it does you credit you must be proud of it ○ Your daughter does you both credit. □ he's a credit to the school he's done well and this gives honour to the school where he studied 2. the time given to pay ○ We give purchasers six months' interest-free credit. □ on credit without paying immediately ○ We bought the dining room furniture on credit. 3. the side of an account showing money in hand or which is owed to you ○ We paid in £100 to the credit of Mr Smith. ■ verb 1. □ to credit someone with to say that someone has done something good ○ He has been credited with making the company profitable again. 2. to believe ○ I find that hard to credit. ○ Would you credit it? – She's got married again! 3. to pay money into an account ○ to credit an account with £100 or to credit £100 to an account creditable /'kreditəb(ə)l/ adj which does you credit, which should be praised. Synonym admirable. Antonym shameful credit card /'kredit ka:d/ noun a plastic card which allows you to borrow money and to buy goods without paying for them immediately credit limit /'kredit ,limit/ noun the maximum amount of money that a customer is allowed to spend on credit or charge to their credit card credit note /'kredit nəʊt/ noun a note showing that money is owed

② creditor /'kreditə/ noun a person who is owed money credit rating /'kredit ,reɪtɪŋ/ noun an amount which a bank feels a customer should be allowed to borrow credits /'kredɪts/ plural noun the list of people who helped to make a film or TV programme creditworthy /'kredɪtwaʊθi/ adj able to buy goods on credit credulous /'kredjʊləs/ adj believing anything easily. Synonym gullible. Antonym astute creed /kri:d/ noun a statement of what you believe ○ Retraining for the unemployed is one of the government's creeds.

creek /kri:k/ noun 1. a little inlet of the sea ○ We sailed along the coast exploring all the little creeks. ○ That creek looks too shallow for us to go up. 2. US a small river □ up the creek in a difficult situation (informal) ○ If we don't get any money by tomorrow evening we'll all be up the creek.

creep /kri:p/ verb 1. to move around quietly ○ They crept softly down the stairs. □ to creep up on someone to come up close behind someone without making any noise ○ The idea is to creep up on the gang as they are loading the stolen goods into the lorry. 2. to go along slowly ○ The traffic was creeping along the motorway because of the fog. ■ noun 1. an unpleasant person who does things in secret 2. □ to give someone the creeps to make someone shiver with disgust ○ I don't like that bank manager – he gives me the creeps. (NOTE: creeping – crept) crawler /'kri:pəl/ noun a plant which grows close to the ground or climbs up walls. Synonym climber creepy /'kri:pɪ/ adj which makes you feel strangely uncomfortable (informal). Synonym eerie (NOTE: creepier – creepiest) cremate /kri'meɪt/ verb to burn a dead body. Synonym incinerate cremation /kri'meɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the burning of a dead body crematorium /kremə'tɔ:rɪəm/ noun a place where the bodies of dead people are burnt (NOTE: The plural is crematoria. The US term is crematory.)

Creole /'kri:əʊl/ noun 1. a person of mixed African and European family from the West Indies or from the southern states of the United States ○ Thousands of Creoles form the civil service of the country. 2. a person who is a descendant of one of the original French settlers in the West Indies or the southern states of the United States, especially Louisiana ○ She comes from an old Creole family. 3. the language based on English, with additions from other languages, spoken in the West Indies and the southern states of the United States ○ Chicken gumbo is a Creole term for chicken stew. ■ adj cooked with tomatoes and red peppers, served with rice ○ a dish of chicken creole as a main course creosote /'kri:əsəʊt/ noun a dark brown oily liquid, used to paint fences to stop the decay of wood ■ verb to paint with creosote ○ a newly creosoted fence crepe paper /kri:p ˈpeɪpə/ noun slightly crinkly coloured paper crept /krep/ □ creep

crescendo /kri'fendəʊ/ noun 1. an increase in sound, especially in music □ to rise to or reach a crescendo to become much louder ○ The music suddenly rose to a crescendo. 2. a rising to reach a high point ○ A crescendo of complaints came into the office. ○ Protests from the public reached a crescendo with a march on Downing Street.

crescent /'krez(ə)nt/ noun 1. a curved shape, like a new moon ○ The new moon hung like a silver crescent over the lake. 2. a street which forms a semicircle ○ the beautiful 18th-century houses in Bath's famous crescents cress /kres/ noun a plant whose seedlings are used for salads, especially together with seedlings of mustard. □ watercress

crest /krest/ noun 1. the highest point along the length of a mountain or a wave ○ Follow the path along the crest of the hill – the view is splendid. ○ The crests of some of the waves reached 30 feet. 2. the highest point of something ○ When the president was elected he was at the crest of his popularity. 3. the feathers on the head of a bird ○ A peacock has a tall coloured crest. ○ A striking black cockerel with a red crest. 4. a coat of arms ○ His family crest is a red lion. ○ His college crest is still hanging on his bedroom wall.

crested /'krestɪd/ adj with a crest crestfallen /'krestfɔ:lən/ adj depressed. Synonym downcast. Antonym confident crevasse /krə'væs/ noun a deep crack in hard ground. Synonym fissure crevice /'krevɪs/ noun a small crack in a rock or wall

② crew /kru:/ noun the people who work on a vehicle such as boat, aircraft or bus ○ The lifeboat rescued the crew of the sinking ship.

○ The plane was carrying 125 passengers and a crew of six. ■ verb to be a member of a crew ○ She crewed on the transatlantic yacht.

crewcut /'kru:kʌt/ noun a very short haircut crewman /'kru:mən/ noun a man who is a member of a ship's crew (NOTE: The plural is crewmen.) crew neck /'kru: nek/ noun 1. a garment's round neckline 2. a sweater with a tight round neck crib /krɪb/ noun 1. US a baby's bed 2. a model of the scene of the first Christmas displayed in a church at Christmastime 3. a word-for-word translation or list of answers to help a student with homework ■ verb to copy something (informal) Synonym cheat (NOTE: cribbing – cribbed) crick noun a pain in the neck or back ■ verb to cause a pain in the neck or back

③ cricket /'krikɪt/ noun 1. a game played between two teams of eleven players using bats and a hard ball ○ We haven't played much cricket this year – the weather has been too bad. ○ We are going to a cricket match this afternoon. 2. □ it's not cricket it is not fair (informal) 3. a little insect which makes a singing noise cricketer /'krikɪtə/ noun a person who plays cricket cried /kraɪd/, cries /kraɪz/ □ cry

② crime /kraɪm/ noun 1. illegal acts in general ○ We must try to reduce the levels of crime in the inner cities. ○ The government is trying to deal with the problem of teenage crime or with the teenage crime problem. 2. an illegal act ○ More crimes are committed at night than during the daytime.

crime prevention /'kraɪm pri,venʃ(ə)n/ noun actions such as fitting burglar alarms and lights to stop opportunities for crime to be committed crime wave /'kraɪm weɪv/ noun an increase in the number of crimes

② criminal /'krimɪnl(ə)n/ adj referring to illegal acts ○ the criminal justice system ○ He has a criminal record. ○ Stealing is a criminal offence. ■ noun a person who commits a crime ○ The police think two well-known criminals did it. Synonym offender criminalise /'krimɪnləɪz/, criminalize verb 1. to make something illegal 2. to make someone into a criminal criminal law /,krimɪnl(ə)n 'lɔ:/ noun laws which deal with crimes against the law of the land, which are punished by the state. Compare civil law criminally /'krimɪnləli/ adv so bad as to be against the law criminal negligence /,krimɪnl(ə)n'neglɪdʒəns/ noun acting with the result that harm is done to other people criminal record /,krimɪnl(ə)n 'rekɔ:d/ noun a police record that lists any crimes that a person has been arrested for criminologist /,krimɪ'nɒlədʒɪst/ noun a person who makes a study of crime and criminals criminology /,krimɪ'nɒlədʒɪ/ noun the academic study of crime and criminals crimson /'krimzən/ adj deep red ○ The shop had a large crimson heart in the window on Valentine's Day. ○ She was so embarrassed, she turned bright crimson. ■ noun a deep red colour ○ According to the Sunday paper, crimson will be the colour to wear next winter.

cringe /'krɪndʒ/ verb 1. to bend to avoid a blow ○ The little boy cringed when he heard his father shouting. 2. to be embarrassed ○ Seeing the boss trying to make jokes just makes me cringe. ○ She cringed when her son started to play the violin.

crinkle /'krɪŋk(ə)n/ verb to fold or crush something, making many small creases crinkly /'krɪŋklɪ/ adj with many creases or curls. Synonym wrinkled (NOTE: crinklier – crinkliest) cripple /'kripl(ə)n/ noun a person who is disabled or has difficulty in walking (offensive) ○ Cripples sat outside the hotel, begging for money from tourists. ■ verb 1. to disable someone ○ He was crippled in a mining accident. 2. to prevent something from working ○ The explosion crippled the supertanker and she drifted towards the rocks. ○ The bus and rail strike has crippled the capital's transport system.

crippling /'kriplɪŋ/ adj which prevents someone from doing something

② crisis /'kraɪsɪs/ noun a serious situation where decisions have to be taken very quickly ○ an international crisis ○ a banking crisis □ to take crisis measures to take measures quickly to stop a crisis developing ○ The government had to take crisis measures to stop the collapse of the currency.

crisp /'krɪsp/ adj 1. hard, which can be broken into pieces or crunched ○ These biscuits are not crisp any more, they have gone soft. ○ Pick an apple off the tree, they're really very crisp. 2. sharp and cold ○ It was a beautiful crisp morning, with frost glinting on the grass. ○ She could see her breath in the crisp mountain air. (NOTE: crisper – crispest) crispy /'krɪspɪ/ adj very crisp. Synonym crunchy. Antonym soggy criss-cross /'krɪs krɔ:s/ adj with lines crossing ○ What is the meaning of the criss-cross pattern of yellow lines at a road junction? ■ verb to go backwards and forwards in different directions ○ We dodged through the cars, bicycles, carts and pedestrians criss-crossing the street.

criteria /kraɪ'tɪriə/ plural of criterion

② criterion /kraɪ'tɪriən/ noun the standard by which things are judged (NOTE: The plural is criteria.)

③ critic /'kritic/ noun 1. a person who examines something and comments on it, especially a person who writes comments on new plays and films for a newspaper ○ She's the TV critic of the 'Times'. ○ The film was praised by all the critics. 2. a person who says that something is bad or wrong ○ The chairman tried to answer his critics at the meeting.

② critical /'kritik(ə)l/ adj 1. dangerous and difficult ○ With the enemy attacking on all sides, our position was becoming critical. 2. extremely important ○ He made a critical decision to break off the negotiations. ○ Critical relief supplies have been held up at customs. 3. very serious ○ The pilot of the crashed plane was in a critical condition last night. ○ The hospital said that her condition was critical. 4. which criticises ○ The report was highly critical of the minister.

critically /'kritikli/ adv in a critical way. Synonym seriously. Antonym mildly critical mass /,kritik(ə)l 'mæs/ noun 1. the smallest amount of material required for a nuclear chain reaction 2. a point or situation which must be reached before a change occurs 3. the number of customers or size of market share that allows a business to begin to make money 4. the point in software development at which a piece of software acquires so many features that it stops being useful

③ criticise /'kritisaɪz/, criticize verb to say that something or someone is bad or wrong ○ She criticised the sales assistant for not being polite. ○ The design of the new car has been criticised.

② criticism /'kritisiz(ə)m/ noun 1. a comment ○ If you have any constructive criticisms to make, I shall be glad to hear them. 2. an unfavourable comment ○ There was a lot of criticism of the government's plan.

③ critique /kri'ti:k/ noun a piece of careful literary criticism. Synonym analysis croak /k्रौk/ noun a deep sound, like the call of a frog or crow ■ verb to make a deep sound ○ The frogs started croaking in the pond.

crochet /k्रौʃeɪ/ noun a type of knitting using one needle with a hook at the end ○ The baby was wrapped in a blue crochet shawl. ■ verb to make something out of wool, using a hooked needle ○ Who crocheted the beautiful jumper you are wearing? (NOTE: crocheted /'k्रौʃeɪd/ - crocheting /'k्रौʃeɪɪŋ/) crockery /k्रॉkəri/ noun cups, saucers and plates made from pottery (NOTE: no plural) crocodile /k्रॉkədail/ noun 1. a large reptile which lives in or near rivers and lakes and eats other animals ○ Crocodiles lay on the banks of the river waiting for the antelope to come to drink. 2. a long line of children walking in pairs ○ A crocodile of schoolchildren crossed the road to the swimming pool.

crocus /k्रॉkəs/ noun a little spring flower, in various colours, especially yellow and purple (NOTE: The plural is crocuses.)

croissant /'k्रॉəsən/ noun a rolled pastry, made in a curved shape crony /'k्रॉnɪ/ noun an old friend (disapproving) Synonym associate (NOTE: The plural is cronies.)

cronyism /'k्रॉnɪz(ə)m/ noun giving jobs to your old friends (disapproving) crook /k्रूk/ noun 1. a dishonest dealer ○ I don't trust the government – they're a bunch of crooks. ○ That secondhand car dealer is a bit of a crook. 2. a bend ○ She held the baby in the crook of her arm. 3. a long stick with a bent top, used by shepherds ■ adj (in Australia) ill crooked /'k्रूkɪd/ adj 1. bent, not straight ○ That picture is crooked. ○ I don't think the wallpaper is straight – it looks crooked to me. 2. dishonest ○ The police commissioner promised to remove any crooked officers in his force.

crookedly /'k्रूkɪdli/ adv in a bent way; not straight croon /k्रू:n/ verb to sing in a soft voice

③ crop /k्रूp/ noun plants, such as vegetables or cereals, grown for food ○ The bad weather has set the crops back by three weeks. ○ We had a wonderful crop of potatoes or a wonderful potato crop this year. Synonym harvest ■ verb 1. to cut something short ○ The photograph had to be cropped to fit the space on the page. 2. (of sheep) to eat grass so that it is very short ○ The field has been cropped short by sheep. 3. (of plant) to have fruit ○ The pear trees cropped heavily this year. (NOTE: cropping – cropped) cropped /k्रूpt/ adj cut short

③ crop up /,k्रूp 'ʌp/ verb to happen suddenly (informal) croquet /'k्रूkəti/ noun a game played on grass croquette /k्रू'kɛt/ noun a small ball of potato, covered with breadcrumbs and fried

② cross /k्रूs/ adj 1. angry ○ The teacher will be cross with you for missing school. ○ Don't be cross – the children were only trying to help. 2. opposed □ they were at cross purposes they thought they understood each other but were in fact in total disagreement ■ noun 1. a shape made where one line has another going across it, especially one which forms the symbol of the Christian Church ○ Write your name where I have put a cross. ○ There is a cross on the top of the church tower. 2. a breed of plant or animal which comes from two different varieties ○ A cross between two types of cattle. (NOTE: The plural is crosses.) ■ verb 1. to go across something to the other side ○ She just crossed the road without looking to see if there was any traffic coming. ○ The road crosses the railway line about 10 km from here. ◎ Concorde only takes three hours to cross the Atlantic. 2. to put one thing across another ◎ He crossed his arms and looked annoyed. ◎ She sat down and crossed her legs. 3. to breed a new animal or plant, etc., from two varieties ◎ He crossed two strains of rice to produce a variety which is resistant to disease.

crossbar /'krɒsba:/ noun 1. a bar which goes across a space, especially a bar which goes between the posts forming a goal ◎ He kicked the ball over the crossbar and converted the try. ◎ He almost scored, but the ball hit the crossbar. 2. a bar which crosses the frame of a man's bicycle, from the seat to the steering column ◎ She sat on his crossbar. ◎ Girls' bicycles normally don't have crossbars.

crossbow /'krɒsbəʊ/ noun a weapon which fires bolts crosscheck /'krɒstʃek/ verb to check again to be sure cross-country /'krɒs 'kʌntri/ noun a race across fields and along paths, not on a running track ◎ The cross-country champion is a favourite to win the marathon.

crossed cheque /'krɒst 'tʃek/ noun a cheque which has two lines drawn across it and can only be paid into a bank cross-examination /,krɒs 'ɪɡzæmɪ'nейʃ(ə)n/ noun the questioning of witnesses called by the other side in a case cross-examine /'krɒs ɪɡ'zæmin/ verb to question witnesses called by the other side in a case, in the hope that you can destroy their evidence cross-eyed /,krɒs 'aɪd/ adj with eyes that do not face forwards, but look inwards towards the nose (offensive) crossfire /'krɒsfajə/ noun gunfire from two directions, so that the fire crosses

③ crossing /'krɒsɪŋ/ noun 1. the action of going across to the other side of an area of water ◎ How long is the crossing from England to Germany? □ they had a rough crossing the sea was rough when they travelled across it 2. a place where you go across safely ◎ Cars have to take care at the railway crossing. □ level crossing a place where a road crosses a railway line without a bridge or tunnel ◎ The level crossing gates opened when the train had passed.

cross-legged /'krɒs 'legd/ adj, adv with one ankle over the other ◎ He was sitting cross-legged on the floor.

③ cross off /'krɒs 'ɒf/, cross out /'krɒs 'aʊt/ verb to draw a line through something which has been written to show that it should not be there crossover /'krɒsəʊvə/ noun 1. a bridge which takes a road or railway over another road, railway or river ◎ How would a cross-over help relieve traffic congestion? 2. a change from one type of artistic work to another ◎ He made the crossover from pianist to conductor without any difficulty.

cross-question /'krɒs 'kwestʃən/ verb to cross-examine someone, to ask someone a lot of questions cross-refer /'krɒs rɪ'fɜ:/ verb to tell the reader to look up something in another part of a book cross-reference /'krɒs 'ref(ə)rəns/ noun a note in a reference book telling the reader to look in another part of the book for further information ◎ Please check all cross-references for accuracy. ◎ Cross-references are not only useful to readers but also save time. ■ verb to refer to something in another part of a text crossroads /'krɒsraʊdz/ noun a place where one road crosses another cross-section /'krɒs sekʃən/ noun 1. a diagram made to show the inside of something, as if it had been cut through ◎ The picture shows a cross-section of the Channel Tunnel. ◎ Diagram 4 is a cross-section of a diesel engine. 2. a typical group of people ◎ The team consulted a cross-section of the public in the shopping centre.

cross-trainer /'krɒs 'treɪnə/ noun 1. an athlete who trains for more than one sport at a time 2. a shoe designed for more than one sporting activity 3. an exercise machine intended to develop many different groups of muscles cross-training noun training in different sports such as running and weightlifting, usually in order to improve performance in one of the sports ■ adj designed to be used for more than one kind of sport crosswalk /'krɒswɔ:k/ noun US a place where you can walk safely across a street (NOTE: The British term is pedestrian crossing or zebra crossing.)

crossword /'krɒswɜ:d/ noun a puzzle where small squares have to be filled with letters to spell words crotch /'krɒtʃ/ noun a place between the tops of your legs (NOTE: The plural is crotches.)

crotchet /'krɒtʃɪt/ noun a note in music half as long as a minim and twice as long as a quaver crotchety /'krɒtʃɪti/ adj irritable

③ crouch /'krəutʃ/ verb to bend down low. Synonym squat crouton /'kru:tɒn/ noun a crunchy cube of fried bread used as a garnish crow /krəʊ/ noun a large black bird ◎ The crows make such a noise in the trees that it wakes us up. □ as the crow flies in a straight line ○ It's only a couple of miles as the crow flies, but since there's no bridge over the river, it takes over half an hour to drive there. ■ verb 1. (of a cock) to make a loud call ○ The sound of the cock crowing woke them all up. 2. □ to crow about something to boast about something ○ He's always crowing about his success with women. ○ Stop crowing – just because you've won one game doesn't mean you're going to win the competition. □ to crow over someone to be happy because you have beaten someone or because someone has made a mistake crowbar /'krəʊbər/ noun a heavy metal bar for opening boxes and lifting things ② crowd /kraʊd/ noun a mass of people ○ She was cut off from her friends by a crowd of schoolchildren. ○ After the election, the crowds were dancing in the streets. ○ Someone in the crowd threw an egg at the speaker on the platform. ○ If you travel early, you will avoid the crowds of Christmas shoppers. ■ verb to group together ○ All the rugby fans crowded into the pub. ○ The children were crowding round their teacher.

② crowded /'kraʊdɪd/ adj with a large number of people ○ The town gets very crowded during the holiday season. ○ The stands were crowded before the game started. Synonym overcrowded. Antonym deserted

③ crown /kraʊn/ noun 1. a jewelled metal headdress for an emperor, king or queen ○ The archbishop placed the crown on the head of the young king. ○ The queen received the ambassadors wearing a heavy gold crown. 2. (in Britain) the king or queen representing the state ○ In England, all swans belong to the crown. ○ The Crown Jewels are kept in the Tower of London. □ counsel for the Crown a lawyer representing the state in a trial 3. a false top attached to a broken tooth ○ I'm going to the dentist to have a crown fitted. ■ verb 1. to make someone king or queen by placing a crown on his or her head ○ The Queen was crowned in Westminster Abbey. 2. to be a splendid or dreadful end to something ○ To crown it all, he won the lottery. ○ To crown it all, the car caught fire on the level crossing. 3. to attach a false top to a broken tooth ○ The dentist said that the tooth was so badly broken that he would have to crown it instead of trying to fill it.

crowning /'kraʊnɪŋ/ noun the act or occasion of a coronation ■ adj 1. representing outstanding achievement 2. forming a high point

② crucial /'kru:ʃ(ə)l/ adj extremely important ○ It is crucial that the story be kept out of the papers. Synonym vital. Antonym trivial

crucially /'kru:ʃəli/ adv seriously, extremely crucible /'kru:sib(ə)l/ noun a pot used for heating metals crucifix /'kru:sifiks/ noun a cross with a figure of Jesus Christ on it (NOTE: The plural is crucifixes.)

crucifixion /,kru:sifɪk'seɪn/ noun the act of killing a person by nailing him to a cross crucify /'kru:sifai/ verb 1. to nail someone to a cross as a punishment ○ Christ was crucified between two thieves. 2. to criticise someone sharply ○ My brother would crucify me if he knew I had used his car without asking him. ○ I can't call her now, she'd crucify me if I woke her up.

crude /'kru:d/ adj 1. untreated ○ Beaches were covered in crude oil from the tanker. 2. rude, with no manners ○ He made some crude gestures at the fans. (NOTE: cruder – crudest) ■ noun raw petroleum, taken from the ground ○ The price of Arabian crude has fallen.

① cruel /'kru:əl/ adj causing pain, making a person or animal suffer ○ You must not be cruel to your new puppy. ○ It was cruel of him to mention her weight problem. (NOTE: crueller – cruellest. The US spelling is crueler – cruellest.)

② cruelty /'kru:əlti/ noun the act of being cruel cruet /'kru:ɪt/ noun a set of containers for salt and pepper, which is put on the table cruise /'kru:z/ noun a long journey in a ship calling at different places ○ When he retired they went on a cruise round the Mediterranean. Synonym voyage ■ verb 1. to go in a boat from place to place ○ They spent May cruising in the Aegean. ○ The ship cruised from island to island. 2. to travel at an even speed ○ The car cruises very comfortably at 160 kilometres an hour. 3. to win without much difficulty ○ He cruised to victory in the race.

cruise liner /'kru:z,laɪnə/, cruise ship /-'kru:z ʃɪp/ noun a large passenger ship which takes people on cruises cruise missile /'kru:z 'mɪsəl/ noun a long-range guided missile cruiser /'kru:zəl/ noun a large warship, smaller than a battleship ○ How many cruisers can the Navy send to the war zone?

crumb /'krʌm/ noun a small piece of dry food such as bread, cake or biscuits. Synonym morsel crumble /'kræmbəl/ noun a hot cooked dessert made of fruit covered with a mixture of flour, fat and sugar ○ We are having apple crumble and custard for pudding. ■ verb 1. to break something up into small pieces ○ He picked up a lump of dry earth and crumbled

it between his fingers. ○ As the waves battered the cliff it began to crumble away. 2. to collapse ○ As the witness said what he had seen, the defendant's case crumbled. ○ All her confidence began to crumble.

crummy /'krʌmɪ/ adj no good (informal) (NOTE: crummier – crummiest)

crumpet /'krʌmpɪt/ noun a type of round flat bread, with holes on one side, toasted and covered with butter

crumple /'krʌmpəl/ verb 1. to crush or to screw something up into a ball ○ I heard him crumple up the paper and throw it into the wastepaper basket. 2. to become full of lines or folds ○ Her shirt was crumpled because she had been lying on the grass. ○ The box was full of crumpled bits of paper.

crunch /'krʌntʃ/ noun 1. the sound of something dry being crushed ○ the crunch of dry snow under his boots 2. a crisis point ○ The crunch will come when the firm has no cash to pay the wages. □ if it comes to the crunch if crisis point is reached ○ When it came to the crunch, the other side backed down. ■ verb 1. to crush something dry ○ The snow crunched under his boots. 2. to chew something hard which makes a noise when you are eating ○ She was crunching an apple when the phone rang.

crunchy /'krʌntʃi/ adj which makes a noise when you are eating. Synonym crispy.
Antonym soggy

crusade /'kru:seɪd/ noun a strong action to stop or change something ○ The government has launched a crusade against drugs. ■ verb to take part in a crusade ○ He has been crusading for more government action to reduce unemployment. Synonym campaign crusader /'kru:seɪdə/ noun a person who takes part in a crusade. Synonym campaigner

Crusades /'kru:seɪdz/ plural noun medieval wars against Muslims in the Middle East, led by Christian kings (history)

crush /'krʌʃ/ verb 1. to press something flat ○ She was crushed against the wall by the car. ○ Crush a piece of garlic and add it to the soup. 2. to end something completely ○ Government troops crushed the student rebellion. ○ All her hopes of getting a better job were crushed by the report of the interview board. ■ noun 1. a mass of people ○ She was hurt in the crush of people trying to get to the exit. ○ He lost his briefcase in the crush on the train. 2. □ to have a crush on someone to have a feeling of love for someone you do not know very well (informal) ○ She had a crush on her tennis coach.

crushing /'krʌʃɪŋ/ adj which takes away all hope. Synonym devastating crust /'krʌst/ noun the hard outside layer of something such as bread or the earth. Synonym coating crustacean /'krʌsteɪʃ(ə)n/ noun an animal with a hard shell, usually living in the sea, such as a lobster or crab crusty /'krʌsti/ adj 1. with a hard outside layer ○ We had an excellent salad with a glass of wine and a piece of fresh crusty bread. 2. getting angry easily ○ The club is full of crusty old men nodding in leather armchairs. (NOTE: crustier – crustiest) crutch /'krʌtʃ/ noun a strong support for a patient with an injured leg, formed of a stick with a holding bar or a T-bar which fits under the shoulder (NOTE: The plural is crutches.)

crux /'krʌks/ noun the central point of a problem

① cry /'kraɪ/ noun 1. a loud shout ○ No one heard her cries for help. 2. a sharp sound made by a bird or animal ○ The cry of the eagles overhead. ○ We could hear the cries of monkeys in the trees. (NOTE: The plural is cries.) ■ verb 1. to have tears coming out of your eyes ○ The baby cried when her mother took away her toys. ○ Cutting up onions makes me cry. ○ Many people were crying when they left the cinema. □ to cry over spilt milk to be upset because of something which you couldn't prevent (informal) ○ It's no use crying over spilt milk – what's happened has happened. 2. to call out ○ 'Hello there', she cried.

crypt /'kript/ noun a cellar under a church cryptic /'kriptɪk/ adj secret and mysterious. Antonym obvious crystal /'krɪstəl/ noun 1. a solid chemical substance with a regular shape ○ The salt formed crystals at the bottom of the jar. 2. a very clear bright glass ○ a crystal wineglass crystal ball /,krɪstəl 'bɔ:l/ noun 1. a fortune teller's glass ball 2. a means of predicting what will happen in the future crystal clear /,krɪstəl 'kli:əl/ adj very clear, simple to understand crystalline /'krɪstəlɪn/ adj 1. made of crystals, shaped like a crystal ○ Crystalline materials do not always form single regular crystals. 2. clear and pure like a crystal ○ The crystalline water of the mountain stream.

crystallise /'krɪstəlaɪz/, crystallize verb 1. to form crystals ○ Water crystallises to form snow. 2. to preserve fruit in sugar ○ We had a box of crystallised fruit for Christmas. 3. to take shape ○ Following the meeting, our ideas began to crystallise.

cub /'kʌb/ noun a young animal, especially a bear or fox ○ The cubs played in the sun while the vixen stood guard. ○ The bear led her cubs down to the river.

Cub /kʌb/; Cub Scout /'kʌb skaut/ noun a member of the young section of the Boy Scouts cubby-hole /'kʌbi həʊl/ noun a little dark cupboard cube /kju:b/ noun 1. a shape where all six sides are square and join each other at right angles (geometry) ○ The design for the library is nothing more than a series of cubes. 2. something shaped like a cube ○ He put two cubes of sugar in his tea. ○ The ice cubes chinked in the glasses. 3. the result when a number is multiplied by itself twice (mathematics) ○ 27 is the cube of 3. ■ verb 1. to cut something into little cubes ○ Wash, peel and then cube the potatoes. 2. to multiply a number twice by itself ○ If you cube 6 the result is 216 (6 x 6 x 6).

cubed /kju:bd/ adj 1. made in little cubes ○ A pack of cubed sugar. ○ Put the cubed vegetables into the soup. 2. which is multiplied by itself twice (mathematics) ○ 27 is 3 cubed.

cube root /kju:b 'ru:t/ noun a number which if multiplied by itself twice gives the number you have (NOTE: Do not confuse with route.)

③ cubic /'kju:bɪk/ adj measured in volume by multiplying length, depth and width (NOTE: Cubic is written in figures as 3^3 : 6m³ = six cubic metres; 10ft³ = ten cubic feet.)

cubicle /'kju:bɪk(ə)l/ noun 1. a changing room in a shop, at the swimming baths ○ Look for an empty cubicle and change there. 2. a small room which is part of a larger room, such as a dormitory ○ The scout leader sleeps in a little cubicle off the main dormitory.

cubism /'kju:bɪz(ə)m/ noun an art movement where colours and shapes are very important cuckoo /'kuku:/ noun a bird which has a cry that sounds like its name and which lays its eggs in other birds' nests ○ When you hear the first cuckoo you know that winter is over. ○ The cuckoo lays its eggs in the nests of other birds. □ a cuckoo in the nest someone who comes into a family or organisation and gradually takes control ■ adj mad (informal) ○ They must be cuckoo! Synonym eccentric. Antonym ordinary cuckoo clock /'kuku: klɒk/ noun a clock where a model of a small bird comes out at each hour and makes a noise like a cuckoo cucumber /'kju:kʌmbə/ noun a long dark green vegetable used in salads or for pickling □ as cool as a cucumber very calm and relaxed (informal) ○ He walked out of the prison as cool as a cucumber.

cud /kʌd/ noun food chewed by an animal a second time cuddle /'kʌdl/ noun a hug ○ She picked up her daughter and gave her a cuddle. Synonym embrace ■ verb to hug someone ○ The little girl was cuddling her teddy bear. ○ There was a last chance to cuddle in the taxi that took them to the airport.

cuddle up /,kʌdl 'ʌp/ verb □ to cuddle up to someone to hug someone ○ The children cuddled up to each other in the big armchair.

cuddly /'kʌdli/ adj soft and pleasant to hold or hug cudgel /'kʌdʒəl/ noun a large stick for hitting people ○ Policemen carrying cudgels broke up the demonstration. □ to take up the cudgels on someone's behalf to start to defend someone (informal) ○ Who's going to take up the cudgels on behalf of these abandoned children? ■ verb □ to cudgel your brains to think hard ○ He cudgelled his brains to remember the author of the book.

cue /kju:/ noun 1. (in a play) words after which you have to speak or act ○ He missed his cue and had to be prompted. ○ The gunshot is your cue to rush onto the stage screaming. □ to take your cue from someone to do as someone else does ○ Watch the managing director during the negotiations and take your cue from him. 2. a long stick for playing billiards or snooker ○ Before playing his shot, he put some chalk on the tip of his cue.

cuff /kʌf/ noun 1. the end of the sleeve round the wrist ○ The collar and cuffs of his shirt were dirty and frayed. □ speaking off the cuff, an off-the-cuff speech a speech made without notes ○ He was only asked to speak at the last minute, and, for an off-the-cuff speech, it was excellent. 2. US a folded part at the bottom of each leg of a pair of trousers ○ This year, slacks with cuffs are back in fashion. (NOTE: The British term is turnup.) 3. a hit with an open hand ○ She gave him a cuff on the back of the head to shut him up. ■ verb to hit someone ○ The parents said he had cuffed the child on the head. Synonym buffet cuff-links /'kʌf lɪŋks/ plural noun little objects, usually linked with a chain, which hold shirt cuffs together cuisine /'kwi'zi:n/ noun a style of cooking (meaning 'kitchen') ○ Chinese cuisine is very different from European. ○ French cuisine is more and more popular in England. Synonym food cul-de-sac /'kʌl də sæk/ noun a small street which is only open at one end (NOTE: The plural is cul-de-sacs.)

culinary /'kʌlɪn(ə)ri/ adj referring to cooking cull /kʌl/ noun the practice of killing a certain number of animals in order to keep the population under control ○ The deer cull takes place in early October. Synonym reject ■ verb to kill a certain number of animals in order to keep the population under control ○ About 10% of the deer population is culled each autumn.

culminate /'kʌlmɪneɪt/ verb □ to culminate in to reach a climax ○ The race culminated in a win for the Canadian driver.

culmination /,kʌl'mɪ'neɪʃ(ə)n/ noun a final point, grand ending. Synonym conclusion. Antonym inception culpable /'kʌlpəb(ə)l/ adj likely to attract blame. Synonym guilty culpable homicide /,kʌlpəb(ə)l 'həʊmɪs'aɪd/ noun murder or manslaughter culprit /'kʌlprɪt/ noun a person or thing that is responsible for a crime, for something which has gone wrong. Synonym offender cult /kʌlt/ noun a small religious group cultivate /'kʌltɪ'veeɪt/ verb 1. to dig and water the land to grow plants ○ Fields are cultivated in early spring, ready for sowing corn. 2. to grow plants ○ This field is used to cultivate new strains of wheat. 3. to do everything to get someone's friendship ○ We are cultivating the new director to try to make sure we get the contract.

cultivated /'kʌltɪ'veeɪtɪd/ adj 1. who has been well educated in subjects such as music, art and literature ○ A really cultivated person wouldn't be seen dead in a karaoke bar. 2. (of a plant) which is specially grown and is not wild ○ Wild strawberries have a more intense flavour than cultivated ones. 3. (of land) prepared for growing crops ○ From the air, the cultivated fields were like a brown and green quilt.

cultivation /,kʌltɪ'veɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. the act of preparing the soil and growing plants ○ The cultivation of soft fruit is very dependent on the weather. □ under cultivation (of land) which is being cultivated ○ He has sixty acres under cultivation. 2. a good education ○ His lack of cultivation was apparent as soon as he began to speak.

② cultural /'kʌltʃ(ə)rəl/ adj referring to culture ○ The French cultural attaché opened the exhibition. ○ His cultural interests are very wide-ranging – from Mexican art to 12th-century Greek paintings.

① culture /'kʌltʃər/ noun 1. a country's civilisation, including music, art and literature ○ He is taking a course in Russian culture. ○ Is a TV in every home really the peak of Western culture? 2. the cultivation of plants ○ The culture of orchids must be done in warm damp conditions. 3. bacteria grown in a laboratory ○ The first part of the experiment is to grow a culture in the lab.

cultured /'kʌltʃəd/ adj 1. civilised, well educated ○ Our guide was a very cultured lady from Vienna. ○ Such behaviour is not acceptable in cultured society. 2. which has been grown artificially ○ Only an expert can tell the difference between a cultured pearl and a real one.

culture shock /'kʌltʃə ſɒk/ noun the shock which you feel when moving from one type of society to another which is very different cumbersome /'kʌm'bəs(ə)m/ adj large and heavy. Synonym unwieldy. Antonym manageable cumulative /'kju:mjʊlətɪv/ adj 1. which is added gradually, especially each year ○ The interest on this account is cumulative. ○ The cumulative effect of a series of late nights finally caught up with him and he fell asleep during the dinner. 2. which grows by adding new parts ○ A cumulative index is made up of several different indexes put together.

cunning /'kʌnɪŋ/ noun cleverness and trickery ○ He showed cunning in his attempts to get tickets for the concert. ■ adj clever and full of tricks ○ They had a cunning plan to get into the exhibition free.

cunningly /'kʌnɪŋli/ adv in a cunning way

① cup /kʌp/ noun 1. a small bowl with a handle, used for drinking from ○ She put out a cup and saucer for everyone. 2. the liquid in a cup ○ He drank two cups of coffee. ○ Can I have a cup of tea? □ to make a cup of tea to prepare tea, usually in a pot ○ I'll make you all a cup of tea. □ it's not my cup of tea it's not something I like very much (informal) ○ Modern art isn't really my cup of tea. 3. a tall silver bowl given as a prize for winning a competition ○ He has won three cups for golf. ■ verb to put your hands into the shape of a cup ○ He cupped his hands under the trickle of water. (NOTE: cupping – cupped)

② cupboard /'kʌbəd/ noun a piece of furniture with shelves and doors ○ Put the jam in the kitchen cupboard. ○ The best plates are in the dining room cupboard. ○ She painted the cupboard doors white.

cup final /kʌp 'fæn(ə)l/ noun the last game in a football or rugby competition, where the winning side is given the silver cup cupful /'kʌpfʊl/ noun the quantity which a cup can hold cuppa /'kʌpə/ noun a cup of tea (informal) cup tie /'kʌp tai/ noun a sports match between two teams as a result of which one must leave the competition curable /'kjʊərəb(ə)l/ adj (of a disease) which can be cured curate /'kjʊərət/ noun a priest who helps a parish priest curative /'kjʊərətɪv/ adj which can cure. Synonym healing. Antonym injurious curator /kju'reɪtə/ noun a person in charge of a museum curb /kɜ:b/ noun 1. something which holds something back ○ The company needs to put a curb on its spending. 2. US the stone edge to a pavement ○ He sat on the curb and watched the cars go past. ○ Try not to hit the curb when you park. (NOTE: The British spelling is kerb.) ■ verb to hold something back ○ She needs to curb her enthusiasm to spend money. Synonym restrain curd /kɜ:d/ noun a solid food made from sour milk curdle /'kɜ:d(ə)l/ verb 1. to become or make something become solid and sour ○ If you add lemon juice to milk it will curdle it. ○ Milk will curdle in hot weather. 2. □ to make your blood curdle to make you very frightened ○ a story frightening enough to make their blood curdle ○ One's blood curdles at the mere thought of it. ♦ bloodcurdling cue /kjuə/ noun something which makes a disease better ○ Doctors are still trying to find a cure for colds. ■ verb 1. to make a patient or a disease better ○ I don't know what's in the medicine, but it cured my cough very fast. 2. to preserve meat, by putting it in salt ○ a piece of cured ham ○ This bacon has been cured in salt water.

curfew /'kɜ:fju:/ noun a period when no one is allowed out into the street. Synonym restriction curiosity /,kjʊəri'ɒsɪti/ noun 1. wanting to know about something ○ I just asked out of sheer curiosity. 2. a strange object ○ The vase is a real curiosity – I've never seen anything like it before. (NOTE: The plural in this meaning is curiosities.)

③ curious /'kjʊəriəs/ adj 1. strange ○ She has a curious high-pitched voice. 2. wanting to know ○ I'm curious to know if anything happened at the party.

curiously /'kjʊəriəsli/ adv 1. strangely ○ The meat has a curiously fishy smell. ○ Curiously enough, nobody noticed that he had dyed his hair green. 2. wanting to know ○ She peeped curiously into the box.

③ curl /kɜ:l/ noun 1. a lock of hair which twists ○ The little girl looked so sweet with her golden curls. 2. a twist in the hair ○ My hair has a natural curl. ■ verb 1. to make hair twist round ○ She curled her hair round her finger. ○ She went to the hairdresser's to have her hair curled. 2. to twist ○ my hair curls naturally ○ Some creepers curl round other plants. 3. □ to curl up to bend your body into a round shape ○ She curled up on the sofa and went to sleep.

curler /kɜ:lə/ noun 1. a roller for curling hair 2. a player of the sport of curling curling /'kɜ:liŋ/ noun a Winter Olympic sport for two teams of four, similar to bowls on ice

③ curly /'kɜ:li/ adj (of hair) with natural waves. Synonym wavy □ curly hair hair with natural waves in it ○ She has naturally curly hair.

currant /'kærənt/ noun 1. a small round fruit ○ I have planted some currant bushes. ♦ blackcurrant, redcurrant 2. a small dried black grape ○ a currant bun ○ fruit cake with currants, sultanas and raisins in it (NOTE: Do not confuse with current.)

② currency /'kærənsi/ noun 1. the money used in a certain country ○ I want to change my pounds into French currency. 2. the state of being known or accepted □ to gain currency to become better known or more accepted ○ The idea that the world was round began to gain currency in the later Middle Ages.

① current /'kærənt/ noun 1. a flow of water or air ○ Don't go swimming in the river – the current is very strong. ○ A warm westerly current of air is flowing across the country. ○ Vultures circle in rising currents of warm air. 2. a flow of electricity ○ Switch the current off at the mains. (NOTE: Do not confuse with currant.) ■ adj 1. referring to the present time ○ What is your current position? ○ Who is the current prime minister of Japan? ○ Do you have a current timetable? – mine is out-of-date. □ what is the current rate of exchange? what is today's rate of exchange?

2. widely believed ○ The idea that the world was flat was current in the Middle Ages.

③ current account /'kærənt ə,kaʊnt/ noun a bank account from which you can take money at any time (NOTE: The US term is checking account.)

current affairs /,kærənt ə'fɛəz/ plural noun the political situation as it is now ○ We are studying current affairs as part of our politics course.

③ currently /'kærəntli/ adv at the present time ○ He is currently the manager of our Paris office. ○ We are currently in the process of buying a house.

② curriculum /kə'rɪkju:ləm/ noun the subjects studied in school ○ I am very glad that music and drama have been added to the curriculum. ○ The National Curriculum is followed by all British schools. (NOTE: The plural is curriculums or curricula.)

curriculum vitae /kə,rɪkju:ləm 'vi:tai/ noun a summary of someone's qualifications and experience

③ curry /'kærɪ/ noun an Indian food prepared with spices ○ I would like a mild curry, please. ○ We ordered chicken curry and rice. (NOTE: The plural is curries.) ■ verb □ to curry favour with someone to try to please someone ◇ He's just trying to curry favour with the boss by coming in at seven o'clock in the morning.

curry powder /'kʌri 'paʊdə/, curry paste /'kʌri peɪst/ noun a hot spicy powder or paste, used in Indian cooking

③ curse /kɜːs/ noun 1. a swearword ◇ He threw the letter down with a curse. 2. a magic word to make something unpleasant happen to someone ◇ The witch put a curse on the whole family. 3. something which causes you problems ◇ Being on call 24 hours a day is the curse of being a doctor. ◇ Pollution is the curse of industrialised societies. ■ verb 1. to swear ◇ He cursed under his breath and marched out of the room. 2. to wish that something bad should happen to someone cursed /kɜːst/ adj ◇ cursed with having a problem which is embarrassing or difficult to deal with ◇ He's cursed with bad breath. ◇ They're cursed with noisy neighbours.

cursor /'kɜːsə/ noun a little arrow or a bright spot on a computer screen which shows where the next character will appear cursor /'kɜːsər/ adj quick and not very careful. Synonym superficial curt /kɜːt/ adj abrupt in speaking curtail /kɜː'teɪl/ verb to shorten something; to reduce something. Synonym limit curtailment /kɜː'teɪlmənt/ noun the act of curtailing

② curtain /'kɜːt(ə)n/ noun 1. a long piece of cloth hanging in front of a window ◇ Can you close the curtains, please? 2. a long piece of cloth hanging in front of the stage at a theatre ◇ the curtain will go up at 8.30 the play begins at 8.30 ◇ it will be curtains for him he will be finished ◇ to draw the curtains 1. to open the curtains ◇ Draw the curtains – it's getting cold. 2. to close the curtains curtain call /'kɜːt(ə)n kɔːl/ noun the time when actors or dancers come out in front of the curtain to take a bow after the end of a performance curtly /'kɜːtli/ adv abruptly curtsy /'kɜːtsi/ noun a respectful movement made by women or girls, by bending the knees and putting one foot forward ◇ She made a curtsy to the queen. ■ bow ■ verb ◇ to curtsy to someone to make a curtsy to someone curvature /'kɜːvətʃə/ noun being bent into a curve

③ curve /kɜːv/ noun 1. a round shape like part of a circle ◇ The road makes a sharp curve to the left. 2. a rounded shape on a graph ◇ a steep learning curve the process of having to learn new skills fast ■ verb to make a rounded shape ◇ The road curves round the side of the mountain. Synonym bend. Antonym straighten curved /kɜːvd/ adj with a rounded shape. Synonym rounded. Antonym angular

② cushion /'kuʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. a bag filled with something soft, e.g. feathers, for sitting or leaning on ◇ Feel how soft this cushion is. ◇ Put a cushion behind your back if you find your chair is too hard. 2. money which allows you to get through a difficult period ◇ We have a little money in the bank which is a useful cushion when cash is tight. ■ verb to make soft something which could be hard or painful ◇ Luckily when he fell off the ladder there was a hedge underneath to cushion his fall. ◇ She made no attempt to cushion the blow, but just told them straight out that they were all being sacked.

cushy /'kuʃi/ adj (of a job) easy (informal) Antonym difficult (NOTE: cushier – cushiest) custard /'kʌstəd/ noun 1. ◇ (egg) custard a sweet sauce, made with eggs and milk, flavoured with vanilla, baked until set and eaten warm or cold 2. (in the UK) a sweet yellow sauce made with milk and a powder containing cornflour ◇ stewed rhubarb and custard ◇ Would you like some custard with your crumble?

custodial sentence /kʌstədɪəl 'sentəns/ noun the fact of being legally sentenced to prison custodian /kʌstədɪən/ noun 1. a person who is legally entrusted to look after someone or something 2. a person who guards a museum or other public building ◇ The museum custodian was sound asleep and didn't hear any noise.

custody /'kʌstədi/ noun 1. keeping ◇ The jewels were in the custody of the manager, and he had placed them in the hotel safe. ◇ to take someone into custody to arrest someone ◇ The three fans were taken into police custody. 2. the right of keeping and looking after a child ◇ When they were divorced, she was granted custody of the children. (NOTE: no plural)

③ custom /'kʌstəm/ noun 1. a habit, a thing which is usually done ◇ It's a local custom in this part of the world. 2. the use of a shop ◇ If the assistants are rude to me again I will take my custom elsewhere. ◇ to lose someone's custom to do something which makes a regular customer go to another place of business, e.g. a restaurant or shop ◇ The little corner shops will lose a lot of custom when the new supermarket is built.

customary /'kʌstəməri/ adj usual custom-built /'kʌstəm bilt/, custom-made /,kʌstəm 'meɪd/ adj made to order for a customer

① customer /'kʌstəmə/ noun 1. a person who buys something in a shop ○ The shops are lowering their prices to attract customers. ○ She was locking up the shop when a customer came in. ○ His shop is always full of customers. 2. a person who uses a service such as a train ○ We apologise to customers waiting on Platform 5 for the late arrival of their train.

customise /'kʌstəmaɪz/, customize verb to have something changed to fit your special needs custom-made /,kʌstəm 'meɪd/ adj alternative for custom-built

② customs /'kʌstəmz/ noun 1. □ H.M. Customs and Excise the British government department which organises the collection of taxes on goods coming into the country and also collects VAT ○ He was stopped by customs. ○ Her car was searched by customs. ○ The customs officer asked her to open her bag. 2. an office of this department at a port or airport □ to go through customs to pass through the area of a port or airport where customs officials examine goods ○ When you come into the country, you have to go through customs. □ to take something through customs to carry something through the customs area without always declaring it ○ She said that her boyfriend had asked her to take the case through customs for him.

① cut /kʌt/ verb 1. to make an opening or to remove something using a sharp tool, e.g. a knife or scissors ○ The meat is very tough – I can't cut it with my knife. ○ He needs to get his hair cut. ○ There were six children, so she cut the cake into six pieces. 2. to hurt yourself by making a wound in the skin ○ She cut her finger on the broken glass. ○ He cut himself while shaving. 3. to reduce the size of something ○ We are trying to cut the number of staff. ○ Accidents have been cut by 10%. ○ The article is too long, so I asked the author to cut 500 words. 4. □ to cut a corner to try to go round a corner quickly, by driving on the pavement ○ He was trying to cut the corner and hit a fence. □ to cut corners to do things rapidly and cheaply ○ She tried to cut corners and the result was that the whole job had to be redone. 5. to look at someone and pretend not to recognise him or her ○ When I held out my hand she cut me dead. (NOTE: cutting – cut – has cut) ■ noun 1. a place which bleeds when your skin has been broken ○ She had a bad cut on her leg. ○ Put some sticking plaster on your cut. 2. a mark made in a surface by something sharp 3. the sudden lowering of something, e.g. a price or salary ○ price cuts ○ cuts in prices □ he took a cut in salary or a salary cut he accepted a lower salary 4. the act of stopping the supply of something, e.g. water or electricity ○ There were power cuts again during the night. 5. a piece of meat ○ You can use a cheaper cut of meat if you're making stew. 6. a share of something such as profits ○ Each salesperson gets a cut of what he or she can sell for cash.

cut across /kʌt ə'krɒs/, cut through /kʌt 'θru:/ verb to take a short cut to get somewhere cut and paste /,kʌt ən 'peɪst/ noun the act of taking a section of text from one point and inserting it at another ③ cut back /,kʌt 'bæk/ verb to reduce spending ○ We are having to cut back on staff costs.

cutback /'kʌtbaʊk/ noun a reduction in spending

③ cut down /,kʌt 'daʊn/ verb 1. to make a tree fall down with a tool such as a saw ○ He cut the tree down or cut down the tree. 2. □ to cut down (on) to reduce something ○ We are trying to get him to cut down the number of cigarettes he smokes each day. ○ I'm trying to cut down on chocolate.

③ cute /kjoo:t/ adj nice. Antonym ugly cuteness /'kjoo:təns/ noun niceness, the fact of being cute. Antonym ugliness cuticle /'kjoo:tɪk(ə)l/ noun the hard skin at the base of a fingernail or toenail cut in /,kʌt 'ɪn/ verb 1. to interrupt someone or something ○ He would keep on cutting in while I was telling the story. 2. to drive suddenly in front of another car ○ Did you see how the little white car cut in in front of the black one?

cutlass /'kʌtləs/ noun a short curved sword, used in the navy and by cavalry (NOTE: The plural is cutlasses.)

cutlery /'kʌtləri/ noun knives, forks and spoons (NOTE: no plural)

cutlet /'kʌtlət/ noun 1. a slice of meat, usually with a bone attached ○ We were served veal cutlets with mushroom sauce. 2. a fried dish made with minced meat, fish or vegetables formed into the shape of a piece of meat ○ She makes delicious fish cutlets.

③ cut off /,kʌt 'ɒf/ verb 1. to take away a small part of something using a sharp tool such as a knife ○ She cut off a little piece of string. ○ He cut off two slices of ham. 2. to stop someone from being with someone or reaching a place ○ She was cut off from her friends by a crowd of policemen. ○ The village was cut off by the snow. ○ The tide came in and cut off a party of schoolchildren. 3. to stop a phone call before it is finished ○ We were cut off in the middle of our conversation. 4. to stop electricity or water from reaching someone ○ He didn't pay the bill, so the company cut off his electricity. ○ The

lightning hit the generator and caused the power to be cut off.

cutoff /'kʌtɒf/ something which marks the end of something ○ The cutoff point for students going to the next level is 80% marks in the exam. ○ What is the cutoff date for applications?

③ cut out /,kʌt 'aʊt/ verb 1. to remove a small piece of something such as paper by cutting it from a larger piece ○ She cut an advertisement out of the newspaper. ○ He used a pair of scissors to cut out the picture. 2. to stop doing or eating something ○ She's decided to cut out sweet things so as to lose weight. □ cut it out! stop doing that! 3. □ to be cut out for something to be ideally suited for something ○ I don't think he's cut out for a job in the post office.

cut-price /,kʌt 'praɪs/ adj very cheap

getter /'kʌtər/ noun 1. a person who cuts something ○ The cutter said he could cut my piece of glass to any size I wanted. 2. a machine which cuts something ○ You need a tile cutter to cut your tiles to fit the corners. 3. a small fast boat ○ The pilot arrived in a cutter.

cutters /'kʌtəz/ plural noun □ a pair of cutters a pair of sharp scissors used for cutting something ○ A pair of wire cutters will be useful if we need to get through the fence.

cut-throat /'kʌt θrəʊt/ adj vicious or intense cutting /'kʌtɪŋ/ noun 1. a small piece of paper cut out of a newspaper □ a file of press cuttings a collection of references to a person or thing cut out of newspapers or magazines ○ She has a file of press cuttings about her son. 2. a little piece of a plant which will take root if stuck in the ground ○ The cuttings I took from your lavender plant are all growing well. ■ adj □ a cutting remark a sharply critical remark cutting edge /,kʌtɪŋ 'edʒ/ noun 1. the sharp edge of a knife ○ The cutting edge is blunt and needs sharpening. 2. □ at the cutting edge of something right at the front of something ○ The company is at the cutting edge of new technology.

③ cut up /,kʌt 'ʌp/ verb 1. to make something into small pieces by cutting it ○ She cut the old towel up into little pieces. ○ Can you cut up the meat for the children? 2. to drive suddenly in front of another car ○ Did you see how the little white car cut up the black one? ■ adj upset or annoyed (informal) ○ She's rather cut up because her cat has disappeared. Synonym distressed

CV abbr curriculum vitae

cwt abbr hundredweight

cyanide /'saɪənайд/ noun a strong poison

cybercafé /'saɪbə,kæfə/ noun a café where you can pay to use the Internet cyberspace /'saɪbəspɛs/ noun an imaginary place which electronic information such as emails passes through

③ cycle /'saɪk(ə)l/ noun 1. a bicycle ○ If your bike's got a flat tyre, take it to the cycle shop. 2. a period during which something develops and then returns to its starting point ○ Global warming is starting to affect the natural cycle of the seasons. ○ The washing machine broke down in the middle of the spin cycle. □ a business or economic or trade cycle a period during which trade expands, then slows down, then expands again ■ verb to go on a bicycle ○ It's hard cycling against the wind. ○ She thinks nothing of cycling ten miles to work every day.

cycle path /'saɪk(ə)l pa:θ/ noun a special path for cyclists

③ cyclist /'saɪklɪst/ noun a person who rides a bicycle cyclone /'saɪklən/ noun 1. an area of low pressure, usually associated with bad weather. Compare anticyclone 2. a tropical storm in the Indian and Pacific Oceans, where the air moves very fast in a circle round a central area ○ According to the shipping forecasts, a cyclone is approaching Sri Lanka. (NOTE: In the Far East this is called a typhoon; in the Caribbean a hurricane.)

cygnet /'sɪgnɛt/ noun a baby swan cylinder /'sɪlɪndə/ noun 1. an object shaped like a round tube closed at both ends 2. a part of an engine, in which a piston moves ○ The car has a six-cylinder engine. ○ The engine seems to lack power – maybe it's not firing on all six cylinders.

cylindrical /sɪ'lɪndrɪk(ə)l/ adj shaped like a cylinder cymbals /'sɪmbəlz/ plural noun a pair of round metal plates which are banged together to make a loud noise (NOTE: Do not confuse with symbols)

cynic /'sɪnɪk/ noun a person who doubts that anyone has any good points cynical /'sɪnɪk(ə)l/ adj doubting that anyone has any good points cynically /'sɪnɪkli/ adv in a cynical, mocking way cynicism /'sɪnɪsɪz(ə)m/ noun the fact of being cynical cypher /'saɪfə/ noun another spelling of cipher cypress /'saɪprəs/ noun a type of evergreen tree of the Mediterranean region (NOTE: The plural is cypresses.)

Cypriot /'sɪpriət/ adj referring to Cyprus ■ noun a person from Cyprus cyst /sɪst/ *noun an unusual growth in the body containing liquid. *Synonym swelling cystic fibrosis /sɪstɪk fɪ'brəʊsɪs/ noun a disease of the pancreas, a hereditary disease in which breathing and digestion are difficult cystitis /sɪ'staɪtɪs/ noun an infection of the bladder which gives a burning feeling when you pass water czar /za:/ noun 1. the title of the former emperor of Russia ○ a photograph of the Czar and his family (NOTE: The British spelling is tsar.) 2. the person in overall charge of some official organisation ○ He's the new drugs czar, with complete responsibility for fighting drug traffickers and dealing with drug problems.

D

d /di:/, D noun the fourth letter of the alphabet, between C and E

③ DA abbr district attorney

dab /dæb/ verb to give something a light tap

○ She dabbed her eyes with her handkerchief. ○ She dabbed the cut with cotton wool soaked in antiseptic. Synonym pat □ to dab

something on to apply something by pressing lightly ○ You can dab the paint on with a little brush. ■ noun 1. a small quantity ○ She put a dab of glue on each corner of the poster. 2. a little tap ○ The nurse gave the cut a dab with some cotton wool. 3. a type of small flat fish dabble /'dæb(ə)l/ verb 1. □ to dabble with or in something to be slightly involved in something ○ As a young man he dabbed in politics. 2. to play around with your hands or feet in water ○ The children dabbed their toes in the brook.

dachshund /'dæksənd/ noun a breed of small long low dog, originally from Germany daddy /'dædi/ noun a father □ the daddy of them all the best example of something daddy-long-legs /,dædi 'lɔŋ legz/ noun an insect with very long legs daffodil /'dæfədɪl/ noun a bright yellow spring flower daft /da:ft/ adj silly (informal) Antonym sensible (NOTE: dafter – dapest) dagger /'dægə/ noun a short knife □ they are at daggers drawn they are very hostile to each other ○ The MD is at daggers drawn with the rest of the directors. □ to look daggers at someone to look angrily at someone

② daily /'deili/ adj happening every day ○ daily newspapers such as 'The Times' and the 'Daily Mail'. ○ The cooker has been in daily use for ten years. ○ There's a daily flight to Washington. Synonym everyday □ daily life the things that happen to you every day □ daily routine the things which you do every day ○ Buying a newspaper on his way to work and a bar of chocolate on his way home is all part of his daily routine. ■ noun a newspaper published every weekday ○ The story was carried on the front page of most of the dailies. (NOTE: The plural is dailies.) ■ adv every day □ twice daily two times a day dainty /'deinti/ adj delicate and small. Synonym pretty. Antonym clumsy (NOTE: daintier – daintiest) dairy /'deəri/ noun a place where milk, cream and butter are processed or sold dairy farm /'deəri farm/ noun a farm which produces milk, cheese, etc.

dairy produce /'deəri ,prədju:s/ noun milk, butter, cream, etc. (NOTE: The plural is dairies.)

dais /'deɪəs/ noun a raised area at the end of a large hall. Synonym platform daisy /'derzi/ noun a small white flower with a yellow centre □ as fresh as a daisy very fresh, not tired (informal) ○ She was at a party all night, but still came into the office this morning as fresh as a daisy.

dale /deil/ noun (in the North of England) a valley. Antonym hill dally /'dæli/ verb to spend a long time doing something. Synonym linger dalmatian /dæl'meɪʃ(ə)n/ noun a large white dog with black spots dam /dæm/ noun a wall of earth or concrete which blocks a river to make a lake ○ After the rainstorm people were afraid the dam would burst. Synonym barrier ■ verb to block a river with a wall of earth or concrete

○ When they built the power station, the river had to be dammed. (NOTE: damming – dammed)

② damage /'dæmɪdʒ/ noun 1. the breaking or physical spoiling of something ○ The storm did a lot of damage. ○ It will take us months to repair the damage to the restaurant. ○ The fire caused damage estimated at £100,000. □ to suffer damage to be harmed ○ The car suffered serious damage in the collision. 2. emotional harm done to a person ○ I hope the experience won't cause the children lasting damage. ■ verb to harm something ○ A large number of shops were damaged in the fire. ○ Glasses need to be packed carefully as they are easily damaged. Synonym injure. Antonym repair damage limitation /'dæmɪdʒ limi-,teɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the act of limiting the amount of damage which will occur damages /'dæmɪdʒɪz/ plural noun payment to someone who has been hurt or whose property has been damaged damaging /'dæmɪdʒɪŋ/ adj causing harm to someone or something damask /'dæmæsk/ noun a kind of material with a pattern woven into it, often used for tablecloths dame /deɪm/ noun 1. (in a pantomime) an old woman played by a male actor ○ The dame was played by a famous boxer. 2. US a woman (informal) ○ Who's that dame I saw you with last night? 3. a title given to some women (NOTE: Dame is the equivalent to 'Sir' for men. As a title, it is written before the woman's Christian name, followed by the surname: Dame Judy Dench.)

dammit /'dæmɪt/ noun □ as near as dammit very near (informal) ○ He made £10,000, or as near as dammit.

damn /dæm/ noun □ I don't give a damn used to say emphatically that you do not care at all (informal) □ verb 1. used to show annoyance ○ Damn it, we're going to be late. ○ Damn him, he's left the front door open! 2. to severely criticise someone or something ○ The new film was damned by the Sunday papers. 3. to condemn someone or something in a religious situation ○ Galileo was damned by the Church for saying that the Earth turned round the Sun. □ interj used as a mild swear word to show annoyance ○ Damn! I've left my umbrella on the train.

damned /dæmd/ adj, adv used as a mild swear word to express annoyance (informal) □ I'll be damned if I'll allow her to do that I will certainly never let her do that □ I'll try my damnedest to get to the meeting I will do everything I can to get to the meeting damning /'dæmɪŋ/ adj which clearly proves that someone has done something wrong

③ damp /dæmp/ adj rather wet ○ She'd just had a shower and her hair was still damp. ○ The cellar has cold damp walls. (NOTE: damper – dampest) □ noun moisture in the air or on a surface ○ The damp makes my rheumatism worse. □ verb to wet something slightly ○ The dew has damped the grass.

dampen /'dæmpən/ verb 1. to make something slightly wet ○ Dampen the cloth before you wipe the floor. ○ She dampened the shirts before ironing them. 2. □ to dampen someone's enthusiasm to do something to make someone less enthusiastic ○ The bad weather dampened his enthusiasm for sailing.

damper /'dæmpə/ noun 1. something which discourages you ○ Having just been sacked put a damper on his birthday party. 2. a plate at the back of a fireplace which regulates the draught 3. (in Australia) a flat bread made from flour and water cooked on a fire dampness /'dæmpnəs/ noun the fact of being damp. Synonym humidity damson /'dæmzən/ noun 1. a small purple plum ○ a pot of damson jam 2. a tree which bears this fruit ○ We planted a damson in our garden.

② dance /da:nsl/ noun 1. a way of moving in time to music ○ She teaches dance or is a dance teacher. ○ We learnt a new dance today. ○ Scottish dances are very lively. 2. an evening entertainment for a group of people where you can dance ○ The club is holding a New Year's dance. ○ They met at a youth club dance. □ verb 1. to move in time to music ○ There he is – he's dancing with that tall girl. ○ She often goes to discos but never dances. 2. to move or jump around happily ○ She danced into the room and announced she'd got the job. ○ The football fans were dancing in the streets.

dance floor /'dɑ:ns flɔ:/ noun a specially polished floor for dancing on

③ dancer /'da:nsə/ noun a person who dances

② dancing /'da:nsɪŋ/ noun the action of moving to music (NOTE: no plural) dandelion /'dændɪlɪən/ noun a wild plant, with yellow flowers which have a mass of little narrow petals dandruff /'dændrəf/ noun small pieces of dry skin which come off your head dandy /'dændi/ noun a man who is very interested in clothes (dated) (NOTE: The plural is dandies.)

Dane /deɪn/ noun a person from Denmark.

► Great Dane

② danger /'deɪndʒə/ noun the possibility of something bad happening, e.g. damage, failure or getting hurt ○ When it rains, there's a danger of flooding. ○ The broken window is a danger to office security. ○ There's a danger we won't get there in time. ○ We were warned of the dangers of travelling alone in the desert. □ out of danger, off the danger list not likely to die ○ She was very ill, but she's off the danger list now.

danger money /'deɪndʒə ,mʌni/ noun a payment for a dangerous job

② dangerous /'deɪndʒərəs/ adj which can cause injury or damage ○ Be careful – that old staircase is dangerous! ○ Those electric wires are dangerous. ○ Children are warned that it is dangerous to go out alone at night.

dangerously /'deɪndʒərəsli/ adv in a dangerous way □ to be dangerously ill to be very ill dangle /'dæŋgəl/ verb 1. to hang freely ○ The fish dangled at the end of his line. ○ Dirty sheets were dangling over the balcony.

2. to make something hang freely ○ She dangled the puppet in front of the baby.

① Danish /'deɪnɪʃ/ adj referring to Denmark ■ noun the language spoken in Denmark

Danish pastry /,deɪnɪʃ 'peɪstri/ noun a sweet pastry cake with jam or fruit folded in it (NOTE: also called simply a Danish: an apple Danish) dank /dæŋk/ adj cold and damp. Synonym damp. Antonym humid dappled /'dæp(ə)ld/ adj covered with patches of light and dark colour. Synonym speckled ② dare /deə/ verb 1. to be brave enough to do something ○ I bet you wouldn't dare put your hand into the cage and stroke that tiger. □ I dare say very probably ○ I dare say you're right. □ to dare not do something to not be brave enough to do something ○ I daren't go out or I don't dare go out or I dare not go out into the street while that man is standing there. 2. to challenge someone to do something by suggesting it is cowardly not to do it ○ I dared him to go the meeting in his pink tracksuit. 3. used for telling someone how angry you are ○ Don't you dare do that again! ○ How dare you look in my desk drawers! ■ noun the act of challenging someone to do something ○ He only climbed on the roof for a dare.

daredevil /'deɪdev(ə)l/ adj not worrying about danger ○ His daredevil act on the tightrope. Synonym reckless. Antonym staid ■ noun a brave person who does not worry about danger ○ He's a daredevil – he flew his plane under Tower Bridge. Antonym stick-in-the-mud daring /'deərɪŋ/ adj brave, but foolish at the same time ○ That was a very daring thing to do. ○ It was very daring of you to ask the boss for the day off. ■ noun bravery ○ The helicopter pilot showed great daring in trying to rescue the boy from the cliff. Synonym bravery. Antonym cowardice (NOTE: no plural)

① dark /dɑ:k/ adj 1. with little or no light ○ The sky turned dark and it started to rain. ○ Can you switch the light on – it's getting too dark to see. ○ In Scotland in the summer it gets dark very late. 2. not a light colour ○ Her eyes are dark. ○ She was wearing a dark blue coat. 3. with black or brown hair ○ He's quite dark, but his sister has red hair. 4. □ to keep something dark to keep something a secret ○ They kept their plans dark from the rest of the family. ○ Keep it dark! – I don't want anyone to know about it. ■ noun 1. the absence of light ○ Little children are afraid of the dark. ○ They say cats can see in the dark. ○ In the dark, everything looks different. □ after dark at night-time ○ You must put on your car lights after dark. 2. □ in the dark not knowing anything about something ○ I'm completely in the dark about the whole business. ○ We want to keep everyone in the dark about our plans.

dark chocolate /dɑ:k 'tʃɒklət/ noun dark brown chocolate which is quite bitter. Synonym plain chocolate darken /'da:kən/ verb to become dark. Synonym blacken. Antonym brighten darkened /'da:kənd/ adj which has been made dark dark glasses /dɑ:k 'glɑ:sɪz/ plural noun glasses with lenses made of dark glass, for wearing in sunshine. Also called shades dark horse /dɑ:k 'hɔ:s/ noun a person you know nothing about and who may win something such as an election or a race darkly /'dɑ:klɪ/ adv in a threatening or frightening way

③ darkness /'dɑ:knəs/ noun the fact of not having any light. Synonym dark □ the building was in complete or total darkness there were no electric lights on in the building darling /'dɑ:lrɪŋ/ adj lovely, which you can love ○ What a darling little car! Synonym wonderful. Antonym horrible ■ noun 1. a name used to talk to someone you love ○ Darling! I'm back from the shops. 2. a lovable person ○ She's an absolute darling! ○ Be a darling and fetch me the newspaper.

darn /dɑ:n/ verb to mend holes in clothes ○ She hates darning socks. Synonym sew ■ noun a place where clothes have been mended ○ You can easily see the darns because you used a different colour wool.

dart /dɑ:t/ noun a small heavy arrow with plastic feathers, used for playing the game of darts ○ Each player takes a turn to throw his or her three darts. ■ verb to rush somewhere ○ The little boy darted across the street. ○ We sat by the river and watched the dragonflies darting about in the rushes. Antonym saunter darts /dɑ:ts/ noun a game for two or more people, played by each player throwing three darts in turn at a round board (NOTE: not plural, and takes a singular verb)

Darwinism /'dɑ:wɪnɪz(ə)m/ noun a theory of evolution developed by the scientist Charles Darwin dash /dæʃ/ noun 1. a small amount ○ tomato juice with a dash of sauce 2. a little line in writing or printing, showing a space or to separate items ○ The reference number is one four six dash seven (146-7). 3. a sudden rush ○ There was a mad dash to buy tickets. ○ While the policeman wasn't looking she made a dash for the door. (NOTE: The plural is dashes) ■ verb to rush somewhere ○ I can't stop now – I must dash to catch the last post. ○ I dashed home to watch the football on television. ○ She dashed into a shop so that he wouldn't see her.

dashboard /'dæʃbɔ:d/ noun the instrument panel in a car dashing /'dæʃɪŋ/ adj very smart and forceful

① data /'deɪtə/ noun statistical information
○ The data is stored in our main computer. ○ We spent months gathering data on hospital waiting times. ○ The data shows that, on average, germination takes place after two weeks. (NOTE: Data is often used with a singular verb, except in scientific contexts: The data is easily available.) data bank /'deɪtə bæŋk/ noun a store of computerised information

② database /'deɪtəbeɪs/ noun data stored in a computer, which can be used to provide information of various kinds. Synonym data bank

③ data processing /,deɪtə 'prəʊsesɪŋ/ noun the selecting and examining of data in a computer to produce information in a special form. Also called information processing data protection /'deɪtə prə,tekʃən/ noun the practice of making sure that computerised information about people does not get into the wrong hands data retrieval /'deɪtə rɪ'trɪv(ə)l/ noun the act of getting back data which is stored in a computer

① date /deɪt/ noun 1. the number of a day in a month or year, or a day when something will happen or happened in the past ○ Put today's date on the cheque. ○ What's the date next Wednesday? ○ The dates of the exhibition have been changed. ○ The date of the next meeting has been fixed for Wednesday, June 10th. ○ Do you remember the date of your girlfriend's birthday? □ departure date, date of departure the day on which you leave somewhere 2. a time agreed for a meeting, usually between romantic partners
○ We made a date to meet at the Italian restaurant. ○ He asked her out on a date. □ a blind date a meeting arranged between two people who have never met before 3. a small sweet brown fruit of the date palm □ verb 1. to write the date on something ○ The cheque was dated the 15th of June. ○ You forgot to date the cheque. 2. □ to date from or back to to exist since ○ This house dates from or dates back to the 17th century. 3. to give the date of something, e.g. an old piece of wood, a monument or an antique ○ The bowl has been dated to 1500 BC. 4. especially US to agree to meet someone regularly as a romantic partner ○ He's dating my sister. 5. to become old-fashioned ○ Little black dresses don't date.

dated /'deɪtɪd/ adj 1. with a date written on it ○ Thank you for your letter dated June 15th. 2. old-fashioned ○ That advertisement looks a bit dated now.

date line /'deɪtlain/ noun an imaginary line in the Pacific Ocean which marks the change in date from east to west

dateline /'deɪtlain/ noun (in a newspaper) a heading with the date and place showing where a report from a foreign correspondent has come from

③ date of birth /,deɪt əv 'bɜ:θ/ noun the date on which someone was born date rape noun the act of raping someone you know, especially on a date □ verb to rape someone you know, especially on a date date stamp /'deɪt stæmp/ noun a device with rubber figures which can be moved, used for marking the date on documents or for marking the sell-by date on goods daub verb to put a substance such as paint on a surface in a careless way □ noun a small amount of a substance such as paint put on a surface in a careless way ① daughter /'dɔ:tə/ noun a female child of a parent ○ They have two sons and one daughter. ○ My daughter Mary goes to the local school.

daughter-in-law /'dɔ:tər ɪn lɔ:/ noun the wife of a son (NOTE: The plural is daughters-in-law) daunt /dɔ:nt/ verb to discourage or frighten someone. Antonym encourage □ nothing daunted not discouraged at all ○ He saw the crocodile and, nothing daunted, continued to walk along the river bank.

daunting /'dɔ:ntɪŋ/ adj which seems very difficult. Synonym intimidating dawdle /'dɔ:d(ə)l/ verb to do something slowly

dawn /dɔ:n/ noun 1. the beginning of a day, when the sun rises ○ We must set off for the Pyramids at dawn, so you'll have to get up very early. □ at the crack of dawn as soon as it starts to be light ○ The plane leaves at 6.30 a.m. – it means I'll have to get up at the crack of dawn. 2. the beginning of something ○ the dawn of civilisation □ verb 1. (of day) to begin ○ The day of the cricket match dawned wet and windy. 2. □ it dawned on him that he began to realise that ○ It gradually dawned on him that someone else was opening his letters.

① day /deɪ/ noun 1. a period of time lasting 24 hours ○ There are 365 days in a year and 366 in a leap year. ○ New Year's Day is January 1st. ○ They went on a ten-day tour of southern Spain. ○ I spoke to him on the phone the day before yesterday. ○ We are planning to meet the day after tomorrow. □ what day is it today? is it Monday, Tuesday, etc.? 2. □ every other day every two days (i.e., on Monday, Wednesday, Friday, etc.) ○ He phones his mother every other day. □ the other day quite recently ○ The other day I went for a walk by the river. □ one or some day at some time in the future ○ One day we'll have enough money to go on holiday. 3. the period from morning until night, when it is light ○ She works all day in the office, and then looks after the children in the evening. ○ It took the workmen four days to build the wall. 4. the work period from morning to night □ she took two days off she did not come to work for two days □ he works three days on, two days off he works for three days, then has two days' holiday □ to work an eight-hour day to spend eight hours at work each day □ to work a four-day week to work four days each week 5. □ those were the days they were good times we had in the past ○ Do you remember spending all night going round the bars in Hamburg? – Ah! those were the days! □ these days at the present time ○ These days the bus service seems to get slower and slower.

daybreak /'deɪbreɪk/ noun a time in the very early morning, when the sun is about to rise. Synonym dawn. Antonym dusk day care /'deɪ keə/ noun the practice of looking after people, e.g. small children or old people during the daytime in a special centre day centre /'deɪ ,sentə/ noun a place where old or disabled people can meet and be looked after during the day daydream /'deɪdrɪm/ noun a dream which you have during the day when you are not asleep ○ He was sitting in a daydream, with the guidebook on his lap. Synonym reverie ■ verb to think about other things; not to concentrate ○ He was sitting at his desk daydreaming about holidays in Greece. Synonym dream daylight /'deɪlɪt/ noun light during the daytime □ to arrive in daylight to arrive before it gets dark □ in broad daylight openly, in the middle of the day ○ Three men robbed the bank in broad daylight.

daylight robbery /,deɪlɪt 'rɒbəri/ noun the practice of charging very high prices (informal)

Daylight Saving Time /,deɪlɪt 'seɪvɪŋ taɪm/ noun same as Summer Time (NOTE: no plural) day nursery /'deɪ ,nɜ:s(ə)ri/ noun a nursery which is open during the daytime day of reckoning /,deɪ əv 'rekənɪŋ/ noun a time when you have to pay for your mistakes day release /deɪ ri'li:s/ noun a system by which an employee is allowed time from work to attend a course of study ③ daytime /'deɪtaɪm/ noun a period of light between morning and night. Synonym day □ during or in the daytime when it is light ○ He sleeps during the daytime because he works at night.

day-to-day /,deɪ tə 'deɪ/ adj taking place as part of normal life; which goes on all the time. Synonym everyday. Antonym unusual day trip /'deɪ tri:p/ noun a journey lasting one day. Synonym excursion daze /deɪz/ noun □ in a daze confused, not mentally alert ○ He stumbled out of the room in a daze. ○ He was wandering around in an alcoholic daze. ■ verb to make someone confused ○ He was dazed by the news that he had won the lottery.

dazed /deɪzd/ adj confused in the mind. Synonym confused dazzle /'dæz(ə)l/ noun a bright light ○ The dazzle of the headlights on the wet road caused the driver to swerve. Synonym glare (NOTE: no plural) ■ verb to blind someone for a moment ○ She was dazzled by the lights of the cars coming towards her.

dazzling /'dæzɪlɪŋ/ adj (of a light) very bright dble abbr double

DC abbr direct current deacon /'di:kən/ noun a priest who is lower in rank than a parish priest deactivate /di:'æktɪveɪt/ verb to make something such as a bomb not active any more

① dead /ded/ adj 1. not alive any more ○ His parents are both dead. ○ Dead fish were floating in the water. ○ He brushed the dead leaves into piles. ○ Six people were dead as a result of the accident. □ wouldn't be seen dead in would not ever want to be seen in (informal) ○ I wouldn't be seen dead in a hat like that. ○ A really cultivated person wouldn't be seen dead in a karaoke bar. □ as dead as a dodo completely dead or no longer able to function (informal) ○ The plan is as dead as a dodo now that the banks have refused their support. □ to drop dead to die suddenly ○ He dropped dead in the middle of the High Street. 2. complete ○ There was dead silence in the exam room. ○ The train came to a dead stop. 3. not working □ the line went dead the telephone line suddenly stopped working ○ I was talking on the phone when suddenly the line went dead. 4. not lively, not exciting ○ Seaside towns can be quite dead in winter. ■ adv 1. completely ○ He was dead tired after his long walk. 2. exactly ○ You're dead right. ○ The train arrived dead on time. ■ noun □ the dead dead people ○ a memorial to the dead of the two World Wars dead beat /'ded 'bi:t/ adj tired out (informal) ○ I was dead beat after moving all those boxes of books. Synonym spent ■ noun a lazy unsuccessful person, who has no money (slang insult) deaden /'dedn/ verb to make something less intense, e.g. to make a sound quieter or a pain less painful. Synonym soften dead end /'ded 'end/ noun 1. a street or way which leads nowhere ○ We drove into a little street and found it was a dead end. 2. a point at which you can go no further ○ All their research has come to a dead end.

dead-end job /'ded end 'dʒnb/ noun a job where there is no hope of promotion dead heat /'ded 'hɪt/ noun a race where two people arrive first together deadline /'dedlæn/ noun a date by which something has to be done. Synonym time limit □ to meet a deadline to finish something in time ○ I don't think we can meet the deadline. □ to miss a deadline not to finish something in time ○ They worked as fast as they could but missed the deadline by two days.

deadlock /'dedlk/ noun a point at which two sides in a dispute cannot agree ○ The negotiations have reached a deadlock. Synonym impasse □ to break a deadlock to find a way to start discussions again after being at a point at which no agreement was possible ■ verb to be unable to agree to continue negotiations ○ Talks have been deadlocked for ten days.

③ deadly /'dedli/ adj, adv 1. which will kill ○ Don't eat those mushrooms – they're deadly poisonous. ○ The female spider is deadlier than the male. 2. very serious or bitter ○ They are deadly rivals. ○ He was deadly serious. (NOTE: deadlier – deadliest) deadpan adj, adv not showing your feelings in your face dead wood /'wud/ noun people or things that are considered to be of no worth ② deaf /def/ adj not able to hear, or having difficulty in hearing ○ My grandma is going deaf. ○ He's deaf than he used to be. (NOTE: Some people avoid this term as it can cause offence and prefer hearing-impaired.) □ to be stone deaf to be completely deaf □ to turn a deaf ear to something not to agree to what someone is asking for ■ noun □ the deaf people who cannot hear ○ Their son goes to a school for the deaf.

deaf-and-dumb /,def ən 'dʌm/ adj not able to hear or speak (dated) (NOTE: Some people avoid this term as it can cause offence.)

deafen /'def(ə)n/ verb to make someone deaf for a time deafening /'def(ə)nɪŋ/ adj so loud as to make you unable to hear. Antonym noiseless deaf mute /def 'mju:t/ noun a person who cannot hear or speak (dated offensive) deafness /'defnəs/ noun the state of being deaf (NOTE: no plural)

① deal /di:l/ noun 1. □ a good or great deal much ○ He's feeling a good deal better after two days off work. ○ She didn't say a great deal. □ a good deal or great deal of a lot of ○ He made a good deal of money from his business. ○ There's a great deal of work still to be done. 2. a business affair, an agreement or contract ○ We've signed a deal with a German firm. ○ They did a deal to supply envelopes. ○ The sales director set up a deal with a Russian bank. □ a bad or rough or raw deal bad treatment ○ She got a rough deal from the firm. 3. wood from a pine tree ○ a deal table ■ verb 1. □ to deal in something to buy and sell something ○ She deals in carpets and rugs imported from India. 2. to hand out playing cards to players ○ It's my turn to deal. ○ He dealt me two aces. (NOTE: dealing – dealt /delt/)

③ dealer /'di:lə/ noun a person who buys and sells things. Synonym trader dealership /'di:ləʃɪp/ noun 1. the authorisation to sell certain products or services ○ He was granted a dealership for Ford cars. 2. a business run by an authorised dealer ○ He has a large car dealership.

dealing /'di:lin/ noun the practice of buying and selling things dealings /'di:linz/ plural noun business or affairs

③ deal with /'di:l wið/ verb 1. to concern yourself with or handle something or someone ○ The job involves dealing with the public. ○ Leave it to the filing clerk – he'll deal with it. ○ We will deal with your order as soon as we can. ○ The government has to deal with the problem of teenage crime. 2. to be about a subject ○ The report deals with travel insurance.

dean /di:n/ noun 1. a person in charge of priests in a cathedral ○ He was appointed Dean of St Paul's. 2. a person in charge of teachers at a university ○ The Dean of the Arts Faculty

① dear /diə/ adj 1. well liked, loved ○ She's a very dear friend of mine. ○ We had a letter from dear old Mrs Smith. 2. □ Dear Sir or Madam addressing a man or woman whom you do not know, or addressing a company (used at the beginning of a letter) □ Dear Sirs addressing a company □ Dear Mr or Mrs or Miss or Ms Smith addressing a man or woman whom you know □ Dear James or Julia addressing a friend or a person you do business with 3. costing a lot of money ○

*Fresh fruit is always dearer in the winter. ○ That restaurant is too dear for me. (NOTE: dearer – dearest) ■ interj meaning how annoying ○ Oh dear! It's started to rain. ○ Dear me! Is that how late it is! ■ noun a way of referring to someone you like ○ *Be a dear, and pass me my glasses. ○ Did you have a good day at the office, dear?

dearest /'dɪərəst/ adj most loved (dated) dearly /'dɪəli/ adv 1. very much ○ I'd dearly like to go to Cuba on holiday. ○ She loved her old cat dearly, and was very sad when he died. 2. at a high cost, especially in terms of pain or suffering ○ She became a highly paid executive, but paid dearly for the privilege.

dearth /dɜːθ/ noun a shortage of something. Synonym lack. Antonym glut ① death /deθ/ noun 1. the act of dying or the state of being dead ○ She never got over her mother's death. ○ Road accidents caused over 1,000 deaths last year. □ to put someone to death to execute someone 2. □ to death completely (informal) ○ He was bored to death sitting watching football on television. ○ I am sick to death of always having to do the housework.

deathbed /'deθbed/ noun a bed on which someone is dying death certificate /'deθ sə,tifikət/ noun a paper signed by a doctor which shows that someone has died and what was the cause of death death duty /'deθ ,dju:tɪ/ noun US a tax paid on the value of the things left by a dead person (NOTE: The British term is inheritance tax.)

deathly /'deθli/ adv as if dead ○ As she read the letter she turned deathly pale. Synonym extremely. Antonym slightly ■ adj like death ○ He gave a cheery 'Hello there!' as he walked in, only to be greeted by a deathly silence. Synonym deadly death penalty /'deθ ,pen(ə)lti/ noun a legal sentence of a criminal to be executed death rate /'deθ reɪt/ noun the percentage of deaths per thousand of population death sentence /'deθ ,sentəns/ noun a punishment of a court by which a person is sentenced to be executed death squad /'deθ skwəd/ noun a group of soldiers or other armed people, who are sent to kill enemies of the people in power death throes /'deθ ðrəʊz/ plural noun great suffering just before death death toll /'deθ təʊl/ noun the number of people who have been killed, e.g. in an accident or an earthquake deathtrap /'deθtræp/ noun a dangerous place (informal) débâcle /de'bæk(ə)l/ noun a sudden defeat or collapse debar /dɪ'ba:/ verb to prevent someone from doing something debase /dr'beɪs/ verb to reduce the worth or the quality of something debatable /dr'beitəb(ə)l/ adj not absolutely certain. Synonym arguable. Antonym settled

① debate /dɪ'beit/ noun 1. a discussion ○ After his talk the professor had a lively debate with the students. ○ There has been some debate among experts about whether global warming is really taking place. 2. a formal discussion ending with a vote ○ a debate on increasing student fees ■ verb 1. to consider or discuss a subject 2. to discuss something carefully before coming to a decision ○ We sat in the rain and debated what to do next.

debauched /dɪ'bɔ:tʃtʃt/ adj spending your life in wild living and sexual pleasure. Synonym decadent debauchery /dɪ'bɔ:tʃəri/ noun the fact of living a wild life. Antonym morality debilitating /dɪ'bilitɪtɪŋ/ adj which makes you weak debit /'debit/ noun 1. money which is paid out or taken out of an account ○ Your bank statement gives a list of credits and debits at the end of each month. 2. money which is owed ○ a debit balance ■ verb □ to debit money to an account, to debit an account with money to deduct money from an account ○ The whole bill was debited to my account. ○ My account was debited with the whole bill. ◇ on the debit side 1. owing 2. reasons for not doing something debit card /'debit ka:d/ noun a plastic card, similar to a credit card, but which automatically debits your account when you buy something debrief verb to ask someone for information about an important job which he or she has just done ■ noun same as debriefing debriefing /di:'bri:fɪŋ/ noun a meeting at which someone gives information about an important job which he or she has just done. Synonym debrief debris /'debrɪ/ noun pieces of something, e.g. a demolished building or crashed aircraft. Synonym wreckage (NOTE: no plural)

② debt /det/ noun money owed to someone ○ Her debts are mounting up. □ to be in debt to owe money ○ He is in debt to the tune of £2,500. □ to get into debt to start to owe money □ to be out of debt not to owe money any more. ♦ in the red debt collector /'det kə,lektə/ noun a person who collects money owed to other people

③ debtor /'detɔ:/ noun a person who owes money. Synonym borrower debt relief /'det ri:lif/ noun the practice of a rich country allowing a poor country not to pay back its debt debug /di:'bʌg/ verb 1. to remove hidden microphones from a place 2. to remove errors from a computer program (NOTE: debugged) debunk /di:'bʌŋk/ verb to show that something is not true debut /'debrju:/ noun the first public appearance of someone such as an actor

② decade /'dekeɪd/ noun a period of ten years ○ during the last decade of the 20th century decadent /'dekəd(ə)nt/ adj which is declining in moral values. Synonym debauched decaf, decaff /nɔ:/ noun /'di:kæf/ a drink, e.g. coffee or cola, which has had the caffeine removed ■ adj which has had the caffeine removed decaffeinated /di:'kæfɪneɪtɪd/ adj with all caffeine removed decamp /dɪ'kæmp/ verb to go away unexpectedly. Synonym run away decant /dɪ'kænt/ verb to pour wine from a bottle into another container, so as to remove the sediment. Antonym fill decanter /dɪ'kæntə/ noun a glass bottle in which an alcoholic drink such as whisky or sherry is stored for a time decapitate /dɪ'kæpɪteɪt/ verb to cut off someone's head. Synonym behead decapitation /dɪ,kæpɪ'teɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the act of cutting off someone's head decathlete /dɛk'æθlɪt/ noun an athlete who competes in the decathlon decathlon /dɪ'kæθlɒn/ noun an athletic contest for men, covering ten events, held over two days decay /dɪ'keɪ/ noun the process of rotting or of falling into ruin ○ The government has plans to deal with inner city decay. ○ Tooth decay is especially bad in children who eat sweets. ○ You must treat the wood to prevent decay. (NOTE: no plural) ■ verb to rot, to fall into ruin ○ Sugar makes your teeth decay. ○ The jungle path was blocked by decaying branches.

deceased /dɪ'si:st/ noun a person who has died (formal) ○ The deceased's will was read out by the solicitor. Synonym corpse deceit /dɪ'si:t/ noun the practice of trying to trick someone into paying money or trying to make someone believe something which is not true. Synonym dishonesty (NOTE: no plural) deceitful /dɪ'si:tʃ(ə)l/ adj often tricking people. Synonym dishonest deceive /dɪ'si:v/ verb to trick someone, to make someone believe something which is not true decelerate /di:'seləreɪt/ verb (of a vehicle) to go more slowly. Synonym slow down deceleration /di:sələ'reɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the action of going more slowly

① December /dɪ'sembə/ noun the twelfth and last month of the year, after November and before January ○ December 6 ○ She was born in December. ○ His birthday is December 25th – Christmas Day! ○ They always go on a skiing holiday in December. ○ Today is December 6th. (NOTE: December 6th or December 6: say 'the sixth of December' or 'December the sixth' or in US English 'December sixth').

decency /'di:s(ə)nsi/ noun honour; good morals (NOTE: no plural)

② decent /'di:s(ə)nt/ adj 1. honest ○ The boss is a hard-working decent man. 2. quite good ○ She earns a decent salary. 3. properly dressed, wearing clothes ○ You can't come in yet – I'm not decent.

decentralise /dɪ:səntrələz/; decentralize verb to move power, authority or action from a central point to local areas. Synonym devolve. Antonym centralise

③ deception /dɪ'septʃən/ noun the practice of telling a lie in order to trick someone, especially into giving you money deceptive /dɪ'septɪv/ adj not as it seems. Antonym reliable □ appearances are deceptive things are not always what they appear to be on the surface deceptively /dɪ'septɪvli/ adv not as it seems decibel /'desibəl/ noun a unit for measuring the loudness of a sound

① decide /dɪ'saɪd/ verb to make up your mind to do something ○ Have you decided which restaurant to go to? ○ They decided to stay at home and watch TV.

② decide against /dɪ'saɪd ə,genst/ verb to make up your mind not to do something ○ She decided against spending her money on a new car.

decided /dɪ'saɪdɪd/ adj 1. □ a decided tone or manner a firm tone or manner 2. certain or obvious ○ There's a decided difference between French and Spanish wines.

decidedly /dɪ'saɪdɪdli/ adv 1. certainly ○ He's decidedly fatter than he was before he went on holiday. ○ It's decidedly colder this week. 2. in a firm manner ○ 'I'm not going with you', she said decidedly.

deciduous /dɪ'sɪdjuəs/ adj (of a tree) losing its leaves in the winter. Compare evergreen decimal /'desɪm(ə)l/ noun a fraction expressed as tenths, hundredths and thousandths ○ Three-quarters is 0.75 in decimals. □ to three places of decimals, to three decimal places with three figures shown after the decimal point ○ 67 divided by 13 gives 5.154 to three places of decimals.

decimal point /'desɪm(ə)l pɔɪnt/ noun a dot used to show the division between whole numbers and parts of numbers in decimals, such as 2.05

COMMENT: The decimal point is used in the USA and Britain: 4.75%. In most European countries a comma is used to show the decimal: 4,75%.

decimate /'desɪmeɪt/ verb 1. to kill people in large numbers. Synonym devastate 2. to reduce something by a large amount ○ German forests have been decimated by acid rain. ○ Our sales have been decimated by the rise in the value of the pound.

decipher /dɪ'saɪfə/ verb to read or make out something which has been badly written or written in code. Synonym decode. Antonym encode

① decision /dɪ'sɪʒ(ə)n/ noun the act of making up your mind to do something □ to come to or reach or take a decision to decide to do something ○ They talked for hours but didn't come to any decision. ○ He thought about the job offer, but, in the end, took the decision to stay where he was.

③ decisive /dɪ'saɪsɪv/ adj 1. firm and confident ○ He was nervous but tried to sound decisive. 2. which brings about a result ○ The second and decisive round of voting takes place next Sunday. ○ Her action was decisive in obtaining the release of the hostages.

deck /deɪk/ noun 1. a floor of a ship or bus ○ I'll stay on deck because I'm feeling seasick. ○ Let's go up to the top deck – you can see the sights better from there. 2. US a set of playing cards ○ She shuffled the deck. (NOTE: The British term is pack of cards.) 3. US a wooden platform on the outside of a house ○ We had drinks outside on the deck. 4. an apparatus for playing cassettes deckchair /'dektʃeɪə/ noun a long folding canvas chair for sitting in the sun deckhand /'dekhænd/ noun a sailor who does various jobs on the deck decking /'dekiŋ/ noun pieces of wood used to make a platform outside a house

③ declaration /,deklə'reɪʃ(ə)n/ noun an official statement

② declare /dr'kleə/ verb 1. to state something officially ○ The Senator declared his intention to run for President. ○ She was declared dead on arrival at hospital. ○ It was declared that Mrs Broom was elected chair by 46 votes. 2. to list the goods you are carrying on which you may need to pay customs duty ○ The customs officials asked him if he had anything to declare. ○ Go through the green channel if you have nothing to declare. declassified /dɪ:'klæsɪfɪəd/ adj (of information) which has been officially declared to be no longer secret

② decline /dɪ'klain/ noun the fact of going downwards ○ a welcome decline in the number of cases of pollution ○ Sales figures have gone into a sharp decline. Synonym deterioration ■ verb 1. to refuse or to turn down an invitation or offer ○ She declined their request. ○ He declined to come to lunch. 2. to become weaker ○ He declined rapidly after he went into hospital. 3. to become less in numbers or amount ○ Our sales declined over the last year. ○ The fish population has declined sharply.

decode /dɪ'kəʊd/ verb to translate a coded message into normal writing. Synonym decipher. Antonym encode decolonisation /dɪ:kɔlənəz'ɪʃ(ə)n/, decolonization noun the giving of independence to a state by the country that once controlled it decommission /,dɪ:kə'mɪʃ(ə)n/ verb to stop using something such as a weapon decompose /,dɪ:kəm'pəʊzə/ verb (of organic material) to rot. Synonym rot decomposition /,dɪ:kəm'pə'zɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the process of rotting. Synonym decay (NOTE: no plural) decompress /,dɪ:kəm'pres/ verb 1. to reduce the pressure in something 2. to expand a computer file that has been stored in a smaller space to its full size decongestant /,dɪ:kən'dʒestənt/ noun a medicine which makes something such as a blocked nose less congested deconstruct /,dɪ:kən'strʌkt/ verb to analyse the way language works in literary texts. Synonym critique

③ decorate /'dekəreɪt/ verb 1. to paint a room or a building or put new wallpaper in a room ○ She can't come to the phone – she's decorating the kitchen. 2. to cover something with pretty or colourful things to make it look attractive or to celebrate an occasion ○ The streets were decorated with flags. 3. to put icing on a cake ○ Christmas cakes are decorated with white icing. 4. to award someone a medal ○ He was decorated for bravery.

③ decoration /,deka'reɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. the action of decorating a place ○ She is in charge of the decoration of the church for the wedding. 2. the action of painting a room or building ○ The decoration of the town hall took over a year. 3. things added to make something more attractive ○ The only decoration allowed was a pattern of geometric shapes. 4. a medal ○ He went to Buckingham

Palace to receive his decoration from the Queen. ○ Old soldiers were wearing their decorations for the November 11th parade.

decorative /'dek(r)ətɪv/ adj pleasant to look at; serving as a decoration. Antonym ugly decorator /'dekorētər/ noun a person who paints the inside and outside of buildings decorum /dr'kɔ:rəm/ noun the practice of being well behaved. Synonym dignity. Antonym abandon (NOTE: no plural) decoy noun /'di:kɔɪ/ an object or a person that is placed to attract and trap something ○ When they go duck shooting, they use wooden duck decoys which they float on the water. ○ They used a woman police officer to act as a decoy to try to trap the mugger. Synonym lure ■ verb /dr'kɔɪ/ to attract and trap something or someone. Synonym entice decrease noun /'di:kri:s/ the fact of falling or becoming less ○ a decrease in traffic ○ Sales show a 10% decrease on last year. ○ There has been a decrease of 20% in applications to join the club. Synonym reduction □ to be on the decrease to be falling ○ Road accidents are on the decrease. ■ verb /di:kri:s/ to fall or become less ○ The number of road accidents is decreasing. ○ Applications to join have decreased by 20%.

decree /dr'kri:/ noun a legal order which has not been voted by a parliament ○ The President has issued a decree banning short dresses. Synonym ruling. Antonym request □ by royal decree by a decree from a king or queen ■ verb to state something as a legal order ○ The President has decreed that everyone must work on Saturdays.

decrepit /dr'krepɪt/ adj old, feeble and falling to pieces decriminalise /di:krimɪnəlaɪz/, decriminalize verb to make something or an action no longer a crime decry /dr'kraɪ/ verb to criticise something or say that something is bad. Synonym criticise. Antonym praise dedicate /'dedɪkeɪt/ verb 1. to place a church under the patronage of a saint ○ The chapel was dedicated to St Christopher in the 13th century. 2. to offer a book to someone as a mark of respect or affection ○ He dedicated his collection of poems to his wife. 3. to spend all your life doing something ○ She dedicated her life to the service of the poor.

dedicated /'dedɪkeɪtɪd/ adj 1. giving a lot of time and effort to achieve something ○ Her life was saved by the dedicated surgical team at the hospital. 2. reserved for a particular task ○ There's one dedicated graphics workstation in the network.

③ dedication /'dedɪkeɪʃn/ noun 1. spending your life doing something ○ Her dedication and hard work are admirable. 2. a note printed at the beginning of a book or play, where the author offers his or her work to someone as a mark of respect or affection deduce /dr'dju:s/ verb to conclude something from examining the evidence (formal) deduct /dr'dʌkt/ verb to remove an amount from a sum of money. Synonym subtract □ tax deducted at source tax which is removed from something, e.g. wages or interest payments, before the money is paid deductible /dr'dʌktɪb(ə)l/ adj likely to be deducted deduction /dr'dʌkʃn/ noun 1. a conclusion reached ○ Their deduction was correct.

□ by a process of deduction by looking at the evidence and reaching a conclusion 2. a sum of money which is taken away ○ There is an automatic deduction for insurance. ○ Net wages are wages after deduction of tax and social security payments.

③ deed /di:d/ noun an act, especially a noble one ○ stories of great deeds performed during the war deed poll /'dɪ:d pəʊl/ noun a legal document, signed by one party only, used when someone changes his or her name

③ deem /di:m/ verb to consider something or someone to be something (formal)

① deep /di:p/ adj 1. which goes a long way down ○ The water is very deep in the middle of the river. ○ This is the deepest lake in North America. ○ In the shallow end of the pool, the water is only a few centimetres deep. ♦ depth 2. (of a colour) dark ○ a deep brown carpet 3. felt very strongly ○ We want to express our deepest admiration for what you have done. 4. □ deep in thought absorbed by thought ○ She sat in a corner, deep in thought. 5. (of a sound) low ○ Who's been sitting on my chair? said Father Bear in his deep voice. (NOTE: deeper – deepest) ■ adv a long way down ○ The mine goes deep under the sea.

deepen /'di:pən/ verb 1. to become deeper

○ The water deepened as he walked out into the lake. 2. to make something become deeper ○ They're going to deepen the channel so that bigger boats can use the harbour. 3. to become more difficult to understand ○ The mystery deepened.

deep end /'dip end/ noun the end of a swimming pool where the water is deep □ to throw someone in at the deep end to give someone a difficult job to start with, to start someone on a new job without any preparation (informal)

○ When she started her teaching career she was thrown in at the deep end by having to teach a class of 15-year-old boys. □ to go off the deep end to get very annoyed (informal) ○ He went off the deep end when he heard that his car had been stolen again.

deep-freeze /dī:p 'fri:z/ noun a freezer, a refrigerator for freezing food and keeping it frozen ○ I'll put the chicken in the deep-freeze until next week. ■ verb to freeze food and keep it frozen ○ We deep-freeze a lot of the vegetables from our garden. ○ He bought some deep-frozen shrimps.

deep-fried /,dī:p 'fraɪd/ adj which has been cooked in a deep pan of boiling oil or fat deep-fry /dī:p 'fraɪ/ verb to cook food in deep boiling oil or fat

③ deeply /'dī:pli/ adv 1. very much ○ We deeply regret having to make so many people redundant. 2. □ to sleep deeply to sleep without waking ○ After taking the drug she slept deeply for ten hours.

deep-rooted /,dī:p 'ru:tɪd/ adj which you have had for a long time and which you feel strongly deep-sea /'dī:p 'sī:/ adj in the deepest part of the sea deep-seated /,dī:p 'sī:tɪd/ adj that has lasted a long time and will be difficult to change. Synonym innate deep-set /,dī:p 'set/ adj (of eyes) which have deep sockets

Deep South /dī:p 'sauθ/ noun the Southern States of the United States deer /dīə/ noun a wild animal of which the male has long horns or antlers, and which is often hunted (NOTE: Do not confuse with dear. The plural is deer; the female is a doe, the male is a stag, the young are fawns. Note also that the meat from a deer is called venison.)

deface /dī'feɪs/ verb to damage the surface of something by writing on or scratching it. Synonym damage. Antonym renovate de facto /dē 'fæktoʊ/ adj 'in fact', existing in fact, even though perhaps not legally. Compare de jure defamation /,defə'meʃn/ noun □ defamation of character the act of ruining someone's character by saying or writing rude things about him or her defamatory /dī'fæmət(ə)rɪ/ adj which is done to ruin someone's reputation. Synonym insulting. Antonym complimentary default /dī:fɔ:lt/ noun 1. □ to be in default to have failed to carry out the terms of a contract 2. a set way of working ■ verb to fail to carry out the terms of a contract □ to default on payments not to make payments which are due ○ He paid his mortgage regularly for six months and then defaulted on the payments.

defaulter /dī'fɔltə/ noun 1. a person who defaults ○ There are heavy penalties for defaulters. 2. (in the army) a soldier who is being punished

③ defeat /dī'fi:t/ noun the loss of a fight, vote or game ○ The government suffered a defeat in Parliament last night. ○ It was the team's first defeat for two years. ■ verb to beat someone in a fight, game or vote ○ The proposal was defeated by 10 votes to 3. ○ The ruling party was heavily defeated in the presidential election. ○ Our team has not been defeated so far this season.

defecate /'defekeɪt/ verb to pass waste matter from the bowels through the anus (formal) Synonym excrete defecation /,defə'keɪʃn/ noun the action of defecating defect noun /'dī:fekt/ a fault ○ There must be a defect in the computer program. Synonym flaw ■ verb /dī'fekt/ □ to defect (to the enemy) to leave your country and join the enemy ○ She defected while on a tour of South East Asia.

defection /dī'fekʃn/ noun the act of leaving your country or party and going over to the side of the enemy or opposition defective /dī'fektɪv/ adj faulty defector /dī'fektə/ noun a person who defects to the enemy. Synonym traitor. Antonym loyalist

① defence /dī'fens/ noun 1. protection against something, e.g. attack or infection. ○ Several people ran to her defence when she was attacked by muggers. ○ These tablets offer a limited defence against the disease. 2. protection provided by the armed forces ○ Some countries spend more on defence than on education. □ the Ministry of Defence the government department dealing with the army, navy and air force 3. (in games) a part of a team whose job is to protect the goal ○ The England defence came under attack from the Brazilian forwards. 4. □ a defence counsel lawyer who represents the defendant in a lawsuit 5. (in a law court) the lawyers acting for the accused person (NOTE: [all senses] The US spelling is defense.)

defenceless /dī'fensləs/ adj not able to protect yourself (NOTE: The US spelling is defenseless.)

defences /dī'fensiz/ plural noun walls, trenches, etc., which are made to protect something (NOTE: The US spelling is defenses.) □ when your defences are down when you are not prepared for an attack ○ Pickpockets often strike when you're relaxing and your defences are down.

① defend /dī'fend/ verb 1. to protect someone who is being attacked ○ He jumped forward to defend his wife against the robbers. ○ She couldn't defend herself against the assault. 2. (in a law court) to speak on behalf of an accused person ○ He hired the best lawyers to defend him. ○ the barrister who is defending my uncle □ to defend a lawsuit to appear in court to state your case when accused of something 3. to write or speak in support of something ○ There is no point in trying to defend the committee's action.

② defendant /dɪ'fendənt/ noun (in a law court) a person who is accused of doing something illegal or a person who is sued in a civil case

COMMENT: In a civil case, the defendant faces a complaint from the claimant. In a criminal case, the defendant (also called the accused) is being prosecuted for a crime by the prosecution.

③ defender /dɪ'fendə/ noun 1. a person who defends a place, e.g. a castle or town ○ The defenders surrendered after 90 days, when they ran out of food. 2. a player who defends the goal ○ The defenders were continually passing the ball back to the goalkeeper.

defensive /dɪ'fensɪv/ adj which protects someone or something ○ They built a defensive wall around the camp. ■ noun □ to be on the defensive about something to feel you need to give reasons for having done something ○ She's always on the defensive about her decision to resign.

defer /dɪ'fɜ:/ verb 1. to put something back to a later date, to postpone something ○ to defer payment ○ The decision has been deferred until the next meeting. 2. □ to defer to someone or someone's opinion to accept someone's advice ○ She defers to her husband in everything.

deference /'def(ə)rəns/ noun respect □ in deference to or out of deference to someone or something to show respect for someone ○ In deference to his wife, who is Muslim, he refused to allow alcohol in his house. ○ She put a shawl over her head out of deference to the monastery rules.

defiance /dɪ'fɪəns/ noun a very proud action against an opponent. Synonym insubordination. Antonym compliance □ as an act of defiance to show that you are defying someone ○ He kept his hat on in church as an act of defiance. □ in defiance of someone or something acting proudly against someone or something ○ Their protest march took place in defiance of a police order.

defiant /dɪ'faiənt/ adj very bold in refusing to obey someone or something. Synonym disobedient. Antonym compliant deficiency /dɪ'fɪʃ(ə)nsi/ noun 1. a lack of something ○ Their diet has a deficiency in calcium or has a calcium deficiency. 2. money lacking ○ There is a £10 deficiency in the petty cash. 3. □ the deficiencies of a system faults which make a system work badly deficient /dɪ'fɪʃ(ə)nt/ adj □ to be deficient in something to lack something ○ The soil is deficient in important nutrients. ○ Their diet is deficient in calcium or they have a calcium-deficient diet.

deficit /'defɪsɪt/ noun an amount by which expenditure is more than receipts in a company's or a country's accounts. Synonym shortfall. Antonym surplus □ to make good a deficit to put money into an account to balance it □ a country's balance of payments or trade deficit a situation when a country imports more than it exports ○ The UK's balance of payments deficit has fallen by £2 billion.

defile noun /'dɪ:fɪl/ a narrow path between mountains ○ They were ambushed in a mountain defile and killed. ■ verb /dɪ'fɪl/ to make something corrupt or no longer pure ○ Soldiers defiled the holy temple.

② define /dɪ'fain/ verb 1. to explain something clearly or to give the meaning of something ○ How would you define an environmentalist? ○ The memo tried to define the way in which the two departments should work together. 2. to indicate the limits of something ○ The police operate within limits that have been clearly defined.

defined /dɪ'faɪnd/ adj 1. which has been described exactly ○ The committee works within carefully defined terms of reference. 2. clear, not blurred ○ The trees stood sharply defined against the snow of the hills behind.

③ definite /'def(ə)nət/ adj very clear or sure ○ I need a definite answer. ○ He was quite definite that he had seen the girl at the bus stop.

definite article /,def(ə)nət 'a:tɪk(ə)l/ noun the word 'the' in English, or a word with a similar use in another language

① definitely /'def(ə)nətlɪ/ adv certainly or surely ○ I'll definitely be there by 7 o'clock. ○ Are you coming? – definitely not!

② definition /,defɪ'mɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. the clear explanation of a word ○ A bilingual dictionary doesn't give definitions, only translations. ○ Look up the definition of 'democracy' in the dictionary. 2. (of a photograph) the quality of being clear and having sharp lines ○ The close-ups are clear, but your landscape photos lack definition. (NOTE: no plural in this meaning) definitive /dɪ'fɪnitɪv/ adj final, which cannot be improved on deflate /dɪ'flæt/ verb 1. to let the air out of something, e.g. of a tyre or balloon ○ Their hot air balloon began to deflate. 2. □ to deflate the economy to reduce activity in the economy by cutting the supply of money ○ The government may be forced to deflate the economy because of rising imports.

deflated /dɪ'fleɪtɪd/ adj feeling unhappy and lacking confidence in yourself deflation /di:'fleɪʃ(ə)n/ noun a reduction of economic activity. Antonym inflation deflect /dr'flekt/ verb to turn aside something, e.g. an arrow or a bullet, so that it goes in another direction deforestation /di;fɔr'eſteʃ(ə)n/ noun the act of cutting down trees from an area of land deform /dr'fɔ:m/ verb to change the shape of something in a way that is not attractive deformed /dr'fɔ:md/ adj having a twisted or unattractive shape deformity /dr'fɔ:miti/ noun the fact of being deformed defragment /di:fræg'ment/ verb to arrange the storage space in a computer defraud /dr'fro:d/ verb □ to defraud someone of his money to cheat someone to get his money ○ He defrauded the old lady of £10,000.

defray /dr'freɪ/ verb to provide money to pay someone's costs defrost /di:'frɒſt/ verb 1. to remove ice which has formed in a refrigerator or freezer ○ I must defrost the freezer. 2. (of frozen food) to thaw out ○ A large turkey will take 24 hours to defrost.

deft /dɛft/ adj very agile or clever with your hands. Antonym clumsy (NOTE: defter – deftest) defunct /dr'fʌŋkt/ adj which is no longer used or in existence defuse /di:'fju:z/ verb 1. to take the fuse out of a bomb so that it cannot explode ○ An army unit was brought in to defuse the bomb. 2. to make a situation less tense ○ The chairman made some jokes to try to defuse the situation. ○ The UN Secretary General has moved to try to defuse the crisis.

defy /dr'fai/ verb 1. to refuse to obey the law ○ He should never have tried to defy the university authorities. 2. □ to defy someone to do something to challenge someone to do something (formal) ○ I defy you to jump higher than that.

degenerate adj /dr'dʒen(ə)rət/ which has become morally weak or bad ○ He was shocked by the student art exhibition which he termed 'degenerate scribbling'. ■ verb /d'ɪdʒenə'reɪt/ to get worse ○ Her condition degenerated quickly once she went into hospital. ○ The celebrations rapidly degenerated into rioting. Synonym deteriorate ■ noun /dr'dʒen(ə)rət/ a person who is morally weak or bad ○ The people who did this are moral degenerates.

degrade /dr'greɪd/ verb 1. to make someone do something that is humiliating ○ She had no money but refused to degrade herself by making false social security claims. 2. to change a chemical compound into a simpler form, to decompose ○ Some plastics will degrade if left in the sun.

degrading /dr'greɪdɪŋ/ adj which makes a person like an animal. Synonym humiliating

① degree /dr'gri:/ noun 1. the division of a scale ○ an angle of 80° ○ The temperature of the water is above 20°. (NOTE: With figures, degree is usually written as the symbol °: 25° Celsius.) 2. a level ○ To what degree do you think the driver was to blame for the accident? □ to a certain degree partly ○ It's his own fault to a certain degree. 3. a diploma from a university ○ She has a degree in mathematics from Oxford. □ to have a master's degree to have gained a second, more advanced, degree from a university dehydrate /di:haɪ'dreɪt/ verb 1. to remove water from something 2. to lose water from the body dehydrated /di:haɪ'dreɪtɪd/ adj 1. (of food) which has had all the water removed from it 2. (of a person) who has lost water from the body ○ After two days without food or drink, he became severely dehydrated.

dehydration /di:haɪ'dreɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the process of becoming dehydrated de-ice /di: 'ais/ verb to remove the ice from something. Antonym ice up deification /,deɪfɪk'teɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the process of making someone into a god. Synonym elevation deign /deɪn/ verb to be gracious enough to do something. Synonym descend deity /'deɪti/ noun a god. Synonym divinity (NOTE: The plural is deities.)

déjà vu /,deɪʒə 'vu:/ adv a feeling that you have already seen something before ○ When he came into the room, he immediately had a feeling of déjà vu.

dejected /dr'dʒekɪtɪd/ adj very unhappy or discouraged de jure /de 'dʒʊəri/ adj by law or as a matter of law, where the legal title is clear. Compare de facto

② delay /di'leɪ/ noun the length of time that something is late ○ There will be a delay of ten minutes before the meeting starts. ○ We are sorry for the delay in replying to your letter. ■ verb 1. to make someone or something late ○ The train has been delayed by fog. ○ He was delayed because his taxi had an accident. 2. to put something off until later ○ We will delay making a decision until we see the result of the election. ○ The company has delayed payment of all invoices.

delegate noun /'delɪgət/ a person who represents others at a meeting ○ The minister met delegates from the union. ■ verb /'delɪ,gɪt/ to pass authority or responsibility on to someone else ○ She finds it difficult to delegate. ○ He delegated the job of locking up the shop to the junior manager.

delegation /də'lɪgəʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. a group of representatives ○ The minister met a union delegation. 2. the act of passing authority or responsibility on to someone else ○ The secret of good management is delegation. (NOTE: no plural in this meaning)

③ delete /dɪ'lɪt/ verb to cut out part of something, e.g. a document or a computer file. Synonym erase. Antonym insert deletion /dɪ'lɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. the action of deleting something ○ The court asked for the deletion of several sentences from the magazine article. ○ She made several deletions to the original text. 2. a word or phrase which has been deleted ○ In spite of all the deletions, the article is still too long.

deli /'deli/ noun same as delicatessen (informal)

③ deliberate adj /dɪ'lɪb(ə)rət/ 1. slow and thoughtful in speaking or doing something ○ She has a very deliberate way of signing her name. 2. done on purpose ○ It was a deliberate attempt to spoil her birthday party. ■ verb /dɪ'lɪbəreɪt/ 1. to debate or discuss something ○ The council were deliberating all morning. ○ The jury left the courtroom to deliberate. 2. to think carefully about something ○ I'll need some time to deliberate on the possible ways of solving the problem.

③ deliberately /dɪ'lib(ə)rətlɪ/ adv 1. on purpose ○ It was an accident – I didn't hit her deliberately. ○ He deliberately left the cage door open. 2. slowly and thoughtfully ○ She walked deliberately up the steps onto the platform.

deliberation /dɪ'lɪbə'reɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. great care ○ He moved his king with great deliberation and leant back with a smile. 2. a discussion ○ After lengthy deliberations the meeting voted on the proposal. ○ Did their deliberations produce any result?

delicacy /'delɪkəsɪ/ noun 1. sensitivity ○ It is a question which has to be handled with great delicacy. 2. the state of being delicate ○ The delicacy of the glasses means that they have to be handled very carefully. (NOTE: no plural in meanings 1 and 2) 3. an unusual and tasty thing to eat ○ They bought all sorts of delicacies for the Christmas party. (NOTE: The plural in this meaning is delicacies.)

delicate /'delɪkət/ adj 1. easily damaged ○ a delicate china vase 2. liable to get illnesses ○ Little babies are very delicate. ○ She was a delicate child. 3. very soft and fine ○ a delicate silk blouse 4. possibly difficult ○ He is in a delicate situation. 5. very sensitive and precise ○ Only the most delicate instruments can register the sound.

delicately /'delɪkətlɪ/ adv with great care delicatessen /,dəlikə'tes(ə)n/ noun a shop selling cold meats and imported food products delicious /dɪ'lɪʃəs/ adj which tastes very good ○ Can I have another piece of that delicious cake?

delight /dɪ'lɪrt/ noun pleasure ○ Their singing was a pure delight. ○ The news was greeted with delight by the waiting crowd. Synonym joy. Antonym displeasure □ to take great delight in something to take great pleasure in something ■ verb to give great pleasure to someone ○ His speech delighted the audience. □ to delight in something to take great pleasure in something ○ She delights in teasing her little brother.

② delighted /dɪ'laitɪd/ adj very pleased. Antonym unhappy

② delightful /dɪ'laitf(ə)l/ adj very pleasant deliniate /dɪ'lɪnɪeɪt/ verb 1. to draw something or someone 2. to describe something or someone in detail delinquency /dɪ'lɪnkwənsɪ/ noun the act of committing a minor crime, or the number of such acts that are committed delinquent /dɪ'lɪnkwənt/ noun □ a juvenile delinquent, a delinquent US a young criminal who commits crimes, especially against property delirious /dɪ'lɪriəs/ adj 1. suffering from delirium ○ She collapsed and became delirious. 2. very excited and happy ○ They were delirious when they won the lottery.

delirium /dɪ'lɪriəm/ noun a mental state in which a person is confused, restless and very excited and has hallucinations

② deliver /dɪ'lɪvə/ verb 1. to bring something to someone ○ Has today's newspaper been delivered? ○ He delivered the letter himself so as to save buying a stamp. □ to deliver the goods to do what you promised to do ○ You can always rely on him to deliver the goods. 2. □ to deliver a baby to help a mother when a baby is being born ○ The twins were delivered by the midwife.

② delivery /dɪ'lɪv(ə)rɪ/ noun 1. the act of bringing something to someone ○ There is no charge for delivery within the London area. ○ Use the rear entrance for deliveries. ○ The next delivery will be on Thursday. □ to take delivery of goods to receive goods which are delivered and sign for them 2. the birth of a child ○ The midwife will supervise the delivery.

delphinium /dəl'fɪniəm/ noun a popular garden plant with tall blue flowers delta /'deltə/ noun 1. a triangular piece of land at the mouth of a large river, formed of silt carried by the river ○ the Mississippi Delta ○ Deltas are created by alluvial deposits. 2. the fourth letter of the Greek alphabet. Symbol δ delude /dɪ'lʊ:d/ verb to make someone believe something which is wrong. Synonym deceive deluge /'delju:dʒ/ noun 1. a flood of something, e.g. questions or orders ○ We had a deluge of phone calls after our TV commercial. 2. a heavy rainfall ○ It had been dry for weeks and then last Saturday we had a deluge. ■ verb 1. to flood a place 2. to overwhelm someone with a flood of something ○ We were deluged with phone calls.

delusion /dɪ'lʊ:ʒ(ə)n/ noun a false belief which a person holds which cannot be changed by reason □ to be under a delusion to have a wrong idea ○ The boss is under the delusion that everyone really likes him.

de luxe /dɪ'laks/ adj very expensive or of very high quality delve /dɛlv/ verb to dig □ to delve into something to investigate something ○ He has been delving into the past history of the family.

① demand /dɪ'ma:nd/ noun 1. the act of asking for something ○ a demand for payment ○ Her latest demands are quite unreasonable. 2. the need for goods or services at a certain price ○ We cannot keep up with the demand for our services. ○ We can't sell the book, because there is no demand for it. □ to meet or fill a demand to supply what is needed ○ The factory had to increase production to meet the extra demand. □ there is not much demand for this item not many people want to buy this item □ this item is in great demand many people want to buy this item □ the law of supply and demand the general rule that the amount of a product which is available is linked to the amount which is wanted by customers ■ verb to ask firmly for something ○ She demanded a refund. ○ I demand an explanation.

③ demanding /dɪ'ma:ndɪŋ/ adj which takes up much time and energy demarcate /'dɪ:ma:kɪt/ verb to fix the boundaries of something (formal) demarcation /,dɪ:ma:k'keɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the act of showing boundaries demean /dɪ'mi:n/ verb □ to demean yourself to make yourself appear undignified ○ Don't demean yourself by dressing up as a fairy.

demeaning /dɪ'mi:nɪŋ/ adj which makes you appear undignified demeanour /dɪ'mi:nə/ noun a person's behaviour or manner (NOTE: The US spelling is demeanor.)

demented /dɪ'mentɪd/ adj mad (informal) Synonym irrational. Antonym rational dementia /dɪ'menʃə/ noun a loss of mental ability and memory, causing confusion and changes to the personality, due to a disease of the brain

Demerara sugar /,demə'reərə/ 'fʊgə/ noun a light brown sugar with large crystals demilitarised zone /dɪ:,militəraɪzd 'zə:n/ noun an area which is no longer occupied by soldiers demise /dɪ'maɪz/ noun a death (formal) demister /dɪ:'mɪstə/ noun a fan of warm air in a car, used to prevent the windows misting up demo /'dēməʊ/ noun same as demonstration. Synonym protest

② democracy /dɪ'mɒkrəsi/ noun 1. a country governed by freely elected representatives of the people ○ We live in a democracy. (NOTE: The plural is democracies.) 2. a system of government by freely elected representatives of the people ○ The people want democracy, not a dictatorship.

③ democrat /'dēməkræt/ noun a person who believes in democracy ○ All true democrats will unite against the dictator.

④ democratic /,dēmə'krætɪk/ adj referring to democracy ○ They promised to restore democratic government.

democratically /,dēmə'krætɪkli/ adv in a democratic way

Democratic Party /dēmə'krætɪk 'pæ:ti:/ noun one of the two main political parties in the United States, which is in favour of some social change and state help for poor people demographic /,dēmə'græfɪk/ adj referring to demography demographics /,dēmə'græfɪks/ plural noun the details of the population of a place demography /dēmɒgræfi/ noun the study of populations, trends in birth rates, etc.

⑤ demolish /dɪ'mɒlɪʃ/ verb 1. to knock something down ○ We demolished the old church and built a new one. 2. to eat something completely ○ He demolished the whole chocolate cake. 3. to show that something is completely wrong ○ He wrote an article demolishing the professor's theories.

demolition /,dēmə'lɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the action of knocking down something such as a building. Synonym destruction demon /'dɪ:mən/ noun 1. a devil ○ The picture shows red demons throwing people into a fire. 2. □ to be a demon for something to be very enthusiastic about something ○ He's a demon for hard work. ○ She's a real demon on the hockey pitch.

demonic /dɪ'monɪk/ adj like a demon demonstrable /dɪ'monstrəb(ə)l/ adj which can be proved or demonstrated demonstrably /dɪ'monstrəbli/ adv as can be demonstrated

② demonstrate /'demənstreɪt/ verb 1. to show something ○ This demonstrates how little he has changed. ○ He demonstrated how the machine worked. 2. □ to demonstrate against something to protest against something in public ○ A group were demonstrating against the new motorway.

③ demonstration /,demən'streɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. the act of showing how something works ○ Can you give me a demonstration of how it works? 2. a crowd of people who are protesting against something ○ We went shopping and got mixed up in a demonstration in Trafalgar Square. ○ They staged demonstrations against the government in several towns.

demonstrative /drɪ'mɒnstrətɪv/ adj (of a person) who openly shows his or her feelings ○ She's not very demonstrative, but I think she appreciated her gift all the same.

demonstrative pronoun /dɪ-,mɒnstrətɪv 'prəʊnən/ noun a pronoun such as 'this' or 'those', which points out something

④ demonstrator /'demənstreɪtə/ noun 1. a person who shows how to do something or how pieces of equipment work ○ The demonstrator showed how to work the mixer. 2. a person who marches or who forms part of a crowd protesting against something ○ A crowd of demonstrators blocked the road. ○ The police used water cannon to clear demonstrators from in front of the Parliament building.

demoralise /dɪ'mɔːrlaɪz/, demoralize verb to lower the morale or confidence of someone. Synonym dishearten demoralised /dɪ'mɔːrlaɪzd/, demoralized adj unhappy and discouraged demoralising /dɪ'mɔːrlaɪzɪŋ/, demoralizing adj which demoralises you or lowers your confidence. Antonym encouraging demote /dɪ'maʊt/ verb to give someone a less important job or reduce an employee to a lower rank or grade. Synonym downgrade demotion /dɪ'məʊʃn/ noun the act of giving someone a less important job demure /dɪ'mjuə/ adj quiet and serious den /dɛn/ noun 1. a place where an animal hides away ○ a lion's den 2. a small room where you can hide away to work ○ Father's in his den, so don't disturb him. 3. a meeting place for criminals ○ The bar is just a den of thieves.

denial /dɪ'naiəl/ noun a statement that something is not true denigrate /'denɪɡrēt/ verb to say that someone or something is not very good denim /'denɪm/ noun a thick cotton cloth, usually blue denims /'denɪmz/ plural noun jeans, blue trousers made of thick cotton cloth denomination /di,nɒmɪ'nɛf(ə)n/ noun 1. a unit of money written on a coin, bank-note or stamp ○ Coins of all denominations are put in the church collection box. ○ The bank has run out of small denomination notes. 2. a religious grouping ○ The Protestant Church is divided into several denominations. ○ What denomination does he belong to?

denominational /dɪ,nɒmɪ'nɛf(ə)n(ə)l/ adj referring to a particular religious denomination denote /dɪ'nəut/ verb to mean or be a sign of something denouement /deɪ'nu:mən̄/, dénouement noun the ending of something, e.g. a book, play or film, where everything is finally sorted out

⑤ denounce /dɪ'naʊns/ verb 1. to blame or to accuse someone or something openly ○ Someone denounced him to the police. ○ He was denounced as a racist by a fellow professor. 2. to condemn something openly ○ She denounced the council's policy as short-sighted.

dense /dɛns/ adj 1. very thick ○ Dense fog closed the airport. 2. crowded together ○ They tried to find their way through dense forest. ○ I find it difficult to read through 100 pages of dense text. 3. stupid ○ How can anybody be so dense? (NOTE: denser – densest) densely /'densli/ adv thickly

⑥ density /'dɛnsitɪ/ noun 1. (in physics) the amount of mass per unit of volume ○ heavy density oils 2. the number of things in a certain area ○ London suffers from high population density. ○ the high traffic density in the centre of Rome (NOTE: The plural in this meaning is densities.)

dent /dɛnt/ noun a slight hollow mark made by hitting something ○ Someone has made a dent in my car door. ■ verb to make a slight hollow mark in something ○ He backed into a tree and dented the wing.

dental /'dɛnt(ə)l/ adj referring to teeth dental floss /'dɛnt(ə)l flɒs/ noun a thin waxed thread for pulling between your teeth to remove pieces of food dental hygienist /,dɛnt(ə)l 'haɪdʒi:nɪst/ noun a dentist's assistant, who cleans patients' teeth, removes plaque and gives treatments with fluoride dental surgeon /'dɛnt(ə)l ,sɜːdʒən/ noun same as dentist

⑦ dentist /'dɛntɪst/ noun a person who looks after your teeth dentistry /'dɛntɪstri/ noun 1. the profession of a dentist 2. the branch of medicine dealing with teeth and gums (NOTE: no plural) dentures /'dentʃəz/ plural noun artificial teeth which fit inside the mouth and are used in place of teeth which have been taken out denunciation /di,nans'i:ef(ə)n/ noun a public accusation or blame. Synonym condemnation

② deny /d'i'naɪ/ verb 1. to state that something is not true ○ You were there, weren't you? – Don't deny it! ○ She denied that she had ever seen him. ○ He flatly denied stealing the car. 2. □ to deny someone something to prevent someone from having something ○ He was denied access to the secret government papers. □ to deny oneself not to eat or not to do something which you would like to do ○ She denied herself a holiday in order to earn enough to pay off her mortgage.

deodorant /di'əʊd(ə)rənt/ noun a substance which hides and prevents unpleasant body smells deoxyribonucleic acid /di:,ɒksɪraɪbəu nju:,klerɪk 'æsɪd/ noun full form of DNA depart /d'i'pa:t/ verb 1. to go away, to leave ○ The coach departs from Victoria Coach Station at 0900. 2. □ to depart from the normal procedure to act in a different way from the normal practice □ to depart from the truth to tell a lie

① department /d'i'pa:tment/ noun 1. a specialised section of a large company ○ He is in charge of the marketing department. ○ Write to the complaints department about the service. 2. one of the sections of the government ○ the Department for Education and Skills ○ the Department of Transport 3. a part of a large shop ○ If you want cheese you must go to the food department. ○ You will find beds in the furniture department.

departmental /,di:pa:t'ment(ə)l/ adj referring to a department

Department for Education and Skills /di,pɑ:t'ment fər edju,keɪs(ə)n ən 'skɪlz/ noun the British government department which is concerned with education and training

③ department store /d'i'pa:tment stɔ:/ noun a large shop with many departments

③ departure /d'i'pa:tʃə/ noun 1. the act of leaving a place ○ The departure time is 3 o'clock. ○ The plane's departure was delayed by two hours. 2. □ a departure from something the act of working in a different way from usual □ this is a departure from our usual practice we are doing something in a different way from the usual one departure lounge /d'i'pa:tʃə laundʒ/ noun a room at an airport where passengers wait to board their planes departures /dɪ'pa:tʃəz/ plural noun 1. a list of trains, planes, etc., which are leaving 2. the part of an airport terminal which deals with passengers who are leaving ① depend /dɪ'pend/ verb 1. to happen because of something or someone ○ The success of the book will depend on the publicity campaign. ○ I can't be sure that we will come to lunch – it depends on what time we get home from the party the night before. □ it (all) depends it is not certain (informal) ○ We may go to France on holiday, or Spain, it all depends. 2. □ to depend on someone or something to rely on or be sure of someone or something ○ You can't depend on Jack – he's always too busy to help. ○ You can depend on her to do her best. ○ The company depends on government grants.

dependable /dɪ'pendəb(ə)l/ adj that can be relied on. Synonym reliable. Antonym unreliable dependant /dɪ'pendənt/ noun a member of the family who is financially supported by another (NOTE: Do not confuse with dependent)

③ dependence /dɪ'pendəns/ noun the fact of being dependent on someone or something (NOTE: no plural)

dependency /dɪ'pendənsi/ noun 1. a country which is ruled by another ○ Britain and its former overseas dependencies (NOTE: The plural in this meaning is dependencies.) 2. the fact of being dependent on someone or something ○ drug dependency or dependency on drugs

③ dependent /dɪ'pendənt/ adj 1. financially supported by someone else ○ She has five dependent relatives. 2. relying on someone else ○ The patients become very dependent on the hospital staff. 3. caused or affected by something ○ The success of the project is dependent on getting a government grant. 4. US spelling of dependant (NOTE: [all senses] Do not confuse with dependent.)

③ depict /dɪ'pɪkt/ verb to show or describe something. Synonym portray depiction /dɪ'pɪkʃən/ noun a way of showing something. Synonym representation deplete /dɪ'pli:t/ verb to reduce available stocks or stores. Synonym use up depleted /dɪ'pli:tɪd/ adj containing less of something than before deplorable /dɪ'plɔ:rəb(ə)l/ adj very bad deplorably /dɪ'plɔ:rəbli/ adv in a very bad way deplore /dɪ'plɔ:/ verb to say you dislike an action or an attitude or that you are sorry that something has happened (formal)

③ deploy /dɪ'plɔɪ/ verb to spread out soldiers, etc., ready for action deployment /dr'plɔɪmənt/ noun the act of deploying depopulate /di:pɒpjuleɪt/ verb to reduce the number of people in an area deport /dr'pɔ:t/ verb to expel someone from a country deportation /,di:pɔ:t'eɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the act of making a foreigner leave a country depose /di'pəʊz/ verb to remove a king from the throne or a ruler from office. Synonym overthrow. Antonym install ③ deposit /dr'pɔ:zɪt/ noun 1. money placed in a bank ○ Her deposits in the bank had grown over the years. □ on deposit in a deposit account ○ The money is on deposit in his bank account. 2. money given in advance so that the thing which you want to buy will not be sold to someone else ○ She had to pay a deposit on the watch. ○ Can you leave £50 as deposit? ○ I paid a 30% deposit and don't have to pay anything more for six months. 3. a layer of a mineral in the ground ○ Coal deposits occur in several parts of the country. ○ The North Sea oil deposits yield 100,000 barrels a month. ■ verb 1. to put money into a bank account ○ She deposited £100 in her current account. ○ The cheque arrived at long last, and I deposited it immediately. 2. to put something down ○ He deposited his hat on the armchair.

deposit account /dr'pɔ:zɪt ə,kaʊnt/ noun an account which pays interest but on which notice usually has to be given to withdraw money

③ depot /dr'pɔ:t/ noun 1. a central warehouse for goods ○ a freight depot ○ a goods depot ○ an oil storage depot 2. a centre for transport ○ a bus depot ○ a tram depot 3. a central barracks for an army regiment ○ He joined the army and was sent to the Guards' Depot.

depraved /dr'preɪvd/ adj wicked or immoral. Synonym debauched. Antonym righteous depravity /dr'prævɪtɪ/ noun wickedness or immoral behaviour. Synonym debauchery deprecate /dr'preɪkeɪt/ verb to disapprove of something (NOTE: Do not confuse with depreciate.)

depreciate /dr'pri:ʃi,eɪt/ verb 1. to lose value ○ The pound has depreciated by 5% against the dollar. 2. to reduce the value of assets in accounts ○ We depreciate our company cars over three years. (NOTE: Do not confuse with deprecate.)

depreciation /dr'pri:ʃi'eɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. a loss of value ○ The pound has shown a depreciation of 5% against the dollar. 2. a reduction in the value of an asset such as property

③ depress /dr'pres/ verb 1. to make someone sad or miserable ○ Listening to that particular piece of music always depresses me. 2. to push down a button ○ To activate the alarm, depress both buttons simultaneously.

③ depressed /dr'prest/ adj 1. sad, miserable ○ She's been feeling depressed since the accident. 2. □ depressed area a part of a country where many people are poor and unemployed and living conditions are bad 3. pushed down ○ If the button is depressed, switch off the electricity.

③ depressing /dr'presɪŋ/ adj gloomy

③ depression /dr'preʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. a mental state where you feel miserable and hopeless ○ He was in a state of depression after the exams. ○ She is subject to fits of depression. 2. a low pressure area bringing bad weather ○ The depression coming from the Atlantic will bring rain to most parts of the country. ○ Winds move anticlockwise round a depression. 3. an economic crisis ○ Have many companies here been affected by the current world depression? □ the (Great) Depression the world economic crisis of 1929–33 ○ All economies suffered during the Depression. 4. a place which is lower than the area round it ○ A pool of water had formed in a depression in the rocks.

deprivation /,depri'veɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. a state of being deprived of something 2. a state of not having enough of the things necessary for a normal life, such as food and housing ○ They suffered dreadful deprivation(s) during the war.

deprive /dr'prایv/ verb □ to deprive someone of something to take something away from someone, not to let someone have something ○ As a writer, it was dreadful for him to be deprived of paper and pen in prison.

deprived /dr'praɪvd/ adj not enjoying many of society's benefits. Synonym disadvantaged. Antonym privileged

③ dept. abbr department

① depth /dɛpθ/ noun 1. a measurement of how deep something is ○ The depth of the lake is 20m. ○ The submarine dived to a depth of 200m. 2. the deepest or most extreme point ○ In the depth of the Russian winter, temperatures can reach -45°C. ○ They have a house in the depths of rural Wales. □ the depths of despair complete lack of hope ○ When he was in the depths of despair he thought of committing suicide. □ in depth thoroughly ○ to study a subject in depth ○ to carry out an in-depth study of a problem deputation /,depjʊ'teɪʃ(ə)n/ noun a group of people who speak on behalf of others depute verb /dɪ'pju:t/ to give part of your responsibility to someone else ○ He was deputed to attend the meeting on my behalf. Synonym delegate ■ noun /'depjutɪ/ (in Scotland) a deputy, a person who takes the place of someone else ○ the Depute Lord Provost deputise /'depjutaɪz/, deputize verb □ to deputise for someone to take the place of someone ○ She's deputising for the chairman who has a cold.

② deputy /'depjutɪ/ noun 1. a person who can take the place of someone else ○ She's acting as deputy chair while the chair is in hospital. 2. an assistant to a person ○ He appointed her as his deputy.

derail /dɪ:'reɪl/ verb to make a train leave the rails derailment /dɪ'reilmənt/ noun the action of a train leaving the rails deranged /dɪ'reɪndʒd/ adj behaving in an uncontrolled way because of mental illness derby /'də:bɪ/ noun 1. □ the Derby an important horse race run each year in June at Epsom in Surrey ○ He won the Derby three times. ○ She's the owner of the Derby winner. 2. a bowler hat 3. a sporting contest between local teams ○ There are always crowds at the local derby. (NOTE: The plural is derbies.)

deregulate /dɪ:'regjuleɪt/ verb to remove government restrictions from an industry deregulation /dɪ:,regju'leɪʃ(ə)n/ noun reducing government control over an industry derelict /'derɪlɪkt/ adj ruined and abandoned ○ They plan to build the housing development on derelict land near the city centre. ○ They bought a derelict cottage to do it up. Synonym dilapidated ■ noun a tramp, a homeless person (formal) ○ The Salvation Army looks after the derelicts living in shop doorways.

dereliction of duty /'derɪ,lkʃən əv 'dju:tɪ/ noun a failure to do what you ought to do by law deride /dɪ'raɪd/ verb to laugh at someone or something. Synonym ridicule. Antonym admire derision /dɪ'rɪʒ(ə)n/ noun the act of laughing at someone or something because you think they are stupid derisive /dɪ'raɪsɪv/ adj laughing at someone because you think they are stupid. Synonym mocking. Antonym admiring desirous /dɪ'rəsərɪ/ adj ridiculously small derivation /,dərɪ'veɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the origin of a word derivative /dɪ'rɪvətɪv/ adj which is based on and copies something else ○ His prize-winning designs are really very derivative

of. ■ noun a thing which is obtained from some other substance ○ petroleum derivatives derivatives /dɪ'rɪvətɪvz/ plural noun securities such as options to buy or sell, which are derived from ordinary bonds and shares (finance) derive /dɪ'raɪv/ verb 1. □ to derive or be derived from to come from originally ○ The name of the plant 'fuchsia' is derived from the name of the German botanist, Fuchs. 2. to get something ○ The local people derive a good deal of pleasure from watching the antics of the tourists.

dermatologist /,dɜ:ma:tɒlədʒɪst/ noun a doctor who specialises in the study and treatment of diseases of the skin dermatology /,dɜ:ma:tɒlədʒɪ/ noun the study and treatment of diseases of the skin derogatory /dɪ'rɒgət(ə)rɪ/ adj showing dislike for someone or something. Synonym disparaging. Antonym complimentary descend /dɪ'send/ verb 1. to go down something such as a ladder ○ The president seemed to stumble as he descended the steps from the plane. 2. □ to be descended from someone to have someone as an ancestor ○ On his mother's side, he is descended from one of William the Conqueror's knights.

③ descendant /dɪ'sendənt/ noun a member of a family with a particular ancestor. Synonym successor. Antonym ancestor descending /dɪ'sendɪŋ/ adj going down in steps □ in descending order listed with the highest first, and the lowest last ○ The towns are listed in descending order of their populations.

④ descent /dɪ'sent/ noun 1. going down ○ The descent into the mine takes just under three minutes. 2. family ancestry ○ He can trace his descent back to William I. □ she is of Irish descent her family is from Ireland 3. a downhill slope ○ She successfully completed a tricky descent. (NOTE: Do not confuse with dissent.)

① describe /dɪ'skrɪb/ verb 1. to say or write what something or someone is like ○ Can you describe the car which hit the old lady? ○ She described how the bus suddenly left the road. ○ He described the mugger as a tall man with a black beard. ○ The police asked him to describe what happened. 2. to form a figure or shape ○ The boat described a circle.

① description /dɪ'skrɪpʃən/ noun saying or writing what something or someone is like descriptive /dɪ'skrɪptɪv/ adj which says what something is like desecrate /'desɪkret/ verb to treat a place such as a church or a grave in a disrespectful way. Synonym desecrate. Antonym consecrate desecration /,desɪ'kreɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the act of desecrating. Synonym violation desegregate /di':segrɪgeɪt/ verb to end the segregation of a group of people or an institution. Synonym integrate. Antonym segregate desegregation /,di:segrɪ'geɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the action of desegregating. Synonym integration. Antonym segregation desert noun /'dezət/ a very dry area of the world, usually covered with rocks or sand (NOTE: Do not confuse with dessert.) ■ verb /dr'zə:t/ 1. to leave the armed forces without permission ○ The general ordered that all soldiers who had deserted should be captured and shot. 2. to leave someone all alone ○ He deserted his wife when she was expecting their second child.

deserted /dr'zə:tɪd/ adj with no one in, with no people deserter /dr'zə:tə/ noun a person who leaves the armed forces without permission desertification /di',zə:tɪfɪ'keɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the process by which an area of land becomes desert, through a change of climate or intensive farming desertion /dr'zə:ʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. the act of leaving the armed forces without permission ○ During the war, soldiers were shot for desertion. 2. the act of leaving someone, especially your wife or husband ○ He is divorcing his wife because of her desertion. (NOTE: no plural) desert island /,dezət 'aɪlənd/ noun a tropical island with no inhabitants deserts /dr'zə:ts/ plural noun what you deserve □ to get your just deserts to get a fair reward for what you have done ○ The muggers got their just deserts when they were caught and brought to justice.

② deserve /dr'zə:v/ verb to earn something because of what you have done ○ He didn't deserve to win because he cheated. ○ I've been on my feet all day – I think I deserve a sit-down. ○ He deserves a holiday. ○ I'm sure she deserved to be punished. Synonym merit deservedly /dr'zə:vɪdlɪ/ adv in a way which is deserved. Synonym justly deserving /dr'zə:vɪŋ/ adj which should be supported or helped. Synonym worthy. Antonym unworthy desiccate /'desɪkeɪt/ verb to make something completely dry

① design /dr'zain/ noun 1. a plan or drawing of something, before it is made or built ○ Here are the designs for the book cover. ○ The architect has produced the designs for the new opera house. 2. a pattern or motif ○ curtains with a floral design 3. □ to have designs on something to plan to try to get something ○ I think he has designs on my job. ■ verb 1. to draw plans for the shape or appearance of something before it is made or built ○ He designed the new university library. ○ She designs garden furniture. 2. □ designed for intended for ○ information designed for tourists

③ designate verb /'dezɪgneɪt/ to appoint someone to a post ○ He has been designated as our representative at the meeting. ■ suffix /'dezɪgnət/ a person who has been appointed but has not started work ○ the ambassador-designate designation /,dezɪg'neɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. the act of designating ○ his designation as ambassador 2. the name, title or description given to someone or something ○ He has the official designation of Chief Medical Officer.

③ designer /dɪ'zainə/ noun an artist who plans the shape or appearance of things such as goods, clothes or rooms. Synonym creator designer clothes /dɪ'zainə kləʊðz/ plural noun clothes designed by a famous designer designer label /dɪ'zainə 'leɪb(ə)l/ noun a label attached to clothes made by a famous designer desirable /dr'zairərəb(ə)l/ adj which a lot of people want

② desire /dr'zairɪ/ noun something that you want very much ○ It's difficult to satisfy the public's desire for information. ○ She had a sudden desire to lie down and go to sleep. Synonym wish ■ verb 1. to want ○ He will get you anything you desire. 2. □ to leave a lot to be desired not to be of the right standard, not to be acceptable ○ The bathrooms in the hotel leave a lot to be desired.

desired /dɪ'zairəd/ adj wanted or required desist /dɪ'zɪst/ verb to stop doing something (formal) ○ Would you kindly desist from smoking while we are eating? ○ The man next door persisted in practising the bagpipes until we asked him politely to desist. Synonym cease. Antonym continue ② desk /desk/ noun 1. a table, often with drawers, used for writing ○ He put the papers away in his desk drawer. ○ She was sitting at her desk when the telephone rang. 2. a section of a newspaper ○ He works on the City desk. 3. a government department ○ She works on the Central Europe desk in the Foreign Office.

desk tidy /'desk ,tɔ:di/ noun a small container kept on a desk to keep things such as pens and paper clips tidy desktop /'deskəp/ noun 1. the top surface of a desk 2. a display on a computer screen that shows images representing available programs and files ■ adj that can be placed on top of a desk ○ I'm thinking of investing in a new desktop computer.

desktop publishing /'deskətɒp 'pʌblɪʃɪŋ/ noun the production of publications using a personal computer desolate adj /'desələt/ bleak and deserted ○ She crossed the desolate mountainside, carrying her baby. ■ verb /'desəleɪt/ to make someone very sad ○ She was desolated by the news.

despair /dɪ'speɪə/ noun hopelessness, lack of hope ○ When he lost his job and his girlfriend left him, he was filled with despair. Synonym misery. Antonym joy ■ the depths of despair a complete lack of hope ■ verb ■ to despair of something to give up all hope of something ○ After two months in the jungle, he despaired of ever being rescued.

despairing /dɪ'speərɪŋ/ adj feeling despair. Synonym hopeless. Antonym hopeful

③ despatch /dɪ'spætʃ/ □ dispatch

③ desperate /'desp(ə)rət/ adj 1. hopeless ○ Food ran out and the situation on the ship was becoming desperate. 2. urgent ○ There is a desperate need for medical supplies. 3. wild with despair ○ When he didn't phone she became desperate with worry. 4. in need of something, wanting something very much ○ They are desperate for news.

desperately /'desp(ə)rətli/ adv 1. urgently ○ The hospital desperately needs medical supplies. 2. in a very anxious way ○ She was desperately worried when her daughter had still not come home at 11 p.m.

desperation /despə'reɪʃ(ə)n/ noun hopelessness that leads you to try anything in order to make things better □ in desperation because you are desperate ○ In desperation, she called the fire brigade.

despicable /dɪ'spɪkəb(ə)l/ adj unpleasant, which you despise. Synonym appalling. Antonym admirable despise /dɪ'spaɪz/ verb to look down on someone, to think someone is not worth much. Synonym loathe. Antonym admire ① despite /dɪ'spaɪt/ prep in spite of ○ Despite the wet weather we still enjoyed our holiday.

despondent /dɪ'spɒndənt/ adj discouraged and unhappy. Synonym hopeless. Antonym cheerful despot /'despɒt/ noun a dictator, a cruel ruler. Synonym dictator dessert /dr'zɜ:t/ noun a sweet course at the end of a meal ○ The meal will end with a dessert of strawberries and cream. ○ What's for dessert? Synonym sweet (NOTE: Do not confuse with desert. The word dessert is mainly used in restaurants. At home, this part of the meal is usually called the sweet or afters or pudding.)

dessert spoon /dɪ'zɜ:t spu:n/ noun a medium-sized spoon, used for eating desserts destabilise /di:'steɪbilɪzaɪz/, destabilize verb to make a country or government less stable. Synonym undermine destination /'destɪ'nɛɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the place to which a person or vehicle is going ○ We reached our destination at eight o'clock.

○ The destination is shown on the front of the bus.

destined /'destɪnd/ adj 1. □ destined for being sent to ○ All mail destined for Canada is delayed because of the postal workers' strike. 2. certain to have, do or experience something ○ She's destined for a great career on TV. ○ They were destined to fail in their search for gold.

destiny /'destɪnɪ/ noun 1. what will happen to you in the future ○ The war affected the destinies of many people. 2. a power that controls what happens to you in the future ○ You never know what destiny has in store for you.

destitute /'destɪtju:t/ adj with very little money and very few belongings. Synonym poor. Antonym solvent

② destroy /dɪ'strɔɪ/ verb to ruin something completely ○ The bomb destroyed several buildings. ○ A lot of private property was destroyed in the war.

destroyer /dɪ'strɔɪə/ noun a medium-sized naval ship

② destruction /dɪ'strʌkʃən/ noun the action of ruining completely ○ the destruction of the village by enemy bombs ○ The volcano caused enormous destruction. ○ After the bomb attack there was a scene of total destruction. Synonym obliteration (NOTE: no plural) destructive /dɪ'strʌktɪv/ adj which destroys

③ detach /dɪ'tætʃ/ verb to separate detachable /dɪ'tætʃəb(ə)l/ adj which you can detach detached /dɪ'tætʃt/ adj 1. □ detached house a house which stands alone, not attached to another. Compare semi-detached house 2. not under someone's influence ○ He is a detached observer of the political scene. ○ He tries to take a detached view of each patient who comes to see him.

detachment /dɪ'tætʃmənt/ noun 1. indifference, lack of particular interest ○ He glanced at the advancing policemen with an air of detachment. 2. a small group of soldiers ○ Detachments of marines have been sent to the island.

① detail /'detɪəl/ noun 1. an item of information ○ Send in your CV including full de- tails of your past experience. ○ Can you give me further details of when the accident took place? ○ I can't make out the details in the photo because the light is bad. ○ The policeman noted down the details of the incident. 2. □ in detail with plenty of details ○ The catalogue lists all the furniture in detail. ○ Please describe the circumstances of the accident in as much detail as possible. ■ verb 1. to list all the facts or items ○ He detailed the work which had to be done. 2. □ to detail someone to do something to tell someone to do a job ○ He was detailed to wash the kitchen floor.

② detailed /'di:təld/ adj in detail, giving a lot of details ○ We need a detailed list of the items which have been stolen. ○ The police issued detailed descriptions of the two men. Synonym full. Antonym sketchy detain /dr'teɪn/ verb 1. to keep someone in a police station or prison ○ The police have detained a man for questioning. 2. to stop someone from leaving ○ I'm sorry I'm late – I was detained by a phone call.

detainee /,di:tə'ni:/ noun a person held in prison. Synonym prisoner

③ detect /dr'tekt/ verb 1. to discover something scientifically ○ If breast cancer is detected early enough, it can be cured. 2. to notice something ○ I detected some unwillingness to agree to the change.

detectable /dr'ɪktəb(ə)l/ adj which can be detected. Synonym obvious detection /dr'ɪkʃən/ noun 1. the act of solving a crime 2. the action of detecting something ○ the detection of traces of poison in the cup ○ the early detection of breast cancer ○ He hid under the bed and managed to escape detection for three days. (NOTE: no plural)

③ detective /dr'ɪktɪv/ noun a police officer who investigates crimes ○ Detectives have interviewed four suspects. Synonym investigator

③ detector /dr'ɪktər/ noun an instrument which checks whether something is present. Synonym sensor

③ detention /dr'ɪtenʃən/ noun 1. imprisonment ○ After he was released from detention he committed the same offence again. ○ The internees were kept in detention camps. 2. keeping children at school as a punishment ○ The children were kept in detention after school. (NOTE: no plural)

detention centre /dr'ɪtenʃən 'sentər/ noun a place where young criminals are kept deter /dr'tə:/ verb □ to deter someone from doing something to discourage someone from doing something ○ The heavy rain didn't deter us from visiting the town. ○ We have installed cameras to deter shoplifters.

detergent /dr'ɪtə:dʒənt/ noun a cleaning substance which removes grease and bacteria from things such as clothes or dishes deteriorate /dr'tɪəriəreɪt/ verb to go bad; to get worse deterioration /di,tɪəriə'reɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the process of getting worse determination /di,tɜ:mi'neɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. a strong wish to do something, and not to let anyone stop you doing it ○ his determination to win the prize ○ The government needs to show more determination in their fight against corruption. 2. the act of deciding something ○ Determination of deadlines will be crucial to the planning of the project. (NOTE: no plural)

① determine /dr'ɪtɜ:min/ verb 1. to fix something such as a date ○ The meeting will be at a date still to be determined. 2. □ to determine to do something to make up your mind to do something (formal) ○ I determined not to make the same mistake again. 3. to find out the details of something ○ The police have to determine what really happened. 4. to affect in a particular way ○ His exam results will determine his future.

③ determined /dr'ɪtɜ:mind/ adj 1. decided ○ He had a very determined expression on his face as he entered the ring. ○ She is determined to win the prize. 2. strong minded ○ She's a very determined young woman, and will go far. ▶ Antonym irresolute determiner /dr'ɪtɜ:minə/ noun a pronoun or article which comes before an adjective or noun, and shows what is being referred to, such as 'this' in 'this old car' (grammar)

③ deterrant /dr'ɪterənt/ noun a thing which discourages people from doing something. Synonym restraint. Antonym incitement detest /dr'ɪtest/ verb to dislike intensely. Synonym hate detonate /'detəneɪt/ verb 1. to set off an explosive ○ The police detonated the package found under the car. 2. to explode ○ A shell landed in their garden but failed to detonate.

detonation /,detə'neɪʃ(ə)n/ noun an explosion detonator /'detəneɪtər/ noun a small explosive charge which will set off a large explosion detox noun 1. medical treatment which helps people stop taking drugs or drinking too much alcohol 2. the process of stopping taking drugs or drinking alcohol ■ verb 1. to have treatment to help you stop taking drugs or drinking alcohol 2. to stop taking harmful substances in order to improve your health ○ No thanks, I'm detoxing after last week's excesses.

detract /dɪ'trækt/ verb □ to detract from something to make something less useful, attractive or interesting ○ Her rudeness to the judges somehow detracted from the prize-giving ceremony.

detractor /dɪ'træktə/ noun a person who criticises something. Synonym critic. Antonym supporter detriment /'detrɪmənt/ noun damage. Synonym disadvantage. Antonym advantage □ to the detriment of which will damage ○ His long working hours have been to the detriment of their marriage.

detrimental /,detrɪ'ment(ə)l/ adj which can harm. Synonym harmful. Antonym beneficial detritus /dɪ'traɪtəs/ noun rubbish, waste matter. Synonym debris (NOTE: no plural) deuce /dju:s/ noun a score of 40–40 in tennis. ♦ tennis devaluation /,dɪ:væljʊ'eɪʃ(ə)n/ noun reducing the international value of a currency. Synonym deflation devalue /dɪ:væljʊ:/ verb to reduce the value of a currency in relation to that of other countries. Antonym overvalue

③ devastate /'devæsteɪt/ verb to wreck something completely devastated /'devæsteɪtɪd/ adj 1. badly damaged ○ Relief agencies are trying to help the devastated region. 2. upset by something such as bad news ○ She was devastated when she was made redundant. ○ When he read the report in the paper he was completely devastated.

devastating /'devæsteɪtɪŋ/ adj 1. causing a lot of damage ○ The country has still not recovered from the devastating effects of the storm. 2. shocking, upsetting ○ The news from Paris was devastating.

devastation /,devə'steɪʃ(ə)n/ noun widespread damage. Synonym destruction. Antonym preservation

① develop /dɪ'veləp/ verb 1. to grow and change ○ Eventually, a caterpillar will develop into a butterfly. 2. to make something larger ○ She cycles to develop her calf muscles. 3. to get an illness ○ She developed a cold at the weekend. 4. to produce and fix a photograph from film ○ We can develop your film in an hour. 5. to plan and produce something ○ to develop a new product 6. to plan and build ○ They are planning to develop the site as an industrial estate. ○ The company is developing a chain of motorway service stations.

developed /dɪ'veləpt/ adj □ a developed area an area which has buildings on it □ the developed world those countries which are industrialised developer /dɪ'veləpə/ noun 1. a person or company that plans and builds roads, airports, houses, factories or office buildings ○ The land has been acquired by developers for a housing estate. 2. a liquid for developing photographs ○ She put the film into a bath of developer.

③ developing /dɪ'veləpɪŋ/ adj 1. growing ○ his rapidly developing network of contacts in government ○ her developing knowledge of the English language 2. □ developing countries countries which are becoming industrialised

① development /dɪ'veləpmənt/ noun 1. growth ○ The development of the embryo takes place rapidly. □ economic development the process by which a country's economy changes and becomes more industrialised □ industrial development the planning and building of new industries in special areas 2. the planning and production of a new product ○ The development of new pesticides will take some time. 3. the act of planning and building on an area of land ○ the development of property on the site of the former docks developmental /dɪ'veləp'ment(ə)l/ adj □ at a developmental stage being developed ○ The product is at an advanced developmental stage.

developments /dɪ'veləpmənts/ plural noun things which happen deviant /dɪ'ventɪənt/ adj different from normal □ deviant behaviour behaviour which is considered to be very wrong ■ noun a person who behaves in a way which most people consider to be wicked and immoral ○ The newspapers referred to them as 'deviants'.

deviate /'dɪ:vi'eɪt/ verb □ to deviate from to be different from what is normal or usual ○ The celebrations deviated from their normal pattern by being held on a Sunday. ○ He did not deviate from the written version of his speech.

deviation /,dɪ:vi'eɪʃ(ə)n/ noun changing from what is usual

② device /dɪ'veɪs/ noun 1. a small useful machine ○ He invented a device for screwing tops on bottles. ○ The engineers brought in a device for taking samples of soil. 2. □ he was left to his own devices he was left to do whatever he wanted

devil /'dev(ə)l/ noun 1. an evil spirit ○ He believes in ghosts and devils and all that sort of thing. 2. □ what the devil? what...? (informal: showing surprise) ○ What the devil has been going on here while we've been away? 3. a person ○ He's won the lottery, lucky devil! ○ Poor devil! I must go and see him in hospital. □ little devil a naughty child ○ That little devil has been pulling the cat's tail.

devil's advocate /'dev(ə)lz/ 'ædvəkət/ noun a person who argues the opposite point of view, in order to stimulate discussion about a widely held opinion devious /'di'veiəs/ adj 1. not honest or straightforward ○ It's just a very devious plan to avoid paying the staff more money. 2. not going straight ○ The taxi took us on a very devious route to Piccadilly Circus.

devise /d'r'veiəz/ verb to think up, to invent ○ We've devised a new timetable for the summer term. ○ He devised a plan for making more money out of the farm. Synonym think up devoid /dr'veid/ adj □ devoid of empty of, without □ the book is devoid of literary merit the book has no literary merit at all devolution /'di:r'vel'yu:s(ə)n/ noun the passing of power from a central government to a local or regional authority devolve /dr'velv/ verb to pass to another authority. Antonym centralise devote /dr'veut/ verb □ to devote time to something to spend time on something ○ Don't you think you've devoted enough time to your model planes? □ to devote yourself to to spend all your time on ○ She devoted herself to looking after refugee children.

devoted /dr'veutid/ adj 1. loving ○ He died suddenly, leaving his devoted wife and six children. □ devoted to someone loving someone ○ He is devoted to his children. 2. □ devoted to something spending all your time on something ○ She's devoted to her flower garden.

devotee /,devə'ti:/ noun someone who likes something very much, an enthusiastic follower devotion /dr'veuʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. love ○ her devotion to her father ○ his devotion to his stamp collection ○ Her devotion to duty is remarkable. 2. constant work on behalf of someone or something ○ She received an award for twenty years' devotion to the needs of the handicapped.

devour /dr'veuə/ verb to eat something greedily devout /dr'veut/ adj deeply religious dew /du:/ noun water which forms at night on objects in the open air (NOTE: Do not confuse with due.)

dewdrop /'du:drɒp/ noun 1. a drop of dew 2. a drop of mucus at the end of someone's nose dewy-eyed /,du:ui 'aɪd/ adj with eyes that are full of emotion dexterity /dek'sterɪti/ noun skill in using the hands or the mind dexterous /'dekstrəs/, dextrous adj skilful, especially using the hands 2.

dextrose /'dekstrəʊz/ noun a simple sugar found naturally in fruit and honey diabetes /,daɪə'bɪ:tɪz/ noun a condition where the body cannot control sugar absorption because the pancreas does not produce enough insulin (NOTE: no plural) diabetic /,daɪə'bɛtɪk/ adj referring to diabetes ○ The hospital provides a special diet for diabetic patients. ○ He's on a strict diabetic diet. □ diabetic food special food with a low sugar content which can be eaten by people with diabetes ■ noun a person with diabetes ○ She is a diabetic and has to have regular injections of insulin.

diabolical /,daɪə'bɒlɪk(ə)l/ adj 1. evil and wicked ○ They devised a diabolical plot to assassinate the Prime Minister. 2. very bad ○ The food in the staff canteen is diabolical.

diagnose /'daɪəgnəʊz/ verb to identify a patient's illness by examining him or her and noting symptoms diagnosis /,daɪəg'nəʊsɪs/ noun the identification of an illness (NOTE: The plural is diagnoses.)

diagnostic /,daɪəg'nɒstɪk/ adj referring to diagnosis diagonal /dai'ægən(ə)l/ adj going from one corner to another ○ He drew a diagonal line on the floor. ○ Areas of the map shaded with diagonal lines indicate cultivated land. Synonym slanting ■ noun a diagonal line ○ Draw a diagonal from one corner of the square to the other.

diagonally /dai'æg(ə)nəli/ adv in a diagonal direction diagram /'daɪəgræm/ noun a sketch, plan or accurate drawing ○ She drew a diagram to show how to get to her house. ○ The book gives a diagram of the circulation of blood.

③ dial /'daɪəl/ noun a round face of a telephone or a measuring instrument ○ Modern telephones don't have dials – just buttons. ■ verb to call a telephone number ○ To call the police you must dial 999. ○ Dial 9 to get an outside line. □ to dial direct to contact a phone number yourself without asking the operator to do it for you ○ You can dial New York direct from London.

③ dialect /'daɪəlekt/ noun a variety of a language spoken in a particular area. Synonym vernacular dialling code /'daɪəlɪŋ kəʊd/ noun a special phone number for a town or country dialling tone /'daɪəlɪŋ təʊn/ noun the noise made by a telephone to show that it is ready for you to dial a number dialog box /'daɪəlɒg bɒks/ noun a small area on a computer screen that presents the user with a choice dialogue /'daɪəlɒg/ noun 1. a conversation between two people ○ The next exercise on the tape is a dialogue between a shopkeeper and a customer. 2. the spoken words in a film or TV drama ○ Turn the volume up so that we can hear the dialogue more clearly. 3. political talks or negotiations ○ The government is trying to encourage greater dialogue in the Middle East. (NOTE: [all senses] The US spelling is dialog.)

dial-up /'daɪəp/ adj of a connection between computers that is made by means of a modem and a telephone line dialysis /daɪ'æləsɪs/ noun the process of cleaning waste matter from blood by passing it through a filter diameter /daɪ'æmɪtə/ noun the distance across the centre of a circle diametrically /daɪə'metrikli/ adv □ diametrically opposite to or opposed totally the opposite of ○ What they did was diametrically opposite to what we had agreed. ○ Their views are diametrically opposed.

③ diamond /'daɪəmənd/ noun 1. a very hard colourless precious stone ○ He gave her a diamond ring. ○ Diamonds sparkled on her crown. 2. one of the red suits in a pack of cards, shaped like a diamond ○ He held the ten of diamonds. (NOTE: The other red suit is hearts; clubs and spades are the black suits.)

diamond wedding /'daɪəmənd 'wedɪŋ/ noun the 60th anniversary of a wedding day

③ diaper /'daɪəpə/ noun US a cloth or thick pad which is wrapped round a baby's bottom

(NOTE: The British term is nappy.)

diaphragm /'daɪəfræm/ noun 1. a thin sheet which vibrates with noise ○ the diaphragm in a hearing aid 2. a thin layer of tissue which separates the chest from the abdomen, and pulls air into the lungs when you breathe ○ The stomach lies in the left upper part of the abdomen, just under the diaphragm. 3. a contraceptive device for women diarist /'daɪərɪst/ noun a person who writes a diary diarrhoea /,daɪə'rɪə/ noun a condition where a patient frequently passes liquid faeces (NOTE: The US spelling is diarrhea.)

③ diary /'daɪəri/ noun 1. a description of what has happened in your life day by day ○ He kept a diary for years. ○ She kept a diary of the places she visited on holiday. 2. a small book in which you write notes or make appointments for each day of the week ○ I've noted the appointment in my desk diary. ○ I can't fix the date immediately because I haven't got my diary with me. (NOTE: The plural is diaries.)

dice /daɪs/ noun a small cube with one to six dots on each face, used for playing games ○ Shake the dice in the cup and then throw them onto the board. ○ He lost hundreds of pounds playing dice. (NOTE: The plural is dice.) ■ verb 1. to cut food into small cubes ○ diced potato 2. □ to dice with death to do something very risky (informal) ○ Running across the main road is dicing with death.

dicey /'daɪsɪ/ adj dangerous (informal) Synonym risky dichotomy /daɪ'kɒtəmɪ/ noun a difference between contradictory things dick /dɪk/ noun penis (informal) dickens /'dɪkɪnz/ noun (informal) □ the dickens of a lot of ○ It took the dickens of a lot of time. □ what the dickens? what ...? ○ What the dickens is the matter with the heating pump?

dictate /dɪk'teɪt/ verb 1. to say something to someone who writes down your words ○ She dictated a letter to her secretary. ○ He dictated his address to me over the phone. 2. to tell someone what to do ○ The army commander dictated the terms of the surrender. ○ She's always trying to dictate to us how to run the business.

dictates /'dɪkteɪts/ plural noun ideas or feelings that strongly influence people

③ dictation /dɪk'teɪʃn/ noun the act of dictating something to be written down. Synonym transcription □ to take dictation to write down everything that someone is saying in special writing dictator /dɪk'teɪtə/ noun a person who rules a country alone. Synonym tyrant. Antonym democrat dictatorial /dɪk'teɪtɔ:riəl/ adj behaving like a dictator. Synonym tyrannical. Antonym democratic dictatorship /dɪk'teɪtəʃɪp/ noun the rule of a country by one person dition /'dɪkʃən/ noun a clear and understandable way of speaking dictionary /'dɪkʃən(ə)rɪ/ noun a book which lists words in alphabetical order, giving their meanings or translations into other languages □ a French dictionary a book which gives English words with their French translations, and French words with their English translations ○ If you want to find the French translation of this word, look it up in a French dictionary. □ a pocket dictionary a small dictionary which you can put in your pocket dictum /'dɪktəm/ noun a well-known saying made by a famous person (formal) Synonym pronouncement (NOTE: The plural is dicta /'dɪktə/.)

did /dɪd/ □ do

didactic /dɪd'æktɪk/ adj giving moral advice. Synonym educational didn't /'dɪd(ə)nt/ □ do

① die /dai/ noun a metal stamp for making coins ■ verb 1. to stop living ○ His mother died last year. ○ She died in a car crash. ○ If you don't water the plants they'll die. ♦ death 2. □ dying for or to wanting something very much ○ We're dying for a cold drink. ○ I'm dying to read his book. □ to die laughing to laugh a lot (NOTE: dying – died) die away /,daɪ ə'weɪ/ verb to become less noisy. Synonym fade die down /,daɪ 'daʊn/ verb 1. to get less strong ○ The wind began to die down. ○ The government is waiting for the street protests to die down. 2. (of plants) to die and lose their stems and leaves ○ Chrysanthemums will die down during the winter.

diehard /'daɪhɑ:d/ adj very resistant to change ■ noun a person who resists change or persists in a particular belief or opinion

① die out /,daɪ 'aut/ verb to disappear gradually

③ diesel /'di:z(ə)l/ noun 1. □ diesel (oil) engine fuel which is thicker than petrol ○ My new car runs on diesel. ○ London taxis have diesel engines. 2. a car with a diesel engine ○ His latest car is a diesel.

② diet /'daɪət/ noun 1. the kind of food you eat ○ He lives on a diet of bread and beer. ○ These people are healthier than us because their diet is simple. 2. eating only certain types of food, either to become thinner or to cure an illness ○ The doctor told her to follow a strict diet. □ a salt-free diet a diet which does not contain salt □ to be on a diet to eat only certain types of food, especially in order to become thin or to deal with an illness ○ He's been on a diet for some weeks, but still hasn't lost enough weight. □ to go on a diet to start to eat less ○ She went on a diet before going on holiday. ■ verb to eat less food or only one sort of food ○ He dieted for two weeks before going on holiday. Synonym slim. Antonym binge dietary /'daɪət(ə)ri/ adj referring to the food people eat in terms of how it affects their health. Synonym nutritional □ dietary fibre roughage, fibrous matter in food, which cannot be digested dietician /,daɪə'tɪʃ(ə)n/ noun a person who specialises in the study of diets and advises people on what they should eat

③ differ /'dɪfə/ verb 1. not to be the same as something else ○ The two machines differ considerably – one has an electric motor, the other runs on oil. □ to differ from to be different from, not to be the same as ○ This car differs from the earlier model. ○ Their business differs from ours in one important aspect. 2. □ I beg to differ I do not agree

① difference /'dɪf(ə)rəns/ noun a way in which two things or amounts are not the same ○ Can you tell the difference between an apple and a pear with your eyes shut? ○ What is the difference in price between these two cars? □ it doesn't make any difference

it's not important ○ You can use any colour you like – it doesn't make any difference. □ to split the difference to agree on a figure which is halfway between two figures suggested ○ Twenty's too many, ten's not enough, let's split the difference and say fifteen.

differences /'dɪf(ə)rənsɪz/ plural noun arguments between people

① different /'dɪf(ə)rənt/ adj not the same ○ Living in London is very different from living in the country. ○ I went to three different clothes shops but I couldn't find anything in my size. ○ He looks different now that he has a beard. □ that's quite a different matter or kettle of fish it's not at all the same thing differential /,dɪfə'renʃəl/ adj which shows a difference ○ The company has a differential system of pay for various levels of responsibility. ■ noun (in a motor) the gears between two drive shafts that allow one shaft to turn at a different speed from the other, while still transmitting power

③ differentiate /,dɪfə'rensɪeɪt/ verb 1. to recognise the difference between two things ○ I find it hard to differentiate between the two brands of butter. ○ They couldn't differentiate between cheap champagne and really top-quality stuff. 2. to treat two things differently ○ In this school, we don't differentiate between boys and girls.

differentiation /,dɪfə'renʃi'eɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the act of recognising or making a difference between things differently /'dɪf(ə)rəntli/ adv not in the same way. Antonym similarly

① difficult /'dɪfɪk(ə)lt/ adj not easy; hard to do ○ The German examination was very difficult – half the class got low marks. ○ Finding a parking space is difficult on Saturday mornings. ○ The company is finding it difficult to sell their cars in the European market. □ to make things or life difficult for someone to create problems for someone ○ His main aim at the office seems to be to make life as difficult as possible for the secretaries.

① difficulty /'dɪfɪk(ə)lti/ noun 1. □ to have difficulty with or in doing something to find it hard to do something ○ She has difficulty in paying the rent. □ with difficulty not easily ○ She walks with difficulty. 2. a problem ○ The difficulty is that nobody in the group can drive. ○ He is in financial difficulties. ○ She went swimming in the rough sea and got into difficulties. □ to create or make difficulties for someone to create problems for someone ○ She doesn't realise that going on holiday now is going to make difficulties for everyone.

diffidence /'dɪfɪdəns/ noun shyness, being diffident diffident /'dɪfɪdənt/ adj shy; lacking confidence. Synonym shy. Antonym brash diffuse /dɪ'fju:s/ 1. vague or unclear ○ His writing tends to be very diffuse. ■ verb /dɪ'fju:z/ to spread something out or to send something out. Antonym concentrate □ diffused light(ing) soft light which is spread out and not concentrated in one spot ○ Diffused lighting is good for intimate conversations but it makes reading difficult.

② dig /dɪg/ verb to make a hole in the ground with a spade ○ She's been digging in the garden all morning. ○ They dug a big hole in the ground. ○ The prisoners dug a tunnel to try to escape. ■ noun 1. an archaeological excavation, making holes in the ground to find something ○ They are working on a dig to uncover the remains of a Roman fort. 2. a funny attack in words ○ The song is a dig at the Prime Minister.

digest verb /dɪ'gɛst/ 1. to break down food in the stomach and intestine, and convert it into elements which can be absorbed by the body ○ I find this meat difficult to digest. 2. to think about something and understand it fully ○ Give me time to digest the news. ■ noun /dɪ'gɛst/ a summary (formal) ○ He published a digest of the conference proceedings.

digestible /dɪ'gɛstɪb(ə)l/ adj which can be digested. Synonym edible. Antonym indigestible digestion /dɪ'gɛstʃən/ noun the process by which food is broken down and elements absorbed into the body. Synonym assimilation digestive /dɪ'gɛstɪv/ adj which helps you to digest food digestive biscuit /dɪ'gɛstɪv 'bɪskɪt/ noun a sweet wholemeal biscuit digger /'dɪgə/ noun a person or machine that digs up mud or earth digit /'dɪdʒɪt/ noun 1. a single number ○ a seven-digit phone number 2. a finger or toe digital /'dɪdʒɪt(ə)l/ adj 1. involving figures 2. (of audio and video signals) converted into a form that can be processed by computers and accurately reproduced ○ A new digital recording of the symphony. ○ There will soon be hundreds of digital channels available on TV.

digital camera /'dɪdʒɪt(ə)l 'kæm(ə)rə/ noun a camera that stores photographs in digital form so that they can be processed by a computer digital clock /'dɪdʒɪt(ə)l 'klok/ noun a clock where the time is shown by figures, such as 11:52:02, and not by hands on a dial digital TV /'dɪdʒɪt(ə)l tɪ:'vi:/ noun a TV where the picture has been changed into a form which a computer can process dignified /'dɪgnɪfaɪd/ adj solemn and important-looking. Synonym distinguished dignitary /'dɪgnɪt(ə)ri/ noun an important person. Synonym notable. Antonym no-body □ civic dignitaries the mayor and town council dig out /,dɪg 'aut/ verb 1. to take someone or something out by digging ○ He was dug out of the snow after the avalanche. 2. to find something after a lot of searching ○ They dug out some old photographs of the village.

③ dignity /'dɪgnɪtɪ/ noun a solemn or serious way of behaving □ to be beneath your dignity to be too unimportant for you to bother with ○ It's beneath his dignity to do the washing up.

digress /dɪ'gres/ verb to start to talk or write about something else. Antonym focus digression /dɪ'gres(ə)n/ noun starting to talk or write about something else. Synonym deviation digests /dɪgɪz/ noun a furnished room or rooms let to people such as students (dated informal) Synonym lodgings

③ dig up /,dɪg 'ʌp/ verb 1. to find something by digging ○ We dug up a Roman coin in the garden. 2. to break a solid surface by digging ○ The workmen had to dig the road up to mend the water main. 3. to find information with difficulty ○ He managed to dig up some old government statistics.

dilapidated /dɪ'læpɪdeɪtɪd/ adj falling into ruin. Synonym decrepit. Antonym pristine dilate /dɪ'lɪteɪt/ verb to swell, to become larger dilemma /dɪ'lɛmə/ noun a difficult choice which has to be made □ in a dilemma not sure what action to take diligence /dɪlɪdʒəns/ noun hard careful work. Antonym carelessness diligent /dɪlɪdʒənt/ adj hard-working. Synonym industrious. Antonym lazy diligently /dɪlɪdʒəntli/ adv in a hard-working way dill /dɪl/ noun a common herb used in cooking and in medicine dilute /dɪ'lut/ verb 1. to add a liquid, usually water, to another liquid to make it weaker ○ Dilute the disinfectant with water. 2. to make something weaker and less effective ○ The proposals were thought too radical and were diluted before being announced to the press. ■ adj with water added ○ a solution of dilute antiseptic Antonym concentrated dilution /dɪ'lju:ʃ(ə)n/ noun the action of diluting dim /dɪm/ adj 1. (of light) weak ○ The lights grew dimmer. □ I have a dim recollection of it I can remember it vaguely □ to take a dim view of something to disapprove of something ○ The boss takes a very dim view of people who arrive late for work. 2. rather stupid ○ Sorry, I'm feeling a bit dim today. (NOTE: dimmer – dimmest) ■ verb 1. to make a light less bright ○ They dimmed the cabin lights before takeoff. 2. to become less bright ○ The cinema lights dimmed before the programme started. (NOTE: dimming – dimmed) dime /daim/ noun US a ten-cent coin

③ dimension /dai'menʃən/ noun the extent of a problem ○ the international dimension of the refugee problem ○ The task is taking on huge dimensions.

dimensions /dai'menʃənz/ plural noun measurements such as length or height diminish /dɪ'miːnɪʃ/ verb 1. to make something smaller or weaker ○ Nothing diminishes his enthusiasm for flying. 2. to become smaller or weaker ○ My income has diminished over the last few years.

diminutive /dɪ'miːnjuːtɪv/ adj very small ○ They have a diminutive dog. Synonym tiny. Antonym huge ■ noun 1. a word showing that something is small ○ 'Booklet' is a diminutive of 'book'. 2. a short form of a name ○ 'Betty' is a diminutive of 'Elizabeth'.

dimly /'dɪmli/ adv not very clearly dimple /'dɪmpəl/ noun a small hollow in a part of the body such as the chin or cheeks din /dɪn/ noun a loud noise ○ The children are making such a din I didn't hear the phone ring. ○ What a din! Can't you be a bit quieter, please? ○ I couldn't make out what the guide was saying above the din of the machines. ■ verb □ to din something into someone's head to force someone to learn something ○ The instructors dinned it into our heads that keeping detailed records is absolutely vital.

dine /dain/ verb to have dinner (formal) □ to dine out to have dinner away from home.

♦ wine

diner /'daɪnə/ noun 1. a person who is eating an evening meal ○ When the restaurant caught fire, the diners ran into the street. 2. the dining car on a train 3. US a small restaurant selling simple hot food (NOTE: Originally, these were made from old dining cars from railway trains.)

dinghy /'dɪŋgi/ noun a small boat, either with oars or sails (NOTE: The plural is dinghies.)

dingo /'dɪŋgəʊ/ noun an Australian wild dog (NOTE: The plural is dingoes.)

dingy /'dɪndʒi/ adj 1. gloomy and lacking light 2. dirty or old-looking dining car /'daiñɪŋ ka:/ noun a railway carriage where meals are served

③ dining room /'daiñɪŋ ru:m/ noun a room in a house or hotel where you usually eat dining table /'daiñɪŋ ,teɪb(ə)l/ noun a table on which meals are served and eaten (NOTE: Dining table refers to the piece of furniture, but when you are sitting at it to eat, it is called the dinner table.)

① dinner /'dɪnə/ noun 1. the main meal of the day (usually eaten in the evening) ○ We were having dinner when the telephone rang. ○ Would you like to come to dinner on Saturday? ○ What are we having for dinner? or What's for dinner? 2. a formal evening meal ○ The club is organising a dinner and dance on Saturday. 3. the meal eaten in the middle of the day, especially at school ○ A small number of the children are entitled to free school dinners. (NOTE: If you call the meal in the middle of the day dinner, then you call the evening meal tea or supper. If you call the evening meal dinner, then you call the meal in the middle of the day lunch.) dinner jacket /'dɪnə ,dʒækɪt/ noun a man's formal jacket dinner party /'dɪnə ,pa:ti/ noun a private dinner to which guests are invited dinner table /'dɪnə ,teɪb(ə)l/ noun a table where people are eating

③ dinnertime /'dɪnətaim/ noun the time when you usually have dinner. Synonym mealtime dinosaur /'dænəsɔ:/ noun 1. a large prehistoric reptile ○ At the time when dinosaurs roamed the land, England was covered with tropical forests. 2. someone who seems to belong to a past age ○ He's one of the dinosaurs of British politics.

diocese /'daɪəsɪs/ noun an area under the charge of a bishop dioxide /dai'ɒksaɪd/ noun a chemical compound with two atoms of oxygen to one atom of another substance

③ dip /dɪp/ noun 1. a sudden drop in a road, of land ○ Watch out – there's a dip in the road which makes it difficult to see oncoming cars. 2. a savoury paste into which biscuits or raw vegetables can be dipped as snacks ○ a bowl of avocado dip 3. a short bathe or swim ○ We have time for a quick dip before lunch. ○ Are you coming for a dip in the pool? 4. a sudden small fall ○ Last year there was a dip in our sales. ■ verb 1. □ to dip something into something to put something quickly into a liquid ○ She dipped the biscuit into her coffee. ○ She dipped her hand into the stream. 2. to fall suddenly ○ Shares dipped sharply on the stock exchange. ○ The bird flew overhead then dipped behind the trees. 3. □ to dip your headlights to lower the beam of the headlights of your car ○ Please drive with dipped headlights in the tunnel.

diphtheria /dɪf'θɪəriə/ noun a serious infectious disease of children diphthong /'dɪfθɒŋ/ noun two vowel sounds which are pronounced together diploma /dɪ'pləʊmə/ noun a document which shows that a person has reached a certain level of skill in a subject. Synonym certificate diplomacy /dɪ'pləʊməsɪ/ noun the art of negotiating, especially between different countries diplomat /'dipləmæt/ noun a person, such as an ambassador, who represents his country abroad diplomatic /dɪplə'mætɪk/ adj 1. referring to diplomats or diplomacy ○ We are looking for a diplomatic solution to the crisis, rather than sending in troops. 2. careful not to give offence ○ It wouldn't be very diplomatic to arrive late for the wedding.

diplomatic corps /,dɪplə'mætɪk kɔ:/ noun all the foreign diplomats in a country dipped beam /dɪpt 'bi:m/ noun the lowered headlights of a car dire /'daɪə/ adj very serious. Synonym terrible. Antonym wonderful □ dire necessity urgent need ○ Only phone me at home in case of dire necessity. □ in dire straits in a very difficult situation ○ The company must be in dire straits – the staff haven't been paid for weeks.

① direct /daɪ'rekt/ adj 1. straight, without any bends or stops ○ What's the most direct way of getting to London? □ direct line a telephone line which takes you straight to the person you wish to contact ○ This phone number will give you a direct line to the minister. □ direct flight a flight without any stops ○ There are direct flights every day to London. □ direct hit a hit right on the target ○ We scored a direct hit on the enemy's headquarters. 2. not involving another person or organisation 3. not trying to hide the meaning ○ I want a direct answer to a direct question. ■ verb 1. to manage or to organise something ○ He directs our London operations. ○ The policeman was directing the traffic. 2. to aim towards a point ○ He directed his remarks to the manager. 3. to tell someone how to get to a place ○ Can you direct me to the nearest post office? 4. to tell someone to do something ○ The insecticide has to be used as directed on the bottle. ○ He did as he had been directed, and took the plane to Birmingham. ■ adv 1. straight, without stopping ○ The plane flies direct to Anchorage. 2. without passing through an operator ○ You can telephone New York direct from here. 3. not involving other people ○ They sell insurance direct to the public.

direct current /daɪ'rekt 'kərənt/ noun an electric current which flows in one direction. Abbr DC. Compare alternating current direct debit /daɪ'rekt 'debit/ noun a system where a customer allows a company to charge costs to his bank account automatically and where the amount charged can be increased or decreased with the agreement of the customer

① direction /daɪ'rekʃən/ noun 1. the point towards which you are going ○ You are going in the wrong direction if you want to get to the station. ○ The post office is in the opposite direction. □ in all directions everywhere ○ The wind was blowing bits of old newspapers in all directions. ■ sense of direction 2. □ directions for use instructions on how to use something 3. organising or managing ○ He took over the direction of the group.

directions /daɪ'rekʃənz/ plural noun instructions on how to do something

③ directive /daɪ'rektɪv/ noun an official instruction. Synonym order

② directly /daɪ'rektli/ adv 1. straight, without anything or anyone between ○ This door opens directly into the kitchen. ○ She reports directly to the managing director himself. 2. soon ○ I'll be with you directly. ■ conj as soon as ○ I will write the letter directly I get home.

direct mail /daɪ'rekt 'meɪl/ noun selling something by sending publicity material to possible buyers through the post direct object /,daɪ'rekt ə'bɒdʒɪkt/ noun a noun or pronoun in a sentence representing the person or thing affected directly by the action of the verb

① director /daɪ'rektə/ noun 1. a person who is appointed by the shareholders to help run a firm ○ The sales director gave a report on sales to date. ○ There are four directors on the board of the company. 2. a person in charge of an organisation or a project ○ She's just started her job as director of an international charity. 3. a person who organises the making of a film or play, giving instructions to the actors, dealing with the lighting, sound, etc. ○ Who was the first female director to win an Oscar? Compare producer directorate /daɪ'rekt(ə)rət/ noun 1. a group of directors ○ The directorate will meet next week to discuss the issue. 2. an official government body which directs something ○ a government examinations directorate

③ directory /daɪ'rekt(ə)ri/ noun a book giving lists of professional people, organisations or businesses with their addresses and telephone numbers. Synonym listing directory enquiries /daɪ'rekt(ə)ri in'kwaɪərɪz/ noun a telephone service which finds phone numbers which you do not know or cannot find direct speech /dai'rekt 'spi:tʃ/ noun what someone actually says direct tax /dai'rekt 'tæks/ noun a tax based on income direct taxation /dai'rekt tæk'seʃ(ə)n/ noun a tax, such as income tax, which is paid straight to the government ③ dirt /dɜ:t/ noun mud; earth ○ Children were playing in the dirt. ○ His clothes were covered with dirt from handling potatoes.

dirt cheap /dɜ:t 'tʃi:p/ adj, adv very cheap

① dirty /dɜ:ti/ adj 1. not clean ○ After the party, someone has to wash all the dirty plates. ○ Don't come into the kitchen with your dirty boots on. 2. not honest, not done according to the rules ○ He never uses violence himself, he just gets other people to do his dirty work for him. ○ There was some dirty play from the other team. ○ He's one of the dirtiest players in Football League. 3. pornographic, about sex ○ He keeps the dirty magazines on the top shelf. ○ He makes his money selling dirty postcards to tourists. 4. □ dirty look an annoyed or disapproving look ○ He gave some dirty looks from the traffic wardens. ■ verb to make something dirty, or to cover something in dirt ○ Look – you've dirtied the clean kitchen floor! Synonym soil. Antonym clean (NOTE: dirtier – dirtiest) dirty old man /dɜ:ti 'əuld 'mæn/ noun an old man who shows a lot of interest in sex (informal insult)

③ dirty trick /dɜ:ti 'trɪk/ noun 1. a nasty action that upsets someone ○ That was a dirty trick to play on an old lady. 2. a dishonest method of spoiling someone's plans or of ruining his or her reputation by spreading rumours ○ They mounted a dirty tricks campaign against the rival company.

disability /dɪsə'bɪlɪti/ noun a condition in which a person is unable to use a part of their body because of some permanent injury or illness disable /dɪs'eɪb(ə)l/ verb to make someone or something unable to function normally. Synonym incapacitate

③ disabled /dɪs'eɪb(ə)ld/ adj 1. not able to use part of your body, e.g. because of illness ○ a hospital for disabled ex-servicemen ○ The car crash left him permanently disabled. 2. not able to work properly ○ A tug went to the help of the disabled cruise ship. ■ noun ○ the disabled disabled people disablement /dɪs'eɪb(ə)lmənt/ noun a condition where a person has a physical or mental disability disabling /dɪs'eblɪŋ/ adj which disables disadvantage /dɪsəd'ventɪdʒ/ noun a drawback or a factor which makes someone or something less likely to succeed ○ Her main disadvantage is her lack of experience.

○ It was a disadvantage not to be able to get to the airport quickly. ○ There are certain disadvantages to leaving at 5.30 in the morning. Synonym difficulty. Antonym advantage □ at a disadvantage handicapped by something, suffering from a disadvantage ○ We are at a disadvantage compared with our competitors because we have no sales force.

disadvantaged /dɪsəd'ventɪdʒd/ adj 1. suffering a disadvantage ○ She was disadvantaged by her lack of experience. 2. living in a poor environment, without any facilities ○ state help for schools in disadvantaged areas disadvantageous /dɪsəd'ven'teɪdʒəs/ adj which does not give an advantage; unfavourable. Synonym detrimental. Antonym advantageous disaffected /dɪsə'fektɪd/ adj discontented or rebellious. Synonym disillusioned. Antonym enthusiastic

② disagree /dɪsə'gri:/ verb 1. not to agree, to say that you do not think the same way as someone ○ We all disagreed with the chairperson. ○ They all disagreed about what to do next. 2. □ to disagree with someone to make someone feel ill ○ Raw onions disagree with me.

③ disagreeable /dɪsə'gri:əb(ə)l/ adj unpleasant disagreeably /dɪsə'gri:əbli/ adv in an unpleasant way

② disagreement /dɪsə'gri:mənt/ noun an argument ○ They had a disagreement about who should sit in the front row. ○ Nothing could be decided because of the disagreement between the chair and the treasurer.

disallow /dɪsə'lau/ verb to reject something, not to accept something □ the goal was disallowed the goal was not counted in the score

② disappear /dɪsə'pɪə/ verb 1. to vanish, not to be seen any more ○ He hit the ball hard and it disappeared into the bushes. ○ The two boys disappeared on their way home from school. 2. to stop existing ○ The dinosaurs disappeared millions of years ago.

disappearance /dɪsə'pɪərəns/ noun vanishing

③ disappoint /dɪsə'pɔɪnt/ verb to make someone sad, because things did not turn out as expected

③ disappointed /dɪsə'pɔɪntɪd/ adj sad, because things did not turn out as expected ○ She is disappointed with her exam results. ○ He was disappointed because his ticket didn't win a prize. ○ You should have seen the disappointed expression on his face. Synonym let down. Antonym satisfied

③ disappointing /,dɪsə'pɔɪntɪŋ/ adj which makes you sad because it does not turn out as expected. Synonym unsatisfactory. Antonym satisfactory

③ disappointment /,dɪsə'pɔɪntmənt/ noun 1. sadness because what was expected did not take place ○ To his great disappointment, he didn't win anything on the lottery. ○ She tried hard not to show her disappointment. (NOTE: no plural in this meaning) 2. something that disappoints someone ○ It was a disappointment to his parents when he failed his exam. ○ After many disappointments she finally won a prize.

disapproval /,dɪsə'pru:v(ə)l/ noun the act of disapproving. Synonym condemnation. Antonym approval disapprove /,dɪsə'pru:v/ verb □ to disapprove of something to show that you do not approve of something, that you do not think something is good ○ The junta openly disapproves of the judicial system. ○ The head teacher disapproves of members of staff wearing jeans to school.

disarm /dɪs'ə:m/ verb to remove weapons from someone disarmament /dɪs'ə:mənt/ noun reducing the number of arms held by a country disarming /dɪs'ə:min/ adj charming, in such a way that you cannot be annoyed. Antonym unattractive disarray /,dɪsə'rei/ noun a lack of order

② disaster /dɪ'zə:stə/ noun 1. a catastrophe, a very bad accident ○ We're insured against natural disasters such as hurricanes and earthquakes. ○ The disaster was caused by fog or was due to fog. ○ Ten people died in the air disaster. 2. something that is completely unsuccessful ○ The advertising campaign was a disaster – our sales went down. ○ If it rains the village fete will be a complete disaster. 3. financial collapse □ the company is heading for or is on a disaster course the company is going to collapse disaster area /dɪ'zə:stə ,eəriə/ noun 1. a place that has recently undergone a natural disaster 2. a very untidy or disorganised place, person or situation disastrous /dɪ'zə:st्रəs/ adj very bad, catastrophic disastrously /dɪ'zə:st्रəsli/ adv very badly disband /dɪs'bænd/ verb 1. to split up an organised group and end their activities ○ After the successful coup, the former army was disbanded. ○ We are disbanding our door-to-door sales team and relying on mail order selling in future. 2. to stop working together ○ The group disbanded and its members started to go solo.

disbelief /,dɪsbr'lɪ:f/ noun extreme surprise, not being able to believe something. Synonym incredulity disbelieve /,dɪsbr'lɪ:v/ verb 1. to not believe someone or something 2. to have no religious belief

② disc /dɪsk/ noun 1. a round flat object; a music record ○ The setting sun was a huge orange disc on the horizon. 2. a flat round bone which links with others to make the backbone discard /dɪs'ka:d/ verb to put something or someone on one side because they are no longer useful, to throw something away. Synonym throw away. Antonym keep discern /dɪ'sɜ:n/ verb 1. to see something, to make something out with difficulty ○ In the fog, we could barely discern the traffic coming in the opposite direction. ○ Can you discern any improvement in her pulse rate? 2. to understand something, to find out about something ○ It's hard to discern what her motives might be.

discernible /dɪ'sɜ:nəb(ə)l/ adj which can be seen. Synonym visible discerning /dɪ'sɜ:nɪŋ/ adj with good judgement. Synonym discriminating. Antonym indiscriminate discharge noun /'dɪstʃɑ:dʒ/ 1. a liquid which comes out of something such as a pipe ○ The discharge from the factory flows into the river. 2. pus which comes out of a wound ○ The wound healed well with no further discharge. 3. the payment of a debt ○ Discharge of the debt must take place within thirty days. 4. the release of a prisoner ○ He was arrested again within a month of his discharge from prison. □ verb /dɪs'tʃɑ:dʒ/ 1. to get rid of waste ○ The factory is discharging waste water into the river. 2. to send someone away ○ The judge discharged the jury. □ he was discharged from hospital he was sent home from hospital 3. to let a prisoner go free ○ The prisoners were discharged by the judge. ○ He was discharged after having served eleven months in jail. 4. to pay a debt ○ How will she discharge this debt if she has no income? 5. to remove a load from a vehicle ○ Several trucks were waiting to discharge their loads. 6. to dismiss someone, to sack someone ○ He was discharged for being late.

disciple /dɪ'saɪp(ə)l/ noun a follower, especially of a religious leader disciplinary /,dɪsɪ'plɪnəriə/ noun a person who believes in strict discipline. Synonym tyrant disciplinary /,dɪsɪ'plɪnəri/ adj which keeps someone under control or which punishes someone. Synonym punitive

② discipline /'dɪsɪplɪn/ noun 1. keeping people under control ○ The tour leaders are trying to keep discipline among the teenagers. ○ We need to enforce stricter discipline in the school. (NOTE: no plural in this meaning) 2. a branch of learning ○ biology and other related disciplines ■ verb to control someone, to punish someone ○ As a result of the investigation, one employee was dismissed and three were disciplined. ○ She was disciplined for swearing at her supervisor.

disciplined /'dɪsɪplɪnd/ adj trained and well controlled disc jockey /'disk ,dʒɒki/ noun a person who plays music at a disco or on radio. Abbr DJ disclaim /dɪs'kleɪm/ verb not to admit, to deny. Synonym deny □ he disclaims all knowledge of the payment he says he knows nothing about the payment disclaimer /dɪs'kleɪmə/ noun 1. a denial of responsibility 2. a statement in which a legal right is renounced disclose /dɪs'kluːz/ verb to reveal a secret. Antonym conceal

③ disclosure /dɪs'kluːʒə/ noun 1. a piece of information that had been kept secret before ○ The newspaper carried sensational disclosures about the pop star's private life. 2. the action of revealing a secret ○ He resigned after the disclosure of his corrupt past.

disco /'diskəʊ/ noun a place where people dance to recorded music; a party where people dance to pop music (NOTE: short for discotheque. The plural is discos.)

discolour /dɪs'kʌlə/ verb to change a colour (NOTE: The US spelling is discolor.)

discoloured /dɪs'kʌləd/ adj which has changed colour (NOTE: The US spelling is discolored.)

discomfort /dɪs'kʌmfət/ noun a lack of comfort disconcert /,dɪskən'sɔːt/ verb to surprise and worry someone. Synonym unsettle disconcerted /,dɪskən'sɔːtɪd/ adj uneasy, or confused disconcerting /,dɪskən'sɔːtɪŋ/ adj worrying or surprising. Synonym disturbing disconnect /,dɪskə'nekt/ verb to remove the connection to a mechanical or electrical device. Antonym connect discontent /,dɪskən'tent/ noun a state of not being satisfied. Synonym dissatisfaction. Antonym contentment discontented /,dɪskən'tentɪd/ adj not satisfied. Synonym dissatisfied. Antonym contented discontinue /,dɪskən'tɪnjuː/ verb to stop stocking, selling or making a product. Antonym continue discord /'dɪskɔːd/ noun a lack of agreement discordant /dɪs'kɔːdənt/ adj 1. not in agreement ○ Anyone wanting to express discordant opinions was prevented from doing so by the chair. □ to strike a discordant note to say something that other people will not like or agree with ○ I don't wish to strike a discordant note, but your suggestions don't seem at all helpful to me. 2. out of harmony ○ The discordant chords of the music sound odd to our ears.

discotheque /'dɪskətek/ noun full form of disco

③ discount noun /'dɪskɔːnt/ an amount by which a full price is reduced ○ The store gives a discount on bulk purchases. ○ We give a discount on summer holidays booked before Christmas. Synonym reduction □ to sell goods at a discount or discount price to sell goods below the usual price □ 10% discount for cash, 10% cash discount you pay 10% less if you pay in cash ■ verb /dɪs'kaʊnt/ 1. to reduce the price of goods ○ We are discounting many items in our January sales. 2. not to pay any attention to something ○ Don't discount all his advice – he is very experienced.

discourage /dɪs'kʌrɪdʒ/ verb 1. not to encourage ○ We try to discourage people from coming in without tickets. 2. to take away all hope ○ They were completely discouraged by their results. ○ Don't be discouraged by the small number of people in the audience.

discouraged /dɪs'kʌrɪdʒd/ adj feeling less confident or optimistic discouragement /dɪs'kʌrɪdʒmənt/ noun 1. feeling or being discouraged ○ He gave up in discouragement after failing his exam for the fifth time. 2. a thing which discourages you from doing something ○ In spite of various discouragements, she continued studying and got her degree.

discouraging /dɪs'kʌrɪdʒɪŋ/ adj not encouraging

③ discourse /'dɪskɔːs/ noun a talk, a speech discourteous /dɪs'kɔːtiəs/ adj rude. Antonym polite

① discover /dɪ'skʌvə/ verb to find something new or to learn something for the first time ○ Who discovered penicillin? ○ We discovered that the estate agent had sold the house twice. ○ The auditors discovered some errors in the accounts.

discoverer /dɪ'skʌvərə/ noun a person who discovers something. Synonym inventor

③ discovery /dɪ'skʌv(ə)rɪ/ noun 1. the act of finding something new or learning something for the first time ○ her discovery that someone had been in her house while she was away ○ They congratulated him on his discovery of a new planet. 2. a new thing which has been found ○ The first discovery they made was that the lake contained salt water. ○ Look at his latest discovery – an antique oak table which he found in a barn.

discredit /dɪs'kredɪt/ noun loss of respect ○ She brought discredit on the whole family. (NOTE: no plural) ■ verb to make people doubt or lose respect for someone or something ○ When stories about his private life appeared in the press he was totally discredited as a minister. ○ They set out to discredit his research.

discreet /dɪ'skri:t/ adj 1. not giving away or trying to find out private information about other people ○ She never gossips – she is very discreet. 2. not intending to attract attention ○ I had a discreet word with the vicar before the service.

discreetly /dɪs'kri:tli/ adv quietly, without anyone noticing discrepancy /dɪ'skrepənsi/ noun a lack of agreement between figures or stories. Synonym inconsistency (NOTE: The plural is discrepancies.)

discretion /dɪ'skref(ə)n/ noun 1. the power to decide or choose what to do ○ at your discretion □ I leave it to your discretion I will let you decide what to do ○ Gratuities are left to the discretion of the customer. 2. wisdom, tact, or good sense ○ He showed great discretion in his handling of the family crisis. 3. the ability to keep a secret, not to give information about someone ○ You can rely on her – she's known for her discretion. (NOTE: no plural) discretionary /dɪ'skref(ə)n(ə)ri/ adj which can be done if someone wants it. Synonym optional. Antonym mandatory □ the tribunal has wide discretionary powers the tribunal can act in various ways when it decides it is necessary ③ discriminate /dɪ'skrɪmɪneɪt/ verb 1. to distinguish □ to discriminate between two things to treat two things in different ways ○ The selectors must not discriminate between men and women applicants. ○ We discriminate between part-time and full-time staff. 2. □ to discriminate against to be biased against ○ She accused the management of discriminating against her.

discriminating /dɪ'skrɪmɪnɪtɪŋ/ adj able to tell the difference between two things, able to tell the value of something. Synonym discerning discrimination /dɪ'skrɪmɪ'nɛɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. treating people in different ways because of class, religion, race, language, colour or sex ○ We try to avoid discrimination against older applicants. □ sexual or sex discrimination, discrimination on grounds of sex treating men and women in different ways 2.

good taste ○ The shop sells gifts which appeal to people with discrimination. (NOTE: no plural) discriminatory /dɪ'skrɪmɪnət(ə)ri/ adj which shows discrimination. Synonym biased discursive /dɪ'skɜ:sɪv/ adj which does not keep to the point, which changes from one subject to another. Antonym concise discus /'dɪskəs/ noun a flat round disc which is thrown as a sport (NOTE: Do not confuse with discuss. The plural is discuses.)

① discuss /dɪ'skʌs/ verb to talk about a serious matter or problem ○ The point of the meeting is to discuss how to save money. ○ They spent hours discussing the details of the wedding. Synonym talk over

① discussion /dɪ'skʌʃ(ə)n/ noun talking about a serious matter or problem ○ Most problems can be solved by discussion. ○ The next programme will feature a discussion between environmental experts. ○ She had a heated discussion with the bus driver. Synonym conversation □ the question under discussion the question we are talking about disdain /dɪs'deɪn/ noun a feeling that someone or something is inferior ○ She showed her disdain by refusing to shake his hand. Synonym scorn. Antonym respect (NOTE: no plural) ■ verb 1. to look down on something ○ She disdains all modern appliances like computers and mobile phones. 2. □ to disdain to do something to refuse to do something because it is beneath you ○ He disdained to carry his own luggage, but got a porter to do it for him.

disdainful /dɪs'deɪnf(ə)l/ adj superior, showing disdain. Antonym respectful

① disease /dɪ'zi:z/ noun a serious illness ○ Hundreds of people caught the disease. ○ It is a disease that can be treated with antibiotics.

diseased /dɪ'zi:zd/ adj 1. affected by an illness 2. not whole or normal disembark /dɪsim'bɑ:k/ verb to get off a ship or a plane, etc. Antonym embark disembarkation /dɪsim'bɑ:k'eɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the act of getting off a ship or a plane etc.

disembodied /dɪsim'bɒdɪd/ adj without physical presence disenchanted /dɪsɪn'tʃə:nɪd/ adj □ to be disenchanted with something not to be as pleased as you used to be with something, to start to dislike something ○ She's very disenchanted with her new job and is thinking of quitting.

disengage /dɪsɪn'geɪdʒ/ verb 1. □ to disengage the clutch (in a car, etc.) to press down on the clutch pedal, so that the engine is no longer connected with the gears 2. to break off a military action □ the troops disengaged the troops stopped fighting disengagement /,dɪsɪn'geɪdʒmənt/ noun the act of stopping fighting disentangle /,dɪsɪn'tæŋgəl/ verb 1. to straighten out things that are tied or knotted together 2. to clarify something 3. to free someone from a complicated situation disfavour /dɪs'fɜːvəl/ noun a lack of approval (NOTE: The US spelling is disfavor.) □ to fall into disfavour to stop being approved of ○ The minister fell into disfavour and was exiled. ○ The duke incurred the king's disfavour.

disfigure /dɪs'fɪgər/ verb to change someone's appearance so as to make it less pleasant disfigurement /dɪs'fɪgəmənt/ noun a mark that makes someone or something look less attractive. Synonym scar. Antonym enhancement disfiguring /dɪs'fɪgərɪŋ/ adj which disfigures

③ disgrace /dɪs'greɪs/ noun 1. the loss of someone's respect because of errors, scandal or corruption ○ The minister's disgrace followed the discovery of the papers in his office. □ the minister fell into disgrace the minister became out of favour 2. a thing which brings shame ○ He's a disgrace to the teaching profession. ○ It was a disgrace to see her lying on the pavement like that. (NOTE: no plural) ■ verb to bring shame on someone ○ He disgraced all his family by arriving drunk at the tea party. □ to disgrace yourself to do something which brings shame on you ○ He disgraced himself by throwing sandwiches at the speakers.

disgraced /dɪs'greɪst/ adj no longer in a position of authority because of errors, corruption or scandal disgraceful /dɪs'greɪsf(ə)l/ adj which people should be ashamed of, terrible. Synonym shameful disgruntled /dɪs'grantld/ adj annoyed or discontented. Antonym contented disguise /dɪs'gaɪz/ noun a costume or wig, e.g., to make a person look like someone else ○ I didn't recognise him as he was wearing a disguise. Synonym mask □ in disguise dressed to look like someone else ○ The tramp turned out to be a policeman in disguise. ■ verb 1. to dress someone or yourself so as to look like someone else ○ He entered the country disguised as a fisherman. ○ She wore a wig to disguise her hair. 2. to make something look or sound different □ there is no disguising the fact you cannot hide the fact disgust /dɪs'gʌst/ noun 1. a strong dislike, feeling sick ○ The sight of the dead cat filled her with disgust. 2. a strong feeling of annoyance ○ To my disgust, the examiner passed my friend and failed me. □ in disgust showing that you are upset and annoyed ○ She walked out of the interview in disgust. ■ verb to give someone a strong feeling of dislike or disapproval ○ The smell of cooking disgusted her. ○ The greediness of these people disgusts me. Synonym sicken. Antonym please disgusted /dɪs'gʌstɪd/ adj feeling shocked. Antonym charmed

② disgusting /dɪs'gʌstɪŋ/ adj that fills you with disgust. Synonym revolting

② dish /dɪʃ/ noun 1. a large plate for serving food ○ She carefully arranged the slices of meat on a dish. 2. □ to wash or do the dishes to wash plates, glasses, cutlery after a meal ○ He's offered to do the dishes. 3. a plate of prepared food ○ We are trying a new Mexican dish. 4. a round aerial, shaped like a plate, used to get signals from satellites ○ Almost every house in the street has a satellite dish on the roof. (NOTE: The plural is dishes.)

dishcloth /'dɪsklɒθ/ noun a cloth for washing dishes dishearten /dɪs'ha:t(ə)n/ verb to discourage someone disheartened /dɪs'ha:t(ə)nd/ adj feeling discouraged disheartening /dɪs'ha:t(ə)nɪŋ/ adj making somebody lose hope or enthusiasm dishes /'dɪsɪz/ plural noun things you use for eating from, such as plates and cups dishevelled /dɪ'ʃevləd/ adj (of hair) wild, which has not been combed (NOTE: The US spelling is disheveled.)

dishonest /dɪs'ɒnɪst/ adj not honest dishonestly /dɪs'ɒnɪstɪ/ adv not honestly dishonesty /dɪs'ɒnɪsti/ noun a lack of honesty. Synonym deceit (NOTE: no plural) dishonour /dɪs'ɒnə/ noun losing your honour ○ His actions brought dishonour to the school. ■ verb not to honour something (NOTE: [all senses] The US spelling is dishonor.)

dishonourable /dɪs'ɒn(ə)rəb(ə)l/ adj with dishonour (NOTE: The US spelling is dishonorable.)

dishonourably /dɪs'ɒnərəbli/ adv in a dishonourable way (NOTE: The US spelling is dishonorable.)

③ dish out /,dɪʃ 'aʊt/ verb to hand something out, especially in large quantities (informal) Synonym distribute

③ dish up /,dɪʃ 'ʌp/ verb to serve food

③ dishwasher /'dɪʃwɒʃə/ noun a machine for washing dishes □ dishwasher-proof (of dishes) not harmed by being washed in a dishwasher dishwater /'dɪʃwɔ:tə/ noun water which has been used for washing dishes disillusion /,dɪsɪ'lju:ʒ(ə)n/ verb to make someone feel let down, or sad that something has not turned out as expected. Antonym inspire disillusioned /,dɪsɪ'lju:ʒ(ə)nd/ adj feeling that something has not turned out as expected disillusionment /,dɪsɪ'lju:ʒ(ə)nment/ noun a feeling of being let down because something has not turned out as expected disinclined /,dɪsɪn'klaind/ adj □ to be disinclined to do something to feel you do not want to do something (formal) ○ I'm disinclined to lend them any more money.

disinfect /,dɪsin'fekt/ verb to remove germs or bacteria from something. Synonym sterilise. Antonym contaminate disinfectant /,dɪsin'fektənt/ noun a substance used to kill germs and bacteria. Synonym antiseptic disinformation /,dɪsɪnfə'meɪʃ(ə)n/ noun false information that is intended to confuse an enemy or an opponent. Synonym deception. Antonym truth disingenuous /,dɪsin'dʒenjuəs/ adj pretending to be sincere while trying to hide something. Synonym dishonest disintegrate /,dɪs'ɪntɪgrēt/ verb to fall to pieces. Synonym crumble. Antonym reconstitute disinterested /,dɪs'ɪntrəstɪd/ adj 1. quite impartial, not in favour of one side or the other ○ a totally disinterested observer 2. not interested ○ She seemed quite disinterested in what was going on. (NOTE: This use is common, but regarded as wrong. The correct word to use in this meaning is uninterested.)

disjointed /dɪs'dʒɔɪntɪd/ adj without any links; unconnected. Antonym coherent disk drive /'disk draɪv/ noun a device which holds a disk in a computer and controls the access of information

③ dislike /dɪs'laɪk/ noun 1. not liking something or someone ○ She had never felt such a dislike for someone before. □ to take a dislike to to hate ○ Their dog took a hearty dislike to the postman. 2. a thing which you do not like ○ We try to take account of the likes and dislikes of individual customers. ■ verb not to like something or someone ○ I dislike him intensely. ○ I dislike it when the people behind me at the cinema start whispering. ○ My father dislikes having to get up early on Monday mornings. Synonym hate □ I don't dislike Mozart I quite like Mozart dislocate /'dɪsləkeɪt/ verb 1. to displace a bone from its normal position at a joint ○ He fell and dislocated his elbow. ○ The shoulder joint dislocates easily. 2. to disorganise something ○ Train services have been dislocated by the strike.

dislocation /,dɪslə'keɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. a condition where a bone is displaced from its normal position at a joint ○ The dislocation of his elbow means that he can't drive. 2. disorganisation ○ The fog will lead to some dislocation of services.

dislodge /dɪs'lɒdʒ/ verb to move something which is stuck. Synonym remove disloyal /dɪs'lɔɪəl/ adj not loyal. Synonym unfaithful. Antonym loyal disloyalty /dɪs'lɔɪəlti/ noun a lack of loyalty, not being loyal. Antonym loyalty dismal /'dɪzm(ə)l/ adj miserable dismally /'dɪzməli/ adv miserably □ to fail dismally to fail very badly ○ He failed his test dismally.

dismantle /dɪs'mænt(ə)l/ verb to take something to pieces dismay /dɪs'meɪ/ noun great disappointment ○ To her great dismay she couldn't find her passport. ○ To the dismay of the supporters, the team played extremely badly. ■ verb to strike someone with horror ○ His reaction to her letter dismayed her. ○ She was dismayed to find that her passport had been stolen.

dismayed /dɪs'meɪd/ adj shocked and upset dismember /dɪs'membə/ verb to cut something up into pieces

③ dismiss /dɪs'mɪs/ verb 1. to remove an employee from a job ○ He was dismissed for being late. ○ When they found him taking money from the petty cash he was dismissed instantly. 2. to send someone away ○ At the end of the interview he dismissed her with a brief 'good afternoon'. 3. to refuse to consider an idea ○ Her plan was dismissed as being quite impractical. ○ All his suggestions were dismissed by the MD. 4. to refuse a request ○ They dismissed my application for a loan.

dismissal /dɪs'mɪs(ə)l/ noun removal from a job □ unfair dismissal the removing of a person from his job for reasons which do not appear to be reasonable ○ He appealed to the tribunal on the grounds of unfair dismissal.

dismissive /dɪs'mɪsɪv/ adj showing that you do not consider something or someone important dismount /dɪs'maʊnt/ verb to get off something such as a horse or bicycle. Synonym get down disobedience /,dɪsə'bɪ:diəns/ noun an act of refusing to obey someone. Synonym defiance. Antonym obedience disobedient /,dɪsə'bɪ:diənt/ adj not obeying. Synonym defiant. Antonym obedient disobey /dɪsə'beɪ/ verb not to obey. Synonym defy. Antonym obey

③ disorder /dɪs'ɔ:də/ noun 1. a lack of order ○ The whole office is in a state of disorder. 2. a riot, disturbance in the streets ○ Violent public disorders broke out in the streets. 3. an illness ○ She suffers from a stomach disorder. ○ a doctor who specialises in disorders of the kidneys or in kidney disorders disordered /dɪs'ɔ:dəd/ adj 1. untidy or confused 2. not working normally disorderly /dɪs'ɔ:dəlɪ/ adj wild and out of order disorganised /dɪs'ɔ:gənaɪzd/, disorganized adj not well organised disorientate /dɪs'ɔ:riənteɪt/ verb to make someone feel confused, especially so that they do not know where they are (NOTE: The US term is disorient.)

disown /dɪs'ən/ verb to refuse to accept that something is yours disparage /dɪ'spærɪdʒ/ verb to say that something is not very good. Synonym belittle. Antonym praise disparagement /dɪ'spærɪdʒmənt/ noun the act of disparaging. Antonym praise disparaging /dɪ'spærɪdʒɪŋ/ adj saying that something is not very good. Synonym critical disparate /'dɪspərət/ adj various or different disparity /dɪ'spærɪti/ noun difference (formal). Antonym parity dispassionate /dɪs'pæʃ(ə)nət/ adj calm, with no emotion. Synonym calm dispatch /dɪ'spætʃ/ noun 1. sending ○ Dispatch of the goods will be delayed until Monday. 2. a message sent ○ The reporters send regular dispatches from the war zone. ○ We received a dispatch from our Calcutta office. (NOTE: The plural is dispatches.) □ with dispatch immediately and with as much speed as possible (formal) □ verb 1. to send something ○ They dispatched the message to all commanding officers. ○ The goods were dispatched to you first thing this morning. 2. to finish doing something quickly ○ She set to work on the files and dispatched most of them by lunchtime.

dispatch box /dɪ'spætʃ bɒks/ noun a box with government papers dispel /dɪ'spel/ verb to clear something away (NOTE: disPELLING – dispelled) dispensary /dɪ'spensəri/ noun a place where a chemist prepares medicines according to a doctor's prescription dispensation /,dɪspen'seʃ(ə)n/ noun permission not to follow something such as a rule dispense /dɪ'spens/ verb 1. to provide something ○ Local magistrates dispense justice in the villages. ○ He sits in his office dispensing good advice to anyone who asks him for it. 2. □ to dispense with something not to use something any more ○ We've dispensed with the services of an accountant.

dispenser /dɪ'spensə/ noun a machine which automatically provides something when money is put in or a button is pushed dispensing chemist /dɪ'spensɪŋ kemɪst/ noun a chemist who prepares and sells medicine dispersal /dɪ'spɜ:s(ə)l/ noun the way in which people or things are spread over an area disperse /dɪ'spɜ:s/ verb 1. to clear something away ○ The sun will soon disperse the mist. ○ The police were called in to disperse the crowds of angry fans. 2. to move quickly in different directions ○ The crowd dispersed rapidly once the parade was over.

dispersed /dɪ'spɜ:st/ adj spread across a wide area, not close together dispirited /dɪ'spɪrɪtɪd/ adj sad or unhappy; feeling disappointed. Antonym cheerful displace /dɪs'pleɪs/ verb to move something from its usual place displacement /dɪs'pleɪmənt/ noun 1. the moving of something to a different place ○ The invasion resulted in the displacement of thousands of people from their homes. 2. an amount of water which is removed by a floating ship, used to show the size of the ship ○ A ship with a displacement of 20,000 tons.

② display /dɪ'spleɪ/ noun 1. a show, exhibition ○ a display of local crafts ○ They have a fine display of Chinese porcelain. 2. □ on display shown in an exhibition or for sale ○ The shop has several car models on display.

■ verb 1. to put something on show ○ She is displaying her collection of Persian carpets at the antiques fair. 2. to show something ○ He displayed considerable courage in meeting the rebel troops. ○ Make sure your parking ticket is clearly displayed on the windscreen.

displease /dɪs'pli:z/ verb to make someone angry or annoyed. Synonym anger. Antonym please displeased /dɪs'pli:zd/ adj annoyed or dissatisfied displeasure /dɪs'pleʒə/ noun a feeling of being annoyed. Synonym anger. Antonym pleasure (NOTE: no plural) disposable /dɪ'spəʊzəb(ə)l/ adj which can be used and then thrown away ○ disposable cups disposable income /dɪ,spəʊzəb(ə)l/ inkam/ noun an amount of income left after the tax has been taken away disposal /dɪ'spəʊz(ə)l/ noun 1. the act of getting rid of something ○ The disposal of refuse is a problem for large cities. 2. □ my car is at your disposal you can use my car if you want to □ I am at your disposal I am ready to do anything you want dispose /dɪ'spəʊz/ verb □ to dispose of something to get rid of something ○ How are we going to dispose of all this waste paper? ○ His objections are easily disposed of.

disposed /dɪ'spəʊzd/ adj □ he is well disposed towards us he approves of what we are doing □ to be disposed to do something to feel like doing something (formal) ○ They are disposed to accept our terms.

disposition /dɪspə'zɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. character, tendency ○ He has a pleasant easy-going disposition. ○ She has a disposition to argue with her husband. 2. the act of passing land or goods to another person, especially in a will ○ to make testamentary dispositions disproportionate /dɪs'prə'pɔ:(f)ə)nət/ adj not of a suitable size or amount for a particular purpose disprove /dɪs'pru:v/ verb to prove something is wrong. Antonym prove ② dispute /dɪ'spju:t, 'dɪspju:t/ noun an argument ○ He tried to mediate in the dispute. ○ There was a little dispute over who would pay the bill. □ in dispute not agreed ○ The ownership of the land is in dispute. ■ verb to argue that something is not correct ○ I dispute her version of what happened. ○ There is no disputing the fact that Sarah is the best qualified of the candidates.

disqualification /dɪs'kwɒlfɪ'keɪʃ(ə)n/ noun an action by which someone is disqualified. Antonym entitlement disqualify /dɪs'kwɒlfɪfaɪ/ verb to make someone not able to do something. Synonym ban disquiet /dɪs'kwaɪət/ noun worry. Synonym unrest disquieting /dɪs'kwaɪətɪŋ/ adj worrying disregard /dɪs'regə:d/ noun □ disregard for something not paying any attention to something ○ He showed a complete disregard for public safety. ■ verb to take no notice of ○ He disregarded the warning signs and went on along the road. Synonym ignore. Antonym heed disrepair /dɪs'reɪpə/ noun □ in a state of disrepair needing to be repaired disreputable /dɪs'repjʊtəb(ə)l/ adj with a bad reputation, especially for criminal activity. Antonym reputable disrepute /dɪsri'pjʊ:t/ noun a bad reputation □ to bring something into disrepute to give something a bad reputation ○ He was accused of bringing the club into disrepute by his extraordinary behaviour.

disrespect /dɪsri'spekt/ noun a lack of respect to someone. Antonym respect disrespectful /dɪsri'spektf(ə)l/ adj lacking respect; rude. Synonym rude. Antonym respectful disrupt /dɪs'rʌpt/ verb 1. to stop a service running normally ○ The snowstorm has disrupted bus services throughout the country. 2. to break up or to interrupt a meeting ○ We are not used to having our meetings disrupted by protesters.

③ disruption /dɪs'rʌpʃən/ noun 1. stopping the normal working of something ○ The fog has caused disruption to rail timetables. 2. breaking up or interruption of a meeting ○ We locked the door so that there would be no more disruptions.

disruptive /dɪs'rʌptɪv/ adj which disrupts. Synonym troublesome dissatisfaction /dɪs'sætɪs'fækʃən/ noun a lack of satisfaction. Synonym displeasure dissatisfied /dɪs'sætɪsfaɪd/ adj not satisfied. Synonym displeased. Antonym satisfied dissect /dɪs'sekt/ verb to cut up a body to examine it dissection /dɪs'se�ʃən/ noun the process of cutting up something such as a body or plant, for scientific purposes disseminate /dɪs'meɪneɪt/ verb to spread something around dissemination /dɪs'meɪneɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the act of spreading news around dissent /dɪs'ent/ noun lack of agreement ○ The chairman wished to avoid dissent. ○ They received many letters of dissent. Antonym agreement (NOTE: Do not confuse with descent.) ■ verb □ to dissent from not to agree with ○ The sales director dissented from the majority view. □ there were two dissenting votes two people voted against dissenter /dɪs'entə/ noun someone who strongly disagrees with something, especially with matters relating to the Church dissenting /dɪs'entɪŋ/ adj disagreeing with the beliefs or opinions of a majority dissertation /dɪsə'teɪʃ(ə)n/ noun a long essay written as part of a university course disservice /dɪs'se:vɪs/ noun an action which damages or harms □ to do somebody a disservice to do something which harms someone □ you do yourself a disservice you are harming your reputation dissident /dɪs'ɪdənt/ adj not in agreement with the state ○ a dissident writer Synonym rebel ■ noun a person who is not in agreement with the state. 1. Several dissidents tried to set up an underground newspaper. 2. It was a time when dissidents were being arrested and thrown in jail. Synonym dissenter ▶ Antonym (all senses) conformist dissimilar /dɪ'sɪmɪlə/ adj not the same. Synonym unlike. Antonym similar □ they are not dissimilar they are alike dissipate /'dɪsɪpeɪt/ verb 1. to clear something away □ The hot sun soon dissipated the morning mist. □ His statement did a lot to dissipate the feeling of annoyance among the members. 2. to waste something such as money, time or skill □ After winning the lottery he dissipated the lot on drink and expensive cars.

dissipated /'dɪsɪpeɪtɪd/ adj living in a way which many people do not approve of, e.g. by spending a lot of money on physical pleasure dissociate /dɪ'səʊsɪeɪt/ verb □ to dissociate yourself from to say that you want nothing to do with □ I wish to dissociate myself from the opinions expressed by my colleague.

dissolution /dɪsə'lu:ʃ(ə)n/ noun the ending of a formal relationship, such as a marriage □ dissolution of Parliament the ending of a Parliament, so forcing a general election □ The government lost the vote of no confidence, so the Prime Minister asked for a dissolution of Parliament.

dissolve /dɪ'zɒvl/ verb 1. to make a solid substance become part of a liquid □ Dissolve the sugar in half a litre of boiling water. □ The powder should be completely dissolved in warm water. 2. to become part of a liquid □ The sugar dissolved quite quickly. □ Stir the mixture until the sugar dissolves. 3. to bring something to an end □ to dissolve a partnership or a company or a marriage □ to dissolve Parliament to close the Parliament, and call new elections 4. □ to dissolve in(to) tears to start to cry with a lack of control dissuade /dɪ'sweɪd/ verb □ to dissuade someone from something to persuade someone not to do something □ We tried to dissuade her from entering the beauty competition.

dissuasion /dɪ'sweɪz(ə)n/ noun persuading someone not to do something. Synonym discouragement. Antonym encouragement

2. distance /dɪstəns/ noun 1. a space from one point to another □ What is the distance from London to Geneva? □ The furthest distance I have travelled by train is 800 km. □ The railway line goes underground for a short distance. □ The hotel is only a short distance away. □ within walking distance near enough to walk to □ The hotel is within walking distance of the town centre. 2. □ from a distance seen from some way away

○ From a distance, the mountain looks like a sleeping animal. □ in the distance a long way away □ I caught sight of the mountain in the distance. □ We could hear guns firing in the distance. □ verb □ to distance yourself from to show that you are some distance away from □ The police chief took pains to distance himself from the remarks made by the President.

distance learning /'dɪstəns ˌlɜ:nɪŋ/ noun studying in your own time away from the place where the course is organised, using radio or TV

③ distant /'dɪstənt/ adj 1. far away □ We could hear the sound of distant gunfire. □ distant relative a relative who is not a member of the immediate family □ She's a very distant relative – her grandfather was my grandmother's cousin. □ in the not too distant future fairly soon □ We expect to move house in the not too distant future. □ in the dim and distant past a long time ago □ It all happened in the dim and distant past when I was at university. 2. not very friendly □ The manager was quite helpful but distant.

distract /dɪ'strekt/ verb a dislike distractful /dɪ'strektf(ə)l/ adj unpleasant. Antonym pleasant distended /dɪ'stendɪd/ adj swollen distil /dɪ'stɪl/ verb to make pure water or alcohol by heating the liquid, and collecting the steam (NOTE: distilling – distilled. The US spelling is distill) distillation /dɪ'stɪl'eɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the process of distilling distilled water /dɪ'stɪld 'wɔ:tə/ noun extremely pure water that has been distilled, used, e.g., to top up car batteries distillery /dɪ'stɪləri/ noun a factory for distilling alcohol (NOTE: The plural is distilleries.)

③ distinct /dɪ'stɪŋkt/ adj 1. separate □ There are two distinct varieties of this plant. □ They keep their printing works quite distinct from their publishing company. 2. clear □ I got the distinct impression that he was carrying a gun. □ Did you notice the distinct tone of anger in his voice?

② distinction /dɪ'strɪŋkʃən/ noun 1. a difference □ There is a distinction between being interested in politics and joining a political party. □ to make a distinction between two things to notice that two things are different □ You must try to make a distinction between the police and the secret service. 2. the highest mark □ She got a distinction in her exam. 3. a special excellence □ He served in the war with distinction. □ She had the distinction of being the first woman pilot.

③ distinctive /dɪ'stɪŋktɪv/ adj very noticeable, which makes one thing different from others. Synonym characteristic distinctively /dɪ'stɪŋktɪvlɪ/ adv in a distinctive way

③ distinctly /dɪ'stɪŋktlɪ/ adv clearly. Synonym definitely

③ distinguish /dɪ'stɪŋgwɪʃ/ verb 1. to see or hear clearly; to make out details ○ With the binoculars we could easily distinguish the houses on the other side of the lake. ○ I could distinguish at least two birds calling to each other. 2. □ to distinguish between two things to recognise the difference between two things ○ Children must be taught to distinguish between right and wrong. ○ It's difficult to distinguish by sight between salt and caster sugar. □ to distinguish one thing from another to notice that two things are not the same ○ I find it difficult to distinguish the blue from the green in the design.

distinguishable /dɪ'stɪŋgwɪʃəb(ə)l/ adj which can be distinguished

③ distinguished /dɪ'stɪŋgwɪst/ adj important and well known. Synonym illustrious distinguishing /dɪ'stɪŋgwɪʃɪŋ/ adj which makes someone or something different. Synonym unique. Antonym typical distort /dɪ'ʃɔ:t/ verb 1. to twist something ○ His face was distorted with pain. □ distorting mirrors mirrors made of bent glass, which change your appearance 2. to give a false impression of something ○ He distorted the meaning of my speech.

③ distortion /dɪ'ʃɔ:ʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. bending and twisting out of shape ○ The accident was caused by the distortion of the rails in the hot weather. 2. something that gives a false impression ○ It is a complete distortion of the truth.

distract /dɪ'strækt/ verb to attract someone's attention when they should be doing something else □ to distract someone's attention to make someone look at something different ○ If you distract her attention, I'll try to snatch her handbag.

distracted /dɪ'stræktɪd/ adj feeling extremely worried and unable to think clearly

③ distraction /dɪ'strækʃn/ noun 1. an entertainment ○ We went to London to look for some distraction. 2. a thing which stops you from concentrating ○ How can I do my work properly with all the distractions of the family? 3. □ he loved her to distraction he was greatly in love with her distraught /dɪ'strɔ:tɪt/ adj feeling extremely worried and unable to think clearly distress /dɪ'stres/ noun 1. a great sad or painful feeling ○ I don't want to cause the family any distress. ○ The whole family was in distress at grandmother's death. 2. difficulty ○ We knew the ship was in distress when we saw the flares. □ distress signal a signal sent when you are in difficulties ■ verb to make someone very sad and worried ○ The news of her grandmother's death distressed her very much. Antonym soothe distressed /dɪ'strest/ adj very sad and worried distressing /dɪ'stresɪŋ/ adj very sad and worrying

③ distribute /dɪ'stribju:t/ verb 1. to share something out, to give something to several people ○ She distributed part of her money to the poor. ○ The stewardesses came round, distributing immigration forms to non-EU passengers. ○ I'll distribute the list to all the committee members. 2. to send out goods from a warehouse to shops □ we distribute Japanese cars we are the agents for Japanese cars

② distribution /dɪ'stri'bu:ʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. giving to several people ○ The newspaper has a wide distribution. ○ The staff will organise the distribution of the timetable to the students. 2. the act or process of sending out goods from a warehouse to shops ○ Our distribution centre is in Oxfordshire.

② distributor /dɪ'stribju:tə/ noun 1. a company which sells goods for another company which makes them ○ Who is the local distributor for this make of lawnmower? 2. (in a car engine) a part of the engine which passes the electric spark to each sparking plug in turn ○ The distributor head needs cleaning.

② district /'dɪstrɪkt/ noun 1. an area or region ○ It's a district of the town well known for its Italian restaurants. □ the commercial or business district the part of a town where offices and shops are ○ The shop is well placed right in the main business district of the town. 2. an official administrative area of a town or country district attorney /'dɪstrɪkt ə'tɔ:nɪ/ noun US a lawyer representing the government in a certain area. Abbr DA

district council /'dɪstrɪkt 'kaʊnsəl/ noun a local council district nurse /'dɪstrɪkt 'nɜ:s/ noun same as community nurse distrust /dɪs'trʌst/ noun a lack of trust ○ The dog showed his distrust of postmen. ■ verb not to trust someone ○ I distrust anyone who wears green shoes. ○ The police distrusted her motives in making the phone call.

distrustful /dɪs'trʌstf(ə)l/ adj not trusting. Synonym suspicious disturb /dɪ'stɜ:b/ verb 1. to worry someone ○ It disturbed me to see that the wheel was wobbling. 2. to interrupt someone ○ Sorry to disturb you but there's an urgent

email message just come in. ◎ Don't disturb your mother – she's resting. □ 'do not disturb' a notice placed on a hotel room door, to ask the hotel staff not to come into the room 3. to change the order or arrangement of something ◎ The police told us that nothing must be disturbed in the bedroom.

③ disturbance /dɪ'stɜ:bəns/ noun 1. the action of disturbing someone ◎ I need to work somewhere where there won't be any disturbance. 2. a noisy riot ◎ The fans caused a disturbance in the hotel bar. ◎ There are always disturbances after the local derby. ◎ There were several instances of looting during the disturbances. 3. □ mental disturbance being mentally ill disturbed /dɪ'stɜ:bd/ adj 1. worried ◎ We are disturbed to hear that the company may be forced to close. 2. mentally ill ◎ In her disturbed state of mind, she may do anything. ◎ Some of the patients are mentally disturbed. ◎ Highly disturbed children are taught in this special school.

③ disturbing /dɪ'stɜ:biŋ/ adj worrying. Antonym reassuring disuse /dɪs'ju:s/ noun □ to fall into disuse not to be used any more disused /dɪs'ju:zd/ adj not used. Synonym empty. Antonym occupied ditch /dɪtʃ/ noun a long narrow hole cut into the ground for taking away water ◎ After the storm, the ditches were full of rainwater. ◎ He fell into the ditch beside the road. Synonym channel (NOTE: The plural is ditches). □ verb 1. to leave something behind ◎ When we ran out of petrol, we ditched the car and walked to the next town. 2. to leave someone who has been working for you or who you have been having a relationship with ◎ The company decided to ditch its sales director. ◎ She ditched her third husband and lived alone. 3. to land a plane on water ◎ The pilot ran out of fuel and decided to ditch the plane.

dither /'dɪðə/ noun □ all of a dither agitated and worried ◎ She was all of a dither after getting the letter from the solicitor. □ verb not to be able to make up your mind ◎ Stop dithering and tell me what you want to do. Synonym hesitate ditto /'dɪtə/ noun 1. also; the same thing ◎ I can't stand oysters – me ditto! 2. a printer's sign (") meaning that the same thing is to be repeated diuretic /'daɪərɪk/ adj which makes the kidneys produce more urine ◎ Some mineral waters have a diuretic effect. □ noun a substance which produces urine ◎ She was given diuretics.

diurnal /dɪə'n(ə)l/ adj happening during the day, awake during the day. Antonym nocturnal diva /'di:və/ noun 1. an extremely famous woman opera star 2. a famous woman singer who is thought to behave badly and demand too much attention (disapproving) divan /dɪ'ven/ noun a low long chair or a bed with a solid base and no back. Synonym settee dive /daɪv/ noun 1. a jump downwards head first into water ◎ He made a beautiful dive into the pool. 2. a bar that is dirty and not pleasant ◎ He met her in some dive in Frankfurt. □ verb 1. to jump into water head first ◎ He dived in and swam across the pool under water. 2. to go rapidly into or behind something ◎ When she saw him she dived into the bushes. 3. (of aircraft) to come down very fast ◎ I heard a bang and saw the plane dive into the sea.

dive-bomb /'daɪv bɒm/ verb (of a plane) to attack by diving out of the sky and dropping a bomb

③ diver /'daɪvər/ noun 1. a person who jumps head first into water ◎ the Australian Olympic diver 2. a person who swims and works underwater ◎ Police divers searched the canal.

diverge /daɪ'vɜ:dʒ/ verb 1. to go in different directions ◎ The road and the river diverge at the end of the valley. ◎ They had shared a flat for some time, then their careers diverged and they saw much less of each other. 2. □ to diverge from to be different from ◎ This diverges from the plan I was given originally.

divergence /daɪ'vɜ:dʒəns/ noun a difference divergent /daɪ'vɜ:dʒənt/ adj different. Antonym similar divers /'dɑrvəz/ adj various (literary) Antonym similar diverse /daɪ'vɜ:s/ adj including many different types or things diversification /dɪvɜ:sɪfɪ'keɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the act of diversifying. Antonym specialisation diversify /dɪvɜ:sɪfaɪ/ verb to do other types of work; to add new types of business to your existing one diversion /daɪ'vɜ:sʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. a temporary road system that sends traffic another way ◎ All traffic has to take a diversion and rejoin the motorway 10 km further on. 2. an entertainment or an activity that people do for enjoyment ◎ Fishing is one of the most popular diversions for people at weekends. ◎ It's a quiet country town with very few diversions for teenagers. 3. □ to create a diversion to take someone's attention away from what is happening, e.g. so that someone else can commit a crime ◎ She created a diversion by screaming.

diversity /dɪ'vɜ:sɪtɪ/ noun great variety. Antonym uniformity

③ divert /dɪ'vɜ:t/ verb 1. to send something to another place or in another direction ○ Because of fog in London, flights have been diverted to Manchester. ○ Traffic has been diverted to avoid the town centre. 2. to entertain someone ○ A game of snakes and ladders diverted the children for a little while. 3. □ to divert someone's attention to make someone look away ○ Try and divert his attention while I steal his keys.

① divide /dɪ'veɪd/ verb 1. to cut something into parts ○ The cake was divided among the children. ○ How can you divide the cake into thirteen pieces? ○ The two companies agreed to divide the market between them. ○ Our open-plan office is divided up with low partitions. 2. to calculate how many of one number there are in another ○ Ten divided by two gives five. (NOTE: Dividing is usually shown by the sign ÷ : $10 \div 2 = 5$; say 'ten divided by two equals five'.) 3. (in the House of Commons) to vote ○ MPs divided at 10 p.m.

③ dividend /'dɪvɪndəd/ noun a part of a company's profits shared out among people who own shares in it □ to raise or increase the dividend to pay out a higher dividend than in the previous year dividers /dɪ'veɪdəz/ plural noun a pair of compasses for measuring dividing line /dɪ'veɪdɪŋ laɪn/ noun something acting as a boundary divine /dɪ'veɪn/ adj referring to God ○ He prayed for divine help. ■ verb to search for hidden sources of water ○ In the middle of the drought, they called in someone to divine for water. Synonym discover diving /'dɪvɪŋ/ noun 1. the sport of jumping into water head first from a diving board, with points from 0–10 being awarded by a panel of judges ○ He won a gold medal for diving. 2. swimming underwater with special equipment ○ We went diving in the Red Sea.

diving board /'dɪvɪŋ bɔ:d/ noun a board from which people dive at a swimming pool divinity /dɪ'veɪnɪtɪ/ noun 1. a god ○ Statues of Egyptian divinities were found in the tomb. 2. the state of being a god ○ the divinity of Christ 3. the study of religion

divisible /dɪ'veɪzɪb(ə)l/ adj that can be divided

① division /dɪ'veɪz(ə)n/ noun 1. an important part of a large organisation ○ The sales division employs twenty people. ○ She is the head of the production division. 2. separation into parts ○ After his death, the family argued over the division of their father's money. (NOTE: no plural in this meaning) 3. a calculation, where one figure is divided by another ○ My little sister is just learning how to do division. 4. a difference of opinion between groups of people ○ The dispute has widened the divisions between the two wings of the party. 5. (in the House of Commons) voting ○ A division will take place in five minutes. 6. a large section of an army ○ They have three divisions stationed along the border. ○ The general ordered an infantry division to stand by.

divisional /dɪ'veɪz(ə)n(ə)l/ adj referring to a division division sign /dɪ'veɪz(ə)n sain/ noun a printed or written sign (=) showing that one number is divided by another divisive /dɪ'veɪsɪv/ adj which produces disagreements divorce /dɪ'veɔ:s/ noun a legal separation of a husband and wife where each is free to marry again ○ Her parents are getting a divorce. ○ Since their divorce, they have both remarried. ■ verb 1. to break off a marriage legally ○ They divorced last year. 2. to separate from your husband or wife ○ She divorced her husband and married the man next door. ○ He got divorced after only three years of marriage. 3. to separate two different things ○ It is difficult to divorce their financial problems from the problems they are having with the house.

③ divorced /dɪ'veɔ:st/ adj no longer married ○ They're both divorced, with children from their previous marriages. Synonym separated. Antonym together divorcee /dɪ'veɔ:s'i:/ noun a divorced person, especially a woman who is divorced divulge /dɪ'veʌldʒ/ verb to give away a secret. Synonym reveal

Diwali /dɪ'wɔ:li/ noun an important Hindu festival of light, celebrated in the autumn

③ DIY abbr do it yourself

③ dizzy /'dizi/ adj 1. feeling that everything seems to turn round ○ Can we stop the car, please. I feel dizzy. ○ After standing in the sun, he became dizzy and had to lie down. ○ She has started having dizzy spells. 2. wild, exciting ○ A dizzy round of parties and TV shows. (NOTE: dizzier – dizziest)

DJ abbr 1. dinner jacket 2. disc jockey

DNA /di:en'eɪ/ noun the basic genetic material in a cell. Full form deoxyribonucleic acid ♦ RNA

① do /du:/ verb 1. used with other verbs to make questions ○ Does this train go to London? ○ Did the doctor give you any medicine for your cough? ○ Where do they live? ○ What did you find there? 2. used with other verbs and 'not' to make the negative ○ They didn't laugh at the film. ○ It doesn't matter any more. ○ His parents don't live in London. 3. used to make a verb stronger ○ Can I sit down? – please do! ○ Why don't you work harder? – I do work hard! ○ Why didn't you tell me? – I did tell you! 4. used in place of another verb in short answers to questions using the word 'do' ○ Do you live in London? – Yes I do. ○ But your parents don't live there, do they? – No they don't. ○ Does the green colour show? – Yes it does. ○ Did you go to the concert after all? – Yes I did. 5. used in place of another verb at the end of a question or statement ○ The Russians live here, don't they? ○ It looks very nice, doesn't it? ○ It doesn't rain a lot in Spain, does it? ○ Can you run as fast as he does? ○ He speaks German better than I do. ○ She asked me to close the door but I'd already done so. ○ They got to the pub before we did. 6. telling someone not to do something ○ Don't throw away that letter! ○ Don't put your coffee cups on the computer! 7. with nouns ending in -ing ○ She's doing the shopping. ○ He always does the washing up. ○ She was doing the ironing. 8. to work at something or to arrange something or to clean something (followed by a noun) ○ She's doing her hair. ○ Have you done the dishes yet? ○ I can't do today's crossword. ○ What have you been doing all day? ○ They're a difficult company to do business with. □ what do you do for a living? what is your job? 9. to succeed, to continue ○ She's doing very well in her new job. ○ He did badly in the interview. ○ How's your business doing? □ well done! said to someone when they have achieved success in something ○ I passed my driving test – Well done! 10. to finish being cooked ○ The carrots aren't done yet. □ the chicken is done to a turn the chicken is cooked and ready to eat 11. to be satisfactory ○ Will this size do? □ that will do that's enough □ that won't do at all that's not at all satisfactory 12. □ to make do with to accept something which is not as good as you wanted ○ The ordinary plates are all dirty, so we will have to make do with paper ones. 13. to travel at a certain speed ○ The car was doing 100 miles an hour when it hit the tree. (NOTE: I do; you do; he/she/it does /dəz/; they do; doing – did /dɪd/ - has done /dən/; negative:do not usually don't /dən't/; does not usually doesn't /dəz(ə)n't/; did not usually didn't /dɪdn(ə)t/) ■ noun 1. a party ○ We've been invited to a do at the Smiths. 2. □ the dos and don'ts things you should do and things you should not do ○ She told him all the dos and don'ts about working in the office.

③ do away with /du: ə'weɪ wɪð/ verb to get rid of something

Doc /dɒk/ abbr doctor docile /'dəʊsəl/ adj quiet and well behaved dock /dɒk/ noun 1. □ my car is in dock my car is being repaired (informal) 2. a box in a law court, where the prisoner sits ○ She was in the dock, facing charges of theft. ■ verb 1. (of ship) to arrive in a port ○ The ship docked at 17.00. ○ The cruise liner will dock in Bermuda. 2. to connect two spacecraft together ○ The spacecraft docked with the space station. 3. to remove money from someone's pay ○ I will have to dock your pay if you are late for work again. ○ They've docked £20 from my pay! □ the ship is in dock 1. the ship is in the harbour 2. the ship is being repaired docker /'dɒkə/ noun a man who works in a port, loading and unloading ships. Also called stevedore (NOTE: The US term is longshoreman.)

docking station /'dɒkɪŋ ,steɪʃ(ə)n/ noun a piece of hardware for recharging a portable computer dockland /'dɒklənd/ noun a part of a town around docks docks /dɒks/ plural noun a harbour where ships are loaded and unloaded dockyard /'dɒkja:d/ noun a place where ships are built or repaired. Synonym shipyard

Doc Martens /dɒk 'ma:t(ə)nз/ trademark a style of strong leather boots available in many colours

① doctor /'dɒktə/ noun 1. a person who looks after people who are ill ○ I have a ten o'clock appointment to see the doctor. ○ If you have pains in your chest, you ought to see a doctor. ○ He went to the doctor's last Friday. □ a doctor's certificate a document written by a doctor to say that an employee is ill and cannot work ○ She has been off sick for ten days and has sent in a doctor's certificate. 2. a person with the highest degree from a university ○ She has a doctor's degree in physics. (NOTE: Doctor is written Dr with names: Dr Thorne is our local GP.) ■ verb to change something, so that it is false ○ We suspect that he had been doctoring his expenses. ○ She was accused of doctoring the test samples.

doctorate /'dɒkt(ə)rət/ noun the highest degree from a university

Doctor of Philosophy /'dɒktə əv fi'losəfi/ noun an advanced degree from a university in an arts subject. Abbr PhD doctrinaire /dɒktri'neə/ adj very dogmatic. Synonym rigid

③ doctrine /'dɒktrɪn/ noun a statement of what a group of people believe. Synonym policy

② document noun /'dɒkjumənt/ 1. a piece of paper with written text ○ File all the documents away carefully as we may need them again. ○ Please read this document carefully and sign at the bottom of page two. 2. a separate text in a computer ○ The letter was saved as a Word document. ■ verb

/'dpkju,ment/ to note something in official writing ◻ Cases of this disease are well documented in Africa. ◻ She sent in a fully documented claim for insurance.

documentary /'dɒkjʊ'ment(ə)ri/ noun a film which shows facts about a real subject ◻ Did you see the documentary about hippos last night? (NOTE: The plural is documentaries.) ◻ adj referring to documents ◻ documentary evidence evidence in the form of documents ◻ They are searching in the archives for any documentary evidence that the meeting took place.

③ documentation /'dɒkjʊmen'teɪʃ(ə)n/ noun all the papers referring to something (NOTE: no plural) doddle /'dɒd(ə)l/ noun something that is easy to do dodge /'dɒdʒ/ noun a clever trick ◻ He told me a dodge to avoid paying on the Underground. ◻ verb 1. to avoid something, to get out of the way ◻ He ran across the street, dodging the traffic. ◻ She dodged behind a parked car hoping he wouldn't see her. 2. ◻ to dodge the issue to avoid answering questions about a problem or trying to do anything about a problem ◻ We were very disappointed because the council simply dodged the issue. 3. to avoid doing something you should do, in a dishonest way ◻ to dodge payment of your TV licence fee dodgems /'dɒdʒəmz/ noun an amusement at a fairground where you drive small electric cars round and round, bumping into other cars as you do so dodger /'dɒdʒə/ noun a person who avoids something dodgy /'dɒdʒɪ/ adj 1. not safe, involving risk ◻ The back wheel on your bike looks a bit dodgy to me. ◻ I wouldn't go hitch-hiking in Russia – it sounds very dodgy. 2. probably dishonest, or dishonestly obtained ◻ He's a bit of a dodgy customer. ◻ She paid with a dodgy ten-pound note.

doe /dəʊ/ noun a female animal, such as deer or rabbit (NOTE: Do not confuse with dough. Male rabbits are called bucks, male deer are stags.)

does /dəʊz/ ◻ do doesn't /'dəz(ə)nt/ ◻ do doff /dɒf/ verb to take off your hat (dated) Synonym remove. Antonym don

① dog /dɒg/ noun an animal kept as a pet, which barks, and wags its tail when it is pleased ◻ Can you take the dog out for a walk? ◻ Police with dogs were hunting the gang of escaped prisoners. ◻ to let sleeping dogs lie to leave things as they are ◻ I wouldn't investigate any further if I were you – better let sleeping dogs lie. ◻ to go to the dogs to get into a bad condition (informal) ◻ The whole place has gone to the dogs. ◻ it's a dog's life life is difficult, with too much work and no play ◻ verb to follow ◻ All his life he has been dogged by ill health. ◻ to dog someone's footsteps to follow behind someone closely ◻ Failure seems to dog his footsteps.

dog-collar /'dɒg,kɒlə/ noun 1. a leather band to go round a dog's neck 2. a white collar worn by a clergyman dog-eared /'dɒg ɪəd/ adj (of a page or book) well used or torn. Antonym pristine dogfish /'dɒgfɪʃ/ noun a large sea fish. Also called huss dogged /'dɒgɪd/ adj not giving in easily, continuing to do something, even though people want you to stop. Synonym determined doggedly /'dɒgɪdli/ adv not giving in easily

③ doggy /'dɒgi/ noun a dog (children's word) doggy bag /'dɒgi bæg/ noun a bag in which you can put food which you have not finished eating in a restaurant to take home, to give to your dog dogma /'dɒgmə/ noun an official belief. Synonym creed dogmatic /'dɒg'mætɪk/ adj stating firmly that what you say is right. Synonym rigid do-gooder /du: 'gʊdə/ noun a person who tries to do good and help others, but in a way that sometimes annoys people (informal) (NOTE: The plural is do-gooders.)

dogsbody /'dɒgzbɒdi/ noun someone who is employed by other people to do boring and unpleasant jobs for them dog-tired /,dɒg 'taɪəd/ adj very tired (informal) Synonym exhausted

③ do in /du: / in/ verb 1. to kill someone ◻ What happened to the gang boss? – He was done in and dumped in the river. 2. to hurt something ◻ I did my back in by digging the garden.

doing /'du:ɪŋ/ noun the action of doing something ◻ all someone's own doing something which someone did without anyone else involved ◻ it takes some doing it is fairly difficult to do ◻ Climbing up that wall must have taken some doing.

doings /'du:ɪŋz/ plural noun things which are done ◻ Police have been watching the doings of the gang for some time. ◻ noun a tool or piece of equipment ◻ Have you seen the doings for opening bottles anywhere?

③ dole /dəʊl/ noun money given by the government to people without work (dated) ◻ on the dole unemployed and receiving unemployment benefit ◻ He's been on the dole for four years. ◻ verb ◻ to dole out to hand out or give out, without much ceremony ◻ The guide doled out customs forms.

doeful /'dəʊlf(ə)l/ adj feeling extremely sad

③ doll /dɒl/ noun a child's toy which looks like a baby

① dollar /'dɒlə/ noun 1. the money used in the United States ○ a 5-dollar bill ○ The country spends millions of dollars on defence. ○ There are two dollars to the pound.

2. a similar currency used in many other countries ○ What is the price in Australian dollars? (NOTE: usually written $ before figures: $250. The currencies used in different countries can be shown by the initial letters of the country: Can$ (Canadian dollar) Aus$ (Australian dollar).)

dollop /'dɒləp/ noun a large lump of something soft (informal) Synonym blob doll's house /'dɒlz haʊs/ noun a very small house made as a toy dolly /'dɒli/ noun 1. a doll (children's speech, informal) ○ Let's put your dolly in her pram. 2. (of films) a stand on which a camera is fixed and which can move so that it can follow the action ○ The dolly followed the actors across the set. (NOTE: The plural is dollies.)

dolphin /'dɒlfɪn/ noun a sea mammal like a very small whale (NOTE: A group of them is a school of dolphins.)

dolt /dɔlt/ noun a silly person (dated informal insult)

③ domain /dəʊ'meɪn/ noun 1. an area of responsibility ○ I don't do the cooking – that's my husband's domain. 2. an area, a group of nodes in a network domain name /dəʊ'meɪn neɪm/ noun the name of a service provider on the Internet dome /dəʊm/ noun a round roof shaped like half of a ball domed /dəʊmd/ adj with a dome; shaped like a dome

② domestic /də'mestɪk/ adj 1. referring to the home ○ She hated having to do all the domestic work while her husband was out at his job. □ domestic animals farm animals and pets □ domestic help help in doing housework 2. inside a country ○ Sales in the domestic market have risen. □ domestic flights flights between airports inside the same country ■ noun a servant in a house (dated) ○ When the fire broke out all the domestics ran into the house to rescue the furniture.

domesticate /də'mestɪkeɪt/ verb 1. □ to become domesticated to be used to doing housework ○ He's become totally domesticated since he got married. 2. to breed wild animals so that they become tame and can be kept for food or as pets, or to grow wild plants as food or decoration ○ Early man rapidly domesticated the wild horse and buf- falo. ○ Domesticated forms of wheat were developed by early farmers.

domesticated /də'mestɪkeɪtɪd/ adj 1. (of animals) kept or used for human requirements 2. (of a person) skilled in doing the work needed to keep a home clean domesticity /,də'ɒmɪ'stɪsɪtɪ/ noun life at home domestic science /də'mestɪk 'saɪəns/ noun cooking and housework as a subject studied at school (dated) domestic service /də'mestɪk 'sɜːvɪs/ noun working as a servant in a house domicile /'dɒmɪsail/ noun a place where someone lives or where a company is registered (formal) Synonym home domiciled /'dɒmɪsaild/ adj living or resident or registered in a place (formal)

③ dominance /'dɒmɪnəns/ noun being dominant. Synonym supremacy. Antonym weakness

③ dominant /'dɒmɪnənt/ adj 1. most important ○ The dominant colour in the room is dark red. ○ Safety will be the dominant theme of the discussion. 2. very powerful, strong ○ He has a very dominant personality and his wife and children have to do what he says. ○ The President's party is the dominant force in the country's political system.

dominant gene /'dɒmɪnənt dʒi:n/ noun the more important of a pair of genes, where the characteristic is passed on to the child

③ dominate /'dɒmɪneɪt/ verb 1. to rule something or someone ○ He is dominated by his wife. ○ The Union party dominates the country's political system. 2. to be very important ○ The conversation was dominated by the subject of the president's wife. 3. to be very clearly seen ○ The volcano dominates the town.

domination /,dɒmɪ'nейʃ(ə)n/ noun control, power, or authority over others or another domineering /,dɒmɪ'nɪərɪŋ/ adj forcing your ideas on someone. Synonym bossy. Antonym meek dominion /də'mɪnjən/ noun the power of control ○ to exercise dominion over a country

Dominion /də'mɪnjən/ noun an independent state, part of the British Commonwealth domino /'dɒmɪnəʊ/ noun one of a set of small flat blocks used to play a game, each block being divided into two sections, with up to six dots in each section domino effect /'dɒmɪnəʊ ɪ,fekt/ noun the collapse of something, which triggers the collapse of something else don /dɒn/ noun a university teacher, especially at Oxford or Cambridge ○ His father was an Oxford don. ■ verb to put on a piece

- of clothing ○ Instructions for donning the life jacket are in the pocket in front of your seat. ○ Visitors to the factory have to don protective clothing. (NOTE: donning – donned)
- donate /dəʊ'nneɪt/ verb to give something
- donation /dəʊ'neeʃ(ə)n/ noun a present, especially of money. Synonym contribution
- ① done /dʌn/ ♀ do
- ③ donkey /'dɒŋki/ noun a grey farm animal with long ears, used for riding or pulling carts
- donkey jacket /'dɒŋki ,dʒækɪt/ noun a thick woollen coat worn by workmen
- donkey's years /'dɒŋkiz jɪəz/ noun a very long time (informal)
- donkey work /'dɒŋki wɜ:k/ noun heavy unpleasant work
- donor /'dəʊnər/ noun a person who gives. Synonym giver □ a blood donor a person who gives blood regularly for use in transfusions
- ① don't /dəʊnt/ ♀ do
- doodle /'du:d(ə)l/ noun a drawing or pattern which has no real meaning ○ His doodles on scraps of paper have become very valuable. ■ verb to draw shapes on paper, usually because you are bored or thinking of something else ○ She sat at the back of the meeting, doodling on the agenda.
- doom /du:m/ noun an unhappy fate that cannot be avoided
- doomed /du:md/ adj condemned to end in ruin
- Doomsday /'du:mzdeɪ/ noun the end of the world
- ① door /dɔ:/ noun 1. a solid piece of something such as wood or metal which closes an entrance ○ He went into his office and locked the door behind him. ○ She opened the car door and hit a passing cyclist. □ he answered the door he opened the door when someone rang the bell □ front door the main door to a building ○ She gave him a key to the front door or a front door key. □ back door a door at the back of a building ○ The back door leads out into the garden. 2. used to show where a building is in a street ○ They live a few doors away from us. □ he lives three doors down the street he lives three houses further along the street. ♀ next door
- doorbell /'dɔ:bel/ noun a bell by a door which you ring to get someone inside to open the door
- doorkeeper /'dɔ:ki:pə/ noun a person who is on guard at the main door to a building
- doorkey /'dɔ:ki:/ noun a key to a door
- doorknob /'dɔ:nɒb/ noun a round handle for opening and shutting a door
- doorman /'dɔ:man/ noun a man who stands at the door of a building such as a restaurant or hotel (NOTE: The plural is doormen.)

doormat /dɔ:mæt/ noun a small rough carpet placed in front of or behind a door, on which you wipe your shoes if they are dirty or wet doorstep /'dɔ:step/ noun a block of a hard substance such as stone or wood at the bottom of a door on the outside of a house. Synonym entrance □ on your doorstep very close to where you live ○ There's a big supermarket right on our doorstep.

door-to-door /,dɔ: tə 'dɔ:/ adj going from one house to the next, asking people to buy something, to vote for someone, or asking them questions door-to-door salesman /,dɔ: tə dɔ:/ 'seɪlzmən/ noun a salesman who goes from one house to the next, asking people to buy something doorway /'dɔ:wei/ noun a space where there is a door. Synonym entrance dope /dəʊp/ noun 1. a drug ○ a dope peddler □ to take a dope test to take a test to see if you have been taking drugs 2. information ○ Come on, let's have the dope on the divorce case! 3. a stupid fool ○ He's a dope, he should have asked for twice as much!

dopey /'dəʊpi/ adj 1. stupid, silly 2. half-asleep ○ He's feeling dopey after his injection.

dork /dɔ:k/ noun someone who other people think is not intelligent or does not dress in fashionable clothes dormant /'dɔ:mənt/ adj not active ○ The volcano has been dormant for many years, but has suddenly started to send out clouds of smoke. □ to lie dormant to remain hidden and not active ○ Some viruses lie dormant for years. □ dormant volcano a volcano which is not sending out hot gas or smoke at the moment, but which may do in the future. Compare extinct dormitory /'dɔ:mitri/ noun a long room full of beds (NOTE: The plural is dormitories) dormouse /'dɔ:maʊs/ noun a small animal which looks like a mouse, with a furry tail (NOTE: The plural is dormice.)

dosage /'dəʊsɪdʒ/ noun the amount of a drug calculated by a doctor to be necessary for a patient dose /dəʊs/ noun 1. a quantity of medicine ○ Normal daily dose: three tablets. ○ Do not exceed the prescribed dose. 2. an attack of a disease ○ I've had a dose of bronchitis. ■ verb □ to dose someone with something to give someone medicine ○ He dosed himself with hot lemon juice and aspirin.

dosh /dɒʃ/ noun money (informal) doss /dɒs/ verb to sleep on something such as a chair or on the floor, because there is no bed available ■ noun a job or activity that is extremely easy to do doss down /,dɒs 'daʊn/ verb to sleep somewhere where there is no bed available, e.g. on the floor dosshouse /'dɒshaus/ noun a house offering a cheap place to stay to people who do not have a home (slang) Synonym hostel

dossier /'dɒsɪə/ noun a file of documents ② dot /dɒt/ noun 1. a small round spot ○ A blue tie with white dots. 2. a printing sign (.) used in decimals and email addresses ○ My email address is peter@petercollin.com (say 'peter at petercollin dot com'). 3. □ on the dot of exactly at a particular time ○ The train left on the dot of four. ■ verb to mark with small spots. Synonym speckle (NOTE: dotted) dot.com /,dɒt 'kɒm/ noun a company that does business on the Internet or that provides Internet services ■ adj relating to the Internet or Internet business dote on /'dəʊt ən/ verb to be very fond of someone dotting /'dəʊtɪŋ/ adj very fond of someone dotted /'dɒtɪd/ adj with things here and there. Synonym scattered dotted line /,dɒtɪd 'laɪn/ noun a line made of a series of dots dotty /'dɒti/ adj slightly crazy (informal) (NOTE: dottier – dottiest)

① double /dʌb(ə)l/ adj 1. twice the size ○ She asked for a double portion of ice cream. 2. repeated twice ○ The word 'immeasurable' is spelt with a double 'm'. ○ The invoice number is six double five double one (65511). □ in double figures with two figures, the numbers from 10 to 99 3. with two parts, for two people ■ adv twice the amount ○ It takes double the time. ○ Her salary is double mine. □ to see double to see two things when there is only one there ■ noun 1. □ at the double (in the army) running ○ The soldiers crossed the square at the double. 2. a person who looks exactly like someone else ○ It was either him or his double we saw at the cinema. 3. □ men's or women's doubles two men against two other men or two women against two other women ■ verb 1. to multiply something by two ○ Think of a number and then double it. 2. □ to double back to turn round and go back along the same way ○ The escaped prisoner doubled back towards the village.

double-barrelled /,dʌb(ə)l 'bærəld/ adj 1. used to describe a gun which has two barrels 2. formed from two names, usually with a hyphen between them doublebass /,dʌb(ə)l 'beɪs/ noun a musical instrument like a very large violin. Also called bass double bed /,dʌb(ə)l 'bed/ noun a bed for two people double-breasted /,dʌb(ə)l 'brestɪd/ adj describes a coat or jacket which has two rows of buttons down the front double-check /,dʌb(ə)l 'tʃek/ verb to check something carefully, twice double chin /,dʌb(ə)l 'tʃɪn/ noun a chin with a second fold underneath double-click /,dʌb(ə)l 'klik/ verb to press a mouse button twice quickly, e.g. to give an instruction to a computer double cream /,dʌb(ə)l 'kri:m/ noun thick cream with a high fat content double-cross /,dʌb(ə)l 'krɒs/ verb to trick someone so that that person thinks that you are working on the same side when in fact you are working against them. Synonym betray double-decker /,dʌb(ə)l 'dekə/ noun 1. a bus with two levels of seats ○ Double-decker buses are common in London. 2. a sandwich made of three slices of bread, with a filling, e.g. meat, salad, or fish, between each of them. ○ This double-decker is so thick I can't bite into it.

double-glazed /,dʌb(ə)l 'gleɪzd/ adj with windows made of double panes of glass double-glazing /,dʌb(ə)l 'gleɪzɪŋ/ noun windows made of two pieces of glass, used to keep out noise or to keep heat inside double life /,dʌb(ə)l 'laɪf/ noun a situation in which someone has a separate way of life for some of the time, which they keep secret from other people double-park /,dʌb(ə)l 'pa:k/ verb to park beside a car which is already parked at the side of the street double room /,dʌb(ə)l 'ru:m/ noun a room for two people with a double bed doubles /'dʌb(ə)lz/ noun a tennis game for two people on either side double-sided /,dʌb(ə)l 'saɪdɪd/ adj having two sides, both of which can be used double spacing /,dʌb(ə)l 'speɪsɪŋ/ noun typing where a white line is left between lines of text double take /,dʌb(ə)l 'teɪk/ noun a reaction of surprise, after a slight pause double up /,dʌb(ə)l 'ʌp/ verb 1. to bend because of pain ○ She doubled up in pain when he hit her in the stomach. 2. to perform two jobs ○ The waiter is doubling up as chef because the chef is on holiday.

doubly /'dʌbli/ adv twice

① doubt /daʊt/ noun 1. not being sure ○ Even the staunchest believer sometimes has doubts. □ to have doubts about to say that you are doubtful about ○ I have my doubts about the accuracy of the figures. □ to cast doubt on to be unsure about ○ He cast doubt on the whole proposal. □ to give someone the benefit of the doubt to allow someone to continue doing something, because you are not sure that accusations made against him are correct ○ The referee gave him the benefit of the doubt. 2. □ no doubt certainly ○ No doubt they will be suing for damages. □ there's no doubt about it is a certain fact ○ There's no doubt about it – France is the best place for a holiday. ○ There's no doubt about his guilt. □ in doubt not sure ○ The result of the game was in doubt until the last minute. ■ verb not to be sure of something ○ I doubt whether he will want to go to the funeral. ○ I doubt her honesty. ○ Did you ever doubt that we would win?

② doubtful /'daʊtfʊl/ adj not sure doubtless /'daʊtləs/ adv certainly dough /dəʊ/ noun 1. a mixture of water and flour for making a food such as bread, before it is cooked ○ The chef was kneading the dough for the pizza. 2. money ○ Hurry up, give me the dough! (NOTE: Do not confuse with doe.)

doughnut /'dəʊnət/ noun a small round or ring-shaped cake cooked by frying in oil ① do up /du: 'ʌp/ verb 1. to attach something ○ He's still a baby and he can't do his buttons up properly. ○ Can you do up the zip at the back of my dress? 2. to repair something and make like new ○ They bought an old cottage and did it up. ○ He's looking for an old sports car to do up.

dour /duə/ adj dark or silent douse /daʊs/ verb to throw water on something dove¹ /dəʊv/ noun 1. a white domesticated pigeon ○ To celebrate the peace treaty they released hundreds of doves. 2. a person who prefers diplomacy and tries to achieve peace ○ Curiously, it's the military commanders who are the doves while the president and his advisers are the hawks. Antonym hawk dove² /dəʊv/ verb US ◊ dive dovetail /'dævteɪl/ noun a joint made where a V-shaped piece of wood fits into a V-shaped hole in another piece ■ verb 1. to join pieces of wood together with a V-shaped joint 2. to fit together neatly dowdy /'daʊdi/ adj old-fashioned and badly dressed. Antonym fashionable (NOTE: dowdier – dowdiest)

① do with /du: wið/ verb 1. to be related or connected to ○ It has nothing to do with us. ○ It is something to do with my new book. 2. to put something somewhere ○ What have you done with the newspaper? 3. to need ○ After that long walk I could do with a cup of tea. ○ The car could do with a wash.

① do without /,du: wið'aʊt/ verb not to have something, to manage without something

Dow Jones Index /dəʊ 'dʒəʊnz ,ɪndeks/ noun the index of share prices on the New York Stock Exchange

① down /daʊn/ prep 1. towards the bottom of ○ He fell down the stairs and broke his leg. ○ The ball ran down the hill. 2. away from where the person speaking is standing ○ He went down the road to the shop. ○ The police station is just down the street. ■ adv 1. towards the bottom, towards a lower position ○ Put the box down in the corner. ○ I looked in the cellar, but there's no one down there. (NOTE: Down is often used with verbs, e.g. to go down; to fall down, to sit down; to lie down.) 2. at a lower level ○ Inflation is down again. 3. in writing ○ Did you note down the number of the car? ○ The policeman took down her address. 4. towards the south ○ I'm going down to Brighton tomorrow (from London). ○ They live down on the south coast. 5. sick ○ She is down with flu. 6. out of action ○ All our computers are down at the moment. 7. gloomy ○ He's feeling a bit down. 8. showing criticism ○ Down with the government! ○ Down with exams! ■ noun the soft small feathers of a bird ○ a duvet filled with duck down (NOTE: no plural in this meaning) ■ verb 1. to swallow something quickly ○ He downed three pints of beer. 2. □ to down tools to stop work, to go on strike down-and-out /,daʊn ən 'aut/ noun a person with no money who lives on the streets (informal) downbeat /'daʊnbɪ:t/ adj feeling unhappy ○ He was very downbeat when he heard the results. ■ noun the beat of a conductor's baton to show that the music should begin. Antonym upbeat downcast /'daʊnka:st/ adj gloomy, depressed. Antonym cheerful downer /'daʊnər/ noun 1. someone or something that makes you feel depressed 2. a drug which makes you feel calm downfall /'daʊnfə:l/ noun a situation in which someone or something fails or is destroyed downgrade /'daʊngreɪd/ verb to reduce the importance of a person or of a job. Synonym demote downhearted /,daʊn'ha:tɪd/ adj feeling unhappy downhill /daʊn'hɪl/ adv 1. towards the bottom of a hill ○ The road goes downhill for a while and then crosses the river. 2. □ to go downhill to get worse ○ The economy is going downhill. ○ The business started to go downhill when the old manager left. ■ adj □ downhill (skiing) competition a skiing competition which involves going down a hill as fast as you can, more or less in a straight line

Downing Street /'daʊnɪŋ strɪt/ noun 1. a street in London with the houses of the British Prime Minister (No. 10) and the Chancellor of the Exchequer (No. 11) ○ They took the petition to Downing Street. 2. the office of the Prime Minister ○ Downing Street denied the report.

download verb /daʊn'ləʊd/ to load data or a program into a computer ■ noun a computer file that can be downloaded down-market /'daʊn ,ma:kɪt/ adj cheaper, appealing to a less wealthy section of the population down payment /,daʊn 'peɪmənt/ noun a part of a total payment made in advance downplay /,daʊn'pleɪ/ verb to make something seem less important. Synonym tone down (NOTE: can also be to play down) downpour /'daʊnpɔ:/: noun a heavy fall of rain downright /'daʊnraɪt/ adj complete or clear ○ That's a downright lie. ○ The newspaper story was a downright fabrication. ■ adv completely or extremely ○ The waitress wasn't just unpleasant, she was downright rude. Synonym positively downs /daʊnz/ plural noun grass-covered hills with low bushes and very few trees (NOTE: usually used in names of areas: the North Downs, the South Downs) downside /'daʊnsaɪd/ noun the disadvantages of a situation. Antonym advantage downsize /'daʊnsaɪz/ verb to make a business smaller by reducing the number of people who work there downsizing /'daʊnsaɪzɪŋ/ noun making a company smaller by reducing the number of people who work there

Down's syndrome /'daʊnz ,sɪndrəʊm/ noun a condition caused by the existence of an extra chromosome that affects the physical and mental development downstage /daʊn'steɪdʒ/ adv to or at the front of the stage. Antonym upstage

② downstairs /daʊn'steəz/ adv on or to the lower part of a building ○ He heard a noise in the kitchen and went downstairs to see what it was. ○ I left my cup of coffee downstairs. Synonym below ■ adj on the ground floor of a building ○ The house has a downstairs bedroom. ○ You can use the downstairs loo. ■ noun the ground floor of a building ○ The downstairs has three rooms. ○ The downstairs of the house is larger than the upstairs. Compare upstairs downstream adj /'daʊnstrɪ:m/ towards the mouth of a river ○ Downstream communities have not yet been affected. ■ adv

/'daʊn'stri:m/ towards the mouth of a river ○ The silt is carried downstream and deposited in the delta.

down-to-earth /,daʊn tu 'z:θə/ adj sensible or matter-of-fact. Antonym fanciful

② downtown /'daʊntaʊn/ adv to the town centre ○ You can take the bus to go downtown. ■ adj in the town centre ○ the downtown department stores ○ Her office is in downtown New York. ■ noun the central district of a town ○ Downtown will be very crowded at this time of day.

downtrodden /'daʊntrɒdn/ adj oppressed, badly treated downturn /'daʊntɜ:n/ noun a movement towards lower prices, sales or profits. Antonym upturn down under /daʊn 'ʌndə/ noun in Australia and New Zealand (informal)

③ downward /'daʊnwəd/ adj towards the bottom ○ a downward trend in the unemployment figures. Synonym descending. Antonym upward ■ adv US same as downwards

③ downwards /'daʊnwədz/ adv towards the bottom (NOTE: The US term is downward) downwind adv, adj in the direction in which the wind is blowing downy /'daʊni/ adj 1. soft and fluffy 2. covered with soft hairs dowry /'daʊrɪ/ noun money or goods which a bride brings to her husband

③ doz abbr dozen

doze /dəʊz/ noun a short sleep ○ She had a little doze after feeding the baby. ■ verb to sleep a little, to sleep lightly (slang) ○ She dozed off for a while after lunch. Synonym nap

② dozen /'dʌz(ə)n/ noun 1. twelve ○ We ordered two dozen chairs. □ they're cheaper by the dozen they are cheaper if you buy twelve at a time □ half a dozen six ○ half a dozen apples 2. □ nineteen to the dozen very fast ○ They chattered away nineteen to the dozen.

dozy /'dəʊzi/ adj 1. sleepy ○ The children were dozy after their walk, so we put them to bed early. 2. stupid

① Dr ◊ doctor

drab /dræb/ adj lacking bright colours; brown, grey (NOTE: drabber – drabbest) draconian /'dra:kəniən/ adj (of a law) extremely severe. Synonym harsh

② draft /dra:ft/ noun 1. a rough plan of a document ○ He quickly wrote out a draft of the agreement. ○ It's not the final version, it's just a draft. 2. US formerly, military service which most young men had to do ○ He left the USA to avoid the draft. 3. an order for money to be paid by a bank ○ She sent me a draft for one thousand pounds. 4. US same as draught ■ adj in preparation and not final ○ They brought the draft agreement with them. ○ She wrote out the draft letter on the back of an envelope. ○ The lawyers were working on the draft contract. ■ verb 1. to draw up a rough plan of something ○ We drafted a sales forecast on a piece of paper. 2. US to call someone for military service ○ At the age of eighteen he was drafted into the Marines. 3. to ask someone to do something ○ The Boy Scouts were drafted in to dig the garden. Compare draught draftsman /'dra:ftsmən/ noun US same as draughtsman

③ drag /dræg/ verb 1. to pull something heavy along ○ She dragged her suitcase across the platform. ○ The police dragged the protesters away from the gate. 2. to hang back, to stay behind ○ Tom was dragging along at the end of the line. 3. to force someone to do something ○ They had to drag her to the party. 4. to pull a net along the bottom of an area of water to try to find something ○ The police dragged the lake to try to find the body of the missing boy. ■ noun 1. a boring thing, which stops you doing things you really want to do ○ It's a drag, having to write all the Christmas cards. 2. □ in drag (of a man) wearing women's clothes 3. smoking a cigarette; one puff on a cigarette ○ I'll just pop out for a drag.

drag and drop /,dræg ən 'drɒp/ verb to move an icon or section of text or object from one area of the screen of a computer to another

③ drag on /,dræg 'ɒn/ verb to go on slowly ○ The dinner party seemed to drag on for hours.

dragon /'drægən/ noun 1. a mythological animal which breathes fire ○ The national emblem of Wales is a red dragon. 2. an unfriendly woman who seems frightening dragonfly /'drægənflaɪ/ noun a long insect with bright transparent wings which often flies near water (NOTE: The plural is dragonflies.)

dragoon /drə'gu:n/ noun an armed soldier on a horse (dated) ○ The dragoons attacked the French cavalry. ■ verb to force someone ○ Mother dragooned us all into helping move the furniture.

drain /drēn/ noun 1. a pipe for carrying waste water away ○ In the autumn the drains get blocked by leaves. ○ We had to phone the council to come and clear the blocked drain.

○ it's just like pouring money down the drain it's a waste of money (informal) ↗ laugh 2. a gradual loss ○ The office in Paris is a continual drain on our resources. ■ verb 1. to remove a liquid ○ Boil the potatoes for ten minutes, drain and leave to cool. 2. to drink all the liquid that is in something such as a cup or a glass ○ He drained his glass and asked for some more.

drainage /'dreɪnɪdʒ/ noun the process of removing water by means of drains drained /drēɪnd/ adj □ to look drained to look pale and tired out ○ After the interview she looked completely drained.

draining board /'drēɪnɪŋ bɔ:d/ noun a slightly sloping surface next to a sink drainpipe /'dreɪnpaɪp/ noun a pipe on the outside of a house which takes water down to the drains drake /drēɪk/ noun a male duck (NOTE: A female duck is called a duck; the young are ducklings.)

③ drama /'drə:mə/ noun 1. a serious performance in a theatre ○ The 'Globe' has put on an unknown Elizabethan drama. ○ I'm reading a book on 19th-century French drama. ○ a new TV drama series about life in the Lake District ○ She's a drama student or she's studying drama. □ drama department a department in a college which teaches serious theatre 2. a series of serious and exciting events ○ He always makes a drama out of everything. ○ a day of high drama in the court ○ the drama of the rescue of the children by helicopter

③ dramatic /drə'mætɪk/ adj 1. sudden, unexpected and very noticeable ○ The door was flung open and she made a dramatic entrance. ○ The TV news showed dramatic pictures of the rescue of the children. ○ the dramatic moment in the film, when the dinosaurs start to attack children 2. referring to drama ○ a dramatic performance which begins at 7.30 ○ his latest dramatic work for radio dramatically /drə'mætɪkli/ adv in a very dramatic way dramatics /drə'mætɪks/ noun the practice of performing plays, usually by people who are not paid to act dramatisation /,dræmətə'seɪʃ(ə)n/, dramatization noun the adaptation of something for TV or the theatre

dramatise /'dræmətaiz/, dramatize verb 1. to adapt a novel for TV or the theatre ○ The novel was dramatised by J. Smith. 2. to make something seem much more dramatic than it really is ○ There's no need to dramatise the situation, it's bad enough as it is.

dramatist /'dræmətɪst/ noun a person who writes plays. Synonym playwright

③ drank /dræŋk/ □ drink

drape /drēpl/ verb 1. to hang cloth around something ○ The statue was draped in a white cloth ready to be unveiled. ○ He wore a white scarf draped over his shoulders. 2. to hang something long over something ○ He draped his legs over the back of the seat.

drapery /'dræpəri/ noun a thin cloth which is draped around something ○ She was clothed in thin draperies. (NOTE: The plural is draperies.)

drapes /'dræips/ plural noun US curtains ○ Open the drapes – it's light outside.

drastic /'dræstɪk/ adj severe, which has a sharp effect drastically /'dræstɪkli/ adv severely, with a sharp effect

③ draught /draʊft/ noun 1. a flow of cool air into a room ○ Don't sit in a draught. 2. □ draught beer, beer on draught beer which is served from a barrel, and not in a bottle or can ○ I'll have a pint of draught, please. 3. the depth of water which a ship needs to float and not touch the bottom (NOTE: [all senses] The US spelling is draft.)

draughts /draʊfts/ noun a board game played with black and white round pieces ○ Would you like a game of draughts or to play draughts? ○ Draughts is a much simpler game than chess. (NOTE: not plural, and takes a singular verb. The US term is checkers.)

draughtsman /'draʊftsmən/ noun a person who draws plans for machines or buildings (NOTE: The plural is draughtsmen. The US spelling is draftsman.)

③ draughty /'draʊfti/ adj with cool air flowing into it (NOTE: draughtier – draughtiest. The US spelling is drafty.)

① draw /drɔ:/ noun 1. the act of choosing the winner in a lottery ○ The draw is held on Saturdays. ○ We are holding a draw to raise money for the local hospital. 2. a game where there is no winner ○ The game ended in a draw, 2 – 2. 3. an attraction ○ The zoo is a great draw for children. ○ The new safari park will be the biggest draw in the area. 4. □ he is quick on the draw he reacts very quickly ■ verb 1. to make a picture with a pen or pencil ○ He drew a picture of the house. ○ She's drawing a pot of flowers. 2.

not to have a winner in a game ○ The teams drew 2 – 2. □ the match was drawn neither side won 3. to pull open or to close ○ Can you draw the curtains – it's getting dark. ○ She drew the curtains and let in the sun. 4. to pull out ○ He drew a notepad out of his pocket. ○ She was drawing water from a well. □ to draw lots to take pieces of paper from a box to decide something. The person who has the marked piece wins. ○ We drew lots to decide who would go first. ○ They drew lots for the bottle of whisky. 5. to receive money ○ He doesn't draw a salary, but charges us for his expenses. ○ Next year I'll be drawing my old age pension. 6. □ he drew a blank he was unsuccessful in his search □ to draw the line at something to refuse to do something ○ I draw the line at inviting your sister to my birthday party.

drawback /'drəʊbæk/ noun a thing which is not convenient or which causes a problem. Synonym disadvantage. Antonym advantage drawbridge /'drəʊbrɪdʒ/ noun a bridge which can be raised or moved down so that people can move across an area of water

③ drawer /drəʊvə/ noun 1. a part of a desk or cupboard like an open box which slides in and out and which you pull with a handle ○ I keep my cheque book in the top drawer of my desk. 2. a person who writes a cheque or a bill asking for money to be paid to someone □ the bank returned the cheque to drawer the bank would not pay the cheque because the person who wrote it did not have enough money in the account to pay it

draw in /,drəʊ: 'ɪn/ verb □ the nights or days are drawing in it is becoming darker earlier because winter is approaching

② drawing /'drɔ:ɪŋ/ noun 1. the art of making pictures with pencil or pen ○ He studied drawing in Rome. 2. a picture done with pencil or pen ○ I've bought an old drawing of the church. □ it's back to the drawing board we'll have to start planning all over again drawing board /'drɔ:ɪŋ bɔ:d/ noun a large board used by designers to work on drawing pin /'drɔ:ɪŋ pɪn/ noun a pin with a large flat head, used for fixing papers to a surface such as a wall (NOTE: The US term is thumbtack.)

drawing room /'drɔ:ɪŋ ru:m/ noun a sitting room, a room for sitting and talking in, but not eating drawl /drɔ:əl/ noun a slow way of speaking ○ He spoke with a southern drawl. ■ verb to speak slowly, making the words seem long ○ 'Come up and see me some time', she drawled.

③ drawn /drɔ:n/ adj 1. tired and ill ○ She looked drawn after spending all night with her sick baby. 2. □ draw drawn-out /,drɔ:n 'aʊt/ adj □ long drawn-out taking a very long time ○ There was long drawn-out argument about who was going to pay the bill.

③ draw up /,drɔ: 'ʌp/ verb 1. to come close and stop ○ As I was standing at the bus stop, a car drew up and the driver asked if I wanted a lift. 2. to write down something, e.g. a plan ○ They have drawn up a plan to save money. ○ Have you drawn up a list of people you want to invite to the party? 3. to move something closer ○ Draw your chairs up to the table.

dread /dred/ noun great fear ○ The sound of his voice filled her with dread. ○ She has a dread of being touched. □ in dread of being very afraid of ○ They lived in constant dread of being arrested by the secret police. ■ verb to fear something greatly ○ I'm dreading taking my driving test. ○ She dreads her weekly visit to the doctor. Antonym look forward to dreaded /'dredɪd/ adj awful, frightening (humorous)

② dreadful /'dredf(ə)l/ adj very bad or unpleasant. Antonym lovely

② dreadfully /'dredf(ə)li/ adv extremely, in a way that is not good or pleasant dreadlocks /'dredlɒks/ plural noun a hairstyle where your hair is plaited into thick strands ○ He had his hair in dreadlocks.

② dream /dri:m/ noun 1. things which you think you see happening while you are asleep ○ She had a dream about big pink elephants. 2. things which you imagine and hope will happen in the future ○ All his dreams of wealth collapsed when he lost his job. ○ The results surpassed our wildest dreams. ○ Never in your wildest dreams did you imagine you would end up in such an important job. 3. something you would really like to do or to see happen ○ His dream is to appear on Broadway. ○ They finally realised their dream of owning a cottage in the country. 4. something very pleasant or delicious ○ That chocolate mousse was a dream. ■ verb 1. to think you see things happening while you are asleep ○ He was dreaming of white sand and a blue tropical sea. ○ I dreamt about you last night. ○ Last night I dreamt I was drowning. 2. to think about something □ not to dream of doing something not to consider doing something ○ She wouldn't dream of wearing a big hat like that. 3. to imagine something which does not exist ○ I never said that – you must have been dreaming! (NOTE: he dreamed or he dreamt /dremt/) ■ adj best possible, what you really want ○ They found their dream house in a small town by the sea. ○ The game is to select your dream team for the World Cup.

dreamer /'dri:mə/ noun a person who is out of touch with practical things. Synonym visionary dreamt /dremt/ □ dream

dreamy /'dri:mi/ adj as if you are dreaming (NOTE: dreamier – dreamiest) dreary /'dri:ri/ adj sad or gloomy; not interesting (NOTE: drearier – dreariest) dredge /dredʒ/ verb 1. to remove dirt or sand from the bottom of a river or lake ○ They had to spend weeks dredging the channel so that boats can still get to the harbour. 2. to cover something with a substance such as sugar or flour ○ When the pie is cooked, dredge it with icing sugar.

dredger /'dredʒə/ noun a boat with a crane and large scoop, used for dredging dregs /drezg/ plural noun the parts of a drink which are left in a cup or glass when you have finished drinking ○ He poured the dregs down the sink. □ the dregs of society the worst people in society drench /drentʃ/ verb to soak something

② dress /dres/ noun 1. a piece of a woman's or girl's clothing, covering more or less all the body ○ She was wearing a blue dress. (NOTE: The plural is dresses.) 2. special clothes ■ verb 1. to put clothes on ○ He got up, dressed and left home. ○ She dressed her little girl all in blue. 2. to clean and put a bandage on a wound ○ The nurse will dress the cut on your knee. 3. to prepare food ○ She dressed the salad with slices of cucumber and tomatoes. 4. □ to dress a window to arrange the display in a shop window dressage /'dresɪ:ʒ/ noun a competition in which horses show how well trained they are

③ dressed /drest/ adj 1. wearing clothes ○ I can't come down to see the visitors – I'm not dressed yet. ○ She was dressed all in black. □ to get dressed to dress yourself ○ Get dressed and come downstairs. ○ He got up, got dressed and then had breakfast. □ dressed to kill wearing your best clothes 2. □ dressed (up) as wearing the costume of ○ He went to the party dressed (up) as a policeman. □ dressed up to the nines wearing your very best clothes ○ I saw her going out all dressed up to the nines.

dresser /'dresə/ noun 1. a piece of kitchen furniture with open shelves above and cupboards below ○ Put the plates back in the kitchen dresser. 2. a person who dresses in a certain way ○ He's a very smart dresser. 3. a person who helps someone dress, in a theatre the person who helps the actors with their costumes dressing /'dresɪŋ/ noun 1. putting on clothes ○ Dressing the baby takes ages. 2. a sauce for salad □ French dressing a mixture of oil and vinegar 3. a bandage for a wound ○ The dressings need to be changed every hour.

dressing-down /,dresɪŋ 'daʊn/ noun the action of telling someone that you do not approve of what they have done (informal) dressing gown /'dresɪŋ gaʊn/ noun a long robe worn over pyjamas or a nightdress dressing room /'dresɪŋ ru:m/ noun a room in which you change your clothes, especially a room in a theatre where actors or actresses get dressed in costume, or a room in a sports club where people change into their sports clothes dressing table /'dresɪŋ ,teɪb(ə)l/ noun a piece of bedroom furniture with a mirror or mirrors (NOTE: The US term is dresser.)

dressmaker /'dresmeɪkə/ noun a person who makes women's clothes dress rehearsal /,dres ri'hɜ:s(ə)l/ noun 1. the last rehearsal for a play, where the actors wear costumes, and the scenery is ready ○ The dress rehearsal was excellent, I hope they perform as well as that on the first night. 2. the final practice for something ○ The attack on the police station was only a dress rehearsal for the coup d'état which took place the following week.

dress up /,dres 'ʌp/ verb 1. to put on costumes ○ The children love dressing up as doctors and nurses. 2. to wear your best elegant clothes ○ Don't dress up – come just as you are.

dressy /'dresi/ adj (of person) wearing formal and fashionable clothes dribble /'drɪb(ə)l/ verb 1. to let liquid flow slowly out of an opening, especially out of your mouth ○ The baby dribbled over her dress. ○ Ketchup dribbled onto the table-cloth. 2. to kick a football along as you are running or to move a ball along with one hand as you are running dribbs and drabs /,drɪbz ən 'dræbz/ plural noun little bits □ in dribbs and drabs a little at a time ○ We finally pieced together what had happened in dribbs and drabs.

dried, drier, dries, driest /'draɪd, -'draɪə, draɪz, 'draɪəst/ □ dry drier /'draɪə/, dryer noun a machine which dries drift /drɪft/ noun 1. a general meaning ○ Did you follow the drift of the conversation? ○ My Italian isn't very good, but I got the drift of what they were saying. ○ I think she got the general drift of my argument. 2. a pile of snow blown by the wind ○ Snow lay in drifts around the farmhouse. □ verb 1. to move with the flow of water, without steering ○ The boat drifted down the river for two miles. 2. to move aimlessly ○ After the match, the spectators drifted towards the exits. 3. (of snow) to pile up ○ The snow began to drift in the high wind. 4. to behave aimlessly, to avoid taking any decisions ○ The government lost its sense of purpose and started to drift. □ to let things drift to avoid taking any decisions 5. to move slowly in a certain direction ○ Prices drifted downwards.

drift apart /,drɪft ə'pa:t/ verb to move away from each other gradually drifter /'drɪftə/ noun a person with no set plan in life, or a person who moves from job to job without staying anywhere very long. Synonym wanderer driftwood /'drɪftwʊd/ noun wood which floats and is blown onto the seashore. Synonym flotsam (NOTE: no plural)

③ drill /drɪl/ noun 1. a tool for making holes in a hard substance such as wood or metal ○ He used an electric drill to make the holes in the wall. 2. the action of practising marching, especially in the armed forces ○ New recruits spend hours practising their drill. □ what's the drill? what's the next thing to do now? (informal) ○ I've never been to a board meeting before so you'll have to tell me what's the drill. □ verb 1. to make holes with drill ○ He drilled two holes for the screws. ○ They are drilling for oil. 2. to do military practice ○ Recruits were drilling on the parade ground.

① drink /drɪŋk/ noun 1. a liquid which you swallow ○ If you're thirsty, have a drink of water. ○ She always has a hot drink before she goes to bed. 2. an alcoholic drink ○ Would you like a drink? ○ Come and have a drink. ○ I'll order some drinks from the bar.

■ verb 1. to swallow liquid ○ He drank two glasses of water. ○ What would you like to drink? ○ Do you want something to drink with your meal? 2. to drink alcoholic drinks ○ She doesn't drink or she never drinks. □ he drinks like a fish he drinks a lot of alcohol 3. □ to drink a toast to someone to drink and wish someone well ○ We all drank a toast to the future success of the company.

drinkable /'drɪŋkəb(ə)l/ adj good enough to drink drink-driver /,drɪŋk 'draɪvə/ noun a person who drives a car when drunk drink-driving /,drɪŋk 'draɪvɪŋ/ noun driving a car when drunk drinker /'drɪŋkə/ noun a person who usually drinks a particular quantity or type of alcohol, or a person who drinks too much alcohol regularly ○ She's only a light drinker. ○ They're all beer drinkers. ○ Her father was drinker.

drinking /'drɪŋkɪŋ/ noun the act or process of drinking a lot of alcohol, especially frequently and over a period of time drinking chocolate /'drɪŋkɪŋ ,tʃɒkɪlət/ noun powdered chocolate used to make a milk drink drinking fountain /'drɪŋkɪŋ ,faʊntɪn/ noun a public tap where you can drink water drinking water /'drɪŋkɪŋ ,wɔ:tə/ noun water which is safe to drink drink to /'drɪŋk tu:/ verb to give someone good wishes for success or happiness in the future, especially by having a drink drink up /,drɪŋk 'ʌp/ verb to drink all of a liquid drip /drip/ noun 1. a small drop of water ○ There's a hole in the tent – a drip just fell on my nose. 2. a liquid given to a patient directly into the body, or the tube used to put a liquid into a patient's body ■ verb to fall in drops, or to let a liquid fall in drops ○ The tap is dripping. ○ His nose is dripping because he has a cold. ○ Water was dripping from the roof. Synonym dribble □ dripping wet very wet drip-dry /'drɪp draɪ/ adj □ drip-dry shirt a shirt which does not crease if hung to dry while wet dripping noun fat that comes out of a piece of beef when you cook it ■ adj extremely wet

① drive /draɪv/ noun 1. a journey, especially in a car ○ Let's go for a drive into the country. ○ The baby gets sick on long drives.

○ It's a four-hour drive to the coast. 2. the way in which power gets from the engine to a car's wheels ○ a car with front-wheel drive ○ a four-wheel-drive car 3. the place where the driver sits ○ a car with left-hand drive (NOTE: British cars are right-hand drive.)

4. a part of a computer which works a disk ○ The computer has a CD-ROM drive. 5. an energetic way of working ○ We need someone with plenty of drive to run the sales department. 6. a little road leading to a house ○ Visitors can park in the drive. 7. (in golf or cricket) hitting the ball hard and far ■ verb 1. to make a motor vehicle travel in a certain direction ○ He can swim, but he can't drive. ○ He was driving a lorry when the accident happened.

○ She was driving to work when she heard the news on the car radio. □ I'll drive your aunt to the airport I'll take her to the airport in my car 2. to force something ○ He drove the nail into the wall. 3. □ to drive someone crazy or mad to have an effect on someone so that they become very annoyed (informal) ○ The noise is driving me mad. ○ All this work is driving her crazy. 4. (in golf or cricket) to hit the ball hard and far (NOTE: driving – drove /drəʊv/ – has driven /drɪv(ə)n/)

drive at /'drایv æt/ verb (informal) □ what is he driving at? what is he trying to say? ○ I don't know what he's driving at.

③ drive away /,draɪv ə'weɪ/ verb 1. to ride away in a motor vehicle ○ The bank robbers leapt into a car and drove away at top speed. 2. to take someone away in a motor vehicle ○ The children were driven away in a police car. 3. to force something or someone to go away ○ The smell of the drains is driving our customers away.

③ drive back /,draɪv 'bæk/ verb 1. to go back or to come back in a motor vehicle ○ We were driving back to London after a day out. 2. to force someone or something back ○ The police drove the demonstrators back into the square.

drive-by /'drایv baɪ/ noun the firing of a gun at somebody from a moving vehicle ■ adj performed very quickly and with a lack of care or purpose drive in /,draɪv 'ɪn/ verb 1. to go in by car ○ Each car that drives in is issued with a ticket. 2. to force in ○ The shepherd stood by the gate, waiting for the dogs to drive the sheep in.

drive-in /'drایv ɪn/ adj, noun bank, cinema, restaurant, etc. where cars drive up for service ○ We went to see the movie at the local drive-in. ○ We got a Chinese takeaway at a drive-in restaurant.

drivel /'drɪv(ə)l/ noun rubbish. Synonym nonsense

③ driven /'drɪv(ə)n/ □ drive

③ drive off /,draɪv 'ɒf/ verb 1. to ride away in a motor vehicle ○ The bank robbers leapt into a car and drove off at top speed. 2. to force someone or something to go away ○ They drove off the attackers with shotguns.

① driver /'draɪvə/ noun a person who drives a vehicle such as a car or train ○ He's got a job as a bus driver. ○ The drivers of both cars were injured in the accident. Synonym chauffeur driver's license /'draɪvəz ,laɪs(ə)ns/ noun US same as driving licence drive-through /'draɪv θru:/ noun a business that serves people who wait by a special window in their cars driveway /'draɪvweɪ/ noun a short private road leading to a house

③ driving /'draɪvɪŋ/ adj (of rain or snow) blown horizontally by the wind ○ They were forced to turn back because of the driving rain. ■ noun the action of driving a motor vehicle ○ Driving in the centre of London can be very frustrating. ○ She's taking driving lessons. □ careless driving driving in such a way that other people or vehicles may be harmed ○ He was charged with careless driving. □ drunken driving the offence of driving a car when drunk. ▶ drink-driving

② driving licence /'draɪvɪŋ ,laɪs(ə)ns/ noun a permit which allows someone to drive a vehicle on public roads (NOTE: The US term is driver's license.)

driving mirror /'draɪvɪŋ 'mɪrə/, rear-view mirror /,rɪə vju: 'mɪrə/ noun a mirror inside a car which allows the driver to see what is behind without turning his head driving school /'draɪvɪŋ sku:l/ noun a school where you can learn to drive a car, truck, etc.

③ driving test /'draɪvɪŋ test/ noun a test which you have to pass to get a driving licence drizzle /'drɪz(ə)l/ noun light rain ○ A thin drizzle was falling so we took our umbrellas.

Antonym downpour ■ verb to rain a little ○ It's drizzling outside, so you need a raincoat.

drizzly /'drizli/ adj when it is raining lightly. Synonym damp dromedary /'drɒmədə(r)i/ noun a camel with only one hump. Also called Arabian camel (NOTE: The camel with two humps is a Bactrian camel.)

drone /drəʊn/ noun 1. a male bee ○ The workers are busy getting pollen, while the drones do nothing. (NOTE: In a bee colony, the females are workers.) 2. a buzz of an insect, of an engine ○ I could hear the drone of a small aircraft in the distance. 3. a monotonous sound ○ The drone of the bagpipes sounded across the lake. ■ verb 1. to buzz ○ We could hear a small aircraft droning overhead. 2. to talk slowly and in a monotonous voice ○ The lecturer droned on and on about population statistics.

drool /drʊl/ verb 1. to slobber ○ A baby drooling in his high chair. 2. to show excessive pleasure about something ○ I absolutely drooled over the painting.

droop /drʊ:p/ verb to hang down □ his spirits drooped he felt miserable

① drop /drɒp/ noun 1. a small amount of liquid which falls ○ The roof leaks and we have placed a bucket to catch the drops. ○ Drops of rain ran down the windows. 2. a small amount of liquid □ would you like a drop of whisky? would you like a small glass of whisky? 3. a liquid medicine to be given in small quantities ○ I was given some drops for my eyes. 4. a distance which you might fall ○ There is a drop of three metres from the bathroom window to the ground. 5. a decrease ○ Sales show a drop of 10%. 6. □ at the drop of a hat immediately ○ If you phone him he'll come at the drop of a hat. ■ verb 1. to fall or let something fall ○ He dropped the glass and it broke. ○ The plate dropped onto the floor. 2. to decrease ○ Prices are dropping. ○ Take a warm pull-over, because at night the temperature can drop quite sharply. □ the wind has dropped the wind has stopped blowing 3. to let someone get off a bus or car at a place ○ I'll drop you at your house. ○ The bus dropped her at the school. 4. □ to drop someone a line to send someone a note (informal) ○ Drop me a line when you are back from the USA. 5. to give up ○ They have dropped the idea of going to settle in Australia. ○ The whole plan has been dropped because of the cost.

drop by /'drɒp 'baɪ/ drop in /'drɒp 'ɪn/, drop round /'drɒp 'raʊnd/ verb to call on someone, to visit someone drop-down menu /,drɒp daʊn 'menju:/ noun a list of choices which appears on a computer screen, and stays there until you click on one of them drop-in centre /'drɒp in ,sentə/ noun a place which people can visit without arranging a time, to get advice or information, or to meet other people droplet /'drɒplət/ noun a very small drop of liquid

③ drop off /,drɒp 'ɒf/ verb 1. to fall asleep ○ She dropped off in front of the TV. ○ It took me ages to drop off. 2. □ to drop someone off to let someone who is a passenger in a car get out somewhere ○ Can you drop me off at the post office?

drop out /,drɒp 'aʊt/ verb 1. to stop competing ○ He got as far as the semi-finals but dropped out because of a shoulder injury. 2. to decide to give up your ordinary job or studies, usually because you want to live a more simple life ○ He dropped out and went to live on a beach in India.

dropout /'drɒpaʊt/ noun a person who has stopped studying or stopped living conventionally droppings /'drɒpɪŋz/ plural noun solid waste matter from animals ○ The grass was covered with rabbit and sheep droppings. Synonym dung

③ drought /draʊt/ noun a long period when there is no rain and when the land is dry. Synonym lack. Antonym abundance

① drove /draʊv/ □ drive

droves /drəʊvz/ plural noun large numbers

③ drown /draʊn/ verb 1. to die by being unable to breathe in water ○ He drowned in a shallow pool. 2. to cover up a sound ○ The shouting drowned his speech.

drowsily /'draʊzili/ adv sleepily drowsiness /'draʊzɪnəs/ noun a feeling of wanting to go to sleep drowsy /'draʊzi/ adj sleepy. Antonym awake (NOTE: drowsier – drowsiest) drudge /drʌdʒ/ noun a person who does hard boring work drudgery /'drædʒəri/ noun hard boring work

① drug /dræg/ noun 1. medicine ○ They have found a new drug for people with arthritis. 2. a substance which affects the nerves, and which can be habit-forming ○ The customs are looking for such things as drugs or alcohol. □ drug addict a person who takes drugs as a habit □ drug dealer a person who sells illegal drugs to other people ■ verb to give someone a drug ○ They drugged him and took him away in a car. (NOTE: drugging – drugged)

③ drugstore /'drægstɔ:/ noun US a shop where medicines can be bought, as well as many other goods such as shampoo, writing paper, etc. (NOTE: The British term is a chemist's, though many chemists do not sell the same variety of goods as an American drugstore.)

drum /drʌm/ noun 1. a large round musical instrument which is hit with a stick ○ He plays the drums in the band. 2. a large barrel or container shaped like a cylinder ○ Oil drums were piled up in the corner of the yard. ■ verb 1. to play on a drum 2. to hit something frequently ○ He drummed his fingers on the table. □ to drum something into someone to make someone learn something ○ My grandfather drummed it into me that I had to be polite to customers.

drummer /'drʌmə/ noun a person who plays the drums drumming /'drʌmɪŋ/ noun a sound like a drum being hit over and over again drumstick /'drʌmstɪk/ noun 1. a wooden stick for playing a drum ○ He threw his drumstick in the air between beating time on the bass drum. 2. the lower part of the leg of a cooked bird such as a chicken or turkey ○ Who wants the drumstick? ○ He had a cold turkey drumstick for his lunch.

① drunk /drʌŋk/ adj excited or ill because of drinking too much alcohol ○ When he's drunk, he shouts at his children. □ drink.

Synonym inebriated ■ noun a person who is drunk ○ A drunk came up to me and asked for money.

drunkard /'drʌŋkəd/ noun a person who has a habit of drinking too much alcohol drunken /'drʌŋkən/ adj who has drunk too much alcohol. □ driving

① dry /drɔɪ/ adj 1. not wet ○ Don't touch the door – the paint isn't dry yet. ○ The soil is dry because it hasn't rained for weeks. 2. with no rain ○ They are forecasting dry sunny periods. 3. (of wine) not sweet ○ A dry white wine is served with fish. 4. amusing by pretending to be serious □ to have a dry sense of humour to make jokes by pretending not to know they are funny ○ He has a wonderfully dry sense of humour. 5. without tears □ at the end of the film there wasn't a dry eye in the house the film made all the audience cry (NOTE: drier – driest) ■ verb 1. to stop being wet ○ The clothes are drying in the sun. ○ Leave the dishes on the draining board to dry. 2. to wipe something until it is dry ○ If I wash up, can you dry or dry the dishes for me? (NOTE: drying – dried) dry-clean /,dræɪn 'kli:n/ verb to clean clothes or other fabric items with chemicals dry-cleaner's /'dræɪn 'kli:nəz/ noun a shop where clothes are dry-cleaned dry dock /'dræɪn 'dɒk/ noun a section of a harbour from which the water can be removed, so that the underside of a ship can be repaired dryer /'dræɪə/ noun □ drier dry ice /draɪ 'aɪs/ noun frozen carbon dioxide used to produce very cold temperatures dryer /'dræɪə/ □ dry

dry land /draɪ 'lænd/ noun 1. the land, not the sea 2. areas of land prone to severe drought, e.g. deserts and savannas dry out /,draɪ 'aut/ verb 1. to become completely dry ○ Hang up your coat to dry out in front of the fire. 2. to try to stop drinking alcohol ○ He went to a clinic in London to dry out.

dry rot /draɪ 'rɒt/ noun a decay in the wooden parts of a house caused by a fungus dry run /draɪ 'rʌn/ noun a practice (informal) dry season /'draɪ ,sɪ:z(ə)n/ noun a period of the year when it does not rain much. Compare rainy season

③ dry up /,draɪ 'ʌp/ verb 1. to stop flowing

○ The heat wave has made the rivers dry up. ○ The government grants have dried up and it looks as though the theatre will have to close. 2. to stop talking, because you can't remember what you were going to say ○ He dried up in the middle of his speech, and sat down hurriedly. ○ As soon as she got on the stage she dried up.

dual /'du:əl/ adj existing as a pair. Synonym double □ she has dual nationality she is a citizen of two countries. □ carriageway dual carriageway /,du:əl 'kærɪdʒwei/ noun a road with two lanes in each direction, with a barrier between the two sides (NOTE: The US term is two-lane highway.)

③ dub /dʌb/ verb 1. to give someone a nickname ○ At college he was dubbed Tom 'Pigpen' Smith because his room was so dirty. 2. to add dialogue to a film in a different language from the original ○ The film has been dubbed into Swedish. (NOTE: dubbing – dubbed) dubious /'du:biəs/ adj 1. suspicious ○ There were some dubious characters hanging around outside the off-licence. ○ Have you heard about his dubious past in South America? 2. doubtful, hesitating ○ I'm dubious about getting involved. ○ Everyone else seems to believe her story, but personally I'm dubious about it.

duchess /'dætʃɪs/ noun the wife of a duke (NOTE: The plural is duchesses.)

duchy /'dætʃi/ noun a territory ruled by a duke or duchess

③ duck /dʌk/ noun 1. a common water bird ○ Let's go and feed the ducks in St James' Park. □ water (NOTE: The male is a drake, the female a duck and the young are ducklings.) 2. the meat of this bird ○ We're having roast duck for dinner. 3. (in cricket) a score of zero ○ He scored a duck in his last two matches. ■ verb to lower your head quickly to avoid hitting something ○ She didn't duck in time and the ball hit her on the head. ○ He ducked as he went through the low doorway.

duck-billed platypus /,dʌk 'bɪld 'plætɪpəs/ noun an Australian mammal which lives in water and lays eggs (NOTE: The plural is platypuses.)

duckling /'dʌklɪŋ/ noun 1. a baby duck ○ A duck with six little ducklings. 2. a small duck ○ We had roast duckling and orange sauce.

duct /dʌkt/ noun 1. a tube which carries liquids in the body □ tear duct a duct which brings tears into the nose and eyes 2. a tube which carries air or wires in a building ○ The central heating ducts caught fire.

dud /dʌd/ adj false (informal) ○ He paid me with a dud £10 note. Synonym useless. Antonym usable ■ noun 1. a false banknote ○ The £50 note was a dud. 2. something which does not work properly ○ Most of the fire-works in the box were duds.

duke /dju:d/ noun US 1. a man who is very interested in clothes ○ that duke, with his stiff collar and wide pink tie 2. a visitor from a city on the East coast to a ranch in the Midwest duke ranch /dju:d 'ræntʃ/ noun US a ranch where city people can come for vacations

① due /dju:/ adj 1. expected ○ When is the baby due? ○ We are due to leave London Airport at 5 o'clock. ○ The plane is due to arrive at 10.30 or is due at 10.30. 2. □ in due course later ○ In due course you will have to pass an exam. 3. owed □ to fall due, to become due to be ready for payment □ balance due to us an amount owed to us which should be paid 4. □ due for likely to get ○ We're due for a thunderstorm after all this hot weather. ○ She must be due for retirement this year. ■ adv straight ○ The plane flew due west. ○ Go due east for ten miles and you will see the church on your left. Synonym directly. Antonym indirectly ■ noun what is deserved □ to give him his due he works very hard to be fair to him, you must see that he works very hard duel /'djuəl/ noun a fight between two people with weapons such as swords or guns ○ They fought a duel over a girl. ○ He challenged the doctor to a duel. Synonym contest (NOTE: Do not confuse with dual.) ■ verb to fight a duel dues /dju:z/ plural noun money owed as a fee or regular payment duet /dju:'et/ noun a piece of music played or sung by two people due to /'dju: tu:/ adj because of ○ The trains are late due to fog.

duff /dʌf/ adj which doesn't work, which is no good duffel bag /'dʌf(ə)l bæg/ noun a thick cloth bag closed by a string duffel coat /'dʌf(ə)l kəʊt/ noun a thick woollen coat, with a hood (NOTE: sometimes also spelt duffle)

duff up /,dʌf 'ʌp/ verb to beat someone up (slang)

③ dug /dʌg/ verb □ dig dugout /'dʌgəʊt/ noun 1. a hole in the ground which is a shelter for soldiers ○ They sat in a dugout for hours, waiting for the order to advance. 2. a bench by the side of a football pitch where the managers and extra team members sit ○ The manager was yelling instructions from the dugout. 3. □ dugout canoe a canoe made from a tree trunk ○ Natives came down the river in dugout canoes.

duke /dju:k/ noun a nobleman of the highest rank. ♀ duchess

③ dull /dʌl/ adj 1. not exciting, not interesting ○ The story is rather dull. ○ What's so interesting about old churches? – I find them dull. 2. (of weather) grey and miserable ○ a dull cloudy day 3. (of colours) not bright ○ They painted the sitting room a dull green. (NOTE: duller – dullest)

duly /'dju:li/ adv 1. properly, as one should ○ He duly returned the form to the tax office. ○ I declare Mrs Bond duly elected president. 2. as was expected ○ We duly received a letter from the police.

③ dumb /dʌm/ adj 1. unable to speak (NOTE: Some people avoid this term because it causes offence and prefer to say speech impaired.) □ to be struck dumb to be so surprised that you cannot say anything ○ He was struck dumb by the news. 2. stupid (informal) dumbfound /dʌm'faʊnd/ verb to surprise someone greatly. Synonym astonish dumbfounded /dʌm'faʊndɪd/ adj greatly surprised dummy /'dʌmi/ noun 1. a plastic object shaped like a nipple, given to a baby to suck, to prevent it from crying ○ The baby sat in its pram sucking a dummy. (NOTE: The US term is pacifier.) 2. an imitation product to prevent theft, or to test the reaction of possible customers to its design ○ That big bottle of whisky isn't real, it's just a dummy. 3. US a stupid fool ○ You dummy! You put the box the wrong way up! (NOTE: The plural is dummies.)

dummy run /'dʌmi rʌn/ noun a practice, before the real thing takes place. Synonym rehearsal

③ dump /dʌmp/ noun 1. a place for rubbish ○ Take your rubbish to the municipal dump. 2. □ what a dump! what an awful place! ■

verb 1. to put something heavily on the ground ◇ She just dumped her suitcases in the hall. 2. to throw something away, to get rid of something ◇ Someone has dumped an old pram in the car park. □ to dump goods on a market to sell surplus goods at a very cheap price, usually in another country 3. □ to dump someone to end a relationship with someone ◇ She's been dumped by her boyfriend.

dumpling /'dʌmplɪŋ/ noun a small ball of dough served with hot meat dumps /dʌmps/ plural noun (informal) ◇ down in the dumps miserable umpy /'dʌmpi/ adj short and rather fat (informal disapproving) dune /dju:n/ noun a hill of sand dung /dʌŋ/ noun solid waste from animals, especially cattle, often used as fertiliser. Synonym manure (NOTE: no plural)

dungarees /'dʌŋgə'ri:z/ plural noun working clothes, formed of a pair of trousers and a bib covering the chest, usually of thick blue cloth, and worn over ordinary clothes ◇ The workmen came into the café in their dungarees.

dungeon /'dʌndʒən/ noun a dark and unpleasant underground prison dunk /dʌŋk/ verb to dip a biscuit or other food into a liquid dunno /də'nəʊ/ contr don't know (informal) ◇ Whose car is that? – I dunno.

duo /'dju:əʊ/ noun 1. two people, usually two performers ◇ a TV comedy duo 2. same as duet

dupe /dju:p/ noun a person who has been tricked ◇ He was the dupe of a Russian businessman. Synonym victim □ verb □ to dupe someone into doing something to trick someone into doing something ◇ They duped him into giving them all the cash he had in his wallet.

duplex /'dju:pleks/ noun US a house for two families □ duplex apartment an apartment on two floors ◇ They live in a duplex on E56th Street.

duplicate adj /'dju:plɪkət/ which is a copy ◇ Put the duplicate invoices in the file. Synonym identical □ noun /'dju:plɪkət/ a copy ◇ She sent the invoice and filed the duplicate. Antonym original □ verb /'dju:plɪkət/ to make a copy of a document such as a letter ◇ She duplicated the letter and put the copy into a file. □ you are just duplicating his work you are just doing the same work as he did earlier duplication /,dju:plɪ'keɪʃən/ noun 1. the act of copying or repeating something exactly 2. an exact copy or repeat duplicity /dju:'plɪsɪti/ noun the action of tricking someone. Synonym deceit (NOTE: no plural)

durable /'djuərəb(ə)l/ adj 1. which lasts, which does not wear away ◇ You need a really durable floor covering in a kitchen. ◇ They've signed a peace agreement but will it be more durable than the last one? 2. which will be felt for a long time ◇ The strike will have durable effects on the economy.

③ duration /'dju'reɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the period of time for which something lasts duress /dju'res/ noun force or illegal threats of force used to make someone do something ① during /'djuərɪŋ/ prep 1. while something is going on ◇ Conditions were bad during the war. 2. at a point when something is going on ◇ He went to sleep during the concert.

dusk /dʌsk/ noun the period in the evening just before it gets dark. Synonym twilight

dusky /'dʌski/ adj with fairly dark skin

③ dust /dʌst/ noun a thin layer of dry dirt ◇ The room had never been cleaned – there was dust everywhere. ◇ A tiny speck of dust got in my eye. Synonym powder (NOTE: no plural) □ verb 1. to remove dust from something ◇ Don't forget to dust the Chinese bowls carefully. 2. to sprinkle a powder on something ◇ She dusted the cake with icing sugar.

③ dustbin /'dʌstbɪn/ noun a large container for rubbish (NOTE: The US term is trashcan.)

duster /'dʌstə/ noun a cloth for removing dust dust jacket /'dʌst ,dʒækɪt/ noun a paper cover round a book

③ dustman /'dʌstmən/ noun a person employed by a town to collect rubbish (NOTE: The plural is dustmen.)

dustpan /'dʌstpæn/ noun a small flat container for brushing dirt into dusty /'dʌsti/ adj covered with dust. Synonym dirty. Antonym spotless (NOTE: dustier – dustiest)

① Dutch /dætʃ/ adj 1. referring to the Netherlands ◇ We are going on a tour to visit the Dutch bulb fields. 2. □ to go Dutch to share the cost of a meal equally between everyone □ noun 1. the language spoken in the Netherlands ◇ You will need to practise your Dutch if you're going to live in Amsterdam. 2. □ the Dutch the people living in the Netherlands ◇ The Dutch are great travellers.

dutiful /'dju:tɪf(ə)l/ adj who does what should be done. Synonym obedient. Antonym disobedient

① duty /'dju:ti/ noun 1. work which you have to do ◇ One of his duties is to see that the main doors are locked at night. □ to be duty bound to do something to be obliged to do something ○ If you have any information relating to this case, you are duty bound to pass it to the police. 2. □ on duty doing official work which you have to do in a job ○ He's on duty from 9.00 to 6.00. ○ She's been on duty all day. 3. a tax which has to be paid duty-free /'dju:tɪ 'fri:/ adj, adv sold with no tax to be paid ○ He bought a duty-free watch at the airport or he bought the watch duty-free. □ duty-free allowance the amount of goods which you are allowed to take into a country without paying tax on them duty officer /'dju:tɪ ,ɒfɪsə/ noun an officer who is on duty at a certain time duvet /'duvət/ noun a bag full of feathers, used as the only covering for a bed

DVD /'di: vi: 'di:/ noun an optical disc that can hold images and sound. Full form digital video disc dwarf /'dwo:fl/ noun 1. in fairy stories, a very small imaginary person ○ Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs. (NOTE: The plural is dwarfs or dwarves.) 2. a person of smaller than normal height (NOTE: Some people avoid this term as it can cause offence and prefer person of short stature or person of restricted growth.) ■ adj (of plants) low-growing ○ dwarf beans ■ verb to make something look very small ○ His house is dwarfed by the office block next door.

dwell /'dwel/ verb 1. □ to dwell on a problem to keep thinking or talking about a problem ○ It's best not to dwell too much on your financial situation. 2. to live (dated) ○ There dwelt a beautiful princess in a castle by the edge of the forest. (NOTE: dwelling – dwelled or dwelt /'dwelt/) dweller /'dwelə/ noun, suffix a person who lives in a place ○ Many city-dwellers have cottages in the country where they go for weekends. ○ Prehistoric man was a cave-dweller.

② dwelling /'dwelɪŋ/ noun a place to live (formal) Synonym home dwindle /'dwɪnd(ə)l/ verb to get less gradually. Synonym decrease dwindling /'dwɪndlɪŋ/ adj which is getting less. Antonym burgeoning dye /daɪ/ noun a substance used to colour cloth ○ synthetic dyes ○ vegetable dyes □ fast dye a colour which will not fade when washed ■ verb to stain with a colour ○ She dyed her hair green. (NOTE: Do not confuse with die.)

③ dying /'dæɪŋ/ □ die

dyke /dɑ:k/, dike noun 1. a long wall of earth to keep water from flooding land ○ They built dykes along the river. ○ With this storm blowing from the east, do you think the dykes will hold? 2. a long ditch for rainwater ○ It rained all month, and the dykes were full. 3. a lesbian (offensive) dynamic /dæ'næmɪk/ adj very energetic and with a strong personality. Antonym lethargic dynamism /'dæməmɪz(ə)m/ noun being dynamic. Synonym vitality. Antonym lethargy dynamite /'dæməmaɪt/ noun 1. a powerful explosive ○ They used dynamite to blow up the old building. 2. something or someone that has a very powerful effect ○ This news is dynamite! ■ verb to blow something up with dynamite ○ Guerrillas have dynamited stretches of railway line.

dynamo /'dæməməʊ/ noun 1. a small piece of equipment for making electricity ○ The electric light works by a dynamo attached to the back wheel. 2. a very energetic person (NOTE: The plural is dynamics.)

dynastic /dɪ'næstɪk/ adj referring to a dynasty. Synonym hereditary dynasty /'dɪnæsti/ noun 1. a family of rulers, following one after the other ○ The Ming dynasty ruled China from 1368 to 1644. ○ Henry VII founded the Tudor dynasty in 1487. 2. a period of rule by members of the same family ○ The Great Wall of China was built during the Tsin dynasty. (NOTE: The plural is dynasties.)

dysentery /'dɪs(ə)ntrɪ/ noun an infection of the intestines, causing bleeding and diarrhoea dysfunctional /'dɪs'fʌŋkʃən(ə)l/ adj 1. unable to relate to other people emotionally and socially 2. failing to work properly dyslexia /dɪs'leksiə/ noun a medical condition in which a person is not able to read and spell correctly dyslexic /dɪs'leksɪk/ adj affected by dyslexia ○ Their daughter is dyslexic. ■ noun a person who has dyslexia ○ There are several dyslexics in the family.

dyspepsia /dɪs'pepsiə/ noun pains in the stomach caused by not digesting food properly (technical) Synonym indigestion dystrophy /'distrəfɪ/ noun □ muscular

E

e /i:/, E noun the fifth letter of the alphabet, between D and F

E abbr east

① each /i:tʃ/ adj every person or thing ○ Each five pound note has a number. ○ He was holding a towel in each hand. ○ Each one of us has a separate office. ■ pron 1. every person ○ They have two houses each or each of them has two houses. ○ She gave them each five pounds or She gave them five pounds each or She gave each of them five pounds. 2. every thing ○ Each of the books has three hundred pages or the books have three hundred pages each.

② each other /i:tʃ 'eðə/ pron the other one of two people or of two things ○ They were shouting at each other. ○ We always send each other presents on our birthdays. ○ The boxes fit into each other.

eager /'i:gə/ adj wanting to do something very much. Synonym keen eagerly /'i:gəli/ adv in a way that shows that you want something very much eagerness /'i:gənəs/ noun a state of wanting to do something very much. Synonym keenness. Antonym apathy

③ eagle /'i:g(ə)l/ noun a large bird of prey eagle-eyed /'i:g(ə)l 'aɪd/ adj with very good eyesight. Synonym observant

① ear /eə/ noun 1. a part of your head which you hear with ○ Rabbits have long ears. ○ Have you washed behind your ears? □ to be up to your ears in to be very busy with (informal) ○ He's up to his ears in work. □ to have or keep your ear to the ground to follow what is happening and know all about something 2. an ability to sense sound ○ He has a good ear for music. □ to play an instrument by ear to play without reading the printed notes of music ○ She can play the piano by ear. □ to play it by ear to do what you think is right at the time (informal) ○ We won't make a plan, we'll just play it by ear and see how it goes. 3. □ an ear of corn a head of corn with the seeds earache /'eəreɪk/ noun a pain in your ear eardrum /'eədrʌm/ noun a part of the ear which vibrates with sound and passes the vibrations to the inner ear earl /ɜ:l/ noun a nobleman of middle rank, below a marquess and above a viscount. ♦ countess

COMMENT: The title of earl is followed directly by the family name; they are addressed as 'Lord' followed by the family name; their wives are addressed as 'Lady' followed by the family name.

earlier /'ɜ:liə/ adj referring to a time before now or a time being mentioned ○ an earlier edition of the book ○ I'll try to catch an earlier train. ■ adv before now or a time being mentioned ○ Can't you come any earlier than Tuesday? ○ I tried to phone earlier but you were out.

earliest /'ɜ:li:st/ adj soonest, first earlobe /'ɪələb/ noun the lower part of the outside of the ear

① early /'ɜ:li/ adv 1. before the usual time ○ The plane arrived five minutes early. ○ We must get up early tomorrow morning if we want to catch the first boat to France. 2. at the beginning of a period of time ○ We went out early in the evening. ○ The snow came early in the year. ■ adj which happens at the beginning of a period of time, or which happens before the proper time ○ We picked some early vegetables. ○ I caught an early flight to Paris. ○ These flowers open in early summer. □ at an early date soon ○ The meeting must be held at the earliest date possible. □ to take early retirement to leave a job with a pension before the usual age for retirement (NOTE: earlier – earliest) early bird /'ɜ:li bɜ:d/ noun someone who likes to get up early and work before breakfast, and who does not stay up late at night. Compare night owl early warning /'ɜ:li 'wɔ:nɪŋ/ noun something which gives advance warning of danger earmark /'ɪəmɑ:k/ verb to reserve for a special purpose. Synonym allocate

② earn /ɜ:n/ verb 1. to be paid money for working ○ He earns £20,000 a year. ○ How much does a bus driver earn? 2. to deserve something or to be given something ○ You can all take a rest now – you've earned it! ○ His cheeky remarks earned him a reprimand from the teacher. (NOTE: Do not confuse with urn.)

earner /'ɜ:nə/ noun a thing or person that earns □ nice little earner a small business or clever scheme which gives an easy income (informal) ○ The corner shop must be a nice little earner – it's in a prime position.

earnest /'ɜ:nɪst/ adj serious ○ They were engaged in earnest conversation. ■ noun □ in earnest seriously ○ The discussions began in earnest.

earnestly /'ɜ:nɪstli/ adv seriously. Synonym sincerely earnings /'ɜ:nɪŋz/ plural noun a salary, the money which you earn from work ○ His earnings are not enough to pay the rent.

earphones /'ɪfənɒnz/ plural noun a piece of equipment which you put on your ears to listen to sounds from a machine such as a radio or telephone ○ She took off her earphones when I asked her a question.

earplug /'ɪplʌg/ noun a piece of plastic, rubber or other material which you put in your ears to stop you hearing loud sounds earring /'ɪərɪŋ/ noun a piece of jewellery worn attached to part of the ear as an ornament □ a pair of earrings two similar rings, one worn in each ear ○ She was wearing a pair of old earrings which belonged to her mother.

earshot /'ɪəʃɒt/ noun □ within earshot near enough to hear something ○ Everyone within earshot heard the details of her divorce. □ out of earshot not near enough to hear something ○ Now that she's out of earshot, you can tell me what really happened.

ear-splitting /'ɪə ,splɪtɪŋ/ adj extremely loud

② earth /'ɜ:θ/ noun 1. also Earth the planet on which we live ○ The earth goes round the sun once in twenty-four hours. ○ The space shuttle came back to earth safely. □ it costs the earth it costs a great deal of money (informal) ○ It wouldn't cost the earth to have the house repainted. 2. soil, a soft material made up of minerals and rotting vegetable matter, which plants grow in ○ Put some earth in the plant pot and then sow your cucumber seeds. 3. a hole where a fox lives □ to run someone to earth to find someone after a difficult search ○ We finally ran him to earth in Mexico. ■ verb to connect an electrical appliance to the earth ○ Household appliances should be properly earthed. (NOTE: The US term is to ground.) earthenware /'ɜ:θ(ə)nweə/ noun objects such as pots and dishes, made of clay earthly /'ɜ:θli/ adj □ he hasn't an earthly (chance) he has no possibility of succeeding (informal) ○ Realistically, he hasn't an earthly against the champion, but I'm sure he'll still give it a go.

earthquake /'ɜ:θkweɪk/ noun the shaking of the earth caused by movement of the earth's surface. Synonym tremor (NOTE: also called simply a quake) earth science /,ɜ:θ 'saɪəns/ noun geology or a similar science earth tremor /'ɜ:θ ,tremə/ noun a slight earthquake

③ earthworm /'ɜ:θwɜ:m/ noun a little animal which looks like a very small snake and lives in soil earthy /'ɜ:θi/ adj (of humour) coarse or rude (NOTE: earthier – earthiest) earwig /'ɪəwig/ noun a small insect with curved pincers on its tail ease /i:z/ noun 1. □ to put someone at their ease to make someone feel relaxed and confident ○ The policewoman offered the children sweets to put them at their ease. 2. a lack of difficulty ○ He won the first round with the greatest of ease. ○ The bottle has a wide mouth for ease of use. 3. □ at ease! (in the army) a command to stand in a relaxed position, with the feet apart, after standing to attention ■ verb 1. to make less painful ○ A couple of aspirins should ease the pain. 2. to make easy ○ An introduction from his uncle eased his entry into the firm.

easel /'i:z(ə)l/ noun a vertical frame on legs to support a blackboard or painting. Synonym stand easier, easiest /i:ziə, 'i:zi:əst/ □ easy

① easily /'i:zilɪ/ adv 1. without any difficulty ○ I passed my driving test easily. ○ I can get there easily by 9 o'clock. 2. a lot (compared to something else) (for emphasis before comparatives or superlatives) ○ Her work was easily better than yours. ○ He is easily the tallest man in the team. ○ Our shop is easily the biggest in the High Street.

② east /i:st/ noun 1. the direction of where the sun rises ○ The sun rises in the east and sets in the west. ○ Germany is to the east of France. ○ The wind is blowing from the east. 2. the part of a country which is to the east of the rest ○ The east of the country is drier than the west. 3. □ the Far East countries to the east of Pakistan and India □ the Middle East the countries to the east of Egypt and west of Pakistan □ the Near East the countries to the east of the Mediterranean ■ adj referring to the east ○ The east coast is the coldest part of the country. ■ adv towards the east ○ The kitchen windows face east, so we get the morning sun. ○ Drive east along the motorway for twenty miles.

eastbound /i:stbaʊnd/ adj travelling towards the east

③ Easter /'i:stə/ noun an important Christian festival, in March or April, celebrating Christ's death and resurrection

Easter egg /'i:stər eg/ noun a chocolate or sugar egg eaten at Easter easterly /'i:stəli/ adj 1. (of a wind) from the east ○ There was a light easterly breeze. ○ the prevailing easterly airflow across the country 2. towards the east ○ They are heading in a easterly direction. ■ noun a wind from the east (NOTE: The plural is easterlies.)

② eastern /'i:st(ə)n/ adj from, of or in the east ○ Bulgaria is part of Eastern Europe. ○ The best snow is in the eastern part of the mountains.

easterner /'i:stənəl/ noun a person from the east of a country or region easternmost /'i:st(ə)nəʊst/ adj furthest east eastward /'i:stwəd/ adj, adv towards the east eastwards /'i:stwədz/ adv towards the east

① easy /'i:zi/ adj not difficult, not needing a lot of effort ○ The driving test isn't very easy – lots of people fail it. ○ It's easy to see why the shop closed – a big supermarket has opened next door. ○ The office is within easy reach of the airport. ○ My boss is very easy to get on with. ■ adv □ to take things easy to rest, not to do any hard work ○ The doctor told him to take things easy for a time after his operation. □ easy now! easy does it! be careful! □ go easy on or with the jam! don't take too much jam! □ it's easier said than done it's more difficult than you think (NOTE: easy – easier – easiest) easy chair /'i:zi tʃeə/ noun a large comfortable armchair easy-going /'i:zi 'gəʊɪŋ/ adj friendly and not very critical easy listening /'i:zi 'lis(ə)nɪŋ/ noun slow or quiet popular music

① eat /i:t/ verb 1. to chew and swallow food ○ I'm hungry – is there anything to eat? ○ We haven't eaten anything since breakfast. ○ The children ate all the sandwiches. ○ Eat as much as you like for £5.95! ○ You'll get thin if you don't eat. □ I had him eating out of my hand he did everything I told him to do □ he had to eat his words he had to take back what he had said 2. to have a meal ○ He was still eating his breakfast when I arrived. ○ We are eating at home tonight. ○ Have you eaten yet? (NOTE: eating – ate /et/ - has eaten /'i:t(ə)n/) eatable /'i:təb(ə)l/ adj which is good enough to eat. Antonym uneatable eat away /i:t ə'wei/ verb to destroy by gradually wearing away. Synonym erode eater /'i:ta/ noun a person who eats eatery /'i:təri/ noun US a restaurant, a place where you can eat (informal) (NOTE: The plural is eateries.)

eating apple /'i:tɪŋ ,æp(ə)l/ noun a sweet apple which you can eat raw eating disorder /'i:tɪŋ dɪs,ɔ:də/ noun an emotional disorder manifesting as an obsessive attitude to food eat out /i:t 'aʊt/ verb to have a meal in a restaurant eat up /i:t 'ʌp/ verb to eat everything eau de cologne /,əʊ də kə'lɔ:n/ noun a type of light perfume eaves /i:vz/ plural noun the edge of a roof which sticks out over the wall beneath it eavesdrop /i:vzdrɒp/ verb □ to eavesdrop on a conversation to listen to a conversation which you are not supposed to hear ○ She stood outside the door to eavesdrop on the interview her son had with the manager.

eavesdropper /i:vzdrɒpə/ noun a person who eavesdrops. Synonym listener ebb /eb/ noun (of tides) going down ○ If we leave at 3.00 p.m. the tide will be on the ebb. Antonym flow □ to be at a low ebb to be in a bad state ○ After his interview, his morale was at a low ebb. ○ The manager asked them to try harder, just when their energy was at its lowest ebb. ■ verb 1. (of tides) to go down ○ Boats at anchor swing round to point upstream when the tide starts to ebb. 2. □ to ebb away to become weaker gradually ○ He couldn't hold on to the life-raft any longer; his strength was ebbing away.

ebb tide /eb 'taɪd/ noun a tide that is going down ebony /'ebəni/ noun a black tropical wood ebullient /i'bʌlɪənt/ adj very excited or full of life. Synonym joyful

e-business /'i: ,bɪznəs/ noun 1. business that is conducted on the Internet 2. a company that uses Internet technology eccentric /ik'sentrik/ adj strange, odd ○ an eccentric old lady who wears boots all the year round. Antonym conventional ■ noun a strange or odd person ○ In his old age, he became something of an eccentric.

eccentricity /,eksen'trisɪtɪ/ noun strange habits, odd behaviour ecclesiastical /i,kli:zi'æstɪk(ə)l/ adj referring to the Christian church. Antonym secular echelon /'eʃəlon/ noun 1. a group of people at a certain level in an organisation ○ the upper echelons of management ○ the lower echelons of village society 2. an arrangement of separate things in steps, each behind the other and to one side, and not in a straight line ○ The tanks moved forward in echelon.

echo /'ekəʊ/ noun a sound which is repeated (as when you shout in a place such as a cave) ○ We could hear the echo of voices in the tunnel. ○ If you go to the Whispering Gallery in the dome of St Paul's Cathedral you can hear the echo very clearly. (NOTE: The plural is echoes.) ▀ verb 1. (of sound) to make an echo □ Their voices echoed down the tunnel. 2. to repeat □ The newspaper article echoed the opinions put forward in the minister's speech.

éclair /'eɪklə/ noun a long light cake filled with cream and with chocolate on top eclectic /'eklektrɪk/ adj taking ideas from several different sources. Synonym heterogeneous. Antonym narrow eclipse /'ɪklɪps/ noun a time when part of the sun or moon disappears, because either the earth's shadow passes over the moon, or the moon passes between the earth and the sun □ There will be a partial eclipse of the moon tonight. ▀ verb 1. to hide the sun or moon by passing in front of it □ The sun is eclipsed by the moon. 2. to be more successful than someone □ She was eclipsed by her younger sister.

eco-friendly /'ɪ:kəʊ,frendli/ adj intended to have no harmful effect on the natural environment and its inhabitants ecological /'ɪ:kə'lɒdʒɪk(ə)l/ adj referring to ecology. Synonym environmental □ ecological disaster a disaster which seriously disturbs the balance of the environment □ The oil from the tanker caused an ecological disaster.

ecologist /'ɪ:kɒlədʒɪst/ noun a person who studies ecology. Synonym environmentalist ecology /'ɪ:kɒlədʒi/ noun the study of the relationship between plants and animals and their environment

e-commerce /'ɪ:kɒmɜ:s/ noun business which is done online, especially over the Internet

① economic /'ɪ:kə'nɒmɪk/ adj 1. referring to the economy □ I don't agree with the government's economic policy. □ The government has introduced controls to solve the current economic crisis. □ The country enjoyed a period of economic growth in the 1980s. □ economic growth the rate at which a country's national income grows 2. which provides enough money □ The flat is let at an economic rent. □ It is hardly economic for us to run two cars.

economical /'ɪ:kə'nɒmɪk(ə)l/ adj which saves money or resources □ economical car a car which does not use much petrol economically /'ɪ:kə'nɒmɪkli/ adv 1. referring to economics □ Scraping the power station is economically justifiable. 2. saving money, without waste □ We use electricity as economically as possible.

economic migrant /'ɪ:kə'nɒmɪk'maɪgrənt/ noun a person who moves to live in another country where living conditions are better

③ economics /'ɪ:kə'nɒmɪks/ noun 1. the scientific study of how money functions in trade, society and politics □ She is studying for an economics degree. 2. the way money is used in a particular activity □ The economics of town planning must be taken very seriously. □ Have you worked out the economics of starting your own business?

economies of scale /'ɪ:kɒnəmɪz əv 'skeɪl/ plural noun the practice of making more money by making a product in larger quantities economise /'ɪ:kɒnəmaɪz/, economize verb □ to economise (on) to save, not to waste □ The office has been told to economise on electricity.

economist /'ɪ:kɒnəmɪst/ noun a person who specialises in the study of money and its uses ① economy /'ɪ:kɒnəmi/ noun 1. the way in which a country makes and uses money, or the financial state of a country □ The country's economy is in ruins. □ When will the upturn in the economy come about? 2. something you do to avoid wasting money or materials □ She tried to make a few economies like buying cheaper brands of washing-up liquid.

economy class /'ɪ:kɒnəmi kla:s/ noun an air fare which is cheaper than first class or business class economy drive /'ɪ:kɒnəmi draɪv/ noun an effort to save money or materials economy pack /'ɪ:kɒnəmi pæk/, economy size /'ɪ:kɒnəmi saɪz/ noun a pack which is cheaper than the regular size ecosystem /'ɪ:kəʊsɪstəm/ noun a system which includes all the organisms of an area and the environment in which they live ecotourism /'ɪ:kəʊ,tʊərɪz(ə)m/ noun tourism that tries to avoid ecological damage to places visited ecstasy /'ekstəsɪ/ noun 1. great happiness □ She was in sheer ecstasy over her engagement. □ These chocolates are pure ecstasy. 2. a dangerous drug which makes you have hallucinations ecstatic /'ɪk'stætɪk/ adj very happy or enthusiastic ecstatically /'ɪk'stætɪkli/ adv extremely happily ecumenical /'ɪ:kju'menɪk(ə)l/ adj concerned with uniting different Christian groups eczema /'eksemə/ noun an uncomfortable skin condition with an itchy rash and blisters, but which is not contagious

ed. abbr editor

eddy /'edi/ noun a circular movement of water or dust □ Dust eddies were being raised by the wind. □ He got into an eddy un- der the waterfall. Synonym whirlpool (NOTE: The plural is eddies.) □ verb to twist round in a circle ○ Water eddied round the rocks.

① edge /'edʒ/ noun 1. a side of something flat ○ He put his plate down on the edge of the table. ○ She lay down on the roof and looked over the edge. ○ You can stand a £1 coin on its edge. ○ The axe has a very sharp edge. 2. a line between two quite different things ○ He lived in a house at the edge of the forest. ○ The factory is built right on the edge of the town. 3. an advantage □ to have the edge on a rival company to have a slightly larger share of the market than another company 4. □ on edge nervous or jumpy ○ Everyone was on edge, waiting for the telephone call. □ verb to move in a slow, careful way ○ He started edging towards the door.

edgeways adv, adj with the edge first edging /'edʒɪŋ/ noun a decoration along the edge of something. Synonym border edgy /'edʒɪ/ adj nervous or anxious. Antonym relaxed (NOTE: edgy – edgier – edgiest.)

② edible /'edɪb(ə)l/ adj which can be safely eaten. Antonym poisonous edict /'ɪ:dɪkt/ noun a public announcement of a law. Synonym proclamation edifice /'edɪfɪs/ noun a large building (formal) edit /'edɪt/ verb 1. to be in charge of a newspaper or magazine ○ He edited the 'Sunday Express' for more than twenty years. 2. to change a text to make it better ○ The edited text is now ready. ○ It took me two hours to edit the first chapter. 3. to get a text ready to be published ○ I am editing a volume of 20th-century poetry. 4. to cut up a film or tape and stick it together in correct order to make it ready to be shown or played ○ Once the film has been edited it will run for about 90 minutes.

③ edition /'edɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. a number of copies of a book or newspaper printed at the same time ○ The book of poems was published in an edition of one thousand copies. 2. the form in which a book is published ○ She bought the hardback edition for her father.

④ editor /'edɪtə/ noun 1. a journalist in charge of a newspaper or part of a newspaper ○ He wrote to the editor of 'The Times' asking for a job. ○ She is the sports editor of the local paper. 2. a person who gets a text, a radio or TV programme, etc. ready to be published ○ He worked as a dictionary editor all his life. ○ the editor of a TV series on French cooking 3. a computer program for editing text ○ The software contains a basic text editor.

editorial /'edi:tɔ:riəl/ adj referring to editors or to editing ○ He has overall editorial control of the series. □ editorial board a group of editors who work together □ noun a main article written by the editor of a newspaper ○ Did you read today's editorial in 'The Times'? Also called leading article, leader educate /'edʒu:kɪt/ verb to teach someone ○ She was educated privately in Switzerland. ○ We need to educate young people about the dangers of alcohol.

educated /'edʒu:kɪtɪd/ adj having been to school and university

① education /'edʒu'keɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the system of teaching, or of being taught ○ Our children deserve the best education. ○ We spent a lot of money on his education, and he's got a job as a dustman!

② educational /'edʒu'keɪʃ(ə)nəl/ adj referring to education, teaching and schools ○ This game for 3 to 5 year-olds is very educational. ○ a campaign to improve educational standards. Synonym instructive □ educational publisher a company that publishes school books educationalist /'edʒu'keɪʃn(ə)list/, educationist /'edʒu'keɪʃ(ə)nɪst/ noun a person who specialises in the study of teaching methods educative /'edʒu:kətɪv/ adj which teaches educator /'edʒu:kɪtə/ noun a person who teaches, especially someone who teaches people how to teach. Synonym teacher

Edwardian /'ed:wɔ:diən/ adj referring to the time of King Edward VII (1901 – 1910)

EEC abbr European Economic Community, now the European Union

eel /i:l/ noun a long thin fish which looks like a snake erie /'erɪ/ adj strange and frightening. Synonym unnerving (NOTE: eerier – eeriest) eerily /'erɪlɪ/ adv in an eerie way

① effect /'efekt/ noun 1. a result or influence ○ The cuts in spending will have a serious effect on the hospital. ○ The cream has had no effect on her rash. ○ The effects of the anaesthetic took some time to wear off. □ the order comes into or takes effect from January 1st the order starts to have to be obeyed on January 1st □ in effect actually ○ In effect, he gave up trying. □ with effect from starting from ○ Prices will be increased by 10% with effect from January 1st. 2. an approximate meaning ○ The notice said something to the effect that the shop had closed. □ or words to that effect or something with that meaning ○ She said she wouldn't pay, or words to that effect. □ verb to make, to carry out (formal) ○ She was able to effect a num- ber of changes during her time in charge. Synonym achieve □ to effect a payment to make a payment

① effective /'efektɪv/ adj 1. which produces the required result ○ His method of keeping the children quiet is very effective. ○ Advertising on TV is a very effective way of selling. 2. which takes effect ○ an order which is effective from January 1st

② effectively /'efektɪvlɪ/ adv in a way which produces a good result ○ The flood-lighting worked very effectively.

effectiveness /'efektɪvnəs/ noun the ability to produce an effective result. Synonym efficiency effeminate /'femɪnɪt/ adj referring to a man who behaves in a feminine way (disapproving) effervesce /,efə'ves/ verb (of a liquid or substance) to make bubbles effervescence /,efə'ves(ə)ns/ noun the making of bubbles effervescent /,efə'ves(ə)nt/ adj 1. which makes bubbles ○ The water will become effervescent if you put this tablet into the glass. 2. lively and excited ○ Her effervescent good humour made the party go with a swing.

efficacy /'efɪkəsi/ noun effectiveness; the power to produce the correct result. Synonym effectiveness

③ efficiency /'efɪs(ə)nsi/ noun being able to produce a good result without wasting time, money or effort ○ How can we improve the efficiency of our working methods? ○ She is known for her extreme efficiency. Synonym competence. Antonym inefficiency

② efficient /'efɪs(ə)nt/ adj able to work well and do what is necessary without wasting time, money or effort ○ He needs an efficient assistant to look after him. ○ The system of printing invoices is very efficient. □ a fuel-efficient car a car which does not use much petrol efficiently /'efɪs(ə)ntli/ adv in an efficient way effigy /'efɪdʒi:/ noun a rough model of a person, usually someone unpopular. Synonym image (NOTE: The plural is effigies.)

effluent /'efluənt/ noun sewage, especially liquid waste from a factory

① effort /'efət/ noun the use of the mind or body to do something ○ He's made great efforts to learn Spanish. ○ Thanks to her efforts, we have collected more than £10,000 for the children's home. ○ If we make one more effort, we should get all that rubbish cleared away.

effortless /'efətləs/ adj without needing to use any energy. Synonym easy. Antonym strenuous effortlessly /'efətləslɪ/ adv without needing to use any energy effrontery /'frantəri/ noun rudeness. Synonym impudence effusive /'efju:sɪv/ adj showing too much emotion when talking about something effusively /'efju:sɪvlɪ/ adv with too much emotion

EFL abbr English as a Foreign Language ○ She is an EFL teacher. ○ He's taking an EFL course.

egalitarian /ɪ,gælɪ'teəriən/ adj believing in equality or treating all people equally. Synonym equal egalitarianism /ɪ,gælɪ'teəriənɪz(ə)m/ noun the political theory that all members of society have equal rights and should have equal treatment

① egg /eg/ noun 1. an oval object with a hard shell, produced by a female bird or reptile, from which a baby comes ○ The owl laid three eggs in the nest. ○ Turtles lay their eggs in the sand. 2. a chicken's egg, used as food ○ You need three eggs to make this cake. □ boiled egg an egg which has been cooked by boiling in water □ poached egg an egg which is taken out of its shell, cooked whole in hot water and often eaten on toast at breakfast □ don't put all your eggs in one basket don't risk everything on only one project 3. a reproductive cell produced by a female, which is fertilised by sperm from a male ○ Doctors implanted a fertilised egg in her womb.

eggcup /'egkʌp/ noun a little cup for a boiled egg egghead /'eghed/ noun a very intellectual person (informal) egg noodles /eg 'nu:dlz/ plural noun noodles made with flour, water and egg

③ egg on /,eg 'ɒn/ verb to encourage someone to do something, especially something naughty eggplant /'egplɑ:nt/ noun a dark purple shiny fruit of a small plant, used as a vegetable (NOTE: used mainly in US English. The more common British term is aubergine.)

eggshell /'egʃel/ noun the hard outside part of an egg □ eggshell finish a slightly shiny finish to paintwork egg timer /'eg ,taɪmə/ noun a device which is used to time how long an egg boils egg white /'eg waɪt/ noun the clear liquid found in an egg, which turns solid and white when cooked ego /'i:gəʊ/ noun your high opinion of yourself egocentric /,i:gəʊ'sentri:k/ adj interested only in yourself, not thinking of anyone else egoism /'i:gəʊɪz(ə)m/ noun thinking only about yourself, and not bothering about anyone else egoist /'i:gəʊɪst/ noun a person who only thinks about himself or herself egotism /'i:gəʊɪz(ə)m/ noun thinking that you are better than anyone else egotist /'i:gətɪst/ noun a person who thinks he or she is better than everyone else egotistic /'eɡə'tistik/, egotistical /'eɡə'tistikl(ə)l/ adj thinking you are better than everyone else ego trip /'i:gəʊ trip/ noun an activity designed to improve your good opinion of yourself (informal) egregious /'i:gri:dʒəs/ adj very bad (formal)

③ eh /eɪ/ interj used when asking questions ○ What a laugh, eh? ○ What about a drink, eh? ○ Eh? What did he say?

eiderdown /'aɪdədəʊn/ noun a large bag full of feathers, used on top of sheets and blankets as a bed covering. Synonym quilt

① eight /eɪt/ noun 1. the number 8 ○ He ate eight chocolates. ○ The little girl is eight (years old). ○ I usually have breakfast before eight (o'clock). 2. a crew of eight people rowing a boat ○ Our college eight won the race. (NOTE: The plural in this meaning is eightys)

① eighteen /,eɪ'ti:n/ noun the number 18 ○ There are eighteen people in our dance class. ○ He will be eighteen (years old) next week. ○ The train leaves at eighteen twenty (18:20). □ the eighteen hundreds the years between 1800 and 1899

18 /eɪ'ti:n/ noun a classification of films considered not suitable for people under 18
① eighteenth /eɪ'ti:nθ/, 18th adj, noun referring to 18 ○ The eighteenth of April or April the eighteenth (April 18th). ○ Today's the seventeenth, so tomorrow must be the eighteenth. ○ That's the eighteenth invoice we've sent out today. ○ It's his eighteenth birthday next week.

18-wheeler /'eɪti:n 'wi:lə/ noun a large lorry with 18 wheels eighth /eɪtθ/, 8th adj, noun referring to 8 ○ The eighth of February or February the eighth (February 8th). ○ King Henry the Eighth (Henry VIII) had six wives. ○ His eighth birthday is next Monday. (NOTE: eighth is usually written 8th in dates: April 8th, 1999; September 8th, 1866 (American style is September 8, 1866), say 'the eighth of September' or 'September the eighth' (American style is 'September eighth'); with names of kings and queens, eighth is usually written VIII: King Henry VIII, say: 'King Henry the Eighth'.)

① eighty /'eɪti/ noun the number 80 ○ It's about eighty miles from London to Dover. ○ She's eighty (years old). □ she's in her eighties she is between 80 and 89 years old □ the (nineteen) eighties (1980s) the period from 1980 to 1989

① either /'aɪðə, 'i:ðə/ adj, pron 1. one or the other ○ You can use either computer – it doesn't matter which. ○ I don't like either of them. 2. each of two; both ○ There are trees on either side of the road. ○ Some people don't take sugar in their coffee, some don't take milk, and some don't take either. □ they sat on either side of him one sat on each side of him ■ conj □ either ... or showing one of two possibilities ○ Either you come here or I'll come to see you. ○ It's either a fox or a wolf. ○ You must do it either today or tomorrow. ■ adv with a negative, or to make a statement stronger ○ He isn't Irish and he isn't Scottish either. ○ She doesn't want to go, and I don't want to go either. ○ The report wasn't on the TV news, and it wasn't on the radio either.

ejaculate /'dʒækjuleɪt/ verb 1. to send out semen from the penis 2. to exclaim (literary) ejaculation /,dʒækjʊ'lɛʃ(ə)n/ noun the sending out of semen from the penis eject /'dʒekt/ verb 1. to throw out ○ The chairman called in the police to eject the troublemakers from the meeting. 2. to escape from an aircraft using an ejector seat ○ The pilot ejected safely.

ejection /'dʒeksʃən/ noun the action of throwing out (NOTE: no plural)

eke out /,eɪk 'əʊt/ verb to use something a little bit at a time, in order to make it last longer □ to eke out a living to earn or live on very little money ○ She ekes out a miserable existence as a cleaner.

elaborate adj /'læb(ə)rət/ very detailed, very complicated ○ an elaborate dessert of cream, fruit and cake ■ verb /'læbə'reɪt/ to go into details ○ It's a very complicated plan so I won't elaborate. ○ He refused to elaborate any further on her reasons for leaving.

elaboration /læbə'reɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the process of giving a detailed explanation. Synonym amplification (NOTE: no plural) elapse /'læps/ verb (of time) to pass elastic /'læstɪk/ adj which can stretch and contract ○ She was wearing cycling shorts made of some elastic material. ■ noun a type of rubber which can stretch ○ She threaded a piece of elastic through her waistband.

elastic band /'læstɪk bænd/ noun a thin circle of rubber for holding things together elasticity /,læ'stɪsɪtɪ/ noun the condition of being elastic

Elastoplast /'læstəplɑ:st/ trademark a small strip of cloth which can be stuck to the skin to cover a wound elated /'leɪtɪd/ adj very excited and pleased. Synonym ecstatic elation /'leɪʃ(ə)n/ noun a strong feeling of excitement and pleasure. Synonym ecstasy. Antonym despair (NOTE: no plural)

③ elbow /'elbəʊ/ noun the joint in the middle of your arm ○ He sat with his elbows on the table. ○ She nudged him with her elbow. □ to give someone the elbow to tell someone that you do not want to see them any more (informal) ○ They had been going out together for some time, and then she suddenly gave him the elbow. □ more power to your elbow! keep on doing the good work ■ verb to push with your elbows ○ He elbowed his way to the front of the crowd.

elbow-room /'elbəʊ ru:m/ noun space to move about (informal) elder /'eldə/ adj older ○ I have two elder brothers. ○ She brought her elder sister. (NOTE: elder is a comparative adjective, used mainly of brothers or sisters. It is never followed by than, when older should be used.) ■ noun 1. an older person ○ Mary is the elder of the two. ○ Which brother is the elder? ○ The village elders met to discuss the plan. ○ Children should have respect for their elders and betters. 2. a common tree with white flowers and bunches of small purple berries ○ There's an elder growing in the hedge by the field.

elderberry /'eldəb(ə)ri/ noun 1. an elder tree ○ An elderberry was in flower at the corner of the field. 2. the little black fruit of an elder tree ○ Some people make wine from elderberries. (NOTE: The plural is elderberries.)

② elderly adj /'eldəli/ old ○ An elderly man sat down beside her. ○ My mother is now rather elderly and doesn't drive any more. Antonym young (NOTE: used as a polite way of saying old) ■ plural noun □ the elderly old people elder statesman /'eldə 'steɪtsmən/ noun an older and wiser politician eldest /'eldəst/ adj the oldest of a series of people ○ This is John, my eldest son. ■ noun the oldest person of a series of people (informal) ○ He is the eldest of the three brothers.

② elect /'lekt/ verb 1. to choose by voting ○ She was elected MP for the town. ○ The president is elected for a term of four years. ○ The chairman is elected by the members of the committee. 2. □ to elect to do something to choose to do something (formal) ○ We all went to the pub, but she elected to stay at home and watch TV.

▪ elect /'lekt/ suffix a person who has been elected but has not yet started the job ○ She is the president-elect. (NOTE: The plural is presidents-elect.)

① election /'lekʃən/ noun 1. the process of choosing by voting ○ After the election, the crowds were dancing in the streets. ○ The next item on the agenda is the election of a new treasurer for the club. 2. an occasion when someone is chosen by voting ○ Elections are being held throughout the country next week.

electioneering /'lekʃə'nɪərɪŋ/ noun the process of working for an election campaign, making speeches, writing pamphlets and meeting voters elective /'lektɪv/ adj 1. requiring to be elected 2. not obligatory elector /'lektə/ noun a person who votes or who is able to vote in an election. Synonym voter electoral /'lekt(ə)rəl/ adj referring to an election. Synonym democratic electoral college /'lekt(ə)rəl 'kɔlɪdʒ/ noun a group who elect someone such as a president electorate /'lekt(ə)rət/ noun all the people in an area who are able to vote

② electric /'lektrɪk/ adj 1. worked by electricity ○ Is your cooker electric or gas? ○ He plays an electric guitar. ○ He cut the wood with an electric saw. ○ She gave me an electric toothbrush for Christmas. 2. making or carrying electricity ○ Don't touch those electric wires. ○ Electric plugs in the USA are different from those in Britain. 3. full of excitement ○ The atmosphere was electric as the votes were being counted.

③ electrical /'lektrɪk(ə)l/ adj referring to electricity ○ a shop selling electrical appliances ○ The college offers courses in electrical engineering. ○ They are trying to repair an electrical fault.

electric chair /'lektrɪk 'tʃeə/ noun a chair attached to a powerful electric current, used in some states of the United States to kill criminals as a punishment electrician /'lek'trɪʃ(ə)n/ noun a person who works on electrical repairs

② electricity /'lek'trɪsɪti/ noun energy used to make light, heat, or power ○ We haven't paid the electricity bill this month. ○ The electricity was cut off this morning. ○ The heating is run by electricity. ○ The cottage is in the mountains and doesn't have any electricity. (NOTE: no plural) electrics /'lektrɪks/ plural noun the wires and electrical connections in a building or piece of equipment electric shock /'lektrɪk 'ʃɒk/ noun a sudden pain when an electric current goes through your body electrify /ɪ'lektrɪfaɪ/ verb 1. to connect to an electric source of power ○ All the most modern railway lines are electrified. 2. to startle and excite ○ She gave an electrifying performance.

electrocardiogram /ɪ'lektrəʊ'ka:dɪəgræm/ noun a chart which shows the electrical impulses of the heart as it is beating electrocute /ɪ'lektrəkju:t/ verb to hurt or kill someone with an electric shock electrocution /ɪ'lektrə'kju:ʃ(ə)n/ noun the process of killing someone by an electric shock electrode /ɪ'lektrəʊd/ noun one of two points on an electric circuit where the current enters or leaves a battery electromagnet /ɪ'lektrəʊ'mægnət/ noun a magnet made of a substance with wire round it, through which an electric current passes electromagnetic /ɪ'lektrəʊmæg'netɪk/ adj generating a magnetic field or magnetic effect when supplied with electrical power electron /ɪ'lektrən/ noun a basic negative particle in an atom

② electronic /'elek'trɒnɪk/ adj using devices such as silicon chips which affect the electric current which passes through them ○ My car has electronic ignition.

electronic engineer /'elektrɒnɪk'endʒɪ'nɪə/ noun an engineer who specialises in electronic devices electronic mail /'elektrɒnɪk'meɪl/ noun e-mail, the system of sending messages from one computer to another, via telephone lines electronics /'elektrɒnɪks/ noun the science of the movement of electricity in electronic devices □ the electronics industry the industry which makes TV sets, radios, calculators, etc.

electronic tag /'elektrɒnɪk'tæg/ noun an electronic device attached to someone such as a convicted criminal, so as to be sure where he or she is elegance /'elɪgəns/ noun the state of being elegant elegant /'elɪgənt/ adj very fashionable and stylish elegantly /'elɪgəntli/ adv in an elegant style elegy /'elədʒi/ noun a sad poem or piece of music about someone who is dead (NOTE: The plural is elegies.)

① element /'elɪmənt/ noun 1. a basic chemical substance ○ Magnesium is a metallic element. 2. a basic part of something ○ I think we have all the elements of a settlement. 3. a natural environment ○ The vicar is in his element when he's talking about cricket. 4. a wire which heats in a piece of equipment such as an electric heater or cooker ○ I think the element has burnt out.

elemental /'elɪ'ment(ə)l/ adj wild and uncivilised. Synonym rudimentary elementary /'elɪ'ment(ə)'ri/ adj basic or simple. Synonym basic elementary school /'elɪ'mentri sku:l/ noun US the first school for children up to around eleven years old (NOTE: The British term is primary school.)

elements /'elɪmənts/ plural noun the weather, usually bad weather elephant /'elfənt/ noun a very large African or Indian animal, with large ears, a trunk and two long teeth called 'tusks'. □ white elephant elevate /'elɪveɪt/ verb to lift something or someone up elevated railway /,elə'veɪtɪd 'reɪlweɪ/ noun a form of local railway system which runs along rails placed high above the street elevation /'elə'veɪʃ(ə)n/ noun height above sea level

③ elevator /'elɪveɪtə/ noun 1. US a device for lifting people from floor to floor inside a building ○ Take the elevator to the 26th floor. (NOTE: The British term is lift.) 2. a part of the tail of an aircraft which helps the aircraft lift off the ground

① eleven /'ɪlev(ə)n/ noun 1. the number 11

○ When you're eleven (years old) you will go to secondary school. ○ Come and see me at eleven (o'clock). □ the eleven hundreds the years from 1100 to 1199 2. eleven people, as in a football team or cricket team ○ the England eleven (NOTE: In this meaning, usually written XI: the England XI.)

elevenes /'ɪlev(ə)nɪz/ noun a snack served in the middle of the morning at about 11 o'clock (NOTE: no plural)

① eleventh /'ɪlev(ə)nθ/ , 11th adj, noun referring to 11 ○ The eleventh of July or July the eleventh (July 11th). ○ Today's the tenth, so tomorrow must be the eleventh. ○ That's the eleventh complaint we've received this week. ○ It's his eleventh birthday next month.

elf /elf/ noun a little person in fairy stories (NOTE: The plural is elves /elvz/.)

elicit /'elɪsɪt/ verb to obtain (NOTE: Do not confuse with illicit.) eligibility /,elɪdʒɪ'biliti/ noun the state of being eligible. Synonym suitability eligible /'elɪdʒɪb(ə)l/ adj □ eligible to do something able to do something because you are old enough or have the right qualifications ○ You aren't eligible to vote until you are eighteen. ○ She's not eligible to enter the competition because she works for the company running it. □ eligible bachelor an unmarried man who is thought to be a good person for a woman to marry eliminate /ɪ'lɪmɪneɪt/ verb 1. to remove mistakes or waste ○ Using a computer should eliminate all possibility of error. ○ Smallpox has been eliminated in most parts of the world. 2. to remove someone from a competition ○ He came last and so was eliminated from the next round of the contest.

elimination /ɪ'lɪmɪ'neɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the act of eliminating. Antonym preservation elision /ɪ'lɪʒ(ə)n/ noun the omission of an element of a word or phrase elite noun a group of people with more privileges than most others ■ adj 1. more talented, privileged or highly trained than others 2. limited to the rich or privileged elitism /ɪ'lɪ:tɪz(ə)m/ noun rule by an elite elitist /ɪ'lɪ:tɪst/ adj believing that an elite should run a group or society

Elizabethan /ɪ'lɪzə'bɪ:θ(ə)n/ adj referring to the time of Queen Elizabeth I (1558 – 1603) elk /elk/ noun a large European deer with flat antlers (NOTE: similar to the American moose). The plural is elk.)

ellipse /ɪ'lɪps/ noun an oval shape elliptical /ɪ'lɪptɪkl(ə)l/ adj 1. oval ○ The comet follows an elliptical orbit round the sun. 2. difficult to understand because of a missing word or phrase elm /elm/ noun a large hardwood tree which grows in temperate areas elocution /elə'kju:ʃ(ə)n/ noun the art of speaking in a clear and elegant way. Synonym oration elongated /ɪ:lɒŋgeɪtɪd/ adj longer than normal elope /eləup/ verb to run away to get married elopement /ɪ'ləupmənt/ noun the act of eloping eloquence /'eləkwəns/ noun the art of making speeches which persuade and convince (NOTE: no plural) eloquent /'eləkwənt/ adj convincing and persuasive. Synonym expressive eloquently /'eləkwəntli/ adv in an eloquent way

① else /els/ adv 1. other (used after pronouns) ○ What else can I say? ○ Everyone else had already left. ○ Who else was at the meeting? 2. □ or else or if not ○ Come in right now, or else stay outside. ○ You must have a ticket, or else you will be thrown off the train by the inspector. □ you'd better pay, or else if you don't pay, I'll hurt you (as informal threat)

② elsewhere /els'weə/ adv somewhere else, in another place ○ This shop doesn't stock maps, so you'll have to try elsewhere.

ELT abbr English Language Teaching ○ She's an ELT specialist.

elucidate /ɪ'lʊsɪdeɪt/ verb to make something clear or easy to understand. Synonym explain elude /ɪ'lʊ:d/ verb 1. (of a fact or word) to be difficult to remember ○ Her name eludes me. 2. to be unable to achieve something ○ International recognition eluded him for many years. 3. to avoid being caught ○ The protesters managed to elude the security guards.

elusive /ɪ'lʊ:sɪv/ adj difficult to find. Synonym indefinable. Antonym obvious

'em /əm/ contraction same as them (informal) emaciated /ɪ'meɪʃeɪtɪd/ adj extremely thin. Antonym plump emaciation /ɪ'meɪʃeɪʃ(ə)n/ noun being emaciated emanate /'eməneɪt/ verb □ to emanate from to come from ○ the smell of onions emanating from the kitchen ○ Some of these ideas emanate from the government's own think tank.

emancipate /ɪ'mænsɪpeɪt/ verb 1. to make someone free ○ They passed a law to emancipate all slaves. 2. to give someone the right to equal treatment ○ In the 19th century, women fought to be emancipated.

emancipation /ɪ'mænsɪ'peɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the process of making someone free or giving someone the right to equal status. Synonym liberation (NOTE: no plural) emasculate /ɪ'mæskjuleɪt/ verb to make more weak (formal). Synonym weaken. Antonym empower embalm /ɪm'bæ:m/ verb to treat a dead body with chemicals to preserve it embankment /ɪm'bæŋkmənt/ noun 1. a wall made along a river bank to prevent the river from overflowing ○ Entire fields were flooded when the river embankment collapsed. 2. a road running along the wall along a river ○ The Victoria Embankment in London runs along the side of the Thames.

embargo /ɪm'bɑ:gə/ noun an official ban on trade ○ The oil embargo is still in place. □ to place or put an embargo on to forbid something officially ○ They placed an embargo on trade with our country. □ to lift an embargo to allow trade to start again ○ The government has lifted the embargo on the export of weapons. □ to be under an embargo to be forbidden ■ verb 1. to forbid something officially ○ The government has embargoed the sale of arms to Middle Eastern countries. 2. not to allow publication of information for a period of time ○ The news has been embargoed until next Wednesday.

③ embark /ɪm'bɑ:k/ verb 1. to go onto a ship or aircraft ○ The passengers embarked at Southampton. 2. □ to embark on something to start a project ○ The council has embarked on the redevelopment of the town centre. ○ We'd better not embark on something new until we have finished this job.

embarkation /'embə:k'eɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the act of going onto a ship or aircraft

③ embarrass /'m'bærəs/ verb to make someone feel uncomfortable in front of other people, especially by being rude or indecent

③ embarrassed /'m'bærəst/ adj uncomfortable or ashamed, and not knowing what to do ○ She gave an embarrassed laugh, and said she had forgotten to bring the present. ○ He was so embarrassed that he turned bright red.

③ embarrassing /'m'bærəsɪŋ/ adj, adv making a person feel embarrassed ○ It was very embarrassing to find that the bride's mother was wearing exactly the same dress as me. Synonym awkward

③ embarrassment /'m'bærəsmənt/ noun a feeling of being worried and ashamed embassy /'embəsi/ noun the home or offices of an ambassador (NOTE: The plural is embassies.)

embattled /'m'bætləd/ adj constantly criticised embed /'m'bed/ verb to fix something into a mass such as concrete or flesh. Synonym implant (NOTE: embedding – embedded) embedded /'m'bedɪd/ adj fixed in a mass of something embellish /'m'belɪʃ/ verb 1. to add details which are not true ○ He embellished the story of the rescue with details of how he had climbed down the cliff. 2. to decorate or to make beautiful ○ The ceiling was embellished with gold leaf.

embellishment /'m'belɪʃmənt/ noun a decoration, an improvement to make something look beautiful embers /'embəz/ plural noun red hot pieces of wood or coal ○ She poured water on the embers of the bonfire.

embezzle /'m'bez(ə)l/ verb to use money which is not yours, or which you are looking after for someone embezzlement /'m'bez(ə)lmənt/ noun the act of embezzling (NOTE: no plural) embezzler /'m'bez(ə)lə/ noun a person who embezzles. Synonym swindler embittered /'m'bitəd/ adj made bitter. Synonym disillusioned emblazoned /'m'bleɪz(ə)nd/ adj decorated in a very noticeable way emblem /'embləm/ noun a design which is used as the symbol of a country, team or town. Synonym symbol embodiment /'m'bɒdɪmənt/ noun a physical expression of an idea embody /'m'bɒdi/ verb 1. to include ○ The latest model embodies several new safety features. 2. to show an idea in a physical form ○ She embodies all the best qualities of a children's doctor.

embolism /'embəlɪz(ə)m/ noun the blocking of a blood vessel by a blood clot or a bubble of air emboss /'im'bɒs/ verb to raise a design above a flat surface by pressing □ embossed letterhead an address pressed on writing paper so that it stands above the surface embrace /'im'breɪs/ verb 1. to hold and kiss someone to show affection ○ They embraced for several minutes before he got on the train. 2. to become a convert to a belief (formal) ○ He embraced communism when he was at university. ■ noun the act of holding someone tightly and kissing them (literary) ○ She shrank from his embraces. ○ They lay on the grass in a close embrace.

embroider /'im'brɔɪdə/ verb 1. to make artistic patterns by sewing with coloured threads on cloth ○ She embroidered a table-cloth for her mother. 2. to invent extra details and add them to a story ○ He embroidered the story of his escape from prison with details of how he overpowered three guards and stole their guns.

embroidery /'im'brɔɪdəri/ noun 1. the art of sewing decorations on cloth ○ She went to embroidery classes. 2. sewn decorations ○ We admired the delicate embroidery on the tablecloth. ♦ needlework embroiled /'im'brɔɪld/ adj involved in an awkward situation embryo /'embriəʊ/ noun 1. the first state of a living organism ○ a human embryo 2. □ in embryo in its early stages ○ The plan was presented to us in embryo.

embryology /'embri'ɒlədʒi/ noun the study of the development of embryos embryonic /'embri'ɒnɪk/ adj at a very early stage of development. Synonym developing emerald /'em(ə)rəld/ adj bright green ○ She was wearing an emerald silk dress. ■ noun a green precious stone ○ Her crown was studded with emeralds.

② emerge /'ɪm'ɜ:dʒ/ verb 1. □ to emerge from inside something to come out from inside ○ They blinked as they emerged into the sunlight from the tunnel. 2. to come into existence as something ○ It was only after the election that he emerged as party leader. 3. to become known ○ It soon emerged that the Prime Minister knew nothing about what was happening.

③ emergence /'ɪm'ɜ:dʒəns/ noun the act of emerging. Antonym decline

② emergency /ɪ'mɜ:dʒənsi/ noun a dangerous situation such as a fire, an accident or a breakdown of law and order, where decisions have to be taken quickly ○ Phone for an ambulance – this is an emergency! Synonym crisis □ emergency operation an operation done immediately on a seriously ill patient □ in case of emergency, in an emergency if a dangerous situation develops ○ In an emergency or In case of emergency, press the red button. (NOTE: The plural is emergencies.)

emergency exit /ɪ'mɜ:dʒ(ə)nsɪ 'egzɪt/ noun a door used in an emergency emergency room /ɪ'mɜ:dʒənsi ru:m/ noun the department of a hospital which treats emergency cases emergency services /ɪ'mɜ:dʒənsi ,sɜ:vi:sɪz/ plural noun the police, fire service and ambulance service emergent /ɪ'mɜ:dʒənt/ adj in a very early stage of development. Synonym developing. Antonym established □ emergent nations nations that are becoming economically independent emerging /ɪ'mɜ:dʒɪŋ/ adj starting to appear, occur or develop emigrant /'emigrənt/ noun a person who emigrates. Compare immigrant emigrate /'emigrēt/ verb to leave your country to live in another. Compare immigrate emigration /,emi'greɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the act of leaving your country to live in another émigré /'emigret/ noun a person who has emigrated for political reasons eminence /'eminəns/ noun (formal) 1. a high place ○ The castle stands on an eminence overlooking the river. 2. high rank ○ He owed his position of eminence in the government entirely to his friend the Prime Minister. ○ She was met by several persons of great eminence in the university hierarchy. 3. used as a form of address to a cardinal ○ His Eminence, the Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster (NOTE: When speaking directly to a cardinal, say Your Eminence.)

eminent /'emɪnənt/ adj important and very highly respected. Synonym well-known. Antonym unknown eminently /'eminəntli/ adv remarkably, particularly (formal) emir /'e'mɪə/ noun a Muslim ruler emirate /'emɪrət/ noun a country ruled by an emir. Synonym principality emissary /'emɪrsəri/ noun a person sent with a message or to act on someone's behalf (NOTE: The plural is emissaries.)

emission /ɪ'miʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. the process of emitting ○ They are trying to reduce the emission of carbon monoxide from vehicles.

(NOTE: no plural in this meaning) 2. a substance which is emitted ○ Gas emissions can cause acid rain.

emit /ɪ'mɪt/ verb to send out something such as a sound, a signal or smoke (NOTE: emitting – emitted) emoticon /ɪ'məʊtɪkɒn/ noun a symbolic picture representing an emotion, made from computer keyboard characters such as :

③ emotion /ɪ'məʊʃ(ə)n/ noun a strong feeling ○ Hatred and love are two of the most powerful emotions. ○ He tried to hide his emotions when he made his speech.

③ emotional /ɪ'məʊʃ(ə)n(ə)l/ adj which shows emotion ○ We bade an emotional farewell to our son and his family. ○ The music made her feel very emotional and she started to cry.

emotionally /ɪ'məʊʃ(ə)n(ə)li/ adv 1. in an emotional way ○ He spoke emotionally of his time as a hostage. 2. in a sexual way ○ He became emotionally entangled with his secretary.

emotive /ɪ'məutɪv/ adj likely to cause strong feeling empathise /'empəθaɪz/, empathize verb to feel empathy empathy /'empəθi/ noun the ability to share the feelings of another person, by imagining yourself as that person. Antonym indifference emperor /'emp(ə)rə/ noun the ruler of an empire

② emphasis /'emfəsɪs/ noun 1. showing the importance of something, usually in speech ○ Don't put too much emphasis on his age. ○ She banged the table for emphasis as she spoke. 2. the loudness of your voice when you pronounce a word or phrase ○ Everyone noticed the emphasis he put on the word 'peace'. (NOTE: [all senses] The plural is emphases.)

② emphasise /'emfəsaɪz/, emphasize verb to show that you feel something is important, by saying it more loudly or slowly ○ Please emphasise that the meeting must start on time. ○ He emphasised the importance of everyone working together. ○ She kept on emphasising the same point over and over again. Synonym underline. Antonym understate emphatic /ɪ'mfætɪk/ adj using emphasis emphatically /ɪ'mfætɪkli/ adv in a forceful way emphysema /,emfɪ'si:mə/ noun a condition where the surface of the lungs is reduced, making it difficult to breathe

③ empire /'empaɪə/ noun several separate territories ruled by a central government ○ We're studying the history of the British Empire. ○ The Soviet empire covered a huge area from the Pacific Ocean to the middle of Europe.

empirical /im'pɪrɪk(ə)l/ adj based on practical experiment and not on theory

② employ /ɪm'plɔɪ/ verb 1. to give someone regular paid work ○ He is employed as a gardener by the duke. ○ She is employed in the textile industry. 2. to use (formal) ○ If we were to employ more up-to-date methods, would we make more money? ○ How can we best employ our free time on Sunday?

employed /ɪm'plɔɪd/ adj in regular paid work ○ Please state the occupations of the employed members of your household. Synonym working. Antonym unemployed ■ noun □ the employed people who are working ○ the employers and the employed

① employee /ɪm'plɔɪə/ noun a person who is employed ○ The company has decided to take on twenty new employees. Antonym employer

① employer /ɪm'plɔɪə/ noun a person or organisation that gives work to people and pays them ○ Her employer was a Hong Kong businessman. ○ The car factory is the biggest employer in the area. Synonym boss. Antonym employee

① employment /ɪm'plɔɪmənt/ noun regular paid work □ in employment working ○ Are you still in employment? ○ Everyone in paid employment has to pay tax. □ full-time employment work for all of a working day ○ He is looking for full-time employment. □ part-time employment work for part of a working day ○ She is in part-time employment. □ temporary employment work which does not last for more than a few months □ a new contract of employment or employment contract a new contract between management and an employee showing all the conditions of work emporium /ɪm'pɔ:rɪəm/ noun a large shop (humorous) (NOTE: The plural is emporiums or emporia.)

empower /ɪm'paʊə/ verb to give someone the power to do something empowerment /ɪm'paʊəmənt/ noun the act of giving power to someone empress /'emprɪs/ noun 1. a woman who rules an empire ○ Queen Victoria was Empress of India. 2. the wife or widow of an emperor ○ When the emperor died, the empress decided to rule the country. (NOTE: [all senses] The plural is empresses.)

emptiness /'emptɪnəs/ noun the state of being empty (NOTE: no plural)

① empty /'emptɪ/ adj with nothing inside ○ When we opened it, the box was empty. ○ Take an empty pot and fill it with soil. ○ The fridge is empty – we'll have to go out to eat. ○ The ski resorts are empty because there is no snow. (NOTE: emptier – emptiest) ■ noun something, usually a bottle, which has nothing in it ○ You can take the empties back to the shop. (NOTE: The plural is empties.) ■ verb to make something empty ○ She emptied the clothes out of the suitcase. ○ He emptied the bottle into the sink. ○ They emptied the contents of the petty cash box into a bag.

Antonym fill empty-handed /,emptɪ 'hændɪd/ adj having obtained nothing. Synonym unsuccessful. Antonym successful emu /'i:mju:/ noun a large Australian bird which cannot fly emulate /'emjuleɪt/ verb to try to do as well as or better than someone emulation /'emju'lɛʃ(ə)n/ noun the act of emulating. Synonym imitation emulsify /'ɪmʌl'sɪfaɪ/ verb to mix two liquids which cannot unite completely, such as oil and water emulsion /'ɪmʌlʃən/ noun a mixture of two liquids which do not unite completely, such as oil and water emulsion paint /'ɪmʌlʃ(ə)n peɪnt/ noun paint made from colour added to oil and water, used for painting walls and ceilings

① enable /ɪ'nɪb(ə)l/ verb to make it possible for someone to do something ○ The dictionary should enable you to understand English better. Antonym prevent enact /ɪ'nækt/ verb to make a law enactment /ɪ'næktmənt/ noun 1. the process of making a law ○ The enactment of this Bill is likely to take several months. (NOTE: no plural in this sense) 2. an Act of Parliament ○ This particular enactment dates back to 1824 and is really no longer applicable.

enamel /ɪ'næm(ə)l/ noun 1. a very hard covering of colour ○ The enamel of the painting had begun to crack. 2. a hard coloured coating fixed to metal by heating 3. the hard coating on the teeth ○ If the enamel of a tooth gets damaged the tooth will soon start to discolour. ■ verb to cover with enamel ○ This must have taken a long time to enamel. Synonym coat (NOTE: enameling – enamelled. The US spelling is enameling – enameled.)

enamoured /ɪ'næməd/ adj liking something a lot (NOTE: The US spelling is enamored.)

en bloc /bɒlɒk/ adv all together as a group. Antonym separately encampment /ɪn'kæmpmənt/ noun a large camp encapsulate /ɪn'kæpsjuleɪt/ verb to summarise, to put in a shorter form encase /ɪn'keɪs/ verb to completely surround with a substance ○ encased in concrete enchant /ɪn'tʃa:nt/ verb 1. to delight and attract someone. Synonym charm. Antonym disgust 2. to use magic on someone or something enchanted /ɪn'tʃa:ntɪd/ adj very pleased.

Synonym charmed. Antonym disgusted enchanting /ɪn'tʃa:ntɪŋ/ adj very beautiful or magical. Synonym charming. Antonym disgusting enchantment /ɪn'tʃa:ntmənt/ noun a mysterious and magic feeling. Synonym charm encircle /ɪn'sɜ:k(ə)l/ verb to surround completely enclave /'enkleɪv/ noun a small group of people or small area completely surrounded by another quite different and larger group or area

③ enclose /ɪn'kləʊz/ verb 1. to put something inside an envelope with a letter ○ I am enclosing a copy of our current catalogue. ○ Please find our cheque enclosed herewith. 2. to put a wall or fence round an area of land ○ The garden is enclosed with high brick walls.

enclosure /ɪn'kləʊzə/ noun 1. a document enclosed with a letter ○ Please find details in the accompanying enclosure. 2. a piece of land which is enclosed ○ Only ticket-holders can enter the enclosure. 3. the removal of land from common use, by putting fences round it ○ Much enclosure of common land took place in the 18th and 19th centuries.

③ encode /ɪn'kəʊd/ verb to write something in a code so that it cannot be read or used by other people. Antonym decode encompass /ɪn'kʌmpəs/ verb (formal) 1. to include 2. to surround ○ a flower garden encompassed by high brick walls 3. to cover ○ The city encompasses about ten square kilometres.

encore /'ənko:/ noun 1. a call by the audience for a performer to repeat a song or a piece of music ○ The crowd's cries of 'Encore' were simply deafening. 2. a song or piece of music repeated at the request of the audience ○ At the end of the concert she played or sang two encores.

③ encounter /ɪn'kaʊntə/ noun 1. a meeting ○ I had an unexpected encounter with my former boss at the London Book Fair. ○ She told him about her encounter with the bull. 2. a short fight ○ The encounter only lasted a few minutes. ■ verb to meet ○ On the journey we encountered several amusing people. ○ I have never encountered such hospitality anywhere else.

① encourage /ɪn'kʌrɪdʒ/ verb 1. to make it easier for something to happen ○ Leaving your credit cards on your desk encourages people to steal or encourages stealing. 2. to help someone to do something by giving them confidence ○ He encouraged me to apply for the job. ○ I always felt encouraged by his interest in what I was doing.

encouragement /ɪn'kʌrɪdʒmənt/ noun the act of giving someone the confidence to do something ② encouraging /ɪn'kʌrɪdʒɪŋ/ adj which encourages. Synonym hopeful. Antonym discouraging encroach /ɪn'krəʊtʃ/ verb □ to encroach (upon) to take over someone else's space ○ Their new wall had encroached on our land. ○ She accused the professor of encroaching upon her area of study.

encroaching /ɪn'krəʊtʃɪŋ/ adj which encroaches encrusted /ɪn'krəstɪd/ adj covered with a hard substance encumber /ɪn'kʌmbə/ verb to prevent someone from moving or doing something (formal). Synonym burden. Antonym facilitate encumbrance /ɪn'kʌmbrəns/ noun a thing which prevents you from moving or doing something encyclopedia /ɪn'saɪklə'pi:diə/, encyclopaedia noun 1. a reference book containing articles on all subjects of human knowledge, usually presented in alphabetical order ○ If you need to know something about planets look up the 'Astronomy' article in the encyclopaedia. 2. a reference book containing articles on a single subject, arranged usually in alphabetical order ○ a gardening encyclopedia ○ the encyclopedia of sport encyclopedic /ɪn'saɪklə'pi:di:k/, encyclopaedic adj like an encyclopaedia

① end /end/ noun 1. the last part of something ○ She tied the two ends of the ribbon together. ○ The telephone rang and I missed the end of the TV programme. ○ Go down to the end of the road and then turn right. □ in the end finally, at last ○ In the end the teacher let him go home. ○ In the end the shop had to call in the police. □ on end with no breaks ○ He worked for hours on end. □ no end of very many (informal) ○ The car's caused us no end of problems. □ to come to an end to be finished ○ The work should come to an end next month. □ to throw someone in at the deep end to give someone a difficult job to start with ○ He was really thrown in at the deep end when he started his new job. □ to be at a loose end to have nothing to do ○ I was at a loose end so I decided to go to the cinema. □ to make ends meet to have enough money to live on ○ I'm having trouble making ends meet. 2. the final part of a period of time ○ Can you wait until the end of the week? 3. an aim or an intended result □ the end justifies the means you can do anything to achieve your aim □ to this end, with this end in mind in order to do this ○ We have decided to sell the house and to this end have put it in the hands of an estate agent. □ verb to be finished, to come to an end ○ The film ends with a wedding. ○ The meeting ended with everyone fighting on the floor. ○ The concert should end at about 10 o'clock. ○ The game ended in a draw.

endanger /ɪn'deɪndʒə/ verb to put in danger. Antonym protect endangered species /ɪn'deɪndʒəd 'spi:sɪz/ noun a species of animal or plant at risk of dying completely endear /ɪn'dɪər/ verb □ to endear someone to someone to make someone loved ○ The old teacher endeared herself to generations of children.

endearing /ɪn'dɪərɪŋ/ adj which makes you like someone. Synonym appealing endeavour /ɪn'deɪvə/ noun an attempt (formal) ○ All our endeavours to get the car to start were in vain. ○ In spite of all his endeavours, he could not avoid bankruptcy. ■ verb to try hard ○ He endeavoured to contact her by phone and fax. (NOTE: [all senses] The US spelling is endeavor.)

endemic /en'demɪk/ adj 1. (of a pest or disease) which is very common in certain places ○ This disease is endemic to Mediterranean countries. 2. (of a plants or animal) that exists in a certain area

③ ending /'endɪŋ/ noun the way a story finishes ○ I like films which have a happy ending. ○ He told us so much of the story that we could guess the ending. Antonym beginning endive /'endɪv/ noun a salad vegetable with curly leaves

③ endless /'endləs/ adj with no apparent end endlessly /'endləsli/ adv with no apparent end endocrine gland /'endəʊkraɪn glænd/ noun a gland which produces hormones endorse /ɪn'dɔ:s/ verb 1. to officially mark or sign the back of a document □ to endorse a cheque to sign a cheque on the back to show that you accept it ○ The cashier asked him to endorse the cheque before depositing it. □ his driving licence was endorsed his licence was marked to show that he had committed a traffic offence 2. to show approval of ○ I heartily endorse what has just been said. ○ They asked us to endorse Mrs Martin as the local candidate.

endorsement /ɪn'dɔ:smənt/ noun 1. approval ○ We received a letter inviting our endorsement of his application. (NOTE: no plural in this meaning) 2. a note which endorses a driving licence endow /ɪn'dau/ verb 1. to give money which will provide a regular income for an organisation such as a school or hospital ○ In her will, she left money to endow a new ward in the children's hospital. 2. □ endowed with having certain qualities ○ He is richly endowed with musical talent. ○ She is not endowed with a sense of humour.

endowment /ɪn'daʊmənt/ noun the giving of money to an organisation such as a school or hospital ○ He made an endowment to the local animal sanctuary.

end product /end 'prɒdʌkt/ noun 1. a product, made at the end of a production process ○ After six months' trial production, the end product has still not reached an acceptable standard. 2. the result at the end of a process or discussion ○ He works hard, but the end product isn't always satisfactory.

end result /end rɪ'zʌlt/ noun the result at the end of a process or discussion. Synonym outcome

③ end up /end 'ʌp/ verb to finish in a particular situation. Synonym finish up endurance /ɪn'djuərəns/ noun the ability to accept and live with something difficult or unpleasant endure /ɪn'djuə/ verb 1. to accept and live with something difficult and unpleasant ○ The prisoners had to endure great hardship. ○ The pain was more than she could endure. 2. to last ○ The memory of that day will endure for ever in my mind.

enduring /ɪn'djuərɪŋ/ adj which continues for a long time. Synonym lasting ② enemy /'enəmi/ noun 1. a person who hates you ○ Did your husband have many enemies? (NOTE: The plural is enemies.) 2. the country or people fighting against you in a war ○ They attacked enemy airfields with bombs. ○ The enemy has or have advanced to three kilometres from the city. (NOTE: The plural is enemies. In this meaning the singular form enemy can take a singular or plural verb.)

energetic /,enə'dʒetɪk/ adj active and lively energetically /,enə'dʒetɪkli/ adv using much force energise /'enədʒaɪz/, energize verb to make someone more energetic. Synonym invigorate

① energy /'enədʒi/ noun 1. the force or strength of a person ○ He used up a lot of energy rushing around doing the Christmas shopping. ○ She put all her energies into her art gallery. (NOTE: The plural is energies.) 2. a power which makes something work ○ the use of atomic energy or nuclear energy to make electricity ○ We try to save energy by switching off the lights when the rooms are empty. ○ Trams are an energy-efficient method of public transport. (NOTE: no plural) energy-saving /'enədʒi 'seɪvɪŋ/ adj which saves energy enfold /ɪn'fəʊld/ verb to wrap something up in something. Synonym envelop enforce /ɪn'fɔ:s/ verb to make sure a rule is obeyed enforceable /ɪn'fɔ:səb(ə)l/ adj which can be enforced

③ enforcement /ɪn'fɔ:smənt/ noun the act of enforcing. Synonym implementation enfranchise /ɪn'fræntʃaɪz/ verb to give someone the right to vote in elections

③ engage /ɪn'geɪdʒ/ verb 1. to employ a worker (formal) ○ We have engaged a lawyer to represent us. ○ The company has engaged twenty new salesmen. 2. to make parts of a machine fit into each other ○ The gears aren't properly engaged. □ to engage a low gear to put your car into a low gear 3. □ to be engaged in to be busy with ○ The whole family was engaged in cleaning the car. ○ The general is engaged in high-level talks.

③ engaged /ɪn'geɪdʒd/ adj 1. having officially stated your intention to marry ○ She was engaged to Tom and then broke it off. ○ John and Sue are engaged: they got engaged last week. 2. busy or occupied ○ You can't speak to the manager – his line is engaged.

③ engagement /ɪn'geɪdʒmənt/ noun 1. a statement that you intend to get married ○ My son has announced his engagement to Pam. ○ Their engagement was announced in the local paper. 2. an appointment ○ I have no engagements for the rest of the day. ○ She noted the appointment in her engagements diary. □ to have a prior engagement to already have an appointment ○ I can't meet you tonight – I have a prior engagement. 3. an agreement to do something □ to break an engagement to do something not to do what you have legally agreed to do engagement ring /ɪn'geɪdʒmənt rɪŋ/ noun a ring given by a man to a woman at their engagement engaging /ɪn'geɪdʒɪŋ/ adj charming engender /ɪn'dʒendə/ verb to produce something such as a feeling (formal)

① engine /'endʒɪn/ noun 1. a machine which powers or drives something ○ The lift engine has broken down again – we shall just have to walk up to the 4th floor. ○ Early industrial equipment was powered by steam engines. 2. a vehicle which pulls a train ○ The engine broke down and the train was stuck in the tunnel.

engine driver /'endʒɪn 'draɪvə/ noun a person who drives an engine that pulls a train (NOTE: The US term is engineer.)

③ engineer /'endʒɪ'nɪə/ noun 1. a person who looks after technical equipment, especially engines ○ There are not enough tele- phone engineers in the area. ○ The photocopier's broken down again – we'll have to call the engineer. 2. a person whose profession is designing mechanical, electrical or industrial equipment 3. US a person who drives an engine that pulls a train (NOTE: The British term is engine driver.) 4. (in the army) a soldier who specialises in construction of things such as bridges or defences ■ verb to arrange something secretly ○ She engineered the dismissal of one of her colleagues. Synonym bring about engine room /'endʒɪn ru:m/ noun 1. a part of a ship where the engines are ○ The Chief Engineer emerged from the heat of the engine room. 2. a part of a team or organisation that does the most work ○ The midfield is the engine room of a football team.

② engineering /,endʒɪ'nɪərɪŋ/ noun the science or study of the design of technical equipment ○ The college offers courses in electrical engineering.

① English /'ɪngglɪʃ/ adj referring to England ○ the beautiful English countryside ○ Is the English weather really as bad as it is made out to be? ○ I think she is English, although she speaks with an Australian accent. (NOTE: English is often used instead of British. This is a mistake as England is only one part of Great Britain. Do not say the English Prime Minister, say the British Prime Minister.) ■ noun 1. the language of the United Kingdom, the USA, Australia, and many other countries ○ Can she speak English? ○ What's the English for 'Autobahn'? ○ English is not my first language. ○ We managed to make ourselves understood, even though no one in the hotel spoke English. ○ Several of her books have been translated into English. 2. English language as a subject taught in school or university ○ She's good at maths but not so good at English. ○ As well as teaching English, he also teaches drama. ○ Mr Smith is our English teacher. ○ She gives English lessons at home in the evenings. ○ There are twenty students in my English class. 3. □ the English the people of England ○ The English on the whole are not a very emotional people.

English breakfast /,ɪngglɪʃ 'brekfəst/ noun a cooked breakfast with bacon, eggs, sausages, mushrooms and tomatoes. Compare continental breakfast

English Channel /,ɪngglɪʃ 'tʃæn(ə)l/ noun the sea between England and France

Englishman /'ɪngglɪʃmən/, Englishwoman /'ɪngglɪʃwʊmən/ noun a person from England (NOTE: The plural is Englishmen, Englishwomen.)

engrave /'ɪn'greɪv/ verb to cut a pattern or letters onto a hard surface. Synonym etch □ to be engraved on your memory to be something that you will never forget ○ The scene at the accident is engraved on my memory.

engraver /ɪn'greɪvə/ noun an artist who engraves engraving /ɪn'greɪvɪŋ/ noun a picture made by printing from a plate that has been engraved engrossed /ɪn'grəʊst/ adj totally interested in something engrossing /ɪn'grəʊsɪŋ/ adj very interesting engulf /ɪn'gʌlf/ verb 1. to swallow up ○ Two villages were engulfed in mud. 2. to overwhelm ○ She was engulfed by feelings of remorse.

③ enhance /ɪn'hæ:sən/ verb 1. to increase the beauty or value of something ○ Her makeup enhanced the beauty of her dark brown eyes. 2. to increase the value or power of something ○ Slot in this new memory board to enhance your computer memory. ○ He took steroids to enhance his performance as an athlete.

enhancement /ɪn'hæ:sment/ noun an improvement in something such as quality or value enigma /ɪ'nɪgma/ noun a mystery or puzzle. Synonym paradox enigmatic /,enɪg'mætɪk/ adj mysterious and difficult to understand enigmatically /,enɪg'mætɪkli/ adv in an enigmatic way

① enjoy /ɪn'dʒɔɪ/ verb to take pleasure in something ○ Have you enjoyed the holiday so far? ○ When he asked them if they had enjoyed the film they all answered 'no'. ○ She didn't enjoy the boat trip because she felt seasick all the time. □ to enjoy yourself to have a good time ○ Is everyone enjoying themselves? ○ We enjoyed ourselves so much that we're going to the same place for our holiday next year.

② enjoyable /ɪn'dʒɔɪəb(ə)l/ adj which pleases. Synonym pleasant. Antonym boring

③ enjoyment /ɪn'dʒɔɪmənt/ noun pleasure. Antonym boredom enlarge /ɪn'lɑ:dʒ/ verb 1. to make something bigger ○ We could enlarge the vegetable plot and grow more potatoes. 2. to make a bigger photograph ○ I like this photo best: I'll get it enlarged. 3. □ to enlarge on or upon something to give details of something ○ Even though we asked him twice, he refused to enlarge upon his meeting with the principal.

enlargement /ɪn'lɑ:dʒmənt/ noun 1. the process of making something bigger 2. a bigger photograph than the original enlighten /ɪn'lait(ə)n/ verb □ to enlighten someone on or about something to make someone understand something ○ Will someone please enlighten me about or on what is happening?

enlightened /ɪn'lait(ə)nd/ adj without any prejudice; holding modern ideas enlightenment /ɪn'lait(ə)nment/ noun knowledge, or the absence of ignorance ○ In his search for enlightenment he visited the Buddhist monks of the Himalayas.

Enlightenment /ɪn'lait(ə)nment/ noun the 18th century in Europe, the period when people did scientific experiments, studied classical literature and planned democracy enlist /ɪn'list/ verb 1. to join up voluntarily as a member of the armed forces ○ He left school at 18 and enlisted as a soldier for five years. 2. □ to enlist someone or someone's help to get someone to help ○ We enlisted our neighbour's help to cut down the tree.

enliven /ɪn'laɪv(ə)n/ verb to make someone or something more lively. Synonym liven up en masse /ən 'mæs/ adv all together in a crowd enmity /'enmɪti/ noun hatred towards someone. Synonym hostility (NOTE: You experience enmity towards someone.)

enormity /'enɔ:rmɪti/ noun the large size of something which is bad or wrong

② enormous /'enɔ:rməs/ adj very large ○ The ballroom is absolutely enormous. ○ He ate an enormous lunch. Synonym huge. Antonym tiny

③ enormously /'enɔ:rməsli/ adv very much. Synonym extremely. Antonym slightly

① enough /'nʌf/ adj as much as is needed ○ Have you got enough money for your fare or to pay your fare? ○ There isn't enough light to take photographs. Synonym sufficient. Antonym insufficient ■ pron as much of something as is needed ○ I had £20 in my purse to pay the taxi, but it wasn't enough. ○ Have you all had enough to eat? ■ adv as much as is needed ○ This box isn't big enough for all these books. ○ He doesn't work fast enough and so gets behind the others.

enquire /ɪn'kwaɪə/ verb another spelling of inquire enquiry /ɪn'kwaɪri/ noun another spelling of inquiry enrage /ɪn'reɪdʒ/ verb to make someone very angry. Synonym infuriate. Antonym calm enrich /ɪn'rɪtʃ/ verb 1. to make richer ○ He has no scruples about enriching himself at other people's expense. 2. to benefit, to make more fertile ○ Learning French has enriched his life. ○ Some crops, such as beans, enrich the soil.

enriched /in'ritʃt/ adj made richer enrichment /in'ritʃmənt/ noun making richer. Synonym enhancement enrol /in'roʊl/ verb to admit or be admitted as a new member or new student (NOTE: enrolling – enrolled. The US spelling is enroll.)

enrolment /in'rəʊlmənt/ noun 1. the action of admitting new members or new students ○ Enrolment starts next Saturday. (NOTE: no plural in this meaning. The US spelling is enrollment.) 2. the number of students who have enrolled ○ Student enrolments have increased enormously over the past three years. (NOTE: The US spelling is enrollment.)

en route /ən 'ru:t/ noun on the way ○ The tanker sank when she was en route to the Gulf.

ensemble /ən'səmbəl/ noun 1. a small group of musicians or singers ○ a jazz ensemble ○ An ensemble played music by Mozart. 2. a set of women's clothes which match ○ She lost the hat that went with her ensemble and couldn't find another one to match. 3. a group of things which go together to form a whole ○ The whole ensemble of church, cottages and pub looks just like a postcard.

enshrine /in'sfrain/ verb to make something a legal right that cannot be taken away. Synonym protect ensign /ən'saɪn/ noun a national flag used by a ship enslave /in'sleɪv/ verb 1. make someone into a slave 2. to control someone, taking away their freedom ensue /in'sju:/ verb to follow, or happen after something □ to ensue from to happen as a result of ○ Several important developments will ensue from the committee's decision.

ensuing /in'sju:ɪŋ/ adj which follows. Synonym resultant. Antonym preceding

③ en-suite /ən 'swi:t/ adj, adv attached ○ a bedroom with an en-suite shower room

① ensure /in'sʊər/ verb to make sure of something ○ When taking a shower, please ensure that the shower curtain is inside the bath. (NOTE: Do not confuse with insure.)

entail /in'teɪl/ verb to involve having or doing something (formal) entangle /in'tæŋgəl/ verb 1. to catch or tie up in ○ Her dress became entangled in the machinery. ○ The propeller was entangled in seaweed. 2. to put in a difficult situation from which it is difficult to escape ○ He became emotionally entangled with a colleague. ○

The country is in danger of getting entangled in the war.

① enter /'entər/ verb 1. to go in or to come in ○ He took off his hat as he entered the church. ○ Did they stamp your passport when you entered the country? 2. to write something in a record ○ to enter a name on a list 3. to decide to take part in a race or competition ○ She has entered the 2000 metres. 4. to type information on a keyboard, and put it into a computer system ○ We will just enter your name and address on the computer. 5. □ to enter into something to begin something ○ to enter into negotiations with a company ○ to enter into an agreement or a contract ■ noun the key on a keyboard which you press when you have finished keying something, or when you want to start a new line ○ To log on to the system, type your password and press enter. ♦ entrance, entry

② enterprise /'entəprɪz/ noun 1. a business venture, especially something that involves some risk ○ Their latest enterprise is importing carpets from Turkey. 2. a method of organising business ○ The state should not interfere with free enterprise. □ private enterprise all businesses which are not state-owned 3. a commercial firm, a business organisation ○ They have merged with another huge industrial enterprise. □ a small-scale enterprise a small business enterprising /'entəprɪzɪŋ/ adj using initiative. Synonym innovative entertain /entə'teɪn/ verb 1. to amuse someone ○ He entertained us with stories of his life in the army. ○ We hired a clown to entertain the children. ○ The tourists were entertained by the local dance troupe. 2. to offer meals, accommodation and visits to someone ○ They're entertaining some Swedish friends this evening. 3. to be ready to consider a proposal (formal) ○ They said they would entertain any suggestions we might like to make.

③ entertainer /entə'teɪnə/ noun a person who entertains people. Synonym performer

③ entertaining /entə'teɪnɪŋ/ adj amusing

③ entertainment /entə'teɪnmənt/ noun 1. a public amusement ○ She sang for their entertainment. ○ There's not much entertainment in the village – the nearest cinema is 25km away. 2. offering someone accommodation, meals and visits ○ The entertainment of the visiting managing director and his wife cost us a fortune.

enthral /in'θrɔ:l/ verb to keep someone's attention (NOTE: enthraling – enthralled. The US spelling is enthrall.)

enthralling /in'θrɔ:lɪŋ/ adj extremely interesting. Synonym fascinating. Antonym boring enthuse /ɪn'θju:z/ verb □ to enthuse about or over something to show great interest in something (informal) ○ He spent the evening enthusing over his new car. ○ She came away from the meeting enthused by the speaker's vision of the future.

③ enthusiasm /ɪn'θju:ziæz(ə)m/ noun great interest and liking ○ We succeeded, thanks to the enthusiasm and hard work of a small group of members. ○ She showed a lot of enthusiasm for our new project.

enthusiast /ɪn'θju:ziæst/ noun a person who shows great interest in something. Synonym fan

③ enthusiastic /ɪn'θju:zi'æstɪk/ adj showing great interest and approval ○ The editor was very enthusiastic about my book. ○ There were enthusiastic cheers at the end of the performance. Synonym eager. Antonym apathetic enthusiastically /ɪn'θju:zi'æstɪkli/ adv with enthusiasm entice /ɪn'taɪs/ verb to attract or to tempt someone to do something. Synonym lure enticing /ɪn'taɪsɪŋ/ adj which attracts or tempts someone to do something. Synonym tempting

② entire /ɪn'taɪə/ adj whole ○ We spent the entire day gardening. ○ The entire cast came on the stage and bowed to the audience.

② entirely /ɪn'taɪəli/ adv completely ○ I agree with you entirely. ○ This is an entirely separate problem.

entirety /ɪn'taɪərɪti/ noun a full amount □ in its entirety completely ○ He read the book in its entirety.

② entitle /ɪn'taɪt(ə)l/ verb 1. to give someone the right to ○ I am entitled to five weeks' holiday a year. 2. to give a title to something ○ Tolstoy wrote a book entitled 'War and Peace'.

entitlement /ɪn'taɪt(ə)lmənt/ noun a right to have something

③ entity /'entɪti/ noun a thing which exists as a separate unit entomologist /'entəmɒlədʒɪst/ noun a scientist who studies insects entomology /'entəmɒlədʒɪ/ noun the study of insects entourage /'ɒntrəʊɪdʒ/ noun a group of people such as secretaries, assistants and advisers surrounding an important person entrails /'entreɪlz/ plural noun the intestines of animals. Synonym guts

③ entrance noun /'entrəns/ 1. a door for going in ○ She was sitting at the entrance to the museum. ○ We will meet at the Oxford Street entrance of Selfridges. □ back entrance a back doorway □ main entrance a main doorway ○ The taxi will drop you at the main entrance. 2. □ entrance (charge) or entrance fee money which you have to pay to go in ○ Entrance is £1.50 for adults and £1 for children. ■ verb /ɪn'trə:nsl/ to make someone very happy ○ The audience was entranced by his singing. Synonym captivate entrance fee /'entrəns fi:/ noun a fee paid to go into a place such as a museum or a sports stadium entrancing /ɪn'trə:nſɪŋ/ adj which makes you very happy. Antonym boring entrant /'entrənt/ noun a person who enters a race or a competition. Synonym applicant

entreat /ɪn'tri:t/ verb to ask again and again. Antonym demand entreaty /ɪn'tri:tɪ/ noun a plea. Synonym appeal

entrée /'ɒntrə/ noun 1. the main dish in a meal ○ You have the choice of three starters and four entrées. 2. a right to be part of something ○ Becoming director of the National Theatre gave him the entrée to the highest artistic circles.

entrench /ɪn'trentʃ/ verb 1. □ to entrench yourself to establish yourself very firmly ○ She rapidly entrenched herself as the key figure in the sales department. 2. (of soldiers) to dig trenches as a protection ○ The enemy forces are entrenched on the top of the hill.

entrenched /ɪn'trentʃt/ adj □ firmly entrenched firmly established ○ It takes time to change firmly entrenched attitudes.

entrepreneur /,ɒntrəprə'nɜ:riəl/ noun a person who directs a company and takes risks commercially entrepreneurial /,ɒntrəprə'nɜ:riəl/ adj taking risks in business entrust /ɪn'trʌst/ verb □ to entrust something to someone or to entrust someone with something to give someone the responsibility for looking after something ○ She entrusted the care of her children to her brother. ○ He was entrusted with the keys to the office safe. ○ Why did she entrust him with all her money?

② entry /'entrɪ/ noun 1. going in ○ The sign on the door said 'No Entry'. □ entry charge or entry fee an amount of money to be paid before going into a place such as a museum ○ The entry charge is £5. 2. written information in a reference book, an accounts ledger or computer system ○ She looked up the entry on 'roses' in the gardening encyclopaedia. □ to make an entry in to write details in a book ○ No one had made any entries in the register yet that day.

entryphone /'entrɪfən/ noun a telephone or intercom at the entrance of a house or block of flats, through which visitors speak to someone inside before entering entry visa /'entri ,vi:zə/ noun a pass allowing someone to enter a country entwine /in'twain/ verb to twist two things together

E number /'i: 'nʌmbə/ noun a classification number for food additives, used in the European Union enumerate /'i'nju:məreɪt/ verb to make a list of things one after another (formal) enunciate /'i'nʌnsiət/ verb to pronounce words clearly enunciation /i,nʌnsi'eiʃ(ə)n/ noun clear pronunciation envelop /in'veləp/ verb to cover something; to surround something with a covering. Synonym enfold

③ envelope /'envələp/ noun a folded paper cover for sending letters ○ She wrote the address on the envelope and sealed it. ○ The shopkeeper wrote down all the information on the back of an envelope. □ a stamped addressed envelope (s.a.e.) an envelope with your own address written on it and a stamp stuck on it to pay for return postage ○ Please send a stamped addressed envelope for further details and our latest catalogue.

enviable /'enviəb(ə)l/ adj which one can envy. Synonym desirable envious /'enviəs/ adj feeling or showing envy. Synonym jealous

① environment /in'verənmənt/ noun 1. the surroundings in which we live ○ The environment in the office is not good for concentrated work. □ the working environment the general surroundings in which a person works 2. the earth, its natural features and resources, seen as the place where humans exist ○ They are trying to protect the environment. □ environment protection the act of protecting the environment against pollution

① environmental /in'verən'ment(ə)l/ adj referring to the environment ○ measures taken to protect against environmental pollution ○ She's joined an environmental group. Synonym ecological □ Environmental Health Officer (EHO) an official of a local authority who examines the environment and tests for things such as air pollution environmentalist /in'verən'mentlist/ noun a person who is concerned with protecting the environment. Synonym ecologist environmentally friendly /in'verən'ment(ə)li 'frendli/ adj minimising harm to the natural environment environs /in'verənz/ plural noun the area around a place. Synonym vicinity

③ enviseage /in'vezidʒ/ verb to imagine something in your mind which could possibly happen in the future envision /in'vez(ə)n/ verb US same as enviseage

③ envoy /'envɔɪ/ noun a person sent officially by one country to another envy /'envi/ noun a feeling that you would like to have something which someone else has ○ Her beautiful long blonde hair filled us all with envy. Synonym jealousy □ verb to feel you would like to be someone else ○ I don't envy him with a job like that! □ to envy someone something to want to have something which someone else has ○ We all envy Sue her new car.

③ enzyme /'enzaɪm/ noun a protein produced by living cells which makes other substances change, as when digestion takes place epaulette /'epolet/ noun a decorative strip on the shoulder of a soldier's uniform (NOTE: The US spelling is epaulet.)

ephemera /i'femərə/ plural noun things which do not normally exist for a long time, but which people keep and collect ephemeral /i'femərəl/ adj which does not last long. Antonym lasting epic /'epik/ noun a long poem or film, especially about war ○ There's an old Hollywood epic on TV this afternoon. ○ The reading was an extract from Homer's epic, the 'Iliad'. Synonym classic. Antonym short story □ adj long and difficult ○ his epic struggle against the local planning authority. Synonym marathon. Antonym minuscule epicentre /'epɪsəntrəl/ noun a point on the earth's surface above the centre of an earthquake (NOTE: The US spelling is epicenter.)

epicure /'epɪkjuər/ noun a person who is fond of food and drink, and who knows a lot about it. Synonym gourmet epidemic /,epɪ'demɪk/ noun the spread of an infectious disease quickly through a large number of people epidermis /,epɪ'dʒɪmɪs/ noun the outer layer of skin epigram /'epɪgræm/ noun a short witty saying epilepsy /'epɪlepsi/ noun a disorder of the nervous system in which there are convulsions and loss of consciousness epileptic /,epɪ'leptɪk/ adj referring to epilepsy ○ He had an epileptic fit. □ noun a person who has epilepsy (NOTE: Many people avoid using this word, as it causes offence, and prefer to say a person with epilepsy.)

epilogue /'epɪləg/ noun a short text at the end of a long book or play. Compare prologue (NOTE: The US spelling is epilog.)

episode /'epɪsəd/ noun 1. a short section of a longer story, especially one part of a TV series ○ Do you remember the episode where the ghost appears? ○ The hero's father returns in the third episode. 2. a short period of your life ○ It's an episode in his marriage which he would rather forget.

episodic /'epɪ'sɒdɪk/ adj which is described in episodes epistle /'epɪs(ə)l/ noun a long letter epitaph /'epɪta:f/ noun words written on a gravestone. Synonym inscription epithet /'epɪθət/ noun a phrase used to describe a person, such as 'Ivan the Terrible'.

epitome /'epɪtəmi/ noun a person who shows a particular quality very strongly. Antonym antithesis epitomise /'epɪtəmaɪz/, epitomize verb to show a quality very strongly. Synonym typify epoch /'i:pɒk/ noun a major period of time. Synonym era epoch-making /'i:pɒk ,meɪkɪŋ/ adj very important from a historical point of view. Synonym historic. Antonym insignificant eponymous /'epɒnɪməs/ adj who has given his or her name to something epoxy resin /i,pɒksi 'rezɪn/ noun a strong synthetic substance, used especially to make glue equable /'ekwəb(ə)l/ adj calm, not easily worried. Synonym composed. Antonym jumpy

① equal /'i:kwəl/ adj with exactly the same amount as ○ His share is equal to mine. ○ Male and female employees must have equal pay. ○ The two sticks are of equal length or are equal in length. □ all things being equal assuming nothing else has changed ○ All things being equal, I'd prefer to go on holiday in June. □ equal to the task able to carry out the task ○ He was put in charge of the prison, but was quickly found not to be equal to the task. ■ verb 1. to be exactly the same as ○ His time for the 100 metres equals the existing record. 2. to give a particular result ○ Two plus two equals four. ○ Ten take away four equals six. (NOTE: equalling – equalled. The US spelling is equaling – equaled) ■ noun a person who is on the same level as someone else ○ I don't consider him your equal. ○ We're all equals here.

equalise /'i:kwəlaɪz/, equalize verb 1. (in a game) to make a score equal ○ They equalised just before half-time. 2. to make things equal ○ We are trying to equalise the availability of medical supplies throughout the region.

equaliser /'i:kwəlaɪzə/ noun a goal or point which makes the score equal equality /'kwɒlɪti/ noun a situation where people are equal ○ policies to ensure equality in the workplace. Synonym parity. Antonym inequality

① equally /'i:kwəli/ adv in exactly the same way ○ They are all equally guilty. ○ Here men and women are paid equally badly. ○ They were both equally responsible for the mistake.

equal opportunities /,i:kwəl ɒpə'tju:nɪtɪz/ plural noun equal chances to be employed, regardless of age, race, sex, etc.

equal opportunity /,i:kwəl ɒpə'tju:nɪti/ noun a situation where everyone, regardless of sex, race, class, etc., has the same opportunity to get a job equals sign /'i:kwəlz sain/ noun a printed or written sign (=) showing that one thing is the same as another equanimity /,ekwə'nɪmɪti/ noun being calm, not getting flustered. Synonym composure (NOTE: no plural) equate /i'kweɪt/ verb □ to equate one thing with another to see two things as equal or the same ○ In his mind, he equates a high salary with a stressful life.

③ equation /t'kweɪz(ə)n/ noun 1. a mathematical or chemical formula showing that two parts are equal ○ Let me show you how this equation can be solved. ○ He formulated the equation for converting mass to energy. 2. a situation where various factors have to be considered ○ Making a profit is difficult enough, but when higher interest rates are brought into the equation it becomes impossible.

equator /t'kweɪtə/ noun the imaginary line running round the circumference of the earth at an equal distance from the North and South Poles equatorial /,ekwə'tɔ:riəl/ adj referring to the equator equestrian /t'kwestriən/ adj referring to horse-riding ○ The Olympic equestrian events have been postponed because of an outbreak of flu amongst the horses. ■ noun a horse rider ○ Only experienced equestrians should attempt this highly demanding course.

equidistant /,i:kwɪ'dɪstənt/ adj at an equal distance from something equilateral /,i:kwɪ'læt(ə)rəl/ adj with all sides the same length. Synonym symmetrical ③ equilibrium /,i:kwɪ'lɪbriəm/ noun 1. the state of being perfectly balanced ○ The electromagnetic forces are in a state of equilibrium. ○ We do not want to disturb the present political equilibrium in the region. 2. the state of being calm ○ During the argument, she struggled to retain her equilibrium.

equine /'ekwain/ adj referring to horses equinox /i:kwɪnɒks/ noun one of the two occasions in the year when the day and night are of equal length, occurring on about equip /ɪ'kwɪp/ verb □ to equip someone or something with something to provide someone or something with something ○ a holiday flat equipped with a washing machine and dishwasher ○ The course will equip you with all the skills you need to practise scuba-diving.

March 21st and September 22nd (NOTE: The plural is equinoxes.)

② equipment /ɪ'kwɪpmənt/ noun all the things such as tools, arms and machinery which are needed ○ He brought all his camera equipment with him. ○ Do you really need all this fire-fighting equipment on a ship? (NOTE: no plural: for one item say a piece of equipment) equitable /'ekwɪtəb(ə)l/ adj fair or just (formal). Antonym unfair equitably /'ekwɪtəbli/ adv in an equitable way equities /'ekwɪtɪz/ plural noun ordinary shares equity /'ekwɪti/ noun a fair system of justice ○ She complained about the lack of equity in the company's pay structure. □ in equity being fair

③ equivalent /ɪ'kwɪvlənt/ noun a thing which has the same value, strength or importance as something else ○ What is the American equivalent of the Chancellor of the Exchequer? ○ I gave him $2000 and he paid me the equivalent in euros. ■ adj having the same value or the same strength as something else ○ Two pints and a litre are roughly equivalent. ○ She handed me the equivalent amount in Swiss francs. Synonym equal. Antonym different □ to be equivalent to to have the same value as, or to be the same as ○ A litre is roughly equivalent to two pints.

equivocal /ɪ'kwɪvək(ə)l/ adj ambiguous; which misleads on purpose. Synonym vague. Antonym unambiguous

① er /ɜ:/ interj showing that you are hesitating era /'ɪərə/ noun a long period of history eradicate /ɪ'rædɪkeɪt/ verb to wipe out or to remove completely. Synonym eliminate eradication /ɪ'rædɪkeɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the complete removal of something. Synonym abolition (NOTE: no plural)

③ erase verb /'erɪz/ to rub out writing ■ to remove recorded material from a tape, or data from a disk ○ I've erased your recording of the concert by mistake.

③ eraser /'reɪzə/ noun US a piece of rubber for removing writing in pencil (NOTE: The British term is rubber.)

erect /ɪ'rekt/ adj standing vertical or sticking up straight ○ She held herself erect as she walked down the aisle. Synonym upright. Antonym prone ■ verb to put up something vertical, such as a mast or a building ○ They are planning to erect a monument to the princess. ○ The civilians rushed to hide in hastily-erected bomb shelters.

erection /ɪ'rekʃən/ noun 1. the action of putting up (formal) ○ The erection of the tent took about 5 minutes. (NOTE: no plural in this meaning) 2. a state where the penis becomes stiff and swollen from sexual excitement ergonomics /'ɜ:gə'nɒmɪks/ noun the study of how tools or furniture can be best designed to make them easy and comfortable to use erode /ɪ'rəʊd/ verb to wear away gradually. Synonym wear away

③ erosion /ɪ'rəʊz(ə)n/ noun the act of wearing away (NOTE: no plural) erotic /ɪ'rɒtɪk/ adj strongly sexual. Synonym sexy err /ɜ:/ verb to make a mistake; to be at fault (formal) Synonym go wrong □ to err on the side of something to use more of something than is necessary, as a precaution □ she erred on the side of caution she was more cautious than she needed to be errand /'erənd/ noun a short trip out to buy something. Synonym task □ to run errands for someone to do things such as shopping or taking messages for someone ○ The old lady asked him to run an errand for her.

erratic /ɪ'rætɪk/ adj irregular or wild. Synonym unpredictable. Antonym consistent erratically /ɪ'rætɪkli/ adv in a wild manner erratum /'er:u:təm/ noun a mistake in a printed book (NOTE: The plural is errata.) erroneous /ɪ'rənɪəs/ adj wrong (formal). Synonym mistaken. Antonym correct erroneously /ɪ'rənɪəsli/ adv by mistake

② error /'erə/ noun a mistake ○ The waiter made an error in calculating the total. ○ She must have made a typing error. ○ There isn't a single error in the whole document. □ computer error a mistake made by a computer □ in error by mistake ○ The parcel was sent to our Edinburgh office in error.

erstwhile /'ɜ:stwɪl/ adj former (formal) erudite /'erʊdɪt/ adj well educated and very knowledgeable (formal) erudition /'erʊ'dɪʃ(ə)n/ noun great learning. Antonym ignorance erupt /ɪ'ræpt/ verb 1. (of a volcano) to throw out lava and ash ○ The volcano last erupted in 1968. 2. to start to become violent suddenly ○ A row erupted over the closure of the station walkway. 3. (of a person) to become angry suddenly ○ He listened to the discussion for a while and then erupted angrily.

eruption /ɪ'ræpʃən/ noun 1. the throwing out of lava and ash by a volcano ○ Several villages were destroyed in the volcanic eruption.

tion of 1978. 2. breaking through the skin, as in the appearance of spots on the face ○ an eruption of pimples on his neck

ESC abbr ESCAPE key

escalate /'eskəleɪt/ verb 1. to get worse or more violent ○ Our financial problems have escalated. ○ The conflict escalated into an all-out war. 2. to increase steadily ○ Prices escalated during the year.

escalation /'eskə'leɪʃ(ə)n/ noun an increase. Synonym rise. Antonym reduction escalator /'eskəleɪtə/ noun a moving staircase escapade /'eskəpeɪd/ noun an exciting adventure

② escape /'skeɪp/ noun the action of getting away from prison or from a difficult situation ○ There were three escapes from this jail last year. ○ A weekend by the sea was a wonderful escape from the office. □ we had a narrow escape we were almost killed ■ verb 1. to get away from prison or from a difficult situation ○ He escaped from the prison by sawing through the bars. ○ A panther has escaped from the zoo and is roaming the countryside. 2. to get out of a container ○ the hiss of escaping gas 3. to be difficult to think of or remember □ the name of the restaurant escapes me I can't remember the name of the restaurant

ESCAPE key /'skeɪp ki:/ noun the key which stops what is happening on a computer and returns to the main program. Abbr ESC escapism /'skeɪpɪz(ə)m/ noun thinking about something marvellous or fantastic in order to forget about your ordinary daily existence escapist /'skeɪpɪst/ adj, noun a person who thinks about something marvellous or fantastic in order to forget about his or her ordinary daily existence escarpment /'ska:pment/ noun a steep slope. Synonym cliff eschew /ɪs'tʃu:/ verb to avoid something escort noun /'eskɔ:t/ 1. a person or group of people accompanying someone ○ The president had a police escort to the airport. 2. a person who accompanies someone else to a social event ○ She wore red silk and her escort wore a kilt. ■ verb /'eskɔ:t/ to accompany someone ○ The police escorted the group into the hotel. ○ I was escorted around by our local MP. ○ The liner entered harbour escorted by a flotilla of yachts.

Eskimo /'eskɪməʊ/ adj referring to the native people living in the north of Canada and Greenland ○ He collects Eskimo carvings of whales and polar bears. ■ noun one of a native people living in the north of Canada and Greenland ○ Eskimos hunt seals and polar bears. (NOTE: The plural is Eskimo or Eski- mos. Note also that they are generally called by the name they use themselves: the Inuit.)

ESL abbr English as a Second Language

ESOL /'esɒl/ abbr English for Speakers of Other Languages esoteric /'esəʊ'terɪk/ adj understood by very few people

ESP abbr 1. English for Special Purposes 2. extrasensory perception especial /'espeʃ(ə)l/ adj same as special

① especially /'espeʃ(ə)li/ adv particularly ○ The case is especially heavy. □ not especially not very, or not very much ○ Do you want to go out? – Not especially.

espionage /'espiano:/ noun the practice of spying esplanade /,esplə'neid/ noun a long level road or path, especially one along the edge of a beach in a town espouse /'ɪspəuz/ verb to support a cause (archaic) espresso /e'spreso/ noun strong black Italian coffee, served in very small cups

Esq abbr esquire □ George Martin, Esq a very polite form of address written after a man's name on an envelope

② essay /'esei/ noun a piece of writing on a specific subject ○ a collection of the philosopher's most famous essays ○ For our homework, we have to write an essay on pollution. Synonym paper

essence /'es(ə)ns/ noun 1. a pure extract taken from something ○ custard flavoured with vanilla essence 2. the central part of an argument ○ The essence of what she had to say was very clear. 3. □ in essence basically ○ His plan is in essence the same as the one which we discussed last year.

② essential /'senʃəl/ adj which is very important or which you cannot do without ○ The refugees are lacking essential winter clothing. ○ You can survive without food for some time, but water is essential. ○ It is essential that we get the delivery on time. ■ noun a thing which is very important or which you cannot do without ○ Sun cream is an essential in the desert. ○ We've got all the basic essentials – food, water and fuel. □ the bare essentials the absolute necessities of life. Synonym necessity. Antonym extravagance

② essentially /'senʃəli/ adv basically, for the most part ○ My new job is essentially not so very different from my old one. ○ Although he's essentially a kind man, he does lose his temper sometimes.

① establish /'stæblɪʃ/ verb 1. to create something, to set something up ○ The business was established in Scotland in 1823. ○ We need to establish a good working rela- tionship with our colleagues. 2. to show something to be true ○ If only the police could establish where the car was parked that evening. ○ It's difficult to establish what her reasons are for resigning.

③ established /'stæblɪʃt/ adj which has been shown to be true. Synonym recognised

② establishment /'stæblɪʃmənt/ noun 1. the creation of something ○ She helped them with the establishment of the local drama society. (NOTE: no plural in this meaning) 2. a business; an organisation ○ It's an establishment which imports radios from China. ○ He runs an important teaching establishment. 3. the number of people working in a company □ to be on the establishment to be a full-time employee

Establishment /'stæblɪʃmənt/ noun people who occupy influential positions in society or who are in authority ○ He spent a lot of his life fighting against the Establishment.

② estate /'steɪt/ noun 1. a large area of land belonging to one owner ○ He owns a 250-acre estate in Norfolk. 2. property owned by a person at the time of his or her death ○ The solicitor announced the value of grandfather's estate. □ estate duty tax on property left by a dead person estate agency /'steɪt ,eɪdʒənsi/ noun an office which arranges for the sale of buildings and land estate agent /'steɪt ,eɪdʒənt/ noun a person who sells buildings and land estate car /'steɪt kɑ:/ noun a large car with a flat space behind the seats where parcels or suitcases can be stored (NOTE: The US term is station wagon.)

estate duty /'steɪt ,djʊ:tɪ/ noun tax paid on the property left by a dead person (NOTE: The US term is death duty.)

esteem /'stɪ:m/ noun respect ○ The staff seem to have very little esteem for the directors. Antonym contempt □ to hold someone in (high) esteem to respect someone ○ She is someone whose work we hold in the highest esteem. ■ verb to admire someone esteemed /'stɪ:mɪd/ adj admired and respected

② estimate noun /'estɪmət/ 1. a calculation which shows the approximate amount of something, or its worth or cost ○ I wasn't in when they came to read the gas meter, so this bill is only an estimate. ○ Your estimate of two dozen visitors proved to be correct. □ she gave me a rough estimate she gave me an approximate calculation 2. a price quoted by a supplier for work to be done ○ Three firms put in estimates for the job. (NOTE: often called a quote) ■ verb /'estɪmɪt/ 1. to calculate approximately the cost or worth of something ○ I estimate that it will cost £100,000. ○ He estimated costs at £50,000.

2. to calculate a price before supplying an item or doing a job □ to estimate for a job to state in writing the probable costs of carrying out a job estimation /,estɪ'meɪʃ(ə)n/ noun an opinion or judgement (formal) estranged /'streɪndʒd/ adj no longer living with a husband or wife estuary /'estʃuəri/ noun a part of a river where it meets the sea, composed of fresh and salt water (NOTE: The plural is estuaries.)

et al. /et 'æl/ adv and the others etch /etʃ/ verb to engrave on metal with acid □ the scene at the accident is etched in my mind I can remember the scene at the accident very clearly etching /'etʃɪŋ/ noun 1. the art of engraving on metal with acid ○ He started with oil colours and has now taken up etching. (NOTE: no plural in this meaning) 2. a picture made by printing from metal engraved with acid ○ He has several etchings by Whistler.

eternal /'et'ʃnəl/ adj lasting for ever or for a long time. Synonym everlasting. Antonym transient eternally /'et'ɜ:n(ə)li/ adv 1. for ever ○ I shall be eternally grateful to you. 2. all the time ○ She's eternally wanting to go the loo.

eternity /'et'ɜ:nɪti/ noun a never-ending period of time □ it will take an eternity it will take a very long time (informal) ○ If you insist on correcting every mistake by hand it will take an eternity.

etherial /'eθɪəriəl/ adj very light and unreal (formal)

Ethernet /'i:θənet/ trademark a system for exchanging messages between computers on a local area network ethic /'eθɪk/ noun a principle of good and moral behaviour ○ the Christian ethic ethical /'eθɪk(ə)l/ adj morally right ethically /'eθɪkli/ adv referring to ethics ethics /'eθɪks/ plural noun moral principles

③ ethnic /'eθnɪk/ adj relating to race ○ The census shows the ethnic makeup of the population. Synonym cultural ethnically /'eθnɪkli/ adv in a way which relates to race ethnic cleansing /,eθnɪk 'klenzɪŋ/ noun killing people, or removing people from an area, because of their race or religion ethnicity /eθ'ni:sɪti/ noun the fact of belonging to a particular ethnic group ethnic minority /,eθnɪk maɪ'nɔ:rɪti/ noun a part of the population which is of different racial origin to the majority ethos /i:θɒs/ noun beliefs or characteristics, especially those of a group of people etiquette /'etiket/ noun a correct way of behaving in society. Synonym manners □ professional etiquette the rules of behaviour in a profession ○ Passing the details of the client's will to his brother was a breach of professional etiquette.

etymological /,etimə'lɒdʒɪk(ə)l/ adj referring to etymology etymology /,eti'mɒlədʒi/ noun the study of the ways in which words and their meanings have developed (NOTE: The plural is etymologies.)

③ EU abbr European Union (NOTE: formerly called the European Community) eucalyptus /,ju:kə'lɪptəs/ noun an Australian hardwood tree with strong-smelling resin Eucharist /'ju:kərɪst/ noun a Christian ceremony of taking bread and wine, in memory of Christ's last supper eulogy /'ju:lədʒi/ noun a speech, especially one given at a funeral praising someone. Synonym tribute (NOTE: The plural is eulogies.)

euphemism /'ju:fəmɪz(ə)m/ noun a word or phrase used in place of a more offensive or unpleasant word euphemistically /,ju:fə'mɪstɪkli/ adv used as a euphemism euphoria /'ju:fɔ:rɪə/ noun a burst of extreme happiness. Synonym elation. Antonym despair (NOTE: no plural) euphoric /'ju:fɔ:rɪk/ adj very happy. Synonym overjoyed. Antonym despairing

① euro /'ju:ərəʊ/ noun a monetary unit of the European Union ○ Many articles are priced in euros. ○ What's the exchange rate for the euro? (NOTE: written € before numbers: €250: say: 'two hundred and fifty euros')

Euro- /'ju:ərəʊ/ prefix referring to Europe or the European Union

① Europe /'ju:ərəp/ proper noun 1. the continent of Europe, the part of the world to the west of Asia, from Russia to Ireland ○ Most of the countries of Western Europe are members of the EU. ○ Poland is in eastern Europe, and Greece, Spain and Portugal are in southern Europe. 2. the same area, but not including the UK ○ Holidays in Europe are less popular than last year. 3. the European Union ○ Canadian exports to Europe have risen by 25%. 4. other European Union countries but not including the UK ○ UK exports to Europe have increased this year.

① European /,ju:ərə'pi:ən/ adj referring to Europe

① European Union /,ju:ərəpi:ən 'ju:njən/ noun an organisation which links several European countries together based on the four freedoms of movement: movement of goods, of capital, of people and of services

Eurostar /'ju:ərəstu:/ trademark a train service from England to France and Belgium, through the Channel Tunnel

Eurozone /'ju:ərəʊzən/ noun the countries in Europe which use the euro as currency

Eustachian tube /ju:z'steɪʃ(ə)n tju:b/ noun the tube which connects the middle ear to the throat euthanasia /,ju:θə'nærɪzɪə/ noun mercy killing, the killing of a sick person in order to put an end to his or her suffering (NOTE: no plural)

③ evacuate /'vækju,eɪt/ verb to make people leave a dangerous place evacuation /,vækju'eɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the removal of people from a dangerous place. Antonym influx evacuee /,vækju'i:/ noun a person who has been evacuated. Synonym refugee evade /'veɪd/ verb to avoid or escape something □ to evade tax to try illegally to avoid paying tax evaluate /'vælju:eɪt/ verb to calculate the value of something

③ evaluation /,vælju'eɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the act of calculating a value (NOTE: no plural) evangelical /,ɪ:væn'dʒelɪk(ə)l/ adj referring to certain Protestant churches and their teaching of the Bible evangelism /ɪ'vændʒəlɪz(ə)m/ noun 1. the act of spreading the teachings of Christ 2. the enthusiastic promotion of something evangelist /ɪ'vændʒəlist/ noun 1. one of the four men who wrote the Christian Gospels; Matthew, Mark, Luke or John 2. someone who tries to persuade people to become Christians ○ The American evangelist is coming to England as part of his world tour.

evaporate /'væpəreɪt/ verb 1. (of liquid) to be converted into vapour by heat ○ Water gradually evaporates from the soil. 2. to disappear ○ As soon as he saw the light at the end of the tunnel, all his fears evaporated.

evaporated milk /ɪ,væpəreɪtɪd 'milk/ noun milk reduced by evaporation evaporation /ɪ,væpə'reɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the process of liquid turning into vapour. Synonym vaporisation (NOTE: no plural) evasion /'veɪʒ(ə)n/ noun the act of avoiding something □ he was accused of tax evasion he was accused of illegally trying not to pay tax evasive /'veɪsɪv/ adj which tries to avoid something □ to give evasive answers to try to avoid answering questions directly. Antonym direct evasively /'veɪsɪvli/ adj in a way that tries to avoid a direct answer evasiveness /ɪ'veɪsɪvnəs/ noun the act of trying to avoid a direct answer (NOTE: no plural)

eve /'eɪvə/ noun 1. the night or day before ○ On the eve of the election the ministers prepared to celebrate. □ Christmas Eve 24th December □ New Year's Eve 31st December 2. a short time before an event □ on the eve of our departure just before we left ① even /'ɪvən/ adj 1. flat, level ○ The road has a smooth even surface. 2. which does not change ○ They kept up an even pace for miles. ○ The temperature is an even 28° all through the day. 3. equal in a competition ○ At the end of the competition three teams were even with 96 points. □ to get even with someone to try to have your revenge on someone 4. □ to break even to make no profit, but no loss either ○ The company is just breaking even. ■ adv used for showing surprise or making an expression stronger ○ He doesn't even like strawberries. ○ Even the cleverest businessperson can make mistakes. ○ She's tall, but her sister is even taller. ○ even now in spite of the passing of time ○ Even now, he won't admit he was wrong. ○ even then in spite of what has happened □ even worse worse than before ○ That film was bad, but this one is even worse. □ even if it doesn't matter if ○ We'll try and drive there, even if it's snowing. □ even so in spite of something ○ It was pouring with rain, but even so they decided to go ahead with the village fête. □ even though in spite of the fact that ○ He didn't take an umbrella, even though it was raining quite hard.

even-handed /,ɪvən'əd/ adj without any bias

① evening /'i:vnɪŋ/ noun the late part of the day, when it is getting dark ○ I saw her yesterday evening. ○ The accident took place at 8.30 in the evening. ○ We arrived in London at breakfast time, having left New York the previous evening. ○ We always go to a restaurant on Sunday evenings. ○ They took an evening flight to Madrid. ○ The evening meal is served from 7.30 to 10.30. □ this evening today in the evening ○ We'll all meet this evening after work.

evening class /'i:vnɪŋ klɑ:s/ noun one of a series of lessons held in the evening, mainly for adults evening dress /'i:vnɪŋ dres/ noun clothes worn on special occasions in the evening, consisting of a long dress for women, and a black suit with a black or white bow tie for men (NOTE: no plural) evenly /'ɪvən(ə)nli/ adv in an equal way □ they are evenly matched they are equals in the competition even number /,ɪvən/ 'nʌmbə/ noun a number which can be divided by 2 even out /,ɪvəut/ verb to make something even or regular evens /'i:vənz/ noun an equal chance that something will happen or will not happen, such as a horse winning a race. Compare odds

① event /'ɪvənt/ noun 1. a thing which happens ○ the events leading up to the war ○ A baby's first birthday is always a very happy event. 2. □ in the event as it happened ○ In the event, the party went off very well. □ in the event of if something should happen ○ In the event of his refusing the job then we will advertise it again. □ in any event or at all events whatever may happen or may have happened ○ I don't know exactly what happened – in any event, it doesn't matter. □ in the normal course of events as things usually happen ○ In the normal course of events, the winner should get a silver cup. 3. a sporting competition ○ The last event was the 100 metres hurdles. □ field events jumping and throwing competitions even-tempered /,ɪ:vən'temپəd/ adj calm; never becoming angry. Synonym calm eventful /'ɪvəntfəl/ adj with a lot of events taking place eventual /'ɪvəntʃuəl/ adj in the end. Synonym ultimate eventuality /'ɪvəntʃu'ælɪti/ noun a thing which might happen (formal). Synonym possibility □ in that eventuality if that should happen

① eventually /'ɪvəntʃuəli/ adv in the end ○ After weeks of hesitation he eventually decided to sell the cottage. Synonym finally. Antonym immediately

③ even up /,ɪvən'əp/ verb to make something balanced. Synonym equalise

① ever /'evə/ adv 1. at any time (used with negatives, and in questions) ○ Nothing ever happens here. ○ Did you ever meet my brother? ○ Have you ever been to Germany?

□ hardly ever almost never ○ I hardly ever go to the theatre. 2. □ than ever used for emphasis after comparatives ○ She is singing better than ever. ○ He went on playing the trumpet louder than ever. 3. always ○ Ever the optimist, he suggested we try once again.

□ ever since or even since then from that time on ○ She was knocked down by a car and ever since has been afraid to go out onto the main road. □ they lived happily ever after they lived happily from then on 4. □ ever so extremely (informal) ○ She's been ever so ill. ○ I'm ever so grateful. ♦ however, whatever, whenever, wherever, whoever evergreen /'evəgrɪn/ adj 1. (of a plant) which keeps its leaves all winter ○ We need an evergreen climber to cover that wall. Compare deciduous 2. still popular and successful ○ He sang some of the evergreen hits from his repertoire. ■ noun 1. a tree which keeps its leaves all winter ○ Holly and other evergreens can be used as decorations in winter. 2. a person or thing that is still popular and successful ○ 'My Way', one of the evergreens of Sinatra's repertoire everlasting /'evə'læ:stɪŋ/ adj going on for ever. Synonym eternal. Antonym transient evermore /,evə'mɔ:/ adv □ for evermore for ever; always ○ I will be yours for evermore.

① every /'evri/ adj 1. each ○ It rained every day during the holidays. ○ We have a party every New Year's Day. ○ Every Wednesday, he goes for a swim in the local swimming pool. ○ Every house in the street has a garden. 2. with a particular amount of time or distance in between ○ The medicine is to be taken every four hours. ○ Have your car checked every 10,000 kilometres. □ every other each alternate one ○ I try to go for a jog every other day.

everyday /'evrɪdeɪ/ adj ordinary or very common. Antonym extraordinary

③ everyplace /'evrɪpleɪs/ adv US everywhere; in all places

① everything /'evrɪθɪŋ/ pron 1. all things ○ Did you bring everything you need? ○ The burglars stole everything of value. ○ Everything he says annoys me. 2. things in general ○ Everything was dark in the street. ○ Everything is under control.

① everywhere adv /'evrɪweə/ in all places ○ There were papers lying about everywhere. ○ We've looked everywhere for the key and can't find it. ■ pron all places ○ Everywhere was white after the first snow fell. (NOTE: Another US term is everyplace.)

evict /'vɪkt/ verb to force someone, especially a tenant, to leave a property. Antonym install eviction /'vɪk'sən/ noun the act of forcing someone, especially a tenant, to leave a property

① evidence /'evid(ə)ns/ noun 1. a fact which indicates that something really exists or has happened ○ The bloodstains on his coat were ample evidence of the crime. ○ Scientists are looking for evidence of life on Mars. ○ There is no evidence that he was ever there. □ there is no documentary evidence of its existence there is no evidence of its existence in the form of documents 2. a written or spoken report given by a witness at a trial ○ The victim gave evidence in court this morning. □ to give evidence for someone to be a witness, and suggest that someone is not guilty □ to give evidence against someone to be a witness, and suggest that someone is guilty □ to turn State's evidence or Queen's evidence to give information against other criminals ○ He hoped to get a reduced sentence by turning Queen's evidence. 3. □ in evidence very visible ○ Her love of Italy was nowhere more in evidence than in her kitchen.

evident /'evid(ə)nt/ adj obvious evidently /'evid(ə)ntli/ adv 1. obviously ○ You evidently care more about the football team than me. 2. presumably ○ Evidently his mobile phone is switched off.

③ evil /'i:v(ə)l/ adj very wicked ○ She's considered to be an evil woman. ○ His evil intentions were evident as soon as he locked the door. ■ noun 1. great wickedness ○ The struggle between the government and the rebels was seen as a fight between good and evil. (NOTE: no plural in this meaning) 2. a bad thing ○ We are committed to fighting social evils such as juvenile delinquency. ♦ lesser evil spirit /,i:v(ə)l 'spɪrɪt/ noun a wicked devil which harms people evocative /'vɒkətɪv/ adj which calls up a sensation in the mind. Synonym reminiscent evolve /'ɪ'veʊk/ verb to try to see something in your memory (formal)

③ evolution /,ɪ:və'lju:ʃ(ə)n/ noun a gradual development. Antonym regression evolutionary /,ɪ:və'lju:ʃ(ə)n(ə)rɪ/ adj referring to evolution evolve /'ɪ'veʊl/ verb 1. to work out gradually a scientific theory or a way of working ○ The research team has evolved its own methods of testing. 2. to develop gradually ○ Modern dance evolved from classical ballet. ○ Birds originally evolved from reptiles.

ewe /ju:/ noun a female sheep (NOTE: Do not confuse with yew, you. The male sheep is a ram.)

ex /eks/ prefix former; who used to be ○ an ex-policeman ○ Tom's my ex-boyfriend.

exacerbate /ɪg'zæsəbeɪt/ verb to make something worse or more painful. Antonym soothe exacerbation /ɪg'zæsə'beɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the act of making something worse

① exact /ɪg'zækt/ adj completely accurate ○ What is the exact time of arrival? ○ Could you repeat the exact words she used? ○ The salesgirl asked me if I had the exact sum, since she had no change. ■ verb □ to exact something from someone to force someone to give you something (formal) ○ They stopped all the cars on the road and exacted payment from the drivers.

exacting /ɪg'zæktɪŋ/ adj which demands a lot of effort. Synonym demanding. Antonym easy

① exactly /ɪg'zæktli/ adv 1. not more, not less; not differing at all ○ That comes to exactly ten dollars and fifty cents. ○ The time is exactly 16.24. 2. completely ○ He looks exactly like his father. 3. quite right; I agree (used as an answer) ○ It's a pity the buses don't run more frequently. – Exactly!

exaggerate /ɪg'zædʒəreɪt/ verb to make things seem worse, better, bigger, etc. than they really are ○ The wide black belt exaggerates her small waist. ○ She exaggerated the importance of my contribution. Antonym understate exaggerated /ɪg'zædʒəreɪtɪd/ adj bigger or more important than normal. Antonym understated exaggeration /ɪg'zædʒə'reɪʃ(ə)n/ noun a statement making things seem larger, worse, better, etc. than they really are. Antonym understatement □ without exaggeration quite truthfully ○ It was, without any exaggeration, the most perfect summer's day.

exalted /ɪg'zɔ:ltɪd/ adj 1. in a high position in authority ○ In his exalted position he should be able to afford a larger car. 2. very happy in your mind ○ She came away from the religious meeting in an exalted frame of mind.

① exam /ɪg'zæm/ noun same as examination² ○ The exam was very difficult – half the students failed. ○ She passed all her exams.

① examination /ɪg'zæmɪ'nейʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. the act of looking at something to see if it works properly, or if something is wrong ○ He had to have an X-ray examination. ○ The examination of the car showed that its brakes were faulty. □ on examination when something is examined ○ On further examination, the newspaper report was shown to be quite untrue. 2. a written or spoken test ○ The examination was very difficult – half the students failed. ○ He did badly in his English examination. ○ She came first in the final examination for the course. (NOTE: often shortened to exam in this meaning)

① examine /ɪg'zæmɪn/ verb 1. to inspect something to see if it is correct or healthy, that it works properly, etc. ○ The doctor examined her throat. ○ We will have to examine the shop's scales to see if they show the correct weight. ○ The customs officials wanted to examine the inside of the car. ○ The water samples were examined in the laboratory. 2. to test a student ○ They examined everyone in mathematics and computer skills.

examiner /ɪg'zæmɪnə/ noun a person who conducts a test. Synonym inspector

① example /ɪg'zɔ:mpəl/ noun 1. something chosen to show something ○ This is a good example of French architecture of the eleventh century. □ to set an example to do things yourself, so that other people can copy you ○ He sets everyone a good example by getting into the office before 8.00 every morning. □ to make an example of someone to punish someone so that others will learn not to do what that person did ○ The magistrates made an example of her by sending her to prison for two weeks. 2. □ for example as a typical case ○ She is keen on getting her weight down – for example, she's stopped eating bread. ○ Why don't we sell anything to Eastern Europe – to Poland, for example?

exasperate /ɪg'zæspəreɪt/ verb to make someone furious. Synonym infuriate. Antonym placate exasperated /ɪg'zæspəreɪtɪd/ adj □ exasperated at or with someone or something extremely annoyed with someone or something ○ He was exasperated at getting the engaged tone all the time. ○ They were exasperated with the waiter who kept bringing them the wrong dishes.

exasperating /ɪg'zæspəreɪtɪŋ/ adj very annoying. Synonym infuriating exasperation /ɪg'zæspə'reɪʃ(ə)n/ noun annoyance and frustration excavate /'ekskæveɪt/ verb 1. to dig a hole in the ground ○ In order to reinforce the foundations they had to excavate to a depth of 10m. 2. to carry out an archaeological investigation of a place ○ Howard Carter excavated the tomb of Tutankhamen.

excavation /'ekske'veɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. the process of digging a hole in the ground 2. an investigation made by archaeologists (NOTE: often simply called a dig) excavator /'ekskæveɪtə/ noun a machine for making holes in the ground

③ exceed /ɪk'si:d/ verb to go beyond something ○ The car was exceeding the speed limit. ○ Our expenses have exceeded our income for the first time. ○ Did the UN troops exceed their mandate?

exceedingly /ɪk'si:dɪŋgli/ adv very (formal). Antonym slightly excel /ɪk'sel/ verb □ to excel in or at something to be very good at something ○ At school, she excelled in mathematics. (NOTE: excelling — excelled)

③ excellence /'eksələns/ noun very good quality

Excellency /'eksələnsi/ noun used as a form of address to an ambassador (NOTE: The plural excellencies is used to refer to several ambassadors, or to an ambassador and his wife: Their Excellencies, Count and Countess Bismarck.)

① excellent /'eksələnt/ adj very good ○ We had an excellent meal in a Chinese res- taurant. ○ Her handwriting is excellent – it is much clearer than mine.

① except /ɪk'sept/ prep other than ○ She's allowed to eat anything except milk products.

○ Everyone was sick on the boat, except (for) me. ○ VAT is levied on all goods except books, newspapers, food and children's clothes. (NOTE: Do not confuse with accept.) ■ conj other than; apart from ○ He doesn't do anything except sit and watch football on the TV. ○ Everything went well, except that James was sick. ○ Everyone enjoyed the birthday party, except (that) there wasn't enough to eat. ■ verb not to include something (formal) ○ Everyone was late, not excepting the teacher.

② exception /ɪk'sepʃən/ noun 1. something that is not included ○ All the students failed, with one exception. ○ Are there any exceptions to the rule? 2. □ to take exception to something to be annoyed by something ○ He took exception to what she said.

exceptional /ɪk'sepʃən(ə)l/ adj 1. outstanding; very good ○ She's an exceptional athlete. ○ His debating skills are really exceptional. 2. being an exception ○ In exceptional cases, the fee may be waived.

exceptionally /ɪk'sepʃən(ə)li/ adv extremely. Synonym very. Antonym slightly excerpt /'eksɔ:pt/ noun a small part of a larger piece of music or writing. Synonym extract excess noun too much of something ○ He had an excess of alcohol in his bloodstream. □ in excess of more than ○ quantities in excess of twenty-five kilos □ to excess too much ○ He drinks to excess. ■ adj more than necessary ○ The factory has excess capacity and may sell off some of its machines. Synonym extra excess baggage /'ekses 'bægɪdʒ/ noun suitcases which weigh more than you are allowed when travelling by air, and for which you must pay extra excessive /ɪk'sesɪv/ adj more than is usual. Antonym moderate

① exchange /ɪks'tfeɪndʒ/ noun the act of giving one thing for another ○ the exchange of rings during the wedding ceremony ■ verb

1. to give something and get something back ○ During the meeting we exchanged ideas on new developments in international law. □ they exchanged addresses they each gave the other their address 2. □ to exchange something for something else to give one thing and get something else in return ○ If the trousers are too small you can take them back and exchange them for a larger pair. ○ Goods can be exchanged only on production of the sales slip. 3. to change money of one country for money of another ○ to exchange euros for pounds

③ exchange rate /ɪks'tfeɪndʒ reɪt/ noun the rate at which the money of one country can be changed for another excise /ɪk'saɪz/ verb to cut something out ○ The surgeon decided to excise the growth. Antonym insert excise duty /'eksəɪz ,dju:tɪ/ noun a tax on certain goods such as cigarettes or alcohol, produced in a particular country excitable /ɪk'saɪtəb(ə)l/ adj easily excited excite /ɪk'saɪt/ verb 1. to make someone lively and happy ○ His speech excited the crowd. 2. to cause a particular feeling ○ The thought of going to work in Kuala Lumpur excited his imagination. ○ The case has excited a lot of interest in the press.

excited /ɪk'saɪtɪd/ adj lively and happy because you think something good is going to happen ○ She's excited at or by the thought of going on holiday. ○ The children are excited because it's the Christmas holidays. ○ What's everyone so excited about? ○ Don't get too excited – not everyone wins the lottery. ○ It was lovely to see the children's happy and excited faces.

excitedly /ɪk'saɪtɪdlɪ/ adv in an excited way

③ excitement /ɪk'saɪtmənt/ noun the feeling of being excited ○ What's all the excitement about? ○ The children are always in a state of excitement before the holidays.

② exciting /ɪk'saɪtnɪŋ/ adj which gives you a particular feeling ○ I couldn't sleep after watching an exciting film on TV. ○ The news about the house is really exciting. Synonym thrilling. Antonym boring

③ exclaim /ɪk'skleɪm/ verb to say something loudly and suddenly. Antonym whisper exclamation /'eksklə'meɪʃn(ə)n/ noun the action of shouting out. Synonym shout. Antonym whisper exclamation mark /'eksklə'meɪʃn(ə)n ma:k/, exclamation point /',eksklə'meɪʃn(ə)n pɔɪnt/ noun a written or printed sign (!) which shows surprise

② exclude /ɪk'sklu:d/ verb 1. not to include someone or something ○ Damage by fire is excluded from the insurance policy. ○ Don't exclude his name from your list. 2. □ to exclude something or someone from a place to shut something or someone out ○ Women are excluded from the monastery. 3. to send a child away from school ○ Ten children had to be excluded last term. Also called expel

③ excluding /ɪk'sklu:dɪŋ/ prep not including

③ exclusion /ɪk'sklu:ʒn(ə)n/ noun 1. the act of shutting someone or something out ○ She was hurt at her exclusion from the guest list. 2. the act of being sent away from school ○ The school only considers exclusion as a last resort. □ exclude exclusive /ɪk'sklu:sɪv/ adj 1. not open to everyone ○ an exclusive Caribbean holiday resort ○ The new health club is very exclusive. 2. □ exclusive of not including ○ The bill was exclusive of service. □ exclusive of tax not including tax exclusively /ɪk'sklu:sɪvli/ adv solely; only excommunicate /,eks'kju:mju:nikeɪt/ verb to refuse communion to a member of a church excommunication /,eks'kəmju:nɪ'keɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the act of excommunicating someone excrement /'ekskrɪmənt/ noun solid waste matter produced by the body (technical) excreta /ɪk'skri:tə/ plural noun faeces and urine; waste matter produced by the body (formal) excrete /ɪk'skri:t/ verb to produce waste matter (formal) excruciating /ɪk'skrū:ʃeɪtɪŋ/ adj extremely painful excursion /ɪk'skɜ:ʃ(ə)n/ noun a short pleasure trip

② excuse noun /ɪk'skjʊ:s/ a reason given for doing something wrong, or for not doing what was expected ○ His excuse for not coming was that he forgot the date. □ verb /ɪk'skjuz/ to forgive someone for making a small mistake ○ Please excuse my arriving late like this. □ excuse me used for attracting someone's attention ○ Excuse me, is this the right bus for Oxford Circus? □ excuse me used meaning 'please forgive me' ○ Excuse me for arriving so late. ○ Excuse me for interrupting, but could you repeat what you have just said?

execute /'eksɪkju:t/ verb 1. to kill someone who has been condemned to death ○ Murderers are no longer executed in this country. 2. to do something (formal) ○ As part of the test, drivers are asked to execute an emergency stop. 3. to carry out instructions or wishes ○ Press ENTER to execute the program. ○ They did their best to execute his wishes.

③ execution /,eksɪ'kjʊ:ʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. the legal killing of person sentenced to death ○ In the 19th century there were still public executions. 2. the carrying out of an order ○ The execution of the order was more complicated than we imagined. □ to put a plan into execution to carry out a plan ○ The new government wants its financial strategy to be put into execution as soon as possible.

executioner /,eksɪ'kju:ʃ(ə)nər/ noun a public official who executes people

② executive /ɪg'zekjutɪv/ noun a businessperson who makes decisions ○ You can't leave a decision like that to the junior executives. ○ Top executives usually earn very high salaries. ■ adj carrying out plans and putting things into practice ○ He has an executive position on the board of directors.

Executive /ɪg'zekjutɪv/ noun the part of Government which runs the state, as opposed to the Judiciary which applies the law, or the Legislature which creates laws ○ People are beginning to question the Executive's ability to govern.

executive committee /ɪg'zekjutɪv kə'mitɪ/ noun a committee which runs an organisation executor /ɪg'zekjutə/ noun a person appointed in someone's will to make sure that the terms of the will are carried out (NOTE: A woman executor is sometimes called an executrix /ɪg'zekjutrɪks/.)

exemplary /ɪg'zempləri/ adj excellent (formal) exemplify /ɪg'zemplɪfai/ verb to show something as an example; to be an example. Synonym demonstrate exempt /ɪg'zempt/ adj not forced to obey certain laws or rules □ exempt from tax or tax-exempt not required to pay tax, or not requiring tax to be paid ○ Children's clothes are exempt from VAT. ■ verb □ to exempt someone from something or from doing something to say that someone does not have to do something ○ Pensioners are exempted from paying for medical prescriptions.

exemption /ɪg'zempʃ(ə)n/ noun the act of exempting someone from something. Synonym exception □ exemption from tax or tax exemption being free from having to pay tax ○ You can claim tax exemption in this case.

① exercise /'eksəsaɪz/ noun practice in using physical or mental powers ○ She does her piano exercises every morning. □ to take exercise to do physical things, like walking or jogging, to keep fit ○ You should take some exercise every day if you want to lose weight.

■ verb 1. to use a power or right ○ The United Kingdom exercised the right of veto. 2. to give an animal, person or part of the body exercise ○ She exercised her pony on the race track. ○ Do some sit-ups to exercise your stomach muscles.

exercise bike /'eksəsaɪz bɪk/ noun a machine like a bicycle, but which does not move, which you can pedal on as exercise exercise book /'eksəsaɪz buk/ noun a notebook which you can write school exercises in

④ exert /ɪg'zɜ:t/ verb to use force or pressure exertion /ɪg'zɜ:ʃ(ə)n/ noun an effort. □ overexertion Antonym ease exhalation /,ekshə'leɪʃ(ə)n/ noun breath which comes out; the action of breathing out. exhale /eks'heɪl/ verb to breathe out. Antonym inhale exhaust /ɪg'zɔ:st/ noun gas which is produced by a car engine and is released into the air through the exhaust pipe □ We live in the city centre and the children are breathing car exhaust all day. ■ verb 1. to wear someone out □ The uphill climb had exhausted him. 2. to finish a supply of something □ We've exhausted our supplies of food.

exhausted /ɪg'zɔ:stɪd/ adj 1. very tired □ I'm exhausted after running three miles. □ They staggered back home very late, with three exhausted children. 2. completely used up □ exhausted oxygen cylinders exhausting /ɪg'zɔ:stɪŋ/ adj extremely tiring exhaustion /ɪg'zɔ:stʃən/ noun the state of being very tired exhaustive /ɪg'zɔ:stɪv/ adj very thorough exhaustively /ɪg'zɔ:stɪvlɪ/ adv thoroughly exhaust pipe /ɪg'zɔ:st paɪp/ noun the tube at the back of a motor vehicle from which gases produced by the engine are sent out into the air (NOTE: The US term is tail-pipe.)

exhibit /ɪg'zɪbɪt/ noun an object displayed in court or at an exhibition □ Exhibit A is the murder weapon. □ The museum has loaned several exhibits to foreign galleries. □ The buyers admired the exhibits on our stand. ■ verb to display something □ They are exhibiting at the Motor Show. □ They have rows of vases exhibited on the shelves of the shop. □ She is exhibiting three paintings in the local art show.

② exhibition /,eksɪ'bɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. a display of things such as works of art or flowers □ The exhibition is open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. □ We stood in line for half an hour waiting to get into the Picasso exhibition. 2. a show of goods that may be bought □ We have a stand at the Ideal Home Exhibition.

exhibition hall /,eksɪ'bɪʃ(ə)n hɔ:l/ noun a place where goods which may be bought are shown exhibitionist /,eksɪ'bɪʃ(ə)nɪst/ noun a person who acts in a strange or extravagant way so that people will look at him or her exhibitor /ɪg'zɪbɪtə/ noun a person or company that displays something at an exhibition exhilarated /ɪg'zɪləreɪtɪd/ adj extremely excited and happy. Synonym elated exhilarating /ɪg'zɪləreɪtɪŋ/ adj which makes you full of energy exhilaration /ɪg'zɪlə'reɪʃ(ə)n/ noun extreme excitement and pleasure exhort /ɪg'zɔ:t/ verb □ to exhort someone to do something to urge or to encourage someone to do something (formal) □ He exhorted his soldiers to stand firm.

exhortation /,egzɔ:t'eɪʃ(ə)n/ noun a statement of strong encouragement (formal) exhumation /,ekshju'meɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the act of digging up a dead body from a grave exhume /eks'hju:m/ verb to dig up a dead body from a grave. Antonym bury exile /'eksail/ noun 1. the state of being sent away from your home country □ The ex-president went into exile in Switzerland. (NOTE: no plural in this meaning) 2. a person who is sent away from his or her own country □ The former king is now an exile in New York. □ The coup was mounted by exiles living across the border. ■ verb to send someone away from his or her home country as a punishment □ The new government exiled the former dictator to Europe. Synonym banish

① exist /ɪg'zɪst/ verb 1. to be real or present □ When I was a child, colour TV didn't exist. □ I don't believe the document exists – I think it has been burnt. 2. to live; to survive □ Dinosaurs existed on earth for a very long time. □ They got lost in the jungle and managed to exist on berries and roots.

① existence /ɪg'zɪstəns/ noun 1. life; being □ Is there anything which proves the existence of life on Mars? □ They lived a miserable existence in a little coal mining town. 2. □ in existence which exists; which is actually present □ The original painting is no longer in existence. □ Only one version of this car is still in existence in a museum in Geneva.

① existing /ɪg'zɪstɪŋ/ adj current; which is in operation at this moment □ Can we modify the existing structure in some way? □ Existing regulations do not allow the sale of food in the street.

① exit /'egzɪt/ noun 1. a way out of a building □ The customers all rushed towards the exits when the fire alarm rang. □ No Exit! a sign showing that you must not go out this way 2. □ to make your exit to go out of a room □ I apologised to my host and made my exit. ■ verb 1. to leave a computer system □ Press ESC to exit the system. 2. to leave a place □ He exited the room as fast as he could.

exit visa /'egzɪt ,vi:zə/ noun a visa allowing someone to leave a country exodus /'eksədəs/ noun the departure of a crowd of people (NOTE: no plural)

ex officio /eks ə'fɪʃiəl/ Latin phrase because of your position exonerate /ɪg'zənəreɪt/ verb to state that someone who was previously blamed for something was not responsible for it. Synonym clear. Antonym blame exoneration /ɪg'zənə'reɪʃ(ə)n/ noun a statement declaring that no blame is attached to someone exorbitant /ɪg'zɔ:bɪtənt/ adj (of prices) very high. Synonym excessive exorcise /'eksɔ:saɪz/, exorcize verb to say prayers to force evil spirits to leave someone's body, or ghosts to leave a haunted house exorcism /'eksɔ:sɪz(ə)m/ noun the act of forcing an evil spirit or a ghost to leave a place exorcist /'eksɔ:sɪst/ noun a person who drives away evil spirits or ghosts exotic /ɪg'zɒtɪk/ adj unusual; referring to a strange, or foreign place

② expand /ɪk'spænd/ verb 1. to make something increase in size ○ We have had to expand our sales force. 2. to become larger ○ Water expands when it freezes. ○ Heat caused the metal rods to expand. ○ His waistline is expanding fast.

expansive /ɪk'spænsɪv/ noun a large surface covered by something

② expansion /ɪk'spænʃən/ noun an increase in size. Synonym growth (NOTE: no plural)

expansionist noun a person who supports a policy of expanding a country's economy or territory ■ adj intending to bring about the expansion of something such as a country's economy or territory expansive /ɪk'spænsɪv/ adj 1. (of a person) who wants to talk freely about things ○ She was in a very expansive mood when she met the TV reporters. ○ You would expect someone who works in public relations to be a bit more expansive than she is. 2. covering a wide area ○ He waved his arms in an expansive gesture of greeting.

expatriate /eks'pætriət/ noun a person who is not living in his or her home country (NOTE: often shortened to expat: expats living in the Far East) ■ adj referring to expatriates ○ The expatriate community feels threatened by the new laws.

① expect /ɪk'spekt/ verb 1. to think or hope that something is going to happen ○ I expect you are tired after your long train journey. ○ He expects me to do all the housework. ○ I can't talk for long, we're expecting visitors. ○ We expect him to arrive at any moment or he is expected at any moment. 2. to be pregnant with ○ My sister's expecting twins.

expectancy /ɪk'spektənsi/ noun the feeling that something exciting is going to happen ○ There was an air of expectancy in the crowd as the procession approached. (NOTE: no plural) expectant /ɪk'spektənt/ adj expecting; hopeful expectant mother /ɪk'spektənt 'mʌðə/ noun a pregnant woman

② expectation /,eɪkspeɪk'teɪʃ(ə)n/ noun hope; a feeling that something will happen ○ She lived up to all our expectations. ○ We thought our team would do well, but in the end they exceeded all our expectations.

② expected /ɪk'spektɪd/ adj which is thought will happen, or hoped will happen. Synonym likely. Antonym surprising expedient /ɪk'spi:dɪənt/ noun a convenient way of doing something ○ Registering as a student was a simple expedient to avoid military service. ■ adj convenient ○ Colleges find it expedient to have students from other countries because they pay higher fees than local students.

expedite /'ekspɪdɪət/ verb to make something happen faster (formal). Antonym impede expedition /,ekspɪ'dɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. a journey to explore a place ○ He set off on an expedition to the South Pole. 2. a short trip ○ They went on a shopping expedition in the West End.

expeditionary force /,ekspɪ'dɪʃ(ə)n(ə)ri:fɔ:s/ noun an army which travels to another country to fight expel /ɪk'spel/ verb 1. to throw someone out ○ As soon as the generals came to power they expelled all their former allies. 2. to send a child away from school ○ He was expelled for taking drugs. □ expulsion (NOTE: expelling – expelled) expend /ɪk'spend/ verb to spend time or energy doing something (formal) expendable /ɪk'spendəb(ə)l/ adj which is not worth keeping; which can be thrown away

② expenditure /ɪk'spendɪtʃə/ noun an amount of money spent. Synonym spending. Antonym income (NOTE: no plural in British English, but US English often uses expenditures)

② expense /ɪk'spens/ noun 1. an amount of money or cost ○ I can't afford the expense of a holiday just now. ○ The expense of running a household seems to increase every week. □ regardless of expense without thinking how much it cost □ at great expense having spent a lot of money ○ The house has been redecorated at great expense. 2. □ at the expense of something in preference to something; giving something up ○ She brought up her three children at the expense of her career in the bank.

expense account /ɪk'spens ə,kaʊnt/ noun money which a businessperson is allowed to spend on entertainment, paid for by his or her company

① expenses /ɪk'spensɪz/ plural noun money spent doing something. Antonym income □ the salary offered is £25,000 plus expenses the company offers a salary of £25,000 and will repay any money spent by the employee in the course of his or her work □ all expenses paid with all costs paid by the company ○ The company sent him to San Francisco all expenses paid or He went on an all-expenses-paid trip to San Francisco. □ we can't afford the legal expenses we don't have the money to spend on fees paid to lawyers □ you must account for overhead expenses or general expenses or running expenses you must account for money spent on the day-to-day cost of a business

① expensive /ɪk'spensɪv/ adj, adv which costs a lot of money ○ Fresh vegetables are more expensive in winter. ○ Send your furniture to Australia by sea – it would be much too expensive by air.

① experience /ɪk'spiəriəns/ noun 1. knowledge got by working or living in various situations ○ I have no experience of travelling in the desert. ○ You must write down the full details of your past experience in your CV. ○ Some experience of selling is required for this job. (NOTE: no plural in this meaning) 2. an event that happens to someone ○ Going to the top of the Eiffel Tower was a wonderful experience. ○ He wrote a book about his experiences in the desert. ■ verb to live through something ○ I'm surprised she's so cheerful after all she experienced in hospital. ○ I have experienced a great deal of pleasure and frustration in my career. ○ He is experiencing sharp pains in his tooth.

① experienced /ɪk'spiəriənst/ adj wise from plenty of practice ○ She's a very experienced doctor. ○ He's the most experienced member of our staff. ○ The police are experienced in crowd control. Synonym knowledgeable. Antonym inexperienced

② experiment noun a scientific test ○ to carry out experiments in genetic engineering ○ We're offering our customers free samples as an experiment. ■ verb to carry out a scientific test ○ They are experimenting with a new treatment for asthma. ○ The laboratory does not experiment on live animals.

③ experimental /ɪk'sperimentl/ adj 1. used in experiments. Antonym proven 2. still being tested, still on trial ○ The experimental fighter plane crashed.

experimentally /ɪk'sperimentl(ə)li/ adv 1. by carrying out experiments ○ The new process has been tested experimentally. 2. as an experiment ○ The system has been introduced experimentally into a few schools.

experimentation /ɪk'sperimenteɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the process of carrying out experiments. Synonym testing (NOTE: no plural)

② expert /'ekspɜ:t/ adj 1. knowing a lot about a subject ○ They can give you expert advice on DIY. 2. □ expert at doing something good at doing something ○ I'm not very expert at making pastry. ■ noun 1. a person who knows a great deal about a subject ○ a leading expert in tropical medicine or on tropical diseases ○ A rose expert was the judge at the flower show. 2. a person who is very good at doing something ○ an expert plumber ○ He's an expert at getting the children to go to bed.

③ expertise /'ekspɜ:tɪz/ noun special knowledge. Synonym skill (NOTE: no plural) expertly /'ekspɜ:tli/ adv in an expert way expert system /'ekspɜ:t ,sistəm/ noun a computer program which has been created for a particular purpose expire /ɪk'spaɪə/ verb 1. to come to an end ○ The lease expires next year. □ my passport has expired my passport needs to be renewed 2. to die (formal) ○ After a brief illness, he expired on 28th September.

expiry /ɪk'spaɪəri/ noun the fact of coming to an end expiry date /ɪk'spaɪəri deɪt/ noun the last date on which something can be used

① explain /ɪk'splæɪn/ verb 1. to give reasons for something ○ Can you explain why the weather is cold in winter and warm in summer? 2. to make something clear ○ He tried to explain the new pension scheme to the staff. ○ She explained what had happened, but the manager still thought she had tried to steal the watch.

explain away /ɪk'splæin ə'weɪ/ verb to give excuses for something ② explanation /,eksplə'neɪʃ(ə)n/ noun a reason for something ○ The police officer asked him for an explanation of why the stolen car was in his garage. ○ The company has given no explanation for the change of plan.

explanatory /ɪk'splænət(ə)ri/ adj which explains; which makes clear. ♦ self-explanatory expletive /ɪk'spli:tɪv/ noun a swear word explicit /ɪk'splɪsɪt/ adj 1. straightforward and clear ○ Could you please be more explicit? ○ Their intention to sell the shop was not explicit in the letter. 2. showing sex or violence very clearly ○ The film contains explicit sex scenes.

explicitly /ɪk'splɪsɪtlɪ/ adv clearly explode /ɪk'spləʊd/ verb 1. (of bombs, etc.) to blow up ○ A bomb exploded in a crowded train. 2. to make a bomb go off ○ The army cleared the area and then exploded the bomb.

③ exploit noun /'eksplɔɪt/ a great or daring achievement ○ He told us of his exploits during the war. Synonym feat ■ verb /ɪk'splɔɪt/ 1. to take commercial advantage of something ○ *We are hoping to exploit the mineral resources of the North Sea. 2. to make unfair use of someone, usually by paying them very low wages ○ *The company was accused of exploiting children by employing them in its shoe factories.

④ exploitation /'eksplɔɪ'teɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. the process of taking commercial advantage of something ○ *There are plans for the exploitation of the mineral resources of the region. 2. an unfair use of certain groups of people to get work done cheaply ○ *The company was accused of the exploitation of children in its shoe factories.

⑤ exploration /'eksplɔɪ'reɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. the act of travelling and discovering unknown parts of the world ○ the exploration of Antarctica in the early 20th century ○ He is famous for his exploration of the Himalayas. 2. a careful investigation ○ We recommend further exploration of possible alternative solutions to the problem.

exploratory /ɪk'splorət(ə)ri/ adj forming part of an exploration of something. Synonym investigative

⑥ explore /ɪk'splɔː/ verb 1. to travel and discover, especially places you have not visited before ○ It is a part of the jungle which has never been explored before. ○ *We spent our holidays exploring Holland by canal. 2. to investigate something carefully ○ We are exploring the possibility of moving the office to London. ○ *The minister has set up a group to explore this and other issues.

explorer /ɪk'splɔːrə/ noun a person who explores unknown parts of the world explosion /ɪk'spləʊz(ə)n/ noun 1. the act of blowing something up, e.g. a bomb or a petrol tank ○ *Several explosions were heard during the night as the army occupied the city. 2. a sudden increase ○ *This summer there has been an explosion in the numbers of greenfly.

explosive /ɪk'spləʊsɪv/ adj 1. likely to blow up ○ The containers held an explosive mixture. ○ *The police found an explosive device in the car. 2. tense; likely to be embarrassing ○ The situation in the office was explosive, with the clerical staff demanding to see the manager. ○ The paper is running an explosive story about the minister. ■ noun a material, such as gunpowder, which can blow up ○ Tests revealed traces of explosive on his hands. ○ *The box contained explo- sives. ○ Police explosives experts defused the bomb.

exponent /ɪk'spəʊnənt/ noun a person who practises a certain belief or a certain art

② export noun /'ekspɔːt/ □ export(s) goods sent to a foreign country to be sold ○ The country's major export is tea. ○ Exports to Africa have increased by 25%. ■ verb /ɪk'spɔːt/ to send goods to a foreign country for sale ○ The company exports half of what it produces.

exporter /ɪk'spɔːtə/ noun a person or company that sells goods to foreign countries

③ expose /ɪk'spəʊz/ verb 1. to show something which was hidden ○ He pulled off his shirt, exposing a huge scar across his chest. ○ *The plastic coating had rubbed off to expose the metal beneath. 2. to let light go onto a photographic film ○ You didn't expose the film for long enough. 3. to reveal a shocking fact ○ He was exposed as the person who wrote the letters. ○ *The newspaper has exposed several government scandals. 4. □ to expose something or someone to something to place something or someone under the influence of something ○ Don't expose these plants to direct sunlight. ○ She was exposed to a lethal dose of radiation. ○ *He had inadvertently exposed his children to serious danger.

exposé /ɪk'spəʊzɪə/ noun a report which exposes something wrong

④ exposed /ɪk'spəʊzd/ adj open and not protected. Synonym unprotected. Antonym covered □ a very exposed position a position which is not protected from the wind exposition /'eksplɔː'zɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. US a display, e.g. of works of art or goods for sale ○ The exposition is open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. ○ We stood in line for half an hour waiting to get into the book exposition. (NOTE: The British term is exhibition.) 2. a detailed explanation ○ She gave a clear exposition of the artist's use of light and shade.

expostulate /ɪk'spɒstʃuːlət/ verb to protest to someone

⑤ exposure /ɪk'spəʊzə/ noun 1. the act of putting someone under the influence of something ○ the exposure of young children to violence on television ○ the exposure of some workers to radiation 2. the state of not being protected, e.g. from cold ○ The survivors of the crash were all suffering from exposure after spending a night in the snow. 3. the time and amount of light needed for a picture to be taken on film ○ *You need a short exposure to photograph a racing car. 4. the act of revealing something, e.g. corruption ○ the newspaper's exposure of the actor's involvement in the scandal ○ *The council was embarrassed by a string of exposures of irregular financial transactions.

expound /ɪk'spaʊnd/ verb to explain something in detail

① express /ɪk'spreʃ/ verb to put something into words, pictures or actions ○ He expressed his gratitude in a short speech. ○ The chart shows visitors to our stand expressed as a percentage of all visitors to the exhibition. ○ His grief was expressed in fierce anger and constant activity. □ to express yourself to make your thoughts or feelings known to other people □ to express itself to be shown ○ His grief expressed itself in fierce anger and constant activity. ■ adj 1. (of a train or a postal service) very fast ○ We have an express delivery service to all parts of the country. 2. clearly intended or planned (formal) ○ They did it with the express intention of killing me. ■ noun a fast train ○ We took the express from London to Glasgow.

① expression /ɪk'spreʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. a word or group of words ○ 'Until the cows come home' is an expression which means 'for a very long time'. 2. a look on a person's face which shows feeling ○ His expression showed how miserable he was. ○ Everyone noticed the expression of surprise on her face.

expressionless /ɪk'spreʃ(ə)n(ə)ləs/ adj showing no feeling expressive /ɪk'spresɪv/ adj showing feeling expressly /ɪk'spresli/ adv clearly and definitely. Synonym specifically expresso /ek'spresaʊ/ noun another spelling of espresso expressway /ɪk'spresweɪ/ noun US a fast road with few junctions (NOTE: The British term is motorway.)

expropriate /eks'prəʊpriet/ verb (of the state or a local authority) to take away property from a private owner expropriation /ɪks,prəʊpriet'eɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the act of taking property away from a private owner expulsion /ɪk'spʌlʃn/ noun the act of throwing someone out or sending someone away, e.g. from school. □ expel. Synonym dismissal. Antonym admittance exquisite /ɪk'skwɪzɪt/ adj very finely made; very refined

ext. abbr extension

extant /ek'stænt/ adj still in existence. Synonym existing

② extend /ɪk'stend/ verb 1. to stretch out ○ She extended both arms in welcome. ○ The grounds of the house extend over two hectares. 2. to make something longer or bigger ○ We are planning to extend our garden. ○ We have asked our landlord to extend the lease for another two years. 3. to give something to someone (formal) ○ I want to extend a warm welcome to our guests from China.

extended /ɪk'stendɪd/ adj longer than usual. Synonym lengthy extended family /ɪk,stendɪd 'fæm(ə)li/ noun a family in which relatives outside the central family group, such as aunts and uncles, are included. Compare nuclear family

② extension /ɪk'stenʃn/ noun 1. the act of extending something ○ My visa has expired, so I have applied for an extension. 2. something which is added on ○ We added an extension at the back of the house. ○ I need an extension cable for the electric mower. ○ They are planning a further extension of the underground railway. 3. a telephone in an office which is connected to the company's main line ○ Can you get me extension 21? ○ The manager is on extension 23.

③ extensive /ɪk'stenſɪv/ adj covering a large area or amount ○ The grounds of the house are very extensive. ○ The church roof needs extensive repair work.

extensively /ɪk'stenſɪvli/ adv to a large degree

④ extent /ɪk'stent/ noun the degree, size or area of something ○ The extent of the earthquake damage was only revealed later. ○ He opened up the map to its full extent. □ to some extent, to a certain extent partly; in some way ○ To some extent, the weather was the cause of the failure of the village fair.

extenuating circumstances /ɪk,stenjuetɪŋ 'sɜːkəmstənsɪz/ plural noun events which can partly excuse a wrong action

④ exterior /ɪk'stɪəriər/ adj outside ○ The exterior walls are of stone. Synonym external ■ noun the outside parts ○ The exterior of the house is painted pink. ► Antonym (all senses) interior exterminate /ɪk'stɜːmɪneɪt/ verb 1. to kill all the living things in a place 2. to kill a person or a group of people extermination /ɪk,stɜːmɪ'neɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the act of killing large numbers of living things. Antonym preservation (NOTE: no plural)

② external /ɪk'stɜːn(ə)l/ adj outside ○ The external walls of the house are quite solid. ○ Her injuries were all external. Synonym outside. Antonym internal □ medicine for external use only medicine which is used on the skin and must not be drunk or eaten external line /ɪk,stɜːn(ə)l/ 'laɪn/ noun an office phone directly connected to an outside telephone line externally /ɪk'stɜːnəli/ adv outside. Synonym outwardly. Antonym internally extinct /ɪk'stɪŋkt/ adj 1. which has died out ○ Three species of butterfly have become extinct in the last year. ○ Several species of birds have become extinct since rats were introduced to the island. 2. (of a volcano) which no longer erupts ○ The mountain is an extinct volcano. Compare dormant

③ extinction /ɪk'stɪŋkʃən/ noun 1. (of a species) the process of dying out ○ The last remaining pairs of birds were taken to a zoo for breeding purposes, so as to save the species from extinction. □ to face extinction, to be threatened with extinction to be likely to die out ○ The tiger is facing extinction unless measures are taken to protect it. 2. the act of putting out a fire ○ The firefighters will stand by until the complete extinction of the blaze. (NOTE: no plural) extinguish /ɪk'stɪŋgwɪʃ/ verb to put out a fire extinguisher /ɪk'stɪŋgwɪʃə/ noun same as fire extinguisher extol /ɪk'stəʊl/ verb to praise someone or something very highly (literary) (NOTE: extolling – extolled. The US spelling is extoll.)

extort /ɪk'stɔ:t/ verb □ to extort something from someone to get money or promises from someone by threats ○ The secret police extorted very valuable information from him. ○ The gang extorted money from small shopkeepers by threatening to burn down their shops. Synonym extract extortion /ɪk'stɔ:ʃ(ə)n/ noun the practice of getting money from someone by threats. Synonym coercion (NOTE: no plural) extortionate /ɪk'stɔ:ʃ(ə)nət/ adj (of a price) very high or excessive. Synonym expensive

① extra /'ekstrə/ adj more than usual; additional ○ We need an extra four teachers or four extra teachers for this course. ○ The charge for delivery is extra. ○ Staff get extra pay for working on Sundays. Synonym additional ■ adv more than normal; in addition ○ I need some extra strong string to tie the parcel. ○ They charge extra for bulky items. ○ If you pay £50 extra you can travel first class. ■ noun 1. something more than usual ○ The price covers the hotels and transport but not extras like drinks and special trips. ○ Air-conditioning is an extra on this car. 2. an actor or actress who appears in a crowd scene in a film or play, but is not a star ○ The studio hired thousands of extras to make 'Cleopatra'.

extract noun /'ekstrækɪt/ 1. a thing reduced from something larger ○ He will be reading extracts from his latest novel. 2. something which is reduced to a concentrated form ○ soup made from meat extract ○ Add a drop of vanilla extract to the custard. ■ verb /ɪk'strækɪt/ 1. to pull something out ○ The dentist extracted two teeth. ○ We managed to ex- tract £10 from him. ○ The police extracted a confession from the accused. 2. to produce something from something else ○ It is no longer viable to extract tin from Cornish mines. ○ The oil is extracted from lavender flowers.

extraction /ɪk'strækʃən/ noun 1. the act of pulling out a tooth ○ An extraction will cost you £40. 2. the production of something from something else ○ The extraction of iron ore from this mine is becoming too costly. 3. □ she is of German extraction her family originally came from Germany extractor fan /ɪk'stræktəfæn/ noun a fan which sucks air out of a room extracurricular /'ekstrəkə'rɪkju:lə/ adj outside the normal course of study extradite /'ekstrədait/ verb to bring an arrested person back from another country to stand trial for a crime committed in his or her home country. Synonym deport extradition /'ekstrə'dɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the act of bringing a person back to his or her home country for trial extramarital /'ekstrə'mærɪt(ə)l/ adj referring to sexual relations outside marriage extraneous /ɪk'streɪniəs/ adj 1. not directly connected ○ He introduced some extraneous details into his argument. 2. coming from outside ○ Extraneous material in the blood sample made the test invalid.

extraordinarily /ɪk'strɔ:dʒdnərəli/ adv 1. extremely ○ Her action was extraordinarily brave. 2. in a strange way ○ He behaved quite extraordinarily at the party.

② extraordinary /ɪk'strɔ:dʒ(ə)nəri/ adj 1. marvellous; strange and unusual ○ Seeing her again gave him an extraordinary thrill. ○ A peacock's feathers are quite extraordinary. ○ It's extraordinary weather for June. 2. completely different from everything else (formal) ○ These are extraordinary costs which will not be charged again. ○ They called an extraordinary meeting of the club.

extrapolate /ɪk'stræpəleɪt/ verb to calculate something unknown on the basis of available information extrapolation /ɪk'stræpə'leɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the act of calculating something unknown on the basis of available information extraterrestrial adj from a planet other than Earth ■ noun a creature from a planet other than Earth extra time /'ekstrə 'taɪm/ noun more time added at the end of a match in which the scores are level, so that the sides have time to try to score extravagance /ɪk'strævəgəns/ noun unnecessary expense extravagant /ɪk'strævəgənt/ adj 1. who spends a lot of money ○ They are extra-

gant when it comes to buying presents for their children. 2. expensive and not necessary ○ an extravagant way of life 3. unusual and wild ○ The company has made some extravagant claims for its new soap powder.

extravagantly /ɪk'strævəgəntli/ adv in an extravagant way extravaganza /ɪk,strævə'gænzə/ noun an expensive and luxurious party, show, film or event

③ extreme /ɪk'stri:m/ adj 1. very great ○ The anorak is made to withstand extreme cold. ○ He showed extreme reluctance to get involved. □ at the extreme end right at the end 2. very unusual or serious ○ an extreme case 3. considered unreasonable by some people ○ He holds extreme views. ■ noun something very unusual or very great ○ You get extremes of temperature here – very hot summers and very cold winters. Synonym limit □ to go to extremes to do everything in an excessive way □ to go from one extreme to the other to change to something completely different ○ She can go from one extreme to the other – from being happy and excited one minute to being gloomy and depressed the next.

④ extremely /ɪk'stri:ml/ adv to a great degree ○ It was extremely hot in August. ○ The film is extremely long, and some people walked out before the end. ○ It is extremely difficult to spend less than $50.00 a day on meals in New York. Synonym very extreme sport /ɪk,strɪ:m 'spɔ:t/ noun a sport which is very dangerous and exciting, e.g. snowboarding or skysurfing extremism /ɪk'stri:mɪz(m)əsm/ noun (as criticism) ideas and practices which favour very strong action such as the use of violence. Synonym radicalism. Antonym moderation extremist /ɪk'stri:mɪst/ noun a person who has extreme views, usually about politics ○ left-wing extremists ■ adj having extreme views, usually about politics ○ Members of an extremist group have taken over the post office. ► Synonym (all senses) radical. Antonym (all senses) moderate extremities /ɪk'stremɪtɪz/ plural noun the fingers, toes, nose and ears extremity /ɪk'stremɪti/ noun an end point ○ We set up our camp at the northern extremity of the island. (NOTE: The plural is extremities.)

extricate /'ekstri:kueit/ verb 1. to get someone out of a difficult situation ○ She asked her father to help extricate her from the awkward situation she found herself in. 2. to remove something with difficulty ○ The surgeons extricated the bullet which had lodged itself behind her eye.

extrovert /'ekstrəvɜ:t/ noun a person who is very friendly and likes to be with other people. Antonym introvert exuberance /ɪg'zju:bərəns/ noun wild enthusiasm. Antonym apathy (NOTE: no plural) exuberant /ɪg'zju:bərənt/ adj lively and energetic. Synonym enthusiastic. Antonym lethargic exude /ɪg'zju:d/ verb to send out or to give off a strong smell or a strong feeling exult /ɪg'zalt/ verb to be glad or happy about something. Synonym rejoice □ he exulted over his rivals he showed great pleasure at beating his rivals exultant /ɪg'zaltənt/ adj happy to have won something. Synonym jubilant exultation /'egzal'teɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the fact of being happy, e.g. to have won something. Synonym joy. Antonym misery

① eye /aɪ/ noun 1. the organ in the head with which you see ○ He has brown eyes. ○ Close your eyes and count to ten while we all hide. ○ I've got a bit of dust in my eye. □ as far as the eye can see for a very long distance ○ Grasslands stretch as far as the eye can see. □ to catch someone's eye to look at someone who is looking at you ○ She caught his eye and nodded towards the door. □ to keep your eyes open for something to watch out for something ○ Keep your eyes open for burglars! □ to keep an eye on something to watch something carefully to see that it is safe ○ Can you keep an eye on the house while we are away? □ to keep an eye out for something to watch to see if something is near ○ I must keep an eye out for Seville oranges to make some marmalade. ○ Can you keep an eye out for the traffic warden while I go into the bank? □ I'm up to my eyes in work I have a lot of work to do (informal) □ they don't see eye to eye they do not agree ○ He doesn't see eye to eye with the boss. □ to have your eye on someone to think someone is very good, very attractive or not to be trusted ○ She's got her eye on her best friend's brother. ○ The police have had their eye on him for ages. 2. □ a private eye a detective who is not a member of the police force and is employed by an ordinary person (informal) 3. a small hole in the end of a needle, through which the thread goes 4. a bud on a potato from which shoots grow ■ verb

1. to look at something carefully ○ She sat in a corner, eyeing the arrivals indicator. 2. □ to eye someone up to look at someone showing that you think them attractive (informal) ○ He was eyeing up one of the girls on the other side of the room.

eyeball /'aɪbɔ:l/ noun 1. a part of the eye, the round ball of tissue through which light passes and which is controlled by various muscles ○ The retina is a light-sensitive membrane at the back of the eyeball. 2. □ eyeball to eyeball facing each other closely ○ He had an eyeball-to-eyeball confrontation with the referee. ■ verb to stare at someone closely (informal) ○ The security guard eyeballed us as we came near the gate.

③ eyebrow /'aɪbraʊ/ noun a small line of hair above your eye □ he raised his eyebrows he looked surprised eye-catching /'aɪ ,kætʃɪŋ/ adj very noticeable and attracting attention. Synonym striking eye contact /'aɪ ,kɒntækt/ noun the act of looking at someone who is looking at you eyeful /'aɪfʊl/ noun 1. an amount of something which gets in your eye ○ He got an eyeful of sand. 2. □ to get an eyeful of something to look at something unusual (informal) eyelash /'aɪlæʃ/ noun one of the hairs growing round the edge of the eyelids (NOTE: The plural is eyelashes.)

eyelet /'aɪlət/ noun a small hole, such as one in a shoe, for passing the lace through eye level /'aɪ ,lev(ə)l/ noun the height above the floor of the average person's eyes

③ eyelid /'aɪlɪd/ noun a piece of skin which covers the eye eyeliner /'aɪlɪnər/ noun a substance used for drawing a coloured line round your eye eye-opener /'aɪəp(ə)nər/ noun something which surprises you (informal) eyepiece /'aɪpɪs/ noun the piece of glass which you look through in a telescope or microscope eyeshadow /'aɪʃædəʊ/ noun make-up for colouring the skin round your eye

③ eyesight /'aɪsaɪt/ noun ability to see □ her eyesight is failing she can't see as well as she used to eyesore /'aɪsɔ:/ noun an unpleasant sight eyewash /'aɪwɒʃ/ noun 1. a liquid for bathing the eyes ○ The doctor prescribed some eyewash. 2. □ it's all eyewash it is rubbish (informal) eyewitness /'aɪwɪtnəs/ noun a person who has seen something happen (NOTE: The plural is eyewitnesses.)

eyrie /'eɪri/ noun 1. the nest of an eagle ○ The eagles come back to the same eyrie every year. 2. a high place ○ The general stood in his eyrie, looking at the advancing army through his binoculars. (NOTE: [all senses] The US spelling is aerie.)

e-zine /'i: zɪ:n/ noun a magazine which appears in a website on the Internet

F

f /ef/, F noun the sixth letter of the alphabet, between E and G

F² abbr Fahrenheit

fab /fæb/ adj fabulous (informal) fable /'feɪb(ə)l/ noun a moral story, usually about animals, making them seem like human beings. Synonym tale fabled /'feɪb(ə)ld/ adj well-known in stories

③ fabric /'fæbrik/ noun 1. cloth or material

○ The curtains are made of some expensive fabric. ○ We need a fireproof fabric for the chairs. 2. the basic structure of society or an organisation ○ During the revolution, the basic fabric of society collapsed.

fabricate /'fæbriket/ verb to invent an untrue story fabrication /,fæbrɪ'teɪʃ(ə)n/ noun an invented story that is not true fabric conditioner /'fæbrik ˌkəndɪʃ(ə)nəl/ noun a substance which makes clothes softer after washing or cleaning fabulous /'fæbjʊləs/ adj 1. imaginary, as in fairy stories ○ unicorns and other fabulous animals 2. marvellous or wonderful ○ It was a fabulous party.

① face /feɪs/ noun 1. the front part of your head ○ Don't forget to wash your face before you go to the party. □ to lose face to be embarrassed by being shown to be wrong or weak ○ She can't bear being told off in front of the class – it makes her lose face. □ to make a face to make a strange expression ○ He made funny faces and all the children laughed. □ to try to keep a straight face to try not to laugh □ to show your face to come to a place ○ After what he said about my mother he doesn't dare show his face here. 2. the front part of something ○ a clock face ○ She put the photograph face down on the desk. □ to vanish from the face of the earth to disappear completely ■ verb 1. to have the face or front towards ○ The house faces north. ○ Can everyone please face the camera? 2. to meet someone in an unpleasant situation ○ The thought of facing all those journalists frightens me. ○ She didn't want to face the committee yet again. 3. □ to face or to be faced with something to be likely to have to deal with an unpleasant situation ○

She faces a life of poverty. ○ Will they be able to cope with the problems they are faced with? □ not to be able to face something not to want to experience something which you expect will be unpleasant ○ I couldn't face another meeting. □ to face the facts to look at things in a realistic way ○ You really ought to face the facts: you'll never get a job if you don't have any qualifications. □ let's face it we must accept it ○ Let's face it, I've failed my test five times and will probably never pass. ♦ music

facecloth /'feɪsklɒθ/, face flannel /'feɪs ,flænəl/ noun a small square of towelling for washing the face or body faceless /'feɪsləs/ adj without a name or face; anonymous and threatening facelift /'feɪslɪft/ noun 1. an operation to make your face look younger 2. the fact of working to make something appear newer ○ Our website needs a facelift.

face pack /'feɪs pæk/ noun thick moist stuff which you put on your face to improve your skin face powder /'feɪs ,paʊdə/ noun powder for putting on your face to improve the appearance of your skin face-saving /'feɪs ,seɪvɪŋ/ adj which avoids causing someone to feel embarrassed and ashamed. Synonym dignified. Antonym humiliating facet /'fæsɪt/ noun 1. one of the flat sides on a cut gem ○ a diamond with forty-four facets 2. one of many aspects of something, e.g. a problem ○ The problem presents many different facets. ○ The film explores several fascinating facets of his life in Africa.

facetious /'fæ'si:ʃəs/ adj funny or joking in an offensive way facetiousness /fə'si:ʃəsnəs/ noun the fact of being funny or joking face to face /,feɪs tə 'feɪs/ adv looking at each other ○ He turned a corner and came face to face with a police officer. ○ I don't like doing business on the phone – I prefer to make deals face to face.

③ face up to /,feɪs 'ʌp tu:/ verb to accept an unpleasant situation and try to deal with it. Antonym deny face value /'feɪsəlju:/ noun a value written on a coin or banknote □ to take something at its or at face value to believe that what something appears to mean is true ○ When we booked our holiday we took what the tour company said about the hotel at face value – but it turned out not to be true.

facial /'feɪsɪəl/ adj referring to a face ○ Her facial expression reflected her feeling of happiness. ■ noun a beauty treatment in which your face is cleaned and massaged ○ She's having a facial.

facile /'fæsɪəl/ adj 1. done very easily ○ He writes in a facile way which is easy to read, but isn't great literature. 2. done without thinking carefully ○ The solution proposed by the town council is simply too facile.

③ facilitate /fə'silɪteɪt/ verb to make something easy. Antonym impede facilities /fə'silɪtɪz/ plural noun equipment which can be used □ the museum has facilities for the disabled or handicapped the museum has things such as special ramps and lifts to allow disabled people to visit it ① facility /fə'silɪtɪ/ noun 1. an ability to do something easily ○ She has a facility for languages. (NOTE: no plural) 2. a large commercial building ○ We have opened our new warehouse facility. (NOTE: The plural is facilities.)

facing /'feɪsɪŋ/ adj which faces ○ Our side of the street is in the shade, but the facing side is in full sunlight. ■ noun material covering the surface of a building ○ The stone facing of the library has started to come off. facsimile /fæk'simɪlɪ/ noun 1. a perfect copy ○ This is not the real Magna Carta – it is a facsimile. ○ They have published a facsimile edition of one of the earliest printed books. 2. a fax; a copy of a document or picture sent by telephone ○ Can you confirm the booking by facsimile?

① fact /fækt/ noun 1. a thing that is true ○ He faced up to the fact that he wasn't fit enough for the race. ○ Did you check all the facts before you wrote the article? 2. □ in fact really ○ He told the police he had seen a man steal a car but in fact he made the whole story up. ○ It rained a lot last month – in fact it rained all month.

fact-finding /'fækt, 'fændɪŋ/ adj which is searching for information □ a fact-finding mission a group of people who visit a place to search for information about a problem ○ They went on a fact-finding mission to Eastern Europe.

faction /'fækʃən/ noun a group of people linked together in opposition to a leader or to a government factional /'fækʃən(ə)l/ adj referring to factions facto ♀ de facto

① factor /'fæktə/ noun 1. a thing which has influence or importance ○ The key factor is the price. ○ The crucial factor for the success of the village fete is the weather. □ the deciding factor the most important factor which influences a decision 2. one of the numbers which produce a certain other number when multiplied ○ 4 and 2 are factors of 8. □ by a factor of multiplied by ○ Reported cases of BSE have fallen by a factor of 3. 3. a number which shows the strength of something □ factor 8 or 20 suncream a cream which gives 8 or 20 times a standard amount of protection against the sun's rays 4. a person who buys debts at a discount and then tries to get the full amount back from the debtor

① factory /'fækt(ə)rɪ/ noun a building where things are made ○ She works in a shoe factory. ○ He owns a furniture factory. ○ The factory makes computer terminals. (NOTE: The plural is factories.)

factory farm /'fækt(ə)rɪ fə:m/ noun a farm where large numbers of animals are kept in small spaces, using modern methods to produce food quickly factory hand /'fækt(ə)rɪ hænd/ noun a person who works in a factory factory ship /'fækt(ə)rɪ ʃɪp/ noun a ship which freezes or cans fish which are caught by smaller fishing boats factual /'fæktʃuəl/ adj referring to facts faculty /'fæk(ə)lti/ noun 1. a natural ability (NOTE: The plural is faculties.) 2. a main division of a university ○ the Faculty of Arts or the Arts Faculty (NOTE: The plural is faculties.) 3. US the teaching staff of a school, university or college ○ There is a meeting of the faculty tomorrow. (NOTE: no plural) fad /fæd/ noun a strange temporary craze for something. Synonym fashion fade /feɪd/ verb 1. to lose colour ○ The more you wash your jeans, the more they'll fade. ○ This T-shirt has faded. 2. to become less bright or light ○ As the light faded, bats came out in the garden. ○ The light from the torch began to fade as the batteries ran out. ○ The islands faded away into the distance. 3. to become less noisy ○ The sound of the music faded away.

faded /'feɪdɪd/ adj which has lost its colour faecal /'fæ:k(ə)l/ adj referring to faeces (NOTE: The US spelling is fecal.)

faeces /'fi:sɪ:z/ plural noun solid waste matter passed from the body ○ The patient's faeces are not solid. (NOTE: The US spelling is feces.)

faff /fæf ə'baut/ verb □ to faff about or around to work in a disorganised way, without achieving any results (informal) ○ We'd get more done if the sales people spent less time faffing around and actually sold something.

fag /fæg/ noun 1. tiring or boring work (informal) ○ It's such a fag, licking all these envelopes. 2. a cigarette ○ He cadged a fag off me. ○ I bought a packet of fags at the kiosk.

faggot /'fægət/ noun 1. a bundle of sticks for lighting a fire ○ She brought in faggots from the wood shed. 2. a spiced meat ball ○ We had faggots in brown gravy.

Fahrenheit /'færənhaɪt/ noun a scale of temperatures where the freezing and boiling points of water are 32° and 212°. Abbr F. Compare Celsius (NOTE: used in the USA, but less common in the UK and not usually used in other countries. It is usually written as F after the degree sign: 32° F: say: 'thirty-two degrees Fahrenheit'.)

① fail /feɪl/ verb 1. not to do something which you were trying to do ○ The examination was very difficult – half the students failed. ○ He passed in maths, but failed his English exam. ○ She failed in her attempt to become an MP. 2. to decide that someone has not passed an examination ○ She was failed twice in her driving test. 3. not to do something ○ The car failed to stop at the red light. ○ She failed to notify the tax office of her change of address. 4. not to be able to do something ○ I fail to see why she can't come to the meeting when everyone else can. 5. not to work properly ○ The brakes failed and he couldn't stop the car. □ if all else fails if you can't do anything else ○ If all else fails you can always borrow my car. 6. to become weaker ○ Her eyesight is beginning to fail. ■ noun □ without fail definitely (formal) ○ I will be there without fail tomorrow morning.

failed /feɪld/ adj not having succeeded in something failing /'feɪlɪŋ/ noun a weakness; bad point ○ She has only one failing – she goes to sleep in front of the TV every night. ○ In spite of his failings, we still think he is a wonderful father. Antonym forte ■ prep □ failing that if that does not work ○ Try some tape to seal the joint or, failing that, call a plumber. ■ adj becoming weak ○ The cricket match was stopped because of failing light.

② failure /'feɪljə/ noun 1. a breakdown or stopping ○ The accident was caused by brake failure. ○ The failure of the plane's engine caused the crash. 2. a person or thing that does not work well ○ His attempts to juggle were a complete failure. ○ I'm no good at anything – I'm a failure. 3. □ failure to do something the fact of not having done something ○ His failure to reach the final disappointed his fans. ○ Failure to pay the bill will mean we will have to take legal action.

faint /feɪnt/ adj difficult to see or hear ○ We could just see the faint outline of a man in the fog. ○ The rescuers could hear a faint tapping in the ruins. (NOTE: fainter – faintest)

■ verb to become unconscious for a short time ○ She fainted when she saw the blood. Synonym pass out faintly /'feɪnt(ə)li/ adv 1. weakly 2. slightly ○ slightly ridiculous

① fair /feər/ adj 1. (of hair or skin) light-coloured ○ Her hair is quite fair. ○ She's dark, but her brother is fair. 2. not very good ○ Her work is only fair. 3. right; giving someone what they deserve ○ That's not fair – you must let other children play with the ball too. ○ It isn't fair of you to go on holiday when we have so much work to do. 4. (of weather) bright and warm ○ According to the TV it will be fair tomorrow. (NOTE: fairer – fairest) ■ noun 1. a group of machines for riding on and stalls where you can win things, set up in one place for a short time ○ The fair is coming to the village for the Easter Bank Holiday. ○ He went to the fair and won a goldfish at the shooting gallery. Synonym fairground 2. an exhibition for selling and advertising goods ○ We are going to the car fair tomorrow. ■ adv in a fair way ○ You play fair with me, and I'll play fair with you. (NOTE: Do not confuse with fare.)

fair game /fea 'geɪm/ noun a person or thing which it is fair to criticise fairground /'feəgraʊnd/ noun a place in the open air where a fair is held fair-haired /,feə 'hɛd/ adj with fair hair

① fairly /'feəli/ adv 1. justly or correctly ○ She complained that she had not been treated fairly in the interview. 2. to some degree ○ I'm fairly certain I have seen this film before. ○ She had been working there a fairly short time. ○ The hotel is fairly close to the centre of town. Synonym quite (NOTE: The order of words for fairly and quite is different: He's a fairly good worker. but He's quite a good worker.) fairness /'feənəs/ noun 1. light colouring ○ The fairness of her skin makes it difficult for her to stay in the sun for long periods. 2. honesty and correctness ○ Everyone acknowledged her fairness in dealing with staff complaints.

fair play /feə 'pleɪ/ noun obeying the rules of a game or the normal rules of behaviour fairway /'feəweɪ/ noun a part of a golf course where the grass is cut, though it is not very short fairy /'feəri/ noun a little creature who can work magic (NOTE: The plural is fairies.)

fairy godmother /,feəri 'gɒdməðə/ noun a kind person who gives you magic presents fairy lights /'feəri laɪts/ plural noun small electric lights, often used for decorating trees fairy story /'feəri ,stɔːri/ same as fairytail

fairy tale /'feərɪtel/ noun a children's story about fairies, princes, princesses and giants □ fairy tale castle a romantic castle like those in fairytales □ fairy tale wedding a romantic wedding like that of a prince and princess

② faith /feɪθ/ noun 1. belief or trust □ to have faith in someone or something to believe that someone or something is good and strong or will protect you ○ I have no faith in advice columns in newspapers. ○ You must have faith in the leader of the party. ○ I don't have any faith in this new treatment. □ to have blind faith in someone to have complete trust in someone, however wicked they may seem to be to other people 2. a religious belief ○ We must respect people of other faiths. 3. □ in good faith honestly, even though perhaps wrongly ○ I sold him the car in good faith – I didn't know it would break down the next day.

faithful /'feɪθfʊl/ adj 1. (of a person or an animal) trusting or loyal ○ his faithful old dog ○ We must be faithful to father's last wishes. 2. □ to be faithful (of husband or wife) not to have love affairs with someone else 3. completely correct ○ a faithful copy of a document ■ noun □ the party faithful the people who believe in a certain political party in an unreasonable way □ the faithful the people who believe in a certain religion

③ faithfully /'feɪθfʊlɪ/ adv loyally, in a trusting way ○ Her maid had worked faithfully for her for years. ○ He faithfully did what the instructor told him to do.

faith healer /'feɪθ ,hi:lə/ noun a person who heals by the power of prayer faith healing /'feɪθ ,hi:liŋ/ noun healing by the power of prayer fake /feɪk/ noun an imitation or forgery, as opposed to the real thing ○ That picture isn't by Picasso, it's a fake. Antonym original ■ adj not real ○ She was wearing a fake fur coat. Synonym false. Antonym genuine ■ verb to make an imitation of something, or to imitate something ○ He faked mental illness to avoid appearing in court. ○ They think the laboratory faked the results of the test.

falcon /'fɔ:lkən/ noun a small bird of prey, sometimes trained to catch other birds as a sport

① fall /fɔ:l/ verb 1. to drop down to a lower level ○ Snow fell all night ○ The pound has fallen against the dollar. ○ She fell down the stairs. ○ He fell off the ladder. ○ Did he fall into the river or did someone push him? 2. □ her face fell she looked sad and disappointed □ to fall asleep to go to sleep ○ We all fell asleep after dinner. (NOTE: falling – fell /fel/ – has fallen /'fɔ:ln/.) ■ noun 1. an amount of something which has come down ○ There was a heavy fall of snow during the night. 2. the process of going to a lower level

○ a welcome fall in the price of oil ○ the fall in the exchange rate 3. the act of losing your balance ○ He had a fall and hurt his back. ○ She had a bad fall while skiing. 4. □ the fall US the season of the year between summer and winter fallacious /fə'lɪʃəs/ adj based on a false argument fallacy /'fæləsi/ noun a false argument (NOTE: The plural is fallacies.)

fall apart /,fɔ:l ə'part/ verb 1. to come to pieces ○ My shoes are falling apart. ○ The porcelain dish just fell apart in my hands. 2. to come to an end (in its present form) ○ When they showed him the letters, his life simply fell apart. ○ When our German partners withdrew, the deal fell apart.

fall away /,fɔ:l ə'wei/ verb to become less

③ fall back on /,fɔ:l 'bæk ən/ verb to use something which you were planning to use only if you had to

④ fall behind /,fɔ:l bɪ'haind/ verb to be late in doing something

③ fall down /,fɔ:l 'daʊn/ verb 1. to drop to the ground ○ She fell down and hurt her knee. 2. to become a ruin ○ The place has been deserted for so long it's falling down.

① fallen /'fɔ:ln/ □ fall

③ fall for /'fɔ:l fɔ:/ verb 1. to fall in love with someone ○ She always falls for intelligent men. 2. to be tricked by something ○ Don't fall for his sales talk.

fall guy /'fɔ:l gaɪ/ noun a person who is made to take the blame for a crime committed by someone else (informal) fallible /'fælibl/ adj capable of being wrong falling-off /,fɔ:liŋ 'ɒf/ noun the act of becoming less falling-out /,fɔ:liŋ 'aʊt/ noun the act of having an argument with someone

③ fall off /,fɔ:l 'ɒf/ verb to become fewer. Synonym decline

Fallopian tube /fə'læpiən tju:b/ noun one of two tubes in a woman, which connect the ovaries to the uterus

③ fall out /,fɔ:l 'aʊt/ verb to have an argument ○ They fell out over the bill for drinks. Synonym quarrel fallout /'fɔ:laʊt/ noun an unfortunate result ○ the fallout from the arrest of the party treasurer

fall over /,fɔ:l 'əʊvə/ verb to fall down from being upright fallow /'fæləʊ/ adj (of land) which is not used for growing crops for a time so that the soil can build up its strength again fallow deer /'fæləʊ diə/ noun a type of deer, slightly smaller than the red deer and with flat antlers

③ fall through /fɔ:l 'θru:/ verb not to take place as planned. Antonym go ahead ② false /fɔ:ls/ adj 1. not true ○ The story he told was quite false. 2. not real □ false modesty the act of pretending to be modest, when really you are proud false alarm /fɔ:ls ə'lə:m/ noun a signal for an emergency when there isn't one falsehood /'fɔ:lshud/ noun a lie; something which is not true false start /fɔ:ls 'stɑ:t/ noun a start of a race which is not allowed by the judge false teeth /fɔ:ls 'ti:θ/ plural noun dentures, artificial plastic teeth which fit inside the mouth and take the place of teeth which have been taken out falsification /fɔ:lsifi'keɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the act of falsifying something. Synonym fabrication. Antonym correction falsify /fɔ:lsifai/ verb to change something to make it wrong or not real. Synonym fabricate falter /fɔ:ltə/ verb 1. to almost stop moving ○ The engine faltered and then stopped. ○ Progress in the talks faltered. 2. to speak nervously ○ She said 'yes' in a faltering voice.

fame /feɪm/ noun the fact of being famous or well-known. Synonym renown. Antonym obcurity famed /feɪmd/ adj well-known. Synonym well-known. Antonym unknown

② familiar /fə'miliər/ adj 1. heard or seen before ○ The dog wagged its tail as it heard its master's familiar voice at the door. ○ He looked round the room, and saw a couple of familiar faces. □ are you familiar with that type of engine? do you know that type of engine well? 2. too informal or friendly in a way that suggests a lack of respect ○ Don't try to get familiar with me! ○ She is getting too familiar with the customers.

familiarise /fə'miliəraɪz/, familiarize verb □ to familiarise yourself with something to get to know something well ○ Before starting to work the machine, you will need to familiarise yourself with the control system.

familiarity /fə'mili'ærɪti/ noun 1. □ familiarity with someone or something a good knowledge of someone or something ○ His familiarity with London makes him an excellent guide. □ familiarity breeds contempt if you know something too well, you stop respecting it 2. a very informal way of speaking to someone ○ The manager told him off for familiarity with the customers.

① family /fæm(ə)li/ noun 1. a group of people who are related to each other, especially mother, father and children ○ The Jones family are going on holiday to Spain. ○

They have a big family – three sons and two daughters. 2. a group of animals or plants which are closely related ○ Lions and tigers are members of the cat family. (NOTE: The plural is families. When family is used to mean a group of people it can take a singular or plural verb: The family were out.) family doctor /,fæm(ə)li 'dɒktə/ noun a general doctor, especially one who looks after all the members of a family family name /'fæm(ə)li neɪm/ noun the name of someone's family, shared by all people in the family. Synonym surname family planning /,fæm(ə)li 'plænɪŋ/ noun the practice of controlling the number of children in a family by preventing unwanted pregnancies family room /'fæm(ə)li ru:m/ noun a hotel room for a family, with a main bed for the parents and small beds or bunk beds for the children family tree /fæm(ə)li 'tri:/ noun a table showing a family going back over many generations. Synonym ancestry famine /'fæmɪn/ noun a very serious lack of food. Antonym abundance famished /'fæmɪʃt/ adj very hungry

① famous /'feɪməs/ adj known to a lot of people ○ a famous department store ○ He's a famous footballer. ○ This tea shop is famous for its cakes. Synonym well-known. Antonym unknown famously /'feɪməslɪ/ adv 1. as is well-known ○ Nelson is famously supposed to have put the telescope to his blind eye and said 'I see no signal.' 2. very well ○ They got on together famously.

② fan /fæn/ noun 1. a device for moving air to make things cooler ○ We put electric fans in the office to try to keep cool. 2. an enthusiastic supporter of something or someone, e.g. a team or a band ○ There was a crowd of fans waiting for him outside the theatre. □ a Liverpool or Arsenal fan a supporter of Liverpool or Arsenal football team ■ verb □ to fan yourself to make yourself cool by making the air move ○ He fanned himself with his programme.

fanatic /fə'nætɪk/ noun a person who is extremely enthusiastic about something fanatical /fə'nætɪk(ə)l/ adj very enthusiastic about something fanaticism /fə'nætɪsiz(ə)m/ noun the fact of being a fanatic. Synonym extremism. Antonym indifference fan belt /fæn belt/ noun a loop of rubber which turns a fan to cool the engine of a car fancier /'fænsɪə/ noun a person who has an interest in a certain type of animal fanciful /'fænsɪf(ə)l/ adj imaginative or unlikely. Synonym imaginary. Antonym prosaic

fan club /'fæn kləb/ noun an organised group of supporters of someone, e.g. a pop star or an actor

③ fancy /'fænsi/ verb 1. to want to have something (informal) ○ I fancy an ice cream – anyone else want one? ○ Do you fancy sharing a taxi to the airport? □ I think she fancies you I think she is attracted to you (informal) 2. to imagine or believe something ○ She fancied she saw a dark figure in the garden. ■ noun 1. imagination ○ The offer of a part in the film was just her fancy. 2. a desire □ it took his fancy he suddenly wanted it ○ The watch took her fancy, so she walked into the shop and bought it. ■ adj 1. attractive or decorated ○ He wore a fancy waistcoat to the wedding. 2. □ to charge fancy prices to sell goods at high prices ○ I don't want to pay the fancy prices they charge in London shops. ■ interj showing surprise ○ Fancy meeting you here!

fancy dress /,fænsi 'dres/ noun an unusual costume worn to a party fancy dress party /,fænsi 'dres ,pa:ti/ noun a party where the guests have to wear costumes fanfare /'fænfeə/ noun a short piece of music, played especially on trumpets, when an important person arrives or a show starts fang /fæŋ/ noun an animal's long tooth fanlight /'fænlait/ noun a small window over a door or over a larger window fan mail /'fæn meil/ noun admiring letters received by a famous person such as a pop star fantasise /'fæntəsaɪz/, fantasize verb to imagine. Synonym daydream

③ fantastic /fæn'tæstɪk/ adj 1. strange; like a dream ○ His stories are full of fantastic creatures. 2. wonderful or amazing ○ A holiday surfing in Australia – that's fantastic! ○ It's fantastic working in TV!

fantasy /'fæntəsɪ/ noun 1. an invented story ○ Her story of meeting a rich man in Paris was pure fantasy. 2. something you hope for but which cannot come true ○ He's living in a fantasy world – one day he'll wake up in the real world and it will be a shock. (NOTE: The plural is fantasies.)

fanzine /'fænzɪ:n/ noun a magazine for a fan club

FAO abbr for the attention of

FAQ abbr frequently asked questions

① far /fɑ:/ adv 1. a certain distance away ○ The railway station lies not far from here. ○ How far away is Paris from London? ○ The road was blocked by cars as far as we could see. □ as far as I know or can tell I think, but I am not completely sure ○ As far as I know, the train is on time. ○ As far as I can tell, the engine is working normally. □ far out a long way away 2. a long time ago ○ As far back as 1995, he was making a lot of money. 3. much ○ It is far cheaper to go by bus than by train. ○ Restaurant food is far nicer than the food at college. ■ adj which is a long way away ○ The shop is at the far end of the High Street. Synonym distant. Antonym near (NOTE: far – farther or further /'fɑ:ðə, 'fɔ:ðə/ - farthest or furthest /'fɑ:ðəst, 'fɔ:ðəst/) faraway /,fɑ:ra'wei/ adj which is a long way away. Synonym distant farce /fɑ:s/ noun 1. a funny play based on silly situations ○ We went to see a 19th-century French farce. 2. a silly situation ○ The meeting rapidly became a farce.

farcical /'fɑ:sɪk(ə)l/ adj silly. Synonym absurd

③ fare /feəl/ noun 1. a price which you have to pay for a journey ○ Rail fares have been increased by 10%. ○ The tourist-class fare is much less than the first class one. ○ If you walk to work, you will save £5 a week on bus fares. □ children over 12 must pay the full fare children over 12 must pay the same price as adults 2. a passenger in a taxi ○ He picked up a fare at the station. 3. (especially in publicity) food ○ 'Good country fare' ■ verb to perform in a particular way (formal) ○ How did he fare in his driving test? ○ We need to assess regularly how well our students are faring. Synonym do (NOTE: Do not confuse with fair.)

Far East /'fɑ:r 'i:st/ noun the countries to the east of Pakistan and India fare dodger /'feə ,dɒdʒə/ noun a person who travels on public transport without a ticket farewell /feə'wel/ interj, noun goodbye ○ It's time to say farewell. □ to bid someone farewell to say goodbye to someone ○ He left without bidding us farewell. ■ adj at which you say goodbye ○ We gave a farewell party for our neighbours who were going to live in Canada.

far-fetched /,fa: 'fetʃt/ adj difficult to believe. Synonym unbelievable. Antonym believable

② farm /fɑ:m/ noun land used for growing crops and raising animals ○ He runs a pig farm. ○ We're going to work on a farm during the holidays. ○ You can buy eggs and vegetables at the farm shop. ■ verb to grow crops or raise animals on a farm ○ He farms 250 acres in Devon.

② farmer /'fɑ:mə/ noun a person who manages or owns a farm farmers' market /'fɑ:məz ,ma:kɪt/ noun a market where local farmers sell goods such as fruit, vegetables and meat from their farms direct to the public farmhouse /'fɑ:mhaʊs/ noun the house where a farmer and his or her family live farming /'fɑ:mɪŋ/ noun the work of managing a farm, e.g. growing crops or keeping animals for sale farmland /'fɑ:mlænd/ noun land which is used for growing crops or raising animals for food ③ farm out /'fɑ:m 'aʊt/ verb 1. to hand over work to another person to do. Synonym delegate 2. to hand over a child for someone else to look after ○ The children were farmed out to their grandparents for a week.

farmyard /'fɑ:mjɑ:rd/ noun an area around farm buildings, where tractors are sometimes kept ③ far off /'fɑ:r 'ɒf/ adv 1. a long way away ○ We could see the house far off beside the lake. 2. □ not far off almost correct ○ You weren't far off in your estimate.

far-off /'fɑ:r 'ɒf/ adj which is a long way away. Synonym distant. Antonym nearby far-reaching /'fɑ: 'ri:tʃɪŋ/ adj which has wide effects or results. Synonym extensive. Antonym limited far-sighted /'fɑ: 'saɪtɪd/ adj 1. having the ability to make wise plans for the future ○ They were far-sighted enough to save money for their children's tuition fees. 2. US unable to see clearly things that are a short distance away fart /fɑ:t/ (vulgar) noun 1. the noise made when passing wind from the intestines through the anus 2. a stupid or foolish person ○ He said that the board was just a group of old farts. ■ verb to pass wind from the intestines through the anus □ to fart around to work badly and waste time (informal) ○ Stop farting around and come and help me move this crate.

farther /'fɑ:ðə/ adv at or to a longer way away ■ adj which is a longer way away farthest /'fɑ:ðəst/ adv at or to the longest way away ■ adj which is the longest way away

③ fascinate /'fæsɪneɪt/ verb to interest someone or to charm someone greatly. Synonym captivate fascinated /'fæsɪneɪteɪd/ adj very interested. Antonym uninterested

③ fascinating /'fæsɪneɪtɪŋ/ adj very interesting ○ A microscope gives you a fascinating glimpse of life in a drop of water. ○ The book gives a fascinating description of London in the 1930s. ○ It was fascinating to hear her talk about her travels in India. Antonym repellent fascination /'fæsɪ'nɛʃ(ə)n/ noun great interest or attraction fascism /'fæʃɪz(ə)m/ noun an extreme right-wing political movement fascist /'fæʃɪst/ adj referring to fascism ○ Fascist gangs tried to break up the demonstration. ○ The military took power and set up a fascist dictatorship. ■ noun a person who supports fascism ○ when the fascists came to power

② fashion /'fæʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. the most admired style at a particular moment ○ It was the fashion then to wear your hair very short. ○ She always follows the dictates of fashion. □ in fashion popular; following the current style ○ High heels are in fashion this year. □ out of fashion unpopular; not the current style ○ Red cars are out of fashion at the moment. 2. a manner or way 3. □ after a fashion not very well ○ He can speak French after a fashion. ■ verb to make something ○ He fashioned a raft out of old boxes. Synonym shape fashionable /'fæʃ(ə)nəb(ə)l/ adj in fashion ○ She lives in the fashionable West End of London. ○ It's a fashionable restaurant for film stars and journalists. Synonym chic fashion show /'fæʃ(ə)n ʃəʊ/ noun a display of new clothes by models fashion victim /'fæʃ(ə)n 'vɪktɪm/ noun a person who follows the current fashion whether or not it suits him or her (informal)

② fast /'fɑ:st/ adj 1. quick ○ This is the fast train to London. ○ She was driving in the fast lane of the motorway. 2. (of a clock) to show a time which is later than the correct time ○ Your clock is fast. □ my watch is five minutes fast my watch is showing a time which is five minutes later than it really is, e.g. 6.15 instead of 6.10 3. tightly fixed □ fast colours colours in clothing which do not run when washed ○ You will have to wash this shirt by hand as the colour isn't fast. ■ adv 1. quickly ○ Walk faster if you want to catch up with the children in front. ○ Don't go so fast – you almost hit that man on the zebra crossing. 2. □ fast asleep sleeping so that it is difficult to wake up ○ She must have been tired – she's fast asleep already. 3. tight fixed ○ The window was stuck fast and I couldn't open it. □ to make something fast to attach something tightly ○ We made the boat fast to the quay. ■ noun a period during which you stop eating for religious or health reasons ○ He started a 24-hour fast. ■ verb to eat nothing for religious or health reasons ○ Many people fast during Lent. ○ He fasted for a week.

fasten /'fa:s(ə)n/ verb to close or attach something tightly ○ Please fasten your seatbelts. ○ These shoes fasten with a buckle.

fastener /'fa:s(ə)nə/ noun a device which fastens something such as a piece of clothing fastening /'fa:s(ə)nɪŋ/ noun a device which fastens something

③ fast food /'fa:st 'fod/ noun food which is prepared and served quickly fast-forward noun a button on a machine, e.g. a DVD player or a cassette recorder, which you press to make a disc or tape move forward quickly ■ verb to make something such as a DVD or a videotape move forward quickly fastidious /fæ'stɪdiəs/ adj hard to please, careful about tidiness and cleanliness fast-track /'fa:st 'træk/ adj (of a process) which is faster than normal ○ They have started a fast-track application scheme.

① fat /fæt/ adj 1. having too much flesh or weighing too much ○ Two fat men got out of the little white car. ○ You'll have to eat less – you're getting too fat. ○ He's fatter than me. 2. thick ○ He pulled a fat wad of notes out of his pocket. 3. □ a fat lot of no amount (informal) ○ He's a fat lot of use on a farm – he can't even drive a tractor! ○ She wrote complaining letters to the post office, but a fat lot of good it did her! (NOTE: fatter – fattest) ■ noun 1. a part of meat which is yellowish-white ○ If you don't like the fat, cut it off. 2. fat obtained from plants, e.g. peanuts or sunflowers, which is used for cooking ○ Use vegetable fat.

fatal /'feit(ə)l/ adj 1. which causes death ○ There were three fatal accidents on this stretch of road last year. 2. which has bad results ○ It is fatal to ask him to help with the cooking.

fatalism /'feit(ə)lɪz(ə)m/ noun the belief that fate decides what happens to you and that you cannot change this fatality /fə'tælti/ noun a death in an accident (NOTE: The plural is fatalities.)

fatally /'feit(ə)li/ adv causing death fat cat /fæt 'kæt/ noun a rich person (informal) fate /feit/ noun 1. destiny; what is certain to happen to you ○ They met by chance in a bar in New Zealand, and got married – it must have been fate! □ to tempt fate to do something which could have bad results ○ It's tempting fate to ask him to look after your girlfriend while you are away. 2. what happens to someone, especially in the end ○ The people of the country have the right to decide their own fate. (NOTE: Do not confuse with fête.)

fated /'feitɪd/ adj decided by fate fateful /'feitf(ə)l/ adj important because of its serious results for the future

① father /'fa:ðə/ noun 1. a man who has a son or daughter ○ Ask your father if he will lend you his car. ○ She is coming to tea with her father and mother. 2. the title given to a priest ○ Father Thomas is our parish priest.

■ verb to become the father of a child

③ Father Christmas /,fa:ðə/ 'krɪsməs/ noun a man in a long red coat, with a big white beard, who is supposed to bring presents to children on Christmas Day. Also called Santa Claus father figure /'fa:ðə ,fɪgə/ noun a man who helps and advises a younger person who is not his child fatherhood /'fa:ðəhud/ noun the fact of being a father father-in-law /'fa:ðər in lɔ:/ noun the father of your wife or husband (NOTE: The plural is fathers-in-law.)

fatherland /'fa:ðələnd/ noun 1. the country which your family came from originally. Compare motherland. Synonym homeland

2. □ the Fatherland Germany during World War II

fatherly /'fa:ðəli/ adj like a father fathom /'fæðəm/ noun a measure of depth of water, equal to 6 feet or 1.8 metres ○ The ship sank in fifty fathoms of water. ■ verb □ to fathom something or someone out to understand something or someone mysterious ○ I can't fathom him out. ○ They can't fathom out how the car came to be in the river.

fatigue /fə'ti:g/ noun the fact of being tired ○ After a long day walking in the mountains, the group were showing signs of fatigue. ■ verb □ to tire someone out (formal) ○ If you are ill, any physical work is fatiguing.

fatigues /fə'ti:gz/ plural noun 1. cleaning duty in the army ○ He was put on fatigues because he had been rude to the officer. 2. loose clothing worn by soldiers for doing fatigues fatten /'fæt(ə)n/ verb to give animals more food to make them fat for slaughter. Antonym starve fattening /'fæt(ə)nɪŋ/ adj which makes you fat fatten up /,fæt(ə)n 'ʌp/ verb to give animals more food to make them fat for slaughter. Antonym starve

① fatter /'fætə/ □ fat

② fattest /'fætəst/ □ fat

fatty /'fæti/ adj (of food or tissue) which has a lot of fat in it ○ I don't like fatty bacon. Synonym greasy (NOTE: fattier – fattiest)

■ noun a fat person (informal insult) ○ Come on, fatty – move up and let me sit down. (NOTE: The plural is fatties.)

fatuous /'fætjuəs/ adj silly and thoughtless

③ faucet /'fɔ:sit/ noun US a device with a knob which, when you twist it, lets liquid or gas come out (NOTE: The British term is tap.)

② fault /fɔ:lt/ noun 1. the fact of making a mistake; the fact of being to blame for something going wrong ○ It isn't my fault if there's nothing in the fridge. ○ It's all your fault – if you hadn't stayed in bed all morning we would be at the seaside by now. □ at fault having made a mistake ○ The shop is at fault if they sent you the wrong table. 2. □ to find fault with something to criticise something; to find something wrong ○ She's always finding fault with my work. 3. the fact that something is not working properly ○ The invoice was wrong because of a computer fault. ○ The engineers are trying to mend an electrical fault. 4. a mistake in serving in tennis ○ He served two double faults. 5. the line of a crack in the earth's crust along which movements can take place that lead to major earthquakes ○ San Francisco is built near the San Andreas Fault. ■ verb to find something wrong with someone or something ○ You can't fault her work. Antonym praise faultless /'fɔ:ltləs/ adj perfect. Synonym flawless. Antonym imperfect

③ faulty /'fɔ:lti/ adj with mistakes; with something which does not work fauna /'fɔ:nə/ noun wild animals, or all the wild animals of a specific area. Compare flora (NOTE: The plural is fauna.)

faux pas /fɔ:u 'pa:s/ noun a piece of embarrassing behaviour (literary). Synonym gaffe

① favour /'feɪvər/ noun 1. a friendly act or an act of kindness ○ Can I ask a favour – will you look after my bike while I'm in the post office? □ to do someone a favour to do something to help someone ○ He won't charge for it – he did it as a favour. ○ Will you do me a favour and look after my cat when I'm away? 2. approval or popularity ○ She tried to win the favour of the committee.

□ out of favour disliked ■ verb 1. to like or prefer something ○ The managers favour moving to a bigger office. 2. to make things easier for someone ○ The conditions favour Australian bowlers. (NOTE: [all senses] The US spelling is favor.)

favourable /'feɪvər(ə)rəb(ə)l/ adj good (NOTE: The US spelling is favorable.)

favourably /'feɪvərbli/ adv well (NOTE: The US spelling is favorably.)

favoured /'feɪvəd/ adj which is preferred (NOTE: The US spelling is favorite.)

③ favourite /'feɪvər(ə)rət/ adj which you like best ○ Which is your favourite TV programme? ■ noun 1. the thing or person which you like best ○ Which ice cream is your favourite? ○ This chocolate is a favourite with the children. 2. a person or an animal that most people think is likely to win ○ He's the favourite to win the election. ○ That horse is the favourite in the three o'clock race. (NOTE: [all senses] The US spelling is favorite.)

favouritism /'feɪvərɪz(ə)m/ noun the practice of showing support for one group or one person at the expense of others (NOTE: The US spelling is favoritism.)

fawn /fɔ:n/ noun 1. a young deer ○ a female deer with two little fawns 2. a brownish-cream colour ○ They painted the kitchen a pale fawn. ■ adj of a brownish-cream colour ○ She was wearing a fawn coat and dark gloves. ■ verb □ to fawn on someone to try to get someone's favour by doing everything he or she wants ○ I can't stand all these young people fawning on him all the time. Synonym flatter

③ fax /fæks/ noun a copy of a document or picture sent by telephone ○ Post it to me, or send a fax. ○ Can you confirm the booking by fax? ■ verb to send a document or picture by telephone ○ I will fax the design to you or I will fax you the design as soon as it is ready.

fax machine /'fæks mə,fi:n/ noun a machine attached to the telephone line which sends faxes faze /feɪz/ verb to surprise or shock someone. Synonym fluster

FDA abbr Food and Drug Administration

① fear /fiər/ noun 1. the feeling of being afraid ○ Fear of the dark is common in small children. ○ She has no fear of heights. 2. □ no fear! certainly not! (informal) ○ Go on, stroke that tiger! – No fear! ■ verb 1. to be afraid of something ○ What do you fear most? 2. to be afraid that something bad will happen ○ When the little girl had not come back home three days later, everyone began to fear the worst. □ to fear for something or someone to worry that something might happen ○ Most parents fear for their children's safety.

fearful /'fiəf(ə)l/ adj 1. □ fearful of afraid of (formal) 2. terrible fearless /'fiələs/ adj with no feeling of fear. Synonym courageous. Antonym cowardly fearsome /'fiəs(ə)m/ adj frightening (literary) feasibility /fi:zə'biliti/ noun the ability to be done. Antonym impossibility □ to carry out a feasibility study to study details such as costs to see if a project should be started ○ The department has produced a feasibility report on the proposed town centre development scheme.

feasible /'fi:zɪb(ə)l/ adj which can be done feast /fi:st/ noun 1. a special religious day ○ Today is the Feast of St Nicholas. 2. a very large meal ○ That wasn't an ordinary meal – it was a feast! ■ verb to eat expensive food or a very large meal ○ You should be ashamed of yourself – feasting like that when there are so many starving children in the world. Antonym fast feat /fi:t/ noun an unusually difficult act. Synonym achievement □ no mean feat a great achievement ○ Getting the job done in record time was no mean feat.

③ feather /'feðət/ noun one of many light soft parts which cover a bird's body □ as light as a feather very light featherweight /'feðəweɪt/ noun a weight in boxing between bantamweight and lightweight feathery /'feðəri/ adj light and delicate like a feather

① feature /'fi:tʃə/ noun 1. a part of the face such as the nose or mouth ○ His distinctive features mean that we should find him quite quickly. 2. an important part or aspect ○ The main feature of the castle is its huge tower. ○ Fjords are a feature of the coastline of Norway. 3. an important story in a TV news programme ○ Did you see the feature on St Petersburg? 4. an important article on a special subject in a newspaper ○ a feature on nuclear power ■ verb 1. to have someone as the main performer of a film, a TV programme or a play ○ The film featured Charlie Chaplin as the tramp. ○ The circus features Russian clowns. 2. to show as the most important item ○ The tour features a visit to the Valley of the Kings. ○ The next programme will feature a discussion between environmental experts. 3. to appear as the main actor in, or as the subject of a film or a TV programme ○ She has featured in many TV series.

feature film /'fi:tʃə film/ noun a full-length film

① February /'februəri/ noun the second month of the year, between January and March ○ My birthday is in February. ○ He died on February 17th. ○ We are moving to new offices next February. (NOTE: February 17th: say 'the seventeenth of February' or 'February the seventeenth', or in US English 'February seventeenth'.)

feckless /'fekləs/ adj having no determination or strength of character fecund /'fekənd/ adj lively and full of ideas (formal)

③ fed /fed/ □ feed

④ federal /'fed(ə)rəl/ adj 1. referring to the central government of the United States ○ Most federal offices are in Washington. ○ Federal law is more important than state law. 2. referring to a system where a group of provinces or states exist under a central government ○ the former Federal Republic of Germany

federalism /'fed(ə)rəlɪz(ə)m/ noun a type of government in which the state is a group of provinces or states with a central government federalist /'fed(ə)rəlist/ noun referring to federalism federate /'fedəreɪt/ verb to join provinces or states together to form a federation federation /'fedə'reɪʃ(ə)n/ noun a group of states or organisations which have joined together

③ fed up /'fed ʌp/ adj (informal) bored □ fed up with unhappy because you have had enough of something ○ I'm fed up with watching the TV every evening, why can't we go out for a change? ○ She went back to school last Tuesday and she's already fed up. Antonym happy

② fee /fi:/ noun money paid to someone such as a doctor or lawyer for work done ○ Private school fees are very high. ○ The lawyer's fee for two days' work was more than I earn in a month!

feeble /'fi:b(ə)l/ adj weak (NOTE: feebler – feeblest)

feeably /'fi:bli/ adv weakly

① feed /fi:d/ verb 1. to give food to a person or an animal ○ Let's go to the park and feed the ducks. ○ How can you feed your family when you haven't any money? 2. to eat ○ The lambs are feeding. 3. □ to feed something into a machine to put something into a machine again and again ○ He fed the paper into the printer. ○ The grain is fed into the mill through a hopper. (NOTE: feeding – fed) ■ noun 1. food given to animals ○ a bag of cattle feed 2. a meal, especially given to a baby or animal ○ The poor little thing – she's crying because she needs a feed. 3. a means of putting material into a machine

① feedback /'fi:dbæk/ noun 1. information or comments about something which has been done ○ I don't know what the sales are like because we haven't had any feedback from our sales people. 2. the return of a signal in an electronic circuit, causing a high-pitched noise feeder /'fi:də/ noun 1. a container for farm animals' food ○ Put the grain in the feeder for the pigs. 2. a baby's bib (dated) feed on /'fi:d ɒn/ verb 1. to eat something ○ Sheep feed on grass. 2. to grow because of an influence ○ The scandal just feeds on rumour.

feedstuff /'fi:dstʌf/ noun food for farm animals

① feel /fi:l/ verb 1. to touch something, usually with your fingers ○ Feel how soft the bed is. 2. to seem soft, cold, etc., when touched ○ The bed feels hard. ○ The stone floor felt cold. 3. to sense something with your body or mind ○ Did you feel the table move? ○ I felt the lift go down suddenly. ○ Do you feel warmer now that you've had a cup of tea? ○ They felt happy when they saw that all was well. ○ By twelve o'clock she was feeling hungry. 4. □ not to feel yourself not to feel very well ○ She's not coming to the office, she's not feeling herself today. 5. to think something ○ He feels it would be wrong to leave the children alone in the house. ○ The police felt that the accident was due to fog. (NOTE: feeling – felt /felt/ – has felt) ■ noun how something seems when touched ○ Velvet has a soft feel. ○ the rough feel of the wooden floor ◇ to feel your way 1. to try to find the way forward in the dark by putting out your hands ○ When the lights went out we had to feel our way out of the cinema. 2. to act slowly and carefully until you have more experience ○ He hasn't made any decisions yet – he's still feeling his way.

③ feel for /'fi:l fo:/ verb to be sympathetic towards someone feel-good /'fi:l god/ adj causing people to feel happy feelgood factor /'fi:lgod ,fæktə/ noun a general feeling that everything is going well (informal)

① feeling /'fi:lin/ noun 1. something which you feel ○ I had a feeling that this strange man knew who I was. ○ I didn't want to hurt her feelings. 2. the ability to sense something by touching ○ My hands were so cold that I lost all feeling in my fingers.

③ feel up to /,fi:l 'ʌp tu:/ verb to be strong enough to do something

③ feet /fi:t/ ♀ foot feign /fein/ verb to pretend to feel an emotion. Synonym pretend feisty /'faisti/ adj energetic and brave (informal). Synonym lively. Antonym feeble feline adj 1. of the cat family 2. like a cat ■ noun an animal belonging to the cat family ③ fell /fel/ verb to cut down a tree. ♀ fall.

Synonym cut down

fella /'felə/ noun another spelling of fellow (informal)

③ fellow /'feləʊ/ noun 1. a man ○ A young fellow came up to me and asked me the time. ○ Who's that fellow with a beard? 2. a person who belongs to the same group ○ I was OK on the boat, but several of my fellow passengers were sick. 3. a member of a college at Oxford or Cambridge University or of a research institute or academic society ○ He's a fellow of Pembroke College, Oxford.

③ fellowship /'feləʊʃɪp/ noun 1. a friendly feeling ○ He developed a feeling of fellowship with the other hostages. (NOTE: no plural in this meaning) 2. a grant to continue studying ○ She has a fellowship to research into the causes of skin cancer. 3. the position of fellow at Oxford or Cambridge University

○ He got a first, and was immediately offered a fellowship.

fellow-sufferer /,feləʊ 'səfərə/ noun a person who suffers from the same thing as you felony /'feləni/ noun a serious crime (old) (NOTE: The plural is felonies.)

③ felt /felt/ noun a thick material made of wool fibres pressed together ■ verb ♀ feel

felt-tip /'felt tip/ noun 1. the tip of a pen which is made from felt 2. a pen which has a tip made from felt

② female /'fi:meil/ adj 1. referring to women or girls ○ a female athlete 2. referring to the sex of an animal, insect or bird which gives birth to young or lays eggs ○ a female kitten 3. referring to a flower which produces seeds ■ noun 1. a woman or girl ○ Three females went into the bar. 2. an animal, insect or bird which gives birth to young or lays eggs ○ The female of the species is larger than the male. Antonym male

③ feminine /'femɪnɪn/ adj 1. like a woman or suitable for a woman ○ Her long white silk dress was very feminine. 2. (in grammar) referring to words which have a particular form or behave in a different way, to show the female gender ○ 'Actress' is the feminine form of 'actor'. ○ Is the French word for 'table' masculine or feminine? Antonym masculine femininity /,femɪ'niniti/ noun female qualities. Antonym masculinity feminism /'femɪnɪz(ə)m/ noun the fact of being a feminist feminist /'femɪnist/ noun a person who supports the right of women to equal status with men femur /'fi:mə/ noun the thigh bone, the long bone which goes from the hip to the knee (NOTE: The plural is femurs or femora /'femərə/.)

fen /fen/ noun a large area of marsh. Synonym marsh

③ fence /fens/ noun 1. a barrier of wood or wire, used to keep people or animals in or out of a place ○ The fence was blown down. ○ The boys looked through the hole in the fence. ○ The builders put up a fence round the construction site. □ to sit on the fence to avoid giving a definite answer to a question or giving support to one particular side ○ He never takes sides – he just sits on the fence. 2. a person who takes stolen goods to sell them (informal) ■ verb 1. to put a fence round something ○ The police fenced off the accident site. 2. to fight with swords as a sport fencing /'fensɪŋ/ noun 1. material which makes a fence ○ The crowd surged forward and flattened the fencing around the football ground. 2. the sport of fighting with swords fend /fend/ verb □ to fend for yourself to look after yourself ○ We went to Spain and left the children to fend for themselves.

○ Fencing is one of the sports in the pentathlon.

③ fender /'fendə/ noun 1. something such as a rope mat or rubber tyre hung against the side of a boat to protect it from bumps ○ The fender scraped along the side of the quay. 2. a low guard around a fireplace to stop coal or wood falling out into the room ○ She sat by the fender, poking the fire. 3. US a guard over the wheels of a car or bicycle, to prevent mud splashing ○ She ran into a tree and bent a fender. (NOTE: The British term is a wing for a car and a mudguard for a bicycle.)

fend off /'fend 'ɒf/ verb to push someone away ○ He spent the morning fending off newspaper reporters.

feng shui /fəŋ 'ʃwei/ noun a way of arranging buildings and the furniture in them to bring happiness and good luck, according to the principles of a Chinese system based on energy flow fennel /'fenl/ noun a herb with a smell like aniseed feral /'ferəl/ adj (of an animal) which has become wild again, after once being tame (formal) ferment noun /'fɜːment/ a disturbance or upset ○ The university was in a ferment. Synonym uproar □ verb /fə'ment/ to change into alcohol by the effect of yeast on sugar ○ Cider has to ferment for at least ten weeks before it is ready to drink.

fermentation /fɜː'men'teʃn/ noun a chemical change brought about in liquids, usually leading to the production of alcohol fermented /fa'mentɪd/ adj which has been changed to alcohol fern /fɜːn/ noun a green plant with feathery leaves which does not have flowers or seeds ferocious /fə'rəʊʃəs/ adj fierce and angry ferocity /fə'rɒsɪtɪ/ noun the fact of being fierce ferret /'ferɪt/ noun a small animal similar to a weasel, which is half-tamed and used to drive rabbits or rats from holes ○ As boys we used to go rat-catching with ferrets. □ verb to look for something ○ The police spent two hours ferreting around the office. Synonym hunt □ to ferret something out to find something out by thorough searching ○ He ferreted out some surprising facts about the murderer's family.

Ferris wheel /'ferɪs wiːl/ noun a large vertical wheel in a funfair, with seats hanging from it ferrous /'ferəs/ adj containing iron

③ ferry /'feri/ noun a boat which carries cars and trucks or people to and fro across a stretch of water ○ We are going to take the night ferry to Belgium. ○ There's a ferry across the Rhine here. (NOTE: The plural is ferries.) □ verb to take someone or something across by boat ○ Small boats ferried the refugees across the lake. Synonym transport ferryboat /'feribəʊt/ noun a ferry fertile /'fɜːtɪl/ adj 1. rich enough to produce crops ○ The farm has rich black fertile soil. 2. (of a female or an egg) able to produce young ○ The zoo hopes the female panda is fertile, so that she can have cubs. ○ The eagle laid several eggs but only two were fertile. 3. which produces ideas □ he has a fertile imagination he imagines things very easily. Antonym sterile, infertile fertilisation /,fɜː'tɪlɪzə'seʃn/, fertilization noun the act of joining male and female cells together fertilise /'fɜː:tɪlaɪz/, fertilize verb 1. to spread fertiliser on land ○ The soil is poor and needs to be heavily fertilised. 2. to join male and female cells together, so that a new animal or plant will be made ○ The sheep was fertilised in the laboratory.

③ fertiliser /'fɜː:tɪlaɪzə/, fertilizer noun a chemical or organic material spread over the soil to make it richer and more able to produce crops

③ fertility /fɜː'tɪlɪtɪ/ noun the fact of being fertile, or of being able to produce crops or young. Antonym sterility fervour /'fɜː:və/ noun a strong enthusiasm (NOTE: The US spelling is fervor.)

fester /'fɛstə/ verb 1. (of a wound) to become infected ○ His legs were covered with festering sores. 2. to become worse and more bitter ○ The resentment of the staff continued to fester.

③ festival /'festɪv(ə)l/ noun 1. a religious celebration which comes at the same time each year and usually is a public holiday ○ The tour will visit Hong Kong for the Lantern Festival. 2. an artistic celebration or entertainment which is put on at regular intervals ○ We saw some excellent plays at the Edinburgh Festival this year.

festive /'festɪv/ adj referring to a celebration □ the festive season the period of Christmas and the New Year festivity /fe'stɪvɪtɪ/ noun a celebration (NOTE: The plural is festivities.)

festoon /fe'stuːn/ noun a long chain of hanging decorations ○ Girls put festoons of flowers round the necks of the visitors. Synonym garland □ verb to hang a place with decorations ○ The streets were festooned with banners.

② fetch /'fetʃ/ verb 1. to go and bring someone or something ○ It's your turn to fetch the children from school. ○ Can you fetch me the atlas? 2. to be sold for a certain price ○ That car won't fetch more than £200. ○ These CDs fetch very high prices on the black market.

fetish /'fetiʃ/ noun 1. an object which is believed by some people to be magic 2. a strong sexual interest in a certain object or material ○ a rubber fetish 3. a very strong interest in or liking for something fetlock /'fetlɒk/ noun the wide part of a horse's leg feud /'fju:d/ noun a bitter quarrel ○ I don't want to get involved in their family feud. Synonym dispute. Antonym friendship ■ verb to quarrel bitterly all the time ○ The sisters are feuding over their father's will. Synonym fight feudal /'fju:dl/ adj referring to the feudal system. Antonym modern feudal system /'fju:dl 'sistəm/, feudalism /'fju:dlɪz(ə)m/ noun a medieval system by which land was granted by a king to his nobles and by the nobles to the peasants, on condition that each paid a service to his superior and fought for him fever /'fi:vər/ noun 1. a state when the body's temperature is higher than normal ○ You must stay in bed until the fever goes down. 2. an excited state ○ The crowd waited in a fever of anticipation. □ at fever pitch in a great state of excitement ○ The crowd waited at fever pitch for the band to arrive.

fevered /'fi:vəd/ adj 1. suffering from fever ○ The nurse wiped his fevered brow. 2. overactive ○ The book is the product of a fevered imagination.

feverish /'fi:vəriʃ/ adj 1. suffering from fever ○ He felt feverish and took an aspirin. 2. nervously quick or excited ○ In a burst of feverish activity he finally finished writing the book on time.

① few /'fju:/ adj, noun 1. not many ○ She has very few friends at work. ○ We go to fewer concerts than last year. ○ I wonder why few of the staff stay with us more than six months. □ few and far between not very frequent ○ Trains are few and far between on Sundays. 2. □ a few some, not very many ○ I only took a few photographs because it rained all the time. ○ I'll call you in a few minutes. ○ A few of the wedding guests were sitting playing cards. □ quite a few several, or many ○ Quite a few people on the boat were sick.

fiancé /fi'ɒnseɪ/, fiancée noun a man or woman who is engaged to be married ○ Her fiancé is a French lawyer. ○ He brought his fiancée to the party.

fiasco /fi'æskəʊ/ noun a total failure (NOTE: The plural is fiascos.)

fib /'fib/ (informal) noun a lie about something unimportant ○ That was a little fib, wasn't it? ■ verb to tell a lie about something unimportant ○ Fibbing frantically, he said he had been to see the doctor. (NOTE: fibbing – fibbed) fibre /'faɪbə/ noun 1. a small thread of material ○ From the pieces of fibre left at the scene of the murder, the police could work out what the murderer had been wearing. 2. thin threads in food, which cannot be digested □ to eat a high-fibre diet to have a diet which contains a large amount of cereals, nuts, fruit and vegetables (NOTE: [all senses] The US spelling is fiber.)

fibreglass /'faɪbəglɑ:s/ noun 1. a material made from glass fibres, used to make boats and car bodies ○ He's bought a new fibreglass boat. 2. glass fibre wool used to prevent heat escaping from a room or building ○ They pack layers of fibreglass under the roof. (NOTE: [all senses] The US spelling is fiber-glass.)

fibre optics /,faɪbə 'ɒptɪks/ noun the use of fine threads of glass or plastic for carrying light signals and data (NOTE: takes a singular verb) fibrous /'faɪbrəs/ adj made of fibres fibula /'fibjʊlə/ noun the thin bone behind the tibia, between the knee and the ankle fickle /'fɪk(ə)l/ adj likely to change often; not steady. Synonym inconsistent fiction /'fɪkʃən/ noun 1. novels ○ fiction writers such as Graham Greene ○ To find the latest novels you must look in the fiction section of the library. 2. a story that is not true ○ His account of the accident was pure fiction. (NOTE: no plural) fictional /'fɪkʃən(ə)l/ adj 1. (of a character) who exists in fiction ○ Mr Pickwick, Sam Weller and other fictional characters from Dickens may have been based on real people. 2. written as a novel ○ The book is a fictional account of a real murder.

fictitious /fɪk'tɪʃəs/ adj not true or not real. Synonym untrue. Antonym factual

③ fiddle /'fɪd(ə)l/ verb 1. □ to fiddle with something to play idly with something ○ She was fiddling with her bracelet during the whole interview. ○ He fiddled with the radio and managed to get it to work. 2. to play the fiddle ○ He was fiddling away at an Irish dance. 3. to keep information about money in a dishonest way ○ The company caught him fiddling his expense account. ○ She tried to fiddle her tax return. ■ noun 1. a violin ○ He plays the fiddle at country dances. □ fit as a fiddle very fit ○ He's over eighty and still as fit as a fiddle. □ to play second fiddle to someone to be in a weaker position than someone else ○ He always plays second fiddle to his wife. 2. dishonest or illegal dealings

(informal) ○ The whole thing's a fiddle to get money from the EU. □ on the fiddle trying to make money illegally fiddlesticks /'fɪd(ə)lstɪks/ noun nonsense (old) fiddly /'fɪdli/ adj small and awkward to use (informal) fidelity /'fɪ'delɪtɪ/ noun 1. the fact of being faithful ○ He was rewarded for his fidelity to the president. 2. the quality of the sound produced by an electronic machine such as a CD player ○ a high fidelity CD player (NOTE: no plural) fidget /'fɪdʒɪt/ verb to move all the time ○ After an hour he started to fidget in his seat. ○ Sit still and stop fidgeting! ■ noun □ the fidgets moving all the time; not being able to stay still (informal) ○ The children got the fidgets after sitting still for a few moments.

① field /'fi:ld/ noun 1. a piece of ground on a farm, with a fence or hedge round it ○ a field of potatoes ○ The sheep are in the field. 2. a piece of ground for playing a game ○ a football field ○ The two teams ran onto the field. 3. a special area of interest or study ○ What's your field? ○ His field is English language teaching. 4. a fighting area in a war ○ These young soldiers have no experience of combat in the field. ■ verb 1. to send out a team to play or to take part in talks ○ England are fielding their strongest side for some years. ○ The union fielded a strong negotiating team. 2. □ to field questions to deal with questions ○ He fielded questions from the journalists about his private life.

field day /'fi:ld deɪ/ noun a busy and exciting time fielder /'fi:ldə/ noun a member of a cricket side which is not batting field event /'fi:ld ɪ'vent/ noun a sport involving throwing or jumping, e.g. the high jump or the javelin field glasses /'fi:ld ,gla:sɪz/ plural noun same as binoculars (NOTE: field glasses has no singular. If you want to indicate one item, say 'a pair of field glasses').

field hockey /'fi:ld ,hɔ:kɪ/ noun US a team game played on grass, in which you try to hit a small ball into a goal with a curved stick (NOTE: simply called hockey in British English) field marshal /'fi:ld 'ma:ʃ(ə)l/ noun an officer of the highest rank in the army (NOTE: can be used as a title with a name: Field Marshal Haig) fieldmouse /'fi:ldmaʊs/ noun a small type of country mouse with a long tail (NOTE: The plural is fieldmice.)

field of vision /'fi:ld əv 'vɪz(ə)n/ noun an area which you can see over clearly field sports /'fi:ld spɔ:ts/ plural noun outdoor sports such as hunting and fishing field test /'fi:ld test/ noun a test of a new piece of equipment in a real environment field trip /'fi:ld trɪp/ noun a trip taken in order to study a subject fieldwork /'fi:ldwɜ:k/ noun the practice of doing some work in a real environment as part of a course of study fiend /'fi:nd/ noun 1. an evil person ○ the fiend who attacked the old lady 2. a person who is very enthusiastic about something ○ He's a car fiend. ○ She's a health-food fiend.

fiendish /'fi:ndɪʃ/ adj 1. very unpleasant 2. very difficult ○ You have to pass a fiendish exam to become an accountant.

fiendishly /'fi:ndɪʃli/ adv terribly; very fierce /fɪəs/ adj 1. very angry and likely to attack ○ Watch out – that dog looks fierce. 2. violent or intense ○ A fierce storm broke out as they were leaving the harbour. ○ The mountains were the scene of fierce fighting. ○ He got into a fierce argument about working conditions.

fiercely /'fɪəslɪ/ adv 1. strongly ○ She is fiercely independent. 2. violently ○ The shop was blazing fiercely when the fire brigade arrived. ○ The storm blew fiercely during the night.

fiery /'fɪərɪ/ adj 1. burning ○ a fiery chariot 2. fierce or angry ○ She has a fiery temper.

fiesta /'fi:estə/ noun a Spanish festival

① fifteen /,fɪf'ti:n/ noun 1. the number 15 ○ There are fifteen players in a rugby side. ○ She's fifteen (years old). ○ Come and see me in fifteen minutes. ○ The train leaves at nine fifteen (9.15). □ the fifteen hundreds (the 1500s) the years from 1500 to 1599 2. a group of fifteen people forming a rugby team ○ the England XV (NOTE: usually written XV in this meaning: the England XV, say 'the England fifteen')

15 /,fɪf'ti:n/ noun a classification of films considered not suitable for people under 15 unless they are with an adult

① fifteenth /'fɪf'ti:nθ/ adj, noun referring to 15 ○ the fifteenth of July or July the fifteenth (July 15th) ○ That's the fifteenth phone call I've made this morning. ○ It will be her fifteenth birthday next week. □ the fifteenth century the years from 1400 to 1499

① fifth /'fɪfθ/ adj referring to 5 ○ the fifth of May or May the fifth (May 5th) ○ It's his fifth birthday tomorrow. ■ noun one part of five equal parts

Fifth Amendment /,fɪfθ ə'mendmənt/ noun the part of the US constitution which allows someone not to give evidence which might be used against themselves

① fiftieth /'fiftiəθ/ noun one of fifty equal parts of something

② fifty /'fifti/ noun the number 50 ○ My mother made fifty pots of jam. ○ He's fifty (years old). □ she's in her fifties she's between 50 and 59 years old □ the (nineteen-)fifties (1950s) the period from 1950 to 1959

fifty-fifty /,fifti 'fifti/ adj., adv divided into two equal amounts □ to go fifty-fifty with each paying half of the cost ○ We'll go fifty-fifty on the bill.

fig /fig/ noun 1. same as fig tree 2. the juicy sweet fruit of the fig tree ○ We sat under the tree and ate figs and goat's cheese.

① fight /faɪt/ noun 1. a struggle against someone or something ○ He got into a fight with boys who were bigger than him. ○ Fights broke out between the demonstrators and the police. □ to pick a fight with someone to start a fight with someone 2. a boxing match ○ The fight only lasted three rounds. ■ verb 1. to struggle against someone or something using force ○ The two boys were fighting over a comic. ○ Rival gangs fought in the street. ○ We are committed to fighting crime. ○ Doctors are fighting to control the disease. 2. □ to fight for something to struggle in defence of something ○ They are fighting for the right to vote. (NOTE: fighting – fought /fɔ:tɪt/)

③ fighter /'faɪtə/ noun 1. a person who fights ○ The referee stopped the fight when one of the fighters had a cut eye. 2. a person who is strong ○ She's a real fighter – she'll pull through this illness. 3. a fast attacking aircraft ○ Two fighters went up to attack the enemy bombers.

fighting /'faɪtɪŋ/ noun the action of struggling. Synonym combat fight off /,faɪt 'ɒf/ verb to get rid of an attacker or an illness figment /'figmənt/ noun □ a figment of someone's imagination something which a person has imagined but which is not real fig tree /'fig tri:/ noun a fruit tree which grows in warm countries figurative /'figʊrətɪv/ adj. 1. (of art) which shows something as it really is ○ He's a well-known figurative artist. Antonym abstract 2. which is not the literal meaning of a word ○ Calling him a 'lump of jelly' was a figurative use of the phrase. ○ You didn't mean that literally, did you? – No, I was speaking in a figurative sense.

① figure /'figz/ noun 1. a written number, e.g. 35 ○ I can't read the figure on the order – is it 250? ○ He added up the figures on the bill. ○ Cheques have to be made out in both words and figures. 2. a geometric shape such as a triangle or a circle ○ A six-sided figure is a hexagon. 3. the drawing in a book ○ See figure 2 on page 23. 4. the shape of a person

○ We could see some figures through the mist. ○ the figures in the foreground of the painting 5. the attractive shape of a person's body, especially a woman's ○ She still has a great figure. 6. an important person ○ He's a leading figure in the opposition movement. 7. a pattern of movement in skating or dancing

■ verb 1. US □ to figure something out to try to think of an answer or to understand something ○ Try to figure out the answer yourself, instead of asking someone else. 2. especially US to consider or think something ○ I figure the costs will be high. ○ We figured you'd be late because of the show. ○ Had you figured on being there before two o'clock? □ that figures that makes sense (informal) 3. to appear in something, e.g. a novel or a painting ○ Fair-haired girls figure in many of his paintings.

figurehead /'figəhēd/ noun 1. a piece of wood cut into the shape of a person and fixed on the front of an old ship ○ The museum has a collection of 19th century figureheads. 2. a person who seems important but who has no real power ○ The President is just a figurehead; the Minister of the Interior has the real power.

figure of speech /,figər əv 'spi:tʃ/ noun a figurative expression

figure skating /'figə ,skeɪtɪŋ/ noun international competitions for men and women involving solo skating and skating in pairs to music filament /'filəmənt/ noun a thin wire

① file /'faɪl/ noun 1. a metal tool used for making rough surfaces smooth ○ Use a file to round off the edges of the metal. ♦ nail file 2. a container similar to an envelope, used for keeping documents in ○ When you have finished with the papers, put them back in the file. ○ The police have a file on him. 3. a section of data on a computer ○ Type the name of the file and then press ENTER. 4. a line of people □ in single file one behind the other ○ The children entered the hall in single file. ■ verb 1. to smooth a surface with a file ○ File down the rough edges. 2. to put papers away in a file ○ File that letter under SALES. 3. to walk in a line ○ They filed past the place where the boy had been shot. 4. to make an official request ○ He filed for divorce. ○ She filed a petition in bankruptcy.

file extension /'faɪl ɪk'stenʃən/ noun the second part of a computer file name, e.g. '.doc', which shows what type of file it is.

filename /'fæɪlneɪm/ noun the name given to a computer file file server /'faɪl ,sɜ:və/ noun a computer connected to a network, providing information which people using other computers on the same network can use filibuster /'filibʌstə/ noun an attempt to prevent a law being passed by speaking for a very long time in the debate filigree /'filigrē/ noun a pattern made with very thin pieces of metals such as gold or silver and used, e.g., in jewellery filling /'fɪlɪŋ/ noun 1. the action of putting documents away in the right place ○ Filing invoices is a job I detest. 2. documents which have to be put in order ○ There is a lot of filing waiting to be done at the end of the week.

filling cabinet /'fɪlɪŋ ,kæbɪnət/ noun a piece of office furniture; a tall box with drawers for putting files in filings /'fɪlɪŋz/ plural noun small pieces of metal removed by using a file ○ You can demonstrate magnetic fields with iron filings and a magnet.

filling system /'fɪlɪŋ ,sɪstəm/ noun a way of putting documents in order for easy reference

Filipino /'filip'pi:nəʊ/ noun, adj (a person) from the Philippines (NOTE: The plural is Filipinos.)

① fill /fɪl/ verb 1. to make something full; to become full ○ The bucket filled slowly. ○ He filled the bottle with water. ○ She was filling the boxes with presents. 2. □ to fill a tooth to put metal into a hole in a tooth to stop it going bad ○ I hate having my teeth filled but it has to be done.

filler /'fɪlə/ noun 1. material used to fill holes and cracks in walls and in wood ○ They used plastic filler to repair the cracks in the ceiling. 2. a thing used to fill a space

fillet /'fɪlɪt/ noun 1. a piece of good-quality meat, with no bones ○ She bought a fillet of lamb. 2. a piece of fish from which the bones have been taken out ○ We ordered fried fillet of sole. ■ verb to remove the bones from a fish ○ Ask the fishmonger to fillet the fish for you.

③ fill in /'fil 'ɪn/ verb 1. to fill up a hole ○ He dug a hole in the garden, put the box inside, and then filled it in. 2. to write in the empty spaces on a form ○ To win the prize you have to fill in the missing words. ○ Just fill in your name and address. 3. □ to fill in for someone to do something which someone else normally does but cannot do ○ I'm filling in for the manager who is on holiday.

filling /'fɪlɪŋ/ adj which fills ○ A meal of salad and a glass of water is not very filling. Synonym satisfying ■ noun 1. metal put into a hole in your tooth by a dentist ○ I had to go to the dentist because one of my fillings came out. 2. food used to put into something such as a sandwich or cake ○ a cake with a jam filling filling station /'fɪlɪŋ ,steɪʃ(ə)n/ noun a place where you can buy petrol fill out /,fil 'aʊt/ verb 1. to write in all the empty spaces on a form 2. (of a person) to become less thin fill up /,fil 'ʌp/ verb 1. to make something completely full ○ He filled the bottle up with fresh water. □ fill her or it up please fill the car with petrol 2. to write in all the empty spaces on a form ○ Fill up the form and send it back to this address.

filly /'fili/ noun a young female horse. Compare colt (NOTE: The plural is fillies.)

① film /fɪlm/ noun 1. moving pictures shown at a cinema or on TV ○ Have you seen this old Laurel and Hardy film? ○ We've seen the film already on TV. 2. a roll of material which you put into a camera to take photographs or moving pictures ○ I must buy another film before the wedding. ○ Do you want a colour film or a black and white one? 3. a thin layer of something ○ A film of moisture formed on the cold metal surface. ○ Everywhere was covered with a film of dust. ■ verb to take pictures of something or someone with a camera ○ Security cameras filmed him robbing the bank. ○ 'Star Wars' was filmed in 1977.

filming /'fɪlmɪŋ/ noun the action of making a film film-maker /'fɪlm ,meɪkə/ noun a person who makes films

③ film star /'fɪlm sta:/ noun a well-known film actor or actress filter /'fɪltə/ noun 1. a piece of equipment or material through which liquids or air can pass in order to remove any substances which are not wanted ○ The filters in the swimming pool have to be cleaned regularly. 2. a piece of glass on a camera which allows only certain colours or levels of light to pass through ○ I use an orange filter to give a warm colour to the picture. 3. material at the end of a cigarette, used to remove nicotine ■ verb 1. to remove substances from something by passing it through a filter ○ Kidneys filter the blood. 2. to move gradually ○ Watch out for traffic filtering in from the left. 3. (of light or sound) to move slowly and in small amounts through something or to somewhere filth /'fɪlθ/ noun 1. dirt ○ They were horrified at the filth in the streets. 2. offensive words or pictures, especially because they deal with sex in an unpleasant way (informal) ○ I don't want you to read any more of this filth.

③ filthy /'fɪlθi/ adj 1. very dirty ○ Where have you been playing – you're filthy! ○ Don't touch that filthy old carpet. ○ Filthy beggars followed the tourists wherever they went. 2. very unpleasant and angry (informal) ○ Watch out – the boss is in a filthy temper. 3. offensive, usually because of dealing with sex in an unpleasant way (informal) ○ He tried to sell us some filthy postcards. (NOTE: filthier – filthiest)

fin /fɪn/ noun 1. a thin part on the body of a fish which helps it to swim ○ From the beach they could see a shark's fin in the sea. 2. a similar piece on an aircraft ○ The tail fin broke off when the plane crashed.

① final /'fain(ə)l/ adj last; coming at the end ○ This is your final warning – if your work doesn't improve you will be sacked. ○ The competition is in its final stages. □ my decision is final I will not change my decision □ final date for payment the last date by which payment should be made ■ noun the last competition in a series between several teams or competitors ○ I thought they would win a couple of rounds, but I never imagined they would get to the final.

finale /fi'na:li/ noun the last part of a piece of music or of a show finalise /fainəlaɪz/, finalize verb to finish making plans for something finalist /'fain(ə)list/ noun a person taking part in the final of a competition

① finally /'fain(ə)li/ adv at last; in the end ○ The police finally cleared up the mystery. ○ The little boy finally turned up in Edinburgh. finals /'fain(ə)lz/ plural noun last examinations at the end of a university course, after which you get your degree

② finance /'fainəns/ noun money, especially money which belongs to the public or to a company ○ How are you going to raise the finance for the project? ○ My finances are in a poor state at the moment. □ Minister of Finance the government minister in charge of a country's finances ■ verb to provide money for ○ How are you going to finance your course at university if you don't have a grant? ○ The redevelopment of the city centre is being financed locally.

① financial /faɪn'ænʃəl/ adj referring to money ○ What is our financial position? ○ The company has got into financial difficulties. Synonym monetary financial institution /faɪn,ænʃəl ,ɪnsti'tju:s(ə)n/ noun a bank or trust whose work involves lending or investing large amounts of money financially /faɪn'ænʃəli/ adv referring to money; with money financial year /faɪn,ænʃəl 'jɪə/ noun the 12-month period for which accounts are calculated financier /faɪn'ænsɪə/ noun a person who deals with money on a large scale. Synonym banker finch /fɪntʃ/ noun a small seed-eating bird (NOTE: The plural is finches.)

① find /faɪnd/ verb 1. to discover something which has been hidden or lost ○ I found a £2

coin behind the sofa. ○ Did she find the book she was looking for? 2. to discover something which was not known before ○ No one has found a cure for the common cold yet. 3. to have an opinion about something ○ I found the book very dull. ○ She finds her work too easy. 4. to make a legal decision in court ○ The tribunal found that both parties were at fault. ○ He was found guilty of murder. □ the judge found for the defendant the judge decided that the defendant was right 5. □ to be found to exist ○ Toadstools are found in woods in the autumn. (NOTE: finding – found /faʊnd/) ■ noun a thing which you discover ○ A cheap hotel in the centre of Paris — What a lucky find! Synonym discovery

② findings /'faɪndɪŋz/ plural noun 1. facts discovered ○ The two companies signed an agreement to share their research findings. 2. actions which someone suggests should be done ○ The findings of the committee of inquiry will be published next week.

③ find out /,faɪnd 'aʊt/ verb to discover information

④ fine /faine/ adj 1. (of the weather) good ○ We'll go for a walk tomorrow if it stays fine. ○ Let's hope it's fine for the village fete next week. 2. well; healthy ○ I was in bed with flu yesterday, but today I'm feeling fine. 3. good ○ How are things at home? – Fine! ○ It's fine to wear a bikini when you're young and slim, but not when you're old and fat. 4. very thin or very small ○ Use a sharp pencil if you want to draw fine lines. ○ I can't read the notice – the print is too fine. ■ adv in very small pieces ○ Chop up the orange peel very fine. (NOTE: finer – finest) ■ noun money which you have to pay for having done something wrong ○ I had to pay a £25 fine for parking in a No Parking area. ○ He was found guilty of embezzlement and got off with a fine. ■ verb to make someone pay money for having done something wrong ○ He was fined £25 for parking on double yellow lines. Synonym penalise ■ interj all right, agreed ○ Fine! We'll all go to the beach tomorrow!

fine art /,fain 'a:t/ noun art such as painting or sculpture finely /fain(ə)li/ adv 1. in very small pieces ○ Cook some finely chopped onions in a little butter. 2. in a beautiful and delicate way ○ She bought some finely carved ivory figures.

fine print /fain 'print/ noun the conditions on a contract, usually printed in very small letters finesse /fɪ'nes/ noun skill in dealing with awkward situations fine-tune /fain 'tju:n/ verb 1. to make changes to the way an engine works, in order to improve its performance 2. to get something just right

① finger /'fɪŋgəl/ noun 1. one of the parts at the end of your hand, but usually not including the thumb ○ He wears a ring on his little finger. ○ He pressed the button with his finger. □ to keep your fingers crossed to hope that something will happen as you want it to happen ○ Have you heard the exam results yet? — No, but I'm keeping my fingers crossed. □ to put your finger on something to point something out correctly ○ You put your finger on it when you said that he's afraid of appearing stupid. □ on the fingers of one hand five or fewer ○ The number of times she's offered to buy me a drink can be counted on the fingers of one hand. □ to pull your finger out to work harder (informal) ○ I told him to pull his finger out. □ not to lift or raise a (little) finger to help not to do anything to help ○ It's unfair to expect her to do all the housework while her sisters don't lift a finger to help. 2. the part of a glove into which a finger goes ○ I must mend my glove — there's a hole in one of the fingers. ○ Gloves without fingers are called 'mittens'. 3. a piece of food shaped like a finger ○ a box of chocolate fingers. ♦ fish finger □ verb 1. to touch with your fingers ○ Don't finger the apples. 2. to point out a criminal to the police (informal) ○ He was fingered by someone else in the gang.

fingernail /'fɪngnəl/ noun the hard thin part covering the end of a finger fingerprint /'fɪngəprɪnt/ noun a mark left by a finger when you touch something fingertip /'fɪngətip/ noun the end of the finger □ to have information at your fingertips to know all about something finicky /'fɪnɪkɪ/ adj 1. (of a person) too concerned with details 2. (of an object) too detailed ① finish /'fɪnɪʃ/ verb to do something completely; to come to an end ○ Haven't you finished your homework yet? ○ Tell me when you've finished reading the paper. ○ You can't go out until you've finished doing the washing up. ○ The game will finish at about four o'clock. □ noun 1. a final appearance ○ The table has an attractive finish. 2. a final appearance which is not real, which is only on the surface ○ kitchen cupboards with an oak finish 3. the end of a race ○ He ran well and came in second at the finish.

finished /'fɪnɪʃt/ adj which has been made; which has come to an end finishing line /'fɪnɪʃɪŋ laɪn/ noun the line marking the end of a race

③ finish off /,fɪnɪʃ 'ɒf/ verb to do something completely

③ finish up /,fɪnɪʃ 'ʌp/ verb 1. to be in the end ○ We got lost and finished up miles from our hotel. 2. to eat something completely ○ You must finish up all your vegetables.

finish with /'fɪnɪʃ wið/ verb to finish using something finite /'faɪnɪt/ adj with an end; with a limit ○ The world's coal resources are finite and are forecast to run out soon.

① Finn /fɪn/ noun a person from Finland

① Finnish /'fɪnɪʃ/ adj referring to Finland

■ noun the language spoken in Finland ○ I bought a Finnish phrase book before going to Helsinki.

fiord /'fɪɔ:d/ noun another spelling of fjord fir /fɜ:/ noun □ fir (tree) evergreen tree with needle-shaped leaves ○ Fir trees are often used as Christmas trees.

fir cone /'fɜ: kən/ noun the hard fruit of the fir tree

① fire /fɪəl/ noun 1. something which is burning; something which heats ○ We have an electric fire in the living room. ○ They burnt the dead leaves on a fire in the garden.

□ to catch fire to start to burn because of something else which is burning ○ The office block caught fire. ○ Take those papers away — they might catch fire. □ to set fire to to make something start burning ○ His cigarette set fire to the carpet. □ on fire burning ○ Call the fire brigade — the house is on fire! 2. shooting with guns ○ The soldiers came under fire from the guerrillas. ♦ gunfire □ verb

1. to shoot a gun ○ The gunmen fired at the police car. ○ We could hear guns firing in the distance. 2. to dismiss someone from a job ○ She was fired for being late. 3. to make excited ○ He was fired with the desire to make his fortune. 4. to bake; to heat ○ The pots are glazed and then fired.

③ fire alarm /'fɪər ə,lo:m/ noun a bell or siren which gives a warning that a fire has started fire away /,fɪər ə'wei/ verb to ask someone questions (informal)

③ fire brigade /'fɪər bri,geɪd/ noun a public service organisation for preventing or putting out fires firecracker /'fɪəkrækə/ noun a small tube containing chemicals which explode with a loud noise and bright lights when you light it fire drill /'fɪər drɪl/ noun a practice to escape from a burning building -fired-up /,fɪərəd 'ʌp/ adj feeling very excited or eager to do something

③ fire engine /'fɪər ,endʒɪn/ noun the large red truck used by fire fighters, together with all the equipment they need fire escape /'fɪər ɪ,skeɪp/ noun stairs or a ladder which can be used by people to get out of burning buildings fire exit /'faɪər ,eɡzɪt/ noun a door used if there is a fire fire extinguisher /'faɪər ɪk,stɪŋgwɪʃə/ noun a large metal container, usually painted red, containing chemicals which can be sprayed onto a fire to put it out fire fighter /'faɪəfɪɡtə/ noun someone whose job is to put out fires and save people from dangerous situations firefly /'faɪəflaɪ/ noun a type of little insect which glows in the dark fire hydrant /'faɪə,haɪdrənt/ noun a large pipe in a street which provides water for fighting fires firelight /'faɪəlætɪ/ noun the light which a fire makes

③ fireman /'faɪəmən/ noun a man who tries to put out fires (NOTE: The plural is firemen.)

fireplace /'faɪəpleɪs/ noun a hole in the wall of a room where you can light a fire for heating. Synonym hearth fireproof /'faɪəpru:f/ adj which will not burn fire service /'faɪə,sɜ:vɪs/ noun the organisation that deals with fires and other emergency situations fireside /'faɪəsaɪd/ noun the area around a fireplace in a room. Synonym hearth

③ fire station /'faɪə,steɪʃ(ə)n/ noun a centre where fire engines are based firewall /'faɪəwɔ:l/ noun 1. a piece of software that prevents unauthorised people from getting access to a computer system 2. a special type of wall that prevents a fire from spreading to another area 3. a legal barrier set up between sections of a company to prevent them from sharing information when this might cause problems firewood /'faɪəwʊd/ noun wood for making fires (NOTE: no plural)

③ firework /'faɪəwɜ:k/ noun a small tube holding chemicals which will shine brightly or explode when lit firing squad /'faɪərɪŋ skwɒd/ noun a group of soldiers who kill someone by shooting

① firm /'fɜ:m/ adj 1. solid or fixed ○ Make sure that the ladder is firm before you climb up. ○ My back hurts – I think I need a firmer mattress. 2. not going to change ○ There is no firm evidence that he stole the money. ○ She is a firm believer in hard work. □ to stand firm not to give in ○ In spite of the offers from the motorway construction company he stood firm and refused to leave his house. 3. which cannot be changed ○ to place a firm order for two lorries ○ They are quoting a firm price of £1.22 per unit. 4. determined to show that you are in control ○ He's not firm enough with his children.

(NOTE: firmer – firmest) ■ noun a business or company ○ When he retired, the firm presented him with a watch. ○ The firm I work for was taken over last year.

firmly /'fɜ:mli/ adv in a firm way

■ first /fɜ:st/ adj referring to the thing that comes before all other things (as a number can be written 1st) ○ My birthday is on the first of July or July the first (July 1st). ○ King Charles the First (Charles I) ○ It's our baby's first birthday on Tuesday. ○ The bank is the first building on the left past the post office. □ the first century the period from the year 1 to 99 AD ■ adv 1. at the beginning ○ She came first in the exam. □ at first at the beginning ○ At first he didn't like the work, but later he got used to it. □ first come, first served dealing with things such as requests in the order in which they are received ○ Applications will be dealt with on a first come, first served basis. 2. before doing anything else ○ Wash your hands first, and then you can eat. 3. for the first time ○ When did you first meet your girlfriend? ■ noun the thing or person coming before everything else □ in first in first gear ○ The car climbed the hill in first. □ a first in Physics a first-class degree in Physics

③ first aid /fɜ:st 'eɪd/ noun the help given to a person who is hurt before a doctor or ambulance arrives

first aid kit /fɜ:st 'eɪd kit/ noun a box with bandages and dressings kept to be used in an emergency first class /fɜ:st 'kla:s/ adj 1. very good quality ○ You can get a first-class meal in that hotel. 2. using the most expensive seats on a plane or train ○ Can I have a first-class return to Paris, please? 3. sent using the most expensive and quickest mail service ○ A first-class letter should arrive the next day. (NOTE: as an adjective, usually written first-class) ■ adv 1. in the most expensive seats in a train or plane ○ He always travels first class. 2. using the most expensive and quickest way of sending a letter ○ Send that letter first class – I want it to arrive quickly.

■ noun travel in the most expensive seats in a train or plane ○ First class is always much more comfortable than tourist or business class.

first cousin /fɜ:st 'kʌz(ə)n/ noun someone who is the child of your uncle or aunt first-degree /,fɜ:st dɪ'grɪ:/ adj □ first degree burn the least serious type of burn first-degree murder /,fɜ:st dɪ'grɪ: 'mɜ:da/ noun in the USA, the most serious type of murder first edition /fɜ:st ɪ'dɪʃ(ə)n/ noun a copy of the first printing of a book first gear /fɜːst 'gɪə/ noun the lowest gear, used when going slowly, or when climbing hills first generation /fɜːst dʒenə'reɪʃ(ə)n/ adj relating to or being the children of parents who have left one country to settle in another firsthand /fɜːst'hænd/ adj which comes directly from someone who has experienced something ○ We have some firsthand reports of the coup from our reporter in the capital. ■ adv directly ○ I heard the news of the accident firsthand from his widow.

③ first half /fɜːst 'haːf/ noun 1. the first of two parts, as of a football match ○ They scored three goals in the first half. 2. the first part of a financial year, usually from January to June ○ The figures for the first half are up on those for the second part of last year.

First Lady /'fɜːst 'leɪdɪ/ noun the wife of a president, especially the wife of the President of the USA first language /fɜːst 'læŋgwidʒ/ noun 1. the first language that you learn to speak 2. a country's main language

② firstly /'fɜːstli/ adv to start with. Antonym lastly first mate /fɜːst 'meɪt/ noun the main officer, next in rank to the captain, on a ship that is not part of the navy

③ first name /fɜːst neɪm/ noun someone's personal name, as opposed to their surname or family name. Synonym given name, Christian name □ they are on first name terms they call each other by their first names first night /fɜːst 'naɪt/ noun the first official performance of a play first offender /fɜːst ə'fendə/ noun someone who commits an offence for the first time first person /fɜːst 'pɜːs(ə)n/ noun in English, the words 'I' or 'we' which refer to the speaker first-rate /fɜːst 'reɪt/ adj excellent fiscal /'fɪskəl/ adj referring to tax or to government revenues fiscal year /'fɪskəl 'jɪə/ noun a 12-month period used for tax purposes. In Britain it is from 6th April of one year to 5th April of the next year.

① fish /fɪʃ/ noun an animal with fins and no legs, which lives in water and which you can usually eat ○ I sat by the river all day and only caught two little fish. □ there are plenty more fish in the sea there are lots of other people you could be friends with (informal) □ I've got other fish to fry I have other more important business to deal with ■ verb 1. to try to catch a fish ○ We often go fishing in the lake. ○ They fished all day but didn't catch anything. 2. to try to find something ○ He fished around in his suitcase and after some delay produced his passport. □ to fish out to take out ○ He fished out a dirty handkerchief from his pocket.

③ fish and chips /,fɪʃ ən 'tʃɪps/ plural noun a traditional British food, obtained from special shops, where portions of fish fried in batter are sold with chips

③ fish-and-chip shop /,fɪʃ ən 'tʃɪp ʃɒp/ noun a shop selling cooked fish and chips, and usually other food, such as pies (NOTE: can also be called a chip shop or, informally, a chippy)

fishcake /'fɪʃkeɪk/ noun a round cake of fish and potato mixed together, then cooked fisherman /'fɪʃəmən/ noun a man who catches fish, either as his job or for sport (NOTE: The plural is fishermen.)

fishery /'fɪʃəri/ noun a part of the sea where fish are usually found (NOTE: The plural is fisheries.)

③ fish finger /fɪʃ 'fɪŋgə/ noun a frozen finger-shaped piece of fish covered in breadcrumbs (NOTE: The US term is fish stick.)

fish-hook /fɪʃ huk/ noun a metal hook at the end of a line which catches in the mouth of the fish

③ fishing /'fɪʃɪŋ/ noun the sport or business where you try to catch fish. Synonym angling fishing line /'fɪʃɪŋ laɪn/ noun a long string used with a hook to catch fish fishing net /'fɪʃɪŋ net/ noun a large piece of material with holes, used for catching fish fishing rod /'fɪʃɪŋ rɒd/ noun a long stick with a line attached, used for fishing (NOTE: The US term is fishing pole.)

fishmonger /'fɪʃmʌŋgə/ noun a person who sells fish in a shop fishy /'fɪʃi/ adj 1. like a fish ○ These eggs have a fishy taste. 2. strange or unusual ○ There's something fishy about the whole business. ○ What was she doing there at 2 o'clock in the morning? – It's very fishy if you ask me. (NOTE: fishier – fishiest) fission /'fɪs(ə)n/ noun splitting into parts □ nuclear fission splitting a hydrogen atom to create energy. Compare fusion fissure /'fɪʃə/ noun a crack or split, especially in a rock or in the ground fist /fɪst/ noun a tightly closed hand. ♦ clench

① fit /fɪt/ noun a sudden sharp attack of illness, or of an emotion such as anger ○ She had a coughing fit or a fit of coughing. ○ In a fit of anger he threw the plate across the kitchen. ○ She's having one of her periodic fits of efficiency. □ by fits and starts at odd moments, with continual stoppages ○ Something has gone wrong with the printer – it only prints out by fits and starts. ■ adj 1. healthy ○ He isn't fit enough to go back to work. ○ You'll have to get fit if you're going to run the marathon. 2. □ fit to do something in good enough condition to do something ○ Is he fit to drive? ○ That car isn't fit to be driven – its brakes don't work and the tyres are worn. 3. suitable ○ Is she a fit person to look after small children? (NOTE: fitter – fittest) ■ verb 1. to be the right size or shape ○ He's grown so tall that his jackets don't fit him any more. ○ These shoes don't fit me – they're a size too small. 2. to put in place ○ I want to fit a new fridge in the kitchen. ○ Can you fit a new shelf on this wall? (NOTE: fitting – fitted) fitful /'fɪtfl/ adj happening several times, but only for short periods of time

fit in /'fɪt 'ɪn/, fit into /'fɪt 'ɪntu/ verb 1. to find room or time for someone or something ○ We can't fit a holiday in this year as we have too much work. ○ How can you fit six people into that little car? ○ Fitting the furniture into the new house was quite a problem. 2. to be able to go into a space ○ How will the bed fit into that room? 3. to be comfortable as part of a group ○ He joined the firm two years ago but has never really fitted in.

③ fitness /'fɪtnəs/ noun 1. being physically fit ○ She does fitness exercises every morning. ○ Physical fitness is important in the marines. 2. being suitable ○ Doubts were expressed about her fitness for the job.

fitness centre /'fɪtnəs ,səntə/ noun a gym; a place where you can do exercises to increase your physical fitness

③ fitted /'fɪtid/ adj made to fit into a certain space □ fitted carpet a carpet cut to the exact size of the room and fixed to the floor fitted kitchen /'fɪtid 'kɪtʃɪn/ noun a set of kitchen cupboards which are attached to the walls fitter /'fɪtə/ noun 1. someone whose job is to repair machines and their parts ○ He has trained as an electrical fitter. 2. a person who makes sure clothes or carpets fit ○ The carpet fitters came to put down the carpet on the stairs.

fitting /'fɪtɪŋ/ adj suitable; right ○ It's fitting that grandmother should sit at the head of the table – it's her birthday party, after all. Synonym suitable. Antonym inappropriate

■ noun 1. the action of making something fit; the action of trying on a new piece of clothing ○ She's having the first fitting of her wedding dress this afternoon. 2. the size and shape of something such as a shoe ○ Do you take a wide or narrow fitting? 3. a thing which is fixed in a building but which could be removed ○ an electric light fitting ○ The shop is being sold with all its fixtures and fittings.

fitting room /'fɪtiŋ ru:m/ noun a small room in a shop where you can try on clothes before you buy them

① five /'faɪv/ noun the number 5 ■ ○ She drank five cups of tea. ○ He's five (years old) next week. ○ The meeting has been arranged for five (o'clock).

five o'clock shadow /,fāiv ə klok 'fædəʊl/ noun the dark appearance of a man's chin, because the small hairs which grow there have not been cut fiver /'faɪvə/ noun a five pound note (informal) five-star /,fāiv 'stɑ:/ adj of the highest quality

① fix /fɪks/ verb 1. to fasten or to attach one thing to another ○ Fix one end of the cord to the tree and the other to the fence. 2. to arrange something ○ We'll try to fix a time for the meeting. 3. to repair something ○ The telephone people are coming to fix the telephone. ○ Can you fix the dishwasher? ○ Does anyone know how to fix the photocopier? 4. US to prepare a drink or some food for someone ○ Let me fix you something to drink. ○ She fixed them some tuna sandwiches. ■ noun a difficult position (informal) ○ He's in a bit of a fix – he's got no cash and can't pay for the taxi. ○ That's a nice fix you've got us into! (NOTE: The plural is fixes.) fixated /fɪk'seɪtɪd/ adj always thinking about one thing fixation /fɪk'seɪʃ(ə)n/ noun a state of only thinking about one thing

③ fixed /fɪkst/ adj 1. attached firmly ○ The sign is fixed to the post with six-inch nails. 2. (of a price or an amount) arranged or agreed on and not possible to change ○ We have a fixed scale of charges.

fixedly /'fɪksɪdli/ adv with eyes fixed on someone or something fixture /'fɪkstʃə/ noun a sports match ○ Their next fixture is against Liverpool on Saturday. ○ Season ticket holders are sent a list of fixtures at the beginning of the season.

fizz /fɪz/ noun 1. a sound like that made by bubbles ○ the fizz of the rocket as it went up into the air 2. champagne ○ Let's have a drink, there's a bottle of fizz in the fridge. ■ verb to bubble up ○ The cider fizzed in the glasses. Synonym effervesce fizzle /'fɪz(ə)l/ verb 1. to make a hissing sound 2. to gradually become less strong or successful after a good start fizzle out /,fɪz(ə)l 'aut/ verb to come to nothing fizzy /'fizi/ adj full of little gas bubbles. Synonym effervescent (NOTE: fizzier – fizziest. Drinks which are not fizzy are still.)

If they used to be fizzy but are not any longer, they are flat.)

fjord /'fi:ɔ:d/ noun a long arm of the sea among mountains in Norway flab /flæb/ noun excess flesh on your body (informal) flabbergasted /'flæbəgə:stid/ adj extremely surprised (informal). Synonym amazed flabby /'flæbi/ adj soft and fat (informal) (NOTE: flabbier – flabbiest) flag /flæg/ noun 1. a piece of brightly material with the symbol of a country or an organisation such as a club on it ○ The French flag has blue, red and white stripes. ○ The ship was flying the British flag. ○ The flags were blowing in the wind. 2. a small paper badge sold to raise money for a charity ○ Pin the flag to your coat to show that you have given something. 3. a large flat stone, e.g. used in making a path at the side of a road ○ The terrace is being laid with stone flags. 4. the iris, a plant which grows in wet ground and has long flat leaves and purple flowers 5. a mark put into a computer text ■ verb 1. to grow tired ○ We've been travelling all day – no wonder the children are starting to flag. 2. □ to flag down to wave to make a taxi stop ○ He stepped out into the street and flagged down a passing taxi. 3. to put a marker in a computer file ○ Don't forget to flag the addresses so that we can find them again easily. (NOTE: flagging – flagged) flag day /'flæg dei/ noun a day on which small paper flags are sold to raise money for a particular charity flagpole /'flægpəul/ noun a tall pole on which large flags are flown flagrant /'fleigrənt/ adj clear, obvious and shocking. Synonym blatant. Antonym covert flagrantly /'fleigrəntli/ adv in a flagrant way flagship /'flægsip/ noun 1. the ship on which the most important officer of a navy sails, and which therefore flies his special flag 2. the most important part of a group of businesses ○ the company's flagship store in Regent Street flagstone /'flægstən/ noun a large flat stone used for making paths or floors. Synonym paving stone flail /fleɪl/ noun a hand tool for removing the hard outside part of plants such as wheat ■ verb to wave your arms about ○ He lay on his back flailing with his arms at his opponent.

flair /fleə/ noun □ a flair for something a natural ability to do something ○ She has a distinct flair for dress design. ○ He has a flair for languages.

flak /flæk/ noun 1. the firing of guns against aircraft ○ We ran into a lot of flak as we approached the enemy stronghold. 2. a sharp criticism ○ He's taken a lot of flak from the reviewers. ○ The programme came in for a lot of flak from the TV critics. (NOTE: no plural) flake /fleɪk/ noun 1. a very small, thin piece ○ The paint came off in little flakes. 2. a small piece of snow which falls from the sky ○ Snow fell in large soft flakes all night. ■ verb □ to flake off or away to fall off in little pieces ○ The plaster on the wall of the church had flaked away, revealing the old carvings. ○ The paint is beginning to flake off and needs redoing.

flaky /'fleɪki/ adj made up of thin pieces flaky pastry /'fleɪki 'peɪstri/ noun a mixture of flour, butter and water which breaks into flakes when cooked flamboyant /'flæm'bɔɪənt/ adj 1. brightly coloured ○ She wore a flamboyant red cape. 2. very impressive ○ In a flamboyant gesture, he ordered all the trees in the park to be covered with little lights.

flame /'flæm/ noun a brightly burning part of a fire or candle ○ Flames could be seen coming out of the upstairs windows. □ in flames burning ○ The building was already in flames when the fire engine arrived.

flamenco /'fla:mēnko/ noun a fast Spanish dance, to guitar music flameproof /'flæmpru:f/, flame-resistant /'flæmpru:ri,zɪstənt/ adj treated with a special substance so that it will not catch fire or melt flaming /'fleɪmɪŋ/ adj 1. in flames ○ They ran away from the flaming wreckage. 2. □ in a flaming temper extremely angry 3. used to make what you say stronger (informal) ○ What did you do with the flaming knife?

flamingo /'flæmɪŋgəu/ noun a tropical water bird with long legs and neck, often with pink feathers (NOTE: The plural is flamingos) flammable /'flæməb(ə)l/ adj easily set on fire. Antonym fireproof (NOTE: means the same as inflammable) flan /flæn/ noun an open pastry case with a filling of food such as eggs and fruit flange /'flændʒ/ noun an edge which sticks out on a pipe or wheel flank /'flæŋk/ noun a side, especially of an animal or of an army ○ He patted the horse's flank. ○ The right flank of the army moved forward. ■ verb to be at the side of someone or something ○ The accused was flanked by two prison warders.

flannel /'flæn(ə)l/ noun 1. a warm material made of wool ○ trousers made of grey flannel or grey flannel trousers 2. a small square of soft material for washing the face or body

○ He put his flannel under the hot tap and wiped his face.

flannels /'flæn(ə)lz/ plural noun flannel trousers flap /flæp/ noun 1. a flat part which is attached to an object and has a special type of fastening allowing it to move up and down ○ The pilot tested the wing flaps before taking off. 2. a state of worried excitement (informal) ○ They got into a flap about the new neighbours' dog. 3. a movement of a bird's wing ○ With a flap of its wings, the eagle flew off. ■ verb to move up and down like a bird's wing ○ Flags were flapping in the breeze. ○ The swans stood by the edge of the water, flapping their wings. (NOTE: flapping – flapped) flapjack /'flæpdʒæk/ noun 1. a flat cake made of oats, butter and honey or syrup 2. US a pancake

③ flare /'fleə/ noun an object which gives a sudden burst of light, especially as a signal ○ The lifeboat sent up flares. ○ We knew the ship was in distress when we saw the flares.

■ verb 1. to burn brightly ○ The flames from the burning oil refinery flared in the distance. 2. (of a skirt or trousers) to become gradually wider at the bottom ○ She wore a long straight skirt which flared from the knees down. (NOTE: Do not confuse with flair.)

flared /'fleəd/ adj with a shape that becomes wider at one end flares /'fleəz/ plural noun trousers which are wider at the bottom flare up /'fleəp/ verb 1. to suddenly start burning ○ The bonfire flared up when he poured petrol on it. ○ The flames died down and then flared up again. 2. to get angry suddenly ○ She flared up when he suggested it was her fault.

flare-up /'fleəp ʌp/ noun a sudden return or a sudden beginning (informal). Synonym outbreak

③ flash /flæʃ/ noun 1. a short sudden burst of light ○ Flashes of lightning lit up the sky.

□ in a flash, quick as a flash very quickly ○ In a flash, she said 'yes'. 2. an object used for making a bright light, allowing you to take photographs in the dark ○ People sometimes have red eyes in photos taken with a flash. 3. a bright light from a camera ○ The scene at the entrance to the film première was lit up with flashes from photographers' cameras. 4. □

news flash a short piece of important news, broadcast at an unexpected time ○ There was a news flash about a bomb in central London. ○ We interrupt the programme for a news flash. (NOTE: The plural is flashes) ■ verb 1. to light up quickly and suddenly ○ Lightning flashed all around. 2.

□ to flash by or past to move or to pass by quickly ○ The champion flashed past to win in record time.

flashback /'flæʃbæk/ noun a scene in a film, showing what happened at an earlier date flashcard /'flæʃkɑ:d/ noun a card that has words or numbers printed on it, used to help someone to learn something flash flood /'flæf 'flʌd/ noun a sudden flood after heavy rain

③ flashlight /'flæflaɪt/ noun a torch; a small electric light that you can carry flashpoint /'flæʃpɔɪnt/ noun 1. the stage in something such as a process or situation at which violence or some other serious problem is likely to develop 2. the temperature at which a vapour will burn in the air flashy /'flæʃi/ adj showy and bright but of poor quality. Antonym understated (NOTE: flashier – flashiest) flask /fla:sk/ noun a small glass bottle for liquids

② flat /flæt/ adj 1. level, not sloping or curved ○ a house with a flat roof □ as flat as a pancake very flat (informal) ○ The country round Ely is as flat as a pancake. 2. (of drink) no longer fizzy ○ My lemonade's gone flat.

3. with no electric charge left ○ The car wouldn't start because the battery was flat. 4. (in music) playing at a lower pitch than it should be ○ That violin sounds flat. (NOTE: flatter – flattest) ■ adv 1. level; not sloping or curved ○ Lay your clothes out flat on the bed. ○ He tripped over and fell flat on his face. 2. completely; in a direct way ○ He turned down the offer flat. □ flat broke with no money at all ○ I can't pay the rent – I'm flat broke. 3. exactly ○ He ran the mile in four minutes flat. ■ noun 1. a set of rooms on one floor, usually in a building with several similar sets of rooms ○ They live in the block of flats next to the underground station. ○ Their flat is on the ground floor. (NOTE: The US term is apartment.) 2. US a tyre which has lost its air ○ I asked the garage to fix the flat. (NOTE: The British term is flat tyre or puncture.) 3. (in music) a pitch which is one semitone lower ○ They played a Sonata in E flat. ○ He played D sharp instead of D flat.

flatbed scanner /,flætbed 'skænə/ noun a large scanner, where images are placed flat on a surface in order to be scanned flatly /'flætlɪ/ adv in a firm way flat-mate /'flæt meɪt/ noun a person who shares a flat with you ③ flat out /flæt 'aʊt/ adv 1. at full speed ○ They drove flat out to get to the airport in time. 2. very hard ○ He worked flat out to finish his work on time.

flat-pack /'flæt pæk/ noun furniture which is sold as a set of pieces packed flat for the customer to put it together flat racing /'flæt, reɪsɪŋ/ noun horse-racing over flat ground, without any fences to jump flat rate /'flæt 'reɪt/ noun a fixed charge which never changes flatten /'flæt(ə)n/ verb to make flat flatter /'flætə/ verb 1. to praise someone although you do not really mean what you say ○ Just flatter the boss a bit, tell him how good his golf is, and he'll give you a rise. 2.

□ to flatter yourself to persuade yourself that something is true, when it is not ○ He's flattering himself if he thinks everyone is going to do what he wants.

flattered /'flætəd/ adj feeling honoured flattering /'flæt(ə)rɪŋ/ adj which makes you look good or praises you flattery /'flætərɪ/ noun praising someone too much flaunt /'flɔ:nt/ verb to show something in a deliberate way because you want to attract people's attention flautist /'flɔ:tɪst/ noun a person who plays the flute (NOTE: Another US spelling is flutist) flavour /'flεivə/ noun a particular taste ○ The tomato soup had an unusual flavour. ○ What flavour of ice cream do you want? □ the flavour of the month the most popular thing at the moment (informal) ○ All-girl groups are the flavour of the month. □ verb to add things such as salt or spices in cooking something, to give it a special taste ○ soup flavoured with herbs ○ Use rosemary to flavour lamb. (NOTE: [all senses] The US spelling is flavor.)

flavoured /'flεivəd/ adj which tastes of something (NOTE: The US spelling is flavored.)

flavouring /'flεivərɪŋ/ noun a substance added to food to give a particular taste (NOTE: The US spelling is flavoring.)

flaw /fləʊ/ noun 1. a fault in something which makes it appear less attractive or causes a problem ○ The expert examined the Chinese vase, looking for flaws. ○ There must be a flaw in the computer program. 2. a mistake in an argument ○ There's a flaw in your reasoning. ○ There was a fundamental flaw in their calculations. □ verb to spoil ○ Her performance was flawed by her inability to hold the high notes.

flawed /fləʊ:d/ adj with mistakes. Synonym faulty flawless /'fləʊ:ləs/ adj perfect. Antonym flawed flax /flæks/ noun a variety of linseed plant, of which the fibres are used for making into linen flea /fli:/ noun a very small insect that jumps and sucks blood (NOTE: Do not confuse with flee.)

flea market /'fli: ,mɑ:kɪt/ noun an open-air market for objects which have been owned by other people fleck /flek/ noun a small spot ○ She tried to brush the flecks of powder off her dress. ○ He had flecks of plaster in his hair. Synonym speck □ verb to mark something with small spots ○ His hair is flecked with grey. ○ Dead grass flecked with snow.

flecked /flekt/ adj marked with a pattern of small stripes or spots fledgling /'fledʒlɪŋ/ noun a baby bird which is ready to fly from the nest ○ The fledglings were standing at the edge of the nest, flapping their wings.

flee /fli:/ verb □ to flee (from something) to run away from something ○ As the fighting spread, the village people fled into the jungle. ○ She tried to flee but her foot was caught in the rope. (NOTE: fleeing – fled /fled/) fleece /fli:s/ noun a coat of wool covering a sheep ○ After shearing, the fleeces are taken away to market. □ verb to cheat someone and take their money (informal) ○ The bars round the harbour are waiting to fleece the tourists. ○ He was fleeced by two girls he met in a bar. Synonym swindle fleecy /'fli:si/ adj 1. made of fleece ○ My overcoat has a fleecy lining. 2. looking like fleece ○ The blue sky was dotted with fleecy clouds.

fleet /fli:t/ noun 1. a group of ships belonging together ○ When the fleet is in port, the pubs are full of sailors. 2. a collection of vehicles ○ The company replaces its car fleet or fleet of cars every two years. ○ the airline's fleet of Boeing 747s fleeting /'fli:tɪŋ/ adj short and very fast. Synonym brief

Fleet Street /'flɪt strɪt/ noun a street in London where many British newspapers formerly had their offices

③ flesh /fleʃ/ noun 1. a soft part of the body covering the bones □ in the flesh in person, not on TV or in photographs ○ It was strange to see the TV newsreader in the flesh. □ his own flesh and blood his relations; his family ○ Even his own flesh and blood refused to meet him. 2. a soft part of fruit ○ a melon with pink flesh ○ Some grapefruit have pink flesh. (NOTE: no plural) flesh wound /'fleʃ wu:nd/ noun a wound which is not very deep fleshy /'fleʃi/ adj fat or soft and thick

③ flew /flu:/ □ fly (NOTE: Do not confuse with flu, flue.)

flex /'fleks/ noun a plastic covered wire that bends easily, used for carrying electricity ○ He tripped over a flex. ○ We bought a roll of flex to rewire the office. ■ verb to bend □ to flex your muscles 1. to practise bending and relaxing the muscles as exercise ○ The union is flexing its muscles for a fight with the government. 2. to threaten someone

③ flexibility /'fleksɪ'bɪlɪtɪ/ noun the ability to change when your situation changes (NOTE: no plural)

flexible /'fleksɪb(ə)l/ adj 1. easy to bend ○ Soft rubber soles are very flexible. 2. able to change easily ○ My timetable is very flexible – we can meet whenever you want.

flick /flik/ noun a little sharp blow or movement (informal) ○ He shook off the wasp with a flick of his hand. ■ verb to hit or move something gently, with a short quick movement ○ The horse flicked its tail to get rid of the flies.

flicker /'flikə/ noun 1. a movement of something such as a light which seems to shake or to burn for only a short time ○ They saw the flicker of a light in the forest. 2. a small amount ○ There is still a flicker of hope that someone may still be alive under the ruins. ■ verb to shake; to burn unsteadily ○ The candles flickered in the draught. ○ We could see the flickering lights of the old harbour in the distance.

flick knife /'flik naɪf/ noun a knife with a blade which fits inside the handle and which shoots out when a button is pressed (NOTE: The plural is flick knives.)

flick through /'flik θru:/ verb to look quickly at the pages of a newspaper or book flier /'flaɪə/ □ flyer

③ flies /flaɪz/ □ fly

② flight /flaɪt/ noun 1. travel in a plane ○ Go to gate 25 for flight AB198. ○ All flights to Paris have been cancelled. ○ She sat next to me on a flight to Montreal. 2. the process of flying; travel through the air ○ The Wright brothers are important in the history of flight. ○ Young birds stay in the nest until they are ready for flight. 3. □ flight of stairs a set of stairs going in one direction flight attendant /'flaɪt ə,tendənt/ noun a person whose job is to look after passengers on a plane flight deck /'flaɪt dek/ noun 1. a section at the front of an aircraft where the pilots sit 2. a long flat deck on an aircraft carrier on which planes land and take off flight path /'flaɪt pæ:θ/ noun a route along which an aircraft flies flight recorder /'flaɪt rɪ,kɔ:də/ noun a piece of equipment carried in an aircraft which records what happens during a flight, including conversations between pilots and the control tower. Also called black box flight simulator /'flaɪt,sɪmjuleɪtə/ noun a computer program which allows a user to practise flying a plane, with controls which seem real and moving scenes flimsy /'flimzi/ adj 1. (of material) light and thin ○ He wore only a flimsy cotton jacket. 2. not strong ○ Their house was a flimsy construction of bamboo and leaves. 3. (of an excuse) poor ○ She could only offer the flimsiest of excuses. (NOTE: flimsier – flimsiest) flinch /'flɪntʃ/ verb 1. to move back in pain or fear ○ The reporters flinched at the sight of the corpses. 2. □ not to flinch from to do something, even though it is extremely difficult or painful ○ He didn't flinch from his duty.

fling /flɪŋ/ noun 1. a wild dance 2. □ to have a fling to relax, letting off your high spirits ○ The boys were having a last fling before joining the army the following morning. □ to have a fling with someone to have a short sexual relationship with someone (informal) ○ She had a brief fling with one of the managers. ■ verb 1. to throw something carelessly and with a lot of force ○ He flung the empty bottle into the sea. 2. to move yourself or a part of your body quickly and with a lot of force ○ She flung herself into an armchair. Synonym throw (NOTE: flinging – flung) flint /flɪnt/ noun 1. a very hard type of rock which was used to make tools in the past ○ Flints are found in chalky soil. ○ Prehistoric people used flints to make knives. 2. a small piece of metal which lights the flame on a cigarette lighter ○ I need a new flint for my lighter.

flip /flɪp/ noun the act of turning over ○ a flip of a coin ■ verb 1. to hit something such as a control on a machine without using a lot of force ○ She flipped a switch and the lights went off. □ to flip a coin to throw a coin so that it turns over in the air □ to flip over to turn over quickly ○ Before he could do anything the canoe flipped over. 2. to get very angry (informal) ○ He flipped when they told him how much the bill came to. (NOTE: flipping – flipped) flipchart /'flɪptʃa:t/ noun a stand with large sheets of paper fixed together at the top, used for showing pictures or writing when speaking to a group of people flip flops /'flɪp flops/ plural noun flat rubber shoes held on by a strap between the toes flippant /'flɪpənt/ adj not taking seriously things which should be taken seriously. Synonym facetious flippantly /'flɪpəntli/ adv in a flippant way flipper /'flɪpə/ noun 1. a long flat piece of rubber which you can attach to your foot to help you swim faster ○ You need flippers and a snorkel to go scuba diving. 2. the flat arm or leg of a sea animal, used for swimming ○ The seal walked across the rock on its flippers.

flip side /'flɪp saɪd/ noun 1. the disadvantages of a particular idea or situation 2. the side of a record which has the less popular piece of music on it flip through /'flɪp θru:/ verb to look quickly at the pages of a newspaper or book flirt /flɜ:t/ noun a man or woman who often behaves in a way that shows sexual interest towards another person ○ His new secretary is a bit of a flirt. ■ verb to behave in a way that shows sexual interest towards another person ○ He flirted a lot at the office party.

flirtation /flɜ:t'eɪʃ(ə)n/ noun a love affair which is not serious and lasts for only a short time flirtatious /flɜ:t'eɪʃəs/ adj who flirts a lot. Synonym playful flirt with /'flɜ:t wɪð/ verb 1. to behave in a way that shows sexual interest towards another person ○ She flirted with all the boys at the party. 2. to consider a course of action in a way that is not serious ○ We've been flirting with the idea of going to live in the States. 3. to be close to something risky ○ She's flirting with danger in standing so close to the fireworks.

flit /flɪt/ noun □ to do a moonlight flit to escape quietly at night without paying your bills ■ verb to move quickly and quietly ○ A thought flitted through my mind. ○ Bats were flitting around the church tower. (NOTE: flitting – flitted)

③ float /fləʊt/ noun 1. a piece of a substance such as cork, attached to a fishing line, which floats on the surface of the water, allowing the line and hook to hang down below ○ If the float bobs up and down in the water it means you have caught a fish. 2. a decorated truck in a long line of trucks, e.g. as part of a festival ○ The long line of carnival floats went down the high street. ■ verb 1. to lie or put on the top of a liquid ○ Dead fish were floating in the river. ○ He floated a paper boat on the lake. 2. to stay in the air without any effort ○ little white clouds floating in the sky 3. to start selling shares in a new company ○ The company is to be floated on the stock exchange next week. 4. to let a currency find its own exchange rate on the international markets, and not fix it at a certain amount ○ The government decided that the best course would be to let the pound float.

floating /'fləʊtɪŋ/ adj resting on the surface of a liquid or in the air floating voter /'fləʊtɪŋ 'vəʊtə/ noun a person who is not sure which party to vote for in an election flock /flɒk/ noun 1. a group of similar animals together ○ a flock of sparrows ○ A flock of sheep were grazing on the hillside. (NOTE: flock is usually used with sheep, goats, and birds such as hens or geese. For cattle, the word to use is herd.) 2. a large group of people ○ flocks of tourists 3. a group of people belonging to a Christian church ○ the priest and his flock. Synonym congregation ■ verb to move in large numbers ○ Tourists flocked to see the changing of the guard. ○ Holidaymakers have been flocking to the resorts on the south coast.

flog /flɒɡ/ verb 1. to sell (informal) ○ I flogged my car to my brother. ○ They've been trying to flog the boat for months. 2. to beat hard, usually with a whip ○ When he was a little boy he was often flogged at school. □ to flog something to death to repeat a joke or story over and over again (informal) □ it's like flogging a dead horse it will never be successful ○ Trying to get him to change his mind is like flogging a dead horse. (NOTE: flogging – flogged) flogging /'flɒɡɪŋ/ noun the act of beating someone as a punishment

④ flood /flʌd/ noun 1. a large amount of water over land which is usually dry ○ The floods were caused by heavy rain. 2. a large amount of something, e.g. tears or letters ○ The TV station received floods of complaints after the ad was shown. ○ She was in floods of tears when they told her that she had to leave her house. ■ verb 1. to cover with water ○ They are going to build a dam and flood the valley. ○ Fields were flooded after the river burst its banks. ○ He forgot to turn the tap off and flooded the bathroom. 2. to flow outside the normal area ○ The Nile floods each year. 3. to come in large numbers ○ The office was flooded with complaints or complaints came flooding into the office.

Flood /flʌd/ noun a story in the Bible of the time when the earth was covered with water and only Noah and his family and animals were saved in the Ark floodgates /'flʌdɡeɪts/ plural noun □ open the floodgates to make it possible for something to suddenly start happening flooding /'flʌdɪŋ/ noun a situation in which an area is covered with water floodlight /'flʌdlایt/ noun a strong electric light used to light an area in the open air ○ They switched on the floodlights for the evening match. ■ verb to light with floodlights ○ The castle is floodlit at night. (NOTE: floodlighting – floodlit) floodlit /'flʌdlɪt/ adj lit by floodlights. Synonym illuminated

① floor /flɔ:/ noun 1. the part of a room on which you walk ○ He put the books in a pile on the floor. ○ If there are no empty chairs left, you'll have to sit on the floor. □ to take the floor to start speaking in a discussion 2. all the rooms on one level in a building ○ The bathroom is on the ground floor. ○ His office is on the fifth floor. ○ There is a good view of the town from the top floor. ■ verb □ to be floored to not be able to answer something ○ He was floored by one of the questions in the exam paper.

COMMENT: The floors in American buildings are numbered differently from those in Britain: the 'ground floor' in Britain is the 'first floor' in the USA. The 'first floor' in Britain is the 'second floor' in the USA, and so on.

floorboard /'flɔ:bɔ:d/ noun a long flat piece of wood used for making wooden floors flooring /'flɔ:riŋ/ noun material used to make a floor floorshow /'flɔ:səʊ/ noun entertainment by performers in a nightclub floor space /'flɔ: speɪs/ noun an area of floor taken up by something flop /flop/ noun 1. a failure ○ His new play was a complete flop and closed after only ten performances. ○ The film was a big hit in New York but was a flop in London. 2. a noise made when something that is not made of metal falls onto something else ■ verb 1. to fall or sit heavily, with your body relaxed ○ The lions lay flopped out in the shade of the trees. ○ She got back from the sales and flopped down on the sofa. 2. to be unsuccessful ○ The play was a big hit on Broadway but flopped in London. (NOTE: flopping – flopped) floppy /'flɔpi/ adj which hangs down loosely ○ a floppy red hat ○ a white rabbit with long floppy ears. Synonym limp (NOTE: floppier – floppiest) ■ noun a floppy disk (informal) ○ The data is available on 3.5 inch floppies. (NOTE: The plural is floppies.)

③ floppy disk /'flɔpi 'dɪsk/ noun a small disk which can be put into a computer and removed flora /'flɔ:rə/ noun the wild plants that grow in a particular area. Compare fauna (NOTE: The plural is flora.)

floral /'flɔ:rəl/ adj referring to flowers. Synonym flowery florid /'flɔrɪd/ adj 1. reddish in colour ○ His florid complexion suggested he drank a lot. 2. with a complicated pattern or with too many details ○ I don't like the florid style of Baroque architecture. ○ He writes in an unpleasantly florid style.

florist /'flɔrɪst/ noun a person who sells flowers □ a florist's a shop which sells flowers ○ She bought some roses at the florist's (shop).

floss /flɔs/ noun a thin thread of silk flotation /fləʊ'teɪʃ(ə)n/ noun an act of selling shares in a company on the stock exchange for the first time flotilla /flə'tɪlə/ noun a group of small boats. Synonym fleet flotsam /'flɒtsəm/ noun rubbish floating in the water. Synonym debris (NOTE: no plural) flounce /'flaʊns/ noun a border of cloth which has many small folds and is attached to the edge of something such as a piece of clothing or a curtain ■ verb □ to flounce out to go out of a room in a way which shows you are impatient and annoyed ○ 'I'll go all by myself,' she said, and flounced out of the room.

flounder¹ /'flaʊndə/ noun a type of small flat fish flounder² /'flaʊndə ə'baut/ verb 1. to move with difficulty ○ He saw her floundering about in the water and realised she couldn't swim. 2. to not be sure of an answer to a question ○ She started to flounder as soon as they started to ask her more technical questions.

③ flour /flaʊə/ noun wheat grain crushed to powder, used for making food such as bread or cakes flourish /'flaʊrɪʃ/ noun 1. a wide movement of the arm in the air ○ The conductor ended the concert with a flourish. 2. a large curve in handwriting ○ She signed her name with a flourish. (NOTE: The plural is flourishes.) ■ verb 1. to grow well; to do well ○ Palms flourish in hot countries. 2. to wave something in the air ○ She came in with a big smile, flourishing a cheque.

flourishing /'flaʊrɪʃɪŋ/ adj which is doing well flout /flaʊt/ verb to pay no attention to something such as a rule. Synonym disobey. Antonym obey ② flow /fləʊ/ noun the movement of things such as liquid or air, or of people ○ She tried to stop the flow of blood with a tight bandage. ○ There was a steady flow of visitors to the exhibition. (NOTE: Do not confuse with floe.) ■ verb to move along smoothly ○ The river flows into the sea. ○ Traffic on the motorway is flowing smoothly.

flow chart /'fləʊ tʃɑ:t/ noun a drawing which shows all the different operations in a process

② flower /'flaʊə/ noun the colourful part of a plant, which attracts insects and then produces fruit or seeds ○ a plant with bright yellow flowers □ in flower covered with flowers ○ Go to Japan when the cherry trees are in flower ■ verb to produce flowers ○ a plant which flowers in early summer ○ The cherry trees flowered very late this year.

flowerbed /'flauəbed/ noun a piece of ground where flowers grow flowering /'flauərɪŋ/ adj which is grown for flowers rather than fruit flowerpot /'flauəpɒt/ noun a container to grow plants in flowery /'flauəri/ adj 1. decorated with a pattern of flowers ○ a flowery dress ○ She chose some very flowery wallpaper. 2. using literary or emotional language ○ He wrote the most flowery thank-you letter. (NOTE: Do not confuse with floury.)

③ flown /flaʊn/ □ fly

fl. oz. abbr fluid ounces

③ flu /flu:/ noun a common illness like a bad cold, often with a high temperature (NOTE: Do not confuse with flew, flue. Note also that the full word is influenza.)

fluctuate /'flʌktʃueɪt/ verb to rise and fall fluctuation /,flʌktʃu'eɪʃ(ə)n/ noun a movement backwards and forwards or up and down. Synonym variation flue /flu:/ noun a pipe through which something such as a gas can flow out of a building (NOTE: Do not confuse with flew, flu.)

fluency /'flu:ənsi/ noun the fact of being fluent fluent /'flu:ənt/ adj able to speak easily; spoken easily fluff /flaʃ/ noun a soft mass of fibres or hair ○ She pulled the sofa away from the wall and saw all the fluff which had collected under it. Synonym fuzz ■ verb 1. to do something badly (informal) ○ He fluffed his speech, and everyone laughed. 2. □ to fluff up cushions to shake cushions so that they become fat and full of air fluffy /'flaʃfi/ adj like fluff; covered with fluff fluid /'flu:ɪd/ noun a liquid ○ You need to drink plenty of fluids in hot weather. ■ adj which is not fixed or settled ○ The situation is still fluid – nothing has been agreed yet.

fluid ounce /'flu:ɪd 'aʊns/ noun 1. a US unit of liquid measurement equal to 1/16 of a US pint or 29.57 ml 2. a UK unit of liquid measurement equal to 1/20 of an imperial pint or 28.41 ml fluke /flu:k/ noun 1. a chance; lucky event ○ It was a pure fluke that I happened to be there when the phone rang. 2. a type of flat worm which lives in the liver of some animals and cause illness ○ Their sheep were attacked by liver fluke.

flung /flaŋ/ □ fling

flunk /flaŋk/ verb US to fail an examination or to make someone fail an examination (informal) fluorescent /fluə'res(ə)nt/ adj 1. giving off light when electric current is applied ○ We have fluorescent lighting in the office. 2. which seems to glow ○ She's bought a fluorescent pink tracksuit.

fluorescent light /fluə'res(ə)nt 'laɪt/ noun a very bright light consisting of a long glass tube containing fluorescent gas fluoridation /'fluərɪ'deɪʃ(ə)n/ noun adding fluoride to water to prevent tooth decay fluoride /'fluəraɪd/ noun a chemical substance which is sometimes added to water or to toothpaste because it can protect your teeth flurry /'flʌri/ noun 1. hurried excitement ○ In his flurry to leave he forgot to take his keys. 2. a sudden small fall of snow when there is a strong wind blowing ○ There will be snow flurries during the morning. (NOTE: The plural is flurries.)

flush /flaʃ/ noun 1. a red colour on the face

○ a flush of anger 2. a quick flow of water 3. (at cards) a hand in which all the cards are of the same suit ○ She is holding a flush. (NOTE: The plural is flushes.) ■ verb 1. to go red in the face ○ She flushed with pleasure when she heard the results. 2. □ to flush out to drive out of hiding ○ The army brought in helicopters to flush the guerrillas out of their mountain bases. ■ adj 1. □ flush with level with ○ The door must be flush with the wall. 2. having plenty of money to spend (informal) ○ I've just been paid, so I'm feeling very flush at the moment.

flushed /flaʃt/ adj red in the face fluster /'flaʃtə/ verb to make someone feel confused. Synonym disconcert flustered /'flaʃtəd/ adj confused. Synonym harassed. Antonym calm flute /flu:t/ noun 1. a wind instrument held sideways, and played by blowing across a small hole near the end ○ She plays the flute in the local orchestra. 2. a tall narrow wine glass on a stem, used for serving champagne flutter /'flaʃtə/ noun 1. a light movement, especially of wings ○ With a flutter of wings, the robin landed on the bird-table. 2. a small gamble (informal) ○ Sometimes I have a flutter at our local racetrack. 3. a very quick movement of the heart ○ We detected a slight heart flutter. ■ verb 1. to move wings quickly but with not a lot of force ○ The little bird fell out of its nest and fluttered to the ground. 2. to move softly and quickly ○ Dead leaves fluttered from the trees. ○ The flags fluttered in the breeze.

flux /flaŋks/ noun 1. a situation which is not settled ○ The company seems to be in a state of flux. 2. a metal substance used for joining metal objects (NOTE: no plural)

① fly /flaɪ/ verb 1. to move through the air using wings or to travel in a plane ○ When the cat came into the garden, the birds flew away. ○ Some birds fly to Africa for the winter. ○ I'm flying to China next week. ○ He flies across the Atlantic twice a month. 2. to make a plane move through the air ○ The king was flying his own plane. 3. to move people or goods by plane from one place to another ○ They flew the injured skier home early. 4. to travel fast ○ I must fly if I want to get home by 6 o'clock. ○ His daughter is already two – how time flies! □ to fly into a rage or temper to become suddenly very angry 5. to have a flag up ○ The ship was flying the Russian flag. (NOTE: flying – flew /flu:/ – has flown /flu:n/) ■ noun 1. a small insect which lays its eggs on food ○ He tried to kill the fly with a newspaper. ○ Waiter, there's a fly in my soup! 2. the front fastening on a pair of trousers ○ Look out – your fly's undone. (NOTE: also called flies) 3. an object made in the shape of an insect and used when fishing (NOTE: [all noun senses] The plural is flies.)

fly-drive holiday /'flai draɪv ,holdeɪ/ , fly-drive package /'flai draɪv ,pækɪdʒ/ noun a holiday where the traveller flies to an airport and has a rented car waiting for him or her to drive flyer /'flaɪə/ noun 1. a person who flies an aircraft ○ He was one of the first flyers to cross the Atlantic. ▶ frequent flyer 2. a paper advertising something ○ They sent us a flyer about their home delivery service.

fly fishing /'flaɪ ,fɪsɪŋ/ noun the sport of fishing using an object which looks like a fly to attract the fish flyhalf /'flaɪha:f/ noun a player in the sport of rugby who runs fast and passes the ball

③ flying /'flaɪɪŋ/ adj 1. which is flying in the air ○ a plague of flying ants 2. □ with flying colours with great success ○ He passed his test with flying colours. ■ noun the action of going in a plane ○ He has a fear of flying.

flying saucer /,flaɪɪŋ 'sɔ:sa/ noun a flying object which people claim to see and which they think comes from another planet flying start /,flaɪɪŋ 'stɑ:t/ noun a good beginning to something such as a race, game or piece of work flying visit /,flaɪɪŋ 'vɪzɪt/ noun a very short visit flyleaf /'flaɪli:f/ noun an extra page with nothing printed on it at the beginning or end of a book, often used for writing notes fly-on-the-wall /,flaɪ ɒn ðə 'wɔ:l/ adj filmed in a way that shows something as it really is or as it actually happens flyover /'flaɪəvərə/ noun a road which passes over another flypaper /'flaɪpeɪpə/ noun a long narrow piece of sticky paper for catching flies flypast /'flaɪpa:st/ noun a flight of aircraft over a certain spot to celebrate something flyweight /'flaɪweɪt/ noun the lightest weight in boxing, below bantamweight

③ FM abbr frequency modulation ○ Radio 4 is on 93.5 FM.

foal /'fəʊl/ noun a young horse ○ The mare gently nudged her foal. ■ verb to give birth to a foal ○ The mare foaled last night.

foam /fəʊm/ noun a mass of small bubbles

○ This detergent makes a huge amount of foam. ■ verb to make a mass of small bubbles ○ The waitress was carrying mugs of foaming beer. ○ The horse was foaming at the mouth after the race. □ to be foaming (at the mouth) (of a person) to be extremely angry ○ The MD was foaming (at the mouth) when he read the report in the paper.

foam rubber /fəʊm 'rʌbə/ noun rubber in blocks with many little holes in it, e.g. used for the seat of a chair fob /fɒb/ verb □ to fob someone off with something to persuade someone to accept something which they do not really want focal /'fəʊk(ə)l/ adj referring to a focus. Synonym principal. Antonym peripheral focal length /,fəʊk(ə)l 'leŋθ/ noun the distance between the centre of an optical lens and the focus focal point /'fəʊk(ə)l pɔɪnt/ noun a point which everything is focused on. Antonym periphery

② focus /'fəʊkəs/ noun 1. a point where rays of light from an object meet ○ The focus of the beam is a point 20 metres from the spotlight. 2. (of a photograph) a point where the details of the photograph are clear and sharp ○ Adjust the focus so as to get a clear picture. □ in focus clear □ out of focus not clear 3. the centre of attention ○ The director brought the star actress to the front of the stage, so that the focus of the audience's attention would be on her. ■ verb 1. to change so as to be able to see clearly ○ He focused his telescope on a ship on the horizon. 2. □ to focus on something to look closely at something; to concentrate on something ○ The editorial focuses on the economic situation. ○ The paper is focusing on the problems of the TV star's marriage.

focused /'fəʊkəst/ adj concentrating on one thing and giving it all your attention focus group /'fəʊkəs gru:p/ noun a representative group of people who are questioned about their opinions as part of political or market research fodder /'fɒdə/ noun plants such as grass which are grown and given to animals as food foe /fəʊ/ noun an enemy or opponent (formal) Synonym adversary. Antonym friend foetal /'fɔ:t(ə)l/ adj referring to a foetus (NOTE: The US spelling is fetal.)

foetal position /'fi:t(ə)l pə,zɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the position of a person who is lying curled up on his or her side, like a baby inside the mother's body foetus /'fi:təs/ noun a baby human or animal which has not been born but is developing from an embryo inside the womb (NOTE: The plural is foetuses. The US spelling is fetus.)

③ fog /fɒg/ noun a thick mist made up of millions of drops of water fogbound /'fɒgbənd/ adj prevented from travelling because of fog foggy /'fɒgɪ/ adj 1. covered in fog ○ It's often foggiest than this in November. ○ They drove slowly along the foggy streets. ○ It's dangerous to drive fast when it's foggy. 2. □ not to have the foggiest (idea) to know nothing at all (informal) ○ She hadn't the foggiest idea how to get to the airport. (NOTE: foggier – foggiest) foghorn /'fɒghɔ:n/ noun an object which makes a loud noise in order to warn boats in fog foglamp /'fɒglæmp/, foglight /'fɒglɑ:t/ noun a very bright car light used in fog foible /'fɔ:ib(ə)l/ noun a particular way of behaving which someone has and which may seem unusual or annoying to other people foil /fɔɪl/ noun 1. a thin metal sheet 2. a person who is quite different from another and so makes the other's qualities stand out ○ Laurel and Hardy were perfect foils for each other. ■ verb to stop a plan from being put into effect ○ The bank robbery was foiled by the police. Synonym prevent foist /fɔ:ɪst/ verb □ to foist something on someone to force someone to accept something which they do not want

① fold /fəʊld/ noun 1. a bend or line in something such as paper or cloth, when two parts are pressed together 2. a part of a piece of paper which has been folded ○ The picture is printed on the inside fold. 3. a piece of something such as cloth or skin which hangs down loosely ○ She wanted the surgeon to remove the folds of skin under her chin. ■ verb 1. to bend something so that one part is on top of another ○ Fold the piece of paper in half. ○ He folded the newspaper and put it into his briefcase. 2. □ to fold your arms to cross your arms in front of your body ○ He sat on the stage with his arms folded, looking furious. 3. (of a business) to fail and have to close down ○ His business folded last December. ○ The company folded with debts of over £1m.

-fold /fəʊld/ suffix times ○ fourfold folder /'fəʊldə/ noun 1. an envelope made of thin card or plastic and used for holding papers 2. a group of computer files stored together under the same name folding /'fəʊldɪŋ/ adj which can be folded fold up /,fəʊld 'ʌp/ verb to bend something over to make it take up a smaller area than before foliage /'fəʊliɪdʒ/ noun leaves on a tree or plant

② folk /fəʊk/ noun people (NOTE: Folk takes a plural verb. The plural form folks is also used.)

folk dance /'fəʊk da:n:s/ noun a traditional dance folk dancing /'fəʊk ,da:n:sɪŋ/ noun dancing traditional dances folklore /'fəʊklɔ:/ noun traditional stories and beliefs folk music /'fəʊk ,mju:zɪk/ noun the traditional music of a people folks /fəʊks/ noun people □ my folks my family ○ My folks come from Dorset. ○ Wait till I tell my folks about it!

folk song /'fəʊk sɒŋ/ noun a traditional country song folk tale /'fəʊk teɪl/ noun a traditional story passed down from one generation to the next follicle /'fɒlik(ə)l/ noun a small hole in the skin out of which a hair grows. Synonym sac

① follow /'fɒləʊ/ verb 1. to come after or behind ○ The group followed the guide round the town. ○ What follows B in the alphabet? ○ The dog followed the man across the field. ○ I had the impression I was being followed. 2. to do what someone tells you to do ○ She followed the instructions on the tin of paint. ○ He made the cake following a recipe in the newspaper. □ follow suit to do what everyone else does ○ She jumped into the pool and everyone else followed suit. 3. to be certain because of something ○ Just because I lent you money yesterday, it doesn't follow that I will lend you some every time you ask. ○ If the owner of the shop is arrested by the police, it follows that his business is likely to close. 4. to understand ○ I can't follow the instructions. ○ I don't quite follow you – you want me to drive you all the way to Edinburgh? 5. to go along a certain route ○ Follow the path and turn left at the crossroads. □ to follow a career in medicine to train as a doctor 6. □ as follows ... as in the following list ○ When you reach the centre of town, you should do as follows.

follower /'fɒləʊə/ noun a supporter. Synonym supporter

② following /'fɒləʊɪŋ/ adj which comes next ○ They arrived on Friday and the following day she became ill. ○ Look at the fol- *lowing picture. Antonym previous ■ prep after ○ Following his death, his son sold the family house.

follow up /'fɒləʊ ʌp/ verb to find out more about something or to research something further ○ The police followed up their enquiries by interviewing the woman's husband. ○ That's an interesting idea – it might be worth following it up.

follow-up /'fɒləʊ ʌp/ adj which follows something sent earlier folly /'fɒli/ noun 1. silly behaviour ○ It was utter folly to go out in a small boat in a storm like that. 2. a strange building, built to create an effect and with no practical use ○ He built a gothic folly on the hill overlooking his house. (NOTE: The plural is follies.)

③ fond /fɒnd/ adj 1. liking someone or something very much 2. □ in the fond hope hoping very much that something will happen, although you do not think it will fondle /'fɒndlə/ verb to stroke in a loving way. *Synonym massage fondly /'fɒndlɪ/ adv in a way which shows you are fond of someone or something font /fɒnt/ noun 1. a bowl holding holy water for the ceremony of baptism in a church ○ The church has an 11th century font. 2. (in printing) a set of characters all of the same size and appearance

① food /fu:d/ noun things which you eat ○ This hotel is famous for its food. ○ Do you like German food? □ to give someone food for thought to make someone think carefully food chain /'fu:d tʃeɪn/ noun a series of living things which pass energy from one to another as each is eaten by the next. For example, grass is eaten by small animals, which are then eaten by larger animals, and so on food poisoning /'fu:d, ɒsɪz(ə)nɪŋ/ noun an illness caused by eating food which is contaminated with bacteria food processor /'fu:d, ˌprəʊsesə/ noun a machine used in preparing food, e.g. for cutting or mixing it foodstuff /'fu:dstdʌfs/ noun something which can be used as food fool /fu:l/ noun 1. a stupid person ○ You fool! Why didn't you put the brakes on? ○ I was a fool to think that I could make her change her mind. □ to make a fool of yourself to behave in a silly way 2. a type of sweet food made from fruit and cream ○ She made some gooseberry fool. ■ verb 1. □ to fool about or around to play around in a silly way ○ Stop fooling around with that knife – you're going to have an accident. 2. to trick someone ○ They fooled the old lady into letting them into her house. ○ You can't fool me – I know you're not really ill. □ you could have fooled me I find it hard to believe ○ She says she did her best – well, you could have fooled me! ■ adj stupid (informal) foolhardy /'fu:lha:dɪ/ adj brave, but taking unnecessary risks. *Antonym sensible foolish /'fu:lɪʃ/ adj stupid. *Synonym ridiculous. *Antonym wise foolishly /'fu:lɪʃli/ adv stupidly foolishness /'fu:lɪʃnəs/ noun behaviour which is extremely foolish foolproof /'fu:lpru:f/ adj extremely simple, so that anyone could use it safely and successfully ① foot /fʊt/ noun 1. the end part of your leg on which you stand ○ She has very small feet.

○ Watch out, you trod on my foot! □ on foot walking □ to find your feet to become confident (informal) ○ She's been with us three months now and has really found her feet. □ to put your foot in it to say something embarrassing ○ He really put his foot in it when he said that the mayor's wife was fat. □ to put your feet up to rest; to retire from work.

♦ wrong 2. the bottom part; the end ○ There is a door at the foot of the stairs. ○ There are traffic lights at the foot of the hill. ○ Sign the document at the foot of the page. 3. a measurement of how long something is (= 12 inches or approximately 30 cm) ○ The table is four foot or four feet long. ○ She's almost six foot tall. ○ I'm five foot seven (5'7). ♦ inch (NOTE: The plural is feet. As a measurement foot often has no plural form: six foot tall; three foot wide. With numbers foot is also often written with the symbol ': a 6' ladder; he is 5' 6: say 'he's five foot six'.)

■ verb □ to foot the bill to pay the bill ○ I found I had to foot the bill for the Christmas party. ◇ to put your foot down 1. to say firmly that something is not allowed ○ You must put your foot down and stop this habit of everyone arriving late. 2. to make a car go faster ○ The taxi driver put his foot down and got us to the airport in time.

footage /'fʊtɪdʒ/ noun a piece of film showing an event (NOTE: no plural) foot and mouth disease /'fʊt ən 'maʊθ di:zi:z/ noun a disease of cows, pigs, sheep and goats which spreads very easily from one animal to another

① football /'fʊtbɔ:l/ noun 1. a ball used for kicking; the ball used in the various games of football ○ They were kicking a football around in the street. 2. a game played between two teams of eleven players with a round ball which can be kicked or headed, but not carried ○ They went to a football match. ○ The children were playing football in the street. ○ Let's have a game of football. ○ He spends all his time watching football on TV. ○ He's got a new pair of football boots. Also called soccer (NOTE: The US term is soccer to avoid confusion with American football.)

footballer /'fʊtbɔ:lə/ noun a person who plays football football supporter /'fʊtbɔ:l sə'pɔ:tə/ noun a person who encourages a football team footbrake /'fʊtbreɪk/ noun a part of a machine or car which you press with your foot in order to stop footbridge /'fʊtbrɪdʒ/ noun a small bridge for people to walk across, and not for vehicles footer /'fʊtə/ noun words or page numbers printed at the bottom of a page. Compare header foothills /'fʊθɪlz/ plural noun the lower slopes of a group of mountains ○ the foothills of the Alps foothold /'fʊθəʊld/ noun 1. a place where you can put your foot when climbing ○ He hung in the air at the end of a rope, trying to get a foothold. 2. a small position on which you can build ○ They gained a foothold in the Spanish market.

footie /'fʊtɪ/ noun same as football ○ We had a game of footie on the beach.

footing /'fʊtɪŋ/ noun 1. a safe place for your feet ○ She lost her footing on the cliff path, and fell fifty feet into the sea. 2. □ to be on an equal footing with someone to be at the same stage or level as someone ○ All applicants are on an equal footing. □ to put things on a firm footing to make things solid ○ We want to make sure the business is on a firm footing.

footlights /'fʊtlɪts/ plural noun a row of lights along the front of the stage in a theatre footman /'fʊtmən/ noun a male servant

(NOTE: The plural is footmen.)

footnote /'fʊtnəut/ noun an explanation at the bottom of a page, referring to something on the page foot passenger /'fʊt ,pæsɪndʒə/ noun a passenger on a ferry who is not travelling with a car footpath /'fʊtpa:θə/ noun a path for people to walk on, but not to ride on footprint /'fʊtprɪnt/ noun 1. a mark left by the foot on the ground ○ They followed the footprints in the snow to the cave. 2. an area covered by something ○ The computer has a relatively small footprint. ○ A warehouse with a footprint of over 50,000 square feet.

footrest /'fʊtrest/ noun a low bar on which you can rest your feet

Footsie /'fʊtsi/ noun an index of prices on the London Stock Exchange, based on 100 leading shares. Full form Financial Times Stock Exchange 100 index footstep /'fʊtstep/ noun 1. a sound made by a foot touching the ground ○ We heard soft footsteps along the corridor. 2. □ to follow in someone's footsteps to do what someone did before ○ He's following in his father's footsteps and going in for a legal career.

footstool /'fʊtstu:l/ noun a small piece of furniture in the shape of a box on which you can rest your feet. Synonym footrest footwear /'fʊtweə/ noun articles of clothing worn on your feet, such as boots or shoes (NOTE: no plural) footwork /'fʊtwɜ:k/ noun a way of using your feet, especially in sports (NOTE: no plural)

① for /fə, fɔ:/ prep 1. showing the purpose or use of something ○ This plastic bag is for the apples. ○ What's that key for? □ what did she say that for? why did she say that? □ for example, for instance to mention one thing among many ○ Some animals, for example polar bears, are not used to hot weather. 2. showing why something is given ○ What did you get for your birthday? ○ What shall we buy her for Christmas? 3. showing the person who receives something ○ There was no mail for you this morning. ○ I'm making a cup of tea for my mother. 4. showing how long something happens ○ He has gone to France for two days. ○ We've been waiting here for hours. 5. showing distance ○ You can see for miles from the top of the hill. ○ The motorway goes for kilometres without any service stations. 6. showing where someone or something is going ○ Is this the plane for Edinburgh? ○ When is the next bus for Oxford Circus? 7. in exchange for something ○ She gave me £10 for the silver spoon. ○ That old computer is no use – I wouldn't give you anything for it. 8. in support of; in order to get ○ We're striking for higher pay. 9. in the place of someone ○ Can you write this letter for me? 10. with the purpose of ○ to go for a walk ○ He was running for the bus. ○ All these items are for sale.

forage /'fɔ:ridʒ/ noun crops grown for food for animals such as horses and cattle ○ forage crops such as clover and hay ■ verb to search for food or supplies ○ They spent the day foraging for food in the jungle. Synonym look for foray /'fɔ:reɪ/ noun a sudden attack. Synonym raid forbid /fə'bɪd/ verb to tell someone not to do something ○ The staff are forbidden to use the front entrance. Synonym prohibit (NOTE: forbidding – forbade /fə'bæd/ – forbidden /fə'bɪd(ə)n/) forbidden /fə'bɪd(ə)n/ adj which is not allowed ○ Father's new rock garden is forbidden territory to the children.

forbidding /fə'bɪdɪŋ/ adj which looks frightening or dangerous

① force /fɔ:s/ noun 1. strength or power ○ The force of the wind blew some tiles off the roof. ○ The police had to use force to restrain the crowd. 2. an organised group of people ○ He served in the police force for twenty years. 3. □ to have the force of law to be required legally ■ verb to make someone do something ○ He was forced to stop smoking. ○ You can't force me to go if I don't want to. forced /fɔ:st/ adj 1. done because someone made you do it ○ His lawyer said that his confession was forced. 2. artificial; not real ○ He gave a rather forced laugh.

forced landing /fɔ:st 'lændɪŋ/ noun a quick landing of an aircraft because something is wrong forceful /'fɔ:sf(ə)l/ adj strong or powerful forcefully /'fɔ:sf(ə)li/ adv strongly or with a lot of force forceps /fɔ:seps/ plural noun a medical tool consisting of two long flat pieces joined together, used by doctors in medical operations ○ He needed forceps to deliver the baby.

forcible /fɔ:sib(ə)l/ adj done by or with force forcibly /fɔ:siblɪ/ adv using force

ford /fɔ:d/ noun a part of a river where you can walk or drive across through the water because it is not deep ○ We drove slowly and carefully across the ford, as the water flow was quite strong. Synonym shallows ■ verb to cross a river at a ford ○ The army forded the river and advanced on the capital.

fore /fɔ:/ noun 1. □ to come to the fore to become important ○ He first came to the fore during the student riots of 1968. 2. the front part of a ship or plane ■ adj, adv in the front part of a ship or plane □ fore and aft the front and back of a plane or ship ○ The toilets are located fore and aft. ■ prefix in front; before ○ forearm ○ to foresee forearm noun /'fɔ:ra:m/ the part of the arm between the hand and the elbow ○ The dog put his paw on her forearm. ■ verb /fɔ:z'ar:m/ □ to be forearmed to be prepared before a difficult situation happens. ○ forewarned forebears /'fɔ:beəz/ plural noun all the people in your family who have lived before you (formal) ○ His forebears came from Russia in the 18th century.

foreboding /fɔ:'bəudɪŋ/ noun a feeling that something bad will happen. Synonym premonition forecast /fɔ:ka:st/ noun a description of what you think will happen in the future ○ His forecast of sales turned out to be completely accurate. Synonym prediction ■ verb to say what will happen in the future ○ They are forecasting storms for the south coast. ○ They forecast a rise in the number of tourists. Synonym predict (NOTE: forecasting – forecast) forecaster /'fɔ:ka:stə/ noun a person who says what will happen in the future, especially what sort of weather there will be foreclose /fɔ:'kləuz/ verb to take away property because the owner cannot pay back money which he or she has borrowed to buy it (formal) forecourt /'fɔ:kɔ:t/ noun an open area in front of a building forefather /'fɔ:fu:ðə/ noun an ancestor forefinger /'fɔ:fɪŋgə/ noun the index finger; the first finger next to the thumb forefoot /'fɔ:fʊt/ noun the front foot of an animal forefront /'fɔ:frɔnt/ noun the most advanced position □ to be in the forefront of a campaign to be a leader of a campaign ○ They are in the forefront of the campaign to save whales.

forego /fɔ:'gəu/ verb to do without (formal) (NOTE: forewent – has foregone) foregone conclusion /,fɔ:gɒn kən'klu:ʒ(ə)n/ noun something which will definitely happen as a result of something else foreground /'fɔ:graʊnd/ noun a part of a picture which seems nearest the front. Synonym forefront forehand /fɔ:hænd/ adj played with the palm of the hand facing forwards, in sports such as tennis. Antonym backhand forehead /'fɔ:hed/ noun the part of the front of the head between the eyes and the hair

① foreign /'fɔ:rɪn/ adj 1. not from your own country ○ There are lots of foreign medical students at our college. 2. something which you are not used to or cannot understand ○ The concept of punctuation and grammar is completely foreign to her.

foreign body /,fɔ:rɪn 'bɒdɪ/ noun something which should not be there, such as a piece of dust in your eye foreigner /'fɔ:rɪnə/ noun a person who does not come from the same country as you foreign exchange /,fɔ:rɪn ɪks'ts'eɪndʒ/ noun the process or practice of changing the money of one country for money of another foreign language /,fɔ:rɪn 'læŋgwɪdʒ/ noun a language spoken by people in or from another country

Foreign Office /'fɔ:rɪn ,ɒfɪs/ noun the British government department dealing with relations with other countries (NOTE: In other countries this is the Foreign Ministry, and in the USA the State Department.)

Foreign Secretary /'fɔ:ri:n 'sekrit(ə)ri/ noun the British government minister in charge of the Foreign Office (NOTE: In other countries this is the Foreign Minister, and in the USA the Secretary of State.)

foreleg /'fɔ:leg/ noun the front leg of an animal foreman /'fɔ:mən/ noun 1. (in a factory) a skilled worker in charge of several other workers ○ The foreman came to make a complaint to the manager. 2. □ foreman of a jury the person elected by the other members of the jury to tell the court what they have decided ○ The foreman of the jury stood up and declared the prisoner 'guilty'.

foremost /'fɔ:məʊst/ adj, adv first; most important □ first and foremost first of all, the most important thing is ○ First and foremost we need to get the costs under control.

forensic /fə'rensɪk/ adj referring to the scientific solving of crimes forensics /fə'rensɪks/ noun scientific methods used for solving crimes forerunner /'fɔ:rənər/ noun a person or thing coming before another more important or advanced one foresee /fɔ:s'i:/ verb to have a strong feeling that something will happen in the future although you cannot be sure that it will. Synonym anticipate (NOTE: foreseeing – fore-saw /fɔ:s'sɔ:/ – has foreseen) foreseeable /fɔ:s'i:əb(ə)l/ adj which can be foreseen □ for the foreseeable future as far in the future as you can imagine ○ I will certainly stay here for the foreseeable future.

foreshadow /fɔ:ʃædəʊ/ verb to be a warning or sign of something that may happen foresight /'fɔ:sait/ noun the ability to see what will probably happen in the future; the ability to plan for emergencies foreskin /'fɔ:skin/ noun the fold of skin covering the tip of the penis

② forest /'fɔ:rist/ noun a large area covered with trees ○ The country is covered with thick forests. ○ In dry weather there's a danger of forest fires. ○ In winter bears come out of the forest to search for food. Synonym woods (NOTE: In Britain forest is now usually used with names: Sherwood Forest, the New Forest.)

forestill /fɔ:':stɔ:l/ verb to think about what someone may do and try to stop them. Synonym prevent forested /'fɔ:ristid/ adj with many trees growing there forestry /'fɔ:ristri/ noun the work of looking after a forest foretell /fɔ:':tel/ verb to say what will happen in the future (literary). Synonym predict (NOTE: foretelling – foretold /fɔ:':təuld/) forethought /'fɔ:θɔ:t/ noun the practice of planning for the future; thinking ahead. Synonym anticipation for ever /fər 'evə/ adv 1. always ○ I will love you for ever and ever. ○ The good times have gone for ever. 2. something which you shout, e.g. to show support for a team. ○ Scotland for ever!

forever /fɔ:':rəvə/ adv 1. always ○ I will love you forever. ○ He's forever making a noise. 2. a very long time ○ It took us forever to get to the hotel.

forewarn /fɔ:':wɔ:n/ verb to warn about something that is going to happen forewarned /fɔ:':wɔ:nd/ adj warned about something before it happens □ forewarned is forearmed if you know that trouble is going to happen, then you can make preparations to deal with it foreword /'fɔ:wɔ:d/ noun a short section at the beginning of a book, usually written by a person who is not the author, introducing the book and its author to the reader. Synonym preface forfeit /'fɔ:fit/ noun a thing taken away as a punishment ○ You have to pay a forfeit if you answer wrongly. ■ adj which is to be officially taken away ○ The goods were declared forfeit. ■ verb to lose something, especially as a punishment ○ She forfeited her deposit.

③ forgave /fɔ:gɪv/ □ forgive forge /fɔ:dʒ/ verb 1. to copy something illegally ○ He forged the signature on the cheque. ○ The new design of the banknotes makes them difficult to forge. 2. □ to forge ahead to go forward quickly; to progress ○ The wind blew harder and the yacht forged ahead. ○ We are forging ahead with our new project. ■ noun a place where metal objects are made by heating the metal until it is soft and then forming it into a shape, e.g. with a hammer ○ The blacksmith was hammering away in his forge.

forger /fɔ:dʒə/ noun a person who copies something illegally forgery /'fɔ:dʒəri/ noun 1. the action of making an illegal copy ○ He was sent to prison for forgery. (NOTE: no plural) 2. an illegal copy ○ The signature proved to be a forgery. (NOTE: The plural is forgeries)

① forget /fɔ:':get/ verb 1. not to remember ○ He's forgotten the name of the restaurant. ○ I've forgotten how to play chess. ○ She forgot all about her doctor's appointment. ○ Don't forget we're having lunch tomorrow. ○ Great scenes at home – I forgot my wife's birthday! 2. to leave something behind ○ When he left the office he forgot his car keys. 3. □ forget about it! do not worry about it! (NOTE: forgetting – forgot /fɔ:gɪt/ – has forgotten /fə'gɪt(ə)n/) forgetful /fə'getf(ə)l/ adj often unable to remember forgetfulness /fə'getf(ə)lnəs/ noun the characteristic of being forgetful forget-me-not /fə'get mi: nɒt/ noun a small blue flower

② forgive /fə'gɪv/ verb to stop being angry with someone ○ Don't worry about it – I forgive you! ○ Will she ever forgive me for forgetting her birthday? Antonym blame (NOTE: forgiving – forgave /fə'geɪv/ – has forgiven) forgiveness /fə'gɪvnəs/ noun the act of forgiving forgiving /fə'gɪvɪŋ/ adj 1. having a tendency to forgive 2. allowing for some imperfection forgo /fɔ: 'gəʊ/ verb to do without something for good /fə 'gud/ adv for ever forgotten /fə'gɒt(ə)n/ ♦ forget

③ fork /fɔ:k/ noun 1. an object with a handle at one end and several sharp points at the other, used for picking things up, especially when eating ○ Don't try to eat Chinese food with a knife and fork. ○ It's polite to use a fork to eat cake – don't use your fingers. 2. a Y-shaped road junction, or one of the roads leading from it ○ Take the left fork towards the castle and our house is on the right. 3. a place where a branch joins a tree trunk ■ verb 1. to turn off a road ○ Fork left at the next crossroads. 2. to split into two parts ○ The railway line forks at Crewe and one branch goes to the coast. 3. □ to fork out to pay for something, usually unwillingly (informal) ○ She didn't bring any money, so I had to fork out for the whole meal.

forked /fɔ:kt/ adj divided, particularly into two branches fork-lift truck /fɔ:k lift 'trʌk/ noun a type of small tractor with two metal arms in front, used in warehouses to lift and move pallets forlorn /fə'lɔ:n/ adj 1. left alone and feeling sad ○ She stood all forlorn on the platform, watching the train leave. 2. □ forlorn hope a very slight hope ○ We'll try searching again, but I think it's a forlorn hope.

① form /fɔ:m/ noun 1. a shape ○ a decoration in the form of a ring 2. a paper with blank spaces which you have to write in 3. a state or condition ○ Their team wasn't in top form and lost. □ in good form in a good mood; very amusing ○ She's in good form today. □ off form or out of form not performing very well ○ He's off form at the moment – he needs more practice. 4. a class, usually in a secondary school ○ She's in the top form. ■ verb 1. to make ○ The children formed a circle. ○ Form a queue here, please. 2. □

formed of made of ○ The team is formed of ex-students. 3. to organise or start something ○ The factory decided to form a football team. ○ They got together and formed a club. 4. to start to exist ○ Ice formed on the car windows.

② formal /'fɔ:m(ə)l/ adj 1. done according to certain rules ○ The formal opening ceremony was performed by the mayor. 2. using correct or official ways of doing things ○ We made a formal offer for the house yesterday. 3. serious and conventional in style; suitable for special or official occasions. Antonym informal formalise /'fɔ:məlaɪz/, formalize verb to make a situation official

③ formality /fɔ: 'mælɪtɪ/ noun a thing which has to be done to obey the law or because it is the custom (NOTE: The plural is formalities.)

formally /'fɔ:məlɪ/ adv according to rules; done with ceremony

③ format /'fɔ:maɪt/ noun 1. a shape or size that something is made in ○ What format do you want your invitations printed in? 2. the measurements of a page or book ○ Printers can handle all sorts of book formats. 3. the style of a computer disk ○ My computer can't read that disk – it's the wrong format.

■ verb 1. □ to format a document to arrange text on a computer, so that it is ready for final printing ○ Style sheets are used to format documents. 2. to prepare a computer disk so that it is ready to receive data ○ You have to format the disk before you can save data on it. (NOTE: formatting – formatted)

② formation /fɔ: 'meɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. the forming of something ○ The formation of ice occurs at temperatures below zero. 2. a shape ○ a beautiful cloud formation □ in formation in a set pattern ○ The geese were flying in a V formation.

formative /'fɔ:matɪv/ adj important for the or development of something ① former /fɔ:maə/ adj referring to a person's or thing's identity or role at an earlier time ○ a former army officer ○ The former champion came last in the race. Synonym previous ■ noun □ the former the first person or thing mentioned (of two) ○ Mr Smith and Mr Jones are both directors, but the former has been with the company longer.

formerly /'fɔ:məlɪ/ adv at an earlier time. Synonym previously formidable /fɔ:midəb(ə)l/ adj 1. frighteningly difficult ○ Climbing Everest is a formidable feat. 2. very strong ○ The town is protected by formidable walls and gates. 3. (of a person) very impressive ○ The college principal is a formidable woman.

③ formula /fɔ:mju:lə/ noun 1. a statement of a scientific fact, often shown by means of symbols ○ The chemical formula of carbon dioxide is CO₂. ○ The drug is made to a secret formula. 2. □ formula for disaster something which will certainly lead to problems ○ The management's approach is a formula for disaster. 3. a series of set words to express something ○ the formula to start a letter to the Queen (NOTE: [all senses] The plural is formulae /'fɔ:rmju:lɪ/.)

formulaic /fɔ:rmju'leɪɪk/ adj 1. expressed as, or having the nature of, a formula 2. created according to existing models or ideas, and therefore not very original or exciting

③ formulate /fɔ:rmju'leɪɪt/ verb 1. to express an idea clearly ○ He had some difficulty in formulating his ideas. 2. to develop something such as a plan or way of doing something carefully formulation /fɔ:rmju'leɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the process of devising something, or expressing something clearly forsake /fə'seɪk/ verb to leave someone or something behind. ▶ god-forsaken. Synonym abandon. Antonym support (NOTE: forsook /fɔ:s'uk/ – has forsaken) fort /fɔ:t/ noun 1. a strong army building which can be defended against enemy attacks ○ The soldiers rode out of the fort. ○ He was posted to a fort in the desert. 2. □ to hold the fort to be in charge while someone is away ○ They went away on holiday and left me holding the fort.

forte /fɔ:tə/ noun a particular ability, or the subject you are best in ○ History is not my forte. Synonym strong point. Antonym ailing ■ adv (of music) played loudly forthcoming /fɔ:θ'kʌmɪŋ/ adj 1. soon to come ○ His forthcoming novel will be about London. ○ No government grant is forthcoming. 2. talkative; full of information ○ She wasn't very forthcoming about her plans.

② forth /fɔ:θ/ adv 1. forwards □ back and forth backwards and forwards ○ I'm fed up with commuting back and forth across town every day. 2. □ to go forth or to set forth to go out and onwards ○ The expedition set forth in May. □ to hold forth about something to talk without stopping about something ○ My father was holding forth about the government.

forthright /fɔ:θraɪt/ adj direct and blunt. Antonym timid forthwith /fɔ:θ'wɪθ/ adv immediately. Antonym later fortification /fɔ:tɪfɪ'keɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the process of making something strong ○ He drew up plans for the fortification of the presidential palace.

fortifications /fɔ:tɪfɪ'keɪʃ(ə)nɪz/ plural noun walls or towers built to defend a city ○ Archaeologists have uncovered remains of the Roman fortifications.

fortify /'fɔ:tɪfaɪ/ verb 1. to make a place strong, so that it can be defended against attack 2. □ to fortify yourself with something to eat or drink something to make you able to continue fortitude /'fɔ:tɪtju:d/ noun bravery and determination (formal)

③ fortnight /'fɔ:tnaɪt/ noun two weeks (NOTE: not used in American English) fortnightly /'fɔ:tnaɪtlɪ/ adj, adv once every two weeks ○ a fortnightly visit to the doctor fortress /'fɔ:tres/ noun a strong castle (NOTE: The plural is fortresses.)

fortuitous /fɔ:t'ju:itʊs/ adj happening by chance and having a good result

③ fortunate /'fɔ:tʃnət/ adj lucky

② fortunately /'fɔ:tʃnətlɪ/ adv by good luck ○ Fortunately, he had remembered to take an umbrella. ○ He was late getting to the airport, but fortunately the flight had been delayed.

③ fortune /'fɔ:tʃn/ noun 1. a large amount of money ○ He won a fortune on the lottery. ○ She made a fortune on the stock market. ○ She left her fortune to her three children. □ to cost a fortune to cost a lot of money ○ That shop has shoes that cost a fortune. ▶ small 2. what will happen in the future □ to tell someone's fortune to say what will happen to someone in the future ○ She tells fortunes from cards. 3. luck; chance ○ She had the good fortune to be picked for the England team.

fortune-teller /'fɔ:tʃnət'telə/ noun a person who says what will happen in the future, e.g. by looking at cards or lines on your hand. Synonym clairvoyant fortune-telling /'fɔ:tʃnət'telɪŋ/ noun the activity of telling people what will happen in the future, e.g. by looking at cards, tea leaves or lines on the hand

① forty /'fɔ:ti/ noun the number 40 ○ She's forty (years old). ○ He has more than forty pairs of shoes. □ he's in his forties he is between 40 and 49 years old □ the (nineteen) forties (1940s) the period from 1940 to 1949 forty winks /,fɔ:ti 'wɪŋks/ noun a very short sleep (informal). Synonym nap

③ forum /fɔ:rum/ noun an occasion when matters of general interest can be discussed

① forward /'fɔ:wəd/ adj moving in the direction that someone or something is facing ○ She made a forward pass across the field to the winger. ■ adv 1. in the direction that someone or something is facing ○ She bent forward to hear what he had to say. ○ He took two steps forward. ○ The policeman made a sign with his hand and the cars began to go forward. 2. advanced ○ Unfortunately, we're no further forward with our project. 3.

towards the future □ to look forward to something to think happily about something which is going to happen ○ I'm looking forward to my holidays. ○ He isn't looking forward to his exams. ○ I'm looking forward to seeing her again. 4. □ from that day forward from that time on ■ verb to send a letter on to another address ○ The bank forwarded the cheque to his house in the country. ■ noun a player in a team whose job is to attack the other side ○ The England defence came under attack from the Brazilian forwards.

forwarding address /'fɔ:wədɪŋ ə,dres/ noun an address to which mail can be sent forward-looking /'fɔ:wəd ,ləkɪŋ/ adj planning for or thinking about the future forwards /'fɔ:wədz/ adv in a forward direction (NOTE: The US term is forward.)

forward slash /'fɔ:wəd sləʃ/ noun an ordinary slash used in printing or writing text fossil /'fɒsɪl/ noun the remains of a prehistoric animal or plant left in a rock fossil fuel /'fɒsɪl əfʊl/ ,fju:əl/ noun a fuel made of fossilised plants or animals fossilised /'fɒsəlɪzɪd/, fossilized adj referring to something which has become a fossil foster /'fɒstə/ verb 1. to bring up a child who is not your own, without adopting it ○ They have fostered several children. 2. to encourage an idea, etc. ○ Tourism fosters interest in other countries. ○ We are trying to foster the children's interest in the history of the village.

foster-child /'fɒstə tʃaɪld/ noun a child brought up by parents who are not his or her own (NOTE: The plural is foster-children.)

foster home /'fɒstə həʊm/ noun a family where a foster-child is brought up foster parent /'fɒstə ,peərənt/ noun a parent who fosters a child

③ fought /fɔ:t/ □ fight foul /'fəʊl/ adj 1. smelling or tasting unpleasant, or making an unpleasant impression ○ What foul weather we're having! ○ The boss has been in a foul temper all day. ○ A foul-smelling drain ran down the centre of the street. 2. □ to fall foul of to get into trouble with a person or group of people ○ The boys fell foul of the police. ○ She fell foul of the income tax inspectors. ■ noun an action which is against the rules of a game ○ The referee gave a free kick for a foul on the goalkeeper. ○ Look at the action replay to see if it really was a foul. (NOTE: Do not confuse with fowl.) ■ verb 1. to do something to another player which is against the rules of a game ○ He was fouled inside the penalty box so the ref gave a penalty. 2. □ to foul something up to do something badly, make a mess of something, or create problems (informal) ○ Don't ask John to do it – he's sure to foul it up. 3. to make something dirty, particularly by leaving excrement there ○ Make sure that your dog does not foul the pavements.

foul play /'fəʊl 'pleɪ/ noun unfair or illegal behaviour foul-up /'fəʊl ʌp/ noun a bad situation which has happened because of a mistake someone has made

① found /faʊnd/ verb 1. to establish; to begin something ○ The business was founded in 1900. 2. □ to be founded on something to be based on something ○ The accusations against her are not founded on any definite facts. 3. □ find

② foundation /faʊn'deɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. establishing; setting up ○ Ever since its foundation in 1892, the company has been a great success. 2. a charitable organisation which provides money for certain projects ○ a foundation for educational research 3. same as foundation cream foundation course /faʊn'deɪʃ(ə)n kɔ:s/ noun a basic course at a university, which allows you to go on to a more advanced course foundation cream /faʊn'deɪʃ(ə)n kri:m/ noun a skin-coloured cream which is put on the face under powder foundations /faʊn'deɪʃ(ə)nɪz/ plural noun a stone or concrete base below the ground on which a building is built founder /'faʊndə/ noun a person who establishes or sets up something ○ He was one of the founders of the National Trust. Synonym creator ■ verb 1. to collapse, to fail ○ The project foundered for lack of money. 2. to sink ○ The ship foundered in heavy seas.

founder member /,faʊndə 'membə/ noun one of the first to establish a club, etc.

founding /'faʊndɪŋ/ noun the action of setting up founding father /,faʊndɪŋ 'fa:ðə/ noun a person who founded a state, especially one of those who signed the American Constitution of 1787 foundry /'faʊndri/ noun a place for melting and moulding metal or glass fountain /'faʊntɪn/ noun an ornamental jet of water in a street or garden fountain pen /'faʊntɪn pen/ noun a pen which can be filled with ink

① four /fɔ:/ noun 1. the number 4 ○ A square has four corners. ○ He's four (years old). ○ I have an appointment with the doctor at four (o'clock). □ on all fours on hands and knees ○ He was creeping around under the desk on all fours. 2. a crew of four rowers in a boat ○ Our college four won the race. 3. (in cricket) a score of four runs for sending the ball over the boundary ○ He scored a century, including seven fours and two sixes.

four-by-four /fɔ: bai 'fɔ:/ noun a four-wheel-drive vehicle. Abbr 4x4 four-leaved clover /fɔ: li:vɪd 'kləʊvə/ noun a lucky rare type of clover with four leaves instead of three four-poster /fɔ: 'pəʊstə/ noun an old-fashioned bed with a post at each corner, that can be used to support a canopy or curtains foursome /'fɔ:s(ə)m/ noun 1. a golf match played by four people, i.e. two pairs ○ They won the foursomes. 2. a group of four people ○ The foursome stole a car and drove to Las Vegas.

① fourteen /fɔ:'ti:n/ noun the number 14 ○ There are fourteen houses in our street. ○ He's fourteen (years old) next week. □ the fourteen hundreds (1400s) the period from 1400 to 1499

① fourteenth /fɔ:'ti:nθ/ adj, noun referring to 14 ○ She came fourteenth in the race. ○ The fourteenth of July or July the fourteenth (July 14th). ○ It was her fourteenth birthday yesterday. □ the fourteenth century the period from 1300 to 1399

① fourth /fɔ:θ/ adj referring to 4 ○ This is the fourth time he's had to go to hospital this year. ○ It's her fourth birthday tomorrow. ○ the fourth of October or October the fourth (October 4th) □ the fourth century the period from 300 to 399 ■ noun one part of four equal parts. Also called quarter

Fourth of July /fɔ:θ əv dʒu'laɪ/ noun the national day in the United States ○ We're having a Fourth of July party.

four-wheel drive /fɔ: wi:l 'draɪv/ noun 1. a system in which engine power drives all four wheels of a vehicle 2. a vehicle working by this system. Abbr 4WD fowl /faʊl/ noun a domestic bird which is kept for its eggs or to be killed for food, such as a chicken, duck, turkey or goose ③ fox /fɒks/ noun a wild animal with reddish fur and a bushy tail ○ Foxes attack lambs in this part of the world. Compare vixen (NOTE: The plural is foxes.) ■ verb to puzzle someone ○ To fox everyone, we used a French company to make the planning application. ○ Today's crossword has got me completely foxed.

foxglove /'fɒksgləv/ noun a tall purple and white flower found in woods fox hunting /'fɒks, hʌntɪŋ/ noun chasing foxes to catch and kill them, usually with dogs foyer /'fɔɪeɪ/ noun a large entrance hall at the front of a hotel, restaurant, or theatre fracas /'frækəs/ noun a noisy disturbance fraction /'frækʃən/ noun 1. a very small amount ○ Sales are up a fraction this month. ○ Move the camera a fraction to the right, and you'll all get in the picture. 2. (in mathematics) less than a whole number ○ $\frac{1}{4}$ and $\frac{1}{2}$ are fractions. 3. a small part of something ○ Only a fraction of the stolen money was ever found.

fractional /'frækʃənəl/ adj very small. Synonym slight fractionally /'frækʃ(ə)nəli/ adv very slightly fracture /'frækʃə/ noun a break, especially in a bone ○ The X-ray showed up the fracture clearly. □ simple fracture a fracture where the skin surface around the damaged bone has not been broken ■ verb to break a bone ○ He fractured his leg in the accident. ○ They put her fractured leg in plaster.

fragile /'frædʒəl/ adj 1. easily broken ○ Be careful when packing the glasses – they're very fragile. Synonym delicate 2. feeling weak and ill after an illness or operation, or after drinking too much alcohol ○ She's still very fragile after her recent operation. ○ I don't think I want any breakfast – I'm feeling a bit fragile this morning.

fragility /frə'dʒɪlɪtɪ/ noun being easily broken

③ fragment noun /'frægmənt/ a small piece ○ When digging on the site of the old house they found fragments of glass. ■ verb /'fræg'mənt/ to separate into small pieces ○ As soon as the founder died the whole organisation fragmented. Synonym break up. Antonym fuse fragmentary /'frægmənt(ə)ri/ adj in pieces; not complete. Antonym entire fragmentation /,frægmən'teɪʃ(ə)n/ noun breaking into small pieces fragrance /'freɪgrəns/ noun 1. a pleasant smell 2. a pleasant-smelling liquid which is put on the skin. Synonym perfume fragrant /'freɪgrənt/ adj with a sweet smell. Synonym perfumed. Antonym smelly frail /freɪl/ adj weak and thin frailty /'freɪltɪ/ noun being weak ○ the frailty of human existence ○ the frailty of my father's health

② frame /freɪm/ noun 1. a border around something such as a pair of glasses, a picture, a mirror, or a window ○ He has glasses with gold frames. ○ I think the frame is worth more than the painting. 2. one picture in a film ○ The book is illustrated with frames from some of his films. 3. a basic structure ○ The car has an aluminium frame. ■ verb 1. to put a frame round a picture ○ The photograph has been framed in red. 2. to make someone seem to be guilty ○ He says he was framed by the police. ○ It wasn't me – I've been framed! 3. to put words together to make a sentence ○ He had some difficulty in framing his reply. ○ The note was framed in very formal language.

③ frame of mind /'freɪm əʊ 'maɪnd/ noun a way of thinking or feeling; general mood

③ framework /'freɪmwɜːk/ noun 1. the structure supporting a building, etc. ○ The framework of the shed is sound – it just needs some paint. 2. the basis of a plan ○ They are working within the framework of the United Nations resolution. ○ They are negotiating the framework of the agreement.

③ franchise /'fræntɪsɪz/ noun 1. a right to vote ○ In some countries women do not have the franchise. 2. a permit to sell a company's products in a certain region or to trade using a well-known brand name ○ He bought a pizza franchise. ■ verb to sell licences for people to trade using a brand name and paying a fee for using it ○ His sandwich bar was so successful that he decided to franchise it. Synonym license frank /fræŋk/ adj saying what you think ○ To be really frank with you – I think the plan stinks. ○ He gave her some frank advice. Synonym forthright. Antonym insincere (NOTE: Do not confuse with franc.) ■ verb to stamp a letter with a special machine, instead of using a postage stamp ○ The letters were all franked before they left the office.

frankfurter /'fræŋkfɜːtə/ noun a long sausage which is boiled and sometimes eaten inside a roll. ♦ hot dog (NOTE: Another US term is wiener.)

③ frankly /'fræŋkli/ adv telling the truth frankness /'fræŋknəs/ noun being honest; saying what you think. Synonym honesty. Antonym insincerity frantic /'fræntɪk/ adj wild, worried and doing things fast frantically /'fræntɪkli/ adv fast and in a worried way fraternal /frə'tɜːnəl/ adj brotherly ○ He started going out with his brother's girlfriend – there's fraternal feeling for you!

fraternal twins /frə'tɜːnəl 'twɪnz/ plural noun twins who are not identical because they developed from two different ova at the same time. Compare identical twins fraternise /'frætənaɪz/, fraternize verb 1. to spend time with other people socially, especially people who are considered unsuitable 2. to spend time with someone against military rules fraternity /frə'tɜːnɪtɪ/ noun 1. a group of people with similar interests or occupations ○ Members of the banking fraternity have criticised the Chancellor of the Exchequer. 2.

a brotherly feeling ○ The slogan of the French state is 'Liberty, Equality, Fraternity'.

fraud /frəʊd/ noun 1. making money by making people believe something which is not true ○ He is facing trial for fraud. 2. a person pretending to be something which he or she is not ○ She's a fraud – she has no legal qualifications. ○ He's an old fraud – he didn't build that car himself.

fraudulent /'frəʊdʒʊlənt/ adj dishonest. Synonym fake. Antonym genuine fraught /frəʊt/ adj 1. full of problems or danger ○ The whole building project has been fraught with problems. 2. very worrying; very worried ○ The situation in the office is particularly fraught this week. ○ She's a bit fraught today.

③ fray /freɪ/ ■ noun a competitive situation; a fight or argument □ to join or enter the fray to become involved in a situation, argument or fight ○ The government and opposition argued over the problem, and then the unions joined the fray. □ ready for the fray ready to fight or argue ○ Are we all ready for the fray? ■ verb (of material) to become worn so that threads are loose ○ The carpet is fraying at the edges. ○ The cuffs on his shirt had frayed.

frayed /freɪd/ adj having a worn edge, with loose threads freak /friːk/ noun 1. an unusual type of person, animal or plant ○ A white whale is a freak of nature. 2. a person who is extremely interested in something (informal) ○ My brother's a computer freak. ■ adj referring to weather that is very unusual ○ The vineyards were hit by a freak snowstorm in June.

freakish /'friːkɪʃ/ adj unusual or extraordinary freckled /'frek(ə)ld/ adj covered in freckles freckles /'frek(ə)lz/ plural noun small brown marks on the skin, often caused by the sun ○ You'll recognise her at once, she's tall with fair hair and freckles. ○ She was trying to get rid of the freckles on her arms.

① free /friː/ adj 1. not busy; not occupied ○ Will you be free next Tuesday? ○ There is a table free in the corner of the restaurant. ○ Do you have any free time next week? 2. not costing any money ○ Send in four tokens from cereal boxes and you can get a free toy.

○ I got a free ticket for the exhibition. □ free gift a present given by a shop to a customer who buys a certain amount of goods ○ There is a free gift worth £25 to any customer buying a washing machine. 3. able to do what you want; not forced to do anything ○ He's free to do what he wants. ○ It's a free country. 4. □ to be free from or of something to be without something unpleasant ○ The country has been declared free of disease. □ free of charge with no payment to be made. ▶ duty free 5. not in prison, not in a cage □ After six years in prison he's a free man again. □ to set free to allow someone to leave prison, or to let an animal out of a cage □ The young birds were raised in the zoo and then set free in the wild. □ verb 1. to release someone who is trapped □ It took the fire service some time to free the passengers in the bus. 2. to let someone out of prison, or an animal out of a cage □ The crowd stormed the jail and freed the prisoners. □ adv 1. without having to pay □ Children are admitted free. 2. not in a cage; not attached □ Lions roam free in the park. □ to pull something free to pull something so that it is no longer held tight free agent /'fri: 'eɪdʒənt/ noun someone who is able to do what they want freebie /'fri:bɪ/ noun something supplied free of charge, especially as a gift to a customer or journalist (informal)

② freedom /'fri:dəm/ noun 1. the state of being free, rather than trapped or in prison □ She felt a sense of freedom being in the country after working all week in the city. □ His lawyer pleaded for his client's freedom. 2. the state of being free to do what you want □ restricting our freedom of movement

freedom fighter /'fri:dəm 'faɪtə/ noun a guerilla fighting against an oppressive government freedom of information /,fri:dəm əv ɪnfə'meɪʃ(ə)n/ noun a situation in which official information held by government departments is made available to everyone freedom of speech /,fri:dəm əv 'spi:tʃ/ noun a situation in which people are able to say what they think without fear of being prosecuted freedom of the press /,fri:dəm əv ðə 'pres/ noun a situation in which people are able to write and publish in a newspaper what they want, without being afraid of prosecution unless they break the law free enterprise /'fri: 'entəprais/ noun a system of business where there is no interference from the government free-for-all /'fri: fər ɔ:l/ noun a general fight or argument among several people (informal). Synonym brawl freehold /'fri:θəuld/ noun a right to own a property for ever □ a freehold property a building which the owner can hold for ever free kick /'fri: 'kɪk/ noun a kick which a footballer is allowed to make without anyone opposing him, to punish the other side for something which they have done freelance /'fri:la:ns/ noun an independent worker, not employed by one particular company □ He works as a freelance. □ adj working independently, rather than being employed by one particular company □ She is a freelance journalist. □ adv □ to work freelance to work independently; to be self-employed □ verb to work independently □ She freelances for several newspapers.

freelancer /'fri:la:nsə/ noun a freelance worker freely /'fri:li/ adv in an open manner, without being forced free market /fri: 'ma:kɪt/ noun a situation in which trade takes place without government control

Freemason /'fri:meɪs(ə)n/ noun a member of a secret society whose members help each other and protect each other (NOTE: also simply called Masons) freephone /'fri:fəʊn/ noun GB a system where you can telephone to reply to an advertisement, to place an order or to ask for information, and the seller pays for the call freepost /'fri:pəʊst/ noun GB a system where you can write to an advertiser to place an order or to ask for information to be sent, and the seller pays the postage free-range /'fri: 'reɪndʒ/ adj kept in the open, not in cages or boxes. Antonym battery free-range eggs /'fri: reɪndʒ/ noun eggs from free-range chickens free speech /'fri: 'spi:tʃ/ noun the ability to say what you think without danger of being prosecuted freestyle /'fri:stail/ noun (in swimming) any stroke, but usually the crawl

③ free trade /'fri: 'treɪd/ noun a system where goods can go from one country to another without any restrictions freeware /'fri:weə/ noun free computer software

② freeway /'fri:weɪ/ noun US a fast motorway with few junctions freewheel /'fri:wɪl/ verb to go along, especially downhill, on a bicycle without pedalling free will /'fri: 'wil/ noun the ability to choose your own actions. Synonym autonomy. Antonym dependence □ of your own free will willingly; without being forced □ He gave himself up to the police of his own free will.

③ freeze /'fri:z/ verb 1. to change from liquid to solid because of the cold □ The winter was mild and for the first time ever the river did not freeze over. □ It's so cold that the lake has frozen solid. 2. to become very cold □ The forecast is that it will freeze tonight. 3. to make food very cold so that it does not decay □ We froze the raspberries we picked this morning. 4. □ to freeze to death to die of cold □ She went out into the snow and froze to death. 5. to keep money or costs, etc., at their present level and not allow them to rise ○ We have frozen salaries at last year's level. 6. □ to freeze a bank account to issue a court order stopping anyone from using their own bank account, especially preventing them from taking money out 7. to stay very still ○ When they heard the police car coming, they froze. (NOTE: freezing – froze /f्रॉʊz/ – has frozen) ■ noun 1. a period when it is very cold ○ Do you remember the great freeze in the winter of 1980? 2. □ wages and prices freeze or a freeze on wages and prices a period when wages and prices are not allowed to be increased

③ freezer /'fri:zə/ noun a refrigerator for freezing food and keeping it frozen

③ freezing /'fri:zɪŋ/ adj very cold freezing point /'fri:zɪŋ pɔɪnt/ noun a very low temperature at which a liquid becomes solid freight /freɪt/ noun 1. the action of transporting goods by air, sea or land ○ We sent the order (by) air freight. 2. goods transported ○ The government is encouraging firms to send freight by rail. ■ verb to transport goods ○ We freight goods to all parts of the world.

freight car /'freɪt ku:/ noun US a goods wagon on a train freighter /'freɪtə/ noun an aircraft or ship which carries goods freight train /'freɪt treɪn/ noun a train used for transporting goods

① French /frentʃ/ adj 1. referring to France ○ The French railways have a system of high speed trains covering the whole country. 2. □ to take French leave to go away without permission ■ noun 1. the language spoken in France ○ He speaks French very well. ○ They are learning French at school. 2. □ the French the people of France ○ The French are famous for their wines and their cooking.

French bread /frentʃ 'bred/ noun bread in the form of a long thin stick

French dressing /frentʃ 'dresɪŋ/ noun a salad dressing made of oil and vinegar, with salt, mustard and other flavourings

French horn /frentʃ 'hɔ:n/ noun a brass musical instrument with a tube which is coiled round

Frenchman /'frentʃmən/ noun a man from France (NOTE: The plural is Frenchmen.)

French polish /frentʃ 'pɒlɪʃ/ noun a resin polish used on wood ○ She gave the table a coating of French polish. ■ verb to polish wood with French polish ○ The table needs to be French polished.

French toast /frentʃ 'təʊst/ noun a slice of bread dipped in beaten egg and then fried, usually served with sugar

Frenchwoman /'frentʃwomən/ noun a woman from France (NOTE: The plural is Frenchwomen.)

frenetic /frenetɪk/ adj wildly excited.

Synonym hectic. Antonym calm frenzied /'frenzɪd/ adj wild and uncontrollable. Synonym frantic. Antonym calm frenzy /'frenzi/ noun a wild excitement

③ frequency /'fri:kwənsi/ noun 1. the rate at which something happens ○ The government is becoming alarmed at the frequency of accidents in the construction industry. (NOTE: no plural) 2. the number of vibrations per second made by a radio wave ○ What frequency is Radio 3 on? (NOTE: The plural is frequencies.)

③ frequent adj /'fri:kwənt/ happening often; seen often ○ He was a frequent visitor to the library. ○ Skin cancer is becoming more frequent. ○ How frequent are the planes to Birmingham? Antonym infrequent ■ verb /'fri:kwənt/ to go somewhere very often ○ He frequents the bar at the corner of the street. Synonym visit frequent flyer /,fri:kwənt 'flaɪə/ noun a person who travels by a certain airline often ② frequently /'fri:kwəntli/ adv often ○ The ferries don't run as frequently in the winter. ○ She could frequently be seen walking her dog in the park.

fresco /'freskəʊ/ noun a painting done on wet plaster on a wall or ceiling (NOTE: The plural is frescoes. Do not confuse with al-fresco.)

② fresh /fref/ adj 1. not used or not dirty ○ I'll get you a fresh towel. 2. made quite recently ○ a basket of fresh rolls ○ Let's ask for a pot of fresh coffee. 3. new ○ The police produced some fresh evidence. 4. not tinned or frozen ○ The fishmonger sells fresh fish. ○ Fresh fruit salad is better than tinned. ○ Fresh vegetables are difficult to get in winter. 5. bright and attractive ○ She has a fresh complexion. ○ The kitchen is painted a fresh green colour. 6. quite cool ○ fresh showery weather 7. quite strong ○ a fresh north wind 8. fit and awake ○ You'll feel fresher after two hours' sleep. (NOTE: fresher – freshest)

fresh air /fref 'eə/ noun the open space outside buildings where the air flows freely ○ After ten hours in the office they were glad to come out into the fresh air.

freshen /'fref(ə)n/ verb 1. to make something fresh ○ The hot air in the valley was freshened by a mountain breeze. 2. to become cooler or fresher ○ The wind freshened as night came on. 3. □ to freshen (yourself) up to wash your hands and face, and tidy your hair ○ I must just go to freshen up before the guests arrive.

freshener /'freʃəl/ noun a new student in his or her first year at college or university (informal). Synonym freshman freshly /'freʃli/ adv recently freshman /'freʃmən/ noun a new student in his or her first year at college or university (NOTE: In the USA, freshman is also applied to a student at high school. The plural is freshmen.)

freshness /'freʃnəs/ noun being fresh freshwater /'freʃwɔ:tə/ adj referring to river or lake water, not salt water fret /fret/ verb to worry or be unhappy ○ She's fretting about her exams. (NOTE: fretting – fretted) ■ noun the raised metal strip crossing the neck of a guitar against which you press the strings ○ Place your fingers so that you can feel the fret.

fretful /'fretf(ə)l/ adj always complaining and unhappy. Synonym worried. Antonym calm

Freudian /'frɔɪdiən/ adj referring to Freud and his theories of psychoanalysis

Freudian slip /,frɔɪdiən 'slɪp/ noun a mistake in speaking which seems to show your real feelings, when you are trying to hide them

Fri. abbr Friday

friar /'fraɪəl/ noun a member of a Christian religious order who went out to collect money or to preach friction /'frɪkʃən/ noun 1. one thing rubbing against another ○ You need more oil to reduce friction in the motor. 2. a disagreement between two or more people ○ There has been a good deal of friction between the members of the board. (NOTE: no plural)

① Friday /'fraideɪ/ noun the fifth day of the week, the day between Thursday and Saturday ○ We all had a meal together last Friday. ○ We always go to the cinema on Friday evenings. ○ We normally have our meetings on Fridays. ○ Friday is a day of rest for Muslims. ○ Today is Friday, June 20th.

② fridge /'frɪdʒ/ noun a kitchen machine for keeping things cold ○ The fridge is empty – we must buy some more food. ○ Shall I put the milk back in the fridge? Synonym refrigerator fridge-freezer /'frɪdʒ/ 'fri:zəl/ noun a kitchen machine consisting of both a fridge and a freezer in a single unit

③ fried /'fraɪd/ adj cooked in oil or fat. ▶ fry

① friend /'frend/ noun a person whom you know well and like ○ She's my best friend. ○ We're going on holiday with some friends from work. □ to make friends with someone to get to know and like someone ○ We made friends with some French people on holiday.

② friendly /'frendli/ adj like a friend, wanting to make friends ○ Don't be frightened of the dog – he's very friendly. ○ We're not on friendly terms with the people who live next door. (NOTE: friendlier – friendliest) ■ noun a football match which is not part of a tournament ○ England is playing a friendly against Poland.

③ friendship /'frendʃɪp/ noun the state of being friends ○ He formed several lasting friendships at school.

frieze /'fri:z/ noun a decorated band around a room just below the ceiling frigate /'frɪgət/ noun a small fast-moving naval ship fright /'frait/ noun 1. fear 2. a shock □ to give someone a fright to make someone jump with fear ○ The sudden noise gave her a fright. ○ Don't creep up behind me like that – you gave me a real fright. □ to look a fright to look awful and not very attractive (dated) frighten /'frait(ə)n/ verb to make someone afraid ○ Take off that horrible mask – you'll frighten the children. ○ The cat has frightened all the birds away. Synonym scare. Antonym soothe

② frightened /'frait(ə)nd/ adj full of fear; scared ○ The frightened children ran out of the building. Synonym scared. Antonym calm □ frightened of something or someone afraid of someone or something ○ Don't be frightened of the dog – he won't hurt you.

③ frightening /'frait(ə)nɪŋ/ adj which causes fear ○ a frightening sound of footsteps in the corridor ○ He had a frightening thought – what if no one heard his cries for help? Synonym terrifying. Antonym soothing frighteningly /'frait(ə)nɪŋli/ adv in a frightening way frightful /'fraitf(ə)l/ adj terrible or awful. Synonym appalling. Antonym pleasant frightfully /'fraitf(ə)li/ adv extremely (dated or humorous) frigid /'frɪdʒɪd/ adj 1. very cold; icy 2. unfriendly, not showing any warm feelings ○ His frigid response did not give us much hope. 3. (of a woman) not responsive in sexual relations (insulting) ○ After his marriage he discovered that she was frigid.

frigidity /'frɪ'dʒɪdɪti/ noun 1. great cold 2. coldness of feelings, especially lack of interest in sex frill /'frɪl/ noun a piece of material gathered together and sewn on to a dress, etc.

frills /'frɪlz/ plural noun extra things, such as sauces with food □ no-frills air travel cheap air travel where no meals are served and the passengers have no particular comforts frilly /'frɪli/ adj decorated with a frill fringe /frɪndʒ/ noun 1. the hair lying over the forehead 2. edging of a shawl, carpet, etc., consisting of loose threads hanging down ○ a lampshade with a yellow fringe 3. an outer edge of an area ○ Round the fringe of the crowd people were selling souvenirs.

fringe benefit /frɪndʒ 'bɛnɪfɪt/ noun an additional advantage which someone gets from doing a particular job or activity fringed /frɪndʒd/ adj with things along the edge, like a fringe ○ fringed with palm trees with palm trees growing along the side fringe theatre /frɪndʒ 'θɪətə/ noun usually experimental theatre, often not using a traditional theatre building (NOTE: The equivalent in New York is off Broadway.)

frisk /frɪsk/ verb 1. to search someone by running your hands over his or her body ○ When they frisked him at the airport, they found a knife hidden under his shirt. 2. to jump about happily ○ little lambs frisking in the field

frisky /'frɪski/ adj feeling lively, or behaving in a lively way fritter /'frɪtə/ noun a piece of meat, fruit or vegetable dipped in a mixture of flour, egg and milk, and fried ○ I love apple fritters. ■ verb □ to fritter something away to waste time, money, etc., on unimportant things ○ He inherited a fortune from his grandfather but had frittered it all away by the time he was thirty.

frivolity /fri'vɒlɪti/ noun silliness; lack of seriousness frivolous /'frɪvələs/ adj silly; not serious □ a frivolous complaint a complaint which is not made for a serious reason ○ I'm fed up of listening to all these frivolous complaints about the bus service.

frivolously /'frɪvələsli/ adv in a frivolous way frizzy /'frizi/ adj (of hair) in a mass of tight curls frock /frɒk/ noun a dress; a piece of woman's clothing covering more or less all the body (dated)

③ frog /frɒg/ noun 1. a small greenish-brown animal with long legs, which hops, and lives both on land and in water ○ He kept some tadpoles in a jar hoping they would turn into frogs. ○ Can you hear the frogs croaking round the pond? 2. □ to have a frog in your throat to have something in your throat which stops you speaking clearly (informal) frogman /'frɒgmən/ noun a diver working underwater (NOTE: The plural is frogmen.)

frolic /'frɒlɪk/ noun a happy game or party ○ He said that the game of running across the railway lines was just a harmless frolic which went tragically wrong. ■ verb to play happily ○ The lambs were frolicking in the fields. (NOTE: frolicking – frolicked)

① from /frɒm, frɒm/ prep 1. showing the place where something starts or started ○ He comes from Germany. ○ The bees went from flower to flower. ○ We've had a letter from the bank. ○ He read the book from beginning to end or from cover to cover. ○ Take three from four and you get one. ○ I took a book from the pile on his desk. 2. showing the time when something starts or started ○ I'll be at home from 8 o'clock onwards. ○ The hours of work are 9.30 to 5.30, from Monday to Friday. ○ From now on I'm going to get up early. 3. showing distance ○ It is more than 3 km from here to the railway station. 4. showing difference ○ Can you tell butter from margarine? ○ His job is totally different from mine. 5. showing a cause ○ He died from the injuries he received in the accident. ○ He suffers from angina. ○ She suffers from coughs every winter. 6. showing material ○ items made from aluminium frond /frɒnd/ noun a large leaf divided into many thin sections, as, e.g., on a palm tree

① front /frɒnt/ noun 1. a part of something which is furthest forward ○ The front of the house is on London Road. ○ She spilt coffee down the front of her dress. 2. a particular area of interest ○ Any more news on the health front? 3. a road or path along the edge of the sea ○ We went for a walk along the front. ○ a hotel on the sea front or a sea front hotel 4. a line marking the point where two masses of air meet ■ adj which is in front ○ She sat in the front seat, next to the driver. ◇ in front further forwards ○ Her mother sat in the back seat and she sat in front. ◇ in front of before or further forwards than something ○ Don't stand in front of the car – it may start suddenly. ○ There are six people in front of me in the queue. ○ You can park your car in front of the shop.

frontal /'frænt(ə)l/ adj 1. of or in the front ○ a frontal attack on the enemy 2. referring to a cold or warm front of air front bench /frænt 'bɛntʃ/ noun the front row of seats on either side of the House of Commons where government ministers or members of the opposition shadow cabinet sit

③ front door /frænt 'dɔ:/ noun the main door to a house or building. Antonym back door frontier /frænt'ɪə/ noun 1. the boundary line between two countries ○ The customs men at the frontier didn't even bother to look at our passports. 2. □ the frontiers of science the furthest point in human knowledge ○ Scientists are trying to push back the frontiers of science.

frontispiece /'fræntɪspɪs/ noun a picture opposite the title page of a book front line /frænt 'laɪn/ noun the line where two armies meet in war front page /frænt 'peɪdʒ/ noun the first page of a newspaper or magazine □ front-page story an important story which appears on the front page of a newspaper front room /frænt 'ru:м/ noun a room at the front of a house, used for sitting in front-runner /frænt 'rʌnə/ noun the person who is currently first in a race or contest (informal) frost /frɒst/ noun 1. a white covering on the ground, trees, etc., when the temperature is below freezing ○ The garden was white with frost. 2. cold weather, when the temperature is below freezing ○ There was a hard frost last night. ○ There's a touch of frost in the air. ○ A late frost can damage young plants. □ ten degrees of frost ten degrees below zero □ verb 1. to cover with frost; to be damaged by frost □ to frost over to become covered with frost 2. □ to frost a cake US to put icing on a cake frostbite /'frɒstbait/ noun an injury caused by very severe cold which freezes your flesh frostbitten /'frɒstbit(ə)n/ adj affected by frostbite frosted glass /'frɒstɪd 'gla:s/ noun glass with a rough or grainy surface which makes it opaque frosting /'frɒstɪŋ/ noun icing on a cake frosty /'frɒstɪ/ adj 1. very cold; covered with frost ○ a frosty night ○ They walked across the frosty fields. 2. cold or unfriendly ○ She gave him a frosty stare. ○ The minister got a very frosty reception at the meeting. (NOTE: frostier – frostiest) froth /frɒθ/ noun a mass of bubbles on top of a liquid ○ Wait until the froth has settled before drinking your beer. □ verb to make masses of bubbles ○ He was lying on the floor, frothing at the mouth.

frothy /'frɒθɪ/ adj 1. referring to foam 2. trivial frown /frəʊn/ noun pulling your eyebrows together as a sign that you are angry or worried ○ Take that frown off your face – everything's going to be all right. Synonym scowl □ verb to pull your eyebrows together because you are concentrating or worried ○ He frowned as he tried to do the calculation. □ to frown on or upon something to disapprove of something ○ The teachers frown on singing in the corridors. ○ The company frowns on people who bring food into the office. ○ This type of behaviour is frowned upon by the municipal authorities. ▶ Antonym (all senses) smile

③ froze /frəʊz/ verb □ freeze

③ frozen /'frəʊz(ə)n/ adj 1. very cold ○ Come inside – you must be frozen out there. 2. at a temperature below freezing point ○ We went skating on the frozen lake. 3. not allowed to be changed or used. ▶ freeze frugal /'fru:g(ə)l/ adj 1. small and plain ○ He had a frugal meal of bread and cheese. 2. careful when you spend money or use resources ○ He lived a frugal life and died a millionaire. ○ The frugal use of the heating system will cut down on your electricity bills.

frugality /'fru:gælɪtɪ/ noun the quality or characteristic of being frugal (NOTE: no plural)

② fruit /fru:t/ noun 1. the part of a plant (such as apples, cherries, pears, etc.) which has seeds, is often eaten raw and is usually sweet ○ You should eat five pieces of fruit every day. ○ He has six fruit trees in his garden. 2. □ the fruits of your labours the results of your hard work (literary) ○ He retired at sixty to enjoy the fruits of his labours. □ verb to produce fruit ○ The raspberries have finished fruiting. ○ Some pears fruit quite late in the season.

fruitcake /'fru:tkeɪk/ noun a cake with a lot of dried fruit in it □ as nutty as a fruitcake completely mad (informal) fruitful /'fru:tfl(ə)l/ adj which produces good results. Synonym productive. Antonym fruitless fruition /'fru:ɪʃ(ə)n/ noun □ to come to fruition to be finished with good results ○ After ten years' work, the project finally came to fruition. □ to bring something to fruition to finish something with good results

③ fruit juice /'fru:t dʒu:s/ noun juice from fruit fruitless /'fru:tles/ adj producing no result. Synonym unsuccessful. Antonym fruitful fruit machine /'fru:t mæ,fi:n/ noun a gambling machine where pictures of different types of fruit appear when you press a button fruit salad /'fru:t 'sæləd/ noun pieces of different fruit, cut up and mixed together fruity /'fru:ti/ adj 1. tasting of fruit ○ a dark fruity red wine 2. (of a voice or laugh) deep and attractive (NOTE: fruitier – fruitiest) frumpish /'frʌmpɪʃ/, frumpy /'frʌmpi/ adj (of women) unattractive because of wearing old-fashioned clothes frustrate /frə'streɪt/ verb 1. to make someone annoyed because they cannot do what they want to do 2. to prevent someone or something from being successful frustrated /frə'streɪtid/ adj 1. annoyed because of not being able to do something ○ She's frustrated at not being able to speak

German. 2. having the desire to be something, but never having the talent or the opportunity ○ a frustrated artist ○ When he gets behind the wheel of his car you can see the frustrated Grand Prix driver coming out.

frustrating /'frʌ'streɪtɪŋ/ adj annoying, because someone or something stops you doing what you want to do. Antonym satisfying

③ frustration /'frʌ'streɪʃ(ə)n/ noun a feeling of anger and impatience when you cannot do what you want to do

③ fry /'fraɪ/ verb to cook in oil or fat in a shallow pan ○ Fry the onions over a low heat so that they don't burn. ○ Fry the eggs in some fat. (NOTE: fries /'fraɪz/ - frying - fried /'fraɪd/)

③ frying pan /'fraɪŋ pæn/ noun a shallow open pan used for frying □ to jump out of the frying pan into the fire to go from one difficult situation to something even worse

③ ft abbr foot or feet fuchsia /'fju:ʃə/ noun a garden plant with colourful bell-shaped hanging flowers fuddy-duddy /'fʌdi, 'dʌdi/ noun an old-fashioned person (informal) fudge /'fʌdʒ/ noun 1. a soft sweet made from butter, sugar and milk ○ She bought a packet of home made fudge. 2. avoiding making a tough decision ○ The report on the scandal was a fudge. ■ verb □ to fudge the issue to avoid making a tough decision on an issue (informal) ○ For years, the government has been fudging the issue of legalising drugs.

② fuel /'fju:əl/ noun a substance such as coal, gas, oil, petrol or wood which can be burnt to give heat or power ○ What fuel do you use to heat the house? ○ What's the fuel consumption of your car? ○ We ran out of fuel on the motorway. □ to add fuel to the flames to make matters worse ○ Just to add fuel to the flames the union leader sent the minister's letter to the newspapers. ■ verb 1. to provide fuel for ○ The power station is fuelled by coal. 2. to increase ○ Our money worries were fuelled by news of an increase in the mortgage rate. (NOTE: fuelling - fuelled. The US spelling is fueling - shaled) fugitive /'fju:dʒɪtɪv/ noun a person who is running away ○ The two fugitives were captured by the police. □ a fugitive from justice a person who is running away from the law ■ adj who is running away from the law fulcrum /'fʊlk्रəm/ noun a point on which a lever rests or on which something balances. Synonym pivot

③ fulfil /'fʊl'fɪl/ verb to complete something in a satisfactory way (NOTE: fulfilling - fulfilled. The US spelling is fulfill.)

fulfilled /'fʊl'fɪld/ adj satisfied with what you are doing, or happy because of the things you have achieved fulfilling /'fʊl'fɪlɪŋ/ adj which gives satisfaction. Synonym satisfying. Antonym frustrating fulfilment /'fʊl'fɪlmənt/ noun carrying something out in a satisfactory way (NOTE: The US spelling is fulfillment.)

① full /'fʊl/ adj 1. with as much inside as is possible ○ Is the box full? ○ The bag is full of potatoes. ○ We couldn't get on the first bus because it was full. ○ All the hotels were full. □ I'm full up I've eaten so much that I can't eat any more (informal) □ to be full of yourself to think a lot of yourself, or to be always talking about how successful you are 2. complete ○ You must give the police full details of the accident. ○ Write your full name and address at the top of the paper. ■ noun □ to the full completely ○ He always wants to live his life to the full. ■ adv 1. completely; entirely ○ The story has never been told in full. 2. □ to know something full well to be very aware of something 3. straight; in the centre ○ The ball hit him full in the chest.

fullback /'fʊlba:k/ noun a player who plays at the back of a team near the goal full-blown /'fʊl 'bləʊn/ adj 1. (of a flower) completely open ○ a full-blown rose 2. fully qualified □ she is a full-blown doctor now she has passed all her examinations and is qualified 3. (of a disease) complete; with all the symptoms ○ He developed full-blown AIDS.

full board /'fʊl 'bɔ:d/ noun a rate for bedroom and all meals in a hotel full-fledged /'fʊl 'fledʒd/ adj US fully-fledged full-grown /'fʊl 'grəʊn/ adj same as fully-grown full house /'fʊl haʊs/ noun an audience for a theatre or cinema performance that fills all the seats full-length /'fʊl 'lenθ/ adj 1. covering or showing the whole of someone ○ a full-length evening gown ○ a full-length portrait 2. long film or novel ○ It was his first full-length film, made when he was 21.

full marks /'fʊl 'ma:kəs/ plural noun 1. everything correct in a test 2. high praise full moon /'fʊl 'mu:n/ noun the time when the moon appears as a complete circle full-on /'fʊl 'ɒn/ adj having a particular quality to the highest degree full-page /'fʊl peɪdʒ/ adj taking up a whole page

③ full-scale /'fʊl skeɪl/ adj 1. the same size as in real life ○ a full-scale model of a dinosaur 2. complete ○ It started as a dispute over a few islands and soon developed into a full-scale war.

full-size /'fʊl 'saɪz/ adj the same size as in real life

③ full stop /'fʊl 'stɒp/ noun 1. a punctuation mark like a small dot, showing the end of a sentence or an abbreviation ○ When reading, you can take a breath when you come to a full stop. (NOTE: The US term is period.) 2. meaning ‘there’s nothing more to say’ ○ She doesn’t like German food, full stop. (NOTE: The US term is period.) 3. a complete stop ○ The car skidded across the road and came to a full stop when it hit a wall.

full-time /'fʊl taɪm/ adj, adv working for all the usual working time, i.e. about seven hours a day, five days a week ○ She is in full-time work or She works full-time. ○ We have eight full-time and two part-time teachers at our school. Compare part-time

② fully /'fʊlɪ/ adv completely or entirely ○ He was fully aware that he had made a mistake. ○ She still hasn’t fully recovered from her accident. ○ The hotel is fully booked for the Christmas week. ○ When fully grown, an elephant can weigh several tons. Synonym completely. Antonym partially fully-fledged /'fʊlɪ 'fledʒd/ adj experienced or qualified (NOTE: The US term is full-fledged.)

fully-grown /'fʊlɪ 'grəʊn/ adj adult-sized fumble /'fʌmbəl/ verb to touch or feel clumsily

③ fume /'fju:m/ verb to be angry ○ After he had read the report he was absolutely fuming.

fumes /'fju:mz/ plural noun smoke or gas ○ They must have inhaled the fumes from the gas cooker.

fumigate /'fju:mɪgeɪt/ verb to clean a building or a room by burning chemicals to produce smoke which kills germs and insects. Synonym sterilise

② fun /fʌn/ noun enjoyable or amusing activity ○ Having to stay in bed on my birthday is not much fun. Synonym amusement. Antonym boredom □ to have fun to enjoy yourself ○ We had a lot of fun on the river. □ to make fun of someone or to poke fun at someone to laugh at someone ○ Don’t make fun of her – she’s trying her best. ○ He poked fun at the Prime Minister. □ for fun as a joke ○ She poured water down his neck for fun. ○ Just for fun, he drove the car through town dressed as a gorilla. ○ Why did you do that? – Just for the fun of it! ■ adj enjoyable, and probably involving games and laughter (informal) ○ Sitting on the grass in St James’s Park is a fun way of passing a Sunday afternoon. Synonym amusing. Antonym boring

① function /'fʌŋkʃən/ noun 1. a party, or a gathering of people ○ We have two wedding functions in the main restaurant this weekend. ○ The Prime Minister is tied up with official functions all week. 2. work done by someone or something ○ The function of a goalkeeper is to stop the ball going into the net. ○ What’s the function of that red switch?

■ verb 1. to work ○ The computer is still functioning well after months of constant use. 2. □ to function as to serve as ○ The sofa functions as a bed if we have visitors.

functional /'fʌŋkʃən(ə)l/ adj 1. useful but not decorative ○ These old saucepans are not works of art but they’re functional. 2. working properly ○ The heating system will be functional again in an hour or so.

function key /'fʌŋkʃən ki:/ noun one of a row of keys along the top of a computer keyboard which activates a set of instructions

① fund /fʌnd/ noun 1. a sum of money set aside for a special purpose ○ She contributes to a pension fund. 2. a collection ○ He has a fund of stories about his time at sea. ■ verb to provide money for a special purpose ○ We have asked the government to fund the building of the new library. ○ The company is funding her manager’s course. Synonym finance

② fundamental /fʌndə'ment(ə)l/ adj basic; essential ○ The fundamental difference between us is that I apologise for my mistakes and you don’t. ○ Good air quality is fundamental for children’s health.

fundamentalism /,fʌndə'ment(ə)lɪz(ə)m/ noun an approach to religion which involves following religious rules very strictly fundamentalist /,fʌndə'ment(ə)list/ noun a person who follows religious rules very strictly fundamentally /,fʌndə'ment(ə)li/ adv basically. Antonym superficially fundamentals /,fʌndə'ment(ə)lɪz/ plural noun basic principles. Synonym basics

③ funding /'fʌndɪŋ/ noun money for something. Synonym backing fundraiser /'fʌndreɪzəl/ noun 1. a person who raises money for a charity or voluntary group 2. a money-raising activity or event for a charity or voluntary group fund-raising /'fʌndreɪzɪŋ/ adj aimed at getting more money, by asking people or organisations to give some ○ a fund-raising dinner ○ The mayor launched a fund-raising scheme for the children’s club. ■ noun the activity of raising money for a charity or voluntary group

③ funeral /'fju:n(ə)rəl/ noun 1. a ceremony when a dead person is buried or cremated ○ The church was packed for her funeral. ○ The funeral will take place on Friday morning. 2. □ it’s your funeral it is something you alone are responsible for (informal) □ If he insists on riding his motorbike without a helmet, then that's his funeral.

funeral director /'fju:n(ə)rəl dəɪ,rekta/ noun a person who arranges funerals in return for payment funeral parlour /'fju:n(ə)rəl ,pa:lə/ noun a shop where dead bodies are taken to be made ready to be buried funfair /'fʌnfeə/ noun a group of amusements, sideshows, food stalls, etc., set up in one place for a short time fungal /'fʌŋgəl/ adj referring to fungus fungicide /'fʌŋgɪsaɪd/ noun a chemical which kills fungus fungus /'fʌŋgəs/ noun a plant which has no green leaves or flowers and which lives on rotting matter or on other plants (NOTE: The plural is fungi /'fʌŋgəɪ/.)

funk /fʌŋk/ noun 1. a style of African dance music with a strong rhythm □ The crowd of teenagers were dancing to funk music. 2. a state of fear (dated) □ verb not to do something because you are afraid to do it (informal dated) funky /'fʌŋki/ adj fashionable; modern (informal) (NOTE: funkier – funkiest) funnel /'fʌnl/ noun 1. a tube with a wide mouth and narrow bottom, used when pouring liquids from one container into another 2. a chimney on a ship through which the smoke escapes □ The liner sailed away, with smoke billowing out of her funnel. □ verb 1. to pass something through a funnel or through a narrow space □ We funnelled the petrol into the tank. 2. to send something in a certain direction □ The money was funnelled into the building project. (NOTE: funnelling – funnelled. The US spelling is funneling – funneled.)

funnily /'fʌnlɪ/ adv 1. used to introduce a comment on something considered strange or unexpected 2. in a way that seems strange or unexpected 3. in a humorous or funny way ① funny /'fʌni/ adj 1. which makes you laugh □ We watched a funny programme on children's TV. □ He made funny faces and all the children laughed. □ The clown was wearing a funny hat. 2. strange or odd □ She's been behaving in a funny way recently. □ There's a funny smell in the bathroom. 3. a little bit ill (informal) □ I'm feeling funny. (NOTE: funnier – funniest) funny bone /'fʌni bəʊn/ noun a part of the elbow which gives a painful tingling sensation when it is hit by accident (informal) fur /fɜ:/ noun the soft covering of an animal's body □ This type of cat has very short fur. □ She was wearing a fur coat. □ Have you got any fur-lined boots? (NOTE: Do not confuse with fir.) □ verb □ to fur up to become covered with a layer of a substance, especially a mineral □ The element in the kettle has become furred up.

furious /'fjuərɪəs/ adj very angry furl /fɜ:l/ verb to roll up a flag or sail when it is out of use, or to become tightly rolled up furlong /'fɜ:lɒŋ/ noun a measure of length, equal to 220 yards (NOTE: It is only used when referring to the length of a track for horse-racing.)

furnace /'fɜ:nɪs/ noun 1. a large brick or metal oven which can be heated to a very high temperature □ it's like a furnace it's extremely hot (informal) 2. a heater which warms the water for central heating furnish /'fɜ:nɪʃ/ verb 1. to put furniture into a house, office, etc. □ His house is furnished with antiques. 2. to provide □ He furnished the police with a complete list of addresses. □ The town council furnished details of the improvement plan.

furnished /'fɜ:nɪst/ adj (of a house for rent) equipped with furniture. Antonym unfurnished furnishings /'fɜ:nɪʃɪŋz/ plural noun the furniture, carpets, curtains and fittings in a house □ All the furnishings were removed before the house was demolished.

② furniture /'fɜ:nɪtʃə/ noun tables, chairs, beds, cupboards, etc. □ The burglars stole all our office furniture. □ You should cover up all the furniture before you start painting the ceiling. Compare furnishings (NOTE: no plural: some furniture; a lot of furniture; a piece of furniture)

furore /'fju:rɔ:rɪ/ noun an outburst of anger or excitement (NOTE: The US spelling is furor.)

furrow /'fɜ:ru:/ noun 1. a long trench cut in the soil by a plough □ Seagulls followed the plough, looking for food in the furrows. 2. a deep line in the surface of something □ As he grew older, the furrows on his face deepened.

furrowed /'fɑ:ruəd/ adj with deep lines. Synonym wrinkled furry /'fɜ:ri/ adj covered with fur

① further /'fɜ:ðə/ adv at or to a greater distance □ Can you all move further back — I can't get you in the picture. □ The police station is quite close, but the post office is further away. □ Edinburgh is further from London than Paris. □ adj 1. more □ The bank needs further information about your salary. □ Please send me further details of holidays in Greece. 2. (formal) □ further to referring to something □ further to our letter of the 21st in addition to what we said in our letter □ further to your letter of the 21st in response to what you asked in your letter further education /'fɜːðər ədʒʊ-

'keɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the system of teaching people who have left school

③ furthermore /'fɜːðərmɔː/ adv also furthestmost /'fɜːðəməʊst/ adj the furthest; the most distant (formal)

③ furthest /'fɜːðəst/ adv, adj at or to the greatest distance ○ Some of the staff live quite close to the office — James lives furthest away. ○ The furthest distance I have ever flown is to Hong Kong.

furtive /'fɜːtɪv/ adj as if trying not to be noticed. Synonym secretive furtively /'fɜːtɪvlɪ/ adv in a furtive way fury /'fjuːrɪ/ noun fierce anger

③ fuse /'fjuːz/ noun 1. a small piece of wire in an electrical circuit which melts and breaks if the circuit is overloaded, and so prevents further damage ○ The plug has a 13-amp fuse. ○ If the lights go out, the first thing to do is to check the fuses. 2. a piece of flammable material, used to light a firework, a bomb, etc. ○ He struck a match and lit the fuse. ○ A long fuse gives you ten seconds to get out of the way. ■ verb 1. to break an electrical circuit ○ She plugged in her hair dryer and fused the lights. 2. □ to fuse together to join things such as wires together to form one single thing ○ The heat had fused the metal seats together. □ to blow a fuse 1. to overload an electric circuit and make the fuse break ○ The lights have gone out — I think we've blown a fuse. 2. to get very angry (informal) ○ He's going to blow a fuse when he sees the mess you've made of his car.

fusebox /'fjuːzबबक्स/ noun a box where the fuses which protect the electrical circuits in a building are kept fuselage /'fjuːzəlɪdʒ/ noun the body of an aircraft fusillade /'fjuːzɪ'lɪd/ noun a series of rapid gunshots or questions

③ fusion /'fjuːz(ə)n/ noun 1. the melting together of two pieces of metal ○ The heat of the explosion was so great that it resulted in the fusion of metal plates. 2. the joining together of two or more groups, such as political parties ○ The new party has been formed by the fusion of two existing parties.

③ fuss /fʌs/ noun unnecessary excitement or complaints ○ What's all the fuss about? □ to make a fuss or to kick up a fuss about something to complain for a long time about something which is not important ○ Don't make such a fuss — it's only a little scratch. □ to make a fuss of someone to pay great attention to someone ○ The children made a fuss of their mother on her birthday. ■ verb

□ to fuss over something to worry about something, or to pay too much attention to something ○ Don't fuss over it — everything will be all right. ○ Stop fussing over your hair, you look fine.

fussily /'fʌsɪlɪ/ adv unnecessarily careful about unimportant details fussiness /'fʌsɪnəs/ noun the action of being unnecessarily careful about unimportant details fussy /'fʌsɪ/ adj 1. too nervous and unnecessarily careful about little things ○ She's fussy about what she eats or She's a fussy eater. ○ The boss is so fussy about spelling — he's made me do this letter three times. 2. with too many small decorations ○ I don't like the fussy pattern on this carpet. (NOTE: fussier — fussiest) futile /'fjuːtɪl/ adj certain to fail, and therefore not worth doing. Synonym useless. Antonym useful futility /'fjuːtɪlɪtɪ/ noun uselessness. Antonym usefulness futon /'fʊtən/ noun 1. a Japanese-style mattress used as a simple bed 2. a simple sofa bed with a futon mattress

③ future /'fjuːtʃə/ noun 1. a time which has not yet happened ○ What are his plans for the future? ○ You never know what the future will bring. ○ Can you imagine what London will be like in the future? 2. □ in future from now on ○ In future, try to get to the office on time. ■ adj which is coming; which has not happened yet ○ They are spending all their time preparing for their future retirement. ○ I try to save something each week for future expenses. Antonym past

future perfect /'fjuːtʃəfɪkt/ noun a tense of a verb which indicates that an action will be finished some time in the future, using the words 'will have' or 'shall have'

future tense /'fjuːtʃətəns/ noun a tense of a verb which indicates that an action will take place in the future, using the words 'will' or 'shall' or their contraction 'll' futuristic /'fjuːtɪstɪk/ adj very modern, or relating to the future. Synonym innovative. Antonym antiquated fuzz /fʌz/ noun 1. a mass of short hair 2. □ the fuzz the police (dated slang offensive) fuzzy /'fʌzɪ/ adj 1. fluffy and curly ○ She's got dark fuzzy hair, which is difficult to comb. 2. blurred; not clear ○ The security camera produced a fuzzy photograph of the bank robbers. (NOTE: fuzzier — fuzziest)

FYI abbr for your information

G

g¹ /dʒi:/, G noun the seventh letter of the alphabet, between F and H g² abbr gram

gab /gæb/ noun □ the gift of the gab a talent for talking a lot gabble /'gæb(ə)l/ noun loud unintelligible talk. Synonym gibberish ■ verb to speak very quickly ○ He gabbled a few words in Spanish. Synonym jabber gable /'geɪb(ə)l/ noun the top part of a wall where it forms a triangle with the roof gad /gæd/ verb (humorous) □ to gad about or gad around to be constantly going out somewhere enjoying yourself ○ He's always gadding about.

gadget /'gædʒɪt/ noun a small useful tool gadgetry /'gædʒɪtri/ noun gadgets

Gaelic /'geɪlɪk/; in Scotland /'gælɪk/ noun a Celtic language spoken in some parts of Scotland, Ireland, and the Isle of Man ■ adj referring to Gaelic-speaking people or areas ○ Gaelic football gaffe /gæf/ noun a remark or action in a public situation which embarrasses someone. Synonym blunder, faux pas gag /gæg/ noun 1. something put into or over a person's mouth to stop him or her speaking ○ The burglars tied him up and put a gag in his mouth. 2. a joke ○ The audience laughed at most of his gags. ■ verb 1. to put something over a person's mouth to try to stop him or her talking ○ He was gagged and put into the boot of the car. 2. to try to stop someone talking or writing ○ The government tried to gag the press. 3. to choke; to try to vomit but be unable to do so ○ Every time the doctor tries to examine her throat, she gags. ○ He gagged on the hamburger. (NOTE: gagging – gagged) gaga /'gɑ:gɑ:/ adj mentally incompetent (informal offensive) gaggle /'gæg(ə)l/ noun a flock of geese, or a group of noisy people gaiety /'geɪətɪ/ noun happiness or cheerfulness. Antonym misery gaily /'geɪli/ adv happily. Antonym sadly

② gain /geɪn/ verb 1. to get ○ The army gained control of the country. ○ She gained some useful experience working on a farm. 2.

to increase in value ○ The pound gained six cents on the foreign exchange markets. 3. (of a clock or watch) to move ahead of the correct time ○ My watch gains five minutes a day. 4. □ to gain on someone or something, to gain ground to get closer to a person or thing you are chasing ○ With each lap he was gaining on the race leader. ■ noun 1. profit ○ He betrayed his country for financial gain. 2. an increase in weight, quantity, size, etc. ○ There was no gain in weight. □ gain in experience getting more experience gainful /'geɪnf(ə)l/ adj □ gainful employment employment which pays money gainfully /'geɪnf(ə)li/ adv □ gainfully employed working and earning money gait /geɪt/ noun a way of walking (NOTE: Do not confuse with gate.)

gal noun /gæl/ a girl or woman (dated or US slang) ■ abbr gallon gala /'gælələ/ noun a festive public occasion or performance. Synonym festival galactic /gælæktɪk/ adj referring to a galaxy (informal) galaxy /'gæləksi/ noun 1. a huge group of stars ○ There are vast numbers of galaxies. ○ The speed of stars near the centre of a galaxy may indicate the presence of black holes. 2. a large number of brilliant and famous people, such as film stars ○ There is a galaxy of singers on our show tonight. (NOTE: The plural is galaxies)

Galaxy /'gæləksi/ noun the Milky Way, a band of what look like tiny stars, easily seen with the naked eye gale /geɪl/ noun a very strong wind □ wintery gales gales with snow □ gale force winds winds which are strong enough to be called a gale gall /gɔ:l/ noun 1. a thick bitter brownish-yellow liquid produced by the liver, which helps to digest fatty substances. Synonym bile 2. a growth on a plant, especially on an oak tree, caused by a parasitic insect 3. impudence ○ He had the gall to say I had cheated.

■ verb to annoy someone ○ What galls me is that he is so successful when I'm not. Synonym irritate. Antonym please gallant /gɔ'lænt, 'gælænt/ adj 1. brave 2. polite to women ○ It was very gallant of him to offer to take her home. (NOTE: Gallant is used only of men.)

gallantly /'gæləntli/ adv in a gallant way gallantry /'gæləntri/ noun bravery gall bladder /'gɔ:l,blædə/ noun a sac underneath the liver, in which bile produced by the liver is stored galleon /'gæliən/ noun a large 16th century sailing ship

③ gallery /'gæləri/ noun 1. □ (art) gallery a place where objects such as pictures and sculptures are on show to the public ○ The National Gallery is in Trafalgar Square. ○ The Tate Gallery has a collection of modern paintings. 2. a balcony inside a church or hall ○ A group of musicians played in the gallery. 3. (in a theatre or cinema) the highest rows of seats ○ We managed to get seats in the gallery. 4. (in a mine) an underground passage or tunnel with walkways (NOTE: [all senses] The plural is galleries.)

galley /'gæli/ noun 1. a large ship rowed by slaves 2. a kitchen on a plane or ship ○ The stewardess will get you some water from the galley.

galling /'gɔ:lin/ adj annoying. Synonym frustrating. Antonym soothing gallon /'gælən/ noun a measure of quantity of liquid, equal to 4.55 litres ○ The car was empty and I had to put in seven gallons of petrol. ○ An economical car does 40 miles to the gallon.

COMMENT: In Britain one gallon (the imperial gallon) equals 4.55 litres, but in the USA only 3.78 litres.

③ gallop /'gæləp/ noun 1. the fastest running pace of a horse ○ The horse went off at a gallop. 2. a fast ride on a horse ○ Let's go for a gallop along the beach. □ verb to go fast, especially on horseback ○ The riders galloped through the woods. ○ He galloped through his lecture.

gallows /'gæləʊz/ noun a wooden support from which criminals are executed by hanging. Synonym scaffold (NOTE: The plural is gallows.)

galore /gə'lɔ:/ adj in large quantities ○ This autumn we had pears galore. (NOTE: always follows the noun)

galvanise /'gælvənaɪz/, galvanize verb 1. to coat iron with zinc ○ The shed has a galvanised iron roof. 2. to give someone a shock so that he or she will act ○ She tried to galvanise him into action.

gambit /'gæmbɪt/ noun 1. something said or done which should give you an advantage in an argument 2. a series of moves which start a game of chess gamble /'gæmbəl/ noun a risk ○ This investment is a bit of a gamble. ○ He took a gamble with the weather in planning his pic- nic for the beginning of March. □ verb to bet money on cards, horses, etc. ○ He lost all his money gambling on dog races. □ to gamble on something happening to do something, hoping that something will happen ○ We're gambling on fine weather for the village fête.

gambler /'gæmblə/ noun a person who gambles gambling /'gæmblɪŋ/ noun the activity of placing bets on cards, horses, etc., or of playing games of chance. ♦ betting

① game /'geɪm/ noun 1. a sport which can be won with skill, strength or luck ○ She's not very good at games. 2. a single match between two opponents or two opposing teams ○ Everyone wanted to watch the game of football. ○ Do you want a game of snooker? ○ Our team have won all their games this year. 3. □ to give the game away to reveal a secret plan □ so that's his little game! now we know what his plans are □ the game's up you've been found out 4. a single round in tennis, bridge, etc. ○ Game, set and match to Becker. ○ She's winning by six games to three. 5. □ Games a large organised sports competition ○ the Olympic Games ○ the Commonwealth Games 6. wild animals and birds such as deer, rabbits and pheasants, which are killed for sport or food ○ Our cookery book has several recipes for game. □ adj ready and willing (dated) ○ I'm game to have a go. ○ She's always game for anything.

gamebird /'geimbɜ:d/ noun a wild bird such as a pheasant or partridge which is killed for sport and food gamekeeper /'geɪmkɪ:pə/ noun a person working on a private estate who protects wild birds and animals so that they can be hunted gamely /'geimli/ adv bravely game of chance /,geim əv 'tʃ:ans/ noun a game where players bet on the possibility of winning game reserve /'geim rɪ,zɜ:v/, game park /'geim pɑ:k/ noun a park where wild animals are allowed to live freely game show /'geim ʃəʊ/ noun a TV show, where teams of people play games gaming /'geimɪŋ/ noun 1. same as gambling 2. the practice of playing computer games gamma /'gæmə/ noun the third letter of the Greek alphabet, or a mark showing a third level in a series. Symbol γ gamma rays /'gæmə reɪz/ plural noun rays which are shorter than X-rays and which are given off by radioactive substances gammon /'gæmən/ noun meat from the lower part of a side of bacon gamut /'gæmət/ noun the complete range of things of the same type gander /'gændə/ noun a male goose (NOTE: The females are geese and the young are goslings.)

③ gang /gæŋ/ noun 1. a band of people, e.g. criminals or youths ○ a notorious South American drugs gang ○ a gang of pickpockets ○ Gangs of football fans wandered round the streets breaking shop windows. 2. a group of workers ○ Gangs of men worked all night to repair the railway track. ■ verb □ to gang up with someone to join up with someone to do something ○ The different unions are ganging up to put in a joint pay claim. □ to gang up on someone to form a group to attack one person ○ She felt as if the rest of office staff were ganging up on her.

gangland /'gæŋlænd/ noun the gangs in an area taken as a group ○ The police are investigating a gangland murder.

gangling /'gæŋglɪŋ/ adj with long arms and legs. Synonym lanky. Antonym elegant gangplank /'gænplæŋk/ noun a plank from a quay to a boat to allow people to go on and off the boat. ♦ gangway gangrene /'gæŋgrɪn/ noun a condition where tissues die and rot, because the blood supply has been lost through injury gangster /'gænstə/ noun a criminal belonging to a violent gang gangway /'gæŋwei/ noun 1. (in a theatre, cinema, etc.) a passage between rows of seats ○ Don't block the gangway. 2. a little movable bridge for going on board a ship ○ We went up the gangway carrying our cases.

gaol /dʒeɪl/, gaoler /dʒeɪlə/ another spelling of jail, jailer (NOTE: The US spelling is always jail or jailer.)

② gap /gæp/ noun 1. a space between two things or in the middle of something ○ There's a gap between the two planks. ○ The sheep all rushed through the gap in the hedge. □ a gap in the market an opportunity to sell something ○ We're trying to find a gap in the market. 2. the difference between two things ○ The gap is widening between rich and poor. 3. something or someone missing ○ His departure left a gap in our team. ○ We need someone to fill a gap in our sales force.

gape /geɪp/ verb to open your mouth wide in surprise or shock gaping /'geɪpɪŋ/ adj wide. Antonym narrow gap year /'gæp ʃɪə/ noun a year between ending secondary school and going to university, when students often get work or travel experience before continuing their formal studies

② garage /'gærɪdʒ, 'gærə:ʒ/ noun 1. a small building where you can keep a car ○ He put the car into the garage overnight. ○

She drove the car out of the garage. ○ Don't forget to lock the garage door. ○ The hotel has garage space for thirty cars. 2. a business where petrol is sold and where cars may be repaired or sold ○ Where's the nearest garage? I need some petrol. ○ I can't drive you to the station – my car is in the garage. ○ You can hire cars from the garage near the post office. Also called service station ■ verb to keep a vehicle in a garage ○ The car was garaged overnight in the hotel's underground car park.

garage sale /'gærɪdʒ seɪl, 'gærə:ʒ seɪl/ noun a private sale of household goods which you do not want, held in your garage garb /gæ:b/ noun clothes worn by a particular category of person. Synonym clothing (NOTE: no plural)

③ garbage /'gæ:bɪdʒ/ noun 1. rubbish ○ I don't believe a word of what he said – it's just garbage. 2. mainly US household waste ○ Don't forget to put the garbage out. (NOTE: no plural. The usual British term is rubbish.)

garbed /'gæ:bd/ adj dressed in a particular way. Synonym clothed garbled /'gæ:b(ə)ld/ adj confusingly expressed and difficult to understand

① garden /'gæ:d(ə)n/ noun a piece of ground near a house, used for growing such things as vegetables and flowers ○ We grow all the vegetables we need in the back garden. ○ Your sister's outside, sitting in the garden. ○ He hurt his foot with a garden fork. (NOTE: The US term is yard.)

garden centre /'gæ:d(ə)n ,sɛntə/ noun a place which sells things such as plants, seeds, and equipment for gardening gardener /'gæ:d(ə)nə/ noun a person who looks after a garden either as a hobby or as a job garden gnome /'gæ:d(ə)n 'nəʊm/ noun a little coloured statue of a gnome, used as a garden decoration gardening /'gæ:d(ə)nɪŋ/ noun the activity of looking after a garden garden party /'gæ:d(ə)n ,pɑ:tɪ/ noun a social occasion held in a garden or in a house's grounds gardens /'gæ:d(ə)nɪz/ plural noun a large area made up of several sections of garden garden shed /,gæ:d(ə)n 'sed/ noun a small building where tools, equipment, and supplies for gardening are kept gargantuan /gɑ:'gæntjuən/ adj extremely big. Synonym huge. Antonym tiny gargle /'gæ:g(ə)l/ verb to clean your mouth by taking liquid into your mouth and blowing air through it before spitting it out ■ noun the action of gargling ○ Have a good gargle with this mouthwash.

gargoyle /'gɑ:gɔɪl/ noun a water spout on a medieval building, carved like a grotesque head garish /'geərɪʃ/ adj too colourful. Synonym gaudy. Antonym tasteful garland /'gɑ:lənd/ noun a circle of flowers or paper decorations ○ She wore a garland of flowers in her hair. ○ The room was decorated with paper garlands. ■ verb to decorate someone or something with garlands ○ The visitors were garlanded with flowers.

③ garlic /'gɑ:lik/ noun a bulb of a plant with a strong smell, a little like an onion garlic bread /,gɑ:lik 'bred/ noun French bread spread with butter and garlic and heated garlicky /'gɑ:lkɪkɪ/ adj tasting or smelling of garlic garment /'gɑ:mənt/ noun a piece of clothing (informal) garner /'gɑ:nə/ verb to collect something such as facts or data (informal) garnish /'gɑ:nɪʃ/ noun something used to decorate food ○ ham with a garnish of pickled cucumbers ■ verb to decorate food ○ The fish was garnished with slices of tomato.

garret /'gærət/ noun a small room in an attic. Synonym attic garrison /'gærɪs(ə)n/ noun soldiers defending a castle or town ○ The attackers promised the garrison safe passage if they surrendered. □ garrison town a town where a regiment of soldiers is based ■ verb to put troops somewhere as a garrison ○ The town was garrisoned by the Scots Guards.

garrulous /'gærələs/ adj who always talks a lot. Synonym talkative. Antonym taciturn

① gas /gæs/ noun 1. a chemical substance which is not a liquid or a solid, and which becomes liquid if it is cooled ○ Decomposing rubbish gives off methane gas. ○ Air is formed of several gases, mainly nitrogen and oxygen. □ gas attack an attack on an enemy using poison gas 2. a chemical substance used for cooking or heating ○ I must go back home – I think I left the gas on. ○ There is a smell of gas or It smells of gas in the kitchen. ○ Turn down the gas or Turn the gas down – it's too hot. ○ Can I borrow your lighter? – mine has run out of gas. ○ The hotel is heated by gas. 3. US same as gasoline ○ We ran out of gas on the freeway. □ to step on the gas to drive faster (informal) ○ Step on the gas – we'll miss the train! ■ verb to poison or kill someone using gas (informal) ○ Millions of people were gassed during the war. (NOTE: gassing – gassed) gas chamber /'gæs 'tʃeimbə/ noun a room where people are killed using poison gas gas cylinder /'gæs ,sɪlɪndə/ noun a metal tube containing gas gaseous /'gæsɪəs/ adj referring to gas gas fire /gæs 'faɪə/ noun a fire which heats with gas gash /gæʃ/ noun a deep cut ○ He received a gash on his forehead. Synonym wound (NOTE: The plural is gashes.) ■ verb to make a deep cut ○ The knife gashed his arm. ○ She gashed her hand on the broken glass.

gasket /'gæskɪt/ noun a thin piece of a material put between two surfaces to prevent liquid or gas escaping gasmask /'gæsmɑ:sk/ noun a mask which protects against poison gas gas meter /'gæs ,mɪtə/ noun a meter inside a house by which you pay for the gas which you use gasoline /'gæsəli:n/ noun US a liquid, made from petroleum, used to drive a car engine (NOTE: usually shortened to gas. The British term is petrol.)

gasp /'gɑ:sp/ noun 1. a sudden intake of breath showing surprise or pain ○ She gave a gasp when she saw the face at the window. 2. □ last gasp a final action, which marks the end of something ○ The executions were the last gasp of the army regime. □ he's at his last gasp it is almost the end of his life, reign, etc. ○ The poor car is at its last gasp – we really must get a new one. ■ verb 1. to take a short deep breath ○ He gasped when he saw the bill. 2. to have difficulty in breathing ○ After the race he lay on the ground gasping for breath.

gas station /'gæs ,steʃn/ noun US a place where you can buy gasoline (NOTE: The British term is petrol station.)

gassy /'gæsi/ adj (especially of carbonated drinks) full of gas gas tap /'gæs tæp/ noun a tap on an appliance which turns the gas on or off gastric /'gæstri:k/ adj referring to the stomach gastric flu /,gæstri:k 'flu:/ noun any mild stomach disorder (informal) gastronomic /,gæstrə'nomɪk/ adj relating to good eating, or to styles of cooking gas turbine /gæs 'tɜ:bain/ noun a unit in a car engine where the exhaust gases from the engine are used to drive a turbine and so increase engine power

② gate /geɪt/ noun 1. a low door made of bars of wood or metal, in a wall or fence, not in a building ○ Shut the gate – if you leave it open the sheep will get out of the field. ○ There is a white gate leading into the garden. 2. a door which leads to an aircraft at an airport ○ Flight AZ270 is now boarding at Gate 23. 3. the number of people with tickets to watch a sports match ○ There was a gate of

50,000 at the football final. (NOTE: Do not confuse with gait.)

gâteau /'gætəʊ/ noun a large cream cake (NOTE: The plural is gâteaux /'gætəʊz/.)

gatecrash /'geɪtkræʃ/ verb □ to gatecrash a party to get into a party without being invited ○ A group of students tried to gatecrash her party.

gatecrasher /'geɪtkræʃə/ noun a person who gets into a party without being invited gatepost /'geɪtpəʊst/ noun a vertical piece of wood to which a gate is attached with hinges □ between you, me and the gatepost let me tell you this in secret (informal) ○ Between you, me and the gatepost, I think she's pregnant.

gateway /'geɪtweɪ/ noun 1. an opening where a gate is fitted 2. a place which leads to a larger area ○ Washington, gateway to the south

② gather /'gæðə/ verb 1. to bring things or people together ○ He gathered his papers together after the lecture. ○ She has been gathering information on the history of the local school. 2. to come together ○ Groups of people gathered outside the Parliament building. 3. to understand ○ I gather that his father is in hospital. ○ We gather he has left the office. 4. to pick plants, flowers, fruit, etc. ○ The children were gathering blackberries. ○ The grape harvest has been gathered. 5. □ to gather speed to go faster ○ The bus gathered speed as it ran down the hill. 6. to bunch up material into little folds, by pulling a thread sewn along it

② gathering /'gæðərɪŋ/ noun a group of people who have come together ○ A speaker from another association will address the gathering. ■ adj which is coming together ○ The gathering crowds did not realise that the president had already left the country. □ the gathering storm the storm or other unpleasant event which is coming gauche /gəʊʃ/ adj clumsy and shy when meeting people. Synonym awkward gaudily /'go:dɪlɪ/ adv colourfully gaudy /'go:dɪ/ adj very brightly coloured. Synonym bright. Antonym tasteful (NOTE: gaudier – gaudiest)

② gauge /'geɪdʒ/ noun 1. an instrument to measure depth, pressure, etc. 2. the distance between the two rails in a railway line ■ verb to measure or to calculate ○ This is an instrument which gauges the speed of the wind. ○ The chairman tried to gauge the feeling of the meeting. Synonym evaluate

gaunt /'go:nt/ adj very thin gauntlet /'gɔ:ntlət/ noun a strong glove □ to throw down the gauntlet to issue a challenge □ to pick up the gauntlet to accept a challenge □ to run the gauntlet to go through a dangerous crowd ○ She ran the gauntlet of news photographers.

gauze /'gɔ:z/ noun a type of thin material

③ gave /geɪv/ □ give gawkiness /'gɔ:kiŋəs/ noun the fact of being gawky (informal) gawky /'gɔ:ki/ adj clumsy and rather unattractive in appearance or movement (informal) Synonym awkward (NOTE: gawkier – gawkiest) gawp /'gɔ:p/ verb to gaze stupidly or rudely at something

③ gay /geɪ/ adj 1. attracted to people of the same sex ○ It's a club where gay men and women meet. ○ They met in a gay bar in Soho. 2. bright and lively (dated) ○ The houses along the street are all painted in gay colours. (NOTE: gayer – gayest) ■ noun a person who is attracted to someone of the same sex ○ a club for gays

gaze /'geɪz/ noun a steady look ○ She refused to meet his gaze. Synonym stare. Antonym glance ■ verb to look steadily ○ She gazed into his eyes. ○ He stood on the cliff, gazing out to sea.

gazelle /'gæzəl/ noun a type of small antelope which runs and leaps in the air (NOTE: The plural is usually gazelle: a herd of gazelle.)

gazette /'gæzət/ noun 1. the official newspaper of a military, legal or government organisation 2. used in the name of some newspapers ○ The Evening Gazette gazetteer /,gæzə'tɪə/ noun a list of names of places gazump /'gæzʌmp/ verb to accept a higher price from a buyer for a house which someone else has already agreed to buy at a lower price (informal) □ to gazump someone to accept a higher price for a house which someone has already agreed to buy

GBH abbr grievous bodily harm

GCSE noun a British school exam taken at the age of around 16. Full form General Certificate of Secondary Education g'day /'g'daɪ/ Australia another spelling of good day

GDP abbr gross domestic product

③ gear /'geɪə/ noun 1. equipment ○ He took all his climbing gear with him. ○ She was carrying her painting gear in a rucksack. 2. clothing ○ She was putting on her tennis gear. 3. a system of cogs in a vehicle that makes it possible to change the amount of work the engine has to do to turn the wheels □ to change gear to move from one gear into another ○ There was a loud noise as he tried to change gear. □ top gear or high gear the highest gear, used for fast speeds ○ The car is most economical in top gear. □ in gear with the gears engaged ■ verb □ to gear something to to fit something to ○ The ferry services are geared to the tourist season. ○ Lessons must be geared to the students' ability.

gearbox /'gi:əbɒks/ noun a case for gears in a car gear lever /'gɪə ,li:və/, gear stick /'gɪə stɪk/ noun the handle in a car which is used to change gears gear up /,gɪəp 'ʌp/ verb to get ready gecko /'gekəʊ/ noun a small tropical lizard (NOTE: The plural is geckos.)

geek /gi:k/ noun a person who is a proud or enthusiastic user of computers or other technology, especially one who is interested in few other things or is socially awkward (informal)

③ geese /gi:s/ ♀ goose gee whizz /'dʒi: 'wɪz/ interj indicating surprise geezer /'gi:zə/ noun a man (slang)

Geiger counter /'gaɪgə ,kaʊntə/ noun a device for detecting and recording levels of radioactivity gel /dʒel/ noun a thick substance similar to a jelly ■ verb to become more certain or more clear ○ The details of the plan began to gel. (NOTE: gelling – gelled) gelatin /'dʒeləti:n/, gelatine noun a substance made from boiling animal bones, and used to make foods such as jelly gelatinous /dʒə'lætɪnəs/ adj like jelly gelding /'geldɪŋ/ noun a castrated male horse gelignite /'dʒelɪgnait/ noun an explosive made from nitroglycerine gem /dʒem/ noun 1. a precious stone ○ She wore a crown set with pearls and gems. 2. an amusing or interesting item ○ Here are some gems from yesterday's paper. 3. a person who is very useful and important to you

Gemini /'dʒemɪnai/ noun one of the signs of the Zodiac, shaped like twins, covering the period 21st May to 21st June gender /'dʒendə/ noun 1. the fact of being male or female ○ Everyone has the same rights, regardless of race, religion or gender. 2. (in grammar) a system where nouns and adjectives have different forms to show if they are masculine, feminine or neuter

② gene /dʒi:n/ noun the part of a chromosome which carries characteristics from parent to child genealogical /,dʒi:nɪə'lɒdʒɪk(ə)l/ adj referring to genealogy. Synonym hereditary genealogy /,dʒi:nɪ'ælədʒi/ noun 1. the study of the history of families ○ He's an expert in the genealogy of Scottish clans. 2. the history of a family, showing how different generations are related to each other ○ She's drawn up the genealogy of her father's family.

① general /'dʒen(ə)rəl/ adj 1. ordinary, not special ○ He had a good general education, but didn't specialise in any particular field. □ in general normally ○ In general, the weather is warmer in the south. 2. referring to everything or everyone ○ They issued a general instruction to all the staff. ■ noun an army officer of high rank ○ He has only recently been promoted to general.

general anaesthetic /,dʒen(ə)rəl ænæsthetɪk/ noun a substance given to make a patient lose consciousness so that a major surgical operation can be carried out general election /,dʒen(ə)rəl ɪ'lekʃən/ noun an election where all voters can vote for a new government general hospital /,dʒen(ə)rəl 'hɒspɪtl/ noun a hospital which deals with all types of injuries and illnesses generalisation /,dʒen(ə)rəlɪz'zeɪʃ(ə)n/, generalization noun a general statement. Antonym detail generalise /'dʒen(ə)rəlɪz/, generalize verb to make a general statement about something. Synonym simplify. Antonym specify generalised /'dʒen(ə)rəlɪzɪd/, generalized adj 1. concerning general ideas, not specific subjects ○ After talking about the recent floods, the discussion became more generalised. 2. affecting many areas throughout the body ○ The cancer became generalised. Antonym localised generalities /,dʒenə'rælɪtɪz/ plural noun general subjects for a conversation generality /,dʒenə'rælɪti/ noun the state of being general general knowledge /,dʒen(ə)rəl 'nɒlɪdʒ/ noun knowledge of a wide range of subjects

① generally /'dʒen(ə)rəli/ adv normally ○ The office is generally closed between Christmas and the New Year. Synonym usually. Antonym rarely general store /'dʒen(ə)rəl stɔ:/ noun a small shop which sells a wide range of goods general strike /,dʒen(ə)rəl 'straɪk/ noun a strike of all or many of the workers in a country ② generate /'dʒenəreɪt/ verb to produce something such as power ○ We use wind to generate electricity.

② generation /,dʒenə'reɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. the production of something such as power ○ the generation of electricity from waves 2. all people born at about the same time ○ The 1960s generation had an easier life than we did. ○ Many people of my father's generation cannot understand computer technology. 3.

members of a family born about the same time □ that's a matter for the younger generation that's a matter for the younger members of a family □ much of our time is spent looking after the older generation much of our time is spent looking after the older members of our family 4. a series of machines made at about the same time ○ They are developing a new type of engine for the next generation of aircraft.

generation gap /dʒenə'reɪʃ(ə)n/ gæp/ noun a lack of understanding between generations

② generator /dʒenə'reɪtə/ noun a machine which makes electricity generic /dʒə'nɪerɪk/ adj referring to a range or class of things. Antonym specific generosity /dʒə'nəsətɪ/ noun being glad to give money or your time to help someone generous /'dʒen(ə)rəs/ adj 1. giving money or presents gladly ○ Thank you! You're so generous! 2. very willing to give your time to help someone ○ He's been very generous with his time. 3. large ○ a generous helping of pudding genesis /'dʒenɪsɪs/ noun the origin or beginning of something (formal) gene therapy /'dʒi:nɪ ,θerəpi/ noun a medical treatment for some types of disease in which genes that can improve a patient's condition are put into their body

② genetic /dʒə'netɪk/ adj referring to genes. Synonym hereditary. Antonym learned

③ genetically /dʒə'netɪkli/ adv using genetic engineering genetically modified /dʒə'netɪklɪ 'mɒdfɪd/ noun with a genetic composition that has been altered through genetic engineering. Abbr GM genetic code /dʒə'netɪk 'kəʊd/ noun information stored in a cell's DNA and passed on as the cell divides genetic engineering /dʒə'netɪk endʒɪ'nɪərɪŋ/ noun techniques used to change the genetic composition of a cell so as to change certain characteristics geneticist /dʒə'netɪsɪst/ noun a person who specialises in the study of genetics genetics /dʒə'netɪks/ noun the science and study of genes and heredity genial /'dʒi:niəl/ adj cheerful and friendly genially /'dʒi:nɪəli/ adv in a cheerful and friendly way genital /'dʒenɪt(ə)l/ adj referring to the sex organs

③ genius /'dʒi:nɪəs/ noun 1. a very intelligent person; a person who has great ability ○ She's a chess genius. ○ Napoleon was a military genius. ○ She came top of the class –

she's a real genius. (NOTE: The plural is geniuses.) 2. great ability ○ He has a genius for keeping people amused. (NOTE: no plural) genocide /'dʒenəsəd/ noun the killing of an entire racial group genome /'dʒi:nəʊm/ noun 1. all the genes in an individual 2. a set of genes which are inherited from one parent genre /'gژənər/ noun a type of something such as art, literature or theatre gent /dʒent/ noun same as gentleman (dated informal) genteeel /dʒen'ti:l/ adj refined and respectable gentile /'dʒentəl/ noun, adj (a person) who is not a Jew

③ gentle /'dʒent(ə)l/ adj 1. soft and kind ○ The nurse has gentle hands. 2. not very strong ○ After a little gentle persuasion, she agreed to the plan. ○ He gave the door a gentle push. 3. not very steep ○ There is a gentle slope down to the lake. (NOTE: gentler – gentlest)

② gentleman /'dʒent(ə)lmən/ noun 1. a man, especially a well-behaved or upper-class man ○ He's such a gentleman; he always opens the door for me. 2. a polite way of referring to or addressing a man ○ This gentleman is waiting to be served. ○ Well, gentlemen, if everyone is here, the meeting can start. □ 'ladies and gentlemen' a polite way of starting to talk to a group of men and women (NOTE: The plural is gentlemen.)

③ gently /'dʒentli/ adv 1. softly ○ He gently put the blanket over her. ○ She rocked the cradle gently. □ gently does it! be careful! 2. not strongly ○ The wind blew gently through the bushes. 3. not steeply ○ The path rises gently to the top of the hill.

gentrification /'dʒentrɪfɪ'keɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the action of making a poor part of a town more popular with rich people gentrify /'dʒentrɪfaɪ/ verb to make a poor part of town popular with rich people gentry /'dʒentri/ plural noun people of high class, below the aristocracy. Antonym working class

③ genuine /'dʒenjuɪn/ adj 1. real; true ○ The painting was not a genuine Picasso. ○ A genuine leather purse will cost a lot more than that. 2. sincere and honest ○ She appeared to be an open, genuine person.

genuinely /'dʒenjuɪnlɪ/ adv 1. sincerely 2. very ○ a problem that is genuinely difficult to resolve genus /'dʒi:nəs/ noun a group of related species of animals or plants (NOTE: The plural is genera /'dʒenərəs/.)

geographical /,dʒi:ə'græfɪk(ə)l/ adj referring to geography

③ geography /dʒi'ɒgrəfi/ noun the study of the Earth's surface, its climate, plants and animals geological /dʒi:ə'lɒdʒɪk(ə)l/ adj referring to geology geologist /dʒi'ɒlədʒɪst/ noun a person who specialises in geology

③ geology /dʒi'bɒlədʒɪ/ noun the science and study of the rocks that form the Earth's crust geometrical /dʒi:ə'metrik(ə)l/ adj referring to geometry

③ geometry /dʒi'ɒmətri/ noun the mathematical science of lines, surfaces and solids

Georgian /dʒɔ:dʒən/ adj referring to the architecture of the time of George I, George II and George III in the eighteenth century geranium /dʒə'reniəm/ noun a brightly coloured summer flower, usually red or pink gerbil /dʒə:b(ə)l/ noun a small furry animal, often kept as a pet geriatric /dʒer'i:ætrɪk/ adj referring to old people, or old age ○ geriatric medicine. Synonym elderly. Antonym young geriatrics /dʒer'i:ætrɪks/ noun the study of old people and their health

③ germ /dʒə:m/ noun 1. something which causes disease ○ Wash your hands after emptying the dustbin so you don't spread any germs. 2. an inside part of a seed ○ wheat germ 3. the beginning of something ○ He had the germ of an idea.

① German /dʒə:mən/ adj referring to Germany or its inhabitants ○ There are three German players in the team. ○ Do you like German food? ■ noun 1. the language spoken in Germany, Austria and parts of Switzerland and Italy ○ Do you know the German for 'one – two – three'? ○ You must brush up your German if you are going to work in Germany. ○ He took a crash course in German. ○ He goes to German classes in the evening. 2. a person from Germany ○ Our next-door neighbours are Germans.

germane /dʒə:s'meɪn/ adj directly connected to a matter. Synonym relevant. Antonym irrelevant

German measles /dʒə:mən 'mi:z(ə)lz/ noun a usually mild disease which gives a red rash but which can affect an unborn child if caught by a pregnant woman. Also called rubella

German shepherd /dʒə:mən 'sepəd/ noun a breed of large dog, often used as a guard dog (NOTE: The British term is Alsatian.)

germicide /dʒə:mɪs'aɪd/ noun a substance which kills germs germinate /dʒə:mɪneɪt/ verb (of a plant seed) to start to grow. Synonym sprout germination /,dʒə:mɪ'neɪʃ(ə)n/ noun starting to grow gerund /'dʒerənd/ noun a noun formed from the present participle of a verb (NOTE: In English, gerunds are formed from the '-ing' form of verbs, as in Cycling is good exercise; Choral singing is very popular in Wales.)

gestation /dʒe'steɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. a period when a baby is carried in its mother's womb 2. a period when something such as a book is being worked on ○ The gestation period is almost over and the book should be published next month.

gesticulate /dʒe'stɪkju:leɪt/ verb to make signs with your hands or arms gesticulation /dʒe'stɪkju:leɪʃ(ə)n/ noun a sign made with your arms or hands

③ gesture /'dʒestʃə/ noun 1. a movement of part of the body such as the hands to show feeling ○ She made a slight gesture of impatience with her hand. 2. an action which shows that you care about something ○ The gift of fruit was a kind gesture on her part. ○ As a gesture to the staff, the management has had the toilets repainted. ■ verb to make a movement with your hands ○ He gestured to the audience to sit down.

① get /get/ verb 1. to receive something ○ We got a letter from the bank this morning. ○ He will get £10 for washing the car. ○ She gets more money than I do. 2. □ to get to to arrive at a place; to reach a place ○ We only got to the hotel at midnight. ○ When does your train get to London? ○ The plane gets to New York at 4 p.m. ○ When you get to my age you'll understand!. 3. □ to become a particular way ○ I'm getting too old for rugby. ○ He's got much fatter over the last year or so. ○ The sun got hotter and hotter. ○ The carpet's getting dirty. 4. □ to have something done ○ I must get my suit cleaned. ○ We got the car mended in time to go on holiday. 5. to make someone do something ○ Can you get the garage to mend the brakes? ○ I'll try and get her to bring some CDs. 6. to catch an illness ○ I think I'm getting a cold. ○ He got measles just before the holiday started. 7. to make something become a certain way ○ He always gets his clothes dirty. ○ She's busy getting the meal ready. 8. to start doing something ○ Let's get going! 9. to understand something ○ Do you think he got my meaning? □ got it! I've solved the problem! (NOTE: getting – got /got/ – has got)

② get across /,get ə'krɒs/ verb 1. to manage to cross something ○ They got across the river on rafts. 2. to make someone understand something ○ I'm trying to get across to the people in the office that they all have to work harder. ○ We just can't seem to get our message across.

② get along /,get ə'lon/ verb 1. to manage
 ○ She got along quite well when her mother was away on holiday. ○ We seem to get along very happily without the telephone. ○ How are you getting along? 2. □ to get along (with someone) to be friendly with someone; to work well with someone ○ I don't think they get along.

get around /,get ə'raund/ verb 1. to move from place to place ○ Since he had his accident he gets around on two sticks. 2. (of news) to be heard by a lot of people ○ The news soon got around that they were married.

③ get at /'get æt/ verb 1. to reach something ○ You'll need to stand on a chair to get at the jam jar on the top shelf. 2. □ to get at someone to criticise someone all the time (informal) ○ She thinks she's being got at. 3. to mean something ○ What was he really getting at when he said that some people were not working hard enough?

④ get away /,get ə'wei/ verb 1. to escape ○ The robbers got away in a stolen car. 2. □ to get away with something not to be punished for having done something ○ He's always rude to the customers, but gets away with it somehow. □ to get away with murder to do something really bad and still not be punished for it (informal) ○ He's the teacher's favourite and she lets him get away with murder.

getaway /'getəwei/ noun an escape

① get back /,get 'bæk/ verb 1. to return ○ They got back home very late. ○ When did they get back from the cinema? 2. to get something again which you had before ○ I got my money back after I had complained to the manager. □ to get your breath back to breathe normally after being breathless ○ At my age, I can't walk uphill very far without stopping to get my breath back. 3. to phone back or reply by post ○ I'll find out what the situation is and get back to you as soon as I can.

⑤ get by /,get 'baɪ/ verb 1. to manage to do something with difficulty ○ I can just get by in German. ○ How are you going to get by without a car? 2. to manage to live ○ It is difficult for them to get by in New York on only $30 a day.

⑥ get down /,get 'daʊn/ verb 1. to go back down onto the ground ○ The cat climbed up the tree and couldn't get down. ○ He got down off the ladder. 2. to bring down ○ Can you get my suitcase down for me? 3. to make someone sad ○ Rainy weather always gets me down.

⑦ get down to /,get 'daʊn tu:/ verb □ to get down to (some hard) work to start working hard ○ He will have to get down to work if he wants to pass the test.

① get in /,get 'ɪn/ verb 1. to go inside a vehicle such as a car ○ Get in! – the train's going to leave. ○ The burglars must have got in through the bathroom window. 2. to arrive home or at the office ○ What time did you get in last night? ○ Because of the train strike, we didn't get in until eleven o'clock. 3. to ask someone to come to do a job ○ We'll get a builder in to mend the wall.

① get into /,get 'ɪntu:/ verb 1. to go inside a vehicle such as a car ○ They got into the back of the car. ○ I was just getting into bed when the phone rang. ○ The burglars got into the building through a window on the ground floor. 2. □ to get into the habit of doing something to start to do something regularly ○ He got into the habit of calling his father 'Boss'. □ to get into trouble or difficulties to start to have problems ○ He got into trouble with the police. □ to get into a conversation with someone to start a conversation with someone

③ get lost /,get 'lost/ verb 1. not to know where you are ○ He's hopeless, he got lost walking from Oxford Circus to Piccadilly. ○ They should be back by now – do you think they've got lost? 2. □ get lost! go away! (slang) ○ When she asked him for money he told her to get lost.

④ get off /,get 'ɒf/ verb 1. to come down from or out of a vehicle such as a car ○ She got off her bicycle at the red light. ○ If you want the post office, you should get off at the next stop. ○ You have to get off the Underground at South Kensington. 2. not to be punished, or only receive a light punishment ○ She was lucky to get off so lightly. ○ He was found guilty of embezzlement and got off with a fine. 3. □ to get off someone's back to stop bothering someone (informal) ○ How can I get him off my back?

⑤ get on /,get 'ɒn/ verb 1. to go inside or onto a vehicle such as a car ○ They got on the bus at the bank. ○ The policeman got on his bike and rode away. 2. to become old ○ He's getting on and can't work as hard as he used to. 3. □ to get on (well) to progress well ○ She's getting on well at university. ○ My son is getting on well in his new job – he has just been promoted. 4. to manage ○ How's your new assistant getting on? 5. to be friendly with someone ○ They don't get on at all well.

⑥ get on with /,get 'ɒn wið/ verb 1. to be friendly with someone ○ He gets on very well with everyone. ○ She doesn't get on with her new boss. ○ They don't get on with one another. 2. to continue to do some work ○ He got on with his work and finished the job early.

⑦ get out /,get 'aut/ verb 1. to take something out ○ I'll get the book out of the library. ○ She's getting the car out of the garage. 2. to go out of something ○ The bus stopped and the driver got out. ○ The burglars got out through the front door. 3. □ to get out of the habit of doing something not to do something any more ○ I've got out of the habit of eating meat.

② get over /,get 'əvər/ verb 1. to climb over ○ They got over the wall into the garden. 2. to become better ○ He's got over his flu. 3. to recover from a shock ○ She never got over the death of her father.

get round /,get 'raund/ verb 1. □ to get round to (doing) something to do something at last ○ He only got round to sending his Christmas cards in the week before Christmas. 2. to persuade someone to like you or to do what you want ○ She got round the boss by giving him a bottle of wine.

get set /,get 'set/ verb be ready to run (instructions at the start of a race)

③ get through /,get 'θru:/ verb 1. to manage to go through ○ The cows got through the hole in the fence. 2. to be successful ○ He got through his exams, so he is now a qualified engineer.

④ get through to /,get 'θru: tu:/ verb 1. to make someone understand ○ I could not get through to her that I had to be at the airport by 2.15. 2. to manage to speak to someone on the phone ○ I tried to get through to the complaints department but the line was always engaged.

⑤ get to /'get tu:/ verb to arrive at; to reach a place get-together /'get tə,geðə/ noun a meeting of friends (informal)

① get up /,get 'ʌp/ verb 1. to get out of bed ○ He went to bed so late that he didn't get up until 11 o'clock. ○ It is 9.30 and John still hasn't got up. 2. to make someone get out of bed ○ You must get everyone up by 7.30 if we are going to leave on time. 3. to stand up ○ When he had finished his meal, he got up from the table and walked out of the room.

get-up /'get ʌp/ noun the clothes being worn, especially if they are unusual or ridiculous (informal) get-up-and-go /,get ʌp ən 'gəʊ/ noun energy and enthusiasm

⑤ get up to /,get 'ʌp tu:/ verb 1. to reach something ○ Stop reading when you get up to page 23. 2. □ to get up to something to do something you should not do ○ Look at the mess in here – whatever did you get up to last night?

geyser /'gi:zə/ noun 1. a natural spring of hot water ○ There are famous geysers in Yellowstone National Park. 2. a gas appliance for heating water ghastly /'ga:stli/ adj horrible (NOTE: ghastlier – ghastliest) gherkin /'gɜ:kin/ noun a small vegetable of the cucumber family used for pickling ghetto /'getəʊ/ noun a poor area in a city in which people of a particular race, religion or nationality live (NOTE: The plural is ghettos.) ghetto blaster /'getəʊ ,bla:stə/ noun a large and loud portable radio (informal; sometimes offensive) ghost /'gəʊst/ noun 1. an image of a dead person which appears ○ They say the house is haunted by the ghost of its former owner. ○ Her face is white – she looks as if she has seen a ghost. 2. □ to give up the ghost to die 2. □ not to have a ghost of a chance to have no chance at all ○ She's gone in for the competition, but she doesn't have a ghost of a chance of winning. ■ verb to write a book for someone else whose name will appear on the book as the author ○ He's ghosting the boxer's memoirs.

ghostly /'gəʊstli/ adj like a ghost. Synonym ethereal ghost story /'gəʊst ,stɔ:ri/ noun a frightening story about ghosts ghost town /'gəʊst taʊn/ noun an abandoned town where no one lives ghost writer /'gəʊst ,raɪtə/ noun a person who writes a book for a famous person whose name then appears on the book as if they were the author ghoul /'gu:l/ noun 1. a person who is interested in unpleasant things 2. an evil and frightening spirit 3. in Islamic folklore, a demon which steals bodies from graves

GI /,dʒi:/ ai/ noun an American soldier giant /'dʒaɪənt/ noun 1. (in fairy tales and myths) a very large man ○ a story about a giant who lived in a castle at the top of a mountain 2. any very large or important person or thing ○ He's a giant of a man. ○ Shares in the computer giant have soared. ■ adj very large ○ He's grown a giant cabbage. ○ They are planning a giant car factory in South Wales. Synonym huge. Antonym tiny giantess /'dʒaɪəntəs/ noun a female giant (NOTE: The plural is giantesses.) gibber /'dʒɪbə/ verb to talk rapidly without making any sense. Synonym babble gibberish /'dʒɪbərɪʃ/ noun nonsense; words that do not seem to mean anything. Synonym nonsense gibbon /'gɪbən/ noun a small ape with long legs and arms, native to Asia gibe /dʒaɪb/ noun a nasty remark ○ He went on with his experiments, disregarding the gibes of the press. Synonym jeer ■ verb to jeer; to mock. Synonym taunt (NOTE: also spelled jibe) giblets /'dʒɪbləts/ plural noun organs such as the liver and the heart of a bird which are taken out before it is cooked. Synonym guts giddy /'gɪdɪ/ adj dizzy; feeling that everything is turning round (NOTE: giddier – giddiest)

② gift /gɪft/ noun 1. a present; something given to someone ○ The wedding gifts were displayed on a table. ○ She was wrapping up gifts to put under the Christmas tree. 2. a special ability for something ○ He has a gift for maths. ○ She has a gift for saying embarrassing things.

gifted /'gɪftɪd/ adj with a special talent. Synonym talented gift shop /'gɪft ʃɒp/ noun a shop which sells the type of things which are often given as presents gift tag /'gɪft tæg/ noun a little label put on a parcel to show who it is for and who it is from gift token /'gɪft ,təʊkən/, gift voucher /'gɪft ,vaʊtʃə/ noun a card bought in a shop which is given as a present and which must be exchanged in that shop for goods gift-wrap /'gɪft ræp/ verb to wrap something in coloured paper to give as a present (NOTE: gift-wrapping – gift-wrapped) gift-wrapped /'gɪft ræpt/ adj (of a gift) packaged in attractive paper

③ gig /gɪg/ noun a performance of pop music (informal) giga- /'gɪgə/ prefix one thousand million gigabyte /'gɪgəbait/ noun a unit of computer data equal to 1,024 megabytes gigantic /dʒaɪ'gæntɪk/ adj very large; huge. Synonym huge. Antonym tiny

② giggle /'gɪg(ə)l/ noun 1. a little laugh, often showing you are embarrassed ○ fit of the giggles an attack of laughter which you cannot stop ○ When the singer came onto the stage, I had a fit of the giggles. 2. ○ for a giggle for fun; as a joke (informal) ○ We did it for a giggle. ■ verb to make a little laugh ○ When she saw her mother's hat she started to giggle. ○ The class giggled at his accent. Synonym titter gild /gɪld/ verb to cover with a layer of gold (NOTE: Do not confuse with guild.)

gill /dʒɪl/ noun a measure of liquids, equal to a quarter of a pint gills /gɪlz/ plural noun 1. openings on the sides of a fish's head, through which it breathes ○ green about the gills looking ill, as if you are going to be sick (informal) ○ When she came out of the abattoir, she looked distinctly green about the gills. 2. the thin dark ridges on the underside of a mushroom gilt /gɪlt/ adj covered with gold ○ a picture in a gilt frame (NOTE: Do not confuse with guilt.)

gimmick /'gɪmɪk/ noun a thing which is intended to attract attention gin /dʒɪn/ noun 1. a colourless alcoholic drink, flavoured with juniper ○ a cocktail made with gin 2. a glass of gin ○ a gin and tonic ○ Two gins and a bitter lemon, please.

ginger /'dʒɪndʒə/ noun 1. a plant whose root has a sharp burning taste and is used in cooking ○ Fry the meat with spring onions and slices of ginger. ○ Add a pinch of powdered ginger to the cake mixture. 2. an informal name given to someone with orange hair ○ Hey, Ginger! Come and help with these boxes. ■ adj (of hair) bright orange in colour ○ She has ginger hair and green eyes. ○ A ginger cat sat on the doorstep in the sun. ■ verb ○ to ginger something up to make something more lively ○ We need something to ginger up the party conference.

gingerly /'dʒɪndʒəli/ adv carefully, in case you might get hurt. Synonym cautiously. Antonym boldly gipsy /'dʒɪpsi/ another spelling of gypsy

③ giraffe /dʒɪ'ra:f/ noun a large African animal with a very long neck girder /'gɜ:də/ noun a strong metal beam to hold up a wall or roof girdle /'gɜ:d(ə)l/ noun 1. a belt round a dress 2. a tight piece of underwear worn by women in the past to support their bodies

① girl /gɜ:l/ noun 1. a female child ○ a crowd of girls waiting at the bus stop ○ They have four children – two boys and two girls. ○ My sister goes to the local girls' school. 2. a young woman

③ girlfriend /'gɜ:lfrɛnd/ noun a girl or woman that someone is having a relationship with ○ He's broken up with his girlfriend. ○ On Saturdays she always has lunch with a group of girlfriends. Antonym boyfriend

Girl Guides /'gɜ:l 'gaɪdəz/ noun ♀ Guides ○ She's joined the Girl Guides. ○ She was wearing her Girl Guide uniform. (NOTE: part of the same organisation as the Boy Scouts. The American equivalent is Girl Scout.)

girlish /'gɜ:liʃ/ adj like a young girl. Synonym youthful girth /gɜ:θ/ noun 1. a measurement round something, especially round your stomach (NOTE: no plural in this meaning) 2. a leather band round a horse's stomach ○ You need to tighten the girths.

git /gɪt/ noun an annoying person (informal insult)

① give /gɪv/ verb 1. to pass something to someone ○ Give me another piece of cake, please. ○ Can you give me some information about holidays in Greece? 2. to send or pass something to someone as a present ○ We gave her flowers for her birthday. ○ What are you going to give him when he gets married? ○ We gave ten pounds to the Red Cross. 3. to do something to someone or something ○ He gave me a broad smile. ○ He gave her a kiss. ○ She gave the ball a kick. 4. to organise something such as a party ○ They gave a reception for the visiting Foreign Minister. ○ We gave a party to celebrate her twenty-first birthday. 5. to do something in public ○ She gave a concert in aid of the Red Cross. ○ He will be giving the opening speech at the conference. ○ She has been asked to give a lecture on Shakespeare. 6. to bend or break ○ The plank gave as he stepped on it. (NOTE: giving – gave /'geɪv/ – has given /'grɪv(ə)n/) ■ noun 1. the ability to bend ○ The plank hasn't enough give. 2. □ it's a question of give and take you have to be prepared to make changes to what you want in order to get someone else to agree ① give away /,gɪv ə'weɪ/ verb 1. to give something as a present ○ We are giving away a pocket calculator with each £10 of purchases. 2. to throw things out by giving them to charity 3. to lead the bride to the bridegroom at a wedding ○ She was given away by her father. 4. to reveal something which you are trying to keep secret ○ His accent gave him away. ○ She gave herself away by saying that she had never been to France.

giveaway /'gɪvəweɪ/ noun 1. a gift which is given to a customer 2. a thing which reveals something ○ Her beaming smile was an absolute giveaway that she'd got the job.

① give back /,gɪv 'bæk/ verb to hand something back to someone

③ give in /,gɪv 'ɪn/ verb to agree to do something that you had refused to do earlier given name /'gɪv(ə)n neɪm/ noun someone's personal name, as opposed to their surname or family name. Synonym first name give off /,gɪv 'ɒf/ verb to produce something such as steam or a smell. Synonym emit ③ give out /,gɪv 'aut/ verb 1. to give something to everyone ○ She gave out presents to all the children. 2. to come to an end ○ The battery has given out so I can't use my watch.

② given /'gɪv(ə)n/ adj 1. having the habit of ○ He is given to sitting at home drinking all by himself. 2. (of a specific time) already arranged or specified ○ There is no given time for departure. □ at a given point in time at a particular moment □ at any given time at any particular time ■ conj considering ○ He plays the violin very well given his age. ○ Given that it's his birthday, it's a shame he couldn't get to the party.

giver /'gɪvə/ noun a person who gives something

① give up /,gɪv 'ʌp/ verb 1. to stop doing something ○ She's trying to give up smoking. 2. □ I give up I don't know the answer; I can't do it □ don't give up keep trying; carry on doing what you started

③ give way /,gɪv 'wei/ phrase 1. to let someone go first ○ Give way to traffic coming from the right. 2. to collapse ○ The chair gave way when he sat on it. 3. to stop objecting to something ○ In the end, our dad gave way and let us go camping by ourselves.

gizmo /'gɪzməʊ/ noun a useful little device (informal). Synonym gadget glacial /'gleɪʃ(ə)l/ adj 1. referring to ice 2. very cold ○ The glacial arctic winds blow all winter. 3. emotionless ○ His expression was glacial.

glacier /'gleɪsɪə/ noun a mass of ice like a frozen river which moves slowly down a mountain

② glad /gleɪd/ adj pleased ○ Aunt Jane was glad to get your postcard. ○ After shopping all day, she was glad to find somewhere to sit down. □ I bring you glad tidings I bring you good news (dated) gladden /'gleɪd(ə)n/ verb to please someone (dated) □ to gladden your heart to make you happy ○ The news will gladden the hearts of all gardeners. Synonym delight. Antonym sadden glade /gleɪd/ noun an open grassy place in a wood. Synonym clearing gladiator /'gleɪdɪətər/ noun an ancient Roman fighter gladiolus /,gleɪdi'əʊləs/ noun a tall garden plant with sword-shaped leaves and brightly-coloured flower spikes (NOTE: The plural is gladioli /gleɪdɪ'əʊləɪ/.)

gladly /'gleɪdlɪ/ adv with great pleasure glamorise /'glæməraɪz/, glamorize verb 1. to make someone or something glamorous 2. to make something seem to be more attractive or glamorous than it really is glamorous /'glæmərəs/ adj attractive; enchanting. Synonym stylish. Antonym drab glamour /'glæmə/ noun an attractive, dazzling appearance (NOTE: no plural. Another US spelling is glamor.)

③ glance /glæ:ns/ noun a quick look ○ She gave him an admiring glance. ○ She took a quick glance over her shoulder. Antonym gaze □ at a glance after a quick look at something ○ At a glance, I'd say these rugs are Chinese. ■ verb 1. to look quickly ○ He glanced over his shoulder to see who was following him. ○ She glanced suspiciously at the waiter. 2. □ to glance off something to slide off something instead of hitting it straight on ○ The ball glanced off the edge of her racket.

glancing /'glu:nsɪŋ/ adj sliding off to the side. Synonym sideways gland /glænd/ noun an organ in the body which produces a chemical substance glandular fever /,glænddju:lə 'fɪrvə/ noun an infectious disease, where the body has an excessive number of white blood cells glare /gleə/ noun 1. a very bright light ○ The glare of the sun on the wet road blinded me. □ the glare of publicity attention from newspapers and television ○ Pop stars live their lives in the glare of publicity. 2. a fierce look ○ He gave her a glare and walked on. ■ verb 1. to shine very brightly ○ The sun was glaring down on the square. 2. to look angrily ○ She glared at me and went on reading her book.

glaring /'gleərɪŋ/ adj 1. very bright ○ the glaring headlights of the cars 2. fierce ○ He gave me a glaring look. 3. obvious ○ The book is full of glaring mistakes.

① glass /glɑ:s/ noun 1. material which you can see through, used to make things such as windows, vases and bowls ○ a bowl made of glass or a glass bowl ○ a car with dark glass windows (NOTE: no plural) 2. a container to drink out of, usually made of glass ○ She put the dirty glasses in the dishwasher. ○ We took plastic wine glasses on the picnic. (NOTE: The plural is glasses.) 3. the liquid contained in a glass ○ She asked for a glass of water. ○ He was so thirsty he drank three glasses. ○ Add a glass of red wine to the sauce. (NOTE: The plural is glasses.)

glass ceiling /glɑ:s 'sɪ:lɪŋ/ noun a system which prevents certain people, especially women, from progressing in their career

② glasses /'glɑ:sɪz/ plural noun two plastic or glass lenses in a frame which you wear in front of your eyes to help you see better ○ Have you seen my glasses anywhere? ○ She has to wear glasses to read. Synonym spectacles (NOTE: no singular: to show one item, say 'a pair of glasses'.)

glasshouse /'glɑ:ʃaʊs/ noun a large greenhouse glassware /'glɑ:sweə/ noun things made of glass glassy /'glɑ:si/ adj 1. resembling glass 2. dull; not seeing ○ a glassy stare glaze /gleɪz/ noun a shiny surface on pottery ○ The pot has a green-blue glaze. Synonym coating ■ verb 1. to put glass in a window ○ The framework of the greenhouse has been built and now it needs to be glazed. 2. to cover a cake or a piece of pottery, with a shiny coating ○ She glazed the cake and put six candles on it.

glazed /gleɪzd/ adj 1. with a shiny surface ○ a floor of glazed tiles 2. with glass windows ○ We have built a glazed porch. 3. □ he gave her a glazed look he looked at her without showing any expression ○ She stared at him with a glazed look on her face.

glazing /'gleɪzɪŋ/ noun the glass in windows or doors gleam /'gleɪm/ noun 1. a small light ○ He saw the gleam of a flashlight in the distance. 2. a slight sign ○ He saw a gleam of recognition in the boy's eyes. ○ There was a wild gleam in her eyes. ■ verb to shine as if polished ○ a line of gleaming black cars glean /'gleɪn/ verb to collect scraps of information glee /gleɪ/ noun great happiness gleeful /'gleɪf(ə)l/ adj very happy gleefully /'gleɪfəli/ adv happily glen /'gleɪn/ noun (in Scotland) a narrow valley glip /'glɪp/ adj easily said, but insincere

③ glide /'glraɪd/ verb 1. to move in a smooth way ○ Skaters were gliding across the ice. ○ A bird went gliding past. 2. to fly a plane without using the engines glider /'glraɪdə/ noun an aircraft which flies without a motor gliding /'glraɪdɪŋ/ noun the sport of flying a glider. ♦ hang-gliding glimmer /'glɪmə/ noun 1. a small weak light ○ There was a glimmer of light in one of the upstairs windows. 2. a very small amount ○ The news brought a glimmer of hope to the families of the trapped miners. ■ verb to shine weakly ○ A light glimmered some distance away in the trees. Synonym twinkle glimpse /'glɪmps/ noun a brief sight ○ We caught a glimpse of the princess as she drove past. ○ There was a brief glimpse of the sun during the afternoon. ■ verb to catch sight of someone or something ○ We only glimpsed the back of her head as she was leaving.

glint /'glɪnt/ noun a flash ○ a glint of sunlight on the waves ■ verb to flash ○ The soldiers' swords glinted in the sunshine.

glisten /'glɪs(ə)n/ verb to shine brightly, as if wet. Synonym gleam glitch /'glɪtʃ/ noun a small problem which suddenly arises glitter /'glɪtə/ noun a bright sparkle of light ○ the glitter of the sun on the sea ○ She was attracted by the glitter of the West End theatres. ■ verb to sparkle ○ The jewels in her crown were glittering in the light of the candles. ○ Her eyes glittered hopefully as she spoke. Synonym gleam □ all that glitters is not gold things which look very attractive on the surface often turn out not to be so glittering /'glɪtərɪŋ/ adj 1. which shines brightly ○ a glittering diamond crown 2.

very brilliant; very successful ○ They threw a glittering reception at the golf club. ○ He had a glittering career in the Foreign Office.

glitz /glɪts/ noun a quality which makes something seem to be very exciting and glamorous glitzy /'glɪtsi/ adj glamorous and exciting, but without real value gloat /gləʊt/ verb □ to gloat over something to be happy about something, especially someone else's bad luck ○ She gloated over her brother's misfortune in losing his well-paid job. ○ He gloated over the bag of gold he kept under his bed.

③ global /'gləʊb(ə)l/ adj 1. referring to the whole world ○ We offer a global parcel delivery service. 2. referring to the whole of something ○ We are carrying out a global review of salaries.

globalisation /,gləʊbələɪ'zeɪʃ(ə)n/, globalization noun the process by which world economy and culture merge, as a result of telecommunications and multinational companies globalise /'gləʊbəlaɪz/, globalize verb to make or become global globally /'gləʊbəlɪ/ adv involving all parts of the world, or of an organisation

③ global warming /,gləʊb(ə)l 'wɔ:rmɪŋ/ noun a gradual rise in temperature over the whole of the Earth's surface, caused by the greenhouse effect

globe /gləʊbl/ noun 1. □ the globe the world ○ He is trying to be the first person to fly round the globe in a balloon. 2. a map of the world on a ball ○ He spun the globe round and pointed to Canada.

globetrotter /'gləʊbtrɒtə/ noun a person who travels all over the world (informal) globetrotting /'gləʊbtrɒtɪŋ/ adj who travels all over the world (informal) globular /'gləʊbjʊlə/ adj shaped like a globule. Synonym spherical globule /'gləʊbju:l/ noun a small round drop, especially of oil or another thick liquid gloom /glu:m/ noun 1. darkness ○ It was difficult to see in the gathering gloom. 2. deep despair ○ A feeling of deep gloom came down on the family. ○ When the exam results came out everyone sank into gloom.

gloomily /'glu:mili/ adv in a gloomy way

③ gloomy /'glu:mi/ adj 1. miserable; unhappy ○ She was gloomy about her chances of passing the exam. ○ He's very gloomy about his job prospects. 2. dark ○ a gloomy Sunday afternoon in November (NOTE: gloomier – gloomiest) glorification /,glɔ:rɪfɪ'keɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the act of making something seem more important or special than it really is glorified /'glɔ:rɪfaɪd/ adj seeming more important or special than it really is glorify /'glɔ:rɪfaɪ/ verb to make something seem more important or special than it really is. Synonym praise. Antonym belittle glorious /'glɔ:riəs/ adj splendid. Synonym magnificent. Antonym shameful glory /'glɔ:ri/ noun 1. fame ○ I did it for the glory of the school, not for myself. □ the team covered themselves with glory the team had a marvellous win 2. a wonderful sight ○ It is one of the glories of ancient Rome. ■ verb □ to glory in something to take great pride in something ○ She glories in beating her brother at chess.

gloss /glɒs/ noun 1. a shine on the surface of something ○ The metal is polished to give a brilliant gloss. (NOTE: no plural) 2. a note which explains or gives a meaning to a word, phrase or whole text ○ his glosses on the plays of Shakespeare (NOTE: The plural is glosses.) ■ verb □ to gloss over to try to cover up a mistake or fault ○ She tried to gloss over the fact that they had failed. ○ The report glosses over the mistakes made by officials.

glossary /'glosəri/ noun a list of specialist words and their meanings or translations (NOTE: The plural is glossaries.) gloss paint /'glos peɪnt/ noun a paint which is shiny when dry glossy /'glɒsɪ/ adj shiny ○ the glossy coat of a horse (NOTE: glossier – glossiest) ■ noun a glossy magazine, a magazine printed on shiny paper, with bright fashionable photographs ○ Photographs of the wedding were in all the glossies.

glottis /'glɒtɪs/ noun an opening in the larynx between the vocal cords, the entry to the main airway glove /gləv/ noun a piece of clothing worn on your hand glove compartment /'gləv kəm'pɑ:tment/ noun a little cupboard with a door in front of the passenger's seat in a car glove puppet /'gləv ,papɪt/ noun a doll which fits over your hand glow /gləʊ/ noun 1. a soft bright light ○ the warm glow of the fire 2. the bright red colour of healthy cheeks ○ the glow of the children's cheeks as they came back into the house ■ verb to shine dull red ○ The logs glowed in the fireplace. ○ Her face glowed with pride.

glower /'gləʊə/ verb to look angrily ■ noun an angry stare glowing /'gləʊɪŋ/ adj 1. bright; shining with fire ○ the glowing charcoal in the barbecue 2. full of praise or enthusiasm ○ He had a glowing report from his boss.

glucose /'glu:kəʊz/ noun a widely occurring simple sugar

③ glue /glu:/ noun a substance which sticks things together ○ She spread the glue carefully onto the back of the poster. ○ The glue on the envelope doesn't stick very well. Synonym adhesive ■ verb 1. to stick things together ○ He glued the label to the box. 2. □ to be glued to something to sit in front of something without moving ○ The children sat glued to the TV set.

glue sniffing /'glu:, snifɪŋ/ noun a form of drug abuse where users inhale the fumes from a strong glue glum /glʌm/ adj miserable. Synonym gloomy. Antonym cheerful (NOTE: glummer – glummiest) glumly /'glʌmlɪ/ adv in a glum way glut /glʌt/ noun too much of something ○ There's a glut of poultry on the market. Synonym excess. Antonym shortage ■ verb □ to be glutted with something to have too much of something ○ The market is glutted with cheap cameras.

glutinous /'glu:tɪnəs/ adj unpleasantly thick and sticky glutton /'glʌtn/ noun 1. a person who eats too much ○ He's just a glutton – look at him finishing off that trifle! 2. □ a glutton for punishment a person who likes doing difficult things or working very hard gluttonous /'glʌt(ə)nəs/ adj referring to eating too much. Synonym greedy gluttony /'glʌt(ə)nɪ/ noun eating and drinking too much. Synonym greed glycerine /'glɪsərɪn/ noun a colourless sweet liquid, used in medicine and explosives (NOTE: The US spelling is glycerin.)

gm abbr gram

GM abbr genetically modified

GMO abbr genetically modified organism

GMT abbr Greenwich Mean Time

gnarled /na:ld/ adj twisted; covered with hard lumps gnash /næʃ/ verb to grind your teeth gnat /næt/ noun a small fly which bites. Synonym midge gnaw /nɔ:/ verb to chew something; to bite something again and again gnawing /'nɔ:ɪŋ/ adj (of worries) persistent and troubling gnome /nəʊm/ noun a little man with a beard and pointed hat, in children's fairy stories

GNP abbr gross national product

① go /gəʊ/ verb 1. to move from one place to another ○ The plane goes to Frankfurt, then to Rome. ○ She is going to London for the weekend. ○ It's time the children went to bed. ○ He has gone to work in Washington. ○ They are going on a tour of the south of

Spain. ○ She was going downstairs when she fell. 2. to work ○ Can you phone the garage? – the car won't go. ○ He's trying to get his motorbike to go. 3. to leave ○ Get your coat, it's time to go. ○ The last bus goes at half past two. 4. to fit ○ It's too big to go into the box. ○ This case won't go into the back of the car. 5. to be placed ○ The date should go at the top of the letter. ○ That book goes on the top shelf. 6. to become ○ Her face went red from sitting in the sun. ○ He went pale and rushed out of the room. ○ You have to shout, my father's going deaf. ○ She's going grey, but it suits her. 7. to happen in a particular way ○ The party went very well. ○ Things are going badly at work. 8. to make a sound ○ The balloon landed on a candle and went 'pop'. ○ Do you remember the song that goes: 'there's no place like home'? 9. to fail to work ○ As we were going down the hill, the brakes went. (NOTE: going – went /wənt/ – has gone /gən/) ■ noun 1. □ on the go always busy ○ The shop is so busy before Christmas that we're on the go from morning till night. □ to make a go of something to make something work successfully ○ They're struggling to make a go of their business. □ she's always full of go she always has plenty of energy 2. a try; an attempt ○ He won the lottery at the first go. ○ She had three goes at the test and still didn't pass. ○ We'll give it one more go, and if the car doesn't start I'll call the garage. (NOTE: The plural is goes.) □ to be going to 1. showing future ○ We're going to win. ○ I hope it's going to be fine tomorrow. ○ When are you going to wash your hair? ○ He's going to be a great tennis player when he's older. ○ Is she going to sing at the concert? 2. □ to be going to do something to be about to do something ○ I'm going to be late for the meeting. ○ Watch out – that tree is going to fall down! ○ I am going to sit in bed and read my newspaper.

go about /,gəʊ ə'baut/ verb to deal with something goad /gəʊd/ noun a stick used to make animals go forward ○ She drove the buffalo forward, poking it with a long goad. ■ verb □ to goad someone into doing something to push someone into doing something which he or she does not want to do ○ Her laughter goaded him into action.

go ahead /,gəʊ ə'hed/ verb to take place as planned ○ The project went ahead even though there were not enough staff. Antonym fall through

② go-ahead /'gəʊ ə'hed/ noun (informal) □ to give something the go-ahead to give permission for something to start ○ We got the council's go-ahead to build the new supermarket. ■ adj hard-working and enterprising

○ a go-ahead publicity firm ○ The company needs a go-ahead managing director.

① goal /gəʊl/ noun 1. (in games) two posts between which you have to send the ball to score a point ○ He was unlucky to miss the goal with that shot. 2. (in games) a point scored by sending the ball between the posts ○ He scored a goal before being sent off. ○ Our team scored three goals. 3. an aim ○ Our goal is to open a new pizza restaurant every month. ○ He achieved his goal of becoming a millionaire before he was thirty.

goalie /'gəʊli/ noun a goalkeeper (informal) goalkeeper /'gəʊlki:pə/ noun a player who stands in front of the goal to stop the ball going in goalless /'gəʊləs/ adj with no goals being scored go along with /,gəʊ ə'lɒŋ wɪθ/ verb to agree with someone or something goalpost /'gəʊlpəst/ noun one of the two posts between which you have to send the ball to score a point □ to move the goalposts to change the way things are done to gain an advantage ○ Everyone thought the investment was tax-free, and then the government suddenly moved the goalposts.

goat /gəʊt/ noun 1. a small farm animal with horns and a beard, giving milk and wool ○ a herd of goats □ to separate the sheep from the goats to divide the good from the bad 2. □ to get someone's goat to annoy someone (informal) ○ It really got my goat the way he turned up for work at lunchtime.

goatee /gəʊ'ti:/ noun a small pointed beard go away /,gəʊ ə'weɪ/ verb to leave go back /,gəʊ 'bæk/ verb to return go back on /,gəʊ 'bæk ɒn/ verb not to do what has been promised gobble /'gɒb(ə)l/ verb 1. to eat greedily ○ He gobbled up his dinner. 2. to make a noise like a turkey ○ We could hear the turkeys gobbling away in the farmyard.

gobbledygook /'gɒb(ə)ldi,gu:k/ noun nonsense or technical language that you do not understand go-between /'gəʊ bɪ,twi:n/ noun a person who takes messages between two people goblet /'gɒblət/ noun a large wine glass with a long stem, or a similar container made of metal or pottery goblin /'gɒblɪn/ noun an ugly little man in fairy stories go-cart /'gəʊ ka:t/ noun another spelling of go-kart

god /gɒd/ noun a being with special powers that humans do not have, who is worshipped by some people ○ Bacchus was the Roman god of wine.

① God /gɒd/ noun the spiritual being that is worshipped by Christians, Jews and Muslims ○ Do you believe in God? ○ We pray to God that the children will be found alive. ■ interj used for showing surprise or annoyance, ○ God, what awful weather! ○ My God, have you seen how late it is? □ thank God used for showing relief ○ Thank God no one was hurt in the crash! ○ Thank God you've come! (NOTE: Using expressions that include the word God is offensive to some people.)

godchild /'gɒdʃaɪld/ noun a child who has a godparent (NOTE: The plural is godchildren.)

god-daughter /'gɒd ,də:tə/ noun a girl who has godparents goddess /'gɒdəs/ noun a female god (NOTE: The plural is goddesses.)

godfather /'gɒdfɑ:ðə/ noun 1. a male godparent ○ He was godfather to four children. 2. the head of a mafia gang ○ The godfather's word is law.

god-forsaken /'gɒd fə,seɪkən/ adj desolate godless /'gɒdləs/ adj 1. not believing in God 2. not following principles of morality godlike /'gɒdlɪk/ adj having the qualities of a god or of God godly /'gɒdli/ adj very religious; like a saint (dated) godmother /'gɒdmʌðə/ noun a female godparent

① go down /,gəʊ 'daʊn/ verb 1. to go to a lower level ○ There are thirty-nine steps which go down to the beach. ○ Be careful when going down the hill. ○ After having a rest in her bedroom, she went down to the hotel bar. ○ Prices have gone down. 2. to catch a disease ○ Half the crew went down with flu. 3. □ to go down well to be accepted ○ The head teacher's talk didn't go down at all well with the parents.

godown /'gəʊdaʊn/ noun (in the Far East and India) a warehouse godparent /'gɒdpεərənt/ noun a person who promises to take a special interest in a child at his or her baptism godsend /'gɒdsend/ noun a helpful thing which arrives just in time. Synonym blessing godson /'gɒdsən/ noun a boy who has godparents goes /gəʊz/ □ go

gofer /'gəʊfə/ noun US a person who does all types of work in an office, especially taking messages (informal) (NOTE: Do not confuse with gopher.)

go-getter /'gəʊ 'getə/ noun a person who works hard and is determined to succeed goggles /'gɒg(ə)lz/ plural noun close-fitting glasses worn to protect your eyes ○ You should wear goggles when you use a drill. ○ He wore goggles when going scuba diving. (NOTE: no singular: to show one item, say 'a pair of goggles'.)

go in /,gəʊ 'ɪn/ verb to enter go in for /,gəʊ 'ɪn fɔ:/ verb 1. to take an examination ○ She went in for her proficiency exam. 2. to take something up as a career ○ He's going in for medicine.

① going /'gəʊɪŋ/ adj normal; usual ○ You will be paid the going rate. ■ noun the surface of a race track ○ The going is soft after last night's rain. □ do it while the going is good do it while it is still possible ■ verb □ to get going to start doing something ○ Come on, let's get going!

going concern /,gəʊɪŋ kən'sə:n/ noun a business that is operating successfully and is likely to continue to do so ○ The business is being sold as a going concern.

going-over /,gəʊɪŋ 'əvəvə/ noun a thorough check goings-on /,gəʊɪŋz 'ɒn/ plural noun strange things that happen (informal)

① go into /,gəʊ 'ɪntu:/ verb 1. to enter ○ She went into the bedroom. 2. (in maths) to be able to divide a number to give a figure ○ Seven into three won't go. 3. to examine something; to look at something carefully ○ The bank wants to go into the details of his account. 4. to explain something in detail ○ She said she had a job offer but wouldn't go into any details.

go-kart /'gəʊ ka:t/ noun a little racing car made of a simple metal frame with an engine ② gold /'gəʊld/ noun a very valuable yellow-coloured metal ○ That ring isn't made of gold. ○ Gold is worth more than silver. ○ He wears a gold ring on his little finger. (NOTE: no plural: some gold, a bar of gold) ■ adj of the colour of gold ○ a gold carpet

③ gold card /'gəʊld ka:d/ noun a special credit card for people with relatively high salaries

④ golden /'gəʊld(ə)n/ adj coloured like gold; made from gold ○ She has beautiful golden hair.

golden age /'gəʊld(ə)n eɪdʒ/ noun a period of wealth or success golden boy /'gəʊld(ə)n bɔ:/ adj a young man who is popular and a great success golden goal /,gəʊld(ə)n 'gəʊl/ noun (in World Cup football) the first goal to be scored in extra time which decides the winner of a match golden handshake /,gəʊld(ə)n 'hændse:k/ noun a large, usually tax-free, sum of money given to a director who retires from a company before the end of his or her service contract (informal) golden jubilee /,gəʊld(ə)n 'dʒu:bili:/ noun a celebration 50 years after an event took place golden opportunity /,gəʊld(ə)n əpə-'tju:niti/ noun a marvellous chance to do something which may not happen again golden rule /,gəʊld(ə)n 'ru:l/ noun an important rule that must be obeyed golden syrup /,gəʊld(ə)n 'sɪrəp/ noun a thick yellow liquid made from sugar golden wedding /,gəʊld(ə)n 'wedɪŋ/ noun 1. a day when you have been married for fifty years ○ It's my parents' golden wedding next Tuesday. 2. same as golden wedding anniversary golden wedding anniversary /,gəʊld(ə)n 'wedɪŋ ænɪ,vɜ:sərɪ/ noun a celebration when two people have been married for fifty years goldfish /'gəʊldfɪʃ/ noun a small orange fish, kept as a pet (NOTE: The plural is goldfish.)

③ gold medal /gəʊld 'med(ə)l/ noun the medal given to someone who finishes first in a race or competition gold medallist /gəʊld 'med(ə)list/ noun the person who wins the gold medal in a race or competition goldmine /'gəʊldmaɪn/ noun a mine which produces gold □ that shop is a little goldmine that shop is a very profitable business

② golf /gɔlf/ noun a game played on a large open course, by hitting a small ball into 18 separate holes with a variety of clubs, using as few strokes as possible ○ He plays golf every Saturday. ○ Do you want a game of golf?

golf ball /'gɔlf bɔ:l/ noun a small hard white ball used when playing golf

③ golf club /'gɔlf kləb/ noun 1. a stick used to hit the ball in golf ○ She put her golf clubs into the back of the car. 2. an organisation for people who play golf together ○ He's joined his local golf club. 3. a place with a golf course and a restaurant and bar, where people go to play golf and meet socially golf course /'gɔlf kɔ:s/ noun a large area of ground for playing golf golfer /'gɔlfə/ noun a person who plays golf golfing noun /'gɔlfɪŋ/ the act of playing golf ■ adj relating to playing golf ○ a golfing holiday gondola /'gɔndələ/ noun 1. a narrow boat, used on the canals in Venice, pushed by a person with a long pole 2. a passenger compartment hanging on a cable or underneath a balloon

④ gone /gɔn/ □ go gong /gɔŋ/ noun 1. a metal disc which is sounds like a bell when it is hit ○ They sounded a gong to warn visitors that the museum was closing. 2. a medal or award (informal) ○ He got a gong for long service.

gonna /'gɒnə/ another spelling of going to (informal) ○ I'm gonna get you before you get me!

gonorrhoea /,gɒnə'ri:ə/ noun a sexually transmitted disease which produces painful irritation of the vagina or penis goo /gu:/ noun sticky stuff (informal) (NOTE: no plural)

① good /gʊd/ adj 1. of high quality; not bad ○ We had a good breakfast and then started work. ○ Did you have a good time at the party? ○ It would be a good idea to invest in these shares. ○ Her Spanish is better than his. 2. skilful; clever ○ He's good at making things out of wood. ○ She's good with her hands. ○ He is good at football. 3. well-behaved ○ Be a good girl and I'll give you a sweet. ○ Have you been good while we've been away? □ as good as gold very well behaved ○ The children were as good as gold. 4. □ a good deal of, a good many a lot of ○ He won a good deal of money on the lottery. ○ A good many people saw the accident. (NOTE: good – better /'bɛtə/ – best /bɛst/)

■ noun 1. an advantage or a benefit ○ The medicine didn't do me any good. ○ He decided to give up smoking for the good of his health. ○ What's the good of having a big garden if you don't like gardening? ○ Governments should work for the good of the people. 2. the quality of being morally right ○ The play represents the struggle between the forces of good and evil. 3. □ for good for ever ○ He's left the town for good. ■ interj □ Good! Excellent; I'm pleased!

① good afternoon /gʊd 'aʊftə'nʌ:n/ interj used when meeting or leaving someone in the afternoon

① goodbye /gʊd'baɪ/ noun, interj used when leaving someone ○ Say goodbye to your teacher. ○ Goodbye! we'll see you again on Thursday. (NOTE: often shortened to bye)

③ good day /gʊd'deɪ/; /gʊd 'deɪ/ interj 1. mainly used in Australia, meaning 'hello' ○ Good day, everybody! (NOTE: often written g'day in this meaning) 2. used for saying hello or goodbye (dated) ○ Good day to you!

① good evening /gʊd 'iːvnɪŋ/ interj used when meeting or leaving someone in the evening good-for-nothing noun a lazy person ■ adj lazy

③ Good Friday /gʊd 'fraɪdeɪ/ noun the Friday before Easter Day good guy /'gʊd ɡaɪ/ noun a hero (informal) good-humoured /,gʊd 'hjuːməd/ adj cheerful and friendly (NOTE: The US spelling is good-humored) goodies /'gʊdɪz/ plural noun 1. sweet food ○ The children looked at all the goodies on the table. 2. presents ○ What goodies did Father Christmas bring you?

good-looking /,gʊd 'lʊkɪŋ/ adj (of a person) pleasant to look at. Synonym attractive. Antonym unattractive good looks /gʊd 'luks/ plural noun pleasing and beautiful appearance ○ His good looks and charm attracted many women.

① good morning /gʊd 'mɔːnɪŋ/ interj used when meeting or leaving someone in the morning good-natured /,gʊd 'nɛtʃəd/ adj with a pleasant and cooperative character. Antonym disagreeable goodness /'gʊdnəs/ noun 1. being good ○ She did it out of pure goodness of heart. 2. □ thank goodness! used for showing relief ○ Thank goodness the ambulance arrived quickly! □ for goodness' sake used for showing you are annoyed, or that something is important ○ What are you screaming for? – It's only a little mouse, for goodness' sake. ○ For goodness' sake try to be quiet, we don't want the guards to hear us! ■ interj used for showing surprise ○ Goodness! is that the time?

① good night /gʊd'nait/ interj used when leaving someone late in the evening

② goods /gʊdz/ plural noun 1. things that are produced for sale ○ The company sells goods from various European countries. 2. possessions; things which you own ○ She carried all her worldly goods in a bag. 3. □ to deliver the goods to do what you promised or what you were asked to do ○ The question is, can he deliver the goods?

goods and chattels /,gʊdz ən 'tʃæt(ə)lz/ plural noun moveable objects which you possess, as opposed to buildings or land (formal) goodwill /gʊd'wɪl/ noun 1. a kind feeling ○ The charity relies on the goodwill of people who give money regularly. 2. a value given to things such as the customers of a business, its reputation and its site ○ He paid £10,000 for the goodwill of the restaurant and £40,000 for the fittings.

goody /'gʊdɪ/ interj I'm glad (dated informal) ■ noun a hero (informal) ○ The man with the white hat is a goody. Antonym baddy goody-goody /'gʊdɪ ,gʊdɪ/ adj a person who is not liked because they are always trying to please people such as their teacher or their boss gooey /'gʊi/ adj soft and sticky goof /gu:f/ (informal) noun a stupid person

 ■ verb to make a stupid mistake ○ She really goofed this time!

① go off /,gəu 'ɒf/ verb 1. to go to another place ○ He went off to look for a parking space. ○ She went off muttering something about buying cheese. 2. to start working suddenly ○ The burglar alarm went off in the middle of the night. 3. to explode ○ The bomb went off when there were still lots of people in the building. ○ Fireworks were going off everywhere on Bonfire Night. 4. to become rotten ○ Throw that meat away – it's gone off. ○ Fish goes off quickly in hot weather. 5. not to like something any more ○ I've gone off modern music. ○ She went off her new boyfriend quite quickly.

goofy /'gʊfi/ adj stupid (informal)

① go on /,gəu 'ɒn/ verb 1. to continue ○ Please go on, I like hearing you sing. ○ They went on working in spite of the fire. ○ She went on speaking for two hours. 2. to happen ○ What's been going on here? 3. to base your opinion and actions on something ○ The police investigating the murder don't have much to go on. ○ We have to go on the assumption that the festival will start on time. 4. used for showing you do not believe someone ○ Go on! She's not as old as that! 5. □ to go on about something to talk all the time about something ○ She will keep going on about her operation.

② goose /gu:s/ noun a large bird, living near water, which can be eaten (NOTE: The plural is geese /gi:s/. The males are ganders, the young are goslings.)

gooseberry /'gu:zb(ə)ri/ noun a little green hairy fruit, with a sharp taste

① go out /,gəu 'aut/ verb 1. to leave a building ○ I don't go out often at night. ○ He forgot to lock the door when he went out. 2. to go to parties ○ We used to go out every Friday and Saturday night. 3. not to be burning or lit any more ○ The fire went out and the room got cold. ○ All the lights in the building suddenly went out. 4. □ to go out of business to stop trading ○ The firm went out of business last week.

go out with /,gəu 'aut wiθ/ verb 1. to have regular meetings with someone as part of a relationship ○ He's going out with a girl from work. 2. to go to a party, restaurant, etc., with someone ○ He's been out with us a couple of times.

go over /,gəu 'əuvə/ verb 1. to cross to the other side ○ Go over the bridge and turn left.

2. to examine something carefully ○ She went over the contract with her solicitor.

gopher /'gəʊfə/ noun a fat American rat which lives in holes in the ground (NOTE: Do not confuse with gofer.)

gore /gɔ:/ noun blood ○ The final scene of the play was very violent, with lots of gore. ■ verb to wound with a horn ○ He was gored by a bull.

gorge /gɔ:dʒ/ noun a rocky valley ○ The walkers climbed down into the gorge. ■ verb to eat too much ○ Look at her gorging herself on cakes.

③ gorgeous /'gɔ:dʒəs/ adj magnificent. Synonym beautiful. Antonym unattractive gorilla /gə'rɪlə/ noun a large black African ape (NOTE: Do not confuse with guerrilla.)

① go round /,gəu 'raʊnd/ verb 1. to turn ○ The merry-go-round went round and round. 2. to turn round something ○ We went round the roundabout and took the third road on the left. ○ We didn't go far, we just went round the block. 3. to visit a place ○ You'll need at least two hours to go round the museum. 4. to be enough for ○ There wasn't enough ice cream to go round all twelve of us. 5. to go to somewhere near ○ Let's go round to your sister's. ○ We all went round to the pub for a drink.

gorse /gɔ:s/ noun a wild prickly shrub with bright yellow flowers (NOTE: no plural) gory /'gɔ:ri/ adj 1. covered in blood 2. terrible; awful (humorous) ○ She told me all the gory details of her interview.

gosh /gɔʃ/ interj used for showing surprise (dated informal) gosling /'gɔzɪŋ/ noun a baby goose go-slow /gəu 'sləʊ/ noun a slowing down of work as a protest against the management gospel /'gɔspəl/ noun the part of the Bible which tells the life of Jesus Christ □ it's the gospel truth it's absolutely true gospel music /'gɔsp(ə)l 'mju:zɪk/ noun religious music which first became popular in the USA during the Depression

② gossip /'gɔsɪp/ noun 1. stories or news about someone, which may or may not be true ○ Have you heard the latest gossip about Sue? □ to spread gossip about someone to give information about someone which may or may not be true 2. a person who spreads gossip ○ Be careful what you say to him – he's a great gossip. ■ verb to talk about people's private lives ○ They spent hours gossiping about the people working in the office.

gossip column /'gɔsɪp 'kɒləm/ noun a section in a newspaper which tells stories about famous people ③ got /gɒt/ □ get □ to have got to must or to be obliged to ○ I've got to see my father tomorrow.

gothic /'gɒθɪk/ adj in a medieval architectural style, with tall pointed arches

④ go through /,gəu 'θru:/ verb □ to go through something to look at or to discuss something thoroughly ○ They went through each clause of the contract. □ to go through with something to continue with something ○ They decided not to go through with their planned pig farm because of the objections from their neighbours.

gotta /'gɔtə/ another spelling of got to (informal) ○ I'm sick – I've gotta go to the doctor.

③ gotten /'gɔt(ə)n/ US □ get gouge /gaʊdʒ/ noun a chisel ○ The gouge bit into the wood. ■ verb to cut out ○ He gouged out a hole in the plank. ○ The waves have gouged out a cave in the cliff.

goulash /'gʊlæʃ/ noun a Hungarian dish of meat and vegetables, flavoured with paprika

① go up /,gəʊ 'ʌp/ verb 1. to go to a higher place ○ Take the lift and go up to the fourth floor. 2. to increase; to rise to a higher level ○ The price of bread has gone up.

gourd /gʊəd/ noun a round fruit of a climbing plant, dried and used as a bottle or as a decoration gourmet /'guəmət/ noun 1. a person who knows about and appreciates good food and drink 2. referring to good food ○ We had a gourmet dinner in a three-star restaurant. ○ This recipe comes from a gourmet cookbook.

③ govern /'gʌv(ə)n/ verb 1. to rule a country ○ The country is governed by three generals. 2. to influence; to have an effect on ○ Inflation is governed by interest rates and exchange rates.

governance /'gʌv(ə)nəns/ noun the way in which a country or organisation is governed (formal) governess /'gʌvənəsəs/ noun a private female teacher. Synonym tutor (NOTE: The plural is governesses.)

governing /'gʌv(ə)nɪŋ/ adj which rules

① government /'gʌv(ə)nɪmənt/ noun 1. the people or a political party which governs ○ The president asked the leader of the largest party to form a new government. ○ The government controls the price of bread. ○ He has an important job in the government. 2. the system of ruling a country ○ a country struggling to achieve democratic government (NOTE: no plural in this meaning) governmental /,gʌv(ə)n'ment(ə)l/ adj referring to a government

③ governor /'gʌv(ə)nə/ noun a person who runs a state, a colony or an institution □ the Governor of the Bank of England the person who is in charge of the Bank of England

Governor-General /,gʌv(ə)nə 'dʒen(ə)rəl/ noun the official head of some Commonwealth countries, representing the monarch

① go with /'gəʊ wɪð/ verb 1. to match ○ Blue shoes won't go with a green dress. ○

Red wine goes best with meat. 2. to be linked to ○ That remote control goes with the TV. ○ He has a big house that goes with his job. 3. to accompany ○ Who are you going to the party with?

① go without /,gəʊ wɪð'aut/ verb not to have something which you usually have gown /gaʊn/ noun 1. a woman's long formal dress ○ a ball gown 2. a robe worn by someone such as a judge or a person with degree ○ She wore her new gown to the degree ceremony.

③ go wrong /,gəʊ 'rɒŋ/ verb to stop working properly

③ GP /dʒi: 'pi:/ noun a family doctor who does not specialise in any particular branch of medicine. Full form general practitioner

③ grab /græb/ verb 1. to pick something up suddenly ○ He grabbed his suitcase and ran to the train. 2. to get something quickly (informal) ○ Let's grab some lunch in the canteen before the meeting starts. 3. □ how does it grab you? what do you think of it? (informal) ○ A weekend in Paris – how does that grab you? (NOTE: grabbing – grabbed) ■ noun □ to make a grab for something to try to take something roughly ○ He made a grab for her wallet. □ up for grabs available to anyone who wants to get it (informal) ○ The company is up for grabs. ○ Now the champion has retired the world title is up for grabs.

grace /greɪs/ noun 1. elegance and attractiveness ○ We admired the grace of the deer as they ran off into the woods. □ with good grace quite cheerfully ○ He accepted the criticisms with good grace. 2. a prayer before a meal ○ Father always says grace before dinner. 3. extra time to pay ○ We gave the creditors two weeks' grace to pay. ■ verb to honour ○ She graced the ceremony with her presence.

graceful /'greɪsf(ə)l/ adj 1. moving in a smooth and beautiful way ○ the swimmer's graceful strokes across the pool ○ She crossed the stage with graceful steps. 2. behaving politely ○ He went into the ladies' toilet by mistake and had to beat a graceful retreat.

gracefully /'greɪsf(ə)li/ adv smoothly and beautifully graceless /'greɪsləs/ adj 1. not elegant 2. not dignified gracious /'greɪʃəs/ adj 1. elegant ○ a gracious London square ○ The Edwardian era was a time of gracious living. 2. dignified and polite ○ She gave him a very gracious welcome. ■ interj used for showing surprise ○ Gracious! Is that the time?

gradation /grə'deɪʃən/ noun 1. a series of degrees or stages 2. one of a series of degrees or stages 3. the act of arranging things according to size or quality

③ grade /greɪd/ noun 1. a level of quality ○ I always buy grade 2 eggs. ○ What grade of vegetables do you sell most of? □ to make the grade to succeed; to do well □ high-grade, top-grade best quality 2. an examination mark ○ She got top grades in maths. 3. US a class in school ○ students in fifth grade ○ She's a fifth grade student. ■ verb to sort according to size or quality ○ a machine for grading fruit ○ Hotels are graded with two, three, four or five stars.

Synonym classify

graded /'greɪdɪd/ adj consisting of a series of stages, each of which is more advanced than the previous one grade school /'greɪd sku:l/ noun a school for children between the ages of about 5 and 11 gradient /'greɪdɪənt/ noun a slope in a road or railway, ③ gradual /'grædʒuəl/ adj which changes a little at a time. Antonym rapid

② gradually /'grædʒuəlɪ/ adv little by little ○ His condition improved gradually day by day. ○ She gradually learnt how to deal with customers' complaints.

③ graduate noun /'grædʒuət/ a person with a degree from a university or college ○ He's a graduate of London University. ○ She's a physics graduate. ■ verb /'grædʒu-eɪt/ to get a degree ○ She graduated from Edinburgh university last year.

graduated /'grædʒueɪtɪd/ adj 1. rising in stages ○ graduated income tax 2. with quantities marked on it ○ a graduated measuring jar graduation /,grædʒu'eɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. the ceremony at which you get a degree from a university or college ○ Graduation will take place on June 10th. 2. US leaving high school or college with a diploma 3. a mark showing quantities graduation ceremony /,grædʒu'eɪʃ(ə)n ,serəməni/ noun a ceremony when degrees are given. ♦ Commencement graffiti /græ'fi:tɪ/ noun writing on walls in public places graft /græft/ noun 1. (in surgery) the act of transplanting an organ (heart, lung or kidney) or tissue (bone or skin) to replace an organ or tissue which is not functioning or which is diseased ○ He had a skin graft. (NOTE: The plural is grafts.) 2. (in surgery) an organ or tissue which is transplanted (NOTE: The plural is grafts.) 3. a piece of a plant which is attached to another plant ○ The pear graft has taken. (NOTE: no plural) 4. the bribery and corruption of officials (informal) ○ Graft is widespread at all levels of the civil service. ○ The minister was accused of graft. (NOTE:

no plural) ■ verb 1. (in surgery) to take a healthy organ or tissue and transplant it into a patient in place of diseased or damaged organ or tissue ○ Surgeons grafted a section of bone. ○ They grafted skin from his arm onto his leg. 2. (in gardening) to take a piece of a plant and attach it to another plant ○ He grafted the apple onto the stock.

grain /greɪn/ noun 1. a cereal crop ○ a field of grain ○ the grain harvest 2. a very small piece ○ a grain of sand 3. the patterns of lines in wood ○ This old oak table has a beautiful grain. □ to go against the grain to go against your natural instincts ○ It goes against the grain to throw away all that good food.

③ gram /græm/, gramme noun a weight equal to one thousandth of a kilogram (NOTE: usually written g after figures: 50 g)

③ grammar /'græmə/ noun 1. the rules of a language ○ I'm finding Russian grammar very difficult. ○ He's been learning English for years, and still makes basic grammar mistakes. 2. a book of rules of a language ○ I'll look it up in my new German grammar.

grammar school /'græmə sku:l/ noun a secondary school where students have to pass an exam to enter grammatical /græ'mætɪk(ə)l/ adj referring to correct grammar gran /græn/ noun a grandmother (informal) granary /'grænəri/ noun a place where grain is stored

② grand /grænd/ adj 1. big and important ○ his grand plan for making a lot of money 2. impressive ○ We went to a very grand wedding. 3. very good ○ It's grand weather for a picnic. (NOTE: grander – grandest) ■ noun 1. one thousand pounds or dollars (informal) ○ The car cost me ten grand. 2. a grand piano ○ He plays a baby grand in the hotel foyer.

grandad /'grændəd/ noun a grandfather (informal)

③ grandchild /'græntʃaɪld/ noun a child of a son or daughter (NOTE: The plural is grandchildren /'græntʃɪldrən/.)

③ granddaughter /'grænd'da:tə/ noun the daughter of a son or daughter grandeur /'grændʒə/ noun splendour

③ grandfather /'grænd,fɑ:ðə/ noun the father of your mother or father ○ Tomorrow is grandfather's hundredth birthday. ○ My grandfather always tells us fascinating stories about his childhood. (NOTE: often called grandad or grandpa by children) grandfather clock /'grænfɑ:ðə klok/ noun a tall clock which stands on the floor grand finale /grænd fɪ'næli/ noun a final very impressive part of an event grandiose /'grændiəs/ adj impressive, but too big and complicated grand jury /'grænd 'dʒɔri/ noun US a group of between 12 and 24 jurors who meet as a preliminary to a trial to decide if an indictment should be issued to start criminal proceedings grandly /'grændli/ adv in a grand way grandma /'grænma:/ noun a grandmother (informal) grandmother /'grænmʌðə/ noun the mother of your mother or father ○ It will be grandmother's ninetieth birthday next month. ○ My grandmother taught me how to make bread. (NOTE: often called gran or granny or grandma or nan by children) grandpa /'grænpa:/ noun a grandfather (informal) grandparent /'grænpɛərənt/ noun the mother or father of one of your parents grand piano /'grænd pi'ænəʊ/ noun a large horizontal piano (NOTE: A smaller piano, with a vertical body, is called an up-right.)

Grand Prix /grɒn 'pri:/ noun a race for large and powerful racing cars grand slam /'grænd 'slæm/ noun winning a series of competitions, such as all the main tennis competitions held in a year grandson /'grænsən/ noun the son of a son or daughter grandstand /'grændstænd/ noun a stand with seats for spectators at games or races grand total /'grænd 'tət(ə)l/ noun a final total made by adding several items granite /'grænit/ noun a hard grey stone granny /'græni/ noun a grandmother (informal) granny flat /'græni flæt/ noun a small separate flat in a large house, intended for a relative, not necessarily a grandmother grant /graɪnt/ verb 1. to agree to give something ○ The government has granted them a loan or a subsidy. □ to take something for granted to assume that you will get something, or will keep something, and so not to appreciate it ○ The children seem to take it for granted that I will give them big presents every birthday. 2. to admit ○ I grant you it's going to be difficult, but I'm sure you'll do it well. ■ noun a sum of money to help ○ Not many students get a full grant. ○ My grant only pays for a few books. ○ We have applied for a grant to plant trees by the side of the road. Synonym funding granulated sugar /,grænju'leɪtɪd 'fʊgə/ noun white sugar in the form of granules granule /'grænju:l/ noun a very small particle. Synonym grain grape /greɪp/ noun a small green or red fruit which grows on vines, often used to make wine

③ grapefruit /'greɪpfрут/ noun a large yellow citrus fruit, like an orange but not as sweet (NOTE: The plural is grapefruit.)

grapevine /'greɪpvain/ noun a plant on which grapes grow □ I heard it on the grapevine someone told me about it when gossiping graph /gra:f/ noun a chart showing figures in the form of a line graphic /'græfɪk/ adj 1. drawn in symbols or letters ○ The results are shown in graphic form. 2. vivid ○ He gave a graphic description of the accident.

graphically /'græfɪkli/ adv 1. using graphs and diagrams 2. in great detail ○ She described the accident graphically.

graphic design /,græfɪk di'zain/ noun the art or practice of designing things involving images and text graphic designer /,græfɪk di'zainə/ noun a person who works in graphic design

③ graphics /'græfɪks/ plural noun pictures on a computer screen or designed on a computer ○ The graphics on this game are brilliant.

graphite /'græfɪt/ noun natural carbon graph paper /'gra:f, 'peɪpə/ noun paper with little squares, for drawing graphs grapple /'græp(ə)l/ verb 1. to fight ○ The two men were grappling on the floor. 2. □ to grapple with something to struggle to solve something difficult ○ He's grappling with the company accounts.

grasp /gra:sp/ noun 1. a tight hold ○ She forced him to loosen his grasp on her arm. 2. an understanding ○ She has a good grasp of physics. ■ verb 1. to hold tightly ○ She grasped the branch of the tree with both hands. 2. to understand ○ They didn't seem to grasp my meaning.

grasping /'grau:spɪŋ/ adj wanting to get money. Synonym greedy

② grass /gra:s/ noun 1. a low green plant, which is eaten by sheep and cows in fields, or used in gardens to make lawns ○ The grass is getting too long – it needs cutting. 2. a lawn ○ Keep off the grass! ○ We'll sit on the grass and have our picnic. □ not to let the grass grow under your feet to waste no time in doing something (informal) ○ They don't let the grass grow under their feet – they phoned immediately they saw the ad. 3. a person who gives information to the police (informal) ○ The police gave the grass special protection. 4. marijuana in the form of leaves (slang) ■ verb □ to grass on someone to give information about someone to the police ○ He grassed on his pals. (slang) grasshopper /'gra:shɒpə/ noun a green insect which jumps and makes a rubbing noise grassland /'gra:slənd/ noun an area of land covered in wild grass grassroots /gra:s'ru:ts/ plural noun ordinary members of a political party or of society in general grassy /'gra:sɪ/ adj covered in grass grate /'greɪt/ noun a metal frame for holding coal in a fireplace ○ He put some more coal into the grate. ■ verb 1. to make into small pieces by rubbing against a grater ○ She grated nutmeg over the pudding. ○ Sprinkle grated cheese over your pasta. ○ We made a salad of grated carrots and spring onions. 2. to make a rough irritating noise ○ That door needs oiling – it grates on its hinges. ○ The sound of metal grating on stone makes me shudder. 3. to irritate someone; to make someone annoyed ○ The way he sings while he works is beginning to grate on my nerves. (NOTE: Do not confuse with great.)

③ grateful /'greɪtf(ə)l/ adj recognising and feeling thankful for something that someone has done for you ○ We are most grateful to you for your help.

gratefully /'greɪtf(ə)li/ adv in a grateful way grater /'greɪtə/ noun a kitchen instrument with a rough surface and little holes for grating gratify /'grætɪfaɪ/ verb (formal) 1. to satisfy someone ○ It gratifies her need for luxury. 2. to please someone ○ We were gratified to see that our work was prominently displayed.

gratifying /'grætɪfaɪŋ/ adj which satisfies someone. Synonym rewarding gratin /'grætæn/ noun a dish cooked with a crunchy crust, usually of cheese, on top grating /'greɪtɪŋ/ noun a metal frame which covers a hole ○ They lifted up the grating to look into the drain. Synonym grille ■ adj □ a grating sound a rough and unpleasant sound gratis /'gra:tɪs/ adv, adj free of charge gratitude /'grætɪtju:d/ noun thankfulness. Synonym thanks. Antonym ingratitude gratuitous /grə'tju:ɪtəs/ adj unnecessary; unjustified gratuity /grə'tju:ɪti/ noun 1. money given to someone who has provided a service ○ The staff are instructed not to accept gratuities. Synonym tip 2. a sum of money given to someone who leaves a job ○ She received a tax-free gratuity of £10,000 when she retired. (NOTE: [all senses] The plural is gratuities.)

grave /'gra:v/ noun a hole in the ground where a dead person is buried ○ At the funeral, the whole family stood by the grave. □ to have one foot in the grave to be old (informal) □ he would turn in his grave (of a dead person) he would be annoyed ○ Father would turn in his grave if he saw what they have done to his house. ■ adj 1. important; serious ○ It is a very grave offence. ○ He is in court facing grave charges. 2. quietly serious ○ She looked at him with a grave expression. (NOTE: graver – gravest) grave accent /'gra:v 'ækṣənt/ noun an accent which slopes backwards over a vowel to show that the vowel is pronounced in a special way or is stressed, e.g. à or è. Compare acute accent gravel /'græv(ə)l/ noun small stones (NOTE: no plural: a heap of gravel; for one piece say a bit of gravel) I've got a bit of gravel in my shoe) gravelly /'græv(ə)li/ adj 1. (of a voice) rough 2. like gravel or covered with gravel gravely /'grævli/ adv seriously gravestone /'grævstəʊn/ noun a large stone placed on a grave with the name of the dead person written on it. Also called head-stone, tombstone graveyard /'grævju:d/ noun a cemetery gravitate /'grævɪteɪt/ verb (formal) □ to gravitate towards something to move towards something ○ In the evening the students gravitate towards the bars.

gravitation /,grævɪ'teɪʃ(ə)n/ noun 1. gradual and steady movement towards someone or something. Synonym movement 2. the force that causes objects to be attracted to each other gravitational /,grævɪ'teɪʃ(ə)n(ə)l/ adj referring to gravity

③ gravity /'grævɪtɪ/ noun 1. the force which pulls things towards the ground ○ Apples fall to the ground because of the earth's gravity. 2. great seriousness ○ No one seems to realise the gravity of the situation. ○ Due to the gravity of the crimes he is supposed to have committed, his trial will be held in a different town.

gravy /'grævɪ/ noun sauce made from the juices of cooked meat (NOTE: no plural) gravy train /'grævɪ treɪn/ noun a way of getting money without doing much work (informal) graze /'greɪz/ noun a slight wound ○ He had a graze on his knee. ■ verb 1. to feed on grass ○ The sheep were grazing on the hillside. 2. to damage the skin slightly ○ He fell off his bicycle and grazed his knee. 3. to scrape for a short time when moving ○ The car grazed the garage door.

grease /'grɪ:s/ noun 1. thick oil ○ Put some grease on the hinge. 2. a soft animal fat 3. □ elbow grease hard work (informal) ○ It doesn't need any skill, just a lot of elbow grease.

■ verb 1. to cover with grease ○ Don't forget to grease the wheels. ○ She greased the pan before cooking the eggs. 2. □ to grease someone's palm to give someone a bribe (informal) ○ We had to grease a few palms to get the contract signed.

greaseproof paper /,gri:spru:f 'peɪpə/ noun paper which will not let oil through greasy /'grɪsɪ/ adj covered with oil or grease ○ He wiped his greasy hands on a piece of rag. ○ I don't like the chips they serve here – they're too greasy. (NOTE: greasier – greasiest) greasy spoon /,gri:si 'spu:n/ noun a small cheap and often dirty café (informal)

① great /gret/ adj 1. large ○ We visited the Great Wall of China. ○ She was carrying a great big pile of sandwiches. □ a great deal of, a great many a lot of ○ There's a great deal of work to be done. ○ She earns a great deal of money. ○ A great many people will lose their jobs. 2. important or famous ○ New York is a great city. ○ Picasso was a great artist. ○ the greatest tennis player of all time 3. wonderful; very good ○ We had a great time at the party. ○ What did you think of the film? – It was great! ○ It was great of you to help. ○ It was great that they could all get to the picnic. 4. □ the great and the good people who occupy influential positions in society (humorous) ○ The government looked through the ranks of the great and the good to find someone to be chairman of the museum's trustees.

great- /gret/ prefix referring to an older generation great-aunt /'gret ə:nt/ noun the aunt of a father or mother

① Great Britain /,gret 'brit(ə)n/ noun the country formed of England, Scotland and Wales

Great Dane /gret 'dein/ noun a breed of very large dog great-grandchild /gret 'græntsaɪld/ noun the son or daughter of a grandchild great-grandfather /gret 'grænfɑ:ðə/ noun the father of a grandfather great-great-grandfather /,gret gret 'grænfɑ:ðə/ noun the grandfather of a grandfather

③ greatly /'gretli/ adv very much greatness /'gretnəs/ noun importance or respect great-uncle /'gret ,ʌŋkəl/ noun an uncle of a father or mother greed /gri:d/ noun too much love of food, money or power greedily /'grɪ:dɪli/ adv in a greedy way greedy /'grɪ:dɪ/ adj wanting food or other things too much (NOTE: greedier – greediest)

① Greek /gri:k/ adj referring to Greece or its inhabitants ○ the son of a Greek shipping tycoon ○ He's opened a Greek restaurant near us. ○ The letters of the Greek alphabet are used in science. ■ noun 1. a person from Greece ○ The ancient Greeks lived many years before the Romans. 2. the language spoken in Greece ○ He reads Plato in the original Greek. ○ She bought a Greek phrase book before going on holiday.

① green /gri:n/ adj 1. of a colour like the colour of grass ○ He was wearing a bright green shirt. ○ They painted the door dark green. ○ Go on – the traffic lights are green. 2. relating to, interested in, or concerned about the environment ○ She's very worried about green issues. ○ He's a leading figure in the green movement. (NOTE: greener – greenest) ■ noun 1. a colour like grass ○ The door was painted a very dark green. ○ Have you any paint of a darker green than this? 2. a grassy piece of public land in the middle of a village ○ They were playing cricket on the village green. 3. a piece of smooth short grass for playing golf ○ The grass on the greens is cut very short. ○ His ball landed about two feet from the hole on the tenth green. ♦ bowling green greenback /'gri:nbæk/ noun US a dollar bill (slang) green bean /gri:n 'bi:n/ noun a long thin green vegetable green belt /'gri:n belt/ noun an area of farming land or woods and parks, which surrounds a town, and on which building is restricted or completely banned green card /'gri:n kɑ:d/ noun 1. a work permit for someone who is going to live in the USA 2. an insurance certificate to insure a car which is being taken abroad green channel /'gri:n ,tʃæn(ə)l/ noun a way through customs for people who have nothing to declare greenery /'gri:nəri/ noun the leaves of trees and plants. Synonym foliage (NOTE: no plural) greenfield site /'gri:nfi:ld saɪt/ noun a site for a factory which is in the country, and not surrounded by other factories green fingers /gri:n 'fɪngəz/ plural noun skill at gardening (NOTE: The US term is green thumb.)

greenfly /'gri:nflaɪ/ noun a small green insect which sucks sap from garden plants (NOTE: usually plural) greengage /'gri:ngɛɪdʒ/ noun a variety of small green plum greengrocer /'gri:ngroʊsə/ noun a person who sells fruit and vegetables

③ greenhouse /'grɪ:nhaʊs/ noun a glass building for growing plants (NOTE: The plural is greenhouses.)

greenhouse effect /'grɪ:nhaʊs ɪ,fekt/ noun the accumulation of gases in the earth's atmosphere which prevent heat loss green light /grɪ:n 'laɪt/ verb to give approval or permission for something to proceed

Green Paper /grɪ:n 'peɪpə/ noun a report from the British government on proposals for a possible new law. Compare White Paper greens /grɪ:nz/ plural noun 1. green vegetables ○ You must eat plenty of greens. 2. US greenery green thumb /grɪ:n 'θʌm/ noun US skill at gardening (NOTE: The British term is green fingers.)

Greenwich meridian /'grɪ:nɪtɪdɪən/ noun a line passing through Greenwich near London at longitude 0° from which all longitudes are calculated

② greet /grɪ:t/ verb to meet someone and say hello greeting /'grɪ:tɪŋ/ noun words said when meeting or welcoming someone greetings /'grɪ:tɪŋz/ plural noun good wishes gregarious /grɪ'gɛriəs/ adj enjoying the company of other people. Antonym shy grenade /grɪ'neid/ noun a small bomb, usually thrown by hand

③ grew /gru:/ □ grow

② grey /grɛi/ noun a colour that is a mixture of black and white ○ He was dressed all in grey. (NOTE: The US spelling is gray.) ■ adj of a colour that is a mixture of black and white ○ Her hair has turned quite grey. ○ She was wearing a light grey suit. ○ Look at the grey clouds – I think it is going to rain. (NOTE: greyer – greyest. The US spelling is gray.)

grey area /'grɛi ,eəriə/ noun a situation, subject, or category of something that is unclear or hard to define grey-haired /'grɛi 'hɛd/ adj with grey hair greyhound /'grɛihənd/ noun a racing dog

③ grid /grɪd/ noun 1. a set of parallel bars ○ We have fitted a metal grid over the top of the well. 2. the numbered squares on a map ○ What's the grid reference of the church?

griddle /'grɪdl/ noun a hot metal plate on the top of a stove, used for cooking gridiron /'grɪdɪərən/ noun a metal frame for cooking over a fire gridlock /'grɪdlɒk/ noun a traffic jam gridlocked /'grɪdlɒkt/ adj blocked by a build-up of traffic

② grief /grɪ:f/ noun a feeling of great sadness. Synonym sorrow. Antonym joy □ to come to grief to have an accident; to fail ○ His horse came to grief at the first fence. ○ The project came to grief when the council refused to renew their grant. □ to give someone grief to criticise someone (informal) grief-stricken /'grɪ:f ,strikən/ adj very sad grievance /'grɪ:v(ə)ns/ noun a reason for complaint □ to air your grievances to complain to everyone openly about something □ to nurse a grievance against someone to have a reason to complain about someone, and not be able to do anything about it ○ She's been nursing a grievance against the boss for some weeks.

grieve /grɪ:v/ verb 1. to be sad, especially because someone has died ○ She is grieving for her fiancé who was killed in the war. 2. to make sad (formal) ○ It grieves me to say this, but we are going to arrest your daughter.

grievous /'grɪ:vəs/ adj severe; very bad (formal) grievous bodily harm /,grɪ:vəs ,bɒdli 'hɑ:m/ noun the crime of causing serious physical injury to someone. Abbr GBH

③ grill /grɪl/ noun 1. a part of a cooker where food is cooked under the heat ○ Cook the chops under the grill. 2. a restaurant serving grilled food ○ We'll meet up at the Mexican Grill. ■ verb 1. to cook under or over a grill ○ We're having grilled sardines for dinner. 2. to ask someone lots of questions ○ The police grilled him about the missing money.

grille /grɪl/ noun a structure of metal bars in front of a window or on the front of a car, with the radiator behind. Synonym grating

② grim /grɪm/ adj 1. stern and not smiling ○ His expression was grim. ○ He gave a grim laugh and went on working. 2. unpleasant, worrying ○ There is some grim news about the war. 3. grey and unpleasant ○ The town centre is really grim. □ like grim death in an extremely determined way (informal) ○ She held on to the handrail like grim death. (NOTE: grimmer – grimmest) grimace /'grɪməs/ noun a twisted expression ○ He made a grimace when he tasted the medicine. Synonym scowl ■ verb to make a grimace ○ She grimaced as the dentist started up his drill. Synonym frown ► Antonym (all senses) smile grime /graim/ noun black dirt. Synonym filth grim-faced /,grɪm 'feɪst/ adj with a serious unfriendly expression grimy /'grɪmi/ adj very dirty

② grin /grɪn/ noun a wide smile ○ She gave me a big grin. Synonym beam ■ verb to smile widely ○ He grinned when we asked him if he liked his job. □ to grin and bear it to accept a difficult situation ○ No one likes doing all these rehearsals, but we've just got to grin and bear it. ▶ Antonym (all senses) frown

② grind /graind/ verb 1. to crush to powder ○ to grind corn ○ a cup of freshly ground coffee 2. to rub surfaces together □ to grind a knife to sharpen a knife by rubbing it on a rough stone □ to grind your teeth to rub your teeth together and make a noise, especially because you are annoyed □ to grind to a halt to stop working gradually ○ The men went on strike, and the production line ground to a halt. ○ The driver put on the brakes and the train ground to a halt. □ to have an axe to grind to have a particular point of view which makes your judgement biased ■ noun □ the daily grind the boring work done every day (informal) grinder /'graində/ noun a machine for grinding grinding /'graindɪŋ/ adj 1. causing a feeling of boredom 2. (of a sound) like two hard things rubbing together grindstone /'graindstəʊn/ noun a stone which turns to sharpen knives □ to keep someone's nose to the grindstone to keep someone working very hard grip /grip/ noun 1. a firm hold ○ He has a strong firm grip. ○ Radial tyres give a better grip on the road surface. □ to lose your grip not to be as much in control as before ○ She simply doesn't make any decisions – I think she's losing her grip. 2. □ to get or come to grips with something to start to deal with something (informal) ○ The president is having to come to grips with the failing economy. □ to get a grip on yourself to try to control yourself; to try to be less emotional ○ Get a grip on yourself – you've got an interview in half an hour. 3. a big soft bag for carrying clothes ○ He rolled up some T-shirts and underwear and squeezed them into his grip. 4. a piece of bent wire used to keep your hair in place ○ Use a grip to keep your hair off your face. (NOTE: The US term is bobby-pin.) ■ verb 1. to hold tight ○ She gripped the rail with both hands. 2. to be very interesting ○ The story gripped me from the first page. (NOTE: gripping – gripped) gripe /graip/ noun 1. a complaint ○ his list of gripes about the work 2. pains in the stomach (dated) ○ The baby is suffering from gripe. ■ verb (informal) □ to gripe about something to complain about something ○ She's always griping about the weather.

gripping /'grɪpɪŋ/ adj which holds your interest or attention. Synonym fascinating. Antonym boring grisly /'grɪzli/ adj horrible. Synonym gruesome. Antonym pleasant (NOTE: grislier – grisliest. Do not confuse with grizzly or gristly.)

gristle /'grɪst(ə)l/ noun a hard substance found when chewing meat. Synonym cartilage (NOTE: no plural) gristly /'grɪsli/ adj full of gristle (NOTE: Do not confuse with grisly, grizzly.)

grit /grɪt/ noun 1. bits of sand ○ Grit seems to have got into the engine. ○ I have a piece of grit in my eye. 2. courage ○ He had the grit to go mountain climbing with his artificial leg. (NOTE: [all senses] no plural) ■ verb 1. to put sand on a road that is covered with ice ○ Lorries have been out all night, gritting the motorway. 2. □ to grit your teeth to be determined ○ He gritted his teeth and went on up the mountain. (NOTE: gritting – gritted) gritty /'grɪti/ adj full of strength grizzled /'grɪz(ə)ld/ adj with lots of grey hairs grizzly /'grɪzli/, grizzly bear /'grɪzli beə/ noun □ a North American brown and grey bear ○ Grizzly bears catch salmon in mountain rivers. (NOTE: The plural is grizzlies or grizzly bears.)

groan /grəʊn/ noun a deep cry ○ He uttered a groan and closed his eyes. ■ verb 1. to make a long low noise ○ She groaned when she saw how much work had to be done. 2. □ to groan under a weight to carry a heavy weight ○ The floor groaned under the weight of the gold bars. (NOTE: Do not confuse with grown.)

grocer /'grəʊsə/ noun a person who sells goods such as sugar, butter and tins of food groceries /'grəʊsərɪz/ plural noun things you buy at a grocer's ○ a heavy bag of groceries. Synonym food grocery /'grəʊsərɪ/ noun a general food shop ○ He runs the grocery shop in the High Street.

groggy /'grɒggi/ adj not having a clear head groin /grəʊn/ noun the place where the legs join the body groom /gru:m/ noun 1. a person who looks after horses ○ She got down from the horse and handed him over to a groom to deal with.

2. a man who is getting married ○ The groom looked nervously over his shoulder, wondering where the best man was. ■ verb 1. to make someone or a horse look smart ○ a well-groomed young man ○ She was grooming her horse. 2. to train someone for a particular role ○ He is being groomed to take his father's place in the family business.

grooming /'gru:mɪŋ/ noun 1. being smart and well-brought up 2. training someone for a particular role 3. developing the trust of a young person or their family in order to undertake illegal sexual contact groove /gru:v/ noun a wide line cut into a surface. Synonym channel. Antonym ridge ☐ to be stuck in a groove to be leading a dull life with no excitement groovy /'gru:vi/ adj fashionable (dated slang) (NOTE: groovier – grooviest)

grop /grə:p/ verb to feel with your hands ☀ gross /grə:s/ adj 1. total; with nothing taken away 2. very great and bad ☐ a gross miscarriage of justice ☐ It was a gross error on the part of the referee. 3. ugly and vulgar (informal) ☐ He's such a horrible man – he's gross. (NOTE: grosser – grossest) ■ verb with nothing taken away ☐ His salary is paid gross. ■ verb to make as a total ☐ The film grossed $25m in its first week. ■ noun twelve dozen, equal to 144 (NOTE: The plural is gross.) gross domestic product /grə:s də-mestik 'prədikt/ noun the value of goods and services paid for inside a country. Abbr GDP grossly /'grə:sli/ adv in a great bad way, greatly gross margin /grə:s 'mə:dʒɪn/ noun the difference between the price received and the cost of manufacture gross misconduct /grə:s mis-kon'dikt/ noun an action such as being drunk at work or molesting women staff, which leads to instant dismissal gross national product /grə:s næ:s(ə)nəl 'prədikt/ noun the value of goods and services paid for in a country, including income earned in other countries. Abbr GNP gross negligence /grə:s 'neglidʒəns/ noun an act showing a very serious failure to do your duty towards other people gross profit /grə:s 'prfit/ noun a profit calculated as income from sales less the cost of the goods sold, before paying for any other expenses grotesque /grə:t'skə/ adj 1. strange and ugly ☐ We got a really grotesque present from our Spanish landlady. 2. unnatural and unpleasant ☐ It was grotesque to see her at the funeral. ☐ Grotesque abuses of justice were commonplace during the civil war.

grotto /'grɒtəʊ/ noun an attractive cave, especially one made as a garden decoration (NOTE: The plural is grottoes.)

grouch /grautʃ/ noun a person who complains all the time ☐ She's such an old grouch. ■ verb to complain unhappily (informal) ☐ He's always grousing about his pay.

① ground /graund/ noun 1. soil or earth ☐ You should dig the ground in the autumn. ☐ The house is built on wet ground. ☐ It has been so dry that the ground is hard. 2. the surface of the earth ☐ The factory was burnt to the ground. ☐ There were no seats, so we had to sit on the ground. ☐ She lay down on the ground and went to sleep. ☐ to get a project off the ground to get a project started ☐ He played an important role in getting the project off the ground. ♦ ear 3. land used for a special purpose ☐ a football ground ☐ a sports ground ☐ a cricket ground ☐ a show ground ♦ fairground, grounds ■ verb 1. to put or keep on the ground ☐ After the mechanical failure was discovered, the fleet of aircraft was grounded. 2. to base ☐ Our teaching system is grounded on years of practice. 3. US to connect electrical equipment to the earth ☐ Household appliances should be properly grounded. (NOTE: The British term is to earth.) 4. ♦ grind ♦ to gain ground (on someone) 1. to get near to someone else in a competition 2. to be more successful than someone else ☐ to lose ground (to someone) 1. not to keep close to someone else in a competition 2. to be less successful than someone else ground beef /graund 'bi:f/ noun US beef which has been cut into very small pieces (NOTE: The British term is mince or minced beef.)

groundbreaking /'gra:ndb'rekiŋ/ adj involving new ideas

③ ground floor /graund 'flɔ:/ noun a floor in a building which is level with the street groundhog /'gra:ndhəg/ noun a fat American rodent which lives in holes in the ground and hibernates in winter grounding /'gra:ndɪŋ/ noun basic instruction. Synonym foundation groundless /'gra:ndlə:s/ adj without any reason ground level /'graund ,lev(ə)l/ noun a floor at the same level as the street ground rule /'graund ru:l/ noun a basic rule grounds /graundz/ plural noun 1. a large area of land around a big house or institution ☐ The police searched the school grounds for the weapon. ☐ The village fete is held in the grounds of the hospital. 2. reasons ☐ Does he have any grounds for complaint? ☐ What grounds have you got for saying that? ☐ Do they have sufficient grounds to sue us?

groundswell /'graundswel/ noun 1. a general feeling 2. a deep movement of the sea groundwork /'graundwɜ:k/ noun preliminary work. Synonym foundation (NOTE: no plural) ground zero /graund 'zɪərəʊ/ noun 1. the point just above or below a nuclear explosion 2. the most basic possible level or starting point 3. the huge debris field left following the terrorist attacks on the World Trade Center towers in New York City on 11 September 2001

① group /gru:p/ noun 1. a number of people or things taken together ○ a group of houses in the valley ○ Groups of people gathered in the street. ○ She is leading a group of businessmen on a tour of Italian factories. ○ There are reduced prices for groups of 30 and over. 2. a way of classifying things ○ These drugs belong to the same group. 3. people playing music together ○ He plays in a jazz group. ○ She's the lead singer in a pop group. 4. several different companies linked together ○ the Shell group of companies ○ a major travel group ■ verb □ to group (together) to form into groups groupie /'gru:pɪ/ noun a girl follower of a singer or pop group (informal) grouping /'gru:pɪŋ/ noun the process of putting things or people together in a group group therapy /gru:p 'θerəpi/ noun a type of therapy where a group of people with the same type of problems meet together with a therapist to discuss their condition and try to help each other grouse /graʊs/ noun 1. a complaint ○ All we heard at dinner were his grousing about the office. 2. a small dark game bird, found in the north of England and Scotland ○ We had grouse for supper. ○ They shot six brace of grouse yesterday. ○ Grouse shooting starts on August 12th. (NOTE: The plural is grouse. Two of the birds are called a brace of grouse.) ■ verb (informal) □ to grouse about something to complain about something ○ He's always grousing about the atmosphere in the office.

grove /grəʊv/ noun a small group of trees. Synonym copse grovel /'grəv(ə)l/ verb to behave towards someone in a way that shows respect or admiration too obviously (NOTE: grovelling – grovelled)

① grow /grəʊv/ verb 1. (of plants) to live ○ There was grass growing in the middle of the road. ○ Roses grow well in our garden. 2. to make plants grow ○ He grows all his vegetables in his garden. ○ We are going to grow some cabbages this year. 3. to become taller or bigger or longer ○ He's grown a lot taller since I last saw him. ○ The profit has grown to £1m. ○ The town's population is growing very fast. 4. to become gradually ○ She grew weak with hunger. ○ The nights are growing colder now. ○ All the time he grew richer and richer. (NOTE: growing – grew /gru:/ – grown /grəʊn/) grower /'grəʊər/ noun a farmer who grows a particular type of plant growing /'grəʊɪŋ/ adj 1. becoming bigger in size or amount 2. becoming stronger or more extreme grow into /,grəʊ 'ɪntu/ verb to become growl /graʊl/ noun an angry sound made by a dog, or by a person ○ As he opened the door he heard a growl. ■ verb to make an angry sound ○ The dog growled when he tried to take away its bone. ○ When we asked the doorman if we could go in, he just growled 'yes'.

③ grown /grəʊn/ adj full size. Synonym grown-up (NOTE: Do not confuse with groan.)

③ grown-up /,grəʊn 'ʌp/ noun, adj adult ○ a grown-up taste in books ○ The family consists of three grown-ups and ten children. ○ She has a grown-up daughter. ○ The grown-ups had wine with their meal.

grow out of /,grəʊ 'aʊt əv/ verb 1. to become bigger so that something does not fit ○ He's grown out of his coat. 2. to become older, and so stop some bad habit ○ He plays the drums all day long, but we hope it's something he'll grow out of.

② growth /grəʊθ/ noun 1. an increase in size ○ the rapid growth of the population since 1980 ○ They measured the tree's growth over the last fifty years. □ the country's economic growth the rate at which a country's national income grows 2. a lump in the body which is not normal, such as a tumour ○ They found a growth in her throat.

growth industry /'grəʊθ 'ɪndəstri/ noun an industry that is expanding

③ grow up /,grəʊ 'ʌp/ verb to become an adult grub /grəb/ noun 1. a little worm which is a young insect ○ Birds were searching for grubs under the bushes. 2. food (informal) ○ The grub in the canteen is so awful that I take sandwiches to work.

grubby /'grəbɪ/ adj dirty (NOTE: grubbier – grubbiest) grudge /grədʒ/ noun □ to have or bear a grudge against someone to have bad feelings about someone because of something they did to you in the past ○ Since her bag was snatched in Rome, she has a grudge against Italians. ○ He has been nursing a grudge against his boss for the last six years.

■ verb □ to grudge someone something to be unwilling to give someone something or be angry that they have something ○ I grudge having to pay so much for so-called expert advice. ○ No one grudges him his success in the tennis championship.

grudging /'grədʒɪŋ/ adj unwilling. Antonym willing grudgingly /'grədʒɪŋli/ adv unwillingly gruelling /'gru:əlɪŋ/ adj tiring. Synonym arduous. Antonym easy gruesome /'gru:s(ə)m/ adj horrific and shocking in the way violence or death is shown. Synonym grisly. Antonym pleasant gruff /grʌf/ adj rough and unfriendly (NOTE: gruffer – gruffest)

gruffly /'grʌflɪ/ adv in a gruff way grumble /'grʌmbəl/ noun a complaint about something ○ Do you have any grumbles about the food? □ she's full of grumbles she is always complaining ■ verb □ to grumble about something to complain about something ○ He's always grumbling about the noise from the flat above.

grumpily /'grʌmpili/ adv in a bad-tempered manner grumpy /'grʌmpi/ adj bad-tempered. Antonym cheerful (NOTE: grumpier – grumpiest) grunge /'grʌndʒ/ noun untidy and dirty-looking fashion (informal) grunt /grʌnt/ noun a noise like a pig ○ He gave a grunt and went on reading his newspaper. ■ verb 1. (of a pig) to make a noise ○ The pigs were grunting and squealing in their pen. 2. to make a bad-tempered noise ○ I asked if we could have a glass of water and the waiter just grunted. ○ She grunted something and slammed the door.

GSOH abbr good sense of humour

② guarantee /,gærən'ti:/ noun 1. a legal document in which someone states that something is going to happen ○ The travel agent could not give a guarantee that we would be accommodated in the hotel mentioned in the brochure. 2. a legal document which promises that a machine is in good condition and will work without problems for a certain length of time ○ The fridge is sold with a twelve-month guarantee. □ under guarantee covered by a guarantee ○ The car is still under guarantee, so the manufacturers will pay for the repairs. 3. a firm promise that something will happen ○ We can't give you a guarantee that the weather will be fine. ○ There is no guarantee that he will get a job even if he gets through the training course successfully. ■ verb 1. to give a legal promise that something will work, or that something will be done ○ The product is guaranteed for twelve months. 2. to make a firm promise that something will happen ○ I can guarantee that the car will give you no trouble. ○ We can almost guarantee good weather in the Caribbean at this time of year.

② guaranteed /,gærən'ti:d/ adj which has been promised legally. Synonym certain guarantor /,gærən'tɔ:/ noun a person who promises to pay the debts of another person

② guard /ga:d/ noun 1. □ to be on guard, to keep guard to be looking out for danger ○ You must be on your guard against burglars at all times. □ to catch someone off guard to catch someone by surprise, when they are not expecting it □ to be on your guard to try to be ready for an unpleasant surprise ○ You always have to be on your guard against burglars. 2. a person who protects, often a soldier ○ Security guards patrol the factory at night. ○ Our squad is on guard duty tonight. 3. the man in charge of a train ○ The guard helped my put my bike into his van. (NOTE: The US term is conductor.) 4. a piece of equipment to protect against possible injury or accident ○ Attach the guard on the chain saw. ■ verb to protect ○ The prison is guarded at all times. □ to guard against something to try to prevent something happening guard dog /'ga:d dɒg/ noun a dog used to guard a house or other buildings guarded /'ga:dɪd/ adj careful

② guardian /'ga:dɪən/ noun a person who protects, especially a person who legally looks after someone else's child guardian angel /,ga:dɪən 'eɪndʒəl/ noun a person who looks after and protects someone guard of honour /,ga:d əv 'ɒnə/ noun a group of soldiers standing or marching with an important person at a ceremony guardsman /'ga:dzmen/ noun a soldier in a regiment of the Guards guard's van /'ga:dz væn/ noun the part at the end of a train, where the guard rides guerrilla /gə'rɪlə/, guerilla noun a soldier who is not part of a regular national army (NOTE: Do not confuse with gorilla.)

guerrilla warfare /gə'rɪlə 'wɔ:feɪə/ noun a type of fighting when guerrillas attack in small groups in unexpected places

① guess /ges/ noun an attempt to give the right answer or figure ○ Go on – make a guess! ○ At a guess, I'd say it weighs about 10 kilos. □ it is anyone's guess no one really knows what is the right answer ■ verb 1. to try to give the right answer or figure ○ I would guess it's about six o'clock. ○ Neither of them guessed the right answer. ○ He guessed right. ○ I've bought you a present – shut your eyes and guess what it is. 2. especially US to think ○ I guess the plane's going to be late.

guessing game /'gesɪŋ geɪm/ noun 1. a game in which players must identify a thing or person by asking a series of questions to gain information 2. a situation which could end in different ways guesstimate noun /'gestɪmət/ an estimate based on a guess ■ verb /'gestɪmeɪt/ to make an estimate of something based on incomplete evidence or information guesswork /'geswɜ:k/ noun the process or end result of guessing

② guest /'gest/ noun 1. a person who is asked to come to your home or to an event ○ We had a very lively party with dozens of guests. ○ None of the guests left the party early. □ be my guest used to say that you will allow someone to do what they have asked to do or what you think they might like to do ○ If you want to borrow any of these books, be my guest. 2. a person staying in a hotel or guesthouse guesthouse /'gesthaʊs/ noun a private house which takes several guests, like a small hotel guffaw /gə'fɔ:/ noun a loud laugh ○ Guffaws came from the audience as soon as she started to speak. ♀ chuckle ■ verb to laugh loudly ○ The audience guffawed as she tried to ride the bicycle.

③ guidance /'gaɪd(ə)ns/ noun advice

② guide /'gaɪd/ noun 1. a person who shows the way ○ They used local farmers as guides through the forest. 2. a person who shows tourists round a place ○ The guide showed us over the castle or showed us round the castle. ○ The museum guide spoke so fast that we couldn't understand what she was saying. 3. a book which gives information ○ a guide to Athens ○ a guide to the butterflies of Europe ■ verb to show the way; to show tourists round a place ○ She guided us up the steps in the dark. ○ He guided us round the castle.

Guide /'gaɪd/ noun a member of the Guides (NOTE: part of the same organisation as the Boy Scouts)

③ guidebook /'gaɪdbʊk/ noun a book with information about a place guided missile /,gaɪdɪd 'mɪsəl/ noun a missile which can be controlled to hit a specific place guide dog /'gaɪd dɒg/ noun a dog which has been trained to lead a blind person guided tour /,gaɪdɪd 'tuə/ noun a visit to a place where people are led by a guide guidelines /'gaɪdlɪnɪz/ plural noun general advice on what to do ○ If you follow the government guidelines, you should not have any trouble. ○ The minister has issued a new set of guidelines about city planning.

Guides plural noun the Guides Association, an international youth organisation for girls ○ She's joined the Guides.

guild /gɪld/ noun an association of craftsmen (NOTE: Do not confuse with gild.)

guildhall /'gɪldhɔ:l/ noun the main public hall in a town guile /gail/ noun the use of trickery to deceive people. Synonym cunning. Antonym frankness guillotine /'gɪlətɪ:n/ noun 1. a machine which was used in France for punishing criminals by cutting off their heads 2. a machine for cutting paper 3. a motion in the House of Commons to end a debate at a certain time ■ verb to cut someone's head off as a punishment ○ Many aristocrats were guillotined during the French Revolution. Synonym behead guilt /gɪlt/ noun 1. the state of having committed a crime ○ The prisoner admitted his guilt. 2. being or feeling responsible for doing something bad ○ The whole group bears the guilt for his death. (NOTE: Do not confuse with gilt.)

② guilty /'gɪlti/ adj 1. who has committed a crime ○ He was found guilty of murder. ○ The jury decided she was not guilty. 2. feeling unhappy because you have done something wrong ○ I feel very guilty about not having written to you. (NOTE: guiltier – guiltiest) guinea /'gɪnɪə/ noun a former coin worth 21 shillings (£1.05 in modern currency), still used in auction prices and in names of prizes for horse races guinea fowl /'gɪnɪ faʊl/ noun a bird with black fathers and white spots, used for food guinea pig /'gɪnɪ pɪg/ noun 1. a little furry animal, kept as a pet ○ She keeps guinea pigs in a hutch in the garden. 2. a person used in an experiment ○ The hospital is advertising for guinea pigs to test the new drug. ○ We're using her as a guinea pig to see if the instructions for making the cake work.

guise /gaɪz/ noun an appearance, which is sometimes misleading □ in the guise of pretending to be ○ The drugs were sent in the guise of packets of sugar.

③ guitar /gɪ'tɑ:/ noun a musical instrument with six strings, played with the fingers ○ He plays the guitar in a pop group.

gulch /'gʌltʃ/ noun US a narrow valley with a stream at the bottom (NOTE: The plural is gulches.)

③ gulf /'gʌlf/ noun 1. an area of sea partly surrounded by land ○ the Gulf of Mexico 2. a great distance between two points of view ○ The gulf that separates the two parties will be difficult to bridge.

Gulf /'gʌlf/ noun the Persian Gulf gull /gʌl/ noun a large common white sea bird. Also called seagull gullet /'gʌlɪt/ noun the tube down which food and drink passes from the mouth to the stomach. Also called oesophagus gullibility /'gʌlɪ'bɪlɪtɪ/ noun a willingness to believe something or trust someone very easily gullible /'gʌlib(ə)l/ adj ready to believe anything. Synonym naive. Antonym discerning gully /'gʌli/ noun a small narrow valley (NOTE: The plural is gullies.)

gulp /'gʌlp/ noun a quick swallow ○ He swallowed the glass of wine in one gulp. ■ verb to swallow fast ○ She gulped and went onto the stage. ○ He gulped down his drink and ran for the bus. ▶ Antonym (all senses) sip

③ gum /gʌm/ noun 1. glue ○ She spread gum on the back of the photo and stuck it onto a sheet of paper. 2. the flesh around the base of your teeth ○ Brushing your teeth every day is good for your gums. ■ verb to stick with glue ○ She gummed the pictures onto a sheet of paper. (NOTE: gumming – gummed) gumboot /'gʌmbu:t/ noun a rubber boot gummed /gʌmd/ adj with glue on it gumption /'gʌmpʃən/ noun 1. good common sense 2. the courage to take action gum tree /'gʌm tri:/ noun a eucalyptus tree □ up a gum tree in a difficult situation (informal)

② gun /gʌn/ noun 1. a weapon which shoots bullets ○ The robber pulled out a gun. ○ She grabbed his gun and shot him dead. □ to jump the gun to start too quickly (informal) ○ The law on Sunday opening starts in a month's time, but some shops have already jumped the gun. □ to stick to your guns to keep to your point of view even if everyone says you are wrong 2. a large weapon which shoots shells ○ We heard the guns firing all night. ○ The ship trained its guns on the town. 3. a small device which you hold in your hand to spray a substance such as paint or glue ○ A spray gun gives an even coating of paint. ■ verb □ to gun someone down to shoot and kill someone ○ The policeman was gunned down in broad daylight. (NOTE: gunning – gunned) gunboat /'gʌnbəʊt/ noun a small ship with guns on it gun control /'gʌn kən,trəʊl/ noun legal measures to control the ownership of guns by members of the public gunfire /'gʌnfaiə/ noun the shooting of guns □ under gunfire being shot at ○ He's always very calm, even under gunfire.

unge /'gʌndʒ/ noun an unpleasant sticky substance

④ gunman /'gʌnmən/ noun a man armed with a gun (NOTE: The plural is gunmen.)

gunpoint /'gʌnpɔɪnt/ noun □ at gunpoint with a gun being pointed at you ○ He was held at gunpoint by robbers.

gunpowder /'gʌnpaʊdə/ noun a chemical substance used as an explosive and to make fireworks gunshot /'gʌnʃɒt/ noun the firing of a gun gurgle /'gɜ:g(ə)l/ noun a bubbling sound ○ the gurgle of the stream between the rocks ■ verb to make a bubbling sound ○ The water gurgled in the pipes. ○ The baby was gurgling in his pram.

guru /'gʊrʊ/ noun 1. a respected teacher, often a religious or spiritual teacher ○ He was the great guru of the civil disobedience movement. 2. a person who gives advice ○ She's one of the Prime Minister's media gurus.

gush /gʌʃ/ noun 1. a sudden fast flow of liquid ○ A sudden gush of water came out of the pipe. 2. lots of praise ○ I can't stand all this gush about babies. ■ verb 1. to flow out very quickly and suddenly ○ Oil gushed from the hole in the pipeline. 2. to speak in a very enthusiastic way ○ She tends to gush over babies.

gushing /'gʌʃɪŋ/ adj 1. flowing fast or in large quantities 2. speaking or behaving in an extremely enthusiastic or emotional way that embarrasses other people gust /gʌst/ noun □ a gust of wind a sudden rush of wind ○ A sudden gust blew my hat off. ■ verb to blow in gusts ○ The wind was gusting at up to 70 miles an hour.

gusto /'gʌstəʊ/ noun energy and enthusiasm. Synonym enjoyment. Antonym apathy (NOTE: no plural) gusty /'gʌsti/ adj with the wind blowing in sudden bursts. Synonym windy. Antonym calm

③ gut /gʌt/ noun the tube passing from the stomach in which food is digested as it passes through the body ○ He complained of pain in the gut. ■ verb 1. to remove the insides of an animal or fish before cooking ○ The pigeons have not been gutted. ○ Women stood in the market gutting sardines. 2. to destroy the inside of a building totally ○ The house was gutted by fire. (NOTE: gutting – gutted) gut reaction /gʌt ri'ækʃən/ noun an instinctive reaction guts /gʌts/ plural noun 1. courage (informal) ○ She had the guts to tell the boss he was wrong. 2. the stomach and the area just below it (slang) ○ a pain in the guts 3. □ I hate his guts I dislike him a lot (informal) gutsy /'gʌtsi/ adj 1. brave 2. done or performed with a great deal of passion, or emotion gutted /'gʌtid/ adj 1. with the insides taken out 2. very upset or disappointed □ to feel gutted to feel extremely upset (informal) ○ When he missed the penalty kick we all felt gutted.

gutter /'gʌtə/ noun 1. a channel by the side of a road to take away rainwater ○ Pieces of paper and leaves blowing about in the gutter. □ he was brought up in the gutter he was brought up in very poor conditions 2. an open pipe under the edge of a roof to catch rainwater ○ It rained so hard the gutters overflowed.

guttering /'gʌtərɪŋ/ noun 1. the gutters at the edges of a roof 2. open metal or plastic pipes for use as gutters gutter press /'gʌtə pres/ noun newspapers which specialise in scandals guttural /'gʌt(ə)rəl/ adj 1. characterised by throaty speech sounds 2. pronounced with the tongue near the back of the mouth

① guy /gai/ noun 1. a man ○ She married a guy from Texas. ○ The boss is a very friendly guy. ○ Hey, you guys, come and look at this! (NOTE: In US English, you guys can be used when speaking to men or women.) 2. a rope which holds a tent 3. a model of a man burnt on Bonfire Night, 5th November ○ The children are collecting clothes to make a guy. ○ Penny for the guy!

Guy Fawkes Night /gai 'fɔ:ks naɪt/ noun 5th November, when the attempt by Guy Fawkes to blow up the British Houses of Parliament in 1605 is remembered with bonfires and fireworks. Also called Bonfire Night guzzle /'gʌz(ə)l/ verb to eat or drink greedily (informal)

③ gym /dʒɪm/ noun 1. a hall for indoor sports and athletics ○ Because it rained, we had to hold the school fete in the gym. Also called gymnasium 2. physical exercises. Also called gymnastics gymkhana /dʒɪm'ka:nə/ noun GB a horse riding competition gymnasium /dʒɪm'neɪzɪəm/ noun a hall for indoor sports and athletics gymnast /'dʒɪmnæst/ noun an athlete who is expert at gymnastics gymnastic /dʒɪm'næstɪk/ adj referring to gymnastics gymnastics /dʒɪm'næstɪks/ noun physical exercises, as a competitive sport (NOTE: takes a singular verb) gynaecological /,gaɪnɪkə'lɒdʒɪk(ə)l/ adj referring to gynaecology (NOTE: The US spelling is gynecological.)

gynaecologist /,gaɪnɪk'ɒlədʒɪst/ noun a doctor who specialises in gynaecology (NOTE: The US spelling is gynecologist.)

gynaecology /gaɪnɪ'kɒlədʒɪ/ noun the study of female sex organs and the treatment of diseases of women in general (NOTE: The US spelling is gynecology.)

gypsy /'dʒɪpsi/ noun 1. same as Romany (offensive) 2. someone who travels a lot gyrate /'dʒaɪ'reɪt/ verb to turn round and round fast. Synonym rotate gyratory /dʒaɪ'reɪt(ə)ri/ adj which goes round in a circle gyratory system /dʒaɪ'reɪt(ə)ri ,sɪstəm/ noun an arrangement of roundabouts and one-way streets to take traffic round an area

H

h /eɪtʃ/, H noun the eighth letter of the alphabet, between G and I ③ ha¹ /ha:/ interj an expression showing surprise ○ Ha! There's a mistake on page one of the book!

④ ha² abbr hectare habeas corpus /,heɪbiəs 'kɔ:pəs/ noun an order to release someone who is being held by the police without being charged, or to bring a prisoner to answer a charge in court haberdasher /'hæbədæʃə/ noun a person who sells things for sewing, such as buttons, needles, elastic, etc. (old) haberdashery /'hæbədæʃəri/ noun small articles for sewing, such as needles and thread, or the part of a department store that sells such items (NOTE: The US term is notions.)

④ habit /'hæbɪt/ noun a regular way of acting ○ He has the habit of going to bed at 9 o'clock and reading until midnight. □ to develop or get into the habit of doing something to start to do something regularly ○ He's getting into the habit of playing football every week. □ to break the habit to stop doing something which you used to do regularly ○ I haven't had a cigarette for six months – I think I've broken the habit! □ pick up a bad or nasty habit to start to do something regularly which is not nice ○ She has the bad habit of biting her nails. □ from force of habit because this is what you do normally ○ He switched off all the lights from force of habit.

habitable /'hæbɪtəb(ə)l/ adj fit to live in. Synonym inhabitable habitat /'hæbɪtæt/ noun a place where an animal or plant lives habitation /,hæbɪ'teɪʃ(ə)n/ noun a place where someone lives habitual /hə'bɪtʃuəl/ adj 1. usual ○ She was sitting in her habitual place at the bar. 2. referring to someone who does something by habit ○ a habitual liar ○ a habitual offender habitually /hə'bɪtʃuəli/ adv in the usual way hack /hæk/ noun a badly paid journalist ○ A bunch of hacks followed her everywhere. ■ verb 1. to cut roughly ○ He hacked at the tree with an axe. 2. to enter a computer system illegally ○ He hacked into the bank's computer.

hacker /'hækə/ noun a person who enters a computer system illegally hackles /'hæk(ə)lz/ plural noun the hairs on the back of the neck □ feel or make your hackles rise to begin to feel or to make you feel angry hackneyed /'hæknid/ adj used too often. Synonym trite hacksaw /'hæksə:/ noun a saw for cutting metal had /əd, həd, hæd/ □ have had better /həd 'betə/, 'd better phrase it would be a good thing if ○ You had better stay here instead of going to the hotel. ○ Hadn't you better answer the phone?

haddock /'hædək/ noun a white sea fish hadn't /'hæd(ə)nt/ short form had not haemoglobin /,hi:ma'gləʊbɪn/ noun a protein in red blood cells which gives blood its red colour (NOTE: The US spelling is hemoglobin.)

haemophilia /,hi:ma'fɪliə/ noun a blood disorder usually of men that can lead to death from the smallest cut because the bleeding will not stop quickly enough (NOTE: The US spelling is hemophilia.)

haemophiliac /,hi:ma'fɪliæk/ noun a person who has haemophilia (NOTE: The US spelling is hemophiliac.)

haemorrhage /'hem(ə)rɪdʒ/ noun 1. bleeding where a large quantity of blood is lost, especially bleeding from a burst blood vessel ○ She had a haemorrhage and was rushed to hospital. ○ He died of a brain haemorrhage. 2. loss of money, members or other resources ○ We are trying to stem the haemorrhage of the company's resources. ■ verb to lose a lot of blood ○ The injured man was haemorrhaging from the mouth. (NOTE: [all senses] The US spelling is hemorrhage.)

haemorrhoids /'hemərɔɪdz/ plural noun swollen veins near the anus. Also called piles (NOTE: The US spelling is hemorrhoids.)

hag /hæg/ noun an ugly old woman (offensive) haggard /'hægəd/ adj thin and tired haggis /'hægɪs/ noun a Scottish dish, made of inner parts of a sheep cooked in a bag made from the sheep's stomach haggle /'hæg(ə)l/ verb to argue about prices and terms to try to reduce them. Synonym bargain (NOTE: You haggle with someone over something.)

ha ha interj /ha: 'ha:/ 1. showing that you find something funny ○ Ha ha! What a funny hat! 2. showing that you find something surprising ○ Ha ha! I've caught you stealing from the cash box again! ■ noun /'ha: ha:/ a fence at the bottom of a ditch so as not to spoil the view of a landscape ○ The lawn in front of the house ends in a ha-ha.

hail /heɪl/ noun 1. frozen rain ○ I thought the hail was going to break the windscreen. 2. a mass of small missiles ○ There was a hail of bullets and the soldiers hid behind a wall. 3. a call □ within hail near enough to be called ■ verb 1. to fall as frozen rain ○ It hailed for ten minutes and then the sun came out. 2. to wave or call to make a taxi stop ○ He whistled to hail a taxi. 3. □ to hail from to come from (formal) ○ He hails from Montana.

hailstone /'heɪlstəʊn/ noun a piece of frozen rain hailstorm /'heɪlstɔ:m/ noun a storm during which hail falls

① hair /heə/ noun 1. a mass of long fibres growing on your head ○ She has long brown hair or her hair is long and brown. ○ She always brushes her hair before washing it. ○ You must get your hair cut. ○ He's had his hair cut short. ○ Use some hair spray to keep your hair in place. □ keep your hair on! don't get annoyed (informal) □ to let your hair down to relax and enjoy yourself ○ When the exams are finished we're all going to let our hair down. 2. one of the long fibres growing on the body of a human or animal ○ Waiter, there's a hair in my soup! ○ The cat has left hairs all over the cushion. ○ He's beginning to get some grey hairs. □ to split hairs to try to find very small differences between things when arguing ○ Stop splitting hairs, you know you're in the wrong.

hairbrush /'heəbrəʃ/ noun a stiff brush for brushing your hair (NOTE: The plural is hairbrushes.)

③ haircut /'heəkʌt/ noun 1. the cutting of the hair on your head ○ You need a haircut. ○ He went to get a haircut. 2. a style of cutting hair ○ Have you seen his new haircut?

hairdo /'heədu:/ noun a style of hair (informal) (NOTE: usually referring to a woman's hair)

③ hairdresser /'heədresə/ noun a person who cuts and washes your hair hairdressing /'heədresɪŋ/ noun the action of cutting and washing hair hair gel /'heə dʒəl/ noun a gel spread on hair to keep it tidy hair grip /'heə gri:p/ noun a small bent metal or plastic pin, used to keep the hair in place hairless /'heələs/ adj with no hairs on the head or other parts. Compare bald. Antonym hairy hairline /'heəlайн/ noun 1. the line where your hair meets your forehead ○ He's very worried about his receding hairline. 2. a very thin line or crack ○ Hairline cracks appeared in the metal.

hairnet /'heənet/ noun a net worn over your hair to keep it in place hairpiece /'heəpi:s/ noun a piece of false hair hairpin /'heəpɪn/ noun a piece of bent wire used to keep your hair in place. Also called grip (NOTE: The US term is bobby-pin.)

hairpin bend /,heəpɪn 'bend/ noun a sharp bend on a mountain road hair-raising /'heə ,reɪzɪŋ/ adj frightening. Synonym terrifying hair's breadth /'heəz bredθ/ noun a very small distance hairstyle /'heəstail/ noun a way of cutting and styling hair hair stylist /'heə ,stailɪst/ noun a hairdresser hairy /'heəri/ adj 1. covered with hairs ○ a hairy dog ○ He's got hairy arms. 2. frightening and dangerous (informal) ○ Crossing the Alps in a snowstorm was the hairiest ride I've ever had. (NOTE: hairier – hairiest)

hajj /hædʒ/, hajj noun a pilgrimage made by Muslims to Mecca hake /heɪk/ noun a large white sea fish (NOTE: The plural is hake.)

halal /hə'lə:l/ adj describes meat from animals killed according to Islamic law ■ noun meat from an animal which has been killed according to Islamic law ■ verb to kill animals for food according to Islamic law halcyon /'hælsiən/ adj beautiful and happy (literary) hale /heɪl/ adj □ hale and hearty fit and well ○ My grandmother is still hale and hearty at the grand old age of 92. Synonym healthy. Antonym unhealthy

① half /ha:f/ noun 1. one of two parts which are the same in size ○ She cut the orange in half. ○ One half of the apple fell on the carpet. ○ Half of six is three. 2. (in sport) one of two parts of a match ○ Our team scored a goal in the first half. ○ We thought we were going to win, and then they scored in the final minutes of the second half. 3. (in rugby) a midfield player 4. a part of a financial year ○

The sales in the first half were down on last year. 5. half a pint, especially of beer ○ An orange juice and two halves of bitter, please.

6. a child's ticket which costs half the price of an adult's ○ one adult and two halves

(NOTE: The plural is halves /ha:vzəl/ ■ adj divided into two equal parts (informal) □ half a bottle of wine half of a bottle of wine ○ We drank half a bottle of wine each. □ a half bottle of wine a small bottle of wine, containing half the amount of a normal bottle ○ He ordered his meal and a half bottle of Bordeaux. ■ adv □ half as big only 50 per cent of the size ○ This book is half as big as that one. □ half as big again 50 per cent bigger half-and-half /,ha:f ən 'ha:f/ adv in two equal quantities half an hour /,ha:f ən 'auəl/, a half hour noun 30 minutes half-back /'ha:f bæk/ noun a defending player in football or rugby half-baked /ha:f 'beɪkəd/ adj not properly planned and therefore not practical half board /ha:f 'bɔ:d/ noun a rate for breakfast and dinner at a hotel, but not lunch half-brother /'ha:f ,brʌðə/ noun a brother who has only one parent the same as another brother or sister half-day /'ha:f deɪ/ adj half the day; morning or afternoon half-dollar /ha:f 'dɒləl/ noun US fifty cents

② half-dozen /ha:f 'dʌz(ə)n/, half a dozen /ha:f ə 'dʌz(ə)n/ noun six half-hearted /,ha:f 'ha:tɪd/ adj not very enthusiastic. Antonym wholehearted ② half-hour /,ha:f 'auəl/ noun a period of thirty minutes half-hourly /,ha:f 'auəli/ adj, adv every thirty minutes ○ We have a half-hourly bus service to town.

half-mast /ha:f 'ma:st/ noun □ flying at half-mast (of a flag) raised only half-way up the flagpole, as a mark of respect ○ On the day of the King's death flags flew at half-mast on all public buildings.

half measures /ha:f 'meʒəz/ plural noun an plan or action which is begun but not completed

② half past /,ha:f 'pa:st/ phrase 30 minutes after an hour

② half price /,ha:f 'praɪs/ noun, adj 50 per cent of the price half-price sale /,ha:f praɪs 'seɪl/ noun a sale of all goods at 50 per cent of the usual price half-sister /'ha:f ,sistə/ noun a sister who has only one parent the same as another brother or sister

② half-term /,ha:f 'tɜ:m/ noun a short holiday in the middle of a school term. Compare midterm half-time /,ha:f 'taɪm/ noun a rest period in the middle of a game

③ halfway /,ha:f'wei/ adv in the middle ○ Come on, we're more than halfway there! ○ The post office is about halfway between the station and our house. □ to meet someone halfway, to go halfway to meet someone to compromise ○ I'll meet you halfway: I write the report and you present it at the meeting.

half-yearly /,ha:f 'jɪəli/ adj, adv every six months halibut /'hælɪbət/ noun a large flat white fish (NOTE: The plural is halibut.)

halitosis /,hælɪ'təʊsɪs/ noun a condition where someone has bad-smelling breath

① hall /hɔ:l/ noun 1. a room just inside the entrance to a house, where you can leave your coat ○ Don't wait in the hall, come straight into the dining room. ○ She left her umbrella in the hall. 2. a large room for meetings ○ The children have their dinner in the school hall.

hallmark /'hɔ:lma:k/ noun 1. a mark put on gold or silver items to show that the metal is of the correct quality ○ The hallmark on this old silver spoon has almost been worn away. 2. □ it bears the hallmark of it is characteristic of ○ The murder bore all the hallmarks of a serial killing. ■ verb to put a hallmark on a piece of gold or silver ○ The spoon was hallmarked in London in 1790.

③ hallo /hə'ləʊ/ □ hello

hall of residence /,hɔ:l əv 'rezɪd(ə)ns/ noun a building where students live at university or college hallowed /'hæləud/ adj 1. made holy ○ The cemetery is hallowed ground. 2. very much respected (humorous) ○ She entered the hallowed gates of the school.

Halloween /,hæləu'i:n/ noun 31st October, the day before All Saints' Day, when children sometimes dress up as frightening spirits. ♦ Trick or Treat hallucinate /hə'lju:sɪneɪt/ verb to imagine seeing or hearing someone or something hallucination /hə'lju:sɪ'nɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the belief that an imaginary scene or sound is really there hallway /hɔ:lweɪ/ noun a hall; a passage at the entrance to a house or flat. Synonym corridor halo /'heɪləʊ/ noun 1. the ring of light round the head of a holy person in a painting ○ a painting of an archbishop with two saints, each with a golden halo 2. a ring round the moon or sun when seen through mist or in icy weather (NOTE: The plural is haloes.)

③ halt /hɔ:lt/ noun a complete stop. Synonym standstill □ to come to a halt to stop completely ○ The lorry came to a halt just before the wall. □ to call a halt to something to make something stop ○ He tried to call a halt to arguments inside the party. □ to grind to a halt to stop working gradually ○ The whole plan ground to a halt for lack of funds. ■ verb to stop ○ The cars halted when the traffic lights went red. ○ We are trying to halt experiments on live animals. Antonym start halter /hɔ:ltə/ noun a rope put around an animal's neck so that you can lead it halting /hɔ:ltɪŋ/ adj not sure. Synonym hesitant halve /ha:v/ verb 1. to cut into two equal parts ○ She halved the cake. 2. to reduce by half ○ Because the town has no cash, its budget has been halved.

③ halves /ha:vz/ ◊ half ham /hæm/ noun 1. pork that has been preserved using salt or smoke ○ She cut three slices of ham. ○ We had a ham and tomato salad. ○ She had a ham sandwich for lunch. 2. a bad actor who uses too many gestures and speaks too loudly (dated) ■ verb □ to ham it up to act a piece badly on purpose (informal)

③ hamburger /'hæmbɜ:gə/ noun a piece of minced beef grilled and served in a toasted roll hamlet /'hæmlət/ noun a little village. Antonym city

③ hammer /'hæmə/ noun a tool with a heavy head for knocking nails ○ She hit the nail hard with the hammer. □ to go under the hammer to be sold by auction ○ All his furniture went under the hammer last week. ■ verb 1. to knock something into something with a hammer ○ It took him a few minutes to hammer the tent pegs into the ground. 2. to hit hard, as with a hammer ○ He hammered the table with his fist. ○ She hammered on the door with her stick. □ to hammer it into someone to try to make someone understand by repeating ○ They're trying to hammer it into schoolchildren that drugs are dangerous. 3. to beat someone in a competition (informal) hammering /'hæmrɪŋ/ noun a heavy defeat hammer out /'hæmrə 'aut/ verb □ to hammer out an agreement to go through long and difficult discussions in order to reach agreement on something hammock /'hæmək/ noun a bed made from a piece of fabric hanging between two hooks hamper /'hæmpə/ noun a large basket ○ We packed the hamper with food for the picnic. ■ verb to get in the way ○ Lack of funds is hampering our development project. Synonym hinder. Antonym facilitate hamster /'hæmstə/ noun a small furry animal, kept as a pet hamstring /'hæmstrɪŋ/ noun the group of tendons behind the knee, which connects the thigh muscle to the bones in the lower leg hamstrung /'hæmstrʌŋ/ adj not able to do what you want to

① hand /ha:nd/ noun 1. the part of the body at the end of each arm, which you use for holding things ○ She was carrying a cup of tea in each hand. ○ She held out her hand, asking for money. □ to shake hands to hold someone's hand to show you are pleased to meet them or to show that an agreement has been reached ○ The visitors shook hands and the meeting started. □ to shake hands on a deal to shake hands to show that a deal has been agreed □ to give or lend someone a hand with something to help with something ○ Can you lend a hand with moving the furniture? ○ He gave me a hand with the washing up. □ the shop has changed hands the shop has a new owner □ they walked along hand in hand they walked holding each other by the hand 2. □ to be hand in glove with someone to be working closely with someone ○ We discovered he was hand in glove with our main rivals. □ to have your hands full to be very busy ○ With three little children to look after she has her hands full. □ hand over fist in large quantities ○ They were making money hand over fist. ◊ wash 3. one of the two pieces on a clock which turn round and show the time. The minute hand is longer than the hour hand. 4. □ at hand near ○ The fire extinguisher is kept close at hand. □ by hand using your hands and tools, but not using large machines ○ He made the table by hand. □ in hand kept ready ○ We have a supply of extra paper in hand for emergencies. □ on hand ready ○ There's a doctor on hand if accidents occur. □ on the one hand showing the first part of a comparison □ on the other hand as the second part of a comparison; but ○ On the one hand he's a good salesman; on the other hand he can't work out discounts correctly. □ out of hand not controlled ○ Our expenses have got out of hand. 5. a worker ○ to take on ten more hands □ an old China hand a person who has had a lot of experience in doing business in China 6. the action of hitting your hands together ○ He did very well – give him a big hand, everyone. 7. cards which have been given to you as a player in a game ○ His hand contained three aces. ■ verb to pass something to someone ○ Can you hand me that box? ○ She handed me all her money. Synonym give □ you've got to hand it to him he has to be admired for (informal) ○

You've got to hand it to her, she's a great manager!

① hand back /'hænd 'bæk/ verb to give something back

③ handbag /'hændbæg/ noun a small bag which a woman carries to hold small things such as money or make-up (NOTE: The US term is purse or pocketbook.)

hand baggage /'hænd ,bægɪdʒ/ noun small cases carried by passengers onto a plane. Also called hand luggage handball /'hændbɔ:l/ noun a game played with a large ball, which you have to hit only with your hands handbill /'hændbil/ noun a small piece of printed paper advertising something, given out by hand. Synonym leaflet handbook /'hændbʊk/ noun a book which gives instructions on how to use or repair something. Synonym manual handbrake /'hændbreɪk/ noun a lever in a vehicle which works the brakes handcart /'hændkɑ:t/ noun a small vehicle which is pushed or pulled by hand handcrafted /'hændkra:fɪd/ adj made in an artistic way by hand handcuff /'hændkʌf/ verb to attach with handcuffs. Synonym chain handcuffs /'hændkʌfs/ plural noun two metal rings connected by a chain, which are locked round the wrists of someone who is being arrested ○ He came out of the court house in handcuffs. (NOTE: plural; for one item, say 'a pair of handcuffs') hand down /,hænd 'daʊn/ verb 1. to pass from one generation to a younger one ○ This is one of those folk tales which have been handed down over the centuries. ○ The house has been handed down from father to son since the sixteenth century. 2. to announce publicly ○ The judge handed down his verdict.

③ handful /'hændfʊl/ noun 1. as much as you can hold in your hand ○ She paid with a handful of loose change. 2. a very few ○ Only a handful of people came to the wedding. 3. a difficult child ○ Their son is a bit of a handful.

hand grenade /'hænd gri,neɪd/ noun a small bomb usually thrown by hand handgun /'hændgæn/ noun a small gun which is carried in the hand hand-held /,hænd 'held/ adj /'hænd held/ which can be held in the hand ■ noun a handheld computer

③ handicap /'hændɪkæp/ noun 1. a physical or mental disability (dated) 2. something which puts you at a disadvantage ○ Not being able to drive is a handicap in this job. 3. a punishment given to a player to make it harder for him or her to win ○ He has a golf

handicap of 7. ■ verb to cause someone difficulty ○ She was handicapped by not being able to speak Russian. (NOTE: handicap-ping – handicapped)

③ handicapped /'hændɪkæpt/ adj not able to use part of the body or mind because of a permanent illness or injury ○ a school for handicapped children (NOTE: Many people avoid this term as it can cause offence and prefer to say disabled.)

handicraft /'hændɪkra:f/ noun artistic work done by hand handily /'hændɪlɪ/ adv 1. conveniently 2. in a skilful, clever way

① hand in /,hænd 'ɪn/ verb to give in something by hand □ he handed in his notice or resignation he resigned

handiwork /'hændiwrk/ noun work done or made by yourself

③ handkerchief /'hæŋkə:tʃɪf/ noun a piece of cloth or thin paper for wiping your nose. Also called hanky (NOTE: The plural is handkerchiefs or handkerchieves.)

② handle /'hænd(ə)l/ noun 1. a part of something which you hold in your hand to carry or to use the object held ○ I turned the handle but the door didn't open. ○ Be careful, the handle of the frying pan may be hot. ○ The handle has come off my suitcase. ○ He broke the handle off the cup. 2. □ to fly off the handle to become very angry (informal) ○ Stop telling him what to do or he'll fly off the handle. ■ verb 1. to move by hand ○ Be careful when you handle the bottles of acid. 2. to deal with something ○ His company handles most of the traffic through the port. ○ Leave it to me – I'll handle it. 3. to sell or to trade in a type of service or product ○ We do not handle washing machines.

handlebars /'hænd(ə)lbɑ:z/ plural noun a bar for steering a bicycle or motorcycle ○ The handlebars are too low, can you alter their height?

handler /'hændlə/ noun same as trainer handling /'hændlɪŋ/ noun 1. the way in which a person deals with something ○ a situation that needs careful handling 2. the way in which something can be controlled or used 3. the act of touching or moving something with the hands ○ Handling this product without gloves is not recommended. 4. the act of dealing with something, or of managing someone 5. the transport and packaging of goods 6. the buying or selling of goods known to be stolen ○ convicted of handling stolen goods handling charge /'hændlɪŋ tʃa:dʒ/ noun a charge made for dealing with something hand luggage /'hænd ,lʌgɪdʒ/ noun same as hand baggage handmade /'hændmeɪd/ adj made by hand, without using a machine hand out /,hænd 'aʊt/ verb to distribute ○ Protesters were handing out leaflets at the station. Synonym dispense handout /'hændəut/ noun 1. a gift such as clothes or money, given to poor people ○ The support group exists on handouts from the government. 2. a printed information sheet ○ You will all get handouts after the lecture.

① hand over /,hænd 'əʊvə/ verb to give something to someone ○ She handed over all the documents to the lawyers. Synonym give up. Antonym withhold handover /'hændəʊvə/ noun the passing of power to someone else handpicked /,hænd'pɪkt/ adj carefully chosen. Synonym select handrail /'hændreɪl/ noun a bar which you hold on to for safety handset /'hændset/ noun the part of a telephone which you hold in your hand hands-free /'hændz 'fri:/ adj able to be used or operated without the use of the hands handshake /'hændʃeɪk/ noun the act of shaking hands when meeting someone handsome /'hæns(ə)m/ adj 1. good-looking ○ Her boyfriend is very handsome – I'm jealous! (NOTE: usually used of men rather than women) 2. large ○ We made a handsome profit on the deal.

hands-on /,hændz 'ɒn/ adj practical and done by yourself handstand /'hændstænd/ noun the position of holding yourself upright on your hands, upside down hand-to-hand /,hænd tə 'hænd/ adj (of fighting) with soldiers very close to each other hand-to-mouth /,hænd tə 'maʊθ/ adv with only just enough money or food for what is necessary to live each day

③ handwriting /'hændraɪtɪŋ/ noun writing done by hand handwritten /,hænd'rɪt(ə)n/ adj written by hand

③ handy /'hændi/ adj practical and useful ○ to come in handy to be useful ○ The knife will come in handy when we are camping.

handyman /'hændimæn/ noun someone who is skilled at doing small jobs such as repairs

① hang /hæŋ/ verb 1. to attach something to something so that it does not touch the ground ○ Hang your coat on the hook behind the door. ○ He hung his umbrella over the back of his chair. ○ We hung the painting in the hall. ○ The boys were hanging upside down from a tree. (NOTE: hanging – hung /hæŋɪŋ/)

2. to kill someone by tying a rope round their neck and hanging them off the ground ○ He was sentenced to be hanged for murder. □ to hang yourself to commit suicide by hanging ○ He hanged himself in his prison cell. (NOTE: hanging – hanged) ■ noun □ to get the hang of something to understand how something works (informal) ○ I don't think I'll ever get the hang of this software package.

hang about /,hæŋ ə'baut/ same as hang around hangar /'hæŋə/ noun a large shed for keeping aircraft in (NOTE: Do not confuse with hanger.)

③ hang around /,hæŋ ə'raʊnd/ verb to wait in a certain place without doing anything much

③ hang back /,hæŋ 'bæk/ verb to stay behind when others go on. Synonym hesitate

③ hang down /,hæŋ 'daʊn/ verb to hang in a long piece hanger /'hæŋə/ noun a device for hanging things on hanger-on /,hæŋənə 'ɒn/ noun a person who stays near someone in the hope of getting something good ○ the president with his usual crowd of hangers-on Synonym follower (NOTE: The plural is hangers-on.)

hang-glider /'hæŋ ,glайдə/ noun 1. a large cloth wing stretched over a light frame, under which a person hangs, holding onto a bar which is used for steering 2. a person who flies a hang-glider hang-gliding /'hæŋ ,glайдɪŋ/ noun the sport of flying a hang-glider hanging /'hæŋɪŋ/ noun the act of killing someone by hanging ○ The hangings took place in front of the prison.

③ hang on /hæŋ 'ɒn/ verb 1. to wait ○ If you hang on a few minutes you will be able to see her. 2. to think again ○ Hang on! Do you mean you're not coming with us? 3. □ to hang on to something to hold something tight ○ Hang on to the ladder and don't look down. 4. to keep ○ I've decided to hang on to my shares until the price goes up.

③ hang out /hæŋ 'aʊt/ verb 1. to hang things outside on a string ○ They hung out flags all around the square. ○ Mother's hanging out her washing to dry. 2. to wait in a certain place without doing anything much (informal) ○ Teenagers like to hang out round the internet café.

hangover /'hæŋəʊvə/ noun 1. an unpleasant feeling after having drunk too much alcohol ○ Last night's party was good but I've got a dreadful hangover this morning. 2. a thing which is left over from the past ○ This is a hangover from the old days when inns always provided stables for horses.

③ hang up /,hæŋ 'ʌp/ verb 1. to put something on a hanger or on a hook ○ Don't leave your jacket on the back of your chair, hang it up! 2. to stop a telephone conversation by putting the telephone back on its hook ○ When I asked him when he was going to pay, he hung up.

hang-up /'hæŋ ʌp/ noun a worry or anxious feeling (informal) □ hung up (NOTE: The plural is hang-ups.)

hanker /'hæŋkə/ verb to want something over a long time hanky-panky /,hæŋki 'pæŋki/ noun 1. activity which is strange or suspicious 2. sexual behaviour

Hanukkah /'ha:nəkə/ noun a Jewish religious festival in November or December haphazard /hæp'hæzəd/ adj done without any plan. Synonym random. Antonym systematic haphazardly /hæp'hæzədli/ adv at random, without any plan hapless /'hæpləs/ adj unlucky; unfortunate (literary). Antonym fortunate

① happen /'hæpən/ verb 1. to take place ○ The accident happened at the traffic lights. ○ How did the accident happen? ○ Something happened to make all the buses late. ○ He's late – something must have happened to him. 2. □ what's happened to his brother? what is his brother doing now? 3. to be somewhere by chance ○ The fire engine happened to be there when the fire started. ○ The shop happened to be empty at the time. ○ We happened to meet at the library. ○ Do you happen to have change for £10? □ it so happens or happened that, as it happens, as it happened quite by chance ○ As it happens I have the car today and can give you a lift. ○ It so happened that my wife bumped into her at the supermarket.

② happening /'hæp(ə)nɪŋ/ noun an event. Synonym occurrence happily /'hæpili/ adv in a happy way happiness /'hæpinəs/ noun a feeling of being happy. Synonym contentment. Antonym sadness

① happy /'hæpi/ adj 1. (of people) very pleased ○ I'm happy to say we're getting married next month. ○ I'm so happy to hear that you are better. ○ She's very happy in her job. 2. (of events) pleasant ○ It was the happiest day of my life. ○ By a happy coincidence, we both like Dutch painters and met at the exhibition. 3. □ to be happy to do something to do something very willingly ○ I'd be happy to lend you my car. □ to be happy with something to be satisfied with something ○ Are you happy with your new car? ○ No one is happy with the plans for the new town centre. (NOTE: happier – happiest)

Happy Birthday /,hæpi 'bɜ:θdeɪ/ interj a greeting said to someone on their birthday □ 'Happy Birthday to you!' the first line of a song sung at a birthday party ○ We all sang 'Happy Birthday to you' and then she blew out the candles on her cake.

happy-go-lucky /,hæpi ɡəʊ 'ləkɪ/ adj without any worries. Synonym carefree happy hour /'hæpi aʊə/ noun a period when drinks are cheaper in a bar happy medium /,hæpi 'mi:dɪəm/ noun an agreement that includes something for everyone harangue /hə'ræŋ/ noun a loud speech ○ I'm fed up listening to harangues from politicians. Synonym tirade ■ verb to make a loud speech to someone ○ The president harangued the crowd for three hours. Synonym berate harass /'hærəs, hə'ræs/ verb to bother and worry someone. Synonym annoy harassed /'hærəst/ adj bothered and worried harassment /'hærəsmənt, hə'ræsmənt/ noun pestering and worrying harbour /'ha:bə/ noun a place where boats can come and tie up ○ The yacht moved away from the harbour. ○ The ship came into harbour last night. ■ verb 1. to protect someone, such as a criminal ○ He was arrested and charged with harbouring illegal immigrants. 2. □ to harbour a grudge against someone to keep remembering a bad feeling about someone (NOTE: [all senses] The US spelling is harbor.)

① hard /ha:d/ adj 1. not soft ○ If you have back trouble, you ought to get a hard bed. ○ The ice cream is rock hard or hard as a rock. ○ The cake she made is so hard I can't bite into it. 2. difficult ○ Today's crossword is too hard – I can't even begin to do it. ○ The exam was very hard, and most students failed. ○ She finds it hard to cope without any money. □ it's hard to say it's difficult to know (informal) ○ It's hard to say if it's going to rain or not. 3. severe ○ There was a hard winter in 1962. □ hard lines!, hard luck! I'm sorry you didn't win (informal) 4. □ he's rather hard of hearing he's quite deaf 5. (of water) containing calcium, which makes it difficult to wash with ○ The water in this area is very hard. (NOTE: harder – hardest) ■ adv strongly ○ He hit the nail hard. ○ It's snowing very hard. ○ They worked hard to finish the order on time. ○ She always tries hard.

hardback /'ha:dbæk/ noun a book bound in a stiff card. Compare paperback hardboard /'ha:dbɔ:d/ noun artificial board, made of little bits of wood mixed with glue and pressed together (NOTE: no plural)

hard-boiled /'ha:d 'bɔɪld/ adj 1. (of an egg) which has been boiled until the inside is solid ◇ Do you prefer your egg hard-boiled or soft-boiled? 2. tough; not showing any emotion ◇ She's pretty hard-boiled, that sort of thing doesn't bother her.

hard copy noun /ha:d 'kɒpi/ computer data which has been printed on paper ■ adj on paper hard core /'ha:d kɔ:/ noun 1. pieces of brick and stones, used as the foundation for roads and buildings ◇ They dug a hole and filled it with hard core. 2. a central group ◇ Most of the guests left before eleven, but the hard core of drinkers stayed till two. (NOTE: [all senses] no plural) ■ adj referring to a central group ◇ The hard-core members of the party were all for opposing the government.

hardcover /'ha:dkevə/ noun same as hardback hard currency /ha:d 'kʌrənsi/ noun the currency of a country with a strong economy, which can be changed into other currencies easily. Compare soft currency hard disk /ha:d 'disk/ noun a disk which is fixed inside a computer hard drug /ha:d 'dræg/ noun a strong drug such as heroin, which people become addicted to harden /'ha:d(ə)n/ verb 1. to become hard ◇ Leave the cement for a couple of days to harden. ◇ Attitudes are hardening as the transport strike continues. 2. to make harder ◇ We use specially hardened steel in the construction. 3. to make more experienced ◇ a hardened criminal hardened /'ha:dənd/ adj 1. which has been made harder or stronger 2. so experienced that something that most people would find unpleasant or difficult seems ordinary hard graft /ha:d 'gra:ft/ noun hard work (informal) hard hat /ha:d 'hæt/ noun same as safety helmet hard-headed /,ha:d 'hedɪd/ adj practical or sensible hard-hearted /,ha:d 'hɑ:tɪd/ adj cruel hard-hitting /,ha:d 'hɪtɪŋ/ adj very critical hard labour /ha:d 'leɪbə/ noun the former punishment of sending someone to prison to do hard work hard line /ha:d 'lain/ noun ◇ to take a hard line to be severe; to follow the rules strictly ◇ The courts are taking a hard line with football hooligans.

hardline /'ha:dlain/ adj strict over policy. Synonym uncompromising hardliner /ha:d'laineɪ/ noun a strict person who takes a hard line

② hardly /'ha:dli/ adv 1. almost not ◇ Do you know her? – Hardly at all. ◇ We hardly slept a wink last night. ◇ She hardly eats anything at all. 2. ◇ hardly ever almost never ◇ I hardly ever see her these days. ◇ It hardly ever rains in September.

hard-nosed /'ha:d nəʊzd/ adj tough; determined hard porn /ha:d 'pɔ:n/ noun extremely indecent pornographic material hard-pressed /,ha:d 'prest/ adj acting under a lot of pressure hard put /ha:d 'put/ adj in a difficult situation hard sell /ha:d 'sel/ noun aggressive selling hardship /'ha:dʃɪp/ noun difficult conditions; suffering. Synonym adversity hard shoulder /ha:d 'ʃəuldə/ noun a hard strip along the edge of a motorway, used for stopping in an emergency

③ hard up /,ha:d 'ʌp/ adj with very little money (informal). Antonym well-off hardware /'ha:dweə/ noun tools and parts used in the home ◇ I bought the paint in a hardware shop.

hard-wired /ha:d 'waɪəd/ adj physically connected to a computer system or network hard-won /'ha:d wən/ adj achieved after a big effort hardwood /'ha:dwd/ noun 1. a strong hard wood from trees such as oak or teak 2. a slow-growing tree, such as oak or teak, which produces a hard wood Compare softwood hardworking /,ha:d'wɜ:kɪŋ/ adj who works hard hardy /'ha:di/ adj able to survive in cold weather. Antonym frail hare /heɪl/ noun a wild mammal like a large rabbit ◇ In the spring mountain hares lose their white winter coats. ■ verb ◇ to hare after someone to run fast to try to catch someone ◇ He went haring down the road after the bus.

harebrained /'heɪbreɪnd/ adj not serious; not concentrating on essential things harem /'ha:ri:m/ noun 1. a group of women who are the wives of the same man in some Muslim societies, especially in the past 2. the part of a Muslim house where only women live hark /hɑ:k/ interj listen (dated) ◇ Hark! Can you hear the bells? ◇ to hark back to 1. to go back to a subject talked about earlier 2. to be similar to something that happened earlier harlot /'ha:lət/ noun a woman who has sex for money (dated)

④ harm /ha:m/ noun damage done to people or animals ◇ He didn't mean to do any harm or He meant no harm. ○ There's no harm in having a little drink before you go to bed. □ to do more harm than good not to be helpful at all ○ Talking to him now about the project will do more harm than good. □ out of harm's way in a safe place ○ Better keep that gun out of harm's way. ■ verb to damage ○ Luckily, the little girl was not harmed. ○ The bad publicity has harmed our reputation. Synonym hurt

③ harmful /'ha:mfl(ə)l/ adj which causes damage. Antonym harmless

④ harmless /'ha:mləs/ adj which does not hurt. Antonym harmful □ harmless fun jokes which are not supposed to harm anyone ○ We were just having a bit of harmless fun.

harmonic /ha:'mɒnɪk/ adj referring to harmony harmonica /ha:'mɒnɪkə/ noun a mouth-organ; a small musical instrument which you play by blowing and sucking, and moving across your mouth to get different notes harmonics /ha:'mɒnɪks/ plural noun fractions of tones which make up a musical tone harmonious /ha:'mənɪəs/ adj 1. which sound well together 2. which agree together; which go together ○ a harmonious discussion between the heads of state ○ She chose colours and fabrics to create a harmonious scheme of decoration for the room.

harmoniously /ha:'mənɪəsli/ adv in agreement harmonise /'ha:mənaɪz/, harmonize verb 1. to make things similar; to standardise ○ to harmonise European VAT systems 2. to play notes which go with a main tune ○ He has taken the basic melody and harmonised it for the backing group. 3. to go well together ○ Make sure the colours of the curtains harmonise with the carpet.

harmony /'ha:məni/ noun 1. agreeable musical sounds ○ The group sang in harmony. 2. agreeable colours, etc. ○ We are aiming to create a pleasant harmony in the decoration of the room. 3. a general peace ○ They want to live in harmony with their neighbours.

harness /'ha:nɪs/ noun 1. straps used to hold a horse to a cart □ he is still in harness he is still working 2. straps used to attach something to a person ○ His parachute harness slipped and he fell to the ground. ○ Make sure that you buy a pushchair with a reliable baby harness. ■ verb 1. to attach a horse to a cart with straps 2. to use resources to make energy ○ to harness tidal power harp /ha:p/ noun a musical instrument shaped like a large triangle, played by the fingers plucking the strings ○ She plays the harp in the local orchestra. ■ verb □ to harp on about to keep on talking about (informal)

○ Do you have to keep harping on about the mistake I made?

harpoon /ha:pʊ:n/ noun a long sharp weapon used to kill whales ■ verb to kill with a harpoon ○ They harpooned three whales.

harpsichord /'ha:psɪkɔ:d/ noun a musical instrument like an early form of the piano in which the strings are plucked, not hit harrowing /'hærəʊɪŋ/ adj which causes mental pain. Antonym disturbing. Antonym relaxing

harry /'hæri/ verb 1. to keep attacking. Antonym harass 2. to keep asking questions harsh /ha:sʃ/ adj 1. severe; cruel ○ The prosecutor asked for a harsh sentence to fit the crime. 2. rough ○ He shouted in a harsh voice. (NOTE: harsher – harshest) harshly /'ha:ʃli/ adv in a harsh way harvest /'ha:vɪst/ noun 1. picking crops ○ The corn harvest is in August. 2. ripe crops which have been picked ○ a bumper harvest of wheat ■ verb to pick crops ○ The corn will be ready to harvest next week. ○ They have started harvesting the grapes in the vineyard. Synonym reap. Antonym sow has /əz, həz, hæz/ □ have

has-been /'hæz bi:n/ noun a person no longer as well-known or important as before (informal) (NOTE: The plural is has-beens.)

hash /hæʃ/ noun 1. a dish prepared from chopped meat and vegetables 2. □ to make a hash of something to make a bad job of something (informal) ○ He was supposed to be the expert, and then he made a hash of it. 3. hashish hash browns /hæʃ 'braʊnz/ plural noun US boiled potatoes, diced or mashed and fried till crisp and brown hashish /'hæʃɪʃ/ noun a drug made from the hemp plant. Also called cannabis hasn't /'hæz(ə)nt/ short for has not

③ hassle /'hæs(ə)l/ (informal) noun irritating trouble ○ It was quite a hassle getting tickets. ○ I got to the station early to avoid all the hassle with the luggage. Synonym bother ■ verb to bother someone ○ Her boss is always hassling her to work faster. Synonym harass

haste /'heɪst/ noun the speed of doing something (formal) □ to make haste to hurry ○ The ships made haste to get into harbour before the storm came.

hasten /'heɪs(ə)n/ verb 1. to go fast ○ The chief of police hastened into the room. 2. to do something fast ○ The government has hastened to deny the report in the paper. □ to hasten to add to add something as an explanation ○ 'Someone must have left the keys on the table — and it wasn't me,' she hastened to add. 3. to make something go faster ○ Sev- eral weeks' rest after your operation will hasten your recovery.

hastily /'heistili/ adv carelessly and quickly hasty /'heisti/ adj carelessly fast. Synonym quick (NOTE: hastier – hastiest)

② hat /hæt/ noun 1. a piece of clothing which you wear on your head ○ Take your hat off when you go into a church. ○ He's bought a Russian fur hat for the winter. 2. □ keep it under your hat keep it secret (informal) □ to be talking through your hat to be talking nonsense ○ That's rubbish – you're talking through your hat. ◊ pass round ◊ to take your hat off to someone 1. to salute someone, by lifting your hat up a little 2. to say that you admire someone ○ She's made a great success of her business – I take my hat off to her.

hatch /hætʃ/ noun an opening in the deck of a ship, or a cover for this opening ○ He opened the hatch and went down into the cabin. ■ verb 1. (of a baby bird) to break out of the egg ○ All the chicks hatched on the same day. □ don't count your chickens before they're hatched don't be too sure that everything will be all right ○ He's a very cautious man, he never counts his chickens before they're hatched. 2. to plan ○ They hatched a plot to kidnap the Prime Minister's daughter.

hatchback /'hætʃbæk/ noun a type of car where the back opens upwards as a door hatchet /'hætʃɪt/ noun a small axe □ to bury the hatchet to make peace with someone after an argument or fight (informal) ○ After years of quarrelling, the two brothers decided to bury the hatchet.

hatchet man /'hætʃɪt mæn/ noun a manager whose job is to find ways of saving money in a business or company (informal)

① hate /heɪt/ verb to dislike very much ○ I think she hates me, but I don't know why. ○ I hate going to the dentist. Synonym detest ■ noun strong dislike ○ Cucumber sandwiches are one of my pet hates. Synonym hated hateful /'heɪtf(ə)l/ adj which makes people dislike it. Synonym vile. Antonym lovable hate mail /'heit meɪl/ noun letters showing that the writer hates someone hated /'heɪtrɪd/ noun a great dislike. Synonym hate hatter /'hætə/ noun a person who makes hats hat trick /'hæt trik/ noun a score of three goals or wins by the same person in a sport haughtily /'ho:tɪli/ adv proudly haughtiness /'ho:tɪnəs/ noun being haughty. Synonym arrogance haughty /'ho:tɪ/ adj extremely proud and unpleasant. Synonym supercilious (NOTE: haughtier – haughtiest) haul /ho:l/ noun 1. a large quantity of things which have been stolen ○ The burglars made off with their haul. 2. a distance travelled with difficulty ○ It's a long haul up the hill.

■ verb to pull with difficulty ○ They hauled the boat up onto the beach. ○ The police hauled the body out of the water. Synonym drag. Antonym shove haunch /ho:nʃ/ noun the top part of the leg, especially of an animal □ to sit on your haunches to sit in a squatting position haunt /ho:nt/ noun a place which you visit frequently ○ I went back to some of my old haunts. ○ The pub is a favourite haunt of actors. Synonym meeting place ■ verb (of ghosts) to visit frequently ○ The castle is supposed to be haunted by the ghost of a soldier.

haunted /'ho:ntɪd/ adj visited by ghosts haunting /'ho:ntɪŋ/ adj sad and wonderful. Synonym lingering haute couture /,o:t ku:tjuə/ noun the designing of expensive fashionable clothes for women

① have /hæv, əv, hæv/ verb 1. to possess or own something ○ She has a lot of money. ○ They have a new green car. ○ She has long dark hair. ○ The house has no telephone. ○ Do you have a table for three, please? 2. to take, to eat, to play, etc. ○ Have you had any tea? ○ She has sugar in her coffee. ○ They had a meal of bread and cheese. ○ She had her breakfast in bed. ○ They had a game of tennis. ○ I had a long walk. 3. to cause something to be done for you ○ I must have my hair cut. ○ She's having the house painted. 4. used to form the past of verbs ○ Have they finished their work? ○ She has never been to Paris. ○ They had finished supper when we arrived. ○ I haven't seen him for two days. ○ If she had asked me I would have said no. 5. used to introduce a wish that someone will enjoy something ○ Have a nice day! ○ Have a good trip! (NOTE: having – had)

have got /hæv 'gɒt/ verb 1. to possess or own something ○ She's got dark hair. ○ Have you got a table for three, please? ○ She's got a lot of money. ○ They've got a new green car. ○ The house hasn't got a telephone. ○ They haven't got enough to eat. 2. used to mean 'must' ○ Why have you got to go so early? ○ She's got to learn to drive.

haven /'heɪv(ə)n/ noun a safe port or safe place □ tax haven a country where taxes are low, encouraging financial companies to set up offices there ○ She put most of her money into an offshore tax haven.

haven't /'hæv(ə)nt/ short form have not have on /hæv 'ɒn/ verb 1. to wear ○ What did she have on when she left the party? ○ I can't answer the door – I've got nothing on.

2. □ to have something on to have something planned (informal) ○ I haven't anything on tonight so I'll be able to finish painting the bathroom.

have out /hæv 'aʊt/ verb □ to have a tooth out to get a tooth removed by a dentist haversack /'hævəsæk/ noun a strong bag carried over your shoulder or on your back when walking (dated) ♦ rucksack, backpack have to /'hæv tu:/, have got to /,hæv 'gɒt tu:/ verb used with other verbs to mean 'must' ○ You have to go immediately or you'll miss the train.

have to do with /,hæv tə 'dʊ: wɪθ/, have got to do with /hæv ,gɒt tə 'dʊ: wɪθ/ verb to relate to something havoc /'hævək/ noun damage. chaos □ to play havoc with to ruin ○ The snow has played havoc with the train timetables.

hawk /hɔ:k/ noun 1. a large bird of prey ○ The hawk was hovering over the motorway. □ she has eyes like a hawk she notices everything 2. a person who prefers military action to diplomacy ○ Curiously, it's the military commanders who are the doves and the president and his advisers are the hawks. Antonym dove □ verb to sell goods from door to door or in the street □ to hawk something round to take an idea or a project to various companies to see if anyone will accept it ○ He hawked his idea for a film round all the studios but no one wanted it.

hawker /'hɔ:kə/ noun a person who sells goods from place to place hawser /'hɔ:zə/ noun a thick rope used on a ship. Synonym cable hawthorn /'hɔ:θɔ:n/ noun a bush found in hedgerows with little white flowers

③ hay /hei/ noun dried grass used to feed cattle □ to make hay while the sun shines to enjoy yourself while you can hayfever /'heifə:və/ noun an inflammation of the nose and eyes caused by an allergy to flowers, pollen, scent or dust haystack /'heistæk/ noun a construction made from piles of hay □ it's like looking for a needle in a haystack it's a hopeless task haywire /'heiwaɪə/ adj (informal) □ to go haywire to stop working properly ○ Everything's gone haywire.

hazard /'hæzəd/ noun a dangerous situation ○ Don't leave those cardboard boxes in the passage – they're a fire hazard. Synonym danger. Antonym safeguard □ at hazard at risk □ verb to risk □ to hazard a guess to risk making a guess ○ I wouldn't hazard a guess at how many people will come to the concert.

hazard lights /'hæzəd ləts/ plural noun flashing lights which warn that there may be some danger hazardous /'hæzədəs/ adj risky or dangerous □ hazardous to health which can harm health ○ Environmentalists are convinced that the discharges are hazardous to the health of the local people.

haze /heɪz/ noun 1. mist, smoke or dust suspended in the atmosphere, reducing visibility 2. not being able to think or remember clearly ○ He was in a haze when he came round after the operation. ■ verb US to play jokes, especially on a new student ○ Hazing has become so extreme that it has had to be banned in some colleges.

hazel /'heɪz(ə)l/ noun a small tree which produces small round nuts ○ The flowers of the hazel are called catkins. ■ adj, noun a light brownish-green colour ○ The little girl had beautiful hazel eyes.

hazelnut /'heɪz(ə)lnʌt/ noun a small brown round nut from the hazel tree hazy /'heɪzi/ adj 1. misty ○ It was too hazy for us to get a good view from the top of the cliff. 2. vague ○ I have a hazy recollection of the party. ○ He reported the accident to the police but was very hazy about some of the details. (NOTE: hazier – haziest)

① he /i, hi:/ pron referring to a man or boy, and some animals ○ He's my brother. ○ He and I met in Oxford Circus. ○ He's eaten all my pudding. ○ Don't be frightened of the dog – he won't hurt you. ♦ him, his (NOTE: When it is the object he becomes him: He hit the ball, but The ball hit him. When it follows the verb to be, he usually becomes him: Who's that? – It's him, the man who borrowed my knife.)

① head /hed/ noun 1. the top part of the body, which contains the eyes, nose, mouth and brain ○ He says he can relax by standing on his head. ○ She hit her head on the cupboard door. □ head over heels over and over ○ She rolled head over heels down the hill. □ to be head over heels in love to be very much in love ○ He's head over heels in love with my sister. □ to shake your head to move your head from side to side to mean 'no' ○ She asked him if he wanted any more coffee and he shook his head. □ head and shoulders above much better than (informal) ○ She's head and shoulders above all the others in the class. 2. a brain; intelligence ○ She has a good head for figures. ○ He tried to do the sum in his head. ○ If we all put our heads together we might come up with a solution. □ to take it into your head to do something to decide to do something suddenly ○ He took it into his head to join the army. 3. first place, top part ○ An old lady was standing at the head of the queue. ○ His name comes at the head of the list. 4. the most important person ○ She's the head of the sales department. ○ The head waiter showed us to our table. 5. the top side of a coin, usually with the head of a person on it □ to play heads or tails to spin a coin to see which side comes down on top, and so decide something □ heads I win if the coin falls with the top side up, then I will win 6. one person, or one animal, when counting ○ She counted heads as the party got onto the coach. ○ There are fifty head of sheep in the flock. □ a head, per head for each person ○ The trip costs £25.00 a head or per head. 7. □ to come to a head to reach a crisis point ○ Things came to a head when all the family met to discuss grandfather's will. 8. a part of a machine which records or picks up data, such as on a tape recorder or computer 9. a head teacher ○ He went into the head's study. ○ The head was very annoyed by the boys' behaviour. ■ verb 1. to be the first; to lead ○ He heads the list of prize-winners. 2. to go towards ○ She headed immediately for the manager's office. ○ The car headed east along the motorway. ○ He's heading towards the Channel ports. ○ She's heading for trouble. 3. to be the manager or the most important person in something ○ He heads our research department. 4. (in football) to hit a ball with your head ○ He headed the ball into the goal.

headache /'hedeɪk/ noun 1. a pain in your head, caused by changes in pressure in the blood vessels ○ I've got a bad headache. 2. a problem ○ The lack of resources in the education system is one of the government's biggest headaches.

headboard /'hedbɔ:d/ noun a flat upright piece at the top end of a bed headcount /'hedkaʊnt/ noun the process of counting the people in a group one by one headed /'hedɪd/ adj 1. with a title ○ headed notepaper 2. with a particular kind of head or heads ○ a three-headed monster 3. with a particular colour or type of hair ○ a bald-headed man 4. with a particular character or ability ○ a level-headed young businesswoman header /'hedeɪ/ noun 1. the act of hitting a ball with your head ○ He scored with a header. 2. a dive ○ He took a header into the waves. 3. words or page numbers at the top of a page of a book or document. Compare footer head-first /'hed 'fɜ:st/ adv 1. with your head first ○ He tripped and fell head-first down the stairs. 2. hastily ○ Don't rush head-first into a deal with someone you hardly know.

headgear /'hedgɪə/ noun something which is worn on the head headhunt /'hedhʌnt/ verb □ to be headhunted to be approached by a head-hunter and offered a job with another company ○ He was headhunted for the job at the German bank.

headhunter /'hedhʌntə/ noun a person or company that looks for top managers and offers them jobs in other companies heading /'hedɪŋ/ noun words at the top of a piece of text. ♦ subheading. Synonym title headlamp /'hedlæmp/ noun one of the main white lights on the front of a vehicle headland /'hedlənd/ noun a piece of high land sticking into the sea. Synonym promontory

② headline /'hedlайн/ noun words in large letters on the front page of a newspaper ○ Did you see the headlines about the accident? ○ The newspaper headline says TAXES TO GO UP.

headlong /'hedlon/ adj rushing ○ the headlong flight of the people of the villages in front of the advancing army ■ adv 1. rushing ○ The soldiers rushed headlong into the crowd. 2. with your head first ○ He fell headlong down the stairs.

③ headmaster /'hed'ma:stə/ noun a man who is in charge of a school headmistress /'hed'mistrəs/ noun a woman who is in charge of a school (NOTE: The plural is headmistresses.)

head off /'hed 'ɒf/ verb 1. to prevent something from taking place ○ They offered the staff more pay in order to head off a strike. 2. to go away in a certain direction ○ They headed off into the jungle.

head office /'hed 'ɒfɪs/ noun the main office where the directors work and meet head of state /'hed əv 'steɪt/ noun a king, queen, or president who is the official leader of a state

COMMENT: The head of state is not necessarily the head of the government. In the United Kingdom, the Queen is head of state and the Prime Minister is head of government. In the United States, the President combines both roles. Most monarchies, such as Spain or Denmark, split the function of head of state and head of government; some republics, like Germany, do the same.

② head-on /'hed 'ɒn/ adj, adv 1. with the front first; direct ○ We had a head-on confrontation with the police. □ a head-on collision a collision where two vehicles run into each other front to front 2. directly ○ He decided to meet the objections head-on.

headphones /'hedfəʊnz/ plural noun equipment which you put on your ears to listen to sounds privately (NOTE: plural; for one item, say 'a pair of headphones')

headquarters /'hed'kwo:təz/ noun a military commander's base or the main offices of a company or organisation headrest /'hedrest/ noun a cushion on top of a car seat against which you can lean your head headroom /'hedru:m/ noun the amount of space needed to be able to sit or walk upright headscarf /'hedskɑ:f/ noun a square piece of cloth worn over the head and usually tied under the chin (NOTE: The plural is head-scarves) headset /'hedset/ noun a set of headphones for listening to something such as the telephone, the radio or a CD, which fits over your ears with a band across the top of your head, and sometimes has a microphone attached head start /'hed 'sta:t/ noun □ to have a head start over someone to have an advantage over someone ○ They had a head start over some other companies because they had a local office. ○ His mother is Spanish, so that gave him a head start over the rest of the Spanish class.

headstone /'hedstəʊn/ noun a piece of stone standing at the end of a grave with the name of the dead person written on it. Synonym gravestone, tombstone headstrong /'hedstrɒŋ/ adj determined to do what you want. Antonym docile head teacher /'hed 'tɪ:tʃə/ noun a man or woman who is in charge of a school head-to-head /'hed tə 'hed/ adv, adj competing directly with someone or something ○ a head-to-head contest ○ The winner of this game will go head-to-head with the reigning champion.

head waiter /'hed 'weɪtə/ noun a person in charge of other waiters headway /'hedweɪ/ noun □ make headway 1. to have some success in trying to achieve something 2. to move forwards in difficult conditions headwind /'hedwind/ noun a wind blowing towards you. Synonym breeze heady /'hedi/ adj strong and likely to affect your senses, such as making you drunk or excited (NOTE: headier – headiest) heal /hi:l/ verb to mend; to become healthy again (NOTE: Do not confuse with heel.)

healer /'hi:lə/ noun a person who heals people, often by touching them with their hands healing /'hi:liŋ/ noun the action of making something or someone healthy ○ The healing of the sick is her vocation. ■ adj which makes something or someone better ○ the healing power of salt water ○ the healing process

① health /helθ/ noun 1. the fact of being well or being free from any illness ○ He has enjoyed the best of health for years. ○ Smoking is bad for your health. □ to pose a health risk to be bad for people's health ○ Sewage flowing directly into the river poses a health risk to the population. 2. □ your health!, good health! a greeting said to someone when drinking health care /'helθ keə/ noun the services which take care of people's health, e.g. doctors and dentists health centre /'helθ ,sentrə/ noun a building with various doctors and specialists health club /'helθ kləb/ noun a club for people who want to improve their health, e.g. by taking exercise and dieting health farm /'helθ fa:m/ noun a clinic in the country for people who want to improve their health and appearance, especially by taking exercise and by dieting health inspector /'helθ in,spekta/ noun an official who inspects restaurants, etc. to see if they are clean health insurance /'helθ in,suərəns/ noun insurance which pays the cost of medical treatment if you are ill health service /'helθ ,sɜ:vis/ noun an organisation in a district or country which is in charge of providing health care to the public health visitor /'helθ ,vɪzɪtə/ noun a nurse who visits people in their homes to check their health health warning /'helθ ,wɔ:rnɪŋ/ noun a warning that something may be bad for your health

② healthy /'helθi/ adj 1. not ill ○ He's healthier than he has ever been. 2. which makes you well ○ the healthiest place in England ○ She's keeping to a healthy diet. 3. good or strong ○ He has a healthy appetite. ○ He has a healthy contempt for politicians. ○ The company's bank account is looking very healthy. (NOTE: healthier – healthiest)

heap /hi:p/ noun 1. a pile ○ a heap of coal ○ Step over that heap of rubbish. 2. □ heaps of lots of (informal) ○ apple pie with heaps of cream ○ Don't rush – we've heaps of time. ■ verb to pile things up ○ A pile of presents were heaped under the Christmas tree. ○ Boxes were heaped up on the station platform.

heaped /hi:pɪt/ adj piled full

① hear /hiə/ verb 1. to notice sounds with your ears ○ He heard footsteps behind him. ○ You could hear the sound of church bells in the distance. ○ I heard her drive up in the car. ◎ Can you hear him singing in the bath?

2. to listen to something ◎ Did you hear the talk on the radio? ◎ I heard it on the BBC news. 3. to get information ◎ I hear he's got a new job. ◎ Have you heard that the manager has resigned? ◎ We have not heard from them for some time. (NOTE: hearing – heard /hɜːd/)

heard /hɜːd/ ◎ hear

② hearing /'hɪərɪŋ/ noun 1. the ability to hear ◎ Bats have a very sharp sense of hearing. ◎ She has hearing difficulties. (NOTE: no plural in this meaning) 2. a session of a court ◎ The hearing is expected to last three days.

hearing aid /'hɪərɪŋ eɪd/ noun an electric device put in your ear to make you hear better hearing-impaired /,hɪərɪŋ ɪm'peɪd/ adj not able to hear properly

③ hear of /'hɪər ɒv/ verb 1. to know about something ◎ I've heard of a new restaurant in the High Street. ◎ She's never heard of the Rolling Stones. 2. □ not to hear of it not to accept an offer (formal) ◎ I said I would replace the glass I broke, but she wouldn't hear of it.

hearsay /'hɪəsεɪ/ noun what people say, rather than what is true. Antonym fact hearse /hɜːs/ noun a vehicle for carrying a coffin

① heart /ha:t/ noun 1. a main organ in the body, which pumps blood around the body ◎ She isn't dead – her heart's still beating. ◎ The doctor listened to his heart. ◎ He has had heart trouble for years. 2. the centre of feelings ◎ My heart sank when I realised that he hadn't read my letter. □ with all my heart with all my love □ to know something by heart to know and remember something ◎ I don't know his phone number by heart, so I'll just look it up for you. □ to learn something by heart to learn and remember something ◎ She learnt the poem by heart. □ to lose heart to stop being interested in something ◎ After all the delays she lost heart in the project. □ to take heart to be encouraged ◎ He took heart at the news. □ don't take it to heart don't be too sad about it □ his heart isn't in it he has lost interest in it □ to set your heart on something to want something very much ◎ I have set my heart on buying a little sailing boat. 3. a centre or middle ◎ The restaurant is in the heart of the old town. 4. one of the red suits in a game of cards, shaped like a heart ◎ My last two cards were the ten and the ace of hearts. (NOTE: The other red suit is diamonds; clubs and spades are the black suits.)

heartache /'ha:təek/ noun great sadness and worry. Synonym sorrow. Antonym joy (NOTE: no plural)

① heart attack /'ha:t a:tæk/ noun a condition where the heart suffers from a reduced blood supply because an artery has become blocked heartbeat /'ha:tbi:t/ noun a regular noise made by the heart as it pumps blood heartbreak /'ha:tbreɪk/ noun great sadness and worry. Synonym grief. Antonym joy (NOTE: no plural) heartbreaking /'ha:tbreɪkɪŋ/ adj very sad and worrying. Antonym uplifting heartbroken /'ha:tbrəʊkən/ adj very sad and upset heartburn /'ha:t'bɜːn/ noun indigestion causing a burning feeling in the stomach heart bypass /ha:t 'baɪpɑ:s/ noun an operation to help the blood flow freely in a person who has a blocked artery

③ heart disease /'ha:t dɪ,zi:z/ noun any disease affecting the heart hearten /'ha:tən/ verb to make someone feel more positive and cheerful. Synonym encourage. Antonym dishearten heartened /'ha:tənd/ adj feeling more cheerful or encouraged heart failure /'ha:t ,feɪljə/ noun a dangerous condition when the heart has stopped beating heartfelt /'ha:tfelt/ adj sincere hearth /ha:θ/ noun a hole in the wall of a room where you can light a fire for heating heartily /'ha:tli/ adv 1. with enthusiasm ◎ Everyone ate heartily after the long walk. 2. completely ◎ I'm heartily sick of listening to his complaints.

heartland /'ha:tla:nd/ noun a region where certain activities are concentrated. Antonym hinterland heartless /'ha:tles/ adj cruel; not having any pity. Synonym callous. Antonym caring heartrending /'ha:trendɪŋ/ adj very sad and worrying. Synonym heartbreaking. Antonym uplifting heart-stopping /'ha:t ,stɒpɪŋ/ adj very frightening or shocking heartstrings /'ha:tstrɪŋz/ plural noun □ to tug at your heartstrings to make you feel sadness or sympathy heart-to-heart /'ha:t tə 'ha:t/ adj serious and private ◎ We had a heart-to-heart talk. Synonym frank ■ noun a serious private talk ◎ I will have a heart-to-heart with him.

heartwarming /'ha:two:mɪŋ/ adj which makes you feel happy hearty /'ha:ti/ adj big (NOTE: heartier – heartiest)

② heat /ha:t/ noun 1. the fact of being hot ◎ The heat of the sun made the ice cream melt. ◎ Cook the vegetables over a low heat. 2. one part of a sports competition ◎ There are two heats before the final race. ■ verb to make something hot ○ Can you heat the soup while I'm getting the table ready? ○ The room was heated by a small electric fire. ○ Heat the milk to room temperature. Antonym cool

② heated /'hi:tɪd/ adj 1. made warm ○ The car has a heated rear window. □ a heated swimming pool a pool where the water is kept warm 2. angry ○ There was a heated discussion after the meeting. ○ The students became very heated during the debate.

② heater /'hɪ:tə/ noun a machine for heating a room heath /hi:θ/ noun an area of dry sandy acid soil with low plants such as heather and gorse growing on it heather /'heðə/ noun a low plant with mainly purple or pink flowers, common in hilly areas

② heating /'hitɪŋ/ noun a way of warming a place, e.g. a house or an office heatwave /'hi:tweɪv/ noun a period of very hot weather

③ heave /hɪv/ noun a strong hard pull ○ One more heave, and we should pull down the tree. ■ verb 1. to pull something hard ○ They heaved on the anchor to pull it up. □ heave ho! pull hard! (said when pulling) ○ 'All together now, heave ho!' □ to get the old heave-ho to be sacked from your job (informal) 2. to throw something ○ He heaved a brick through the window. 3. to breathe heavily ○ She heaved a sigh, and picked up the phone. ○ We all heaved a collective sigh of relief when he left. (NOTE: heaving – heaved) 4. □ to heave to (of a ship) to stop moving ○ The ship heave to and dropped anchor in the bay. □ to heave into sight to appear ○ The ship heave into sight round the headland. (NOTE: heaving – hove /həʊv/)

③ heaven /'hev(ə)n/ noun 1. a beautiful place believed by some people to be where good people go after death ○ She believes that when she dies she will go to heaven. 2. □ the heavens the sky above □ the heavens opened it poured with rain □ good heavens an expression showing you are surprised ○ Good heavens! It's almost 10 o'clock! □ for heaven's sake an expression showing you are annoyed, or that something is important ○ What are you screaming for? – It's only a little mouse, for heaven's sake. ○ For heaven's sake try to be quiet, we don't want the guards to hear us!

heavenly /'hev(ə)nli/ adj 1. belonging to heaven ○ heavenly choirs of angels singing □ the heavenly host a group of angels 2. very nice (dated) ○ We had a heavenly holiday by the sea. ○ The food she served was simply heavenly.

heavenly body /,hev(ə)nli 'bɒdi/ noun same as celestial body (old)

③ heavily /'hevɪli/ adv 1. as if you are heavy ○ He sat down heavily on the little chair. 2. to a great extent; very much ○ The company was heavily criticised in the press. ○ She is heavily in debt. ○ It rained heavily during the night. 3. □ to sleep heavily to sleep without waking

① heavy /'hevɪ/ adj 1. which weighs a lot ○ This suitcase is so heavy I can hardly lift it. ○ She's heavier than I am. 2. □ to have a heavy meal to eat a meal which is filling and difficult to digest ○ Don't go to bed just after you've had a heavy meal. 3. in large amounts ○ There has been heavy demand for the book. ○ There was a heavy fall of snow during the night. ○ The radio says there is heavy traffic in the centre of town. □ to be a heavy smoker to smoke a lot of cigarettes □ to be a heavy drinker to drink a lot of alcohol □ to make heavy weather of something to make something you are doing more difficult and complicated to do than it needs to be ○ We asked him to sort out the invoices but he's really making heavy weather of it. (NOTE: heavier – heaviest) heavy-duty /,hevɪ 'dju:tɪ/ adj made for rough work heavy goods vehicle /'hevɪ 'gʊdз 'vɪkɪl/ noun a very large truck. Abbr HGV heavy-handed /,hevɪ 'hændɪd/ adj not delicate heavy industry /,hevɪ 'ɪndəstri/ noun industry which makes large products such as steel bars, ships or railway lines (NOTE: no plural) heavy metal /,hevɪ 'met(ə)l/ noun 1. a type of loud music with electric guitars 2. a metal with a high atomic number, e.g. lead, mercury or zinc heavyweight /'hevɪweɪt/ noun 1. the largest and heaviest class of boxer ○ the heavyweight champion ○ a heavyweight title fight 2. a person who has a lot of influence ○ He's the director of the National Theatre – a heavyweight in the theatre world.

Hebrew /'hɪ:brʊ:/ noun 1. the official language of Israel 2. a Jewish person who lived in Israel in ancient times heckle /'hek(ə)l/ verb to call out and interrupt a public speaker. Synonym jeer. Antonym cheer heckler /'hek'lə/ noun a person who calls out and interrupts a public speaker

③ hectare /'hekteɪə/ noun an area of land measuring 100 metres by 100 metres, i.e. 10,000 square metres, or 2.47 acres (NOTE: usually written ha after figures: 2,500 ha) hectic /'hektrɪk/ adj very active. Synonym frantic. Antonym calm he'd /id, hi:d/ short form he had, he would hedge /hedʒ/ noun 1. a row of bushes planted and kept trimmed to form a screen round a field or garden ○ There is a thick yew hedge round the churchyard. 2. financial protection ○ a hedge against inflation ■ verb □ to hedge your bets to invest in several areas so as to be protected against loss in one of them hedgehog /'hedʒhɒg/ noun a small animal with its back covered in spines hedgerow /'hedʒrəʊ/ noun a line of bushes forming a hedge round a field or along a country road hedonist /'hɪd(ə)nɪst/ noun a person who only lives for pleasure. Antonym ascetic heed /hi:d/ noun □ to take heed of or pay heed to something to pay attention to something (formal) ○ The company would be wise to take heed of public opinion on this issue. ○ He paid no heed at all to what his doctor said. ■ verb to pay attention to something ○ She didn't heed the doctor's warning. Antonym ignore heedless /'hi:dls/ adj without paying attention. Synonym neglectful. Antonym careful heel /hi:l/ noun 1. the back part of the foot ○ After walking, she got a blister on her heel. □ she rolled head over heels down the hill she rolled over and over down the hill like a ball □ to take to your heels to run away ○ When they heard the police siren, they took to their heels and disappeared round the corner. □ hot on the heels of someone or something following immediately behind someone or something ○ With the police hot on his heels he fled to Argentina. □ to turn on your heel to turn suddenly and go in the opposite direction ○ She turned on her heel and walked out of the room. 2. the back part of a sock, stocking or shoe ○ He's got a hole in the heel of his sock. ○ She always wears shoes with high heels or high-heeled shoes. ■ verb 1. to put a new heel on a shoe ○ I want these shoes soled and heeled, please. 2. □ to heel over (of a ship) to lean to one side hefty /'hefti/ adj 1. strong ○ We need a couple of hefty lads to move the table. 2. large ○ He had a hefty pay increase. ○ You'll pay a hefty fine if you get caught. (NOTE: heftier – heftiest) hegemony /hɪ'geməni/ noun leadership or control by one state over others heifer /'hefə/ noun a young cow which has not had a calf

② height /haɪt/ noun 1. a measurement of how high something is ○ The height of the bridge is only three metres. □ he is of average height he is taller than most men 2. the highest point ○ looking down on the city from the heights around ○ It is difficult to find hotel rooms at the height of the tourist season. □ I don't like heights, I haven't got a head for heights I get dizzy when I am high up heighten /'haɪt(ə)n/ verb to increase heinous /'heɪnəs/ adj very bad (formal) heir /'eɪər/ noun 1. a man or woman who will inherit something from someone after that person's death ○ He's the heir to the banking fortune. ○ Her heirs divided the estate between them. 2. □ the heir to the throne the man or woman who will be king or queen when the present king or queen dies heir apparent /eər ə'pærənt/ noun a person who will certainly inherit a title heiress noun a woman who will inherit something from someone after that person's death (NOTE: The plural is heiresses.)

heirloom /'eɪləm/ noun a valuable object which has belonged to a family for a long time

③ held /held/ □ hold helicopter /'helɪkɒptə/ noun an aircraft which can rise straight up in the air, with a large horizontal propeller helipad /'helɪpæd/ noun a small area such as one marked on the roof of a building or the deck of a ship where helicopters can land or take off heliport /'helɪpɔ:t/ noun an airport for helicopters helium /'hi:liəm/ noun a light inert gas, often used in balloons hell /hel/ noun 1. a place where devils are thought to live, to which bad people are sent after they die ○ Medieval pictures show hell as a burning place with red devils pushing wicked people into the fires with pitchforks. (NOTE: Using expressions that include the word hell is offensive to some people.) 2. a very unpleasant place or experience ○ It's hell working in the office these days. □ to give someone hell to treat someone very badly 3. used to emphasise what you are saying (informal) ○ What the hell's been going on here? ○ Am I going to lend you £50? Am I hell! □ a hell of a, one hell of a 1. used to emphasise what you are saying (informal) ○ The car's making a hell of a noise. 2. a marvellous thing ○ That was one hell of a party last night!

he'll /il, hi:l/ short form he will hell-bent /'hel bent/ adj very determined to do something that may have an unfortunate result hellish /'helɪʃ/ adj very unpleasant (informal)

① hello /ha'ləʊ/ interj used as a greeting ○ She called hello from the other side of the street. ○ Hello, Mary! I'm glad to see you. ○

When you see her, say hello to her from me.
(NOTE: also spelt hallo, hullo) helm /helm/ noun 1. a wheel or bar with which a ship or boat is steered ○ He put the helm hard to starboard as soon as he saw the iceberg. 2. □ at the helm in charge □ to take the helm to take charge ○ Now that Julia has taken the helm there shouldn't be any more public relations disasters.

helmet /'helmit/ noun a solid hat used as a protection

① help /help/ noun 1. something which makes it easier for you to do something ○ She was washing the floor with the help of a big mop. ○ Do you need any help with moving the furniture? ○ She finds the word-processor a great help in writing her book. ○ Her assistant is not much help in the office – he can't type or drive. 2. the act of providing aid and assistance to someone ○ People were calling for help from the ruins of the house. ○ The nurses offered help to people injured in the accident. □ to go to someone's help to try to rescue someone ○ The rescue teams went to the help of the earthquake victims. 3. financial assistance ○ The government provides help to deprived areas. 4. a person who helps ○ She has a home help who comes in twice a week to do the housework. ■ verb 1. to make it easier for someone to do something ○ He helped the old lady up the steps. ○ The government wants to help small businesses. ○ Your father can help you with your homework. ○ One of my friends helped me move the piano into the bedroom. 2. □ to help yourself to something to steal something ○ She helped herself to my wallet. ■ interj meaning that you are in difficulties ○ Help! help! Call the police! ○ Help! I can't stop the car!

help desk /'help desk/ noun a service which helps people with computer problems helper /'helpə/ noun a person who helps someone. Synonym assistant ② helpful /'helpf(ə)l/ adj useful or giving help to someone ○ She made some helpful suggestions. ○ They were very helpful when we moved house.

helpfully /'helpf(ə)li/ adv in a helpful way helpfulness /'helpf(ə)lnəs/ noun the activity of being helpful

③ helping /'helpɪŋ/ noun a portion of food ○ The helpings in this restaurant are very small. ○ Children's helpings are not as large as those for adults. Synonym serving ■ adj which helps someone □ to give someone a helping hand to help someone with work ○ He gave me a helping hand with the cleaning.

④ helpless /'helpləs/ adj not able to do anything about a situation. Synonym powerless helplessness /'helpləsnəs/ noun the feeling of being unable to do anything about a situation helpline /'helplain/ noun a special phone number for people to call when they need help help out /,help 'aut/ verb to help someone in an emergency hem /hem/ noun the sewn edge of a piece of clothing, e.g. a skirt or dress, ○ She was wearing a long skirt, with the hem touching the floor. ■ verb 1. to make the hem of a piece of clothing, e.g. a skirt or dress ○ I've almost finished the skirt, it just needs to be hemmed. 2. □ to hem someone or something in to surround someone or something closely ○ The house is hemmed in by big factories. ○ The soldiers were hemmed in by guerrillas.

hemisphere /'hemisfɪə/ noun half of a sphere hemp /hemp/ noun a plant used to make ropes and sacks hen /hen/ noun 1. an adult female chicken ○ The hens were scared by the fox. ○ Look, one of the hens has laid an egg! 2. any female bird ○ a hen sparrow

② hence /hens/ adv 1. this being the reason for ○ He's got flu, hence his not coming to work. 2. from now on ○ Five months hence, the situation should be better.

henceforth /hens'fɔ:θ/, henceforward /hens'fɔ:wəd/ adv from now on henchman /'hentʃmən/ noun a political assistant or bodyguard; a person who assists or protects an important person (NOTE: The plural is henchmen.)

henna /'hēnə/ noun a red dye used to colour our hair hen night /'hen nait/, hen party /'hen ,pā:ti/ noun a party for women only (NOTE: A party for men only, is a stag party or stag night.)

henpecked /'henpekt/ adj (of a man) who is continually told what to do by his wife hepatitis /,hepə'taɪtɪs/ noun an infectious disease of the liver

① her /ə, hə, hɜ:/ object pron referring to a female ○ There's a parcel for her in reception. ○ Did you see her? ○ He told her to go away. ■ adj belonging to a female, a ship or a country ○ Someone has stolen all her luggage. ○ Have you seen her father? ○ The dog doesn't want to eat her food. ○ France is helping her businesses to sell more abroad.

herald /'herald/ noun a person who brings a message ○ She is a herald of good tidings. ○ If the leaves fall early, that is a herald of cold weather to come. ○ Snowdrops are the herald of spring. ■ verb to be a sign of something coming ○ dark clouds that herald stormy weather ○ The statistics seem to herald an end to the recession.

heraldry /'herəldri/ noun the science of coats of arms herb /hɜ:bɪ/ noun a plant used to give flavour to food, or as a medicine herbaceous /hɜ:bɪsəs/ adj (of a flowering plant) which comes up every year, but does not have stems permanently above the ground herbaceous border /hɜ:bɪsəs 'bɔ:də/ noun an area of herbaceous plants growing along the edge of a lawn herbal /hɜ:bəl/ adj using herbs herbalist /hɜ:bəlist/ noun a person who sells herbs as medicines herbicide /hɜ:bɪsайд/ noun a chemical which kills plants, especially weeds herbivore /hɜ:bɪvɔ:/ noun an animal which eats plants herbivorous /hɜ:bɪvɔ:əs/ adj (of an animal) which eats plants herd /hɜ:d/ noun a group of animals, especially cattle ○ Herds of cattle were grazing on the hillside. (NOTE: Do not confuse with heard. The word herd is usually used with cattle; for sheep, goats, and birds, the word to use is flock.) ■ verb to gather people or animals together into a group ○ The prisoners were herded together into a yard.

① here /hɪər/ adv 1. in this place ○ I'll sit here in the shade and wait for you. ○ Here are the keys you lost. ○ I'll put the book down here next to your computer. ○ They have been living here in England for a long time. □ here you are take this ○ Here you are, today's newspaper! 2. to this place ○ Come here at once! ○ Can you bring the chairs here, please? ○ Here comes the bus! 3. □ here and there in various places ○ Weeds appeared here and there in the lawn.

hereafter /hɪə'r'aftə/ adv from this time on; from this place on (formal) hereby /hɪə'bai/ adv used to emphasise what you are saying (formal) hereditary /hə'redɪt(ə)rɪ/ adj 1. passed from parent to child biologically 2. passed from parent to child as a legal right ○ a hereditary title hereditary peer /hə'redɪt(ə)rɪ 'piər/ noun a member of the nobility whose title will be inherited by a child or other relative heredity /hə'redɪti/ noun the occurrence of physical or mental characteristics in children which are inherited from their parents heresy /'herəsi/ noun a wrong opinion or belief, especially wrong religious belief. Synonym dissent (NOTE: The plural is heresies.)

heretic /'herətɪk/ noun a person who holds wrong religious beliefs heretical /hə'retɪk(ə)l/ adj referring to heresy. Synonym unorthodox heritage /'herɪtɪdʒ/ noun the national treasure passed from one generation to the next. Synonym inheritance heritage attraction /,herɪtɪdʒ ə-'trækʃ(ə)n/, heritage museum /,herɪtɪdʒ mju:zɪəm/, heritage park /'herɪtɪdʒ pa:k/ noun a tourist facility which is based on a country's historical or cultural background hermetic /hɜ:metɪk/ adj which does not allow air to get in or out. Synonym airtight hermetically /hɜ:metɪkli/ adv so as not to let air get in or out hermit /hɜ:mit/ noun a person who chooses to live alone outside the community. Synonym recluse hermitage /hɜ:mitɪdʒ/ noun a place where a hermit lives hermit crab /hɜ:mit kræb/ noun a crab that lives in empty sea shells hernia /hɜ:nɪə/ noun a medical condition in which an organ bulges through a hole or weakness in the wall which surrounds it

② hero /'herəʊ/ noun 1. a brave man ○ The hero of the fire was the firefighter who managed to rescue the children from an upstairs room. 2. the main male character in something such as a book, play or film ○ The hero of the story is a little boy. Antonym villain (NOTE: The plural is heroes.)

heroic /hɪ'rəʊɪk/ adj like a hero. Synonym daring heroically /hɪ'rəʊɪkli/ adv like a hero heroics /hɪ'rəʊɪks/ plural noun very brave actions heroin /'herəʊɪn/ noun a strong addictive illegal drug made from poppies (NOTE: Do not confuse with heroine.)

heroine /'herəʊɪn/ noun 1. a brave woman ○ The heroine of the accident was a passing cyclist who pulled the children out of the burning car. 2. the main female character in something such as a book, play or film ○ The heroine of the film is a school teacher. (NOTE: Do not confuse with heroin.)

heroism /'herəʊɪz(ə)m/ noun bravery (NOTE: no plural) heron /'herən/ noun a tall, usually grey, water bird with a long neck and long legs herpes /hɜ:pɪz/ noun a disease caused by a virus, which causes small blisters herring /'herrɪŋ/ noun a small silver sea fish ○ She had grilled herrings for dinner. (NOTE: The plural can be herrings or herring: a shoal of herring.)

① hers /hɜ:z/ pron belonging to her ○ That watch is hers, not mine. □ she introduced me to a friend of hers she introduced me to one of her friends

① herself /ə'self, hə'self/ pron referring to a female subject ○ The manageress wrote to me herself. ○ Did your sister enjoy herself? ○ She's too young to be able to dress herself. ○ she lives all by herself she lives all alone ○ she did it all by herself she did it with no one to help her ○ Now she's eight, we let her go to the shops all by herself.

hertz /hɜ:tɪs/ noun the standard unit of frequency of radio waves (NOTE: no plural)

② he's /iz, hi:z/ short form he has, he is hesitant /'hezɪt(ə)nt/ adj hesitating; not decided yet. Synonym cautious hesitate /'hezɪteɪt/ verb to be slow to speak, because you are unable to decide ○ She's hesitating about whether to accept the job. ○ He hesitated for a moment and then said 'no'.

hesitation /,hezɪ'teɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the act of waiting and not deciding heterogeneous /,hetərəʊ'dʒi:nɪəs/ adj of varied sorts. Antonym homogeneous heterosexual /,hetərəʊ'sekʃuəl/ adj, noun attracted to people of the opposite sex heterosexuality /,hetərəsɛkʃu'æliti/ noun the fact of being heterosexual het up /het 'ʌp/ adj excited or nervous (informal). Synonym agitated. Antonym laid-back hew /hju:/ verb to chop something with an axe (literary) (NOTE: hewing – hewed – has hewn. Do not confuse with hue.)

hexagon /'heksəgən/ noun (in geometry) a shape with six sides hexagonal /hek'zægənl/ adj with six sides hey /hei/ interj showing a greeting or surprise ○ Hey, you! What are you doing there? ○ Hey! That's my chair!

heyday /'heɪdeɪ/ noun a time of greatest success, popularity or power. Synonym prime hey presto /hei 'prestəʊ/ adv words used by magicians when carrying out magic tricks

③ HGV abbr heavy goods vehicle hi /haɪ/ interj showing a greeting ○ Hi! I'm your tour leader. ○ Hi, Mary! How are you today? ○ Say hi to her from me.

hiatus /haɪ'eɪtəs/ noun a gap or interruption. Synonym pause (NOTE: The plural is hiatuses.)

hibernate /'haɪbəneɪt/ verb (of an animal) to sleep during the winter, either completely unconscious or semi-conscious hibernation /,haɪbə'neɪʃ(ə)n/ noun the action of spending the winter asleep hick /hɪk/ noun a stupid person from the country (informal insult) ○ Some hick came up and asked me the way. ■ adj backward (informal) ○ He comes from some hick town.

hickory /'hɪkəri/ noun an American tree like a walnut

① hid /hid/ ◊ hide

② hidden /'hɪd(ə)n/ adj which cannot be seen ○ There's a hidden safe in the wall behind his desk. ○ They say there's some hidden treasure in the castle. ♦ hide. Synonym concealed hidden agenda /,hɪd(ə)n ə'dʒendə/ noun a secret reason for doing something which will be to your advantage

① hide /hard/ verb 1. to put something where no one can see or find it ○ She hid the presents in the kitchen. ○ They kept some gold coins hidden under the bed. ○ Someone has hidden my car keys. 2. to put yourself where no one can see or find you ○ They hid in the bushes until the police car had gone past. ○ Quick! Hide behind the door! (NOTE: hiding – hid /hɪd/ – has hidden /'hɪd(ə)n/)

■ noun 1. the thick skin of a large animal, treated to make leather ○ a real hide wallet ○ How many hides are needed to make that leather sofa? 2. a place where birdwatchers can sit to watch birds without being seen by them ○ Birdwatchers set up hides all round the lake.

hide-and-seek /,haɪd ən 'sɪk/ noun a children's game, in which one person hides and the others try to find him or her hide away /haɪd ə'wei/ verb to go to a place where you can be away from other people hideaway /haɪdə,wei/ noun a place where you can stay away from other people hideous /'haɪdɪəs/ adj very ugly hide-out /haɪdəut/ noun a secret place where you cannot be found ② hiding /haɪdɪŋ/ noun 1. the action of putting yourself where no one can find you ○ He stayed in hiding for three days until the soldiers left the village. ○ They decided to go into hiding for a time until the police called off their search. 2. a beating ○ He'll get a hiding from his father when he's caught.

hiding place /'haɪdɪŋ pleɪs/ noun a place where you can hide hierarchical /haɪə'rəkəlɪk(ə)l/ adj arranged in ranks

③ hierarchy /haɪərə'ki:ri/ noun 1. arrangement in ranks ○ There is a strict hierarchy in the army. 2. the people in the upper ranks of an organisation ○ The party hierarchy met to elect a new leader. ○ The church hierarchy has condemned the attack.

hi-fi /haɪ'fai/ noun 1. a very accurate reproduction of sound by equipment such as a CD player and amplifier ○ The company is a leading manufacturer of hi-fi audio equipment. 2. a set of equipment for playing CDs or cassettes or for listening to the radio ○ He played the CD on his hi-fi.

① high /haɪ/ adj 1. reaching far above other things ○ Everest is the highest mountain in the world. ○ The new building is 20 storeys high. ○ The kitchen has a high ceiling. ○ The door is not high enough to let us get the wardrobe into the bedroom. ■ height (NOTE: High is used with figures: The mountain is 1000 metres high. High also refers to things that are a long way above the ground: a high mountain, high clouds. For people and thin things like trees use tall: a tall man.) 2. large in quantity ○ the high level of unemployment in the country ○ He earns a high income. ○ High prices put customers off. ○ The car shakes when going at high speeds. ○ The price of petrol is higher every year. 3. important ○ She's a high official in the ministry. ○ He was quite high up in the police force when he retired. 4. (of meat) which has been kept until it is beginning to rot and has a strong flavour 5. □ high on drugs intoxicated by drugs (informal) ○ Some of the teenagers were high on drugs when they were arrested. ■ adv above; up in the air ○ The sun rose high in the sky. ○ The bird flew higher and higher. (NOTE: higher – highest) ■ noun 1. a high point □ sales have reached an all-time high sales are higher than they have ever been before 2. an area of high pressure in the atmosphere 3. a state of intoxication produced by a drug or by drinking alcohol highbrow /'haɪbrəʊ/ adj with a high intellectual content. Antonym lowbrow high chair /haɪ 'tʃeɪə/ noun a baby's chair at a level with a table, sometimes with a tray in front of the baby high-class /,haɪ 'klu:s/ adj of very good quality

High Commissioner /haɪ kə'mɪs(ə)nə/ noun 1. an ambassador of a Commonwealth country ○ the Canadian High Commissioner in London 2. the top official of the United Nations ○ the High Commissioner for Refugees

High Court /haɪ 'kɔ:t/ noun the main civil court in England and Wales

Higher /'haɪə/ noun (in Scotland) an examination in various subjects taken in fifth or sixth year at secondary school

③ higher education /,haɪər edju'keɪʃ(ə)n/ noun education in universities and colleges high fidelity /haɪ fi'delɪtɪ/ adj full form of hi-fi high five /haɪ 'faɪv/ noun a greeting in which two people each raise an arm and slap palms high-flyer /haɪ 'flaɪə/ noun a person who has great potential and ambition high-flying /haɪ 'flaɪɪŋ/ adj 1. which is flying high in the sky ○ High-flying aircraft leave trails of vapour. 2. who has great potential and ambition ○ a high-flying business executive high-grade /'haɪ greɪd/ adj of a very good quality high ground /'haɪ graʊnd/ noun an area of ground which is higher than the rest □ the moral high ground a position where one side in an argument feels that they are right in principle ○ By attacking corruption, the prime minister has tried to occupy the moral high ground.

high-handed /,haɪ 'hændɪd/ adj with no respect for other people or customs. Synonym bossy high heels /haɪ 'hi:lz/ plural noun very high thin heels, on women's shoes ○ You are not allowed to walk on the polished floor of the museum in high heels.

Highland /'haɪlənd/ adj from the Scottish Highlands highlander /'haɪləndə/ noun a person who comes from the Scottish Highlands

Highland fling /,haɪlənd 'flɪŋ/ noun a wild Scottish dance highlands /'haɪləndz/ plural noun a mountain region ○ the Malaysian Highlands ○ the Scottish Highlands. Antonym lowlands high-level /haɪ 'lev(ə)l/ adj important; composed of important people

③ highlight /'haɪlait/ noun the most important or interesting event ○ The highlight of our tour of Greece was our visit to the Parthenon. ■ verb 1. to draw attention to something ○ The report highlights various problems. 2. to make part of a text stand out from the rest ○ The headings are highlighted in bold. ○ The report highlights various problems.

③ highlighter /'haɪlaitə/ noun a marker pen; a coloured felt pen used to highlight text

highlights /'haɪlaɪts/ plural noun 1. a selection of the best parts of a sporting event which are repeated on TV ○ highlights of this afternoon's game 2. streaks in your hair which have been dyed a pale colour 3. characters which stand out from the text on a screen by being brighter than the rest

② highly /'haɪli/ adv greatly ○ highly priced meals ○ The restaurant has been highly recommended. ○ Their employees are not very highly paid. □ he thinks highly of her he admires her very much high mass /haɪ 'mæs/ noun a Roman Catholic mass with full ceremony highness /'haɪnəs/ noun used as a form of address to a member of the royal family (NOTE: When speaking directly and formally to a member of the royal family, say Your Royal Highness. The plural highnesses is used to refer to several members of the royal family.)

high-pitched /'hai 'pitʃt/ adj making a shrill sound high point /'hai point/ noun the best moment high-powered /'hai 'paʊəd/ adj very powerful. Synonym successful high-profile /'hai 'prəʊfaɪl/ adj who is often in the news high-ranking /'hai 'ræŋkɪŋ/ adj with a high rank in an organisation high-rise /'hai raɪz/ adj with many storeys high road /'hai rəʊd/ noun a main road high school /'hai sku:l/ noun 1. a secondary school for children aged from 11 to 18 2. US a secondary school, from grade 9 to grade 12 ○ He's in grade 10 or tenth grade at high school.

high season /'hai 'sɪ:z(ə)n/ noun a period when there are lots of travellers and when fares are high, usually the period from July to September. Compare low season, off season high-speed /'hai spi:d/ adj which runs or operates at a very high speed high-spirited /'hai 'spɪrɪtɪd/ adj lively. Antonym lethargic high spot /'hai spɒt/ noun the most enjoyable part of an entertainment

① high street /'hai stri:t/ noun the most important street in a village or town, where shops and banks are (NOTE: often written High St. The US term is Main Street.)

high tea /'hai 'ti:/ noun (in the North of England and Scotland) an early evening meal

③ high tech /'hai 'tek/ adj referring to high technology high technology /'hai tek'nɒlədʒi/ noun advanced technology as used in industry, e.g. the use of electronics and robots high tide /'hai taɪd/ noun the points when the level of the sea is at its highest or at its lowest. Antonym low tide high-up /'hai ʌp/ noun an important person (informal). Synonym boss high water /'hai 'wɔ:tə/ noun a point when the level of the sea or of a river is at its highest high-water mark /'hai 'wɔ:tə mɑ:k/ noun a line showing where the high tide reaches ② highway /'haiwei/ noun a main public road ○ A footbridge was built over the highway.

Highway Code /'haiwei kəʊd/ noun the rules for driving on the road hijack /'haɪdʒæk/ noun the act of taking control of a vehicle by force ○ The plane hijack was organised by a group of opponents to the government. ■ verb to take control of a vehicle by force ○ The bandits hijacked the lorry and killed the driver. ○ They hijacked an aircraft and ordered the pilot to fly to Moscow.

hijacker /'haɪdʒækə/ noun a person who hijacks a vehicle hijacking /'haɪdʒækɪŋ/ noun the act of taking control of a vehicle by force hike /haɪk/ noun 1. a vigorous walk ○ We went for a 10-mile hike in the mountains. 2. an increase ○ a price hike ■ verb 1. to go for a vigorous walk ○ They were hiking in the Pyrenees when the accident happened. 2. to increase prices ○ Petrol companies have hiked up their prices.

hiker /haɪkə/ noun a person who goes for long walks in the country for pleasure. Synonym walker hiking /'haɪkɪŋ/ noun the practice of going for long walks for pleasure hilarious /'hi'lærɪəs/ adj very funny hilarity /hi'lærɪtɪ/ noun laughter and joking. Synonym amusement

② hill /hɪl/ noun a piece of high land, but lower than a mountain (informal) ○ The hills are covered with spring flowers. ○ If you climb to the top of the hill you will get a good view of the valley.

hillside /'hɪlsaɪd/ noun the sloping side of a hill hilltop /'hɪltɒp/ noun the top of a hill. Synonym summit hilly /'hɪli/ adj with many hills (NOTE: hillier – hilliest) hilt /hɪlt/ noun 1. a sword handle ○ He stood for the photograph with his hand on the hilt of his sword. 2. □ to the hilt completely or totally ○ We're backing him to the hilt. ○ The company is up to the hilt in debt.

① him /ɪm, him/ object pron referring to a male ○ Tell him there's a letter waiting for him. ○ Have you spoken to him today? ○ That's him! – The man with the beard.

② himself /ɪm'self, him'self/ pron referring to a male subject ○ I was served by the manager himself. ○ The doctor has got flu himself. ○ Did your brother enjoy himself? □ he lives all by himself he lives all alone □ he did it all by himself he did it with no one to help him ○ Now he's eight, we let him go to the shops all by himself.

hind /haɪnd/ adj referring to the back part of a four-legged animal. Antonym fore ■ noun a female deer ○ Hinds are very protective of their fawns. Also called doe hinder /'hɪndə/ verb to make it difficult to do something. Synonym hold back. Antonym facilitate hind legs /haɪnd 'legz/ plural noun the back legs of an animal hindquarters /'haɪndkwo:təz/ plural noun the back part of a four-legged animal. Synonym back. Antonym front hindrance /'hɪndrəns/ noun something which hinders □ without let or hindrance without any obstacle ○ The police have orders to let anyone through without let or hindrance.

hindsight /'haɪndsaɪt/ noun the act of realising something too late, after it has happened. Antonym foresight □ with (the benefit of) hindsight knowing what we know now ○ With the benefit of hindsight, I see now that we made a disastrous decision.

Hindu /'hɪndu:/ adj referring to Hinduism ○ We visited the new Hindu temple in North London. ■ noun a person who follows Hinduism ○ The Hindus worship several gods. ♦ Diwali

Hinduism /'hinduɪz(ə)m/ noun the main religion of India, in which people worship several gods hinge /hɪndʒ/ noun a piece of metal used to hold something, e.g. a door, window or lid, so that it can swing open and shut ○ That hinge squeaks and needs some oil. ○ They lifted the door off its hinges. ■ verb □ to hinge on something to depend on something ○ Everything hinges on her being free on Friday evening.

hinged /hɪndʒd/ adj attached with hinges hint /hɪnt/ noun 1. a hidden suggestion or clue ○ He didn't give a hint as to where he was going on holiday. ○ I don't know what to give her for her birthday – have you any hints? □ to drop a hint to make a suggestion ○ She's been dropping hints about what she wants for her birthday. □ to take a hint to accept a suggestion ○ He took the hint and offered to pay for the lamp he broke. 2. a very small quantity ○ There's just a hint of garlic in the soup. 3. a piece of advice ○ She gave me some useful hints about painting furniture. ■ verb to say something in a way that makes people guess what you mean ○ She hinted that her sister was pregnant. Synonym suggest hinterland /'hɪntəlænd/ noun an area inland from a sea port or around a large town. Synonym vicinity. Antonym heartland hip /hɪp/ noun 1. the part of the body at the top of your thighs ○ The tailor measured him round the hips. 2. the joint where the thigh bone pivots at the top of the leg ■ adj very up-to-date and fashionable (slang) ○ That's a very hip shirt she's wearing.

hip hop /'hɪp hɒp/ noun a kind of popular culture which started among African-Americans and which involves rap and graffiti art hippo /'hɪpəʊ/ noun same as hippopotamus (NOTE: The plural is hippos.)

hip pocket /hip 'pɒkit/ noun a pocket at the back of a pair of trousers hippopotamus /hippə'pɒtəməs/ noun a large heavy African animal which spends most of its time submerged in water, but comes onto dry land to graze (NOTE: The plural is hippopotamuses or hippopotami /hippə'pɒtəməi/.)

hipsters /'hɪptəz/ plural noun trousers which only reach to the hips and not the waist ③ hire /'haɪə/ noun 1. the act of paying money to rent something, e.g. a car, boat or piece of equipment, for a period of time. □ boat or cycle or car hire the practice of lending boats, cycles or cars to people for money 2. □ 'for hire' a sign on a taxi showing it is empty and available for hire ■ verb 1. □ to hire out (of an owner) to allow other people to take something and use it in return for a fee ○ He hires out boats on the river. 2. (of a borrower) to pay money to use something for a time ○ She hired a car for the weekend. ○ He was driving a hired car when the accident happened. 3. to employ someone to work for you ○ We've hired three more sales assistants. ○ They hired a small company to paint their offices.

hire car /'haɪər kə:/ noun a car which has been hired

③ hire purchase /,haɪər 'pɜ:tʃəs/ noun a system of buying something by paying a sum regularly each month. Abbr HP

① his /hɪz, hɪz/ adj belonging to him ○ He's lost all his money. ○ Have you met his mother? ○ Our dog wants his food. ■ pron belonging to him ○ That watch is his, not mine. □ he introduced me to a friend of his he introduced me to one of his friends

③ Hispanic /hi'spænɪk/ adj referring to countries where Spanish is spoken, especially South American countries ○ Hispanic communities in the southern States. ■ noun a person whose native language is Spanish, especially one living in the United States ○ Hispanics form an important community in Florida.

③ hiss /hɪs/ noun 1. a whistling sound like an 's' ○ We could hear the hiss of escaping gas. 2. saying 's' to show you disapprove ○ He left the stage to hisses from the audience. ○ The wicked pirate's appearance was greeted with boos and hisses. (NOTE: The plural is hisses.) ■ verb 1. to make a hissing sound ○ The snake hissed as we came nearer. 2. to show disapproval of someone or something by making an 's' sound ○ The audience began to hiss. ○ She was hissed off the stage.

③ historian /hɪ'stɔ:riən/ noun a person who studies or writes history

③ historic /hɪ'stɔ:rɪk/ adj famous in history (NOTE: can be preceded by an in formal style: It is an historic day for the town.)

② historical /hi'stɔːrik(ə)l/ adj referring to history ○ He likes books of historical interest. Synonym past. Antonym modern historically /hɪ'stɔːrɪkəl/ adv from a historical point of view; as happened in the past ① history /'hɪst(ə)rɪ/ noun 1. the study of the past ○ He is studying Greek history. ○ She failed her history exam. ○ She teaches history at London University. 2. a book which tells the story of what happened in the past ○ He wrote a history of the French Revolution.

① hit /hit/ verb 1. to knock something or someone ○ The car hit the tree. ○ She hit him on the head with a bottle. ○ She hit the ball so hard that we can't find it. ○ I hit my head on the cupboard door. □ to hit the town to go and have a night out (informal) ○ Come on, let's hit the town. 2. to damage someone or something; to affect someone or something badly ○ The company has been hit by the recession. 3. to cause someone to realise something ○ It suddenly hit her that now she was divorced she would have to live alone. □ to hit on an idea to get a good idea ○ We hit on the idea of taking him to a concert as a birthday present. 4. to reach a figure or target ○ Our sales hit a record high last month. ○ New cases of asthma hit two thousand last week. (NOTE: hitting – hit) ■ noun 1. someone or something that is very popular, e.g. a song, film or performer ○ The song rapidly became a hit. ○ The play was a West End hit. ○ She was a hit with the old people's club. 2. a blow or knock ○ Just one more hit on the nail and that will be enough. 3. the action of visiting a site on the Internet ○ How many hits did we have on our website last week?

hit-and-miss /,hit ən 'mɪs/ adj not carefully prepared; not properly planned. Synonym haphazard hit-and-run /,hit ən 'rʌn/ noun an accident in which a driver knocks someone down and does not stop to give help hit-and-run driver /,hit ən 'rʌn 'draɪvə/ noun a driver who knocks someone down and does not stop to give help

② hit back /,hit 'bæk/ verb 1. to hit someone who has hit you ○ The muggers hit him so hard that he collapsed before he could hit them back. 2. to do something as a reaction to something ○ When the supermarket chain lowered their prices, the other chains hit back by lowering prices too. ○ He hit back at the inspectors, saying that their report was biased.

hitch /hitʃ/ noun an unexpected temporary problem ○ There's a hitch, and the wedding has been postponed. □ without a hitch with no trouble or problems ○ The party went off without a hitch. Synonym snag ■ verb 1. □ to hitch something up to pull something up

○ He hitched up his trousers. 2. to attach one thing to another ○ The caravan was hitched to the car.

hitch-hike /'hitʃhaɪk/ verb to stand by the road and signal to passing drivers, showing that you want a free ride to a place hitch-hiker /'hitʃhaɪkə/ noun a person who hitch-hikes hitherto /,hɪðə'tu:/ adv until now (formal) hit list /'hit lɪst/ noun a list of people who deserve to be punished (informal) hit man /'hit mæn/ noun a person employed to kill or to hurt someone. Synonym assassin (NOTE: The plural is hit men.)

hit off /,hit 'ɒf/ verb □ to hit it off with someone to get on well with someone (informal) hit-or-miss /,hit ɔ: 'mɪs/ adj same as hit-and-miss hit out at /,hit 'aut æt/ verb to criticise someone or something fiercely hit squad /'hit skwɒd/ noun a group of gunmen who are ordered to kill people (slang). Synonym task force hitter /'hitə/ noun a person who hits a ball hard when playing a sport such as cricket

HIV /,eɪtʃ' aɪ 'vi:/ noun the virus which causes AIDS. Full form human immunodeficiency virus hive /haɪv/ noun 1. a box for bees to make a nest in, which makes it easier for the beekeeper to gather the honey ○ Take the honeycomb carefully out of the hive. ○ The beekeeper opened one of the hives and took out a honeycomb. 2. □ to be a hive of activity to be a place where people come and go, or where people are very busy ○ The school was a hive of activity on Prize Day. ■ verb □ to hive something off to split off part of a large company to form a smaller company ○ The new managing director hived off the retail sections of the company.

hives /haɪvz/ plural noun a skin disorder which causes white, pink or red patches which itch or sting

HIV positive /,eɪtʃ' aɪ ,vi: 'pozɪtɪv/ adj having the HIV virus

hiya /'haɪə/ interj showing a greeting hm /m/, hmm interj showing a pause while the speaker thinks about something

HM abbr 1. Her Majesty 2. His Majesty

hoard /hɔːd/ noun a store of something, e.g. food or money, which has been collected ○ They discovered a hoard of gold coins in the field. ■ verb to buy and store supplies in case of need ○ Squirrels hoard nuts for the winter. ○ Everyone has started hoarding fuel in case supplies run out. Synonym save. Antonym throw away (NOTE: Do not confuse with horde.)

hoarding /'hɔ:dɪŋ/ noun 1. the act of buying stocks of something, e.g. food or money, in case supply may be difficult 2. a fence made of rough planks, used to close a building site temporarily 3. a large advertising board in a street hoarfrost /'hɔ:frost/ noun a white frost, which covers things hoarse /hɔ:s/ adj (of a voice) which sounds rough (NOTE: Do not confuse with horse.)

hoary /'hɔ:ri/ adj very old □ a hoary old chestnut or joke an old joke that everyone knows hoax /hɔ:ks/ noun a trick played on someone as a joke or to annoy him or her ○ The police and fire brigade arrived but the bomb was just a hoax. ○ The ambulance answered a hoax telephone call. (NOTE: The plural is hoaxes.) □ verb to trick someone as a joke ○ He hoaxed the inhabitants of the village into thinking he was a famous scientist. Synonym deceive hob /hɒb/ noun 1. a flat top on a cooker ○ Our new cooker has a ceramic hob. ○ Do not use abrasive cleaner on the hob. 2. a metal stand by a fire ○ Put the kettle on the hob.

hobble /'hɒb(ə)l/ verb 1. to walk with difficulty ○ He hobbled into the room on crutches. 2. to attach a horse's legs together ○ The horses were hobbled so that they couldn't run away. 3. □ to be hobbled by something to be prevented from doing your job by something ○ Companies cannot expand and are hobbled by government regulations.

③ hobby /'hɒbi/ noun a favourite thing which you do in your spare time. Synonym pastime (NOTE: The plural is hobbies.)

hobo /'həʊbəʊ/ noun US a tramp; a person who wanders from place to place doing odd jobs, but with nowhere permanent to live (NOTE: The plural is hoboes.)

hock /hɒk/ noun 1. the lower part of a pig's leg, used as food ○ We had boiled hock for dinner. 2. any white wine from the Rhine valley in Germany ○ We opened a bottle of hock. 3. □ in hock to someone in debt to or owing money to someone (informal) ○ The company is in hock to the banks. □ verb to pawn something (informal) ○ I was so desperate that I hocked my watch. Synonym pawn hockey /'hɒki/ noun a team game played on grass, where you try to hit a small ball into your opponents' goal using a long stick which is curved at the end ○ He played in the hockey team at school. (NOTE: The US term is field hockey.)

hodgepodge /'hɒdʒpɒdʒ/ noun US a mixture of all sorts of items (NOTE: The British term is hotchpotch.)

hoe /həʊ/ noun a garden tool with a long handle and small sharp blade, used to break up the surface of soil or cut off weeds ○ Use a sharp hoe to remove the weeds between your peas. □ verb to cultivate land with a hoe ○ You must hoe the vegetable patch regularly to keep the weeds down. ○ The gardener was hoeing around the strawberries.

hog /hɒg/ noun 1. a castrated male pig 2. US any pig ○ Hogs are traded on the Chicago exchange. 3. □ to go the whole hog to do something completely (informal) ○ If we're buying two armchairs we might as well go the whole hog and buy a sofa as well. □ verb to monopolise something; to take more of something than you should (informal) ○ He was hogging the middle of the road. ○ Stop hogging the biscuits – we'd like some too! ○ She's always hogging the limelight. Synonym monopolise (NOTE: hogging – hogged)

③ Hogmanay /'hɒgməneɪ/ noun a festival in Scotland on 31 December, celebrating the New Year

hoist /hɔ:st/ noun a device for lifting ○ The firefighter rigged up a hoist to get the dog out of the well. Synonym winch □ verb to lift something up ○ The box was hoisted up on a rope. ○ The defenders hoisted a white flag.

① hold /həʊld/ verb 1. to keep something or someone tight, especially in your hand ○ She was holding the baby in her arms. ○ She held her ticket between her teeth as she was carrying suitcases in both hands. ○ Hold tight – the machine is going to start. ○ He held the bag close to his chest. 2. to contain things or people; to be large enough for something to fit inside ○ The bottle holds two litres. ○ The box will hold four pairs of shoes. ○ Will the car hold eight people? ○ The plane holds 250 passengers. 3. to make something happen ○ They are holding a party for their wedding anniversary. ○ The meeting will be held next Tuesday in the town hall. ○ We are holding the village fete next week. 4. to stay the same ○ Will the fine weather hold until Saturday?

5. to possess something ○ She holds a valid driving licence. ○ He holds the record for the 2000 metres. 6. □ hold the line, please (on the telephone) please wait a moment ○ The chairman is on the other line – will you hold? 7. to keep someone inside ○ The prisoners were held in police cells overnight. □ to hold water to be valid or true ○ His argument doesn't hold water. □ to hold your breath to keep air in your lungs, to go under water, as a test or because you are afraid that something will happen ○ She held her breath under water for a minute. ○ We're all holding our breath to see if he wins a gold medal. 8. to capture and control a place ○ The rebels are holding the airport. ○ Government forces still hold about half the country. (NOTE: holding – held /held/) ■ noun 1. the bottom part of a ship or an aircraft, in which cargo is stored ○ You can't take all that luggage with you, it has to go in the hold. 2. the action of gripping something ○ He lost his hold on the ladder. ○ Keep tight hold of the bag, we don't want it stolen. □ to get hold of someone to find someone you need by telephone ○ I tried to get hold of the doctor but he was out. □ to get hold of something to find something which you want to use ○ Do you know where I can get hold of a ladder? □ to take hold to take control of something ○ The fire took hold rapidly. □ to take hold of something to grip something ○ Take hold of my hand. 3. the action of having a strong influence over someone ○ She has some sort of hold over her husband.

holdall /'houldɔ:l/ noun a soft bag for carrying things such as clothes when travelling ③ hold back /,həuld 'bæk/ verb 1. not to tell someone something ○ She held back important information from the police. 2. not to go forward ○ Most of the crowd held back until they saw it was safe.

③ hold down /,həuld 'daʊn/ verb 1. to keep something at a low level ○ We are holding our prices down. 2. □ to hold down a job to manage to do a difficult job

② holder /'həuldə/ noun 1. something which holds things ○ Put the pen back into its holder. 2. a person who holds something ○ She is a British passport holder or the holder of a British passport. ○ He is the world record holder in the javelin.

③ holding /'həuldɪŋ/ noun an investment owned holding company /'həuldɪŋ ,kʌmp(ə)nɪ/ noun a company which owns shares in other companies

① hold on /,həuld 'ɒn/ verb 1. to hold something tightly ○ She held on to the rope with both hands. ○ Hold on to your purse in the crowd. ○ Hold on tight, we're turning! 2. to wait ○ Hold on a moment, I'll get my umbrella. ○ Do you want to speak to the manager? Hold on, I'll find him for you.

③ hold out /,həuld 'aʊt/ verb 1. to move something towards someone ○ Hold out your plate to be served. ○ He held out his hand but she refused to shake it. 2. to resist against someone or something ○ The castle held out for ten weeks against a huge enemy army.

③ hold out for /,həuld 'aʊt fɔ:/ verb to wait and ask for more hold over /,həuld 'əʊvə/ verb to postpone something. Synonym defer. Antonym bring forward

① hold up /,həuld 'ʌp/ verb 1. to lift or support something or someone ○ He held up his hand. ○ He held the little boy up so that he could see the procession. ○ The roof is held up by those pillars. 2. to make someone or something late ○ The planes were held up by fog. ○ Government red tape is holding up the deal. 3. to attack and rob someone ○ Six gunmen held up the security van.

③ hold-up /'həuld ʌp/ noun 1. a delay; a time when something is later than planned ○ Long hold-ups are expected because of road works on the motorway. ○ There's been a hold-up and the shipment won't arrive till next week. 2. an armed attack ○ The gang carried out three hold-ups in the same day.

① hole /həʊl/ noun an opening or a space in something ○ You've got a hole in your sock. ○ We all peeped through the hole in the fence. ○ Rabbits live in holes in the ground.

hole-in-the-wall /,həʊl ɪn ðə 'wɔ:l/ noun a machine in the outside wall of a bank where customers can get money from their account hole up /,həʊl 'ʌp/ verb to hide from someone (slang)

① holiday /'hɒlɪdeɪ/ noun 1. a period when you do not work, but rest, go away and enjoy yourself ○ When are you taking your holiday or When are you planning to go on holiday? ○ He's going to Spain on holiday. ○ We always spend our holidays in the mountains. ○ How many days' holiday do you have each year? □ the job carries five weeks' holiday one of the conditions of the job is that you have five weeks' holiday each year (NOTE: The US term is vacation.) 2. a day on which no work is done because of laws or religious rules ○ The office is closed for the Christmas holiday.

holidaymaker /'hɒlɪdeɪmeɪkə/ noun a person who is on holiday. Antonym resident holier /'həliər/ □ holy holiness /'həulɪnəs/ noun 1. the state of being holy 2. used as a form of address to the Pope ○ His Holiness, the Pope holistic /həʊ'lɪstɪk/ adj dealing with a medical or social problem as a whole rather than only looking at one aspect of it ○ The committee has been calling for a more holistic approach to learning.

hollandaise sauce /,hɒləndeɪz 'sɔ:s/ noun a sauce for meat, fish or vegetables, made of egg yolks, butter, lemon juice and sometimes vinegar holler /'hɔ:lə/ verb to shout (informal). Antonym whisper hollow /'hɒləʊ/ adj with a hole inside ○ a hollow log ○ If you tap the box it sounds hollow. ■ noun a sunken part on a flat surface ○ They made a hollow in the ground for a camp fire.

hollow out /,hɒləʊ 'əʊt/ verb to remove the inside part of something so as to make it hollow holly /'holi/ noun a small evergreen tree with shiny dark green prickly leaves and bright red berries

Hollywood /'holiwd/ noun a town in California, the centre of the American film industry holocaust /'holəkɔ:st/ noun total destruction, especially by fire or nuclear war ○ A nuclear holocaust would cause unimaginable suffering.

Holocaust /'holəkɔ:st/ noun the mass killing of the Jews during the Second World War (NOTE: always written with the)

hologram /'holəgræm/ noun a three-dimensional picture made using laser beams holster /'həulstə/ noun a leather holder for a revolver

③ holy /'həuli/ adj 1. sacred ○ They went to ask a holy man his advice. 2. □ the Holy See the office of Pope (NOTE: holier – holiest. Do not confuse with wholly.)

Holy Communion /,həuli kə'mju:njən/ noun a Christian ceremony where bread and wine are taken in memory of Christ's Last Supper

Holy Father /,həuli 'fa:ðə/ noun the Pope

Holy Ghost /,həoli 'gəʊst/, Holy Spirit /,həoli 'spɪrɪt/ noun the third member of the Christian Trinity, God in the form of a spirit holy water /,həuli 'wɔ:tə/ noun consecrated water used when baptising babies homage /'hɒmɪdʒ/ noun 1. respect for someone □ to pay homage to someone to show your respect for someone, especially someone who is dead ○ The children paid homage to their teacher who had been killed. ○ The nation observed a minute's silence as a mark of homage to the dead of two world wars. 2. an action or work of art that is made to show respect to someone ○ This song is a homage to my parents.

① home /'həʊm/ noun 1. the place where you live ○ Their home is a flat in the centre of London. ○ Will you be at home tomorrow evening? ○ When do you leave home for work in the morning? □ to make yourself at home to do as if you were in your own home ○ He lay down on my sofa, opened a bottle of beer, and made himself at home. □ to be a home from home to be a comfortable and welcoming place, just like your home ○ The hotel is a real home from home. □ nothing to write home about nothing very exciting or special (informal) ○ His new job is nothing to write home about. 2. an area where you come from ○ She lives in London but her home is the mountains of Wales. ○ His home is in the West Country. 3. a house ○ They are building fifty new homes on the outskirts of the village. 4. a house where people are looked after ○ My aunt has moved to an old people's home. 5. □ at home (in sports) on the local sports ground ○ Our team is playing at home next Saturday. 6. a family or household ○ She comes from a broken home. ■ adv towards the place where you usually live ○ We've got to go home now. ○ He usually gets home by 7 o'clock. ○ Don't send it – I'll take it home with me. ○ If you don't want to walk, you can always take the bus home. (NOTE: used without a preposition: He went home or She's coming home.) ■ adj 1. referring to where you live or where you were born ○ My home town is Birmingham. ○ Send the letter to my home address, not to my office. 2. (in sports) local ○ the home side won ○ Our team beat the home team 3–0. ○ We have a home game next Saturday. 3. in this country; not abroad ○ Home sales were better than exports last month. ○ They find it difficult selling into the home market.

homecoming /'həʊmkʌmɪŋ/ noun the act of coming home home cooking /həʊm 'kʊkɪŋ/ noun the style of food as cooked at home, not in restaurants

Home Counties /həʊm 'kaʊntɪz/ plural noun the area formed of the counties round London (NOTE: always written with the) homegrown /'həʊmgrəʊn/ adj grown in your own garden home help /həʊm 'hɛp/ noun a person who helps an invalid or an elderly person with housework in the home home improvement /həʊm ɪm'pru:vment/ noun a change which you make to your home to make it better home in on /,həʊm 'ɪn ən/ verb to aim at and go towards a target homeland /'həʊmlænd/ noun the home of a people home language /həʊm 'læŋgwɪdʒ/ noun US the language which you first learn to speak as a child homeless adj /'həʊmləs/ with nowhere to live ○ The council has a duty to house homeless families. ■ plural noun □ the homeless people with nowhere to live ○ The homeless sleep in parks or doorways.

homely /'həʊmli/ adj 1. simple but pleasant ○ The accommodation was homely and unpretentious. ○ The pub serves good homely food. 2. US (of a person) plain and not very attractive ○ She's a homely girl.

homemade /,həʊm'meɪd/ adj made at home and not bought

Home Office /'həʊm ,ɒfɪs/ noun the British Government department dealing with internal matters, such as the police and prisons (NOTE: The department is run by the Home Secretary. In other countries this department is usually called the Ministry of the Interior; in the USA it is called the Department of the Interior.)

homeopath /'həʊmɪəpæθ/ noun a person who practises homeopathy homeopathic /,həʊmɪə'pæθɪk/ adj referring to homeopathy homeopathy /,həʊmɪ'ɒpəθi/ noun a treatment which involves giving very small amounts of a substance which would give a healthy person the symptoms of the condition being treated homeowner /'həʊməʊnər/ noun a person who owns a flat or house

③ home page /'həʊm peɪdʒ/ noun the first page of a website, which gives details of the person or organisation that the website belongs to home plate /'həʊm pleɪt/ noun in baseball, the base where the batter stands to hit the ball home rule /'həʊm ru:l/ noun a system of government in which a country is ruled by itself rather than by another country home run /'həʊm rʌn/ noun in baseball, a score made when a batter manages to touch all three bases and return to the home plate without stopping

Home Secretary /,həʊm 'sɛkrətə(r)əri/ noun the British government minister in charge of the Home Office (NOTE: In other countries, this minister is usually called the Minister of the Interior. In the USA, he is the Secretary of the Interior.)

homesick /'həʊmsɪk/ adj feeling sad because you are away from home homesickness /'həʊmsɪkñəs/ noun a feeling of being homesick homestead /'həʊmstɛd/ noun a farmhouse and land. Synonym farm home straight /'həʊm 'streɪt/ noun 1. (on a racetrack) the last straight part of the track before the finish ○ The runners are coming into the home straight. 2. the last part of a project, when it is almost finished ○ Cheer up, we're in the home straight now!

home town /'həʊm 'taʊn/ noun the town where you live or where you were born home truths /'həʊm 'tru:ðz/ plural noun unpleasant facts about someone, which someone else tells him or her ○ I had to tell her a few home truths.

homeward /'həʊmwəd/ adj towards home ○ The homeward trip always seems shorter.

■ adv □ to be homeward bound heading towards your home ○ After many delays we were homeward bound at last.

homewards /'həʊmwədз/ adv towards home (NOTE: The US term is homeward.)

② homework /'həʊmwɜ:k/ noun work which you take home from school to do in the evening ○ Have you finished your maths homework? ○ I haven't got any homework today, so I can watch TV. (NOTE: no plural) homeworker /'həʊmwɜ:kə/ noun a person who works at home for a company homicidal /,hɒmɪ'lɔ:sɪdəl/ adj likely to kill someone. Synonym murderous. Antonym harmless homicide /'hɒmɪsaɪd/ noun murder; the killing of someone. Synonym killing homing device /'həʊmɪŋ di'veɪs/ noun a device on a missile which guides it to the target homing pigeon /'həʊmɪŋ 'pɪdʒɪn/ noun a pigeon trained to return to the place where it usually lives hominy /'həʊmɪni/ noun US cooked maize seeds homogeneous /,həʊməs'ɒdʒi:nɪəs/ adj all of the same type homogenisation /hə,mɒdʒənə'seɪz(ə)n/, homogenization noun a treatment of milk so that the cream does not separate homogenised milk /hə,mɒdʒənaɪzd 'mɪlk/ noun milk which has been treated so that the cream is evenly mixed through the liquid homograph /'həʊməʊgræ:f/ noun a word which is spelt the same as another, but which has a different meaning or pronunciation homonym /'həʊmənɪm/ noun a word spelt and pronounced the same as another but which has a different meaning homophobia /,həʊməʊ'fəʊbiə/ noun a fear of and hostility towards homosexuals homophobic /,həʊməʊ'fəʊbɪk/ adj showing fear of and hostility towards homosexuals homophone /'həʊməfəʊn/ noun a word which is pronounced the same as another, but which is spelt differently or has a different meaning homosexual /,həʊməʊ'sekʃuəl/ noun, adj (a person) who is attracted to people of the same sex homosexuality /,həʊməʊsɛkʃu'ælɪti/ noun the fact of being homosexual

Hon abbr Honourable

hone /həʊn/ verb 1. to sharpen and smooth something ○ Each arrowhead had been honed to a fine point. 2. to improve something over a long period ○ His technique has been honed through years of practice.

① honest /'ɒnɪst/ adj 1. not telling lies and treating people fairly ○ I wouldn't buy a car from that garage – I'm not sure they're completely honest. 2. truthful ○ He was honest with the police and told them what he had done.

② honestly /'ɒnɪstli/ adv 1. in an open and honest way 2. used to express a feeling of being annoyed ○ Honestly, you might have told me sooner!

honesty /'ɒnɪsti/ noun 1. truthfulness ○ I admire him for his honesty in saying the job was too difficult for him. □ in all honesty speaking truthfully ○ In all honesty I don't think we'll be able to finish the job on time. 2. a garden plant with purple flowers, and silver seed cases, used as winter decoration

③ honey /'həni/ noun 1. a sweet substance produced by bees ○ I like honey on toast. ○ Greek cakes are often made with honey. 2. a name used for a person you love ○ Hey, honey, come and look at this! ○ Honey, don't get mad at me!

honeycomb /'hʌnɪkəʊm/ noun wax cells inside a beehive that contain honey

③ honeymoon /'hənɪmuːn/ noun 1. a holiday taken immediately after a wedding ○ They went on honeymoon to Corsica. 2. a period after an election when the new government is popular ○ The president's honeymoon period has come to an end. ■ verb to go on a honeymoon ○ They plan to honeymoon in Florida.

honeysuckle /'hənɪsʌk(ə)l/ noun a climbing plant with scented white, pink, yellow or cream flowers honk /hɒŋk/ noun the noise made by a goose or by a car horn. Synonym hoot ■ verb to make a noise like a goose or with a car horn ○ Geese flew overhead, honking loudly. ○ He honked as he drove past.

honorary /'ɒnərəri/ adj 1. not paid a salary ○ She's the honorary secretary of the society. 2. a title which shows respect ○ He's the honorary president of the company.

③ honour /'ɒnər/ noun 1. the practice of acting according to what you think is right ○ He's a man of honour. 2. a sign of respect ○ It is an honour for me to be invited here today. 3. □ Your Honour a way of addressing a judge ■ verb 1. to respect or pay respect to someone ○ to honour the dead 2. to give someone an award as a mark of respect ○ He was honoured by the university. 3. to do what you promised ○ He honoured the agreement and gave the staff a pay rise. 4. □ to honour a cheque (of a bank) to pay the sum written on the cheque (NOTE: [all senses] The US spelling is honor.)

honourable /'ɒn(ə)rəb(ə)l/ adj 1. who or which can be respected ○ He lived the rest of his life in honourable retirement. ○ He did the honourable thing and resigned. (NOTE: The US spelling is honorable.) 2. a title used when one MP addresses another in Parliament ○ The honourable Member for Putney would do well to remember the conditions in his constituency. (NOTE: usually shortened to Hon. in this meaning) honourably /'ɒnərəbli/ adv in a way which you can respect (NOTE: The US spelling is honorably.)

honoured /'ɒnəd/ adj pleased and proud (NOTE: The US spelling is honored.)

honours degree /'ɒnəz di,grɪ:/ noun a university degree, showing a high level of study. Abbr Hons

Hons abbr honours degree hood /hud/ noun 1. a loose piece of clothing to cover your head ○ He has a blue anorak with a hood. 2. a folding roof on something, e.g. a car or pram ○ Let's put down the hood, it's very hot. 3. US a metal cover for the front part of a car, covering the engine ○ He lifted the hood to see what was wrong with the motor. (NOTE: The British term is bonnet.)

hooded /'hodɪd/ adj wearing a hood hoodlum /'hu:dʌləm/ noun a violent gangster. Synonym gangster hoodwink /'hodwɪŋk/ verb to trick someone hoof /hu:f/ noun the horny part of the foot of a horse, cow and many other animals (NOTE: The plural is hooves.) ■ verb □ to hoof it to walk (informal) ○ I am afraid we'll just have to hoof it back to the camp site.

hoo-ha /'hu: ha:/ noun a fuss or bother about something which is not very important (informal) hooked /hɒkt/ adj 1. shaped like a hook ○ He had dark eyes and a hooked nose. 2. □ hooked on something very fond of something (informal) ○ He's hooked on science fiction.

③ hook /hʊk/ noun 1. a bent piece of metal for hanging things on ○ Hang your coat on the hook behind the door. 2. a very small piece of bent metal, attached to a line for catching fish ○ The fish ate the worm but didn't swallow the hook. □ to get someone off the hook to get someone out of a difficult situation ○ She got him off the hook by lying to his boss. 3. (in boxing or cricket) a blow or stroke made with your arm bent ■ verb 1. to hang something on a hook or attach something with a hook ○ She hooked the curtains back to let in more light. 2. (in cricket) to hit the ball with your arm bent ○ He hooked the next ball over the heads of the fielders.

hooker /'hʊkə/ noun 1. a player in the centre of a rugby scrum, who has to try to kick the ball backwards ○ The English hooker got the ball and from there they scored a try. 2. a prostitute; a woman who receives money for sexual intercourse ○ hookers standing on street corners hooky /'hʊki/ noun (informal) □ to play hooky US not to go to school ○ They didn't go to school, but played hooky and went fishing instead.

hooligan /'hu:lɪgən/ noun a wild young man (informal). Synonym criminal hooliganism /'hu:lɪgənɪz(ə)m/ noun violent behaviour hoop /hu:p/ noun a ring, often a large one (NOTE: Do not confuse with whoop.) hooray! /'ho'reɪ/ interj showing enthusiasm

○ Hooray, it's the first day of the holidays! ○ Hip, hip, hooray!

hoot /hu:t/ noun 1. a call made by an owl ○ the ghostly hoot of the owl in the night ○ hoots of laughter loud laughter ○ His imitation of Elvis provoked hoots of laughter.

2. the sound of a car horn ○ The sudden hoot of a car horn made her jump.

3. □ not to care a hoot or not to give a hoot about something not to worry about something at all (informal) ○ I don't care a hoot about the meeting

– I'm staying in to watch TV. ■ verb 1. (of an owl) to make a loud cry ○ An owl hooted in the distance.

□ to hoot with laughter to laugh wildly ○ He had the audience hooting with laughter.

2. to sound a car horn ○ He hooted at the sheep to get them to move.

hooter /'hu:tə/ noun a device which makes a loud warning noise

Hoover /'hu:və/ trademark a type of vacuum cleaner ○ We need a bigger Hoover – this one isn't powerful enough. ■ verb to clean something such as a carpet with a vacuum cleaner ○ She was hoovering the dining-room.

hooves /hu:vz/ □ hoof

① hop /hop/ verb 1. to jump on one leg ○ He hurt his toe and had to hop around on one foot.

□ to be hopping mad very angry (informal) ○ He was hopping mad when they told him his car had been stolen.

2. (of a bird or animals) to jump with both feet together ○ Magpies were hopping across the grass.

○ The frog hopped onto the lily pad. □ hop it! go away! (informal)

3. □ to hop in to get in (informal) ○ I stopped the car and told him to hop in.

□ to hop on or off to get on or off ○ With the old London buses, you can hop on and off anywhere along the street, although it can be dangerous.

(NOTE: hopping – hopped) ■ noun 1. a little jump ○ Magpies walk in a series of little hops. □ to catch someone on the hop to catch someone unexpectedly (informal)

2. a short flight ○ It's only a short hop from London to Paris.

3. the bitter dead flower of a climbing plant, used in making beer ○ Hops are used to give the bitter flavour to British beer.

① hope /ho:p/ verb 1. to want and expect something to happen ○ We all hope our team wins.

○ She's hoping she will soon be able to drive a car. ○ I hope it doesn't rain. □ I hope so I want it to happen ○ Are you coming to the party? – Yes, I hope so. □ I hope not I don't want it to happen ○ It's going to rain tomorrow, isn't it? – I hope not! □ to hope for something to want something to happen ○ We are hoping for a change in the weather, it's rained every day this week so far. 2. to expect to do something ○ The chairman hopes to be at the meeting tomorrow. ○ They said they hoped to be back home by 6 o'clock. ○ I had hoped to go to the party but in the end I couldn't. ■ noun the fact of wanting and expecting something to happen ○ Our only hope is that she will get better soon. ○ They have given up all hope of rescuing any more earthquake victims. □ in the hope that something happens wanting something to happen ○ I rang in the hope that you might have a table free for tonight.

hoped-for /'həʊpt fɔ:/ adj needed and expected

② hopeful /'həʊpf(ə)l/ adj confident that something will happen ○ We are hopeful that the company will accept our offer. ■ noun a person who hopes to get something, e.g. a job or a place in a team ○ We are looking at six young hopefuls for the England team.

① hopefully /'həʊpf(ə)li/ adv 1. confidently ○ He looked hopefully at the list of lottery winners. 2. let us hope ○ Hopefully, the rain will stop in time for the picnic.

② hopeless /'həʊpləs/ adj 1. with no hope ○ The invoices are in a hopeless mess. □ to be a hopeless case to be unlikely to get any better 2. no good ○ She's hopeless at tennis. ○ He's hopeless when it comes to mending cars.

hopelessly adv /'həʊpləsli/ with no hope ○ We got hopelessly lost looking for the British Museum. ■ adj very much ○ The company is hopelessly in debt.

hopper /'hɒpə/ noun a large funnel for channelling something, e.g. flour or sand horde /hɔ:d/ noun a large crowd. Synonym throng (NOTE: Do not confuse with hoard.)

③ horizon /ha'raɪz(ə)n/ noun the line where the earth and the sky meet. Synonym skyline horizons /ha'raɪz(ə)nz/ plural noun □ to broaden someone's horizons to increase someone's range of interests and experiences ○ Travel broadens your horizons

③ horizontal /,hɔrɪ'zɒnt(ə)l/ adj flat; level with the ground. Antonym vertical horizontally /,hɔrɪ'zɒnt(ə)li/ adv lying flat hormonal /hɔ:'mæn(ə)l/ adj referring to hormones hormone /'hɔ:mæn/ noun a substance produced by glands in the body and carried to other parts of the body by the bloodstream to stimulate certain cells into action hormone replacement therapy

/hɔːmən ri'pleɪsmənt θerəpi/ noun a treatment to relieve the symptoms of the menopause by supplying oestrogen and thus reducing the risk of osteoporosis. Abbr HRT

③ horn /hɔ:n/ noun 1. a sharp pointed bone growing out of an animal's head ○ That bull's horns look very dangerous. 2. a warning device on a car □ to sound a horn to make a warning noise with a horn ○ Sound your horn when you come to the corner. 3. a metal musical instrument which is blown into to make a note ○ a concerto for horn and orchestra hornet /'hɔ:nɪt/ noun a large reddish-brown wasp horny /'hɔ:ni/ adj hard, like horn (informal) horoscope /'hɔ:rəskəʊp/ noun a forecast of what will happen, according to the stars horrendous /hɔ'rɛndəs/ adj horrible and unpleasant

② horrible /'hɔ:rɪb(ə)l/ adj awful or terrible

○ The victims of the fire had horrible injuries. ○ He's a horrible little boy. ○ We had a horrible meal at the restaurant. Synonym unpleasant. Antonym pleasant horribly /'hɔ:rbli/ adv very badly horrid /'hɔ:rid/ adj bad and unpleasant

③ horrific /hɔ'rɪfɪk/ adj which makes you shocked. Synonym appalling. Antonym wonderful

③ horrified /'hɔ:rɪfaɪd/ adj frightened or shocked horrify /'hɔ:rɪfaɪ/ verb to frighten or shock someone horrifying /'hɔ:rɪfaɪɪŋ/ adj frightening or shocking

③ horror /'hɔ:rə/ noun 1. the fact of feeling of being very frightened ○ He couldn't hide his horror at hearing the news. ○ She has a horror of spiders. ○ Everyone watched in horror as the planes collided. 2. a naughty child ○ That boy is a little horror!

horror film /'hɔ:rə film/, horror movie /'hɔ:rə ,mu:vi/ noun a frightening film, with ghosts, dead bodies, etc.

horror-stricken /'hɔ:rə ,strɪkən/, horror-struck /'hɔ:rə strʌk/ adj very frightened

① horse /hɔ:s/ noun a large animal used for riding or for pulling vehicles ○ She was riding a black horse. ○ The coach was pulled by six white horses. ○ He's out on his horse every morning. □ straight from the horse's mouth from a very reliable source (informal) ○ It's straight from the horse's mouth – the manager told me so himself. ♦ look horse around /hɔ:s ə'raʊnd/, horse about /hɔ:s ə'baʊt/ verb to play roughly horseback /hɔ:sbæk/ noun □ on horseback riding on a horse ○ There were ten po- lice officers on horseback outside the football ground.

horse chestnut /hɔ:s 'tʃesnət/ noun 1. a tree with large leaves and upright white or pink flowers that produces large shiny brown seeds 2. a large shiny brown nut from a horse chestnut tree which is not edible. Also called conker horse-drawn /'hɔ:sdrɔ:n/ adj pulled by a horse horsepower /'hɔ:spaʊə/ noun a unit for measuring the power of a motor engine horse-racing /'hɔ:s'reɪsɪŋ/ noun the sport of racing horses and betting on the result horseradish /'hɔ:s'rædɪʃ/ noun a plant with a large root which is grated to make a sharp sauce horse-riding /'hɔ:sraɪdɪŋ/ noun the practice of riding horses for pleasure horseshoe /'hɔ:sʃu:/ noun an iron shoe nailed to the hard part of a horse's hoof, also used as a sign of luck horticultural /,hɔ:tɪ'kɔltʃərəl/ adj referring to horticulture. Synonym gardening horticulture /'hɔ:tɪk'kʌltʃə/ noun the practice of growing fruit, flowers and vegetables for food or decoration. Synonym gardening hose /həʊz/ noun 1. a long flexible tube, either rubber or plastic ○ There is a ban on using garden hoses during the summer. ○ The firefighters turned their hoses on the burning building. 2. stockings □ verb □ to hose something (down) to wash something with water from a hose ○ The sailors were hosing down the decks.

hosepipe /'həʊzpaɪp/ noun a long hose hosepipe ban /'həʊzpaɪp bæn/ noun a ban on using hosepipes and sprinklers to water your garden hosier /'həʊzɪər/ noun (in a shop) stockings, socks and tights hospice /'hɔ:spɪs/ noun a hospital which cares for terminally ill patients hospitable /hɔ'spɪtəb(ə)l/ adj welcoming and friendly to guests. Synonym welcoming. Antonym uninviting hospitably /hɔ'spɪtəbli/ adv in a welcoming way

① hospital /'hɔ:spɪt(ə)l/ noun a place where sick or hurt people are looked after ○ She was taken ill at work and sent to hospital. ○ When is she due to go into hospital? ○ He was in hospital for several days after the accident.

hospitalisation /,hɔ:spɪt(ə)lɪ'zeɪʃ(ə)n/, hospitalization noun the act of sending someone to hospital hospitalise /'hɔ:spɪt(ə)laɪz/, hospitalize verb to put someone in hospital

③ hospitality /,hɔ:spɪ'tælɪtɪ/ noun a welcome to guests

③ host /həʊst/ noun 1. a person who has invited guests ○ The host asked his guests what they wanted to drink. 2. the landlord of a hotel or inn, also sometimes of a restaurant ○ the host of the 'King's Head' 3. the person who introduces and talks to the guests on a TV or radio show ○ He was a chat show host on Saturday evening TV. 4. a person or animal that parasites live on 5. □ a host of a large number of ○ We face a host of problems. ■ verb 1. to act as host at a party ○ The company hosted a reception for two hundred guests. ○ She hosted a party for the visiting diplomats. 2. to be the centre where something takes place ○ Barcelona hosted the Olympic Games. 3. to organise and manage websites for other people hostage /'hɒstɪdʒ/ noun a person who is captured and held by someone or an organisation, which threatens to kill him or her unless certain demands are met. Synonym captive hostel /'hɒst(ə)l/ noun a cheap place where people can live hostelry /'hɒst(ə)lri/ noun an inn (humorous or old) (NOTE: The plural is hostelries.)

hostess /'həʊstɪs/ noun a woman who has invited guests (NOTE: The plural is hostesses.)

hostile /'hɒstɪl/ adj 1. referring to an enemy ○ Hostile forces are moving towards the airport. 2. showing a dislike of someone ○ The crowd seemed hostile, so the President decided not to go on his planned walkabout.

□ hostile questioning asking questions which attack the person being asked hostilities /'hɒstɪlɪz/ plural noun war

③ hostility /'hɒstɪlɪtɪ/ noun opposition ○ The board's hostility towards the plan. (NOTE: no plural)

① hot /hɒt/ adj 1. very warm; with a high temperature ○ The weather is very hot in June, but August is the hottest month. ○ If you're too hot, take your coat off. ○ Plates should be kept hot before serving the meal. ▶ heat 2. (of food) very highly spiced ○ This curry is particularly hot. ○ He chose the hottest dish on the menu. Antonym mild 3. □ to make things hot for someone to make difficulties for someone (informal) □ to be hot and bothered to be annoyed and nervous about something □ to sell like hot cakes to sell very fast (informal) ○ This new toy is selling like hot cakes. □ to get into hot water to get into trouble ○ He got into hot water with the local authority after he built a garage without permission. □ in the hot seat having to take decisions ○ I pity the club treasurer – he's really in the hot seat. 4. vigorous and energetic □ in hot pursuit chasing someone actively ○ The rebels retreated into the mountains with the government forces in hot pursuit. ▶ hotly (NOTE: hotter – hottest) hot air /hɒt 'eə/ noun useless talk (informal). Synonym nonsense hot-air balloon /hɒt 'eə bəlu:n/ noun a very large balloon which rises into the air as the air inside it is heated, with people travelling in a basket attached underneath hotbed /'hɒtbed/ noun a place where a lot of some activity takes place ○ a hotbed of crime hot-blooded /'hɒt 'blədɪd/ adj with a violent temper; easily excited. Synonym passionate. Antonym cold-blooded hot chocolate /hɒt 'tʃɒkətl/ noun a drink made from chocolate powder and hot milk hotchpotch /'hɒtʃpɒtʃ/ noun a mixture of all sorts of items (NOTE: The US term is hodgepodge) hot cross bun /hɒt kros 'bʌn/ noun a small spicy cake with a cross on it, eaten at Easter

③ hot dog /hɒt 'dɒg/ noun a snack made of a hot frankfurter sausage eaten in a roll of bread

